

Fruits And Vegetables

Good Buy This Week

Where to go, to buy what, can always be a problem for the mother, housewife husband or father who does the food shopping.

Some of the best buys at this time of the year can be found in the produce departments of stores as vegetables and fruit ripen and are harvested in larger quantities in more northerly locations.

At Winn Dixie, fresh large U.S. No. 1 peaches are now four lbs. for $1.00. For lemonade they have fresh fancy juice lemons, an 11 pak for 88 cents, while two pounds of fresh vine ripe tomatoes are also 88 cents. Then there are seedless white grapes at two pounds for a dollar and large avocados at two for a dollar — it takes a large hand to hold one.

In the WD meat section heavy western grain fed sirloin or t-bone steak is $1.99 a pound or if you prefer there's a 15 pound package of custom cut T-bone steaks for $28.99. Perhaps you would rather have a U.S. choice 45 to 60 lb. whole beef loin at $1.59 a pound, this can be cut into sirloin and T-bone steaks plus the bones and fat. Grade A whole frozen fryers are 49 cents a lb. with grade A large eggs at two dozen for $1.00.

Drinks are plentiful at WD with 100 per cent pure Florida concentrate orange juice with six 4 oz. cans at a dollar, all varieties of chek drinks are eight 12 oz. cans for $1.00. Six paks of 12 oz. Old Milwaukee are $1.18 or Fisher's at $1.08. In the grocery department its Astor shortening, a three lb. can at 99 cents and Astor coffee two lbs at $1.39. If you're going to bake there Thirty Maid flour, plain or self rising with a 10 lb. bag at 99 cents. With 99 cents you can buy five lbs. of TM long grain rice or 100 Astor or Telly tea-bags.

At the other end of town Pantry Pride is stocked with ripe tomatoes — a tray of five for 29 cents. To go with the fresh vegetables and salad greens Mariott 1000 island dressing is three 7 1/2 oz. jars for $1.00.

For breakfast or at anytime PP offers large luscious western cantaloupes two for 85 cents with El Dorado sweet red plums at 39 cents a pound.

In the meat department fresh grade A fryer quarters are 64 cents per lb. Fresh ground beef chuck is $1.18 per lb., while fresh ground beef is 85 cents a lb. For breakfast or a bacon, lettuce and tomato sandwich there is faye taste sliced bacon at $1.38 per lb.

Banquet frozen cream pies for 49 cents come in four flavors, while PP low fat power 99 milk is $1.49 per gallon. A five lb. can of fully cooked Mohawk ham is $6.89 and PP will slice any size canned ham at no extra charge.

In the grocery department fruit and honey fruit cocktail is listed at three 16 oz. cans at $1.00 while a 6 1/2 oz. can of blue sea light tuna goes at 38 cents. While you're enjoying a bit of Busch Bavarian from a 12 oz. six pak at $1.25 PP liquid bleach at 49 cents per gallon, can be removing stains from the laundry. For any meal PP offers four 20 oz. king size leaves of bread for 99 cents and the day can end with brushing your teeth with Peak tooth paste with baking soda at 64 cents for a 2.7 oz. tube.

IF YOU ENJOY it and have the time you can stand in long lines this year to get your new automobile license tag sticker. While waiting for the line to move it probably will be hot and sticky, it may rain and most likely there will be gnats buzzing around your eyes and ears. Jimmy Whitehouse, tag official says tag stickers sales are far behind those of last year. Photo—Miller.

Jimmy Whitehouse Predicts

Longer Lines To Get License Tag Stickers

"More people will have to wait in longer lines this year," stated Jimmy Whitehouse, Highlands County Supervisor of Registration, "because over half of the time for buying license tag stickers is gone with only one fourth of the license tag stickers sold."

There will not be an extension to the August 20 deadline for the use of the old license tags without the new tag sticker in the upper right hand corner," cautioned Whitehouse. The minimum fine for driving without the new license tag sticker is $75 with a maximum of $500 and/or 60 days in jail. According to Judge Mark Richardson of the Highlands County court.

Normally Highlands County issues 40,000 license tags but this year only about 10,000 have been purchased by car owners and Whitehouse believes that the slow movement of tag stickers is partly because people are accustomed to seeing the new large tags while the small sticker is not readily visible.

Whitehouse also stated that this year tag owners will need to give the year of their birth before they can receive their tag sticker. On jointly owned cars the year of birth used will be the one of the first person named on the registration.

Car owners with out-of-the-county license plates can get Highlands County plates by coming to the tag agency in Sebring. There is no extra charge for this exchange for Highlands County plates.

"Urging car owners to get their new license tag stickers," Whitehouse said, "there will be more people in lines this year and that standing in line could be hot, with the chance of rain and always the possibility of gnats getting in one's eyes, ears, nose and mouth. So get your tag sticker soon."

City Loses Case On Marijuana Party' Raid

By NORMA GOBBLE

"I have no choice but to find for the defense," Lake Placid Attorney Andy Jackson substitute municipal judge for the Avon Park Municipal Court, said Thursday in handing down the pronouncement of "not guilty" in the misdemeanor marijuana possession charge against Charles Henry Lanier, 26, of Avon Park.

Lanier, represented by Avon Park Attorney S. C. Pardee, entered a not guilty plea to the charges growing out of an early morning raid on his residence at 421 W. Cornell on June 29.

According to officials conducting the raid shortly after midnight the morning of June 29, residents around the West Cornell address for as much as a block away had complained to police and city officials of nightly loud parties with 20 to 30 cars congregated around the area for a week before the raid.

Search warrants were obtained on Saturday and when the noise became loud enough to be heard more than a block away, police officers, led by Patrolman Frank Weems and accompanied by Mayor Marshall Davis, moved in on the house at 421 W. Cornell.

Smoke was so thick in the rooms where 30 people, many of them minors, were gathered "that I had to stand in the open doorway because it made me dizzy," said one of the participants in the raid.

While no marijuana was taken from the person of Lanier, a quantity of marijuana seeds was taken from a canister on the kitchen cabinet. Marijuana was taken from two others in the house. More was taken from the car of one of those arrested.

Besides Lanier, three others were arrested. Two of those, Edward Earl Reck, 25, of 1781

Golfview Dr., Avon Park, and William Pervis "Turkey" Thomas, 29, who lived on West Campbell, were charged with felony possession of marijuana and turned over to Highlands County authorities.

No date had been set for a Circuit Court hearing on those two as of Monday. Reck is free under a $25,000 bond and Thomas is free under $5,000 bond.

The other man arrested in the raid, William Daniel Richards, 24, of 1027 W. Cornell, was charged with misdemeanor marijuana possession. Richards pled no contest and placed himself on the mercy of the court in Municipal Court Thursday and Jackson withheld adjudication but placed Richards on a one-year probation. Richards was not represented by counsel and one of the 26 persons released without charge, several were minors and it is not clear why charges of contributing to the delinquency of minors were not placed against the adults.

