Government Wasting Billions In Rathole

One of our journalism compatriots, reporter Donald Lambro of United Press International in Washington, has recently launched a book, published by Arlington House Publishers in New Rochelle, N.Y., which we hope will be read by millions of Americans.

Titled "The Federal Rathole," the book documents the fact that not just millions, but billions of dollars are being wasted by the Federal Government on projects and programs which border on the insane.

Lambro declares that "at least 1,000 areas of federal activity could be abandoned at a saving of $25 billion a year - and that's only a beginning."

Lambro insists, and provides convincing arguments to show, that countless "programs, agencies, departments, commissions, boards, bureaus, councils and committees" that the nation cannot afford and doesn't need, could be abolished without a trace and no one would ever miss them. The one visible result would be a huge income tax reduction for every taxpayer in the nation.

Among the money-wasting cases cited:

— $750 paid by the National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities for a seven-letter poem: "Lighght." You paid for it.

— $5,000 to so-called "novelist" Erica Jong for a book, "Fear of Flying," which is so filthy that no family - read newspaper could print its contents. You paid for that, too.

— $113,417 spent to find out that mothers prefer children's clothing that needs no ironing. This newspaper would gladly have provided that information for a real bargain basement price. But, you paid top dollar.

Lambro, poking around in Foggy Bottom, found two commissions that had been set up during World War II to protect us from the Nazis. It is doubtful they could protect us against anything, seeing that they have yet to discover that the war ended 30 years ago. But you're still paying to keep them in business. What business, is hard to say.

As this editorial is being written, the U.S. Congress is debating passage of a new "ceiling" on the national debt of $577 billion - an increase of $46 billion. Lambro predicts that this will be pushed to over $600 billion before the end of the year, as Congress continues to pour more and more money down "the federal rathole."

Don't you think it's time to call a halt?

Bombing Range Wives Club News

The Avon Park Bombing Range Wives Club met on July 1st at the N.C.O. Club at 7:30.

The new president, June Thompson, called the meeting to order. She introduced Mr. Stewart, who is the new manager of the N.C.O. club. He gave a short talk about the N.C.O. club and told us if we had any complaints, suggestions, or if we needed anything to just let him know and he would try to see that our needs were met.

She later introduced Airman 1.c Lynn Higenbotham. Airman Higenbotham is from McDill and is in charge of the Commissary. He asked the wives to turn in to him an individual shopping list of their wants and needs.

One of the problems was not knowing what to bring and the amount to bring. He said it would certainly make his work a lot easier if he had these lists.

After Airman's Higenbotham's report, the president asked the secretary to read a note from Albert Thompson. This was a short note and a check to be given to the Wives Club for his work in the kitchen at the N.C.O. club. After the note was read, she then asked the secretary to read the following resignation: Avon Park Bombing Range Wives Club: Please accept my resignation as President of the Avon Park Bombing Range Wives Club effective June 26, 1975. Georgia Chandler.

Our president, June, said she would try her best to be a good president but that she would need our help in making the club a success. She stated that we should not think of the past but push forward and think of the present.

She then introduced the following officers: Vice Pres.- Faye Williamson, Sec.-Mary Smith, Tres.-Pat Cheney, Sue Marts-Bingo Chairman, No Ways and Means at this time, Publicity-Kacky Williams, Program-Cheryl Sanders, and Parliamentarian-Ann Parries.

Our new vice-president Faye Williamson, read about the club dues. The dues are $1.00 a month and failure to pay them for three months means that a member is dropped from the roll. A member may be reinstated by paying the back dues.

The president then asked for new business. She told us that Sgt. Williamson had provided a room for us to store the things for family services. The room was R2 Dorm. and a key would be provided on July 14th.

Another item that came under new business was the morning and evening coffees. The next coffee will be held on July 29 in the evening. She asked if there were any suggestions about the coffee.

Vickie Rice said it wasn't a suggestion but at the last one no one met anyone new. She said that it was half over and many of the old members didn't know any of the new members. June said that was a good suggestion and that some program would be planned for the next coffee so that the members could get to know the ones they didn't know.

Aimee Dunn, Mary Ann Guyda, and Mary Jane Kanady furnished the refreshments for the meeting.

A membership drive was discussed among the members. Prizes would be given for the members that brought in the most new members. A $10 prize would be given to the one that brought in the most members and a $5 prize for the runner up.

The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments were served.

Jury Convicts Group On Pot Charges

The jury didn't buy the story that federal agents had persuaded Daryl Williams, Sam Altman and Ward Leitner to buy marijuana, and then turned them in for having it.

The five men and one young woman making up the jury took only 40 minutes to reach a decision Thursday, in a trial which had lasted 10 days — one of the longest in recent Highlands County history. Each of the defendants — Williams of Sebring, Altman and Leitner of Okeechobee — was found guilty of felony possession of marijuana.

A fourth defendant, Clarence Prevatt Jr. of Tampa, was granted a motion for mistrial. From the outset of the trial on June 23 Prevatt's attorney, Anthony Gonzales, had argued that Prevatt's defense was incompatible with the entrapment defense presented for the other three.

Judge John H. Dewell granted the often-renewed motion for mis trial after Williams had elected to take the stand in his own defense.

Prevatt and Leitner did not testify. Altman was called, but his brief appearance on the stand was made with the jury absent.

His defense counsel, David Best, was granted permission to stand beside his client and advise him, question by question, about possible self-incrimination. To all questions, other than his name and acknowledgement of the charge against him, Altman pleaded the Fifth Amendment.

Best indicated that Leitner's testimony would be similar.

On July 2, Williams began five hours of testimony. He told the jury that the Circle 3 Ranch had lost money in the economic squeeze on the cattle market.

In the summer of 1974 he was confronted with a $19,000 mortgage he could not pay. The A & W Electric Company, in which he has an interest, had landed a big contract and in connection with that he met a Miami man named Tony Randazzo.

He said Randazzo told him he had friends who were advising wealthy South Americans about investments in the United States. Williams said Randazzo offered to arrange for some of these people to visit and perhaps Williams could sell them land.

Further, the investment advisor would be willing to pay Williams for use of land for an airstrip, explaining that the potential investors preferred to make their trips quietly, keeping their Yankee investments out of the Latin American political limelight.

As negotiations continued, however, potential use of the airstrip shifted from people to "pot." Williams detailed long negotiations during which his longtime friend and hunting companion Clarence Prevatt was approached by Randazzo, then Altman and Leitner were given Randazzo's "sales pitch."

He testified that Randazzo made virtually all arrangements for a trip to Colombia to pick up a large shipment of marijuana.

The plane, loaded with 1,500 pounds of marijuana, crash-landed the evening of Jan. 5, on a road lying between the Williams ranch house and a county marl pit.

U. S. Customs agents testified about following the plane as it flew to the improvised landing site and helping to direct officers from Highlands County sheriff's office, who particiapted in the arrest of Leitner, AAltman and Jose CameJo in vehicles being used to transport marijuana away from the ranch.

