The Little Neighborhood Grocery Store, 50

Living at the Bonnie Brae Mobile Court for almost 10 years, Thomas C. Chockley in going through some boxes found a 1922 photograph of a Kroger Grocery Company neighborhood store in Detroit, Mich., where he work after high school and on weekends.

The store interiors were usually long and narrow with shelves to the ceiling and stacked with canned goods. Items like galvanized washtubs or buckets could be found hanging from hooks in the ceiling. Sugar, flour and other bulk staples were stored in swinging bins under the counter with the clerk scooping out a pound or 10 pounds according to the customers order.

It was a "far cry" from today's modern supermarket where a customer picks what is wanted. In those days the customer would tell a clerk what was wanted or give the clerk a grocery list and the clerk would bring each item to the cash register. That was service spelled with all capital letters.

Chockley worked at the grocery and at the Detroit Stove Works until he started work on June 12, 1923 with the Dodge Bros. Motor Company, before they were taken over by the Chrysler Corporation. He retired as a tool and die maker on Jan. 31, 1968. He had been in Avon Park in 1964 while on sick leave.

There were 58 at Coffee Hour this week, and a welcome expressed to our newcomers. Mrs. Saylor is a guest of Mrs. Ellis Martin, and also her sister. Mr. Martin is also helping his wife with the entertaining!

Virgil and Hazel Weldy were pleasantly suprised Saturday afternoon when Ken and Karen Myers and family from Wakarusa, Ind., stopped by for a visit on their way to the Cypress Gardens and Disney World area. Ken just returned from a three-week work tour in Ecuador, S. A., where he assisted in the building of a church. Karen and their three children flew from Indiana to Miami to meet him. There they rented a car to go sightseeing for a few days, planning to fly home Tuesday from Orlando.

Christmas festivities being over, now anticipation for the Annual New Year's Eve party will keep us keyed up. Be there at 9:30—10 on Saturday evening for sociability with good friends, games and refreshments, and then a welcome to 1978!

Parents Without Partners

Highlands County Parents Without Partners will have a general meeting Tuesday night, Jan. 3 at First Home Federal Savings and Loan just off the Circle at 126 West Center St. at 8 p.m.

Parents Without Partners is open to all single parents whether widowed or divorced. Custody of children is not necessary for membership.

For further information call 465-3389 in Lake Placid or 385-7998 in Sebring.

My future is filled with the promise of a million dreams come true, & my world is filled with beauty, for my heart is filled with you.
I am thankful for so many things — for all the dreams & love we shared for all the happiness we found.
Just knowing that you cared, but Darling, more than all these things, you surely know it's true —
The thing I am most thankful for — is your dear love & you.
There's someone who loves you, far more than you know,
With a love that keeps growing as days come & go.
So — remember that always, each day the year through —
Somebody truly loves you & needs you — I DO!!!
All my love forever,

Your Wife Always,
SHARON

TO CHUCK KERR

My Dad to me is so Dear; won't ever in our presence shed a tear.
He is generous, loving, & kind & helps me if I am in a bind.
Direct me to a path of good, as only he could.
He has so much pride; which can't be denied.
I would never have to be told that his heart is filled with gold.
But, God will not pardon leaving me, his only son,
I will respect & love him forever, & I am sure God will endeavor;
To help & lead him to me, where he knows in his heart he should be.
God, lead him home soon at the end of the day —
If he love me, as he used to say.

Your only Son, & "Little Buddy"
BOBBY

J. Marshall Davis Is Sworn Into Office As Mayor By City Clerk Malcolm Crews

Council Complains But Ellerbee Still 'In'

Long a controversial figure, C. W. Ellerbee, Avon Park Building Inspector sat through another storm of bouquets and brickbats to hear that he was out of a job, only to learn later that he couldn't be shuffled off that easily by the city council.

It was a strangely quiet atmosphere when the new council president Larry Albritton asked if the department heads be appointed with one motion or be appointed individually. Former council president Robert Britt suggested that they be taken one by one.

The appointment of department heads was routine nomination and vote, from city clerk to recreation department head. When councilman David Barefield nominated C. W. Ellerbee as building inspector a half minute silence followed, broken only by the squeek of chairs and the shuffling of a paper, just as if the course of action had already been determined.

The silence was broken by Britt recommending that the council advertise for the position of building inspector and interview the applicants. Barefield asked Britt what his displeasure was with the building inspector, to which Britt replied he had worked with Ellerbee for four years and people were always on his back about Ellerbee.

Councilman Kelly Phillips said he had received several complaints, one in particular where a man thought his sewer line was connected to the city main because it was inspected, but his line was not connected.

Barefield stated that a scheduled hearing last year was cancelled and all charges against Ellerbee were dropped. Now the council was bringing these back again. Britt replied he was not bringing any charges but was just not voting to reemploy Ellerbee.

Barefid told the council that they had complaint forms, but none were filed and none of the councilman or the mayor had complained to him about the building department. He was the councilman appointed as chairman of the building department, and he felt that it was a personal affront to him. Continuing, Barefield said he was sure the secretary, the Building Board of Adjustment and the Zoning Board of Adjustments and other s would go along with the job the building inspector was doing. He didn't think the city should fire a man just because of a griper or complaint and no written complaints had been filed or signed.

Quoting from the Southern Standard Building Code,. Sec. 102-1, Barefield said the appointment of the building inspector shall continue and he shall not be removed for specific charges without a hearing. To which Phillips stated, "Throw the Southern Building Codes out the window."

Barefield then stated as the city adopted the code it has to abide by it. But Britt stated the Southern Building Code doesn't mean any thing to Avon Park and the city can remove anyone. "When I have 1500 to 2000 people on my back it is time to remove the building inspector."

Britt moved that the city advertise for a city building inspector which was seconded by Phillips.

New councilman Henry Dennis asked why the building official was brought up for appointment if he was guaranteed a job by the building codes?

Council president Albritton told the council he was the only one to vote "No" to dismiss a hearing against Ellerbee last year because he had received numerous complaints prior to that time and he was 100 percent against Ellerbee, but with Barefield working with the building department he had received no complaints

City Officials Take Office At First Meeting Of Year

The swearing of in of newly elected city council members was the midpoint during a special council meeting held at 9:00 a.m. Tuesday morning to complete old business and for the organization of the new council.

The Federal Aviation Administration awarded the city a grant of $40,000, city clerk Malcolm Crews told the council, for land acquisition. He read a proposed timetable for the land acquisition, which included such items as engineering details, title search and the complete details to acquire the land.

The FAA was also to be notified by Jan. 16 if the city would accept the grant. It was moved that the city accept the grant and adopt the schedule for acquisition of the land.

Council president Robert Britt suggested the city throw out all bids on the garable body and truck because of complaints received. The council moved to rescind their previous action and to re-bid the garbage body on Jan. 23, 1978 and the truck on Feb. 13, 1978. The city attorney was instructed to inform the Transtate Equipment Company of the council action!

Britt in his annual report summarized the highlights of the city's 1977 accomplishments, ranging from the completion of the $3.5 million sewer project, work and equipment needed for recreation, streets and sidewalks, annexation of land into the city, Housing and Urban Development grants; work on the mall renovation, $141,819 to the Fine rts and Community Auditorium at South Florida Junior College, over $3 million in building permits, a city safety program, building and equipment at the airport, city's first sidewalk sale, appointing a museum committee plus other accomplishments.

For the new council, J. Marshall Davis was sworn in for another term as mayor by city clerk Malcolm Crews, who also administered the oath of office to Robert Britt, for another term on the council and to Henry Dennis for his first term on the council.

With Mayor Davis acting as chairman of the council, Councilman Larry Albritton was nominated for council president and elected unanimously.

In nominations for vice-president, Robert Britt was nominated but it was not seconded. Councilman David Barefield was nominated and elected unanimously.

In the appointment of city department heads, Malcolm Crews was reappointed city clerk for two years, likewise the following were reappointed without comment: Robert L. Brooks, as Police Chief, two years; H. Mack Flowers, Fire Chief, two years; Joseph Willis, superintendent of water and sewer departments; Dennis Guenther, recreation director, two years and John Ziegler, superintendent of street and sanitation departments, two years.

