County Commissioners

Hear Fire Protection Proposals In Workshop

The Highlands County Commission called a workshop session at the Agri-Civic Center on Highway 27 south of Sebring Monday night to discuss fire protection for areas outside of incorporated city limits.

Only a few members of the affected public living outside of city limits bothered to attend the meeting. Most of the audience were members of city councils, fire departments or volunteer fire departments.

In taking the floor consultant engineer Robert C. Byrns, made a number of recommendations stating that a fire department excuse for existing was that it must be ready at all times to fight a fire.

His recommendations called for a department of emergency services to include fire protection, ambulance service and rescue units along with the Civil Defense.

Other recommendations given communications, three new county fire stations, radio frequencies, county wide standardization of equipment, length of service award program for volunteers, performance standards, that the fire protection tax collected by cities be turned over to the county, that the present firemen's pension system not be abolished and also proposed a county wide water system.

County Commissioner Ken Wilkinson offered a counter-proposal that the city's fire departments remain where located and answer calls in the area outside of their limits. That it might be possible to build three new county based stations equipped with a pumper and tanker for a capital outlay of $200,000.

Noting that residents of Sebring and Avon Park pay about 2 mills of tax to support their fire departments, Wilkinson proposed that the county assume the financial burden of both departments.

For Sebring, the annual cost would be about $112,000; for Avon Park, about $95,000.

The cost for this construction and fire protection would be met by a county wide one mill tax assessment, and according to his plan the Avon Park fire protection assessment of two mills could be reduced to one mill. The idea of theory being that a county wide one mill assessment would reduce the Avon Park fire protection millage and at the same time help the county residents obtain fire protection.

Vets Groups Set Holiday Services

County Judge Mark Richardson will be speaker at Memorial Day Services at Lakeview Memorial Gardens in Sebring at 4 p.m. Monday, James Rimer, general manager of the cemetery, said this week.

The service is sponsored by the Highlands County Veterans Council which includes the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars organizations from Avon Park, Sebring and Lake Placid.

Rev. Joe Benson, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Sebring, will give the invocation. There will be a 21-gun salute and military taps in memory of the war dead.

The Avon Park veterans' groups will place small American flags on the graves of veterans at Bougainville Cemetery on U.S. Highway 27 North beginning at sunrise Monday, Phil Briggs, post commander of the Avon Park American Legion, said.

A random survey of business and governmental agencies indicates that some businesses will close for Memorial Day, May 26, but for most it will be business as usual in Avon Park.

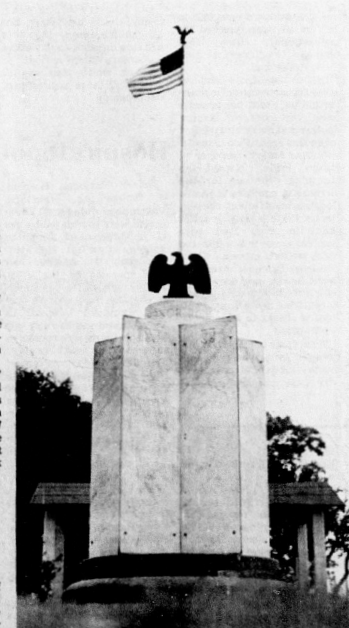

Both banks and both savings and loan offices will be closed as will the Avon Park City Hall and all county offices in Sebring.

The U.S. Post Office will be closed and there will be no outside delivery. However, mail will be put up in the boxes inside the post office.

A spokesman at Winn Dixie indicated they would close on Monday but Pantry Pride and the major department stores will be open.

Bad Checks Plague City

Bad checks have been a problem for businesses everywhere for some time and Avon Park businessmen have had their share of headaches arising from increased incidents of rubber checks.

Many have adopted stringent policies on check cashing and all are wondering what steps can be taken to further reduce losses and expenses encountered in collecting bad checks.

Many people have inadvertently written a check which was returned to the payee by their bank for insufficient funds and merchants have been stuck with simply bad checks written on a nonexistent or closed account.

Still others habitually write checks knowing they don't have sufficient funds to cover the checks and it is returned to the merchant by the bank.

Many times the check will be covered by the time the merchant redeposits it and often it is returned for the second time. Then the merchant must contact the writer of the check and request he redeem the check with cash.

The check can also be submitted to the bank as a collection item but cannot be presented the third time as a cash item.

The major portion of checks which bounce back to the merchant are for insufficient funds. Whether it is an oversight on the part of the customer or an "I'll beat the check to the bank with a deposit" type situation all this is time consuming and costly to the business.

It is also costly to the basically honest customer who fully intends to cover the check. When a check is returned, banks charge the customer's account a fee of from $1 to $5.

And the general buying public foots the bill by paying higher prices for merchandise.

The people who write these bad checks also create an inconvenience for those who would never let a check bounce. Because merchants have become so fed up with the problem that they have instituted stringent policies on check cashing.

Ron Cochran, co-owner of Jiffy Food Store, said, "I only carry $5 or $10 and usually pay everything by check," noting the difficulty of getting many businesses to take personal checks. "A few have made it rough for everyone."

Of Jiffy's policy on taking customer's checks, Cochran said, "We've just about quit taking checks."

He said that store had some $500 in bad checks last year. The policy on check cashing really "got tight" in February. They quit keeping money on the premises and absolutely cash no payroll checks.

Checks are accepted at Jiffy only for the amount of purchase and must be on a local bank. Drivers license numbers are written on all checks.

Since cracking down on checks, the store averages one insufficient check per week. Cochran said, he notes there was seldom an "out and out fraudulent" check.

What are the laws regarding the issuance of bad checks? A bad check written for less than $50 is a second degree misdemeanor and carries a maximum penalty of 60 days in

THE FLAG OF '76 is one of the two Bicentennial flags to be flown over Avon Park during the Bicentennial Celebrations. The Flag of '76 was presented to the Historical Committee of the Old Settlers Association by the Florida Bicentennial Commission. The official Bicentennial flag will arrive soon to be flown over the band stand. Displaying the flag are Mayor Marshall Davis, Rev. M. D. Graetz, Leoma Maxwell, Mildred Waddell, Anna Belle Worden and Grace Boney. Anyone wishing to fly the Flag of '76 during the Bicentennial Celebration may purchase a flag by contacting Historical Committee members, Leoma Maxwell, George Haynie Grace Boney or Cliff Thomas. Bicentennial Flag Historical Committee Named To Coordinate Local Celebration

The Historical Committee of the Old Settlers Association of Avon Park was named by the city fathers and the Mayor to be the co-ordinating force for Avon Park's Bicentennial Celebration.

Rev. H. D. Graetz, president of the Old Settlers Association, reports that this group met last week and began making plans. They suggested that Avon Park residents set their celebrations between July 4, 1975 and July 4, 1976.

The following people were named by President Graetz to head the Bicentennial Committee: Mrs. T. H. Maxwell and George Haynie chairman and assistant chairman; Mrs. P. Boney and W. Cliff Thomas treasurer and assistant treasurer.

Mayor Marshall Davis, Don Bennett and Cliff Thomas are to supervise the necessary repairs to the Band Stand and painting the city fire hydrants red, white and blue. These two projects are to be the first undertakings for the Bicentennial Celebrations.

President Graetz urges that all residents of Avon Park enter into the spirit of '76 and that our celebrations should have lasting values. All of the churches, schools, clubs and businesses should emphasize the patriotic theme in their programs for the coming year.

Mrs. Maxwell stated she will announce a date for a meeting to set an overall program for activities.

Financial Disclosure

Filing Date Extended To July 15, 1975

With the final date for the filing of the financial disclosure forms extended to July 15, 1975 the pressure has been taken off of local government officials and committee members to fill out and file this form with the Clerk of Courts office in tmoffice in the county courthouse.

City Clerk Malcolm Crews stated that five or six committee members had not filed their forms before May 15 but that several had indicated their intentions of doing so.

At their Monday May 12, meeting the Avon Park City Council had excepted the resignation of Charles Smith from the Civil Service Board. Smith wrote that he declined to fill out the six page form and returned it to the council.

