Installation Of Sewer Lines Causes Bitter Council Dispute

A bitter dispute at last Monday night's City Council meeting arose that involved a motion by councilman Henry Dennis (Seconded by Robert Britt). The motion involved granting of authority by the council to city water official, Joe Willis that would authorize him to install water lines on various utility easements "at his discretion". For all practical purposes, that was "the straw that broke the camel's back".

Council Vice-President, David Barefield ignited the proverbial "fuse" when he commented that this particular item of business was being pursued by City Engineer, Mike McWeeny, City Building Official, C. W. Elterbe, and himself.

Responding to Barefield's statement, Britt stated, "The previous policy has been that the city could install water pipes on easements, but not on private property. That's why I seconded the motion".

Countered Barefield, "Well, it would certainly be less costly to the taxpayer if the developers installed the lines".

Referring to the comment previously made by Britt, councilman Henry Dennis remarked, "Well, this policy would sure make it a lot easier for Mr. Willis".

Turning then to question Willis, Dennis asked, "Is it not true that you were stopped by Mr. Barefield on two previous jobs?" Willis replied, "Yes, Mr. Barefield stopped me on two jobs on easements and one on city right-of-way."

For the better part of an hour, the debate over installation of water pipes and meters on easements continued at an increasingly heated pace specifically between councilmen Barefield and Dennis.

The final vote on the issue resulted in four council members agreeing to permit Willis to complete installation of water lines on easements at the shopping center south of Castle St.

Following adjournment, Barefield talked about the issue in greater depth. He said, "In the past year and three months that I've been in office, but more recently at the Bob Herman Shopping Center south of Castle St., they went in there and were doing some work and Willis came out there and began griping about how the developer didn't install the lines correctly. Willis said if he had done it, it would have been done right, and the city would have had less problems".

"But, this is the developer's responsibility to bury those lines properly," he continued, "and we have plumbing standards for them to go by".

"What I cannot sit back and take," Barefield said, "is for the citizens of Avon Park - the taxpayers - to have to pay for something that by law is the responsibility of the developer".

"I'll have to agree with the council in one respect though," Barefield went on, "that, what they've done in the past definitely has been wrong".

Barefield added, "Apparently other council members have told people 'sure, we'll do this and we'll do that', but every bit of it has been at taxpayer's expense, and it's all been against the law all the time".

"Taxpayers have just been paying through the nose entirely too long", Barefield continued, "especially when you consider that it was never the taxpayer's responsibility or obligation to pay for the mistakes of others".

Summing up the live-coal issue, Barefield said, "It's just not the city's responsibility or obligation to pay for things that a developer does wrong. It's the developer's responsibility to make good on his commitments to any city. If we as a city council had opened this thing wide, then Willis would have been given a free hand to put water lines and meters in sub-divisions, he would have put them anywhere he decided to put them, and I feel this is in direct conflict with what our laws say. And, I'm especially concerned when it's not in the best interest of the citizens of Avon Park".

Arguments come and arguments go! Debates come and debates go! But, it's a lead - pipe cinch that this is one debate that hasn't gone. YES!!!

Batts Complains Of Being Harrassed By Ramp Users

Complaints about the behavior of persons using Burnt-Out Bridge boat ramp have prompted an engineering department review for possible installation of regulatory signs.

Raymond Batts who lives near the boat ramp, complained to Highlands County Commissioners Tuesday that people who use the boat ramp drink alcoholic beverages and horses, him when he works out in his yard. He said installation of signs prohibiting drinking and signs indicating where parking space is available would help. Some people are parking in front of his house.

Sheriff Joe Sheppard said there are no laws against drinking, only those relating to consumption of alcoholic beverages to the point that it impairs the person's mental faculties.

He also told Batts that if persons are harassing him, Batts can fill out an affidavit at the sheriff's office and then arrest proceeding could begin.

Batts said he has called the sheriff's office before, but was told there wasn't anything that could be done. Sheppard said it was the first time he had heard anything about the problems.

Batts said he would go to court to get his rights and said he could get the boat ramp closed.

Commissioner Robert Skipper said the boat ramp had been there before Batts bought the property.

Commissioner Chairman C. J. "Buddy" Wise asked Gordon Hays, county engineer, to investigate the possible installation of a boat ramp sign and parking signs. The signs will be installed if they are warranted, Wise added.

