Five garments made for the National Grange Sewing contest were modeled at the meeting of Avon Park Grange

Keith Debo asked members to save aluminum through the summer and bring it to him in the fall. The Grange collects it to help on the State Youth projects.

It was voted to send a donation to Friends of the Library toward furnishing in the new addition.

Several members were planning to attend the annual State Grange picnic on the 17th at the Masters farm home near Sarasota.

Last Friday morning parents brought 55 children to Hopewell school lunchroom to register them for kindergarten classes, next fall, with the first day of school being Monday, August 29. Kindergarten classes started at Hopewell four years ago.

The registration, thus far this year, is low compared with the 85 registered last spring when 150 started in the fall kindergarten classes, with 183 being enrolled at the present time. About 180 are expected

If the children have not had any of their shots they would receive two shots and drops. The DPT shot is for diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough) and tetanus. The MMR shot is for the control of measles, mumps and rubella (more severe form of measles). While the drops are to prevent polio.

With all the paperwork and shots taken care of, the children were invited to a special day at the Hopewell lunchroom at 1:45 p.m.

Friday, May 20, for a get-acquainted visit with the teachers and the classroom. The visit to be topped off with refreshments for the new enrollees in the Hopewell kindergarten classes.

Eastern Star Members At St. Pete Meeting

The seventy second annual session of the Grand Chapter of Florida Order of the Eastern Star was held at the Bayfront Center in St. Petersburg on April 5th-7th.

The session was called "The Garden of Tomorrow Session". Members of Leigh Chapter No. 85 attending from Avon Park were: Ted Elethorp, Worthy Patron; Kyleene Thompson, Associate Matron; Joe Kuhn, Associate Patron; Vera Kirkland; Brenda Streth, Cynthia Fountain; Mary Helen Kuhn; Elizabeth Lamb; and Orion W. Louis, Past Grand Patron, who lives in Fort Pierce.

Let me answer your phone

Have you ever wished you had some one to answer your phone when you're away from home or office? (That's when the important calls always seem to come in.) Now there is an easy, inexpensive way to be sure you don't miss any calls. For only $9.40 per month plus a modest installation charge*, the AutoMatic Telephone™ will act like a full-time secretary in your home or place of business.

Here's how simply the AutoMatic Telephone works: If a call isn't answered within three rings when the AutoMatic Telephone is in use, the machine answers for you. At your option, it can ask the caller to leave a message for you, can give a message to the caller without asking him to leave a message, or can refer the caller to another telephone where you can be reached. And the AutoMatic Telephone is courteous — it never hangs up on a caller, nor does it limit the length of the message he wishes to leave. And if you are there when the AutoMatic Telephone is in operation, it permits you to monitor incoming calls to decide which ones you will answer personally. Think of the many ways the AutoMatic Telephone can be of use to you — then call your United Telephone business office to see how easy it is to have one go to work answering your calls.

Southside Park Community News

by Alphonso Williams and Calvin Gibbs

Hi Friends,
Welcome to Southside Park Community News. Everything is moving along at the usual pace. There continue to be numerous church functions and a few social events throughout the area. There are seven weeks remaining in the current school year, but there is already much talk about the long vacation period. The installing of pipes in connection with the new sewer system and the skating in streets and on sidewalks are both common sights and are expected to continue to be over an extended period of time. To the readers of this column, may we extend to each of you our best wishes for your continuing health and happiness.

Two Fish in One

Undra Collins
Undra Collins and several friends were fishing last Sunday at Lake Lotela. Undra noticed that he had a catch and began winding his line in for whatever he may have caught. All of a sudden his catch was intercepted by a much larger and stronger opposition in the water. However, with Undra's expert maneuvering of his fishing technique, he landed his small fish which had been swallowed by his big fish and he proudly brought them both home. (Small fish can be seen when you open the large fish's mouth.)

Correction On Deed Transfer

Child Abuse

Statistics Do Not Indicate Change

"No statistics are available to indicate whether child abuse is on the increase or not." So Alice Hansen told the Highlands County Chapter of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees last Monday.
Eventually, the investigation of reported cases of child abuse will provide such statistics. Professional persons dealing with children are required to report suspected cases, and any person may make an anonymous call on a toll-free number to get an investigation under way.

In Highlands County, four staff members of Children and Youth Services investigate the reported cases. These counselors try to gain the confidence of the abuser and salvage the family group when possible.

Of 214 cases reported in the past five months, only 50 children had to be placed in foster homes. Only two or three cases of criminal abuse have surfaced in the past two or three years. When court orders are needed, prompt action is taken to protect the child.

Mrs. Hansen stated that mothers are usually the abusers. They have problems and they are often too young to face motherhood alone. Social position is not necessarily a factor, nor is ethnic background.

Curiously, patterns of abuse are passed from one generation to another. Like mother, like daughter.

After a short business meeting, Luverne Vaughan gave an account of the freighter trip he and his wife Marquette made out of New Orleans.

Scheduled to leave Dec. 27, postponed to Jan. 13, and finally departing on Jan. 19, the Vaughnans became well acquainted with the French Quarter.

One of the officers slipped on the deck and broke a wrist. It could not be set immediately because there was no surgeon on board. Boat drills and four meals a day were the usual routine.

After stopping at Cartagena under the guns of the old fort, the ship passed through the Canal and anchored four miles outside the harbor of Buena Ventura, waiting for high tide.

Pirates came in two boats 15-20 feet long, powered by large outboard motors. While the ship's whistle blew and 15 nervous handits armed with guns and knives roamed the deck, passengers and most of the crew stayed behind locked doors in darkness for three hours, until the robbers finally left with a cigarette lighter and a wrist watch from one of the crew.

Callals at the other ports along the coast to Valparaiso were less exciting as the Vaughnans returned to New Orleans in five days less than the contracted 49 days.

Pre-Schoolers In Friday Trike-Hike Race

Elizabeth Morris and Jimmy Griffin prepare for the "Trike Hike" last Friday afternoon at the First Baptist Church parking lot. Elizabeth and Jimmy are both students of the Ridge Area Pre-school Developmental Training Program.

Getting an early start were Georganna pushed by Johnny Johnny decided not to wait for the flag and had to be put back into the starting position three different times before the go flag was waved. Even though they finished last they did go the 100 yards of the "Trike Hike", held last Friday afternoon, at the First Baptist Church parking lot. The Ridge Area Pre-school Developmental Training Program.

Members of the Ridge Area Pre-school Developmental Training Program took part in a Trike-Hike on Friday in the parking lot of the First Baptist Church in Avon Park. The "hike" consisted of traveling 100 yards on trikes, wagons or whatever form of locomotion suitable and, with the help of parents and friends, everyone made it.

Since most of the D. T. P. group share some kind of physical and coordination problems, this was quite an accomplishment for these pre-schoolers. First place winners for the categories fastest, best decorated, and most enthusiastic were Nannette Metz, Jamie Pridemore and Matthew Minott. The concept of Trike-Hike is the same as its better known relative, the Hike-Bike, which will take place Saturday, April 20 this year. Participants take a pledge form to their friends and neighbors prior to the event and secure a "pledge" for each mile covered in the hike.

This year's Hike - Bike will leave from both Avon Park and Sebring and will cover 20 miles. All money raised will help to support the various programs of the Ridge Area Association for Retarded Citizens.

Elizabeth Morris Is Ready For Trike-Hike

They're off and going! As the start flag was waved the first three out were Kevin Springsteen (left), Matthew Minott (center) and Nannette Metz (right). They were competing in the "Trike Hike" last Friday afternoon, held in the First Baptist Church parking lot. They are all pre-schoolers at Ridge Area Pre-school Developmental Training Program.