Melvin Beane, secretary of the Civil Service Board had also tendered his resignation because he did not believe in the financial disclosure statement for an unpaid committee member. However, since the extended time to July 15 it was reported that Beane had agreed to serve until July 1.

Another new paper form required by the States Ethics

Commission may bug council members and committee members when they abstain from voting on an issue.

This form required by a recent state law specifies that the local government official or member file the form with the state Ethics Commission giving the reason for abstaining from voting on an issue coming before the local body.

Total Search For Inmate Continues

One prisoner was still at large Tuesday and two others are in the Polk County Jail at Bartow following their escape over the weekend from Avon

Park Correctional Institute, M. K. Sawyer, assistant superintendent at the prison said.

Still at large is Johnny Prock, 23, of Tampa. According to Polk County sheriff's reports, Leroy Poss, 38, had passed out near Seminole Road near Frostproof and was taken into custody by sheriff's Corporal Edward Ferrell.

Donald Krasemann, 41, turned himself in to the Frostproof Police Department. Both were placed in the Polk County Jail on the escape charge. No bail will be set.

Sawyer said the inmates will probably be held in that facility until disposition of the escape charges and then returned to the local facility. The search for Prock continues.

Senior Pictures Must Be In By May 23

Seniors of Avon Park High School have been asked to bring their graduation pictures to the SUN office in order to include them in our upcoming special graduation issue.

Less than half of the seniors have responded.

All pictures must be in this office no later than Friday, May 23, if they are to be printed. Once the special graduation issue has been printed, we will not publish any more senior pictures.

The book offers intimate and curiously unvarnished looks at Wallace himself and his views of the future, and an insider's view of the Governor's mansion and of the hectic schedule that Wallace now leads with his wife, Cornelia.

Letter To The Editor

Mayor Answers Question On Fire Protection

Dear Mrs. Porter:

In regards to your letter printed in the Avon Park Sun concerning fire protection I do not know of any fire service which is furnished "free". It is my understanding that the volunteer service which covers the area in which you live has a voluntary protection program costing $20.00 per year for a residence.

The city fire department carries a budget of more than $66,000 this year. Obviously the cost of this service must be paid by the taxpayers of the city. We do not answer calls outside the city, because of a state law prohibiting such action.

The County Commissioners are studying a proposal for county wide fire service. If this is adopted I am sure that it will mean additional taxes to cover the cost.

The City does not receive any funds from Federal, State or County to aid in its operation of the fire department. We trust that this will help you understand the operation of local fire departments. If you have any questions please feel free to discuss them with me.

Sincerely yours,
J. Marshall Davis
Mayor

Fire Protection

Sebring, $55,000; Avon Park, $42,000; Lake Placid, $3,000. At this point Councilman Ed Touchton stated that the Avon Park City Council was all in favor of fire protection for homeowners living outside of the city, however, the council was opposed to losing control of local funds and local areas.

Fire Chief Mack Flowers in a statement referred to the Avon Park system wherein the county had contracts with each city's fire department for answering calls in their area. The city's would need additional equipment for this extended coverage but the cost would be amortized by the county payment for services under the contract.

It was pointed out by Chief Flowers that the Avon Park fire department could not adequately cover the northern part of Highlands County with some additional equipment and manpower. Distances involved by measurement were seven miles east on the Bombing Range Road, four miles north to the county line three miles west to the county line and four miles south to Lakemont. All of the area to be served is listed in the Avon Park telephone directory.

In regard to the Avon Park Fire Station it was referred to as being centrally located within the city close to the high risk fire area and central with a good department.

A number of volunteer fire department spokesmen offered their ideas and suggestions for improvements in their areas and also that the Forestry Service was available in some areas for early help in the case of fire. Ed Touchton, chief of the Forestry Service stated the whole county was covered in the event of woods or grass fires.

Consultant Byrum pointed out that the homeowner could help himself by connecting to a water outlet, a garden hose long enough to reach any part of his home.

Ray Walker of the Highlands Lake Volunteer Fire Department reported that his five years experience there found that 80 per cent of the people contributed funds for maintenance and 20 per cent having the attitude "let George do it". Consequently his group felt that by having a mailings assessment everyone contributes a like amount to get fire protection.

Chairman of the County Commission Buddy Wise pointed out that as Highlands County grows at a steady rate of ten per cent per year from its 43,000 people population in 1974 it will reach 76,000 people by 1980 and there will be more problems county wide not only in fire protection but with sewer, water and garbage disposal.

Wise suggested that Ken Wilkinson meet with his committee of fire chiefs, volunteer fire department chiefs and the Forestry Service to make a list of recommendations for the county commission meeting the following week.

Allen R. Smith, assistant state attorney, said in some areas of the state they are "turning robbers and murderers out on probation because there's no space" in the prisons.

Smith said the people are going to have to face the fact that more prisons are going to have to be built pointing out that people don't want prisons in or near their town.

He spoke of some state prisons building tent-type shelters to house prisoners because of the grossly overcrowded conditions.

Chuck Metcalfe, part-owner of Metcalfe Hardware cited the convenience of the courts as a contributing factor in the bad check problem. "People know they can get away with it," he

Mrs. Jeanette Ham, manager of Shop & Go on South Verona, said that store had experienced some bad problems with bad checks. She said most of their were insufficient rather than fraudulent checks.

Shop & Go limits the checks they take to the amount of purchase. In addition, sales clerks taking the checks are directly responsible, Mrs. Ham said. If a check is returned the clerk must pay the amount and is responsible for collecting the check.

Mrs. Ruby Clemons, manager of Shop & Go on North Lake said her store has no problem with bad checks, but did not elaborate as to the reasons.

Ernest Corsiglia, co-owner of C & H Grocery on U.S. Highway 27 North, said checks problem with bouncing checks is minimal. He said he requires identification and take only local checks.

Touchton Drugs has had problems with bad checks until they put practices into effect to avoid losses, Art Trammell, general manager of the three area stores, said.

He said they accept checks only for the amount of the purchase and the checks must be drawn on a local bank. They also maintain a file and will refuse checks from customers that habitually give insufficient checks.

Trammell said the drug stores stopped cashing payroll checks about two months ago following losses due to checks on non-existent companies.

There is always a possibility of stolen payroll checks and stolen check protectors, too.

At least one local business was stuck with a payroll check when payment was stopped after the person cashing the check reported to the company he worked for that he had lost his payroll check.

The company re-issued the check to the employee and when the local business received the check back with the notation that payment was stopped, the company reported to make it good. The employee had since quit his job and left the area.

It reportedly would have cost the local business some $25 to have the offender returned for prosecution. Often this amounts to "throwing good money after bad."

In such instances, a company should be more careful to make certain the check has actually been lost before issuing another and make every effort to see that the substitution is made.

Jerome Antley, manager of Pantry Pride, blamed the slumping economy for the increase in numbers of people floating insufficient checks. Pantry Pride is the only retail outlet in Avon Park with cameras in which take the check writer's picture.

Neiser Brothers manager, Lewis Dewitt, said they try to control the bad check situation by requiring identification and limiting checks to the amount of purchase.

Winn Dixie is one of the few stores in Avon Park requiring courtesy cards of all customers who cash checks, manager said.

Eddie Delaney, manager of Delaney's Hardware, advocates limiting a check to the amount of the purchase. He said the banks opening on Saturday eliminated being forced to make decisions about cashing checks in many instances.

And Smith issued that admonition to merchants. He said stores should not cash checks over the amount of purchase.

Smith said his office was limited in powers in that about all they could do is force people to pay for their purchases.

Smith said they are going to have to face the fact that more prisons are going to have to be built pointing out that people don't want prisons in or near their town.

He spoke of some state prisons building tent-type shelters to house prisoners because of the grossly overcrowded conditions.

Chuck Metcalfe, part-owner of Metcalfe Hardware cited the convenience of the courts as a contributing factor in the bad check problem. "People know they can get away with it," he Henry Dennis said. But, there are still habitual violators, he said.

"A minority makes it rough for all customers," Dennis said.

Dennis advocates a check alert system where a merchant cashing a bad check would call two other merchants. Each of those would call two and so on until all merchants are notified of a "paper hanger" working the community.