Williams testified that when the plane pilot, Bill Conner told him the plane had been "tailed," he headed toward Miami. He was arrested at the ranch Jan. 7. Prevatt was arrested on the west coast March 9.

CameJo, who had entered a guilty plea to the marijuana possession charge, testified for the prosecution. Randazzo, named as a confidential informant in the case, was a state witness.

Throughout the trail defense attorneys declared that Conner and the "pot" plane's owner, Ray Morgan, were also confidential informants who should testify.

Assistant State Attorney Robert Nettleton, who prosecuted the four, said he could not find Morgan and Conner.

This week Prevatt's lawyer, Gonzales, told The News that he feels "the defense is entitled to question Bill Conner and Ray Morgan."

He had joined Best's and Davis' attempts to obtain a change of venue for the first trial. Gonzales said he will renew this motion, pointing out that extensive news coverage given the Williams, Altman, Leitner trial would make it difficult to obtain a jury in Highlands County.

Gonzales added that the first trial "blocked the docket in Highlands County long enough" so he will not begin work on the new motions for a "little while, give everyone a chance to rest."

He added, "I have a lot of respect for Judge Kelly and Judge Dewell. Judge Dewell has already sat through two weeks of testimony on this and knows many of the technical problems involved.

It would save time for everyone if he could preside for Mr. Prevatt's trial, but jury selection would be difficult now."

At the conclusion of the trial July 3, Best and Davis were granted 15 days to file for a new trial. Judge Dewell granted a motion for the convicted men to remain free on bond ($50,000 each).

The judge specified that allowing the men to reamin on bond is not, however, tantamount to granting them right to appeal bond. "We'll cross that bridge when we get to it," he said.

On July 7 Judge Clifton Kelly made a decision on CameJo's freedom. Of the original defendants, only CameJo had remained in jail since the Jan. 5 arrests. Before the trial Judge Kelly had denied all motions to reduce CameJo's bond below the $50,000 mark.

Monday, CameJo was released on his own recognizance, instructed to return here for sentencing on Oct. 6. Jail personnel said CameJo had indicated that he would head for Miami when he left here.

He has been a jail trusty almost from the beginning, according to staff, and has been valuable as an interpreter for Spanish-speaking prisoners.

Although Williams, Altman and Leitner were not jailed, one of them is not exactly "free."

Altman was hospitalized about seven hours after the jury brought in its verdict. Thurman Haywood of the sheriff's ambulance service said an ambulance had been called to the Lake Placid Holiday Inn at 11:41 p.m., July 3.

Altman and his wife had been dancing at the Inn lounge when Altman began to suffer chest pains. (During the trial reference had been made to Altman's having heart trouble).

The Okeechobee man was taken to Highlands General Hospital where he spent the night. By morning he seemed well enough to be moved and he was taken, by ambulance, to West Palm Beach's Good Samaritan Hospital where his "regular heart doctor" practices.

Altman was dismissed from the hospital July 7, but it could not be determined whether he returned home to continue his recuperation.

Turkey Talk

By NORMA GOBBLE

I read something this week which I feel is worth repeating and I quote:

"More and more we are hearing and reading where someone is crying out for either tougher laws, or longer prison terms or mandatory sentences for certain crimes because of the rapidly rising crime rate. Certainly something must be done about the apparently epidemic spread of crime and criminal activity.

"The methods mentioned here may or may not serve effectively, in fact, they may not be nearly as efficient as they are expected to be in fighting crime. After all, these measures are aimed at the apprehended person and the already convicted inmate but still cannot touch the unapprehended culprits who account for the majority of all crimes.

"Nor do these measures change circumstances such as unemployment, lack of education, drug abuse, and the now inflated economy, all of which indirectly, but surely, leads to criminal acts and is, consequently the real cause of the furor.

"There can be no justification in our society for criminal acts perpetrated against others, no matter what form it takes, for it would be a farce for rampant lawlessness to exist in a law governed society.

"Therefore, our government is obligated to use the law to protect its citizens and to punish those who arbitrarily violate these laws, and stronger laws when needed is understandable.

"But the many years it has taken the present prison system to progress from one of almost total punitiveness to the modern institutions of rehabilitation they now try to be, could be nullified by enacting laws which tend to work against the efforts of the institutions rather than against attitudes and causes of crime.

"It should be remembered by law makers that lawlessness is not an individual. It is a condition and until that condition is changed by eradication of its causes we will continue to see criminals and crime victims growing out of it.

"No! Crime cannot be condoned, by no means. But the proponents of stiffer laws and harsher punishment must be careful of over-reaction in one direction for public appeasement to the disdain of the men and women both black and white who are earnestly striving to rehabilitate themselves, while in prison, for their inevitable reintegration into the society which now denounces them."

While I may not agree entirely with every statement in the above, I think it makes a whole lot of sense. And it didn't come from some psychologist or social worker, but from someone who, surprisingly, can look at the problem quite objectively.

The above is an editorial from the June 27 edition of "What's Up?", the APCI weekly, and was written by an inmate!

As we get into the Bicentennial, we felt the following might be good food for thought. A lady, whose identity I don't know left this at the office.

What Our Nation Needs

A leader like Moses, who refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, but was willing to go with God.

Army generals like Joshua, who knew God and could pray and shout things to pass rather than blow them to pieces with atomic energy.

A food administrator like Joseph, who knew God had the answer to famine.

Preachers like Peter, who would not be afraid to look people in the eye and say "Repent or perish," and denounce their personal as well as national sins.

Mothers like Hannah, who would pray for a child that she might give him to God, rather than women who are delinquent mothers of delinquent children.

Children like Samuel, who would talk to God in the night hours.

Physicians like Luke, who could care for physical needs and introduce their patients to Jesus Christ Who is a specialist in spiritual trouble.

A God like Israel's, instead of the dollar god, the entertainment, and the auto god.

A saviour like Jesus, Who could and Would save from the uttermost to the uttermost.

Contractors

competency board Duane Kopta, general contractor spoke of another problem some people have and stated, "They don't want to sit down and listen to an explanation which can help them. They go in with one attitude. They are going in and do something and I think that is where they run into conflict with Mr. Ellebee. They won't listen to two sides and they want to do what they want to do and not listen to what the law is and try to comply with it."

In his explanation of the state building law, Ben Strickland, Field Investigator for the state licensing board pointed out, "Your law has to comply with this law. The city law, the county law, any law must comply with the state law. It can be more stringent than the state law but it can't be less rigid. That's one thing the law gives you — you can make it harder but you can 't make it easier. And he continued, "The people that won't comply with the law, they are going to hurt somebody and they are going to hurt the people that bend that law for them. And hurt somebody else besides taking money out of the guys pocket."

Ben Strickland also expressed his disappointment that the council did not have enough faith in the state representative to ask his opinion on any of the problems.

In regard to a rumor that the city council might abolish the competency board, Strickland told the board that "As of Jan. 1, 1976 they are going to have one, there is no choice they may not have their own competency board in the cities but they got to have a competency board somewhere they can use to bring problems too and if they make an arrangement with a county competency board, fine; but they are going to have one somewhere, that they can go to — They can't rely on the state, because the state board is just like you gentlemen right here, they don't get paid and they are here to help make it easier for the council.

