Work Starts On New Fire Station

Work on Avon Park's new fire station started Monday, Nov. 7. The work crew and some city officials were out bright and early Monday morning to kick off the nine month project. To begin the work a three foot layer of dirt will be removed from the lot which is on the corner of Delaney Avenue and Pine Street, behind City Hall. The crew will then replace the fill and compact it layers of eight to 12 inches thick. The preliminary ground work will be finished in six to eight weeks, so construction of the building will begin sometime in January. The City plans to order the steel required for the construction sometime this month. The building's dimension will be 103'x16'x16' high. The front of the fire house will be on Delaney Avenue. Both Delaney Avenue and Pine Street will be widened to make better access for firetrucks. Pine Street will be widened by a total of ten feet to bring its width to 30 feet. Delaney Avenue will be widened from Main Street to Walnut Street by seven feet to match it up to the rest of Delaney Avenue.

The General Supervisor for the project is Don Markland of Sebring. The Architect for the building is James Heim. The contract for the new fire station construction was awarded to Wayne Blackwell and Co., Inc. of Miami, for $257,250 on Oct. 24, by the Avon Park City Council. Firemen Extinguish Mattress

A fire caused extensive smoke and water damage to the house owned by Odie Ishmael, of 409 West Hood Street, at 9:15 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 8. Outside at the time Mrs. Ishmael and her daughter smelled the smoke which was coming from inside their home and called the Avon Park Fire Department.

When the firemen arrived on the scene with two pumper units, they discovered a smoldering mattress in one of the bedrooms. The mattress was extinguished within minutes by the firemen. According to Fire Chief Mack Flowers, smoke and water damage will be a minimum of $1000. The cause of the fire is still undetermined.

School Board Gets Proposal For Field

Appearing before the Highlands County School Board, Ronald "Ronnie" Sachsenmaier representing the board of directors of the Avon Park High School Athletic Association told the board that the proposal submitted by the association several weeks ago had been blown so out of proportion by opponents that a new proposal had been drawn up by attorney Tony Accorsi, which had been sent to the school board.

County Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dan Davis and several board members stated they did not have enough time to look over the new proposal. Dr. Davis also said he had spent two days researching the original proposal and would require about that length of time to research the new proposal.

Briefly, the six point proposal submitted to the board included (1) approval by the board of a five year construction improvement plan for the Avon Park High School football stadium. The plan being based on Exhibit "A". Professionally drafted plans would be submitted to the board before construction of any phase.

Point (2), The Association would obtain approval for any significant construction or improvements not included in the five year plan.

No. (3), The high school administration and the association would have sole responsibility and sole management of the collecting and disbursing of gate parking and concession stand receipts. The association would have sole authority and discretion as to the assigning of seating areas. THE BAND WOULD REMAIN IN PRESENT SEATING unless the association, band parents and school administration agree on the position of band seating.

On point (4) the association would have sole discretion to determine concessionaires allowed to sell products and their location on the field. However, this would not apply to existing concessionaires and their present location on the field.

On maintenance, point (5), the association would be responsible for payment of all maintenance expenses and all construction or improvements according to availability of financing or undue hardship.

In point (6) the attorneys for the board and the association would draft an agreement and submit it to both sides for their ratification and adoption. The proposal was signed by Lewis E. Mundt, president of the Avon Park High School Athletic Association.

Board member Steve Roberts stated he had contact with parties concerned and found that the disagreements were valid. However, he said the athletic association had come a long way to work out the problem and given the band what

had entered the case and he moved that the second proposal be adopted.

Board member John Wirick said he

Blind Persons Will Benefit From Auction

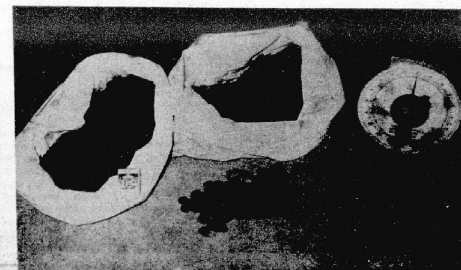

Only two more days until the big event, the Avon Park Lions Club Auction, Saturday, Nov. 12, in the parking lot between the theater and the Dollar Store just across the street from the Post Office Col. Al Thompson will call for bids on the first piece of merchandise on the auction block at 1 o'clock.

We have many new and used items for sale—a beautiful picnic table and benches, chairs, lamps, electric fans, a very nice TV set, radios, a serving cart, children's games, steamer trunk and many other useful things.

Col. Thompson is a very talented

Auctioneer and he promises that the bidding will be fast, so if any more of you good people have things that you wish to donate to our worthwhile project, don't hesitate to bring them in to Albritton's Barber Shop or call 453-4224. All donations are gratefully accepted.

All proceeds from the Auction will go toward sight conservation locally and to the Florida Eye Bank. Don't forget the date, Saturday, Nov. 12 at 1 p.m., in the parking lot just across the street from the Post Office. We will be looking for you there.

AVON PARK POLICE Officer Officer Chandler found these two sacks of marijuana (Street value $8,000) and the bag of coins inside the 1976 Grand Prix

Frostproof Man Arrested

Marijuana Cache

Two pounds of marijuana was seized Thursday morning, Oct. 3, at 12:53, by Avon Park Police Officer Willis Chandler. Roger Richard Granger, 19, of Frostproof was charged with Driving While under the Influence (D. W. I.) and possession of cannabis over five grams, which is a felony.

Granger was stopped in a 1976 maroon colored Pontiac Grand Prix, by Officer

Chandler in front of B & J's Restaurant, on U. S. Highway 27, Avon Park for suspicion D. W. I. After Officer Chandler determined that Granger was unfit to drive and control his vehicle, he informed Granger of his rights and began an inventory of the car, which is a policy of the Avon Park Police Department.

In the back of the car, Officer Chandler found two sacks of marijuana and a bag full of change. The policeman immediately informed Granger that he was also arresting him for possession of cannabis over five grams.

According to Officer Hickman of the Avon Park Police Department, the marijuana has a street value of approximately $8,000. Granger was held at the Avon Park Police Department. His bond was set at $10,000 for the marijuana charge. Granger's car has been impounded and is being stored at Wells' Motor Company.

Police Arrest Woman

Barbara Lois Rumlur, 44, of 1469 Manors Apartments was charged with breach of the peace, by Avon Park Police Chief Roberts Brooks, Monday, Nov. 7. After Rumlur had broken a window in the apartment building, Gus Baker, the supervisor for Manors Apartments, called the Avon Park Police. Chief Brooks arrived on the scene and decided to bring Rumlur to the police station for detention.

While in the police station, Rumlur became unruly and was put into a detention cell. Using a cigarette she then set fire to one of the sheets inside the cell. The policeman at the station put the fire out and moved Rumlur to an empty cell to assure her safety. Rumlur then broke a light bulb off the ceiling and cut her wrists, according to police reports.

Rumlur was taken to Walker Memorial Hospital for treatment of her wrists. After Walker Memorial doctors determined that she was ready for release, a Highlands County Emergency Medical Service ambulance transported Rumlur to Winter Haven Hospital where she was admitted to the Mental Clinic for psychiatric observations.

School Board Gets Proposal For Field

Appearing before the Highlands County School Board, Ronald "Ronnie" Sochenman, I represent the board of directors of the Avon Park High School Athletic Association told the board that the proposal submitted by the association several weeks ago had been blown so out of proportion by opponents that a new proposal had been drawn up by attorney Tony Accorsi, which had been sent to the school board.

County Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dan Davis and several board members stated they did not have enough time to look over the new proposal. Dr. Davis also said he had spent two days researching the original proposal and would require about that length of time to research the new proposal.

Briefly, the six point proposal submitted to the board included (1) approval by the board of a five year construction improvement plan for the Avon Park High School football stadium. The plan being based on Exhibit "A". Professionally drafted plans would be submitted to the board before construction of any phase.

Point (2), The Association would obtain approval for any significant construction or improvements not included in the five year plan.

No. (3), The high school administration and the association would have sole responsibility and sole management of the collecting and disbursing of gate parking and concession stand receipts. The association would have sole authority and discretion as to the assigning of seating areas. THE BAND WOULD REMAIN IN PRESENT SEATING unless the association, band parents and school administration agree on the position of band seating.

On point (4) the association would have sole discretion to determine concessionaires allowed to sell products and their location on the field. However, this would not apply to existing concessionaires and their present location on the field.

On maintenance, point (5), the association would be responsible for payment of all maintenance expenses and all construction or improvements according to availability of financing or undue hardship.

In point (6) the attorneys for the board and the association would draft an agreement and submit it to both sides for their ratification and adoption. The proposal was signed by Lewis E. Munnit, president of the Avon Park High School Athletic Association.

Board member Steve Roberts stated he had contact with parties concerned and found that the disagreements were valid. However, he said the athletic association had come a long way to work out the problem and given the band what

had entered the case and he moved that the second proposal be adopted.

Board member John Wierick said he

Blind Persons Will Benefit From Auction

Only two more days until the big event, the Avon Park Lions Club Auction, Saturday, Nov. 12, in the parking lot between the theater and the Dollar Store just across the street from the Post Office. Col. Al Thompson will call for bids on the first piece of merchandise on the auction block at 1 o'clock.

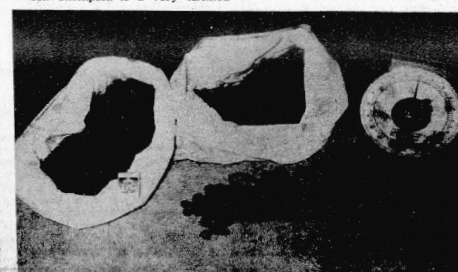

We have many new and used items for sale—a beautiful picnic table and benches, chairs, lamps, electric fans, a very nice TV set, radios, a serving cart, children's games, steamer truck and many other useful things.

Col. Thompson is a very talented

Auctioneer and he promises that the bidding will be fast, so if any more of you good people have things that you wish to donate to our worthwhile project, don't hesitate to bring them in to Albritton's Barber Shop or call 453-4228. All donations are gratefully accepted.

All proceeds from the Auction will go toward night conservation locally and to the Florida Eye bank.

Don't forget the date, Saturday, Nov. 12 at 1 p.m., in the parking lot just across the street from the Post Office. We will be looking for you there.

AVON PARK POLICE Officer Officer Chandler found these two sacks of marijuana (Street value $8,000) and the bag of coins inside the 1976 Grand Prix

Marijuana Cache

Two pounds of marijuana was seized Thursday morning, Oct. 3, at 12:53, by Avon Park Police Officer Willis Chandler. Roger Richard Granger, 19, of Frostproof was charged with Driving While under the influence (D.W.I.) and possession of cannabis over five grams, which is a felony.

Granger was stopped in a 1976 maroon colored Pontiac Grand Prix, by Officer

Chandler in front of B & J's Restaurant, on U. S. Highway 27, Avon Park for suspicion of D. W. I. After Officer Chandler determined that Granger was unfit to drive and control his vehicle, he informed Granger of his rights and began an inventory of the car, which is a policy of the Avon Park Police Department.

In the back of the car, Officer Chandler found two sacks of marijuana and a bag full of change. The policeman immediately informed Granger that he was also arresting him for possession of cannabis over five grams.

According to Officer Hickman of the Avon Park Police Department, the marijuana has a street value of approximately $8000. Granger was held at the Avon Park Police Department. His bond was set at $10,000 for the marijuana charge. Granger's car has been impounded and is being stored at Wells' Motor Company.

Police Arrest Woman

Barbara Lois Rumlir, 44, of 1469 Manors Apartments was charged with breach of the peace, by Avon Park Police Chief Roberts Brooks, Monday, Nov. 7.

After Rumlir had broken a window in the apartment building, Gus Baker, the supervisor for Manors Apartments, called the Avon Park Police. Chief Brooks arrived on the scene and decided to bring Rumlir to the police station for detention.

While in the police station, Rumlir became unruly and was put into a detention cell. Using a cigarette she then set fire to one of the sheets inside the cell. The policemen at the station put the fire out and moved Rumlir to an empty cell to assure her safety. Rumlir then broke a light bulb off the ceiling and cut her wrists, according to police reports.

Rumlir was taken to Walker Memorial Hospital for treatment of her wrists. After Walker Memorial doctors determined that she was ready for release, a Highlands County Emergency Medical Service ambulance transported Rumlir to Winter Haven Hospital where she was admitted to the Mental Clinic for psychiatric observations.

Help Needed From Public Schools

Judge Clifton Kelly's move to help from the public schools in a long range program to reduce crime has been seconded by the Highlands County School Board.

The board approved drafting a letter to the state legislature that supports Judge Kelly's request for legislative action on development of crime prevention courses for schools. The move came at Tuesday night's regular board meeting.