The alert system would be most effective on fraudulent and stolen checks but would do little to combat the major problem of insufficient checks.

Dennis also said a new register, the NCR 255, in use in some Winn Dixie stores, automatically shows when a customer writing a check already has an uncollected insufficient check in the store.

He said, however, the cost of these machines make them out of reach to the small business.

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce operates a check alert system for chamber members, Mrs. Annabell Worden, executive manager of the chamber, said. Again the system is not so effective on the insufficient checks. The chamber's board of directors are working on a more effective system, Mrs. Worden said.

Some help to businesses may be on the way in the form of Senate Bill 1190 now pending before the state legislature.

The bill if passed would provide that businesses or individuals who receive a check and issue a bad check to pay up in 30 days or be subject to litigation and responsible for any court or attorney's fees.

The bill is seen as an effort to find a better way to get people to back up bad checks without having to turn to the already overburdened courts to do the job.

But, the problem still goes back to the basic honesty or dishonesty of people. Those trying to talk the merchant will have to be taken to court anyway.

One solution would be to stop taking checks altogether, but that really humanitarian service. We see all sorts of fund drives for all sorts of good causes.

Isn't this a good cause? To give a youngster a fighting chance for survival?

Hospital Sponsors Vietnamese Refugees

Walker Memorial Hospital is sponsoring fourteen Vietnamese refugees. The people were evacuated by the U. S. Government from the Saigon Adventist Hospital.

Previously the hospital had been operated by the U. S. Army as the 3rd Field Hospital. It was the most modern and well equipped hospital in Vietnam at the time.

These trained nurses will be employed by Walker Memorial Hospital as Nursing Assistants until such time as they can be registered as nurses in the State of Florida.

In recent months, Walker Memorial Hospital has experienced difficulty in employing qualified Nursing Assistants. Many individuals apply but most of them are unable to meet the requirements of the job. If an applicant has not graduated from the Nursing Assistant course conducted by South Florida Junior College, they are required to pass a test which evaluates their basic knowledge of the Nursing Assistant's responsibility.

Walker Memorial Hospital feels that because of the refugee situation, the refugees have completed, they will contribute to good patient care at the hospital and that they will become productive residents of the community.

The group of refugees was made up of seven adults (four nurses, one government employee, one school teacher and one pharmacy aide) and seven children from the ages of newborn infant to eight years old.

One of the men escaped with some plants taken from the garden, the second was apprehended and charged with trespassing.

John Mercer of the sheriff's department also took some plants from the garden — and identified them as marijuana.

Turkey Talk

By NORMA GOBBLE

Some 110 seniors at Avon Park High School are busily and excitedly going through the hectic pace of graduation activities and looking forward to that big day next month.

But, Buckle Jackson is not one of them. Buckle was due to graduate along with the Class of '75. But Buckle is fighting for his life in a Miami hospital.

A tragic fire destroyed Buckle's trailer home on April 29 and the youth received 39 degree burns over 90 per cent of his body.

At best, Buckle has a long and painful time to go through before he ever regains any semblance of normal living. Doctors didn't think at one point last week he would even survive. But his condition has stabilized, although still critical.

A few years ago I was in a hospital for minor surgery. I was in a room with a woman who had been badly burned. At that point, she had been in the hospital seven months. She was still in constant pain. Her medical bill at that point had climbed to nearly $30,000.

Her family was barely getting by at the time she was burned. The little community of some 800 people raised almost $15,000 toward the astronomical expenses through benefit musicals, pie suppers, cake walks, bake sales and other fund raising ideas.

So come on Avon Park, can't we do as much for Buckle to give him every chance for recovery?

Buckle's condition is such that he could be moved to the Dallas, Tex. burn center his Miami doctors recommend. The bill would be the $15,000-$20,000 the hospital requires toward treatment.

A Buckle Jackson Memorial Fund has been established at the Highlands County Bank of Avon Park with Bob Daubeck, executive vice president of the bank in charge.

On Tuesday that fund had reached a mere $118.80. Reportedly, a car wash put on by people from school had raised some $160 but the amount had not been deposited Tuesday.

Here's a chance for civic and religious organizations to do a really humanitarian service. We see all sorts of fund drives for all sorts of good causes.

Isn't this a good cause? To give a youngster a fighting chance for survival?

I noticed reports last week where state school officials are discontinuing corporal punishment in favor of "behavioral modification."

I always thought they were one of the best things that I remember back when I was in first or second grade in a little one-room school back in the sticks in Northwest Arkansas. We had a rope swing attached to a large tree with a board seat fitted in the rope.

With one swing, we had had a lot of fun. I got mad because I didn't get to swing as much as I wanted to, so I hid the board seat so no one could swing.

When Miss McElhaney discovered what I had done, she took a dogwood switch and modified my behavior! I never hid the swing seat again!

Chlorination Proceeding

The addition of chlorine to the city's water supply has progressed with less trouble than had been anticipated both in the amount of debris and dirt in the water and in the number of calls regarding the quality of water.

Students at the Avon Park High School, through the water lines N. G. "Dave" Davenport of the water department stated that the odor of chlorine was being found in most of the water lines.

In talking about the flow of chlorine through the water lines N. G. "Dave" Davenport of the water department stated that the odor of chlorine was being found in most of the water lines.

However, on some of the remote dead end lines with only a small number of water users, the odor of chlorine could not be detected, but he felt it would only be a matter of time before this would be corrected.

Mail Box Improvement Week Slated May 19-24

Young pointed out that because more Americans receive their mail on rural routes than ever before, Mail Box Improvement Week is more important than when first observed generations ago in rural areas and small communities.

Young said about 12.4 million families are served by about 31,000 rural mail boxes. Growth is the country's suburbs has increased the number of curbside mail boxes served by motorized city delivery carriers to an estimated 36 million customers.

Rural mail service began in 1898. Mail Boxes in those days were often makeshift receptacles such as a tin can nailed to a tree. A variety of modern mail box designs for use with decorative posts are manufactured today in cooperation with the Postal Service.

May 19-24 has been designated as Mail Box Improvement Week, a traditional spring observance which contributes to improved security and appearance of the nation's nearly 25 million mail boxes, R. D. Young, Avon Park postmaster, has announced.

Held annually, the event has long served as the starting signal to encourage community efforts to repair, repaint and make other improvements to the nation's rural and curbside-type mail boxes, Young said.

County Farm Workers Bargaining With Coca-Cola

Approximately 300 Highlands County workers have a direct stake in the labor negotiations scheduled for Friday at Dundee.

Mack Lyons, Florida director for the United Farm Workers, told The Sun Tuesday that Coca-Cola representatives had agreed to the session Friday. Earlier in the week Lyons, whose office is in Avon Park, had announced plans to seek intervention of top Coke officials in Atlanta.

Coca-Cola's food division owns citrus groves which stretch from the Polk Highlands line southward to DeSoto City and employs about 300 workers, Lyons said.

A contract between United Farm Workers and Coca-Cola ran out Jan. 3 but has been continued on a day-to-day basis.

Approximately two dozen negotiating sessions have been held between the union and Coke representatives. Last week

Victim Is Still Critical, Funds Needed

Orville Rayford "Buckie" Jackson, the Avon Park High School senior, critically burned in a house trailer fire April 29, is still listed in critical condition in the Burn Center of Jackson Memorial Hospital, Miami, although his condition has stabilized, according to a family spokesman.

His condition has improved sufficiently to transfer him to a Dallas, Tex. burn center his doctors have recommended. Transferral of the burn victim to the Texas hospital is pending accumulation of funds to guarantee at least a portion of the expenses. This is required by the Texas hospital before they will accept him.

Bob Daubach, executive vice president of the Highlands County Bank of Avon Park, in charge of the Buckie Jackson Medical Fund, said the fund had reached only $296.80 Tuesday.

Of that total $100 was raised from a car wash at Borders Service Station last Saturday.

Buckie had no insurance and the astronomical cost of round-the-clock medical care has already reached staggering amounts and continues to rise daily.

"We're just hoping for the best," Buckie's aunt, Mrs. C. H. Hamrick, said.