Ray Roy moved to report to the council that in the opinion of the competency board, all contractors present and the State Licensing Board Investigator Strickland that Inspector Ellerbee is complying with the provisions of Chapter 468, Part II, Florida Statutes and has no authority to vary from this law. "We think he is doing a good job in enforcing the law and are sure this is the reason for the complaints." The motion was seconded by Bill Heiring, and was passed unanimously.

Duane Kopta appeared to sum up the feelings of several contractors when he added, "What it's boiling down too, if you turn it loose to everybody when you start bidding, especially working, you know what you're working against. If one guy can go out and do anything he wants too you are not competitive. You can't work this way. You know that you got to figure so and so and it gives you an idea what to work from, but somebody goes out there and puts anything in, you really don't have anything to work from."

Chairman Long suggested that a representative of the competency board appear before the city council at their next meeting at 7:30 p.m. on Monday July 14 to act as a spokesman for the board. He also urged all contractors in the city to attend and bring their friends along to the meeting. One contractor responded, "When's the next election?"

City Council President Wendell "Winkie" Williams in discussing the problem appeared to be caught between the firm stand of the competency board, made up of reliable contractors, who say uphold the law or remove it from the books and the inaction of the council (June 23 meeting) by not properly referring the contractors complaints to the competency board.

Council president Williams summed up his position by stating, "I have not been the originator of the problem, I was not an agitator of the problem but have acted as a moderator of the problem." His is the task of welding the competency board and council members back into a team working together for the citizens of Avon Park.

HOLDING A COPY of the Florida Statutes, Ben Strickland, Field Investigator for the State of Florida, Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation, Florida Construction Industry Licensing Board, tells Competency Board members and contractors that under the Home Rule Act the city building codes can be stronger but not less rigid than the state building codes. While Appearing In Court

Judge Orders Bass To Jail

When former county commissioner Mel Bass came to court Wednesday morning Judge Mark Richardson Jr., ordered a breathalyzer test — then sent Bass to jail.

Bass had been scheduled for a jury trial on a driving while intoxicated charge. The court-ordered test showed a reading of .33 — three times higher than the results needed to sustain a dwi case and, jail personnel observed, sufficient to cause many persons to lose consciousness.

Judge Richardson ordered Bass jailed for 30 days for contempt of court and dismissed the prospective jurors.

Bass had been arrested on the dwi charge in March of this year. The case originated within Avon Park city limits and ordinarily would have gone before the Avon Park city court, but Bass had requested a change of venue.

The Avon Park man had been removed from his seat on the county commission following his arrest on a series of driving while intoxicated charges.

Prior to his suspension as commissioner Bass had been arrested on May 27, Aug. 6 and Aug. 26, all in 1973. As a result of these arrests he had undergone alcoholism treatment at Nu-Way Center.

On June 25, 1974, Bass was jailed after being charged with dwi, and at the same time was adjudged guilty of all three previous dwi charges.

Following his suspension from office, Bass had begun a fight to retain his commission seat. In the autumn of 1973 Fred Karl, then hearing officer for the Florida Senate, ruled that allegations in the governor's suspension order were insufficient to warrant a permanent removal of the official.

The governor's office moved to file an amended complaint, but further action in the case has failed to materialize in either the 1974 or 1975 sessions of the Legislature.

Bass and his attorneys maintain that failure of the Legislature to act on the suspension is tantamount to nullyfying the suspension and he is the legal holder of the District One seat on the county commission and may legally collect his salary — $6,000 for 1973 and 1974 and now standing at $7,200 per year.

Defense Counsel Loses Case, Goes To Jail

Defense counsel lost the case and went to jail — not a customary sequence of events but entirely proper when the defendant chooses to represent himself.

Danny Carroll, a 19-year-old Avon Park resident, was tried before county court and found guilty of the theft of 19 feet of chain and a lock. The stolen property was valued at $60 — well within the limits of a petty larceny, a misdemeanor.

Carroll conducted cross examination of two of three witnesses who appeared for the prosecution, then took the stand on his own behalf.

His self-defense went for nought, however. Judge Mark Richardson Jr., found him guilty and sentenced the youth to 10 days in county jail. After serving three days of his sentence, Carroll made restitution and was set free.

"I think his parents persuaded him to make the payment," a court officer commented.

Mrs. Howard C. Godwin

Patti Conner -Howard Godwin Wed In Ceremony

Patti Ann Conner, daughter of Mrs. Murrell Prescott, and Howard C. Godwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Godwin, were united in Holy Matrimony at the First Baptist Church on Sunday July 6th at 3 p.m.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Aden Childress under an arch centered on the platform and accentuated with baskets of yellow roses, pom-poms and daisies. Large fern-balls of jade greenery uniquely designed filled in the background.

The soloist, Mrs. Sunny Schortinghouse accompanied by Gerald Perkins enhanced the ceremony with selections of nuptial music.

The bride entered on the arm of Andy Prescott wearing a formal gown of sattayseau fashioned with a Venice lace etched empire and lace appliqued bishop sleeves edged with a tiny ruffle. The bodice was overlaid with Venice lace forming a high key-hole neckline and outlined in a tiny ruffle. Venice lace outlined the deep hem flounce which swept to an attached chapel train.

Her bouffant veil of illusion bordered in Venice lace was held in place by a pearled and winged cap of Venice lace floral motifs.

The brides bouquet was a formal cascade design featuring white sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

The bride paused by her mother's side to present her with a red rose. After the ceremony the couple paused by the groom's mother to present her with a red rose.

Serving as maid of honor was the brides sister Bonnie Conner. The other bride's attendants were Julie Griffin, Lynn Houpe, Sue Childress and Mrs. Violet Singletary.

The attendants wore flocked organza floor length gowns in spring colors of pastel, pink, yellow and blue with matching picture frame hats. Complementing the brides maids dresses were nosegays of roses, pom-poms anbd baby's breath.

The brides mother, Mrs. Murrell Prescott, wore a Marshall Russo gown in yellow chiffon with a matching shawl. Her corsage was of yellow sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother, Mrs. G. D. Godwin wore a pink quianna nylon floor length gown with rhinestone button trim. Her corsage was varigated pink sweetheart roses.

The flower girl Linka Carol Heard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russ Heard wore a blue flocked organza floor length dress and carried a basket of flower petals.

George D. Godwin served his son as best man. Ushers were Lloyd Lee, Gregg Albritton and Allan Taman, all of Avon Park and Tony Peebles of Winter Haven.

Reception

A Reception was held at the Ridge Restaurant following the ceremony.

The bridal table held a three-tiered wedding cake decorated in the bride's chosen colors. The formal table setting featured lighted candles and the bride's bouquet. Silver appointments held the sandwiches, canapes, nuts and mints.

The guests enjoyed champagne cocktails.

A sincere appreciation to Mrs. Clarice Ford, Manuel "Slim" Batista, and Norma Lopez for their assistance in the wedding and reception.