In a footnote to his death order for accused murderer Frank Ross, 16, who was recently sentenced to death in the electric chair, Judge Kelly called for the public schools to take a large part in a plan to reduce crime.

"Until we have some disciplinary backing from the courts and make it stick, we can forget all this education," Lester Watson, Avon Park High School principal said.

Miss Betty Phillips, assistant principal at Lake Placid Middle School said a mini-course on crime was incorporated into civics classes this year and some of the students can teach the instructors about penalties for crimes. For most juvenile offenders, there is no punishment.

The principals agreed that something should be done, but it should be taught before the children reach ninth grade. Miss Phillips said, "You can't legislate them to learn it."

The board's letter is to request state assistance in developing crime prevention programs and in financing such programs in the schools.

Our Readers' Opinions

Dick Peavy Washed Cars

Dear Editor,
I would like to publicly thank the Avon Park Police Department, and Richard Peavy, for the excellent patrolling we, at Delaney Heights, received Halloween eve.

There were at least three policemen patrolling the square block of Delaney Heights. Many of these men, and others patrolling in other locations, were working on time they ordinarily would have been off duty. I know I speak for many living here when I say it gave us a feeling of security knowing our homes and cars were being protected. Many unkind and vicious things have happened here to people who can hardly protect themselves, and the uncalculated expenses have placed a great burden on several living here. All are elderly, most are poor, and many are ill. What possible pleasure can anyone get out of badgering older people who already have too many problems?

I would also like to thank Richard Peavy, Manager of Delaney Heights, for his kindness. He circled the block several times checking for damage to tires and thrown eggs. He washed the eggs and shells from many cars, my own included, and I appreciate it.

So, many thanks to the Avon Park Police Department, and also to Dick Peavy.

Sincerely,
Fran Wing (Mrs. Ash)

A Word Of Thanks

Dear Editor:
Thank you for your fine service in delivery of my paper, regularly.

I certainly do enjoy your very fine newspaper. I think it is well organized and a fine reflection of the community of Avon Park.

Everything is well written, Editorials impartial and good! The pictures and reporting and comic of cooking aids are an example of the best.

Thank you for coming to our town and waking us up. Enclosed please find a check for $6.00.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Sarah T. Smith

Hill Values 58 Years In American Legion

Dear Editor:
I am a fellow that carries a lot of cards in his wallet; Visa, Master Charge, all branches of the Masonic Orders and the Shrine, Past Commander of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, national Camping Travelers, BASS, Wally Byam Caravan Club, Telephone Credit Card, Good Sam Rec. Vee Club, Golden Age Passport and credit cards from Nieman-Marcus on down to J. C. Penney, Wards and Sears. No room in my wallet for money-junk cards.

But I received a card in the mail the other day that means more to me than any of the cards mentioned above. Bet you can't guess what card it is! Bet you guessed wrong—it is the Official Membership Card of THE AMERICAN LEGION, the original of which was issued to me over 58 years ago. This card to me is a sacred heritage. My right to its possession was achieved when I offered my life in the service of our Country.

The American Legion is an organization that you can not be born into. No amount of money or volume of prestige can buy this card. The American Legion is for special people. No president can proclaim himself into it; no king's edict will make him a member, neither can a dictator issue a command that will gain membership into THE AMERICAN LEGION.

The right of membership in the Legion belongs to me, and to thousands of other citizens, who have honorably served in the defense of our Country. I cherish that bit of cardboard more than any other card and I carry it with the utmost pride. I have not let any influence or circumstance interfere with the continuity of service in the Legion for these 58 years. The American Legion opened its doors to me in 1919 and we have served each other ever since. The American Legion knows no predecessor; it can have no successor.

When the last comrade entitled to wear its insignia shall have been called to his eternal rest, THE AMERICAN LEGION will have passed on with him; but its achievements, its traditions and the spirit of service to which it was dedicated, will live on through the ages as a tribute and memorial to the membership of an organization that fought to preserve the dear principles of justice, freedom, and democracy. If you have such a card, I hope that you are proud to carry it as I am!

Things Out My Way

By Alice Smith

Everyone loves a drama. This one has everything. Excitement, intrigue and a fascinating star.

The time—evening, of September 30, 1938. The place—the lobby of Avon Park's Jacaranda Hotel. The occasion—the Rotary Club's annual Ladies' Night dinner.

The chandeliers glittered on the Rotarians and their dinner-gowned wives. Right on cue, the leading lady swept through the entrance and crossed to the desk, while eyes followed and lips whispered. The signature scrawled on the register was Dr. Helen Randle.

A reliable witness tells me she was a tall woman with a glorious figure, and an exquisite complexion. She was impeccably groomed and every woman in the lobby was impressed and mentally pricing her costume. Dr. Randle commanded attention and proved it to her first night in town. She was invited to dinner and spoke to the guests.

Her opening statement was a shocker. Said she, "I am sixty-five years old!" My informant tells me the lady didn't look a day over forty. Having seized her audience, she held them spell-bound while she outlined her plans for Avon Park.

An expert on nutrition and diet and head of the Sun and Diet Health Resort in Hendersville, N. C., she intended to establish a similar resort here.

The time was right. The nation was becoming diet and health conscious. It could be a shot in the arm for Avon Park's still-sagging economy. And who better to promote such a resort than a dynamic, handsome woman of sixty-five who looked like forty? The proof of the pudding, so to speak.

The local Chamber of Commerce was enthusiastic. They did, however, take the usual precautions and check references. Dr. Randle claimed the financial backing of a wealthy New England manufacturer and the support of some well-known names in Florida. These claims were verified and events moved rapidly. Optimism filled the air.

The Doctor took over the defunct Highland Lakes Hotel (now Walker Memorial Hospital) and renamed it the Sun and Diet Health Resort. Her impact was felt everywhere, even in grocery markets. Local gentlemen were noted carrying home boxes of grapes (an important item on her diet regime) to promote health, longevity and possibly virility.

A great motorcade was organized to drive to Hendersville, N. C. and bring back patients and the staff from that institution. Right then, the little cloud appeared on the horizon. Most of the cars returned empty. There were several van and sad patients. One car brought a maid, another a small obviously the staff.

Things went down-hill rapidly. Patients were not flocking to the Sun and Diet Health Resort. There were stories of mounting unpaid bills and the rumor that the wealthy New Englander had withdrawn his backing. Finally, Dr. Helen Randle left town, without fanfare, and the project collapsed.

Old movies always shot the flipping leaves of a calendar to indicate passing time. We'll flip some pages of the Avon Park Sun, right up to Nov. 11, 1940, when this item appeared: "Mrs. Rosslyn Randle, better known locally as Dr. Helen Randle, former entrepreneur and factotum of the ill-starred Sun and Diet Health Resort, which she established here several years ago, was sentenced last week to serve three months in jail by the U.S. Court of Appeals in Washington, for using the mails to defraud."

Say what you will, I wish I had met her. Not many women can fire up a whole town.

Sen. Chiles Buying Policies Approved

Legislation by Sen. Lawton Chiles, D-Fla., to modernize and streamline the federal government's procurement policies was approved Thursday by the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee.

The legislation — The Federal Acquisition Act of 1977 — affects the way the government spends more than $70 billion each year for everything from paperclips to battleships.

Chiles said his bill provides for functional specifications to replace today's overly detailed and too technical specifications.

"This bill would allow someone to sell that proverbial better mousetrap to the government," Chiles said.

The federal government's specifications for mousetraps now totals more than 100,000 words and weighs more than two pounds.

"And its much the same for other goods," Chiles said, "the specifications and supporting reference materials for grits now approaches a foot in height."

The legislation also provides equal opportunity for small and minority businesses when it comes to competing with big business for government contracts.

The legislation was examined during five days of hearings in July by Chiles' Subcommittee on Federal Spending Practices.

The Chiles legislation now goes to the full Senate where action is expected soon after the 95th Congress reconvenes in January.

Sen. Gallen Member Of Consumer Committee

Sen. Tom Gallen (D-Bradenton) was nominated to membership on the Consumer Protection Steering Committee of the Southern Legislative Conference.

Gallen, chairman of the Senate Economic, Community and Consumer Affairs Committee, was nominated the representative of the Florida Senate on the Council of State Governments committee by Senate President Lew Brantley.

Gallen will replace Sen. John Vogt, who served as chairman of the ECCA committee prior to his transfer to chairmanship of the Senate Natural Resources and Conservation Committee.

Diploma Equivalency Test To Be Administered At SFJC

Gene Statler, Director of Vocational & Adult Guidance at South Florida Junior College, has announced that the next series of tests for qualified adults to obtain a high school equivalency (G. E. D.) diploma is slated to be given Wednesday and Thursday, November 16 and 17 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the college.

The diploma constitutes the legal equivalent of a high school diploma and can be accepted by employers and training agencies. The examination consists of five separate comprehensive tests covering the fields of English expression, natural science, general mathematics, social studies, and literature.

Each test takes approximately two hours and it usually requires two days to complete the five tests. The application form must be completed and submitted to Mr. Statler before Tuesday, November 15. The $10 testing fee is payable on the first night of testing.

Anyone desiring further information about the G. E. D. tests should contact Statler at South Florida Junior College or call 453-6661, extension 119, in Avon Park.

Police Refresher Course Begins November 28

South Florida Junior College will offer a 40-hour Police Standards refresher class beginning Nov. 28. This is the first class in the Police Standards Training Program following the Basic 320 Hour class. All officers in the community who have completed the basic program and are in good standing with the law enforcement commission, are eligible to take the course.

Police Refresher Class "Raising Children For Responsibility" Nov. 15

A transactional analysis class entitled, "Raising Children for Responsibility," will be offered by South Florida Junior College as part of the Community Instructional Services Program. The class will meet at First Christian Church in Sebring 7-10 p.m. for four consecutive Tuesdays, beginning Nov. 15. Jim Robertson will be the instructor. The registration fee will meet each evening, Monday through Friday, from 6:30 to 10:30 in the electronics classroom on campus, with the exception of Wednesday, Dec. 7. On that day, the class will meet at the Avon Park Correctional Institution 1:30-10:30 p.m. for range firing and self defense instruction. The cost is $2 plus ammunition. Persons desiring further information should see Dean Farrens at SFJC or call 453-6661, extension 123, in Avon Park.

Persons may register at the SFJC Admissions Office 9 a.m.-4 p.m. beginning Monday. Additional information may be obtained from the C.I.S. office at SFJC by calling 453-6661, extension 123, in Avon Park.

Pre-advisement of persons not presently enrolled but who plan to attend college in January is Dec. 5-14. These persons may make their pre-advisement appointments now.

Spring Semester Pre-registration Nov. 21-Dec. 9

South Florida Junior College spring semester pre-registration and pre-advisement of students currently enrolled, will be from Nov. 21 through Dec. 9. Any student presently enrolled who plans to be a full-time student for the spring semester (12 or more semester hours) should make an appointment to pre-register or to be pre-advised in Room 109, Administration Building, or call 453-6661, extension 131, in Avon Park.

Pre-advisement of persons not presently enrolled but who plan to attend college in January is Dec. 5-14. These persons may make their pre-advisement appointments now.

EVERY FRIDAY AT 9:45 a.m., about 600 Navy recruits who are about to graduate from recruit training proudly pass-in-review at a colorful commencement parade. Bands, flags and performing drill teams provide the setting for an impressive and moving event. Open to the public, the Recruit Graduation review is held at the Naval Training Center just off East Colonial Drive (Highway 50) Orlando. (No performance on December 23rd or 30th).

Avon Park Artist Will Participate In Art Festival

Several Avon Park artists will take part in the 11th Annual Sidewalk Art Festival in Sebring, Saturday, Nov. 12. The downtown sidewalk 1977 Highlands Art Festival begins at 10 a.m. for the spectator but for local exhibitors the day begins much earlier, as they pack their cars and unpack and set up their exhibit in Sebring.

Orlando Fiesta in the Park. Brenda reported that the exhibit is the easy part of an art show. It is the preparation that takes the time and thought in anticipating what and making what the buyers are wanting to purchase. The rewards, he said, are many in meeting the public and knowing they appreciate your work and talents through their favorable comments and eventual purchases.

Other planning to exhibit at the show are Henry Heilig, Ruth Hill and Lester Tolar will attend with Charlie. Heilig will pack up and take metal craft and shell craft materials to the festival with such things as birds, animals and flowers all crafted from sheet and other forms of metal. Using seashells, he puts together not only ornamental but useful and practical items for everyday use. Ruth Hill plans to take her oil paintings of mostly landscapes for display for the judging and for purchase by festival goers. Lester Tolar in going to the festival with Charlie may be in for a bit of trouble, as Charlie dearly loves to cut up when there is a crowd of people around and about 3 p.m. they will be at Circle Park putting on a show. For the spectator the festival ends around 5 p.m. but for the exhibitor it is the beginning of the end of a long hard day as all of the materials have to be repacked for the trip home. But for many it's a little easier because with the sale of their art objects there are not so many to repack.

