Citizens Complain Of "Fragmented Districts

"Fragmented Districts" was the recurring theme song sung to the Legislative Delegation Monday night, at a public hearing in the Highlands County Courthouse.

Superintendent of Schools George Douglass started the refrain, when he told the one senator and six representatives present that people in Highlands County are concerned about their representation in state legislature.

"I hope this group can represent all of Highlands County, not just Avon Park," he said, referring to the four legislators; Ray Mattox, Wendell Watson, Fred Jones and John Clark who share districts in the Avon Park area.

With a smile, Senator Tom Gallen volunteered to mediate the subject. "I believe I can do it less emotionally than the representatives, because senatorial districts are not chopped up. The situation is not the fault of anyone in this room; the federal courts brought it upon us."

He suggested that countians take a positive attitude. "You have six representatives, one of whom is the dean of the House (Mattox). They can do more for Highlands County than my one vote in the Senate. If you learn to use it, you have a big stick."

Sen. Gallen went on to say that he felt all six would look after Highlands' problems and in any case the situation could not be changed until the next census in 1980.

That statement was challenged later by William VanBaalen, executive secretary of the Highlands County Property Owners Association, who elicited the information that a special act of Legislature could authorize redistricting before the next census.

Rep. Mattox told the audience that a bill now being considered would add an amendment permitting a special reapportionment session.

"I want to reaffirm that we don't like fragmentation of districts," VanBaalen told the group, "and I can't go along with you that six representatives are better than one."

Gallen told him that the representatives don't like it any better than protesting countians, and Rep. Fred Burrall pointed to his own home district, which suffers the same kind of fragmentation.

Rep. Watson said that to show his interest in Highlands County he visits Avon Park on the third Thursday of each month, and Mrs. Hawkins suggested that each time a Highlander has a complaint he write one letter and make six copies for each of the legislators.

Other matters of concern were expressed by Jimmy Whitehouse, the only person in Florida who serves in the capacities of both county elections supervisor and tag agent.

Whitehouse asked that Legislature permit year-round sale of license tags to avoid the yearly lines, and suggested getting away from the 50-day renewal on tags. He would prefer that tags fall due in the same month as car inspection.

James Pyle questioned the conduct of a recent trial in which two Supreme Court justices were acquitted of charges by other state judges. He was assured that a bill is now in the works which would preclude such a set-up in the future.

Marvin Kahn told legislators that the Florida Citrus Commission, of which he is a member, is concerned about the Administrative Procedures

City Asks HUD For $315,000 In Projects

A special meeting of the Avon Park City Council at 5:00 p.m., Monday was called to consider a work program for application for funds from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under their discretionary funds program.

Also present at the meeting was Seraphin Leal of Candeub, Fleissig and Associates, who suggested and discussed a number of projects and asked the council to add to or take away from the list along with ranking each project in a priority list.

Following a discussion the council decided on the following projects and priority in order of listing: Playfield, street paving and sidewalks (lower-income area), playgrounds (2, lower-income area), playground, neighborhood center (lower-income area), street paving and sidewalk and rehabilitation programs. The total cost of these projects was estimated at $315,000.

Searfin Leal of Candeub and Fleissig and Associates tells the Avon Park City Council of the advantages of having a professional prepare pre-application forms when applying for a part of the $4,000,000 discretionary funds that the Department of Housing and Urban development dangles before small cities. Photo—Miller.

The council discussed the possibility of improving the Mall but this item rated low with HUD according to Leal. However, in any program 10 percent of the funds can be used in any manner designated by the city council and this might be a possible way to improve the Mall.

In regard to time schedules Leal told the council that funds would be available on July 1, 1975 if the city qualified. If any programs run behind schedule, for any reason, HUD would grant an amendment to the program if notified sufficiently in advance. However, all funds would have to be spent or committed before the end of their fiscal year June 30, 1976.

A motion to accept the program as listed with priorities was passed unanimously.

James Zonge, 18, of Avon Park and Cindall Zonge, 24, Sebring, will face preliminary hearing in county court today (Feb. 20) on the drug charge.

Police estimated the amount of marijuana at 20 grams in addition to three rolled joints. Bond has been set at $1,000 for each of the men.

Time Has Almost Run Out For Homestead Exemption- Martin

Time has almost run out for applying for homestead exemption for 1975. J. W. "Billy" Martin, Highlands County property appraiser, said more than 900 homeowners who had previously received homestead exemption have not returned renewal cards.

By state statute March 1 has been set as deadline for homestead applications. The new laws are more strict, Martin said, and no extension of time is permitted. However, since the March 1 deadline does fall on a Saturday, applications this year may be received until 5 p.m. on Monday, March 3.

In addition to the homestead renewals, applications should be filed for new homes. Martin said anyone who has purchased a home during 1974 and who wishes to apply for homestead exemption, must appear in person at the county property appraiser's office.

The appraiser's office (formerly known as tax assessor's office) is located in the new Commerce Avenue Annex of the county courthouse.Those applying for homestead should bring a copy of deed or contract for the home. If applying for homestead exemption on a mobile home, the homeowner must bring a copy of his title to the mobile home along with his deed or contract.

Persons who are applying for other types of exemptions should check with Martin's office about the types of documents necessary to completing the exemption application. For example, persons who are seeking the double exemption allowed residents over 65 years of age, should be able to document that they have been legal residents of Florida for five years.

Martin is sounding warnings about the homestead exemption deadline from a sick bed. The property appraiser underwent surgery at Walker Memorial Hospital last week and now is recuperating at his home in Avon Park.

"Carefree Living In Avon Park" Theme Of Community Fair Booth

"Carefree Living in Avon Park" will be the theme of the Chamber of Commerce booth at the Highlands County Fair, Monday, Feb. 24 to Saturday, Mar. 1, according to Mrs. Sidney Faust, chairman of the Chamber Booth committee and Director and Vice-president of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce.

Building a house side is Eric Longshore using aluminum products. It will have a Mansard roof with covered porch and aluminum columns with an adjacent patio. Landscaping will be done by Jim Crabtree. A number of varieties of fruit will be incorporated into the display.

The fair booths are judged on a point system stressing characteristics such as: General appearance, arrangements, originality, educational value, number of varieties of citrus, quality and marketability, featuring one industry in a unique way and the booth will be judged in one of three categories: citrus, ornamentals or bulbs.

Besides the building of the booth volunteers are needed to "booth sit" or "baby sit the booth" to talk with people and pass out literature from Monday to Saturday.

The Chamber of Commerce will provide two passes for each shift. As a volunteer you can get your passes by stopping in at the chamber office or by calling 453-3350.

Act. He said the citrus commission is an unique organization, solely funded by themselves and audited by the state.

He also stressed water control as being of importance to growers in the county, and drew a chill reception to his suggestion that Legislature meet every other year instead of annually.

"I sometimes got applause on that one," Kahn remarked, to laughter.

Dexter Hagman, representing a teacher's organization, plumped for retirement at 60 for teachers and Bob Rose of Spring Lake expressed unhappiness that double Homestead exemptions this year have taken away the veteran's $500 disability exemption.

Burrall told him to avail himself of the muscle of area veterans associations.

Thanks were extended to the legislators by Dr. William Jernigan (for establishing a state veterinarian's college) and by Dr. Richard Martin, medical director for the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center in Avon Park. He conveyed appreciation for Sen. Tom Gallen's efforts in keeping the center open after the state planned to close it.

Kelsey Payne of the county Farm Bureau said he opposes the Green Belt Law and also reacted negatively to a proposed state lottery bill, of which Mrs. Hawkins is a sponsor.

He said a lottery takes money from people of low income and is morally wrong. "You are making it easier for people to gamble."

Mrs. Hawkins told him that if passed by Legislature, the proposal will still be put to a referendum.

Mrs. Natalie Patton asked for passage of the Equal Rights Amendment, and Preston Jones, a resident of Lake Josephine Heights, called for state regulations of private utilities companies.

Clerk of the Courts Earl Rich suggested a bill to eliminate the second primaries and was met with cool response.

"There is too small a portion of the population registered to vote," said Gallen, "and of those, not all actually vote. Democracy is expensive, but to elect a person by such a small percentage would not be just."

Olin Mason, administrator of Florida Brethren Homes, asked for a reorganization of Health and Rehabilitative Services and a new formula to determine Medicare reimbursement.

Of the latter he said the cap on payments is still at $500 a patient per month and "it can't be done." He said the state law has some good points in regard to Medicare; that it requires nursing homes to justify their charges and has improved health care in Florida.

Primarily though, he stressed care of the aging which he said, is an "industry" in Florida. He pointed out that almost 40 per cent of the state's population is over the age of 62 and there are 4,000 licensed boarding houses for the aged.

Mason was the last of many to take a swipe at the splintered county districts. He told legislators, "Let's put Highlands County back together again. I'll be in touch with all of you and see how good you are as representatives."

Taxpayers Given Discount For Early Payments

After approximately three months delay, Highlands County tax notices were sent out last week. The total gross tax for 1974 is $5,880,604, against $5,553,174 for 1973.

Despite the tardiness residents are being allowed discounts for early payment of their tax bills. The period of grace begins on the postmarked date of the notice envelope and permits a 4 per cent discount if remitted within the following month.

With March 17 as the last possible date for rebates, there is a "status quo" in effect until April 1, when penalties begin. A 1 per cent penalty will be observed until April 15, when the cost of advertising is added to that percentage. The process is required by state law.

Tax collector W. H. Prescott urges that residents pay their taxes by mail, in order to avoid long lines in his office. He also cautions that each year hundreds of checks have to be returned because of taxpayers errors.

Prescott directs taxpayers' attention to a message enclosed with each notice and hopes that by following the directions residents may save themselves the loss of discounts.

The county's real estate assessment for 1974 totaled $556,134,260. Of that amount $176,433,580 was deducted for exempt real estate.

This included $125,959,290 for wholly-exempt U.S. and state properties, churches, clubs, etc. Also $39,605,730 for Homestead exemptions and $10,868,560 for the additional Homestead exemptions approved last year.

Personal property assessments amounted to $47,430,690 for businesses, $887,270 for trailers and $4,571,451 for railroads, bringing the total personal property assessment to $52,889,411.

County and hospital taxes for Highlands County in 1974 came to $2,036,789, an increase over the $1,810,914 of the previous year. School taxes rose from $3,028,233 in 1973 to $3,222,596. The drainage district on the other hand decreased from $67,911 to $66,964.

Of the county's three cities only Lake Placid taxes rose higher, from $32,719 last year to $35,715 in 1974.

Sebring lowered its taxes from $347,011 to $266,543 and Avon Park showed a slighter decrease, from $263,491 to $251,976.

Frostproof Regatta Draws Large Turnout Of Drivers

The Frostproof Citrus Regatta last Saturday and Sunday was the middle race of a series of annual races known as the Grapefruit Circuit, according to Norman Langston, race chairman of Avon Park. Run for approximately 25 years the Grapefruit Circuit this year includes Lake Worth, Lakeland, Frostproof, Ocoee and Travares.

Sanctioned by the American Power Boat Association and sponsored by the Peace River Outboard Association, of which Langston is treasurer, the Frostproof races were run on Lake Clinch. For the two days of racing 375 boats paid entry fees.

The stock hydros, outboard hydros and runabouts came from 20 states and Canada — with out-of-state drivers being very grateful for our balmy weather. Locally three drivers entered the regatta, they were Frank Henry, Frostproof; Tommy Hooten of Wauchula and Hoz Compton of Lake Placid.

The racing program was run off very smoothly according to race chairman Langston because of the efforts of Lakeland CB Radio Club which handled and co-ordinated the communications between race officials, ambulance and patrols boats.

Special activities averaged 223 persons per week participating in these programs which included; sports tournaments; dances, square and other lessons in karate and tennis and bubble gum blowing for the younger set.

The Recreation Committee met on Jan. 27 with the main item of business being the discussion of the approval of the proposed ordinance establishing the Recreation Department, Recreation Committee, position of recreation director and setting forth the responsibilities of each with the ordinance to be presented to the City council for final approval before adoption. A copy was given to council members to read and study before the next meeting.

Funds set aside by the Highlands County Commission for recreational use in Avon Park have become available and requests were made for their use. Item listed were: Two handball and or practice tennis courts to be placed north of the tennis courts; placing of blackboards on each side of the tennis courts to serve as windbreaks, and beautification along with improved visibility; the purchase of an institutional quality pool table and the baseball complex development.

ARC Option Closed

Following last week's visit to Avon Park by State Senator Tom Gallen and his meeting with a number of citizens interested in the status of the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center, Senator Gallen received a letter from O. J. Keller, Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

In his letter Secretary Keller acknowledged Senator Gallen's concern in regarding the status of the Alcoholic Rehabilitation and Treatment Center at Avon Park.

Secretary Keller continued, "As you know, our department is in the process of exploring all possibilities and alternatives to relieve the critical bed shortage for inmates in the Division of Corrections. In the early stages of our deliberations, the Avon Park facility surfaced briefly as an alternative; however, because of a number of reasons, some to which you have enumerated, this option has been closed."

In conclusion Keller wrote, "I assure you that the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services intends to continue its support of the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center at Avon Park. If this issue is indeed revisited I would welcome the opportunity to discuss this with you and any of the other legislators in the area.

Ridge Association Provides Services

The Ridge Area Association for Retarded Citizens is a private non-profit organization of parents and friends of the mentally retarded. Members provide a pre-school development training program, a sheltered work shop, recreation and transportation services for the mentally handicapped citizens of Highlands County.

They also attempt to provide the public with a source of information about mental retardation and services for the retarded. The stimulation of new services to the handicapped is another objective.

By exhibiting some of the products from the sheltered work center, they hope to draw attention to activities and to the need for public knowledge and support. Since these products will also be on sale, they hope to generate income for continued services.

Items to be exhibited will include: Patchwork pillows, patchwork coverlets, re-cycled buttons, packaged rags, survey stakes, concrete patio stones and potted plants. The items will be either for sale or just on exhibit, depending on the supply. Volunteer staff members will be some of the retarded students.

Clubs Support Nursery At A.P.C.I.

The Horticulture Class at Avon Park Correctional Institution was originally funded by a Federal Grant (Manpower Development Training Act). Now it is financed under the Comprehensive Education and Training Act.

It is a six months course in which the inmates are trained in such things as landscaping, flowers and house plants, turf management, plant propagation, plant growth and development, horticultural mechanics, fruit production, plant disease and pests.

A graduate of this class will be capable of installation, maintenance, care and improvement in the broad concepts of landscaping, nursery, pasture and citrus management. They are also awarded a certificate of achievement in the field of Horticulture.

This course also helps the inmate understand the function of the various landscaping tools, machinery and appliances necessary in the different specific areas of study. It also helps them to become familiar with the design areas in Nursery management.

Nursery

The nursery at A.P.C.I. is financially supported by the Florida Federation of Womens Garden Clubs, Inc. throughout the state. It is not a State funded project.

It is one of the many projects of the Federation. The women want to train the men in this field so when they get into free society they may work in area of gardening or perhaps set up their own nursery.

The garden clubs promote and support three institutions in the state of Florida, A.P.C.I. at Avon Park, Florida Correctional Institution (womens prison), at Lowell and Apalachee Correctional Institution in northwest Florida.

The nursery does not sell plants but donates them to different state organizations. They donate about 10,000 plants a year to all parts of Florida. In 1974 they distributed over 8,000 plants.

Haywood Williams is in charge of the nursery at A.P.C.I. and at the present time he is constructing a tropical garden behind the institution. The garden has three bridges (one hanging bridge), wishing well, a winding pool complete with fish and a six foot alligator.

Be sure to stop by the A.P.C.I. booth at the Highlands County Fair, Feb. 24 thru March 1, and see some of the beautiful flowers grown at the nursery.

The hanging bridge at the A.P.C.I. was designed and built by the inmates. They have planted Flam vines around each end of the bridge and in about five years the vine should cover it completely. In the background you can see their green house. Photo—Cornell.

Committee Named To Seek State Medical Funds

commissioners that the county's application must be submitted to the state health department by April 1.

State monies received must be matched equally by the county to purchase ambulances and other emergency medical equipment used in ambulance services.

Commissioner Norman "Jug" Heston said that as of Jan. 1, 1976, the county's present ambulance vehicles would no longer satisfy state requirements.

Existing vehicles which cost less than $5,000 will have to be replaced by new ambulances, each of which will cost upward of $17,000.

To be eligible for state matching funds, the county must: establish a Community Emergency Service Advisory Council; set up a central dispatch system to handle calls; establish a countywide ambulance service; pay ambulance crews salaries high enough to promote employment stability; keep crews abreast of improved emergency techniques; and assign to one county department the responsibility for the service.

Commissioner Heston was named chairman of the committee.

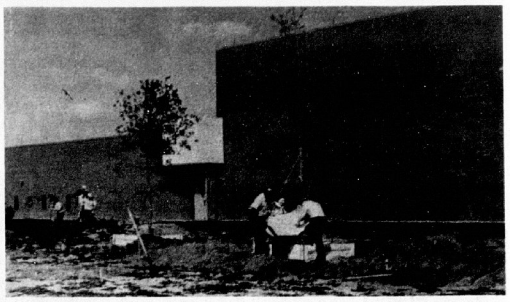

Other committee members are: Sheriff O. L. Raulerson; Vernon Bielefeld, administrator, Highlands General Hospital; John McClelland, administrator, Walker Memorial Hospital; Dr. Santford R. Boley.

Also, Atty. Michael Swaine; Don Farrens, educator, Gene Wells, publisher; Dr. Glenn Hough, county health director; J. C. Murdock, director of Emergency Preparedness; Charles Cullens, county administrator and James Brooks, county health department.

The building of ramps and steps will take place at a later date, but blocks will be laid in about two weeks. The water oak trees were moved from the county right-of-way at the burnt-out-bridge by Roy Bennett and county workmen. Reading Groups Do Own Things

One of the reading groups in Mrs. David Brooker's 2nd grade class read a story called "The Big Orange Thing". It was a story about a boy named Charlie who created a big orange "thing."

Taking part in the project were: Ann Machlan, Frank Scott, Pattie Scott, Ricky Winegard, Peter Skells, Ricky Brock, Shannon Mayfield, David Anderson, Sheneeta Blackmon, Greg Kramer, George Hall, Greg Childs and Dimitri Dismukes.

6th Grade Victorious In "Quick On The Draw"

For three consecutive weeks, sixth grade students from Avon Park Middle School have competed successfully on Channel 3's "Quick on the Draw".

This WEDU television program matches sixth grade teams from around the state to see who can most quickly convey a written topic to his team members by drawing related pictures on the boards. Quickness of mind and artistic ability are necessary qualities for success on the show.

This is an example question and answer - first the M.C. of the show tells the members of each team the topic, such as Geography. Then he shows a member from each team the answer "Mt. Fuji" and they draw the hints. For example they draw a mountain and then a picture of an oriental face to come up with Mt. Fuji.

In its first match Avon Park defeated Eisenhower Elementary, Clearwater 8-7 in a very close game. The following week found our local team again victorious over Pinellas Park Junior High by another tight score, 7-5. In the final week of competition Avon Park defeated Curtis Elementary, Clearwater 5-1.

The team is enjoying a well earned break now waiting for another three time winner to appear so that our competitors can begin again.

Regular team members are: Cindy Ballentine, Teresa McKenzie, Mary Carmichael and Phil Cribb. Alternates are: Debbie Casey, Karen Elder, Jody Johnston and Sam Goodwin.

Quick on the Draw can be seen on Channel 3, Sundays at 2:30 p.m. and Mondays at 7 p.m.

The Avon Park Middle School teams matches can be seen successively on March 2, 3, 9, 10, 16 and 17.

Students Given Smoking Room

The Avon Park High School Lay Advisory Committee held their February meeting at the High School Media Center with 25 members present. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Eileen Martin.

Guidelines were presented by Mrs. Karen Boyer for the guidance of the High School Lay Advisory group.

Mr. Franklin Ward gave the School Board report, $20,000 commitment given to Sebring for a swimming pool. Mr. Crittenden asked for an opinion on the same thing for Avon Park-he has been asked by several clubs to discuss this as a community project. It was the opinion of the group this is not the time for such a large expenditure for this purpose. Three students represented the student body at our meeting, and their opinion was sought out, they were Thomas Brown, Ricky Lee, and Cathy Turner.

Dr. Dan Davis gave an informative talk on teacher education. The teachers are usually hired by the principal of the school, where they will be teaching. All teachers are certified in Tallahassee, and they can teach for one year on a temporary certificate with a B.A. or B.S. Degree from an accredited institution with four years of college. A teacher may continue on an in service plan, and get the required number of education hours or take the required semester hours for a permanent certificate. The teachers are put on a continuing contract after three years of continued satisfactory service. It is difficult after a teacher is on this status to get a teacher out of the system; however, after the first year it is usually a case of the principal discussing the problems with the teacher and recommending certain courses for further study or changes, at the end of three years, a teacher either has the qualifications or they have gotten into another field.

Substitute teachers, each school has a list of certified teachers, and it is the desire of the school system that they are chosen with qualifications in field, etc. depending on availability-their salary is same as regular teachers.

Highlands County ranks in top ten, salary wise, and they have a teacher education program for up-dating through the inter-county programs and workshops.

A smoking area has been designated at the High School, students are required to have a written permission from parents or guardians to use this area.

The meeting was adjourned, and the next meeting will be Monday, March 10th at 7:00 p.m. Parents are urged to attend the High School Lay Advisory meeting on this date at the Media Center.

Bonnie Brae Mobile News

By MARGIE WELLS

A number of men in the park have been contributing their time and skills to installing a sound-proof ceiling in the recreational building. The improvement is very noticeable and all of us in the park appreciate their efforts very much.

Approximately 50 people attended the coffee hour on Wednesday morning. An interesting feature was a talk by Joseph Stephenson, Director of Ridge Area Association for the Mentally Retarded, who described their work with retarded children.

Ellen and Harry Hunt spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. D. Q. Ritchey in Gardens of Gulf Cove near Port Charlotte. Other guests in the Ritchey home were Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Evans, of Wausau, Wisconsin. Before returning home, the Hunts also visited with former Bonnie Brae residents, Marjorie and Frank Duqueen, in Fort Myers.

Mrs. Luella Pinney visited Mrs. Edith Swihart in Leesburg on Thursday. Mrs. Swihart is a former resident of Avon Park who is a patient at Medic Home Health Center since suffering a recent stroke.

Gertie and Dan Bohland are entertaining their two daughters, Jean Bohland and Judy Anglin, and grandchildren, Bobby and Danielle, who live in Illinois. We all appreciate the courteous and friendly manner in which Gertie and Dan manage the park.

Recent guests of Rozzie and Lester Parkhurst were Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Morville and Mr. and Mrs. John Coomler of Indianapolis, Indiana, and Mrs. and Mrs. Carl Selby and children, Lori and Kyle.

Marge and P. D. Wells visited her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harsh, in Fort Myers this past week-end. While there, they attended the Pabst Blue Ribbon Golf Tournament in which Margie's nephew, Richard Harsh, tied for eighth place for the 36 holes played.

Recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Boyer were Rev. and Mrs. Clarence E. Sitler from Princess Lake, Ind.; the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Holmes, Monroe, Ohio; and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jackson, Monroe, Ohio.

Rozzie and Lester Parkhurst helped Cedric Weirman celebrate his birthday on Monday morning by taking Cedric and his wife, Mary, out for breakfast. There was an error in this column last week. It should have been reported that Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Weirman entertained Rozzie and Lester on Lester's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Dunn of Onsted, Michigan, were dinner guests of Ellen and Harry Hunt on Tuesday evening.

Friday guests of the Websters were Mrs. Ruth Irwin of Newcastle, Pennsylvania and Miss Beulah Heston. The latter is a retired missionary who has worked in the Phillipines.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Thelma Miller is ill. We hope she will be well again soon.

Approximately 65 people attended the Valentine Day's dinner in the Community Hall on Friday evening. February and August birthdays were recognized. Decorations included hearts and cherubs on the walls and bowls of scarlet passion flowers on the tables. Following a delicious meal, sentimental songs were sung and Harry Hunt entertained with his whistling. The committee included Emily Webster, Chairman, Lorine Campbell, Phyllis Gaeta, Ann Griffin, and Lena Sinatra.

Ella and Ed Drake who have been residing in a travel trailer here in the park have gone to the moon! — that is, the "New Moon" mobile home, Lot 34. They report that it's a nice, quiet spot facing the orange grove with good breezes and a good view of the sunsets and very nice neighbors.

Devils Track Squad Starts Practice- Need Newcomers

The Red Devil boys varsity track team has begun practice with approximately 12 boys working out at present. However, Coaches Chet Brojek and Harry Williams are looking forward to 10-12 more boys being out upon the completion of basketball season.

Devil team captains for the 1975 season are juniors Anthony Gaines and Darryl Davis. Gaines is the top sprinter returning from last season's team when he posted a 10.4 time in the 100 yard dash and 24.0 in the 220-yard dash. Davis is the teams top shot putter having come within two inches of the school record of 44'6" last season. He is expected to break this long standing record this season.

Other returning lettermen include sprinters Moses Anderson, Charles Anderson and Robert Brown; hurdlers, Ken Burley and Ben Wright; distance runners, Jack Collins and Raliegh Turnbull; and fieldmen Charlie Glenn, Edward Dorsey and Noel Braithewaite.

Newcomers out for the sport include Mike Ryan, Paul and Pete Hetnik, Craig Pressley, David Williams, Mack Caldwell, Tom Delk, Robert Davis, Ricky Claitt, Edward Irvin, Scott Smith, Ricky Jones, and Alphonso Williams. Many of this group are just finishing up the basketball season.

Both coaches commented on the low turnout and suggested that the hurdlers, discus , shot and distance runs would be strong areas of this year's team. "We hope several of our newcomers will develop as sprinters as the season goes along," commented Brojek. "Otherwise our relays may be rather weak."

Former Coach Gives Devil Golfers Rough Time

The young Avon Park Red Devil golfers had a rough time last week as they lost to Winter Park and Kissimmee in Kissimmee on Monday, Feb. 10 and then were outshot by 30 strokes by Lake Brantley's foursome last Thursday afternoon.

Winter Park finished with a 157, Kissimmee turned in a 159 and Avon Park managed only a 185 on the Poinciana Course in Kissimmee last week. Avon Park's John DuPriest shot a fine 39 for second low in the match but the other Devil players had trouble with the strange course.

Coach Guy Garrett's Lake Brantley team outshot the Devils 155-185 last Thursday on the Rolling Hills Course. Again John DuPriest led the Red Devil foursome with a 41 stroke total for the nine holes. The other Devils all turned in 48's for the course.

Last Tuesday afternoon Avon Park's team was scheduled for a meet in Okeechobee and today (Thursday) the Devils will host Mulberry here at the Pinecrest Course. Next Tuesday the team will go to Arcadia for a return match with the DeSoto High Bulldogs. Fans are invited to come out to Pinecrest today to watch these high school boys play the nine holes of competition.

Board Declines Renaming Center

Hunger Strike!!! If the bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, what would two fish for one worm be worth? That was the kind of luck fisherman Dallas Brunton had in December 1974, when he was fishing in Lake Viola. He caught a half pound brim on a worm and before he could reel it in a 7½ pound bass decided he wanted the brim for lunch. How is that for catching two fish for the price of one worm? Photo by Cornell

County commissioners reluctantly turned down its local farm bureau's request that the Agri-Civic Center be named in honor of retired county agent B. J. Harris Jr.

C. M. Payne, representing the Highlands County Farm Bureau, presented a petition seeking to have the complex on U.S. 27 renamed the Bert J. Harris Jr. Agricultural and Civic Center.

Payne's petition listed numerous, outstanding contributions that Harris has made to the community.

Others who spoke in favor of the petition, each representing local organizations, were: J. D. Watson, Lake Placid Kiwanis Club; C. Collins, Avon Park Rotary Club; Russ Albritton, Sebring Firemen's Assocition; Kelsey Payne, Highlands County Cattlemen's Association and Edward Smoak, Highlands County Farm Bureau.

Betty Bolin reported that a letter is on its way to commissioners from the Highlands County Extension Club recommending that a bronze plaque be mounted on the center in honor of Harris.

"I've known Bert about as long as anyone here," Commissioner Norman "Jug" Heston said. "He's done a wonderful job. But I can sit here and think of other people in the county who are deserving. I'd just as soon see the name stay the same."

C. J. "Buddy" Wise concurred. "We all recognize the value of Mr. Harris' services," he said, "but I just don't see how I could go along with changing it."

Marvin Kahn, a member of the farm bureau group, responded to Heston's statement.

"Honoring Mr. Harris, so he should not be forgotten for the contribution he's made to agriculture," Kahn said, "doesn't mean to degrade — or take away — from any of our previous county agents or agricultural or civic leaders. It's not a question of competition."

Commissioner Robert Skipper was not convinced that renaming the county building was necessary. "We recognized that Mr. Harris has done an outstanding job," Skipper said. "We passed a resolution commending him for the job he did."

When Skipper questioned whether other county groups would approve changing the name of the Agri-Civic Center, commissioner Ken Wilkinson responded.

"I personally believe that with this kind of representation and the petitions, there's a pretty good segment of the population that would like to see it named Bert J. Harris Jr. Agri-Civic Center."

Wise replied, "This Agri-Civic Center belongs to all the people of Highlands County. Being called the Highlands Agri-Civic Center, I think it's very aptly named. I can't see changing it."

Commissioner Kelly Phillips was not satisfied that groups submitting the petition represented all segments of county opinion.

"Not hearing the other side of it — from people who are opposed to it — I couldn't go all out for naming it for Mr. Harris," he said.

Wise had the last word before the vote. "If we had a referendum and all the people wanted to change it — fine. I don't see anything wrong with it just like it is."

Payne, Kahn, Albritton and Smoak assured commissioners that they respected those who disagreed with their viewpoint even though they were saddened by the results.

The final vote was 4-1 with Wilkinson voting in favor of renaming the building.

"B" SQUAD COACH Alan Duhm closed out the junior varsity basketball season with a 10-7 record despite the loss to Mulberry last Friday night — The score board reading was 45-42 in the fourth quarter. Photo — Miller.

This fish was caught early Saturday morning by Keith Albritton on Palmetto Creek off Bombing Range Road.

Keith never would have landed this 9½ pound bass though, if Doyle Roan had not made a gallant effort to retrieve this beauty when it got tangled on some snags underwater.

Doyle dove in and brought the bass in single handed. Gregg Albritton, however, did assist Doyle in getting out of the creek.

A Person Is Burned Each Second - Flowers

By LAVERNE M. FULLMER

February 11 Avon Park Grange started with a pot-luck supper followed by a film, "Fireman at Your Door" by Captain Alan Ball and a talk by Fire Chief Mack Flowers. He said "There is no such thing as a fire - proof home." Approximately one person is burned each second, day and night. Thousands die because they do not have time to get out. Mobile homes should have two exits. House-to-house inspection by firemen may reduce fires by as much as 50 per cent if home owners correct the hazards pointed out to them. As the number of fires is reduced, rates on fire insurance will also be reduced. "Always call your Fire Department even though you have used a fire extinguisher and think you have the fire out."

Master Miriam Debo presided at the business meeting when First and Second Degrees were conferred on John and Eleanor White. Phoebe Chase and Florence Mason reported on Women's Activities. Several members have signed entries for garment making and Patchwork Pillows in the National Grange contests. Valuable prizes will be awarded to first, second and third place winners and one for the most original design.

Tickets are being sold for the Grange card party at the Woman's Club House on February 20. Dessert will be served at 1:30 p.m. and playing will continue until 4 p.m. Each table will supply their own cards and play any game they wish. Door prizes will be given and a prize for each table.

Donations are solicited for two tables at the Flea Market held during Pioneer Days at Zolfo Springs on February 28 and March 1. Baked goods is acceptable.

Legislative Chairman Norton Worster reported that there is a movement in Florida to repeal the present environmental rules so a new electrical plant in Tampa can burn coal. Evelyn Goodrich, Lecturer, presented a short Valentine program: Kiss Her More Often by LaVerne Fullmer; Skit-My Love For You by Edwin and Minnie Swanson; Greetings and Response by Officers Thought for the day - "To often we enjoy the comfort o opinion without th discomforts of thought."

Third and Fourth Degree will be conferred at the nex meeting at the Woman's Clul House on February 25 at 7:3 p.m.

Growing Tulips In Avon Park Not Easy Hobby

Speaking for the Band Parents Association, Jim Cravey appealed for city support of the winter band concerts by the Avon Park High School Grenadier Band Photo—Miller.

"I was forced into flower gardening," stated Sgt. Joe Sanders of the Avon Park Air Force Security Police as he told how his hobby of raising tulips here in Avon Park came into fulfillment. Joe's mother was a Home Demonstration Agent with the Indiana Agricultural Extension Service and she insisted that Joe help with the flower gardening on their small farm at Crawfordsville, Ind.

Joe a veteran of 15 years in the Air Corps came to Avon Park with his wife and daughter, Christina in May, 1973. The care that he takes of the imported tulips apparently has no relationship to the early forced labor.

The bulbs for this years tulip bloom at 504 E. Canfield were ordered last summer from Dutch Gardens, Lisse Holland and came in October and were placed in a refrigerator until December, to simulate their natural cool climate conditions.

Instead of planting the bulbs in the ground Joe, using a mixture of Florida peat, sand and steamed bonemeal, planted the tulips in plastic containers for several good reasons—As a service man Joe is subject at anytime to being transfered to another base in the U. S. or in another part of the world, consequently with the plants in containers there would be no difficulty in finding the bulbs, another reason is that rodents like tulip bulbs and also by having the tulips in containers they can be moved to different areas of the yard to take advantage of shade or sun plus he can take them to the First Presbyterian Church where Mrs. Sanders is organist.

As for his preferences Joe Likes the old Darwin or cottage tulip or single varieties and not the doubles or parrot tulips. Colorwise he prefers varieties that are red and white, the white Darwin Marvel, Dutch Girl which is yellow with red edge. He had seven different varieties in his Holldan shipment.

By keeping his tulips in partial or full shade Joe gets a longer stemmed tulip than if grown in full sunlight. Another bit of deception that Joe uses on the tulips is watering with ice water or placing ice cubes around the plants to cool off the soil again to simulate the northern climate. The tulips used as cut flowers last four to five days but left growing on the plant they remain beautiful for seven to ten days.

After the blooming period is over Joe will stop fertilizing the tulips. He expects them to die back in July and will allow the bulbs to air dry and then place them in a refrigerator for their period of dormancy or the completion of their season's cycle.

Next year, if still in Avon Park, Joe plans to either plant the tulips in deeper containers or in the soil. This deeper planting will prevent the formation of numerous bublets which are small in comparison to the few bublets formed with a deep planting.

As another phase of his hobby of growing beautiful flowers Joe test grows roses for Jackson Perkins of Medford, Oregon and makes monthly reports on their growth behavior in Avon Park.

With only five years before retirement, what are Joe's plans for the future? He has several options open that appeal to him, there is nursery or greenhouse work, the home farm in Indiana or farming with his wife's folks at Taylorville, Ill.

In the meantime Joe has applied for overseas duty at either of the airbases in Holland to learn more about the enjoyment of growing beautiful tulips. This time of his "own free will!"

Sanders places ice cubes around tulips while Tina watches.

Police Chief Grady Campbell welcomes new Patrolman Donald Singletary to the Avon Park Police Force. Singletary, a long-time resident of Avon Park is a past member of the U.S. Marine Corps and a Vietnam Veteran, he and his wife Nancy now reside at 200 N. Anoka Ave. Photo—Miller.

City Asked To Continue Paying Bandmaster $300

At the regular Monday night meeting of the City Council members of the Band Parents Association with Jim Cravey as spokesman appeared before the Council requesting city support for the winter band concerts.

"There would be a problem of carrying on the concerts without city help," Cravey stated. He was not sure what had brought up the problem but there seems to be the feeling of something personal about it. And the Band Parents Association requested the city to compensate the bandmaster. The $300 was just a token amount as the Band Director spent a great deal of time selecting suitable programs, practicing and the concerts building towards district and state band contests.

Council an Robert Britt asked about legality of the city paying money to an individual. City Attorney Jack Hancock replied, "That the school board must give permission to the band to have the concerts and it was immaterial to whom the city pays, whether it is the association or whoever delivers the concert.

It was suggested that the city pay the Association. Jim Cravey told the Council that Mr. MicKunas would not accept a dime from the association as volunteers and band members raised the $6000 budget for music, uniforms, instruments and concert trips. And if the city declined to pay the $300 "the parents will hustle a buck to make it up."

Anne Belle Worden of the Chamber of Commerce told the council how she was one of those who had originally asked the Council for a pay supplement for a former band director whose educational background did not meet the school requirements for the higher rate of pay.

Several Councilmen expressed the concern that other organizations might also request payment from the city for trips outside of the city but it was pointed out that the winter band concerts were local and that the city contributes many services in the care and upkeep of athletic facilities.

Other councilmen expressed the feeling that they might be walking a tight rope in the matter because of their past and present family activities with the band.

Inasmuch as the winter band concerts are well attended and are good advertising and promotion for the city it was moved and seconded to pay Vic MicKunas the $300 for having the winter band concerts. The motion passed by a four to one count.

With so many plants to chose from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oberst of Viola Street had a hard time deciding which variety to get and then which plant to get while they were looking over plants raise grown by the Vocational-Agricultural class members at the Avon Park High School as part of their class work and to raise money for their projects. Good Managers Should Come Out Of Squeeze

The current economic squeeze should produce more good managers among citrus growers than any other influence in recent years.

Dr. Larry K. Jackson, citriculturist with the Agricultural Extension Service, made this statement during a seminar conducted at Mango on Wednesday, Feb. 5 under sponsorship of agricultural extension offices in Hillsborough and Pasco counties.

He explained that growers should cut down on expenses involved in cultivation of fruit, but these efforts should not be permitted to seriously affect production capabilities of groves.

"The grower must become a better manager," Dr. Jackson stated. "Rising costs of fertilizer, labor and materials have made this necessary, and only the good manager is going to persevere."

In urging that growers take a closer look at grove records, he remarked that trees must be maintained in satisfactory condition. "It is possible to cut corners by applying sprays and fertilizers at less frequent intervals and by careful practices in regard to irrigation and pruning. At the same time, any neglect of trees will mean increased costs in the future. Drastic cuts in cultural practices one year generally mean three to four years of normal caretaking to regain previous levels of production."

Dr. Jackson recommended less frequent sprays for fruit to be processed, timed to control diseases, not insects, plus a reduction in applications and quantities of fertilizer.

He said studies indicated that three out of four growers tend to over-fertilize groves and that applications of too much nitrogen often reduce fruit yields.

City To Chlorinate Water

In other business before the Avon Park regular City Council meeting last Monday night Tom Kelly and Ken Baile of Dawkins and Associates appeared before the council with Kelly speaking of the water works improvements and arrangements to chlorinate the city water supply. His suggestion was that the chlorinating could begin next week.

This presented a slight problem because all of the deadend water lines are not tied together and these lines would be extremely difficult to flush and clean out when chlorinations loosens encrusted debris on the inside of the water lines.

Additional pipe is expected for tieing these deadends together and it will be a matter of several weeks to complete. Therefore the actual chlorination will be delayed until the pipe lines are tied together.

Flushing out the loosened debris from the water pipes may be a trying time for city residents and they will be advised by all means available when to expect the chlorination and follow-up flushing for a minimum of inconvenience.

Kelly told the council that interim financing for the sewers had been approved by the Florida Department of Pollution Control. FHA has approved the plans and specifications and the start of construction when certain legal items are complied with. Construction permits have already been issued by the State. City Attorney Jack Hancock reported he was having a title search made on the required easements and expected to be finished in five to six weeks. Kelly said when the title search is completed they will be ready to advertise for bids on the project. The FHA requires all bids to be good for 60 days.

Searfin Leal of Candeub and Fleissig and Associates was introduced to the council with a presentation on the preparation of the necessary forms in applying for discretionary funds held by Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

Approximately $4,000,000 are available for small cities in Florida and it is anticipated that 30 to 40 cities will apply for funds and only 15 to 20 cities will receive any funds and that the city with the better application and case has the better chance to secure some of these discretionary funds.