Buckie's father, Clarence "Jiggs" Jackson was in the hospital at the time of the fire that destroyed the family's trailer home at 1200 W. Pine St., Avon Park, shortly after midnight April 29.

Citrus Mutual Backs Nurserymen

Florida Citrus Nurserymen's Association President Wendell W. Williams reported that in their meeting last week Florida Citrus Mutual passed a resolution condemning the illegal Star Ruby grapefruit scions and trees in Florida. It meant more support for the citrus nurserymen in their fight for the destruction of the approximately 50,000 illegally propagated grapefruit trees.

The Star Ruby grapefruit originated in Texas from irradiated seed and has a deep red pulp color that is quite popular. Budwood was clandestinely and illegally brought into Florida in violation of the Florida Plant Act of 1929.

Budwood was brought into Florida under strict quarantine by the Division of Plant Industry and was scheduled for release on April 15, 1975. However, it was found that some of the Texas grown Star Ruby grapefruit trees carry a plant virus known as the necrotic strain of the Citrus Ring Spot Virus, which was not known to exist in Florida. It is known to be transmitted by insects and budding.

As a consequence Halwin Jones, Director of the Division of Plant Industry has delayed the release of the legal (quarantined) Ruby Star budwood material for two years or until all existing illegal plants of the variety have been destroyed (whichever comes sooner).

When asked about the illegal Star Ruby grapefruit trees, John Washington, president of the Florida Nursery Growers Association (FNGA) stated that the rank and file of the nursery growers were in sympathy with the citrus nursery growers.

However, he stated the citrus nurserymen as a chapter organization of the FNGA would have to request their support and action before the matter could be brought before the FNGA annual meeting this Saturday in Tarpon Springs.

Citrus Nurserymen's President Williams indicated that the FNGA would be requested to help in the fight against the illegal Star Ruby grapefruit trees and scions. He also indicated that other action would also be forth coming in the future.

If you are scouting around for a project, why not work with your local Boy Scout or Girl Scout groups?

about 500 grove workers, including many from Highlands County Lyons said, participated in a peaceful demonstration at the Coca-Cola Foods Division office near Auburndale. Key issue hanging up the bargaining sessions, the union officer said, is the right of union representatives to contact workers in the field.

Bill Kelly, vice president in charge of grove operations, agreed with Lyons' assessment of the situation. He charged that under the old contract the union officials had used the visitation provision to "disrupt work... the company has not suggested any contract change to eliminate the right of the union to conduct normal business."

6A The Avon Park Sun, Avon Park, Fla., May 22, 1975

Hi Friends,

On Monday, May 26, we will observe another Memorial Day, or Decoration Day. Since the end of World War I, Memorial Day has also been called "Poppy Day." Ex-servicemen sell small red artificial poppies to help disabled veterans. Memorial Day is a day to honor American servicemen who gave their lives for their country. In recent years, the custom has grown in most families to decorate the graves of other loved ones on this day also.

This week we pay tribute to six youths from Avon Park who gave their lives in the service of the United States or in other manners while still enlisted. Simultaneously, we would like to pay recognition to the mothers of these brave men and most of them still make their homes in Avon Park and whom we would like to declare, "Citizens of the week." We share this honor with other mothers, who have lost sons in defense of our nation.

Willie Lee was the son of Mrs. Retha Kirkland who lives at 302 Booker Street, Avon Park, Fla. He was a member of Saint Mark Baptist Church where he served faithfully until he volunteered to serve his country. He was attached to the U.S. 101st Airborne Division and was killed in action on May 18, 1969 in South Vietnam.

Willie Lee was survived by his mother, two sisters and one brother.

Episcopal Women Set Date For Bonanza

The Episcopal Church Women of Avon Park, met for their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, May 14, in the Parish House of the Church of the Redeemer.

Since this meeting featured a covered dish luncheon, the meeting started at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Anna Touchton announced that a tentative date Saturday, Nov. 15, had been set for the Annual Christmas Bonanza to be held in the Parish House.

She brought a large number of handmade articles to show the members, many of which she made herself. She would like to have more women to volunteer their services. She will gladly teach, so they start classes and have a large supply of lovely things by November. Any member interested please contact Mrs. Touchton.

A delicious luncheon followed the meeting. Also a very pleasant surprise which was announced by Mrs. Winifred Todd. Immediately after Mrs. Klueberg came into the Hall carrying two birthday cakes. One she placed in front of Mrs. Louise Watson, the other was for Mrs. Mary Hill. While the members sang "Happy Birthday" the "Birthday Ladies" made a wish and blew out their candles. Each member was also presented with a miniature birthday cake. May you have many more Mary and Louise.

Mrs. Earl Freeman expressed her appreciation to the two hostesses Mrs. Bobby Klueberg and Mrs. Becky Mandia for their work in preparing for the luncheon and the beautifully decorated table.

This was the last meeting of the 1974-75 year. The next meeting will be held on Oct. 8th in the Parish House after midweek Communion.

The Youth of the church met with Pastor Gregg to make plans for one of the Sunday services while the Pastor and wife are on vacation. Their next meeting will be June 1st at 7 p.m., at the church, to plan some social activities as well as completing their plans for Youth Sunday.

Their last social meeting was to Masterpiece Gardens and a cook out.

The Lutheran Church Women met at the home of Mrs. Gregg with a covered dish

This observation is rendered as constructive criticism to our democratic system which with all of its fallacies is still one I hold in high esteem for in this system I have the right to express myself and other liberties where elsewhere, may be denied.

The Concerned Parents Club of Avon Park are sponsoring a fish supper Friday evening, May 23, at 7:00 p.m. The supper will be staged at the St. Mark annex on Pinedale Avenue for the purpose of helping families with one working parent who is supporting two or more children. The club is also desirous of acquiring more cribs, toys and playground equipment. Donation for the dinner is $1.50.

A board meeting will be held on Mon. June 24th at 7:30 p.m. All interested parents are urged to attend also. Thought Conditioner for the week:

Franklin D. Roosevelt once said "The greatest fear is fear itself." However, many of us have different fears daily. "There is one power which can subdue fear, and that power is faith. So when fear comes to your mind, counter it with an affirmation of faith. Second, love overcomes fear. By love is meant trust, confidence and complete dependence upon God. The third element is to attain a sound mind in which there are no complexes and obsessions. Live with the thought of God and you will develop a sound mind." "For God hath not left us the spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind." II Timothy 1:7

Yours truly, Calvin C. Gibbs

50 Years Ago

The Church of the Nazarene had "Old Fashion Day" last Sunday. Pauline Jackson interviewed Morris Spurlock from Okeechobee during the day. Morris attended the Church in 1925 and told of some of the events and the history behind the church.

Church Of Nazarene

Celebrating 50th Anniversary With Seven Pastors Attending

The First Church of the Nazarene is celebrating its 50th Anniversary next Sunday, May 25. In conjunction with the Anniversary, they celebrated "Old-Fashioned Day" this past Sunday, May 18th, in the morning services. Most of the members and friends were dressed as pioneers or in clothing of the 30's and 40's.

Former pastor, Rev. W. Earl Spurlock, his wife, and Mrs. Carey (Elsie) Scott, compiled a display of pictures and newspaper clippings over the past 50 years, which will be placed in a scrapbook.

A special guest, Morris Spurlock, told the congregation some of the events in the history of the church. Mr. Spurlock attended this church in 1925, and now resides in Okeechobee. He was interviewed by Mrs. Densby (Pauline) Jackson. A quartet composed of two former pastor's children, John Lighty and Mrs. Noel (Nancy Lighty) Scott, and Mrs. Michael Jayne, sang "The Old-Fashioned Meeting" just before the Pastor, Rev. Byron E. F. Schortinghouse, brought the message on "Building on Our Heritage". The Pastor and members invite all friends in Avon Park and Sebring to attend. A special services next Sunday.

$100 Netted In Local Break-in

About $100 in change was taken from a juke box which was broken open at the Bluebird Restaurant on South Delaney sometime during the night Thursday or early Friday morning, according to Avon Park Patrolman Gene Hancock.