Adult Band Being Organized

A new adult band has been organized in Highlands County. This new concert band is under the direction of Fred Pearce, a retired music teacher from the State of New York. Pearce would like to see a small concert band of about 20 musicians, who would like to play some of the old time music similar to the band in the park era of a generation ago.

The band now has members from Avon Park, Sebring, and Lake Placid. The band is looking forward to sharing their music in all of Highlands County. So far, the rehearsals have been good and the band hopes to have their first concert before the end of November.

The band rehearses every Tuesday night at 7:15, in the Sebring Country Estates Civic Club on Grand Prix Drive. A The band needs French Horns, Alto Horns, Baritone Horns, Clarinets, a Flute and an Alto Saxophone. If you can play one of these instruments and are interested in playing with this band, please call Fred Pearce at 382-2571 or Walter Baldwin at 385-0896. Other instrumentalists are welcome also.

Burglars Arrested

Highlands County sheriff's deputies have arrested John Berlin, 22, of Avon Park, and a juvenile in connection with four daylight burglaries. The burglaries occurred on Arbuckle Road off Bombing Range Road, Valerie Blvd. and at Avon Park Lakes. Berlin was being kept in county jail early this week in lieu of $2,000 bond. No bond was set on the juvenile, who was out on bond for several previous charges, deputies said. Many of the items taken have been recovered. Most of the stolen goods were jewelry and money. One firearm that was taken has also been recovered. Investigators on the case included Sgt. Robert Hopton, Lt. Len Askeland and Lt. Glenn Hartsfield.

P.E.O. Luncheon

A group of P. E. O. Sisterhood members from Avon Park, Lake Placid and Sebring met for lunch on November 3, at the home of Mrs. Robert Ross, in Sebring. Any visiting or resident P. E. O. members in the Highlands County area who wishes information about this group is asked to call Mrs. Ray Anderson at 385-5604 or Mrs. Robert Stuffer at 453-4728. Plans were made to meet on December 8, at the home of Mrs. Walter Betts, in Sebring, Avon Park.

Public Invited To See Film "The Bunko Boys"

A film on fraud and flimflam "The Bunko Boys" will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 10 at the Florida Power lounge, by the Avon Park Police Department in cooperation with the Highlands County Sheriff's Department.

The public is invited to see "The Bunko Boys" as it deals with problems people have with all kinds of gypsies or con-artists. According to Patrolman Jim Crabtree of the Police Department some of the con-artists look so honest they can talk older people out of $6000 to $8000 and a lot of people don't hesitate to put their life savings in their hands.

"The Bunko Boys" film shows the different methods used by con-artists and the methods that are most widely used today in fleeing people of their savings.

The film is being shown, in the Police Department's crime prevention program, hoping that people will become more aware of what to look for when a stranger approaches or calls about money matters. And as Patrolman Crabtree continued, if anything like this happens people shouldn't hesitate to call the police.

A method commonly used by flimflam artists is to call someone saying, they are a bank examiner or bank official trying to catch a dishonest bank employee. Anyone receiving such a call, said Officer Crabtree, should if possible get the name, address and telephone number of the caller and immediately call the Police Department for assistance.

The public is invited to see the film "The Bunko Boys."

2 1/2 cups sugar
6 eggs
3 C sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup sour cream
1/2 cup water
1 cup finely chopped pecans
Preheat oven to 325 degrees F., grease and flour 10-inch tube pan or Bundt pan.

In large mixer bowl beat shortening and sugar till light and fluffy; add eggs, one at a time, beating until very smooth. Meanwhile, sift flour, baking powder, salt and nutmeg; add to sugar mixture alternately with sour cream and water, beginning and ending with flour. Beat just till blended; fold in pecans. Turn into prepared pan and bake for 1 hour and 15 minutes or until done. Cool in pan 15 minutes, then turn out on a wire rack and finish cooling. Pour glaze over cake, decorate with pecan halves, if desired.

Water Glaze
Mix 2 cups sifted Confectioners' Sugar, 1 tablespoon water, or enough water (about 2 tablespoons) to make a pourable glaze; beat until very smooth. Pour over cake.

Pumpkin Preserves

5 lbs. Pumpkin — fresh
5 cups of sugar
3 lemons-sliced thin
1 orange-sliced thin
Pinch of salt
Remove Peel and cut raw pumpkin into slices one quarter inch thick and one or two inches long. Then place in stone jar or earthenware (crock bowl) and add sugar, let mixture stand overnight. Drain liquid from pumpkin, and boil liquid until it spins a thread. Add sliced pumpkin and remaining ingredients, cook until thick and clear. Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal, makes approximately 8 pints.

City Library Offers Free Films For Retired Citizens

The Avon Park City Library wants to remind all retired citizens of Avon Park that there are FREE films every Tuesday at 2 p.m., in the DAWSON ROOM at the library. Films to be shown the remainder of this month are:

Tuesday, November 15: DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS.

This was an NBC Television Special of adventure, mystery, and daring about the men who go "down to the sea in ships". Rare, historic footage shows the clipper ships rounding Cape Horn and newly shot footage aboard the square-rigged Eagle, a U. S. Coast Guard training ship, captures the beauty and majesty of the era of the Tall Ships. This film records the fearsome experience of a storm at sea and includes scenes of the 1967 Atlantic crossing of the replica of the Mayflower, retracing the original, historic voyage — plus scenes of a daring, 92 day trip across the North Atlantic in a 14 foot rowboat by two adventurous sailors in 1966.

Tuesday, November 22: BALLET WITH EDWARD VILLELLA.

Members of the world acclaimed New York City Ballet Company perform the first time exclusively for educational film. Villella is to practice sessions show us the arduous discipline his art.

Garden Club Plan Spring Flower Show

Recently, the Federation of Garden Club Scheduling Committee had a review meeting at home of Mrs. Laura Neuberger, to plan the Spring Flower Show, which will be held on February 23-24, 1978.

The theme of the show will be "Show on the Mall", and the committee urges all garden club members and local gardeners to be growing and grooming plants now for the show, with the weather's cooperation, the Federation also on this program: THE PETER TAIKOVSKY STORY.

A compelling biographical study of the genius, loves, and failures of the great composer whose given us so many beautiful melodies.

Tuesday, November 29: ERUPTION OF KILAUEA.

depicts a spectacular upheaval of the Kilauea Volcano on the Island of Hawaii over beginning

In November 1959 and ending in February 1960. Includes views of a fountain lava reaching up to 1,900 feet.

Also on the program: SEAL ISLAND.

The fascinating and authentic story of the magnificent fur bearing seals who each season repeat their drama of life against the rugged background of the misty Pribilof Islands.

Christmas Cheer Is Airing For Support

The is a group of concerned citizens of this city who're interested in seeing that the Child is forgotten at Christmas time. "Christmas Cheer" is their name and they're met to make plans for this year.

Again, this year, they are asking that any who want a Christmas box, fill out an application form. These forms will be available to the public on Nov. 14, 15, 16, and 17, at the County building in Avon Park. Someone from the "Christmas Cheer" committee will be there to assist in filling out the forms. This is the only way the group has of knowing the real needs of the people of Avon Park.

They are asking that each pastor make an announcement accordingly in their churches, so that any who might not see it in the paper would find out this way.

Organizations, churches, and all concerned citizens are asked for money gifts and large cans of fruits and vegetables. Money gifts can be sent to Mr. George Kelsey, Treasurer, 307 E. Canfield St., Avon Park. This is a non-profit organization. Will you help this Committee?

G.I.V.E. Volunteer Program. Started At Hopewell School

A special G.I.V.E. (Grow In Volunteer Education) volunteer program has been started at Hopewell school in Avon Park this school year. The volunteer workers, who have been specially trained by GIVE orientation training sessions, work three days a week at the school's kindergarten. Eventually with more volunteers, the project will expand to all the Highlands County public schools.

The GIVE project is partially funded by VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America). The rest of the funds required have been equally divided between federal sources and local funding through the school board. The program is under direct supervision of Aubrey Morris, Supervisor of all Federal Projects for Highlands County Public Schools.

More volunteers are desperately needed to fill several spots in Avon Park. There will be special training sessions offered for those interested. The following needed skill areas will be developed during the program's instruction sessions: Clinical skills, media center abilities, assistance in lunch rooms, supervising class so the teacher can work with special needs, grade papers, read and tell stories to children, listen to children read, conduct flash card drills, assist on field trips and parties, help with clerical tasks such as typing or running off dittos, provide individual help with students, help with Book Fair, help children select books, work with small group of children in physical education classes.

In addition to the regular volunteer program, resource

Deputy Sauls Lectures On Protection

Deputy Sheriff Monica Sauls gave an interesting and informative talk at the Women's Club last Friday, Nov. 4, on "Home Protection."

Deputy Sauls suggested to her audience for them to have a secondary lock on their doors. "The dead bolt is best," she said, "with one and half quarter throw." Sliding doors should have three or four screws put in at an angle, enough so the door would just barely pass over yet, prevent the door from being removed. Windows can be pinned the same way as sliding doors.

All passenger ways should be well lighted, and when home owners are planting shrubs be sure to avoid hiding areas for potential thieves.

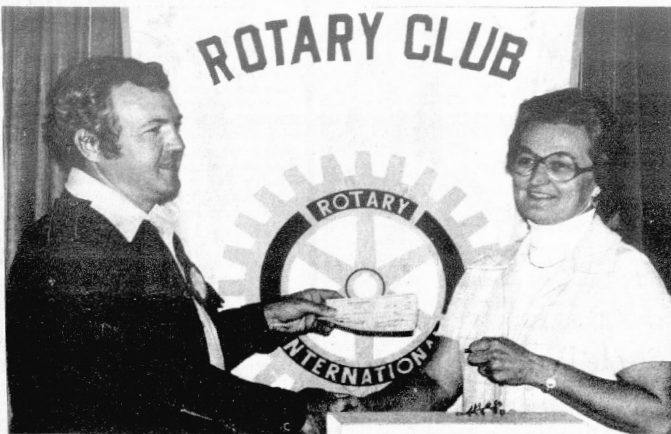

Deputy Sauls also pointed out that if you are going to be away for a while, tell your neighbors, stop all deliveries of newspapers, mail and etc., and if you wish you can call the police or sheriff departments for a property check. This is a service the Avon Park Police Department does for its citizens on a daily basis.

She also gave her listeners a few pointers on what to do if they received an obscene phone call and personal security. "If you receive an obscene phone call, make a loud noise in the receiver, such as 'blowing a whistle,' and as loud as possible," suggested Deputy Sauls. "Do not encourage future calls by talking with the caller," she said. If this does not stop the calls, then notify the police department so that they may put a phone trap on the telephone line. For personal security, read the article titled "Rape" in this week's issue of the Sun.

County Proposed Home Health Care Service Passes One More Hurdle

Highlands County's proposed home health care service has passed one more hurdle on its way to state-federal approval.

The community medical service, at state level, has issued a certificate of need and the proposal to institute the home care service is now before the state licensure division.

The certificate of need will enable the service to receive fees for care of patients covered by Medicare, Medicaid and private insurance companies.

Mrs. Joan Endicott, supervisor of nurses for the Highlands County Health Department and acting administrator for the home health care service, said it is "still my dream" that the service may be in operation by Christmas. She said she is pleased at the number and quality of applications for employment with the home service.

She indicated that it does not now appear that staffing will present any problems in getting the service into operation.

Ridge Coin Club Held Annual Meet

The Ridge Coin Club, a group of Coin Collectors held their annual meeting recently, and elected officers for the year 1978. The club which was organized in 1959, have members from Frostproof, Avon Park, Sebring, and Lake Placid.

Officers elected for the coming year are as follows: President, P. G. Gearing of Sebring; Vice President, Col. Jim Hantizes; Secretary, Treasurer, Charles McCarty; Directors: Leslie LaFlam of Avon Park; Frank Ferguson of Sebring; and George Dillingham of Lake Placid.

Lanier Sentenced

Charles Henry Lanier of Avon Park, charged with receiving stolen property, has been adjudged guilty and ordered by Circuit Court Judge Clifton M. Kelly to pay $500 fine or spend 90 days in jail. The judge gave Lanier 60 days to make the $500 payment.

County Commissioners Negotiating

Highlands County Commissioners have directed that negotiations begin on a bid for remodeling part of the courthouse third floor, since the amount of the bid is higher than funds for the project.