The newly married couple left the reception and were showered with rice by well-wishers. The bride was wearing a white tailor-made fitted pants suit as they left for a cruise to the Bahamas.

The couple will make their home on Lake Lotela. The groom is employed by the Highlands County Sheriffs Department.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Morris of Ft. Lauderdale; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Singletary of Okeechobee; Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Lopez and daughter Loraine of Tampa; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Guillary of Jupiter, Fla.,; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Prince of Okeechobee; Mr. and Mrs. Marlin McClelland and Mark of Nashville, Ga.; Mrs. E. Young Has Memorable Week At Girls State

By Tara Young

Girls State was held June 20 through 27 at Florida State University in Tallahassee.

There were 264 girls present from all over the state — Venice, Marathon, Pensacola, Sebring and of course Avon Park's own Tara Young.

We rode up on a Greyhound bus which originated in Venus. By the time we arrived, the girls on that bus felt like we'd all been friends for ages.

We started off on the right foot by arriving two hours late. (Our chartered bus was canceled when Trailways went on strike. So we made all the usual stops when we had to take a regularly scheduled bus.)

Then we were ripped off by a cab company. The driver let us think transportation in his cab was pre-arranged. But when we arrived at FSU we had to pay for the ride. So that's what we get for being late!

Upon arrival we were told to drop our bags and go to dinner. After dinner we just had time to grab our bags on the way up to our "cities". Unfortunately I was to stay on the fourth floor!! (We had to use the stairs).

Then we reported to city elections. But the fact that we were absent during campaigning didn't keep any of us from running for office. I was municipal judge.

Our schedule was packed full of lectures, on things such as parliamentary procedure, and elections. We also had some political rallies and pep rallies.

Our ficticious state was called Seminole., There were twelve cities and two cities to a county, which made six counties.

Upon registration each girl was placed in a party. Half were ticketed as Nationalists, the other half as Federalists.

Then the big election was for state offices. A deadline was set for qualifying for office and everyone was campaigning and smiling like crazy.

I was a Nat and I ran for Supreme Court Justice. I won my office in the primaries but lost out in the final General Elections. Most girls went on to run for Senator or Representative, but not me. I wanted to page!! This gave me a chance to explore the capital a little.

The culmination of elections was the start of our visits to the capital for the next three days.

We held our own legislative sessions in the House and the Senate. All of us wrote up our own bills and they were introduced into a house. If you weren't a Senator, Representative or on-duty page, you could sit up in the galleries and observe.

It was really interesting to see parliamentary procedure in action and to listen to the different bills put on the floor for debate. A lot of bills were passed and our Governor vetoed a lot too.

We could have been a little better prepared for parliamentary procedure. I was lucky enough to get hold of a very good pamphlet about it.

Wednesday we had our free time from lunch until dinner. We could go anywhere on the campus, shop, meet students, sleep or whatever.

The rest of our stay was spent on hard work, learning and some good times too. We had meetings up until 10:00 and 10:30 at night. There was a "quiet time" just before "lights out".

All the girls were really nice to be with and we visited each other on our floors at night.

The staff members were all great. Our chorus was excellent and our Talent Showcase was fabulous. We came away with many close friends and overall it was a very memorable week. It's a week I'd like to thank our American Legion Auxiliary for because they made it all possible.

Plane Crashes On Road

A clergyman en route to deliver a death message narrowly escaped death himself when his small plane crashed. The Rev. Donald Edward Evans of Okeechobee was piloting a Cessna 170 which plowed into the hard surface of State Road 731, south of Venus, just after noon July 6.

He was en route to a home near Fisheating Creek where he was to have told members of David Lott's family about Lott's death in an auto accident July 5.

The plane went down about 12:55 p.m. Sunday.

According to investigators for Highlands County sheriff's department and Florida Highway Patrol, Evans had started his descent when his plane struck a power line. The small craft hit the blacktop nose down at an angle and the landing gear broke.

The plane skidded along the road for 200 feet causing extensive damage to the plane and some to the raodway.

The pilot was taken to Highlands General Hospital where his condition early this week was reported as stable. He is suffering a broken back. Evans, who is 43 years old, has been a pilot for many years, investigators reported.

Lt. Richard Cooper and Sgt. Len Askeland investigated for the sheriff's department, Troopers M. R. Dunn and C. J. Hart for Florida Highway Patrol.

Evans, a Baptist minister, is known through a large area of the state for his work as director of Dunklin Memorial Camp. The camp, located between Okeechobee and Indiantown, is a rehabilitation center for alcoholics.

Calvin's Column

By CALVIN GIBBS

Hi Friends:

The Declaration of Independence set me free from tyranny. The Emancipation Proclamation and thirteenth amendment set me free from involuntary servitude, (slavery); the fourteenth amendment made me a citizen, and the fifteenth amendment gave me the right to vote. The Civil Rights Act of 1963 further implemented those provisions.

God bless America and by all means I shall exercise those God given, and constitutional rights.

In keeping with our bicentennial celebrations, I consider it fitting and proper, to present the lyrics of James Weldon Johnson as poem of the week:

Sketch of poet: James Weldon Johnson was a black poet who was born in Jacksonville, Florida.

"Lift Every Voice and Sing"

Lift every voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring.
Ring with the harmonies of liberty.
Let our rejoycing rise,
High as the listening skies.
Let it resound, loud as the rolling seas.
Sing a song, full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song,, Full of the hope that the presence has brought us.
Facing the rising sun,
Of our new day begun.
Let us march on till victory is won.
Stony the road we trod
Bitter the chastening rod
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died.
Yet with a steady beat
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed.
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered we have come treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past
Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.
God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way.
Thou who has by thy might,
Led us into the light.
Keep us forever in the path, we pray
Lest our feet,
Stray from the places our God
Where we met Thee.
Lest our hearts,
Drunk with the wine of the world,
We forget Thee.
Shadowed beneath thy hand
May we forever stand
True to our God,
True to our native land.

Celebrity of the Week:

Mary McLeod Bethune

It was July 10th, 1875, that Mary McLeod Bethune was born. She devoted her life to the improvement of educational opportunities for blacks. In 1904 she opened a school for black girls in Daytona Beach, Fla., which was merged with boys in 1923 to form a college, now called Bethune-Cookman College.

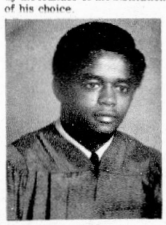
Presidents Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Harry S. Truman appointed Bethune to various government posts. From 1935 to 1944, she served as Roosevelt's special Adviser on Minority Affairs. Bethune also served, from 1936 to 1944, as director of the Division of Negro Affairs of the National Youth Administration. When she took this office, she became the first black woman to head a federal agency.

Bethune was born in Mayesville, S.C. She attended a mission school, a seminary, and the Moody Bible Institute. In 1935, Bethune received the Spingarn medal for her work in education. That same year, she founded the National Council of Negro Women.

A Tribute to Mrs. Bethune:

Councilman Robert Britt

Robert Britt is a product of Bethune Cookman College and a son of the local community. Robert exemplifies the qualities of humility, integrity and concern often emphasized by the founder of the institution of his choice.