Officers conducting the raids told those present that if they were caught in those circumstances again they would be booked, according to one observer. One teenage girl reportedly became hysterical begging officers not to notify her parents.

Weems presented the case before the court for the city. City Attorney Jack Hancock said he was not contacted regarding the case but that he would represent the city in any case if contacted. Weems' testimony could not be entered because of his acting as prosecutor.

Police Chief Grady Campbell said that any similar case from now on would be turned over to the city attorney.

The "not guilty" pronouncement for Lanier came on a technicality in which Lanier's name was not on the laboratory report on the controlled substance which was sent back from the police lab at Sanford. The marijuana itself had not been sent back from the lab. Pardee objected on that basis.

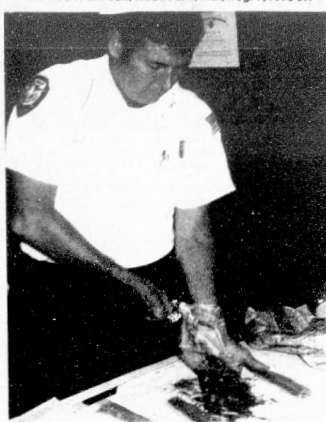

The city attorney could probably have spotted the weak points in the city's case against the defendant.

Municipal Judge David Lanier disqualified himself to hear the case against Lanier and Richards. The City Council appointed Jackson as substitute.

Lanier has pleaded no contest to a felony marijuana possession charge in Circuit Court and a pre-sentence investigation is being conducted. No date has been set for the sentencing pending the investigation.

Meanwhile several neighbors, some as far as a block away, say the noisy parties at 421 W. Cornell continue intermittently, according to a spot survey made Monday by a SUN reporter.

Applications Accepted For Fall Term At SFJC

South Florida Junior College is accepting applications for admission to the 1975 Fall Term. Prospective first-time students are urged to submit their applications now in order to save time when they come to register. Early filing permits the Admissions Office personnel to prepare the student file prior to registration which greatly reduces the time it takes to register.

Anyone who has ever taken a college level course at SFJC has already filed an application for admission and does not have to file a new one. Once a person files application for admission he may enroll at the College — either as a full-time or part-time student — during registration for any term, even though he may never have attended SFJC or may not have attended for several years.

There will be a full complement of college transfer courses offered during the fall term. There are 84 day classes scheduled and 20 will be offered in the evening. Also, off-campus courses will be offered in Wauchula and Arcadia. Persons may attend either on a full-time or part-time basis and may take any course for credit or for audit. Applications and fall schedules may be obtained from the Admissions Office at South Florida Junior College or by calling 433-6661 in Avon Park.

Seigny Shows Film On Eyesight

Rotary program chairman Steve Roberts presented Dr. Ronald O. Seigny, Ophthalmologist, one of the Rotary Club's newest members for a classification talk on eyesight. Ron showed a film titled "The Miracle of Sight" which explained in detail the functioning of the eye, how it is composed and what might go wrong with it. The film also explained distortion of vision and what causes it and sometimes see something we don't. It told us that a "roving eye" is not considered a disease.

He explained that most people seem to think that glaucoma is an extremely painful disease and he will often have patients come to his office with red or burning eyes which have been irritated and they are sure they are suffering from this disease. In reality glaucoma is symptomless — a silent sneaky development that can blind a person before they are aware that anything has happened. For this reason a person should have his or her eyes tested at least once every two years and more often than that as they pass forty years of age.

Another popular misconception relates to cataracts. Ron explained that this is not so much a disease — really not a disease at all — but the result of aging and for that reason all of us sooner or later will have them on both eyes if we live long enough. Just as some people have their hair turn grey much sooner than others, cataracts develop much faster on some people than on others but in time, as the aging process takes place, we can all count on cataracts.

Ron praised one of our fellow service clubs — the Lions — for their Eye Bank program. He urged any of us who might be interested in contributing our eyes to this program to contact either himself, Buddy McKenzie who is chairman of the Lions Club committee or Dr. Tony Chen's office. We will receive the necessary information on how and where to donate to the Eye Bank.

Next week's program will be a bit "windy" as August program chairman Chuck Watson will be bringing a film on hurricanes and how best to prepare for them.

Lutheran Church Not Sacred To Thieves

Is no place sacred to thieves? It would seem that way with the theft at the Avon Park Police Department that two brass altar vases were stolen from Resurrection Lutheran Church, East Main and Highlands Avenue.

The theft was reported to police at 2 p.m. Tuesday by Rev. Elmer J. Gregg, pastor of the church. Value of the two vases was placed at $125.

Seminar Held On Changes In Juveniles Laws

A special seminar on changes in laws relating to juveniles was held in the courtroom at Highlands County courthouse Tuesday.

Dual programs for law enforcement personnel were held 10 a.m. to noon and 2 to 4 p.m. under the direction of John Paschal, a member of the Division of Youth Services district staff out of Sarasota.

The recent session of the Florida Legislature made changes in the law relating to juvenile offenders. William L. Peoples of DYS said one of the most striking changes is the shifting of youth in need of supervision from DYS to the Protective Services section of Division of Family Services.

In this change the term "child in need of supervision" is stricken from the law and in its place the term "incorrigible" is being used.

Peoples said this is only one of the changes law enforcement personnel at every level need to understand.

A portion of the seminar Tuesday was devoted to explanations of the reorganization of the divisions within the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

The department is now divided into districts and virtually complete control vested at district level. Highlands is part of a 10-county district to have its headquarters at Sarasota.

In the sub-districting Highlands and Hardee are to be linked with Polk, making the new alignment for DYS the same as the grouping for the 10th district of the judicial circuit.

Top administrative personnel for the district and the sub-district have not been appointed.

Bartlett Sentenced For Murder Of 20 Month Old Child

The court ordered, waited, requested and pleaded, in order to obtain a psychiatric report on which the sentencing of a child's murderer hinged.

For 20 months court officers tried to coax the report out of psychiatrists at Community Mental Health Center at Winter Haven. The report when it finally came, resulted in a prison sentence for James Bartlett, 22.

Bartlett had been arrested in Sebring in February 1973 and charged with the slaying of William Aloysius Coulbourn, 20 months old son of Mrs. Sue Coulbourn of Sebring. Mr. Coulbourn lives in California.

The infant was found lying on his back, semi-conscious, suffering from injuries to his abdomen, bruises, abrasions and contusions. Three hours later the child died.

Bartlett, who had been babysitting with the baby, was charged with manslaughter. On March 6, 1973 he went free on $5,000 bond.

A few weeks later Bartlett and a court-appointed lawyer appeared before Circuit Judge Thomas Langston and entered a nolo contendere plea. Judge Langston ordered a psychiatric evaluation and presentence investigation.

An appointment was set up at Winter Haven's Community Mental Health Center for April 26, 1973, and the examination was made. The names of Dr. H. Dean Shull and Dr. Rose Zidell appeared on the examination order.

