First Presbyterian Church To Perform Cantata

The Church Choir of the First Presbyterian Church will perform the Christmas Cantata, "Glory to God" on Friday, December 22 at 7:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary. "Glory to God" consists of music arranged from the compositions of Charles F. Gounod.

Included among the selections to be heard: Send Us Deliverance (From Gallia), Lovely Appearance (from "The Redemption"), The Magnificent "Ave Maria", and Glory To God ("Sanctus," from St. Cecilia's Mass).

For this performance only, Mrs. Jack Peavey, the regular church organist, will move into the Alto section and will sing the solo and obbligato on, In The Stable He Lies. The Life Evermore ("Nazareth") which is a duet for tenor and bass will be sung by Minister of Music, Mr. John Wright, and Dr. John W. Wright, II. Organist for this concert will be Laurinda Wright De Shong and the pianist will be Mrs. Graydon Rion.

Gounod's is known by music lovers throughout the world. His famous opera "Faust" is presented world wide, and his sacred music is performed in Christian churches everywhere.

Charles Francois Gounod was born in Paris on June 17, 1818. He entered the Paris Conservatory in 1836. Three years later he won the Prix de Rome Scholarship. At the French Academy in Rome he studied church music, particularly Palestrina and Bach. On his return to Paris he became organist and choirmaster of the Eglise Des Missions Etrangeres (Church of the Foreign Missions).

When he was 40, he fulfilled an ambition to write an opera based on Goethe's "Faust." Though the French people did not accept "Faust" in high acclaim, it became instantly popular in other parts of Europe. In 1870 Gounod became head of the British Royal Choral Society. He was sick and unhappy in England, and after five years returned to Paris.

Gounod's last years were devoted to sacred music. He wrote two great oratorios, "La Redemption" (1882) and "Mors et Vita" (Death and Life) in 1885. His most famous religious work is the "Ave Maria" based on Bach's "First Prelude in C Major." He died October 18, 1893.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Regina Crews, Annette Methany, Michelle Pottery, Jeri Kay Clenny, Dena Tondoe, Pam Kelley and Sybil Watson, directress of the group. Absent is Joe Willis. Sunphoto by Betty Amburn.

First Christian Church Women's Council Holds Christmas Party

The Women's Council of the First Christian Church held a meeting December 14, which was a Christmas Party. The hostesses were Mrs. Don Crane, Mrs. Guy Yeager and Mrs. Clifford Dancy.

After the president, Mrs. H.J. Rutherford opened the meeting, program chairman, Mrs. James Click read scriptures from Luke, chapter 2 and led in prayer. She spoke of the meaning of Christmas and read poems of Helen Steiner Rice. She then read a beautiful story "Walk To The Manager," about a child who was a victim of polio.

A short business meeting was then conducted by the president. Officers reports were read, and bills were presented and ordered paid.

The hostesses served the refreshments which consisted of cookies, nuts, and fruit punch. The Fellowship Hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion. There was a large display of gifts brought for the Christian Assembly at Lake Aurora, instead of the usual gift exchange.

Offerings were received for the work of the council and mission work in Haiti.

Christmas Eve Candlelight Service

The pastor and members of Union Congregational Church of the United Church of Christ, at 106 North Forest Ave., Avon Park, invite the public to its annual Christmas Candlelight Service on Sunday evening, Dec. 24 at 8:00 p.m. Come, celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, our Savior. Join in singing the familiar Christmas carols. Rejoice in the wonder of God's reconciling love. The service will feature special music by the Chancel Choir and the Choir Handbell Choir. The pastor's message is entitled "The Gift" and will be followed by the Service of the Lights. Among all other preparations for Christmas, let us all attend a worship service which honors the true reason for the celebration of Christmas, the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Our prayer at Christmas:

Peace for all Mankind.

Prayer Group To Hold Christmas Party

The Christ of God Community prayer group will hold a Christmas party following its regular prayer and praise meeting Monday, Christmas Day.

Meeting times have been changed from 8 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Christians of all denominations are welcome to attend, and everyone is encouraged to bring the whole family for this week's celebration of the birth of Christ.

The group meets in the parish hall of Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church, 586 E. Main. For more information, call Justine Devlin at 453-5327.

First Baptist Church Bell Choir Performs

The First Baptist Church youth choir "Crusader Bell Ringers" under the direction of Sybil Watson performed for members of Project Hope last Tuesday, Dec. 19, and afterwards treated them to refreshments in the social hall of the church.

The choir also performed at the Children's Program held on Wednesday, Dec. 20, at 7:30 p.m. The program consisted of a living nativity scene with children 4 years of age through third grade participating. These children were dressed in costumes, depicting the characters of the story. Also the older children, will sing a cantata "Why The Chimes Range" during the program.

Santa Claus arrived after the program in the social hall of the church to greet all the young children.