Leal's organization has prepared a pre-application form for Sebring and some of the basic material prepared for Sebring would be available for the Avon Park application. The pre-application form due at HUD on March 1 should be as comprehensive as possible using the city's best ammunition. On March 20 HUD then gives the level on which they think they can fund a city's projects or turn down the application. The final answer comes in April.

It was suggested that the city had to make two choices—that of preparing the pre-application form themselves using their top staff or utilizing the 21 years of experience of Candeub and Fleissig to equalize their chances with other cities in securing HUD funds. Leal recommended a large list of projects increased the possibility of obtaining funds and also how the information was put together such as the things the city wants to do and asking in a way that HUD wants to see.

The council moved to employ Candeub and Fleissig and Associates to prepare the HUD pre-application form for discretionary funds at a fee of $1,200. The motion carried unanimously.

Man Injured At Fair Asks For $5,000 In Damages

A man allegedly injured at the 1974 Highlands County Fair has filed a damage suit against the fair's midway operator, Blue Grass Shows Inc.

Russell D. Cochrane and his wife Mary are asking damages in excess of $5,000 on each of two counts. Cochrane says he suffered a fractured right ankle and other injuries in sliding down a large slide which was part of the '74 fair's amusement section.

Cochrane's attorney charges that Blue Grass Shows was negligent in the operation and maintenance of the large slide.

Blue Grass Shows' insurer, Bankers and Shippers Insurance Company of New York, is listed as co-defendant in the suit.

The Bible, "God's holy word," is still the best seller, and most quoted book. From the original Greek and Hebrew this book has been translated into many languages.

Through the centuries men have devotedly studied and sought out the truth in the Bible. When one reads the Bible with an open mind, God's word is "as sharp as a two edged sword."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

1. Card of Thanks

It would be utterly impossible to contact each one who has been so kind to our family during our recent loss. We thank God for our many friends and thank each of you for all acts of kindness; cards, letters of encouragement, prayers, visits, food — just for caring and sharing. If we fail to acknowledge any, in anyway please know how much we appreciate your love and kindness at this time. Please continue to uphold us in your prayers. The family of John W. Longfield-Smith — Miriam and John Wyn, Jay and Cheri Strole.

If you are in the market for a house, and can afford one, now is a good time to buy, the experts advise.

Odds are you'll never again be able to buy a home for less. Construction costs continue to rise 10 per cent to 15 per cent a year. The dollar is continuing to shrink. And history says interest rates are not likely to fluctuate more than a point down.

History also tells us something else. A home is a good investment. Proved better than stocks or bonds or CD's over the past ten years.

New Italian Restaurant

New Italian Restaurant Opens At Spring Lake Shopping Center

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Messina have opened their beautiful new restaurant at the new shopping center in Spring Lake Village One on Highway 98 just 5 miles east of the traffic light on U. S. 27.

Sebrino's Italian Restaurant as its name implies, features Italian dishes including such succulent entrees as chicken cacciatore, scungilli, manicotti, calamari, the better known shrimp scampi and for the more plebian appetite a host of other mouth watering items including steak and onions sauteed in a very special sauce.

All food including desserts is prepared on the premises. Any of the 38 menu items including pizza and 18 varieties of submarine sandwich can be taken out. Those who order one of the delicious full dinners are warned to be prepared for relaxed leisurely dining as all foods are made to order. The Messinas would rather forego a sale than rush its preparation.

Frank Gangorra, Sebrino's Pizza chef, had his own restaurant specializing in pizzas in Woodhaven, L. I., New York for seven years before coming to Florida.

Mr. Messina is an electronics engineer as well as a self-taught machinist. He built the first machine shop for use with the CBS experimental laboratory in New York and worked with Dr. Goldmark in development of one of the early T.V. color tubes. He spent a total of 25 years as electronics engineer with CBS including 11 years as sound technician for that famous soap opera "The Edge of Night". He also worked with the Walter Kronkite nightly news and the Ed Sullivan Sunday night show.

By 1970 New York had so changed, perhaps the word should be deteriorated, that the Messinas, like so many others, followed that path of least resistance leading to a quality of life only to be found in Florida.

Mr. Messina opened a machine shop in Fort Lauderdale but soon found the work not to his taste - pun intended - and business not all that good. He then joined with two friends, one of whom had had previous experience as a restauranteur, in opening the Pizza Shack. With two years of restaurant experience behind them the Messinas then moved to Boca Raton and opened the Boca Pizzeria.

In 1974, having discovered that the quality of life could be even further enhanced by a move to the central highlands, the Messinas moved to Sebring. While making arrangements and carrying out negotiations for the opening of Sebrino's Restaurant, Mr. Messina worked as a tool maker for the Vanguard Electric Car then being developed.

Mr. Messina's engineering experience and versatility is evident in the design and layout of the new restaurant. Each piece of equipment has been selected and positioned so as to achieve maximum efficiency. The structural design of working tables and serving counters, as well as the design and placement of doors has been carefully planned with an eye to safety and ease of working.

Whenever he finds time on his hands Mr. Messina indulges his hobby of designing and making lamps. Each member of the often changing cast of "The Edge of Night" owns a Messina made lamp as a memento from Bill. He once won a bet with Don May, star of "Colt 45," by fashioning a lamp from a plastic cigar holder, two paper cups, a pen light and batteries, with a switch attached to the cigar holder. May later reported that the only light in this house during the massive New York blackout was that provided by his "Messina Lamp".

The Messinas now have their home in Spring Lake's Village One. Son William Jr. is an engineer with Columbia Records. Daughter Janice is married to Leonard Buccellato a computer analyst in New York. The Messinas hope that both son and daughter with their families will eventually join them here in Florida and become part of the Sebrino enterprise.

Sebrino's has been selected by the Spring Lake-Westinghouse Corporation to cater a luncheon for real estate brokers of Highlands County on February and for builders of Highlands County on the 24th.

As a final note of interest to Sebringites the name Sebrino's was derived by dropping the "G" from Sebring and substituting "O's".....

Council Approves Non-Residents For Committees By Split Vote

In a split vote the Avon Park City Council decided that residents of the Avon Park area could serve as members of the recreaton committee when it placed Ordinance No. 582 on first reading.

The problem of allowing or excluding area residents serving on the city recreation committee has been a thorny one for last year's council along with this years council members.

Thus during this regular Monday night meeting when Council President Wendell Williams brought up the subject, Councilman Ed Touchton stated he had attended the meeting of the recreation council which had been held prior to the city council meeting and that the proposed ordinance was satisfactory to them. He moved that Ordinance No. 582 be placed on first reading and was seconded by Councilman Larry Albritton.

At the call for discussion Councilman Robert Britt stated the phrase "Avon Park Area" should read "seven members from within Avon Park" as the present reading is in contradiction with Section 4, paragraph 1, which states "recreation department hereby established for the City of Avon Park."

Councilman Touchton stated that he thought the people of the Avon Park area deserve consideration on some of the city boards. Many of them have gone to school here, their children were in school and they were involved in many activities and some of their tax dollars and other expenditures directly or indirectly benefitted the city. For legality he cited the airport committee ordinance which states "from the Avon Park Area," in regard to committee membership.

In reply Councilman Britt said the airport committee was selected from the area because the airport was Federally financed but recreation is financed by the city. Britt also said local businesses draw trade from surrounding towns but their people could not participate on committees.

Further discussion brought out that Councilman Milton Howard thought there was merit in both positions while Councilman Larry Albritton agreed with Touchton.

In stating his position on the question Mayor Marshall Davis stated that the people inside the city do the voting and city officials are responsible to them; but he felt the seven voting members should be city residents and he had no objections to people residing outside of the city limits serving in an advisory capacity.

In reviewing the opinions Council President Williams stated he respected all the opinions and did not expect unanimous agreement on all subjects. He felt he could not exclude all residents outside the city, for many of them have given much time and energy for city activities. To clear up any legal questions City Attorney Jack Hancock was asked if there was any legal bar to citizens outside the city serving on boards or committees, to which Hancock replied, "No." To the question was there any increased liability on the part of the city if non-residents were on committees? Hancock again replied, "No."

Speaking from the floor Recreation Director Dennis Guenther said some consideration might be given to the fact that the Highlands County was contributing $50,000 to the city for recreational purposes.

Graham Teaching Band Members To Play Bagpipes

The Avon Park High School Grenadier Band has begun the training of its newest component after many months of work to get it organized. The band will display a bagpipe section to enhance the current splendor of its performances.

The project began after Della Stephens heard the high school band playing with the guest Dunedin Bagpipers last year. She organized enthusiastic band supporters who pledged donations for the purchase of bagpipes and uniforms for the band.

The hardest part was locating someone to train the new pipers. This problem was solved after a telephone conversation led Mrs. Stephens to James Huey of Dunedin. Huey, a native of Scotland, has been making bagpipes and training pipers for, as he put it, over half of his life.

Huey brought to Avon Park, Gilbert Graham, also a native Scotsman, to instruct the Avon Park Bagpipers on the chanters, the beginning steps of playing the bagpipes. Graham has trained the Dunedin Bagpipers Band both instrumentally and in marching.

During this first meeting, Band Director, Vic Mickunas, who had never held a bagpipe before, gave the new pipers a boost of confidence as he strapped a pipe on and immediately began playing "Tunes of Glory". The instructors were amazed, and later that Mr. Mickunas' knowledge and ability in music will certainly be an asset in making this new section of the band a success.

Graham, along with instructing the students in music, informed them of the customary kilts worn while playing, and also told only them of the secret of what's worn beneath the kilts.

The band members chosen to be the bagpipers are Tom Macklin, Park Sutherland, O. C. Stephens III, Tom Delk and Eddie Garner.

The bagpipe is one of the oldest instruments played by man. It probably had its beginning in ancient Egypt with the simple chanter, which our pipers are currently mastering.

Later the clans of the Scottish Highlands picked up the pipes and became in the opinion of most, the best pipers. They began colleges for the purpose of teaching the art of playing and composing music for bagpipes. Societies have been set up all over the world for keeping the music of the bagpipes alive.

The young band members who have taken interest in becoming bagpipers take pride in the fact that this instrument has a grand tradition and is worthy of their best efforts in mastering its music.

It will be awhile before the bagpipes are able to play with the the band stated Mrs. Stephens, but she is sure the pipers will be able to perform excellently through the efforts of Vic MicKunas and the other instructors.

Council Tables Purchase Of Telephone Work Center

The matter of the proposed purchase of the telephone work center on Highway 27 from the United Telephone Co. was again tabled by the Avon Park City Council during their regular Monday night meeting.

Council President Wendell Williams stated he had inspected the work center which had been offered to the city for $ 65,000 and feels that further study is needed, however, the city might make a counter offer, inasmuch, as a point of contention is that the telephone company is asking for two years rent free use of the property should the city buy the center.

When work was started on planning the improvement of the city's sewage disposal system, engineering plans called for enlarging the present percolation ponds at the sewer plant and some of the telephone property would have been needed. However, later plans were made to locate the percolation ponds on a 10 acre tract west of Highway 27 thus there is no longer an urgent need for the work center. Although city officials admitted it would be a valuable addition to the city and could be used by the water and sewer departments eventually.

In other old business the council was told by City Clerk Crews that information has not been received from Tallahassee to prepare an application for a new police radio system. It was suggested that if the application could not be completed by Mar. 5, a letter should be written to cover the matter.

For the second straight meeting a group of residents of the Manors attended the council meeting in regards to street lights in their area. In welcoming them to the meeting Council President reviewed the city's efforts to solve the problem. Mayor Davis reported that builder Bob Herman had assured him that a 60 foot right of way for a street would be dedicated on the west side of the property.

As Mr. Herman was present he stated that the city had never been told he was building any streets and he had asked the clerk, building inspector

Care Free Living

Avon Park Community Booth

Wins Top Honors

"Carefree Living in Avon Park" theme of the Avon Park Booth at the Highlands County Fair this year earned the first place purple ribbon.

The booth sponsored by the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce depicts the idea of "Carefree Living" with a restful patio garden. The background of the booth was constructed by Dick Longshore of Aluminum Related Products. The white siding house with a red roof covered porch was constructed completely of aluminum products; siding, roofing, shutters, windows, door and railings stressing a maintenance free home. Patio stones donated by Jahna Concrete were utilized on the porch and walkway.

The lush foliage supplied by Crabtree's Landscape Nursery created a beautiful garden setting in which to display fruit donated by Ben Hill Griffin Industries. In addition to the fruit in the garden there are 141 labeled varieties of citrus on display in the front brick planters.

Soft background music was supplied by Lane's Record and T.V. The concept and coordination of the booth was carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Sid Faust of The Mushroom in Avon Park.

The tastefully arranged setting and landscaping with its numerous varieties of citrus fruit returned the Avon Park Booth to the winners circle this year. Last year's thatched roof fruit stand earned a second place ribbon while the years 1968 through 1973 had the booth wearing the purple of the top winner. Some of the ideas used in the booth during these six winning years were: The mile long Mall in miniature, a fountain and goldfish and a map showing Avon Park as the entrance to the Highlands County.

APCI Receives Rare Praise From Federal Investigator

Avon Park Correctional Institution (APCI) has received a rare compliment from the Federal Office of Civil Rights Compliance. A spokesman for the investigating officials said "I cannot remember another case where we found no basis for a complaint of discrimination in the (government agency) service delivery area."

The investigation was made by United State Department of Justice Law Enforcement Assistance Administration. Complaints had been filed that APCI practiced racial discrimination in selection of candidates for the work release program.

John L. Townsend of Avon Park, who heads the work release at APCI, said about 75 inmates were involved in some phase of work release at the time the investigation was made.

Townsend said he had not given much thought to the investigation, "I knew I had never paid any attention to a man's race in making assignments. I have no idea who may have filed the complaint; I just never gave it much thought," Townsend said.

Most inmates assigned to a work release program — to leave correctional facilities during the day to work and return to the correctional institution at night — are within the last 15 months of a state prison sentence.

Occasionally an inmate may be assigned at the request of Florida Parole and Probation Commission. Under this provision inmates with very long sentences, even life, may be able to work outside the prison.

Townsend said the number of work release prisoners in the APCI has fallen from a high of 97 to its present level of 10.

As the Florida Division of Corrections has developed new custodial centers in urban communities, the work release prisoners are assigned to a center close to home.

Townsend points out that this enables inmates to leave prison and continue in a job. "He just has to find a place to sleep; cuts down on the number of adjustments the man has to make," Townsend explains.

In line with this idea, the 10 men now in the APCI work release count the Ridge area as home — southern Polk and Highlands Counties.

Four inmates are assigned to a study release program which is under Townsend's supervision. Two of these men are academic students at South Florida Junior College and two are enrolled in vocational classes.

In the past some inmates have been in employed in volunteer services in the community. The volunteer work release is now concentrated in occasional one-day services led by a large group of volunteers.

The Justice Department team assigned to investigate complaints of civil rights violations in either employment practices or delivery of governmental services, the APCI case falling into the latter grouping.

Chamber Banquet Monday

Final plans for the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce banquet at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Mar. 3 at the Pinecrest Country Club have been completed according to Morris Adams III, banquet chairman.

The banquet evening will be keyed for fun and fellowship with the highlight of the evening being the presentation of Avon Park's Outstanding Citizens Award. This and other award winners have been kept as deep dark secrets.

The names of the entertainers has also been kept top secret but it was announced that the entertainers had unusual talent.

Reservation must be made in the Chamber of Commerce office by Monday morning, with tickets being $8.00 each. The public is invited to attend the banquet.

Davis And Crews To Carry Pre-Application Forms To HUD

Mayor Marshall Davis and City Clerk Malcolm Crews were authorized to accept and execute a contract for $1200 with Candeub, Fleissig and Associates for preparation of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) pre-application forms during the regular Monday night meeting of the Avon Park City Council.

The pre-application form for $405,000 ($315,000 hardware improvement costs, the balance being administrative, contingency and other costs) HUD discretionary funds was presented by Searfin Leal and explained. He stated the forms should be carried to the HUD office in Jacksonville this week. The deadline is Saturday, Mar. 1.

The council moved to send Mayor Davis and City Clerk Crews to carry the forms to Mr. Johnson, HUD's Director of Operations. Mr. Leal also suggested that the city contact its Senators and Representatives in Washington for their support of the city's application for funds.

Council approved the Mayor and City Clerk flying to Jacksonville to deliver the pre-application forms to HUD officials in the interest of saving time.

Council Commend Crews-Flowers

Visitors at the city council meeting Monday night were welcomed to the meeting by Council President Wendell Williams speaking over a newly installed public address system. Designed by an electronics hobbyist from Haines Cit the system was adjudged satisfactory by those attending the meeting. Council commended City Clerk Crews and Fire Chief Mack Flowers for the installation and moved to purchase the system — the cost was $257.

Council also commended faculty advisor Dwayne Lemler and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes of Avon Park High School for their work of painting house numbers on the street curb for those who wished to have this service.

Mayor Davis reported receiving words of appreciation for the city's cleaning up the brush on Lake Tulane at the end of W. Cornell

Beverage Official Explains Laws To Commission

Business establishments desiring to sell beer for off-premises consumption can obtain state licenses to do so, irrespective of county zoning ordinance that might deny such sales.

That was the message delivered to county commissioners Tuesday by Walter Davis, a member of the state's Division of Beverages office in Lakeland.

Davis' appearance was the result of commissioners having turned down an alcoholic beverage application, submitted by a vendor in the southern part of the county. Their reason: the sale of alcoholic beverages at a location near a church violated county zoning regulations.

Much to their surprise, the state Division of Beverages issued an alcoholic beverage license to the applicant, apparently over commissioners' objections.

Not so, said Davis.

The application turned down by commissioners was for a license to sell beer and wine.

Commissioners had a right to deny such a license, Davis agreed.

However, unknown to commissioners, the applicant then applied to the state for a license to sell beer only, for consumption off the premises.

Under Section 563.02, Florida Statutes, the Division of Beverages is obliged to issue a license for beer - only sales. Whether the sales outlet is near a school building or church is not a factor, Davis said.

County zoning laws could limit state approval of a beer package license, in cases where the proposed sales outlet was not located in a commercially zoned area, Davis conceded.

When commissioners asked whether customers of take-out beer packages might consume the beverage in the vendor's parking lot, Davis replied that such cosumption might be illegal and jeopardize the licensee.

On the other hand, Davis said that "curb drinking" of beer might not violate Florida law.

Davis quoted from Florida statutes: "Intoxicating beverage and intoxicating liquor mean only those alcoholic beverages containing more than 3.2 per cent of alcohol by weight."

Hardee County does not permit the sale of alcoholic beverages, Davis explained, but does permit so-called "3.2 beer" to be sold.

Commissioners thanked Davis for clarifying an issue which caused them to conclude earlier that they were on a collision course with the Division of Beverages over issuance of beverage licenses.

In other business, commissioners:

— Informed Gail Newell, Florida Division of Aging, that they would consider applying for use of $46,935 in federal and state funds only if such monies could be disbursed through the county welfare department.

— Approved use of the courthouse lawn for an Easter egg hunt, to be conducted by the Sebring Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 99.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

As a result of attending the City Council meeting of the twenty-fourth of February and observing the enthusiasm the retired residents of the Manor have for getting the streetlights they want (which is a minor problem—in light of all our other city needs), I have only one comment to make. I believe that if these same people were to be just half as concerned about our community as a whole as they are about themselves, Avon Park would be greatly benefited.

Sincerely,
William J. Strenth

Dutch Transit Gives Up Last Ditch Attempt

As of last Friday, Dutch Transit buses made their last scheduled runs in Highlands County. Buses are available now only on a charter basis.

A last-ditch attempt to save the mass transportation system by alternating the routes failed miserably, said C. L. "Dutch" VanInwagen.

For the two months in which the vehicles plied their ways between Sebring and Avon Park, 13 persons rode the wheels the first month and six throughout the second. Even the regular Sebring city run, which sometimes had as high as 40 daily riders, dropped drastically to 15 or 18 riders a day.

"Cutting the prices wouldn't have worked," said VanInwagen. "If there had been enough customers we were considering lowering the fares, but as it was we would have had to raise them.

"Even then it would have been cheaper than riding a taxi. But we are not in business to hurt taxi owners."

Several cities have approached VanInwagen to purchase the buses. He reported that the cities in question have found they are losing money on 40-60 passenger vehicles and 12-passenger mini-transport does not do the job.

However, Dutch said he is going to keep a few buses on hand for charters, at least for a reasonable length of time."

"I don't know what people are going to do if gas rationing starts, or another type of gas crisis," Dutch said, "but we have had it. To keep going we need some kind of help."

Before he decides to sell the buses VanInwagen said he would wait a certain period to see if the city, or the county showed signs of wanting to help. Or if enough riders evinced interest in a return of bus service."

"If they want it, the buses will be around a little longer. If not, there are other communities that do."

"I still think Highlands County needs a mass transit system. If I hadn't believed that firmly I would never have started one here, then sustained the losses for such a long time."

Charter service is available by calling 385-8233. The buses, fully air conditioned, carry 20 passengers.

and city council about the Manors and was told that the required width for alleys and lanes was 10 feet. He had built 20 foot alleys instead. He had never asked the city to accept them because he was not through building at the development.

It appeared that between the parties concerned there was a misunderstanding of the terms used thus President Williams stated the Council was not trying to blame anyone but that they were trying to solve the problem, but there was a need to get the lights up that had been authorized.

With assurances that Florida Power Corp. would be able to get the lights in operation within the near future the group left the council room.

A progress report was requested by President Williams on actions taken by the council so as not to overload any one department but to handle the work load satisfactorily.

Councilmen Larry Albritton and Ed Touchton and Mayor Davis plan to attend the pre-legislative conference in Tallahassee on March 10-11 and asked the council for ideas on matters that should be discussed with legislators.

By MARION LEARNED

Several in the park will remember Carl and Lila Wertzbar when they lived here. Their trailer was located where the Learneds now live. The Paxtons recently received a letter from Carl telling about himself and family. He lives in Springfield, Illinois with his daughter who is a widow. Lila passed away several years ago. What an example his life is to those of us who are retired. He has a rather large family each one contributing to make his life enjoyable. The last paragraph announced he is a great great grandfather and that he is told to expect his second great great grandchild in the near future. Not many of us live to see the fifth generation. Interesting how we unconsciously give to people even though we are miles apart. This article was written by Bessie Paxton for me and I do appreciate her help with this.

Shuffleboard matches on Friday Feb. 14th. On the East court it was Long and McEwen as winners of the first game, Trompics and Cassellius won the second game and Condit and Gifford won the third game. On the West court, it was Wallace and Tebo as winners of the first game and Long and McEwen taking the second and third game.

Then in the evening, 40 were present for Bingo. Winning two games each were Millie Joseph, Ray Long and Harriet Meissel. Other winners were Lola Carr, Anna Barth, Bell Sharp, Mildred Hindsley, Elma Marshall, Charlie McNulty, Alvia Trompics, Herb Renaud, Helen Joseph and Martha Long. The cover-all brought rounds of laughter with 4 winners, Helen Richardson, Ann Condit, Louise Davidson and Alvia Trompics.

Last week was a busy one for park residents. A card party was held at the Rec. Hall on Monday evening, Feb. 17th with 4 tables of Euchre and 1 table of bridge with Gertrude Culver high on Euchre. Everyone enjoyed the evening.

Tuesday Feb. 18th there were 30 out for the coffee hour at 9:00. In the afternoon 11 ladies met at the Rec. Hall for sewing and crafts and in the evening 14 played Aggravation.

The monthly pot luck dinner was held Wednesday Feb. 19th at noon. 47 enjoyed with wonderful meal and fellowship. Prayer was given by Barney Ross.

Our Hobby Show will be held at the Rec. Hall on March 5th, from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. This is opened to the public and we extend a warm invitation to all to come and visit. Refreshments will be served from 2 to 4 p.m. Y'all come now, we'll be looking for you.

Recent callers at the Tebo home were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Groover from Daytona Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Page and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Connelly from Ogdensburg, Pa. On Sunday Feb. 16th they all had a picnic at Highlands Hammock State Park in Sebring.

Ray and Martha Long and Carl and Mae Phillips motored to Clearwater last Sunday for dinner at the Kapok Tree Inn. In the afternoon they visited Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Gardner at Dunedin.

Marv and Hannah Tebo attended the Tioga County Pennsylvania meeting and picnic Saturday Feb. 15th, at Bahia Beach, Ruskin Fla. There were 233 present at this annual affair. Mr. and Mrs. Dana Stone from Fort Meade accompanied the Tebo's and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

We understand Lola Carr is sporting a new 3 wheeled bike, a birthday gift from Bernard. We will be looking for you, Lola, riding around the park now with the other ladies.

Al Thompson has completed building construction - have you noticed his new utility building. Also Mildred Able's has a lovely new addition to her mobile home, the new roof construction is completed.

Congratulations to Charlie Wallace celebrating his birthday on February 21st.

All for this week. Good health and happiness to all.

Eagles Family Discount will be the first of the several stores scheduled to occupy space in the new Avon Square Shopping Center to open its door for business. Subject to unforeseen delays the new store is expected to open within the next ten days.

CETA Offers Six Training Courses At APCI

The Comprehensive Education and Training Act (C.E.T.A.) which started in 1974 took the place of the Manpower Development Training Act of 1962.

Director of this Federal Grant at Avon Park Correctional Institution (A.P.C.I.) is Gene Thomas. All instructors, for the courses given under this grant, are certified by the state.

Under the C.E.T.A. project there are six seperate areas in which the inmate may choose to study. He has his choice of electronics, horticulture, auto mechanics, printing and reproduction, air conditioning and refrigeration and carpentry.

The carpentry class is the newest in the program and started last Monday, Feb. 17. In the near future the A.P.C.I. will offer a course in welding.

Each course is designed for six months periods with quotas of 15 men per class.

Individuals sent to correctional institutions usually need more training and experience in the essentials of earning a living. This is what the C.E.T.A. program is designed to do.

Under this Federal Grant participation inmates may receive 5 to 20 dollars per week. This money is placed in a savings account, for the most part, to be used when the inmate is released.

Due to institutional reassignment or release many students do not complete the six month course. These students are issued a certificate stating the total number of hours completed and the areas which they have learned.

Grenadier Band On Concert Trip

The Avon Park Grenadier Band will take an overnight trip this weekend. They will combine education with fun in an excursion to St. Augustine, Daytona Beach, and Disney World.

On Friday the students will depart from the high school in three Greyhound buses. They will travel to St. Augustine where they will go on a tour and later give a concert in the band shell. Directly afterwards they will go on to Daytona where they are staying in the Holiday Inn on the boardwalk. Early Saturday morning they depart for Disney World where they will march in a parade and enjoy a funfilled day.

This week Mr. Mickunas received a letter requesting that the Grenadiers represent Florida bands in the Festival of States Parade in St. Petersburg. The band considers this an honor and were pleased to accept.

Kiwanis Sponsoring Circus

The Avon Park Kiwanis Club will begin selling adult tickets this week for the 3-ring King Brothers Circus they are sponsoring on April 4.

Last week 1,500 children's tickets were sold to merchants, businesses, and all other folks concerned in seeing that children will have an opportunity to see the shows.

All money derived from this project will be used to support various charitable activities of the Club during the coming year. Save 50 cents a ticket by purchasing from a Kiwanian in advance. Family tickets are $6.00 — maximum 2 adults and 4 children. There is a limited number of family tickets, so purchase yours today for a real savings!

Adult tickets are $2.00 each if purchased in advance and $2.50 if purchased at the gate. Children's tickets are $1.25 if purchased in advance and $1.50 if purchased at the gate.

Pig's Feet Lead To Jail

Skeptical customers could not believe the bargain prices quoted for meat, chicken and pig feets. The skepticism led to an investigation and the pigs feet led Johnny Taylor straight into state prison for five years.

Taylor, 25, was charged with receiving and concealing stolen goods. As investigation into the case progressed lawmen learned that the Sebring man was a parole violator, on police wanted lists since 1972.

Fitzerald Speaks To DAR

Members and guests of Patriots Chapter, (Highlands County), Daughters of American Revolution, observed Washington's birthday at a luncheon on Saturday, Feb. 22, at Clayton's Restaurant, Sebring.

Robert Fitzgerald

After the luncheon, Mrs. Charles L. Reynolds Jr., Regent, introduced David Rinald, director of music at the First Presbyterian Church, Lake Placid. He sang several selections of composer Charles E. Ives.

Mrs. Reynolds then introduced the guest speaker, Robert Fitzgerald. Mr. Fitzgerald is professor of American History and Government, at South Florida Jr. College. The theme of his informative and interesting address was "Qualities of George Washington."

He cited Washington's great love, respect, and devotion to his Country, as an outstanding American patriot.

Washington was self disciplined, seeking counsel when making important decisions, was an excellent administrator, and a moderate and reasonable statesman.

He was a man of courage on the battlefield and in the presidency. He had moral courage in establishing a neutral policy stance for our Nation. We treasure the memory of Washington as a dedicated leader, a man of individual integrity, his belief in God, his faith in his Country, and his sharing in the glorious cause of Liberty.

Mrs. Ralph Koerber, Chairman DAR Good Citizens committee, introduced Linda Ross, Lake Placid, and Sally Ann Taylor, Sebring, the DAR Good Citizens. The girls were awarded DAR Good Citizens Certificates and pins. They were chosen for this honor by members of their senior classes for qualities of Dependability, Leadership, Service and Patriotism.

The tables were uniquely decorated. Each club brought table decorations for one table depicting the most important projects and activities of their club.

The Presidents of the Avon Park, Lake Placid, and Sebring Clubs each gave a short talk on the highlights of her club, their projects, and goals.

It was very interesting to hear what the other clubs in the county were doing and to exchange ideas with them.

Corn starch is considered an excellent dusting powder. Use a sprinkling of corn starch in rubber dish washing gloves each time they are worn. The gloves will slip on and off more easily and stay free from that clammy feeling. It's a good idea, also, to use a sprinkling of corn starch in boots to absorb moisture.

Avon Park Red Devils Open With Win, Tie And Loss

A win, a tie and a loss were the results of the opening week for the Avon Park Red Devil baseball team as they won over Pahokee 11-9, tied Wauchula 3-3 and then lost to Cypress Lake 3-2 all in the first week of play in the 1975 season.

Last Tuesday afternoon the Red Devils were scheduled to play the Miners in Fort Meade and will travel to Ft. Myers Saturday afternoon for a game with North Fort Myers at 2:00 o'clock. Next Tuesday night, March 4, the Devils will return home for another game with North Fort Myers at Head Field starting at 7:30 p.m.

Pahokee Game

The Avon Park varsity baseball team outlasted the Pahokee Blue Devils here at Head Field in the Red Devils opening game as the home team took an 11-9 win in an error-filled game. Avon Park scored its 11 runs on six hits and commited seven errors while Pahokee scored nine runs on nine hits and also made seven errors in the seven inning game.

Jimmy Douberley started on the mound for Avon Park. He gave up four runs and three hits before Timmy Massey came on in the first with two men out to make the final out. Massey hurled four more innings of ball allowing two more runs and two hits. Then Jamie Tomlinson came on in the sixth to finish out the last two innings giving up three runs and four hits.

Jimmy Douberley got two singles for Avon Park, Brad Beumel had a double and Jerry Robinson, Timmy Massey, and John MicKunas all hit one single off the two Pahokee pitchers.

Hardee Game

The 3-3 tie game played in Wauchula last Friday afternoon will be re-scheduled and played over as a new ball game according to Devil coach Ronnie Jackson. The game was called in the top of the eighth inning due to darkness by the umpire.

Jimmy Douberley and Timmy Massey again teamed up to pitch the game against the Hardee Wildcats. Douberley went five innings giving up the three runs on only two scattered hits. Massey shut-out the Wildcats for two innings, striking out four batters and allowing two hits.

The Red Devil batters got only three hits off Wildcats pitcher Wayne Albritton. Brad Beumel and Mort Jackson got singles in the sixth inning and Jim Johnson singled in the seventh frame. The Red Devils made four errors and Hardee made only two errors in the seven full innings which won't count but must be replayed.

Cypress Lake Game

Last Saturday afternoon in Fort Myers the Cypress Lake baseball team scored three runs on six hits to defeat the Avon Park nine by a score of 3-2. The Devils got their two runs on three hits.

Jamie Tomlinson pitched the entire game for Avon Park giving up the six singles and walking only one batter as his team made six errors behind him. Tomlinson fanned only two batters during his six innings on the mound.

Tomlinson also led the Devils at the plate with a double in the seventh frame. Avon Park left the bases loaded in the top of the seventh inning to lose by the one run. Mort Jackson and Jerry Robinson hit singles for Avon Park's other two hits off two Cypress Lake hurlers.

SFJC Loses Two With Poor Fielding

South Florida Junior College lost their opening doubleheader to Central Florida Community College from Ocala 5-3 and 8-3.

In the first game, SFJC outhit CF 7 to 5 but committed some untimely errors and left nine base runners stranded. Robert Webb, Buddy DeWitt and Tom Ambrogi each drove in runs for the Panthers. Buddy DeWitt and Keith McCarter also had two hits each. Al Short started and completed the game on the mound. He allowed only five hits, struck out three and walked only three. Unfortunately, one of the big hits for CF was a two-run homer over the left field fence.

Glenn Bass opened the second game on the mound for the Panthers. Glenn turned in a creditable performance - giving up 8 hits, while striking out seven in the 5- two-thirds innings he worked. Unfortunately, some shoddy fielding enabled CF to score five unearned runs off Bass. CF also homered in the second inning. Rick Sizemore relieved Bass in the 6th and had control problems, yielding CF's final two runs on five successive walks in the 9th.

Central Florida had two flame-throwers that struck out 14 Panther hitters in the nightcap. SFJC's only runs came in the 7th on singles by Robert Webb, pinch-hitter Mike Wise, and Keith McCarter. McCarter again had two hits for SFJC, making him 4 for 7 for the double-header.

Panther's Defeat Edison St. John s Thursday

South Florida Junior College notched their first win of the new baseball season last Thursday in Ft. Myers. The Panthers defeated Edison Community College 3-1 in a single nine inning game.

Mark Jackson started his first game on the mound and went 7-two-thirds innings before tiring. He allowed but three hits, two of them being infield hits. Mark, after a shaky first inning, was in command the rest of the ball game. He allowed only one run, which was unearned, struck out four, and walked three. Glen Bass picked up a save for the Panthers when he relieved Jackson in the seventh by retiring the next four batters.

Offensively, the Panthers collected six hits and scored single runs in the 4th, 5th, and 8th. Jackson was hit by a pitch in the 4th followed by singles from Robert Webb and Buddy DeWitt to load the bases. David Lamons walked to force in the first run. However, the Panthers left the bases loaded without scoring as Theron Jones and Kendall Carson struck out and Kim Prevatt popped up. The next inning Tom Ambrogi tripled and scored on Robert Webb's sacrifice fly to right field. The final run came in the 8th inning after Buddy DeWitt reached 3rd base on a three base error and David Lamons singled him home. SFJC had another chance to score in the 9th as they left the bases loaded with walks to Tom Ambrogi and Keith McCarter and Robert Webb's single.

The Panthers had chances to score more runs; however, they left 11 base runners stranded. David Lamons had two RBI's and Robert Webb two hits to lead the offensive attack.

SFJC will meet St. Johns River CC of Palatka on Thursday, Feb. 27, in a doubleheader at Head Field in Avon Park. Game time is 1:00 p.m. St. Johns features hard throwing pitcher-outfielder Reggie Wilkerson who was drafted in the third round by the San Diego Padres. Glenn Bass and either Mark Jackson or Rick Sizemore will pitch for SFJC.

Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy the games. There is no admission charge.

Question: Since Christians are God's children, why do they have to suffer, even as people who are not christians?

Answer: God has never exempted his children from trials and suffering. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you; but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's suffering; that, when His glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy; 1 Peter 4:12, 13. Paul declared that true Christians will suffer persecution. Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution, 2 Timothy 3:12.

For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not. But if ye be without chastisement whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence; shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

For they verily, for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby; Hebrews 12:6-11.

The patriarch Job who was a true child of God went through a period of great suffering and trial. He lost his children and his livestock. He was covered with boils. He recognized that his experience of affliction was a means of purification. But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold; Job 23:10.

The scriptures attest that trials and tribulations, are character developing factors in the life of true christians, and are evidence that God loves us, and allows trials and suffering to come into the life of the christian, so that he or she will become a partaker of the divine nature.

UNDER CLOUDY SKIES groundbreaking ceremonies were held Saturday morning on a lot near Bouganvillea Cemetery for the new Fountain Funeral Home with the following participating: the Rev. Ground Breaking For Fountain Funeral Home

Saturday, Feb. 22, at 11 a.m. a ground breaking ceremony was held at the site of the new facility for the Fountain Funeral Home. The site is approximately one acre of land next to Bougainvillea Cemetery on U. S. 27 N. The brief ceremony was led by Mayor Marshall Davis and Rev. Aden Childress.

The completely new facility will be of one-story concrete block construction. The exterior will be finished with Spanish Stucco. The new home will contain over 4300 square feet of floor space and will contain a chapel with seating for over 100. A private family room with seating for 40, two baths, a modern preparation room, arrangement office, a casket display room with a wide variety of caskets and funeral merchandise for families of all financial needs, and a two bedroom apartment for Mr. and Mrs. James (Cynthia) Fountain and their two daughters, Julia, age 5 and Denise, age 2.

The new facility has been designed by James Fountain, with help from his father, for maximum efficiency without any loss to the individual needs of the families they serve. With this in mind the Chapel and Family Room were designed so they can be used as four reposing rooms, as needed, or as any combination that is needed. There will be a large porch on the front and back with a large carport on the South side of the building to protect families and friends from bad weather in their coming and going. The parking lot will be left in grass and will provide parking facilities for the largest of services.

James and Cynthia Fountain purchased the former Mizelle Funeral Home, which had been operated as the Avon Park Chapel for two and one half years, prior to their purchasing it in December 197 .

The building of a new facility for the funeral home has become necessary to provide the families they serve with a well designed facility and to provide plenty of off-street parking and with a convenient and easily accessible location and a peaceful setting. The landscaping of the home will take advantage of the many trees at the front of the lot.

The general contractor is Duane Kopta with Dan Bennett, associate, electrical, heating and air conditioning by Kenneth Long, Long's Air Conditioning, Plumbing by Bud Cox, Cox Plumbing.

The interior of the home will be done to create a warm home-like setting. Fountain will be on the construction site as much of the time as business permits and invites the public to stop by and see the building under construction. Building time will take approximately 150 working days. Mr. and Mrs. Fountain have made Avon Park their home and are thankful for this opportunity to provide a needed service to this community.

Trunk status control room at electronic toll center of the type to be installed in Fort Myers. Inset shows switchboard of Lee County Telephone Company in 1900.

"Time should prove..."

One of United of Florida's predecessors (Lee County Telephone Co.) began providing telephone service for its 20 customers in Southwest Florida 75 years ago... on February 21, 1900. On that occasion, an area newspaper editor is reported to have written: "Our businessmen today had the novel experience of talking to each other over the wires. Time should prove the telephone is a great convenience."

It did, indeed! Today, the newspaper and more than 25,000 other businesses in South Central and Southwest Florida depend greatly on what goes "over the wires." The magneto crank and open wire of yester-year have given way to Direct Distance Dialing, photo transmission, high speed teletypewriters, computer data circuits, efficient PABX systems and other examples of today's technology.

Within United of Florida's service area (all of nine counties and parts of four others) there are today some 225,000 telephones in service — backed by $230,000,000 in modern switching centers, underground cable systems and other facilities.

And the present development pace is a far cry from those earlier days. For instance, two-thirds of our telecommunications network of 1975 didn't even exist a mere seven years ago when United Telephone began service in this part of Florida.

Looking back on a 75-year legacy of service, the men and women of United are proud of their contribution to this area's progress. And we're determined, too, to keep pace with the future, as we continue to serve some of the nation's finest and fastest growing communities!