Gordon MacCalla, then an officer with Florida Parole and Probation Commission, had been assigned to make the presentence investigation. MacCalla left the commission staff before the Bartlett case was disposed of this summer, but his supervisor, Ed LaVoie, said MacCalla made many attempts to obtain a report on Bartlett's examination.

"I finally told Gordon to write his report for the court and simply say the psychiatric report is missing," LaVoie stated.

LaVoie said he recalls some discussion by county commissioners about payment of a bill from the psychiatrist. Since the board supplies some funds for the Winter Haven center, county commissioners have expressed reluctance to pay bills submitted for court-ordered examinations. LaVoie said he advised commissioners they were certainly under no obligation to pay for an examination until results were made available to the court.

However, the county did finally make a $70 payment, to Dr. Shull, on Dec. 18, 1973. There is no indication that Dr. Zidell ever made any examination; no payments were made to her.

In July 1974 circuit judges rotated assignments, and Judge Clifton M. Kelly assumed responsibility for Highlands County's felony cases. As he reviewed pending cases, he found the Bartlett file.

Judge Kelly said he was shocked that matters had dragged on so long and LaVoie described the action, "Judge Kelly revitalized the case."

Action on the psychiatric report still stalled. "You can't expect the defense attorney to push this sort of thing," Judge Kelly explained. "It's really the business of the state attorney. I kind of think Bob Nettleton may have threatened the psychiatrist a little to get the report that came in late May."

In response to questions from The News, Jim Seaton, administrator for the Community Mental Health Center at Winter Haven, said, "We generally do not release information about patients, even to respond to questions about whether they have been patients, without the patient's written release."

"In this particular case, however, I can report we have no record of any involvement in this case," the administrator said.

He said Dr. Shull is a part-time member of the mental health center staff and also has a private practice as a psychiatrist.

Dr. Shull this week told The News he had received a letter from Nettleton, assistant state attorney who handles felony cases in Highlands County.

Dr. Shull read a portion of a letter dated April 29, 1975. In the letter "again requesting the report," Nettleton commends Dr. Shull for "valuable service in the past."

The psychiatrist denied that Nettleton had threatened to call the doctor into court to make his report in person.

Dr. Shull told The News his "raw notes were misplaced for a time." He said it was not necessary for him to make a new examination because he found his notes of the 1973 study. The report was received on May 26 and formal sentencing was held June 30.

Judge Kelly said he relied heavily on the psychiatrist's findings. "I was particularly impressed by the information about Bartlett's propensity to violence," the judge reported.

He pointed out other findings he considered crucial. The psychiatrist found Bartlett to be mentally dull, bordering on mental retardation. In stress situations he tends to become hostile and then violent. However, he is willing to accept supervision and authority.

"We couldn't let him believe he had just gotten away with this," the judge ruled. "We had to get his attention; make him believe that he is responsible for his behavior. So, we sentenced him to five years in prison — a year actually in prison and four years on probation," Judge Kelly said.

Bartlett is now in Highlands County jail, waiting transfer to a state prison facility.

As part of the sentencing process Judge Kelly formally adjudged Bartlett guilty of causing the death of the 20 months old child.

While Bartlett and the court waited — Bartlett married and fathered a child.

"Judge Kelly revitalized the case."

BURIED IN NEGLECT! How many residents of Avon Park know that this is the final resting place of Oliver M. Crosby, Founder of Avon Park. The grave is on the right side of the third crossdrive turning left off the center drive from Highway 27 N. It is marked by perhaps the only two ixora bushes in Bougainvillea cemetery. The inset O. Crosby Founder Of Avon Park Buried In Bougainvillea

Do you know that the FOUNDER of Avon Park, Oliver M. Crosby, is buried in Bougainvillea cemetery? If you went looking for his grave, without knowing where it was, you might have difficulty finding it.

Last Friday Rev. Hebert Graetz, president of the Historical Society and Leona Maxwell, chairman of the Avon Park Bicentennial Committee started their search among the older graves and markers.

Their search was shortened when Charles Ginn of the Cemetery Association and his assistant brought out an old plot map and other old records identifying adjoining burial plots.

They were almost flabbergasted to find that the two ixora bushes at the foot of the grave still held last years cut and dried grassen stalks, that the word "FOUNDER" in the concrete at the head of the grave was difficult to see and the once black and white concrete squares within the "concrete" curb were almost hidden by bushes and weeds growing between the squares.

(Editor's note — many other old burial plots are in the same condition as lack of funds curtails caretaking operations.)

The March 11, 1932 issue of The Avon Park Times "carried an article of Crosby's funeral on Mar. 12, 1932, stating he died on Mar. 8, 1932.

"Crosby came to Florida from Danbury, Conn. in 1883 in search of land for pioneer colonization. He bought 23,000 acres for $2.50 an acre and founded the town of Avon Park. The town grew, groves were set, homes built and just before the disastrous freeze of 1895 the town had 535 inhabitants, a bank, a 15 room hotel, stores, postoffice and schools.

The freeze ruined things and many settlers left. Crosby held on until 1896 when another freeze completed the destruction of the citrus groves, broken and bankrupt, he was forced to give up the project.

In later years Crosby returned to Avon Park for a visit and saw the beautiful city he had started reach substantial proportions. At that time he expressed a desire to be buried here, and realizing last summer that he had but few days left reiterated the desire. The city council passed a resolution granting his request and the cemetery association set aside a lot for his burial.

He has been in inmate of the county home at Largo in Pinellas county for several years.

The funeral services for Oliver M. Crosby, were conducted Saturday afternoon, Mar. 12, 1932, from the Union Congregational Church, Rev. A. P. Vaughn officiating and paying touching tribute to the city's founder. Dr. C. V. Cushman, of St. Petersburg, an intimate of the deceased man, joined in his eulogy, as did another friend, Joe Carson.

Miss Martha Jean Marsh presided at the organ. Mrs. Paul Garber (Mrs. Paul Zuck) sang "Somewhere the Sun is Shining" and Mrs. Vaughn sang "Sunset and Evening Star."

Services were attended by city officials and friends, among them many of the early settlers of this section.

Interment was made in Bougainvillea cemetery. Honorary pall bearers were W. H. Kingsley, Joe Carson, L. A. Wolff, F. S. Prior, Charles Krause, Henry Wray and H. C. Coy. Active pall bearers were M. E. Covington, S. P. Durran, Norton Smith, J. R. Thomas, J. A. Jackson and C. W. Pabor.

In his Mar. 18, 1932 column, "Here and There about Avon Park," W. M. Hetherington, editor, wrote, Some Months before he died, Oliver M. Crosby, the city's founder, expressed a desire to be brought back here for burial in Bougainvillea cemetery. That wish was carried out. He further asked that a stone be placed at the head of the grave with one word "founder" carved thereon. That simple wish should also be granted. The cemetery association has started to raise a fund for the purpose. It will not take a large sum, and those wish to help are asked to make their contributions to the committee in charge. The sum required will doubtless be quickly subscribed.

Bartlett Sentenced For Murder Of 20 Month Old Child

The court ordered, waited, requested and pleaded, in order to obtain a psychiatric report on which the sentencing of a child's murderer hinged.

