Commissioners Request Federal Money To Repair Range Bridge

When the county commission decided to seek federal aid in rebuilding a bridge on SR 64 which serves the Avon Park Bombing Range, little did County Engineer Gordon Hays Jr. realize what processes would be involved.

Some months ago, Hays said routine refurbishing of the wooden timbered structure was getting more expensive and less successful because of the deteriorating traces and the problems of acquiring materials.

County Administrative Assistant Charles Callens was asked to seek dollars from the United States because of the heavy equipment, including tanks which uses the access bridge.

authorizing "temporary" repairs.

A massive received this week gives some idea of the "appropriate channels" being reached by the $6,000 request, which many believe may cost more in paperwork than actual bridge materials.

Vicent Delvecchio, Lt. Col.

USAF, base civil engineer, wrote that the "access needs report" required to support funding consideration for the SR-64 bridge to Avon Park

Gunnery Range is being processed through the appropriate channels.

"The report has been processed from MacDill AFB, through HQ Tactical Air Command, through Headquarters United States Air Force, through the Defense Department's Military traffic management office, to the office of the Federal Highway Administration, where it is presently being validated.

"Once the request is validated," he wrote, "and an estimated construction cost is established, HQ USAF will submit the requirement for congressional funding consideration.

Assuming the appropriation is obtained, funds will be provided through the Federal Highway Administration for design and construction."

In conclusion, he promises, "I will keep you advised of the status as the request is processed through the various federal agencies."

Meanwhile, Hays has been instructed to make an updated report on the bridge condition, to see if it will "hold up" until the processes are completed.

City Investigates Cost Of Mosquito Equipment

"It comes up every year," Avon Park City Clerk Malcolm Crews said in response to the SUN inquiry about mosquito control. A few local residents have asked what happened to the fogger the city used to use.

Crews said the fogger rusted out about six years ago and had not been replaced. He said the city doesn't get enough complaints to warrant spraying in the city.

Crews said the city had looked into the latest modern equipment and contacted manufacturers to check prices. He said modern equipment sprays pure chemicals which are invisible and really nice compared to the old fogger that left a cloud in its wake.

He said initial cost of the equipment was about $10,000 because two foggers and two trucks would be needed. The modern method kills up to two miles away and there is no odor.

He said most of the mosquitoes we get in the city are a type that hatched in back yards where stale water is allowed to stay and the system would probably not do much to kill them.

Crews said about the only time the mosquitoes cause any problem is when there is a strong wind out of the east blowing them in from the swamp.

"Anyway, we couldn't do anything until next year," he said, noting that by the time the city could get the equipment it would be fall when there is no problem with mosquitoes.

Record Number Of Cattle Enter Livestock Show

A record number of beef steers and dairy animals have been entered in the 1976 Highlands County Junior Livestock show, Tim Harner, acting extension agent, said Monday.

Friday was the entry deadline, Harner said. There were 50 beef steers entered, three swine and eight dairy cows, he added. Last year's sale saw 33 beef steers, five dairy animals and five swine sold at the annual show.

Hurner said the majority of the entries were 4-H animals, but a few were Future Farmers of America entries.

Hurner said the majority of the entries were 4-H animals, but a few were Future Farmers of America entries. Now, the agent has to worry about how to house the animals since space in the fair barn was short during last year's show and sale. He will consult with the Fair board of directors and the Highlands County Cattlemen's Association which assists with the project on the problem, he said.

Legal Secretaries To Meet Today

The Highlands Hardee Legal Secretaries Association will hear a talk by Mrs. Martha Mitchell a youth counselor with the Division of Youth Services at a meeting today (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. E. Emery Daniel, 117 Florida Ave., Wauchula.

Youth Offender Lands In Hospital

A youthful offender charged with breaking into a hospital had barely begun probation on that charge when he wound up in the hospital, but as a patient.

Perry Allen Hilliard, 20, Avon Park, had been charged with breaking and entering and a petit larceny at Walker Memorial Hospital, March 11. When his case came up in circuit court, the court withheld adjudication and ordered Hilliard placed on 18 months probation, and to pay court costs of $200 at the rate of $25 per month.

A few days after the sentencing, Hilliard was injured in an auto accident and was in the hospital as a patient. He was later transferred to Winter Haven Hospital.

Eckerd Open Store In Shopping Center

The management team of manager Bobby Coburn and Assistant Manager Deanie Irby, at the new Eckerd Drug Store at the Avon Square Shopping Center, supervised and helped place thousands of pieces of merchandise for the grand opening of the newest of the Jack Eckerd Drug Co's 455 stores in the drug chain.

Planning and construction on the shopping center store was underway for several years. Originally scheduled to open last year economic inflationary pressures delayed the opening.

Stocking of the shelves of the new store was virtually completed last week with a dry run opening on Monday August 18 of this week. The grand opening is slated for Thursday August 21 with district managers and officers of the Eckerd Drug Co. to be on hand for the event.

The manager of the new Eckerd Drug Store, Bobby Coburn thrives on competition and working with people. He was born in Winter Haven but lost his father when he was five years of age.

Bobby graduated from Winter Haven High School in 1964 and was elected State Vice-President of the Future Farmers of America where he was responsible for coordinating FFA projects on the state level. As a member of the Agricultural Council he was the national winner of the Youth Power Award at the Food Nutrition School.

In 1968 Bobby received the American Farmer Degree, the Future Farmers of America highest award, at the FFA National Convention at Kansas City, Mo. He was also nominated as the "man of the year" by the Winter Haven Junior Chamber of Commerce. He holds an inactive Real Estate License.

With nine years of active and inactive service with the Armed Forces Bobby received training in the Ranger School and as a member of the Army Special Forces. At Ft. Benning it was guerrilla warfare training and at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

Bobby's a qualified Airborne Para-trooper has over 100 parachute drops to his credit. His specialty or MOS Military occupational specialist is

Body Found In River

Sheriff Waits For Lab Report

Highlands County sheriff's deputies are still awaiting laboratory reports which probably will be completed late Thursday in hopes of positively identifying a body discovered in the Kissimmee River last Thursday.

Sheriff O. L. Raulerson, who has been assisting in the investigation with Sheriff Frank Cline of DeSoto County and Chief Sheriff of Okeechobee County, was in Tallahassee today working with the Florida Department of Criminal Law Enforcement on the case.

The general description of the body, found with three gunshots in the head and weighted with a concrete block tied to one arm, fits a missing Arcadia man, Michael Roger Chitwood, 23, a department spokesman said today.

But the condition of the body after being in the water three or four days was such that fingerprint and other lab tests are necessary for positive identification.

Highlands County spokesmen said there are no other missing persons in any of the three counties to fit the general description of the body found.

Two young boys discovered the body floating about 10 miles south of SR 70 in the Lake Placid area Thursday and reported it to Okeechobee authorities.

Initially it was thought the crime may have been committed on the Highlands County side of the river. With the connection of the DeSoto disappearance, Cline brought his team of scuba divers to search the river.

The banks have been roped off by officers searching for clues, deputies said. Sgt. Len Ankeland is assisting Raulerson in the local part of the investigation.

Chitwood was reported missing and kidnapped from his 101 S. Rogers Ave. home in Arcadia, Aug. 11 by his wife, who said two men left her bound and gagged in the bedroom and forcibly removed her husband from the house.

Chitwood was described as a race driver who had no previous police record and formerly lived in Charlotte County.

Investigators from the four counties are coordinating their efforts through the state agency and will accelerate the investigation when the positive identification is confirmed Thursday.

Entry blanks may be obtained from the Avon Park Recreation Center through Friday and at the park Saturday morning.

The Kids Dog Show is co-sponsored as a public service by the National Recreation and Park Association, Ken-I-Ration and the Avon Park Recreation Department. It is open to all youngsters, four to 14 years old, with dogs six months old or older.

There will be seven categories of judging including best trick dog, smallest dog, largest dog, best looking, best costumed, funniest and best behaved, plus a Best of Show winner chosen from first place winners.

Dogs may participate in the show regardless of pedigree, breed or special training. Dogs, however, must be leashed and have their rabies shots. First, second and third prizes will be awarded in each category and merit badges will be awarded all participants.

More information can be obtained from the recreation department at 453-6881.

Only five children were at the pet clinic last Saturday and it was canceled by Guenther due to lack of participation.

Who Gets Insurance Money?

The insurance company is perfectly willing to pay — if the court will just decide who is to have the money, according to a decision now facing Second District Court of Appeal.

Suits to force insurance companies to pay are run-of-the-mill in circuit court, but in a suit filed in February 1974, "the shoe is on the other foot," Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States filed suit against Naomi E. Keeny, Margaret Greinman and Barnett Barnett at Sebring.

The suit asked the court to decide which of the defendants would be the proper beneficiary of a $4,000 settlement from a life insurance policy belonging to the late George Fleischmann of Sebring.