Burglars had pried open the front door located on the west side of the building and entered the establishment. The breaking and entering was reported to Avon Park Police about 7:40 a.m. Friday by owner Ed Donaldson.

Stolen Car Recovered

A routine check of an auto without an inspection sticker about 1 a.m. Monday by Avon Park Patrolman Ed Wald resulted in the arrest of three persons in a stolen car.

Wald stopped the 1972 Chevrolet Vega and asked for registration papers which the occupants could not produce. A computer check on the car's license number revealed the auto had been reported stolen from Fealsels Paint and Glass in Deland on Thursday of last week.

Joseph Allen Bone, 19, of Deland, was placed in the Highlands County Jail on a charge of possession of a stolen vehicle, while two juveniles accompanying Bone were placed in the custody of juvenile authorities. The auto was impounded.

Catholic Womens Guild Elects Officers

The Catholic Womens guild of Our Lady of Grace held an election and installation of officers at church hall May 15 at 12 noon with a salad bar. The past officers were given a gift by Sophia Petrovich.

Dean Austin gave the new president Barbara Klemm a "gavel" which is most appreciated by all our members.

The following ladies have been elected for the year 1975-76: Barbara Klemm, president; Lois Enderle, recording secretary; Sophia Petrovich, vice-president; Della Stephens, corresponding secretary; Margaret Clifford, treasurer.

Advisory Group Has Goals For Students

The Area Advisory Committee held their meeting on May 12 at the Media Center of the Avon Park High School with 18 members present.

Mrs. Marguerite Carver reported on the recommendations for minimum requirements for seniors. Recommendations:

1. A minimum of five credit hours be required for all seniors with the exception of full time job entry students, early admission students, and vocational education students at the Junior College. Any other exceptions would be left to the discretion of the individual principal in conference with the students' parents.

2. It is suggested that stronger emphasis be placed in involving parents each year in planning of their students' high school curriculum along with the Guidance Department of the High School.

3. Four years of Language Arts be required for all high school students. Again the exception would be full-time job entry students, early admission students, and vocational education students at the Junior College. The Content of the Language Arts Course would be left to the expertise of the High School English Department.

This was the last meeting for the Area Advisory Committee until September.

Ernest Reppress To Head

Breath Of Life Fund

Mrs. Ernest Reppress has been named Chairman for the Avon Park Breath of Life fund drive sponsored by the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Kick-off date for the drive is September 8.

Lung-damaging disease in children is a problem of major significance here in Avon Park and all across the U.S. according to Mrs. Ernest Reppress.

"There are millions of American children fighting lung-damaging diseases like chronic bronchitis, emphysema, severe asthma, persistent pneumonia and the most serious of all, cystic fibrosis," she said. "One of every 1,500 babies born this year will inherit cystic fibrosis, a birthright of suffering, sickness and shortened life. Cystic fibrosis damages lungs and affects digestion. It's incurable."

Changing those odds is what the Breath of Life fund drive is all about. Anyone interested in helping as a volunteer in the September drive can reach the City Chairman at telephone number (813) 453-5642.

Home Makers Have "Girls Only" Show

BA The Avon Park Sun, Avon Park, Fla., May 22, 1973

Photos By Cornell

Last Thursday, May 15, the Future Homemakers of America held a fashion show, Tropical Serenade, for the girls at Avon Park High School. Models included: Julie Filippa, Chris Thompson, Tara Young, Celeste Nance, Egeria Moore, Gilda Brown, Cindy Stokes, Susan Swindall, Margaret Miracle and Bonnie Connors. Conner, Becky Crittenden, Commentator.

Last Wednesday afternoon, May 14, the Future Homemakers of America at Avon Park High School arranged for a "girls only" assembly in order to present a fashion show, Tropical Serenade.

Tropical Serenade presented the latest and most fashionable looks for the Summer of 1973. The girls modeled school dresses, pant suits, weekend ensembles and formal to music provided by the Avon Park High School Stage Band under the direction of Vic Mickunas.

The auditorium was decorated with many varieties of tropical plants and a lattice screen trellis which gave everyone in the audience the feeling of being on a tropical island.

The Mushroom owned by Mrs. Sidney Faust and managed by Mrs. Gayle

Wilkins furnished the clothing for the show.

Becky Crittenden was Mistress of Ceremonies and described each model outfit as they entered.

At the close of the show Becky, on behalf of all the FHA girls, presented Mrs. Wilkins with a floral arrangement as a token of their appreciation for her many hours of hard work arranging the fashion show.

Walker To Speak At Food Service Banquet

Helen M. Walker of Winter Haven, president of the 60,000 member American School Food Service Association, will be the keynote speaker at the Highlands County Food Service banquet. The banquet will be held at 7 p.m. on Friday, May 30, at Avon Park Elementary School. Mrs. Elijah Murphy of Sebring will be the soloist.

Presently Mrs. Walker is director of school food service for Folk County. Of the 13,000 school districts in the United States, hers is the 67th largest. Mrs. Walker has been an active member of both the American and Florida food services associations for the past 20 years.

She was regional director and president of the Florida association, and regional director and president-elect of the national association's board of directors. She has her B.S. degree in institutional management.

Her past employment has included serving as director of the business and professional department of Y.W.C.A., Jacksonville; and as school electronic director of the Florida Citrus Commission.

By invitation of former President Nixon, she was a participant in the White House conference on food, health and nutrition, and was one of a two person team sent to Brazil to work with its school feeding program and to assist in the organization of the Brazilian School Lunch Association.

Moneyless Society Era Coming

The nation is entering a cashless and checkless society, the Avon Park Kiwanis Club was told. The statement was made by representatives of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Hardee County.

The Kiwanis Club invited the Savings and Loan Officials to speak on Direct Deposit of Social Security Checks. Herb Perin, Vice President and C. Wesley Ward, advertising and public relations counsel presented the program on a new era in the savings and loan industry.

"We're entering a cashless and checkless society," Ward said in his introductory remarks. He said that in the near future, cash and checks will begin to disappear as a medium of exchange. He said most Savings and Loan Associations are now in a program of using an electronic coded plastic card called the "Prestige Card" that eventually will be used like cash.

Ward explained the cashless and checkless society and electronic funds transfer system to explain the government's direct deposit program. He said it is the government's effort to cut down on the amount of paper work for both the government, the postal system and the financial institutions.

The Prestige Card which is now being used by First Federal of Hardee County is being used primarily in lieu of the passbook. Ward explained how eventually people will be using the Prestige Card like checks and cash. He used as an example, a person buying groceries will present his prestige card to the cashier. The cashier will insert the electronically coded card into a machine which will transmit signals back to a central computer system in the Savings and Loan Office. The computer will automatically deduct the amount of the purchase from the card holder's account.

"It will work just like a checking account," Ward says, "with the big difference being the account will be an interest bearing account."

Perin showed a slide presentation on how direct deposit of social security checks will work. He said it is a pilot program of the government in Georgia and Florida only at the present time. The Government presently mails some 32 million Social Security Checks each month, with some being lost, some people forgetting to leave a forwarding address and mountains of paper work.

The program is voluntary at this time, but Perin says it may come to the point of not being voluntary. He pointed out the advantages of having the check mailed direct to a person's account. He said it has less chance of being lost, is credited automatically to a savings account that bears interest from the day of deposit, saves a person time in having to deposit the check and is of particular benefit for the person who travels or moves around a lot.

Perin said both the branch office in Avon Park and the main office in Wauchula are processing forms for direct deposit of Social Security checks.

Purvis Makes Emergency Run

When Florida's friendly skies turned stormy last week Highlands County sheriff's office provided some friendly land transportation for an emergency medical run.

On Wednesday night, May 14, weather conditions mandated a U.S. Air Force plane's landing at the Avon Park airport. An Isotlet and some surgical equipment being flown from Scott Field in Illinois to Okeechobee was on board.

The Okeechobee hospital had a hurry-up call out for the equipment. Highlands sheriff deputy Ronnie Purvis met the plane and made an emergency run to the Okeechobee — Highlands line where Okeechobee deputies took over.

When asked how much time had been required for the cross county trip, the sheriff's information officer responded, "Well, not long."