Support For Alcoholic Center Confirmed

Continued support of the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center in Avon Park has been pledged to Senator Tom Gallen, by the Department of Rehabilitative Service.

In a recent letter O. J. Keller, secretary of the state agency, told the senator, "I assure you that we intend to continue this support. If this issue is indeed revisited, I would welcome the opportunity to discuss this with you and any other legislators in the area."

Keller told Sen. Gallen that the Avon Park facility "surfaced briefly" when the agency was exploring all possibilities and alternatives to relieve the critical bed shortage for inmates of the Department of Corrections.

"Because of a number of reasons, some of which you have enumerated, this option has been closed."

BAROMETER OF LIFE

Would it really help to have an instrument to predict the storms of life?

When the barometer falls it's too late to build a sea wall or to dig a cyclone cellar. Wise men prepare when the wind is calm. A leaking roof must be mended while the sun shines.

The Church does not claim to provide a barometer of life. But it preaches every Sunday the spiritual readiness which climaxed Christ's Sermon on the Mount:

"Whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock:

"And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house. . . .

"And it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock."

NEW INVENTION
THE PERIMITECTOR
Nationwide Scientific, the nation's leader in line-carrier (ac transmission) alarm equipment was recently awarded a U.L. listing for the new PERIMITECTOR alarm system. This unique system provides perimiter protection that scares off intruders before they set foot inside. The PERIMITECTOR will provide professional security for the first time at an extremely low price by eliminating internal wiring and large labor bills. This new concept is achieved by transmitting the violation signal over the buildings existing a-c wiring through new plug-in transmitter-receiver modules. Result — an extremely effective very low cost alarm system for home or business that accepts all fire and burglar alarm detection devices available.

UPDATE ON LIVING
From The Experts At Owens Corning Fiberglas Corp.

INDOOR FARMS

"Bossie" the cow hardly goes out anymore. Things are too good on the inside.

The lives of "Bossies" throughout the United States are changing on modern up-to-date farms. It's all because of successful experiments in confined feeding of farm animals.

Confined feeding makes it possible to handle more livestock without adding land.

Pastures can be used to raise more profitable crops or highly nutritious feed.

Indoor farms are also more sanitary because "Bossie's" environment is controlled. And fiber glass panels help because they are easier to clean.

Fiber glass is also being used outside the barn. New spacevage fiber glass silos, for example, are airtight and rustproof making them perfect for wet storage of corn and other grains. Natural acids in grain eat away at steel and concrete, requiring continual repair. Corrosion-resistant fiber glass is virtually maintenance free.

The farmer, meanwhile, is spending less time and effort on maintaining buildings and equipment and more time in managing and planning.

Safety in numbers.

You and your pet

By TED KAVANAUGH, DIRECTOR, ALPO PET NEWS BUREAU

Training Your Dog For Tracking

The dog moves through an open field, intently following her nose along an invisible path of a scent. Her master follows some 20 yards behind.

Suddenly she pauses, smiling the light breeze from one point to another. Recapturing the scent, stronger now, she's eagerly moving again on an altered course. Minutes later she finds the object she's been tracking and brings it happily to her master, who praises her highly for finding the old glove he had hidden there.

The man is Milo Pearsall, and that was a brief scene from "Training for Tracking," a film in which Milo and Margaret Pearsall show you how to train your dog in tracking.

The Pearsalls are two of America's foremost dog trainers and teachers. That film is one in a series of five they recently made for ALPO to help owners train their dog.

Obedience Training Films

Entitled "Dog Obedience Training," this film series also teaches Puppy Training, Basic & Novice, Open, and Utility training. They were filmed outdoors on location in 16 mm. full color/sound, with excellent photography and expert camera work.

Best of all, this series of five 15-minute films is available on loan to interested groups without charge.

According to scientific research, a dog's sense of smell is a million times greater than human's. Tracking, in a way, becomes a game or contest whereby your dog uses that ability on your command, to follow one particular scent path over a tricky course to find a certain object.

Purebred Bull Mastiff

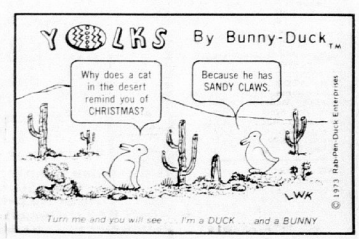

Almost any dog can be trained for it, assuming some proficiency in retrieving and the basic commands.

You will learn the theory of scent and how dogs follow it; then the practicalities of tracking. That includes training aids, desired topography for laying out courses, and working with your dog. And if you wish, qualifying your pet to earn the coveted tracking certification of the American Kennel Club.

Obtaining the Films

The set of five Dog Obedience Training films may be requested on loan for up to one week without charge by any club or group (no individual requests please). Just write me at ALPO Pet Foods, Box 2187, Allentown, Pa. 18001. State 1st and 2nd choice dates at least 30 days in advance.

These films are a free loan service of the ALPO Film Library. Users are asked only to pay return postage insured.

Personality Quiz

HOW DIPLOMATIC ARE YOU?

You don't have to be a professional diplomat to realize that there are certain kinds of social protocol that help us all to get along better with one another. Here's a quiz that will help you to determine how well you govern your own conduct:

1. If a friend of yours has run for office in your local town government and lost, you should (A) Philosophically tell him that the best man always wins, (B) Advise him on how he should have conducted his campaign, or (C) Express the hope that he'll run again during the next election and win?

2. Should you be sitting in a "no smoking" section of a theater and notice that one patron is puffing on a cigarette, it's best to (A) Call an usher, (B) Remind the offending individual that smoking isn't permitted, or (C) Ignore the matter?

3. If someone you know has died and his family requests that, in lieu of flowers, contributions be made to a particular charity, you should (A) Send a condolence card and contribute to the charity, (B) Send flowers and contribute to the charity, or (C) Just contribute to the charity?

4. If, at a social gathering, a friend of yours cracks a joke which you don't consider funny, you should (A) Laugh heartily at it, (B) Chuckle, or (C) Remain silent?

5. Part of the process of making up with your spouse after you've had a marital spat should be to (A) Admit that, you may have been wrong, (B) Confess that all the blame is yours, or (C) Staunchly insist that you were right?

ANSWERS: 1. (C) Express the hope that he'll run again in the next election and will not be ignored, but it's going too far to call the voter unless the offender persists. 2. (B) The theater should be the world at its beautiful Flowers are accepted through symbol of sympathy. 4. (B) Chuckle. A hearty laugh would be too insincere, and silence could embarrassingly have been wrong. 5. (A) Admit that you may have been wrong.

Subsea Production System

Exxon USA's prototype Submerged Production System is launched from a barge 27 miles southeast of Grand Isle, Louisiana. The unit, designed to produce oil and gas with remotely-controlled, ocean-floor equipment, has been lowered to the sea floor in 170 feet of water for an extensive testing period. The test project, representing more than 300 man years of research and development and an investment of $30 million, is presently designed to operate in water depths to 2,000 feet. Objective of the SPS program is to develop a petroleum production system for water depths beyond the economic and technical limits of platforms.

Council Sets 40 Hour Work Week For City Employees

A goal of a 40 hour work week for city employes was the main topic of discussion during the joint meeting of the Avon Park City Council and the Civil Service Board, Thursday, Feb. 27 at the City Hall.

Coming under discussion were the number of hours worked by employes of each department. A stated goal is to achieve a 40 hour work week for all employes. Thus it was suggested that a 40 hour standard week be established for the Street, Sanitation, Park and Water Departments.

In reporting about manpower on the Police Department, Police Chief Grady Campbell said he had enough men now to go to a 40 hour week. It was pointed out that the Sheriff's Department and the Sebring Police Department are already on a 40 hour week basis and have a higher pay rate than the Avon Park Policemen.

In speaking about the Fire Department, Allan Ball, said it would take four shifts of men to have a 40 hour work week. The firemen are satisfied with the present shifts of 24 hours on duty and 48 hours off duty. However, he recommended a 48 hour work week and said this could be accomplished when the man working with the fire department under the Manpower Act was sufficienty trained.

Secretary of the Civil Service Board Melvin Beane on being informed that the Civil Service was adopted by the city in 1967 stated the city was not operating by the rules of the Civil Service Law, citing in particular the grade levels and test materials.

The City Council was asked by Beane if they wanted to start the test program that was in the Civil Service regulations. He stated that he and others had worked many hours on suggested tests. These were reviewed by City Attorney Jack Hancock who approved them but suggested they were difficult. These questions would be used for advancement in the Police Department. However, no questions had been received from the Fire Department.

City Civil Service rules specify examinations for all city employe except labor. A discussion centered about the best method to obtain tests with City Clerk Malcolm Crews being instructed to contact Civil Service Boards in other cities as to who furnished these tests and the approximate costs.

Before the meeting adjourned council President Wendell Williams stated the 40 hour work week would be on the council agenda at the next regular meeting on Monday, Mar. 10, 1975.

Evelyn Jones Named Outstanding Citizen

This will be an exciting and challenging year under the presidency of Mary Lee King, the first woman president of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, declared Morris Adams III, Master of Ceremonies, as he presented President Mary Lee King to the chamber members and their guests during the annual banquet at the Pinecrest Country Club last Monday night.

Chamber of Commerce President King told the audience that the record breaking crowd here tonight indicates you support your Chamber of Commerce. She told the group she was proud to be president and proud to be the first woman president of the C of C. And one could sense the pride in her voice as she told of being proud of the board of directors for their record breaking attendance at the 7 a.m. breakfast meetings.

In speaking of the chamber's program of work, President King stated it had been completed and mailed. She challenged the members to get a copy, read it and act on it.

The night of entertainment started during the dinner hour with the Avon Park High School Grenadier Stage Band using a piano, brass and drums to recreate the memorable harmonies and sounds of the big name bands of the 30's and 40's, which set fingers to strumming and toes to tapping in time with the big brass drum whose strong reprecussions caused small wall lights to flicker momentarily.

Master of Ceremonies Adams started the evening program underway with an introduction of county and city officials and chamber directors with a special introducation for Walter Betts one of the founders of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, 35 years ago.

Glenn Welch, 1974 chamber president was called upon to give a brief review of the activities during the past year from beautification and building to providing land for a county building.

Another bit of review revealed that in 1951 there were 50 chamber members while in 1975 there were 181 members.

The surprises of the evening were the awards presentations. The top award of outstanding citizen went to Evelyn Jones for her work with all ages. In her acceptance Evelyn stated "It was a real treat to sing with people who enjoy it." She called for volunteers to blend their harmonious voices in starting a barbershop singing group and concluded "This is the nicest award I possibly could receive."

Grangers Ralph Fullmer and Keith Debo were called forward to accept the outstanding civic organization award for Avon Park Grange No. 203 in appreciation for making Avon Park a prettier

County Commissioners Hear

Plans For Incinerator

"Once bitten--twice shy," commissioner Ken Wilkinson muttered as he inspected Orlando's garbage and trash disposal plant, Wednesday.

By way of explanation, he told his Florida Gas Company hosts of the county's recent unfortunate experience with Ecologenics Inc., whose representatives had failed in their promise to solve Highlands County refuse disposal problems at a moderate cost.

Wilkinson and county engineer Gordon Hays Jr. visited the Orlando city facility, with the board of County Commissioner's blessing, hoping to determine whether or not incineration might still play a role in disposing of county rubbish.

What they saw was a clean, quiet, odorless, smoke-free plant capable of burning 100 tons of garbage and trash daily.

Refuse is hauled to the plant in compactor trucks, weighed and dumped on the incinerator building's cement floor.

Two small tractors, equipped with bulldozer blades, push the solid waste material into elevators which transport it automatically to eight furnaces for burning.

At days's end, the floor is washed clean.

At Wilkinson's request, a number of automobile tires were burned in one of the incinerators. No trace of smoke or fly ash was visible.

Florida Gas representatives who installed the Orlando facility, explained that the absence of smoke in incinerator stacks resulted from high temperature "afterburning."

The afterburning principle, they said, can be demonstrated using a cigarette and a match.

Simply hold a lighted match in the smoke streaming from a burning cigarette, they claim, and the smoke will disappear.

The system obviously worked because it has met or exceeded all federal and state air pollution standards.

Wilkinson and Hays asked numerous questions concerning cost and efficiency of the incineration process.

The Orlando plant cost about $900,000 one year ago, they were told. But it need not be bought; its use can be obtained under a lease arrangement.

The price tag for disposing of one ton of refuse in Orlando is about $8.50. However, that figure includes the cost of the facility amortized over a 15-year period plus land, labor and maintenance costs.

Incineration reduces the physical volume of Orlando refuse 32 times, thus saving valuable landfill area requirements.

Residue from the burning process is sterile, inert and odorless, suitable, the incinerator manufacturer claims, as a substitute for fill dirt.

As with the Ecologenics process, the Florida Gas system can be equipped to use its heat to produce steam energy.

Armin J. Longoria, district supervisor for Florida Gas Company in Highlands County, has agreed, on request, to arrange for representatives of his company to brief other county commissioners on the incinerator process used in Orlando and elsewhere.

Hospital Dedicates Conorary Unit

The dedication of the Conorary Care Unit at Walker Memorial Hospital in loving memory of the late Heinrich and Martha Rohde was held in the dining room on Tuesday, Feb. 25, 1975. Mrs. Harry Oliver of Indianapolis, Ind., niece of Mr. and Mrs. Rohde was present for the dedication. Mr. Neil Myers, attorney, of Lake Wales, and administrator of the estate also attended the dedication.

Mr. Rohde was born in Germany and as a young man he was a selesman for the National Cash Register Company in Berlin. He won a trip to United States for being the top salesman. He came here on that trip in 1910 and that is when he met Martha Ludwig. They were married in Indianapolis in 1912. They owned and operated a large millinery store.

They came to Florida during the Winter of 1925. They built a home and bought a 160 acre grove. Ten years later he retired from business in Indianapolis and moved to Florida and concentrated his efforts on the orange grove. Later he acquired a second grove in the Indian River district around Ft. Pierce. Because of his business abilities, these operations were highly successful.

For over 60 years he was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Berlin and a lifetime member of the Murat Shrine Temple in Indianapolis.

During World War I he sold war bonds and was one of the top salesmen in Indianapolis in that field. After World War II, he gave financial assistance to orphans and families in Europe. He did this, in fact, up until just before he passed away. He also gave property to Tampa University.

He was a very religious man and attended many churches of all denominations, not concentrating on any one.

He was well known in Florida by many Congressmen and Senators. He made over 50 trips back to Europe during his lifetime. And he always traveled by freighter.

Rohde was a frugal man whose frugality made this contribution possible for the benefit of this community and others. A greater part of his estate was left to help others.

Developers Hit With Suit

Developers of the new Avon Park shopping center have been hit with another civil suit. The newest suit, filed by Poston Bridge and Iron Inc. is seeking payment of $54,446.28 it claims to be outstanding on a contract for labor, services and materials.

Defendants in the suit are Intercoast Avon Park Association and East Point Construction.

Poston signed a contract with East Point, the prime contractor for Intercoast's work on the shopping center. The original contract, filed with the suit, shows a price of $42,000, but includes a provision for extra work and sets the fees for the extras.

Poston says it began work in October, 1974, and completed its work Dec. 20, 1974.

Whitaker Brothers Inc. has sued Intercoast Southeast Equities for breach of contract in connection with work on the shopping center. Whitaker Brothers is asking $25,000.

City Amends Competency Ordinance

City Ordinance No. 575 pertaining to contractor competency was amended by the city council in their regular Monday night meeting, to establish a cutoff date of July 22, 1974 for the grandfather clause, of those having occupation licenses.

Minutes of the Zoning Board of Adjustments were read and it was moved to request the board to review the new city zoning and planning as proposed by the commission.

In other action it was reported that the lighting system at Head Field baseball park was in need of repairs as it was quite old. Poles were rotting, fixtures were broken, switches were bad and the transformers were of a type no longer used by Florida Power. Two years ago the city spent $1000 to replace two rotten poles and another one is now judged unsafe to climb by linemen.

Council thought it wise to replace the system rather than continue making reapirs. Florida Power engineers are developing plans for a new lighting system.

It was reported that drawings and plans for the new baseball park complex are at the city clerk's office for anyone to see.

Council Recommends Purchase Of 5 Ambulances

Following two hours of discussion Thursday night, the newly-formed Highlands County Emergency Medical Advisory Council voted unanimously to recommend to county commissioners that five new ambulances be purchased so the county might qualify for state matching funds by the March 15 deadline.

Purchase of the new units is necessary because present equipment does no meet requirements established by the State Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services (HRS). All Ambulance services in the state must meet these requirements by Jan. 1, 1976, in order to remain licensed to operate.

By qualifying for the state's matching funds, the county can purchase five of the $20,000 ambulances at a cost to local taxpayers of $7,000 each.

According to Sheriff O. L. Raulerson, whose department handles the present county-wide ambulance service, ambulances purchased as recently as last October cost the county only $4,300, but now must be replaced because they do not meet the new minimum requirements for interior height, interior width and equipment.

Raulerson said it will cost at least twice the $178,000 (an estimated $4.50 per person) the county is now spending each year for ambulance service to meet the new HRS requirements.

In addition to better ambulances, it will also be necessary that the ambulances operate from three strategically located emergency stations in the county where personnel can be on call on a 24-hour basis, and that direct communications be established between a central radio dispatch headquarters, all ambulance units and local hospitals.

William Curry, regional consultant for HRS, told the advisory council the regulations were adopted to conform to federal standards with one purpose in mind: "to save lives."

Faced with the growing death rate of Florida persons being transported by ambulance, the law was passed by the 1973 legislature, he said, and counties have known for two years that the new regulations were coming. "There is no reason that they shouldn't have been prepared."

Retorted County Commissioner Norman "Jug" Heston: "The legislature passes laws for the benefit of Dade and Broward counties, but these laws affect rural counties, too. Our ambulance service here has been very satisfactory, but we're going to have to pay a big penalty because of problems in the metropolitan areas."

According to Curry, 65 per cent of deaths due to heart ailments occur within two hours of a heart attack. "The new requirement that you have 60 inches of head room in ambulances is reasonable," he insisted, explaining this was necessary to effectively provide cardio pulminary resuscitation and other emergency services to patients enroute to hospitals.

Raulerson said that a minimum of five ambulances would be required--one each at Sebring, Avon Park and Lake Placid, plus one back-up unit and one for transferring patients.

"We've been able to utilize our ambulances for routine home checks to help provide security when people go on vacations, but under the new law they can only be used for medical emergencies," he added.

According to Raulerson's estimates, the ambulance staff will have to be increased from 15 men now to 38 under the new law.

Curry said that many counties are utilizing the additional employes in hospital emergency rooms. "Working at a hospital provides excellent training for ambulance personnel, enabling them to practice the medical skills which they have learned in school."

Vernon Bielefeld, Highlands General Hospital administrator, said the hospital board might be agreeable to providing bed and board for ambulance employes in exchange for emergency room service.

If Walker Memorial was also willing, he said, this would save the county from having to construct ambulance facilities at both Sebring and Avon Park. A building would still have to be found, or built, for the Lake Placid area, however.

Curry said that hospitals are being used as ambulance stations by many counties.

Although Heston said he favored the continued operation of the ambulance service under the sheriff's department, Raulerson said he would prefer to have the county assume the responsibility.

"It has been working well under our management at present," the sheriff said, "but under the new regulations I doubt it could remain so."

He said that if his department would continue to handle the service, the entire sheriff's department would be subject to many state requirements which now only pertain to the ambulance service.

Curry said that the new ambulance service is operating under the jurisdiction of both the sheriff and the county in other rural counties, and both plans seem to work well. "It depends on individual circumstances, and I wouldn't pretend to be informed enough to make a recommendation here," he added.

He told the advisory council that, in addition to the matching funds for ambulance purchase, other state and federal grants are available for local emergency medical service, and should be explored.

"Your biggest expense is going to be the first year when you are faced with providing the stations, the new ambulances and equipment."

According to Curry, some counties have tried to subsidize private ambulance providers, but this has not been satisfactory. "The counties inevitably find they can provide it cheaper themselves," he explained.

Curry said average response time (the time required for an ambulance to arrive at the destination of the emergency after receiving notification) should be a minimum of 15 minutes.

"Our average now is about 12 minutes," Raulerson replied.

Agreeing that once the ambulances are purchased there would still remain many details to work out in order to meet all the requirements of the new law, the advisory council set its next meeting for March 27.

Letters To The Editor

To The Editor:

In reply to Mr. William J. Strenth letter, regarding the residence of 'he Manors, we are only interested in our neighborhood and try to attend to our own business.

If Mr. Strenth wishes lights for his neighborhood, let him blow his horn in that neighborhood, it might do him more good than trying to butt into ours.

A message of appreciation

Dear Editor:

The Board of Directors of the Highland Lakes Volunteer Fire and Rescue Ass'n, Inc. are very pleased with the results of the spaghetti dinner served at the Highland Lakes Junior Academy on Feb. 17.

The efforts of so many made this possible and to show our appreciation, we would like to say "Thanks" to the many residents of the area who have supported us so well during the past 5 years.

But, most of all the ladies, namely: Mrs. Sharian, Mrs. Good, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Holaday, Mrs. Hodson, Mrs. Genson and Mrs. Dawn certainly deserve a tribute for all the effort that they have put forth.

They not only spent most of the day preparing a delicious meal with the assistance of Frank Haskins and Richard Hodson but many brought cakes and other goodies for the bake sale where Mrs. Walker spent an evening issuing out goodies to those who enjoy the sweets.

"Thank you ladies, also Frank and Richard, you are all wonderful."

Ray Walker, President

Dear Sir:

The Equal Rights Amendment does not guarantee women better jobs, promotions or better working conditions. The Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, the Civil Rights Act and other laws already guarantee women "equal pay for equal work" and need only to be enforced to ensure women equal opportunity with men.

The U.S. House Judiciary Committee, after hearings on ERA, stated in their report No. 92-359:

"The rigidity of interpretation advocated by many of the proponents of the original text of House Joint Resolution 208 could produce a number of very undesirable results. For example, not only would women, including mothers, be subject to the draft but the military would be compelled to place them in combat units alongside of men. The same rigid interpretation could also require that work protective laws reasonably designed to protect the health and safety of women be invalidated; it could prohibit governmental financial assistance to such beneficial activities as summer camp programs in which boys are treated differently than girls; in some cases it could relieve the fathers of the primary responsibility for the support of even infant children, as well as the support of mothers of such children and cast doubt on the validity of the millions of support decrees presently in existence. These are only a few examples of the undesirable effects that could be produced by the enactment of the original text of House Joint Resolution 208 (which is the present text of ERA)."

The Wiggins-Modification, making drastic changes in ERA, was added before the Committee approved the bill but was removed in the House at the insistence of the radicals.

ERA should NOT be ratified because women would lose much and gain no benefits which are not already guaranteed by existing laws.

Biographies head the list of new books added to the collection this week. We have already reviewed for you the biographies of Joe Namath, Don Shula, Terry Bradshaw, O. J. Simpson — now the new sports biography receiving attention in the media is McKay; A Coach's Story by John McKay of the USC Trojans. McKay's phenomenal .757 winning percentage over the past fourteen years includes three national title, three unbeaten seasons and seven Rose Bowl appearances. A meticulous workhorse who believes that "coaching is nothing more than teaching", he provides us in his book with an equal amount of sound pigskin philosphy and memorable game highlights.

One review of All Aboard With E. M. Frimbo by Rogers Whitaker said "This is a book you wish would never end, and you close it with a sign for time marvelously spent." E. M. Frimbo is the world's greatest railroad buff — a man who has traveled more than 2,334,000 miles by rail on six continents over six decades. For those who have never had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Frimbo there is no pleasure at all quite like spending an evening with him. His adventures recounted in this book offer the reader the ultimate armchair journey.

Academy Award winner and star performer in his own Broadway musical, Sammy Cahn tells his personal, public, and professional story in I Should Care. This is a loveable story of the Lower East Side of New York and is a great opportunity for millions of people who for years have loved his songs to now meet the man who wrote them and to fall in love with him too.

Rex Harrison is one of the theatre's most sophisticated and magnetic personalities. He tells about his life, his loves, and his pursuit of happiness in his autobiography REX. Mr. Harrison discusses the differences between stage and film acting techniques. He writes of his happy life with his present wife, Elizabeth, and also of the ups and downs of life with Collette Thomas, Lilli Palmer, Kay Kendall, and Rachel Roberts. Many readers will be interested in his stories about Julie Andrews, Greta Garbo, Greer Garson, Audrey Hepburn, Vivien Leigh, Richard Burton, and Laurence Olivier.

Lester Davis has written two previous books on the Kennedys: Ethel, The Story of Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy and Ted Kennedy: Triumphs and Tragedies. Now he has added Joan: The Reluctant Kennedy which is a biography of Senator Edward Kennedy's wife. The author thinks Joan may be the nation's next First Lady and that many people are interested in reading about her life - past and present.

Elizabeth: The Life and Career of Elizabeth Taylor by Dick Sheppard is a candid biography of Miss Taylor's personal and professional life.

APCI Offers Academic And Vocational Training Program For Men

Avon Park Correctional Institution's academic program has two goals (1) to help the individual inmate to advance as far as he can so he may have a chance to make a living, (2) to help him in the social field of society (help him live peacefully).

Inmates enrolled in the academic program have most of the same educational opportunities as students in the public school systems. Inmates advance at their own rate.

A.P.C.I. programs are from grades 0 to 12, which leads up to the G.E.D. test and a diploma.

After he acquires a diploma the student may take the programs given at A.P.C.I. by South Florida Junior College.

By attending the courses offered by South Florida Junior College a student may receive his Associate of Arts Degree.

Every inmate that comes to A.P.C.I. is counseled by John Walker or H. G. Dalton on the courses available for him to take. But it is the inmates decision whether he wants to further his education.

Vocational Training

On-The-Job Training (O.J.T.) has been in effect longer than any other program at A.P.C.I. (started in early 1960's).

All students receive 16 hours a month classroom training and 144 hours of O.J.T. 160 hours a month total training. It takes 6 to 8 months to complete a course and they train approximately 70 men each period.

O.J.T. offers courses in cooking, baking, meat cutting, fire fighting, plumbing, small motors service and repair, painting and laundry and dry cleaning.

The O.J.T. instructors have a total of over 100 years experience in the different trade areas. The Vocational Coordinator for this program is J. J. Casey.

Their over all goal is to teach the inmate a usable skill so that he might in time earn a fair wage and decent living for himself and family.

Maybe we can all learn something from the O.J.T. creed: "Give a man a fish, and you can feed him for a day. Teach a man to fish and you feed him for life."

Laundry and dry cleaning class under the supervision of S. C. Heckard.

V.F.W. To Hold Three Fish Fry

The first of three Fish Fry Saturdays will be held at Donaldson's Park on March 8, from 11 a.m. till 7 p.m. The goodies will include the choice of catfish or mullet, cole slaw, baked beans, a roll and iced tea all for $2.

The decision to hold this picnic, with two more to follow in the months of April and May, was reached February twentieth, when after their regular meetings, the Avon Park, Post 7672, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Ladies Auxiliary combined to form a joint meeting.

At this meeting, it was pointed out that our last three endeavors, though sucessful, came short of supporting our Service Fund. This fund is designed to help all veterans whether in dire need or the simple informations on veterans Benefits. It is supported by Buddy Poppy sales, raffles and other functions such as the fish fries.

The cost of operating the post must not come from these activities but from dues and concessions within the post home.

The hours have been changed from our last picnic with the hope of serving more people, especially those who couldn't make the earlier hours.

Not mentioned above is the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home at Eaton Rapids, for the children of our departed comrades.

Also we want to remind qualified war veterans to check and see what the V.F.W. has to offer by calling Avon Park, 453-5779.

Bush, Artist Of Month, Pictures On Display

Mrs. Maurice (Margaret) Bush has been chosen as artist of the month by the Avon Park Library. Her paintings will be on display at the library for the month of March.

Mrs. Bush was born in West Virginia and lived there until seven years ago when she and her husband moved to Avon Park after his retirement from Union Carbide in So. Charleston.

Margaret first started painting in 1955 but only for a few years. She gave most of her paintings to family and friends.

She began working again three or four years ago and tries to paint a few pictures a month (as much as a busy schedule allows).

Mrs. Bush has had no formal training but she did take a class last year at South Florida Junior College under the supervision of Carol Thieme.

Mrs. Bush stated that her husband is her best critic and encourages her to paint more. She also stated that painting relaxes her and makes time pass by quickly.

Don't forget to stop by the Avon Park Library this month and view Margaret's paintings, we are sure you'll be glad you did.

Question: What is the third heaven which Paul mentions in 2 Corinthians 12:2?

Answer: This scripture makes it clear that the third heaven is the abode of God. In vision Paul was caught up to the third heaven; and giving further explanation of the vision, Paul declares in the fourth verse that he was caught up into the paradise of God. Other scriptures confirm the fact that the third heaven is the dwelling place of God.

Since Paul speaks of the third heaven, it follows logically, that there must also be a first and second heaven. The first heaven is the firmament or the atmospheric heaven. In genisis 1:8, it is stated, that God called the firmament heaven. The second heaven is the stellar heaven where the stars exist.

Before Christ ascended into heaven, he assured his disciples that he would go and prepare a place for them. Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also; John 14:1-3.

The saints of all ages have cherished the hope of being with God in heaven. And now they desire a better country, that is, and heavenly; wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city; Hebrews 11:16. The heaven which awaits the people of God, is wonderful beyond man's imgination. Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of Man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him; 1 Corinthians 2:9. The wonders of heaven are described by John the Revelator. I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away; Revelation 21:4,5.

Queen Of The Dark Chamber To Be Shown At Presbyterian Church

"Queen of the Dark Chamber", a film about a remarkable member of the Royal Manchu dynasty of China, will be shown Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church. The film is based on the book, "Queen of the Dark Chamber." The book has gone through thirty four printings and has been translated into sixteen languages.

The queen of the dark chamber is Christinia Tsai. Her family home was in Hangchow, near the coast of Central China. Here the Tsai family had lived for generations. Hangchow is one of the beauty spots of China, famed for its flowering hills, historic temples, storied pagodas, and the swift flowing Chientang river.

Into the Tsai home came missionaries, who with musical instruments, songs, and spoken word presented Christ. Becoming a follower of Christ, Christinia Tsai gave valuable assistance several years to the perfecting of a new phonetic language in Chinese by which the common people could readily learn to read. From this breakthrough, she and Miss Mary Leaman produced the Chinese Phonetic Bible.

Christinia Tsai has been an invalid in a darkened room for forty four years due to a malignant malaria of the bone marrow. She has not despaired by reason of this physical handicap. Into her room at Paradise, Pennsylvania has come a stream of Chinese Air Force trainees from Aberdeen, Maryland. Seaman from the Philadelphia seaport have been bussed to her room. Here she witnesses day in and day out to Jesus Christ.

In the book "Queen of the Dark Chamber" there is a reference to Miss Mable Lee, who served as a missionary in China until 1925. Miss Lee lived the last ten years of her life at 130 E. Circle St., Avon Park, in the house that is now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ward.

The public has a cordial invitation to the showing of this missionary film, "Queen of the Dark Chamber". Originally available only in the Chinese language, it is now available in English.

Methodist Men Have Sweetheart Dinner

The annual sweetheart dinner of the United Methodist Men's Club was held Tuesday Feb. 25 at 6:30 p.m. in Wesley Fellowship Hall of the church.

There were about 110 sweethearts attending and enjoying a delicious dinner prepared and served under the direction of Mrs. T. H. Maxwell and Mrs. Edgar Smoot. The members of the United Methodist Women assisted. A festive air was attained with red hearts decorating the walls and red roses in bud vases with fern setting on the white tablecloths.

Each lady was presented with a rose corsage to harmonize with the color of their dress as they arrived.

Lawrence Robinson, president of the Methodist Men's Club, was the emcee for the evening. Rev. Ben Williamston had the invocation.

Following the dinner, Mr. Robinson introduced the prospective "Sweet Adelines" of Highlands County; all dressed in cheery red long gowns for this happy occasion.

Mrs. Evelyn Jones, Director, introduced Mrs. Shirley Gossick, business chairman, and the group of singers. Many songs of the yesteryears were sung by them as well as some group singing by the guests. Mrs. Linda Taylor played her guitar and sang folk songs to us, encouraging everyone to join her and clap their hands in time. Another specialty by Mrs. Daisy Wollang who used the "Bones" to add an extra dimension of "Beats" and rhythm to the singing, put everyone in a gay mood. An invitation was extended to anyone that might be interested to come join The Sweet Adelines for practice every Thursday evening at the First United Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m.

Devil Baseball Team Plays Frostproof Friday

The Red Devil varsity baseball team evened out at a 2-2 record with a win and a loss last week. On Tuesday the Devils handed Fort Meade a 5-3 loss on the Miners home field but lost to North Fort Myers down there last Saturday afternoon by a score of 3-0.

Last Tuesday night the Devils were scheduled to take on the same North Fort Myers team here at Head Field. Then tomorrow night (Friday) the Devils will go up to Frostproof for a game with the Bulldogs. Saturday afternoon Avon Park's nine will play Pahokee down there in a 1:00 p.m. game. Next Tuesday they will go to Okeechobee for a 4:00 p.m. game with the Brahmans.

Ft. Meade Game

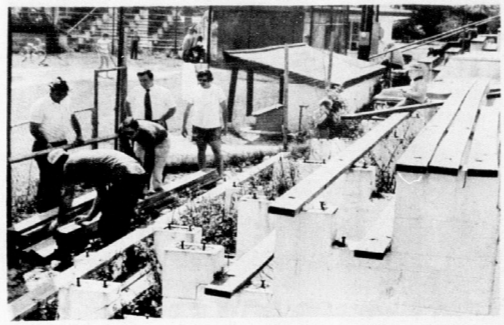

Jerry Robinson pitched the Devil varsity to a 5-3 win over Ft. Meade last week. The junior righthander gave up four singles during his seven innings on the mound striking out seven batters and walking only two Miners.

The Red Devils scored their five runs on six hits. Getting singles for the Devils were Brad Beumel, Jimmy Douberley, Mike Pool, Smokey Hill, Jim Johnson, and Charlie Pugh. Reggie Baker scored two runs for Avon Park and Jerry Robinson, Jimmy Douberley, and Jim Johnson scored one each. The Devils scored one run in the second frame to tie the game up and then went ahead with four runs in the top of the third inning. Ft. Meade managed two more runs in the last of the third frame and then the scoring stopped.

North Ft. Myers Game

The Avon Park batters could manage only one hit off North Fort Myers pitcher Dickens last Saturday as the Raiders took the 3-0 win from the Devils. Dickens struck out 11 Red Devil batters during his seven innings of hurling. Smokey Hill got the only hit for Avon Park — a single in the second inning.

Timmy Massey pitched the first two innings for Avon Park allowing one run and three hits. Jamie Tomlinson came on to start the third inning and finished out the last four frames. Tomlinson gave up two runs and two hits to the Raiders. The Devils committed four errors while North Fort Myers made only one miscue.

LAST SATURDAY WAS a triple duty day for little leaguers at the ball park. It was a work day for some of their fathers in repairing and cleaning up the stands. Other parents registered little leaguers as they came. But some little leaguers had the best deal with a pickup ball game. On the working crew are (left to right): Wes Odum, Little League Safety Advisor; Billy Hodges, Coach I. H. Ford team; Joe Johnson, Coach Minor League; Henry Dennis, President of Little League; Johnny Elder, Coach Senior League. Watching are Johnny Elder's son with J. B. Odum seated near the top. Minor League Baseball Season Starts March 15

The 1975 Minor League baseball season will get underway on Saturday, Mar. 15. There are four games scheduled for the afternoon after a parade of the teams and coaches which will start from Donaldson Park at 1:30 p.m.

There will be a meeting tonight (Thursday, Mar. 6) at 7:30 p.m. at the Avon Elementary Cafetorium for parents and registered youth. At this meeting each player will be notified of team assignment and will be given a schedule of the six games for each of the twelve teams.

Over 95 youth have already registered to participate in the minor league training season for Avon Park Little League Baseball. Registration for players was held last Saturday, Mar. 1, from nine until two o'clock at the Little League Field. Registration remained open through Wednesday of this week.

The minor league season will start Mar. 15 and end on Mar. 28 with games each weeknight except Wednesday. There will be four games each evening starting at six and seven-thirty at the Little League and Softball fields on N. Anoka Ave.

The twelve minor league teams will be sponsored this year by: Avon Auto Parts, Border's Service Station, One Hour Cleaners, Highlands Building Supply, Wells Motor Company, Youngs Gulf Service, First Federal of Highlands County, Winn Dixie Food Store, Bill Owens Ford, Borden Dairy Products, Barnett Bank at Sebring, and Maryland Fried Chicken.

Avon Park Little League president Henry Dennis asks that any parent interested in coaching a minor league team this year be at the meeting tonight to sign up and be ready to start practice for the Mar. 15 opening games.

The players and coaches will meet at Donaldson Park at 1:00 p.m. on Mar. 15 to get shirts and caps and to have team pictures made before the parade starts at 1:30 o'clock. The first game that afternoon is set for 3:00 p.m.

The Little League games also need umpires, anyone interested call Jim Wisdom at Cable TV or Wes Odum and Highlands Builders.

Champs Send Bums On Bad Volleyball Trip

"We've had a lot more practice," Player-Coach Bob Germaine said in commenting on the lopsided victory the Avon Park Recreation Champs scored in a volleyball series with the Courthouse Bums.

The Champs trounced the Bums 21-1 and 21-6 in a two-out-of-three series held Monday night at the Old Armory in Avon Park.

Power base for the Champs is from the Avon Park Church of the Nazarene team which won the city church league volleyball championship.

After winning in the church league the Nazarene team was expanded to include other players and the unit continued its winning ways, right into the Avon Park city championship.

Germaine's colleagues at the courthouse — where Germaine is a deputy in the courts division of the Clerk of the Circuit Court office — "just couldn't believe we are so good," the coach explains.

Leading player on the defeated Bums was Germaine's immediate superior, Buddy McKenzie, chief of the courts division. Coach for the Bums is Jerry Lipscomb.

A return bout is being planned, but the date has not been selected.

Red Cinderettes Travel To Wauchula

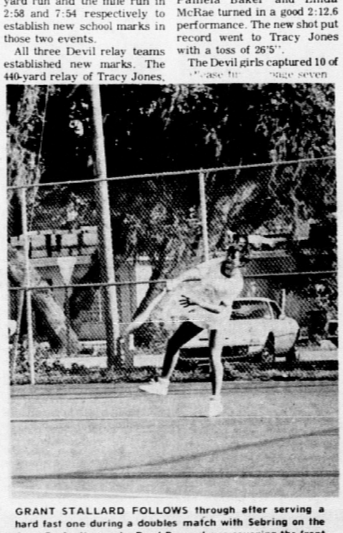

The Red Devil cinderette track squad opened its season last week with a convincing victory over Auburndale with a 68½ to 44½ score. The lady tracksters set eight new school records as they sped to the win over the Polk County school team.

The Devilettes were scheduled to run against Lakeland Santa Fe in Lakeland yesterday (Wednesday) and will compete against the Hardee High Girls team tomorrow (Friday) starting at 6:00 o'clock. The Avon Park boys track team will open its 1975 season in Wauchula tomorrow in the dual boy-girl meet against Hardee High.

Maxine Tate and Sherri Collier captured the 880-yard run and the mile run in 2:58 and 7:54 respectively to establish new school marks in those two events.

Panthers Split Doubleheader With St. Johns River C C

South Florida Junior College played a lackadasical ball game, losing to St. Johns River Community College in the first game of a doubleheader last Thursday at Head Field. Mark Jackson was the starting pitcher and allowed but two hits in the five innings. He worked only to find himself behind 5-2 before giving way to reliever, Mike McFall.

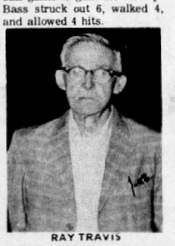

Five Panthers errors contributed to the 9 runs that St. Johns eventually scored. A lost ball in the sun, a passed ball, an error followed by a base hit, 2 walks, and a fielder's choice led to the 5 run uprising in the 6th by St. Johns to put the game out of reach.

