

Southside Community Park News

By ALPHONSO WILLIAMS

Graduate of the week

Greeting:

Well except for an armed robbery and shooting which ended the life of Eddie Jones, things in the park are about back to normal from the holiday season which brought many people, a variety of entertainment and a lot of excitement. Seemingly school people and those of various occupations have gotten back into the swing of things and their daily routine. It seems that we won't have another major holiday period for quite some time, so may we strive and work diligently until there is a vacation period—one we can feel that we have justly earned and deserve.

Saturday, January 15 marks the observance of another birthday of the immortal Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Immortal in the sense that though he may be physically deceased, his dream and effort will live forever. I consider it most fitting and proper that we pause to pay tribute to this great humanitarian who gave all that had for the betterment of mankind as we enter upon another anniversary of his birth.

YOUR GARDEN

A Safe Edge

If you're one of the millions of Americans who use power equipment right in your own backyard, it's important to know that getting the edge on safety demands constant attention. Here are some tips from the Outdoor Power Equipment Institute that will help you use your edger-trimmer safely and wisely.

1. Read the owner's manual carefully and become familiar with your equipment before using it.
2. Keep children and pets a safe distance away.
3. Know your controls. Learn how to stop the machine quickly in an emergency.
4. Keep feet and hands well away from the blades and other rotating parts.
5. Discuss with your dealer proper use and maintenance of your equipment.

BY FOLLOWING THESE AND ALL OTHER SAFETY RULES YOU CAN TRIM YOUR LAWN AND GARDEN WITH EASE WHILE AVOIDING BECOMING A VICTIM OF YOUR OWN LABOR-SAVING DEVICE.

50th Anniversary Celebration

Members of the Club who had celebrated their 50th wedding anniversaries during 1976 were honored by the club Sunday afternoon. The honored couples were Roy and Jean Cartwright, from Blenheim, Ontario; Alva and Margaret Derr, Urbana, Ohio; Lester and Maruerite Harrison (who were not able to be with us as Maruerite is in the hospital in Norway, Me.; Delbert and Marie Husband, Gohe, Ind.; Robert and Rachel Kirby, Clayton, N.Y.; and William and Anne Robbins, Avon Park, formerly Pennsylvania. We were entertained by traditional wedding music, a piano solo by Mrs. Gunning and a solo by John Henderson, "Because". George A. Davis recited a poem that he had written "Ode to Our Life Together" which is a semi-autobiography of the author's marriage in 1925.

The Rev. Wm J. Ziegenfuss, of the Union Congregational Church of Avon Park, was the guest speaker and he congratulated the couples for attaining the 50th year and wished them well in the future. We congratulated him on his tenth anniversary.

In the audience there were two couples, Everett and Bessie Paxton and Harold and Ruth Wolcott, who had been married 62 years and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Baughman who had been married 70 years.

After the speeches and entertainment the receiving line was formed and all had a chance to congratulate the honored guests personally. The reception table was hosted by Hazel Brevoort and her