Fleischmann had named his wife as beneficiary. In the suit Equitable Life explained that under the terms of the policy, if the beneficiary has died and no successor has been named, the value of the policy will be paid to the estate, proceeds to be administered along with other assets.

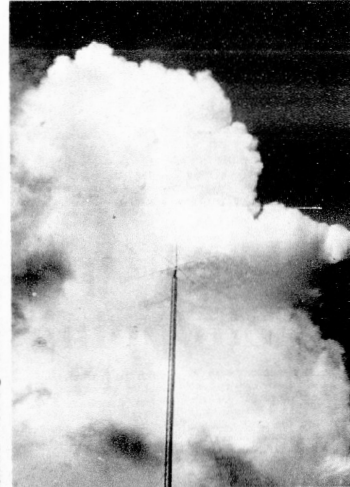

Mrs. Fleischmann preceded her husband in death. On April 14, 1973, Fleischmann named one of his neighbors, Naomi Keeny, beneficiary for the Equitable policy. He died five days later.

A granddaughter, Margaret Greinman, principal heir under Fleischmann's will, contended that her 86-year-old grandfather had been incompetent at the time he made Mrs. Keeny his beneficiary.

Under a trust agreement made in 1968, the trust department of Barnett Barnett at Sebring had become executor of the estate, and the insurance company raised the question whether the policy funds should be paid into the estate to be administered by the bank.

Circuit Court Judge Thomas Langston ruled that Fleischmann had been incompetent to make a decision about the insurance policy.

In addition to barring Mrs. Keeny's receiving the insurance money, the court ruled that court costs for the original suit must be borne by Mrs. Keeny. Her attorney asked a re-hearing and when that was denied, the whole case was appealed to a higher court.

Building Drops In July

Building permits issued during July by the Avon Park Building Department fell almost $75,000 below the year total but stayed well above the May permits indicating a steady growth of progress in building in the city.

Total permits issued in July was $160,145 compared to June's total of $234,386 and May's $82,751.

The bulk of July's new building total was in commercial building with permits issued for two commercial buildings for Jahna Concrete and a smaller replacement building for Macapash Corp. accounted for the commercial building.

There were no new residential building permits issued during the month reflecting a difference in June and July. The major part of July's building permits was for residential building with nine units.

During July, 21 permits valued at $90,146 were issued for additions and alterations.

Building permits fees for July totaled $704.50 compared to June's total of $1,286.50.

There were a total of 34 building permits and 37 building inspections. In other permits and inspections, the July report reflects: Electrical, five permits, 11 inspections; Plumbing, four permits, nine inspections; Air conditioning, three permits, seven inspections; Gas, two permits, three inspections; and Fence, three permits, five inspections.

There were a total of 34

County Accepts Southern Standard Building Code

Updated building regulations recommended by the Southern Standard Code Congress were accepted by county commissioners with minor changes.

Chairman C. J. "Buddy" Wise instructed building director Dale Campbell to inform all future permit applicants that the county's building code has been revised.

At last week's meeting Campbell had proposed adoption of revised mechanical, building, swimming pool, plumbing and electrical codes as recommended by the Southern Standard Code Congress.

Commissioners balked at accepting the modernized codes without having read the changes proposed.

Tuesday Commissioner Norman "Jug" Heston objected to a provision of the revised building code that required every new dwelling to be equipped with a smoke detection system.

Device is explained that the device is intended to warn residents of a fire. He recommended that its use in condominiums and apartments be required but that one and two family dwellings be exempted from the

Highlands County Woman Convicted In Murder Case

Jeanette Armstrong, 19, was found guilty of second degree murder in her trial Thursday in the shooting deaths of a Wauchula couple, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kersey, April 1.

The Lake Placid woman was tried separately from her alleged two companions in the crime, her husband, Sampson Armstrong of Lake Placid and her stepfather Earl Edmunds of Wauchula.

The slain couple were parents of another Lake Placid woman, Mrs. Edwin Butcher, who told The News Wednesday her parents had been Wauchula residents since 1937 or 1938.

Trials of the two men will probably begin next week, Hardee County Circuit Judge

William Norris said. There has been some effort on the part of the pair's attorneys to have their trial moved out of Hardee County but no decision has been reached on that request.

Frank Oberhausen, Sebring attorney, defended Mrs. Armstrong before the jury which found her guilty last week.

He contended Mrs. Armstrong was "just a bystander" to the crime which claimed the lives of the couple, but the state said her bloody footprints were found inside the house and on items in the yard.

The elderly Kerses—she was 88 and she 75—have five other children living between Lake Placid and Lakeland, Mrs. Butcher said. Mr. Kersey was an ordained minister in the Church of God.

"We can't imagine why they shot them so many times," Mrs. Butcher said. "They were so trusting: Dad was everyone's friend."

Mrs. Butcher said she had not attended the trial of Jeanette Armstrong, but was kept informed by Mrs. Connie Delaney of the Lake Placid Journal who travels to Wauchula weekly.

The Kersey's home has been locked by the sheriff's department since the crime, Mrs. Butcher said, so the family has not been able to estimate what if any items were missing. There have been frequent break-ins, she said, causing the sheriff's department to seal it.

The other two defendants are represented by Michael Trombley, Sebring attorney; and the firm of Hayward Davis and James Tompkins of Lake Placid.

Mrs. Armstrong's sentencing will be withheld, Judge Norris said, until the other trials and pre-sentence investigations are completed.

Motor Homes Authorized For U.S. Senators

Under the terms of the Second Supplemental Appropriations bill recently passed by Congress, the man you elected to office may now be brought that office to you.

Robert E. Quinn, president of the Florida Mobilehome and Recreational Vehicle Association, advised members of that organization recently.

Public Law 94-32 authorized reimbursement to each U.S. Senator for the lease and operation of one mobile office for use in his home state.

In approving the bill, the senate committee indicated it envisioned the use of various models of "self-propelled recreational vehicles, but without water facilities, stove and other amenities usually provided for recreational purposes. The units would be equipped with more powerful generating units to power electric typewriters, and desks or tables and chairs that are usual in a law office."

The law imposes several limitations on the authority to lease a mobile office. The lease cannot be for more than one year. The rental payments plus operating expenses may not exceed a sum related to the particular senator's authorization for office space — thus the rental allowance will vary from senator to senator. The lease must contain a provision which includes liability insurance in the amount of $1 million.

"As American as apple pie," the saying goes, and the apple pie probably is the country's favorite. But the apple can be used in many other bakery forms: apple dumplings, apple strudel, apple muffins, apple pancakes, applesauce cake, and many others. Thriftily, apples require little or no sugar in cooking. Too much applesauce, however, makes them mushy.

When Women's Lib thing stings that all references to different sexes be minimized is getting ridiculous. I notice more and more news releases using the word chairperson instead of chairman or chairwoman. Personally, I use chairman, regardless of the sex of the person.

When you really start thinking about it, look at the cost in time and money. Time—eleven words which might be changed to placate the women's libbers. Woman because all the dictionaries would have to be rewritten and we would all have to buy new ones.

For instance, that textbook we all used in school would become a personal instead of a manual. Your husband or father would become a person instead of a man.

And to chain someone up you would use personacles instead of manacles. Store or business heads would then personage instead of manage and would be called personager. Courts would issue a personadum instead of a mandamus.

You would be reading news stories which go something like "Congress received a persondate from the people."

It would become personatory to send children to school, pay taxes and so forth instead of mandatory. And that beautiful Hawaiian music would be played on a personodlin instead of a mandolin.

And that baboon most of them think man descended from would become a persondrill instead of a mandrill. Soldiers would go on personsevers instead of maneuvers. Armies would be all personkind, the mutilator would personage his victims instead of mangle them.

Abused wives would be personshamed instead of manhandled. That delicious trout fruit would become a persongo instead of mango.

Postal rates would really shoot up because the Postoffice department would have to go to the expense of changing things when places like Manhattan become Personshattan. Street and sewer workers would be crawling into personholes instead of manholes. And businesses would be concerned with personhours instead of manhours. Criminals would be the subject of personshots instead of manshots.

Madness would become personia instead of mania and a maniac would be a personia. We would go to the beauty salon to get a personcure instead of a manicure.

We would make personake evidence instead of make a manifest. And that thing on the car would become a personfool instead of a manifold. That mannequin in the store window would then be a personnequin.

And that miraculous food from heaven would be personson instead of manna so all the Bibles would have to be rewritten. Or maybe the Revised Standard Version of the Bible already changed Mary, the mother of Jesus, from a virgin to a young woman.

It would revoke the Mann Act which makes interstate transportation of women for immoral purposes, or white slavery, a federal offense because that person who sponsored the law would have to change his name and anyway we would all be just persons anyway.

A method of doing things would become a personer instead of a manner and impolite people would become personless instead of mannerless. Manish women, oh, pardon me—manish persons would become personish.