The Panthers scored their only runs in the 3rd on a base hit by David Lind, a walk to Kim Prevatt, and an error by St. Johns third baseman.

Glenn Bass pitched a 4-hitter in the second game to give the Panthers a split of the doubleheader. All 4 hits came in the first inning and Bass shut St. Johns out without another hit during the game.

St. Johns lead-off batter singled to left and was erased trying to steal second with a good throw from Buddy DeWitt. The next batter hit a home run for St. Johns only run of the game. This was followed by singles by the next two hitters.

The rally ended, however, when the Panthers turned in a double play from Lamons to Miller to Jackson. Fortunately the defense backed up Glenn's pitching the remainder of the ball game to gain the victory. Bass struck out 6, walked 4, and allowed 4 hits.

RAY TRAVIS

Ray Travis was born in Chicago, Ill. and at an early age moved to Buchann, Mich., where his parents engaged in farming.

On Apr. 19, 1952, he and Margaret Ballman were married and moved to Mendon, Mich. where Ray worked for the Haas Corp. Ray retired from the Haas Corp. at age 65 and was rehired the following day and continued working until he was 72.

Ray's hobbies are gardening, raising flowers, and fishing but his biggest fish was only a two pounder. Ray was hondered on his 88th birthday along with other birthday celebraters by the Lake Bonnet Village residents.

The Travises have been coming to Lake Bonnet Village since 1968.

Offinsively, Mike Miller doubled to lead off the Panthers in the first inning, went to 3rd on a ground ball by McCarter, and scored on Ambrogi's sacrifice fly to left field. The Panthers scored again in the 5th when Mark Jackson walked and went to 2nd on a passed ball and David Lamons singled him home. South Florida came right back in the 6th and scored on a base hit by McCarter. A hit and run moved him to 2nd and he scored when the shortstop errored on Robert Webb's ground ball.

The Panthers next home game will be on Monday, March 10, when they meet Brevard Community College for a doubleheader. The first game begins at 4 p.m.

Winners Of Chamber Awards

place to live.

The entertainment show stopper was the Abbott and Costello baseball routine by David DeLaney and Tom Lawrence. When it was over, who could be sure that "who" was on first, "what" was on second or "I don't know" on third?

A number of other awards were presented to members of the group — some were humerous, some did a little ribbing and some were complimentary. And as had been expressed earlier it was an evening of good fun and good fellowship with good friends.

WINNERS OF THE Avon Park Chamber of Commerce top awards pause with the banquet committee. Receiving the outstanding civic organization award were Keith Debo and Ralph Fullmer (left) for the Avon Park Grange No. 203 in appreciation for making Avon Park a prettier place to live. Evelyn Jones received the outstanding citizen award for her work with all ages. Morris Adams III served as Master of Ceremonies assisted by Eddie DeLaney. Photo—Miller.

MIKE PHILLIPS — THERON JONES — AL SHORT

SFJC Presents The Panthers

Mike Phillips has been added to the South Florida Junior College baseball roster for the spring season.

Mike, a 6'0", 165 lb., lefthander, pitched for three years at Streetsboro High School, Streetsboro, Ohio, where he compiled an impressive 27-6 won-loss record. Mike made the varsity team as a starting pitcher his freshman year. He was named to the Ohio All-County team all three years and was awarded MVP honors for two years.

Mike moved to Tampa and compiled a 4-2 won-loss record with a 0.75 ERA for King High School his senior year. His high school pitching career includes four no-hitters and one perfect game. He also participated in basketball and football in high school and was editor of his school newspaper as well as being an active member on the Student Council.

After college, Mike hopes to play professional baseball and eventually go into business for himself.

Theron Jones of Lake Placid is only one of three sophomores that appear on the SFJC spring baseball roster. Theron played at South Florida Junior College last year as a catcher-outfielder and again will be utilized as catcher-outfielder. At 6'0", 175 lbs., he is a switch-hitter with plenty of speed.

Theron plans to eventually obtain a Ph D. in Sociology.

The Panthers will meet Brevard Community College in a double header on Monday, March 10, at Head Field in Avon Park. The first game begins at 4 p.m. and everyone is invited to come out and watch the Panthers. There is no admission charge.

Admission Day

March 6 is the last day to apply for admission to the University of South Florida for the spring term (Quarter III) which begins March 31.

The term will run through June 13. Registration will be March 27-28.

Al Short begins his second semester at South Florida Junior College and is looking forward to pitching the Panthers to a winning season.

Al, 6'3", 200 lb. Freshman righthander, has all the requirements to become a professional baseball pitcher, which is his eventual objective. Al pitched for Falls Church High School in Virginia for three years where he achieved "All-District" acclaim. He blossomed into a professional prospect over the summer while leading his Legion Team, Falls Church Post No. 130, to the State Championship with 10 wins against no losses. He picked up two more tournament wins when his team finished 3rd place on the East Coast.

Al is interested in a forestry career and playing professional baseball.

Calvin's Column

By Calvin Gibbs

Hi Friends,

This article commences what I hope will afford an opportunity for you to share more abundantly in current local news and developments as they happen.

I invite you to make yourself a tangible part of my column by submitting to me whatever you consider worthy of print each week.

If writing is inconvenient, you may call me at 453-4900. You may also include photographs or call on me to cover photography of events of interest or importance.

I would appreciate your submitting to me, articles to be published each week by Sunday noon, prior to the Wednesady circulation. This will enhance my editing and making your article ready for the press.

News pertaining to religious, civic or social events is especially encouraged to capatalize at this opportunity.

I will delight in publishing announcements of marriages, births, anniversaries, visitations, achievements, opinions and even deaths. Remember, if it happens, it's worth reporting.

Church News:

Regular services will be held at the Apostolic Church of Jesus, this Sunday. Sister Ernestine Dudley and Sister Wanda Wilson wish to express their appreciation to the entire community for making their concert which featured Sister Beauta M. Brown, Sister Catherine Moore and Sister Ernestine Dudley a success. Elder Thomas J. Brown is the minister, and he welcomes you to fellowship with him whenever possible.

Beulah, Mount Olive, Mount Zion, Saint Mark, Saint John and other local churches will be in regular services also. Each minister welcomes you and urges you to attend the church of your choice for worship.

Hospital:

At press time, those included among hospital patients are Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mr. Sam Flemming.

Mrs. Mary Baldwin is recuperating satisfactorily at home.

Necrology:

Funeral services for the late Deacon Joseph Lyons were held Wednesday March 5 at Saint Mark Baptist Church at 4 p.m. Deacon Lyons was a well known citizen of this community for many years. He was an employe of the Well's Motor Company until retirement a few years ago.

The Hinson-Watson family wishes to express a sincere gratitude to the innumerable people who sent condolences, flowers and many other courtesies during the recent bereavement of their loved one, the late sister Lena Hinson.

Civic:

Mrs. Helen Britt, and Calvin Gibbs (co-chairman), extend special recognition to Mrs. Lois Moss Catlin for the role which she played in making our Red Cross Drive a success.

Lonnie Hewings (local funeral director) has expressed an interest in reactivating the civic organization for which Mrs. Queen E. Coward and others have worked so dilligently for years. Please check your local paper for an announcement of a meeting for this purpose at an early date.

Citizens of the Week:

This honor goes to Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Williams on Green Street, for the upkeep of their home and surroundings which help to make our community beautiful.

Social:

The owner and manager, Robert Wilson, of the newly rennovated Beach Front, invites you to a free-for-all fish fry next Wednesday night, March 12 at 8:30 p.m. He also announces a coming attraction, featuring the musical group, "Train Robbers" next Saturday night March 8. He appreciates your patronage and wishes you a pleasant evening. Other local businesses are also launching a special effort to accommodate you.

English lesson for the Week:
Wrong: I laid in bed until 9 a.m.
Right: I lay in bed until 9 a.m.
Explanation: The past tense of "lie" (rest or recline) is "lay."

Humor of the Week:

Dogs worry about infleation, while people worry about inflation.

Question of the Week:

Presented the question, "What do you think of the local school system?"

Alphonso Williams (10th grader): "Except a few, we have good teachers, and facilities and a lot of room for improvement of student conduct.

Ernest E. Sims: (Retired Principal)

"I think the educational system in this county is very good and especially in Avon Park. We have dynamic leadership and excellent teachers to implement an aggressive school program."

Mrs. Johnnie Jackson: (Vice Chairman of Lay Advisory Committee)

"I think our school system is good and with the help of all, we can surely make it better."

Observations or Comments:

Let us resolve that each day of our life, we shall live for the betterment of all mankind, although sometimes this is so hard to remember or maybe, so easy to forget.

Thanks to the Avon Park Sun for making this publication possible.

Best wishes for your continuing health, prosperity and happiness.

Yours truly,

A MAN WHO IS NOT ALONE

Prayer has always been a mystery. But through the centuries millions have turned to it, believed in it, and been strengthened by it.

Prayer doesn't solve our problems . . . . it helps us find right solutions. It doesn't make trouble go away . . . it gives us courage to face our trials. Prayer is never a "safe conduct" through the lines of danger . . . it simply gives a man the bold assurance that he is not alone in his crucial hour.

You don't have to go to church in order to pray. You do have to want to be with God.

Worship and Christian education have long been the mainstays of continuous communication with God. Families who build their home and happiness on a spiritual foundation find Sundays in church the natural expression of their faith and fervor.

A man who cherishes the bold assurance that he is not alone makes being with God a way of life—not a last resort.

Highlands Hammock Will Not Be A Tree Nursery

Highlands Hammock will not be a tree nursery after all.

The Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Service has given up any plans it might have had to relocate its Herren Nursery in Highlands Hammock State Park.

Bill Helms, of the Division of Forestry, told county commissioners Tuesday that his organization must move the nursery from Punta Gorda because too much salt has crept into wells used to water the plants.

Helms said he is looking for about 25 acres in Highlands County on which to grow about one million trees, most of which will be of the eucalyptus variety.

All trees grown are kept in pots inside of buildings, he said.

The nursery has an annual budget of $180,000 per year. In addition, State Legislature provided $164,000 to relocate the nursery from Punta Gorda.

Helms said he plans to seek space for the Herren Nursery at Sebring Airport, but is discouraged because he has heard that the airport authority is unwilling to grant a 20-year lease.

He could not justify spending allotted relocation funds, Helm said, unless he had assurances that he could remain in one spot for a reasonable period of time.

The Division of Forestry has been offered land at the Avon Park Bombing Range, Helms reported. However, permission to construct a road to the site has been denied, thus making the parcel unattractive as a nursery.

Helms told commissioners that he was sorry his division had received so much unfavorable publicity over its attempts to move into Hammock State Park.

"We didn't realize the park was that unique," he admitted.

Helms also acknowledged that newspaper accounts of his division's having killed 168,000 trees was essentially correct. However, the trees were only one inch tall, he said. Furthermore, death to the trees came about because of their having been sprayed with salt water, not pesticides.

Commissioners invited Helms to return if he feels they can assist him in acquiring another site for the nursery in the county.

In other actions, Commissioners:

— Asked administrator Charles Cullens to invite representatives of Florida Gas Company to attend their landfill committee meeting on March 18, to describe the Orlando City garbage and trash disposal (incinerator) program.

— Instructed the county engineer not to accept trees at the county landfill unless they have been cut into lengths six feet long or less.

— Approved issuance of a variance to county subdivision regulations to permit W. J. Bristol to sell five lots in his Lake Francis tract which is presently zoned for use as a mobile home park.

— Authorized county engineer Gordon Hays Jr. to advertise for bids for a motorized grader, a materials trailer, five dump trucks and five pickup trucks.

— Heard administrator Charles Cullens report that by the end of this month the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission will send its survey team to determine the alligator population in Lake Jackson, Little Lake Jackson and Dinner Lake.

— Offered no objection to issuance of a beer and wine sales license to Laubi, Inc., for Sebrino's Italian Restaurant, Spring Lake Shopping Center.

— Heard Sidney Faust, Lake Sebring resident, recommend that more "no dumping" signs be erected in the county and that all trucks carrying trash in the county be required to be covered with a tarpaulin.

— Agreed to post a sign on Bombing Range Road instructing motorists to "reduce speed ahead-substandard bridge" and to limit speed on the wood bridge to 25 miles per hour.

The Young Highlanders, under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Jones gave a wonderful concert at the hall Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Burgeson of Jamestown, New York and North Palm Beach, Florida, were guests of Bonnie Burgeson last week. On Thursday evening he entertained at the Winter Guest Club with pictures and a travelogue under the title "North With Spring," which covered many intersting places from Key West to Niagara Falls at the Canadian border. The flower pictures and scenic views were very beautiful.

It is good to see Rowley and Eola Ghaster back in the Park. They recently arrived from their Ohio home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young of Bradenton were Sunday callers at the Floyd Stevens home.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe VanPelt Wednesday and Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hartzell from Canton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Dager had their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams of Tiffin, Ohio as guests last week. On Tuesday they drove to Ft. Lauderdale to visit Mr. Williams nephew and family and on Wednesday to Ft. Myers to call on his Uncle and Aunt. They left for Home Sunday AM.

Mr. and Mrs. Mansel Baker called on the Boyd Dagers on Monday morning. They are friends from El Dorado, Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garab of Lake Wales and Rolling Prairie, Indiana, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rice of Rolling Prairie called on Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolcott Tuesday.

Consumer Services Orders Gas Miser Claims Stopped

A company marketing a gas saver kit has been ordered by the Division of Consumer Services to discontinue advertising a 15 per cent increase in gasoline mileage because data fails to support the claim.

William E. McMahon, assistant director of the Division of Consumer Services, said James M. Bradt of Jacksonville was asked to submit data in support of his claims for a 15 per cent minimum mileage increase as a result of installing the "Gas Miser" kit which he markets.

"According to our Division of Standards report, claims of a 15 per cent mileage increase through the use of this kit cannot be supported by the information furnished," he pointed out. "In the opinion of our analysts, these claims could only be proven by fleet testing under controlled conditions."

McMahon said the data submitted by Bradt pertained to only one of the three units in the kit which includes a "Mini Fuel-Jector Gas Saver," a "Capacitive Discharge Ignition System" and an "MBI Hydro-Catalyst."

"What we received from Mr. Bradt contained nothing related to the Mini Fuel-Jector Gas Saver or the Capacitive Discharge Ignition System," McMahon said. "Further, the data purportedly supporting claims for the MBI Hydro-Catalyst were inconclusive due to the lack of controls over the test procedure and the fact that only one automobile was tested."

"Our warning to car owners to be very, very leery of gadgets like this claiming fabulous increases in efficiency bears repeating, especially in these days of high gasoline prices," he concluded. "Unfortunately, the claims are not only usually fraudulent, they may even reduce gasoline mileage and cost the consumer his money, besides."

Congressman Lou Frey

Calls For Financial Disclosure By Congress

Rep. Lou Frey, R-Fla., called for full financial disclosure by Members of the House of Representatives, the Senate and certain congressional employees.

"While I resent being subjected to the rules of this bill—rules which other citizens are not required to follow—I believe this step is necessary if the people of this country are to regain confidence in the government," the Florida Congressman said.

Frey, one of the first Congressmen to speak out for financial disclosure, stated that after Congress got itself in shape he hoped the provisions would be extended to the Executive Branch.

Frey's bill requires annual reports to be filed with the Comptroller General and made available to the public.

The legislation requires disclosure of the following:

(1) The amount and source of any income, reimbursement and gift from one source received by a Member or spouse that exceeds $100 in value;

(2) The value of any asset or liability that exceeds $5000; and

(3) Any business transaction if the aggregate amount of the transaction exceeds $5000.

"As I have said before, the provisions of my bill are alien to my own beliefs, but I believe it will take this drastic a step to restore the public's trust in elected and appointed officials," Frey said.

Frey's bill was referred to the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct.

Board Gathers Facts

Highlands County School Board members have taken to the road like gypsies of late, visiting various school sites about the state. In fact, one might call it "site-seeing."

The board has been gathering facts and knowledge to help it decide which of many architects will design the proposed new Lake Placid High School.

Last Thursday board members visited Garden Elementary School in Venice, Bayonet Point Junior High, Hudson High and Northwest Elementary in Hidden Lake. All facilities of that inspection tour are the products of architect Eoghan Kelley of Sanford.

The first tour, on Feb. 25, was to visit the works of architect. A. Ernest Straughn of Lakeland. This Tuesday the board was taken to inspect the inspirations of Paras Associates of Tampa.

Other architects who made presentations at a meeting Feb. 18 were Charles McAlpine of Ft. Lauderdale, Charles Parsons of Kissimmee and Wayne Heasley, Watson and Company of Orlando.

Making the journeys abroad were board members Jack Wirick Jr., G. Franklyn Ward, Mrs. Ruth Davis, Bill Gene Smith and Steve Roberts Jr., and assistant superintendent Ferrell Smith.

A special meeting of the board has been called for this morning at 10:30 to discuss the findings of the members' travels.

Yesterday's Ft Myers Celebrates Birthday

With Fort Myers wearing 125 bright candles on its birthday cake in 1975, it is very fitting to publish Yesterday's Fort Myers, a nostalgic pictorial history of this tropical paradise on the Gulf of Mexico. It is published as the latest addition to the Historic Cities Series of E. A. Seemann Publishing, Inc., of Miami, Florida.

Fort Myers was built on the banks of the Caloosahatchee River on the same strategic site where the United States Army twice erected military forts. Before this, the Seminole Indians had their villages in the area; before them, the now-extinct Caloosas lived there in mound villages. The history of this choice spot, a favorite today and yesterday because of its enticing climate, its Gulf beaches, and the beautiful navigable river, is told with loving but clear-eyed affection by two authors who gained access to a "gold mine" of photographs heretofore almost entirely unpublished. With the generous offer of these and the help of many interested people, this factual and entirely charming work, Yesterday's Fort Myers, is now available.

Marian Bailey Godown has a thorough background in newspaper, publicity, and feature writing in the East and currently writes a column about southwest Florida for the Fort Myers News-Press. Alberta Colcord Rawchuck is an editor for the Southwest Florida Historical Society who has much personal knowledge of the area.

Smokey Says:

Fishermen—watch your smokes!

The older you get, the better they look.

You ought to get more than a birthday cake for turning 65. And there's an easy way to make sure you do.

The Payroll Savings Plan. All you do is sign your name and watch those U.S. Savings Bonds grow. And they grow fast.

What happens, then, when you're older?

If you buy E Bonds regularly during your working years, you'll likely have a substantial stack built up when retirement comes around. Then, you can either cash them in one by one to supplement your income or exchange them for Series H Bonds to give you a steady income.

Exchanging them, incidentally, permits you to continue deferring income tax on the accumulated interest!

U.S. Savings Bonds. One sure way to grow old gracefully.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (or 6% the first year if cashed before maturity). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

Letters To Lassie

by Rudd Weatherwax, Owner & Trainer

Dear Mr. Weatherwax:

Our dog is really pretty, and I'd like her to have puppies just once. But my mother says there are far too many puppies already, and we have to have her fixed so she can't have any. I'm afraid the operation will hurt her. What do you think?

S.F.R.

Mother really knows best this time! As you read this, puppies and kittens are being born in the United States at the rate of more than 10,000 an hour, nearly a quarter of a million a day. There are just not enough homes for these unwanted baby animals. Humane societies everywhere are faced with the awful job of destroying thousands of them every year.

It is much kinder to have your dog spayed. She will be given an anesthetic to put her to sleep so the operation will not hurt her. Afterwards, she will be happy and healthy, and just as pretty and loveable as ever.

Dear Mr. Weatherwax:

The cost of food is going up so fast, each week it is harder for us to stay within our budget. We want our dog Ralphie to have what is best for him, but even hamburger or stew beef are out of the question. We hardly have any scraps left from our own meals. Will it hurt if we switch him to canned food?

C.A.H.

"No, but remember to look for a complete dog food such as Recipe, the balanced dinner Lassie thrives on. Dogs' dietary requirements are different from those of people, and Recipe brand Balanced Dinners not only taste good to your pet but are nutritionally prepared to meet these special needs. So you can stay within your budget and Ralphie will be just fine.

If you have questions or pet care problems write to: Lassie, c/o Champion Valley Farms, Inc., P. O. Box 391-U, Camden, N.J. 08101.

City Buys Truck Delays Action On Tractor

The purchase of a new truck for the water department was OK-ed by the Avon Park City Council while action on the buying of a tractor with a backhoe and front end loader was tabled at the regular Monday night meeting.

Sealed bids for a half ton pickup truck for the water department were received from: Avon Park Motor Co. (Ford), $3,817.45; I. H. Ford Co. (Chevrolet), $3,769.00 and Wells Motor Co. (Dodge) $3,665.82. It was moved to accept the low bid of Wells Motor Co. for $3,665.82 for the purchase of a new truck.

Sealed bids received on a tractor equipped with a backhoe and a front end loader were opened with the following bids: Crews and Peebles (Case), $12,500; Fields Equipment (John Deere), $12,200; Peace River Ford Ford), $14,884.25 and Revels Ford (Ford), $14,805.

Council President Wendell Williams and Councilmen Robert Britt and Milton Howard felt that Councilmen Larry Albritton and Ed Touchton, Jr., who were attending a pre-legistlative conference in Tallahassee, should be present when action is taken on these bids — thus the matter was tabled.

Other action taken by the three man city council was to place Ordinance No. 583 (amendment of Ordinance 575 on contractor competency) on first reading. The amendment revokes the grandfather clause of the competency ordinance whereby contractors having a valid contractors license before July 22, 1974 could register with the city. Hereafter contractors wishing to register under the competency ordinance will have to go through regular procedures in obtaining their competency registration.

It was moved by the council to pay room and board for Dennis Guenther, recreation director, to attend the annual FRPA workshop conference in Tallahassee.

City Clerk Malcolm Crews was advised that the city would be receiving $277 per month less from the state's revenue sharing fund. A decline in money collected on cigarette and gasoline taxes have forced the reduction to the cities. To

National Guard Causes "Whumps" Last Weekend

If you thought it was thunder, you were wrong. If you thought it was a cannon booming over south central Highlands County, you were right.

The artillery bursts which shattered the Saturday night calm for Avon Park were fired by "invaders" from a Sarasota National Guard unit.

Sounds of the big 155 Howitzers being fired by the west coast Guardsmen combined with a moisture heavy atmosphere and sent citizens scurring — outdoors, to radio and televisions for special announcements and finally — mostly — to the telephone to ask police and sheriff's department, "What's going on?"

Sg. Ben Hitson, who is staff stationed at the National Guard armory between Sebring and Avon Park, pointed out this week, "Maneuvers have been going on at the bombing range just about every weekend for two or three months. This last Saturday was the first time I know of that the sounds have caused comment."

He added that the National Guardsmen from Highlands County will be on maneuvers at the bombing range Saturday morning to Sunday morning, March 15-16.

"I promise, we won't make so much noise this week. We'll be firing the smaller 105 Howitzers."

Capt. Carroll Lloyd of Sebring describes it this way, "We just go bang; those 155's go co-o-o-oLAP!"

Engineers Ready To Add Chlorine To Water System

"The chlorination system is ready and would be put into service in two to four weeks," Tom Kelly of Dawkins and Associates told the Avon Park City Council in their regular Monday night meeting.

When chlorine is added to the city water system the built up debris on the inside of the water lines will be loosened and slough off and have to be flushed from the lines.

City residents will be advised by newspaper and radio when the chlorination will take place so they may save drinking and cooking water for several days in which the bulk of the debris comes off the pipe lines and is flushed from the system. Restaurant operators or other large users of water may want or need to obtain a filter for the water they use.

Kelly also reported that the new well at the airport would be ready to use in 90 or 120 days and would go on line with certification by the state health department.

In his report on the sewer system Kelly stated that construction permits have been obtained from the Dept. of Pollution Control and from the Farmers Home Administration and they are now waiting on a favorable response on the status of the property easements. City Attorney Jack Hancock replied there was some difficulty with the abstract company in correlating easement numbers with parcel numbers. However, all but about a dozen of the easements would be mailed on Tuesday, Mar. 11. Hancock was promised a map of the city showing the current subdivisions, superimposed on the map along with sewer lines.

Several other items were brought up by Kelly in that they had completed soil test reports, both for the plant site and for the pond site. The cost had been estimated at $16,000 but due to the necessity to check two sites the bill ran to $18,694.78. Survey work which was estimated at $1,500 had increased to $1,820.70. He presented a bill of $2600 for their work on easements to the council to take under advisement and it was referred to the City Attorney.

The bill as presented covers all of the sewer project and includes the five pumping stations. All of the soils work is completed with the hydrological investigations concerning soil porosity and normal percolation being finished. It is not anticipated that there will be any additional expense.

The Dept. of Pollution Control did not set aside requirements for a polishing pond and building of a new percolation pond at the present sewerage disposal site and using a force main pumping under the highway to the second location where three terraced ponds are to be built. Therefore survey and soils work has to be completed at the second site.

It was moved to increase the soil survey to $18,694.78 and the site survey to $1820.70

Forget-Me-Not Day March 14

Mayor J. Marshall Davis has proclaimed Friday, March 14, 1975 as Forget-Me-Not Day in Avon Park.

The small blue flowers will be distributed by members of the Disabled American Veterans and their Auxiliary, from Orange Blossom 95.

They explained that all funds raised in the Forget-Me-Not sales will be used to defray costs of transporting disabled veterans from this area to Bay Pines hospital at St. Petersburg.

Accreditation Committee Gathers Data From Avon Park High School Community

"Where have we been" and "where are we going?" were some of the questions that the Avon Park High School faculty has been asking for several months and have accumulated their answers in "Self Study for the Southern Association Committee, 1974-75," a 192 page report for the visiting accreditation committee representing the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

In a buffet dinner meeting at the high school cafeteria the accreditation committee was welcomed by faculty, student welcoming committee, school board officials and invited guests.

After welcoming and introductions by Dr. John Crittenden, Avon Park High School Principal, County Superintendent of Schools, George Douglass stated that the present high school building was the result of recommendations made at the accreditation study ten years ago.

It was pointed out that visiting Committee chairman Mitchell M. "Mitch" Ferguson of Tallahassee had served as principal at Lake Placid High School for four years and at Sebring High for 13 years.

Mitch Ferguson with 47 years experience in the Education field spoke directly to the students present, Kathy Collinsworth, Thomas Brown, Kim Kempton, Julie Filpulla and Sylvia Blake and said, "We need to say a word of appreciation for students, for without them we wouldn't be in business." Turning to the principals present he asked, "How long since they were in a classroom." He was glad to see a Lay Advisory Council in the county because it made communications easier between the various education system groups and parents.

The Southern Association, Ferguson said, is one of the largest regional accrediting bodies in the country with nine states and over 3100 schools members. It requires that each member institution undertake a Self-Study every ten years. In this process, ten study committees, made up of faculty and assisted by students and members of the school board have investigated every aspect of the school's operations, following procedures developed by the Southern Association and other accrediting associations over the last fifteen years. The Self-Study will show how Avon Park is complying with the Standards established by the Southern Association; however, the accreditation process is a by-product of the study, which has as its most important purpose a self-examination by all departments of the high school, which should lead to a strengthening of the Avon Park High School program in all areas.

In speaking of the self-study report and the accreditation committee Mitch asked, "What's best for the youth in this education center?" The report and committee would list both strong and weak areas along with recommendations for improvements. The recommendations were to be specific and reasonable.

In their two day study the committee would try to visit each teacher to see evidence of good teaching and offer suggestions for improvements. Students would have their opportunity to be heard.

Chairman Ferguson also listed things that could prevent a school from becoming accredited or dropped from accreditation, such as: The high school must have a principal with a Masters Degree in Education; teachers have too many pupils, either too many classes or too many in a class; a poor or negative atmosphere in the adult community being reflected in the school education system; the pupil-teacher ratio being out of balance, and teachers being out of their field.

Other questions asked by Ferguson included, "What resources are available in the community to help the student?" And to the faculty, "what do you do to increase

Recreation Ordinance Action Tabled By Council

Final passage, rejection or amendment of the Recreation Ordinance, No. 582 was tabled by the City Council in their regular Monday night meeting because of the absence of Councilmen Larry Albritton and Ed Touchton, Jr., who along with Mayor Marshall Davis were attending the Florida League of Cities pre-legislative conference in Tallahassee.

Since the Mayor and the two Councilmen were not present Council President Wendell Williams suggested that all comments on the recreation ordinance be held until the following regular meeting. Shortly thereafter several opponents and proponents left the council chambers.

Council President Williams called on City Attorney Jack Hancock to report the status of the suit filed against the city by J. M. Starkey. In a hearing that had been set for April 9, Attorney Hancock reported he would move for a summary judgement as there was no significant dispute of the facts as they would hold for the city.

Hancock also reported that Starkey had filed a counter claim for $100,000 damage caused by the city not letting him use the lots at the airport. This Hancock stated would be rather hard for him to prove that kind of damage in view of the fact that all Starkey did was buy the property, therefore, Hancock thought the summary judgement would complete the matter.

In the only other item of old business Council President Williams suggested that those who were going to attend the Ridge League meeting in Arcadia Thursday night should make their reservation along with arrangements to get there.

School Board Takes Hard Look At Insurance Needs

An insurance coverage system that has served the Highlands County School Board since the superintendency of Fred Wild will undergo review.

Two primary reasons for the request were advanced by board member Steve Roberts Jr; a "share the wealth" set-up between participating county insurance agents, and the thought that putting coverage up for bids might enable the board to save money.

Roberts had previously questioned a system which sees Heacock Insurance Co. making the presentation, acquiring the assorted policies, doing the bookkeeping, and splitting half its commission with 14 other agents.

He asked that a committee be appointed to check into the matter before renewal time is due.

Chairman Jack Wirick Jr., a member of the board for many years, told him that in Fred Wild's time the board had "pieces of insurance" from a great number of companies. "We didn't know what we had or what we were doing."

They hit upon the idea of having one agent handle their needs but, rather than offend the others, Heacock agreed to do the honors and share the commission, Wirick explained.

"Agents who are not performing get a portion of the premium while Heacock does all the work," said Roberts. "I think he is being gypped."

Superintendent George Douglass said that when the school board initiated its arrangement, the county liked what it saw and followed suit. He suggested that the board write to agents in the area to see if they were dissatisfied with the set-up and might like to change.

Roberts said he was also interested in the possibility of saving money by opening the insurance to bids.

Douglass replied that he has always watched the money factor carefully and that present coverage is the result of past experiences with the whims and foibles of various policies. He said that with a bid arrangement the insurance might go out of the county, to companies without the benefit of that experience.

"I cannot see any significant savings by putting it up to bid, while on the other hand lack of experience might cost us a bundle."

He questioned the quality of service from out-of-county versus local coverage. "I am happy with the way Heacock has been handling things."

Douglass also cautioned that specifications for bids would have to be drawn up by an insurance person.

"Whether we change or leave it the way it is, the school board should look into it," said Bill Gene Smith, advocating input from the agents involved.

Roberts moved that representatives of the company come before the board to discuss the matter. In answer to Douglass' query of a topic, Roberts replied, "Give them our policies and ask them if they'd bid on them."

Douglass noted that many counties in the state have open bidding on insurance and some can't get any bids because no one company can handle the coverage.

Mrs. Ruth Davis suggested contacting the Florida School Board Association for data.

It was agreed to follow Mrs. Davis idea and also to write, asking county insurance agents to visit with the board to talk insurance. Named to the committee were Roberts, Smith, Davis and Robert Stowell.

In other business of the meeting, members approved negotiating with architect Owen Kelly to design the proposed new Lake Placid High School. Kelly was chosen over a number of other architects whose work the board had viewed in various Florida cities.

Between The Bookends

By Mrs. R. D. Moore, Librarian

Margaret Summerton was born in Birmingham, England, and has been a news reporter for a London newspaper and a member of the staff of a women's magazine. At the end of World War II she left the field of journalism to devote full time to writing mysteries and romantic suspense novels. The Saffron Summer is her latest novel and the story deals with a young woman living in France who knows nothing of her real identity. Her mother suddenly dies and she goes to Saffron - her father's majestic family estate in the south of England. No one warns her, however, that she is being enticed into a trap many years in the making — one deviously designed to shift family alliances. Greed, hate, and love provide the motives for the disturbing events she finds at Saffron.

Police Log

By GENE HANCOCK

Ronnie and Rickey Jackson

Officer Frank Weems, received a tip from a confidential informant early Sunday morning that two local men identified as Ronnie Jackson, age 18, and Ricky Jackson, age 19, had in their possession a vegetable substance believed to be marijuana. After spotting the vehicle they were supposed to be driving, it was stopped, taken to the Police station and later searched. Found in the vehicle was approximately one pound of marijuana wrapped in nine individual plastic bags, and other marijuana paraphernalia. The subjects were placed under arrest for possession of the illegal substance and transported to the Highlands County jail in Sebring.

Alfred Williams

A jury for the circuit court Monday found Avon Park resident, Alfred Williams, age 22, of 911 S. Verona Ave., guilty of the Thanksgiving Day robbery of Money's Grocery store, located on E. 4th St. In the preliminary investigation by police the cashier told of two black males entering the store with stockings pulled over their faces. While he, the cashier, was grabbed and held by one of the men, the other opened the cash register and took money from it. The subjects fled but Williams was later arrested at his residence. Williams is not under pre-sentence investigation. A juvenile also involved in the robbery will stand trial next Monday, Mar. 17.

Minor Leaguers To Parade Saturday

Little League, Senior League, Minor League, Big League. With the baseball season starting Mar. 15, "Which Is What?" Henry Dennis, President of the Little League Association gave the following discriptions of each.

Minor Leagues

The Minor League baseball season starting Saturday, Mar. 15 begins with the taking of team pictures at 1:00 p.m. and a parade down Main Street at 1:30 p.m. There will be four games at the Little League field with the first starting at 3:00 p.m. between First Federal of Highlands County and Winn Dixie Food Store.

Minor League players are the youngest group of ball players and must be eight years old before Aug. 1, 1975 and cannot be 13 years old before Aug. 1, 1975. Normally this includes the second to sixth grades.

The 12 teams, each with 12 players are scheduled to play 11 games with the idea that each team member gets a chance to play in the games. The Minor Leagues are the tryout teams for the Little League draft. Minor Leaguers have to play a year or until picked for a Little League team.

Pitchers in the Minor Leagues cannot be over 11 years old because older pitchers throw too fast for the younger players.

Little Leagues

The age limits for Little Leaguers are 9 to 12, with the same birth dates applicable and includes the third to sixth grades. This is an eight team league with 12 players each. Little League players can play in the Minor League games but cannot be drafted.

Teams receive 10,000 points for drafting or securing players from the Minor Leagues when they do not have enough players on their team roster. These points can accumulate from year to year. Avon Park's Little League teams use the auction system to obtain team players.

Senior League

The next group is the Senior League for 13 to 15 year old players with the same birth date regulation of Aug. 1 applying.

This league has four teams and plays on the regulation size ball diamond. Players are selected on a try out basis. Last year's Senior League All-stars were district four champions.

Big League

The Big League is for 16 to 18 year ball players. This league has only one team and is referred to as the traveling team — playing teams from other cities in the district. These players are chosen by tryout.

Each team in all leagues has a volunteer manager and a coach with other volunteer helpers.

Since a boy while chasing a foul ball, was injured by a car last year; 15 mile per hour signs will be placed on W. LaGrande and N. Anoka Streets during practice and games. A boy will be designated to recover these out of park balls. According to Police Chief Grady Campbell these signs will be enforced during practice sessions and games.

City Council Action

date there has been an almost $10,000 cut in revenue sharing funds for Avon Park.

With the city staying in the pasture renting business City Clerk Crews was advised to advertise for bids for two years on 100 acres of pasture land at the rear of the airport. The present lease ends on April 22, 1975.

It was announced that a Federal Flood Insurance Conference was scheduled for 10:00 a.m. Thursday, Mar. 13 in Wauchula. It was pointed out that Flood Control District maps did not show the city of Avon Park being in a flood area.

The Competency Board recommended that Alvis Cox, Jr. be appointed to take his father's seat on the board. The motion passed unanimously.

The following reports were read: Fire, Police, Recreation, Building and Civil Service Board, while reports from the Competency Board and Zoning Board of Adjustment were held over for the next regular meeting. Action on a 40 hour work week was also postponed for two weeks.

It was recommended by the Civil Service Board that a pay increase to $4.00 or more per hour for the sewer plant operator be made because of difficulty in securing a licensed operator.

In the final item of business the council moved to purchase a new larger capacity paint striping machine for the street department.

Accreditation Committee Visits School

Wednesday will be the wind-up day as committees finish their observations and questioning and draft reports. Wednesday afternoon preliminary committee reports will be made. With a final report being made by the committee in Atlanta in early December, at which time it will be announced if Avon Park High School is fully accredited, advised of corrections needed, warned, placed on probation or dropped from accreditation.

Faculty reports were heard from Joe Strickler speaking on the philosophy of education in the molding of the individual not only in the 3-R's, but the immeasurable objectives of character, etc., plus the individuals responsibility to society, along with alternative programs for the disruptive student.

In his report on student activities Edward Culbertson stated they were not bad — but not good. If the auditorium were used for assemblies two shifts of students were needed for assemblies and if the gym were used the acoustics were bad.

Overall the student activities lacked unity, student government was not effective yet it should help in planning and formulating policy and there were no special interest groups such as: Photo club, drama club, Latin club, etc. But asked Culbertson, "Would the students use them if they were available?"

On the strong side was an excellent sports program, the school annual and newspaper, the service clubs; Key Club, Keyettes and Christian Fellowship of Athletics and vocational clubs of FFA and FHA.

School spirit was discribed as exceptionally high because of untiring efforts of the cheerleaders, while work on the Andy Miracle Memorial Patio is helping bring the school back together again. And concluded Culbertson, "The high school is no longer the center of activities in Avon Park. The objective of many students is to get out of school quickly, get a job, get an auto and ride the Mall."

The county area was depicted as having a projected population of 72,000 in 1980, deriving most of its income from cattle and citrus. Its teachers were in the upper 10 per cent of the state and ranked in the top four per cent with its teachers having advanced degrees.

Many civic clubs supported education with scholarships for college work while the Band Parents Association and Men's Athletic Association were strong supporters of the community and of their respective groups of students.

After the visiting committee members had retired to a conference room to lay out their plan of work, Mitch Ferguson, complimented the faculty committee with the comment, "We have seen the material and didn't have to read it and it was well done." And he described the visiting committee, "as a multipilicity of strengths in the group."

The rural lore in Ontario holds that if you kill a lightning bug, you will be struck by lightning in the next thunderstorm.

Wicker And Batts Speak Vows

One of Avon Parks most beautiful weddings was solemnized at the First Baptist Church, Saturday evening, March 8, at eight o'clock when Carol Joy Wicker and Donald Lee Batts were united in marriage. Rev. Aden D. Childress performed the impressive candlelight, double ring ceremony. Organ music was played by Jerrold K. Perkins and vocal selections were by Miss Sybil Watson.

The church, lighted completely by candlelight, was breathtakingly beautiful. The profile white satin kneeling bench accented with boxwood greenery centered the altar platform. Directly behind this was an arrangement of Lily of the Valley and greenery centering the choir railing. Huge fern balls and urns of fern filled the background. Three giant 33 branch tree shaped white candelabras holding lavender candles were decorated with sparkling crystal prisms creating a radiance of breathtaking beauty. Seven branch candelabras with lavender candles and boxwood garlands were framed by the tall gothic stained windows on each side of the church, making 155 candles in total.

Arrangements of white daisy pompons, baby breath and greenery tied with stiff wide purple velvet bows marked the reserved pews.

The petite blonde Bride was exquisite in a formal length gown of white silk organza. The bodice featured a delicate lace yoke and a quaint high neckline with scattered seed pearls. Matching crocheted lace sleeves with dainty ruffles at the wrist completing the old fashioned look. A belt of satin with embroidered seed pearl daisies, fashioned with a bow at the back waistline, complimenting the full sweeping lace train. The white veiling was tiered with gathers and caught at the crown with a matching cap of lace and tiny scattered seed pearl designs. Her formal round style bouquet was fashioned of Lily of the Valley, Baby's Breath, Orange Blossoms and purple Violets with purple velvet loops and streamers.