A motion to appoint C. W. Ellerbee as building inspector died for a lack of a second. A lengthy discussion by the council resulted in their advertising for a building inspector, but city attorney Cliff Ables, Tuesday afternoon, advised thatthe Southern Standard Building Codes were not in conflict with the city charter and Ellerbee had retained his position.

Council president Albritton announced that the council committees will be ready for the regular council meeting on Monday Jan. 9.

It was announced that the Ridge League of Municipalities will meet in Lake Wales, Thursday, Jan. 12.

Councilman Kelly Phillips reported that Florida Gas Company had cut West Pine Street next to Hart Avenue and had not repaired the cut. He felt the city should be notified before a street was cut with a maxium time for repairing the cut.

In regards to the street damage where the Avon Square Shopping Center sewer was connected to the city system the council requested that Mr. Pugh be contacted.

Albritton reported having been contacted by Lake Sellars about a tree removed from the location of a sidewalk on North Lake Avenue and planted in his yard. He wanted it removed. As contractor forman Glen Shabert was present he told the council it would be removed.

Law Agencies Claim Pot Distribution Ring Cracked

Highlands County law enforcement agencies feel they have cracked a major marijuana distribution ring with the arrests of four county men last Thursday night and Friday morning, Dec. 29-30.

Law officers raided homes in Sebring and Avon Park and arrested Charles Thomas Hughes, 25, 5301 Sparta Road, Sebring; Anthony Castro, 28, 4702 Seventh St., Sebring; Jack Bennett 24, 1220 West Pine St., Avon Park, and Samuel Renfro, 22, also at 1220 West Pine St. Hughes' address was considered by Sebring Police Chief Craig Graybill to be the major distribution point for marijuana in Highlands County. Another well-known distribution point was the Avon Park address, he said.

The arrests came after three months of investigations and were the result of intelligence put together by the Sebring Police Department, aided by the Highlands County Sheriff's Department, Avon Park City Police and the Polk County Sheriff's Department and coordinated with the state attorney's office in Sebring.

Castro, Bennett and Renfro were arrested Thursday night between 7 and 8:30. Castro was charged with one count for possession of cannabis and one count for sale of a controlled substance; Bennett for one count of sale of a controlled substance and one count of possession of cannabis, and Renfro for possession of paraphernalia.

When arrested, Castro allegedly had 23 one-ounce bags of marijuana in his possession and Bennett had approximately 40 ounces of marijuana with him. Bond was set at $20,024 for both Castro and Bennett and $512 for Renfro.

Hughes was arrested at 2:30 a.m. Dec. 30 and charged with one count for possession of cannabis and one count for sale of a controlled substance. His bond was also set at $20,214. When arrested, Graybill said Hughes had 52 ounces of marijuana in his possession.

The arrests of Hughes, Bennett and Castro were related, according to Graybill, who added that other arrests are pending.

Two Charged In Theft Of Anesthetics From Hospital

A son of Walker Memorial Hospital's administrator and a son of the former director of nursing have been arrested and charged in connection with the theft of anesthetics from the operating room of the hospital.

Highlands County sheriff's deputies charged John E. McLClellan, 21, of Avocado Road, Avon Park, son of John F. McClellan, hospital administrator, and Earl Stanley Osborne, 23, of Lake Damon Road, son of Louisa Osborne, who resigned last month as nursing director, with burglary of about $50 worth of anesthetics from an operating room drug cabinet.

Deputies said the theft occurred sometime before 6:30 a.m. Dec. 28 when deputies were called to investigate the theft of anesthetics from the operating room cabinet. The two men were arrested later that morning and charged in connection with the theft.

According to Lt. Len Askeland, McClellan had worked as a maintenance employee at the hospital for the past two years. His friend Osborne had recently returned from Texas, where he had lived for about two years.

The men were released on $5,000 bond each.

Lt. Askeland said the anesthetics involved can be highly dangerous if not properly administered.

The arrests may also help clear cases of several small drug thefts over the past two years at the hospital and in doctors' offices in neighboring clinics, he added.

Officers investigating the theft were Lt. Askeland, Deputy Howie Godwin and Investigator Lamar Harrison.

According to a report prepared for the Drug Enforcement Administration the breakin to the locked narcotic box stored in a locked operating room cabinet occurred about 7:30 p.m. Tuesday night, but was not discovered and reported to the Sheriff's office until 6:30 a.m. Wednesday, when operating room personnel entered the room for surgery.

Twenty one amplues (individual doses) were stolen from the narcotics box . These were basically narcotics, some containing small amounts of tranquilizers, used in anesthesia. Some demerol was also taken. The replacement value was listed as less than $50.

Committee To Visit ARC-APCI

The Florida House of Representatives Appropriations Committee is expected to be in the Avon Park area during the afternoon of Wednesda y, Jan. 11 to tour the Avon Park Rehabilitation Center (ARC) and The Avon Park Correctional Institution (APCI) it was revealed by the office of Representative Beverly Burnsed, Lakeland.

With approximately 45 minutes alloted to each location, the committee is tentatively scheduled to arrive at the ARC at about 1:30 p.m. and leave at 2:15 p.m. for APCI, arriving there at about 2:30 and departing at 3:15 p.m. All interested parties are invited to attend one or both committee stops.

"Visits to the various institutions provide valuable information to the committee, as well as provide a check of how our tax dollars are being spent and used," STATED Rep. Burnsed, the only first term legislator appointed to the Appropriations Committee.

Concealed Weapons Ordinance Amended By County Commission

Highlands County's recently-approved concealed gun ordinance has been amended to keep licensing authority in the hands of commissioners.

The measure as approved Nov. 15 included a section that would allow the sheriff to suspend temporarily a license if the holder was arrested for a serious crime such as a felony.

This 48-hour temporary suspension would have allowed the board time to meet, to rule on permanent suspension of the license.

However, such a clause apparently improperly delegated board authority to the sheriff.

Following a public hearing at Tuesday's regular meeting, the board unanimously agreed to delete the section on temporary suspensions.

This was the only change made in the licensing law. Other provisions that require training in gun use and a permit fee remain intact.

With this change in suspensions, the sole authority for permit suspension or revocation rests with the board.

The board also agreed to close a portion of Harry Lee Road. The portion of road is not a through road and the closing will not affect access to property in the area.

A second closing was approved to correct a mistake in an ordinance passed in 1958. The road, Eldorado Ave. in Lake Letta Estates, had been closed 20 years ago, but there was an error in the description of the right-of-way.

A public hearing has been set for 9 a.m. Feb. 6 to consider closing a portion of Cherokee St. and a second unnamed street.

The commission decided against calling for an ordinance on yard sales. One prepared several years ago, but never passed, had been presented for possible use as a model for a new ordinance. Commissioners felt no ordinance could be prepared that would be satisfactory in controlling sales.

A request for an ordinance had been presented by Mrs. Doris Addison, Lake Placid's Bargain House owner, on Dec. 20.

She said some families hold yard sales several times a year.

Unanimous approval was given Joe Cecere, of New York Insurance Co. to offer supplemental life insurance to county employees.

If Cecere can get 25 employees interested in the program, the county will deduct premiums from the employee's paychecks. This is a similar arrangement reached with other supplemental insurance firms.

Approval was given to disposal of some old county records that have been microfilmed, and to disposal of old DeSoto City records.

The Board of Archives recommended the ordinances and minutes of council meetings be microfilmed before destruction. The city ceased to exist in 1964.

Waiver of requirements was approved for drainage and engineering plans for a proposed development of C. Wesley Ward on 10 acres near Lake Verona in the northern part of the county.

The site is bounded on three sides by paved roads and because of existing development in the area, the county engineering department felt a drainage plan could be waived.

A workshop on the county's fifth and sixth cent gas tax program's revenue use is scheduled Tuesday, Jan. 10 to allow the board and engineering department to review the program.

There may be some road projects on the program that could be completed faster by the county than by the state.

A request for tuition reimbursement for two engineering department employees to take basic surveying courses at South Florida Junior College was turned down.