History would have to be rewritten because Napoleon I would have to call himself Person of Destiny instead of Man of Destiny and Jesus would have to be recalled the Person of Galilee instead of Man of Galilee.

Persons who live in the Green Mountains in northern Vermont would have to get used to saying Mr. Persfield instead of Mr. Mansfield, the highest peak.

The police would have to charge persons with personlaughter instead of manslaughter and that shelf above the fireplace would become personel instead of mantel.

A woman's veil—pardon me, again—person's veil would become a personilla instead of mantilla. And one of my unreasonable fears would become fear of a praying personis instead of a praying mantis.

I would be typing on a personal typewriter instead of a manual and the people who made it would personature them instead of manufacture them.

And these women who cry for liberation would be wanting personomission instead of manumission.

Our prayers would have to be ended with Apeople instead of Amen. But let's go all the way. A girl Friday would become a person Friday and so on and so on.

Ridiculous, isn't it? Yet this is only the humorous side. The real consequences are much more sinister and I'll go into that later.

Soil Conservation District News

By SAM POLSTON
District Conservationist
Approximately 25 Highlands County farm fish pond owners received channel catfish fingerlings last week. This is the last year this service will be offered through the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Hatchery at Welaka, Fla. in cooperation with the Highlands Soil and Water Conservation District.

The ponds now being stocked with catfish will be stocked later this fall with bluegill bream and completed next spring with bass.

The Soil Conservation Service over the past 20 years has provided technical assistance in the design and management of several hundred farm ponds in Highlands County, as well as other counties throughout the state and nation.

These farm fish ponds have not only furnished recreation and relaxation but served as a food source for the family table. Many have expressed concern for the future of the farm fish pond program, but at present, it hangs in limbo, awaiting the final decision of what will be done with the existing hatchery facilities.

Eckerd Opens At Center

Medical with a secondary MOS of demolitions.

At present Bobby is on inactive status with Co. A 11th Special Forces at Tampa. Since his discharge from active military service Bobby has been trying to find a job working at the Citrus Research Station at Lake Alfred, being a chemist at a citrus processing plant and others but none had the challenges and the job satisfaction that he found after joining the Eckerd Drug Store Sales Team at Seabrook Shopping Center in Lakeland in March 1971.

It was at an Eckerd Drug Store that Bobby met his wife Sylvia Pickles of Lake Wales when he hired her to work at the store. They have two children Scotty, three years of age and Eric, seven months old.

Bobby became manager of Eckerd's Wauchula Store on Feb. 14, 1970 even though he had known that he would be coming as manager to the Avon Park Store. At present he is commuting from his home in Winter Haven but he expects to locate in the Avon Park area. For hobbies he likes the extremes of scuba diving and sky diving and for diversion he plays sand lot football.

Coming to the Eckerd's Avon Park Store as assistant manager Deanie Irby is the only feminine Assistant Manager in the Clearwater Division of the drug store chain.

Deanie was born at Bragg City, Mo. and attended schools in that area before coming to Wauchula with her parents. She graduated from Hardee High School and married Tommy Irby, a vegetable and livestock grower, in 1964. They have one daughter, Tammy, who is nine years old and will be in the fifth grade this fall.

A friend working at the Wauchula Eckerd's Store asked Deanie if she would like to try working at Eckerd's. Thus on Dec. 1, 1970 Deanie started work as a cashier in the drugs.

cosmetics and cameras departments. Deanie's promotion to assistant manager came in August 1974. She finds commuting from Wauchula more time consuming than when working at the Wauchula Store but like the work hours that give her every other afternoon off to be with her family and for doing gourmet cooking and PTA work.

Ophthalmologist Joins Hospitals

Staff

Dr. Frederick H. Keiber has joined the staffs of Highlands General and Walker Memorial Hospitals. He is an ophthalmologist, a medical eye doctor, with offices in the medical center behind Highlands General.

Dr. Keiber is one of those rare individuals, a native Floridian. He was born at Camp Blanding during the war, when his father was in charge of all POW camps in Florida and Georgia.

Dr. Keiber attended high school in Winter Haven, was an undergraduate at Gainesville, graduating with a BS in chemistry and from the University of Miami Medical School in 1972.

For the past three years he has been with the Greater Baltimore Medical Center, during which time he was sent to Pakistan for a month of field work, sponsored by the hospital's missionary group. In September 1974 he performed 300 cataract operations.

He told The News that Pakistan has only 14 ophthalmologists for the entire population and during one busy season two doctors handled 150-200 cataract operations daily, in addition to 300 office visits.

He and his wife Rosemary have three sons; Scott, 5; Michael, 3 and Eric, 1. They moved to Sebring from Winter Haven because they have always liked Central Florida. They have bought the former home of Dr. Gregg Walters.

Dr. Keiber's business hours, by appointment only, are on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9-5.

Mrs. Lessie McAfee

Artistic Talent

Displayed By Local Woman

Artistic talent is something few people know they have until they experiment with it. There's no set age to "find out" if one possesses a God-given talent, the first step is to sit down and create something. Luckily, one might discover, as Mrs. Lessie McAfee did, that one can be artistically creative.

The resident of Avon Park since 1927, Mrs. McAfee, has just completed a shell mat to place over her son's grave. It took her less than a month to make and the only work on it in her spare time.

Mrs. McAfee's son Herbert died on March 8, 1970 at the age of 33 after a long illness. He is buried at Gardner Cemetery in Arcadia and his son's tomb will be the only one covered with shells, but not for long because Mrs. McAfee will start on mats for the graves of three of her sisters.

"After my son died I was sitting here alone with nothing to do, I had learned to crochet when I was young but I never did it. So I started making dolls, pillows, flowers from egg carlons, pictures frames and all kinds of things," Mrs. McAfee said. "I had some shells which I've been collecting for a long time so I decided to do this."

A number of "all kinds of artistic things" sit in Mrs. McAfee's residence. She sells her articles or gives them to friends and relatives. Mrs. McAfee confesses that she has no pattern for any of her work. "I couldn't tell you how I make them, but I'm always making something."

The idea of patenting her work has crossed Mrs. McAfee's mind but she's not sure whether she'll do it. "I do want people to tell me if they're thinking of imitating my work."

Mrs. McAfee is the mother of five sons and has been a widow since 1936. "I did a lot of washing and ironing to put my sons through high school," she said. Now she's substituted that for a more enjoyable task.

Goodbyes and good luck were said to Mrs. Vivian Warren who is moving to Apopka this week to be with her daughter, Mrs. Ted Beaulieu and family.

The September meeting will be the 10th. Be well to mark calendar so we can remember to attend.

Mrs. Opal Phlegar had as her house guest Mrs. Thelma Wilson, from Hialeah. During the week that she was here they visited many of their former co-workers of Cottrell Nursing Home in Sebring where they served as nurses and aides.

Mrs. Sadie Whitehurst had her son Edward, his wife and son of Bonifay, Fla. visiting her. Mr. Whitehurst and family will be moving back here and will be associated with APCL.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall have been Mrs. Imogene Marshall and her son James of Butler, Penn. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Marshall and son Charles of Canton, Ohio, Mrs. Margaret Ward of Gibsonville, Fla. and Mrs. Paul Vrooman of Palmetto, Fla.

We were saddened by the death of one of our residents, Mrs. Lettie Witt, on Thursday at Walker Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Opal Phlegar visited her friend Mrs. Della Clark at the Barlow Convalescent Home, Friday.

Work Day

Set For

Bicentennial

Project

Work day is September 6 for Greater Florida area residents who can help with the renovation of the former elementary school on Oak Ave. and U.S. 98 as a Bicentennial Community Center project.

About 30 persons were on hand for a Friday planning session, chaired by president Everett Boney. A covered dish dinner is planned for the day-long work program which will concentrate on the largest of the four rooms in the structure, he said.

Mrs. Norma Stokes and Mrs. Bornee Boney reported the school board had already installed a new pump, repaired rest rooms, had a security light building by Glades Co-op and repaired a leaking roof.

Now, using donated materials and volunteer labor the community wants to show its appreciation by helping further with replacing window panes, washing and painting walls and windows and repaving the outside landscaping, Boney said.

The association set a meeting for Friday, Sept. 12, to begin work on possible activities at the structure which may include adult education, recreational activity and possibly a kindergarten and first grade in the facility next year.

Two real estate courses will be offered on campus at South Florida Junior College during the fall semester which begins Aug. 21.

Bond Savings Increase In County

A. Clewis Howell, state volunteer Savings Bonds chairman reported bond sales in Highlands County of $480,000 during the first six months of 1975. The county reached 70.2 per cent of its yearly goal on June 30.