The board agreed to allow the March Please See Page 10-A

Man Charged With Cattle Theft

Stan Reed of Avon Park has been charged with larceny of a cow and eluding an officer following an investigation by Florida Fish and Game Commission and Highlands County sheriff's deputies.

Reed and two other Avon Park men were charged in connection with an incident March 20 involving the theft of a calf owned by Sam Elder of Avon Park. The others charged were Wes Odum and Bobby Sparlock. Each is charged with fire hunting.

Game Warden Frank Valentik said he spotted Reed's truck on Bombing Range Road on the evening of March 20. A spot light was shining from the truck. Valentik attempted to stop the truck by turning on his car's blue lights and siren. The truck then sped up and Valentik said a high-speed chase ensued. After the six-mile chase, Valentik said Reed's truck was found abandoned. Blood and hair were reportedly found in the truck and a dead calf was found nearby.

An investigation by Valentik, Howard Sizemore, Highlands County sheriff's department agriculture investigator, Sgt. Robert Hopkin Jr., and Sgt. Don Arnold, and Warren Adams, state agriculture investigator followed.

Sizemore arrested Reed at a gas station in Avon Park Friday. Sgt. Hopkin said other charges are pending in the investigation.

Walkathon Is Scheduled

Saturday, April 1st has been designated the date for the seventh annual March of Dimes Walkathon for Highlands County.

In making that announcement, Chapter Chairman Ricky Green said, "Highlands County can do it again, and 1978 is the year to do it". He was making references to the year 1974 and 1975 when Highlands County was the recipient of awards for having collected the largest amount of money per capita in the entire United States.

Based on recommendations submitted by a March of Dimes medical research team, the March of Dimes Hospital, the Highlands County chapter four years ago pledged all-out support to Walker Memorial Hospital in an effort to obtain the necessary equipment that would assist in preventing birth defects.

In the words of Hospital Administrator John McClellan, "The $14,108 contributed by the March of Dimes has given us the ability to detect fetal distress in early pregnancy, and to monitor the activity of the unborn child before and during birth". "We also have the equipment," McClellan added, "to aid the child after birth and, when necessary, to transport it to another hospital when more specialized care is mandatory".

Those desiring to participate in the walkathon are urged to register at the Highlands County Fairgrounds in Sebring between 7:30 a.m. and 8:15 a.m., April 1st. The walkathon will officially begin promptly at 8:30 a.m.

Participants should make certain to check the instructions on the sponsor sheets which are immediately available at all middle and senior high schools, Ridge Florist Shops in Avon Park and Sebring, and at the B&H Printing Shop in Lake Placid.

Chamber Sponsors Sidewalk Sale Days

The second Sidewalk Sales Days, under the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce will be Friday and Saturday, April 6 and 7. Sidewalk Sales Committee Chairman and her committee are making plans for an even bigger event than the October sales.

More activities will be scheduled for in the Mall. Music, Garden Club plant sale, bake goods, etc. The theme will be "April In Avon Park", with emphasis on yesterday's styles. Every merchant in the Avon Park area is welcome to participate.

REV. ADEN CHILDRESS, pastor of the First Baptist Church was honored at an awards dinner at Stetson University by being named as the 1978 Urban Minister of the Year. With Rev. Childress is his wife, Ann.

Aden Childress Named Urban Minister Of Year

Aden D. Childress, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Avon Park, has been honored by being named 1978 Urban Minister of the Year By Stetson University, Deland, at an award dinner held on the campus at the Carlton Room, Thursday, March 23.

Two ministers are selected each year, an Urban Minister of the Year and a Rural Minister of the year, from the more than 1500 Florida Baptist churches. These two awards have been voted each year since 1971 after nominations are made and serious consideration is given to the many facets of a pastor's ministry.

Dr. Pope A. Duncan, President of Stetson University, presented the award to Rev. Childress, asking the Childress family members to stand as he read from the plaque as follows: "Stetson University 1978 Minister of the Year Award presented to Aden D. Childress for outstanding leadership to his church, for faithful devotion to his call as a minister of the gospel, for his concern and love for people, and his active involvement in the life of his association and the Florida Baptist Convention."