Thad Tate

In memory of

The late Elizabeth Jones

The mother and family of the late Elizabeth Jones who departed her life on April 15, 1972 express the following memorial:

In your grave I placed with care,
No one knows the heartache,
As I turn and leave you there
God took you in his garden,
He knew you needed rest.
His garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.

As I write this tribute, I know there is no other who can take the place of one so sadly missed.

(Signed) Annie M. McKenzie

Holiday Vacation:

Katie and Lasonja Carter

Katie and daughter LaSonja are here from Atlanta, Georgia, for a two week visit with Katie's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Baldwin who lives on Delaney Avenue, other relatives and friends. Katie is a graduate of the local school system, attended Edward Waters College and served as a former employe of United Telephone System.

English Lesson for the week:

Wrong: Of the two, may the best team win.

Right: Of the two, may the better team win. (comparative)

Explanation: Of all the teams, (more than two) may the best team win. (superlative)

Citizens of the week:

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gordan

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gordan of 418 W. Castle Street are the citizens of the week for the exceptional upkeep of their home and surroundings which help make Westside Park beautiful.

Off to London:

Lonnie and J.J.

Local funeral director and godson, J.J. will be off to a vacation in London; plans departure Friday.

Humor of the week:

"The only man who never makes a mistake is the man who never does anything."

Theodore Roosevelt

Civic News:

At the regular monthly meeting of the Cemetery Association, it was suggested and agreed upon that the local ministers would appeal for monthly contributors from their membership, while district representatives would contact non-members.

Social News:

The recipient of the giveaway-car, which was sponsored by the Pacemakers on July 4th, was James (Boo) Green.

The free bar-be-Que sponsored by contractors and business drew a capacity crowd from all over the county on Sunday afternoon, July 6, at the Beachfront Club.

Appreciation:

The Pacemakers wish to express a whole-hearted appreciation to those who made a donation of $2.00 in their recent give-away-car effort. This was another effort to sponsor and support worthy causes in the community.

Thought conditioner for the week:

This is a very practrical technique of prayer. It works amazingly. One reason we do not get answers to our prayers is that we ask but do not really expect to receive. We are expert askers but inexpert receivers.

This spiritual formula tells us to ask and then immediately conceive of ourselves as receiving. For example, to be free from fear, ask the Lord to free you. Then believe that He has immediately done so. The minute you express your Faith by sincerely asking Him for a blessing and believe your prayer is answered, your prayer is answered.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Matthew 7:7.

Yours truly,
Calvin C. Gibbs

13 Year All-Stars Win 2 Lose 2

The Auburndale Senior League thirteen year old All-Stars came from the losers bracket to knock off Dade City twice last Saturday night to win the first District IV baseball tournament for that age group. The tournament was held here at Head Field with Ronnie Jackson serving as tourney director and Donald Arnold acting as assistant director.

The Avon Park All-Star team dropped into the loser's bracket after winning its first game over the Plant City Nationals 15-1. Dade City knocked the Avon Park team out of the winner's bracket with a close 10-9 defeat. Then Avon Park knocked Zephyrhills out of the tournament with a 7-0 shut-out on Wednesday night, July 2.

On Thursday night of last week, Auburndale clobbered Avon Park 12-1 to eliminate the home town team from the competition. Auburndale then went on to win the tournament by defeating Plant City Nationals and Dade City twice for the championship.

Members of the coaching staff of the Avon Park Little League and Senior League served as umpires for the seven team tournament. There were thirteen games played in the first District IV thirteen year old meet and all were played at Head Field.

Avon Park 7
Zephyrhills 0

Dennis Tondee, Avon Park's thirteen year old All-Star pitcher, gave up a single in each of the seven innings to the Zephyrhills All-Stars but the Avon Park team shut-out the visitors to win 7-0.

The Avon Park All-Stars scored all seven runs in the bottom of the second inning. Wayne Lewis started things off with a double and Mark Kelly followed with another double. Then Gary Roberts drew a walk and Donald Cook was safe on an error. Jimmy Brown followed with a walk and Dennis Tondee reached first with a walk. Then David Sisemore singled and later scored before the third out was made.

Avon Park got seven hits off two Zephyrhills pitchers. Wayne Lewis had a single along with his double and Greg Westbrook, David Sisemore, Gary Roberts, and Dennis Tondee singled also. Mark Kelly had a double.

Auburndale 12
Avon Park 1

Avon Park had control problems with pitching when they took on the Auburndale thirteen year old All-Star team last Thursday night at Head Field. Four Avon Park hurlers tried in vain to hold the Auburndale batters but failed.

The four pitchers gave up eight hits in the 12-1 defeat. Big Lynn Jerkins gave up only two hits to the Avon Park team in the five inning game. Wayne Lewis and Gary Roberts managed to get a single off the righthander in the top of the fourth inning. Lewis scored the only Avon Park run that frame.

Tennis Ladder Top Rung Unchanged

Grant Stallard held on to his number one spot at the top of the Highlands County Tennis Association's men's summer tennis ladder with a 6-2, 7-6 victory over challenger Brad Beumel last week. Larry Johnson took over the number two position with a 6-3, 6-3 win over Charles Jordan. Johnson also defeated Rodney Hollinger and Bill Page in earlier challenge matches last week.

Bill Page played the most challenge matches during the week. He held on to the number four spot on the ladder with wins over Rodney Hollinger 6-2, 7-6 and Bob Brooks 6 0, 6-1 but lost his challenge for the third position when Larry Johnson beat him.

New members on the men's singles ladder are Allan Duhm at number eleven, Bob Brooks at spot twelve, Al Miller in the thirteenth rung and Paul Gentry who came on in fourteenth place. The ladder standings are now: Grant Stallard, Larry Johnson, Charles Jordan, Bill Page, Danny DuBose, Rodney Hollinger, Read McLean, Brad Beumel, Kris Delaney, Bruce Wyse, Allan Duhm, Bob Brooks, Al Miller, and Paul Gentry.

There have been no challenge matches on the women's summer singles ladder thus far. Pam Rose still heads up the ladder with Pat James in second place.

Highlands County tennis players may join the summer singles ladders by calling Lucy Derkman at 453-4117. Players need not belong to the association to play the fun summer ladders.

Little League All-Stars Players Listed

Fourteen boys and four alternates were chosen last Monday night to represent Avon Park in the 1975 District IV Little League All-Star tournament to be held in Dade City starting July 19. Clark Jackson, coach of the league-champion Bagwell Lumber team, and Jim Prevatt, manager of second place I. H. Ford Motor's team, were chosen to coach the Avon Park team this year.

The Avon Park All-Stars will not play until the quarter-finals having drawn a first round bye in the twelve-team tourney. On Saturday, July 19, Zephyrhills will play Lake Wales in the first game of the tournament. Avon Park will play the winner of that game on Monday night. In other first round action Plant City Nationals will play Pinecrest, Dover will take on the Plant City American team and Hardee will play Auburndale. Frostproof, Lake Alfred and Dade City drew first round byes along with Avon Park.