The cost would have been $55 for each student. Commissioner Robert Skipper said he couldn't see why taxpayers should pay for the self-improvement of employees, since they were already doing work in the field that would be covered by the classes.

Commissioner Cecil Skipper asked the engineer to consider raising the speed limit on a part of old State Route 8 from 25 mph.

Robert Dunty Jr., county attorney, jokingly asked if Skipper had been picked up for speeding on the roadway.

Skipper said he hadn't and added it was too low for a speed limit on the road.

Illegitimate Children To Get Financial Aid

Within the past two months almost 100 Highlands County children obtained legal fathers.

Fatherhood status was imposed via paternity suits initiated by the Child Support Enforcement office of the Florida Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services (HRS).

Greg Chinault, who heads the support enforcement office for the 10th Judicial Circuit (Highlands, Hardee and Polk counties), said the new suits are helping to increase the level of financial support parents, particularly absent parents, are providing for their offspring.

In the 10th circuit as a whole, payments are running about $18,000 per month. In the state as a whole, the support enforcement efforts are bringing in $425,000 per month or a return of $3.20 for each $1 spent in collecting the support.

Chinault said the goal is for payments in Highlands County to reach $12,000 per month by the end of 1978. Although this is only a fraction of the total the taxpayers put into Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), it is, Chinault said, at least a start.

In the past there had been no organized effort to obtain financial support from parents who were living away from the children. Attorney fees to file and process a paternity case were $300 to $400 and "the women just didn't have that kind of money," Chinault said.

The jointly-supported Child Support Enforcement program was begun by the state and federal governments in April. In August a lawyer was added to the 10th circuit staff and formal court orders were asked. About 85 percent of these have been paternity cases.

Chinault said that in "about 40 percent of the cases" the man named as father would acknowledge "Yeh, that's my kid." So far no Highlands County case has reached the jury trial stage, but eventually some may, Chinault said.

As the program moves along it is anticipated that about 60 percent will be paternity cases. The other cases involve legally acknowledged parents who are being directed, by court order, to make regular contributions to the support of minor children.

When the Child Support Enforcement agency obtains the court orders for child support the contributing parent makes the payments to the state. The state claims this money as reimbursement for the funds it pays out under welfare payments.

If and when the amount of support exceeds the amount the state had alloted, the children are taken off welfare rolls and the money for the children goes to the court office where a deputy of the circuit clerk receives and disburses payments.

Goal Set For 1978 Heart Fund Raising Drive

The Highlands County chapter of the American Heart Association has set a goal of $9,732 for its 1978 fund raising drive.

Evelyn Cullens, chairman of the campaign, said activities are being planned to include Sebring, Avon Park and Lake Placid in fund raising events this year.

The Highlands Heart Association will kick off its February drive with a tennis tournament Feb. 4 at Harder Hall. This will be followed by the annual Heart Dance on Feb. 11.

Other events, yet to be announced, will lead up to the national Heart Sunday campaign set for Feb. 26.

"One out of every two people to die this year in Highlands County will die of cardiovascular disease," Cullens said. "The frightening statistics are that 296 people died in Highlands in 1976 of cardiovascular diseases of the heart and blood vessels."

Last year's Heart Fund chairman, Buddy McKenzie of Avon Park, who is helping with Avon Park's share this year, said, "This drive is very important because heart disease is far and away the country's number one killer with over 950,000 people killed last year."

In addition to McKenzie, the Highlands Heart Fund committee members include Bunny Scanlan of Avon Park, Wayne Harris of Sebring, Sue Moseley of Avon Park, Ida Dorman of Lake Placid, Dr. S. R. Boley of Sebring, Frances Dennis of Avon Park, Ruth Hitt and Walter Belcher of Sebring.

Cullens said volunteers are needed for many of the fund raising projects planned. "The emphasis this year will be on education as well as raising money," she said. "Many don't realize where the money goes in the battle against heart disease. One of our biggest achievements locally has been the development of CPR classes through the Highlands County Emergency Medical Services and South Florida Junior College."

Bateman Charged In Accident

Petsy H. Bateman of Avon Park was charged with driving on the wrong side of the road after he collided with a car on CR-64 near Avon Park.

According to the Florida Highway Patrol, the Bateman vehicle was eastbound, astraddle the centerline, when it collided with a car driven by Lorri C. Prevatt, also of Avon Park.

Trooper Jim Vann estimated damage at $900 and also charged Bateman with having no inspection sticker.

E.M.S. Busy New Year's Weekend

New Year's Eve was a particularly busy time for Highlands County Emergency Medical Service crews for a total of 13 emergency runs were made throughout the county.

The holiday week of Dec. 25 through Dec. 31 brought a total of 28 emergency runs, four in-county transfers and three out-of-county transfers in Sebring.

During the same week, 13 emergency runs and four in-county transfers were made in Avon Park and nine emergency runs and one in-county transfer was made in Lake Placid.

Sheriff's Deputies Had A Busy Weekend

Highlands County sheriff's deputies were kept busy with a number of minor New Year's weekend disturbances. A total of 33 cases were investigated by officers.

Sgt. Bob Lamar said most of the complaints were domestic disputes, a common problem on long holiday weekends.

Among problems investigated by deputies was a complaint by Donna McGee of Route 2 Lake Placid, who told deputies her son was bitten by their pet raccoon Monday morning. The department advised that the animal should be caged up for at least 10 days, possibly at the Animal Control Shelter, for observation.

Scott Morrison of Avon Park was treated at Walker Memorial Hospital Sunday for a broken leg suffered in a motorcycle accident. Deputies said Morrison was riding on his father's property on Riverdale Road when the accident happened.

Several complaints about mailboxes being knocked down were investigated.

Margaret Sprowls of Sebring Hills told deputies three boxes in her neighborhood were hit and Ray Floyd, also of Sebring Hills said some mailboxes in his area were damaged, apparently having been pushed down by some neighborhood kids.

Deputies also investigated an attempted break-in reported Sunday morning at the home of John Stockles on Grand Prix Drive, Sebring.

Although a door window was removed, a latch on the door prevented entry, deputies said.

Educational Meeting Co-Hosted

South Florida Junior College and the Florida Board of Nursing will co-host an educational meeting concerning required continuing education for nurses as it affects annual re-licensure. Mrs. Adelle Miller, nursing education consultant for the Florida Board of Nursing, will be present to discuss the new state guidelines and answer questions concerning this matter.

Representatives from SFJC will explain plans for continuing education classes throughout the district and will describe the Florida Educational Telephone System. This system is designed to provide continuing education for a variety of purposes — particularly nursing and pharmacy.

The meeting will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 10, beginning at 7:30 p.m., in Lecture 101 on the campus of SFJC in Avon Park. All RN's and LPN's are urged to attend. There is no fee.

Census Still Up In Air

Charles Cullens, county administrative assistant, reported to commissioners Tuesday there has been no information received yet from the University of Florida on the school's review of the recent census.

Cullens said there has been no reply to a letter he sent two weeks ago that asked for an answer on a new estimate based on additional information supplied by the county in late November.

Commissioners have scheduled discussion of the census question for the Jan. 10 meeting.

The county is hoping the review of additional information will lead to a higher census estimate.

University census takers recently estimated the county's population at 41,113 for the 1976-77 census period. That represents a jump in population of 106 persons.

Commissioners have suggested a special census should be taken. If the current estimate is too low, the county could lose about $50,000 a year in state revenue sharing money until a new census is taken in 1980.

Stack Sentenced

Ernest James Stack of Avon Park has been sentenced to serve six months to three years in state prison. Stack had been charged with aggravated battery.

Officers Installed By Lodge

"Freemasonry is a moral institution established by virtueous men, with a praiseworthy design of recalling to our remembrance a most sublime truth", Harry Hendry, past master of the Merritt Island Lodge No. 353 and Past District Governor, told the incoming 1978 officers of Poincinia Lodge No. 227, during installation ceremonies at the Masonic Hall last Friday night.

Founded on Liberality, brotherly Love, and Charity, it is a morality with truth at it's center, directing members to a knowledge of the Great Architect of the Universe and the moral laws ordained for their government.