Seventh Day Adventist Fund Raising Hike

At 5:00 a.m., Easter Sunday morning, 22 young people from the Walker Memorial Seventh Day Adventist Church youth group left State Road 64 on a 11 mile fund raising hike along Parnell Road to Highlands Hammock.

One 13 year old hiker covered the distance over the black-topped and dirt roads to the picnic area of the Hammock in two hours, while one six year old made the hike in four hours.

All 22 of the hikers finished the route to the hammock. With pledges averaging over a dollar per mile the young people raised $1870 for the building of a new church on Highlands Lake, on the site of the present building used by the Adventist Church people. Plans for the new church have been completed by the architects, however, a date has not been set for the ground-breaking ceremony.

Ski-Masked Leader Gets Electric Chair

The 27-year-old Polk County man who has been dubbed the leader of the Ski-Mask Gang has been sentenced to die in Florida's electric chair.

Daniel M. Thomas was sentenced at Bartow, April 15. At the same time he was given three life terms for robbery, rape and burglary.

All these charges were based on events at the Polk City home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Anderson, Jan. 1, 1975. Next in the long series of ski-mask trials is to be held in Volusia County. Thomas faces charges of murder, attempted murder, rape, aggravated assault, kidnapping and robbery. These are based on an attack at a Glenwood home

Dec. 5, 1975. In that case the husband was killed and his wife tossed from a highway bridge. She was rescued from Lake Monroe.

A Volusia County grand jury had indicted Thomas and Lee O. Martin in this case. In DeLand Tuesday of this week Assistant State Attorney Tom Beavis of Volusia County said the charges against Martin are being dropped because of insufficient evidence. He admitted that attempts had been made to obtain Martin as a prosecution witness, but Martin would not talk to him.

Martin's younger brother, Cody, testified against Thomas in the murder trial in Polk County. The 17-year-old Martin traded testimony against Thomas for a promise that the state would not prosecute Martin on an old burglary charge.

Date for Thomas' trial at DeLand has not been announced. Even before the trial in the Anderson case Thomas was facing prison terms totaling 236 years for rape, robbery, kidnapping and burglary.

The new Dodge Colt isn't a Datsun, isn't a Toyota...

it's a lot of little Dodge.

The new Dodge Colt is such a lot of little import. It's got some folks confused. Because Colt is the small car with the value you'd expect in an import, plus Dodge parts and service. Not to mention a long list of standard features. Like whitewall tires, reclining bucket seats, tinted glass all-around, carpeting, an adjustable steering column, and more. So if you're thinking "import," think "Dodge Colt," and you'll be thinking about a lot.

Tracksters Win Conference Tourney

AS THEY SAT for their picture the Avon Park High School Track Team was quite confident that they would win the Heartland Conference track meet last Friday afternoon at Wauchula. From the

Myers, Manfred Woody, Allan Purtil and Jacques "Too Tall" Thomas. Third row: Coach Harry Williams, Abe McMillan, Jim Ervin, Ricky Stevenson, Anthony Conner, Todd Packer and Coach Chet

Avon Park's Red Devil track team captured the Heartland Conference championship for the second straight year last week. The Devil tracksters scored 155 points to win over five other loop teams. Fort Meade took second place with 81 points. DeSoto High came in third with 66 points. Hardee High, the host school for the conference championship meet, finished fourth with 33 points. Selmer scored 25 points to take fifth place and Okeechobee came in sixth with just 2 team points.

Alphonso Williams and Charles Anderson led the big Red team to the meet victory last Friday afternoon in Wauchula. Alphonso won first place ribbons in the mile, the 880-yard run and the two-mile run and captured third place in the long jump. Charles finished first in the 120-yard high hurdles, the 330-yard intermediate hurdles and ran the second leg of the winning 880-yard relay team with Edward Dorsey. David Jahna and Reggie Baker. Anderson also was second in the long jump.

Three Red Devils turned in personal best performances at the loop meet. Jim Ervin was fourth in the 120-yard high hurdles with a time of 1:5.6 for a personal best timing and also took second in the 330-yard intermediate hurdles. David Williams' 53.1 timing in the 440-yard run was a top time for him and good for fourth place in the meet. David also ran legs of the sprint medley relay and the mile relay for Avon Park.

The sprint medley team of Dorsey, Jahna, Ryan and Williams came in second, and the mile relay team of James Hamilton, Jerry McKenzie, McMillan and Williams also took second place. James Hamilton set his best time ever in the 880-yard run with a time of 2:03.5 which was good for second place behind A. Williams. Hamilton also took fourth place in the mile run and ran the first leg of the mile relay.

Other Red Devils capturing second place ribbons were Kenneth Burley in the 120-yard high hurdles, Reggie Baker in the 100-yard dash with a time of 23.4 seconds.

Mike Ryan vaulted to third place in the pole vault event. In the shot put event Edward Dorsey was third, Robert Packer took fourth and Anthony Conner added sixth to the Devil total. The high jump was also dominated by Avon Park with Kenneth Burley taking third, Horace Moore coming in fourth and Anthony Conner taking fifth place.

In the discus toss it was Dorsey in third place and Conner in sixth. Second, third and fourth places in the long jump went to Anderson, A. Williams, and Baker respectively. David Jahna and Edward Dorsey took third and fourth places in the 100-yard dash. Jack Collins added a couple of points with a fifth place finish in the mile run and also took fifth in the two-mile run.

Abe McMillan finished fifth in the 440-yard dash. Kenneth Burley took fourth in the intermediate hurdles and fifth in the 220-yard dash to score in four different events. Closing out the scoring were Jerry McKenzie with a fifth place in the 880-yard dash.

Avon Park track members took three places of the six nine of the sixteen events and scored in all three relay events. The depth of Coach Chet Brojek's team has given Avon Park an advantage over most of the area opponents this season.

Last Tuesday afternoon at 6 p.m. the Avon Park track team was scheduled to take part in the Highlands County meet in Sebring. Since Lake Placid did not field a track team this spring, Lakeland High School was to have entered the meet with the two county teams.

Friday week, April 29, the Avon Park tracksters will enter the important district meet to be held at Fort Meade. The Red Devils are favored to win the district this year and advance to the regional meet to be run at Fort Meade on Friday, May 6.

Panthers Seek Spot In State Play Off Tourney

The South Florida Junior college baseball team had a bad Easter week as the team tumbled into third place in the Division. The Panthers lost two conference games Saturday to Petersburg and split a double header Monday with Florida College.

What appeared to be an easy berth in the State Tournament a week ago with a 19-7 record, now finds the Panthers scrambling a week later with a 20-12 record. The Panthers need to win the remaining four conference games-two each with Manatee and Brevard to have a chance for the State Tournament in May.

Home runs by Blane McDonald and Tom Davis gave SFJC a brief 2-1 lead Saturday in the first game of a double header against St. Petersburg. J. C. However, St. Pete erupted for three runs in the fifth inning and held on to a 4-2 lead to defeat the Panthers. McDonald and Davis had two hits in the first game to lead the Panther hitters.

In the second game, St. Pete pounded out 12 hits and collected 6 walks off Panther pitcher to take a 10-4 victory and drop SFJC to third place. St. Pete, by sweeping the double header, moved into second place. Blane McDonald and Randy Schlosser each collected two hits in the second game.

Monday, SFJC blasted Florida College 11-0 in the first game of a double header only to lose the second 2-1. The Panthers scored 9 runs in the fourth inning to put the game out of reach. Jimmy Higdon had 2 hits in the nine run fourth and 2 rbi's. Blane McDonald and John Sedlock also picked up 2 RBI's. Mike Vermillion was the winning pitcher as he ran his season record to 5 wins against 2 losses. Mike allowed only 2 hits. Mike Phillips, making his first start of the season, pitched a good game but lost 2-1 in the second game of the double header. Mike struck out 6, walked only 2, and was touched for 5 hits. Unfortunately, the Florida College pitcher had a no-hitter going until the 7th. inning when Larry Glass doubled and scored on Jim Higdon's triple to make the score 2-1. However, a suicide squeeze attempt failed for the Panthers and the game ended 2-1.