As the bride entered on her way to the altar escorted by her father, Gerald Wicker, a brilliant white spot light from the balcony followed her path down the aisle where she was met by the groom who accompanied her to the altar. She carried a white Bible, a gift of the Baptist Young Women. Something old was her mother's gold wedding band that she wore on her right hand.

Beverly Wicker, Matron of Honor, Sharon Wicker and Becky Bass, bridesmaids wore identical gowns of deep purple velvet bodice featuring the empire waistline, emphasized with wide bands of lavender lattice lace edged in daisy chain design. The sheer flowing skirts and long sleeves were of lavender. Their picture hats were of lavender lacy straw with deep purple velvet streamers. Their fashionable nosegays were of white daisies, purple statice and baby's breath with purple loops and streamers. Heather Hall wore in miniature an indentical gown in style and coloring as the bridesmaids as she scattered lavender and purple pansy petals.

The best man, Hal Worden, and ushers Jerry Wicker, Hayward Batts, Dennis Crews and Steve Michael wore black trousers, white tux edged in black velvet with velvet lapels and lavender ruffled shirts. Their boutonnieres were white carnations tipped with purple. The ringbearer, Master Dustin Lemler, was dressed identical to the groomsmen.

The brides mother, Mrs. Gerald Wicker, was attired in a formal gown of pink with burgandy bolera and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and baby breath.

Mrs. Raymond Batts, mother of the groom, wore a formal gown of turquoise accented with a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses and baby breath.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Baptist Church Social Hall where again deep purple, lavender and white was the decorative theme. The two long punch tables were covered in deep purple satin with an overlay of White Crystal Cloth gathered at each corner with a lavender nosegay of flowers outlined in ruffled lavender net. A round table with graceful purple satin cloth held white baskets of lavender net tied with purple velvet containing multi-colored confetti for the guests.

The crystal punch bowls filled with iced purple punch were encircled with dainty fern.

The three tiered wedding cake was of royal proportions and featuring lavender roses and swags of snowy white, topped with satin bells and a large lacy heart.

Ophelia Rihner assisted by Jane Wells directed the wedding and reception. Nelda Strenth was in charge of the Bride's Book. Cutting the cake were Darlene Bennett and Mrs. Otto Foster. Serving at the punch bowls were Janice Murphy, Karen Kickliter, Cathy Grantham and Mary Lucille Worden. Others assisting were Mary Bass, Marva Turner, Betty Camp and Wilma Smith.

The bride selected as her going away costume a fashionable buttercup yellow pants suit accented at the neckline with a dainty scarf of purple and lavender design. Her corsage was of white daisies and purple statice.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Batts will honeymoon in North Carolina and will reside at Temple Terrace, Fla. on their return.

Calvin's Column

By Calvin Gibbs

Hi Friends:

Thanks for the many kind responses to last week's article. I welcome both compliments and criticisms, for together I believe a more interesting and fascinating column will develop.

Congratulations to those pupils who were able to earn an extra "A" by proofreading and pointing out all or any mistakes in last week's article. My challenge to you is, "keep up the good work."

Several inquiries were made in reference to the cost involved in getting an item published.

To this question, I'm happy to announce that I will include in my column any news item worthy of print without cost.

May I call to your attention an effort underway by several students to acquire yearly subscriptions (mailed in or out of town.) or requests for weekly deliveries of the Sun to your home. I encourage your your support in their effort.

Church News:

Sunday was a very special lay at Beulah Baptist Church. One of the highlights was the termination of a successful drive to raise funds earmarked for the installation of a public address system. This effort was headed by Deacon Joe Mack and Deacon Lewis Lee. Guest minister for morning worship was the Rev. Alphonso Battle who delivered a dynamic message. Morning service was culminated with a beautiful fellowship dinner which followed immediately. The usual Bible class which convenes each Sunday from 5 to 6 p.m. was most inspirational. The pastor cordially invites you to attend these sessions and other services.

Other churches were in regular service also.

The Saint Mark Baptist Church Missionary Society sponsors services every third Sunday morning at 11 a.m. with the children's choir, under the auspices of Miss Jacquelyn Jackson and Mrs. Clara Boone in charge of the music. Also during this hour, a brief ceremony, which commerates a faithful deceased member and which bestows recognition upon a contemporary ardent member is rendered. Next Sunday, Sister Joan Gholston will present the day's lesson, and everyone is invited to join in the celebration.

The monthly choir union which presents a melody of Zion's hymns will sing praises at Mount Olive A.M.E. Church, on Sunday March 17, commencing at 3:00 p.m. We do ourselves a disservice whenever we decline the spiritual inspiration offered by this concert of choirs, when we neglect to attend.

Necrology:

Mrs. Mary Spencer, the former Mary Houston, and longtime resident of Avon Park, was eulogized last Thursday evening in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Some members of her family are still living here.

The life of Mrs. Sarah Cannon, an almost lifetime citizen of Avon Park, expired on Saturday, March 8, at Kingston, New York. Mrs. Cannon had established residence with her daughter, the former Alma Cannon, at New Paltz, New York for a number of years. The remains will be brought here for interment in the local cemetery. Obsequies for Mrs. Cannon will be held on Saturday March 16. The exact hour and place will be announced later.

Acknowledgement:

The Lyons-Boone family cannot find words which adequately express their appreciation for the kindness and sympathy expressed by so many upon the recent loss of their loved one, the late Deacon Joseph Lyons. "Thanks with all our hearts."

Hospital:

Confined to the hospital at press time are Mr. Fred Conner, Mrs. Flossie Tate, Mrs. Agnes Wright, Mrs. Willie Mae Williams and Mr. Mack English.

Civic:

For one of the few times in my life, the Lincoln Park Cemetery is decent rather than disgraceful.

The Cemetery Association which is solely responsible for its' maintenance needs our support at its meetings and in its' efforts. The organization meets on the first Sun.lay of each month at one of the local churches. Please check this column for reminders of its meeting.

Give the association your support in its endeavors and help to make Lincoln Park Cemetery a sanctuary. After all, there are many precious memories out there.

Suggestions for the week:

"You have to live with yourself and so, try to be fit for yourself to know."

Citizens for the week:

The honor for this week goes to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sims who like last week's honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Williams also live on Green Street. The home and surroundings of Mr. and Mrs. Sims exemplify a graceful setting of which they may be proud. I trust that this will be an incentive to us who have not shown as much concern. And as time passes, I shall recognize others who have.

Humor of the week:

"Don't be dumb to kind animals."

Question of the Week: What do you think about our system of government?

Mrs. Alfreda Brown (Teacher Aide)

"I believe that our system of government is the best in the world, but I don't hestitate to say that integrity has been down rated. I also believe that we still have a few honest politicians."

Mr. Alphonso Battle (Teacher)

"Good system, but once elected too many officials change we the people to me the people. Government should be of the people, by the people and for the people."

William Dickey (Student Draftsman)

"Watergate created doubts, but as the late Adam Clayton Powell said, "Keep the faith, baby."

Sports:

More than fifty youths, chosen county-wide will participate in track and a variety of sports events Saturday morning at 9 a.m. at the Avon Park High School. You can boost the morale of these youths by attending the attraction under the supervision of Mrs. Lorraine Howard.

Social:

Regular entertainment at local businesses, and special events will be announced later.

Visitations:

Clara Lyons Randolph, class of "68" who currently resides in Washington, D.C. was here for a brief stay on a special occasion.

Al Joseph Hinson, a native son of Avon Park and now an employe of the Dade County School system, was here for a couple of days also.

The former Louise Weathers (Atlanta, Georgia) was among recent visitors also.

Observations or Comments:

Mrs. Maye Ruth Council

Mrs. Maye Ruth Council (Parent and teacher at Avon Park Middle School).

So often parents are criticized but I would like to commend many who have been cooperative and those who have instilled into their children the principle of "common courtesy". This factor has promoted rapport between pupils and teachers that otherwise would have been impossible or highly improbable. The essence of "common courtesy" cannot be over emphasized and I trust that other children including mine will benefit by examples set by those to whom I have reference.

Thought Conditioner for the week:

In times like these so often worry, ill health, tensions and frustration become seemingly a way of life, so in light of these obstacles, I offer you this thought of relief.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. John 14:27.

Yours truly
Calvin C. Gibbs

Fanny Sweeps Out Six Husbands

Her bonds of matrimony have been severed — all of them. On a single day Fannie Mae Smith was legally freed from six husbands.

The Sebring restaurateur began the disentanglements as part of the process of writing a will and putting her business affairs in order.

In a special ruling from the state Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, Mrs. Smith was allowed to file one package suit for the dissolution of all her marriages, but when the dissolutions became final each had to be recorded separately.

Mrs. Smith conducts her restaurant under the name of her third husband, Mason C. Smith. They were married in Newton County, Ga., in 1942.

Husband number one was Emmett Thompson. The wedding, in 1933, was in Colbert County, Ala. Number two was Richard Meredithy, also in Alabama in 1933. Number four was Lucias Elick, married in Lowndes County, Ga., in 1946; the fifth, Henry Clark, wed here in Highlands County in 1967.

Mrs. Smith's sixth — and she declares her final husband, James Monroe Jeter, she married in Highlands County in 1969. So, for the first time in 42 years Mrs. Smith is single and, she says, too involved in business to have time for romance.

Ousley's Honored On 42 Wedding Anniversary

The members of the St. John Baptist Church honored Rev. A. Ousley with a surprise birthday party March 7th. It was also Rev. and Mrs. Ousley's 42nd Wedding Anniversary.

Rev. and Mrs. Ousley's daughter Mrs. A. B. Culbreth came from St. Petersburg to help them celebrate this festive occasion. Other out of town guests were from Lake Wales and Sebring.

Providing entertainment for the evening were The Gospel Charms from St. John Baptist Church and The Young Adults, singers from the Church of God by faith.

The guests of honor were presented with lovely gifts and many speeches were made during the evening.

Southland Court News

By MARION LEARNED

Despite weather reports of rain and cloudy weather, old man sunshine turned the tables and burst forth in all its glory as approximately 143 or more enthusiastic art lovers crowded the Recreation Hall for Southland Court's Annual Hobby Show. Among the many exhibits were articles ranging from bead work, hats made from beer canisters, fancy work, miniature guns and rack that caught the eye of many, Christmas decorations, a memo rack made of wood, canes from palm trees and many novelty items. The "Avon Park Sun" was also here for special pictures. This perhaps was one of the largest turn-outs ever and residents of the park are to be commended for their time and effort in helping to make this such a huge success. Refreshments consisting of punch, coffee and cookies were served from 2 to 4 p.m. Chairman for the Hobby Show was Goldia Daun. On her committee was Claire Ross, Anna Barth, Kathleen Chase and Ann Condit serving coffee and at the punch bowl. Committee greeters were: Hannah Tebo, Mildred Able, Bea Jeremy, Alvia Trompics, Gertrude Culver and Harriet Wandover.

Park Fisherman Harry Barth hit the jackpot last week when he caught a 9 lb. bass, this is believed to be one of the largest ever caught in this area. It took a half hour to land the big fellow, so congratulations Harry, and hope you catch the mate to this one.

Shuffleboard action on Friday Feb. 28th. East court results 1st game Longbons and Wandover over Breister and Condit 100 to 63, 2nd game Bresiter and Condit over Trompics and Cassellius 60 to 45 and 3rd game it was Paxton and Gifford over Cassellius and Trompics 74 to 60. On the West court 1st game Paxton and Gifford over Cassellius and Trompics 69 to 32, 2nd game Longbons and Wandover over Paxton and Gifford 127 to 64 and the final game it was Longbons and Wandover over Breister and Condit 100 to 13.

Bingo on Friday night Feb. 28th always is well attended with 35 present for fun with Harry Barth calling the numbers and Herb Renaud checking the cards, we keep them busy. Winners were Emily Renaud, Charlie McNulty, Ray and Martha Long, Mae Longbons, Hetta Cook, Mildred Hindsley, Marion Learned, Florence Stephens, Goldia Daun, Loyal Condit, Helen Richardson, Marguerite Rody, Leon Gifford, Alvia Trompics and Al Thompson. Alvia Trompics also won the cover-all. Monday evening, March 3rd another Euchre party was held at the Rec. Hall. There were three tables with Alvia Trompics high.

March 4th. The coffee hour was held at 9:00 a.m. with 21 enjoying the fellowship. On Wednesday evening March 5th, 20 park residents enjoyed an evening out for dinner at the Steak Out Family Restaurant.

Visiting at the Wandover's for a few days were Harriet's sister Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bray from Eldred, Pa. and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holmes from Rixford, Pa. On Tuesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gibson from Shinglehouse, Pa. also visited with Revoe and Harriet.

And we say "Farewell and have a Good Time" to Bernard and Lola Carr who left Saturday March 8 for a seven day Caribbean Cruise. We all wish that we could have gone with them on this holiday.

Tuesday afternoon caller at the Tebo's was Rev. Norman C. Zulauf, Pastor of the Hope United Church at Rockledge, Florida.

The Tebo's attended the 1975 Florida State "Winnie Gator" Rally at Eustis, Florida. There were 666 Winnies registered and a total of 1,625 in attendance. One of the most interesting facts on this Rally, was the Saturday evening meal, on March 1st. A delicious meal was served to 1,746 people in 1 hour 13 minutes. It was a most enjoyable holiday for the Tebo's and they hope to attend the Rally in Pennsylvania this summer and possibly the Ohio Rally.

Congratulations to Vi Wallace, Bea Jeremy and Waldo Davidson, all celebrating their birthdays this week. We wish them many happy birthdays in the future.

All for this week. Good health and happiness to all.

Mrs. Caroline Morrison is now at Cottrell's Memorial Nursing Home in Sebring, Room 205. Requested visiting hours are 10 to 12:00 in the morning and after 3:00 p.m. in the afternoon. Let's all try to make a special effort to drop her a card or visit if possible.

If you attended the Southland Court Hobby Show last week one of these ladies probably greeted you. Chairman: Goldia Dawn, Committee Greeters: Hannah Tebo, Mildred Able, Bea Jeremy, Gertrude Culver, Harriet Wandover, Alvia Trompics, Serving: Claire Ross, Anna Barth, Kathleen Chase and Ann Condit.

Mary Wright Selected For Intern Program

Among 13 high school juniors taking part in the Congressional Intern program are three from Highlands County.

The third annual event is sponsored by U.S. Rep. L. A. "Skip" Bafalis and includes a week-long seminar in Washington, D.C. to give district youth a better understanding of their federal government.

Representatives from the Highlands are Verneka Lawrence, Sebring High, Nancy Oxer, Lake Placid High and Mary E. Wright, Avon Park High.

The group of 13 will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. David R. Anderson of Sebring. Mrs. Anderson is a government instructor at Sebring High School.

Students are selected by their fellow juniors and by a county se committee. During their week in Washington, they will get a chance to talk to key government officials representing such diverse agencies as the Pentagon, White House and State Department, to interview Congressmen and Senators from Florida and a number of other states. In addition, they will sit in on committee meetings and watch both the House and Senate in action.

Although the schedule will be hectic and devoted to informing the students about government, there will be time for sightseeing, Bafalis said.

Among contributors to Bafalis' program are the Town of Lake Placid, Rotary Club of Avon Park and First Federal Savings and Loan of DeSoto County.

Reed Gets Five Years For Marijuana Possession

A five-year prison sentence, maximum for possession of marijuana, was meted out to Lee Noel Reed in circuit court Monday.

The sentencing of the 26-year-old Fort Lauderdale man was a year and a week after Reed had walked away from the crash of a plane loaded with approximately 3,500 pounds of marijuana.

Reed was seriously injured when the plane burrowed into a pasture near Henscratch, a remote area of southwestern Highlands County. Pilot James H. Chance lost his life in the crash.

Reed underwent lengthy hospitalization following the accident and finally went to trial here Jan. 28. Early on the afternoon of Jan. 29 a jury brought in a guilty verdict. Reed was ordered jailed and remains in jail, although his attorney has been seeking his release pending appeal of the case.

Reed was formerly employed by an airplane leasing company headed by Kenneth Burnsteine of Fort Lauderdale. A federal jury last week convicted Burnsteine of conducting marijuana smuggling operations.

According to testimony in that trial, Burnsteine's company owned the Lode Star in which Chance and Reed were flying. Burnsteine has not been sentenced yet, and court officials said sentencing may be delayed until Burnsteine has been tried on a drug charge in California. The conviction in Miami could mean a 15-year prison sentence for him.

For Reed, the marijuana case here was his first felony conviction.

Street value of the "pot" seized at the crash site was set at $320,000.

Question: How can a person know that his or her prayers will be answered?

Answer: There are three conditions which must oe complied with if prayer is to be answered. The first of these is genuine faith. But without faith it impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him; Hebrews 11:5. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like the wave of the sea driven by the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive anything of the Lord; James 1:6,7. The prayers of many people are not answered because they lack unwavering faith.

The second condition is to be in harmony with the will of God. And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight; 1 John 3:22. If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me; Psalms 66:18. He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination; Proverbs 28:9. Before praying, a person should always examine his or her life, to make sure that their life is in harmony with the will of God.

The third condition of answered prayer is willingness to forgive those who have wronged us. And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven, may forgive your trespasses; Mark 11:25. God will not answer the prayers of people who have an unforgiving attitude others.

When we pray, we should emulate the example of Christ by subjecting our request to the will of God. Christ prayed that the passion cup be taken away, but he finished His request by stating; nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done; Luke 22:42.

Red Devils Players 4-3 With 2 Wins And A Loss

Coach Ronnie Jackson's Red Devil varsity baseball team won over North Ft. Myers and Frostproof last week but lost to Pahokee to move to a 4-3 record for the season. The Devils defeated the North Ft. Myers team 12-7 here at Head Field on Tuesday a week ago. They slipped by Frostproof 5-4 last Friday night and lost to Pahokee down there Saturday afternoon by a score of 6-4.

Last Tuesday the Devils were scheduled to play the Brahmans in Okeechobee in an afternoon game. Tomorrow night (Friday) the Avon Park team will be at home at Head Field to the Ft. Meade Miners in a 7:30 o'clock game and this Saturday night they will go down to Sebring to take on the Blue Streaks in the first of three games scheduled for this season. Next Tuesday night, March 18, the Devils will come back home to host the Lake Placid Green Dragons.

North Ft. Myers Game

The North Ft. Myers Red Knights used four different pitchers trying to stop the Avon Park onslaught last week but the Devils slammed out hits to take the 12-7 win. The Knights had shutout the Devils in Ft. Myers the Saturday before 3-0. Jimmy Douberley and Jamie Tomlinson teamed up to hurl the big Avon Park win. Douberley went two and two thirds innings giving up five runs and five hits before Tomlinson took over in the third inning. The Knights managed two more runs and four hits off Tomlinson in the seven inning affair.

Mort Jackson, sophomore shortstop for Avon Park, was the big gun at the plate for the Devils. He slammed out two doubles to the left field fence and also had a single as he went three for three and scored one run. Douberley scored four runs as he drew two walks and singled twice. Tomlinson scored two runs and also had two walks and two singles for the evening. Brad Beumel also contributed a couple of singles to the Devil's cause. Mike Pool and Smokey Hill finished out the hits for Avon Park with a single each.

Frostproof Game

Timmy Massey hurled the Red Devils to a five to four victory over the Frostproof Bulldogs last Friday night in Frostproof. The Junior righthander struck out 14 batters during his seven innings on the mound. He gave up only three hits to the Bulldog batters.

Frostproof scored its first run in the last of the third inning when Joe Godwin singled, went to second on a passed ball and scored on a throwing error. The other three Bulldog runs came in the fourth and a passed ball let the three runs in before Massey struck out the last batter.

Avon Park scored its five runs on 8 hits. The first two runs came in the top of the third when Mort Jackson led off with a single and later Brad Beumel singled. He sent Jackson home and Jimmy Douberley singled to bring Beumel home. In the top of the fourth the Devils added two more runs. Charlie Pugh lined a triple down the right field line and Mike Pool singled him in. Then Pool scored when Beumel boomed out a double. The winning run was scored in the top of the sixth inning. Mike Pool reached first when hit by a pitched ball. Reggie Baker went in as a pinch runner. Jerry Robinson advanced him to second with a single and he took third when Beumel grounded out to the secondbaseman. With two men out and Jimmy Douberley at bat, a ball got away from the catcher and bounded off to his right. Baker streaked off third and flashed across the plate in front of the throw to put the Devils out front. The Bulldogs popped out to the outfield three consecutive times in the last of the sixth and then Massey struck out the final three batters in order to preserve the win.

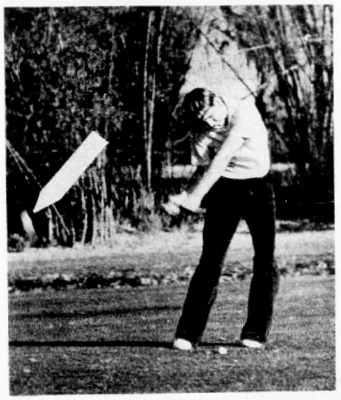

Brad Beumel had a double and a single, Charlie Pugh, who was injured and later required stitches in his knee, hit the triple and Mort Jackson, Mike Pool, Jerry Robinson, Jimmy Douberley and Smokey Hill all hit a single off losing pitcher Gary Hadden who went the distance for Frostproof.

Pahokee 6 Avon Park 4

Last Saturday afternoon the Avon Park nine got started a little too late and lost to the Blue Devils in Pahokee by a score of 6-4. The home team jumped off to a three run lead in the first inning on a triple and two singles off starter Jamie Tomlinson. They added another run in the fourth and two more in the fifth after David Cantrell came on in relief in the third inning. Tomlinson allowed five hits during his two innings of hurling. Cantrell gave up only two hits and walked only three batters as he finished out the last four frames.

The Red Devils were held scoreless until the top of the seventh inning. Jimmy Douberley had doubled in the second and Beumel and Pool had singled in the fourth and sixth to no avail. Then Smokey Hill led off the seventh inning and went to second on a throwing error by the catcher on a ball that dribbled out in front of the plate. Jim Johnson came up and doubled in Hill. Then Freddy Moore pinch hit for Cantrell and singled. Mike Pool singled with one man down to drive in Johnson and then Beumel drove in Moore with a single with two men out. Jimmy Douberley came up and doubled sending Baker home as he went in to run for Pool. But Beumel was thrown out at the plate on Douberley's double to stop the late Devil rally.

The three Avon Park losses have all come on Saturday afternoons. The Devils lost to Cypress Lake in Ft. Myers 3-2 on a Saturday, then were shut out 3-0 by North Ft. Myers the following Saturday, and dropped the 6-4 decision to Pahokee last Saturday afternoon.

Golfers Lose Two By One Stroke

The Red Devil golf team lost two matches last week by one stroke each to drop to a 6-10 record for the season. The Kissimmee foursome won by a 169-170 score at the Pinecrest Course on Tuesday of last week and Sebring took a 165-166 victory from the Avon Park boys on the Sebring Course last Thursday afternoon.

Last Tuesday afternoon the Red Devils were to host two tough teams from Kathleen and Lake Brantley at the Pinecrest Course. This weekend the Red Devil golfers will travel to Daytona for a Friday match with Daytona Father Lopez and a Saturday morning match with Daytona High. Next Tuesday Avon Park's team will go to Wauchula for a match with Hardee High at the Little Cyrpess Course.

John DuPriest led the Devil's losing effort against Kissimmee last week as he shot a 39 on the local course. Dale Sisemore came in second for Avon Park with a 41, Billy King shot a 44 and Steven Ford finished with a 46 for the 170 Red Devil total for the nine holes.

In Sebring last Thursday afternoon John DuPriest was again low for the Devils shooting a 38 on the Sebring course. Dale Sisemore turned in a 42 and Billy King and Mark Palmer both shot 43's for the nine holes to give Avon Park the 166 stroke total just one stroke short of the Sebring team.

Two Local Teachers Win Men's B Tennis Matches

Two Avon Park High School teachers won all the challenge matches on the men's "B" ladder in Highlands County Tennis Association play last week. Bruce Wyse recaptured the number one position on the men's "B" with a 7-6, 2-6, 6-3 victory over Billy Page. Page dropped to the number three spot. Allan Duhm began his climb from the bottom of the men's "B" ladder after joining last week. Duhm defeated Scott Mills 6-2, 7-5 and then beat Bill Rousseau by a score of 6-2, 6-1. Duhm is now number 15.

There were two matches on the men's "A" ladder last week. Grant Stallard defended his number seven position with a 6-1, 4-6, 6-3 win over challenger Brad Beumel from his number 9 position. Ken Hayaley moved up to the number two rung with a forfeit win from Bill Baker who dropped to position three.

Pat James moved up on the women's "A" ladder with an 8-3 victory over Betty Carlisle. Pat is now number seven and Betty dropped to eight.

Three matches were played on the women's "B" ladder. Margaret Collins defeated Caroline Martin 8-3 to go to number 15. Jean Rosser took over the number three rung with a forfeit win from Nancy Crittenden. Judy Rewis moved up to the fifth rung with an 8-6 win from Sandra Beck.

Action on the mixed-doubles ladder saw Lisa Clifford and Grant Stallard defending the number four position with a win over Marilyn Smith and Al Miller and Brad Beumel and Pam Rose holding on to first place with a 7-5, 7-5 victory over the number two team Lucy Derkman and Bruce Wyse.

The men's doubles ladder has been straightened out and standings are as follows: 1. Annett-Bengston; 2. Stallard-Beumel; 3. Thonus-Hines; 4. Hancock-Baker; 5. Gotz-Tooker; 6. Page-L. Johnson; 7. Wyse-Chancey; 8. Haysley-B. Baker; 9. Jordan-Delaney; and 10. Helms-Bates.

Teams To Host Two Meets

Avon Park's two tennis teams chalked up victories over Okeechobee last Friday afternoon on the Brahman courts in Okeechobee. The boys shut out the Brahman boys by a 7-0 score winning all of the matches and the girls won 4-3. The Devil boys and girls now both have 2-1 records for the year.

This afternoon (Thursday) the two Devil teams will host Okeechobee here at the city courts and tomorrow (Friday) the Lake Placid boys and girls teams will be here at the city courts for seven matches each. Girls Track Squad To Host Sebring And Wauchula

The Red Devil girls track team will host a home meet next Tuesday, Mar. 18, with Sebring and Hardee High furnishing the opposition. It will be the Highlands County Girls Track Meet and the Red Devils are the defending champions. This past Tuesday afternoon, Mar. 11, the Devil girls were scheduled to host Hardee in a dual meet.

The Devilettes set their season record at 3-0 last Wednesday with an impressive victory over St. Pete Catholic and Santa Fe of Lakeland on Santa Fe's track. The Devils had 104 points to 46 for St. Pete Catholic and 19 for Santa Fe. Eight new school marks were set by the Avon Park ladies for the second meet in a row.

Tracy Jones set a new school record in the shot put with a 29'7½" toss. Denise Johnson took fourth in the same event with a 25'9½" effort. Johnnie Mae McRae established a new record in the 440-yard run with her 1:21.1 winning performance. Della Kirkland placed third in the same event with a fine 1:16 clocking. Renee Crocker established a new long jump distance with a jump of 15'4" and was followed in second place by Hattie Rich's 14'8½" leap. Bridgette Randolph came in third with a 13'9" jump. The sprint medley relay team of Margie Taylor, Pamela Baker, Rannya Sanders and Linda McRae set a new mark of 2:06.9 in winning their event.

Mary Coleman jumped 4'6" in the high jump for yet another record. Third and fourth place finishes were turned in by Randolph and Taylor to back up Coleman in the high jump. Taylor also threw the softball a long 178'9" for her record setting performance and was followed in second, third and fourth place finishes by Coleman, Crocker and Maxine Tate as the Devils completely dominated this event. Tate, [illegible] broke her own school mark in the 880-yard run with a 2:50 time for first place with Margaret Lynn Miracle taking fourth place in 3:03.5. Sherri Collier had the last new school record in the mile run with a fourth place finish of 7:35.

The 110-yard low hurdles were won by Margie Taylor in 17.6 and fourth spot went to Sue Chandler in 20.0 time. Three Devils placed in the 100-yard dash with Crocker first in 12.6, Rich third in 12.9 and Linda McRae fourth in 13.0 seconds.

The 440-yard relay team of Crocker, Jones, Randolph and Linda McRae took first place and the 880-yard relay team of Coleman, Crocker, Sharon McRae and Taylor came in second. In the discus three of the top four spots went to the Avon Park team. Johnnie McRae was first, Mary Coleman was second, and Cathy McCook came in fourth. In the 220-yard dash the Devils took the two top spots with Sharon McRae first and Hattie Rich second. Nineteen girls got into the scoring parade.

Friday of last week the Devillette's record fell to 3-1 as Hardee scored 68 points to Avon Park's 45 on the Wauchula track. New school records went to Jones in the shot put at 29'9"; Taylor in the softball throw with a 180' effort; Miracle in the 880-yard run in 2:44.2; Mary Oliveri in the mile run in 7:02 and the 440-yard relay of Jones, L. McRae, Randolph and S. McRae in 54.3.

In addition to those scorers the Devils had a first and second in the discus with Mary Coleman and Johnnie Mae McRae. Third place in the shot put throw went to Denise Johnson and Taylor was second in the 110-low hurdles. Hattie Rich came in second in the long jump. Mary Coleman took third in the high jump and Rich took second in the 100-yard dash. L. McRae came in third in the 100-yard dash. Sharon McRae and Hattie Rich took their customary one, two finish in the 220-yard dash. Tate was third in the 880 and Coleman took third in the softball toss to round out the Devil's scoring effort.

The Devil girls lost the meet by twenty points but only by inches as they dropped the two relays in close times to the Wildcat ladies. "Renee Crocker was missing", stated Brojek, "and with her back on we should be able to add those two relays to our column in our rematch with Hardee." The Devil coach went on to add, "Regardless of the outcome, however, these kids are the finest young ladies in the state."

SFJC Splits Doubleheader With Florida College

South Florida Junior College traveled to Florida College Friday and split a doubleheader; winning the first game 6-5 while losing the second by the identical score.

Al Short started for SFJC and picked up his first win before giving way to reliever, Mike McFall, in the fifth. McFall held off Florida College rally in the seventh to preserve a 6-5 victory.

SFJC jumped off to a quick 4-0 lead after two innings. In the first, Tom Ambrogi reached first by an error. Buddy DeWitt singled him to third and Robert Webb hit a sacrifice fly to score Ambrogi.

In the second inning, McCarter led off with a double followed by another double by Mike Miller who scored on Bob Piervinanzi's single to left. Piervinanzi scored the fourth run on DeWitt's ground ball.

SFJC added another run in the sixth on a solo home run by designated hitter, Larry Berg. Larry played his first game of the year for the Panthers after recovering from a back operation. The final run came when Miller reached first on an error, went to second on a sacrifice bunt by Piervinanzi and scored on Buddy DeWitt's triple to deep centerfield.

The second game saw SFJC jump out to a 4-0 lead by the top of the sixth. Successive walks to Mark Jackson and Mike Miller, followed by a double by Dave Lamons, scored the first two runs in the second inning. Tom Ambrogi hit a solo homer in the fifth and Robert Webb added another home run in the sixth to move the score to 4-0. Mike Phillips pitched brilliantly for the Panthers before tiring in the sixth. A three run homer in the sixth made the score 4-3. A walk, a sacrifice and a couple of wild pitches in the seventh tied the score at 4-4. Glenn Bass relieved Phillips in the eighth and retired the first two batters easily. However, he walked the next batter and then Darroll O'Steen hit a low and away pitch over the left field fence to put Florida College ahead 6-4. The Panthers came right back in the top of the ninth with a walk to Lamons, followed by a pinch-hit double by Dave Lind to score Lind. However, the centerfielder for Florida College made a good catch on Tom Ambrogi's liner to center to prevent the Panthers from tieing the score.

SFJC made only one error in the doubleheader and the Panthers are beginning to play heads up baseball. Robert Brojek

We'll Do Without Them After Ft. Meade Loss

The boys track team will compete in Fort Meade today (Thursday) at 4 p.m. in a six or seven team meet. The Devils opened their season last Friday with a 78 -39 loss to Hardee High. Next Wednesday Mar. 18, the boys will compete in the county meet against the Sebring Blue Streaks on the Sebring track.

Kenneth Burley, Darrell Davis, Raliegh Turnbull, Charlie Glenn and Jack Collins scored all 39 points for Avon Park against the Hardee Wildcats. Burley, only a sophomore, had three first place finishes. He sped over the 120 high hurdles in 16.8 seconds matching his last season's best performance. Then he long jumped 19'8" and high jumped 5'8" for two personal highs.

Darrell Davis captured two firsts with a 41'8" heave in the shot put and a 111 foot toss in the discus throw. Turnbull had a first in the 880-yard run in 2:11 — a personal record and a second in the mile in 5:04. Glenn had a second in the discus with a 107 ft. 5 in. effort and Jack Collins took a second in the two mile run in 11:24 minutes. Despite the six first place finishes the Devils finished well behind Hardee.

Coach Chet Brojek praised the efforts of Burley, Davis and Turnbull. "If I had more like these fellows, we would have run away with the meet," stated Brojek. "We've had to leave some of our top men at home because they think they are too good to practice. They will come around to our way of thinking or we'll do without them."

Play Improved But SFJC Loses To No.1 Manatee

South Florida Junior College played two of their best games of the young season on Mar. 3 against the No. 1 team in Florida, Manatee Junior College. However, both games ended in defeat, 4-6 and 2-10.

Al Short started on the mound for the Panthers and went the distance giving up 10 hits, striking out six and walking only two. Manatee threw sophomore Jackie Smith who was 9-1 last season. The Panthers stuck Smith for eight hits, five walks and four runs.

Manatee jumped to a three run lead in the first after two were out and added one more in the third. SFJC added a pair of runs in the third on base hits by Buddy DeWitt and Robert Webb. In the sixth, the Panthers tied the score 4-4 on a single by Dave Lind, a walk to Tom Ambrogi and a triple by Keith McCarter. Unfortunately, in the top of the seventh, Manatee centerfielder, Mike Hardy, hit a two-run homer to take the first game 6-4.

The second game was pitched by Glenn Bass who pitched well for eight innings. Manatee scored two runs in the third and two more in the sixth after two were out to have a 4-2 lead going into the 9th. However, the gates were open in the ninth with a homer, three walks and three hits to give Manatee a 10-2 victory.

Tom Ambrogi had two hits for SFJC in the nightcap with Buddy DeWitt and Mark Jackson each adding a pair of doubles.

Coach Hill is fairly pleased with the progress of the team, especially since they battled No. 1, Manatee, in each ball game all the way until the last inning.

Wright, Oxer And Lawrence Study Federal Government

Mary E. Wright, Avon Park; Nancy Oxer, Lake Placid; Verneka Lawrence, Sebring; all study map of Washington, D.C. with Dr. Louis B. Howard, chairman of Highlands County Congressional Intern Program, in anticipation of their departure Saturday for a week of intensive study of the federal government in operation.

The three high school juniors pictured above will leave their respective high schools Saturday to join students from other high schools in the Tenth Congressional District, and chaperones, for a week in Washington, D.C.

While there Congressman L. A. "Skip" Bafalis will be their host, and he and his staff have arranged a busy plan of visits and interviews including both chambers of the Congress, individual Congressmen, various executive departments, and the supreme Court. Many of the historic monuments and national shrines and exhibits will be wedged into their tight schedule.

The three interns from this county were chosen by a combination procedure involving selection of four in each high school by fellow juniors and then a review by a committee of five adults who, following individual conferences, selected one of the four as the intern and one as an alternate.

This is the third year that the Congressional Intern Program has been in effect and it is made possible through financial contributions by several local civic organizations, businesses and individuals and through Congressman Bafalis and his staff.

Now Is The Time To Apply For NROTC Scholarships

Petty Officer Tom Tippins, the local Navy recruiter has announced that applications for Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC) Scholarships will soon be accepted from the high school class of 1976. He also said the Navy expects to award more than 1800 four-year scholarships and that the competition is always keen.

Why the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps program? Petty Officer Tippins explained some of the advantages of the NROTC scholarships program. Selectees receive full tuition, books, fees and $100 per month while attending any one of 58 selected colleges and universities.

The selected schools are some of the best in the country including the University of Florida, Florida A & M and Jacksonville University right here in Florida.

GOOD FRUITS

"The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and GOOD FRUITS."

There are two forces at work in this world, evil and good. We have the freedom to choose between these two things.

"O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him."

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH ... THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Canada Coins An Ideal

In the summer of 1976, the world's finest athletes will gather in Montreal and Kingston, Ontario to participate in the XXI Olympiad — Canada's first Olympic Games. The cost of the event will run to some $310-million. Normally, as in past Games, the government and citizens of the host country would have to foot the bill, but Canada has come up with a unique plan to put the Games on a self-financing basis. Not only will the plan pay for the 1976 Summer Olympics, but Canada sees its funding initiative as a model in self-financing for the smaller nations of the world.

Under the "Canadian Olympic Coin Program," specially-minted silver coins are being sold worldwide and will generate about 80 per cent of the funds necessary to pay Canada's Olympic bill. The remainder will come from special stamp issues and a national lottery.

A percentage of the face value of the coins sold in each country will be placed in trust for use by its own Olympic teams. In the U.S., this could mean about 30 per cent of what it will take to send our team to Montreal.

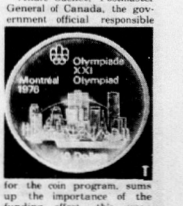

The first of seven series of coins to be issued over the next two years has already sold out in Canada and Japan, and is expected to do the same in the U.S. In addition to being minted in limited quantities, the coins are restricted in available quantity in each geographic region. Canada will receive about 40 per cent of each series; the U.S. will get about 25 per cent as will Europe and 10 per cent is earmarked for the Far East.

Each series consists of four coins (two with a $5 face value and two with a $10 face value) each with a unique design, but related to the theme of the series.

The first series carries a geographic theme; the second, to be issued shortly, will have Olympic symbols as its theme.

Every series in special packaging and all 28 individual coins will be available throughout the U.S. from selected banks, and other financial institutions, coin dealers and via mail. The coins are legal tender in Canada and mark the first time the country has struck silver coinage in this denomination.

Andre Ouellet, Postmaster General of Canada, the government official responsible for the coin program, sums up the importance of the funding effort this way: "Canada's initiative in financing the 1976 Summer Olympics is crucially important to the entire concept — restrictions because of financing are contrary to the basic Olympic tradition of opportunity for all . . . by tradition the Olympics belong to all of us as individual world citizens — as surely as they test the prowess of the individual athlete."

Thus through the Canadian Olympic Coin Program, any citizen of any country can contribute both to his or her own team and to the one event that symbolizes the unity of all people.

County Ready For Big 12-Hour Race

One year late but better than ever, Sebring's big week has arrived.

With the opening of Race Week today, the "heighth of the season" is officially under way, accompanied by pomp and pageantry.

While the wheels of qualifying heats are spinning out at the airport race track and this afternoon's golf tournament is winding its course, last minute touches are being given to tomorrow's big events.

The day begins with an antique car show at Southgate. Judging will take place at 11:30 somewhere near the theatre.

The annual Automobile Hall of Fame parade steps off at 4:30 p.m., led by the color guard, Sebring Police Department, Sheriff's office deputies and Florida State troopers.

Grand Marshal will be Edsel Ford Jr., with well-known race driver Dan Gurney driving the pace car.

Shriners from Egypt Temple, Tampa and Araba Temple, Ft. Myers, will enter units of motorcyclists, clowns, provo guard and marchers.

The Shrine band will be joined by the marching bands of Moor Haven and APCI, while local dignitaries and a quorem of queens brighten the parade with their presence.