CB RADIO STOLEN
A citizen band radio was stolen from Harold Fithen's truck while he picked fruit at Elton Taylor's grove May 7. Fithen told sheriff's investigators the window of the car had been forced open and the radio unit, valued at $150 had been stolen.

TIE TOPS ARE the rage this spring and you'll continue to see outfits such as Chris wore throughout this summer. She is also wearing light green gauze pants with matching fabric belt and nylon T-shirt under the sheer long sleeve tie blouse.

THE BIG TOP. That's the name which has been given to the blouse, Celeste modeled. Elasticated sleeves, pushed to the elbow and a deeply gathered waist make it comfortable to wear with her flack pants.

BONNIE MODELED a two piece set in a 100 per cent cotton print seersucker. It featured a trimmed in lace, ruffled halter, which is a take off on this seasons pinafore style.

THERE ARE TIMES WHEN you want to go out but not be overdressed. Pattie solved this by wearing candy apple red pants of polyester and rayon and dressing them up with a 100 per cent nylon blouse trimmed in red lace and eye catching sleeves.

Gilda modeled a white camisole top and sheer tie jacket, both trimmed with lace. The orange polyester pants featured two button tabs at the waist. This outfit also solves the problem of dressing up yet remaining in pants.

Pinafores are also part of this seasons styles. Margaret wore a red and white polka-dot print dress. A white bib on the front, with ruffles going up over the shoulder, down the back to a tie at the waist. The dress ended in a ruffled hem.

SMART LOOKING IS a good description for the two piece set Celeste wore. A scoop-neck, knit top over a patchwork print skirt. A matching print neck-scarf puts the final touch to this set.

NO LONGER IS there any one skirt length. Here, Egeria has mixed separates and come up with a style that has finally been accepted. She combined aqua and navy blue in a scoop-neck knit and 25 inch skirt.

Julie wears a natural color, 25" skirt, of polyester and cotton gauze, teamed with an earth tone print, polyester eyelet blouse. This makes a sophisticated look. Bringing it all together is a brass buckle, wood-look belt and wood beaded necklace.

AIRBRUSHING IS EVEN an art in the clothing industry. Tara wore an elasticized waist, 25" skirt, topped with a cap sleeve T-shirt with a muted airbrush design across the front.

Bonnie ent' ed again wearing a gown with a bodice of gauze and a dainty rose print skirt trimmed in lace. For the cool of the evening she wore over her shoulders, a gauze shawl edged in lace.

Susan was ready for an evening on the town in this romantic, summer halter dress of poly and cotton featuring a trimmed in lace bodice with a deep lace border at the hem. The short tie jacket also features lace on the yoke and the bottom of the sleeve.

A CALIFORNIA DESIGN, just right for Florida girls. Cindy wore a rayon and polyester knit halter dress, accented with four lace insets in the skirt. Cover up a little more with a short, sleeveless, tie jacket which also has insets of lace on the front and back.

MARGARET WAS lovely as she entered modeling a fitted empire style gown with shirred and belted sleeves, panels of lace and a dainty rose print travel down to a ruffled hem.

Attention Parents!!!

"DON'T DO IT, SON"

"So you were stopped for a traffic violation and were discovered in possession of pot, LSD or heroin. And you were convicted of possession — a felony — and received a suspended sentence. Do you think that is the end of it, son?

"NOT QUITE! You also lost your right to vote, to own a gun or to run for public office. You lost the opportunity of EVER becoming a doctor, dentist, certified public accountant, engineer, lawyer, architect, realtor, osteopath, pharmacist, school teacher, barber, or a stockbroker. You can't EVER hold a job where you must be licensed or bonded and you can NEVER work for the city, the county or the Federal government. You can't be admitted to West Point, Annapolis, or the Air Force Academy; but you CAN enlist in the military service — and be assigned to a labor battalion.

"Son, take it from some guys with a lot of mileage behind them: To you — with a lot of mileage still ahead of you — it just isn't worth it! DON'T DO IT!"

Judy Rewis, Avon Park Elementary teacher, captured the top spot on the Highlands County Tennis Association women's "B" singles ladder last week with an 8-5 victory over Lisa Kahn of Sebring.

Debra Cox, A.P.H.S. freshman, moved into the number three position on that ladder with an 8-1 win over Anna Vilkas, an 8-1 victory over Sandra Beck and an 8-1 win over Nancy Crittenden last week. The only other challenge match on the women's "B" ladder was between Deloris Cox and Mary Sherertz with Miss Sherertz defeating her number eight spot with an 8-6 win.

Peggy Sizemore took over the third rung of the women's "A" ladder with an 8-3 victory over Lucy Derkman who dropped to the fifth spot. Jeannie Cox moved up to position number thirteen with an 8-5 win over Pat Lagoni.

Jean Rosser challenged Cindy McAulay for the number sixteen run but lost 8-3 and then newcomer Evelyn Reeder challenged Rosser and won 8-2 to go from the bottom of the ladder to rung seventeen.

Bruce Wyse had to defend his number two spot on the men's "B" ladder twice last week. First he held off third place Larry Johnson with a hard fought 7-6, 6-7, 6-3 battle and then defeated fourth place Bill Page 6-3, 6-4. Ricky Helms is the current "B" singles leader. Al Marrow knocked Eugene Bengston from the number three spot on the men's "A" singles ladder last week with a 6-2, 6-4 victory but lost his challenge match with Eric Annett for the top rung in three

Gun Toter Fined For Carrying Gun In Bar

Florida does not forbid a citizen's having a gun, but he can't tote it in an Avon Park bar patron learned. In county court last week David L. Carpenter, 34, of Okeechobee entered a guilty plea to a charge of carrying a pistol or repeating rifle without a license.

Judge Mark H. Richardson Jr. ordered Carpenter to pay $75 court costs and ordered that Carpenter's gun remain in the custody of the sheriff.

Beumel And Doublerley Awarded Top Honors

At Devils Spring Baseball Banquet

Brad Beumel was named the most valuable player and Jimmy Doublerley copped the best all-around player award at the Avon Park Red Devils awards ceremony and barbecue Monday evening at the Florida Power Clubhouse.

Red Devils' Coach Ronnie Jackson introduced all the players to the fans and family gathered to pay tribute to the baseball club which ended the regular season play with a 11-1 record.

The Red Devils will be minus seniors next year due to graduation but the coach expects good material in juniors and sophomores to take up the slack.

The graduating players are James Jackson, Alan Tarnan, Jamie Tomlinson, Mike Pool, Brad Beumel and Jimmy Doublerley.

Sophomore Mort Jackson, who switched to catcher in mid season, took the award for the highest batting average with a .318.

The best team spirit award went to Mike Pool. Coach

Ronnie Jackson, who presented the awards, said that was a great example of the meaning of the award. "When you give all you got that's spirit," the coach said.

Jamie Tomlinson was presented the most improved player award and the tri-captains, Jimmy Doublerley, Brad Beumel and Mike Pool, received the captains' trophies.

Two awards were presented to Devils Club members, an organization of lettered varsity athletes. The Devils Club also footed the bill for the food served.

The achievement award went to Devils Club treasurer Candis Jahna and Dennis Johns was named Devil of the Year.

Of the most valuable player, Jackson noted Beumel played all 26 games, was the second leading hitter, was best defensive player, was a good base runner, exhibited the most leadership and encouraged other players. Doublerley, the best all-around player, played six positions,

Eclipse Of Moon Slated

Sky watchers in Highlands County will be treated to something special this Saturday. A lunar eclipse will occur beginning at 10:59 p.m. E.D.T. and end at approximately 4 a.m. E.D.T. Sunday.

The entire eclipse should be visible from Highlands County if weather permits. At its darkest point, approximately 1:30 a.m., the moon should appear a dull red or orange. The atmosphere permits some light from the sun to reflect off the moon. Depending upon the amount of pollution and dust in the atmosphere the color will range from light pink to blood red. Since it will be a full moon on Saturday sky watchers will notice a dramatic darkening of the sky. Scientists will use this eclipse to study the pollution in our atmosphere and effects on animals. Locally, science teachers have been explaining the phenomenon of eclipses and noting points of interest for students to observe.