Dr. Harold C. Bennett, Executive Secretary of Florida Baptists spoke to the more than 200 Baptist leaders and guests following a delicious dinner. A male quartet from Stetson sang two numbers and various dignitaries were introduced and recognized by Rev. Charles Granger, Master of Ceremonies. Several of the members of First Baptist Church, Avon Park attended the dinner with their pastor and Mrs. Childress, along with the Childress's daughters, Carol Ann Wilkerson of Bradenton and

Sharon Sue Strickler of Avon Park. When asked to comment on the award Rev. Childress replied in his typical manner, "I appreciate the honor and praise, but it reminds me of one of the songs the quartet sang. We are all 'Standing in the Need of Prayer'. Those who said all those things need to ask God for forgiveness for their excesses, and I need forgiveness for enjoying it so much."

Besides securing their tags, vehicle owners may also have title transfers taken care of, although some complicated title changes may have to be referred to the county tag office in Sebring, according to Whitehouse.

Porter Loses Damage Suit Against City

An Avon Park mobile home park owner has lost a bid to collect civil damages for mistreatment which, he claimed, he had suffered at the hands of the Avon Park police department.

In May 1977 Grady I. and Maggie Marie Porter filed the suit in which they accused the police of using an unnecessary amount of force, violence, mistreatment in connection with a July 9, 1976, arrest.

The trial opened March 27 and concluded in the early afternoon, March 28. The jury deliberated approximately 30 minutes before returning, at 2:15 p.m., a verdict in favor of the defense.

The City of Avon Park and Police Chief Robert Brooks were listed as co-defendants in the suit. Porter had claimed that Chief Brooks came to his (Porter's) home on Feb. 11, 1977, and assaulted him "without cause or justification." Porter also alleged that the police had damaged the mobile home park business by closing out the property with drawn guns, shining lights and generally displaying an "I'll get you" attitude.

Porter does not mention in the civil case that he had been defendant in some criminal cases, investigated by Avon Park police, prior to the incidents which are listed in the civil case.

At the trial the city and Brooks were represented by Cliff Ables of Sebring and Lakeland Attorney Lynn Gruescuse. Wallace Storey of Bartow represented the Porters.

Entry fee for artists is $15 per exhibit space and entries are limited to original paintings, drawings and graphics in all media, and sculpture. No pottery, ceramics, weaving, jewelry, leather, macramé, or crafts of any type will be accepted.

There will be a total of $1500 in award money. Cash awards donated by Southgate Merchant's Association are: first $125; second, $100; third, $75 and four awards of merit at $50 each.

Bajohr Jr.; Barnett Banks; Fashion World; Dr. Dane Forst; Health Foods of Sebring, Inc.; Highlands Jewelers, Inc.; Mr. and Mrs. John F. Howard and Wayne Taylor of Gulf Oil Distributors.

Under auspices of Police Chief Robert Brooks and the staff of the "Sun", arrangements have been made through the courtesy and overwhelming generosity of Bob Daubach, Executive Vice-President of the Highlands County Bank of Avon Park to accept any and all deposits to the "Donnie Singletary Fund".

Contributions to memorial fund can either be made in person at the bank, or they can be mailed. Persons desiring to mail them should address the envelope to, "The Donnie Singletary Fund", Highlands County Bank of Avon Park, 310 W. Main St., Avon Park, FL 33825.

Individuals desiring to drop their contributions at the Police Department may do so at their convenience. Chief Brooks stated that any such monies would be promptly transferred to the "Donnie Singletary Fund" at the bank. Officer Singletary suffered a most tragic loss on March 21 when his wife and two small children were instantly killed by an Amtrak passenger train that struck the family car broadside.

According to Chief Brooks, the 27-year-old Singletary had just recently returned to the department as an active police officer, and was therefore ineligible for any insurance coverage whatever.

CYS To Receive Attention Home

Midway between "turn 'em loose" and "put 'em away" Children and Youth Services (CYS) has a strict supervision program which will soon be augmented by use of a special "attention" home.

Under a special federal grant CYS will be contracting for two attention homes in this area, one each in Highlands and Hardee counties. As soon as the homes are under contract CYS will be placing in them juveniles charged with violating a law but not with being violent persons.

A new CYS staff member, Bill Duncan, will work with the attention homes and with all youths placed in non-secure detention. Duncan explains that he visits the youths who are placed in secure detention at Bartow. He also interviews parents and school officials, investigating police officers. Duncan attempts to work out a contract with the youth and his family and by the terms of the contract the youth agrees to submit to intensive supervision by Duncan. Often this calls for three visits per day.

Under these conditions many youths accused of crime can be returned to their homes and continue with their classes and or jobs.

Occasionally home is not the right place for the youth. In these special cases - where secure detention is not needed but home conditions are not suitable for the interval between arrest and court hearing, the attention home would be used.