Floats from the Orange Bowl parade with a Bicentennial theme will be used by the City of Sebring and the chambers of commerce of Highlands County's three municipalities. Floats are also being entered by Barnett Bank and others, while Vanguard CitiCars park along the route.

Also entered are a 40 et 8 locomotive, a Conestoga wagon, Smokey the Bear, about 60 horses with cowgirl and cowboy riders, antique automobiles.

Featured also will be the National Guard, Boy Scouts and units from Lake Placid and Avon Park.

The parade forms at 4 p.m. on N. Ridgewood and Sunland drives, wending its way down Ridgewood to Lakeview Drive. At the intersection marching units disband and floats continue along Lakeview to Sebring Shores Country Club, to unwind the next in the skein of events . . . the Automobile Hall of Fame Ceremony.

Five men will be enshrined in this year's ritual: Carl G. Fisher, John M. Mack, Roy D. Chapin, Frank Duryea and Charles D. Patterson.

Among other celebrities Zennon Hansen, executive officer of the Mack Truck Company and chairman of the Selections Committee, will be on hand to receive the honors for Mack.

While all this is in progress two races will be running at the airport, proving that there is a great deal of "something for everyone."

Friday night marks the social occasion of the year . . . the Grand Prix Dance sponsored by the Sebring Junior Woman's Club. It will be held in the Agri-Civic Center on U.S. 27 S., from 9 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

Semi-formal this year, other amenities will remain as in the past. It is a B.Y.O.B. affair with free snacks available. A $10 per couple admission charge is tax-deductible.

Dancing will be to the music All New Copperfield, a popular band from Arcadia.

Everyone in the county is invited and reservations are being accepted for parties of five or more couples. Tickets can be purchased from Jeana DeLoach at 385-6568 or 385-5370, or at the door.

The Sebring '75 Corvette of John Greenwood leads the star-studded field at the start of the 24 Hours of Daytona International Speedway. Greenwood is promoter of the Sebring Grand Prix which will be Saturday.

Grand Jury To Consider Case

In calling a grand jury to meet March 27 Highlands County officials are "going by the book" — they must for it has been so long since a grand jury met procedures had been forgotten.

A venire of 30 is being summoned to appear the morning of the 27th. A panel of 18 will be seated to consider whether Alvin Bell of Avon Park should be tried for first degree murder.

The 66-year-old Bell, accused of murdering an elderly man with whom he shared an apartment, was arrested on Dec. 28, 1974, and has been held in Highlands County jail without bond.

The state attorney's staff has been investigating the case and considering whether the state would request calling a grand jury. When the decision was made early this week, clerks discovered they had forgotten procedures.

The last time a Highlands County grand jury was called was in 1972. When queried this week about what cases were considered, clerks offered suggestions but concluded, "Gee, it was so long ago. . . no one remembers without looking it up."

Sheriff's deputies, charged with responsibility for delivering the jury summons, expressed some dismay over the timing for the rare empaneling — "jury summons during Race Week? We do have some other things to do. . ." — but off they went to call a jury.

Williams Found Guilty Of Robbery

The jury deliberated 17 minutes in reaching a verdict of guilty in the robbery trial of Alfred Alexander Williams.

Williams had been arrested the last of November and charged with theft of $400 to $600 from Money's Store in Avon Park, Nov. 28.

Mrs. Fannie Lou Hipps, a clerk at the store, told officers she was robbed by two men. She had a revolver in the store and fired at the men as they escaped.

Williams was tried in circuit court March 10. Judge Clifton Kelly presided. Members of the jury were Bruce Alan Hunt, Ben B. Tillman, Linda D. Davis, Gary Todd Dressel, Steve Michael Hoffman, Clifford Cofer. George Lafaette Hale was alternate juror.

A presentence investigation has been ordered for Williams.

Police Book Teenagers

Two Avon Park teenagers were arrested in Sebring just after midnight March 15 and charged with possession of more than five grams of marijuana.

Arrested with the Avon Park youths was David Cumming, 21, of Frostproof.

$4.7 Million Taxes Collected First Month

Within the first month of payments 71.4 per cent of Highlands County's 1974 tax bill has been collected. W. H. Prescott, collector for both city and county taxes, said today that against a roll of $6,622,399, gross paymenis of $4,729,767 have been made.

Wrangles with the state over tax values delayed 1974 bills from the usual November mailing date to Feb. 15. Taxpayers responded immediately, many stating that they were eager to take advantage of the four per cent discount allowed for payment within the first 30 days.

Discounts allowed in the first month totaled $184,852, Prescott said.

Usually a descending scale of discounts are allowed from Nov. 1 to April 1. This year the discount — the maximum four per cent — was allowed for one month and March 17 moved immediately to full payment.

On April 1 unpaid taxes go onto a delinquent list and thereafter a three per cent penalty is imposed. Eventually advertising costs are added to the tax bill.

Prescott said mail returns have been so heavy in recent days that the $5 million mark may have been passed.

"Most of the big taxpayers have made their payments," Prescott reported this week. Some of the larger payments he cited were $167,746 from United Telephone Co.; $126,545 from Lykes Brothers; $100,366 from Consolidated-Tomoka; $92,996 from Ben Hill Griffin Inc.

Accreditation Committee

Gives Recommendations In Report

The Accreditation Committee of the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges headed by M. Mitchell "Mitch" Ferguson during their visit last week found many strengths and some weakness about the Avon Park High School system and the community according to Dr. John Crittenden, principal. Overall the committee report appeared to be very favorable although the final report on accreditation will not be known until the first week of December.

In the forward of the committee report Ferguson thanked the school family for the many courtesies extended during the evaluation and commended the steering committee for a well prepared study and "all" the persons involved for their cooperation and helpfulness. He concluded with the hope that the report's recommendations would be helpful in continuing efforts to improve the high school.

In their reference to the school and community the committee was most impressed with the overview of the city, school and county and commended the school and community committee.

Its strengths were listed as an active advisory committee, excellent and enthusiastic Band and Athletic Booster organizations with some programs having lay advisory committees.

Weakness cited by the committee — Some staff members were unaware of the variety of business, industries, agencies and individuals and their potential value to the educational program. Another was that the close bond between school and community had weakened as the school was no longer the center of community activities.

Recommendations were that positive steps be taken to create a closer bond between school personnel and the community with an attempt to create a positive image of the school. Steps should be taken to acquaint the staff with the community resources and how to use them in programs. Lastly the exploring of the possibility of additional school-community organizations.

School facilities should be conducive to a proper learning atmosphere, stated the school facility committee and be adequate for present and future needs. They found that the Avon Park High School facility opened in September, 1971, took care of the deficiencies noted by the 1966 committee report and should adequately house 900-950 students in the future.

Many commendations were given on the school plant, its teaching areas, custodial services and building and grounds.

Recommendations included the correcting of health and safety hazards in the science, industrial arts and agriculture areas. Other systems to be given attention were: Climate control, heating and cooling the gymnasium, fire alarms, exit lights, the clinic, lighting of walkways, the unloading and parking areas, the handling of garbage from the kitchen and the installation of cable TV were desirable.

The visiting committee found that guidance services are to aid students in the attainment of realistic goals and that there has been much progress since the evaluation in 1966. Its strong points were excellent facilities and excellent counselor-student ratio, with all counselors fully certified and having a friendly cooperative attitude, there was a full time guidance secretary and a guidance committee.

Weaknesses included: Some student records not in a fireproof area, guidance phone not on a private line, some teachers and students not

Solutions To Solid Waste Disposal Sought By Board

Commissioners who attended Tuesday afternoon's meeting of the Landfill Committee, sought solutions to the county's mounting solid waste disposal problem.

However, most of the overflow crowd of countians who attended offered not solutions — but additional problems.

After sitting through a one-hour presentation on incinerators given by W. W. Selzer of Florida Gas, citizens were impatient to speak out on their major concern — mandatory household garbage collection.

Chairman C. J. "Buddy" Wise made it clear at the outset that the so-called "mandatory" collection system was but one of many options being considered.

Charging each household for trash and garbage pickup was being considered as one way to prevent county roads from becoming open dumping areas when the central landfill becomes fully operational, Commissioner Ken Wilkinson pointed out.

Steve Roberts, spokesman for the county's three franchised refuse collectors, made the following proposal:

Two 20-gallon containers of household garbage plus four bags of yard clippings (total weight, 40 lbs. or less) would be picked up, curbside, from every residence in the county. Charge: $3.50 per month.

Individual residents could arrange for twice-per-week collections.

Families who are not year-round residents would pay for garbage-trash collections only while they are in the county.

Roberts admitted that the success of the countywide pickup plan hinged on its having the full legal backing of county government to enforce payment of bills.

The term "mandatory collection" rankled many who attended the meeting. Some characterized the proposal as dictatorial, illegal and unconstitutional.

Opponents of Roberts' proposal raised the following objections: those who have no garbage should not have to pay for unneeded service; anyone who wants to haul his own trash to the landfill and pay the dumping charge should have that right; pickup service provided by franchised collectors is marginal now and would be worse if their operating areas were expanded.

Also, mobile home park owners can haul their own refuse to the landfill cheaper and more reliably than can the franchised dealers; paying monthly pickup charges would present a financial hardship: enforcement of the anti-dumping ordinance would be better

Wise reminded that commissioners are searching for the least expensive, most equitable solution to the waste disposal problem.

Wilkinson pointed out that an alternative to paying the $3.50 pickup fee might be to raise ad valorem taxes to purchase trucks and trash containers plue heavy equipment and crews required to operate several county landfills.

Commissioner Robert Skipper observed that raising ad valorem taxes to support trash disposal is inequitable because it forces those having relatively little trash to bear a high percentage of the added tax load.

Commissioner Norman "Jug" Heston cited existing illegal dumping as an argument favoring a change in present policy.

Heston recalled a recent cleanup campaign during which county trucks hauled away 200 loads of trash that had been discarded along Memorial Highway, Sebring area.

Commissioner Kelly Phillips entered a plea that something be done immediately to relieve the disposal problem that now exists in the south end of the county.

The Lake Placid landfill has been closed and people there are dumping household garbage on flatbed trailers that haul the waste to the DeSoto City landfill, Wise reported.

Wise said he feels that a suitable replacement landfill site in the southern part of the county can be found.

When county engineer Gordon Hays Jr. said that the Division of Pollution Control would require any new landfill site to be operated strictly according to Florida statute, Wise asked that a member of the Pollution Control office in Ft. Myers be invited to attend the committee's next meeting to clarify new requirements.

Scotty's Instant Homes Expanding Operations Here

Scotty's Instant Homes Inc. is moving to expand operations in northern Highlands County.

A parcel in the W. F. Johnson subdivision, northeast of Avon Park, has been purchased from Ben Hill Griffin Inc.

James Sweet, chairman of the board for Scotty's, parent company for the instant homes corporation, said the newly purchased land will be used for homes expected to sell for $21,500 to $26,000.

He said these are more expensive than the houses sold in Scotty sections of Highlands Homes and Lucas Lakes at Sebring. However, the new Avon Park development will be pitched toward financing backed by Federal Housing Administration or Veterans Administration, as well as Farm Home Administration loans.

The Farm Home loans were the exclusive source of federal help for the Sebring houses.

Sweet said that by expanding

Between The Bookends

By Mrs. R. D. Moore, Librarian

The twentieth edition of that famous year-round handbook for protecting and increasing your capital and income Dun & Bradstreet's Guide to your Investments has arrived at the Library. This is the standard source book for both the investment adviser and the individual investor. It includes 11 sample portfolios for a variety of income and investment goals.

Two more additions have been made to the Reverence Collection this week. Sports Rules Encyclopedia by Jess White and How to Clean Everything by Alma Moore. The tremendous growth of sports and sports education in the past two decades has created a definite need for a publication of sports rules.

Each year tens of thousands of people are involved in the numerous individual, dual and team sports either as participants or as spectators. This widespread development of sports in our American communities has made a rules source an imperative part of sports education.

The official rules for 38 sports and games are to found in the Sports Rules Encyclopedia including such games as croquet, fencing, handball, squash, and water polo.

How to Clean Everything is the authoritative guide to cleaning, conditioning and stain removal for every type of material and surface. This is a completely revised edition to bring everything up to date. Do you have a "Teflon" coated pan but the food is sticking? Got a new dress and you've lost the cleaning directions? This book will save you time and forestall many a minor household problem.

Robert Heinlein — a world famous writer of science fiction — says that The Mote in God's Eye by Larry Niven is possibly the finest science fiction novel he has ever read. This new novel is about human beings making first contact with intelligent but utterly nonhuman aliens. It has received critical acclaim everywhere and is certain to be the prize winning science fiction novel of the year.

Catherine Cookson is one of our most popular authors at the City Library. Her novel is set in the vast tenement section along England's Tyne river docks. A Grand Man combines humor, mature insight and many heartwarming touches to present a realistic and unsentimentalized story of profound love.

The Jade Dragon by Nancy Budkingham is the latest gothic suspense novel to be added to our collection.

The Romance of Atlantis by Taylor Caldwell and Jess Stearn is receiving a great deal of attention in the press. This is supposedly the first novel ever written by Caldwell — written sixty years ago when she was twelve, but permitted to lie fallow for over half a century.

Taylor Caldwell's grandfather, a book editor in Philadelphia, suppressed this book for he could not believe that this creation was the work of a young girl. He concluded that it had been plagiarized. Reading the novel today, but assured of its authenticity, the reader nonetheless understands and shares his sense of wonder.

Understanding Arthritis and Rheumatism; a complete guide to the problems and treatment by Malcolm Jayson is new to our collection.

Deese Charged With Unlawful Burning

Florida Forest Service rangers, often called out to fight fires, expect to be in court soon for another kind of fight. The service is charging Albert Deese with unlawful building of fires and unlawful burning of fires.

Rangers said Deese unlawfully burned trash piles at property off State Road 17 between Sebring and Avon Park. Rangers said the blaze did not escape the immediate area.

Deese's defense counsel has sought dismissal of the charges, but in court March 14 County Judge Mark Richardson Jr. denied the motion.

Question: (What is the meaning of the unprecedented global increase of crime?)

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES. Sun photo — Miller

Answer: Signs like the one above emphasize the great deluge of crime which abounds all over the globe. Lawlessness is rampant every where. Crime is constantly increasing. Law enforcement agencies are unable to cope with the flood of crime which threatens society. Too often those who have been appointed to enforce the law are themselves involved in criminal activity.

There has been a slogan, "Crime does not pay". Obviously, there are more and more people who believe that crime does pay. This is one of the reasons for the tremendous increase of law-breaking. Our courts are far behind in prosecuting the criminal. Too many crimes are never solved. Corrupt judges and lawyers too often favor the criminal than the law-abiding citizen.

All that is necessary for crime to triumph, is for good people to be indifferent about law violation. Instead of cooperating with law enforcement agencies, these good people do not want to become involved. This is a dangerous attitude. To stop the current epidemic of crime, all citizens must become concerned and do all they can to cooperate with those who are responsible to maintain law and order.

The Bible predicts that the last days of this world's history will be characterized by global lawlessness. This know also, that in the last day perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy. Without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good. Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures, more than lovers of God; 2 Timothy 3:1-4. Hear the word of the Lord; children of Israel; for the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land.

Because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. By swearing, and lying and killing, and stealing, and committing adultry, they break out, and blood toucheth blood; Hosea 4:1-2. These scriptures attest that the basic reason for lawlessness and violence is man's departure from the truth and knowledge of God, which if complied with will preserve the human race.

Muck Fire Burning North Of County Line

Rangers with the Highlands County staff of Florida Forest Service are keeping watchful eyes on a muck fire smoldering just one mile north of the Highlands — Polk County line.

The stubborn fire broke out at 5:30 p.m., March 16, near US 27. Heavy rain fell in some parts of Sebring on March 17 but did not extend northward far enough to dampen the fire. The muck pocket harboring the blaze extends far southward into Highlands County.

offerings, the company hopes to reach buyers whose incomes exceeds that permitted under the Farm Home rules. To qualify for Farm Home help, adjusted income for the purchaser could not exceed $11,700.

In Highlands Homes offerings are down to the last six Scotty homes. In Lucas Lakes only two Scotty houses, the final two are for sale.

The land purchased from Griffin is adjacent to Morning Sun Manor section of Avon Park, has city water and sewer service available. Scotty's currently has three or four houses for sale in Morning Sun Manor, Sweet said. Building on the newly acquired site is expected to begin in April, he said.

Tax stamps on the deed indicate that Scotty's paid $40,000 for the Griffin land.

Accreditation

understanding the functions of the department, counselors having too much responsibility in scheduling, the guidance committee not meeting regularly, lack of career education by guidance department and a need for a student handbook. Recommendations called for the correction of these weaknesses.

The educational media program facilitates and enriches the learning experiences afforded students reported the visiting committee. A unified program through the media center is administered by two very competent and certificated media specialists with an atmosphere conducive to study and recreational reading.

Strong points of the media program were: Student oriented philosophy, media specialists were well qualified, an attractive functional media center, flexible scheduling for students, materials and equipment well organized for accessibility and inter-library loan arrangements between school and public library.

On the weak side of the ledger the committee reported that lack of finances to be a deterrant towards building a quality collection of educational media, books worn out and materials out-dated, inadequate collection of books and audio-visual materials for instructional programs, little current fiction for young people, lack of facilities for viewing and listening activities and lack of equipment and supplies for producing audio-visual materials.

Recommendations appeared to center around adequate funding for the purchase of supplies and equipment to up date present materials and equipment along with the expansion of media center facilities, establishment of an area for student and teacher use in preparing class materials, and finally establishment of a media center committee to help formulate policies and objectives.

Dr. Crittenden stated that the deficiencies noted by the visiting committee were identified by the faculty during the self study of the past year. He concluded that the administration and faculty will begin at once to correct as many of the deficiencies and will implement as many of the recommendations as possible.

Winter Guest Hobby Show Draws 1300 Visitors

Once more the Annual Hobby Show, held at the Avon Park Winter Guest Club, was an outstanding success. This was a two day affair, starting at 2 p.m. till 8 p.m. on Wednesday, March 12, continuing 10 a.m. till 4 p.m. on Thursday.

About thirteen hundred people signed the register. These visitors came from as far as California in the West and Vermont in the East, and quite a few states in between. Several providence's in Canada were represented.

Members who were busy all winter brought their finished work to show the public. The result was a beautiful display of talent. Members were demonstrating the various projects taught during the year. These tables were continually surrounded by interested viewers. Corn Husk Dolls, lift off plaques, roses made by heating and shaping plastic spoons held visitors attention. These were projects made at the Club for the first time this winter.

Mrs. Hallie Wetmore appreciated the thought of the members for the beautiful gifts and money. She says both will be put to good use.

There will be two more classes, March 20 and 27 which Mrs. Wetmore hopes will be well attended.

Mrs. Bernice Wilder appreciates all the help given by all the committee's which made this event the success it was. Without their cooperation it would have been "No Show".

State Grange Master Gives Slide Talk On Pakistan

By LAVERNE M. FULLMER

The March 11th meeting of Avon Park Grange was started with a pot-luck supper. Then the officers took their places, the Bible was opened on the Altar and the Flag was presented with singing of The Star Spangled Banner. After distinguished guests were escorted to the Master's station, the other visitors were introduced and welcomed by the Master, Miriam Debo.

Ralph Fullmer and Keith Debo presented the Certificate of Award from the Chamber of Commerce to the Master who presented it to the Grange. This award was "in recognition of Meritorious Civic Service of Avon Park Grange 203 and for unselfish efforts promoting the interests of Avon Park and the welfare of its citizens."

The meeting was then turned over to the Lecturer, Evelyn Goodrich, who had planned an open meeting so non-members could see the slides and hear about the trip to Pakistan by Florida State Master, D. Vincent Andrews and Florida State Secretary, Madelin Andrew.

The people of Pakistan are Muslims and the population is about 65 million.

The central part has the largest irrigated Agricultural area in the world surrounded by high mountains. During the winter the river can be crossed almost anywhere on pontoon bridges of 6 or 8 boats, but when the snow melts the river is 12 miles wide. Farm work is all done by hand and a few oxen. They raise sugar cane, cotton, clover, rice, vegetables, cattle, sheep, goats and a few fine race horses. The slides of citrus groves, date palms and bouganvilla reminded us of Florida. The people are 15 per cent literate, with only the boys going to school to about 5th grade. The women keep out of sight with the lower part of their faces covered. Teacher's salary is $15 a month with other prices in comparison.

The next meeting will be held at the Woman's Club House on March 25 at 7:30 p.m. Plbring your crafts and hobbies for display.

Message Missing Here

Dear Reader,

Because of a printers mistake, the following words about me were omitted from the second page of the SURGICARE 1000 booklet enclosed with this newspaper:

"Mr. Linkletter is a Member of the Board of Directors and has a financial interest in the company."

Frankly, I am proud of my long personal association with National Home Life Assurance Company and I am upset about this omission. As a board member, I know the folks at National Home. They are friendly, hard-working, dedicated people.

And, I think National Home's performing a wonderful service by offering budget-priced supplemental insurance protection to the American family. With today's skyrocketing hospital and doctor bills, every one can use additional money when they go to the Hospital!

For example, the enclosed booklet tells you all about SURGICARE 1000. A low-cost supplemental plan that helps take the worry out of high surgery bills.

I've looked over the policy for myself. And believe me, it's a good one. Read the enclosed booklet carefully to see how this SURGICARE 1000 PLAN can help you with today's higher than ever cost of medical care.

Cordially,

Art Linkletter

P.S. Be sure to read this SURGICARE 1000 booklet enclosed with today's newspaper!

Calvin's Column

By Calvin Gibbs

Hi Friends,

During the past week, I continually received expressions of appreciation for what is now called, Calvin's Column. For this I am grateful. However, I would like that you think of it as your column equally as well, or more so, for its you upon whom I depend to make my reports, and you will determine my success or failure.

This week, March 21, will be the first day of spring. It's that season of year when plants revive and the fragrance of sweet blossoms literally fill the air. So in order to blend with the atmosphere of our naturally new surroundings, I think its also the time that we refresh our smiles and assess our personalities, rectifying everying less than pleasing. If we try it, we may like it.

Special Appeal

Project "Hope" under the direction of the federal government, is seeking volunteers, who will deliver meals to elderly citizens, (60 yrs. old or older) who are incapacitated or in need. Presently, there are only two such volunteers. For information or your availability, please call toll free, 800-282-8097, (Rosemary Deck) or 537-898 (Joyce Olivieri) please call, I am.

Church News:

The Apostolic Church of Jesus will hold its regular services on Sunday. 10 a.m. Sunday school; 11:30 Morning worship and 6:30 p.m., Evening services. You are invited to its Bible discussions on Tuesday and Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. Elder Thomas Brown, Pastor.

The Church of God in Christ, located at the corner of 4th Street and Carolina Avenue, will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its pastor and wife, Elder and Mrs. C. Black in an exhcange of vows, (remarriage) on Sunday, March 23, at 4 p.m. You are especially invited to witness this ceremony and the reception which will follow at the Hopewell school cafetorium.

Sister Joan Gholston taught a beautiful lesson, covering seven major defenses for Christians last Sunday. This was followed by a memorial to the late Deacon Issac Smith and special recognition to Sister Daisy Seasor, who has served the Saint Mark Baptist Church, for more than fifty years.

Necrology:

Obsequies for the late Sarah Cannion, were held Saturday, March 15, at 2 p.m., at Beulah Baptist Church. The eulogy was rendered by Elder C. M. Fogle.

Mrs. Alma Cannion Tucker and family, express their sincere gratitude for your kindness, concurrent to their bereavement.

Citizens of the Week:

Have you recently passed by the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hicks on Third Street near Delaney Avenue? This lovely home, its landscape and gardening present a most picturesque view. Hats off to these citizens, who have demonstrated their loyalty in an effort to promote our appreciation for the "beautiful".

Question of the Week:

What do you consider, the major cause for juvenile delinquency in Avon Park?

Melba Sims (11th Grader) "One of the reasons is, that many of us won't think for ourselves. We do what some of the others do and often, it's wrong. It's not that we really don't know any better, I wonder sometimes if we really care. We know our parents care."

Mrs. Patricia Lyons (Teacher-Aide) "I think that most juvenile delinquency is due to adult delinquency. Usually, they're the pushers and they set the examples. Children are not born with behavior patterns, but are basically receptive to whatever experiences they're exposed to." Mrs. Helen Britt (Parent and Librarian at Avon Park High School) "There are so many contributing factors, that it's difficult to single out any one as the primary cause. To mention a few: a lack of guidance, inadequate recreational facilities, family life, social and economic conditions. However, what's bugging me now is, how much is the latter influencing the increase in juvenile crime?"

Humor of the Week:

"The way to fight a woman is with your hat. Grab it and run". (John Barrymore)

Mrs. Clara Boone

Observations or comments:

Mrs. Clara Boone (Parent and Teacher at Avon Park Middle School)

"We hear the "pros' and 'cons" of America everyday. We hear of its ills and shortcomings; its few "ups" and its many 'downs." Then we pause and wonder, well, what is all of this, and just what are we coming to?" Well, this is what I've decided:

"The constitution of this United States makes me a citizen. Those rights granted to me by that sacred document are implemented more and more by each passing day, and though ,far from perfect, America is the best I know. Whenever there's a problem in my home, I don't leave it and I don't burn it down. I stay right there, and try to help solve the problem. So it is with America. I'm here today, and I'm here to stay. Whatever the price to retain these rights, I'll pay, for America is yours and Mine, to have and to hold."

Hospital

At press time, those hospitalized from our immediate community are: (Little) Willie Lee English, Mrs. Sue Brown. Mr Willie Mitchell, Rose Mary McMillion, Rose Mary Jackson, Daisy Scott, and Bennie Robinson. Mrs. Alberta Livingston has been a homebound patient for about six months.

English lesson for the week:

Wrong: This is between you and I.

Right: This is between you and me.

Explanation: "Me" is the object of the preposition, "between."

Civic:

The local cemetery Association is launching a "clean-up" campaign, effective, March 24-28 for homes and surroundings and one day, Easter Tuesday, April 2, for the cemetery. Please come and bring every tool and equipment available that we may pay homage and reverance with labor, to our deceased loved ones. We owe it; let's pay it. Refreshments will be sponsored by local business.

Sports:

Hurrah! Run, girl, run. Linda McRae, (daughter of Billy and Virginia McRae) set a track record. 100 yd. dash in 11.9.

Harold McRae, local pride and joy, is also setting records with the Kansas City Royals. Speed on Harold, speed on! Guess what? I was his P.E. teacher, and Mr. Sims was his principal, once upon a time. (blush).

Social:

Brother's Restaurant has gone out of its way to prepare comfort and soul food galore, so hurry on down to "Brothers", where the service is always superb.

A capacity crowd turned out for the free-for-all fish fry at the Beachfront last Wednesday night. Some major attractions featuring reknown recording artists are on the agenda for the coming weeks.

Regular entertainment is scheduled for other local businesses.

Thought Conditioner for the week:

In everyday life, we are often discouraged, when every dream of hope seems impossible, and in that bit of comfort we tend to realize, ther's no real evidence of what we really desire. "Keep relaxed, avoid getting panicky and say: 'Let God's will prevail.' " The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. Luke 18:27.

Yours truly

Mrs. Ostling Gives Slide Talk On Canada Trip

The Episcopal Church Women of Avon Park, held their regular monthly meeting, on Wednesday March 12, in the Parish House of the Church of the Redeemer.

Mrs. Earl Freeman called the meeting to order, and the Church Women's Prayer was repeated in unison.

Secretary and Treasurers reports were read and approved. Mrs. Franciso reported on the Feb. Rummage Sale, which was most successful. Mrs. Anne Touchton reported on the Pancake Day, another outstanding success.

It was suggested that it might be possible to run another Rummage Sale in May. Mrs. Francisco said she would check on Rummage brought in and report to the members.

Mrs. John Morris, introduced Mrs. Burton Ostling, speaker for the day. She gave a very interesting talk and showed slides of her recent trip to Quebec and Nova Scotia.

She stated that to her the prettiest scenery in Canada is in the Provinces. She traced their trip from Avon Park to Halifax, more than two thousand miles, stopping to take pictures of interesting and historic sites.

One picture was particularly interesting to Avon Parkers. The "Changing of the Guard" at Quebec City. The Grenadiers wear the same uniforms as our High School Band.

There were so many beautiful pictures and Mrs. Ostlings talk was so interesting, it was an hour well spent, and one to be remembered.

Mrs. Ostling also stated the trip was so enjoyable they plan to go back in the near future. We all hope she takes more pictures and shows them to the E.C.W.

Mrs. Jane Betts and Mrs. Grace Romilly were in charge of the refreshments.

Heuvelmans Speaks On "The River Killers"

The author of "The River Killers" Martin Heuvelmans, Citizen, of Stuart, Fla. will speak on the activities of the Corps of Engineers in Florida at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Mar. 27 at the auditorium at South Florida Junior College. All interested residents and visitors are invited to attend.

Born in Belgium, Martin Heuvelmans emigrated to the United States at eight years of age, when his father was appointed Atlantic Coast Cargo superintendent for the firm of Louis Dreyfus and Co., the great international grain merchants of the early 20th century.

At age 21 he started a concrete block business which promptly failed. However, he began an extremely profitable company providing sand and gravel to contractors. Later, it was back to maritiming and then into real estate and retirement, all of which Mr. Heuvelmans has accomplished successfully.

"The River Killers" by Martin Heuvelmans, Citizen, cries out for an end to the planned, programmed, literal killing of our waterways and all that lives in and around them. It exposes how one government agency continually perpetuates its own existence through the deception of a well-meaning citizenry and by infiltration of local governments

Devils Lose Heart Breaker To Sebring

Two out-of-town losses and a win at home last week evened out the Red Devil varsity baseball team's record at 5-5 for the year. The Devils lost 9-8 in a ten inning game in Okeechobee to the Brahmans on Tuesday afternoon a week ago. Then last Friday night the Avon Park nine slipped by Fort Meade 5-4 here at home and last Saturday night in Sebring the Blue Streaks embarrassed the Devils with a 6-0 no-hit shut-out.

Last Tuesday night the Devils were to host the Lake Placid Green Dragons here at Head Field. Tomorrow night (Friday) Avon Park will be at home to the Hardee High Wildcats and next Thursday, Mar. 27, the Devils will play Okeechobee here. That game has been moved up from Friday, Mar. 28, to Thursday, Mar. 27.

Okeechobee 9 Avon Park 8

It took the Okeechobee Brahmans ten innings to defeat the Avon Park Red Devils last week in a hard-played game in Okeechobee. The Devils trailed 7-1 at the end of the first inning as the Brahmans put together five singles, a double and four Avon Park errors to jump off to the big lead. Avon Park scored four runs in the top of the second and two more in the fifth to tie the game up. Then in the sixth inning the Devils went ahead when Brad Beumel doubled and was knocked in by a Timmy Massey double.

In the last of the seventh inning the Brahmans tied the game back up 8-8 as Hedges singled, stole second and came home on an infield throwing error when T. Enrico hit a ground ball. The winning run was scored in the bottom of the tenth inning by T. Enrico. He singled, took second and third on two consecutive errors by Devil infielders and was driven home by a sacrifice fly hit by Williams for the Brahmans.

Jamie Tomlinson started on the mound for Avon Park but was relieved by Timmy Massey with two down in the first inning. Tomlinson gave up seven runs and six hits in his two thirds of an inning of pitching. Massey finished out the game for the Devils allowing five more hits and two runs to take the loss. The Red Devils got fifteen hits but left ten runners on base and committed eight errors.

Avon Park 5 Ft. Meade 4

Last Friday night at Head Field the Red Devils managed to take a 5-4 victory rom the Ft. Meade Miners in a game that saw both teams make five errors each. The Devils took the winning run free of charge as Miner pitcher Mike Coulter walked in Freddie Moore who had driven in pinch runner John MicKunas to tie the game up.

Avon Park's Jimmy Douberley went the distance for the Devils on the mound. He game up four runs, six hits as he fanned nine Miner batters. The senior hurler walked only one Ft. Meade batter during the seven inning game.

The Avon Park team also got six hits off losing pitcher Mike Coulter. Mort Jackson, Jim Johnson, Mike Pool, Brad Beumel, Jamie Tomlinson and Freddie Moore all hit a single each for the fifth Red Devil win of the year.

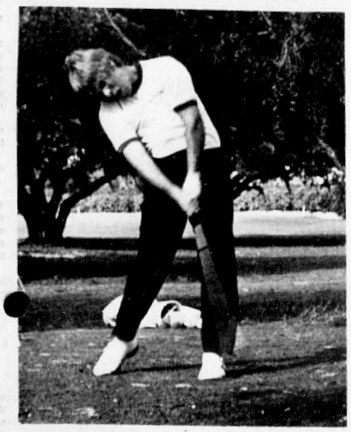

Sebring 6 Avon Park 0

Sebring's Jerry Heston struck out sixteen Red Devils as he tossed a no-hitter at Avon Park last Saturday night to lead the Blue Streaks to a 6-0 win. The young lefthander walked two Devils but picked them both off first base. Only four Avon Park runners reached base in the seven inning affair.

Timmy Massey started on the mound for Avon Park and pitched two full innings. He gave up two runs and two singles to the Streaks before he was relieved by Jamie Tomlinson at the beginning of the third inning. Tomlinson pitched the remaining four frames giving up four runs on a triple and two singles while the Devil team committed a total of 10 errors during the six innings of defensive ball. The win gave Sebring an 8-4 record for the season while Avon Park went to a 5-5 mark excluding the tie game with Wauchula.

BREAK-IN REPORTED

A breaking and entering of the food services area at Walker Memorial Hospital was reported to Highlands County sheriff's department March 12.

Devil Golfers Defeat Father Lopez's Team

A week-end trip to Daytona resulted in a win over Father Lopez of that city for the Avon Park Red Devil golfers. The Devils outshot the Father Lopez foursome by a score of 167-175 with Dale Sisemore's 38 pacing the Avon Park team to the win.

Earlier last week, however, Kathleen and Lake Brantley both defeated the Red Devil foursome as Lake Brantley's team shot a 158 and Kathleen finished the nine holes with a 159 while Avon Park came in with a 176 total.

Last Tuesday afternoon the Red Devils were set to go to the Little Cypress Course to play Hardee High and today (Thursday) the Devils will take on the Bulldogs on the Frostproof course. Next week Avon Park will play Mulberry on Monday, Mar. 24, on the Jeckle-Hyde Course there; take on Okeechobee here at Pinecrest on Tuesday, Mar. 25; and then host DeSoto and Lake Wales at Pinecrest on Thursday, Mar. 27.

John DuPriest led the Devils against the two low-scoring Kathleen and Lake Brantley teams with a 38 stroke effort last week. Dale Sisemore came in with a 42 and Billy Tharp, Billy King and Steven Ford all shot 48's for the nine holes.

In Daytona Dale Sisemore was the top shooting Devil with a 38, John DuPriest had a 40, Billy Tharp shot a 44, and Billy King had a 45 as Avon Park won its seventh match of the season. The Devils are now 7-12 for the year.

Bill Hood Will Drive In Race Saturday

Racing driver Bill Hood, Avon Park will again pit his skill Saturday against some of the country's best race drivers as a member of the three man driving team of Scot Chapman, Frostproof, Corvette owner and Bobby Dumont, Sebring.

The 1973 Corvette owned by Chapman has had its geometrics altered to make it a completely new car for the Sebring 12 hour endurance race.

Sponsored by Russ Albritton Chevrolet, Sebring, the Corvette was registered Wednesday in the 2.5 liter and over GT (grand touring) class. As such it will "run to win" according to Chapman. It will be in pit 60. The team will make their qualifying run on Friday.

Hood and Chapman, sponsored by Ben Hill Griffin and OK Tires Center went 79 laps in the 1973 Sebring race, placing 21st overall and ninth in their class.

Part of the race strategy is for each driver to be at the wheel for approximately two hours and twenty minutes or for two fuel stops. In case of rain — keep going, but tip-toe through the puddles, as it were.

Working on the pit crew from Avon Park are: Jim Allen, Bill Boyer and Dennis Hood. While King Smith, DeVere Williams and Ruddy Wise are coming from Frostproof and Mark Chapman if he can get back in time.

WITH THE REQUIRED window safety net in place on the '73 Corvette, owner-driver Scott Chapmen, Frostproof and drivers Bill Hood, Avon Park and Bobby Dumont, Sebring are ready to run, with the racing car pit crew ready to keep them running in the Sebring races. PRE GAME HUDDLE breaks up and the Avon Park High School Red Devil baseball squad is all set to take on the Ft. Meade Miners at Head Field last Friday night from which they emerged the winners by a 5-4 score. Photo—Miller.

Red Devil Tennis Teams Take Matches With Okeechobee

The girls and boys Red Devil tennis teams both won matches over Okeechobee here at the city courts last Thursday afternoon. Matches with Lake Placid were rained out here last Friday afternoon and will possibly be finished when the Devil teams go to Lake Placid later this spring. Both Avon Park teams were ahead when the rains came.

The girls will be at home at the city courts to the Sebring girls today (Thursday) starting at 3:00 o'clock and were scheduled to host the Frostproof girls here last Tuesday afternoon. The boys team was to play in Sebring last Monday afternoon and in Frostproof last Tuesday but will be idle today.

The Red Devil girls won over Okeechobee here by an identical 4-3 score as when they met in Okeechobee the previous week. But number one Devil Becky Crittenden lost her match to Beth Turberville 8-7. Lisa Clifford won the number two match for Avon Park taking Judy Rucks 8-0. Diane King knocked off Patty Posado 8-2 in the number three singles game while Nancy Crittenden had a little trouble with fourth place Debbie Prescott and lost 8-3. Jane Eberle won the number five singles for the Devils with an 8-2 victory over Charlene McDugald. In doubles Becky Crittenden and Lisa Clifford lost to Turberville and Posado 8-5 but Diane King and Jane Eberle beat Rucks and Prescott 8-4 for the match winning game.

B Squad Wins One Loses Two

Coach Joe Strickler's Red Devil "B" squad baseball team dropped two games last week and won one to move to a 3 - 2 record for the year. The Devil "Bees" lost 1 - 0 to Lake Wales, won over Frostproof 8 - 1, and then lost to Okeechobee 9-4 there.

Today, Thursday, Mar. 20, the Avon Park "B" team will host the Sebring Blue Streaks here at Head Field at 4:00 p.m. and next Monday

Track Team Meets Sebring For County Title

The Avon Park boys track team ran yesterday (Wednesday) in Sebring against the Blue Streaks in the county meet. Lake Placid High did not field a team for the track season so only Avon Park and Sebring will compete for the Highlands County title this year. The Red Devils have captured the county title the past six years. They were rated underdogs yesterday against the fast improving Sebring squad however.

Today (Thursday) at 4:00 o'clock the Devils will be host to the Moore Haven Terriers in a dual meet at the High School track. Next Wednesday, March 26, the Devils will travel to Frostproof for a tri-meet with Moore Haven and Frostproof.

The Red Devil boys finished fourth in a seven-team meet in Ft. Meade last Thursday. Team totals showed Lake Wales the meet winner with a 117 score, Fort Meade with 75, Santa Fe 45, Avon Park 41, Mulberry 40, St. Pete Admiral Farragut 21 and Frostproof 7.

Kenneth Burley and Ralleigh Turnbull had the only two first place finishes for Avon Park. Burley took the 120-yard low hurdles in 16.9 seconds and Turnbull won the mile run in 5:15.9 minutes. Fourth place finishes went to Anthony Gaines in the 100-yard dash with a 10.5 second timing, Darrell Davis in the shot put with a toss of 44 ft. ½ inch, Ricky Claitt with a 116 ft. 6 in. toss into a high wind with the discus and Clifford Coleman with a 5 ft. 4 in. leap in the high jump.

The 880-yard relay team of Gaines, Robert Brown, Mack Caldwell, and David Williams captured a fourth place also with a good time of 1:39.9 minutes. Three individuals and one relay team captured fifth place finishes. Anthony Gaines sped to a 24.6 second clocking in the 220-yard dash. James Hamilton ran a fine 2:19.2 minute 880-yard run and Jack Collins had an 11:38 performance in the two-mile run.

