Southlands Court News

Men's shuffleboard Friday, Jan. 27, was pretty cold, but eight of the faithful played the regular schedule, with the team of Leo Breister and George Davis three game winners. Regular weekly bingo that same night had 27 present. Harriett Meisel won the coverall.

The week-end didn't bring any warmer weather, so our new neighbors Gordon and Norma Stoneman, after a few days here, left for a trip to Key West with a travel trailer they also own. Come back, Gordon, the cold went away.

Tuesday morning coffee hour saw only 17 present, and only four of those were men. Come, come, fellows, the weaker sex doesn't really stand the cold any better than you do, and the price of coffee hasn't gone up for about a year.

Paul Stone has been on the sick list for a few days with a bad cold, indoors most of the time.

Most of us think of Nashville, Tenn. as Music City, a place to visit recording studios, hear the stars at the Opry House etc. Herman and Edith Oelschlaeger had their daughter-in-law and husband with their two children leave here Jan. 22 for Columbia City, Ind. after a visit. They were forced to spend almost three days in Nashville, and there was nothing enjoyable about it. Snow was so much of a problem in Tennessee and Kentucky all travellers had to stay holed up. They finally got to Columbia City, but that city was in such bad shape they stayed in Oelschlaeger's house in the city, and haven't yet gotten to their own place a few miles away, more than a week after leaving here.

Tuesday craft class had 14 present, with most continuing basket weaving, as reported last week. Game night Tuesday, Jan. 31 (is January gone already?) had 17 participating. In Aggravation and Euchre.

On Sunday, Jan. 29, Bea

Avon Park Police Get Bomb Threat

Reubin O. Askew is not likely to be in the Florida Governor's Mansion when the time comes for the final decision on signing a death warrant for Frank Ross.

In mid-January the Avon Park police received a long distance telephone call from a man who threatened to bomb the mansion if the death sentence is not modified.

The Governor's press secretary, Paul Schnitt, said "in most cases" involving the death penalty the Governor receives many letters and telephone calls. The question of whether the penalty will actually be carried out is not really before the Governor until after the courts have completed their work — a procedure which ordinarily is counted in years rather than months.

Ross was sentenced Oct. 24, 1977. On Oct. 26 he was taken from the Highlands County jail to the state prison receiving center at Lake Butler. From there he went to Florida State Prison at Starke. He and 96 other men are there now, on Death Row.

The Governor has signed the death warrant for only one of the 97. As Schnitt pointed out, the whole question of capital punishment "is before the courts again."

Bill McLain of the 10th circuit public defender's appeals division, is handling the Ross appeal. The necessary court records are in hand now but McLain is a newcomer to the staff and has not completed his study of the record and the preparation of the papers to be presented to the Florida Supreme Court.

McLain has not had time to decide whether he should seek an appeal through federal courts. Schnitt pointed out that many death sentence cases do go into federal court. If the Ross case goes that route, the chances are the Askew's term as governor will be completed before the appeal is settled.

"If it's not all settled before January, another governor will have the final decision," Schnitt said.

and Frank White had visitors who live not far from them at home in Pennsylvania. Arlene and Jack Bowen, who are staying for several months at Daytona Beach. George and Clara Davis a couple of weeks ago reported that their daughter and her husband were here for "A few days" visit from their native state, Maine. The good old cold weather we were having must have appealed to them, reminded them of home. At any rate they stretched their visit to two weeks, and were joined on Jan. 27 by Davis' other daughter and son-in-law Gloria and Carroll Wadsworth. So all four are here for "a few days" before any of them start back home. Golda Daun's granddaughter with great granddaughters have been visiting Golda's daughter in Port St. Lucie. They live in Michigan. Golda went to Port St. Lucie for a few days to see them, and reports that they delayed their return to home because of the fierce storm and great amount of snow reported just when they were ready to leave. Women's shuffleboard on Thursday, Feb. 2, was affected by the fact it was Ground Hog Day. Sometimes, you know, the ground hogs refuse to come out of their holes, and this day some of the shufflers, even when asked, refused to come out. Only six showed, so by playing one game with two on the bench, then the winners playing the benchwarmers, etc., they finally played enough to determine that Claire Ross and Alvira Trompicks were the 'Team of the Day.' They won three games. I suppose there will be a Court Valentine Party, but not have been told so. After this squib appears in brief, newspaper there will not be another issue of the Avon Park Sun before Valentine's Day.

What ever became of Lloyd and Madeline Clark? Some more Oeschlaeger grandchildren, with their parents of course, are getting ready up in the snow-bound Hoosier state for an invasion of Southland Court. All for this week. Peace, more weather and more visitors for all.

Evelyn Graham

Convicted In Husband's Death

Expert witnesses — psychiatrists and psychologists — were scheduled to take the stand this afternoon to tell a jury whether they believe battered wife Evelyn Graham was insane when she killed her husband.

At 10 p.m. on Tuesday (Feb. 14) a six-man, six-woman jury returned a verdict in which Mrs. Graham was found guilty of manslaughter. She had been charged with first degree murder in the death of her husband Bobby Graham, 28.

Mrs. Graham was taken into custody at her mother's home on Avon Park's Prairie Street.

Mrs. Graham admitted she had shot her husband in the climax of long series of disturbances. As she testified in her own defense Mrs. Graham told the jury she had planned to show her husband a gun and tell him he "wasn't going to beat me any more."

She obtained the gun — a .22 caliber pistol — from a friend. During the trial Mrs. Graham said she had borrowed the gun, but the friend, Ida Lou Johnson, testified that she had not known that Mrs. Graham took the gun.

Mrs. Graham testified that when her husband came home the night of July 6, 1977, he had been drinking and she "knew what would happen." She said she had taken some pills she found in an unmarked bottle in the family medicine chest. She said she did not know "for much care" what the pills were, she just wanted something for her nerves. She testified that she was drowsy through much of the evening and now remembers only parts of the events.

Mrs. Graham testified that her husband died — as she had expected he would — beat her the night of July 6. She said he used a broomstick and a mop handle as he struck her and called her names. When he had finished the beating he asked her to fix him some food. She heated and served him some chili prepared earlier.

She took a gun she had placed behind a picture on the television set and moved it to the coffee table by the couch where Graham was. She then told her husband that she would not submit to more beatings and took the gun from the couch which had hidden it.

She testified that he tried to grab the gun and "went off." "I thought much of her time on the stand the 36-year-old woman was in tears. When, in cross examination, prosecutor Tom Gallagher asked Mrs. Graham whether she had

Resident Aids In Capture Of Shop 'N Go Robbers

A North Lake Avenue resident alerted by suspicious movement at the Shop and Go store took down the license tag number of a white over blue vehicle seen leaving the store, which led to the apprehension and arrest of two men who were charged with strong arm robbery.

At 2:13 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 12 Avon Park Police received a call about suspicious actions occurring within the Shop and Go store. When Detective Leo Bronsing and Sgt. Roy Hickman arrived at the store they were met by store clerk Cindy Downs. Miss Downs advised them that the store had been robbed by two black males who had driven away in the white over blue car travelling north on Lake Avenue, only a few seconds before the arrival of the officers.

When backup Patrolman Willis Chandler arrived at the store he was given the license tag number by the nearby resident. A license check revealed that one of the suspects lived in Sebring. As officers drove south on S.R. 17A they saw a white over blue car and notified the Sebring Police Department that they were in hot pursuit of a suspect.

The Sebring Police advised that they were standing by on S.R. 17A. Patrolman Bob Walker of Sebring stopped the vehicle at the Triangle Restaurant. Two suspects were taken into custody, with Highlands County Deputy Sheriff Griffin bringing one of the suspects to the Avon Park Police Station.

Det. Detective Walt Bellinger obtained a verbal taped confession from one of the suspects, while Detective Bronsing obtained a signed written confession from the second suspect, both from Sebring.

Cindy Downs told Police officers that the two men had taken directions, then had grabbed her by the collar and held her face down on the counter. The second man jumped over the counter and when he was unable to open the cash register, Cindy was released to open the cash register. They also opened a second cash register under the counter, scooping up approximately $100 in cash. Jumping back over the counter the two men fled in the white and blue car.

In a line-up the victim positively identified the two suspects. The two suspects were striped searched by Lt. Bellinger who found the greater percentage of the money stolen.

The suspects, Edwin Bullard, age 21 and Larry Murphy, age 26 were taken to the Highlands County Jail and charged with strong arm robbery with a bond of $20,012 set.

Murphy was also charged with battery in forcing Miss Downs face down on the counter. This bond was set at $500.

Investigating officers are looking into the possibility that this convenience store robbery may be linked with other store robberies in the area.

City Attorney To Revise Ordinance On Employees

Street lights topped the agenda at the regular Monday night meeting of the Avon Park City Council with a discussion of lighting in the Fairview Terrace area.

The area had been observed by both city officials and a representative of the Florida Power Corporation. Two possible routes were discussed with the council voting to install not more than three street lights on Fairview and Grandview Terrace. A light was also to be placed at Lantana Ave. and Rivera Street.

At the close of the meeting a request for a light at the Episcopal Church revealed that in some areas light bulbs were burnt out and other light were too small. A January street light bill of approximately $500 triggered the idea of allowing city residents to have lights installed if they would pay for the electrical service, but no action was taken.

EDA-Fire Station

Jim Heim, architect, presented change orders No. 2 and 3 on the Economic Development Administration funded fire station project. The change orders would include the construction of a three story fire training tower, having steel stairways instead of masonry stairs, a brick facing to coincide with the other construction and a sign.

The widening of Delaney Avenue and Pine Street brought up a discussion of extra drainage facilities under Main Street, with City Clerk Malcolm Crews being instructed to check with the Florida Department of Transportation about the extra drainage needed because of the building, paved parking lots and the widening streets. The change orders were accepted.