Senior League All-Stars Play Saturday

Avon Park's Senior League All-Stars, defending champions of District IV, will travel to Auburndale Saturday, July 12 for a 2:30 p.m. game with Dover in the annual Senior League tournament. The Avon Park vs Dover game will open the seven-team tourney. Lake Wales will play Pinecrest in the second game and Zephyrhills will go against Dade City in the third game set for 7:30 p.m. Saturday. It will be a double elimination tourney.

Weekend Races On Lake Tulane Draws 250 Boats

Fourth of July weekend races on Saturday and Sunday on Lake Tulane had 250 boats in the Region V championship trophy outboard hydro and runabout races sponsored by the Greater Miami Racing Association and assisted by the Peace River Outboard Racing Association.

Engine trouble in his first heat of the super stock race, forced Paul Merrill, Sebring, out of the races with a broken shaft and cooling problems. Tommy Wooten of Wauchula also experienced engine trouble throughout the races.

Frank Hendry of Frostproof placed third over-all in the DSH classes. When not racing he also served as race referrer.

Placing third over-all in the A outboard hydro classes Hosmer "Hos" Compton, Lake Placid is now Eastern Division Champion in the AOH classes and is elegible to run in the National meet at Winona, Minn. the third week in August.

Many of the weekend stock outboard racers will be tuning up for the National meet in Dayton, Ohio, where about 1000 boats are expected to compete in the August 4-10 races.

Spills and flips appeared to come easily in the weekend races on Lake Tulane as the relatively smooth water encouraged drivers to run at higher speeds than they would on choppy waters. Consequently there were about 20 dunkings in the two days of racing.

The most serious of the overturnings happened Saturday in the final heat of the C stock hydro race with 12 boats going into the first turn. One boat started to come across the pack and caused a domino reaction culminating in a bad flip for Bunky Bowerman, (92-F) Winter Haven and Andy Coker, (37-F) West Palm Beach. Bowerman was struck by his own boat and was hospitalized overnight with bruised ribs. Coker's boat was a shambles.

The heat was stopped and a driver's meeting held to see what happened. Only three of the twelve boats that went into the turn had escaped damage. There were no other serious injuries during the races.

The next race tentatively is scheduled for Avon Park on Lake Tulane in October.

The rescue and ambulance boats were manned by the Avon Park Volunteer Fireman while the Fireman's Auxiliary operated a lunch stand for the benefit of those racers and spectators who didn't wish to leave the area. As usual the visiting racers and their helpers cleaned up their areas.

Sun 'N Lakes Added To Avon Park School System

"Desegregation" it was called by Superintendent George Douglass, in a move by the Highlands County School Board that added Sun 'n Lakes development to the Avon Park school system.

Listed as an amendment of geographical lines between Avon Park and Sebring, Douglass said that for the first time in Highlands' history the lines between the two municipalities must be altered.

The reason for the decision is that Sebring High School, with an enrollment of 1100, is well over the maximum allowed by the state. On the other hand Avon Park High School, with a capacity of 1062, presently accomodates less than 703 students.

Although Sun 'n Lakes development is still a gleam in its father's eye, early sales have shown that it will be a reality shortly.

"It would be foolish to let it become a problem by delaying action," Douglass told the board.

He added that there would undoubtedly be requests for transfer from the Avon Park district to Sebring, but with the "right of denial" he hopes to maintain a balance between the two school communities.

Atty. James McCollum was instructed to file notice of the amendment with the Civil Rights division, Health, Education and Welfare and other interested state and federal agencies.

It was a night of surprises, the most stunning being the information from purchasing director Garland Bogus that bids on paper goods represent a savings of $2,899 over 1974.

Bogus reminded that at this time last year the country was enduring a toilet tissue scare, but now it has subsided prices are more equitable.

Two Charged With Having Pot

Two Avon Park men charged with felony possession of marijuana entered pleas in circuit court pre-trial hearings July 7. Charles Henry Lanier, 19, pleaded nolo contendere, and Walter Hoyt Kempton, 20, pleaded guilty.

The court ordered pre-sentence investigation for both men.

The two had been arrested Feb. 9 following a search of a pick-up truck in which they were riding. The truck had been stopped near Avon Park to warn the driver that the vehicle's tail light was not working.

Kempton was booked for possession of marijuana, possession of paraphernalia and possession of hashish. Lanier was charged with possession of marijuana and possession of paraphernalia. The latter count was dismissed on preliminary hearing.

On July 6 Lanier was arrested by Avon Park city police and charged with possession of less than five grams of marijuana. Hearing on that charge which is a misdemeanor, is to go before Avon Park city court. The arrest was made at Lanier's home, 421 W. Cornell.

Menage Charged With Indecent Exposure

Streakers had not made the scene in Highlands County for many months — until Sunday night, July 6. The sheriff's department received a complaint about a man motorists had seen along U.S. 27.

Deputy Ronnie Purvis found James Menage, 19, standing beside 27 at Lake Josephine Road. Florida Highway Patrol Trooper Ralph Hough and Dispatcher Kenny Cooper arrived about the same time.

The unclad Menage told the lawmen, "I'm Jesus and your guns won't kill me."

It was the opinion of the lawmen that the Fort Lauderdale youth was intoxicated "on something but there was no smell of alcohol."

Off Menage went to Highlands County jail where he is being held on a charge of indecent exposure. In first appearance, before County Judge Mark Richardson, bond was set at $250 and the public defender appointed defense counsel.

Ward Recommends Changes In Zoning

The Board of County Commissioners interrupted its public hearing Tuesday to allow the Planning and Zoning Commission to call a meeting for the purpose of recommending changes in county zoning ordinances.

The meeting-within-a-meeting occurred when P and Z Commission Chairman Larry Davis announced the presence of a quorem and received a recommendation that changes be made in existing residential and business zoning categories.

Mary Ellen Ward proposed that "motels and hotels" be removed from the county's multiple family residential (R-3) zoning category.

She recommended that motels and hotels be considered under medium business (B-2) and heavy business (B-3) zoning classifications instead.

Another part of Mrs. Ward's stand removed the "heavy equipment" feature from heavy business (B-3) and placed it in the industrial zoning (I-2 and I-3) categories.

The planners voted unanimously (Larry Davis, Mary Ellen Ward, Floyd Clark and Bev Cavender present) in favor of recommending the changes in the zoning ordinance.

The commission promptly adjourned its special meeting.

Chairman C. J. "Buddy" Wise then called for comments from anyone opposed to the planners' recommendations.

Hearing no opposition, commissioners passed a resolution adopting the zoning ordinance revisions as recommended.

In other actions, commissioners:

— Postponed until next Tuesday's meeting consideration of a resolution to accept all changes to the Southern Standard mechanics code, building code, swimming pool code, plumbing code and national electrical code as proposed by the Southern Building Congress.

— Reappointed A. C. Austin of Lake Placid to a four year term on theRoard of Adjustments, Appeals and Examiners.

— Approved Robert and Carolyn Randall's request to rezone their property south of Schumacher Road and west of Sebring Country Estates from unimproved acreage to agricultureal category.