SFJC-VALENCIA 2
South Florida Junior College defeated Valencia Community College 3-2 Wednesday for the third time this season and six consecutive games spanning the last two seasons.

Keith Hendry, making only his second start of the year, pitched superbly scattering 7 hits in going the distance for the Panthers. Hendry was aided by errorless baseball and two double plays by shortstop, Dana Walstad, to second baseman, Larry Glass.

Glass broke up a 2-2 tie in the 9th, with a game winning double to drive in Blane McDonald who had walked to start off the inning. SFJC collected 9 hits for the afternoon with Glass collecting 2.

SFJC-MANATEE 1
South Florida Junior College banged out 14 hits at Manatee Friday to defeat the Lancers 7-1. Jimmy Higdon and Blane McDonald each had 3 hits. McDonald had a double and 2 RBI's and Charlie Faulstich had a triple.

Larry Glass broke the game wide open in the 7th, with SFJC leading 4-0 and runners on 2nd and 3rd. Glass hit a sharp single to score both runners to up the lead to 4-0 and send Manatee's record to 14 wins against 16 losses.

Rick Harrison pitched the complete nine innings allowing Manatee only 3 hits. Rick upped his record to 8 wins

Red Devil Varsity

Rack Up 15 Season Wins

The Avon Park Red Devil varsity baseball team racked up its fifteenth regular season win last Monday night with a 7-0 shut-out over the Lake Wales Highlanders here at Head Field. The win set the Red Devils record at 15-4 going into last Tuesday night's game with Frostproof at Head Field.

This afternoon (Thursday) Coach Ronnie Jackson's team will travel to Haines City for a 4 p.m. game with the Hornets. The game was originally scheduled for tomorrow night (Friday) but was changed at the request of the Haines City school.

Last Monday night junior right-hander Larry Jackson posted his fourth mound victory as he tossed a three-hitter at the Highlanders. The lanky hurler walked only one batter and struck out nine during his seven innings on the mound. Jackson now has a 4-2 record for the season.

Avon Park scored its seven runs on four hits. In the first frame Jim Johnson and John McKinnas drew walks. Then with two outs, designated hitter Victor Roberts lined a homerun over the leftfield wall to put Avon Park out front 3-0.

In the third inning Mort Jackson doubled and stretched it to third when the leftfielder bobbled the ball. He later scored on a wild pitch. Mort singled again in the fourth inning when the Red Devils pushed over three more runs on a bunt single by Buddy Hunter and four walks by two Lake Wales pitchers.

Jackson's two hits the homer by Roberts and the single by Hunter were the only hits the Devils managed off the Highlander pitchers. However, the two visiting hurlers issued a total of 11 walks during the six innings Avon Park was at bat.

Charles Oliver, a 5'8", 130 pound junior will be one of only five members of the Red Devil varsity to return to next year's team. The right-handed infielder has worked at the thirdbase position behind Buddy Hunter this season and has seen action on defense and as a pinch hitter in several games as Avon Park has marched to a 15-4 record.

Charles played junior varsity baseball during his freshman and sophomore years and is expected to add experience to the 1978 squad. He has been in ten of the nineteen games this season and is one for six at the plate with a sacrifice fly to his credit.

Matt Wilson, a 5'9", 165 lb., freshman from Tampa, came to South Florida Junior College by way of the University of Minnesota. Matt was All-Conference in football and baseball at Albert Lea High School in Minnesota. He will be used primarily as a designated runner for the Panthers this spring.

Racquetball Ladder
The Avon Park Recreation Department is presently sponsoring a Racquetball Ladder Tournament that started April 2 and will run through August 6th. There are 5 divisions in the competition: Men's Singles, Men's Doubles, Women's Singles, Women's Doubles and Boy's Singles.

The ladder tournament works this way: All teams in your division are placed in their original positions either by seeding or draw. You may then challenge a team either directly above your position on the ladder or two positions above yours. If you win the challenge match, you trade positions with that team. But, if you lose the match, no change in positions will occur.

The main object is to work your way up to the top position and retain that spot as long as you can. The teams that hold that top spot the longest in the time designated for the tournament, will receive a prize.

So far, after two weeks of competition, only several changes in the top spots have taken place.

In men's singles: Paul Wilson took over the number 1 spot by defeating John Best 21-13 and 21-19. John now holds the second position and Dennis Guenther moved into the third spot by defeating Bobby Barben, 21-19 and 21-7.

Men's Doubles: There has not been any changes in the top three positions since the beginning of the tournament. 1. Joe Baker and Dennis Guenther 2. Henry Wood and John Best 3. Mike Waubach and Paul Wilson.

Women's Singles: Betty Amburn worked her way up to the top spot by defeating Sandra Jackson 21-4 and 21-3. Judy Rewia retained the number two position by downing Mary Baker 21-14 and 21-14. Sandra Jackson holds the third spot.

Women's Doubles: The team of Amburn and Wood beat Derkman and Sizemore to retain the first position, 21-8 and 21-16. The second spot is held by Derkman and Sizemore while Sandra Jackson and Janice Turnbull are in the third position.

Boys Singles: Billy Barben is No. 1, after defeating Avery Cantrell, 21-4 and 21-8. The second spot, is Ken McLeod. He beat Avery also, 21-3 and 21-4. Avery is presently in the third spot.

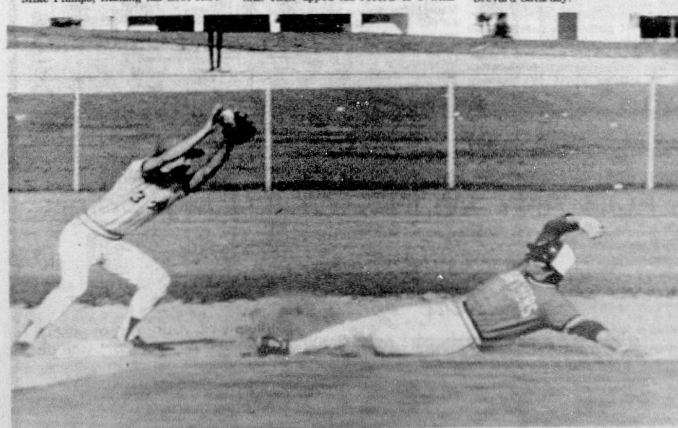

There are some 41 people in the tournament, with the majority members of the newly formed Highland's County Racquetball Association. If you are a racquetball enthusiasts and wish to join either the association or the tournament, contact the Recreation Center at 435-6881 or Mike Waubach (President of the Assoc.) at 435-7494.

Jimmy Massey
Junior right-hander, Jimmy Massey has been used only sparingly on the mound this season but has produced when called upon. He is a 5'8", 150 pound pitcher and secondbaseman who will be expected to move into a starting position next spring when only five players return from this years squad.

Jimmy has a 1-0 record on the mound this year winning over Haines City on a four-hitter. He also came in on relief against DeSoto down in Arcadia and pitched four and a third innings of scoreless ball given up only two hits to the Bulldogs in a game the Devils lost.

Along with Charlie Pough, Larry Jackson, Victor Roberts and Charles Oliver, Jimmy Massey will provide the experience for the varsity next year. He will join Larry Jackson and probably Charlie Pough on the mound staff.

When he and his partner returned to shore they found that the 26 1/2-inch long big mouth bass tipped the scales at 9 pounds.

During their fishing trip they caught seven other fish, all bass, weighing from one pound to one and a half pounds.

APCI Inmate

had been hired to kill him. Scates backed out of the contract and is now in hiding.