He noted that Series E Bonds represented 95 per cent of the state sales. He pointed out that the increase was primarily due to the increase in savers on the Payroll Savings Plan and also the popularity of the new red, white and blue Bicentennial design Series E Bond.

chuck holes in all parts of the city. In the patching of these holes city workmen started using hot mix asphalt as the cold mix was not always available. Council Vice-president Milton Howard suggested the cold mix be used again for patching as the hot mix was not holding in the holes. Consequently the street department will stockpile a quantity of the cold mix for street repair.

Another item brought before the council from time to time is the matter of dead tree removal. Why doesn't the citizen remove the dead tree from his yard? Most of the time these dead trees are on city right-of-way. Then too there may be electric power lines or other utility lines that need to be avoided in removing the dead trees.

There is the mowing of street right-of-way in all sections of the city. Of special interest to users of the Lake Talune Beaches are the sharp stump ends of Australian pine trees cut off by the city. It was requested by Councilman Robert Britt that these be cut off at the ground or bulldozer out.

Councilman Larry Albritton told of receiving a call for an icebreaker at the city barn. It was questioned if this was a budgeted item or not? But then it was brought out that the school students who used most of the ice had only one day of work left under the Federal program and that there was only one month of summer left.

A CB radio for the Police Department was a matter of concern — The old radio used in monitoring was not in operating condition and the city could get $25 on trade-in for a new one. Normal range of the radio is 5 to 10 miles.

Councilman Ed Touchton complimented Superintendent John Ziegler and his men for the good work in cleaning up and beautifying the park and picnic area. It was noted that the weeds had started to grow rank on the beach area thus a councilman Albritton and Howard volunteered to spray the weeds with weed killer.

The council in quick action voted to advertise for bids for fence materials for the ballpark complex near the airport.

A discussion of the Housing and Urban Development Conference in St. Petersburg, Oct. 14-15 led to the decision to send Mayor Marshall Davis and City Clerk Malcolm Crews. It was also pointed out that the Florida League of Cities, of which City Clerk Malcolm Crews is president, is having their convention in Orlando, Oct. 24-25 at the Sheraton Towers. Committee meetings take up most of the Friday time with Saturday being given over to the league breakfast and business meeting of the league. Mayor Davis and Councilmen Albritton, Britt, Howard and Touchton indicated they would attend.

Emergency Medical Services Located On Truck Route

The Emergency Medical Services department will be housed in a portion of the building on U. S. 27 formerly occupied by the county tag agency, as its main headquarters. County commissioners were informed of the action in a progress report Tuesday by Administrative Assistant Charles Culens.

Lake Placid's section office will be in the rear office of the Creel Building and in Avon Park, at the old commissioner's office building on the truck route, he added.

Original plans to house the units at area hospitals has snagged because of communications problems, Culens explained.

He won approval of a plan to take delivery of the new ambulances at the LaGrange, Ga. factory — a move which Culens says will enable inspection and changes on the spot if necessary and save the county $360.

Factory pickup under the state's bulk purchasing bid saves $250 per unit, Culens said, which will allow the board to purchase five necessary "modular rail packages" at a factory price of $250 each as opposed to $294.50.

In addition, sending five men by air to pick up the ambulances, paying per diem and gas for the return trip will cost only $513, he continued. John Gerchen, motor vehicle expert, will fly out earlier to perform the inspection and the others will follow when vehicles are officially accepted.

A modular rail package includes blood pressure cuffs, a modular rail, five guides, a mounted flowmeter, mounted manifold section, mount for resuscitator, mounted blood pressure cuff and a wire basket for blood pressure cuffs, the report explained.

Culens said four CETA qualified persons have been selected and one regular employee will transfer into the department. These, with coordinator Wayne Harris, will begin classes at South Florida Junior College, Sept. 2, permitting them to finish defensive driving and first aid and go to work part time Sept. 12 for the department while attending EMS classes to become qualified by the Oct. 1 operations date.

The board also agreed to hire Gregory Bash, already a registered EMT, effective Sept. 16.

In addition, the commission approved the EMS department's Fair Labor Act classification as a "tour of duty" type arrangement to avoid paying overtime for shifts.

In other action Tuesday, commissioners — Denied a request from Lake Placid funeral director Leroy McGehee to survey a privately-owned cemetery. McGehee thanked the board for road maintenance in the Highway Park area and asked that additional streets be considered.

Agreed to "write off" $2,457 in ambulance billings for 1973-75 for persons officially

Car Ownership At High Level In County

Car ownership stands at a high level in Highlands County, figures show.

Despite the fact that purchases of new cars have dropped far below normal in the last year or two, locally and in all other sections of the country, the actual number of cars in operation in the area is greater than ever.

The answer is, in part, that more families are retaining their old cars when buying new ones, than was the case a few years ago. Other families, who were not in the market for new cars during the past year, have taken to fixing up their present models to keep them going longer.

As a result, the average age of today's passenger cars is close to 5.8 years, as against 5.5 years in 1969.

The data on automobile ownership and distribution comes from the American Automobile Association and from market reports issued by the Standard Rate and Data Service.

They show that there was a total of 20,540 cars in operation in Highlands County as of the beginning of this year. Five years ago there were 13,810.

It was an increase of 48.7 per cent, which was greater than in many communities. The rise in the United States was 17.8 per cent, and in the State of Florida, 42.3 per cent.

Related to the local population, there are now some 149 cars in the county for every 100 families.

The number of households sporting two or more cars has increased considerably since 1970. Nationally, according to a recent Census Bureau report, about 34 per cent of all households have two or more.

The growing in Highlands County's auto population has produced additional business for local service stations. Their receipts in the past year, for gas, oil, accessories and repairs, reached $8,978,000. Five years ago it was $5,300,000.

Inspection Stations Report Increased Business

Highlands County inspection stations reported an increase in business for the month of July as compared with July 1974 activity, John J. Gerchen, director, said.

Motor Vehicle Inspection stickers sold totaled 977 in July, 785 in June and 440 in May. At Lake Placid, for a 2,130 total as compared with 2,130 total issued for July 1974. The 1974 figures for Sebring were 1,021, 718 for Avon Park and 410 for Lake Placid.

This activity, plus delinquent fee collections, amounted to a $7,096.60 cash flow for the month, as compared to $6,816.80 for July 1974.

In addition, the Highlands County Sign Shop—located at the MVI station, produced 34 stop signs, 31 reflectors, eight curve signs, three reverse curve signs, 13 no dumping signs, seven speed limit signs, three turn signs, one dead end sign, 45 street name signs, 16 bridge end markers and two tag agency signs.

CALVIN GIBBS

6A The Avon Park Sun, Avon Park, Fla., Aug. 21, 1975

Hi Friends:
This week I am writing from Boston which provides an almost perfect setting for observation and appreciation of our nation's Bicentennial Celebrations.

The Boston Massacre

Yesterday, I visited North End. I could literally feel the spirit of the revolution at the home of Paul Revere. My imagination of bloodshed for country and cause was never more vivid than when I stood at the Old State House. The Boston Commons, and the gravesites at Old Kings Chapel are as traditional American as the Boston Bay and the Boston Tea Party.

To cross the Charles River into Cambridge is to take a degree of culture and dignity. Which the buildings of Harvard themselves seem to reflect.

Throughout the city are landmarks which pose the ideals and principles for which America is all about and to ride upon Boston Hill is to travel in the present and past. Mixed emotions are commonplace as one could imagine the contrast he might experience at Fenway Park, The Combat Zone and at the birthplace of John F. Kennedy, all on the same afternoon.

Yet it is so unfortunate that in another section of this city which along with Philadelphia and a few others seemed to have cradled America liberty, there is confusion and distrust which seems to distort and undermines the causes for which the founding fathers lived and died. My sincere hope and trust for this city is that it restores the faith and dignity upon which it was built and that the Lord God of Host will be with them yet; lest they forget, lest they forget.

Thirty Years Ago Last Week
Thirty years ago last week marked what was to be called V.J. Day (Victory in Japan). I was home from college for the summer where the taste of victory could never have been more welcomed than at that time. I could never forget that a group of us decided to celebrate with a stockingfoot ball at Mrs. Maggie's Place, now Chrises Place on Delaney Ave. (Then Fairfield Ave.) This we decided would reduce the noise and with the music turned down, we could dance the night away. I don't recall how long the celebration lasted, but I do recall that no one hurried home.

With Detente and other joint efforts for peace, maybe the waltz dance will become obsolete.

Brother Charles Gibson, the son of the late Willie and Dossah Gibson, was born March 18, 1909, in Macon, Ga. He lived in Avon Park many years. In Miami, he joined the Greater New Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church.

After serving in the United States Army, he came to Miami and made it his home. He met Miss Alice Williams; and on June 7, 1964, they were united in Holy Matrimony. They lived a beautiful and happy life until he was silenced by the chilly fingers of the Angel of Death, Saturday, August 9th at 12:30 p.m., in the Veteran's Administration Hospital, when his soul winged its flight from this world of sin, sorrow and pain to a place of eternal rest.