To make sure that the facilities would be available as needed, the state makes provision to pay the attention home parents a regular fee whether the home is in use or not.

The amount of the fee is automatically raised when a youth is placed in residence. Florida law sets strict timetables for handling cases involving young suspects. Court hearings, for example, must be held within 15 days. Duncan explains that a youth placed in an attention home will be in that home for a maximum of 15 days. Attention homes are not used for long range foster care.

questions and answers

Q. After working 12 years under Social Security, I recently accepted a Federal job and am now under Civil Service. Do I lose the Social Security protection I built up?

A. Since you have at least 10 years coverage, you're insured for life for Social Security retirement benefits. Medicare hospital insurance, and survivors benefits. However, the benefit amount you or your family might get will gradually decrease in future years as your average earnings covered by Social Security, upon which the amount is based, decline. You will be insured for Social Security disability benefits for only another 5 years.

Q. I'm going to a Social Security office next week to apply for survivors benefits for myself and my children. My husband was killed in a car accident; what documents should I take with me?

A. You should take your husband's Social Security card (or a record of his Social Security number), proof of his death evidence of his recent earnings (such as last year's Form W-2), your marriage certificate and birth certificates. Don't delay applying, however, if you don't have all these proofs. The people at the Social Security office can tell you about other proofs that can be used.

Q. My husband and I are both 62. He's not planning to retire for several more years. However, before I was married, I worked for many years under Social Security. Can I apply for retirement payments on my own record or do I have to wait for my husband to apply for benefits?

A. If you worked long enough under Social Security you can get monthly retirement payments on your own earnings record. However, if you apply before you're 60, your checks will be at a reduced rate. When your husband applies for Social Security retirement benefits, if the amount you would get as his wife is more than the payments on your own earnings record, you would get a total benefit equal to the higher amount.

Hospital Holds Awards Dinner

The handful physicians who purchased the establishment of Highlands General Hospital 13 years ago "never dreamed such sophisticated diagnostic equipment would be available as it is now," Dr. E. C. Burns, radiologist, told a group of about 70 people at the 13th annual hospital awards dinner Tuesday at Sun 'n Lakes Country Club.

Dr. Burns recalled the early talk of building a hospital and traced its history, noting "it has met and served the community's needs in a way far beyond what we anticipated."

"No longer do we have to travel long distances for tests or, for highly trained, skilled physician's services are right here," he explained, plus "the doctors have a nice place to live and raise a family as well."

"Many fascinating things have happened in medicine since that time and Highlands General has made every effort to keep pace with those advances by purchasing up to date equipment such as nuclear medicine and ultra sound machines," he continued, illustrating his talk with a slide presentation.

The longtime radiologist paid tribute to the paramedical "people behind the scenes" being honored and noted, "regardless of surgical skills, a patient's after-care is critical to his recovery and the community as well as our medical profession owes you a debt of gratitude."

Mrs. Hazel Scarborough, chairman of the district board of commissioners, presented 10 year pins for service to Minnie Dorsey, Garnett Sherwood, Edith Pepper, Ruth Street and Theodosia Knight.

Five year pins were presented to Kinde Dukens, Jacquelyn Fennell, Lois Phillips, Jeralyn Schiek, Agnes Valence, Charles White, Carlie Vandigo, John DeWitt and Rosalind Armstead.

Also honored for five year's service were Frances Flora, Lorenzo Bianchi, Mary S. Huter, Elizabeth McManus, Shirley Fulton, Ruthe Brown, Eva M. Owens, Marlene Rogers, Gloria Speakman, Catherine Cope and Rebecca Mullins.

Honored with plaques were outgoing Auxiliary president Mrs. Henry Senf and immediate past Chief of the Medical Staff Dr. Calpepper Brooks.

Acting nursing director Mrs. Helen Cartwright was presented a floral arrangement at the close of the banquet.

Gunless Society Will Not Remain A Free Society

"Legislation" is defined in Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary as "... the exercise of the power and function of making rules (as laws) that have the force of authority by virtue of their promulgation by an official organ of a state or other organization."

In this "land of the free and the home of the brave," as in some other forms of democracy throughout the world, occasionally there is "good" legislation, and sometimes there is "bad" legislation!

Under provisions of the Second Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America, the people of this country are guaranteed the right to keep and bear arms, extending circumstances notwithstanding.