Reds 5 Braves 1
The undefeated Reds made it five straight last Friday night

Last Thursday night the Avon Park High School Grenadier Band held their annual Band Banquet in the National Guard Armory on Highway 27 S.

The Majorettes and Flag Girls were in charge of the decorations and were assisted by Eileen Martin. The theme they chose was the '60's'. They spent several nights turning the big room into a '60's pop shop'.

Pictures of Elvis Presley and silhouettes of jitter-bugging couples covered the walls along with 78's and little posters with words popular to the 1960 students. The tables were cluttered with graffiti and the band students spent their first few minutes walking around reading the notes on the tablecloths.

After the buffet style meal prepared by the Band Parents, a short talk was given by Mr. McKunas and a few jokes by band captain Larry Greene. First, all students in the band for two years were given a letter.

The special awards given were: Award for director's appreciation was given to Larry Greene, band captain. A trophy for head majorette was received by Sabrina Crowe; best stage band musician award went to Mark Smith; for superior as student director, a trophy was given to Butch Farless; solo instrumentalists awards went to Jean Carver and Cindy Williams.

The drum section got together and presented head drummer Kevin Murphy with a pair of drumsticks as a token of appreciation. The Flag Corps presented Sharon Duhm with a gift of appreciation and the Majorettes presented their sponsor Eileen Martin with a token of appreciation.

All of the graduating Senior band students contributed to a trophy for Mr. McKunas who has done so much for them, and carried them to the high victory—a Superior at State Band Contest.

The Band Captain who was elected by the students was announced as Renee Stewart. This is the first time in a number of years that a girl has been elected to this honor by her fellow band members.

Every year the John Phillips Sousa Award is given to the student who has shown leadership, good conduct, musicianship and is the band's most valued asset to the band. Butch Farless as the winner of the award will have his name engraved on the plaque that is on display in the bandroom.

As a finale the graduating seniors received a medal of appreciation for their hard work and skill.

Band at the annual Band Banquet held at the National Guard Armory last Thursday. Photo—Miller

Following the presentation of awards, the chairs, tables and food were cleared away and the dancing began. There was juke box music and two live groups. Both combos were mostly band students who are playing together. The members of 'The Midnight Sun' are: Tom Mackin, bass guitar; Janice Porter, organ; Kevin Murphy, drums; Alan Tamen vocal, and Lee Snider, lead guitar. The members of

'Faos' are John McKunas, lead guitar; Dale LaFlin, drums; Mark Smith, bass guitar; Cindy Williams, organ and Laurie Peterson, guitar and vocal.

Anthony Carter and Dale Sisemore shared pitching duties for the Braves giving up 7 hits to the Reds. Steve Arnold and Horace Moore rapped out a couple of singles each and Keith Cobb, Allan Roberts and Dennis Tondie contributed a single each for the winners.

Cubs 4 Mets 3
The Cubs had to come from behind last Friday night to take a 4-3 win from the Mets in a tight five-inning game shortened because of time. The Mets scored three runs in the top of the fourth on singles by David Jahna and Tom Salter. Ralph Hart also hit a single in the game for the Mets. The Cubs, trailing 3-2, pushed two runs across in the last of the fifth as time ran out. Jeff Williams singled, stole second, and finally came home when Bubba Starling was caught in a run down. Starling then scored on a throwing error to wrap up the win.

Jimmy Massey and Ronnie Brock hit one single each and Jeff Williams had two off losing hurler John McKunas. Mark Palmer started on the mound for the Cubs but Ronnie Brock was the winning pitcher coming on in the fourth in relief.

Nominations For Growers Administrative Committee

The Growers Administrative Committee for the federal marketing agreement and order program covering Florida citrus will hold nominations May 27 and June 3, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) reported.

A spokesman of USDA said all nominees must be growers in their respective districts and each grower is entitled to cast one vote in the district where he produces citrus.

Nominations for District 4 will be held May 27 at 2:30 p.m. in the Highlands County Ag Center, Sebring.

Citrus growers will nominate two members and their alternates from each district except for District 4, Highlands County, where only one member and alternate will be selected. The Secretary of Agriculture will make the final selections based on the nomination elections.

Willia Knope, field representative Fruit and Vegetable Division, explained that equitable representation on the committee is determined every five years after a survey of the previous five fiscal years.

District membership is decided upon three factors: volume of production, volume of fresh fruit shipped and the number of acres in citrus in that district.

The five-year fiscal period is now concluding, and a survey will be made again next spring.

Fifty-two students from the Avon Park High School math department recently took the National Math Examination, and the school placed 25th out of 167 schools of all sizes throughout Florida. This put them in the top 15 per cent.

The students receiving special recognition are (in order of their scores) Frank Anderson, Brian Davis, Brad Beumel, Grant Stallard, Charles Luke, Larry Jackson, Stacey Sharpe, Linda Klein, Brian Murphy, and David Metheny. Frank Anderson will receive a pin at the end of the year for making the highest score in the school.

Math chairman Dewayne Lemler expressed the view that many math opportunities are available for those students who accept the challenge of Algebra, Geometry, and Advanced Math courses offered at the High School. This examination helps verify that students who complete these courses are as well prepared as anyone in the state of Florida.

STARTED TWO WEEKS ago by two young children playing with matches, a huge fire on Griffin land south of the Old Bombing Range Road was partly extinguished by recent rains. Pockets of burning muck

Forestry Service Working On Swamp Area Muck Fires Here

Scared by a fire they started when playing with matches, a three year old and a four year old youngster climbed into the family car, which almost burned before the parents realized the danger. This fire two weeks ago burned off about 70 acres of Griffin land south of the Old Bombing Range Road.

Pockets of muck are still smoldering and sending their acrid fumes into the atmosphere. In several locations numerous bay trees and other bushes have toppled over because the roots have been burned out from under them.

In reporting on the fire, Ed Conrad Jr., of the Forestry Service, stated that it would take about another inch and a half more rain to put out the remaining pockets of burning muck. This northern area of Highlands County had received the least rain in the series of showers crossing the county according to information supplied to him by government of the area, ranging from .33 inch to over three and one-half inches in the southern part of the county.

However, the Forestry Service has crews working daily on the fires using 280 and 600 gallon tank trucks to contain the fire and prevent spreading to other areas. On Tuesday, May 14 fire of an undetermined origin started in the center of a 500 acre swamp area owned by Minute Maid groves between the Old Bombing Range Road and the Oak Island Road. The cause is still under investigation. Here also scattered pockets of muck are still burning as the rainfall was not enough to drown them out.

Sun Can Cause Damage To Skin

Those who are new to Florida or just vacationing, should know some important facts before venturing onto Florida's beautiful beaches, according to Irineo Pentanigo, M.D., and Tony Y. Chen, M.D., co-medical advisors for the Highlands County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

"Persons with fair skin and those who burn easily should take more precautions than others," said Dr. Pentanigo. "You should not wait until you turn red to get out of the sun. Reddening reaches its peak approximately eight hours after exposure, so the color of your skin on the beach is not a good guide as to when you should cover up or get out of the sun. Do it before your skin is red."

Dr. Chen went on to say, "Sunburn creams and lotions do not prevent sunburn unless they contain a sunscreen. Special sunscreen agents are helpful but not totally effective. Also, an umbrella offers some protection, but should not be totally relied upon."

"In summer months, the beach is best enjoyed in the early morning or the late afternoon. The hours of greatest hazard are between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m."

This year the American Cancer Society estimates there will be 9,000 new cases of skin cancer that are potentially curable. Early detection is just as important in skin cancer as in other cancers. There is one thing even more important than early detection, and that is prevention.

Correctional Officers Graduate From Course

Martin D. Arnold and James D. Porter, correctional officers at Avon Park Correctional Institution, recently graduated from the Florida Division of Corrections' Correctional Training Institute at Raiford, according to an announcement this week by Dave Hemme, manager of the training institute.

The four-week, 160-hour resident course covers Florida Division of Corrections (DC) administration and operation and work in human relations. The course, for all Division of Corrections employees, is taught to improve treatment, control and rehabilitation inmates by increasing the effectiveness of those involved in the process.