Purchase of Land

The council authorized Mayor Marshall Davis and City Clerk Crews to execute an agreement to purchase about 17.5 acres of land from Avon Park Estates, to give a clear zone at existing runways at the airport, as required by the Federal Aeronautics Administration.

Fluctuations for the purchase, have been underway for several years and hinged around receiving a grant from the FAA to make the purchase at $200 per acre or about $3,000. In addition the council moved to employ Hubbard K. Biggs, S. R.A. to appraise the land.

City Attorney Jack Hancock reported having consulted Van Ostrand of the Community Affairs Committee in Tallahassee about home rule as the council had asked if an ordinance could be passed amending the charter to put all departments under the mayor and the council. After the talk, Hancock was of the opinion that they could.

On a second matter the council had brought up of appointing department heads on October 1, Hancock's opinion was no, because state law indicated that a referendum would have to be held to change a term of office.

This discussion of home rule was brought about because the council in attempting to change building officials found that he could not be dismissed without cause, as the building official had not under the adoption of the Southern Standards Building Codes and not under the city charter or codes.

The city attorney had told the council that they could not hire the building official under one law and discharge him under another law, also that the city could apply a more restrictive law than the state law but not one less restrictive.

It was moved by Councilman Robert Britt and seconded by Councilman Kelly Phillips to place the ordinance on first reading, but was withdrawn after considerable discussion lead by Councilman David Barefield about the possible conflict in interpretation of the ordinance and the possibility of creating new departments as the city grew.

Former councilman Jack Duggan recommended leaving the ordinance as it is, while city department heads also appeared to be of the same opinion but most did agree that somebody should have control.

The city attorney is to revise the ordinance to get one more suitable, or as he asked the council, to prepare an ordinance to take the position of the majority of the council.

Sewer Report

In his report of the progress of the Lee Ives Sewer Extension project, Mike McWeeny of Dawkins and Associates, told the council that the original work is almost completed.

Clerk Crews then read a proposed agreement with Roy Taylor, developer, for $25,000 to be placed in escrow to secure completion of the Lee Ives Sewer Extension project. However, Taylor had not signed the agreement but had scratched out the $25,000 day penalty clause and asked for more time or the dropping of the clause.

The council agreed to change the completion time from six months to one year but retain the penalty clause to secure completion of the work.

McWeeny told the council that an annual inspection of the sewer plant was scheduled by the Department of Environmental

Council Favors Raising Gas Tax One Cent Per Gallon

A proposed ordinance on Civil Service testing was presented to the Avon Park City Council during their regular Monday night meeting. As the first item of new business by Mrs. Clarice Ford, secretary of the Civil Service Board. This ordinance would grandfather in several existing employees under the act.

The board had met earlier in the day and approved the ordinance. It was moved by the council to place the Ordinance, No. 427 on first reading. Avon Park Camp Association

Representing the Avon Park Camp Association, Attorney David Lanier, presented a petition to close several 10 foot wide curbs in the subdivision. They had originally been dedicated for the use of utilities. Councilman David Barefield stated the telephone company would need to check these curbs for possible future easements. It was moved by the council to advertise for a public hearing Monday, Feb. 27.

Avon Investment Company Attorney Frank C. Oberhausen, representing the Avon Investment Company, told of problems the company was having in regard to completion of the Manors II development. A permit had been denied because it would require council approval.

The talking went round and round with the matter being referred from the council to the planning and zoning commission to the building department and back again.

Bob Herman of Avon Investment Company had purchased the Scotty's subdivision and had been issued six permits for construction but the seventh had been refused.

Jack Duggan, chairman of the planning and zoning commission stated the plat had been approved in November, but no council action had followed.

The discussion appear to center around the council's desire to have a set policy in regard to the requirements that developers must meet to have their subdivisions plans approved by the city. Such requirements have not been drawn up as the council does not have budgeted funds to hire the expertise to complete the work.

Councilman David Barefield read the code about developments, with City Clerk Malcolm Crews stating that the code required planning and zoning commission to keep the council informed, but only zoning changes of subdivision plans required approval of the council to which City Attorney Jack Hancock concurred.

Oberhausen requested the council not to enforce the ordinance in the middle of his client's development and that they issue the necessary permits to allow completion of the development and then start to enforce the ordinance.

Duggan requested that Avon Investment Company be allowed to finish the development as the planning and zoning commission had approved it. The council moved to approve construction on Manor II according to the plat that was submitted.

In other council action they approved paying Candub and Fleitsing, $17,000 in Had con-tingencies (funds for the completion of the comprehensive plan as required by the State of Florida).

— Approved purchase of a tractor mower combination from Crews Equipment Co., for $3505. Bids were also received from Fields Equipment and South Florida Motors.

— Approved purchase of a Nova for the Police Department from J. H. Ford Motor Co. on a low bid of $4895 plus trade-in. Bids were received from McCann Ford and Wells Motor Co.

Tabled until the next meeting a request from Stan Taft to place concrete benches, with merchant advertising, on the sidewalks of the city.

— Approved a mutual aid agreement with the Avon Park Bombing and Gannery Range on fire protection. The Air Force can train the city firemen in combating plane fires while their men could make use of the new fire training tower.

Appointing Council president Larry Abritton to the South Florida Junior College Community Auditorium board.

— Approved hiring a fulltime policeman as required by state law. Mayor Marshall Davis reported one temporary police woman has been hired, training Jan. 1. Position was approved by the Civil Service Board.

— Favored an increase of one cent per gallon in gasoline taxes, estimating that it would net the city approximately $48,465 or the equivalent of almost a mill of property taxes.

Officer Defeats Possible Robbery Attempt On Road

An attempted robbery by several adults using children to flag down a car, was foiled by Avon Park Police Lt. Walt Bellinger and Thad Tate, on Arbuckle Creek Road, while the two were returning home from a movie in Sebring, Monday night.

At about 10:40 p.m. Lt. Bellinger and Tate, about an eighth mile from S.R. 17A at the triangle. Four kids all white were in front of the car waving and trying to flag them down. Lt. Bellinger reported there were two little boys, an 8 or 9 year old girl and a 17 or 18 year old boy. When they stopped one of the boys said they were out of gas and wanted someone to take them back to the highway to a gas station.

At this point four men and a woman came out from under citrus trees about 30 or more yards apart. The woman carrying a soda bottle was telling the men to get them, according to Lt. Bellinger and Tate. Lt. Bellinger showed them his police badge but that didn't stop the group from coming on.

One man was saying "Please help us," but kept coming closer. A tall man in the group yelled get around behind them and by this time was close enough that he hit Lt. Bellinger on the jaw under his ear. He hit Tate under the chin with his fist. Lt. Bellinger was then able to land two hard blows, one drawing blood on the tall man's face.

A blue Ford pickup truck headed west passed the group and turned across the road as if to block it. Lt. Bellinger and Tate hurried into their car, went around the truck to S.R. 17A and on into Avon Park, where they called the Sebring Police and the Highlands County Sheriff's Department.

Sgt. Earl Gordon and Deputy Jerry Fennell responded to the call but were not able to find any trace of the car, children or adults. The case is still under investigation.

Lt. Bellinger thought that a possible motive of the group in stating they were out of gas, was robbery.

Russell Urges Writing Senators To Oppose Bill

Gillie C. Russell, President of Highlands County Farm Bureau is urging all Farm Bureau members to write Senators in opposition to Senate bill 1883, a bill that would make employers all but powerless to resist unionization. "Organized labor is calling in the political debts of millions of dollars in campaign contributions and we must make an all-out effort to fight their drive," said Russell.

According to Russell, this is labor's biggest power grab to date. "It would pack the National Labor Relations Board by enlarging it from five to seven members, with new appointments by a President who supports the bill and acknowledges a political debt to big labor," he said.

Russell said the bill would also make it much faster and looser for unions to get representation elections in 15 days - before employers have sufficient time to make their own presentations to their employees and provide unprecedented union access to private properties of employers.

"Farmers are especially concerned with this bill because for the first time in history labor is getting more of the consumer's food dollar than the farmer. Also, the anti-trade efforts of organized labor hamper foreign trade and can close critical export markets to agriculture," said Russell.

SB 1883 has passed the House of Representatives and is due for a vote in the Senate in early February.

"All persons interested in preserving the rights of employers should write Senators Lawton Chiles and Richard Stone immediately," says Russell. "Ask them to oppose this legislation and to oppose any future effort to close extended debate on this issue."

Stone Votes To Continue B-1 Bomber Test Models

When President Carter called off production of the B-1 bomber fleet last year, he kept open the option of future construction by continuing some research and test programs.

On Feb. 1, U. S. Sen. Richard Stone voted against a measure that would have the effect of cutting off this option by revoking funds already appropriated for the fifth and sixth test models of the B-1 bomber.

"It makes neither economic nor strategic sense to stop this test phase midway," said Sen. Stone. "According to the best estimates available, it would cost $1.1 billion to complete production of the two test planes but would cost more than half that much ($700 million) to shut down production, from which we get no benefits at all. Once production lines are cancelled, it will be very difficult and very expensive to start construction again should a new manned bomber become necessary."

"The U. S. nuclear deterrence system is based on the strategic triad concept of strong land, sea, and air nuclear capabilities," he continued. "The decision to call off production of the B-1 was based on successful testing of the cruise missile and a successful conclusion to the SALT (Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty) talks."

"We should not close the B-1 option while these two issues remain unresolved," Stone explained.

The cruise missile, still in the test phase, is a low-flying unmanned missile designed to carry a nuclear warhead for up to 1,500 miles. Recent testing has not proven uniformly successful. Under the Carter plan, the cruise missile would be carried by B-52's, which some defense specialists say are too old to perform effectively without expensive modernization.

The B-1 is a manned bomber. So far, structural testing has been conducted on the first four prototypes. The fifth and sixth prototypes are being built for newer, lighter materials and with more sophisticated technology than the earlier models. This would enable the Defense Department to conduct necessary advanced flight performance testing.