Members cannot divulge the Secrets of Masonry, which are found in the Bible. These secrets are lawful and honorable and in accordance with the laws og God and man. The secrets were entrusted to Masons of ancient times and it is our duty to transmit them to posterity, continued Hendry. Masonry was founded in Europe with records tracing it back to about the 15 century.

As its original members were stone mason craftsman some of their tools were used as symbols during the installation of the three principal officers. Hendry referred to the symbols of Masonry, The Square signifing the duties of the worshipful Master, James Fountain, The Level, Those of senior warden, Jerry Casey and the Plumb, thru duties of the junior warden , Roger Owens.

Other officers installed were: Edwin Howard, junior steward; Jerry Travers, senior decon; Charles Comer, Chaplain; Lee Weeks, junior deacon; Ted Johnson, senior steward and Dan Davis, tiler.

Assisting with the installation were W. H. Prescott, C haplin, Sebring Lodge No. 249; and John Hancock, Marshall, Olin S. Wright Lodge No. 79, Plant City. Pianist for the occassion was Art Richter of Old Glory Lodge, Long Island, N. Y.

Preceding the installation ceremony, a delicious covered dish dinner was enjoyed by lodge members and their guests.

According to Jim Culpepper, Assistant Administrator at Walker Memorial Hospital, Russel Spires did $300 damage to his room after he was admitted to the hospital last Sunday night.

Although the hospital would not release information on why Spires was admitted or who admitted him, it was found that Spires had been admitted through the emergency room.

After being placed in a room and being secured to the bed with restraining straps, Spires escaped from the straps, and tore a dividing rod from the ceiling and bent the side rails on his bed.

The hospital employees phoned the Highlands County Sheriff's Office, in Sebring who took Spires into custody for disorderly intoxication.

According to the Sheriff's Department, Spires was released Monday at 9:30 a.m. No charges were filed.

Hit And Run Driver Causes $500 Damages

A hit and run driver caused $500 in damages to two cars parked in the Ridge Lanes Bowling Alley parking lot Dec. 28.

The Florida Highway Patrol said that an unknown car collided with the rear of a car owned by Rose Marie Wert of Sebring, pushing it into an auto owned by Johnnie Morris of Wauchula. The vehicle then left the scene.

Charges in the case are pending.

Shriners Aid Burn Victim

The Highlands County Shriner's have been helping an Avon Park high school student for one and a half years after a tragic fire incident. Margaret Smith, who was badly burned in a house fire in December of 1974, has been into the Shriner's hospital in Cincinnatti, six times for surgery. The latest trip to the burn center in Cincinnati was on December 12.

The local Shriner Club has offered this treatment to Margaret after hearing of her mishaps and seeing that they could help. The Shriner's own and operated two other burn clinics other than the one in Cincinnati. There is one located in Galveston, Texas, and one in Los Angeles, California. The Shriners also have 19 Crippled Childrens Centers in operation throughout the United States.

The operations which Margaret underwent were to remove scar tissue. According to Wesley Ward chairman of the Highlands County Shriner's Hospital Committee, Margaret has been receiving this treatment for the past year and half, after the Shriners learned of her condition. The Shriners estimate that over $50,000 has been donated to this one patient. All costs are paid for by the Shriners.

The Shriners accrue their contributions from Shriners football games and circus, and from club donations. Although doctors have not determined when the treatment will be completed, Margaret is said to be making good progress through the program.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Park News

By Margie Wells

On Christmas Eve, residents of Bonnie Brae gathered at the recreation hall and then went caroling. Afterwards they returned to the rec hall for a party. Hostesses were Sy Fabiny, Sally Bohaychyk, Rozzie Parkhurst and Bernice Sheridan. Various ladies baked cookies and the ice cream was furnished by the Pixleys, Schwagers, Smalleys and Sinatras. The largest crowd ever attended and everyone had a wonderful time. The park on Christmas Eve looked like fairy land with luminaires around every home.

On Christmas Day, 24 residents met in the rec hall for a turkey dinner with all the trimmings. Frank Webster was able to attend and make his first "debut" since his illness. Everyone who attended the dinner expressed how much they enjoyed getting together.

The coffee hour on Wednesday was not as large as usual because of the cold weather and many residents being gone for the holidays. Leila Kinch and Bernice Sheridan were the hostesses. "Happy Birthday" was sung for Lillie Kinney who had a birthday on the following day. It was announced that Leland Darling is doing much better, and there is a possibility he and Faye may be here later this winter.

On Christmas afternoon, Dorothy and Karl Hart, Dorothy Carrol, and Ellen Hunt attended the Christmas Carillon Concert at Bok Tower in Lake Wales. The concert was interrupted by rain but they told us it was beautiful. for those who would like to attend, Moonlight Concerts are scheduled at Bok Tower for Jan. 28, Feb., 21, March 21, and April 21.

Merle and Sherman Carroll spent the Christmas holiday in Largo visiting with Merle's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Tuck, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith. They all had Christmas dinner at the bank in Clearwaterr. The Tucks and Smiths will spend the New Year's Holiday with the Carrolls here in the park.

Early on the morning of Dec. 24, Ella Drake and Emily Webster "broke into" Ann Lockwood's home and serenaded her with the "Happy Birthday" song. They then gave her a card with lots of signatures to commemorate her 75th birthday. Ann says, "Thank all of you for your well wishes." Around noon, Ann two friends arrived from Lakeland to spend the Holiday week-end. Christmas dinner was at Les Rendevouz and was most enjoyable.

Margie and P. D. Wells spent Christmas Eve and Christmas morning with Margie's brother and sister-in-law, Leonard and Betty Harsh and their family of Fort Myers. Christmas Eve dessert was served at the home of Bobbie and Richard Harsh, who is their nephew. On Christmas Day they visited with Laura and Sam Porter, former Kentucky friends, now living in Punta Gorda. The wells, then drove to Venice where they had Christmas dinner with their son and daughter-in-law, Bob and Carol Wells of Pompano Beach, at the home of Carol's parents, Helen and Paul Winstel. Bob and Carol returned with them to Bonnie Brae on Monday for a few days visit.

Ed and Betty ("Fred") Podewels of Janesville, Wisconsin, surprised his father, Roy Podewels two days before Christmas when they arrived to spend their Holiday vacation with Roy. While here, they made a trip to Lake Worth to visit former friends from Janesville. On Wednesday, Roy became ill, and was admitted to Walker Memorial Hospital. We all hope you will be well soon, Roy, and able to return home.

Ethel and Max Putman entertained Helen Dyce and Thelma Miller on Christmas Eve. as usual, Ethel served delicious sweets during the evening!

Christmas visitors in the home of Douglas and Lorene Campbell were their son and daughter-in-law, Gerald and Clare Campbell, and their four grandchildren, Eric, Curt, Lori and Sandi. The Campbell's had a great day at Disney World on Saturday and on Christmas Day had a delicious dinner at the Homestead Restaurant in Sebring. At the present time, they are visiting Clare's relative in Fort Myers.

Eighteen Bonnie Brae residents enjoyed a hearty breakfast on Friday morning. Those attending were Louis and Louise Loth, Leila and Winnie Kinch, Fred and Florence Graesslin, Frank and Mildred Schwager, Art and Lucille Smalley, Bud and Esther Leonard, Howard and Chloe Mallinger, Ford and Ann Griffin, and Dave and Sylvia Fabiny.

Thelma Miller entertained her son, George Chalmers, Ed and "Fred" Podwels, and Ed's father, Roy Podewels" on Christmas for dinner at her mobile home.

Art and Lucille Smalley visited Michigan friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tolan, near Haines City, on Sunday.

Sally and Steve Bohaychyk drove to Tampa on Wednesday where they put their granddaughter, Della, on a plane to return home. Della had been here to spend the holidays with her grandparents.

On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ruttofsky and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ruttosky of Tecumseh, Mich., had dinner and spent the day with Ellen and Lawrence Reichenbaugh.

Registration for South Florida Junior College spring semester college credit classes will end at 5 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 9. Anyone planning to enroll as a full-time or part-time student should register as soon as possible.