He leaves to mourn: a loyal, dutiful and devoted wife, Alice; a daughter, Zebra Williams; a son-in-law, Henry Williams; a sister, Mrs. Maude Harden of Macon, Ga.; a brother, Ed of Avon Park, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

Hazel Dasher

Funeral services for the late Hazel Dasher of Avon Park were held in Chicago last Sunday. Hazel was survived by her mother, Mrs. Lillie B. Dasher; six sisters and brothers, Juanita, Joanne, Regis, Novilla, Willie James and Susie, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, one aunt and friends.

Mrs. Emma Lean (Adams) Dickey, Mrs. Ellen West and Mr. and Mrs. Vernell Fuller, formerly of Avon Park and now of Flint Mich. attended the funeral ceremonies.

Contributions

The list of contributors to the Saint Mark Baptist Church to replace an air conditioner unit is incomplete, yet inadequate. Here's hoping that I can submit a report with your donation included for publication next week.

Thought Conditioner for the Week

This thought conditioner states a very serious warning. If over a long period of time a person habitually fears something, there is a tendency that that fear to become a reality.

For example, if you fear that you are going to fail, and you constantly entertain thoughts of failure, you will create a mental condition that is propitious to failure. Creative, positive, success factors are repelled by your mind because your mind is filled with defeat attitudes.

On the contrary if you hold the faith thought, the positive thought, you will create about yourself an atmosphere propitious to success, health and well being.

The thing which I greatly feared is came upon me that which I was afraid of is come unto me. Job 3:25.

Yours truly,

Calvin Gibbs

Letters To Regents Would Help Hurner

An individual letter writing campaign to members of the Board of Regents of the State of Florida would be more effective than petitions bearing hundreds of names, County Attorney Robert P. Dunty Jr. suggested at Tuesday's county commission meeting.

Dunty reported to the plight of G. Tim Hurner, acting extension agent, who is caught between the refusal of the University of Florida's Dean of the Extension Service Dr. Joe Busby to affirm his promotion to the agent's post, and an equally adamant county commission which refuses to allow anyone else to assume the post.

County Commissioner Kenneth Wilkinson said he had been "approached by at least 100 people on the matter recently" and added, "Ninety-nine of them want to sign a petition or something favoring Hurner's official appointment to the post" — vacated Jan. 1 by the retirement of Bert Harris Jr.

In reporting his own intentions to petition the Regents, Dunty said he felt as the immediate supervisors of Busby, their discussion on the matter of requiring a master's degree for an employee technically considered a U. of F. faculty member would be "most beneficial," and added he hoped the matter could be on the next Regent's meeting agenda.

Dunty said he felt "Dr. Busby is immovable" on the matter of the MA requirement, just as the county is adamant on its insistence of a "moral obligation" to Hurner, who was promised the promotion when hired nine years ago — six years prior to the MA requirement being made. Dunty said the names and addresses of Board of Regents members are available from his office or the public libraries.

Reserved Seat Tickets On Sale At Office

Reserved seat tickets and season tickets for the five home football games of the Avon Park Red Devils are on sale at the high school office. Those persons who held reserved seat tickets last year may renew those same seats from now through Sept. 4 for $1 per ticket and the purchase of one adult or student season ticket for each reserved ticket. Adult season tickets are $8 and student tickets are $4 each.

Season tickets also admit the holder to all junior varsity games and all junior high games played at Memorial Field. The tickets represent a savings of one game for both adult and student for the five home games scheduled for the Devils.

From Sept. 5 through Sept. 19, persons who have renewed their reserved seat tickets may exchange them for other available seats in the reserved area in the south stands between the forty yard lines.

Then on Sept. 22 the remaining unpurchased reserved seat tickets will go on sale. They will be sold in order to those who have placed their name on a waiting list for available reserved seats. Persons may be placed on the waiting list by calling the high school office and asking for Mrs. Peggy Sisemore or Athletic Director Joe Franza.

The five Red Devil home games will be played starting Oct. 10 on five consecutive Friday nights starting with Wauchula. Then the schedule calls for Frostproof, N. Fort Myers, Fort Meade and Bartow in order. The Devils open the 1975 season in Mulberry on Sept. 12, play Lake Placid down there on Sept. 19 and in Arcadia against DeSoto High on Sept. 26. There is an open date scheduled for Oct. 3. The Devils close out the season with Okeechobee and Sebring in away games.

Age Is No Barrier For Anyone Who Wants To Participate In Karate

Young and old alike are taking advantage of karate classes taught by a master at karate, Jack Johns, at the Avon Park Recreation Center each Monday and Wednesday night from 7 to 9 p.m.

Ages of participants range from the tender age of eight to 41, the oldest one presently participating. Although it is an active activity, Johns said age is no barrier and anyone in moderate health is capable of participating.

Karate originated in China and the art drifted into Japan and Okinawa then caught hold in Japan. It differs from judo and jiu-jitsu in that a philosophy of striving for a clean mind and honor are a part of the total karate training. Judo is strictly a sport, more like wrestling, and jiu-jitsu is complete defense in which weapons are sometimes used. Both are far more dangerous than karate.

Johns is a master of jiu-jitsu, as well as karate. Johns said two students, Stan Ward and Scott Whidden, are nearly ready for the gold belt. Belt colors designate the level of proficiency in karate with a black belt being the highest level.

Information regarding enrolling in the classes may be obtained by call 453-5260 or by dropping by the Recreation Center on N. Verona on class nights.

Slow Pitch League Ends Tonight

The regular season will close out tonight (Thursday) in the Avon Park women's softball league with the league-leading Soul Children taking on Cox Plumbing in the seven o'clock game and the Patriots playing Jahna Concrete in the second game.

After last week's play the Soul Children continued to lead the five-team league with a perfect 6-0 record. They defeated Jahna Concrete 11-1 on Tuesday of last week and then were rained out after one inning of play last Thursday night in a game with Beane's Sports Center. That game was rescheduled for last Monday night.

The Patriots held on to second place with a 4-2 record with a 201 win over Beane's Sports Center in their lone game of last week. Jahna Concrete stayed in contention for second place with a 9-2 win over Cox Plumbing last Thursday night in a rain-interrupted game that finally went seven innings. Jahna is now 3-3 for the year.

Beane's and Cox remained tied for last place with records of 1 win and 5 losses. All five teams were to play two games this week. Beane's had the rained out game with the Soul

Children on Monday and then were scheduled to play Jahna Concrete last Tuesday in the early game. Cox Plumbing and the Patriots were to meet in the second game last Tuesday night. Tonight's action will close out the season and trophies will be presented to the champion team and the second place team.

Starting tomorrow night (Friday, Aug. 22) the Avon Park Women's Softball Association will sponsor a slow-pitch tournament for teams from the surrounding area. The first game will start at 6 p.m. on Friday and play will continue through Saturday.

Recreation Activities Increases

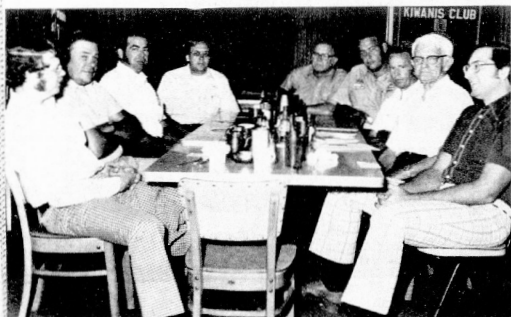

The monthly Recreation Department report given to the Avon Park City Council showed an average of 85 individuals using the Recreation Center per week from July 14 to Aug. 11 with an average of 135 persons per week taking part in scheduled special events.

Attendance varied between 502 for the fourth week of the report to 574 during the second week. While special activities attracted 79 the third week of the report 167 during the last week.

Special activities for the four week period included: Tieding, basketball tournament between Sebring and Avon Park, Karate Club, Swimming and baton lesson, 4-H Club; tournaments, basketball, eight-ball and bumper pool; Frisbee contest; women's volleyball, group relay, ceramic painting, CB meeting, bingo for kids and Recreation committee meeting.

The activities attracting the most persons were: the basketball tournaments, 4-H club and swimming. Red Cross certificates were earned by those passing the Red Cross swimming tests, while other received achievement certificates for completing the swimming course.

Although a large number of youths had signed up for the sports clinics, basketball, baseball and football, they were dropped because not enough attended to warrant continuing the clinics.

AT A BUSINESS-breakfast meeting the Avon Park High School Athletic Association discussed plans for the coming year. Plans included support of all athletic activities. The first scheduled activity is a chicken barbecue on Sept. 5 for members, prospective members and wives. Left to right: Les Watson, Principal, Avon Park

Barbeque Planned Sept. 5

At a Board of Directors breakfast meeting the Avon Park High School Athletic Association discussed plans for the athletic activities of the coming school year.