Three weeks ago, Cecil Johnson, a former employee of Loudd's who lives in Orlando, turned himself in to authorities in Gainesville and confirmed to Girardeau earlier statements that Loudd had been set up. Allegedly, Johnson helped to set up the drug charge against his former employer, Johnson is now at Lake Butler.

Although Loudd has been sentenced to serve a 14-year prison term, he is hopeful of parole in October if he is not found innocent first. "My parole officer feels I've done enough time. I'm hopeful of being released in October. I think the current investigation is going to work out for me. Lies have already been admitted and I feel some tapes which were used to convict me were altered. I think I can prove it."

Loudd and on the brink of folding. Loudd was desperately in need of money.

Cox posed as a potential investor in the team and told Loudd he could give him $100,000 and possibly as much as $1 million if Loudd could get him some cocaine.

Cox said, however, that before the transaction could be completed, he would have to sell his blacktop business. But before he sold the business, he would need some connection for purchasing drugs.

Loudd agreed to put Cox in touch with a possible drug source, but indicated strongly that he wanted no part in the dealing of drugs.

Loudd, now 43, has a son who is a pre-med student at Washington University in St. Louis and a daughter who is a senior at Orlando Bishop Moore High School. His wife, Betty, lives in Orlando and works for a security system firm. She visits her husband every weekend.

Loudd was a football hero at Thomas Jefferson High School in Los Angeles and spent one year at Valley Junior College before transferring to UCLA. At UCLA, he played offensive and defensive end for the late Coach Henry "Red" Sanders. He played for the Bruins from 1953-56 and was an All-American in 1955. He also played in the 1954 and 1956 Rose Bowl games, but UCLA lost them both to Michigan State.

He had a great deal of respect for Coach Sanders and liked the Single-Wing offense which UCLA ran. "The coach was a strict disciplinarian and insisted on a player wearing his helmet at all times on the practice field. As for the Single-Wing, I see a lot of it in today's Washington offense. Our opponents knew where we were going, but they couldn't stop us."

Loudd was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League, but chose instead to play for the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League. He played for three years in the CFL, both as a linebacker and an offensive end. During this time, he made several all-league teams.

In 1959 he tried out for the Chicago Bears of the NFL, but was injured and placed on the reserve list.

Loudd then moved to the new American Football League in 1960, playing for the Los Angeles Chargers. He was a linebacker with the Chargers and played in the first AFL Championship Game against the Houston Oilers. He remained with the Chargers when they moved to San Diego, but left them to play for the old Boston Patriots of the AFL. Loudd played several seasons with Boston, then became their linebacker coach in 1967. The following year he was promoted to player personnel director and held that post with the new New England Patriots until 1973.

He resigned his position with New England and moved to Orlando, where he planned to develop the area for a National Football League franchise. But the franchise was granted to Tampa instead and became the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Loudd and developer Will Geiger set up a partnership to bring the NFL to Orlando, but league officials felt the Tangerine Bowl Stadium was too small for professional football. When the World Football League was proposed, Loudd, now managing general partner, and Geiger put in a bid for the Virginia team of the new league and were granted the franchise.

"We bought the team, put it together and held practice all in three months," Loudd said. "We kept Jack Pardee as the coach and general manager and played in the first and only World Bowl Game, losing to the Birmingham Americans, 22-21."

During the first year, the league ran into tremendous financial difficulties and, in fact, folded midway through its second season. Loudd wanted to keep the league going and, at one time, met with people like Muhammad Ali and Don King to see if they could introduce him to some rich Arabs in hopes of borrowing money to keep the league in operation.

"We hoped to receive a television contract and I wanted to see the league office moved to New York. I had hoped to work in the league office, possibly as commissioner," Loudd said. "By talking with Ali and King, I hoped they could introduce me to some influential Arabs and that I would be able to borrow $25 to $30 million to either keep the old NFL going or to start a new league. We wanted to put the old teams which had folded back into business or set up a new league with some of the former owners."

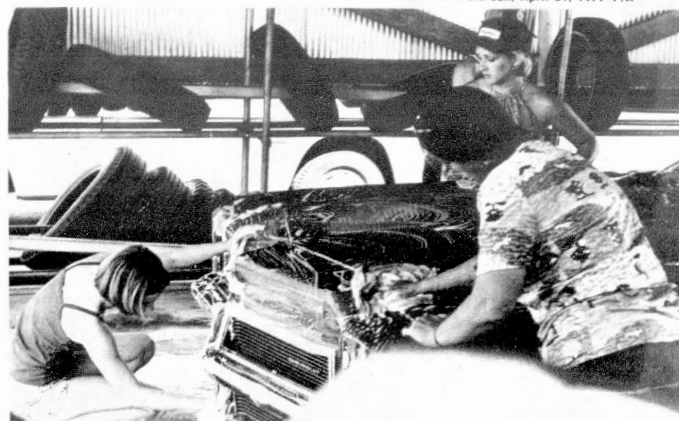

The meeting with the Arab leaders never came about and the World Football League closed its doors and locked its gates for good.

Loudd is currently a clerk in the chapel at APCI. He has no plans to go back into football when released. Instead, he wants to go into the ministry. "I plan to go into the family-type ministry and preach the Jesus Christ life style," he said. "I have done some spiritual speaking while here and plan to study to become an ordained minister."

He is also resigned to his fate as a prisoner. "I have no animosity toward what has happened to me. I don't like being in prison, but I can wait until the gates open."

Sports Editor's Note: The Florida Fourth District Court of Appeal in West Palm Beach last Friday dismissed Ronnie Loudd's appeal of his cocaine delivery conviction. The court cited the failure of Ellis Rubin, Loudd's attorney, to file required documents as the reason for his decision. Rubin is entitled to file a petition for rehearing to reinstate the case within 15 days.

Assistant State Attorney Donald Lykkesbak, who successfully prosecuted Loudd, said Friday that he didn't understand why Rubin did not file a brief. Lykkesbak said a brief contains a defense attorney's explanation of where errors were made in legal proceedings against a client.

Women's Softball To Start Play

The Avon Park Women's Softball League expects to start playing their regular scheduled games shortly after the close of the Little League Baseball season according to Doris Wilkes, president of the Women's Softball League.

Last Saturday players from four of the softball teams held an all day car wash at Border's Service Station to raise funds for equipment and uniforms.

At the present time it is expected that the league will have six teams participating in the league play during the summer softball games at the Little League Field, stated Doris.

Varsity Baseball

Have 2 Wins And A Loss

The Red Devil varsity baseball team moved to a 14-4 overall record last week with wins over Fort Meade and Mulberry and a loss to Sebring. The Avon Park team finished out the Heartland Conference schedule with a 9-3 record. DeSoto finished 9-2-1 so the loop championship is undecided until a decision is made on the tie that DeSoto had with Wauchula. In district play the Red Devils were 7-0 going into the game last Tuesday night with Frostproof at Head Field.

Last Monday night the Avon Park nine were to have played Lake Wales in a home game and last Tuesday night they were to have hosted the Bulldogs from Frostproof here at Head Field.

This afternoon (Thursday) the Devils will go to Haines City for a 4 p.m. game with the Hornets in a game that was moved up from tomorrow night at the request of Haines City.

Tuesday afternoon the Red Devils will play in Bartow at 4 p.m. and on Friday, April 29, they will close out the regular season with a 7:30 p.m. game here against Palmetto.

On May 4, 5, and 6, the Avon Park team will host the District 13, Class AA baseball tournament at Head Field. The regional will be a one game play-off on May 10 and the sectional one-game play-off will be held on May 13. The state tournament is set for May 19 and 20 at a site to yet be set.

Avon Park 10 Ft. Meade 0
The Avon Park varsity shut-out Fort Meade 10-0 in a six-inning conference and district baseball game last Friday night at Head Field. The Avon Park team got only five hits off pitcher Billy Cary but took advantage of ten walks and four Miner errors to wrap up the 10-0 victory.