State Programs Moved To One Location

Seven state programs formerly located in four different Sebring office buildings are now under one roof at 115 U.S. 27 North.

The programs which are part of the Florida Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services (HRS) began moving the first of this week and all expect to be in full operation at the new, north-of-Sebring location by Thursday, Jan. 5.

Food stamps office moved from Sherwood Forest on Fairmont Drive; Vocational Rehabilitation moved from 131 S. Commerce; Children and Youth Services from 108 N. Ridgewood Drive.

Assistance Payments, Aging and Adult Services, Specialized Family Services and Retardation offices, all formerly at 534 S. Commerce, are now located in the new building.

The Highlands-Hardee network office remains at 108 N. Ridgewood but will move to the new location later. Sadie Salley, network manager, said the reorganization mandated by the state legislature included a provision that service offices be co-located as rapidly as possible.

Mrs. Salley said office hours at the new building will be 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Individual agencies may have slightly different hours but basically the office hours will be 8 to 5.

Among the HRS agencies two are exempted from the co-location project. The alcoholism treatment program in the hospital facilities south of Avon Park and the county health department headquarters in the old courthouse annex, will remain unchanged.

Election Office To Be Open Three Days

Following Highlands County Commission action Tuesday, the Board of Elections branch office in Avon Park will be open three days a week instead of two.

The change in schedule is not expected to take place for at least a month. A full-time employee is to be trained for the post before the new schedule is established.

Jimmy Whitehouse, elections supervisor, told the board Tuesday a replacement is needed in the office for part-time employee Sarah Houpe, who died recently. He said the work load requires a full-time employee and would result in a 50 percent increase in the amount of time the office could remain open.

A $2,100 transfer in board funds was unanimously approved to provide for the full-time worker and an increase in salary from $2.30 a hour to $2.65 an hour. The salary increase is due to a raise in federal minimum wage rates.

While the days of the week for the new office won't be established until an employee is trained, he told The Sun hours would probably be from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

On the days the office isn't open, the worker will come to board headquarters to process paperwork.

APROXIMATELY $350 DAMAGE was done to Billy D. Walker's 1972 Nova when it was struck by the semi-tractor driven by Jack Buchanan of Wauchula on Friday afternoon. Sunphoto by Mark Albright.

Minor Accidents Recorded During Holiday Weekend

According to Billy D. Walker, his 1972 Nova was struck by a semi-tractor driven by Jack Buchanan of Wauchula at approximately 1.15 p.m., Friday afternoon.

Walker said his left fron fender was struck by the right rear tire of the truck as he was attempting to park in the parking place on the corner of Lake Ave. and W. Main St. in front of Touchton's Drugs. Buchanan, driver of the truck, said he had a green light and was travelling at approximately 30 m.p.h. when the auto struck him.

"I stopped as soon as I heard my truck hit the car,," Buchanan said.

Gary Collier of the Avon Park Police Department said approximately $200 damage was done to the truck owned by Quinn's Trucking Co., of Wauchula, and approximately $350 damage was done to Walker's auto.

Mrs. Pat Strickland of the Avon Park Police Department said because of conflicting opinion, no charges were filed, and the accident had been turned over to the insurance companies for further investigation.

Border ended his 30 years of service station business when he sold the station to his son, Robert Border, and Roy Thompson. He continued to work full-time until September first and agreed to help out until October.

Border's service station has been used by many different non-profit organizations to hold fund-raising car washes.

"I have been allowing non-profit organizations to hold car washes here for as long as I can remember, but whether or not this will continue is up to the new management," Border said.

Border said that he had no definite plans now that he has reached retirement except to fish and help around the house and station.

Employees Take Training

The Department of Offender Rehabilitation has announced that Avon Park Correctional Institution employees, R. H. Bassett, Fred A. Cooper, Robert J. Keen and Edward C. Mitchell, recently participated in the Correctional Training Institute at Raiford.

This is the twentieth CYTI group to enroll in the minimum standard curricula which is required by law.

The Training Institute program is taught in conjunction with Lake City Community College, and the graduates earn nine semester credits for successfully completing the full time, 160 hours course.

The program includes instruction in the Criminal Justice System, Legal Aspects of Corrections, Operational Procedures, Principles of Supervision, Human Relations and Technical Training Skills which include Firearms, First Aid and Fire Fighting Techniques.

The Correctional Training Institute was certifies by the Florida Correctional Standard Council (CSC) in May, 1976, as a training center for correctional personnel. The Council was empowered by the Legislature in 1974 to establish minimum standards for the Certification of correctional officers and training centers. The curriculum of training is designed to intensify the exposure of the officer and to develop him professionally. It is anticipated that the training program will help materialize the promise of a modern correctional system.

The participants will continue their training with an additional 160 hours taught by regional instructors, on an in-service basis, at the various correctional facilities located throughout Florida.

Legislators To Meet In Lakeland Tuesday

A group of legislators from around the state will meet on Tuesday, Jan. 10 in Lakeland to discuss the funding needs of clients of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. Representative Beverly Burnsed, D-Lakeland, invites area residents to attend this important meeting. The meeting will be held from 9 a.m. til noon in the conference room of the Holiday Inn on Memorial Boulevard.

"There is no better way to learn about the funding and administrative problems of the Department of HRS," stated Representative Burnsed, "than to talk directly with those receiving the services and local agencies which provide the services under contract with the Department of HRS."

Representative Burnsed said she invites letters from Concerned providers and clients giving their opinions about service needs and service delivery, because time restrictions prevent broader public testimony.

For additional information contact the office of State Representative Beverly Burnsed at 813-687-4666.

Youth Adjudged Delinquent

In the last session of juvenile court in 1977 a youth charged with burglary and petit larceny was adjudged delinquent, placed on probation. Restitution of $1.50 was ordered, study of a criminal booklet and participation in group counseling ordered.

Two juveniles whose terms of probation were to have been formally terminated appeared in court, but Judge Clifton M. Kelly will not end the probations until it has been determined whether the youths had made restitution as directed by the court.

Probation for a third youth was formally terminated.

A juvenile who was scheduled to appear on possession of controlled substance charges did not appear and Judge Kelly issued orders for the youth to be taken into custody.

In a dependency hearing custody was given to Rodeheaver Boys Ranch and the juvenile's pearents were ordered to pay the ranch.

Two dependency cases were reviewed and the children declared no longer dependent, custody returned to the mother with Children and Youth Services to supervise the home.

Building Department

during this past year.

Ken Long, chairman of the Building Board of Appeals stated the board had received no complaints about Ellerbee from anyone. The board would support Ellerbee 100 percent and he thought the council wrong in the action they were contemplating. He also mentioned he had heard rumors of someone promising to remove Ellerbee, if elected.

Jim McWilliams told the council he would take the council on a tour and show them some jobs done one way and some done another way. He wanted the same set of rules to apply to all.

McWilliams stated he had complained to Barefield and To Albritton to which Barefield stated if a complaint is not on paper it is not a valid complaint. It is petty as the complainer should be big enough to put your name on it. But Williams said he had not received y letter telling him to put his comaints in writing.

Attorney Cliff Ables sustling for City Attorney Jack Hanc read from Sec. 7-1 of the uthern Standard Building Code the tence that the code was adopted h the exception of where it confli with the city charter. The city arter states departments heads v to be reappointed by the council.

This statement by Abl apparently ended the figl by Barefield as the roll call votwas split with Albritton and Barefield voting no to the motion to advise for a building inspector.

The discussion didn't end withe vote as several councilmen d building inspector supporis continued the discussion after e council meeting ended.

Later in the day attorney Ables related how he and Jack Hancock had studied the city charter, codes and the Southern Standard Building Codes and found that the city charter did not set up a building department and official, but that when the city adopted the Southern Standard Building Code it contained provisions for a building department and official and did not conflict with the city code.

In effect it was not necessary for the council to nominate and elect a building official. The council's action was discribed by Ables as an "act without force and effort"as Ellerbee was still on the job as building inspector.

David Barefield s comment was to the effect that the council was under obligation to know what the law said before it makes decisions.