"Right now, the Soviet Union is producing and deploying its advanced strategic bomber," said Sen. Stone. "We should not write off the B-1 bomber option without similar concessions from the Soviet Union."

The Senate, over Stone's "no," voted to cut off funds for the B-1 bomber prototypes as part of a supplementary appropriations bill for fiscal year 1978. The House voted to continue funding, and the bill must now go back to the House-Senate conference committee to resolve the question.

Officer Injured By Kicking, Biting, Screaming Juvenile

A violent 17 year girl, allegedly high on drugs screaming obscenities and other street language, kicked, bit, slapped and fisted, two Avon Park Police officers as they attempted to subdue her at the Porter Trailer Park on West Church Street at about 10:45 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 7.

In answer to a call at 10:43 p.m. of a disturbance of a woman screaming in a trailer, Officer Leo Bronsing had a trailer pointed out where the screaming was coming from.

At the trailer, Harry Penny, claimed he was the husband of the juvenile, but it was later found he was not her husband.

When Officer Bronsing asked to talk to the girl she screamed obscenities and other street talk. He advised her she was under arrest and as he attempted to take her into custody, she resisted violently by kicking, biting, slapping and fisting the officer.

Backup officer, Capt. Frank Cratty assisted in removing the screaming girl from the trailer to the patrol car. In the car the girl struggling to escape, kicked out the headliner of the patrol car.

At the Avon Park City jail she was knocked out by the windows of the bathroom. Taken to Walker Memorial Hospital, she was refused treatment procedures. The teenager was taken to Winter Haven Hospital for mental evaluation and found to be competent. She was later sent to the Bartow Detention Center.

She was charged with criminal mischief, resistance to arrest with violence, breach of peace, battery on police officers and possession of marijuana.

Penny was also arrested, charged with disorderly intoxication and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He posted bond of $112 on the second charge and was released.

Injuries received from kicking, Officer Bronsing is scheduled to undergo surgery Friday morning and is expected to require six to eight weeks for recovery. Capt. Cratty also received numerous scratches and bruises from the violent juvenile.

Our Reader's Opinions

Disagree With Downward On Religious Apects

Editor: I am not an atheist but after reading that article by Walter Downward, I thought I would answer it.

The B-1 is a manned bomber. So far, structural testing has been conducted on the first four prototypes. The fifth and sixth prototypes are being built for newer, lighter materials and with more sophisticated technology than the earlier models. This would enable the Defense Department to conduct necessary advanced flight performance testing.

"Right now, the Soviet Union is producing and deploying its advanced strategic bomber," said Sen. Stone. "We should not write off the B-1 bomber option without similar concessions from the Soviet Union."

The Senate, over Stone's "no," voted to cut off funds for the B-1 bomber prototypes as part of a supplementary appropriations bill for fiscal year 1978. The House voted to continue funding, and the bill must now go back to the House-Senate conference committee to resolve the question.

consider this possibility simply because Christians were the only kind of people he had known. Apparently he had never seriously discussed religion with a Moslem, or Hindu, or Buddhist, so he assumed that everyone of any consequence in the world was just like him. But to begin an argument with the assumption that everyone in the world is wrong but me, is obviously a shaky way to begin.

In the East, there are six major religions, with millions of adherents each, which are totally atheistic. There are the followers of the Upanishads, Lao-tze, Confucius, Hinayana Buddhism, Zen Buddhism, and Jainism.

Mr. Downward will say that they are simply all wrong. But that as it may, the point is that they do not think they are wrong. For the most part they live happy lives, devoted to peace, beauty, and helping others.

So apparently life can be perfectly worth living without a God. Millions of people think it can.

Burned At Stake For Beliefs

Editor: After reading an article in the Avon Park Sun of Feb. 9, by Mr. Walter Downward, he sounds like one of the Christians who one hundred and fifty years ago burned people at the stake for not believing in his beliefs.

Gentlemen: We are subscribers to the Sun while we are here in Florida and also have it mailed to our home in Michigan.

The January 19, 1978 issue of the Sun printed the enclosed "Thanks

Writer Worried About Water Supply

Editors: I read the newspapers correctly the Highlands County officials and Property Owners Association have joined with Florida Citrus Mutual in a request for the boundaries of the water management districts for the county to be changed. It doesn't sound like a big deal but I'm worried about this.

It was my understanding that the boundaries for each water district were drawn according to the natural flow of the water. If this is so then I think we had better not tinker with any of the lines. I know it must be a nuisance for the citrus or vegetable growers who need a lot of irrigation water to have to file applications in two districts. If

I understand things, different sources of water would be involved and so different circumstances. I am worried about the shortage of water. We can look what has happened in California and see that some environments just will not support all the people and all the industries and all the agriculture that might want to

Frey Asks For Revised Corporate Tax Rate To Aid Small Business

During the last two years more than half of the small businesses in Florida that opened were closed - a failure rate of more than fifty percent in 24 months.

Part of the reason, according to U. S. Rep. Lou Frey, Jr. (R-Fla.), is a discriminatory tax system that favors big business by not permitting small business to retain enough capital for current operating needs, survival during periods of high inflation, and expansion to compete with other segments of the economy.

Currently, Frey says, "the federal corporate income tax structure has three steps; the first $25,000 of taxable income is taxed at the rate of 20 percent; the next $25,000 is taxed at 22 percent and income in excess of $50,000 is taxed at the rate of 46 percent. Thus after the first $50,000, the same tax rate applies to a business earning $80,000 as it does to a business earning $2,000,000."

In order to correct the inequity, Frey has co-sponsored legislation establishing a graduated corporate income tax. Frey's legislation, H. R. 9431, would corporate income according to the following schedule:

Corporate Taxable Income Tax Rate	Percentage
$0 to $25,000	12
$25,001 to $50,000	16
$50,001 to $75,000	20
$75,001 to $100,000	26
$100,001 to $150,000	32
$150,001 and over	46

"In Florida, 95 percent of businesses qualify as 'small,' according to the Small Business Administration. Lowering the corporate tax rate has several advantages: Simplicity at a time when we are all concerned about the complexity of the tax system; reform resulting in increased capital desperately needed in the marketplace and a revival of small business resulting in increased employment."

"This legislation has been referred to the Ways and Means Committee and I am hopeful of action this session," said Frey.

Bafalis Asks For Balanced Budget Each Year

It was just 14 years ago when President Johnson determined to build "The Great Society" ramrodded through Congress the first federal budget to top $100 billion.

It was a traumatic experience for those who believed the smaller the role of the federal government, the better.

But it was just the start. From $100 billion in fiscal 1965, the federal budget jumped to $200 billion fiscal 1971, and then to $300 billion fiscal 1976.

Now, for fiscal 1979, President Carter has asked the Congress for a budget of $500 billion-a half trillion dollars.

What that amounts to is $2,325 for every man, woman and child in this country.

Or, to put it even more dramatically, a $500 billion budget amounts to $5,882.35 for every one of the 85 million Americans who are busy right now trying to fill out their income tax returns.

No wonder it gets more difficult to fill out your 1040 every year. No wonder the federal government grabs a bigger and bigger slice of your income every year. In fact, the only thing growing at the same rate as the federal budget is the federal debt.

As the year 1978 began, the federal debt stood at $714,587,765,839.59 - that's 714 billion, 587 million, 765 thousand, 839 dollars and 59 cents.

And that is $67,316,599,357.05 more than it was when 1977 began. That means that in one year, your share of the national debt - and my share and everyone else's share - got $311 heavier.

But the burden on us doesn't end there. In order to borrow money, you must pay interest, even if you're the federal government.

During this fiscal year, the interest on the national debt will be $44.6 billion-or $206 for every man, woman and child in the country. That's $524.70 for every one of the 85 million taxpayers in this country.

Is it every going to end?

Not until the American people insist on a cutback in spending, a reduction in the size of the federal bureaucracy and a return to "pay as you go."

Just like you and I, the Congress' spending practices are determined by how much money is on hand. The individual with $5 in his pocket looks at things a little different than the man with $5,000 on hand, he spends a lot more slowly and no doubt wisely.

But the Congress cares not what's on hand - or even what can be expected to come in. It can borrow. It can borrow lots of money and do it easily and painlessly. So there have been no restraints on the Congress.

And the Congress desperately needs restraints, tight restraints. Otherwise, it will continue to act like the man on a spree with someone else's credit cards.

The Congress must be shackled by a constitutional amendment requiring a balanced budget each and every year.

And the Congress must be forced to tell the American people just what some of these fancy new programs will cost - in terms the people can understand.

That means telling them not that a program will cost $500 million, but that it will add $5 to your tax bill $5 to mine and $5 to everyone else's.

Then perhaps, we will see some fiscal sanity in this city that the big spenders built.

But not until.

Life Is Like A Cucumber...IT'S BETTER WHEN PICKLED.

Parents of the couple are, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wright, 1203 W. Bell Street, Avon Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koranda of Sebring.

The Grice's home was decorated in the brides chosen colors of pink and white. A white Grecian pedestal and urn held a large arrangement of white mums and pink glads with greenery and white satin ribbons. The urn was flanked by a seven candle candelabra on each side, with large potted ferns in front of each candelabra.

The Reverend Alden Childress officiated the double wedding ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her parents wore a white bridal satin gown with princess lines, with a sweetheart neckline and a Marquisette neck insert with a satin band around the neckline which was edged with seed pearls and lace. The long Marquisette sleeves were edged with lace. The bride was adorned in a three tiered veil of illusion, topped with a lace crown edged with tiny seed pearls. She carried a large nosegay of white and pink carnations, pink rosebuds, babies breath, with pale and dark pink streamers, tied in love knots.

Miss Clara Grice attend as maid of honor wearing a floor length pink crepe gown, with a scoop neckline, empire waist, and long sleeves which were edged with a pleated ruffle. She carried a duplicate but smaller bouquet as the brides.

Kathy Hancock served as ring bearer. She wore a floor length polyester blend white dress with pink sash, and carried a pillow which was covered with white satin with ruffles. The rings were intertwined with pink ribbons.