Devil hurler Billy Young chalked up his fifth mound win of the season as he gave up only four scattered singles and struck out nine Fort Meade batters during the six inning affair. Only four Miner basemeners reached base and one of them was eliminated with a double play in the fifth frame.

Victor Roberts was the big gun for Avon Park at the plate. The designated hitter drove in the first run with a single in the first inning, drove in two more runs in the third with a triple, and doubled in the fourth frame to drive in two more runs. Mort Jackson and Joe Gellimore both added a single in the fourth inning to help Avon Park to the important victory.

Avon Park 7 Mulberry 0
Over in Mulberry last Thursday afternoon, the Avon Park Red Devils scored a 7-0 victory over the Panthers in a Class AA, District 13 game. The game was scoreless until the top of the sixth inning when the Red Devils broke loose to score five runs. They added two more in the seventh to take the shut-out victory.

Steve Arnold hurled a four-hitter at the Panthers to post his fifth mound win of the year. The Panthers got two singles in the third inning, a double in the fourth and a single in the seventh as Arnold struck out eight batters and gave up no walks.

Thirdsacker Buddy Hunter led the Red Devil's seven-hit attack on three Panther pitchers. The senior infielder slammed out a double and a single.

Charlie Pough had two singles, John McKunas singled twice and Mort Jackson got a single to account for the seven hits.

Sebring 5 Avon Park 0

Sebring's Robert Freeland held Avon Park to a lone single by Dale Sismore last Tuesday night a week ago here at Head Field and the Blue Streaks defeated the Devils 5-0 in a Heartland Conference game. The Blue Streak right-hander struck out nine Devil batters and the only two basemeners to reach base were put out on base. Freeland faced only twenty-one batters in the seven inning game.

Losing pitcher Larry Jackson went the distance for Avon Park giving up a home-run, a double and three singles to Sebring. Bryan Rose got the homer over the left field fence in the sixth inning and also had a single in the fifth. Robert Freeland hit a double and two singles to aid his own mound win.

Farmer's Feed

The role of agriculture in the United States today was described to members of the Highlands County 4-H Livestock Club Saturday, by the president of the Cattlemen's Association, as the club began its new year.

Dan Childs told about 40 club members and parents that "four percent of the population are farmers and in the United States, they feed 25 percent of the world's population" as he stressed the importance of the role of the future farmer.

Avon Park's Mike Behal went three sets with Scott Pospichal of Auburndale losing 2-6, 7-6, 3-6. Pospichal ended up winning the district title in that bracket. Red Devil Eddie Garner lost to Lake Placid's R. Cameron 6-4, 5-7, 6-6.

The Avon Park boys team set an impressive 10-2 season record this season under Coach Bruce Wyse. The team will all return next year and prospects for another good year are excellent.

Individual records for regular season play were as follows. Ronnie Brock had a 6-4 record in singles play and was 8-3 in doubles play. Joel Wright finished 6-4 in singles and 9-3 in doubles. Mike Behal was 10-2 in singles play and 11-1 in doubles action.

Eddie Garner finished up 9-3 in singles and was All-Heartland Conference. David Epstein had a 7-5 singles record and was 10-1 in doubles. Jim Smithson and freshman Tom Fleming also were members of the Red Devil team.

Contractors

never been adequately notified of which trailers had to be moved.

Zoning Director Bill Stephenson said that the offending units had been tagged, which is standard county procedure.

The board also voted to ask the Department of Transportation to conduct another traffic study on Interlake Blvd. in Lake Placid.

After DOT's last study, it concluded that no additional traffic signals were warranted at the site. However, Administrative Assistant Charles Cullens pointed out that the traffic data had been gathered over the Easter holiday, when there was no school traffic. In addition, the report stated that there was not a railroad crossing within 300 feet of the U. S. 27 intersection, when there is a crossing within that route.

Wise suggested that another study be ordered, informing DOT that the new Lake Placid Highway will be throwing additional traffic onto the boulevard when the school is opened.

$70,000 charge order for the entire project, however, the action was also a bookkeeping matter, as no additional funds were to be spent.

The Avon Park Trail Blazing Scout Troop 156 prepared and catered the barbecue chicken dinner with all of the trimmings.

Following the dinner a brief ceremony was held during which time the awards were presented. Scoutmaster Larry Hooper of Troop 156 received the Arrowhead Honor for service as Scout Commissioner in the Caloosa District Roundtable.

Six president's awards were presented for units, troops and packs. Two District awards of Merit were also given out. The Lykes Awards were to units, while all of the former recipients of Silver Beavers, the District Award of Merit, were called to the front for special recognition.

Honors Awarded At Dinner

The annual Caloosa Scout District awards dinner was held last Tuesday night April 12 at the Congregational Church assembly room with scouts and committee members from the surrounding area attending.

Aquatic Weeds Are World-Wide Problem

If you think water weeds such as hydrilla and the water hyacinth are a problem only in Florida you haven't been to China lately.

Countries such as Russia and China have big water weed problems, too, despite much colder climates than the sunshine state, according to an aquatic weed biologist at the University of Florida's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences (IFAS). Dr. George Allen says that if weeds can prosper under such conditions, even the Great Lakes may not escape them eventually.

Aquatic weeds from around the world are being studied as part of the IFAS weed control systems research. The program is an expansion of the U. S. Agency for International Development (AID) weed program to include aquatic as well as terrestrial weeds. By surveying aquatic weed problems in different geographical locations, an order to priority for future study will be established.

The program, under Dr. Allen's leadership, will also develop a computerized information retrieval system and furnish technical assistance to developing countries. More than 300 requests and inquiries were received by the reference center in the last year.

"We can see weeds in different situations," Allen said. "Helping other countries is also a learning process for us because it enables us to compare other's problems to ours."

The IFAS program is currently working on aquatic weed problems in Central America, South America and Africa. The latest request for assistance came from Thailand, where scientists lack the proper background for dealing with the problem in aquatic weeds.

In response to the request, IFAS scientists will conduct a six-week course for 25 Thais. In addition to instruction, a field tour of the country will be made to assess problems, after which short and long range controls will be suggested.

Dr. Allen is investigating the adaptability and persistence of aquatic weeds around the world. Nigeria has requested aid to help eliminate weeds from its Sokoto-Rima river system. And Chad has asked for assistance in clearing weeds from Lake Chad, a body of water completely surrounded by desert.

Plans for a hydroelectric dam on Lake Nicaragua may have to be curtailed if controls are not found for the water weeds on all incoming rivers. One of the worst problems, Allen says, in Australia where a 45-mile stretch of floating weeds clogged the river, tearing down bridges and dams it encountered along the way.

As part of the plan to become the world's center on aquatic weed information, researchers have indexed and entered into a computer retrieval system more than 7,500 research articles. Classification guidelines were established by IFAS and the Department of Natural Resources (DNR), which has funded the program since 1973. The program provides an itemized bibliography for specific requests from researchers in the field and short term consultants. By providing such a service, it is hoped that better controls can be established and future research made easier. Already the DNR has made use of the system to help determine controls for the aquarium industry.

Bonnie Brae Park News

By Margie Wells

Arnold and Ruby Prail, brother-in-law and sister of Maude Wilson, are visiting with Maude and Al. They are from Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada. On Sunday night, Maude and Al entertained with a dinner party. Those attending were Prails, Lulu and Louis Potter, and Lorraine Robertson. The dinner was in celebration of Lorene's birthday.

We are happy to report that Frank Webster is feeling much better and Emily expects to bring him home this week. We are also happy to report that Rozie Parkhurst's niece, Herietta Nordholt, who is in an Indianapolis hospital, is doing much better. Herietta has been a frequent visitor at Bonnie Brae.