For 28 months court officers tried to coax the report out of psychiatrists at Community Mental Health Center at Winter Haven. The report when it finally came, resulted in a prison sentence for James Bartlett, 22.

Bartlett had been arrested in Sebring in February 1973 and charged with the slaying of William Aloysius Coulbourn, 20 months old son of Mrs. Sue Coulbourn of Sebring. Mr. Coulbourn lives in California.

The infant was admitted to Highlands General Hospital on Feb. 4, 1973, semi-conscious, suffering from injuries to his abdomen, bruises, abrasions and contusions. Three hours later the child died.

Bartlett, who had been babysitting with the baby, was charged with manslaughter. On March 6, 1973 he went free on $5,000 bond.

A few weeks later Bartlett and a court-appointed lawyer appeared before Circuit Judge Thomas Langston and entered a nolo contendere plea. Judge Langston ordered a psychiatric evaluation and presentence investigation.

An appointment was set up at Winter Haven's Community Mental Health Center for April 26, 1973, and the examination was made. The names of Dr. H. Dean Shull and Dr. Rose Zidellias appeared on the examination order.

Gordon MacCalla, then an officer with Florida Parole and Probation Commission, had been assigned to make the presentence investigation. MacCalla left the commission staff before the Bartlett case was disposed of this summer, but his supervisor, Ed LaVoie, said MacCalla made many attempts to obtain a report on Bartlett's examination.

"I finally told Gordon to write his report for the court and simply say the psychiatric report is missing," LaVoie stated.

LaVoie said he recalls some discussion by county commissioners about payment of a bill from the psychiatrist. Since the board supplies some funds for the Winter Haven center, county commissioners have expressed reluctance to pay bills submitted for court-ordered examinations. LaVoie said he advised commissioners they were certainly under no obligation to pay for an examination until results were made available to the court.

However, the county did finally make a $70 payment to Dr. Shull, on Dec. 18, 1973. There is no indication that Dr. Zidellias ever made any examination; no payments were made to her.

In July 1974 circuit judges rotated assignments, and Judge Clifton M. Kelly assumed responsibility for Highlands County's felony cases. As he reviewed pending cases, he found the Bartlett file.

Judge Kelly said he was shocked that matters had dragged on so long and as LaVoie described the action, "Judge Kelly revitalized the case."

Action on the psychiatric report still stalled.

"You can't expect the defense attorney to push this sort of thing," Judge Kelly explained. "It's really the business of the state attorney. I kind of think Bob Nettleton may have threatened the psychiatrist a little to get the report that came in late May."

In response to questions from The News, Jim Seaton, administrator for the Community Mental Health Center at Winter Haven, said, "We generally do not release information about patients, even to respond to questions about whether they have been patients, without the patient's written release."

"In this particular case, however, I can report we have no record of any involvement in this case," the administrator said.

He said Dr. Shull is a part-time member of the mental health staff and also has a private practice as a psychiatrist.

Dr. Shull this week told The News he had received a letter from Nettleton, assistant state attorney who handles felony cases in Highlands County.

Dr. Shull read a portion of a letter dated April 29, 1975. In the letter "again requesting the report," Nettleton commented, "Shull for 'valuable service in the past.'"

The psychiatrist denied that Nettleton had threatened to call the doctor into court to make his report in person.

Dr. Shull told The News his "raw notes were misplaced for a time." He said it was not necessary for him to make a new examination because he found his notes of the 1973 study. The report was received on May 26 and formal sentencing was held June 30.

Judge Kelly said he relied heavily on the psychiatrist's findings. "I was particularly impressed by the information about Bartlett's propensity to violence," the judge reported.

He pointed out other findings he considered crucial. The psychiatrist found Bartlett to be mentally dull, bordering on mental retardation. In stress situations he tends to become hostile and then violent. However, he is willing to accept supervision and authority.

"We couldn't let him believe he had just gotten away with this," the judge ruled. "We had to get his attention; make him believe that he is responsible for his behavior. So, we sentenced him to five years in prison — a year actually in prison and four years on probation," Judge Kelly said.

Bartlett is now in Highlands County jail, wing transfer to a state prison facility.

As part of the sentencing process Judge Kelly formally adjudged Bartlett guilty of causing the death of the 20 months old child.

While Bartlett and the court waited — Bartlett married and fathered a child.

Coach Strickler Sets Football Practice For Aug. 15

Avon Park High School football coach Joe Strickler announced that football practice for all boys interested in trying out for the varsity will start Friday, August 15, at Memorial Field at 6:00 p.m.

Medical examinations may be scheduled for earlier that week. The Red Devils varsity will be coached this season by head coach Joe Strickler and assistant coaches Dwayne Lemler and Ronnie Jackson.

The first 1975-76 appearance of the Red Devils varsity will be when the squad participates in the jamboree to be held in Sebring on August 30. The regular season will begin on September 12 in Mulberry as the Red Devils take on the Panthers in the Phosphate Bowl.

With the season starting a week early this year, the Red Devils coaching staff will have its hands full reshaping the squad to the wishbone offense. Prospective players are asked to start getting in shape now for the short pre-season practices.

The funeral services for Oliver M. Crosby, were conducted Saturday afternoon, Mar. 12, 1972, from the Union Congregational Church, Rev. A. P. Vaughn officiating and paying touching tribute to the city's founder. Dr. C. H. Cushman, of St. Petersburg, an intimate of the deceased man, joined in his eulogy, as did another friend, Joe Carson.

Miss Martha Jean Marsh presided at the organ. Mrs. Paul Garber (Mrs. Paul Zack) sang "Somewhere the Sun is Shining" and Mrs. Vaughn sang "Sunset and Evening Star."

Services were attended by city officials and friends, among them many of the early settlers of this section. Interment was made in

Last Friday Rev. Herbert Graetz, president of the Historical Society and Leona Maxwell, chairman of the Avon Park Bicentennial Committee started their search among the older graves and markers. Their search was shortened when Charles Ginn of the Cemetery Association and his assistant brought out an old plot map and other old records identifying adjoining burial plots.

They were almost flabbergasted to find that the two ixora bushes at the foot of the grave still held last years cut and dried grasses stalks, that the word "FOUNDER" in the concrete at the head of the grave was difficult to see and the once black and white concrete squares within the concrete curb were almost hidden by bushes and weeds growing between the squares.

The March 11, 1932 issue of The Avon Park Times carried an article of Crosby's funeral on Mar. 12, 1932, stating he died on Mar. 5, 1932.

"Crosby came to Florida from Danbury, Conn., in 1883 in search of land for pioneer colonization. He bought 23,000 acres for $2.50 an acre and founded the town of Avon Park. The town grew, groves were set, homes built and just before the disastrous freeze of 1895 the town had 335 inhabitants, a bank, a 15 room hotel, stores, postoffice and schools.

The freeze ruined things and many settlers left. Crosby held on until 1898 when another freeze completed the destruction of the citrus groves, broken and bankrupt, he was forced to give up the project.