Only one bid was received. Wayne Blackwell of Miami bid $261,700 for the project. The amount is almost $70,000 over the federal Economic Development Administration funds the county is to receive on the remodeling program.

Under terms of the grant, the county must have on site construction started by Dec. 12. This deadline would not permit rebidding on the work. Commissioners directed Charles Cullen, administrative assistant, and the project architect to negotiate with the contractor to see what items could be pared from the project.

Citizen Advocacy Topic Of Rotary Club Meeting

"Citizen Advocacy" was the topic of discussion at the Nov. 2 meeting of the Avon Park Rotary Club.

Ron Sevigny, the November program chairman, introduced Martha Wahl, Citizens Advocacy Program Coordinator for the Ridge Area Association for Retarded Citizens. Ms. Wahl discussed the social and emotional needs of the developmentally disabled and the role of the citizen advocated in helping to meet those needs.

A slide presentation, "An Answer to Thursday's Child", instructed the Rotary members on the isolation of some developmentally disabled persons, the importance of citizen advocacy in helping these disabled persons to become full members of the community, and the urgent need for volunteers to be advocates in a special one-to-one relationship with the retarded person.

With a one-to-one relationship, the rights and interest of the retarded are defended with gives him practical and emotional reinforcement. Mental retardation is a condition which limits intellectual functioning and the ability to adapt to new situations. However, these people do learn, grow and change just like everyone else, they are far more like you than they are different from you.

Ms. Wahl told Rotarians that they have something to share! A new, brighter world is possible for mental retarded people through active involvement of citizens like yourself in a volunteer movement called Citizen Advocacy.

As a Citizen Advocate, you can help by sharing the many activities you take for granted in leading an active, normal life. Using a telephone, or keeping a checking account, going shopping, or just keeping a neat appearance are some of the day to day experiences that you could share.

The people most in need of an advocate are the ones confined to an institution, those living at home who have no friends of their own, and those in the community who have no families to safe guard their interest. Some cerebral palsied, epileptic and autistic (withdrawn from reality) citizens experience similar isolation and discrimination. Citizens Advocacy can be of equal value to many developmentally disabled people.

Literature on the Citizen Advocacy concept was presented to the Rotary members at the conclusion of the meeting. Ms. Wahl requests that anyone interested in becoming an advocate or knowing of an individual in need of advocacy services, contact her at the Ridge Area Association at 385-4628.

Old Settlers Meeting

In a last Friday morning meeting in the mayor's office the board of directors of the Old Settlers Historical Society moved that the names of Jane Barben, Ben Hill Griffin, Jr., and Fred Jahna be sent to the Avon Park City Council to form a committee to convert the Seaboard Coastline Railroad depot into a museum after the station is deemed to be the city.

The board also suggested that Mayor Marshall Davis ask the city council to give the museum committee the power to add additional members to aid them in the task of organizing, operating and maintaining a museum when the transfer of property becomes official.

"It's a full time job," stated Mimi Hardman, Lake Wales museum director, when she spoke to the Old Settlers at their previous Thursday evening. "Whoever accepts the chairmanship of the museum committee should plan to leave everything else go for at least a year."

Mayor Davis reported to the board that in talks with railroad officials that the station would include land from Main Street to 30 feet north of the station building and 15 feet from the center of the tracks to Michigan Avenue.

Old Landmark Demolished For New Adventist Church

On Nov. 8, 1947 the Seventh Day Adventist Church members in Avon Park met for the first time to worship with the first place of worship being the annex of the old hospital building.

The church was organized on Feb. 14, 1948. The annex was used for the next two years, while the old casino building across Lake Lillian, which had been purchased, was being remodeled into a suitable church building.

On January 1, 1950 the church met for the first time in the new building. In 1953 the building was dedicated to the Lord. Demolition will begin this week, preparatory to construction of a new church building. Ground breaking is expected at the first of the year.

Episcopal Christmas Bonanza, Nov. 12

One last reminder of a very interesting and important coming event. On Saturday, Nov. 12, the Episcopal Church Women of Avon Park, will sponsor their "Christmas Bonanza" in the Parish House of the Church of the Redeemer.

The church is located on the corner of N. Verona and E. Pleasant Sts., Avon Park. The doors will be open at 10 a.m., and will continue to 4 p.m. Many useful and ornamental articles will be on sale. This is a good time and place to start Christmas shopping. Handmade crafts and needlework will be offered.

Christmas decorations should attract many, and Attie Treasures has articles both useful and ornamental. Maybe that article you have been searching for in the stores, will be waiting at the Attie Treasures Booth.

The luncheon will open at 10 a.m., with hot homemade soup, sandwiches, hot coffee and desserts. A good place for breakfast or lunch. There will be food for all, homemade and delicious.

A baked goods booth will offer take home goodies. Some come one, come all, you will surely be glad you did.

W.M.U. Halloween Party
The W. M. U. of Florida Ave. Baptist Church sponsored a Halloween Party Monday night, Oct. 28, for all adults of the church. Games and contests were enjoyed by all who attended.

Refreshments, in keeping with Halloween, were served. Prizes were awarded to the children. The Most Beautiful costume, Irene Rilas for the "Ugliest" and to Martha and "Wink" Williams for the "Most Original" costume.

Hostesses were Grace Pickett, Thelma Elder, Madie Landress, Martha Williams, and Martha Howze.

The Zura Martin prayer group of Florida Ave. Baptist Church will meet Tuesday evening, Nov. 15, at 7 p.m., at the church. All ladies are invited to attend.

Church Of God Men's Fellowship Sponsors Dinner

November 12, Saturday from 5 p.m., to 10 p.m., the Men's Fellowship at the Church of God's Fellowship Hall located at 186 North Florida Avenue, will sponsor a delicious Chicken dinner with proceeds going toward the tape ministry for the shut-ins and the rest homes. They have already purchased a recorder and now need a duplicator for making many copies.

The menu will be as follows: Fried Chicken, Baked Beans, Cole Slaw-Potato Salad, Hot Rolls and Butter Tea-Coffee.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Price is $2, for adults, $1.50 for children under 12. THANKS KINDLY.

FAITH BIDS US HONOR THE DEFENDERS OF OUR FREEDOM

More than one nation has undergone the painful necessity of committing its brave men to battle for the purpose of maintaining its freedom whenever it was threatened by enemy forces from without. Whether we honor them in October or November, or call the occasion Armistice Day, Veterans Day or Remembrance Day, the purpose of it remains the same: to give our humble thanks to those who survived the terrible wars and those who did not. And since the list of our freedoms includes the right to worship God in any way we see fit, let us show our gratitude by attending the Church of our choice regularly, and thereby availing ourselves of one of the most vital freedoms for which our courageous heroes risked everything they had.

Without a sign, his sword the brave man draws,
And asks no ornament but his country's cause.

Contractors Build Houses For No One To Live In Command Of MacDill Changes Hands

While Highlands County building records show there was a total of 964 dwellings built and ready for occupancy in the period July, 1976, to June 30, 1977, a new census estimate indicates population in unincorporated areas declined by 451.

The latest estimate by the University of Florida in Gainesville puts the county's total population at 41,113, up from the 1975-76 total of 41,007.

"I think they're crazy up in Gainesville," County Commission Chairman Norman "Jug" Heston told The Sun.

Heston, Commissioner Cecil Skipper and Charles Cullens, administrative assistant, plan to discuss the latest census report with university officials Wednesday.

"If they make us mad enough, we'll go to Tallahassee," Heston quipped at the regular board meeting Tuesday morning.

Populations in the county's three cities increased slightly according to the new estimate.

Sebring had an increase of $31 for a total of 8,541; Avon Park rose by five, for a 7,247 total; and Lake Placid rose by 11 for a 735 total.

Building records from the three cities compiled by the commissioners show that permits issued for dwellings ready for occupancy during the census estimate period were higher in some cases than the estimated number of new residents.

Sebring issued 134 permits, Avon Park, 107; Lake Placid, 24, and 964 for unincorporated areas of the county. Permits for areas outside cities are issued by the county.

What this seems to mean is that contractors are building buildings for no one to live in or buy, Cullens said.

Despite the increase in building permits issued, the university still uses an occupancy formula that is based on records from the 1970 federal census.

Even using this formula, however, Cullens estimates the population should total about 44,400.

In reviewing the estimate with university representatives, county officials will use records of hookups for electrical, telephone and other utilities to justify their claim about a larger population.

A similar appeal to the university last year, resulted in a new estimate that was actually lower than the first one. The total for 1975-76 was 41,007 compared to the 1974-75 total of 42,787.

The university explained the change was due to errors made in the 1974-75 estimate and was not due to a decline in population.

The mistake cost the county an estimated $49,487 in state revenue sharing funds that could have been distributed to the county in 1975-76 had the population estimate been higher.

A special census could cost the county about $33,000 and due to the nearness of the next federal census in 1980 it seems unlikely a special census will be taken.

Cullens said the population estimate mainly affects amounts of state revenue sharing money and not federal grants or revenues sharing totals.

Command of MacDill's 56th Tactical Fighter Wing changed hands at 11 a.m. today. Lieutenant General James V. Hartinger, Ninth Air Force commander, passed the wing colors from Colonel E. A. Bedke to Colonel Charles J. Cunningham Jr.

Col. Bedke, after serving as wing commander since Aug. 11, 1975, is being reassigned to Nellis Air Force Base, Nev., as the Deputy to the Commander for Training, Testing and Range Facilities.

The new wing commander, Col. Cunningham, has served as the vice-wing commander since Sept. 20, 1976.

Col. Bedke began his military service as a member of the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) at the University of Idaho. The 43-year-old fighter pilot has served tours at various U. S. bases, the Pentagon, Germany, and Southeast Asia. While serving in Southeast Asia, Col. Bedke flew nearly 600 combat missions and has been decorated with the distinguished Flying Cross, Meritorious Service Medal and the Air Medal.

Col. Cunningham, a Florida State University graduate, entered the Air Force in 1955 after graduating from the Aviation Cadet Program. Col. Cunningham's career has included two tours in Southeast Asia, an assignment to the Air Force Academy and duty in the Pentagon which included his job as Executive Assistant to the Under Secretary to the Air Force.

An experienced pilot, Col. Cunningham's Southeast Asia tours include 100 combat missions over Vietnam. Among the colonel's decorations are the Legion of Merit, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal and the Air Medal.

Taking Col. Cunningham's place as vice commander of the 56th Tactical Fighter Wing will be Colonel Donald L. Miller who is being assigned here from the Pentagon. Col. Miller is scheduled to arrive at MacDill later this month.

Sebring Academy To Stand On Rights

Sebring Academy has secured the services of David Gibbs, a Cleveland, Ohio attorney, to handle its defense on a complaint filed by the Florida Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services (HRS) regarding the school's alleged failure to meet certain health regulations.

HRS filed the complaint on Oct. 28 in Circuit Court in order to reinstate the school to see if certain health code regulations are being complied with, and to obtain vaccination reports on Sebring Academy students.

Dr. Kye Harris, school headmaster and one of two defendants named in the suit, said that the school will stand by its claim that health regulations violate the school's constitutional rights. Dr. Harris said the school is a religious institution. As such, it cannot be subject to the laws of any legislative body because of constitutional protections in the first amendment.

"We're hiding behind the same amendment the newspapers do," Dr. Harris told The News early this week.

Local health department officials sought help from HRS when the school refused to permit a reinspection on Oct. 18 to determine if there had been compliance with 23 health code violations found on an earlier inspection.

Dr. Harris said Sebring Academy is the 55th school he has opened, and health departments in other areas, including locations in Florida, did not force the issue of inspections. "Every place we have been they have backed down."

He said the reason they have backed down is because the health officials recognized the constitutional rights of religious schools.

"We've said we're a religious institution and in our literature you'll find Christian things," Dr. Harris said. He pointed out that students taught with the curriculum used at Sebring Academy finish about a year and half above public school students on national achievement tests.

"I don't need their (health officials) advice on how to run a school," Dr. Harris said. He added that he holds three academic degrees.

Dr. William F. Hill Jr., Florida District 8 health program supervisor, told The News he is not aware of any understanding between health inspectors and religious schools in Florida.

"The law applies to everybody, religious institutions, private schools and public schools," Dr. Hill said. Hill is the recent recipient of Florida Public Health Association's Meritorious Service Award.

He explained the HRS complaint is designed to allow reinspection of the school and require the school to file student vaccination information.

In addition to the defense based on constitutional rights, the school will use a Biblical defense found in the book of St. Luke, which admonishes "rendering unto Caesar that which is Caesar's and to God that which is God's." The school is a religious institution and doesn't belong to Caesar, Dr. Harris said.