The brides mother chose a floor length coral gown with V neckline, empire waist and long sleeves. Her corsage was of white carnations with white ribbon.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue and white print jersey dress and jacket. Her corsage was white carnation with white ribbons.

Kenneth Grice, of Avon Park attended as Best man.

The reception followed the nuptial ceremony in the Grice's home. The reception table was covered with a pale pink cloth with a white lace overlay. A beautiful three tiered cake with variegated pink roses, angel and bells was topped with a bride and groom ornament. The cake was placed on a five column base, with a three tiered flowing fountain surrounded by fern and pink roses beneath. This cake, a large crystal punch bowl was filled with punch; nuts and mints were served. Those assisting in receiving and serving were Mrs. Diane Hancock and Mrs. Robbie Barnes.

For their wedding trip to Key West the bride chose a white, western, double knit pantsuit, with navy blue yoke, collar, cuffs, and buttons. Her corsage was the center from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Avon Park High School and attended South Florida Junior College, and is presently employed in private child care. The bridegroom has attended South Florida Junior College for two years and is presently employed as a correctional officer at Avon Park Correctional Institute.

Founder's Circle Garden Club Met February 9

The Founders Circle Garden Club of Avon Park met Thursday, Feb. 9, at the home of Mrs. Mildred Rullison, Lake Lotela. After the salute to the flag and prayer, Charles Wallace presented by Mildred.

Mildred in her unique delightful manner, explored with us "Theory of Color". She had hoped to use a prism to show colors of the spectrum, but unfortunately the sun was not shining however we learned the three theories of color, "pigment, physics and psychology". The physicist, uses light on light, such as using soft colors on hospital walls. The pigment theory is used by artists and in flower arranging.

Mrs. Rullison drew a color chart with easel, pointing out the primary and secondary colors. On the color triangle we were shown the warm and cool colors. We also learned about tints, shades, monochromes, complementary colors and analogous colors. The "trend" is the use of three colors, many combinations used now were considered bad, in the past. The "tetra" is the use of all colors of the spectrum and the variations which is often used in very large room.

Mildred gave each member a small drawing of the color chart to take home for future study and use in arrangements. She recommended the book written by Faber Birren, "An American Color Stylus" for those who wish to go more in depth in this subject.

Following the program, the business meeting was opened by Mrs. Lou Grose. Mrs. Dorothy Lanier presented the slate of new officers for 1977-78. They are: Mrs. Lou Grose, President; Mrs. Ruby Demko, Vice-President; Mrs. Louise Gregg, Secretary; Mrs. Vivian Haritt, Treasurer; Mrs. Alice Sawyer, Correspondence secretary; Mrs. Vivian Haritt, Treasurer, Mrs. Alice Shradar, Correspondence secretary; and Mrs. Wilma Heirich, Historian. This slate was unanimously accepted by the club members.

Mrs. Jane Barben gave a Flower Show report. She emphasized that all entries must be in Thursday morning Feb. 23, between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. She announced that several openings in Artistic Design Division were left to be filled. Anyone deciding to enter should contact Mrs. Jane Sawyer. Mrs. Barben reviewed the rules for the Horticulture Division. She requested that members bring their container grown plants Wednesday, Feb. 22, between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. to the Recreation Center, driving in the back gate, where help will be available for unloading of plants.

Delicious cookies, cakes, coffee and tea were served by Mrs. Deik and Mrs. Rullison.

Are you making garments longer? Letting out hems? Can't get lines out? Pressing just isn't doing the job the way you want? Here's a solution! Put a piece of aluminum foil between ironing board and fabric. Using steam iron. (Now Press!)

Before cutting a garment from double knit, steam press the material. The method described above will usually remove creases from the center of the fabric. Also, by steam pressing the material you are pre-shrinking it. Be sure to straighten fabric while you press.

Now, let's look at your pattern for directions in cutting. Choose the pattern pieces you will use for your style and place the ones you will not use in the envelope. Check the measurements on your card.

To measure, start at seam line (dotted line) parallel with outside edges of pattern and measure to dart line, indicating a dart. Now skip to the next dart line and measure from there to seam line on opposite side of pattern piece. Double arrows illustrate. Each pattern piece is half a section, so add measurements together and double that. In this instance, the waist is 29 inches.

Notice the direction arrow on piece B indicating the straight of goods. Be sure to place pattern piece so that the arrow is the same distance from the edge of the material of both ends of arrow.

Also, notice indication for placing on a fold. The pattern piece will also include the number of pieces to cut.

While checking the measurements you notice that the pattern doesn't lay flat. Well, press it! Sure just iron it out with a warm iron.

Use your pins so that they will hold pattern firmly to fabric but so they will not interfere with cutting. Cut with long even strokes or use electric shears. Wait! Check this one more time. Be sure that the fabric is the same on both sides. What I mean, is have lines of pattern together so that both sides of front have the design at the same place.

To do this, place the fabric together and pin at intervals on lines or at design points. Be sure pin enters top layer of fabric at the same place in the design as it protrudes thru under layer of fabric. For instance, the pin enters the top layer of fabric at the center of the flower of the under layer of fabric. The flower will now be at the same place on each side of the garment.

Take time and be sure to match designs of fabric and you will be delighted with the results.

Hibiscus Club Met February 9

The Hibiscus Garden Club met at the home of Mildred Myers on February 9, with Mrs. M. Y. Logan and Mrs. M. K. Sawyer co-hostesses.

President Sawyer opened the meeting with a cordial welcome extended to the three visitors, Mrs. Hazel Sprout, Miss Millie Pearson, and Mrs. Sadie Brown. Mrs. George Kelsey's devotion centered on "The Shepherd and His Sheep" portraying the life of Jesus and his people.

Gladys Smith read the correspondence for a work shop to be held on February 27, in Fort Myers at Lion's Park with registration to be held at 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 a.m.

Emma Bussard, Federation Parliamentarian, read the revised changes of the new by-laws.

President Sawyer thanked the "calling committee", and also all club members for their splendid cooperation in bringing potted plants for patients at Hillcrest Nursing Home.

Sybil Laye, Flower Show Chairman discussed some of the important rules and regulations for entries of arrangements. Mrs. Eunice Haynie, who served on the nominating committee for Hibiscus Circle Garden Club presented a list of candidates proposed to serve as officers for the ensuing year. The slate was

MRS. FRED OBERST in costume, gave an interesting talk on dolls last Thursday, in the home of

Washington" (Mrs. Fuschia Anderson) and "Martha Washington" (Mrs. Sadie Brown).

Hibiscus Circle again voted to send two children to the youth camp at Viera this summer. The two youths which were sent to camp last year have made great accomplishments.

Correspondence was read by Jamie Sawyer about a six week Botany class which begins on March 14, at 2 p.m., at the Sebring Civic Center. The class will meet each Tuesday and will be taught by Miss Carol Beck.

Emma Bussard donated the plant for the plant drawing, a "Avalonema Modestum", an annual Chinese plant. Jamie Sawyer held the lucky number.

The business meeting was adjourned by the president, and program chairman, "George Washington" (Mrs. Fuschia Anderson) in costume introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Fred Oberst. George Washington also introduced his wife, Martha Washington, (Mrs. Sadie Brown), also in costume.

Mrs. Oberst lectured on the guest speaker, Mrs. Fred Oberst. She had made many new colorful doll costumes for this occasion, and also brought with her, a beautifully landscaped doll playground surrounded by a white picket fence. The program was very interesting and we had the pleasure of seeing photographs of Mrs. Oberst's daughter, who is pictured as Shirley Temple the Second.

Mrs. Oberst was dressed in a colonial costume, the hat she was wearing was 100 years old, and she is a writer for the American Doll magazine.

After the program, the guests enjoyed artistic designed refreshments, appropriate to both Valentine's Day and the Colonial era. The flower arrangements of Gerbers and Azaleas were made by the talented hands of Mildred Long.

Mildred Rulison will have a Plant Class at the Avon Park Library on "Wildflowers in Florida," starting Monday, Feb. 12, at 9:30 a.m. It is sponsored by the Federation of Garden Clubs. Because of the popularity of Mildred's "Bird Watching" lectures it is hoped that they be resumed next year.

Mrs. Marshall Davis reports that a panel of twelve qualified judges have been chosen. There are four master judges, four accredited amateur judges, and four life time judges on this panel. The panel of judges will arrive at 10:30 a.m. the day the show is to open. Following their presentation of awards, they will be served lunch at the Florida Power Lounge. Mrs. Marshall Davis and Mrs. George Haynie will prepare and serve the luncheon.

Botany Workshop

Mrs. Evelyn Delk announced that a Botany Workshop will be held March 14 at 2 p.m. in the Sebring Garden Club Center on the Pier. Carol Beck is presenting this six week course. The fee is $2, and participants should bring pencil and magnifying glass for plant identification.

Federated Garden Club

The Avon Park Federated Garden Club will meet in the Florida Power Lounge at 9:30 a.m. on Feb. 10 (today). The previously announced program has been changed, and we are fortunate to have Mrs. Pat Houghtaling speak to us on "Flower Arranging". She is an expert in this field, having won many awards in flower shows.

Since the Garden Club Spring Flower Show "Showtime On The Mall" is to be presented Feb. 23 and 24, many members are planning and working on the arrangements they wish to enter. Mrs. Houghtaling's expertise will be very helpful, especially at this time. Don't miss this excellent program.

Evangelist To Speak At First Baptist Church Of Avon Park Feb 19 - 24

The Rev. Melvin Wise, dynamic and widely-used Evangelist of Atlanta, Ga., will be at the First Baptist Church in Avon Park, Florida, on February 19 - 24, according to an announcement by Rev. Aden D. Childress, Pastor. The music will be directed by Syble Watson, Minister of Music and Dr. Calvin J. Vice, Sr., Song Leader. Services will be conducted Sunday, 11 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. and Monday - Friday, 7 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Since the beginning of his ministry, Rev. Wise has been much in demand as a revivalist. In 1960, he resigned the pastorate that he might give his full time to evangelistic work. In all, he has led over 500 crusades. He averages traveling 40,000 miles each year in fulfillment of his demanding schedule.