The sprint-medley team of Ernest Brown, Robert Brown, Mack Caldwell and Charlie Glenn raced to a fifth place finish in 2:26.5.

Three sixth place spots rounded out the Red Devil scoring. Kenneth Burley took sixth in the high jump at 5 ft. 2 in. and in the long jump with an 18 ft. 6 in. leap. Darrell Davis had sixth position in the discus throw with a heave of 109 feet.

Devilette Track Team Host Sebring In County Meet

The Devilette track team hosted Sebring in the Girls' Highlands County Track Meet last Tuesday at the Avon Park track and will travel to Sebring next Tuesday, Mar. 25, for a four-team meet. The Avon Park girls are the defending Highlands County champions.

The Devils girls gained revenge against Hardee High last Tuesday a week ago as they raced to a 67-47 victory over a Wildcat squad that had knocked them from the ranks of the unbeaten the Friday before. The win set the lady track team's record at 4-1 for the season.

New school records continued to be set by the Avon Park girls. Margie Taylor set one in the 110-yard low hurdles with a time of 16.6 seconds to take second place in that event in the meet. The 100-yard dash mark was lowered to 11.9 seconds by Linda Faye McRae.

Two of the new records came in the 440-yard and 880-yard relays as the same four ladies put it together. The new 440 relay mark is 53.1 seconds set by Linda McRae, Renee Crocker, Hattie Rich and Sharon McRae. The same foursome moved the 880-yard relay mark to 1:52.9 minutes. In just four meets this year, the lady thin-clads have broken 24 school records. The only record safe this far is a 27.5 second 220-yard dash mark set by Sharon McRae in 1974.

Other Devil girls capturing points in the victory over Hardee last week were Hattie Rich in the long jump at 15 ft. 2 in., Denese Johnson in the shot put with a 27 ft. 8 in. throw and Cathy McCook second in that event with a 27 ft. 5 in. toss. The top three spots in the softball toss went to Margie Taylor, Renee Crocker and Maxine Tate. Maxine Tate also won the 880-yard run with a time of 2:47.5 minutes and was backed up in second place by Margaret Lynn Miracle with a timing of 2:50.6 minutes.

The customary one-two punch of the Devils showed up in the 220-yard dash where Sharon McRae and Hattie Rich swept to a 29.0 and a 29.6 second time for first and second place.

Mary Coleman won the discus toss with a throw of 83 ft. 5 in. and also captured third in the high jump with a leap of 4 ft. 4 in. Johnnie McRae captured second in the discus. Sherri Collier in the mile and Renee Crocker in the 100-yard dash picked up third place ribbons for the Red Devils.

Two girls who did not place but turned in their own personal best performances were Tracy Jones with a 12.5 second effort in the 100-yard dash and Sue Chandler with an excellent 18.5 second sprint over the 110-yard low hurdles.

"We hope the girls continue to turn out those records," laughed Coach Chet Brojek, "We are expecting several girls to join the team as soon as they become eligible. Cassandra Gray, Corrine Jackson, Armenia Collins, Sarah Rowe and Ida King should help our depth in the sprints, the mile and the long jump."

Marathon To Benefit Olympics

The Noncommissioned Officers Association (NCOA) will sponsor the first non-stop coast-to-coast marathon, Mar. 24-Apr. 2 to benefit the Kennedy Foundation's Special Olympics sports program for mentally retarded youth.

In Florida, the Special Olympics run will originate in Tampa and Key West. Starting times will be staggered to allow participants to meet in Titusville, run up the coast to Jacksonville, west to Pensacola and on to Mobile, Ala. where they will meet marathon runners from Washington, D. C.

The national marathon route continues to Houston, Tex. where runners from California will join East Coast participants for the NCOA Apr. 2 annual convention.

All proceeds from the Florida run will be used to defray expenses of Florida Special Olympics participants to the International Games in August.

The state marathon will take place Mar. 24-29 and will include runners from NCOA, jogging clubs, YMCA fitness programs, highschool and college track teams, and all others interested in participating.

Founded by the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. Foundation in 1968, the Special Olympics Program is the world's first and largest sports and recreation event for the mentally retarded. More than 400,000 youth now take part in programs of sports training and athletic competition in every state of the Union, Canada, France, and Switzerland.

Special Olympics provides activities for all mentally retarded youth regardless of the level of their disability in track and field, swimming, diving, gymnastics, basketball, volleyball, floor hockey, ice skating, bowling, wheelchair events, and games specially adapted for the blind.

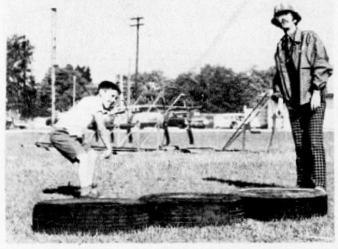

The Fourth International Special Olympics which will take place Aug. 7-11 at Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, Mich. is the culmination of more than 15,000 local state and regional games.

This competition is not directed solely toward winning but has as its main purpose participation. Involvement in this program gives individuals the chance to develop and test their strength and coordination, as well as provide an opportunity for individual competition and play. The Special Olympics oath is . . . "Let me win, but if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt."

Contact the NCOA representative in your area for additional information and local activities.

THE BANNER MADE by the Sebring Junior Woman's Club will be placed in competition at the State Special Olympics meet. These youngsters, Emmy Douglas, Lake Placid; Vivian Connie, Avon Park and Jack Charles Howard of Sebring have improved their skills rapidly since physical training has started at their schools. Panthers Improve But Lose Slug Fest With Brevard

South Florida Junior College dropped a Division III doubleheader to Brevard on Monday, March 10.

Mark Jackson pitched the first game, giving up 3 unearned runs to lower his season's E.R.A. to 1.84. The Panthers had scoring opportunities, with runners on first and second in the second, fourth, and fifth innings, but failed to score. Larry Berg, designated hitter, had two hits and Robert Webb kept his 400+ average by collecting a single in the 4th.

The second game turned into a real slugfest with Brevard collecting 21 hits, 9 for extra bases. The Panthers had their bats ready with 15 hits.

Brevard, the Division III leaders at 4-0 and 10-4 overall, scored 10 runs in the first two innings off starter Mike McFall, including 4 doubles and a home run. Most teams would have folded after being behind 10-0 in the first two innings. Not the Panthers, however, who have been showing steady improvement and have played good baseball their last six outings. The Panthers came back in the bottom of the second and scored four runs. Kieth McCarter led off by reaching first base on an error. Dave Lind followed with a single and Mike Miller walked. Kendall Carson sent a deep fly ball to left field scoring McCarter. Mark Jackson scored Lind and Miller with a double. Jackson scored the fourth run on a single by Robert Webb. Two more runs followed in the third, when a single by Tom Ambrogi, an error by the shortstop put McCarter on and both were driven home by Miller's double to left center.

SFJC made the game 12-11 by scoring five more in the fifth. Four straight singles by McCarter, Lind, Miller and Carson, followed by a triple by Webb and a double by Berg closed the gap.

Brevard and SFJC each scored a single run the seventh to leave the score at 13-12 in favor of Brevard. Three straight singles by Jackson, DeWitt and Webb accounted for the Panthers score.

Brevard added three more runs in the eighth and ninth on a couple of home runs to finish the scoring marathon at 16-12.

First game:

Brevard	020 000 1 — 3-7-1
SFJC	000 000 0 — 0-4-2

Harper and Bochy; Jackson and DeWitt

Second game:

SFJC	042 050 100 12-15-5

Fairbanks, Simons (5) and Bochy; McFall, Bass (2) and DeWitt. HR-Bochy, Gallagher, Cooper-Brevard.

Educational Activities

The real success in the Recreation Department's program has been the "educational, or instructional" type activities, such as: Tennis, karate, slimnastics and square dances. These programs offered by the city always have a large number of participants and Guenther will try to offer more of these type programs.

The public hearing scheduled for March 10th has been continued until Monday March 24th at 7:40 p.m. on Ordinance No. 582. This is proposed recreation ordinance. All desiring to be heard for or against will be given an opportunity to speak at that time. March 13, 1975.

It is fun to get out and romp with our children, to share in their joy. Sometimes it is even work to pull them on a sled. Afterwards you may be tired and bones and muscles ache, but you think fondly of the laughter, and squeals of delight and the love that shines in a child's eyes. Then you think it's all worth the effort, for they won't be young forever, and someday you will only have memories.

They won't be young forever and now is the time that they need a pull in the direction toward God. Now is the time that you can lead and share in the joys of their worship. Take your children to Church

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Public Officials To File Six Page Financial Disclosure Statement Of Few Questions

Approximately a half-dozen "early birds" have joined newly elected public officials in filing statements required under Florida's new financial disclosure law.

Officials elected since the passage of the law in the spring of 1974 were required to file disclosure before they could be seated. These statements were in addition to the ones made when they qualified as candidates.

Circuit Court Clerk Earl Rich, charged with responsibility for collecting and reporting for the Florida Commission on Ethics, has not received from Tallahassee (the Secretary of State's office) the official list of names of persons who must file financial disclosure statements.

All appointed and elected officials must make the statements by May 15. Some appointed, non-salaried officials have indicated reluctance to conform to the new requirements.

Few Questions

Although the form contains six pages, each 14 inches long, there are few questions involved. The front page asked for name, telephone number, complete address, title or position held or sought as a candidate.

Public officers are to indicate the dates for their present term of office, and candidates supply dates for the office they seek.

Those queries, together with brief statements about which form of statement is being filed (state or federal income tax), signature and date of filing fill the first page.

Each of the succeeding pages has a single question, holds a single question and many blank spaces for answers.

First query is about source of income. "Name every source of income, including money or things of value, that produced 10 per cent or more of your gross income for the preceding taxable years. You do NOT have to name or list as a source any dividends, interest, moneys received from guardianship, alimony, child support, retirement compensation, disability compensation, or any compensation (including wages) from any level of government service, but you must include them in calculating your gross income.

"Do NOT include, as gross income or as sources of income, money or things of value given to you by your spouse or campaign contributions which are authorized by Florida law and which are expended for campaign purposes. 'Source' refers to a normal category of income production, such as a medical or law practice, a store, or salary and wages from non-government employment....", the form directs.

Business Income

The second question gets to the sources of business income. If the office holder owns directly or indirectly 10 or more of the total assets or capital stock of any business and if the office holder has in the preceding tax year received $1,500 or more from that business and further, if that income constituted more than 15 per cent of the official's gross income, then the official "must report every source of income of that business which produced 15 per cent or more of that business's. . . .gross income."

Interest in some specific businesses must be reported under the third query on the form. If the office holder owns directly or indirectly 10 per cent of more of the total assets or capital stock or has received 10 per cent or more of the net distributed income from one of these specified business, then he must list those businesses.

The specified businesses are chartered banks, savings and loan associations, small loan companies, liquor businesses (either wholesale or retail), companies dealing in pari-mutuel wagering, utility, cemeteries, insurance, mortgage or title insurance, credit unions, any company controlled by the Public Service Commission or operating under a franchise granted by a municipal or county government.

Debts and Assets

The final half of the queries have to do with debts and assets. All debts on which the office holder is paying a preferential interest rate must be listed. Amount of the debt does not have to be stated.

The official holder does not have to list his net worth, but he must list each debt which "at any time during the preceding taxable year was outstanding and exceeded your net worth."

The final query is for "any asset, tangible or intangible, which had a value greater than 15 pert cent of the total value" of all assets in the preceding taxable year.

Real property located outside of Florida, personal residence, recreation or vacation homes do not need to be listed separately but must be figured into the total assets. Total value of all assets do not have to be stated.

Rarden's FFA Land Judging Team To Represent County

The Avon Park FFA chapter won first place at the Tri-County Land Judging Contest in Zolfo Springs Pioneer Park last month.

The team was made up of Dennis Avery, Steve Ford, John Kruse, and Terry Lanzing, and was supervised by FFA Advisor Bill Rarden. This team will represent Highlands County in the State Land Judging Contest.

The team from the Sebring Middle School won second place, under advisor Eric Annett. The team was comprised of Allen Fields, Bruce Miller, Gerald Murphy and Mike Waldron.

Lake Placid High, under the supervision of advisor Tom Pella, took third. Its team comprised of Richard White, Joe Jowers, Harold Smith and Ricky Durrance.

Sebring High, under advisor Steve Skipper, came in fourth. Their team was made up of Marty Green, John O'Berry, Mark Lucious and Richard Hand.

Several teams from the various chapters participated, with approximately 50 students from Highlands County schools and a total of 75 from the three counties; Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto.

The contest was hosted by the Hardee Soil Conservation District and instructions on land use and land judging were given by John Herbert, extension conservationist, University of Florida.

Police Log

By GENE HANCOCK

Safety Patrol

Members of the 74-75 school year Safety Patrol from the Middle School were the guests of the Police Department Saturday morning. The youngsters were given a tour of the Police department by Ptl. Gene Hancock and briefed on radio communications, finger-printing of offenders, operation of the breathalyzer machine, used to determine the alcohol content in the body, an operation of the video tape machine. This process allows persons to be filmed on tape with the film played back on a small TV set. After viewing two police training films on "Residential Burglary" and "Business Burglary" the Patrol was given a tour through the Fire Station by Fireman Fred Cook. The group was then treated to lunch at Maryland Fried Chicken.

Break-in at Village Trends

The Village Trends, formerly "Ridge Discount" was broken into during the night of Mar. 13. Investigation by Police disclosed that person (s) unknown entered the building through the front door located on the north after breaking the glass door with a large rock. While inside, subjects took an undetermined amount of mens clothing. Seven pairs of mens slacks and one shirt were later found along the apparent escape route used by the culprits. The investigations is continuing by both the Police and Sheriff Departments.

Burgler Gets Away Without Money

A burglary suspect got away — but without any money. Sheriff's deputies joined Avon Park city police in attempts to apprehend a man the police had spotted trying to break-in at Prescott liquor store on Lake Anoka the night of March 7.

Dogs from Avon Park Correctional Institution were used in the pursuit, but the would-be burglar eluded both dogs and men.

Women's Council Sends Donation To Taronto

The Women's Council of the First Christian Church held a meeting in the Fellowship Hall of the Church Thursday evening, March 13.

Mrs. Mary Stutsman had charge of the program, which was of a missionary nature. She told of the the Toronto Christian Mission, which was started nine years ago, for the purpose of sending Christian messages to the Iron Curtain Countries.

The time being near Easter, she read Scriptures concerning the Resurrection, and a "Legend of the Trees". She ended the program with a poem "For Others," and prayer.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Clifford Dance, Vice-President conducted the business meeting. Reports of officers were read and approved.

Tentative plans were made for vacation Bible School. A nominating committee was appointed, they were Mrs. Byron Harwood, Mrs. Martha Ayers, and Mrs. Hazel Freeland.

Everyone decided to send a donation to the Toronto Christian Mission.

The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Clifford Dance, and Mrs. Gilbert Dance. Refreshments were served and the table decorations carried out the St. Patrick's Day theme.

IT'S WHAT'S OUTSIDE THAT COUNTS

The manner of giving shows the character of the gift giver, more than the gift itself," said an 18th century philosopher. And you know for yourself that a present wrapped in bows and fancy paper—the gift-giver's crafts creation—inspires special warm feelings.

Here are some essential tips about wrapping a circular or oval gift, from experts at the Gift Wrappings and Tyings Association.

For round or oval boxes, trace the top and bottom of the box and cut out two circles. Wrap the box, trimming the overlap so it can be turned under slightly. The paper should extend over the top and bottom of the box slightly. Snip the ends of the wrapping paper even with the edges of the box. Secure with paste or tape. Attach the circles to the top and bottom with paste or concealed tape.

A well-wrapped gift with coordinated paper and bows can make a present almost as nice to receive as it is to open.

LET'EM EAT SHRIMP

You can serving and shrimp and still eat shrimp. That's the good news for your food budget because it is plentiful right now, the cost is modest, ate and you can afford to serve shrimp often to your family.

In fact shrimp is becoming an increasingly popular buy because it boasts support in keeping supplies up and prices down.

Cleaned, breaded, packaged frozen shrimp, in particular, is being sold at very attractive prices, according to the National Fisheries Institute. These crunchy little tidbits can contribute glamor to a quick, inexpensive and highly nutritious meal.

Here's a delicious example that's energy-saving, because the rice and shrimp can be cooked in the oven at the same time, and time-saving because the shrimp is already breaded and ready for cooking.

Shrimp Around-The-Rice

2 cups cooked rice
3/4 cup shredded sharp natural Cheddar cheese (3 ounces)
3/4 cup chopped pimiento-stuffed olives
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons melted butter
1 package (1 lb.) frozen breaded shrimp
Bottled meat-and-fish sauce

Combine rice, cheese and olives; stir in egg. Chill 1 hour. Shape into 4 or 5 rounded mounds on buttered cookie sheet; make a depression in center of each. Brush with butter. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Meanwhile, prepare frozen shrimp as directed on package. To serve: Place a rice mound on each plate. Holding by tail end, arrange shrimp around rice mounds so that curved part is hooked over rim of mounds. Fill depressions in rice mounds with sauce. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Serve with peas, crusty French bread and fresh garden salad for a gourmet meal. Shrimp will never put a crimp in your style.

Guilty Plea Entered In Embezzlement

A former Highlands County bank official entered a plea of guilty to one count of embezzlement, Mary Frances Whidden, formerly assistant vice president of Avon Citrus Bank, entered the plea in the southern division of United States District Court.

She has been scheduled to go on trial in Fort Pierce Monday, March 24.

Mrs. Whidden was employed by Avon Citrus Bank for 12 years and had held the assistant vice president post for a short time prior to her resignation about a year ago. She had been named in a three-count federal indictment handed down late in 1974.

Charles Hoke, president, of the Avon Park bank, said prosecution had originated with the federal government. He confirmed information that the investigation in the case had followed a bank examination.

The indictment was under a federal law on financial institutions protected under federal investors insurance, and under provisions dealing with bank employes.

Bank officials refused to comment on amounts of money which were involved in the prosecution of Mrs. Whidden. Both defense counsel, Jack Edmund of Bartow, and federal court staff, ducked questions about what will happen to the other two counts of the indictment.

Mrs. Whidden lives in Sebring.

Council Split On Ordinance, Mayor Threatens First Veto

After much discussion Recreation Ordinance No. 582 was passed by a 3 to 2 vote of the Avon Park City Council with Mayor Marshall Davis promising to veto the ordinance.

Altogether 14 people came to the regular Monday night meeting favoring the recreation ordinance while only one took the time and effort to come and voice his objections.

Former Council member Clarence King in a letter to the council stated his objections to Ordinance No. 582, pointing out that many years ago some people won a court battle to get out of the city, thereby avoiding the paying of taxes. He objected to the part about board members being from the Avon Park area and he didn't want anyone from outside the city limits to vote budget expenditures for city tax payers. And he objected to outside people on boards when they were not paying city taxes.

The first of many speakers for the ordinance, Dan Davis, city resident and taxpayer stated the Recreation Center served many people of the area, that while funds came mostly from the city—the county has budgeted $50,000 for Avon Park recreation and there is the possibility of state and federal funds. The recreation members were appointed by the city council and are serving in an advisory capacity and do not spend city money. Therefore area people should be considered. Davis concluded that as a member of the recreation committee he would gladly give his seat to someone outside the city who would do a better job than he was doing.

While not in the city, Ronnie Sachsenmaier said he was considering moving into the city but he favored area members for the recreation committee citing that many people living outside the city have business and property within the city and are paying city taxes. People outside the city are allowed to hook on to city water and sewage systems (at a higher rate). These people are called on to chaperone church, school and other activities and many Civic Club and Chamber of Commerce members live outside the city.

Speaking for the Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Hurd, president, stated 20 of their 39 members live outside the city and it is difficult to find women who are willing to work with them on their projects. Thus they favored utilizing the talents of area residents.

Speaking from years of experience on the airport committee and living outside the city but paying city taxes on a business inside the city, Weyman Carver told the city council it would be short-sightness if the city didn't utilize free talent of area residents. The city Judge, David Lanier, lives outside the city with City Attorney Jack Hancock living in Sebring and the city is paying many outside people for advice.

Carver continued that the city would do well to utilize tax dollars by using the talents of these people. There was no possibility of committees spending money without the council's consent. Committee members can be replaced by the council for more qualified people. Carver urged the city to put experience on all boards having an advisory capacity.

Councilman Ed Touchton, the first councilman to speak on the ordinance stated the city could not afford to run without the help of those living outside the city. Of the city budget, $308,000 comes from revenue sharing and the city has applied to Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for $315,000. The $855,000 budget has 40 percent coming from sources other than the city of Avon Park.

He stated that the city cannot afford to operate without its neighbors and in restating his position moved that Ordinance No. 582 be placed on second reading, which was seconded

Budget Troubles Plague Commission

Elusive receipt and expenditure estimates continue to thwart commissioners' attempts to balance the county budget.

After spending more than an hour Tuesday afternoon probing for potential savings in their fiscal year 1974-1975 financial plan, commissioners were still about $100,000 short of their balanced budget goal.

Their General Fund budget appeared to be some $18,000 in the red; and their Road and Bridge Dept. budget was more than $83,000 underfunded.

Deputy clerk Jim Pyle and county administrator Charles Cullens suggested various budgetary revisions that reduced anticipated deficits in the General Fund from $92,922 to $18,557.

County engineer Gordon Hays Jr. recommended that federal revenue sharing funds be used to pay for new road construction in the Road and Bridge Dept.

Hospital Team Work

Corneal Transplant Successful

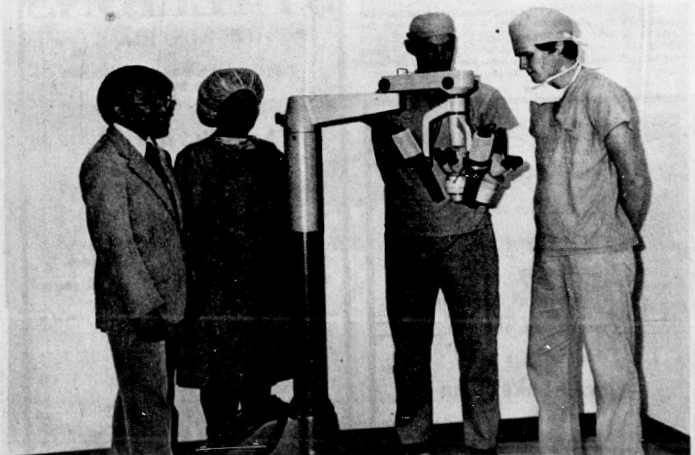

"The first successful corneal transplant at Walker Memorial Hospital, Avon Park, on Wednesday March 12, 1975 was the result of a team effort," stated Dr. Tony Chen, with The Lion's Eye Bank Inc., Bascom Palmer Institute, commercial airlines, The Air Corps at Mac Dill Field (MAST), Walker Memorial Hospital and operating room personnel cooperating to restore sight to Bennie Robinson's right eye.

Bennie Robinson of Jacksonville received a chemical burn (liquid potash) on the right eye resulting in a severe inflammation and scar. Looking straight ahead Bennie could not see and was barely able to see a hand held out when his head was truned down. Eighty per cent of the Cornea was covered with scar tissue which blocked light from entering the eye.

The Department of Vocational Rehabilitation referred Bennie to Dr. Tony Chen who after examining the eye explained the risks and benefits involved in the corneal transplant procedure. And despite the risks Bennie said to go ahead with the operation.

The next step was to register for an eyeball with the Lions Eye Bank, Inc. at the Bascom Palmer Institute in Miami. A month passed before Dr. Chen

Bennie Robinson By Lew Miller

How It Feels To See Again ?

How does 34 year old Bennie Lee Robinson of Jacksonville, Fla. feel now that he can see normally with his right eye for the first time since Nov. 5, 1971? His feelings are that he wants to tell everyone how wonderful it is to be able to see again. And how thankful he is to Dr. Chen and all who helped make it possible.

On Nov. 5, 1971, as the manager of a dance hall in Jacksonville Bennie had liquid potash thrown in this face. The caustic chemical painfully burned his right eye along with burning off the hair from the right side of his head.

He was at the Duval Medical Center for treatment for six months and continued treatment as an outpatient from the center. In 1973 the institution sent him to Gainesville for treatment.

In October of 1974, upon examination of Bennie's eyes, Dr. Tony Chen, said he could do something. Bennie stated that all the necessary paper work for the operation was completed by Mr. Post of the Bureau of Rehabilitation at APCI. APCI arranged for the necessary time off for surgery and hospitalization.

From his hospital room on that Wednesday evening Bennie with his good left eye saw the helicopter land. Then he received his pre-operation shots and recalled that he awoke in the recovery room.

The following morning, Thursday, as Dr. Chen was changing the eye dressing, Bennie moved his head a little—whereupon Dr. Chen asked Bennie if he could see and held up his hand and said, "How many fingers?"

Bennie promptly replied, "Five." Another doctor in the room at the time time slowly said there's only four fingers, but Bennie replied quickly with "The thumb is folded across the palm of the hand."

Bennie was up and around 48 hours after the operation with the sight of the right eye improving each day. Monday he could easily see the Seventh Day Adventist Church across the lake but couldn't quite make out the window sash. He could distinguish colors and had watched TV for a half hour on Friday. But he hasn't tried to read—it was still too much strain.

In expecting to be released from the hospital on Tuesday Bennie stated that special eye drops would be used with his eye and someone from the APCI clinic would come to the hospital to see what procedures were used in the care of his eye. He would return to Dr. Chen's office for an appointment on Friday.

What will Bennie do when returning to APCI? He hasn't heard what he will be doing, although he had been working as shomaker before the operation.

When asked what his family thought of his being able to see with both eyes again, Bennie a little sadly said that Mr. Post of the Bureau had not been able to reach his mother as her phone had been disconnected. However, Mr. Post had written to her. But Bennie has not received any mail, for when leaving the compound a person's mail is placed into a box until he has a new address or returns and no mail had been brought to him at the hospital.

Will Bennie miss the hospital? You Bet!! especially the care they took of his eye — and the amazement of doctors and nurses whey they saw his rate of recovery.

Between The Bookends

By Mrs. R. D. Moore, Librarian

Kirkland Reveals by Victoria Holt is not a new book but it had not been in our collection before this week. Like Mistress of Mellyn this is a tense, chilling drama of romantic suspense than fans of Victoria Holt have come to expect.

We have added two more Alfred Hitchcock collections to the Library. Stories That Scared Even Me and My Favorites In Suspense are both collections of favorite stories, novelettes, and novels guaranteed to turn your hair white overnight.

Palmetto, which grows in Southern states, provides ideal material for weaving mats, baskets, fans, purses, hats, and bottle-covers. The clear and simple directions given for the process can be found in Viva Cooke's Palmetto Braiding and Weaving which is new to our collection. Materials may be secured from handicraft supply houses or from your own fields. Excellent photographs and drawings make instructions clear. This book preserves an ancient native craft usually handed down by word of mouth. There is history, tradition, and poetry in patterns named lattice-point, double-shuffle, goose-eye, close curl, and shooting-star.

The Ullman Code by Robert Bernhard is a new novel of crackling suspense, ranging from New York to the Greek islands and the Golan Heights, with roots in the Nazi savagery of a generation ago. The story centers around Paul Nomberg, former American spy and brilliant young cryptographer who begins looking for the secret code in the diary of a man who died in the ovens of a death camp near Ausberg. The code, when deciphered, would reveal what really happened when the Twelfth Sonderkommando — that elite group of Jews who fed their own to the furnaces — rebelled and tried to blow up the crematoriums. Using a system based on the Kabbala and on Chinese juxtaposition puzzles, Nomberg cracks the code, revealing not the list of names he expected, but something that immediately marks him as a target for murder.

"Eager to escape any reminders of an unfortunate love affair, Nurse Joyce Connelly took a position doing private duty for an elderly senora incapacitated by a stroke. The elderly lady presented no impossible medical problems, but problems of a different sort were posed by her strange entourage and the eeriness of her surroundings waiting for the reader of Bonnie Lee's new novel The Shadows of Cliffside."

Airesboro Castle by Emma Layman is the story of Allison who had never known her father, who died before she was born. She is eager to visit England, to meet his family and to discover her roots. There she learns very unexpectedly that she is the owner of a castle but also finds her inheritance includes a few potentially fatal legacies.

Recreation Ordinance

by Councilman Larry Albritton.

Councilman Robert Britt objected to the wording of the ordinance, citing sec. 1 as reding "seven members from the Avon Park area" being in conflict with sec. 4, reading, "A recreation department is hereby established for the City of Avon Park."

In commenting on the duties of the Recreation Board, Dan Davis referred to sec. 3, No. 1, "To act in an advisory capacity to the city council."

Bill Warner said the whole idea is advisory and that when the city sewage system was worked on, outside advice was secured. The recreation board had no discretionary powers.

Mayor Marshall Davis saw no need for having an ordinance with the advisory board we have doing well, but he felt that with seven voting members desionated by the ordinance they should be from the city. Present members he felt were doing a wonderful job.

All the recreation committee has been is only advisory, stated Eileen Martin. All voting was on advice to pass on to the council which has the final say.

It developed that there had been two versions of the recreation ordinance distributed—one, copies of the original and revised copies which caused some confusion as to meaning of the intent of the ordinance.

Council President Wendell Williams stated the board was advisory and he in no way was handing over the duty of spendin_ the taxpayers money without consent of the five councilmen and the mayor. He saw no reason why the word voting could not be stricken from the ordinance.

Cliff Ables substituting for City Attorney Jack Hancock replied that striking out the word voting makes it redundant and how would they carry out their duties?

In drawing up the ordinance, Ophelia Ribner told the council, we have had nothing to go by. The ordinance was something to govern themselves in carrying out their duties. Their only vote was for recommendations to the council.

Eileen Martin told the council that the ten original members had no guide lines to go by and had sought the help of a sub-committee of students to give them ideas of what young people wanted for recreation and pass these on to the council and serve as an advisory body.

Councilman Milton Howard reported receiving four calls favoring the ordinance and seven calls against the ordinance, thereby his stand was against the ordinance.

Qualified people on other city committees were asked to resign because they lived outside the city, stated Councilman Britt, to which Councilman Albritton pointed out they were required by state law to live within the city if they were on the zoning board.

Council President Williams felt there was agreement on the intent of the ordinance, that the recreation board is only advisory.

Another facet was brought out by Jim McWilliams when he said that HUD funds would be spent outside of the city limits. But if the city limited membership on committees to people within the city if might cause an unfavorable reaction from HUD. But Clarence King replied that HUD had never asked what area was included in the project.

On a 3 to 2 roll call vote the ordinance passed and was read by City Clerk Malcolm Crews. It was moved that the ordinance be placed on third reading and adopted. Again the 3 to 2 vote.

When Ordinance No. 82 was refered to Mayor Davis he stated he planned to veto the ordinance.

Dan Davis asked the Mayor to reconsider the veto as the recreation board would lose many good working members. The Mayor replied he did not want to lose any of the present members who had worked hard on the committee but they could remain as advisory members.

Question: Does God forgive sins which are repeated and confessed over and over again? Answer: The goal that God wants his children to attain is victory over sin. His admonition to Mary Magdalene, "go and sin no more," is applicable to all men. Paul's counsel to all Christians is, "Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof." Romans 6: 12. When we confess our sins, we should also ask God for strength to be victorious over sin. His grace is sufficient for the conquest of sin.

However, God knows that despite our efforts, we will sin on occasion. There is no person who is without sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, an the truth is not in us: 1 John 1:8. God has made provision for this universal need. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness: 1 John 1:9.

There are many people who are victims of a Satanic delusion. They assume that all that is necessary is to keep on confessing and repeating the same sins over and over again. Repentence is a vital factor in true confession. Repentence implies deep sorrow for sin. Such sorrow will lead the penitent sinner to hate sin, and to ask God for strength to stop sinning. When these elements are missing, confession is not genuine.

Those who confess their sins and have a deep desire to overcome them, will be the recipients of God's forgiving mercy. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy; Proverbs 28:13. Come now, let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool; Isaiah 1:18. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon; Isaiah 55: 6-7.

recieved a telephone call at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 12, telling that an eyeball would be available and did the patient still want to go ahead with the transplant. The answer was "yes."

The eye donor died at 3 a.m., with the eye being placed aboard a commercial airliner at 5 p.m. for Tampa. In the meantime Bennie was admitted into the hospital at 5 p.m. for the necessary blood and lab work.

Time is critical in an eye transplant as best results are obtained when the operation is performed while the donor eye is fresh (within 24 hours). With the eyeball arriving at the Tampa airport at 7 p.m.; should it be brought by automobile arriving at the hospital about 9 p.m. or later? Thus the decision was made to call the Air Corps operations officer at MacDill Field Tampa. John McClelland, hospital administrator, explained that time was critical in the transplant procedure and by 7:30 p.m. MAST landed their heliocopter near the hospital.

By the time the eye package arrived the operating crew had all instruments ready to go, by 8 p.m. Bennie's eye had been rechecked and donor eyeball checked. At 9 p.m. the patient Bennie was anesthetized or put to sleep and the operating team of Dr. Tony, Chen; Stanley Osborn assistant; Jim Marcum, anesthetist; Shirley Smith, operating room supervisor, Dottie Gutzler, circulating nurse and Mrs. Louise Osborn, director of nursing started the actual operation.

The patient's eye was again rechecked to ascertain that the scar was exactly as seen in the office and to determine the size tri-pline or disposable round blade to use in removing both the scarred cornea and transplant material.

The donors eyeball was removed from a bottle in the special ice cooled package and held by Dr. Chen in his hand while he examined it. A 7.5 mm circular blade cut the clear cornea and the corneal graft was placed in a special dish with solution.

The operating team moved to the patient to cut the scar tissue, cleaned off adhesions from the patients eye and then corneal graft from the donor's eye were transported to the recipient eye where the first four stitches were used to hold the graft in position. Altogether 17 stitches of 10 (0) Ethilon were used in fastening the donor cornea to the recipient eye. The 10 (0) Ethilon suture material is 22 microns in diameter or the equivalent width of three red blood cells laid side by side and is much finer that the human hair.

Appropriate antibiotics and anti-inflammatory agents were given around the eye and it was covered with a patch. The operation lasted about three hours from the time the patient was put to sleep until anesthesia was terminated. Actual time was about two hours and 15 minutes. The patient Bennie withstood surgery satisfactorily.

At 9 a.m. the next day, Dr. Chen removed the patch and Bennie could open his eye and he could see movement with a minimum of discomfort. The stitches will remain in place as long as needed, as the cornea is avascular (contains no blood vessels) therefore takes longer to heal than regular tissue. The suture material is so small it will be left in the eye as long as no reaction takes place or up to six months if necessary.

Beanie was discharged and will continue under medical care to ensure the continued healing of the transplanted corneal graft. His restrictions will be to avoid stress such as heavy lifting or anything that puts a strain on the right eye as it is still in the healing process.

In the last fall eye donor drive for the eye bank by the Avon Park Lions Club, 72 donors signified their intentions of donating their eyes. "It is a very noble and personal decision," stated Dr. Chen, to donate ones' eyes which will help in restoring vision to someone else.

"In discussing the benevalent role of the eye donor," Dr. Chen, said anyone can donate their eyes for the restoration of sight for certain eye problems and for research. All that was required for a prospective donor to assure that their eyes would be used is to secure the forms from any Lion's Club member or his office.

After filling in the necessary information the donor would receive a donor's card to be carried at all times. Upon the death of the donor the eyes would be rushed to a recipient for use.

Specialist Promise To Expedite Application

Donald D. Blackburn, environmental specialist from the Ft. Myers office of the state Department of Pollution Control, promised commissioners Tuesday that he would expedite action on the county's application for a permit to operate a sanitary landfill in the Lake Placid area.

The county has not yet applied, because it has not found the high, isolated, 10-acre plot of land it requires.

Blackburn said the permit for the existing Lake Placid landfill could not be extended, because of the residential area now bordering the site.

The county's application will have to have the approval of other government agencies, he added.

He indicated that time spent in preparing the application and obtaining approvals would be in addition to the 60 days maximum that the Department of Pollution Control is granted by law to consider the request.

Commissioners grasped the opportunity of Blackburn's visit to seek Pollution Control Department's approval to burn trees and brush delivered to the landfill.

Grove owners and developers can destroy underbrush and trees merely by obtaining an open burning permit from the Division of Forestry, commissioners contended.

In lieu of burying bulky vegetation in valuable landfill space, they asked, could not the county burn it?

Open burning is not allowed. "The law is set up that way," Blackburn said.

Wilkinson then suggested that cities and the county's three franchised trash collectors be requiried to begin paying irn ediately for use of county landfills.

He noted that the recent pick-up rate increase granted to franchised collectors anticipated their having to reimburse the county $2 per ton for refuse delivered to the landfill.

Since the county has not yet purchased scales to weigh trucks entering the landfill, a conservative estimate of each truck's capacity could be made on which to base the county's landfill use charge, he said.

County attorney R. P. Dunty Jr. told commissioners that an ordinance would be required to set rates for various landfill user.

County Budget

sharing funds are now allocated for many items of equipment whose purchase might be delayed until next year, Hays felt that use of such money for new road construction would help solve his budget headaches.

Jim Pyle told commissioners that he would call Washington to check on the legality of using federal revenue sharing allocations for those purposes.

Commissioner Ken Wilkinson recommended that users of county landfills be required to pay for disposing of trash, at the rate of $2 per ton.

The charges would bring between $10,000 and $40,000 in additional revenue sorely needed by the county, he said.

Hays was instructed to make recommendations concerning how such use-fees might be assessed and collected.

Commissioner Robert Skipper pressed for continued attention to reducing anticipated deficits, fearing the possibility that the county might run out of money before the end of its fiscal year in October 1975.

Another budget review session has been scheduled for April 8 to coincide with the county engineer's recommendations on raising revenues by charging for use of the county landfill.

Suit Dropped

A civil suit betyween Singer Credit Corp. and Sunshine Newspapers Inc. has been settled out of court. Singer had sought judgment for $6,183.78 it claimed still owed for equipment purhased in Aug., 1971.

The newspaper firm claimed that the machinery had not proved satisfactory and in Sept. 1972, had switched to another type equipment.

Airshow To Benefit Red Shield Lodge

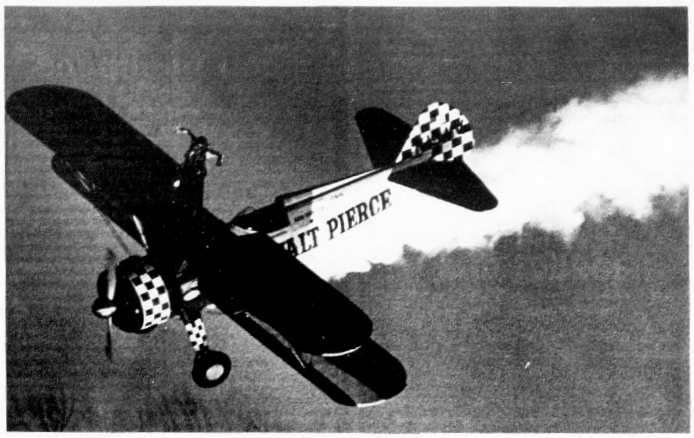

A special glamour is bound to surround a couple who make their living flying upside down. It isn't one single quality but rather an aura of professionalism that encompasses their entire operation. In bold red, white, and blue colors their aircraft, vehicles, and clothing make one aware that an airshow is about to begin.

Walt is a tall slender man tanned by many airshow afternoons spent in the sun and Sandi is a short blond with a smile that fills up her whole face. When you first see them talking and laughing together they look like good friends, maybe even lovers, certainly not husband and wife. The fact that they are married and yet are able to work so closely and completely together adds even greater mystique to the professionalism of The Flying Pierces.

Walt and Sandi combine their talents not only in marriage but also in close proximity formation aerobatics, each relying on the other's skill to prevent a mishap from occuring. Of course, the highlight of the show is the Wingriding Act where Sandi rides atop the Center Section of the Stearman during a series of low-level aerobatics.