Dan C. Frodge, school administrator and the second defendant named in the complaint, has said the expense of making repairs to comply with health regulations could force closing of the school and so represented a case of state interference with religion.

Dr. Hill said that if you're going to open a school, you should know the laws. If the school wins the case, Dr. Harris said many of the health officials involved will have libeled themselves in bringing the charges against the school.

In addition to what he feels to be unjustified problems with health officials, Dr. Harris said he believes reports and editorials published by The News concerning Sebring Academy have been distorted.

The effect of the coverage is like "poison" on the public, Dr. Harris said. "The paper is just about as low as I've run into," Dr. Harris said.

The News printed nothing about the school when it first opened or its educational methods or goals, although the same information was mailed to The News as was sent to other area papers, Dr. Harris said.

"We have contacted the paper on a number of occasions and they won't give us the time of day," he added.

"There has been no attempt at communication, either in writing or in person or by telephone," Janelou Buck, News editor, said.

Mrs. Kathy Askren, religion editor, said she had received no information about the school.

Despite what Dr. Harris feels was unfair coverage, school enrollment has increased. He did not say what the increase was.

Dr. Harris added, "We've broken no law and taught our children not to break the law."

US Annual Survey Of Housing Is Underway In Avon Park

The fifth annual survey of housing in the United States is under way in this area. The survey is conducted by the Bureau of Census for the Department of Housing and Urban Development in response to the need for frequent and up-to-date information on the nation's housing inventory, considered a prime indicator of the nation's economic well-being.

For the 1977 survey, a sample of 76,000 housing units out of the nation's 82 million has been selected to represent a cross section. The sample was originally selected from 1970

There will be a meeting of the Florida Center Stages program sponsors at the South Florida Junior College Lecture Center, Room 121 at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday Nov. 9.

The extension of the State Theatre Program of Florida would provide the Central Florida area with resident census records and has been updated each year to include new construction.

Previously, information on the housing inventory came only from the decennial census of housing, irregular sample surveys, and one-time special studies. With regular annual surveys it is possible to compare year to year the number and types of housing, changes in the total housing stock resulting from losses and new construction, the frequency of mechanical and utility breakdowns and other indicators of the physical condition of residential structures, characteristics of the neighborhood in which the units are located, as well as the characteristics of the occupants including those who move in and out over the years.

Census Bureau representatives began interviewing households and will continue for about two months. Each household in the sample will be mailed an introductory letter prior to the interviewer's visit. For unoccupied units, information will be obtained from landlords, rental agents, or neighbors.

Joint HUD-Census reports on the results of the survey are expected to be issued in the spring of 1979. Statistics will be tabulated for the U.S., for each of the four census regions for urban and rural areas, for Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas as a whole, both inside and outside central cities, and for the remainder of the country (nonmetropolitan areas).

Yuletide Mailers Have Choice Of Stamps

Yuletide mailers can choose this year between two attractive Christmas stamps when applying appropriate postage to holiday greetings and parcels being sent through the mail.

A colorful design of a rural mailbox, crumpled with letters and packages, will add a cheery touch to holiday mail and customers interested in history may choose the design of General George Washington kneeling in prayer during the Winter of 1777-78 at Valley Forge. Both stamps are on sale currently at the Avon Park post office.

The Washington stamp pays tribute to the Continental Army which spent Christmas marred by severe hardships and semi-starvation at Valley Forge, Pa. After an unsuccessful effort against the British at Germantown, General Washington and his troops retreated to Valley Forge. Two days before Christmas, Washington wrote: "We have this day no less than 2,373 men in camp unfit for duty because they are barefooted or otherwise naked."

This design, by artist Steven Dobanos, is based upon a painting by J. C. Leyendecker which appeared as a Saturday Evening Post cover in 1935. Mr. Dobanos also is noted for his paintings which appeared no more than 100 other covers of the Post.

A snowy Winter setting provides the perfect background for the rural mailbox depicted on the other Christmas issue. The designer is Doll Tingle of Westport, Conn., who also created the popular needle-point Christmas Tree stamp of 1973.

Now a familiar sight, the rural mailbox was brand new in 1886 and represented an important link with the outside world for isolated farm families. Today, rural mail delivery still provides a vital service. Rural carriers each day travel approximately 2.2 million miles to serve 13.8 million families along more than 33,000 rural routes throughout America. Both stamps are printed by the gravure method.

As an economy effort, the Postal Service issued the stamps in regular size rather than the larger, standard commemorative size which significantly reduced costs connected with the multi-billion printing run.

Lloyd Promoted To Major

The former commander of the National Guard unit in Highlands County has been promoted. Capt. Carroll Lloyd has been promoted to major and assigned to the Army Reserve Training site at Camp Blanding.

Major Lloyd joined the National Guard in March 1961 and was initially attached to the unit at Sarasota. He transferred to Highlands unit when he came to Sebring in 1964. When he came here he was a member of the field staff for the Florida auditor general.

In June 1976 Lloyd left the state auditor work and became a deputy clerk of the circuit court, working under Clerk Earl Rich in the area of finance and budgeting.

Hi Friends,
Welcome to southside Park Community News. Everything is relatively quiet on the homefront. The fruit season has begun to flourish, and therefore many Migratory workers are returning to the area. Also there fewer straglers on the streets during the week as a result of seasonal employment. This is the time of year however, when the holiday season seems to begin blowing in the air. Halloween, Christmas Day, Thanksgiving, Veterans and finally New Years. The stores are displaying their Christmas merchandise already while most of us are trying to figure out a way to purchase some of it.

One of the most important and powerful facts in human nature is what you are basically expecting. Spend years developing the mental attitude of expecting that things are not going to turn out well, and you are likely to get that result, you create a mental condition, slanted to an unhappy outcome.

If on the contrary you develop and maintain a mental attitude of faith and expectancy, hoping, dreaming, believing, praying and working you will create conditions in which every good thing can and will grow. Fill your mind with the positive power of spiritual expectancy and God and His good will flow toward you. My Soul, wait thou only upon God; For my expectation is from him. — Psalm 62:5.

Asolo Touring Theater Travels To A.P.M.S.

The Asolo Touring Theater (ATT) performed for the Avon Park Middle School, Wednesday, Nov. 2. The cast of professional performers put on the play, "Wiley and the Hairy Man," by ATT's playwright Susan Zeder.

The Asolo Touring Theater's repertoire includes three plays, each one enjoyable for a particular age group, from Kindergarten to adult. "Wiley and the Hairy Man" revolves around young Wiley's fight to conquer the spooky "Hairy Man" and his own fear. The play takes place in a moody, almost surrealistic mysterious southern swamp. Wiley's conjure-woman mother and his lanky hound dog help Wiley to solve his problems. But in the end it is Wiley — alone — who defeats the "Hairy Man". Wiley, mammy, the "Hairy Man", and the Dog, along with two "Swamps" who add movement and sounds, lead the audience through a fascinating theatrical adventure.

The Asolo Touring Theater's company of six actors and two staff members spend two months in rehearsals and then seven months traveling the Florida Highways. It is grueling work. Sometimes the Company performs as many as three times a day in three different locations six days a week.

The actors see the inside of scores of motels and hundreds of restaurants. They see the same eight faces day and night. They play the Royal Poinciana in Palm Beach, but more often they can be found in the early hours of morning performing in stuffy cafeterias accompanied by sounds of pans in the kitchens. The important thing is that once the show starts, the young audiences become so engrossed in what is going on that nothing can distract them.

Children and theater — that's what ATT is all about. As tough as the tour is for the actors, it is important to make youngsters' early theater experiences as much fun as possible while maintaining the high level of artistic quality for which the name Asolo is known.

This season's cast includes six new faces:

Darryl Alladice, who plays the part of Wiley, a young black country boy, comes to ATT from Brooklyn. At City College of New York, he appeared as Teddy in "The Homecoming." Alladice's credits include work with the Billie Holiday Theater, the Federation Youth Project, and the film, "Ghetto Dwellers."

Diane Weaver, the conjure-woman, Mammy, Wiley's mother, is from New York City. She lists "Dolly" in Heilo Dolly and "Luttrell" in Purie among her regional and stock theatre credits. In production credits to her season with ATT. She once appeared with a touring Korean family as a feature singer, dancer, percussionist, and trombonist.

John C. Wall, who plays the villain, "Hairy Man", has his M. F. A. from the Asolo-Florida State University Conservatory. At the Asolo, his roles included parts in "Cromwell," "Cyrano," and "1776 and All That Jazz." In addition, Bill appeared with the Missouri Repertory Theater and at several dinner theaters.

Gerry Kasarda, who is one of the so-called "swamps", calls Hyattsville, Md., home. Her past work includes the Indiana Arts Commission's Shakespeare Tour, Off-Broadway dinner theater, and appearances at the Trinity in Washington, D. C. Her M. F. A. is from Catholic University. Ann L. Morrison, the other "swamp", is from Illinois. She studied music at the Boston Conservatory of Music and Theater at Herbert Berghof Studios in New York City. Ms. Morrison brings children's theater, touring, television, and numerous musical production credits to her season with ATT. She once appeared with a touring Korean family as a feature singer, dancer, percussionist, and trombonist.

For any information about the Asolo Touring Theater, contact Janan Dorman, the Company's tour director, at 813-355-7115, or write: Asolo Touring Theater, P. O. Drawer E, Sarasota, Florida 33578.

THE HAIRY MAN, played by John Wall, frightens Wiley (Darryl Alladice), Mammy (Diane Weaver), and the Hound Dog (Bill Herman), in the Asolo Touring Theater's production of "Wiley and the Hairy Man", performed at the Avon Park Middle School Auditorium on Wednesday, Nov. 2. Sunphoto by Mitch Banks.

Jayvees Win 8-7 Thriller From Sebring -End Season Tonight

The Red Devil junior varsity won a breathtaking 8-7 decision over the Sebring Blue Streak jayvees down at Firman's Field last Thursday night to move to a 6-1 record for the season. A last minute field goal attempt by Sebring was just inches wide leaving Avon Park with the narrow margin victory.

The Red Devil jayvees will close out the 1977 season tonight (Thursday) here at Memorial Field against the Okeechobee Brahman junior varsity. Kickoff time is set for 7:30 p.m.

Down in Sebring last Thursday night, the Blue Streak "B" squad exhibited a powerful offense after taking the opening kick-off. The Sebring team drove from its own twenty yard line for a touchdown with just six running plays and then kicked the point after to take a stunningly quick 7-0 lead.

The Avon Park jayvees came right back and marched to the Sebring forty before they bogged down and were forced to punt. Gerald Jones punted deep and a penalty against Sebring on the return set the ball back at the Streak five yard line. Two plays later, defensive end Ricky Derkman broke through to tackle a Sebring running back in the end zone and give Avon Park a two point safety setting the score at 7-2 late in the first quarter.

Avon Park put together its scoring drive in the second period. Devil back Greg Whidden returned a punt from his thirty-five to the forty-five. Then Gerald Jones broke loose for a twenty-five romp to the Sebring thirty. Jones dragged a couple of tacklers at least five yards before he could be brought down. From the thirty, Carl Wingate, David Hardy, Jones, and quarterback Charlton Weathers took turns carrying the ball. Wingate sliced in from four yards out for the go-ahead TD his run for the two point conversion was stopped short. However, Avon Park held an 8-7 lead at halftime.

The second half was scoreless but not without its exciting moments. Sebring drew three fifteen yard penalties during the third quarter, and lineback Gerald Jones intercepted a pass to hold the Streak jayvees in check. However, Avon Park was also unable to move the ball so the game became a defensive battle in the middle of the field.

Midway in the fourth quarter, Weathers recovered a Sebring fumble near the fifty. Avon Park was forced to punt, but a roughing the punter penalty plus a fifteen yard penalty against the Sebring bench, moved the ball down to the Streak fifteen for a first down. The Devils still couldn't advance the ball against a fired up Sebring defense, and finally gave up the ball at the Sebring fourteen.

With time running out, the Blue Streaks started marching. Moving quickly, Sebring advanced to the Devil forty and then connected on a thirty yard pass play to put the ball on the Devil ten just under a minute on the board. A running play and a pass attempt set the ball at the six. Sebring elected to go for a field goal from the thirteen, and the ball went just wide from the right half mark kicking spot. The Devils ran out the seconds left on the clock to insure the 8-7 win.

When the two teams met here in Avon Park earlier in the season, the Devils won the battle of the statistics but lost the game 14-12. Last Thursday night, Sebring bested the Devils on paper but lost the game. Sebring had 211 yards of rushing and 42 yards through the air while Avon Park managed 131 yards of rushing and only 8 through the air. The big statistical difference, however, was that Sebring drew 11 penalties for 115 yards while the Red Devils had only three penalties for fifteen yards. Both teams lost one fumble and had one pass intercepted.