Although he conducts campaigns in many large churches, his ministry is equally effective in churches of different sizes. Many of his revivals are return engagements which is an evangelist's recommendation. Rev. Wise was honored by the Baptists on his native state by electing him vicpresident of the Georgia Baptist Convention. He has also served in key positions in the Conference of Georgia Baptist Evangelists. Evangelist Wise deals Biblically with present day problems faced in everyday life. His scriptural approach appeals to people of all ages and from all walks of life.

After graduation from college, Rev. Wise received further training at the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, N. C. He also studied at the University of Georgia, Athens. He has been described as conservative, orthodox, and evangelical in his theology.

Polish Missionary To Be At First Christian Church

George Bajenski, outstanding Polish Missionary and singer, will be in Avon Park for a one night engagement Thursday Feb. 16. He will be the guest of the First Christian Church, and according to the minister, James S. Click, the public is invited to share in this spiritual experience. Services will be held at 7 p.m.

Bajenski works in the Polish Ministry through the Department of Missions, Bel Air, Md., and at the present time is working to expand and develop the Radio Ministry into an effective tool of evangelism in Poland, among Polish-speaking people in America and in different parts of the world.

During his years of service in Poland, Brother Bajenski has worked as Youth Minister, Choir Director and has helped in the establishing of several Christian Service Camps and Christian congregations. A native of Warsaw, he received his education in the U.S. under the direction of the Department of Missions. He holds the A. B. degree in Ministries and A. B. in Sacred Music from the Lincoln Christian College, Lincoln, Ill. In 1975 he received his M. A. at Lincoln Christian Seminary and also became a naturalized citizen of the United States.

FAITH FINDS NATIONS BEST GOVERNED BY LAWS

The system of liberty and justice enjoyed by the free nations of the world today is largely the result of a lesson painstakingly learned through-out history: that mankind is best governed not by men but by a set of laws designed for his own protection from the excesses of the governing bodies elected to administer and enforce them. Moreover, the very procedure for changing or abolishing these laws is built right into the provisions. All of this is based on the principles set forth in the Bible, which is emphatic about the preservation of man's freedom. Your Church will teach you the laws of God, and thereby help you to understand and obey the laws of your land, which were enacted for the well-being of all.

It should always be remembered, that the great end of government is human well-being.
—James H. Fairchild

Board To Save $100,000 On Bond Reissue

In an effort to obtain a savings on repaying school bonds issued in 1970, Highlands County School Board has agreed to reissue some $2.9 million in bonds to get a more favorable interest rate.

A call for bond bids, which are to be opened March 14, was unanimously approved by the board during Tuesday night's regular meeting.

According to Mrs. Felicity Hyde, bond consultant, a savings of up to $100,000 could be realized through the bond reissue. This would be the net savings to the board. Expenses for reissue of the bonds would be deducted at the time of the sale.

Road Block Nets $602

The Road Block of Highlands Post No. 69 which was implemented by seven Legionnaires and Mrs. Ruth Boyd netted the tidy sum of $602, which was turned over to the Ridge Area for Retarded Citizens by Mrs. Boyd, chairperson of the Road Block committee. She was appointed by Post Commander Ralph Caraway to chair this activity in memory of her father, the late Post Commander J. A. Wise in 1950.

Taking part in the Road Block, which is the placing of Legionnaires at strategic points about the city with placards and buckets into which the people deposit their highly appreciated donations, were Post Commander Ralph Caraway; Finance Officer Wallace White; Mike Janik; Al Hadd; Service Officer Herbert Hill; Joe Marzullo, Past Post Commander of Post No. 29, Greenwich, Conn. and now a resident of Avon Park; and J. Paxton Hill, Judge Advocate General of Post No. 69. They were assisted by Mrs. Ann Boyd.

Highlands Post No. 69 and the Ridge Area Association wishes to thank the many people who so generously donated to this worthy cause.

Several bids for supply of various food items were approved and a bid from CKB Land Service for sod at Lake Placid High School at 8.5 cents per foot for 75,000 square feet was authorized.

The board granted Superintendent Dr. Dan Davis out-of-state leave to enable him to travel to Washington, D.C. with several other Florida school superintendents.

The superintendents plan to discuss simplification of federal funding guidelines. Davis referred to the existing guidelines as "bog lines". The school officials are to meet with congressional representatives next week.

In other activities, the board approved:

Use of Avon Park High School auditorium for a dance recital June 9 and 10.

A waiver of fees for the Sebring Junior Woman's Club to present the "Effective Drug Abuse Presentation Program".

Board Chairman Mrs. Ruth Davis complimented Walter Shirey, finance officer, for his work in placing various school funds in short term savings deposits to earn interest. The investment procedure is expected to earn at least $12,000 for the schools this year.

Devil's Chatter

This week's featured senior Horace Moore is, among other things, a guard for the Avon Park High School basketball team.

A fiery competitor on the basketball court, Horace is a lover of all sports, but he especially likes team sports.

Horace said that his biggest thrill comes when playing under pressure. "When the crowd gets rowdy and I can hardly hear my coach it gets pretty rough," he says. "That makes me hustle more and play a little harder."

Horace also says that the most important thing in basketball is to work as a team. "Coach Lund has done a great job teaching us to work together," Horace commented.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Horace was born in Sebring, Fla. After high school, Horace plans to attend college and become one of the armed forces.

Davis Holds Workshop

Following Friday's performance, Ted Davis held an acting workshop for those interested in stagecraft and art classes. In this workshop Davis taught the importance of "stage metaphors."

He said that filming was expensive and often boring to be enjoyed performing to live audiences. "Most actors share my feelings," Davis said. "Nobody wants to do the same scene over and over. Also, nobody responds. It's a lot more challenging with a live audience."

The actor's job is quite challenging indeed when considering the large number of props used. We try to give you illusion rather than realism," Davis stated. "We'd lose a lot of actors if we used real shotgun shells."

The construction of a chamber-style play is quite inexpensive when compared with other types of performances. The set pieces are standard and are used to represent many different things during the course of the play. The costumes are not elaborate. They do, however suggest the time, period and society.

This simple setting demands that the actors capture the imagination of each member of the audience. "Each actor has to be a magician," Davis commented. "They have to make people see what is really not there."

The 33 year old Davis has been acting since the age of 9. Davis comes from a family not theatrically inclined, but he discovered at an early age that he can do what he likes best and get paid for it. "I especially enjoy putting on plays for high schools even though the company doesn't make much money out of it," he said.

Davis commanded the audience at the workshop as well as he and his actors did during the play. The students learned what an actors job was and the work involved in constructing a play.

Avon Park High School thanks Davis for taking time to talk to the students and perhaps bringing some of them closer to their dream of being an actor.

Twain Sketches Presented

On Friday Feb. 10, Chamber theater productions presented Mark Twain sketches in a packed Avon Park High School Auditorium.

The play was adapted and directed by Ted Davis and was performed by Davis along with Maryann Plunkett, David Penhale, Jeffrey A. Posson and Allen Kennedy.

The play was set in a small town on the Mississippi River in the 1870's. Four men and a youngster meet at a dockside. A wager is made while they are talking, and the story-telling begins. Each story is thematically related to the play and performed by the actors in chamber theater.

Very few props are used in this type of theater style so the imagination of the audience plays a vital role. Some of the scenes were "Old Rams", "Tedious Tourists", "Celebrated Frogs", "Coffin Confusion", "Irritating Interviews", and "Cannibalistic Congressmen". The scenes were all based upon selection from the writings of Mark Twain.

Some of the scenes were written by Twain also, but some lines were written by Ted Davis.

At the close of the play, the actors received a well-deserved ovation from students ranging from grades 9-12. The students left the auditorium with a taste of what theater is like.

Kiwanians Hear About Recycling Cattle Waste

At a recent Kiwanis Club meeting, Larry W. Umstadter, assistant to the president and project manager of Kaplan Industries, south of Bartow, gave a most unusual and interesting talk to the club members.

His remarks were oriented to the recycling and utilization of cattle wastes as sources of feed supplements and the generation of methane gas.

Their efficient conversion of animal wastes, as pointed out by Umstadter, will bring about a substantial saving in the cost of their feed lot operation.

This also represents another important step in the conservation of energy through the production of methane gas.

Construction of the plant is scheduled to begin in February on a prototype which could eventually make the Kaplan Industries feedlot on U.S. 17, between Bartow and Homestead, energy self-sufficient and at the same time reducing the odors of the cattle feeding operation.

Kaplan is the largest federally inspected packing plant in Florida and expects to produce high quality protein cattle feed and methane gas from cattle feed.

It was announced by Congressman Andy Ireland that the Federal Department of Energy had approved a grant of $38,000 to Hamilton Standard, parent company, to build the plant, which the manufacturer calls a cattle waste conversion system. This will be the first production model, although experimental models have been developed by the manufacturer.

Umstadter said the plant will go into operation six to eight months after the start of construction. Both Kaplan Industries and Hamilton Standard will provide cash and in kind matching funds.

The Department of Energy will monitor the operation of the entire plant for 28 months to determine the practicality of the system. Umstadter said the department also has the option to continue the study for an additional year.

The title to the plant will have the capacity to process the wastes from 10,000 head of cattle. Hamilton Standard estimates the project will produce $158,000 worth of methane gas and about $350,000 of animal livestock feed. Operating costs are expected to be about $20,000.

At the end of the experimental time, Kaplans plans to expand the plant system to handle the wastes from 15,000 to 18,000 cattle. Umstadter said that Kaplan now averages 20,000 head of cattle in the feedlot at any time and slaughters about 250,000 head yearly.