In later years Crosby returned to Avon Park for a visit and saw the beautiful city he had started reach substantial proportions. At that time he expressed a desire to be buried here, and realizing last summer that he had but few days left reiterated the desire. The city council passed a resolution granting his request and the cemetery association set aside a lot for his burial.

He has been in inmate of the county home at Largo in Pinellas county for several years.

They were almost flabbergasted to find that the two ixora bushes at the foot of the grave still held last years cut and dried grasses stalks, that the word "FOUNDER" in the concrete at the head of the grave was difficult to see and the once black and white concrete squares within the concrete curb were almost hidden by bushes and weeds growing between the squares.

(Editor's note — many other old burial plots are in the same condition as lack of funds curtails caretaking operations.)

The March 11, 1932 issue of The Avon Park Times carried an article of Crosby's funeral on Mar. 12, 1932, stating he died on Mar. 5, 1932.

"Crosby came to Florida from Danbury, Conn., in 1883 in search of land for pioneer colonization. He bought 23,000 acres for $2.50 an acre and founded the town of Avon Park. The town grew, groves were set, homes built and just before the disastrous freeze of 1895 the town had 335 inhabitants, a bank, a 15 room hotel, stores, postoffice and schools.

The freeze ruined things and many settlers left. Crosby held on until 1898 when another freeze completed the destruction of the citrus groves, broken and bankrupt, he was forced to give up the project.

In later years Crosby returned to Avon Park for a visit and saw the beautiful city he had started reach substantial proportions. At that time he expressed a desire to be buried here, and realizing last summer that he had but few days left reiterated the desire. The city council passed a resolution granting his request and the cemetery association set aside a lot for his burial.

He has been in inmate of the county home at Largo in Pinellas county for several years.

The funeral services for Oliver M. Crosby, were conducted Saturday afternoon, Mar. 12, 1972, from the Union Congregational Church, Rev. A. P. Vaughn officiating and paying touching tribute to the city's founder. Dr. C. H. Cushman, of St. Petersburg, an intimate of the deceased man, joined in his eulogy, as did another friend, Joe Carson.

Culberson On Special Bowling Team

Ina Sue Culberson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Culberson, Sebring leaves Wednesday August 6th from Tampa to join other members of the Florida Special Olympics team. Ina has been selected to represent Highlands County on the Florida Special Olympic team to compete at the international Special Olympics at Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, August 6th through 10th.

Miss Culberson is a bowler with the Ridge Area Work Center team which bowls regularly at Ridge Lakes, U.S. 27 South of Avon Park.

Ina competed at the county level of Special Olympics, later rolled against Polk and Hillsborough bowlers at district games in Tampa where she placed high in her division. At state games, University of Florida, Gainesville, Ina again was one of the top bowlers in her division.

Florida Special Olympic team will have a representative from nearly every county in the state, entered in either track and field, swimming, gymnastics, bowling, basketball or wheelchair events. Two senior basketball teams from two counties make up sixteen of the 80 slots allotted the Florida team. All contestants have competed at county, district and state events to win berths on the state team.

The team will leave from Tampa, Miami and Jacksonville Wednesday, August 6th meeting in Lansing, Michigan and busing to Mt. Pleasant from that point. Orientation, special activities, sight seeing and opening ceremonies are part of the team's Thursday schedule. Competition in respective areas will take place on Friday and Saturday.

Just as at International Olympic games, medals are awarded at the conclusion of each event. Exhibition events, more sightseeing and closing ceremonies are on Sunday's calendar with the return trip to the Florida point of origin on Monday August 11th.

Ina Sue, one of two women bowlers to be entered from Florida, is a client at Ridge Area ARC's Work Center and is currently in training for work as a pre-school aide or day care worker.

MANMADE

A man made this beautiful little waterfall and improved his part of a little stream that ran by his house.
Another man on another stream threw trash in the water and let weeds grow up around it so that the beauty of the creek was obscured.
Man fashions many things out of that which God has created. Beauty or ugliness can result from our decisions as to what we will do with divine raw materials. Dedication to God and the desire to emulate Him usually makes the difference in what we do with what God has provided.
Let God find you in His church.

Between The Bookends

By Mrs. R. D. Moore, Librarian

TM by Harold Bloomfield has been on the best-seller lists for weeks and weeks. TM stands, of course, for Transcendental Meditation and the author feels this is the way to help you discover inner energy, overcome any stress you encounter in your life. Bloomfield's book tells about the extraordinary results that are now being achieved through TM.

The author says TM is the technique by which any individual can tap new sources of energy and power in his mind and body, through which he can make himself into a whole, relaxed, natural and highly effective person.

The mechanics and practice of TM are outlined in detail. Bloomfield says TM is neither a religion nor a philosophy nor a way of life. Rather it is a natural and effortless technique for improving all aspects of life, a way of putting one's life into high gear, a way to change, expand and grow. Dr. Bloomfield is Clinical Director of Psychiatry at the Institute of Psychophysiology Medicine in El Cajon, California. He has lectured extensively on TM throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe.

For forty years Katherine Hepburn has remained one of the most private and elusive of stars, refusing to cooperate with biographers. Now for the first time, she has authorized a writer to talk to her closest friends and colleagues, and granted him two rare, long interviews, covering the whole of her career. Kate by Charles Higham is the result. It is the story of a remarkable singleminded woman who has always made her own rules. The author paints a vivid portrait of Hepburn the actress and also shows her behind the scenes in her romantic involvements with Leland Hayward, Howard Hughes and Spencer Tracy.

F. Lee Bailey is today perhaps the most famous trial lawyer in the country. Along the way to this position he has been called a "maverick", "heartbreaker" and "the ultimate advocate." Many of the biggest cases of the 1960's were his: Dr. Sam Sheppard, Albert DeSalvo, Dr. Carl Coppolino. These and others were chronicled in his first book, The Defense Never Rests. Now in For The Defense, Bailey picks up where he left off. He provides a rare glimpse into the men and machinery of the criminal justice system. For The Defense is a very personal book, a book in which Bailey lays his passions and his prejudices on the line.

The South is famous for its food. In her book Southern Cooking, Henrietta Dull compiles all the recipes that have made that fame nationwide — fried chicken, corn bread, shortcake, sweet potato pie and over a thousand others. No one is more qualified to compile such a book as this than Mrs. Dull of Atlanta, Georgia — one of the South's outstanding culinary experts. For forty years she has been cooking, lecturing and writing on the preparation of food the "Southern way." Her recipes have been well tested and are so precisely worded that any amateur cook can follow them successfully. Southern Cooking is a complete cookbook. From Appetizers and Soups to Desserts and Preserves, the whole range of cooking is covered — as well as suggested menus, the gracious rules of table service and household hints. Numerous illustrations enhance the beauty and usefulness of this classic volume devoted to American good eating.

Question: What is the new covenant which is mentioned in Hebrews 8:7-13?