Ethel and Max Putman entertained with a dinner party on Saturday night before leaving for the summer. Those attending were Thelma Miller, Ann Lockwood, and Helen Dyce.

Dorothy Carroll has returned home after spending a week with her son, Thomas. Dorothy traveled by Amtrak to Washington, D. C., and reports that the train trip is very nice.

There was an evening of good (7) pinocle at Mary and Cedric Weirman's home on Saturday night. Those attending were Thelma Miller, Helen Dyce, Ethel and Max Putman, and Herman Motzer. P. D. Wells spent last weekend in Pompano Beach visiting with his son and daughter-in-law, Bob and Carol Wells, while his wife, Margie (this reporter), attended a church secretary's conference in Winter Haven. Margie's brother, Len Harsh, from Fort Myers, joined her in Winter Haven and they stayed with their father and mother, Rev. and C. D. Harsh. It was a belated birthday celebration for their father, who was 83 on Thursday, with dinner at Duff's Smorgasbord and Sunday morning breakfast at the Pancake House.

There was a good crowd at the coffee hour on Wednesday and this time of fellowship will continue until further notice so be there this week at 9-30.

With many of our friends and neighbors having left for the summer, news will be more scarce. For those of us still here, let's keep the news box filled and keep this column going for the summer. All it will take is a little of that Bonnie Brae cooperation!

"...Be A Clown, The Whole World Loves A Clown"

text by Barbara Cornell

Being a clown is more than just dressing up, putting on makeup and going into a circus ring. Mike Jones (left) attend clown school, in Venice, Fla., for nine weeks before he joined a circus. Jean Paganne (right) started with circus many years ago in France. (Sunphoto by Dennis)

Children of all ages from 1 to 100 love a clown.

If you think being a circus clown is just dressing up and going out into a ring, you're wrong. Micheal Jones, 24, of Annapolis, Maryland, who travels with Sells and Gray Circus, told the Sun why he became a clown.

"I was fulfilling one of my dreams," Jones said.

He attended a clown school in Venice on Florida's West Coast, nine weeks, where he learned the art of clowning, such as applying his makeup and researching the background of clowns.

Jones is having his face registered in England, so no one else can copy it. All working clowns send a sketch of their face to a museum where it is painted on an egg shell and placed in a vault.

Men are always saying it takes women a long time to apply their makeup, but it took Jones five weeks to perfect his face.

"It took me an hour and a half to put my makeup on for the performances, now it takes me about a half an hour," Jones said.

Once he applies his makeup, he leaves it on until his last performance, touching it up between each act.

To remove the makeup he uses either baby oil or baby shampoo. He stated he did not use any types of moisturizers on his face, because the baby oil keeps his skin in good condition.

"You asked me if it is hard to find a job as a clown. I think the best thing anyone can do is to get an agent to find them a job. Clowning is just like anything else, you really need to know someone to get a good job. It's sort of like politics," stated Jones.

He does not always want to be a circus clown, one day he hopes to perform for private parties and night clubs.

Being a clown also takes quite a bit of acting. Jones said the only acting experience he has had was in high school. In a circus ring they do a lot of pantomiming and you must be good to convey a message to the audience.

As for circus life, Jones will travel 3000 miles this year and apply his face about 50 times.

"Circus people stick with circus people. Most of the performers are married to other performers, and really it's like one big happy family," said Jones.

He continued, "The children are educated through correspondence courses. In fact, I teach some of the French children, English, math and science." To Jones, a successful clown has to have the ability to be someone else for a while. They should be free and let the face reflect their interbeing.

Jean Paganne, the boss clown of Sells and Gray Circus, (which means he is over the rest of the clowns) is from Gaep, in the French Alps.

Paganne started with circus in France when he married his wife, who was a circus performer. Before he joined, he was a butcher in a small shop.

He has been a clown in the United States now for eight years.

"Clowning in America is very different," Paganne stated. "In France your act was about 20 minutes long, here it's like commercials, you perform between acts and altogether it amounts to about 12 minutes."

Jones reflected from a moment, then said, "What clowning and the circus is all about, really, is the children. It's my biggest thrill to make them laugh. After a performance they will come up to me and ask, 'Are you a real clown?' I guess they just want to touch you and have it."

Soft spoken and articulate, Jones said he felt lucky that he could fulfill his life long dream. To join the circus and be a clown-a person could do worse.

Memorable Portugal Visit Is Fun For Stokey Family

Mr. and Mrs. Milton F. Stokey of Avon Park, recently returned from a tour of Portugal.

The Stokeys left New York March 26, with 40 other airlines employees and dependents for eight days vacation.

March 28-They visited Queluz, the Royal Palace, and the summer residence of the Portuguese King.

Then on the Sintra the magnificent small town immortalized as "Little Eden" by the well known poet, Lord Byron. They proceeded to Boca Cape, the westernmost point in Continental Europe.

March 27-They dined at the famous Casino Estroil in Estroil. The entire group lodged at the Hotel Estroil Sol in Cascais-the largest hotel in Portugal.

March 29-They visited Belem, the city facing the sea and historic tower of Belem, built in 1514, to commemorate Vasco da Gama's famous voyage to India.

They saw a fine example of the Portuguese architecture the man veline inspired by the Great Era of Maritimes discovery and adventure when Portuguese navigators journeyed around the globe at the Monastery of Jeronimos.

Next they visited the world famous Museum of Royal Coaches with a rich Portuguese Renaissance. The to Black Horse Square on the river Banks, Rossio Restauradores Square, Avenida da Liberdade Marques de Pombal Square, Edward VII Park. They paused long enough during the day to have lunch at Lisbon Embaixador Hotel.

March 30-They crossed the 25th April Bridge, twin sister of San Francisco Golden Gate, to the southern side of Tagus River.

They stopped in Sesimbra, one of the main fishing centers of Portugal and first one in sea angling, with its Moorish Castle high on the hill.

They really enjoyed the wine cellar in Azetias, where they went for a wine tasting visit. The Stokeys drove over Arralada Mountain.

March 31-The Stokeys were very excited about the visit to Nazare, a fishing village, where the people still wear the multi-colored costumes that their ancestors wore hundreds of years ago. The fishermen fascinated everyone with their skill at handling nets on the beach.

The last stop on the tour was Fatima, the holy place where three shepherd children saw visions of the Virgin Mary.

Hundred of thousands of pilgrims visit there every year to see the magnificent shrine erected in honor of Our Lady.

Now the Stokeys are home and recovering from a hectic but very enjoyable trip.

On The Consumer's Side

Question: I am furious. I took pictures two months ago of my parents 50th wedding anniversary, and sent them away to be processed.

After an interchange of letters and phone calls, no one could track these pictures down. The photos are irreplaceable, so I don't want my money back only, the pictures. Who else can help me?

supply retailers, has come to the rescue. It has created a formalized complaint-handling mechanism designed to provide a fair and speedy resolution to consumer complaints that cannot be resolved at the retailer or manufacturer level.

If you have such a complaint, contact: Consumer Affairs Department, Photo Marketing Association, 663 Lansing Avenue, Jackson, Miss. 39201.

Be sure to send copies of all letters, receipts and bills relevant to your problem.

State Hunting Season Starts In November

Florida sportsmen can circle the second Saturday in November as the start of the 1977-78 hunting season.

The Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, meeting Wednesday, April 6, in Tallahassee, gave its approval in principle to hunting and fishing regulations with the kickoff date for general hunting season set for November 12.

The Commission's final adoption of the proposed regulations will come at the May 13 meeting in Tallahassee.

at which time changes in the Wildlife Code, which were also approved in principle, will be adopted.

Deer, turkey and wild hog season, under the proposed dates, will run from November 12 through January 22 in northwest Florida and January 8 in the rest of the state.