Let's face facts!! There's absolutely no way under the sun that a "gunless society" is going to remain a "free society"!! As an old saying goes, "You can talk about it until you're blue in the face, but you'll NEVER succeed in convincing the otherwise."

Contrary to what your gun control advocates would have ordinary folks believe, eliminating guns DOES NOT eliminate crime! On the contrary, it increases it!!

From "day one," Americans of all races, colors and creeds from every conceivable walk of life have bitterly contested efforts by anyone and everyone to deny them the right to keep and bear arms. As we previously said, it's one of the assurances guaranteed every American under the Second Amendment of the Constitution. And, those same Americans have inescapably demonstrated their unwillingness down through the years to bow to the whimsical desires of a "chosen few," particularly when that "chosen few" attempts to exert certain onerous legislative actions upon the populace as a whole!!

Once the right to own weapons vanishes in thin air, so do all other rights except those of the privileged few!! It's an accepted fact of life that the lack of guns will NEVER deter the cunning and predatory from acquiring weapons!

According to official sources in Washington, the anti-handgun bill drafted by the Justice Department has received approval by President Carter and is expected to be sent to Congress early this spring.

As laid out, the Carter bill goes considerably farther than any such measure drafted by any previous administration. The Carter bill would create a massive "de facto" registration and licensing system designed to give federal gun control agents in Washington instant access to the names of EVERY handgun owner in the nation "within one generation!"

Now, if that isn't enough to stir up the proverbial "hornet's nest," read on brother!! Take a good close look at some other major provisions of the Carter bill!! It empowers the Secretary of the Treasury to ban the transfer of a majority of handgun models now owned by private citizens!! It would also stop production of EVERY handgun model currently in production, until each has been "tested and approved" by the Secretary of the Treasury!!

It authorizes either the FBI or local police (or both) investigations on any citizen wishing to purchase a handgun!! It mandates a federally approved state gun-owner licensing program!!

It also extends Federal government authority over the purely intrastate transfer of the more than 50-million handguns now in legitimate private ownership!!

Obviously, what the majority of those chosen few either don't realize or don't wish to acknowledge is the fact that a handgun is primarily a DEFENSIVE weapon!! It is the "equalizer" for the woman, who, of necessity, must spend several hours home alone each night!! It's the "equalizer" for invalid people who are confined to wheelchairs for the rest of their lives!! And, in all probability, it could be the difference between life and death for the owners of the typical "Mom and Pop" Grocery store!!

The list of justifiable reasons for ownership and possession of a handgun is limitless!! Conversely, there are those who no doubt, could produce a list of "justifiable reasons" for the complete and total abolishment of ownership and possession of handguns!!

Deep within our heart and soul, it's our sincere belief that the time is long overdue for Americans once again to amass their collective thinking processes and mobilize their combined energies toward the reformation of, "We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, ESTABLISH JUSTICE, INSURE DOMESTIC TRANQUILITY, PROVIDE FOR THE COMMON DEFENSE, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America!!"

We would strongly urge our readers to voice their opinions on this extremely important issue in letters to their Washington representatives. And, we would further highly recommend that readers make a concerted effort to have their friends and neighbors do likewise. Letters to individual members of the Senate and House of Representatives should be addressed follows:

TO A SENATOR:
The Hon. Lawton Chiles
U. S. Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

TO A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE:
The Hon. Richard Stone

Our Readers Opinions

Supports Legislature For Professional Standards

Dear Editor:

In recent months, much has been said and printed about the issue of testing teachers. Some public officials would lead the public to believe that incompetent teachers are to blame for our educational ills. FTP-NEA, Florida's largest teachers' organization, would like you to consider the following facts and then decide if testing teachers will solve anything. Colleges of Education train teachers, not teachers; the Florida Department of Education certifies teachers, not teachers; school administrators hire teachers regarding their competency to teach, not teachers; school administrators hire teachers and place them in our schools, not teachers; school principals evaluate teachers regarding their competency to teach, not teachers; school boards decide on school curriculum, not teachers. In other words, teachers, the practicing professionals in the classroom, have absolutely no control over their own profession. Yet, those who do have control are quick to point the finger of blame at teachers. FTP-NEA feels that just as doctors and attorneys control their professions, so should teachers. We will be supporting legislation to create a Professional Standards and Licensure Board to govern our profession. We need your support because self-governance and higher standards, not testing teachers, will help us improve the educational system for our students. Sincerely, Wally Orr, FTP-NEA President

Keep Liability Insurance Urges Gunter

Recently, since the Florida Supreme Court upheld the 1977 auto insurance reform law, there has been a tremendous increase in interest by the public to drop liability coverages and retain only the compulsory $5,000 personal injury protection (PIP) allowed by the law, stated Florida Insurance Commissioner Bill Gunter.