Answer: This scripture is largely a quotation from the 31st chapter of the book of Jeremiah. In this chapter Jeremiah predicts that there would be the making of a new covenant.

The first covenant was made at Mt. Sinai as recorded in Exodus 19 and 24. This covenant was broken by the 31st chapter of the book of Jeremiah. They had promised God that they would be faithful to the covenant. And Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord, and all the judgments: And all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the Lord hath spoken we will do; Exodus 24:3. Less than forty years later these same people demanded of Aaron that he should make them gods, which shall go before us; for as for this man Moses, he hath brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him; Exodus 32:1. When Moses came down from the mount and saw the people worshipping the golden calf he was greatly surprised. He saw the calf and the dancing; and Moses' anger was hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them; beneath the mount; Exodus 32:14.

Thus the Israelites broke the solemn covenant which they had promised to keep. They trusted in their own ability to fulfill their promise to keep the covenant and they failed miserably. God did not break the covenant, but Israel did.

What then is the new covenant? For if that first covenant had been faithful, then should no place have been sought for the second. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: Not according to the covenant that he made with their fathers in the day when he took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and regarded them not, saith the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws in their mind, and write them in their hearts: And I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people; Hebrews 8:7-13.

In the new covenant, God promises to do for his people that which they themselves can not do. Through his Holy Spirit, he imprints the principles of the law into their hearts and provides the power which they need to keep God's commandments. To every heart that desires to be faithful to his covenant, God supplies the enabling power.

The old and new testaments make it very clear that God's salvation is centered in grace. God will supply all the grace which man needs for salvation. Those who trust God to do for them that which they can not do for themselves, will receive the strength which they need to be faithful to his covenant.

The same commandments which God wrote on tables of stone, he will write in the heart. I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments and do them; Ezekiel 36:27. Jesus gives us a similar assurance. But as many as received him, to them gave he the power to become the Sons of God, even them that believe on his name; John 1:12.

Exodus 32:14.

4-H Needs Volunteer Workers

The 4-H Program in Highlands County needs volunteer workers. Parents and others willing to put in a few hours to help young people with projects are a must for the program to do a good job. 4-H projects include a wide range of interests. The "cows and cooking" concept of 4-H is a misconception. Projects available include photography, electricity, recreation, woodworking, leadership and many more.

The County Extension Office sponsors the 4-H program, supplying all material and training.

Reserve Football Seat Tickets On Sale

Reserved seat tickets for five home Avon Park Red Devil football games went on sale this week at the high school office for those who had tickets last season. From August 5 through September 4 reserved seat ticket holders may renew the same tickets for the price of $3.00 plus one season ticket for each reserved seat ticket. Season tickets sell for $8.00 for adults and $4.00 for students.

From September 8 through September 19 reserved seat tickets may be exchanged for any available seats in the section at Memorial Field between the forty yard lines on the south stadium. Then on September 22 all remaining unreserved tickets will go on sale.

Persons wishing to buy into the reserved seat section should call the high school office and be placed on a waiting list for available tickets. Athletic Director Joe Franzia or Mrs. Peggy Sisemore will handle the ticket sales this year. High school office hours will be from 8:30 to noon and 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. until teachers return to work on August 18.

All five home games will be played consecutively from October 10 through November 7. The Red Devils will participate in a jamboree in Sebring on August 30.

The first game will be on September 12 in Mulberry. Then it will be Lake Placid on September 19 down there; DeSoto High in Arcadia on September 26 and an open date on October 3.

The home games start with Wauchula on October 10, Frostproof on October 17, North Fort Myers on October 24, Ft. Meade on October 31 and Bartow on November 7. Bartow is coached by former Avon Park junior high coach Ken Shackelford.

The last two games of the year will be in Okechobee on November 14 and in Sebring on November 21.

Low Mundt To Head Athletic Association

Low Mundt was elected president of the Avon Park High School Athletic Association at a meeting held at the High School Auditorium on Thursday, July 24. Mundt moved up to the presidency from the vice-president office. Elected to fill the vice-president slot was Eddie Delaney. George Kelsey was re-elected to the secretary-treasurer office.

Ed Touchton Jr. and J. Franklin Welch, Jr. were elected to the board of directors to join Fred Hahn, Hue Nunnallee and Bob Frier. Mundt announced a board of directors meeting would be held on August 13.

The main topic of discussion at the first meeting of the A.P.H.S.A.A. centered on the inclusion of all extra-curricular sports at the high school and how to best boost the entire program.

Tentative plans for a Bar-B-

Q chicken supper to be held at Florida Power Clubhouse on September 5 were made. The Bar-B-Q will be for all members and their wives and for prospective members. Cost of the meal will be included in the 1975-76 association membership dues which also assure each member of parking at Memorial Field for home football games. The membership dues are $3.00.

All sports fans of all high school sports are invited to join the association this year in hopes of enlarging the programs of the group dedicated to assist the high school sports in any way needful.

Also on tap will be a fish fry to be held before the first home football game of the 1975 season which will be on October 10 against Wauchula. The first three games of the season will be away this year.

the City Recreation Center by master karate teacher Jack Johns. There are three girls active in the class. Photo—Miller.

Junior Tennis Team Splits With Lakeland

The Avon Park Junior Tennis Team split its first match against a strong Lakeland team. The boys won 5-2, but the girls dropped all seven of their match-ups. In the second match of the Summer League, Avon Park split again against Zephyrhills. The boys won 6-1 and the girls lost 5-7.

The team was formed by the Recreation Department to compete in a Summer Junior Tennis league organized by Dennis Gumbert, Recreation Director in Avon Park. The cities agreeing to play this year are Avon Park, Zephyrhills, Bartow, Lakeland and Lake Wales. Each team will play every other team one time, since the league got off to a late start.

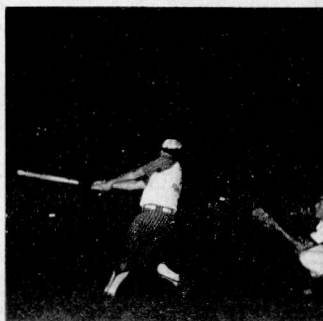

All members of the teams must be 18 years or younger, with a maximum of 16 members (boys and girls) representing one team.

The matches consist of five boys' singles, five girls' singles and two boys' doubles games. The winner of the Summer's competition will receive a trophy for their efforts. Avon Park's team consist of Grant Stallard, player-coach; Ronnie Brock, Lou Thaler, Paul Lindire, Evie Cole. The girls half of the team consist of Dianne King, player coach; Debra Cox, Deloris Cox, Melba Sims, Tracy Jones.

MANAGER DAVE JOHNSON of Avon Park and Body gave the clue for this hefty swing when he commented to teammates that Joe Liz of Crews Equipment was a heavy hitter and having gone hitless in three times at bat — "was Due." It had the solid sound of a well hit ball that travelled fast without going too high. Outfielders raced to intercept it but a spectator "called in" by shouting "it's going over the fence." Crews Equipment won the slow pitch game, 8 to 1. Photo—Miller.