Gerald Jones led the Devil rushing attack with 60 yards for 8 carries. Carl Wingate had 52 yards with 17 totes, and David Hardy rushed for 19 yards with five carries.

Bombing Range Open On Friday Afternoon

The Avon Park Bombing Range will be open for hunting on the weekend of November 12 and 13 until 6 p.m. Sunday to hunters possessing Wildlife Management Area Quota Permits for the Avon Park Wildlife Management Area.

The Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission will have personnel on duty at the Main Gate and Frostproof

Check Stations starting at 3 p.m., Friday and will escort hunters to the Willingham and Morgan's Hole Camping Areas until flying is completed on Friday evening.

Present schedules indicate flying will be completed by 10 p.m. There will be aircraft flying on Charlie Range on Saturday; however, no live firing will be done and hunters will be able to travel through the range without interfering with Air Force activities.

Rec. Dept. Sponsors Window Painting

The Avon Park Recreation Department's annual Thanksgiving Window Painting Contest is coming up soon. The paintings will be started Nov. 18 and will be judged on Nov. 21, by the Recreation Committee.

The contest is open to any group (ten or under) of kids from the schools or churches in Avon Park. All the groups will be from grades 3-12. The paintings will appear on merchants windows to beautify the shopping area, during the Thanksgiving season.

There will be ribbons given to all individuals that participate in the contest and place in the top three spots in their grade category. (24, 5-6, 7-8, 9-10, and 11-12). A plaque with all the names of the participants engraved on it will be awarded to the first place winners in all categories.

If you are interested in joining in the fun for this contest, register your group now by calling the Recreation Department at 453-6881 after 3 p.m.

CONGRATULATIONS! RUFUS WILSON receives the game ball after the Hardee-Avon Park game last Friday night for reaching the 1,000 yard rushing mark during the second quarter of play. The hard running fullback went over the top with 1,108 yards for eight games this season. He has rushed for over 100 yards in seven of the eight games this year. Coach John Hunter makes the presentation in the locker room after the game as proud teammates look on from behind. Sunphoto by Lew Miller.

Red Devils Take 28-12 Loss From Wauchula

The Hardee High Wildcats scored 22 points in the second quarter and then coasted to a 28-12 victory over the Avon Park Red Devils here at Memorial Field last Friday night in the Devils last home game of the season.

Rufus Wilson, premier Red Devil running back, went over the 1,000 yard rushing mark during the second quarter of the game and was presented the game ball on the field. Wilson finished the game with a total of 141 yards with 27 carries for a season total 1,108 yards of rushing from scrimmage in the eight games.

The loss to Hardee left Avon Park with a 3-5 record going into a game down in Okeechobee tomorrow (Friday) night against the Brahman. Okeechobee holds a 2-6 record with wins over Lake Placid and Jupiter. The Brahman have improved steadily during the season, however, and lost to Ft. Meade by a score of 14-7 three games ago.

The Red Devils will have to pick up their morale and go into the game determined to play up to their capabilities in order to win over the Brahman in their own corral. With several Red Devils on the injured list and nursing a three game losing streak, Avon Park needs a special lift this week against the always tough Okeechobee team at home.

The first quarter of the game against Hardee last week was scoreless as a light drizzle and then rain came down on the two teams. The Devils held on Hardee's first possession and then drove well down to the Wildcat sixteen yard line before losing the ball on downs.

Hardee took over and marched from that point for its first score early in the second period with a 39 yard pass play highlighting the drive. Halfback Russell Snelling scored the TD from three yards out but the kick for extra point was no good.

The Wildcats scored again on their next possession after taking a punt at the Avon Park 48-yard line. This time the TD came on a 34-yard pass play from Myron Refoure to tight end Zeke Mowatt. Snelling ran the two point conversion to give Hardee a 14-0 advantage.

A fifty-three yard pass from Refoure to Mowatt set up the third Hardee TD. The Wildcats went 75 yards late in the second quarter with Snelling again running in from three yards for the score. Refoure skirted around right end with the ball to score the two point conversion, and Hardee took a 23-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime.

The Red Devils put together a sixty-one yard scoring drive after the second half kick-off. Jeff Adams returned the kick from his fifteen to the Devil 39-yard marker. Wilson had a couple good gainers, and in spite of twenty yards of penalties against the Devil offense, it moved slowly in for the score with Wilson going in from the one foot line. The run by Wilson for the two points was stopped short.

Hardee scored again in the final period after a pass interception at the Devil twenty-five. Snelling rammed through the Devil defense five times and finally scored his third TD of the evening from three yards out. His run for the extra points was no good.

Avon Park put six more points on the board before the game ended. A thirty-six yard pass play from David Sisemore to Jeff Adams set up the score, but Wilson powered the last sixteen yards to chalk up his tenth touchdown of the season. The two point conversion attempt was no good and the final score stood 28-12.

Hardee had 14 first downs, 219 yards rushing, 116 yards passing, completed 3 of 7 passes with no interceptions, lost one fumble, punted twice for 33 1/2 yard average, and had 9 penalties for 75 yards.

Avon Park had 11 first downs, 145 yards rushing, 78 yards passing, completed just 3 of 19 passes with 3 interceptions, lost 0 fumbles, punted three times for a 27 yard average, and had 5 penalties for 35 yards.

TRIPPED UP BY a Red Devil lineman this Hardee running back was stopped for a short gain during the Red Devil-Wildcat game played here at Memorial Field last Friday night. Final score: Hardee 28, Avon Park 12. Sunphoto by Lew Miller.

Racquetball Tourney

Changes In Top Places Of All Divisions

The Avon Park Recreation Department Racquetball Ladder Tournament has been underway for only about three weeks, but there have been several changes in the top three positions in all the divisions.

This time the Rec. Dept. has formed a "B" ladder for the Women's Singles division to encourage more participation. Hopefully, as new players become interested enough in racquetball, then they may join this "B" ladder and then advance on to the "A" ranks.

The top three leaders in all the divisions are as follows:

MEN'S SINGLES — In the third spot is Ronnie Jackson. Dennis Guenther climbed to the No. 2 position by defeating John Best 21-8 and 21-6. Best is currently in fourth position. Curt Hardin remained in the top spot by defeating Dennis Guenther 21-10 and 21-11.

MEN'S DOUBLES — The third position is held by the team of Barry Holesonbach and Tom Butler. They were knocked out of their No. 2 spot by the team of Henry Wood and Rudi Marquez, 21-10 and 21-15. Wood and Marquez went on to defeat Curt Hardin and Frank Godwin 21-19 and 21-20, to advance to the No. 1 Place. Hardin and Godwin are in the second position.

Women's Single — The women's singles "B" ladder has had several changes in their top three spots recently. Now in the third spot is Patti Kelley. She dropped from her No. 1 position by Coye Brenner, who defeated her 21-17 and 21-17. Brenner is still in the top spot. Now in the No. 2 place is Candi Payton.

Women's Singles "A" ladder — The No. 3 position is held by Nan Drussel, as she held off a challenge of Pat Wood 11-21, 21-14 and 21-5. The second spot is held by Judy Lewis and the Top place on that ladder is unchallenged Betty Amburn.

Women's Double — Third position is the team of Peggy Sisemore and Judy Lewis as they were dropped from their No. 2 position by losing to the team of Coye Brenner and Patti Kelley, 11-21, 21-19 and 21-20. The team of Pat Wood and Betty Amburn are in the top spot as they have not been challenged.

Red Devil Runners

Place Strong Second In Rotary Invitational Meet

This year's Avon Park Rotary Invitational Cross Country Meet saw defending champion Clearwater Central Catholic repeat, but Avon Park's Red Devils finished a surprisingly strong second in the nine team field. The annual Rotary Invitational is sponsored by the Avon Park Rotary Club.

Team totals showed Clearwater with 32, Avon Park 66, St. Cloud 70, John Carroll 132, Evangelical Christian 147, Melbourne 153, Fort Meade 169, Santa Fe 223, and Frostproof with no team score. Clearwater and defending individual champion Red Devil's record setting effort. The team invited that did not take part in the Class AA event.

Mark Scavelli, the super senior speedster from Clearwater, broke the old course record of 15:10 with his 15:05 clocking for the arduous 3.0 mile Avon Park course. Red Devil team captain Alan Portis posted a personal best time of 16:02 which was good for second place behind Scavelli's record setting effort.

Young Mark Myers placed sixth for the Devils in an excellent time of 16:39, and Jerry McKenzie, despite a sore knee, raced home in 16:52. Both times were personal best efforts on the home course for the two hardworking Red Devils.

Tim Cribb finished 22nd, in 18:03, Tim Salter 27th, in 19:07, Mike Knight 30th, in 19:10, and Jacques Thomas 36th, in 20:15 to round out the Red Devil scoring.

The second place finish moved the Red Devil season record to a very commendable 30-12. The young Red Devils (two juniors and five sophomores) on the varsity have done an outstanding job in what was expected to be a rebuilding season. Led by team captain Alan Portis, the Devils have developed into one of the top cross country teams in Central Florida.

"Alan has been named to the All-American Cross Country squad by the High School All-American publication," stated Coach Chet Brojek. "This selection could not have gone to a more outstanding young man. He is not only tops on the athletic field, but in the classroom as well, posting a 3.5 grade average."

Brojek went on to compliment the Rotary Club, "For the sixth year in a row the Avon Park Rotary has sponsored our Invitational, and we are most grateful for their support for one of the top rated Class AA meets in the state. President Art Turner presented the awards to the winning teams and individuals."

"We were happy that one of those trophies and a number of ribbons stayed with members of the Avon Park squad," grinned Brojek. "We were fortunate enough to follow Greg Gray to a second place finish in the jayvee contest as well. All in all it was a great day for the Red Devil Cross Country team. Now we will give the District Meet our best shot."

Devils To Be Hosts

The Avon Park Red Devils have been selected to host the District 5, Class AA Cross Country championships here Saturday at 10:45 a.m. The Red Devils difficult 3.0 mile course will test runners from ten schools. Teams included in the District 5 area are Fort Meade, Frostproof, Santa Fe, Melbourne Central Catholic, St. Cloud, Evangelical Christian, Ft. Pierce John Carroll, Sarasota Cardinal Mooney, and defending State and District Champion Clearwater Central Catholic.

The top three teams and top five individuals from the district contest will advance to the state meet next Saturday, Nov. 19, in Deland. Trophies will be presented to the top two teams and ribbons will be given to the top ten finishers in Saturday's district contest.

Middle School Girls Softball Have 6-0 Season

A perfect 6-0 record was set by the Avon Park Middle School girls' softball team in the first season of intrascholastic competition this fall. The girls defeated Lake Placid by a score of 15-9 in the final game last Thursday afternoon here at the little League Field for the perfect record.

The Middle School girls' team, coached by John Russ and Norma Hawk, opened the season with a 9-4 win over Wauchula here at home. Then they defeated Sebring 11-7, Lake Placid 23-12, and Wauchula 16-15 in away games before returning home to win over Sebring 12-8 and Lake Placid 15-9.

Coach Norma Hawk expressed some concern at the attitude of some members of the team who quit before the season was over. She thinks the students are going to have to learn some responsibility and start thinking of the good of the team rather than of themselves before any girls athletic program will be beneficial to all. She felt the girls who stuck it out through the entire season showed the attitude necessary, but thought too many Middle School girls were not willing to give up their personal time to make an effort for Avon Park Middle School.

Last Thursday afternoon the thirteen girls who finished the season wrapped up the league championship with the 15-9 win over the Green Dragon girls' team. Tracy Brown hit two doubles for Avon Park, Ruth Rowe had two singles, and Sherri Johnson, Charlotte Hart, Sandra Warren, and Pat Starks had a single each for the winners. Avon Park's Linda Johnson hit a double and a single for the Middlers.

Avon Park scored one run in the first, two in the second, five in the third, two in the fourth, and five more in the sixth to total fifteen. Lake Placid scored one run in the first, three in the second, two in both the third and fourth innings, and one more in the seventh.

Members of the team who finished the season were: Vickie Enrich, Ruth Rowe, Tracy Brown, Linda Knight, Michelle Braswell, Pat Starks, Sandra Warren, Charlotte Hart, Princess Hayes, Nina Demard, Gini Porter, Sherri Johnson, and Linda Johnson. Trainers were Carla Wilburn and Carol Chaney.

Athletic Proposal

would like to see the new proposal approved as he seconded Roberts motion.

In the discussion board member Margaret Turnbull said she would like to see the two attorneys work on the point (4) question, whereupon Dr. Davis called on the board attorney James McCollum for an opinion. McCollum said he would have to advise the board not to pass either proposal as the board cannot delegate authority to another organization. To do so would be illegal according to state statute.