The liquefied nitrogen components of the cattle wastes will be used to grow bacteria, which in turn will be processed into a high quality protein feed and fed back to the cattle, said Umstadter.

The new feed product will have 23 percent protein. Kaplan has been using recycled manure as a cattle feed but has only an eight percent protein content.

The new product is inert and can be stored indefinitely. This will eliminate a problem they had with the present product.

In the plant anaerobic bacteria will digest the solid wastes in an oxygen-free or air tight environment to produce methane gas. Close temperature control is necessary during the process to insure a steady volume of methane gas production.

The methane gas produced by this plant is expected to supply about 88 percent of Kaplan's fuel requirements. It will replace bunker fuel oil as the primary fuel for producing hot water and steam and the processing of grain for cattle feed, stated Umstadter.

Using the new process to recycle cattle wastes will decrease odors significantly, he added. The plant's wastewater will be upgraded and reused in the cattle feeding operation.

The recycling plant is the first step in Kaplan's energy conservation project. After the monitoring period is completed, Hamilton

Standard expects to expand the system to allow Kaplan Industries to produce enough methane gas to operate its own electrical generating plant, stated Umstadter.

He said the company was not shutting out the possibility of producing enough methane gas for sale to others. But they have no such plans at the present.

At this point, said Umstadter, our production of methane gas will be for our own use. If we start selling it, we might be in the position of being called a utility. However, he added the success of the plant project will be considered in any future developments.

In concluding his talk, Umstadter, stated that when Kaplan Industries became energy self-sufficient they would like to tell the Arabs they didn't need any of their oil.

Witness Fails To Back Up Complaint

A grand theft charge filed against a young Sebring resident was dropped after complaining witness failed to cooperate with the investigating officers.

Harry Francis Swiggard, III, 19, was notified by his defense counsel that the state attorney had nolle prossed the charge filed in November. The manager of an air purifier sales company told sheriff's deputies that Swiggard had taken a number of items, without the manager's consent, and tried to sell them.

Swiggard was arrested Nov. 1 and freed after posting bond. Later the complaining witness failed to keep appointments with the investigators and the prosecutor moved to drop all charges.

Tax Tables To Ease Computation

The Internal Revenue Service today announced that more than 3.2 million Florida taxpayers may be able to use tables when figuring their income taxes this year.

Charles O. DeWitt, IRS District Director for

Florida, said that the new tables will make it easier for nearly everyone to compute their taxes this year. "This is because the tax tables already incorporate personal exemptions, the new zero bracket amount and the general tax credit," DeWitt said, "and, as a result none of these computations have to be made by the taxpayer."

The zero bracket amount which replaces the old standard deduction is $2,200 for singles, $2,300 for couples filing joint returns and $1,600 for married persons filing separately.

"Since the zero bracket amount is based on filing status, and not on income, several hundred thousand Floridians who have never used Form 1040 will be able to do so and should be able to prepare their own returns," Mr. DeWitt said. Taxpayers whose itemized deductions exceed the zero bracket amount will also be able to use the tax tables. Two computations are required for taxpayers who itemize deductions.

Singles persons making up to 20,000 and couples filing jointly with incomes up to $40,000 will have no figuring at all to perform if they take the zero bracket amount.

Avon Park Girls Set 12-7 Record

The Avon Park girls' basketball team closed out the 1978 season last Monday night with a disappointing 41-37 loss to the Sebring girls here on the Avon Park High School gym court. A win over Frostproof last Thursday night, however, allowed the Devilettes to finish the season with a fine 12-7 record overall and a 5-1 district mark.

Tomorrow night (Friday) the Avon Park girls will go into the Class AA, District 13 tournament seeded number one and hosting Lake Placid, Fort Meade, and Frostproof in their home court. There will be a game at 7 p.m., and another at 8:30 p.m. on Friday with the finals set for 8 p.m. on Saturday night here. The winner of the District 13 tourney will host the Class AA regional next Tuesday night at 8 p.m.

Sebring, 51, Avon Park, 37.

The Sebring girls' basketball team made it three straight wins over Avon Park with a 51-37 victory last Monday night here at the high school gym in a 5:30 p.m. starter. The Blue Devils girls outplayed the Devilettes for three quarters before the Avon Park team caught fire and burned the visitors in the final quarter scoring 21 points to Sebring's 6. It was too late to overcome the big lead Sebring had amassed during the first three periods however.

After one period Sebring had a 14-6 lead and moved out to a 26-12 halftime advantage. In the third period Avon Park managed only 4 points while Sebring pumped in 19 counters to take an insurmountable 45-16 lead going into the fourth quarter.

Delories Brown was high scorer for the game with 18 points to lead her teammates to the win. For Avon Park it was Meg Schuler with 14 points and Thelma Wessels with 10 leading the scoring attack. Laurie Welch scored 5 and Ellen had a field goal and 4 of 6 free shots for 6 counters. Katrina Conner added two points to close out the Devilette scoring.

Avon Park, 56, Frostproof, 26

Last Thursday night the Avon Park High School girls basketball team defeated Frostproof High School girls by a score of 56-26 here at the high school gym. The Red Devil girls outscored the girls from Frostproof in every quarter to post their twelfth win of the season.

The scoring was fairly even in each quarter for the local girls as they hit for 12 points in the first two periods and then scored 16 points in the final two quarters. Frostproof scored only 2 in the first, 11 in the second, 10 in the third and only 3 in the fourth period.

Senior center Meg Schuler and junior forward Thelma Wessels led the Avon Park girls scoring with 16 and 15 points respectively. Laurie Welch hit for 6 points, Katrina Conner had 3, Ellen Macklin made 3, Bernice Taylor contributed 4, Linda Rame hit for 2, Tammy Ostling had 3, and Brenda Brooker made a field goal and 2 free shots for 4 points for Avon Park.

The Devilettes had a bad night at the foul line making only 8 of 31 free shots while Frostproof made 4 of 9 from the line. The girls from Frostproof drew 22 fouls and Avon Park players were called for 14 fouls.

Girls Host District Here Friday

The Avon Park girls basketball team will be the number one seeded team in the four-team Class AA, District 13 tournament to start here at the Avon Park gym tomorrow, Friday, February 17, at 7 p.m.

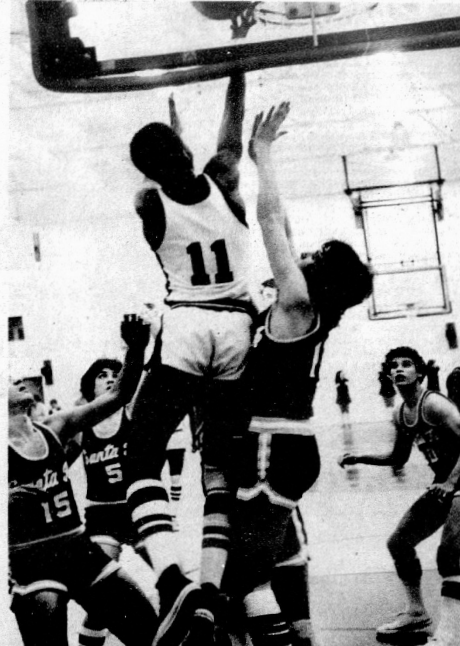

Avon Park will meet Frostproof in the opening game at 7 p.m. on Friday and then Lake Placid will take on Ft. Meade in the second game set to start at 8:30 p.m. The winner of the two Friday night games will meet for the District 13 championship on Saturday night at 8 p.m.

The winner of the Class AA, District 13 tournament will participate in the Class AA Regional tournament on Tuesday, February 21. That game will be played at a site to be named.

Coach Cheri Lee is confident her Devilettes have a good shot at the district title. "We have beaten second seeded Lake Placid twice in regular season play, defeated Frostproof twice, and split with Fort Meade losing in the gym by one point," the second year coach commented. "If the girls play as well as they can, we should have no trouble with any of the other three teams."

"It would be nice to host the Regional here next Tuesday," she continued. "I hope a few more basketball fans will come out and support this tournament Friday and Saturday nights. The girls are playing pretty respectable basketball now, and I think some fans will be surprised if they come out for the game next week-end."

The Avon Park team finished with a 7-1 record against 2A competition. Lake Placid had a 4-3 mark, Fort Meade was 3-3, and Frostproof set a 2-6 record in Class AA play.

Devils Drop One-Pointer To Dragons

Coach Tom Lund's Avon Park High School cagers are below the 500 mark in the win-loss column, but they must be close to 1000 percent for the season in the excitement department and last Friday night's "onepoint" loss at Lake Placid didn't lower that percentage.

It was super close all the way as the Devils, already losers of two overtime tilts and three previous games by single point margins, dropped this one to the Green Dragons 68 to 69.

The first period ended with Lake Placid holding a two point lead. In the second quarter, the score was tied seven different times. The Devils trailed after three quarters, but came back to tie up the score at 58-58 with three minutes to go in a wild fourth quarter.

Lead changes six times

From there on, the lead changed hands six times, an average of once every 30 seconds as the two teams swapped basket for basket—but it was free throws that finally decided the outcome. With only 45 seconds left, Ken Adkins, Dragon forward, hit three straight gift tosses to give Lake Placid a 4 point margin.

David Williams came right back with an Avon Park basket to cut the lead to two points before Adkins scored again with another free throw. Seconds later, Larry Pough narrowed the margin to one point, but the Devils just couldn't get that extra basket, even with three tries in the final nine seconds.

Except for the third quarter, when two quick baskets by Adkins gave Lake Placid an eight point lead, the teams were seldom more than two points apart.

Red Devil Varsity Defeats Brooker High And Hawks

Coach Tom Lund's Red Devil cagers took a 9-0 record into a game against the Okeechobee Brahmins here last Tuesday night at the local gym, and they will travel to Mulberry today for a 1 p.m. game against the Panther varsity in front of the Mulberry High student body.