Jackson Masonry Keeps Winning In Slow Pitch

Jackson's Masonry won two more games last week in the Avon Park Men's Slow-Pitch Softball league to continue to lead the standings with a perfect 9-0 record. The league leaders defeated Coca Cola 14-7 on Tuesday of last week and then whipped Air Force 14-2 on Wednesday of last week.

Air Force won over Avon

Paint and Body in a close 6-7 game last Friday to hold on to second place in the standings with an 8-2 record. Coca Cola blanked Jahna Concrete 15-0 to remain in third place with a 7-3 mark. Crews Equipment is in fourth place with a 7-4 record having won over Avon Paint and Body 8-1 last Thursday night.

Karate Classes At Center In Deal With Council

Karate classes are now underway at the Avon Park Recreation Center under the masterful direction of teacher Jack Johns under an exchange pact approved by the Avon Park City Council.

Classes are held each Tuesday and Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. There are presently 25 active class members with three of them being girls.

The entire class does the basic moves and exercises at the same time but each student is allowed to progress at his own speed.

Johns, who owns a karate school in Atlanta, Ga., and has taught karate to some 15,000 persons, said it takes two to five years to earn the Black Belt.

All students start due a white belt as a beginner. In about three months the student progresses to a Gold Belt with a one-half gold somewhere in between.

The Green Belt takes about six months and about nine months to the Brown Belt with lesser degrees of each as a step up.

Each plateau is marked by a certificate showing the achievement the student has made.

Johns said discipline and honor are the main keys in the philosophy that is karate. Karate is a unique activity. It is an art, it is a sport, it is a philosophy. And one principle, that of a pure heart, is the basis of that philosophy.

Johns said, "Strive for a pure heart. When you control your mind, the body will follow."

Karate is safer than playing basketball, according to Johns. He noted that all practice is under strict supervision and Johns dispelled the old adage that karate experts were required to register their hands as lethal weapons. He said there is no such requirement.

Included in the class are youngsters eight years through adults. Two local policemen are students with one policeman from Frostproof attending. Johns said two more policemen from Frostproof and three from Sebring have expressed interest in the karate instruction.

Soul Children Take Lead In Women's League

The Soul Children, coached by Linda Seigler, took the lead in the Avon Park Women's Softball League with two weeks of play with a perfect 3-0 record. The league was won over Jahna Concrete 11-1, defeated the Patriots 19-4 and then shut out Cox Plumbing 15-0.

Jahna Concrete and the Patriots were tied for second place with 2-1 records but the two teams were scheduled to meet last Tuesday night to break the tie. In fourth place after last week's play was Beane's Sports Center with a 1-2 record with a game on tap against the Soul Children set for last Tuesday night.

Cox Plumbing had lost to all four of the other teams in the five-team league for an 0-4 record. Tonight (Thursday, August 7) the Patriots will take on Soul Children at 7:00 p.m. and Beane's will play Cox Plumbing in the second game. Next Tuesday night it will be the Soul Children against Jahna Concrete and the Patriots playing Beane's Sports Center.

On Tuesday night, July 29, the Soul Children wiped out the Patriots 19-4 in a four inning game. If a team is leading by 15 runs after four innings or by 10 after five innings the game is over. Maxie Tate led the Soul Children at the plate with two doubles and two singles. Mary Ann Jackson went three for four with a double and two singles. The winners got a total of 18 hits. The Patriots got 5 hits including two singles by catcher Barbara Spurlock.

Nancy Mitchell had a double. In the second game on July 29, Jahna Concrete outscored Cox Plumbing 20-13 in a seven inning affair. Phyllis Skinner, Jahna third baseman, slammed out a homerun in the seventh inning and also had a single and two doubles for the evening. Susan Swindall and Mary Linda Derkman both got four hits in five at-bats with a double and three singles each for Cox.

Last Thursday night the Patriots went on a scoring spree and defeated Beane's Sports Center 22-1 in three and a half innings. Beane's lone score was made by Robbie Barnes who singled and came home on a single by Pat Johnson. The Patriots got only five hits — a double and a single by Barbara Spurlock and doubles by Jane Eberle, Mary Wright and Joanne Carver. Beane's walked ten batters.

The second game last Thursday night was a short affair as the Soul Children shut out Cox Plumbing 15-0 in three and a half innings. Cox got only two hits — a single by Pam Williams and one by Ellen Mackin. The Soul Children got 7 hits. Bridgette Randolph and Ranna Sanders had a double and a single each, Hannah Cummings hit a double and Sabrina Blake and Margie Tate each had a single. Beane's made 11 errors in the short game.

Men's Church League Has Exciting Games

Avon Park's men's church division has had some exciting games the last couple of weeks. With Division play coming to a close, the race for the No. 1 spot has really picked up.

In play the week of July 21, Monday night's games were significant to the standings. The Seventh Day Adventist lost to the First Baptist No. 1 team to tie them for second. Out at the A.P.C.I. field, the Nazarene team won over the A.P.C.I. 13-4 to put them in first place with only two losses to their record.

Tuesday night at 7:00 and 8:30, Church of Christ took on First Baptist No. 2 and Presbyterians played A.P.C.I. Neither one of those scores were reported.

Coming up to date last Monday, July 28th, the Seventh Day Adventist won easily over the Fellowship Baptist 11-1. At 8:30, Church of Christ played First Baptist No. 1, but again no score reported. Out at the A.P.C.I. field, the Nazarene's won a close one against First Baptist No. 2, 15-14.

Commissioners

Hold Public Hearing

County commissioners devoted much of Tuesday's meeting agenda to public hearings involving the closing of two roads and the consideration of six rezoning requests.

Attorney Jack Hancock received commissioners' approval to close a short road leading to the north shoreline of Lake Denton.

The vacated road, about 40 feet in length, lies between two lots in replatted Denton and Harris subdivisions, located east of SR-17A between Sebring and Avon Park.

Hancock also asked commissioners to disclaim further interest in a 40-foot wide "driveway" that separates seven lots in the replatted Denton and Harris subdivisions from Lake Denton's northern shoreline.

When Commissioner Robert Skipper asked why the county should allow the strip of land to revert to private control, county Attorney Robert P. Dundy Jr. explained that the subdivision's offer of his land for public use is not binding on him unless the county's governing body accepts the land offer.

A search of property deeds would be necessary to determine whether or not the county has any claim to the land, Dundy said.

Hancock said that he would be happy to accept a disclaimer from the county stating that commissioners have no further interest in the driveway. He pointed out that the right-of-way extends to the edge of the lake.

Commissioners postponed their decision on the "driveway" closing until next week, to give Dundy an opportunity to review Hancock's request.

Commissioners then approved rezoning requests submitted by the following petitioners:

- Frank and Sally Celentano Jr., property located on the east side of U.S. 27 south of Hart Memorial, Sebring, rezoned from general retail to general retail and wholesale, heavy equipment.

— John M. Hofer, property in Lorida Heights, rezoned from neighborhood retail to single family residential.