The full-time course earned the graduates nine semester credits from Lake City Community College. The course work includes use of a computer-assisted training program developed by DC and taught in conjunction with the college.

Robert Watts, corrections specialist with the Bureau of Criminal Justice Planning and Assistance, was speaker at graduation ceremonies.

Watts coordinates all corrections planning throughout the state and was involved in the formulation of the Corrections Reform Act of 1974, Senate Bill 215.

In his speech to the graduation class, Watts indicated that the Department of Administration supports the creation of a separate Department of Corrections.

According to Watts, a separate but inclusive department would help relieve the problem of the "managerial shuffleboard" wherein persons are shuffled from the courts, to probation, back to courts, to institutions and to parole.

A separate department would provide greater continuity in the rehabilitative process, Watts said.

Watts also toured Union Correctional Institution and the Reception and Medical Center at Raiford, and commented on the overcrowded conditions.

He said "the picture is grim" with as many as four people assigned to a one-man cell. "This makes the correctional officer's job more difficult and the ability to rehabilitate the offender in such conditions is seriously impeded."

Porter worked at the local facility for six months. He was previously with the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department in West Palm Beach. He retired in 1960 from the U.S. Navy following 20 years service.

Porter resides at Rt. 1 Box 73, Wauchula, and is a member of the Florida Peace Officers Association and a member of the First Baptist Church in Avon Park.

Arnold has served five months at the local correctional institution and lives in Avon Park.

DOOR PRIED OPEN

A mobile home on Roberts Road, Avon Park, was damaged in a break-in on May 5. The front door on the home, owned by Henry B. Griffin, was badly bent as the burglar pried the door open. A search had been made in the house but the only thing stolen was not from the mobile home but was a riding mower taken from a barn on the property. Damage to door of the home was set at $200.

William E. Booth

Former Staffer Promoted

A former staff member at Avon Park Correctional Institution, William E. Booth, has been promoted to superintendent of Florida Correctional Institution at Lowell by Florida Division of Corrections director Louis Wainwright with the concurrence of O. J. Kelley, secretary of the Florida Department of Health and Rehabilitation Services.

Financial Disclosure Deadline Set July 15

Pressure on public officials for financial disclosure has been relieved, at least temporarily, by the Legislature.

Highlands County Clerk of the Circuit Court Earl Rich said today he had confirmed the passage of HR 1861 which delays the deadline for filing of disclosure forms. The May 15 deadline has been moved to July 15.

In the meantime, the Legislature is considering several bills which will change the disclosure requirements. Rich said he had not made a count on how many of the required forms had been filed in time to meet the May 15 deadline set by the earlier law.

Booth, 42, has been assistant superintendent of that facility, located north of Ocala, since March 1973. He began his career with the Division of Corrections as a correctional officer at Avon Park in 1957.

Promoted to inmate records supervisor the next year at the local facility, he was promoted to classification officer here. In 1968, Booth transferred to the Division's Reception and Medical Center, Lake Butler, where he served as classification supervisor. Later that year, he became administrative assistant to the superintendent of Florida State Prison at Raiford.

In 1972, he became hospital administrator at the Raiford facility and served there until his appointment to the assistant superintendent position at Florida Correctional Institution, the state's only correctional facility for both men and women.

Booth served four years with the U.S. Air Force and has two years of college credits in psychology. He has extensive experience in alcohol counseling and specialized training in the relationship between alcoholism and criminal activity.

James R. Chastain Jr., business manager for the state's largest prison, Union Correctional Institution, Raiford, since 1973, was appointed the first superintendent of the new 150-man Lantana Correctional Institution located south of West Palm Beach.

Avon Park Grange Report

By LaVerne M. Fulmer
Avon Park Grange met Tuesday, May 13 with Overseer Ralph Fulmer in the chair.

The Charter was draped in loving memory of Fern Wood who passed away May 1.

It was announced that when Ridge Pomona Grange No. 10 met at Zolfo Springs on May 10 the three Resolutions sent by Avon Park Grange were adopted. Copies will be forwarded to the State Grange Secretary.

Phoebe Chase, Chairman of the Women's Activities Committee, asked that the patchwork pillow be delivered to her before May 24, the date of the Florida judging of garments in the National Grange Sewing Contest. This is at Venice.

Ralph Fulmer asked for volunteers to water the flowers at the Woman's Club House and on the Mall. He stated that the City plans to level off the Mall, install a sprinkling system and read a block at a time as finances permit. Work will start at the East end.

award for many activities and contests.

John W. Scott, National Grange Master, said that every year $1 million dollars worth of E and H Bonds are bought by the American people. The total amount outstanding today is $2 billion dollars, which is nearly one-fourth of the publicly held portion of the National debt. Bonds are surely one of the safest of all investments, being backed by the government and protected against loss and theft. And, from an earning standpoint they are very attractive today with a 6 percent rate which is guaranteed to maturity. Take Stock in America.

A Mother's Day program was held in order, and the last number was "May Basket Parade" by the members.

Thought for the day "Everybody thinks of changing himself, and nobody thinks of changing himself."

Wednesday - Bessie Trude and Edith Martensen visited the School for the Retarded and presented the May baskets to the children. They were delighted to have visitors and also to receive the beautifully decorated baskets of candy.

The teacher, Mrs. J. C. Webster, led the children in singing three songs in appreciation.

The next meeting will be held in the Woman's Club House on Tuesday, May 27 at 7:30 p.m.

County's Share Of Federal Grants-In-Aid Was Small

The amounts refer only to grants-in-aid and revenue sharing and do not include federal spending in local areas for goods and services.

As to the cost of the benefits received, the Tax Foundation finds that some $1,700,000,000 of the taxes collected throughout the state went into the aid programs.

Highlands County's share of the cost was approximately $7,251,000, exclusive of matching funds.

Nationally, the figures show, $38.5 billion was distributed in grants-in-aid and $6.1 billion in revenue sharing, a total of $44.6 billion.

In 23 states the costs exceeded the grants received.

The other 27 states came out on the plus side.

Indiana was the biggest loser, paying $1.56 for every $1 that was returned. Alaska was the chief gainer, paying only 36 cents per $1 of aid.

The inequity is attributed to the fact that some communities need more than others.

A SYMBOL OF SAFETY

When the ship is in danger, we can depend on the life-boats to take us over the seas to safety. It is comforting to glance at the life-boat when the seas are rough.

Our Armed Services are a symbol of safety when our country is in trouble, when war threatens to raise its ugly head. In the past, when war has come, our servicemen have not hesitated to give their lives to protect and defend us.

There is a special Day each year when we remember and honor our servicemen who have died in the defense of our blessed country. Let us not forget, as individuals, to honor these dead and give thanks to God for those who protect us even now. Remember them as you attend church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

REALTOR "Marty" Carledge says
"If you need a home Best see me first!"
There is danger of higher mortgage interest rates. Anyone planning to buy a home soon may find procrastination costly in terms of higher financing costs and higher sales prices because inflation is still with us.

Interestingly, higher interest was not inspired by the recent rise in FHA-VA rates to 8 1/2 per cent. When those Agencies agreed on 8 per cent as of March 3 of this year, they knew they were going below the market. HUD's own research proves that the effective interest rate at that time was 8.99 per cent. They had hoped that their move would have encouraged lenders everywhere to follow their lead. NOT SO - and there is pressure exerted now on these lenders to go higher because of heavy government borrowing. Although a heavy inflow of S & L Ass'n's savings deposits currently being reported, much of the optimism generated by this development has been nullified. A strong indication of this is that Fed. Home Loan Corp. is offering a yield of 8.625 per cent to investors who buy mortgage backed bonds now. This is just the beginning of another upward spiral in interest rates. I was never a purveyor of gloom but let's face facts...So if you are planning to buy a home - do it now. See me - I have 3 more houses that meet the 5 per cent credit (not deduction). It must be considered that this credit was intended as a one shot deal to get homes completed before 3rd of the market for new starts. Well - you know what they say about hindsight - I can save you money on buying a home now. CALL ME.