Pilots Interested In Lakeland Fly-In

By Mark Albright

Several Avon Park pilots have expressed an interest in attending the Fourth Annual Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) Sun'n Fun Fly-In to be held at the Lakeland Municipal Airport Jan. 23-29.

Billy M. Henderson, Sun'n Fun Fly-In director for 1978, said the Lakeland fly-in in the United States and Canada.

Last January more than 7,000 pilots registered for the Lakeland fly-in representing 42 states, five countries and all the Canadian provinces.

The annual Sun'n Fun Fly-In is a joint project of the Southeast Regional EAA, the Southeastern Sport Aviation Council and the Florida Antique and Classic Association.

In actuality, the 1978 fly-in will be composed of about seven conventions of aviation associations.

The type of aircraft flying to Lakeland include "homebuilt," a non-factory built airplane built for educational, recreational or experimental purposes; "antique," a factory-built airplane built prior to 1946; "classic," any factory-built plane more than 20 years old and no longer in production; "warbird," any plane built for military use and International Aerobatic Club (IAC) craft, the stunt planes.

Performing for fun above the Lakeland airport will be the United States Precision Aerobatic Team for 1978. It will be flying next summer in Europe in Internatonal competition.

EAA show plane parking will be on the Lakeland airport's southwest quadrant.

"Last year we had 26 chairmen," Henderson said. "This year we have 10 chairmen so you can see how we anticipate this year's fly-in to be much bigger."

Shopping Center To Be Sold Friday

Friday, Jan. 6, has been set for sale of Avon Park Mall shopping center. The sale is part of the foreclosure action taken by United California Bank against the mall's developer, Intercoast of Avon Park, Associates Limited. A total of $3,098,796 is involved in the foreclosure action.

Toll-Free Number Installed To Handle Consumer Complaints

A special teletypewriter to handle consumer complaints and inquiries from Florida's deaf residents will be operational Commissioner Doyle Conner reported.

"Florida's silent citizens are one of the most neglected groups in the state when it comes to everyday consumer problems," Conner says. "This teletypewriter makes it possible for them to communicate directly with our Division of Consumer Service and lets them know that we care about their needs."

According to Consumer Complaint Analyst Dot Carroll, who will handle the teletyped complaints, deaf residents with access to a transmitter can contact the Division of Consumer Services by calling its toll-free WATS number, 800-342-2176.

"When the call is received, we will acknowledge the transmission on the teletypewriter and continue the communication on the machine," she says. "It will take us a while to refine our procedure so we ask callers to allow us a minute or two to acknowledge their call."

Division Director Jane Robinson says there are some 600 teletypewriters in public agencies and private homes around the state.

"It is my understanding that most of our deaf people know the locations of these units," she says, "and can use them when the need arises.

"We are one of only a few agencies nationally and the first in Florida to provide this statewide service," she says. "We trust it will prove valuable in offering this segment of our residents a special service to make them less vulnerable to fraudulent schemes."

Course In Surveying Scheduled

A course in Principles of Surveying will be offered at South Florida Junior College Tuesday evenings during the spring semester. Carl Cool will teach this three hour college credit class, which may also be taken for audit. The first class will meet Jan. 10.

Principles of surveying is a study of the basic theory and practice of surveying including the use of the principal types of survey instruments. Persons planning to take the class must register at the college during the spring registration Jan. 3-9. Further information may be obtained from the college or by calling 453-6661, extension 135, in Avon Park.

Passes To Sanctuary

By Mark Albright

Annual passes for 1978 to the Mountain Lake Sanctuary and Singing Tower are now available, according to Ken Morrison, sanctuary director.

The cost of the 18 pass is $10. A "senior citizens pass" for drivers over 62 years of ages available at $5, both, plus tax. The pass provides unlimited entry to the grounds for one vehicle.

Morrison said it is hoped that many senior citizens will purchase the $10 pass as a contribution to the maintenance of the Sanctuary and Tower. No matter who purchased, the new passes will expire on Dec. 31, 1978.

The automobile entrance fee to the Sanctuary increases to $2 on Jan. 1. The fee for buses will be $5.

The fee increases were necessitated by a steady upward trend in costs of operation. Even with the new fees, Sanctuary visitors will be paying less than half the expense of maintaining the Sanctuary and Tower.

Annual passes may now be obtained at the entrance gate and information booth near the Tower.

They are also available by mail from Mountain Lake Sanctuary, P.O. Box 268, Lake Wales, FL. 33853.

Adult Drug Awareness Program Offered By Police

Chief Robert Brooks of the Avon Park Police Department has announced that beginning Jan. 10 the Police Dept. is starting an Adult Drug Awarness Program. Material for the program will be made available through the assistance of the Central Florida Regional Planning Council and the sponsership of a number of concerned merchants of Avon Park.

Chief Brooks states that "Many adults in Avon Park area may be exposed to drug abuse but through a lack of information as to symptom and actions of drug users they may not know that the problem exists".

The program will be given Tuesday in Jan. 10 at 7:30 p.m., at the Florida Power Lounge. The program will consist of a film showing the effects, and symptoms of drug abuse and the life style of chronic abusers.

Avon Park does not have the hard drug problem that many larger cities have, however, the basic lifestyle of the milder drug user is much the same; Paranoia, the need of something to keep going, the waste of money, and the detrimental effect of comradre with chronic law breakers.

The second part of the program will consist of educational materials showing the most widely used drugs and what to look for in spotting drug abuse. These booklets will also be available at the Police Dept. through the sponsorship of the following merchants:

Jahna Concrete, Avon Wholesale, Hilltop Sales & Service, Highlands County Bank, Avon Park Ins., Morris Adams Oil, C. Elton Crews, Avon Citrus Bank, Touchton Drugs, Jerry McKenzie Sue's Gift Shop, Ranch Buffet House, B & J Restauarant, Wrights Package Store, Pia Luigis, Ridge Air Conditioning McCann & Sons, John Morris Ins. Wells Brothers Complete Helicopter

There are many different ways to spend free time, but two Avon Park brothers, Kenneth and Stanley Wells have picked a different and most unusual one. They have built a helicopter in Kenneth's garage. The Wells purchased a Scorpion RW-133 helicopter (in kit form) from a firm in Tempe, Arizona.

Stanley attended a class last April, given by the Scorpion firm and was taught the basic's of assembling the aircraft, and how to 'hover and maneuver' it.

The light-weight helicopter has a steel tubelar frame and a fiberglass body. It will carry two people with a maximum combined weight of 400 lbs. The aircraft itself weighs 800 pounds with the gross weight listed at 1200 pounds. It has a fuel capacity of ten gallons, will travel at a top speed of 90 miles per hour, and has a range of approximately 120 air miles. The helicopter is powered by a Scorpion made, water-cooled engine with an output of 133 horsepower at 4500 R. P. M.

The body of the plane is painted, but the Wells have yet to paint the rotor and tail blades because the balance of the blades are very critical so anything added to these parts must be applied with extreme care.

The helicopter has a fixed blade which needs to be removed, if transported over land. The height of the blade averages at about 5'10". "You will have to duck to avoid the blades," said Stanley, "But it is a known fact that people just naturally duck when approaching a helicopter in motion."

When asked about modifications of any kind, Stanley answered, "none". He went on to say that each person makes his own machine, and no part of their aircraft will fit another of the same make. The kit comes with all necessary materials and instrictions, all else needed is one's own ability to complete the project.

As Stanley and Kenneth both have fixed wing pilot license, they can pilot the helicopter now, although they are not allowed to carry passengers until they acquire a rotor wing (helicopter) license. To obtain a license they must have 40 hours of flight time on their pilot log and their hovering time may be used as part of their flight time. "The hours that they have on log, with their present license cannot be used with the helicopter," stated Kenneth. He also said that "piloting a helicopter is entirely different than that of a fixed wing aircraft". The men are hopeful that the hours of hovering and manuvering by each of them will be completed by late June, and perhaps get their license by September of 1978.