— St. Francis of Assisi Episcopal Church, property on SR-421, Lake Placid, rezoned from unimproved acreage to one and two family residential.

— William and Laura Messina, property lying on the east side of U.S. 27 north of U.S. 98, rezoned from unimproved acreage to general retail and wholesale, heavy equipment. A restrictive covenant precludes use of the land for heavy equipment despite its being authorized in the zoning classification.

— Ralph Christensen, property located on east side of U.S. 27 about 1/4 mile south of SR-1, Lake Placid, rezoned from general retail to general retail and wholesale, heavy equipment and to single family residential.

— Steve Ballard, property located east of U.S. 27 between the Atlantic Coastline Railroad tracks and Lake Blue, Lake Placid area, rezoned from unimproved acreage to single family residential.

Journey Adventure Of The Human Human Spirit

By MRS. R. D. MOORE
Journey by Robert and Suzanne Massie has arrived at the City Library this week. You will remember the Massies as authors of the best-selling Nicholas and Alexandra. Their new book is the story of their own journey through 18 years of struggle against their only son's hemophilia — and the ways in which that struggle has tested their education, their philosophy, and their religion, profoundly deepening and enriching their lives.

"The story begins in a blaze of happiness and high hopes suddenly destroyed when the Massies, newly married, setting out on promising careers, overjoyed by the birth of Bobby, their first child, discover that he is a hemophiliac. And from that moment the reader is caught up totally in the days, the crises, the stratagems of a mother, a father, and a child fighting to make a life for themselves in the company of a fearful chronic disease. This is how a boy has been helped to live — and to live richly — against terrifying odds. This is how his parents have worked through their initial shock, incredulity, and despair — into inner discipline. This is how the Massies have taken responsibility for their own fates."

Suzanne and Robert Massie speak in alternate chapters, their two voices combining to make the journey a and outward life of a family under siege. Journey is at once a galvanizing personal drama, a scientific revelation, and a challenge to a society that refuses to acknowledge or cope with the reality of chronic illness. Here is the story of an extraordinary adventure of the human spirit.

Eight Artists Display Paintings At Library

A great variety of art is on display at the Avon Park City Library this month. In the library's Artist of the Month program with the work of some eight artists who are inmates at Avon Park Correctional Institution.

The inmates' work is for viewing only while on display at the library but is offered for sale at the APCI Hobby Display room which is open to the public during the day and early evening. Gene Shawver, APCI recreation supervisor, said.

Shawver said anyone wishing to visit the Hobby Display can do so by telling the guard where they want to go.

In addition to art of all types such as the samples on display at the library, the Hobby Display includes handcrafted leather goods, woodwork, ceramics and other crafts. Most of the frames, many very unusual, on the paintings are made in APCI shops.

The art on display at the library includes abstracts and modern art as well as landscapes, portraits and still life. "We've never had such a wide variety at one time," Mrs. Carolyn Moore, librarian, said. Mrs. Moore worked out arrangements to show the inmates' art with APCI officials as part of the Artist of the Month program she started at the local library about a year ago.

Some of the paintings are very striking and "different." Each artist portrays a distinct style and with a collection from eight different artists, it is really an interesting display. Shawver said there are artists at APCI who paint portraits using a photograph rather than a model. The portraits are very professional in appearance.

Clifton Kelly Chief Judge

Moves To Modernize Court

Another in a series of court modernization moves was instituted Tuesday when the 10th Judicial Circuit Court administrator held a press conference.

Judge Clifton M. Kelly on July 1 became chief judge of the circuit which embraces Highlands, Hardee and Polk counties and immediately began a drive to update court procedures.

"One of the areas where we are now weak is in public information and understanding about the courts," Judge Kelly explained. "To meet this problem we are working with the office of the court administrator to set up monthly press conferences," he said.

Last week news media throughout the three counties of the circuit were notified that press conferences had been scheduled for 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. the first Tuesday of each month.

W. D. Wilcox, who will conduct the conferences, said he hopes the monthly sessions "will result in making the work of the courts more visible to the public."

"Typical activities that will be covered during these conferences will include the organization of the courts and assignment of judges, problems in the justice process and possible solutions, statistical trends in case filings and dispositions, new and innovative procedures."

Wilcox said the conferences will include information on trial dates of cases involving possible significant public interest. New laws and rules effecting the operation of the justice system will be covered," the administrator said.

Along with this information, however, he plans to include background stories on court personnel, biographical material and possible human interest stories.

Wilcox has scheduled the conferences to be held in the Polk County courthouse which serves as headquarters for the 10th circuit.

This week, however, Judge Kelly said he finds "considerable merit" in a suggestion that some conferences might be held in the Highlands and Hardee county courthouses.

Information on county courts will be included in the conferences, Wilcox said, along with the many phases of circuit court operations.

Criminal Justice Forum Being Used As Model

Highlands County Criminal Justice Forum has celebrated a birthday and moved into the second year of its service. So well has Judge Clifton Kelly's brain child developed, that it is being used as a model for similar groups in Hardee, DeSoto and Polk counties.

The highly informal group elects no officers, have no by-laws, seldom has a set program. A judge — usually Judge Kelly — serves as a president for the monthly meeting.

Most of the time is given to discussion of mutual problems and sharing information. Sometimes guests are invited to speak to the forum on some subject which related to administration of criminal justice.

For example, Patricia A. Furnival of the Highlands Hardee Alcoholism Program presented information about the ways the agency she works with can help in working with alcoholism problems.

The July meeting was more typical of the Highlands Criminal Justice Forum sessions. This meeting included a report from district commander for the Florida Highway Patrol Wilbur Woods. He explained some of the problems FHP is encountering with teletype equipment.

Assistant State Attorney Al Smith requested a meeting with law enforcement officers to discuss with them driving while intoxicated cases and trials.

Torn Johnson, coordinator of pupil personnel services for Highlands County public schools, discussed with the forum members the implications of the new federal laws on schools' providing information about students.

As one member remarked, "Nothing really earth shaking comes up, but a lot of little problems get squared away every month and the channels of communication are kept open."

A similar group, known as Inter-Agency Council meets monthly to share information about the workings of social agencies within the county.

Skip Bafalis Inducted Into Hall Of Fame

The national Alliance of Senior Citizens (NASC) announced the induction of Congressman L. A. "Skip" Bafalis, into the "Golden Age Hall of Fame."

In making the presentation of the organization's highest public service award in Washington, D. C., the 10th Congressional District chapter president said, "Congressman Bafalis has shown concern, compassion and understanding for the aged, while making effective contributions toward solving the unique problems of the nation's elderly.

On the Golden Age Index of the National Alliance of Senior Citizens, Bafalis was rated as a "Guardian of the Aged" for his fine voting record in behalf of America's senior community.

"As president of Congressman Bafalis' home district chapter, I am proud to welcome into the Golden Age Hall of Fame a proven leader who has quietly and selflessly worked to improve the quality of life for older persons in America," said Mrs. Alberta Lee.