Dr. Davis stated that the board pays $17,000 to the high school for the athletic program in the form of salaries. To which Roberts replied that the board provides $17,560 in supplements but the city of Avon Park had done a lot for the football field over the past 40 to 50 years. He stated the athletic association was a well run organization. There were no problems until this unfortunate situation when the whole thing was blown up in the air and someone wanted to destroy the athletic association. Roberts didn't want the board to do anything illegal, but he wanted the board to keep in mind the past work done by the association.

Sachsenmaler standing off to the side reminded the board that the $17,000 received by the high school came from the taxpayers. He also told the board that the association had spent $33,000 on the football field and the Athletic Boosters another $12,000.

Board chairman Ruth K. Davis stated there was no question of support, for without the support of local parents, businessmen and merchants the board couldn't operate the schools.

Board member Ken Grady stopped the discussion when he offered an amendment to Roberts motion that, "The proposal be accepted in principle and the two attorneys work out the details and present them at the next regular meeting." The amendment was passed along with the original motion.

There were no objections to the proposal offered by anyone in the audience.

In reviewing for the school board, the corporation of the lighting system at Head Field used by the Avon Park High School baseball team, high school principal Les Watson stated some of the light poles were in such a deteriorated condition that the Florida Power Corporation had, for safety reasons, forbidden their employees to climb the poles. Watson also stated that the present lighting was inadequate.

In a letter the city of Avon Park had proposed to handle all maintenance and light bills for the next 40 years if the Highlands County School Board would install light poles and needed lights.

Dr. Davis recommended that the board accept this proposal and that the money would be found at the end of the year or come from the contingency fund or be budgeted next year. An estimate had placed the cost at approximately $28,000.

Since the baseball season starts about March 1, Dr. Davis didn't know when work could start on replacing the poles because of the money situation, which depended on the full time equivalent enrollment of students and other variables.

A motion to accept the city of Avon Park proposal was passed.

Contract For Sewer Extension Awarded

A special meeting of the Avon Park City Council was held on Monday, Nov. 7, to award the bid for the North Lake sewer extension. Tri-Sure Corporation of Auburndale, Fla. received the contract with a bid of $139,943.25.

The city has received an Economic Development Administration grant for the sewer extension for $135,135.32. LaGros Irrigation, Inc., of Lake Placid responded with the second lowest bid of $160,026.20. The highest bid that was received was $240,640.00, from Sharp Construction of Bradenton and St. Petersburg, Fla.

Included in the bid price by Tri-Sure Corporation of Auburndale was the extension on S. B. 17A. The city now has to send the accepted contract to the Economic Development Administration in Atlanta for their approval. Present at the 5 p.m. special meeting were councilmen Robert Britt, President; Larry Albrighton; Milton Howard; David Barefield; and Kelley Phillips. Also present were Mayor Davis and City Clerk Crews.

The council voted to approve change orders No. 2 and 3 of the contract, with Meadows Construction, for the repair and rehabilitation of the sewer plant. The motion also included paying Meadows the first bill of $24,358.50. As a result of the change orders the contract with the construction company was reduced to $45,564.

On the request of Earnest Sims the council moved to hire a part time typist to assist Sims with the Housing and Urban Development program in the city.

A letter from Paul Gentry, about a neighbor, the Rev. Jesse Ray's horses in and adjoining fenced lot, was read to the council by Mayor Marshall Davis. Mayor Davis also urged councilmen to attend a Department of Transportation meeting on Urban Transportation for the elderly and handicapped in the courthouse at Sebring on Wednesday at 2 p.m.

The mayor told the city officials they were invited to attend a National Association for the Advancement of Colored People meeting Friday night, Nov. 11, at the Hopewell School luncheon.

New Insurance Plan Gets Board Approval

Highlands County Commissioners have approved a new self-insurance program that is designed to reduce costs for hospital and workman's compensation insurance by at least 8 percent annually.

Under the new program, the county will do some of the administrative paper work normally handled by an insurance company. Savings from the new plan will be placed in the treasury to help cover claims against the county.

Ford Heacock, county insurance agent, told commissioners during Tuesday's meeting, that a firm has been located to act as a reinsurer agent to help cover large claims. The firm is American Centennial Co. that is handled through Corporate Group Services of Orlando.

Depending on the number of claims filed against the county, the annual premium rate normal range from $22,000 to $231,500 for reinsurance coverage.

In addition to the new insurance plan, the board also approved paying an estimated $12,000 in claims of county employees whose protection under the county's former company is now questionable.

Old Security Co., the county's former insurance company, has fallen into receivership and may take several months for claims to be settled by the firm. In the meantime, commissioners agreed unanimously to pay claims made by employees for hospital and other services that would have been paid by the company.

The county will work to receive payment from Old Security when its economic picture clears.

Further study on the possibility of insuring home health care workers under health department policies was agreed to by the board.

A check for $1,950 in Rural Development Act funds was presented to the board by Van Murphy of the Division of Forestry. The money is to be used to

Avon Park Man Charged

Kenneth Flagg Jr. of Avon Park was charged with driving on the wrong side of the road after the purchase, but if not, the measure is to be budgeted for next year.

According to the Florida Highway Patrol, Flagg was westbound when he wandered into the eastbound lane on a curve. Jean M. Weikel of Sebring, who was eastbound, saw Flagg in her lane and veered to avoid a head-on collision. The vehicles crashed in the eastbound lane. Trooper Jerry Hart investigated.

Winter Haven Men Charged In Robbery

Three Winter Haven men charged with robbery at Windy Hill Service Station, north of Avon Park, have been sentenced to 10 years in state prison. Judge Clifton W. Kelly adjudged David Lee Emerson, Jimmy Lee Anderson and L. L. Holley Jr. guilty. All three are facing additional criminal charges in Glades County and Holly is, in addition, booked for a Polk County charge.

City Election Candidates

Nealls is interested in the Building Department of City Hall and other aspects of improving Avon Park. He has four children and six grandchildren.

HENRY DENNIS Henry Dennis, the grocery manager at Thriftway Food Store in Avon Park, has turned in his papers to qualify for the City Council election. Dennis is interested in serving the citizens of Avon Park as City Councilman, as a token of his appreciation for their support for the past nine years.

Before moving to Avon Park, Dennis lived in Lakeland. He graduated from Kathleen High School. Dennis has seven children and one grandchild. He has been involved with the Avon Park Little League Baseball for the past eight years and has been the League's President for the past four years.

THOMAS D. TATARIS Thomas D. Tataris, 38, a resident of Avon Park, announced his candidacy for City Council on Thursday, Sept. 8, and issued his statement this week. Born in Tarpon Springs, Tataris has been a resident of Avon Park for the past 12 years and has been employed by Florida Power Corporation as a Senior Commercial Representative.

Tom said he is very interested in the welfare of our community. He is an active member of Kiwanis and he has served on the board of directors for five years and is a past president of the club. As a member of the Kiwanis, he has served as committee chairman for the Boys and Girls Committee and as a member of the Scholarship Committee.

Tom is also very active on the Planning and Zoning Board. He is a member of the Housing Assistance Plan (HAP). The main function of the HAP committee is to provide decent, safe, and sufficient housing in the city of Avon Park.

Tom has a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Tampa. His wife, Sophie, is a cosmetologist; and owns a beauty salon. He has two sons and two daughters, Dennis, 12; Danny, 7; Anna, 3; and Irene, 1 1/2.

Tataris stated that he feels that it is the duty of every citizen of the community to get actively involved in the community. If elected, he will be for good government, which he feels includes fairness and honesty in all of his dealings for the improvement of our city.

Auditoriums Excluded In New Proposed Middle School Plans

It appears that there is little chance to save existing auditoriums for use in the new Sebring and Avon Park middle schools, but plans may include a large multipurpose area for student and community use.

The Highlands County School Board was told Tuesday night that it wouldn't be feasible to incorporate the auditoriums into the new buildings.

Joe Pavelchak, architect for the projects, said, "The solution is not to renovate. The solution is not to add a new auditorium. It won't fit on the site."

What Pavelchak suggested was to include in new school plans a multipurpose area of no more than 5,000 square feet that could have a stage area and could be used for a number of different school functions.

Costs for retaining the old auditorium, which are attached to the existing buildings, would be prohibitive as would costs for building new auditoriums.

Board Member Kenneth Grady said he didn't get a call on the idea of saving the existing auditoriums.

However, Board Member Margaret Turnbull said she had several calls from people who were happy about board efforts to save the facilities.

Another feature to be included in school plans is use of demountable walls. These walls are actually painted metal dividers that can be easily removed for expansion of classroom spaces.

Dr. Ferrel Smith was to travel to Tampa Wednesday to inspect a school that uses such walls, to determine if they would be satisfactory in the new middle schools.

In a building-related measure, the board called for bids on work at Sebring High School, Fred Wild Elementary School and Lake Placid Elementary School. Bids on the projects are to be opened Dec. 13.

Final documents and plans approved Tuesday call for construction of a site at the high school to be used for business vocational education.

Work at Fred Wild Elementary School is to include construction of six new classrooms that will eliminate the need for portable units now in use. The school also will be able to house a kindergarten class as well.

Two optional projects are in construction of covered physical education areas at both Fred Wild and Lake Placid elementary schools.

A proposal outlining Avon Park Athletic Association's plans for a series of improvements at the high school football field over the next five years was given tentative approval.

James McCollum, board attorney, said the way the language is written in the agreement, it illegally delegates board authority to the association. "You have given a rough sketch for a five-year improvement plan and you're asking the board to let you do it," he said.

The board told Ron Sachsenmaler of the association that the board's attorney and the association's attorney would have to work out new language before a final agreement can be approved by the board.

Board approval was given to a proposal to refinance some $2,869,000 in bonds to obtain better interest rates. The system now pays interest rates of 6.4 to 7 percent on its bonds that were issued several years ago. Current rates are about 5.5 percent.

In other activity the board: Awarded contracts for purchase of a new flail mower to Fields Equipment Co. for $1,800 and a contract to Pecos River Ford Tractor, $6,900. A contract for purchase of miscellaneous kitchen items for home economics classes and school kitchens was awarded to Edward Don & Co.

Set Dec. 13 as a sale date for a variety of surplus furniture and equipment.

Approved a request from Ed Schrader, director of field services for the Boy Scouts of America, to permit the Gulf Ridge Council to run a career interest survey in the high schools.

Approved the list of volunteer teachers and the list of Visting Volunteers. Authorized use of Sebring High School Auditorium for Highlands Little Theatre to present the play "Harvey" and use of Sebring Middle School Auditorium Dec. 23 for "The Red Legs Revue." A request from the last organization for a waiver of fees was denied, since fees for other organizations would also have to be waived for school use. The group plans to donate proceeds to the Sebring Police Department's drug abuse program.

Tabled a request from Highlands County Commissioners to use fence and playground equipment at Carver School.

Approved the new work in Highway Park. Superintendent Dr. Dan Davis said a proposal is being worked out with commissioners for better use of the Carver School site.

Approved a change order calling for stronger foundations for light poles at Lake Placid High School.

Approved a cooperative agreement with Avon Park to provide new lighting equipment at Head Field. The board is to buy the estimated $26,000 in lighting equipment, while the city will maintain the lights. Dr. Davis said there may be funds left at the end of the fiscal year in June to cover the purchase, but if not, the measure is to be budgeted for next year.

Kelly Sentences Juveniles To 9 Month Diaries

Three youthful burglars have received an unique directive from juvenile court Judge Clifton M. Kelly. Each of the three is to keep a diary of his daily activities.

Final disposition of the cases involving the three is deferred for nine months. Each of the three is to receive counseling and will share in making restitution to the victim of the burglary and criminal mischief they admitted they did.

The juveniles — 10 and 11 years of age — were instructed to record in their diaries not only the day-to-day events they participate in, but to note the special problems they may encounter and the good things they experience. A counselor from Children and Youth Services (CYS) is to review the diaries with each of the writers, at least once every two weeks.

Another youth who appeared at the Oct. 24 session of juveniles court on a violation of probation and petit larceny charges was ordered to work for the county road and bridge crew for two days. His probation is continued, but he is to observe a curfew.

One youth charged with petit larceny pleaded guilty, but disposition of the case was deferred for 90 days. Another young defendant charged with petit larceny requested transfer of her case to adult court. The request was granted and Estella Williams pleaded guilty and was fined $100. Probation for one youth was formally terminated.

Charges against three juveniles were dismissed. Two of these had been booked for possession of controlled substance, two for possession of liquor by a minor and one for driving while intoxicated. Six dependency cases were heard at the Oct. 24 session of court. In one, the child was continued in foster care.