Next Monday afternoon the Devils will close out the regular schedule with a home game against Harder to be played in front of the Avon Park student body starting at 1 p.m.

The Red Devil cagers lost a one-pointer to Lake Placid last week by a score of 69-68 and then knocked off Santa Fe of Lakeland and Booker High School of Sarasota last Friday and Monday here at home. The Devils topped the Crimmon Hawks of Santa Fe 102-74, and downed Booker by a score of 76-73.

The Devil varsity will compete in the Class AA, District tournament to be held in Mulberry starting next Thursday night. Pairings are not yet set up for the tough district meet.

Avon Park, 76, Sarasota, 73

Pernell Gibbs hit a free throw with 19 seconds left, and Larry Pough collected two more gift shots seconds later, to give Avon Park

High School a narrow 76-73 basketball win over a tough Sarasota Booker High School team here Monday night.

The Red Devils, with Freddie Williams hitting for six quick points, jumped out to an early lead and held an eight point margin after the first quarter. Charlie Pough, back in action after dislocating a shoulder, netted five points in the initial period.

The second quarter went to Booker High as the Sarasota based team with Sam Shield leading the way, scored 15 points against 7 for Avon Park to knot the score at half time at 30 all.

The third period was a scoring battle with Sarasota's Steve Jones and Joe Williams pitted against the local David Williams and Mike Coleman, a battle won by the Devils who took over the lead again 55 to 53 going into the final quarter.

From these on it was close all the way but Avon Park, with Larry Pough collecting eight fourth quarter points and a bunch of rebounds, outscored the Booker team by one point to chalk up victory number 9 for the season.

Avon Park, 102, Santa Fe, 74

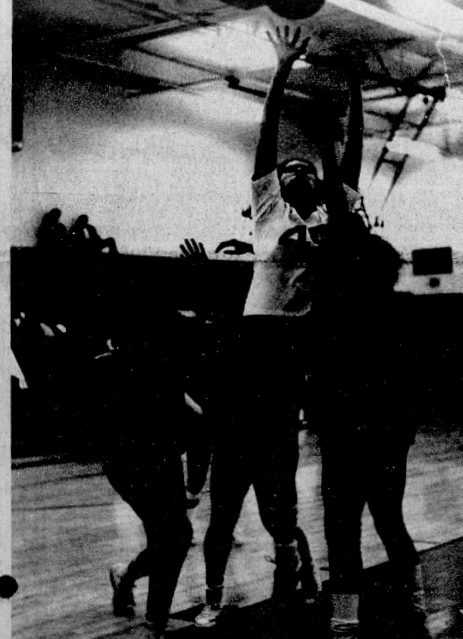

Larry Pough tossed in 37 points, including a dunk shot, for team points number 9 and 100 as the Avon Park High School cagers overran Santa Fe High School of Lakeland 102 to 74 here last Friday night.

The 102 points was the season high for the Red Devils and gives them an 8-9 record. Tonight they play Mulberry and wind up their season next Monday against Harder High of Wauchula here, before heading into District play next Thursday.

Friday night's win over the Hawks was a record setter in many ways. The 37 points scored by Pough was a personal career high, and his 20 rebounds topped his previous season single game total.

There were 50 fouls called on the two teams, 34 against Santa Fe and 26 against Avon Park and a total of 81 free throws taken during the game. The Red Devils collected on 32 of 44 gift tosses, while the Hawks capitalized on 26 of 37 tries.

Mike Coleman chipped in 21 points to help the Avon Park cause while Freddie Williams came through with 10. Ed Bodolay with 18, and Dave Dobbins with 17 led the Santa Fe scorers.

Sizemore's Devils Keep On Winning

Coach Don Sizemore's Avon Park Red Devil junior varsity basketball team will close out a very successful season next Monday afternoon against the Harder High Jayvees here in a game set to start about 2:30 p.m. following the varsity game which will be played before the Avon Park High School student body.

Last Tuesday night the Devil "Bees" were to have played the Okeechobee Jayvees here at the high school gym. This afternoon (Thursday) they will travel to Mulberry for a 2:30 p.m. tip-off against the Panther Jayvees.

The Avon Park Jayvee cagers went into last Tuesday night's game with Okeechobee holding an impressive 16-1 record. Their last three victories were over Lake Placid, Santa Fe of Lakeland, and Booker High of Sarasota. A win over the last three opponents could give the Devil Jayvees a fine 19-1 record for the 1978 season under rookie coach Don Sizemore.

Avon Park, 76, Sarasota, 73

Sarasota Booker High School became victim number 16 as Avon Park High School's scoring Jayvee basketball team continued its winning ways here Monday night, beating the Gulf Coast team 75-38. And again, it was Charlton Weathers and Alvin Conner who led the way. Weathers, the team's leading scorer had 22 points and Conner had 18 as the Junior Red Devils more than doubled their opponents' score for the ninth time this season.

D. Sizemore collected 10 points and J. D. Taylor contributed eight to the Avon Park total. V. Harris with 9 and H. Jackson with 8 led the Sarasota team scoring.

The win was the 15th in a row for the Avon Park Team which has lost just one game this year.

Avon Park, 52, Lake Placid, 44

Alvin Conner netted 14 points to lead the Avon Park High School Junior varsity cagers to a 52-44 win over Lake Placid High School Jayvees at Lake Placid last Friday night. The victory was number 14 for the Junior Red Devils.

Friday night marked the first time in several games that the Jayvees have had to work for a win. They started out slowly and didn't get a point until midway in the first period. At the end of the quarter, they were still behind 13-14.

Then the lights went out in the new Lake Placid Gym. Ten minutes later they were back on. It took the Avon Park team longer than that to get going and the game was almost 15 minutes old before they finally took over the lead.

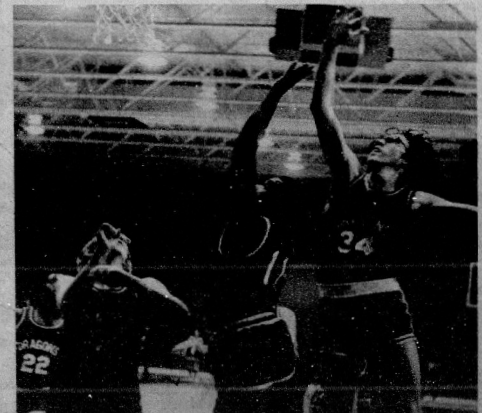

Thanks to a lay-up by Conner and a long shot by David Sizemore, the Junior Devils at this point moved ahead 19 to 15. They increased this to a 25-21 margin at half time and were out in front 40-31 at the end of the third quarter.

Lake Placid surged back in the final period to get within four points of the Avon Park team, but a pair of free throws by J. D. Taylor and a quick insurance basket by Charlton Weathers with 15 seconds left, gave the locals their 12th straight win.

Gerald Jones rated next to Conners in the scoring column with 10, and David Sizemore came up with 8 more for the winners. J. Taylor getting 10 and Larry Jackson getting 7 to lead the second team players. B. Cleghorn with 8 and M. Mosher with 6 were leading point-getters for the Hawks from Santa Fe.

Devil Golfers Split For 1-1 Record

The Avon Park High School boys' golf team, with only three lettermen back, beat Clewiston High School 169 to 171 last Monday, but lost to Lake Placid High School the previous Wednesday to gain a split at one and one on the 1978 golf season got underway.

Tomorrow the Red Devil golfers meet the always strong Kathleen High School team from Lakeland and the Hardee High School team from Wauchula in a three way match at River Greens golf club here. Next Tuesday they play Auburndale High School at Auburndale.

The Avon Park high girl's golfers open their season tomorrow against Kathleen High School and meet Frostproof High School on Feb. 27. Both matches will be played at River Green.

Avon Park-169, Clewiston-171
Pete DuPriest shot his second straight 36 as the Avon Park High golfers edged Clewiston High School by two strokes in Monday's match at Clewiston. Mark Palmer had a 41, Mike Smithson a 44, and John Barben and Dwayne Felt each shot a 46 for the Red Devil Team.

David Berner of Clewiston was medalist with a 36, but the best team could do was a 171. Sonny Martinez shot a 40, Wes Perry a 46, and Jack Martinez had a 49 for Clewiston.

Avon Park-Lake Placid
Pete DuPriest shot a two over par 38 to take medalist honors as the Avon Park High School boys' golf team opened its 1978 season at Lake Placid Wednesday. Kevin Janiga of Lake Placid High School had a 41 for second low individual honors.

The Lake Placid team, made up of three boys and one girl, however, won the match, shooting a combined score of 177 to Avon Park's team total of 185.

Mark Palmer, one of the two regulars from last year, shot a 42 for Avon Park. John Barben, a squad newcomer, had a 49 while Freshman golfer, Darwin Ford, completed the Red Devil scoring with a 46.

Lake Placid's winning team, in addition to Janiga, included Letterman Jeff Howell with a 43, Rick Thelstuit with a 45, and Debbie Koch with a nine hole score of 48. Debbie, incidentally, is the only girl in Highlands County currently playing on what was, pre-ERA, a boy's golf team. Lake Placid does not have a girl's golf squad.

Hostutler, Smith, Reed And Alsterda Win Golf

Piling up a whopping plus 33 points, the team of Mac Hostutler, Red Smith, John Reed and John Alsterda walked off with top prize in last Wednesday's pro-am golf tournament at River Greens golf club.

The foursome of Cletus Ream, Ben Cole, Frank Hollman and U. Noll finished in the runner-up spot as fifty six players competed.

points apart. That eight point lead was short-lived too, as David Williams hit for four baskets and Freddie Moore hit for two to knot the Devils to again tie the score at 38-38 and set up the aforementioned see-saw battle between the two teams.

Then Freddie Williams got hot scoring ten points in the first five minutes of the last quarter, enabling the Devils to again tie the score at 38-38 and set up the aforementioned see-saw battle between the two teams.