Walt and Sandi may seem quite familiar to you. Just this past year they appeared on "To Tell The Truth," "What's My Line," and "The Mike Douglas Show."

Sandi and Walt met at a Texas flying school where she was a secretary and he an instructor. She fell in love with flying, aerobatics, and Walt. Walt was already convinced about flying and aerobatics and decided Sandi would fit into his life perfectly. They have been married for seven years and flying airshows on a full time basis for the last four years.

Fresh Air Ride!

WITH HUSBAND WALT at the controls, Sandi Pierce of the Buhl Pierce's makes riding on the wing look like fun for their Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the Red Shield Lodge.

The bubbling little blond who travels with them is their five year old daughter named Shawn Dell — after the aerobatic maneuver, the Chandelle (what did you expect . . . a name like Jane or Ann?)

The gnilyIF Pierces are an ultra professional team with a reputation for having fast moving, hard hitting, and above all entertaining acts. From graceful aerobatics accompanied by music flown by Sandi in her Great Lakes to the rip roaring growl of the 450 Stearman flown by Walt, when The Pierces are announced you know it is AIRSHOW TIME, at the Avon Park airport Saturday afternoon Mar. 29, at 2:00 p.m.

Grandfather Clause Repeated

The grandfather clause of City Ordinance No. 583 was repealed by the city council at their regular Monday night meeting. Prior to this action contractors with a valid occupational license before July 22, 1974 could register under the competency ordinance. Contractors wishing to register under the competency ordinance will now be required to take exams for their occupation.

A question was raised by Jim McWilliams who was licensed as a roofing contractor by Highlands County and later received a residential building contractors license. The state passed a law on roofing contractors with the city now refusing him a license as a roofing contractor.

City building inspector C. W. Ellerbee explained that the ordinance said that a man could be registered as he was licensed on July 22, 1974 without an exam.

Councilman Ed Touchton requested McWilliams to present his case to the Competency Board at their next meeting at 5:00 p.m., Wednesday, April 9 at City Hall.

Top Rung Unchanged

The top players on both the men and women's "A" singles ladders defended their number one positions against challengers last week. Eric Annett outlasted Ken Haysley 6-3, 4-6, 6-4 to remain men's "A" number one and Vi Marrow knocked off challenger Lucy Derkman 8-0 to hold on to the women's "A" top rung.

Those were the only matches reported on the "A" ladders but Judy Mercer turned in two challenge matches on the women's "B" ladder. She challenged Caroline Martin and lost 8-2 but then challenged Leslie Pollard and won 8-1 to move from rung 18 to rung 16.

Five matches were played on the men's "B" ladder last week. Larry Johnson bounced Bruce Wyse off the top rung with a 6-4, 6-1 victory last Sunday after Wyse had warded off a challenge by Bill Page with a 6-1, 2-6, 7-5 win earlier in the week. Allan Duhm moved up by winning over Bill Cravey 6-1, 6-0 and then beating Cliff Ables 6-0, 6-2. But Mike Chandler challenged Duhm and won 6-3, 2-6, 6-3. So Chandler moved to position number 11 and Allan Duhm is now at position number 12 as the two Avon Park players move up the "B" ladder. Chandler moved on up to 10 with a 6-1, 6-1 win over Jeff Sawyer Sunday night.

Two teams advanced on the women's doubles ladder last week. Jeannie Cox and Cherri Lee defeated Betty Carlisle and Pat Lagoni 8-7 to move from four to three and Pat James and Trudy Wyatt knocked off the Crittenden sisters to move up from six to five on that ladder.

Members of the association are reminded that the next meeting will be held at the Avon Park Middle School Library on April 7, at 7:30 p.m. and anyone not playing a challenge match between the last meeting and this one coming up will be dropped one rung on the ladder.

Members are also reminded to call in scores whether the victory means a change on the ladder or not since players are dropped if matches are not reported by the winners.

Sisemore's Convert Grove To "Yard Of Month"

Starting with an orange grove area seven years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. James "Jim" Sisemore built their home, landscaped it by degrees and this past week were awarded the "Yard of the Month" designation at their 29 W. Charles St. home by the Federated Garden Club of Avon Park.

The key appears to be simplicity of layout of the landscaping pattern with the bushes and shrubs in bed around the house and large expanses of lawn for ease of mowing. A circular drive in the front of the house with reddish river gravel breaks up the long front lawn of the corner lot. Ease of speed and mowing and maintanence is suggested when one sees only a few cocos pumosa palms planted along the street right of way.

The Florida State tree, a cabbage palm was recovered from a neighboring grove and planted at the far end of the low house. Ample lawn space in the rear of the house provides for many types of recreation activities for an active family, ranging from basketball to football.

Shake-Up In Line- Up Scores Two Wins

Red Devil varsity baseball coach Ronnie Jackson shook up his line-up last week and the revamped team won two games to move to a 7-5-1 record. On Tuesday, Mar. 18, the Devils defeated Lake Placid 13-6 and last Friday night they won over Wauchula 1-0 in a well-played game.

This week-end the Devils will play two games at home. Tomorrow night (Friday) they will host the Okeechobee Brahmans at Head Field at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday night the Sebring Blue Streaks will be at Head Field to challenge the Devils again. Both teams won over Avon Park in earlier games. The next game for Avon Park will be against Mulberry. The game was originally scheduled for Apr. 4 but will be moved to Apr. 3 (Thursday) at Mulberry's request. The game will be played here at Head Field.

Homeruns by Reggie Baker and Timmy Massey highlighted the Devil win over Lake Placid last week. Baker, starting in left field for Avon Park, had a perfect night at the plate hitting two singles and a homerun with two men on base. Massey hit his homerun over the left field fence and into a tree yards beyond with one man on in the second inning. Coach Hackson said it was the longest homerun he had ever seen hit out of Head Field.

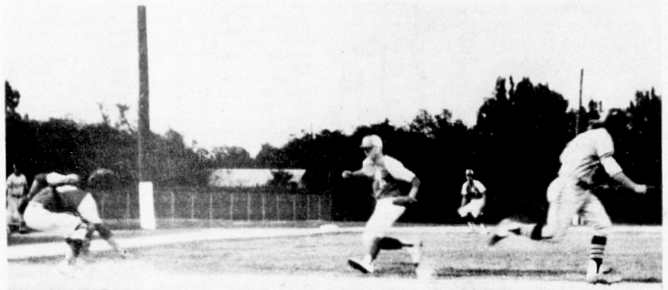

Jerry Robinson and Jamie Tomlinson teamed up to pitch the Devils to the 13-6 win over the Green Dragons. Robinson hurled the first four frames giving up the six runs and four hits. Tomlinson finished out the last three innings allowing no runs and only one hit as he struck out six batters. The Avon Park batters got six hits off the three Lake Placid hurlers. Beside Bakers three hits and Massey's homer, Freddy Moore singled and James Jackson singled. Coach Jackson substituted freely in the third inning using every player on his squad in the seven inning game.

Last Friday night the Devils again used the changed line-up and played perhaps the best game of the season to edge out Wauchula 1-0. The Devil coaches had moved Mort Jackson from shortstop to catcher where the sophomore turned in an excellent performance. Timmy Massey took over shortstop, Jimmy Douberley moved to thirdbase and Freddy Moore started at firstbase. Reggie Baker was placed in left field and Mike Pool moved over to right field. Brad Beumel in center and Jim Johnson at second were the only two players to remain at their original psoition.

Jamie Tomlinson pitched the Devils to the 1-0 win over Wauchula. The senior righthander held the Wildcat batters to two singles, both coming in the sixth inning. He struck out five batters and walked only one during the seven innings. The Red Devils made only one error in the game.

The game was scoreless until the last of the seventh inning. Tomlinson led off for Avon Park and grounded out to the pitcher. Then Freddy Moore came up and drew a walk. He took a big lead off first as Jim Johnson came to bat and Curt Truitt, the Hardee pitcher, attempted to pick him off. But the ball got by the firstsacker and Moore raced on toward third. A high throw by the rightfielder got past the Wauchula third baseman and bounced off the leftfielder's glove. Moore went home on the error to score the game-winning run.

Turitt had struck out 11 Red Devil batters and give up three hits in the game. Mort Jackson, Mike Pool and Freddy Moore got the three singles for the Devils.

Trackster To Compete In Relays

Several members of the Red Devil varsity boys track team will compete in the Florida Relays in Gainesville tomorrow (Friday). Ken Burley will run in the 120-high hurdles and compete in the high jump. Darrell Davis will throw the shot put and two Devil distance runners, Raliegh Turnbull and Jack Collins, will run the mile and the two-mile respectively. Yesterday (Wednesday) the Devils ran against Frostproof and Moore Haven in Frostproof. The Devils will not run next week because of the scheduled spring vacation.

The Avon Park squad split its two meets last week losing to Sebring 91-39 and beating Moore Haven 84-42. Against the Blue Streaks only two Devils could capture top positions. Kenneth Burley won the 120-yard high hurdles in 17.1 seconds and Jack Collins took the two-mile in 11:36.8 minutes. The Devils had seven second place finishes and eight third place spots. It marked the first time in the past seven years that the Devils had lost the Highlands County Track Meet.

The Red Devils rebounded last Thursday afternoon against Moore Haven in convincing fashion. Led by Kenneth Burley's 14 point total, the Devils out-raced Moore Haven in numerous events. The final score was Avon Park 84- Moore Haven 42. Kenneth Burley won the 120-yard high hurdles in 16.5 seconds (his best time) and took the 330-yard intermediate hurdles in 44.5 seconds. He also tied for first in the high jump with teammate Clifford Coleman at 5'2".

Jack Collins won the two mile run and newcomer Alphonso Williams took the first place position in both the 880-yard run and the mile. James Hamilton backed Williams up with a third place finish in the 880-yard run. Other winners for Avon Park included Charles Anderson in the 220, Noel Braithewaite in the 440, Darrell Davis in the shot put, and the sprint-medley relay team of Mack Caldwell, Clarence Spry, Ernest Brown and Robert Brown.

The final two top spots captured by the Devils went to Clarence Spry in the pole vault and the mile relay team of Charlie Glenn, Willie Jervier, Anthony Conners, and Noel Braithewaite. Ricky Claitt had a pair of seconds in the shot and discus and Anthony Gaines pulled to a second place finish in the 100-yard dash.

The victory set the lady thinclads record at 6-1 for the season. Both Hattie Rich and Margie Taylor scored 10 points each to lead the Red Devils to the victory. Rich captured second spot in the long jump with a new school record of 15'9" and took third place in the 220-yard dash with a 28.2 seconds time. She also ran on the 440-yard relay team and the 880-yard relay team both of which won the race. Taylor won the 110-low hurdles in 18.0 seconds and the softball throw with a 163 foot toss.

He recently formed the Highlands County County Runners Club which competes in meets around the state. Chet was one of the first in the state to form a girls track team and has directed his squads to a 22-2 record over the past three years.

The young Avon Park coach plans to continue his running with a hope for a shot at the Boston Marathon this coming year. His coaching goals call for another state cross-country title and a state championship in girls track within the next three years.

Sharpe—Baker

Vehicles driven by Thomas Sharpe of Avon Park and Lois Baker of Sebring collided at S. Commerce and the Circle, 11:03 a.m. on March 24.

Damages were reported at $40 to Sharpe's station wagon and $30 to Baker's car. Patrolman Nelson investigated.

Clutch Failure Wipes Out Local Team

The 12 hours of Sebring '75 stopped at about six hours for race driver Bill Hood, Avon Park; car owner and driver, Scott Chapman, Frostproof and driver Bobby Dumont, Sebring, when clutch failure at the pit exit turn caused the driver team to withdraw from the race.

The '73 Corvette redesigned for the race by Chapman, who works at the Alexander NAPA store in Frostproof, was driven by Chapman in the 250 mile IMSA race at the Daytona International Speedway, where it competed well but finished out of the money as a flat tire caused a five or six lap loss of position.

Days and nights of testing, adjusting and fine tuning revved the engine to topping 6500 RPM's on the straight-away with Scott Chapman making the qualifying run on Friday in three minutes, 15.2 seconds mile Sebring airport race course, placing the car 38th on the grid or lineup position.

Scott taking the first trick at the wheel Saturday morning drove a flawless race, turning in good times, some at 3:15, whereby the other drivers and the pit crew calculated that with all things remaining equal the car could finish in the top ten. However there was some minor brake malufunctioning developing caused by lack of facilities to road test the brakes under grueling race track conditions.

In his turn at the wheel Bill Hood found that the brake malfuncting was intensifying, under the hard useage at the turns, to the point where if the brakes were released momentarily to cool the pads and reapplied immediately there was a hard pedal but little braking action. This caused Bill to overshoot the hairpin turn where he spun the Corvette around and reentered the course without mishap.

Bill found that once the brakes were applied a steady pressure had to be maintained through all of the downshifts but this malfunctioning also led to speeding up the gear shifting pattern with extra pressure on the stick on the down shift gear changes. The standard shift stick snapped off going into second gear and Bill scrambled for the pit in that gear.

The pit crew made a quick repair by driving a long tapered punch into the lower part of the hollow shift level shaft and wrapped the punch head with duck tape and Bill roared back onto the course.

This brought another problem to solve since there was no reverse gear lockout. If the improvised gear shift lever were not positioned properly to go into first gear it could mean shifting into reverse or into third gear. It also meant that if the shift lever went too far in the neutral gate the transmission could not be shifted into second.

As if there weren't enough troubles, in the S-curves, Bill noticed that a following Porsche had disappeared from sight in his rear-view mirror — he picked it up in the side mirror coming dangerously close to his side door — as Bill put it, he deviated from the course but the left header with only three or four inches clearance hit a rock bending the header back interferring with the clutch linkage and again Bill streaked into the pit.

The pit crew removed a link and it was back out on the track running in third gear for five or six laps while the crew salvaged a header that had been removed from the racer following a spin-out on a mud slick in Thursday night's practice runs.

With the substitute header in place and the clutch linkage replaced the team felt that the car was capable of running the full twelve hours dispite the time lost in the pits. Thus back on the track.

Nearing the fifth hour of the race Bob Dumont took over as driver turning in good times — but a blown waterpump gasket with a red warning light force another return to the pit. As there was no engine damage the gasket was replaced and the racer was back on the track in the running.

However, the straw that broke the proverbal camel's back was clutch failure at the pit exit turn which forced the team to withdraw from the race. Even if a clutch assembly had been available with all of the time lost they would now be racing just for fun.

A champion effort was made by the pit crew of Jim Allen, Bill Boyer, Dennis Hood, King Smith, DeVere Williams and Rudy Wise by their quick decisions and engineering substitute parts in keeping the Corvette racer rolling.

When asked how many miles they got per gallon of gas, Bill replied, "Four or five!"

It's the season of rebirth... in nature, in life, in the human spirit. 800 schools and the Army are making college a reality for more young people.

"About eighteen months ago, the Army began to develop a bold, new concept in cooperative education. Project Ahead.

"The program began at one university in the Midwest. Interest was so great the Army decided to expand it across the country. Today, the program involves more than 800 colleges and universities. And it's still growing.

"Project Ahead's structure is basically simple. But its benefits to young people and their parents are enormous.

"First of all, it is a unique individualized education plan. One that allows you to choose, if you qualify, an "alma mater" before you enlist. (Normally a participating school in your home area.) So no matter which college or colleges you attend while in the Army, you'll know beforehand the courses you'll need for credit at the school you want to graduate from.

"Secondly, the Army provides financial aid. College courses are available to you while you're in the Army. And the Army will pay up to 75% of the tuition for these courses. (After your enlistment's over, you'll be eligible for 36 months of financial assistance under the G.I. Bill.)

"We, in the educational community, are enthusiastic about this new plan. In fact, many of us believe Project Ahead will be as important to young people entering the Army as the G.I. Bill has been to veterans."

Now you don't have to choose between serving your Country and continuing your education.

"Project Ahead is the most exciting idea in education that the Army has ever offered.

"Too often people in the service have taken college courses from one school, only to learn later those courses would not apply toward their degrees. Project Ahead intends to change all that.

"The Army, together with over 800 colleges and universities, has a plan. A cooperative system that lets you know ahead of time which courses you'll need for credit at the school you've applied to and want to graduate from.

"You'll be receiving up to 75% of the tuition for college courses you take while in the Army. And now you can make sure you get credit for the college courses you successfully complete.

"Project Ahead is by no means a free ride. Because while you're working toward a college degree, you'll be serving your country.

"You'll be a soldier full time. A student part time. You'll train hard, you'll work hard. And you'll find that although a few years in the Army isn't the easiest way to earn a college education, it may be the most rewarding."

Fifty Eight Attend Rimes Party

Fifty-eight attended the "Come As You Are" party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rimes Tuesday afternoon when they served iced tea, punch, sandwiches and cookies. Every one had a thoroughly enjoyable time at this impromptu affair.

Leon and Margaret Van Buskirk enjoyed visits from both friends and relatives this week. Their cousins, Donald Van Buskirk, of St. Petersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Van Buskirk of northern Pennsylvania, spent Tuesday afternoon here with them.

Wednesday, friends from Tully, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Usher and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Cole came of Zephyrhills for the day. Thursday, another Tully, N.Y., couple, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ellis drove over from Clearwater for a surprise visit. Seems like Leon and Margaret found a good way to catch up on the gossip from "back home"!!

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Etten from Corning, N.Y. were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Warren Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mackey and Mrs. McCoy of Carlisle, Pa. visited Mrs. Emil Holaday on Friday, March 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mackey and daughters, Barbara and Melissa of Dayton, Ohio, are spending some time with Mrs. Emil Holaday. Mrs. Mackey is Mrs. Holaday's daughter. They are enjoying the beautiful Florida sunshine.

Edith and Marion Walling, Mary and Howard Walker, Ruby and Glenn Pearson and granddaughter, Doris and Lawrence Yallup visited Irene and Hubert Johnson at Indian Lakes Estates. The Johnson's have been staying at Hubert's sister's home there for a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Didrick and Mr. James Miller returned Sunday after spending the week with their son, Dr. Barton Didrick and his family on the St. Johns River near DeLand. Barton, Carol, Doug and Don live in Orrville, Ohio. They have visited in our Court several times.

Coffee Hour Wednesday morning was well attended, as usual. This is a very popular activity here in the court.

Mr. Noel France, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul France, arrived Friday for a few days' visit with his parents. Paul is still at Walker Memorial Hospital but is expected to come home in a few days, we are happy to report.

The Thursday potluck dinner was attended by about 45 of our number. As usual we had lots of luscious food. The get together was enjoyed by all.

Park Residents See Slides Of Europe

By MARGIE WELLS

People who attended the business meeting in the recreation hall on Friday evening were delighted with the results of the "face lifting" which the hall has undergone in recent weeks. Mr. Bohland provided materials for a new acoustical ceiling and several men in the park gave unselfishly of their time to install the ceiling.

The next project was sponsored by the women's exercise class for the purpose of raising money to finish the floor and a silent auction was held for this purpose. Again the men of the park did the work of cleaning and staining the cement with a stain which will be very durable and easy to clean. Space does not permit listing all who had a part in these improvements, either in donating material or labor, but it is much appreciated by all in the park. "Togetherness" has proved to be more than a mere word at Bonnie Brae, it is action!

Mr. and Mrs. Mac McDougal of Blenheim, Ontario, Canada, are new residents of Bonnie Brae. They have bought the mobile home of Carrie Jones who is returning to Indiana to make her home.

Tuesday night dinner guests of Margie and P. D. Wells were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Steele who are residing at Saddlebag Lake in Lake Wales.

Edward Breske of Lake Josephine and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Helen Figlak of Detroit, Mich. spent Thursday evening visiting Thelma Miller.

Gert Bohland left this week for Chicago where she will be visiting her two daughters and grandchildren.

The slides on Holland, Germany and Switzerland which were shown by Frank Webster Friday evening were beautiful. We wish to thank Frank and Argus Sheridan for showing their slides this season and urge anyone having slides at home to bring them down next year to help Frank in this project.

With the arrival of our new, larger, permanently-hung screen the pictures will be even more enjoyable in the future. We know from personal viewing that Dorothy and Ralph Carroll have some beautiful slides which can be shown next year. We want to give special thanks to Tom Chockley for the loan of his screen during this year. The next showing of slides will be on April 4 when Marvin Draper will show his slides of Nova Scotia and Niagara Falls.

Rozzie and Lester Parkhurst and Edna Clark were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Weirman on Friday evening.

Mike Krafjack arrived on Saturday morning to visit his grandfather, Roy Podewels. Accompanying him are Kathy Hanson and Bruce Cahill, all of Janesville, Wisc. They spent Sunday visiting Cypress Gardens and Bok Tower and then on Monday left for Key West for a few days before returning to Avon Park for the remainder of the week.

Thelma Miller entertained Helen Dyce, Blanche Hance, Lee Hoffman, Max Putman and Roy Podewels at her mobile home on Saturday evening for the weekly game of cards.

On Sunday, Naomi Black entertained the following guests at dinner at the Homestead restaurant in Sebring: Mr. and Mrs. James Chamberlain of Avon Park who were celebrating their 53rd wedding anniversary; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kirkpatrick of Avon Park who were celebrating their 49th wedding anniversary; Verna Hein who was observing her birthday; Betty and Connie Gough of Toronto, Canada; Mrs. Edna Clark who is returning to her home in Indiana this week; and Rozzie Parkhurst.

Sunday guests of Margie and P. D. Wells were brother, Leonard Harsh, of Fort Myers, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Rice of Bradenton, Fla.

Don't forget our Easter dinner next Sunday at 1:30. Ham will be furnished and everyone in the park is urged to attend and bring a covered dish.

Ridge Wisconsin Club Will Meet At Highlands Hammock State Park

Lake Placid, with committee members Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kastner in charge, will host the next meeting of the Ridge Wisconsin Club on Tuesday, April 8, at Highlands Hammock State Park. Persons who have ever lived in Wisconsin, and their guests, are invited to attend.

Before the program there will be a pot luck meal starting at 12:30 p.m. Each person is requested to take a covered dish, table service, and beverage.

Harve Kollman, nationally known guide and fishing companion of Presidents, will present a demonstration of scientific casting and give tips on fishing for both men and women. He is requesting persons to take their rods and reels to the meeting so that he can demonstrate with their equipment. During the program you may wish to ask him about Gypsy Rose Lee and Adlai Stevenson.

The club, which has no fees or dues, is comprised of Wisconsin people living at Lake Wales, Frostproof, Avon Park, Sebring, and Lake Placid. Each town selects a President of the month and presents a program after the noon meal.

"I NEVER FIRED a gun in my life" said Ann Jackson as she gives her impression of firing from the hip with the Model 1400 Winchester 12 guage field gun that she won during the Band Day Drawing last Saturday. She'd much rather have an organ. Photo—Miller.

BY CALVIN GIBBS

Hi Friends,

The Easter season is here. Many relatives and friends have returned to commemorate the Resurrection of Christ with family and loved ones. Welcome home, best wishes for an enjoyable stay, and may God's blessing be bestowed upon each of you.

Friends, I am very anxious to receive suggestions from you, which may come under one of the headings usually included in this column, or which may very well come under an entirely different heading. Again, I remind you, this is your column too.

Poem of the week

An original by Rejane Brazeau; 6th Grader at Avon Park Middle School).

Rejane Brazeau

Easter is the time for bunnies,
Though it may seem very funny.
Easter is the time to sing,
Praises to Our Lord and King
Easter is the time for love,
Thanks to Our Father above.
So, at this special time of year,
Remember, Christ is always near.

Observations or Comments

Mr. Bill Bozeman Curriculum Coordinator at Avon Park Middle School.

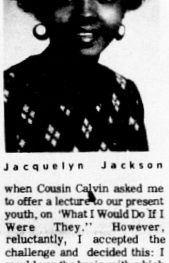

Under the new state funding system the relationship between average daily attendance and the money a school system receives has changed. As far as money goes, the attendance of students during only a few weeks is used in computing financing. What is really important, and always has been, is the fact that chronic absenteeism deprives the student of an opportunity to get all the benefit he can from school.

A very large percentage of students attend school because they want to, not because they have to. There is, of course, a state law which requires attendance of all students until they reach the age of sixteen.

It is the shared responsibility of the school and the home to impress upon students the importance of missing as few days as possible. It is a well documented fact that students who miss school chronically have lower achievement levels than those who are regular in attendance, even when students have equal abilities. Students who miss a great deal of school must also understand that an employer will not be as lenient as the school in dealing with absenteeism.

Miss Jacquelyn Jackson (teacher at Avon Park Middle School).

Jacquelyn Jackson

when Cousin Calvin asked me to offer a lecture to our present youth, on "What I Would Do If I Were They." However, reluctantly, I accepted the challenge and decided this: I would use the brain with which God has given me to its capacity. I would exercise my gratitude for this endowment by focusing my efforts in a direction which I considered pleasing to the Creator.

I would equip myself with every tool and weapon which would enhance my physical, social, and spiritual growth.

I would study and exemplify every humane quality within my potentials. I would do unto others as I would have them do unto me and last, but not least, I would always employ faith as my strength and salvation.

Humor of the week

I always have good luck, when I work for it.

English lesson for the week.

Wrong: It was me.
Right: It was I.
Explanation: Predicate nominative.
Question of the week:

What would you recommend to improve the living conditions in Avon Park?

Shirley (Hicks) McCauley (Local Graduate and parent): "I would recommend an invitation to industry and more business, so that maybe, more jobs would be available to students after school, and to adults."

Annie Doris (Hawes) Lewis (Business woman and parent): "Cleanliness is next to Godliness, so, I recommend more personal concern about ourselves, homes and surroundings. A sewage system sponsored at minimum cost by the city wouldn't hurt."

Rosa S. Lee (Parent and local graduate): "I recommend "unselfishness", because yes, we are our brothers keeper. I further recommend greater participation in civic and religious endeavors. These are privileges, but also responsibilities."

This special honor goes to Mrs. Inez Wise, corner of 4th Street and Carolina Avenue. Mrs. Wise lives in a humble home by the side of the road, clean and a friend to mankind.

Short Holiday

Nathaniel Williams Jr. and Leon McRae were home for two days. These young athletes, who are both students at Fla. A and M University, Tallahassee, Florida had to return early to begin spring training.

Hospital

Those hospitalized at press time were as follows: Mary Lloyd, Willie Mitchell, Bennie Robinson, Daisy Scott and Melby Holness.

Thought Conditioner for the Week

Are you irritable, crabby, selfish or haughty? If so, it is about time that you take an introspective view of yourself. So, as Christ rose to a new birth, so can you. Pledge and pray: Renew a right spirit within me. Psalm 51:10.

Yours truly,

Hospital Holds Orientation Program

Recently Walker Memorial Hospital conducted an Orientation Program for all of its new employes. Fifty-seven employes attended the two sessions which covered various topics such as the History of the Hospital, Objectives and Philosophies, Personnel Policies, Employe Benefits, Evacuation Carry Practice Sessions, Safety Skit, and Fire Extinguisher Demonstration.

Chief Mack Flowers, Captain Charles Howze, and other members of the Avon Park City Fire Department presented the Fire Extinguisher Demonstration. Since the Avon Park Fire Department is the primary provider of fire protection to the hospital, the employes participating in the orientation program were given a detailed demonstration of the new Ward-LaFrance fire truck recently acquired by the city.

Walker Memorial Hospital is proud to have these fifty-seven employes join their staff of well over two hundred.

The 160-hour resident course covers Florida Division of Corrections (DC) administration and operation and work in human relations. The course for all DC employes is being taught to improve treatment, control and rehabilitation of inmates by increasing the effectiveness of employes.

DOOR OPENERS

Keys and churches are door openers. In both cases, each require you to put forth some effort. The key you must insert in the lock and turn. Our Lord made the way to heaven even easier, for all that you have to do is present yourself and believe.

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works lest any man should boast: For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Commissioners And Taxpayers

Confused About Tax Deadline

If you failed to note that your county tax payment became delinquent April 1, you are not alone.

County commissioners claimed Tuesday that they did not know either.

Board chairman C. J. "Buddy" Wise charged that property assessor J. W. "Billy" Martin's briefing of commissioners left him with the impression that discounts on county taxes would decrease one per cent each month until the tax became due in the fourth month.

Taxes, Wise said he was led to believe, would become delinquent and subject to a three per cent penalty charge only if they were not paid within five months of the date that tax bills were mailed.

William Van Baalen told commissioners that he had discussed this misunderstanding with Martin and had been told that Florida law applies a special collection schedule for tax rolls that are late — as was Highlands County's roll this year.

"I think we should have been informed of this," Wise said. "It should have been made clear to the public when the thing came out."

County Attorney R. P. Dunty Jr. stated that Florida Law requires payment of taxes by April 1.

Dunty called attention to a note that had accompanied each tax bill explaining that taxes had to be paid by a certain date to take advantage of the usaul discount.

"The way it was worded," commissioner Norman "Jug" Heston said, "this old cracker boy didn't understand it.

The note said: "The tax roll is late for 1974 — you are allowed four per cent discount for 30 days from postmark date on the envelope in which the notice is mailed. The amount shown in the November box is your net amount. This gives you the four per cent discount. Any time remaining in March (after the 30 day discount period) is at no discount. Three per cent penalty is added the first of April with advertising added by the 15th of April, as required by Florida law."

To complicate the problem still further, Dunty told commissioners, the tax computer had printed at the bottom of each tax bill figures that reflected a declining monthly discount allowance.

During a discussion of the misunderstanding, Commissioner Ken Wilkinson inquired into the logic behind penalizing taxpayers because county officials had failed to produce a tax roll on time.

Commissioner Kelly Phillips' opening comment on the subject held the answer to Wilkinson's question: "The public is the victim of computers and politicians," he said.

MISS PEGGY — Petite star of the tight wire with the King Brothers Circus is coming to Avon Park on Fri. Apr. 4th. The circus grounds will be at the city airport where performances will be held at 4 and 8 p.m. The bigtop circus is being sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Avon Park.

Circus Day Is Set For Friday

Early on Circus Day, hundreds of senior citizens and youngsters normally rush to the circus grounds to witness a sight that is unusual in any city, the setting up of the big tent.

Though the King Bros. Circus that is coming to Avon Park on Fri. Apr. 4th has streamlined its physical might mechanically, the elephants yet play a major role in setting up and tearing down a circus. They pull up the giant center poles, then repeat the pulling job by doing the same to the vast spread of canvas. They push big circus vans and wild animal dens into their locations and do jobs that can be done more quickly by brute force than can be done mechanically.

Presenting many new and unusual acts the performance features The Conley Liberty Horses; Kirks Baboons; Bill & Kathy, Cradle Trapeze; Danny Carey, rolly bolly; Spanish Web by the Rawls Family and The Mills Family; Tight wire by Miss Susan and Miss Peggy; Duo Adonis, aerial perch; Bill Guna and Company, balancing; The Juggling Rummels; plus many others and of course the King Brothers performing elephants and those funny clowns.

King Brothers Circus is being presented in this area by The Kiwanis Club as a fund raising event. The circus bigtop will be located at City Airport with performances at 4 and 8 p.m. Prior to the opening of the circus the old time circus side show will be in operation on the midway.

Local Group Buys Controlling Intrest In Bank

A change in the controlling interest of the Avon Citrus Bank was announced by Charles H. Hoke, President, at special meeting held today in the Board Room of the Bank.

Following the resignation of Directors Rex E. Bond, Henry G. Bailey, Frank E. Bryant, K. D. Grubb, Marvin Kahn, Emil Riles and Fisher Sauls, the Board appointed as new directors to serve for the ensuing year the following: Thomas W. Bagwell, Robert O. Bargar, Donald W. Gossick, Donald F. Jones, C. Wayne Taylor, Wendell W. Williams.

Current Directors who will remain on the board are C. Elton Crews, Charles H. Hoke, Hue E. Nunnallee, B. C. Ostling and G. Franklyn Ward.

Other changes announced today are the appointment of Charles H. Hoke as Chairman and President and B. C. Ostling as Vice Chairman.

Rex Bond, vice president of Avon Securities, confirmed today that controlling interest in Avon Securities a one-bank holding company, had been sold to a group of Avon Park businessmen. Avon Securities owns controlling interest in the Avon Citrus Bank.

He stated that he and the directors who resigned from the board felt it was in the best interest of the Avon Park community to have local businessmen on the board.

This decision was reached by Avon Securities after the Federal Reserve Board had declined the entrance into an East Coast holding company of the Avon Citrus Bank and the First National Bank.

City Revises Request For Federal Funds

Bad news and a glimmer of good news was received by the Avon Park City Council in their special meeting last Thursday with Serafin Leal of Candeub, Fleissig and Associates.

Leal told the city officials Avon Park was rated by the Housing and Urban Development (HUD) as a number two prospect for receiving a federal grant even if they went ahead and filed their application for funds.

HUD had received more than twice the applications it had expected with cities being rated as being assured of help, city may apply for a grant with only a chance of getting it while the third group had no chance of receiving funds.—— Apparently HUD had disregarded proposed activities in establishing the ratings but they will be considered in the final application. Neighboring Sebring had been rated even lower than Avon Park.

The glimmer of hope offered by Planner Leal was that if some of the 29 cities in group one dropped out or were not fully funded there might be a chance for Avon Park to receive funds as it was third in the second group.

Therefore, he told the council, the city had three alternatives——wait until next year; prepare application with only a slim chance of being funded or revise their priorities and submit the application with a better chance of being funded.

The latter alternative Leal told the council was placing the top priorities in line with the top needs of the city which are rated as rehabilitative housing, streets and recreation.

In a discussion of fees Serafin Leal told the council that those working on planning felt they were 'sold out' by the action taken by HUD in rating the cities. Consequently, he (Leal) was willing to go ahead in a concentrated effort in preparing a perfect technical document and the application at no additional charges to the city. Public hearings, typing and binding the report would be the responsibility of the city.

In a reply to a question by Council President Wendell Williams as to the city's obligation if they received funds, Mr. Leal stated, if the work is needed and his organizations was qualified to do it the city had a moral obligation but there is no legal obligation and no certain amount would be charged.

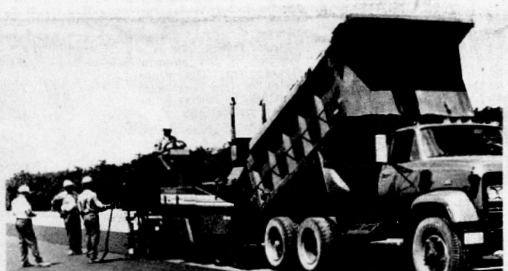

The council moved that Planner Leal's suggestion be followed in preparing the HUD application with Leal's help at no additional cost to the city.

Using the normal chartered process a public hearing will be held Thursday, April 3rd for information from city residents as to city needs and a second public hearing on Thursday, April 10th to take action on the document. The city will furnish a covering letter to go with the report and application and the required legal assurances.

It was moved by the council to pay Candeub, Fleissig and Associates the $1200 as per the contract for completion of the pre-application form for HUD.

Payment of the balance due Candeub, Fleissig and Associates on the 701 Planning study was requested. In the discussion it was brought out that the contract called for a draft study of the zoning laws which had been complied with. There were few changes and the Master plan could be used as submitted.

Council approved the payment as per the contract with the stipulation the Leal's organization include a zoning map, as finally adopted, that would be reproducible.

THE LAST STRETCH of blacktop was placed on last Thursday on the throughway on U.S. 27 north of the Highlands County line. This 24 foot wide roadway was opened to two way traffic this week while repairs and bridges are being completed in the other two lanes. Photo—Miller.

For Embezzlement Plea

Whidden Gets Two Years Probation

Embezzlement became befuddlement when The Sun tried to establish disposition of the charges against Mary Frances Whidden.

The Sebring woman, formerly assistant vice president of Avon Citrus Bank, on March 24 entered a guilty plea to one count of embezzlement. She had been indicted on three counts following a bank examination.

Officials of Avon Citrus Bank have steadfastly refused to answer questions about the case involving the woman, who was a bank employe for 12 years. Officers point out that prosecution was completely in the hands of the federal government.

In the usual run of events, federal probation officers would have made pre-sentence investigation into Mrs. Whidden's background prior to imposition of sentence.

Such investigations often require four or more weeks. However, the news media have reported that Mrs. Whidden was sentenced in a session of United States District Court at Ft. Pierce, March 28.

According to these accounts Mrs. Whidden was placed on probation for two years, fined $500 and ordered to make restitution. Joel Fanning who handled prosecution of the case, told Highlands County newspapers about the probation and the fine.

He said the $3,000 figure set as restitution, reported in some media, was out of line and probably wrong. He refused, however, to give any other figure, referring inquiries to the probation office.

However, probation service policy forbids release of such information.

Prosecutor Fanning, according to some stories, had asked and was granted a "no prosecution" on the other two counts included in the federal indictment. Tuesday he refused to answer questions about the dropped charges.

He said the guilty plea was to a count which accused Mrs. Whidden of embezzling $250.

The federal court clerk's office in Miami said it does not have any information in the case beyond the fact that a guilty plea was entered to one count. Paper work in the case may not be completed for several days, one court officer suggested.

Defense attorney Jack Edmund of Bartow said he is under orders from a federal judge to not speak with reporters.

How much money the former bank officer is accused to embezzling remains lost in the paper work between Ft. Pierce and Miami — and the silence of court officers.

April Fool ???

A NOTE ON the door of the Estelle Fan Insurance Agency of a fire at 32 S. Central Ave. brought the exclamation, "Its' got to be an April Fools joke." But this burned out chair and debris looks like the real thing. Photo-Miller.

State Official Investigating Cause Of House Fire Here

A note reporting a fire at 12:20 a.m., April 1, at 32 S. Central Ave. was considered an April Fool's joke by the Estelle Fan Insurance Agency until they drove past the burnt building.

When firemen arrived at the burning building flames were coming from doors, windows and through the roof. It was determined that the house was totally involved with fire before the firemen had received the call. The fire was considered out by approximately 4:00 a.m.

The cause of the fire has not been determined and is under investigation by Deputy State Fire Marshall Dewey Smith of the state's Tampa office.

The one story frame building owned by Leela I Davis was insured for $12,000 under a policy issued to Leela Singletary several years ago. A six month premium was paid, Monday, Mar. 31, 1975; but was due on Mar. 21, 1975.

The house was considered a total loss by the insurance adjuster from the General Adjustment Bureau located at Ft. Pierce.

Mayor Uses First Veto On Recreation Ordinance

Keeping his promise, Mayor Marshall Davis, vetoed the Recreation Ordinance No. 582 and will make it official in his letter to the Avon Park City Council for their next meeting, Monday, April 14.

The Recreation Ordinance passed at the last regular meeting of the council by a three to two vote and the Recreation Committee has been a thorny problem for some time.

The original recreation committee members were chosen both from within the city limits and from the Avon Park area. It was their job to establish workable guidelines for recreation and the kind of recreational facilities and their use.

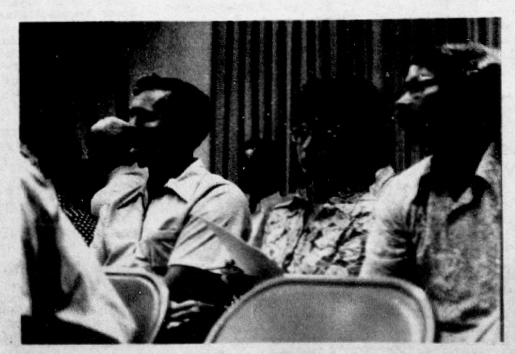

The opponents stress that their main objection to the ordinance is that non-resident committee members do not pay city taxes therefore should not be spending city tax dollars but the opponents do not admit that only the city council has power and authority to budget and spend tax dollars.

Those in favor of the Recreation Ordinance state it is a waste of manpower in not utilizing the talents and abilities of both city and area residents while pointing out that many people living outside the city pay taxes on property or businesses within the city. They also maintained that the recreation board is strictly advisory without authority or power to spend city money.

The 1974-75 city council recognizing the problem avoided a potential showdown by referring the recreation matter to this year's council of younger men who would have to live with their decision.

How well the recreation committee did their job is attested to by the fact that Mayor Davis stated he hoped that all the committee members could remain on the