President of the association Lew Mundt outlined tentative plans for the coming year starting with a barbecue chicken dinner on Sept. 5 for members, prospective members and their wives. The three dollar membership dues per year includes membership in the association, reserve parking at football games and the chicken barbecue.

The association will also have a fish fry on October 10 before the first home game, with Wauchula appearing at Memorial Field. The Association is thinking of having two sports banquets, one at the end of the football season and the second in the spring honoring athletes in other sports.

President Lew stressed that this year the association would be working towards supporting all of the sports programs at the high school. Last year membership in the association was 98, but Lew hopes that by supporting all sports programs in the school that they will gain additional support from parents and others interested in the high school sports activities.

Sidney Crawford And Anthony Accorsi

Two Attorneys Open Office Here

It's a fact that Avon Park is attracting people to stay. It seems that the quiet life and the natural beauty surrounding the area is alluring people who want to make it their permanent home, people whose talents and professions are making Avon Park an even "better home."

Among the newcomers it's important to mention Sidney M. Crawford and Anthony A. Accorsi, both attorneys at law who've recently started their practice in Avon Park.

Crawford, a native of nearby Lake Wales, graduated from Florida State University School of Law in December of 1974, he also received his undergraduate degree at Florida State and prior to coming to Avon Park practiced law in Sebring.

Accorsi, of Burlington, Vermont, graduated from the University of Florida Law

School in June of 1974 and did his undergraduate work at the University of Vermont.

"We met through our wives who were both teaching at Avon Park Middle School," Crawford said and added that they've been partners for two months. Kathy, Crawford's wife, is now teaching Reading at Avon Park High School and recently received her PhD from Florida State in Reading and Language Arts. Mrs. Susan Accorsi will be teaching Sewing courses at South Florida Junior College and substituting in different area schools.

"One of the reasons why we came to Avon Park is that we have a 9-month-old son," Crawford said. "I lived in several big cities and small towns as a child and I think it's better to bring up children in a place like this. Besides, my wife's parents live in Frostproof."

"My wife and I enjoy meeting the people, Accorsi said, "I like a place that's not too crowded and where one can enjoy the outdoors." He replied that both he and Crawford are golfers and like to water ski in the lakes around Avon Park.

Both men anticipate a growth in Avon Park but not so much that it would lose its charm and uniqueness.

Increased Number Of B & E's Reported To Police

A series of breaking and enterings were the main items on the Avon Park Police Department reports during the past week.

Steve Roberts of Ridge Florist, 420 W. Main St. reported to police Sunday that someone had removed a small air conditioner but apparently nothing was missing.

William C. Smith, 708 W. Canfield, reported theft of jewelry valued at $400 Sunday afternoon following a breaking and entering at his residence. A break-in at the residence of James Stark, 618 S. Verona, Sunday resulted in no loss according to reports.

Firecrackers and 22 calibre ammunition valued at $10 was taken from the residence of J. Wayne Edwards, 122 E. Canfield, after someone entered through a window.

Nancy Handing Don A Nice Bass She Just Caught

Enjoying The Good Life

"Oh, the gallant fisher's life; It is the best of any 'Till full of pleasure, void of strife."

And 'tis beloved by many." English author Isaac Walton wrote these lines in 1653 in his fishing classic "The Compleat Angler." Fishermen here in Florida might not describe fishing in such a poetical manner, but to dedicated sportsmen such as Don and Nancy Williams, fishing means far more than words can say.

Don and Nancy, from Frostproof and Avon Park, respectively, were the owners of Camp Lester, located off Route 60 on the Kissimmee River, for the last 12 years. At the beginning of August they sold the camp "to have more time to relax and enjoy fishing without the preoccupations of managing a camp."

Presently, Don, Nancy and their 15 year old son "Little Don (5'11")" are enjoying a fishing vacation in Mexico.

The Bucketmouth, a fishing monthly magazine published in Winter Haven, states in its August issue that "Don and Nancy have always been active in conservation and have fought many winning battles to help anglers throughout Florida." From Nancy's parents, Charles and Helen Ginn who've resided in Avon Park for more than 40 years, we learned that Don was past president of the Lake Wales Jaycees, and is now president of the Lake Wales Chamber of Commerce.

Ginn said that his son in law helped organize the first State Bass Association and was also active in organizing the first bass pay tournament, which was held in Camp Lester and attracted 90 anglers from all over Florida.

Both Nancy and Don have been active in publishing fishing magazines such as Outdoor Life and Sports and Field. Their immediate plans are to settle in a home they've built on two lots on Camp Lester and "to continue enjoying fishing to its fullest."

Equipment For Rec. Department Discussed

The Avon Park Recreation Council in their report to the city council stated that approximately $410 was cleared on the fish dinner that was held in conjunction with the Fourth of July Bicentennial Kick-off Celebration. Plans are underway to determine what type of equipment should be purchased for the Rec Center or what repairs should be made at the center with the funds.

The July 28 meeting as reported by Ellen Martin, secretary, listed as the main item of business the request for the use, two nights a week, of the upstairs gym at the center for karate classes by teacher Jack Johns. There were approximately 40 persons enrolled in the classes with about 25 attending regularly, with fees for the course of $2.50 per month.

Avon Park policemen would be taught free of charge in return for use of the gym for two nights a week from 7 to 9 p.m. The committee felt this would cut two nights from the time that children could use the gym for basketball and other games. Therefore it was suggested that the karate classes be held at the middle school gym. (City council action later approved of the use of the gym for the karate classes for two nights during the week.

Recreation Director Dennis Guenther, gave a report on center activities. A swimming class had been completed and all enough interest is shown another will be given. Junior League Tennis was started while the sports clinic and baton lessons were not as well attended as sign-ups had indicated.

A KID'S Dog Show (for 4 to 14 year olds) is scheduled for Aug. 23 in Donaldson Park with all of the supplies being furnished by Ken-L Ration. Thursday, Aug. 28 is designated as Play Day, with games and watermelon eating, to signal the end of the summer recreation program.

Another item of business coming before the committee was the request by the Avon Park Garden Club asking for the use of the ground floor of the center in January or February for a flower show. This would mean the center would possibly have to be closed for the use of children for four days. The possibility of closing the center for the week of the show to make some necessary repairs, especially the gym floor was discussed but this would depend on action by the city council.

Church Standings Unsettled

The Church Division Softball teams have completed their official schedule, but are still involved in making up their rain-out games. There are several teams still in the running for the top two spots and a total of six teams competing for the first four positions. These four teams will play in a post-season tournament.

All the make-ups will be completed by Friday, August 22, so that any ties for the first four spots can be played-off as soon as possible. There will be a first and second place trophy awarded and trophies given for the tournament winner and runner-up.

The Church Division play this season was much more exciting with the addition of the post-season tournament. This incentive keeps alive many of the teams that recorded losses early in the season. There was much more enthusiasm coming down to the close, because of the fact that the first four finishers will play in this tournament.

The three teams locked into the tournament are the Nazarenes, Seventh Day Adventist and First Baptist No. 1.

The fourth spot is still up for grabs among Church of Christ, First Baptist No. 2, and Episcopalians. With ten trained out games to play before Friday, the league standings are still subject to change. As of last Tuesday morning the standings were: Nazarenes 13-3; Seventh Day Adventist 12-3, with a game to play; 1st Baptist 11-4 with one game; Church of Christ 8-6 with two games; 1st Baptist II and Episcopalians were 7-7 with two make-up games each; Fellowship Baptist were 3-11 and two make-up games and Presbyterian 1-15.

Official Gives Rotarians Look Into Future

Florida Power Corporation Vice-president John Gleason gave the Avon Park Rotary Club a glimpse of what might be in store for America if we did not go ahead with the development of nuclear power plants.

For one thing Americans can forget the present standard of living most of us enjoy. Energy means jobs - jobs mean dollars to spend - limited energy means limited dollars to spend for everything we buy which will be much higher due to the increase in the cost of our fuel supply.

Introduced by program Chairman Chuck Watson, John pointed out the Arabs are much in the position of a country that controls all the world's supply of aspirin while the rest of the world has a headache.

only five units from the plant. At the present time France is leading in the development of nuclear energy. Even if we don't go ahead with development of our nuclear sources we will still be exposed to the supposed dangers that our environmentalists scream about, while the rest of the world is going ahead. No other form of energy is capable of meeting our needs.

Will our electric bills come down if nuclear power development goes ahead," asked John Gleason? Probably not - there are other increasing cost-price squeezes in the picture, but given the freedom to plan and develop the necessary plants to supply our requirements we can work to keep shortages from developing - oil prices from going higher and keep the means of production humming in America.

At the present time 71 million Americans are producing while 81 million more are living off these. Short energy supplies can only widen the gap between working Americans and those who are idle.