— Approved Derheta Lanier's request to rezone property located near Bombing Range Road (close to Polk County line) from mobile home park to mobile home and residential subdivision.

— Appointed commissioner Kelly Phillips and county administrator Charles Cullens to a committee to assist tax collector W. H. Prescott in updating the county's occupational license ordinance.

— Asked county engineer Gordon Hays Jr. to inspect the public boat ramp on the west side of Lake Jackson, Sebring, and make minor repairs as necessary.

Avon Park Men Released From Jail

Two Avon Park men were released from Polk County jail late Monday, a few hours after they had been arrested at the site of a United Farm Workers' picket line.

Mark Curtis Lyons, 34, and Leslie Alphonso Moorer, 35, both of Avon Park, and Hilario Barajas, 24, Auburndale, were charged with trespassing. They were arrested at the parking lot for a Coca-Cola Food Division plant at Auburndale.

Lyons, who is Florida director for the AFL-CIO affiliate, said he is not leading a strike but had appeared at the citrus processing plant to protest the "Paternalistic" policies of the big fruit company.

United Farm Workers and Coca-Cola have been negotiating for many weeks. Lyons said Monday that there have been 24 meetings between union and company representatives.

An old contract between UFL and Coke has been continued on a day-to-day basis since Jan. 3.

Lyons said a bargaining session had been set for July 2, but company officials "closed the doors and left for the holiday." Lyons then embarked on a fast and vigil.

Lyons said 400 union members gathered at the Auburndale plant on July 4 and on Sunday, July 6, about 700 persons joined in a peaceful demonstration at the plant.

Polk sheriff's department said that department had not been notified of any mass meetings and could not confirm whether any had occurred at the Auburndale plant.

About 10 farm unionists were at the plant at the time the three men were arrested.

At the UFW office in Avon Park, a union employe said many Highlands Countians had participated in the recent demonstrations in Polk County.

Touchton Charged With Cattle On Highway

A widely known Highlands County agri-businessman has been charged with allowing cattle to wander on the highway.

In a civil suit, transferred to Highlands from DeSoto County, John Kaniadakis is seeking damages from Edward Touchton Jr. and the American States Insurance Co.

Kaniadakis claims he was injured in a highway accident allegedly caused by Touchton-owned cattle escaping onto State Road 70. The accident occurred on Dec. 5, 1974.

Officials Check Park Irrigation Plans

Monday afternoon Avon Park City Council President, Wendell "Winkie" Williams; Clerk Malcolm Crews; John A. Ziegler, Street Department; and Dave Davenport, Water Department met with County Engineer, Gordon Hayes, Administrative Assistant, Charles Cullens and Roy Bennett, County Maintenance to look over the irrigation system plans for the baseball complex off West State Street near the airport.

With a six inch water line already in place on the field it is expected that the completed irrigation system will be in operation in about a month, which allows time for bids on materials, delivery and installation. It is expected that final grading and leveling of the four fields will be completed and ready for grass.

The parking lots and roadways are almost ready for spreading of marl which will be followed by a topping of shell.

Council President Winkie Williams is hoping that the complex with fieldhouse, press box, bleachers, fencing, grass, lights, roadways and parking lots will be completed by a target date in early January 1976 with the fields ready to "Play Ball!"

Women's Softball League To Start July 22

The city recreation department announced that the women's softball league will start action on Tuesday, July 22. At a meeting held last Monday afternoon at the Avon Park Recreation Center, four teams were represented and set up regulations for the coming season. Other teams from Avon Park are invited to join the league and may do so by calling Dennis Guenther or Ronnie Jackson at 453-6881 after twelve noon.

Teams already signed up to play this summer are Jahna Concrete, coached by Doris Wilkes; Soul Sisters, coached by Linda Seigler; Patriots, coached by Judy Rewis; and an un-named team coached by Lucy Derkman.

League rules allow girls who will enter the ninth grade next fall and are fourteen years old as the youngest members of a team. There is no top age limit. Teams may have twenty players on the roster plus a manager and a coach. Women's Official Softball rules will be followed with the exception of a few local ground rules adopted.

Entry fee for each team will be $10.00 to pay for trophies. Ten players are needed for each team to field a squad so any girls or women interested in playing this summer should contact the recreation center as soon as possiole.

Plans are to play each Tuesday and Thursday nights starting the first game at seven o'clock and playing two games each night. The length of the season will depend on the number of teams entered in the league.

The local members of the league voted not to allow teams from other cities to participate in league play this summer but plans are being made to hold a tournament at the close of the season inviting all area teams to participate.

Interested girls or women are urged to call the rec center now and not wait until someone contacts them. If enough call in, a new team could be formed before the season starts on July 22. A member of the city recreation staff will be at the Little League Field for each game and umpires will be picked and trained by the recreation staff.

Couple Treated At Hospital

Highlands General Hospital emergency room had a quiet holiday weekend until July 5. A dozen auto accident victims poured into the emergency room on that one day.

David Lott of Okeechobee died after reaching the emergency room. Wayne Cook of Avon Park was admitted to the hospital, and Leonard Monnier of Avon Park was treated and then left the hospital against medical advice.

Half the accident victims brought to the hospital were from Frostproof. All six were treated and released. They were M. R. and Louise McKenzie, Alisha, Lesa, Daniel and Floyd Lightsey.

Three Fort Lauderdale residents were treated and released: Judy, Donald and Joan Bryson.

Bicentennial Book Now At Library

The Avon Park City Library has received multiple copies of Bicentennial Plays and Programs by Aileen Fisher. This book is especially designed for flexibility in programming, providing simple or elaborate dramatic programs for teachers and drama directors. The first play, Our Great Declaration, for example, is written in radio style and may be used for impromptu classroom reading with no memorization and little rehearsal. The radio-style format is also ideal for making tape recordings of the play or "broadcasting" it on a public-address system. With simple adaptations, Our Great Declaration can also be performed either as a "spotlight play," with or without costumes and sets, or as a regular stage play with scenery, costumes, etc.

Choral reading, recitations and spelldowns are included in this text and may be produced informally in the classroom or adapted for stage performance. The short playlets provide variety programming when used separately or in combination with one of the longer plays in the book to create an assembly-length or hour-long dramatic program.

Bicentennial Plays and Programs provides excellent royalty-free dramatic material to help young people celebrate the nation's Bicentennial.

Support Restoration Of Prayer

The National Back to God Movement comprised of more than 150 religious, civic and patriotic organizations and Christian orientated businesses is actively supporting the restoration of voluntary school prayer.

The effort to restore voluntary prayer to our schools and other public institutions is now taking a new approach. Identical bills have been introduced in both houses of Congress by Senator Jesse Helms (S283) and Representative John Ashbrook (HR 2414) which will accomplish the restoration of voluntary prayer in one step, unlike the difficult and complicated Constitutional Ammendment process.

These bills would take away from the Supreme Court of the U.S. and the District courts any jurisdiction over cases that have to do with voluntary prayer in our schools and other public institutions. The final decision will then rest with the state supreme courts. National legislators and lawyers often forget that local and state authorities should decide local and state issues.