David Williams had 21 points to lead the Avon Park scorers, followed by Freddie Williams with 16, Larry Pough picked up 12 points for the Devils and Horace Moore added 10. Parnell Gibbs, filling in for the injured Charlie Pough hit for nine points.

Marvin Haynes got 28 points for the winners with Adkins adding 24. A month ago, Lake Placid nipped Avon Park in an overtime game played here.

SMART STUFF — Could you please tell me who played the female lead on the show Get Smart? Was it Joanna Plugg or Barbara Feldon? — D. Corbitt, Wheelersburg, Ohio

You mean you forgot Agent 90? It was Barbara Feldon who batted her eyelids and told Max how brave he was every week.

BERGMAN BUFF — I was terribly disappointed when I was unable to view the last "scene" from "Scenes From a Marriage." by Ingmar Bergman on PBS recently. Can you tell me if it might be released again this year for either TV or movie distribution? — S. Lewitzky, Niagara Falls, Ont.

Unfortunately the episodes you saw were already repeats. The series originally ran last season, and PBS has no plans of running it again soon. I also doubt it will ever be re-edited to feature film length. But Bergman's work will never disappear for long; it'll show up sometime.

TOO WILD — I am a Wild West fan and I would like to know when the show originally aired and how long it continued? Also, what brought about its eventual cancellation and whatever became of Robert Conrad and Ross Martin? Also, how popular was it in its original days and how popular is it now? — Gene Richardson, High Point, N.C.

Swashbuckling super agents, Jim West and Artemus Gordon first hit the airwaves in 1966 and ran through 1969. Wild West was still popular when it was cancelled because of increased political pressure from anti-violence groups, who cited it as an example of violence. To my thinking the fact that it was cancelled is a testament to its popularity. As for Conrad and Martin, I'm surprised you could miss Bob Conrad since he's starring in another series currently, Black Sheep Squadron. And in between the two he did the D.A. for Jack Webb. Martin still does guest shots on various series.

SHIA-NA-WHA? — Could you bail me out? I could have numerous arguments concerning Shia-Na-Na. The one who is called Johnnie, does he play Jodie on Soap? I know that Jodie is played by Billy Crystal, but he is also a member of Shia-Na-Na. I say he isn't, but I could be wrong. — Carolyn Dunning, Graham, Ky.

You could be wrong, but you're not. Billy Crystal has never donned a gold lame stretch suit, nor leather jacket as a member of Shia-Na-Na. Although I'll grant your buddies that he bears a strong resemblance to Johnnie.

Day At The Highlands County Fair

The Highlands County Fair, sponsored by the Sebring Fireman's Association was quite successful according to Tim Hurner, county agent.

The fair ran one day less this year and over 500 people came out to enjoy the exhibits and tour the midway. The Blue Grass Shows, handled the midway, which was bigger and better than ever.

In the exhibit category, there was a new addition, "Woman's World" which was well organized under the capable hands of Becky Brock, county Home Economist.

Judges for the junior livestock, beef cattle, and swine was Wayne Wade, county agent from Hillsborough County. Judge for dairy exhibit was Tom Christensen, a Sarasota dairyman. Judges for the community exhibits were Ruth Ann Miller, Bartow Home Economist, and Charles Lowery, Naples County agent.

The three top winners in the commercial exhibits were: Woodlawn Nursery, winning the blue ribbon, Townsend Home Center, the red ribbon, and Heart Memorial won the white ribbon.

The entrance fees at the fair are used to purchase ribbons and to maintain the fair grounds throughout the year. The president of the fair this year is Russ Albright.

Secretary, Charles Schumaker, and Treasurer, Eldridge Pollard.

Roe McAdams was in charge of commercial exhibits, George Crist, independent midway, and Tim Hurner, county agent, was in charge of the educational exhibits.

Avon Park won the community booth blue ribbon with Lake Placid taking the red ribbon and Sebring receiving the white ribbon.

Everyone that was involved with the fair should be given a pat of the back, the booths were excellent and Mr. Hurner stated that the commercial booths were well-manned.

The personnel at the Avon Park Correctional Institute really out did themselves as their booth was beautifully decorated with plants from the A. P. C.I. nursery.

THE AVON PARK Community Booth took top honors last week at the Highlands County Fair, winning the blue ribbon. Those proudly viewing the booth are Charlie Williams, Co-Chairman of the Avon Park fair booth committee and of V&W Farms. Eugene Flint, Retired

U. S. Air Force, Bill Britt President of Avon Park Chamber of Commerce and District manager of Florida Power, Hector Perez displayed artist for J. C. Penney, Co. and Clarice Ford, co-chairman of the Avon Park fair booth committee.

A HOUSECOAT AND crocheted purse were winners at the county fair.

HIGHLANDS COUNTY HOME Economist won a first place ribbon

RIDING THE CAROUSEL is lots of fun as is shown on this youngster's face.

THRILLS AND CHILLS were the theme of the day for many youngsters at the fair last week.

RUTH HILL'S painting took first place in the professional art category.

Southlands Court News

Friday Feb. 3rd men's shuffleboard ran smoothly through the three game series with the team of Leo Breister and Bill Mott winning three games, the other teams won one game each, no team lost all three games.

There was a Bingo Friday evening. Passing the Rec. Hall, it seemed that attendance was pretty good, but no report from the chairman. Tuesday morning, Feb. 7 coffee hour enjoyed something very seldom have there. Another contingent of Oelschlaegers' descendants is here from Indiana. The grandparents with daughter, son-in-law and three small fry all attended. Nice children and well behaved. It's nice to have some of them visit here from time to time.

Grace Romans provided some extra good rolls to go with the coffee this time. Attendance was 19 adults and the three children.

The visitors mentioned above are here for only a few days. They came in a mobile unit, primarily for sightseeing. However, there are still more Oelschlaegers back in the Hoosier state who haven't been here yet.

Tuesday games night on Feb. 7, had 14 players for Aggravation, Euchre, and Yahtzee. Never heard of it's last, but that's the way it's spelled on the box containing game equipment.

Crafts meeting Tuesday afternoon had 14 ladies attending. Some finishing baskets, other starting projects for the March bazaar, which will be held on March 2.

Dovie Liller has been a patient at Walker Memorial for a week or so, including a siege in intensive care, but is now out of intensive care, but not given a solid date for returning home.

Nancy Dugan, who was in Walker for the second time in recent weeks and was already there when Mrs. Liller was admitted, is, as this is written, expecting to get back home in Southland Court today or tomorrow.

Following a write-up with photos and a misspelled word in the Sun recently Besiege. Paston wants to go to one of our local restaurants to see just what a "meat carver" (yes, Mr. Printer it is spelled correctly) really does. I could have told her what meat carvers did during the depression of the early 30's. They stole pork chops and slices of ham, though it wasn't packaged ready to steal, as things are today.

But in the 70's I don't know what meat carvers do. Maybe pay $2.23 a pound? Louise Carson is in the hospital, too. She probably doesn't welcome this or enjoy it, but we all hope her being hospitalized this time turns out to be a good thing, as she has been quite a long time hoping to get her physical difficulties resolved.

Modern Education: Recently Dot Lavery brought in a Termoserv, which is a thermotype pitcher, used in serving hot coffee at the Recreation Hall. When she brought it over, I looked at the sales slip. What did it say ??? PICTURE!!! Florence Stephens now has one more relative. It's a great granddaughter born Feb. 7, in Yorkville, Ill., where there was plenty of snow and ice at the time.

Women's shuffleboard Thursday, Feb. 3, suffered a worse fate than that of Feb. 2, only the chairman plus one other player showed, since it was a chilly day. One beginner also showed. By adding the chairman's daughter (a visitor) to make four, one cent was used for an instructional session. There was no regular three-game match.

700 Voters Cut From Registration List

The purge of voter registration lists, completed in January, cut 700 voters from the lists and reduced the county registration to 13,300. The weeding out of inactive voters began late last year and involved sending letters to 1,400 persons registered in this county. Over half — 800 — contacted the elections office and are retained on the eligible voter lists.

Supervisor of Elections Jimmy Whitehouse has posted a list of the names of purged voters and anyone who wishes to be re-registered may do so by contacting the election office. Whitehouse said persons who are not sure whether their names were dropped, may find out by calling him at his courthouse annex office — 385-2581.

It is expected that some voters will wish to be re-registered when the 1978 campaigns, particularly the local ones, start to roll. Qualifying for candidates begins in July. First primary is Sept. 12, second primary, Oct. 10 and general election, Nov. 7. The 1978 elections will choose a governor, representatives for U.S. Congress, and at local level, two county commissioners and three school board members.

County Commission Chairman C. J. "Buddy" Wise admits he is "very seriously considering" seeking re-election. The other commission seat up this year is the District 2 post now held by Norman "Jack" Beaton.

School board posts to be decided in 1978 are those now being filled by Jack Wirick, Ken Grady and Steve Roberts.

Deadline for new voters to register, purged voters to re-register or for transfers (for persons who have moved within the county) is 30 days before the first primary.

Whitehouse's staff emphasized the importance of voters who have moved — even a short distance — checking to learn whether they are registered in the right precinct. Many of the precinct lines "run right down the middle of the street", elections officials said.

Studell To Speak At NARFE Meeting

Walter Studell is scheduled to be guest speaker at the next meeting of Highlands County Chapter of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) following a covered dish luncheon at noon on Monday in the recreation hall of Francis Mobile Estates No. 1.

President Florence Schroeder and other officers who went to the District Five Workshop in Lakeland Jan. 16 will report on their participation in that annual event of the Florida Federation of Chapters. Past President Russell Troutman and Mrs. Troutman and Sergeant-at-Arms Wilfred Munson were the other chapter representatives.

The chapter will be visited in February and March by Rodney A. Willard, first vice president of the NARFE chapter in Frederick, Md. Willard, who was stationed at the Sebring air base during World War II, will see a community somewhat changed by the years.

The Chapter invites retired federal employees, whether NARFE members or not to the meetings of NARFE Chapter No. 288.