The initial cost of the helicopter was $12,500, but compared to a price tag of $55,000 for a stripped down commercially built helicopter the Scorpion price tag appears a modest one. Since both brothers work for their father, E. Ray Wells, at Wells Motor Company, the helicopter was purchasd for both sport and business. "We will use it for the pick up of auto parts and promotional purposes, as well as transportation to and from meetings, " said Stanley.

The men have been working on the helicopter since June of 1976, and so far, have put in 185 man hours on the project. They are able to make modifications and do all the maintenance work on their aircraft because it is listed by FAA regulations as an experiemental plane. The government, however, does require a specially certified machanic t work on commerical built helicopter.

At the present time, there are no lights nor communication system aboard the helicopter, but "the aircraft is only designed for short trips and these items may be added at a latter date" said Stanley.

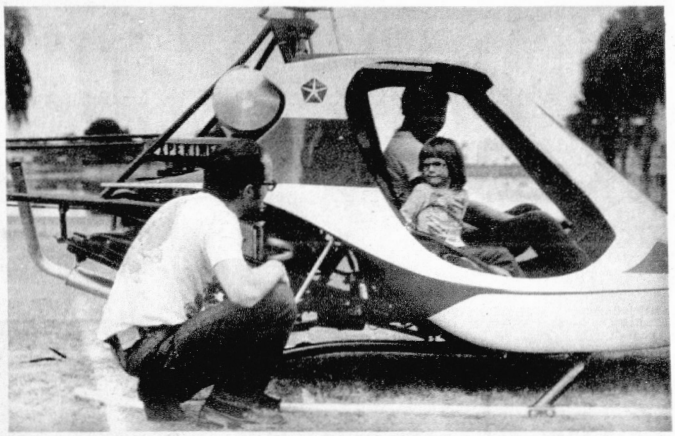
The helicopter will be on display at the Wells Motor Company showroom, Mon Jan. 16, along with Dodges' new sub-compact Omni.

Both Wells are native residents of Avon Park, and are graduates of Avon Park High School. Stanley is married to the former Kay Davis of Frostproof, and they have two daughters, Sarah Jane and Kalley. Kenneth is married to the former Peggy Williams of Memphis, Tenn., and they have a son, Scooter and a daughter Jeanna.

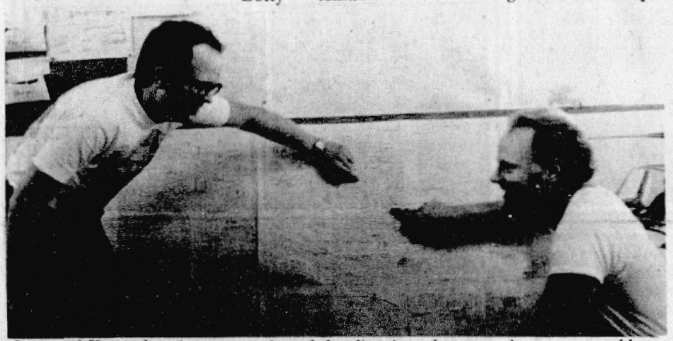
Other people who contributed toward the completion of this project were, Harlin Perry, a body repairman at Wells Motor Co., Kenny Long of Long's Air Conditioning, and David Barefield, city councilman and United Telephone employee.

David designed the color scheme used on the helicopter and made the wood plugs which are used at the end of the rotor blades. Harlin painted the body of the helicopter, and Kenny, precisionally built a block form, out of hardwood for the root end of each rotor blade.

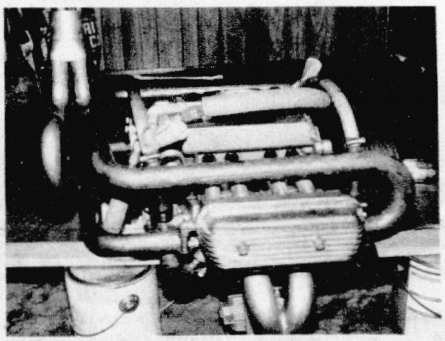
Photos And Text By Betty Amburn



Sunday, Jan. 1, Kenneth, Stanley's daughter Sarah Jane, and Stan prepare to start the engine of the helicopter.



Stan and Kenneth point to a section of the directions that gave them some problems on assembling the helicopter.



The water-cooled engine, made especially for the Scorpion was assembled in Kenneth's garage.

Russell Turvy, a Federal Aeronautic Association examiner, checks the welds on the framework, before the aircraft is completely assembled.

Kenneth lifts the pitch and throttle control, as Stanley checks the motor, just a few of the steps that they will go through before starting to lift off.

Cooking Corner

Shrimp, Turkey Make Great Gumbo

So—you have always wanted to try your hand at gumbo? There is no better time than left-over turkey time. Live daringly. Don't toss those last sad pieces. By adding two cans of shrimp you have the basics for a rich, exciting gumbo, Creole style. This easy recipe is for an "okra" type, as distinguished from the kind called "file" gumbo. But don't be afraid of the okra. The trick is to fry it (yes, fry) until, in the words of one old-time Louisiana cook, it "quits ropin'."

SHRIMP AND TURKEY GUMBO

2 cans (4½ ounces each) shrimp
Turkey wing and "drumstick" or equivalent
1/3 cup cooking oil or fresh bacon drippings
1 box (10 ounces) frozen sliced okra
1-1/2 cups chopped onion
3 garlic cloves, sliced
1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
1 bay leaf
1/2 teaspoon crushed thyme
1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper
1 teaspoon salt

Chill shrimp in the cans. Wash all traces of dressing from turkey. Heat oil in a heavy soup kettle; fry okra, onion, garlic together over high heat, stirring constantly, until okra loses its viscous quality. Add 5 cups water; stir well. Add turkey, tomato sauce, seasonings. Bring mixture to a boil; turn heat to simmer. Cover and cook, stirring frequently, 1½ hours or until turkey falls easily from the bone. Remove meat; break into bite-size pieces; discard all bone, skin, gristle. Return turkey to gumbo; add shrimp and all shrimp liquid. Heat. Spoon gumbo around mounds of fluffy rice. 6 main-course servings.

Food For Thought

Jane Nickerson

Newest trend in the kitchen, an offshoot perhaps of making your own bread, is baking crackers. After all, crackers are nothing more nor less than a flattened biscuit dough, often more emphatically flavored with salt, spices or seeds. Sensibly the British call their crackers biscuits.

Welcome considerations come to mind in respect to baking crackers. You can control the ingredients in your own products; there's no need for artificial additives or the excessive sugar or salt that may confound you in the commercial versions. And you can turn out a much cheaper cracker at home than any you can buy.

The cracker I prefer, a bland, hard wafer from Canada, made with cracked wheat, excellent with cheeses and wine, costs 89 cents for 10 ounces in one supermarket. But some lavosh, a sesame-seed cracker developed by Jenny Lind Olin, Lakeland teacher of fine cuisine, figure out to a fraction of that cost — $1 for 27 cents. When Jenny made that estimate she had included in it fuel expended in operating her oven.

Lavosh are big round crackers with which Jenny became acquainted last summer when in Hawaii. The recipe, contributed by Janice Yamuchi, appeared in a booklet compiled by occupational therapists. Miss Yamuchi used four tablespoons of sugar in her recipe, which Jenny gradually reduced, batch by batch, until she had eliminated it altogether.

As she lessened the sugar, she slightly increased the salt. The result: a beguiling morsel equally compatible with wine or, for the after-school set, milk. A paraphrase of that well known definition comes to mind — will power is the ability to eat just one lavosh.

As she worked with lavosh, Jenny became so interested in home-baking crackers that she developed some with rye flour and caraway crackers, piquant and delectable. And she also revived a couple of recipes from Cecily Brownstone, Associated Press food editor. A few years ago was it perhaps Cecily who started the cracker trend? That expert offered directions for something she called "krazy krackers." They were gigantic products, too big for a single portion. Cecily commented:

Because of their large shape I am tempted to call them break-and-come- again crackers just as the British call one of their desserts, which they always offer whole, cut-and-come-again crackers.

"Instead I've settled for calling them krazy kracker, because of their large and irregular shape and also because their formula is a genuine American one and the spelling aberration is so typical of the United States."