The wording of both S-283 and HR 2414 is identical and reads in part: "A bill to limit the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the United States and of the District Courts to enter any judgement, decree, or order denying or restricting as unconstitutional voluntary prayer in any public school."

Fortunately our forefathers were wise men. They set up a system of checks and balances system of checks and balances on ALL branches of government. The check on the Supreme Court is the Congress. In Article III section 2 the Constitution states clearly that the appellate power of the court is subject to "such exceptions, and under such regulations as the Congress shall make."

This proposed legislation does not tamper with the Constitution. Rather it invokes the Constitution, and will return the basic civil rights of freedom of religion, freedom of speech, and in some instances, freedom of assembly which have been denied to millions of school children for the past 13 years.

The important question is, how can we move the hearts of our elected officials to give top priority to this crucial legislation? The answer lies in the hands of those each legislator represents. Congress responds to the wishes of their constituents if they demand it.

A few letters will not influence a congressman, but thousands will. Write a short sincere letter to your senators and representatives giving them your views on this legislation and urging them strongly to support it.

"Every expression of support brings us closer to our goals," Mrs. Bennett G. Miller of Washington, D.C., national coordinator of the National Back to God Movement, said.

"Banded together, many of us can reverse the damage done by one person, Madelyn Murray O'Hair when she engineered banning of school prayer," Mrs. Miller said.

All Senators can be addressed: Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D.C. 20515. All Representatives can be addressed: House Office Bldg., Washington, D.C., 20510.

Mrs. Miller said, "It is futile to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the founding of our nation unless the freedom to pray and read the Holy Word is restored to our children in their classrooms."

"Our history is replete with reference to God and Divine Guidance," she continued. "How can we be true to our National Heritage if we hold any mention of Him out."

"Let all Godly men and women rise up from the apathy, indifference and procrastination that has paralyzed our nation and demand this Congress restore our nation to its moral and spiritual heritage so that as Lincoln said 'this nation shall not perish from the earth'," Mrs. Miller concluded.

Some of the organizations in the Back to God Movement are Alpha Omega Outreach of Fresno, Calif.; American Christian Heritage Association, Greenbelt, Md.; Americans For God in Our Country, Cincinnati, Ohio; American Hungarian Federation, Washington, D.C.; the American Legion; Amvets; Berean Valley Baptist Association, Lynchburg, Va.; Campus Crusade For Christ; Catholic Daughters of America; Catholic War Veterans; Christian Brotherhood Council; Christians in Action; Christian Women's Club, Ocean Grove, N.J.; Church Women United of Washington, D.C.; Citizens For An Even Better Tucson, Tucson, Ariz.; Concerned Citizens For God and Country, New York; Daughters of the American Revolution; Daughters of Union Veterans of Civil War; Happiness of Womanhood; Homemakers Against ERA; HOPE, Inc.; Junior Order of American Mechanics; Kiwanis Club; Knights of Columbus; Lion's Club; Louisiana State Farm Bureau; National Association of Colored Women's Club; National Federation of Republican Women; National Police Officers Association; Teen Challenge; Veterans of Foreign Wars; Young Americans For Freedom; and Taylor Made Songs of Lake Wales, Fla.

Efforts To Form Toastmasters In Highlands Are Underway

Efforts are underway to establish a chapter of Toastmasters International in Highlands County and various people in the organization have offered their help in getting a chapter started, according to Norma Gobble of Avon Park, who is spearheading the move.

Toastmasters International is an educational organization with an excellent communications and leadership program dedicated to self improvement through helping one another.

Toastmasters' guidance enables individuals to gain valuable knowledge in communications and leadership and, by effective evaluations, systematically gain new insights and skills.

Speech contests and other competition are sponsored by Toastmasters for members and educational programs are available rivaling expensive training courses through other sources.

Cost of the program including club dues, educational materials and other materials run less than $25 per person.

Winter Haven Toastmasters have agreed to come to Highlands County for a presentation if enough people are interested. Interested individuals, men or women, should indicate their desire to attend such a presentation.

When responses indicate there are 10 to 20 people interested, a meeting date will be set. A meeting place will be chosen centrally located, possibly in Sebring.

Interested persons should indicate their desire to attend such a meeting by calling Mrs. Gobble at 453-4351, 453-4355 or 452-2935, or by writing her at P. O. Box 462, Avon Park, 33825.

Highlands Little Theatre To Hold Tryouts Sunday

A western melodrama, anyone? Musical?

The Highlands Little Theatre will hold tryouts Sunday for Deadwood Dick, a rootin', tootin' melodrama of the Old West. That one is for sure.

The group of players is also soliciting the attendance of anyone in Highlands County wishing to participate in a musical. This will include singers who can act, dancers, choral directors, choreographers, male and female.

The Little Theatre has tentatively scheduled a musical for its winter production, but all will depend upon the interest and the talent available.

There are also some group singing roles in Deadwood Dick and the need for a female who can act and sing, another who can act and dance.

Needed are male and female villains, heroes and heroines, stage technicians, wardrobe persons, makeup artists, lighting experts, and those interested in learning.

For this particular show almost all the backstage crew will be in costume, ready to take part as "supers" in several scenes. Those who would like to break into the theatre in easy stages (sorry) might find this the way to go.

Tryouts will be held Sunday from 2-6 p.m. in the parish hall of St. Agnes Church, 680 NW Lakeview Drive.

Students Should Contact SFJC

Pre-advisement of students will begin at South Florida Junior College July 21 and continue through Aug. 15.

All full-time returning students and entering freshman should contact Mrs. Claire May at the college for a pre-advisement appointment or call 453-6661, extension 131, in Avon Park.

Students enrolled in the Summer "B" Term may pre-register July 25 if they will be full-time students in the fall. Students planning to pre-register should request an appointment on or prior to July 25.

Man's triumph over a Menace to Life...

Sharks have always been man's enemies in the sea. They are a danger to the shipwrecked, and occasionally threaten the lives of swimmers along our coastal waters. Sharks are only one of the many dangers that man faces every day. The world, today, is in a turmoil and we must be alert and on guard for the enemies' moves. Now is the time to trust in the Lord and to seek His help.

"Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in thee; let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me."

Psalm 25, 1-2

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

When competition is tough, and you want to tip the scales in your favor...

USE CLASSIFIED ADS

They carry a lot of weight. Classified Ads mean increased sales because they head straight for the best prospects any business has — the people who have already decided they want a product or service and are now trying to decide where to get it. These are the people who voluntarily seek out your ad in the Classified columns. The audience you want for your "salestalk in print" is ready and waiting for you.

You need never miss a prospect as he comes into the market either — because, by taking advantage of Classified's low commercial rates, you can easily afford to advertise every day. Classified Ads are flexible, easily changed to meet new selling opportunities as they arise — and, teamed with your display advertising, they give a potent extra push to special promotions.

There's more . . . but why not do yourself and your business a favor . . . call the number below today for an experienced account representative who will help you plan the Classified Advertising program that makes it so easy for you to tip the profit scale in your favor.