Hutchins-Townsend Take Top Boat Race Honors

Racing drivers Jeff Hutchins and Fred Townsend of Florida took top honors in their classes at the Stock Outboard National Championship Races at Daytona, O. last Saturday and Sunday after a week of preliminary racing in which over 900 racing craft took part.

Hutchins took top honors in the A Stock Hydro Championship Class, in which 104 boats were entered, and the 25 Super Stock Hydro Championship Class race. Townsend raced his boat to the number one spot in the B Stock Hydro Championship race. Both Hutchins and Townsend, of Miami, have run in the outboard races on Lake Tulane with Townsend serving on occasion as race chairman of the local races.

Another contender in the B Stock Hydro Races, with 72 boats entered in the class, Frank Hendry of Frostproof missed qualifying for the final heat by two seconds even though he overtook and passed four racers in his heat. Hendry is a partner in the Florida Orange Racing team which includes Norman Langston of Avon Park and Dempsey Albritton of Bowling Green.

Trees Increase Value Of Homesites

Trees in your yard? Money in the bank! Recently, the U.S. Forest Service conducted a study to determine if trees present on a homestead added value to the selling price of a home.

Dr. Brian R. Paine of the Northeast Forest Experimental Station conducted a poll of realtors and property owners to determine the value of trees on homesites. Results showed that properties with trees are worth 5 per cent to nearly 20 per cent more than properties without trees.

From conversations with local builders and developers here in South Florida, Roy Hopke, Division of Forestry, Okeechobee, feels that tree values may be even higher in this area.

"Builders have often told me that homes with shade trees sell first and at a higher price than without shade trees. As a result, many of them are taking extra precautions to protect trees during construction," said Hopke.

One hasn't been lucky enough to buy a home with shade trees, all is not lost. South Florida has some of the fastest growing varieties in the world.

The Division of Forestry can provide homeowners with 24 species of old potted seedlings, at a cost of 35 cents per tree plus tax and delivery. For information on how to order seedlings or how to protect shade trees during construction, write County Forester Roy Hopke, Rt. 2 Box 200, Okeechobee, or call (813) 763-2191. Information is free.

Student Participating In Science Research Program

Frank Anderson is among 92 hand-picked high school students from throughout Florida participating in the 17th annual Summer Science and Engineering Research Participation Program at the University of Florida, Gainesville.

Directed by Dr. Elizabeth Abbott, physical science professor at the university, the program is co-sponsored by the Florida Foundation for Future Scientists, the National Science Foundation, the Florida Heart Association, the Florida American Cancer Society, the Volusia Heart Association and private donations. They underwrite the students' living expenses with scholarships ranging up to $500.

Frank, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin H. Anderson, 412 N. Lake, Avon Park, is 16 years old and will be a senior at Avon Park High School this fall.

Also participating in the program is Mary Norman of Lake Placid. Her project is entitled "Nutrient and Quality Retention During Home Processing."

Frank's project is "The Effects and Techniques of Super Pressures."

Douglass To Be Honored

Friends and co-workers of George Douglas are invited to participate in an appreciation program in honor of the Highlands County school superintendent.

Appreciation Night will be Wednesday, Aug. 27 at 8 p.m. in the Agri-Civic Center on U.S. 27, three miles south of Sebring.

Guests are asked to be seated before 8, when the evening's group activities.

The entire group donated their services to act as judges and other type officials at the Florida Special Olympics held for retarded children from across the state on the UF campus this summer. They have also had the opportunity to see the Florida State Museum and the Aerospace, Engineering, Food Science and Medical laboratories. Off-campus weekend trips have taken them to the Crystal River Marine Science Laboratory and to Oleno State Park for a geology study.

Busby appeared before commissioners on April 8 to explain that the masters degree requirement and its strict enforcement is required to comply with provisions of the Civil Rights Act. Seventy-two per cent of Florida county extension agents in agriculture hold advanced degrees, he claimed.

Waiving educational qualifications for Hurner, Busby told commissioners, would place all personnel decisions on county extension director positions in the past three years in question. It might subject him, as well as county commissioners, to possible court action, Busby warned.

Commissioners were visibly unimpressed with Busby's arguments and retained Hurner as extension director, sharing his salary and office expenses with Busby's agency in Gainesville.

All was quiet until June 3, when Dr. Earl Kelly, Busby's district agent, attended a commission meeting.

Kelly proposed that the cooperative extension service in Gainesville assume a major portion of Hurner's salary and that the county use its correspondingly reduced contribution to pay the wages of clerical assistants in the county agent's office.

Heston and Robert Skipper voiced apprehension viewing the state's proposed increased share of Hurner's salary as a move to ease him out.

Not so, said Kelly. The idea of using state funds to pay county agents and county funds to pay clerical assistants originated with the Florida Department of Administration, not with the Extension Service. The plan was being implemented statewide, not just in Highlands County, Kelly said.

Commissioners took Kelly at his word and agreed to reduce their contribution to Hurner's salary.

Then came Dean Busby's Aug. 5 letter announcing his intent to raise Hurner's salary by $2478, paying him at an assistant county agent's scale instead of a director's rate. "As far as I'm concerned," Chairman C. J. "Buddy" Wise said, "we have an agent (Hurner) and we're looking for an assistant."

A victim of bureaucracy was the way county commissioners characterized acting county agent Tim Hurner, Tuesday.

The commissioner's latest struggle with a University of Florida dean over retaining Hurner as Highlands County agent, solidified their resolve that justice should prevail—regardless of consequences.

As Administrator Charles Cullens read, Dr. J. N. Busby's Aug. 5 letter stating that Hurner's salary would be reduced $2478.32 at the end of this month, a growing leanness suggested that a commissioner might suddenly rise to proclaim: "Taxation without representation is tyranny."

Commissioner Norman "Jug" Heston almost did just that.

"If we don't have the right to pick who we want," Heston said, "they're just taking government away from us. We certainly know more what the people of this county want than he in Tallahassee, or Gainesville, or anywhere else."

"I'm not backing down a bit," Heston declared.

Despite the state's effort to "present its best case," a four-man, two-woman jury found a suspended county commissioner, Melvin Bass innocent of driving while intoxicated charges Thursday.

Assistant State's Attorney David Langford said he "hated to lose the case, but the jury system found the defendant innocent and I'll abide by their decision."

The controversial Bass was arrested March 7 for the fourth time on DWI charges by Avon Park police Officer Gene Hancock who observed him driving across the center line of a road.

Hancock, who testified for one and a half hours during Thursday's day-long trial, said Bass registered higher than allowable on the breathalyzer test but the actual test operator was on vacation and couldn't be subpoenaed to testify.

Bass was originally slated to stand trial July 11, but County Judge Mark Richardson sentenced him to a month in jail and postponed his first trial by jury on DWI for a month when he appeared in court intoxicated.

Three times previously, Bass has been convicted by the court on DWI charges which have seen him serving jail terms and undergoing rehabilitation efforts.

Bass told the jury he had judgment, commissioners should base their response on the inequity that Busby's ruling has caused.

"Because he stayed," Dunty said of Hurner, "he was led to believe that he was going to get the job. The B.S. degree was enough to let him hold the job for six or seven years while he hung around and waited to get it. Then two years prior to that they raised it to an MA."

"Now, everything else is grandfathered-in when a man is caught in that interim," Dunty reasoned. "I see no reason why he shouldn't be."

Commissioners asked Dunty to write letters to the University of Florida's Board of Regents, Dr. Busby's superiors, and to state legislators, appealing the Extension Service's current position on Hurner.

Hurner may yet find himself the cause celebre that brings meaning to Highlands County's Bicentennial observances.

Ostling Completes Education Program

Dr. Burton C. Ostling of the Avon Park area has completed continuing education requirements to retain active membership in the American Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors. The Academy formerly was called the American Academy of General Practice.

The requirements call for members to complete a minimum of 150 hours of accredited continuing medical study every three years. Members become eligible for re-election at the end of the third year following their election to membership. The Academy, the country's second largest national medical association, is the only national medical group that requires members to keep up with medical progress through continuing education.

The Academy, founded in 1947 and headquartered in Kansas City, Mo., was instrumental in the establishment of a new primary specialty in family practice in 1969. The new specialty is expected to increase the numbers of family physicians available to serve the public in the future. The Academy's continuing education program is the foundation of eligibility for family doctors now in practice who apply for certification in the new specialty.

Volunteers Appreciated

Avon Park should be very proud of all of the people who have given their time to the Project H.O.P.E. During the past months over 100 people have volunteered and helped others over 60. Our volunteers range in age from young people during school vacation, with others up to the age of 80. This is the real America at work! Without these great volunteers this project could not exist. A very big THANK YOU to everyone involved including our Churches.

Project H.O.P.E. is a service for people over 60 who are in need. Every day, Monday through Friday at noon, meals are taken to the elderly. Those unable to cook. Volunteers work in the kitchen, they also deliver the meals, presently we are delivering 25 to 30 meals per day.