One case was transferred to another county and in two, the children were declared legally dependent and the court designated foster care. In another, custody of dependent children was designated.

Aggravated Assault

Glen Herbert Brannen, 51, of Avon Park, was charged with aggravated assault Monday, Oct. 3, Avon Park Police Officer Gene Ferguson arrested Brannen at 1116 West Hill St., after seeing him with a knife.

The complaint was registered by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Cornett, of Avon Park. Brannen's bond was set at $1000.

Highlands County Citizens Nominate Board of Directors

Residents of Highlands County have been invited to participate in nominating members for the board of directors of South Central Florida Health Systems Council. From the nominations submitted from a 10-county region, a nominating committee is to prepare a slate to be voted on at an election Jan. 28.

According to Dr. Pat Hardeman, director of community development for the health systems council, both health professionals (called providers) and consumers are to be chosen for the board. Highlands County has two representatives on the board and neither of these terms expires at this time. However, Highlands Citizens are eligible to nominate residents living in other portions of the area — Polk, Hardee, Sarasota, DeSoto, Charlotte, Lee, Collier, Hendry, Glades counties.

The official nominations forms are available at the office of Florida Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, 108 N. Ridgewood Drive, Sebring. All nominations must be sent to the health council offices in Sarasota before Thursday, Nov. 17.

Council staff emphasized the importance of obtaining nominations of persons who can serve as consumer representatives. Marshall S. F. Pollard of Lake Placid is one of the consumer representatives now serving on the board. Virginia Hubbell of Sebring, the other Highlands Council on the board, is an indirect provider of health care services.

Avon Park Red Devil Cha-a-t-t-t-e-e-e-r-r

This year, as last year, the Avon Park High School is trying to offer an alternative to suspending students. This alternative comes in the form of the federally funded, "Time Out" program.

According to Bill Murphy, the "Time Out" counselor, the time out room is an alternative to suspension.

Enrollment in the Time Out room comes about by misbehavior or excessive tardiness. "Most of our students are those who are constantly coming into class late, Murphy said. We think that we can help these students by explaining to them the importance of prompt attendance."

Students can be enrolled by teacher's preference or by their own. "If any student has a problem, we would be glad to talk it over with him, Murphy stated. "We are an outlet where a student can come and discuss his problems. All of us have problems, even kids with the better grades. These are the kids who would enroll themselves."

Although he is the counselor of an outside the class room activity, he still thinks that the best learning situation is in the classroom. "I'm not going to let anybody out here that I can teach math or science better than a math or science teacher can. We try to get the student back in the regular class room as soon as possible."

This year, as a corollary to the Time Out program, there is a home visitation program. There are 13 teachers, on the home visitation team, and they are going to visit about half of the entire student body in the student's homes to try and better the relationship between the parents, teachers, and the students.

Murphy described this program as if it were a script. "We have three agencies in the county to educate the student," he explained. The three agencies are: the home environment; the school environment and the student. Later, he said, if one leg of the tripod is disturbed, the whole thing would fall.

The students in the Time Out program are first priority for home visitation, but other students will be visited as well. In a final word Murphy said, "It would

Sheriff And Police Join In Crime Prevention Program

RAPE — is the most serious, frightening and violent of all crimes against women.

The film "How to say no to a Rapist and Survive" was shown by the Avon Park Police Department and the Highlands County Sheriff's Department, with Patrolman James Crabtree explaining that it was one of a series of crime preventative measures being taken by law enforcement agencies.

The film produced by Frederick Storaska has a college campus setting with Storaska speaking to mostly college age girls along with a few men college students.

Using a humorous approach for the serious subject, Storaska asked his audience about the use of weapons such as small pistols, ice picks or tear gas. Weapons are great, he said, if they are available, ready and you have the opportunity to use them when you have a knife pressed against your throat or a gun in your ribs. He also raised the thought that you be concerned if what you do, doesn't work.

As for the martial arts of karate and jiu-jitsu, Storaska told his mostly feminine audience, "You're not willing to study six weeks on something you may never use." and Screaming — In New York City, 40 people saw and watched a screaming woman being raped and then stabbed to death and none of them did a thing to help the victim, Stated Storaska.

Now a woman struggling, he told his giggling audience, entices a man and many rapings start out as a simple mugging, (robbery). Then he urged his listeners to go along with the attacker, until it was safe to escape or your life was in danger.

Storaska then told the audience that an assaulter or rapist was different of other people and wanted to cut a girl down to size. He is the late type person and wanted to humiliate women.

Do you treat people as people, Storaska asked the audience, as the rapist needs recognition. In speaking of defensive actions, Storaska stated "If it don't hurt you it won't harm you and you will have time to do something else." If it don't work, you can always scream and struggle later.

Calling four girls on stage, Storaska showed that a girl with small hands would have difficulty choking an assailant, but when the opportunity came she could put his eye or eyes out with her thumbs.

The second tactic Storaska recommended to the laughing feminine audience brought even more laughter, when he told them, as a woman they could place their hands on a man's groin strands and when the opportunity came, squeeze the rapist's testicle, thereby ending the attack.

When the laughter died down,

Storaska stated these were the only two tactics he would guarantee would work. "Remember the closer he gets to you the more you can do to him. Fainting doesn't work all the time — You can pretend and if it doesn't work, you're still alive.

To the question, some women wouldn't harm anyone, he replied the choice is yours — putting an eye out or being raped!

Statistically of every 10 cases of rape, seven take place during dating situations, because men are induced faster than women. Storaska told the men in the audience, have your best friend lie your hands behind your back when you go on a date. Another factor is that women don't tell their dates how far they will go, or set the limit. Our society, he said is to be blamed for not instructing girls to set limits.

Storaska told of a woman who had heard one of his lectures on remaining stable when being attacked. The woman told him she remained stable, but she turned her head, stuck her finger in her throat and vomited on the attacker. To Storaska it was a way of using one's imagination in defending oneself.

In concluding Storaska stated, "In our society, man doesn't have the right to take what he wants from a woman." To the women, he said, "If you want to be raped, hitch-hike!" Studies by two western universities indicated that women hitch-hikers formed the largest group percentage-wise of women, who were raped.

Speaking as a woman to woman, Monica Sauls of the Highlands County Sheriff's Department told the women at the Florida Power Lounge, she should you be a victim, "REPORT IT NOW." Tomorrow or next week will be too late for anything to be done about it.

Miss Sauls reported that the departments were training dispatchers to tell rape victims not to change clothing or to use a douche. The first thing a rape victim wanted to do, she said, was to use a douche bath and put on clean clothes.

Try to hold yourself together, when reporting a rape, Monica told the group, do not take medication or bathe. Someone from the sheriff's Department will pick you up or will meet you at the hospital. If at home bring a second set of change of clothing.

At the hospital the examining physician will have a Johnson Rape Kit. The Kit contains acid phosphatase which change colors in the presence of semen or sperm collected in vaginal fluid or scrapings. There is a comb to collect the hair of the victim and the rapist, for a hair comparison of the 22 different characteristics. These along with the clothing are sent to a laboratory for examination for semen, hair, and stray fabric threads, all of which are useful in identifying the rapist.

The victim makes the case, Miss Sauls told the group, because many times the victim states, "I really don't want to go to court." Yet when another woman becomes a rape victim it is because the first victim refused to testify and the case had to be dropped and the rapist goes free to assault another woman.

Rape is a traumatic experience for a woman, but many men say "She asked for it," but it is a crime of violence, stated Miss Sauls as she related the case of a convicted prisoner who had a hatred for women. After he had selected his victim, she ceased to be a woman with an identity, her face became a complete blank at the time of his attack.

The film, "How to say no to a Rapist and Survive," will be shown to the senior high school students in Highlands County. This will also have an influence on the number of incest cases reported in the county, stated Deputy Sauls, as children who are the victims of incest often are afraid to speak out.

Why the need for this type of information in Highlands County? Women won't always be safe on the streets in Highlands County as the population increases. It is in more populous center where rapings do take place.

Speaking as a woman, Miss Sauls stated, "It can happen and has happened, that's why we have to learn to protect ourselves."

In the audience a policeman, who had attended one of Frederick Storaska's live lectures on rape, said it would be wonderful if all of the area civic clubs could cooperate and try to bring Storaska to the SFJC Community Auditorium when it is finished for in a person lecture.

Support Your Teachers Theme Of Education Week

Teachers must be supported outside the classroom by parents and other citizens who care and who join in expressing their concern in action, sponsors of American Education Week point out. This year's observance is Nov. 13-19.

"If we do not concern ourselves with the schools, we are forfeiting some of the responsibility we share for the future of our community and our country," said Chet Brojek, president of the Highlands County Education Association.

"Our care, on the other hand, can help minimize the pressures of current crisis, and can lighten the darkness of the unknown that lies ahead," He noted that the AEW Theme this year is "Working Together For Education."

Sponsors of the observance have noted a number of approaches for expressing this care in action. Among these are:

Ask teachers how you can support their activities at home and in your neighborhood. Learn the objectives of various types of instruction so as to be able to explain those goals to young people.

Encourage young people to involve themselves in their learning by showing that intellectual curiosity is natural and valuable. For example, encourage them to view TV programs that focus on current events, or American history, or the various people, animals, plants, customs of other parts of the world. Foster young people's interest in Public Broadcasting System programs that might supplement their classroom studies.

Help encourage young people toward a sense that the schools belong to them as well as to adults.

National sponsors of American Education Week are the National Education Association, the American Legion, National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and the U.S. Office of Education. Locally, the Highlands Education Association is stressing the importance of American Education Week.

CRAPSHOTS

On Thursday, Nov. 3, forty members were present for the first class of the season. Two projects were introduced, namely owl mobiles and Christmas gift enclosure cards. These are cut from used Christmas cards and are unusual and beautiful. The mobiles are made from felt and pheasant feathers. Two owls swinging on a wire and looking at a quarter moon, of course, one cannot hear "the boots" but what else would an owl do to the moon.

These projects will continue for a couple of weeks every Thursday from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and every member is welcome to participate.

PINOCHLE

On Oct. 30, there were seven tables with Tom Chase high scorer with 799 and Fanny Klein low with 739. On Friday, Nov. 4, Tom Chase was again high scorer with 808 and Helen Edmonson low with 863.

BRIDGE

November 1, saw five tables participating with William Porter scoring 4280 and Maurice Brevort with 3930. On Thursday, Nov. 3 there were six tables for duplicate bridge. North and South first place winners were John Schoen and Ruth Short, and second went to the Nickersons. East and West winners were, first Meredith Reany and Clyde Getchel, and second went to Sara Spindle and Tom Chase.

SHUFFLING

On Wednesday, Nov. 2, the four game winners were Charles Buckley, Helen Galt, Lloyd Young, and Charles Fuller.

Saturday, Nov. 5, was the last game tournament before the regular A and B tournaments begin for the season. The winners were Sponsor Limbaugh, Theresa Junk, Geraldine Long, Don Mason, Ed Healy, Harris Steward and William Baxter.

POTLUCK SUPPER

The first potluck supper of the season was held on Saturday, Nov. 5, with 18 members present. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gunning and Mr. and Mrs. George Tisot were hosts and hostesses. Readings were given, which was enjoyed by all. The next supper will be held on Saturday, Nov. 12, at 5:30 p.m. All members are welcome.

Our total membership as of Nov. 5, is 191. We are glad to see so many of our members returning and likewise, we welcome the new members.

Marcheta Stayer New Project Director

Service Over Sixty, Inc. recently named Marcheta (Kest) Stayer of Lake Placid as the new Project Director for Highlands County Nutrition Program following the resignation of Mrs. Betty Upchurch of Sebring who is moving to Africa.

Highlands County Nutrition Program is funded through Title VII of the Older Americans Act and provides a weekday meal plus a variety of social services to individuals over sixty who are lonely, isolated, in nutritional need, and individuals who are no longer able to cook and shop for nutritious meals.

Mrs. Stayer has served as a member of the S.O.S. board for several years and resigned her position as its president to assume her new post. Joe Oliveri of Avon Park was elected as the new president of S.O.S.

LAKELAND CIVIC CENTER

There's No Place Like Publix When You're Home For The Holidays

When the family gathers around and company's dropping by, there's no place like Publix to help with your entertaining—from tempting cheeses and dips in our dairy department to festive party platters from the Deli. And, of course, you can count on Publix to make your traditional family feasts the best ever.

Why Not Give A Gift of Fine Foods

Publix Gift Boxes and Gift Certificates are always a welcome gift. Create your Gift Box selection from our extensive list of domestic and imported meats and cheeses and gourmet snacks. Our Deli manager will be happy to help you with your selections. Gift Certificates for any amount you choose are available from your Publix store manager. They're just the right gift for employees, friends or just about anyone.