Jenny's recipes for lavosh and rye crackers follow along with Cecily's directions for krazy krackers. Jenny likes them with slightly less sugar than Cecily specified. Also, there follows a tempting wholewheat version of "krazy krackers. The convivial season is upon us, that time when you balance a crunchy in one hand against a cooler in the other. These recipes fit into that scene.

LAVOSH

2¾ cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ cup butter
1 cup buttermilk
Sesame seeds

Combine flour, salt and soda. Cut in butter until mixture looks like fine crumbs.

Stir in buttermilk just until dough holds together. Shape into 1-inch balls.

On a floured board, preferably with a stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll each ball to make 2-inch circles. Sprinkle with sesame seeds. Continue rolling until diameter is 4 or 5 inches. To keep dough from bubbling or blistering, prick all over with a fork. Place on ungreased baking sheet; bake at 400 degrees for about 10 minutes or until brown, checking often. Remove to a wire rack to cool.

Yield: about 3 dozen.

RYE CRACKERS

Health food stores stock the rye flour that is sometimes hard to find in supermarkets.

1 cup rye flour
1 cup white flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1½ tablespoons sugar
½ cup sour cream
⅛ cup melted butter or margarine
2 tablespoons caraway seeds
1 egg

Sift together flours, baking powder, salt and sugar. Stir in cream, butter, caraway and egg.

Turn out dough on a floured board and knead 2 to 3 minutes.

Roll out every thin on a lightly floured pastry cloth, preferably with a stockinet-covered rolling pin. Cut with a 2-inch biscuit cutter and prick all over with a fork.

Bake on an ungreased sheet 10 to 12 minutes in a preheated 425 degree oven. Cool on wire racks.

Yield: 4 dozen.

CECILY'S KRAZY KRACKERS

2¾ cups unbleached flour
2 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ cup mayonnaise
1 (8-ounce) container plain yogurt

In a large mixing bowl thoroughly stir together the flour, sugar, salt and baking soda.

With a pastry blender cut in mayonnaise until well mixed and coarse crumbs form. Stir in yogurt; with your hands, firmly press dough into a ball.

Cut into 16 equal pieces: First cut ball of dough in quarters, then cut each quarter into quarters.

On a prepared pastry cloth, with a prepared stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll each piece to 1-16inch in thickness. Each will be an uneven 8-inch round. Prick all over with a fork.

Place a few inches apart on an ungreased cookie sheet; sprinkle lightly with extra salt.

Bake in a preheated 400-degree oven until lightly and spottily browned — 6 to 7 minutes.

With a wide metal spatula remove to wire racks to cool. Store in a tightly covered, metal box.

Yield: 16 huge crackers.

WHOLE WHEAT CRACKERS

¾ cup unbleached white flour
¾ cup fine whole wheat flour
¾ teaspoon baking soda
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ cup commercial mayonnaise
½ cup plain yogurt
1 tablespoon mild honey

Stir together the flours, baking soda and salt. With a pastry blender cut in mayonnaise until coarse crumbs form; stir in yogurt and honey. Press firmly into a ball; cut in eight equal pieces.

On a prepared pastry cloth with a prepared stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll each piece to an uneven 8-inch round-1-16 inch in thickness.

With a fork prick all over, making marks about an inch apart. Place a few inches apart on a ungreased cookie sheet; sprinkle lightly with extra salt.

Bake in a preheated 400-degree oven until blistered and spottily browned — 6 to 7 minutes. Parts of crackers will look very brown indeed but they will not taste scorched. Cool on wire racks.

Yield: 8 huge crackers.

Southlands Court News

By Frank White

We dislike starting this week's report on a real flop. The day was chilly and also breezy, and with some shufflers already out of town and some busy on Christmas chores, only four showed at starting time. Two were chilled through after two games, so they never played enough to decide anything. Girls! The chairman wants an extra good turnout next to compensate for this.

Men's shuffling on Friday had a good turnout, with the team of Breister and Wandover three-game winners.

There was no Bingo Friday evening, as the Court Christmas Party was held then.

Christmas carol singing preceded the party, with volunteer singers started from the hall, picking up three more along the way, and making seven stops. An attempt was made to stop and sing at the homes of all those who were unable to get out to attend the party. This was appreciated by all the shut-ins, most of whom offered profuse thanks. To those too ill to get up to greet the carolers returned to the hall to find a good many residents and guests already assembled, and were told carol singing was Part I of the program. Fittingly enough, one of the guet at the party was a six week old baby. This child arrived complete with pacifier, and received a lot of attention from all the grandmothers present.

All those who could or would sing joined in while doing a dozen of the oldest, best known, tradition carols. Then, just at the right time, Santa Claus, played by Al Carson in a unique Santa costume, arrived with gifts for every one. A "valuable" wrapped gift was given each person but not opened. Each one exchanged this with anyone he chose. Then they exchanged again. There were really only two "serious" "store-boughten" gifts among the fifty or so, and the rest provided just for laughs.

At this point Santa rang the bell and everyone opened his ift . The laughter that resulted was loud and plentiful. Al Cameron and Charlie Wallace drew the most; Al in his girdle and Charlie in his sleeveless housedress. Frances Bauernfeind took several photographs including Al and Charlie wearing their new gifts. Everett Paxton and Bea White got the "store-boughten" "serious" gifts.

Many kinds of cheese, cookies, salami, punch, etc, followed the gift exchange. All this consumed more than two hours, which was enough.

Christmas dinner was enjoyed by residents and guests, all guests being introduced before dinner at noon. Al and Louise Carson, our managers, provided the turkeys, residents and guests brought so many delectable items, including desserts, that your scribe, after sampling 13 or 14 different dishes at the main table while passing up that many more, never did make his way to the dessert table later,. He couldn't.

Confidential to Bessie Paxton: Should you decide to bring tapioca pudding to the next pot luck dinner, just let me know it's there. You'll get to see who consumes a lot of it, as my bride seldom makes it anymore at home.

All the children visiting in the court enjoyed several days of skateboarding, shuffleboard, and riding of grandparent' bicycles.

Many guests attended the party or dinner, some attended both. Saw Garnell Straube and her husband of St. Louis, Missouri at the party, guests of George and Madeline Clarke. The head on Clan Cameron (minis his girdle) with wife Margaret, the dinner chairman, had their daughter and her husband, Tony and Sharon Liliekis with their three children, Paul, Tanya, and Carlita, the last named being the 6 weeks old baby. They all from Goderich, Ontario.

Week-long visitors at Gilbert and Mae Longbons home were their daughter and husband, Walt and Lynda Sebak and their children Mike and Cindy, all from Cincinnati, Ohio. Longbons also had holiday guests from St. Petersburg, Mae Longbon's cousin and spouse, Bea and Leon Weisenberger.

The walking Stones, Paul and Cecil attended the dinner with Cecil, three days oit on the hospital after knee surgery, walking with crutches and assisted up two steps by Paul. They were accompanied by a coterie of guests.

Weeklong guests were their daughter and husband, Carol and Mice Vanuga with their children Chris and teve, of Endwell, New York. Guests for the day were friends Jacob and Lois Hofer, of Fort Myers.

For the first time in a long while Ann Codit felt like taking a little automobile ride, and it was a welcome sight to see her walk out and get into the car with her husband as they set out for Winter Haven Tuesday morning.

Coffee Meeting Tuesday, Dec. 27, was attended by only thirteen, no suprise, right between two holidays and with many residents still entertaining visitors, and other residents absent.

There was no craft class scheduled for Dec. 27.

DON'T JUST LEARN FAITH; LIVE BY IT!

When Sunday morning rolls around,
A lot of folks you know
Will find themselves religion-bound,
And off to Church they go.
They rue the error of their ways,
And pray that all might hear;
And when it comes to hymns of praise,
They sing them loud and clear.
But when the services are done,
The lessons they ignore;
Till next the Sabbath has begun,
They leave them at the door.
The only way you'll ever earn
The happiness you seek
Is living by the faith you learn,
All seven days a week!

—Gloria Nowak

"Now the just shall live by faith."
—Hebrews 10:38

Example is more forcible than precept. People watch me six days a week to see what I mean on the seventh!