There is also a health service, for those with personal health needs, and homemaker services. We have volunteers who provide transportation for emergencies and medical appointments. Plus a "hello" service for shutins provided by volunteers who call each day to make sure all is well.

Project H.O.P.E. is desperately in need of a freezer to store our frozen food. In the past, Hoods dairy has graciously permitted us to use freezing facilities, for which we are truly grateful, but due to their increased volume of business, this is no longer possible.

The Avon Park Police Dept. and the Methodist Church are also permitting us to use their freezing facilities, unfortunately this is not adequate to store our months supply of meals. Anyone who wishes to donate a freezer, please call Joyce Oliveri 453-7858.

We also wish to extend our sincere thanks, to those in our local county and federal government for their full cooperation and understanding for making it possible to operate this program.

H.O.P.E. of Central Florida will soon finish its years study of some of the needs of the elderly in Highlands County. The response to this program has shown the vital need for these services. To help continue this program a non-profit agency S.O.S. (Services Over Sixty, Inc.) has been formed and is now applying for State and Federal monies to match the county funds to make H.O.P.E. of Highlands County available to our Senior Citizens. Avon Park members serving on S.O.S. are Mayor Marshall Davis, the Rev. Ben Williamson, Claud Chamberlain, and Pete Sontag.

for the Days AHEAD

Even now trees are being felled, cords of wood cut, in preparation for cold winter days which are sure to come. Woodcutters are preparing for the days ahead, to bring comfort against the cold.

To prepare for our future "cold days," periods of sadness, times of bereavement, and times when we are tempest tossed, begin now to attend church regularly and let God, His Church, and His people help you to meet any situation in life.

"Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God." 2 Cor. 1:3, 4.

PERSONS IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

25 County Fish Pond Owners Receive Catfish

Approximately twenty-five Highlands County farm fish pond owners received channel catfish fingerlings last week. This will be the last year this service will be offered through the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service Hatchery at Welaka, Florida, in cooperation with the Highlands Soil and Water Conservation District. The ponds now being stocked with catfish will be stocked later this fall with bluegill fry and completed next spring with bass.

The Soil Conservation Service over the past twenty years has provided technical assistance in the design and management of several hundred farm ponds in Highlands County as well as other counties throughout the state and nation.

These farm fish ponds have not only furnished recreation and relaxation but served as a food source of fish for the family table. Many have expressed concern for the future of the farm fish pond program, but at present it hinges in "limbo" awaiting the final decision of what will be done with the existing hatchery facilities.

Anyone, man or woman, interested in self improvement through learning better communications with little expense is urged to attend the third organizational meeting of the new Toastmasters International chapter for Highlands County, Robert Panzarella, chairman of the steering committee, said today.

The group organizing the Charles S. Swan Memorial Toastmasters Club will meet today (Thursday) at 6:30 p.m. at the Steak Out Restaurant in Avon Park. Dinner is served cafeteria style so those attending can order as much or as little as they desire.

Toastmasters help each other learn by doing in an atmosphere of fellowship and enjoyment. There are no occupational, educational, racial, or religious barriers to membership in Toastmasters International.

The program is designed to improve abilities in communication and conducting meetings and to develop leadership and executive potential.

Tonight's program will include Jim Prevatt as Toastmaster of the evening and Larry Saucier as Table Topics Master.

Speakers will include Mrs. Norma Gobbie, James L. Richo and County Judge Mark Richardson, Jr., of the new local club, and Dr. Mohamed Ismail of Polk Imperial Toastmasters in Winter Haven.

The General Evaluator will be Area 13 Governor Lou Funk, a member of State Farm Toastmasters in Winter Haven. Individual evaluators will include James Fountain, and Ralph Walden of the new club, and guest evaluators from State Farm Toastmasters and Imperial Polk Toastmasters.

Voted best speaker by those present at last Thursday night's meeting was Ralph Walden. The best evaluator was Lynn Ingraham and the best Table Topics speaker was George Knickerbocker.

Anyone interested in more information in the Toastmasters program is invited to call Mrs. Gobbie, secretary-treasurer of the steering committee, at 452-2935, 453-4351 or 453-4355 in Avon Park.

"Bicentennial USA" can be rented or purchased. The 16mm film is suitable for showing to groups and a video tape cassette version is available for television.

Included in the film are excerpts from historic reenactments, plays and performing arts developed by students for the Bicentennial, western oral history, and projects for the nation's third century.

"Bicentennial USA" may be obtained by writing the National Audiovisual Center (GSA), Washington, D.C. 20408. Rental price for three-day use of the film is $15, and the purchase price is $62.50. The video tape costs $52.50. Checks should be made payable to National Archives Trust Fund.

Gospel Sing Set At Local Church

The Florida Avenue Baptist Church, 401 S. Florida Ave., hosts its second Ole Time Gospel Sing. In early June this year the church hosted such an event with so much success that it is now planning another.

The church invites to public to come and share in this second Gospel Sing as they did the first.

The activities of the day will begin with Bible Study at 9:45 a.m., followed by morning worship services with the Lee Leaven Singers in concert. Dinner on the grounds will be served to all attending these activities at 12 noon.

At 1 p.m. the Lee Leaven Singers will again enter concert. On the program with them will be the Christ' Ambassadors of Ft. Meade. The Rev. Edwin L. Tharpe and the Church urges all of the Christians of the Avon Park area to attend their own church services and then join them for the dinner on the grounds and afternoon gospel sing.

Keep Growing with Case Down at Crews

CATCHING UP ON Avon Park news is Representative Wendell H. Watson, right, and his aid, Jim Flemming, when they stopped by the Sun office during their visit to Avon Park last Thursday. Watson plans to make monthly visits to Avon Park. Photo—Gobbie.

Watson Plans Monthly Visits To Avon Park

Two bills designed to strike a happy medium between the present municipal court and the centralized county court as provided for in Article 5 passed by the state legislature will be considered in the upcoming session of the legislature, Rep. Wendell H. Watson told the Sun Thursday when he visited the Sun office.

Watson was in Avon Park to meet with constituents and plans to make a trip here each month.

Watson said bills would be introduced in both the house and senate which would provide for a circuit system basis where court would be held in the city but under the county system which would eliminate some of the problems feared by municipal officials.

Nearby cities which have eliminated their municipal courts but under a similar circuit system have court sessions in that city include Frostproof and Lake Wales in Polk County. The system seems to be working well there with no major complaints.

Watson said this would tend to have the court address itself more to the local ordinances where it would be difficult for a central judge to be impressed with city ordinances.

Avon Park City officials are very much against the abolition of the municipal court. Sebring and Lake Placid have already relinquished their city courts.

Watson said he was concerned about planning at all levels and impact fees to discourage growth which would make it more costly for new business in the area.

The impact fees are being pushed by heavily populated cities and areas, he said.

He said the last session of the legislature was the first one to reduce spending since World War II. Although appropriations were cut for education, Watson said the legislature actually added funds for kindergarten through 12th grade programs.

Health and rehabilitative services were cut back resulting in the elimination of some 18 jobs at the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center here. There was also some reduction in spending for corrections.

"Priorities have to be set," Watson said. He said probations suffered only in misdemeanor cases due to cutbacks in spending.

Watson was accompanied by aide Jim Flemming.

THE BIBLE QUESTION BOX

For Bible Answer To Bible Questions Write To

Pastor A. W. Ortner
Rt. 2 Box X405
Avon Park, Florida
33825

Question: What is the meaning of 1 John 5:18? "Whoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God."

Answer: A person who is born of God, will not wilfully sin. Such a person does not continue to live in known sin. John is speaking of the goal which every Christian is to attain, namely an experience where sin does not control a person's life.

This scripture does not pertain to the mistakes which Christians make, because there are no perfect people who never fail. In the same epistle where the text in question is found, John makes this fact clear. My little children these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 1 John 2:1.

The apostle points out that the objective of the Christian life is to attain a state of character that is triumphant over sin. But he also realizes that the Christian will still make mistakes, and because of the weakness of the flesh, do things which he should not do. Realizing this, he points the Christian to our advocate Jesus Christ, the righteous, who serves as our high priest at the right hand of the Father.

To make this matter still clearer he gives us further explanation. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us; 1 John 1: 8-10.

God has made provision for His people to be victorious over sin. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become sons of God, even to them that believe on His name; John 1: 11, 12. Those who accept the power of His Spirit can have victory over evil. This power is sufficient to make us overcomers. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us; Romans 8: 37. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy; Jude 24.

The goal of the Christian is perfection. Therefore the child of God should be making constant progress toward this goal. In the mean time Christ serves as our intercessor at the right hand of God. When we sin in our human weakness, all that we need to do to escape condemnation is to repent of sin and confess them. Then He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and cleanse us of all unrighteousness.