Small game season would run from November 12 through February 26 in the entire state with a statewide archery season beginning September 10 and concluding October 2.

The Northwest Region would again have a primitive weapons-only season lasting from January 28 through February 12.

A proposed statewide muzzleloading season was voted down by the Commission. With the present complement of personnel and the workload resulting from the dove season and other activities occurring at this time, it was decided that adequate policing of the additional hunt would be impossible.

Spring turkey gobbler dates would be March 4 through 26 south of State Road 50, March 11 through April 2 north of State Road 50 and March 18 through April 9 in the Northwest Region. Possession and daily bag limits remain the same as 1976-77.

In addition, the Commission adopted the regulations for the 49 fish management areas it operates throughout the state. In other action, the Commission voted to participate in the National Rifle Association's Help Our Wildlife program which is already underway in 25 states. The program is designed to encourage and provide a means for sportsmen to report violations of wildlife and hunting laws. The next Commission meeting has been scheduled for May 13 in Tallahassee. Commission members are: Randolph R. Thomas, Jacksonville; E. P. "Sonny" Burnett, Tampa; Donald G. Rhodes, Satellite Beach; George G. Matthews, Palm Beach; and R. Bernard Parrish, Jr., Tallahassee.

Farmers Worried By Lack Of Funds

"Leaders in agriculture are concerned about the lack of adequate funding for research which has made farming so productive in America", Doyle Conner, Florida Commissioner of Agriculture. While we have probably reached some limits on how much food an acre will produce, other areas deserve the kind of study that enabled us to reach those productivity levels.

As recently as 1940, about 40 per cent of the entire federal research budget was devoted to agricultural research. This support has declined to about one per cent of the total research budget. It may be that the many years farming produced unwanted food surpluses caused cutbacks in research spending.

A syndicated columnist Ernest Cuneo, recently had some thoughts on the nature of pure research that Conner found interesting. For one, he says that as soon as a great discovery is made, man elaborates and improves on it. Thus, within a quarter of a century after Galileo developed the telescope, the same principle was applied to create the microscope. This opened up a whole new world of invisible organisms.

Many discoveries that have increased our knowledge likewise stem from earlier discoveries. Atomic theory, can be traced back to the discovery of the solar system of Copernicus, the great Polish astronomer. Knowledge of atomic construction led to the development not only of a horrible weapon of war but also a huge new source of peaceful energy.

Much research can be accurately labeled foolish or frivolous and ought not to get public support. But the kind of pioneering work which produced hybrid corn and improved rice that brought on the Green Revolution could never be classed among them.

Canoe Book Is Published

A booklet listing over 900 locations, in the U. S. Where sportsmen can rent canoes, has just been compiled and will be sent to any boater. So many campers and fishermen or just plain outdoor enthusiasts, who do not have a canoe or trailer boat with them, can now pinpoint a water area and get a canoe or other small craft, to have a more diversified outing.

Write to Rent-A Canoe Director, Gruman Boats, Marathon N. Y. 13803. There will be no charge for the directory.

er Simplified Operation Is Agencies' Goal

Environment protection does not have to entail confusing and duplicated permitting requirements. That is the feeling of the South Florida
Water Management District (SFWMD) and the Department of Environmental Regulation
(DER), expressed in a Memorandum of Understanding between the two agencies to simplify and uncomplicate their related permitting procedures.

The Memorandum was approved by the Water Management District Governing Board at its meeting April 15, in West Palm Beach.

The state law which created the DER in 1975 was designed to "promote the efficient, effective, and economical operation of the state environmental agencies." This agreement between the DER and the SFWMD is "a good beginning" toward that end, according to John R. Maloy, SFWMD Executive Director.

The understanding includes three provisions. The first — combining office space for the two agencies — actually took place a year ago. At that time, the SFWMD gave up several offices in its West Palm Beach headquarters building to house the South Florida district offices of the DER. The DER offices had previously been in Fort Lauderdale.

The second provision — realignment of the boundaries of the DER's South Florida District to match those of the SFWMD — has also been accomplished for the most part. Some counties which are only partially in the Water Management District do not fit into the realignment. These include Charlotte, Orange, Osceola and Okeechobee counties.

The most significant portion of the agreement is the provision for establishing a coordinated permitting system. Some attempts have already been made along this line, and the Memorandum of Understanding formalizes them.

Procedures are being worked on to combine permit responses of the two agencies, and to eliminate needless duplication. Efforts are being made to reduce differences in recommendations between the agencies whenever possible.
This is done by early coordination, and prior to issuance or denial of the permits by either agency.
The SFWMD is now forwarding copies of applications to DER which will need a permit from them. This is being done when the application is first received.
The DER is doing likewise.

Both agencies are sending representatives to hearings and meetings involving possible dual permits.
Together the DER and the SFWMD are working on a joint permit packet which will include information which will be required of both agencies.
It is hoped that in the near future,
many permits can be handled by simply filling out one application which will suffice for both agencies. Each agency will continue to issue permits, but the work of the applicants will be greatly reduced and simplified.

Theft Of Farming Devices Problem

Theft losses of farm and other heavy equipment are far larger than it was first thought, Wallace R. Ortiz, coordinator of the Florida Agricultural Advisory Council, reported yesterday.

Ortiz told the council that at a meeting with law enforcement officials and Southern equipment dealers, a trooper told of knowing of a ship being loaded with equipment he knew was stolen, but was powerless to do anything about it because he could not identify the equipment.

Ortiz said a nationwide survey into the extent of the problem revealed it is serious but there is a widely-held feeling that no local or state solution is possible.

If a federal law was passed requiring title certificates on farm equipment, such as is issued on automobiles, "it would take huge bureaucracy to enforce it," he said. "We need to look at the cost-benefit ratio."

Ortiz said after a spring meeting on equipment theft, Escambia County started an identification program to mark all farm equipment, but that's not much help because equipment freely crosses county and state lines.

He concluded, "The first step we need to take could be an education program. For instance, you wouldn't leave a $50,000 stud horse out in a pasture where he would be accessible. But many farmers leave $50,000 tractors out in remote fields where anybody could steal them."

Rec Area Open For Use This Weekend

Again, as last week, all scheduled military activity will be completed by 7 p.m., on Friday, April 22, and the Avon Park Bombing Range Recreational Area will be open for public use at that time. All campgrounds will be available for use, and interested parties are reminded that they must check in and out with the Air Force Security Police located in Bldg. 425. The Range will close at 8 p.m. on Sunday, April 24. Please call the Range at 422-4195 for final confirmation of range opening.

EWELL

Holly Name Society

Developes Program To Help Inmates

The members of APCI Holy Name Society are developing a two phase "Helping Hand Program for Departing Members." First, every inmate (whether or not he is a member of the Society), who needs items of clothing is invited to seek aid.

The local HOPE office has responded bountifully. The nominal amount of release money not spent on clothing is thereby saved by departing inmates for living expenses during their readjustment period following their release from APCI.

The second phase of "The Helping Hand Program" is statewide in scope. Experience has shown that upon departure some members desperately need some form of aid (other than financial) to overcome the problems of anxiety, frustration, difficulty or distress.

An informative letter explaining in detail the purpose of the program together with a questionnaire is being sent to all Holy Name Societies throughout the state. It is hoped the end results of this unusual cooperative and constructive venture will alleviate some of the problems of the men returning to society; it will demonstrate the brotherhood of man and help to forestall a return to prison of a former inmate.

The following appeal is from HOPE. "Clothing, men and children's." The need is growing in the area for used clothing for men and in particular inmates of APCI, who are being released and have need of a change of clothing to arrive at their destination. The amount of release money given by the state is inadequate to provide clothing and a transportation ticket to their homes outside of the state. There is a desperate need for men's clothing of all sizes and types, along with shoes.

Children's clothing is of a premium and the need for used children's clothing from infant through grade school sizes is desperately needed.

To help those who have this desperate need, a clothing room is provided at the First United Methodist Church of Avon Park. All useable items are gratefully received at the church office at 200 South Lake Ave. For those unable to make delivery please phone 465-3759 and a volunteer will arrange to pick up the items.

Working with the Holy Name Society at APCI is Leo L. Giese, Sebring, a faculty member of South Florida Junior College, who teaches Drafting and Blueprint Reading at APCI. Giese is an active member of the APCI Society and serves as its liaison representative with the local HOPE office.

Farm Labor Problems And The Way Churches Can Help

Farm labor problems and the ways the church can bring help and healing in this troubled area were explored at a Consultation on Farm Labor held April 14-16 at Camp Wiggamont.

The consultation was sponsored by four denominations and drew attendance from many Protestant and Catholic groups. Florida Christian Migrant Ministry was in charge of programming.

The Rev. Tom W. Jones, of Sebring's First Christian Church, attended the consultation as a representative of the Church in Society department of The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

The program included discussions with representatives of agricultural land owners and crop growers as well as labor contractors union.

DeLaney Heights News

The monthly birthday luncheon was held on April 13. As usual an abundance of food was enjoyed by the seven people present.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall were Mrs. Martha Vrovman of Palmetto, Fla. and Mrs. Margaret Ward of Riverview, Rt. 3, Fla.

Robert Boydard called on his mother, Mrs. Esther Boydard. Mrs. Annabelle Yeager of Boise, Idaho is visiting her mother, Mrs. Stella Pickett and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Pickett of Clinton, Ark., has returned home after staying with Mrs. Pickett since her return home from Winter Haven Hospital. Mrs. Thelma Wilson of Hialeah, Fla. is a guest of Mrs. Opal Phlegar.

Local Woodcarvers Display Their Art

To get to know one artisan of a kind in a lifetime is an accomplishment, but, to get to know two in a month, is beyond belief.

The art is carving wood with a jackknife, the two carvers are Art Kastner of Lake Park, and Joe Shagena of Avon Park.

Neither guy is a spring chick, though both have the pep of banty roosters, so when Joe Shagena, comes up with one of his carvings and says that he "did it back 40 years ago, I take him at his word. Art Kastner brags along the same line, about some of his "oldies", Art's son, Fritz, tells me he is personally promoting a "special" art showing in the near future of some of Art's art.

Both of these two "cutups" work mostly with just "any old wood" but have a preference for pine. Joe showed me a couple of objects he did with walnut and oak. He has one creation among his works that is a wooden arrow, that has been shot through a regular glass jug.

The hole in the bottle where the arrow has gone thru the glass is just barely the size of the shaft that is still imbedded in the bottle — 1/4 in and 1/2 out. The arrow head of course is larger than the shaft and the vane on the other end also is larger than the shaft, and there it is lodged until someone either has to break the glass of the jug or break the wood of the arrow shaft, to get them apart.

Joe made up an arrow and a jug combo for me a month ago, and I'm still trying to find out how he got that shaft thru the glass, but having it stop before it came completely out of the other side. Of course its quite the conversation piece live thing — the household boss. Sunphoto by Harve.

WITH A TABLE full of his wood carvings in front of him, Joe Shagena, is holding the real and a lot of my, would be, engineering and conjuring friends try to solve Joe's secret too.

In mentioning a photo of some of Joe's varied objects, he said "What about this piece of wood chain I made last evening?" He said that the chain started out from a 12 inch piece of one by one. When he had it finished he measured it again, and now the chain and its links totaled 18 inches.

I told him he was in the wrong business, for instead of increasing a measurement of wood, he ought to be in the gasoline business, filling 1000 gallon tanks half full and then in an evening's time have them expand to 700 or 800 gallons.

Among other objects he showed me was a flower holder for fresh or artificial plants. He starts out with coffee or bean can, of a certain size, which is well cleaned, then painted — say a dark green color. Then he cuts up a dozen or more dowel rods to a length of just over the height of the can. He follows that with making a wooden bottom, drilling holes for the dowels to fit in.

Then for a top, he cuts out another disc, this time making a hole several inches in diameter in it. With the can now in the center and with the drilled holes just a bit larger than the can, he glues the wooden rods around the can, both on the top and bottom discs, and sets it aside to dry. Later to be painted and then ready to receive the fresh or hand made bouquet.

Another of Joe's wooden contrivances is a windy weather napkin holder. I suppose it could be useful at dinner parties where the tall and fancied stories are going around. Anyway the napkins are placed in a box sort of holder.

A light metal rod of almost the width of the box can be placed on the top of the napkins. On the side of the box, two grooves are made, on the inside, and the small weight of the rod gently presses the napkins down so they will stay in their proper places.

Well you get the idea what Joe gets up for relaxation and busybodying. In days long gone by — The Depression Days, Joe and Mrs. Joe made their woodworkings into a pretty good source of income — and probably helped in keeping Mr. Arthritis away from the door and, or Joe's fingers.

Now to get back to the south end of the county — to Art Kastner — to Mrs. Agnes Kastner, to son Fritz and the two police pups — who all came down from Milwaukee about five years ago.

Art was a prime mover in getting the Ridge Wisconsin Club under way, which meets now once a month. Lucky guests at some of the earlier meetings of the Club came into some of Art's carvings with being skillful in winning door prizes, he made and donated.

Most of Mr. Kastner's carvings are along an animalistic bent. You know, like six inch carved pelicans with a barber pole in their beaks, or a heron or crane with a knot in its neck. A deer and a hound dog both sniffing at a fire plug, etc, etc.

Art I'm told, is still a very early riser, probably a throw back to his days on a dairy farm, when he had to get up at midnight to get his quota of cows pumped or to see by the Wisconsin early rising sun. His early rising finds him now whittling away at something that he may complete by sundown. He believes he averages one carving a day.

All are originals and "one of a kind" subjects. Most of them on the humorous side.

Son Fritz is constantly "bawling him out", for working (moneyside) at about half of the poverty scale. He knows that keeping busy, keeps him out of mischief — and from mowing the lawn, though he is also quite the gardener, with dozens of boxes of tomato plants, flowers, etc. under growing way, all the time — even during the freeze last winter.

In setting up the examples for the accompanying photo, Art was picking the objects from two large cardboard boxes, in which there must have been a couple hundred completed carvings.

I asked him of all the carvings, which were his favorites. He said that he played no favorites — he showed no partiality among his models, but I noticed that quite a few works were about a cougar or panther with an extra long neck, that had evidently just laid a cubical egg. Out of that could come a pretty finish chick and I'd better finish this on that.

Medicare Guide Speeds Up Claims

A new informational guide entitled "Six Helpful Hints to Speed Up Your Medicare B Payments" is being made available to Florida senior citizens by Blue Shield of Florida, the Medicare B carrier for most of Florida. Its purpose is to better inform Medicare patients as to how and when to file their Medicare B claims for more prompt and accurate service.

Medicare Part B is that part of the "federal government's" Medicare program which helps pay a citizen's doctor and medical bills. Certain disabled persons under age 65 also may qualify for Medicare B.

With a statewide volume of nearly 5 million Part B claims expected to be received by Florida Blue Shield in 1976, over 70 per cent of these are being filed out by Medicare patients themselves and submitted directly to the processing center in Jacksonville. The new informational guide gives important facts, from a claim processing standpoint, that are important for Medicare patients to know so they will not experience delays in getting their Part B payments.

For example, the Medicare patient should file his claim for medical services as soon as possible after receiving those services. A simple claim — one for only a few medical services — can be processed much faster than Medicare B claims with many bills attached to it. Also, many Medicare beneficiaries are under the impression that a second claim cannot be filed with Medicare B until all previous claims have been processed and paid.