I would not recommend anyone drive without liability insurance, and I urge Florida Drivers, including those who have contacted my staff in the 21 Department of Insurance Service Offices in different sections of the state, to weigh very carefully the pitfalls of dropping liability coverage, he added.

There are no upper limits in Florida on the amount for which an injured person can sue or collect. And you are financially responsible for any damages you cause in an accident whether you have insurance or not.

I hope Florida drivers will continue to carry as much automobile liability insurance as they can afford. The risks of dropping it are, I think, too great to both sides and others.

I am beginning to feel a degree of optimism about automobile insurance in Florida and the cost of premiums, Gunter said.

Many of the regulatory reforms we fought for in the 1977 legislative session, which were upheld by the State Supreme Court, are working. Already this year we have succeeded in the return of $25 million to Florida policyholders based on the changes in the laws. And I anticipate additional rebates in the near future.

The goal of all this, of course, is to make auto liability insurance once again affordable to all drivers in Florida. I think the record shows that we're making significant progress in this direction.

Laws Threaten Food Production

Peter S. Harlee, president of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, has told a U. S. Senate committee restrictive laws and counterproductive regulations are a serious threat to continued production of food by American farmers.

Speaking before the Senate Agricultural and Forestry Committee Harlee pointed out the importance of agriculture to the total Florida economy. He said the income agriculture brings into Florida provides a livelihood not only for those actually engaged in farming activities but for many city-dwellers who are performing related services.

Harlee said labor has a minimum wage law but that growers have no minimum price law. He added, "We fruit and vegetable producers don't want price support laws but would like to see some things done that would assure us of a fair return for our crops."

"One of the biggest problems we have," he continued, "is with foreign competition from low wage countries... the producers in those countries are exploiting our markets to the point where they are putting us out of business." He fears that when domestic producers are forced to cease farming, the foreign producers will then be in a position to dictate prices, "like OPEC."

The Florida farm leader called "inadequate" the present laws "which are supposed to provide relief from unfair foreign competition." He told the Senate committee the Secretary of Agriculture should be given authority to see that foreign imports do not adversely effect our own agricultural production so that it may remain viable."

Harlee is a grower and his group, the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, is an organization for unity of effort by producers, shippers, packers and processors of Florida Foods in their negotiations with various agencies.

Alcoholics Gains Support

An Avon Park woman worried for several years about her husband's excessive drinking and more frequently occurring episodes of drunkenness. Sometimes she had to shield the kids from his unpredictable angry outbursts after he had too many drinks on Friday or Saturday nights.

On one occasion he beat her pretty badly and she took the kids and spent a weekend with a relative before he apologized, promised to quit drinking and talked her into coming home again. But in a few weeks he was back to drinking and the pattern of arguments, threats, broken promises and mounting family tension was resumed.

It wasn't that he couldn't leave it alone because he often went for a week or two without drinking and the domestic situation would improve. Then he would stop off for a few rounds with a buddy on Friday afternoon, wind up drinking all evening and before he realized what was happening he was drunk and most of his paycheck had vanished.

When he got home his wife would be afraid and angry, tempers would flare and a big hassle would ensue, followed by a weekend of bad feelings and cold hostility. The wife was at wit's end and was seriously considering divorce, although she loved her husband and usually enjoyed being with him when he was sober. He would promise to "straighten up" but refused to get any help because, he maintained, he could do it by himself. But it didn't work.

Finally she was prompted to talk about her troubles with a friend who had had a similar experience a few years ago. She was advised to go to the Tri-County Clinic and seek help from a counselor there. She doubted that it would do any good because, Lord knows, she had tried almost everything to no avail, but she decided there was nothing to lose but pride and she didn't have much of that left.

The counselor listened closely as she unfolded her story, and seemed to understand the anguish she was feeling. She felt a little stronger and more determined that somehow she was going to see it through. She talked to the counselor several times and began to make some changes in the way she reacted to her husband, both drunk and sober.

The children went with her once and they gained some reassurance and began to see their daddy's behavior in a different way, too. Then she started attending Al-Anon meetings each week in Sebring and gained the support and insight of other women who had been down the same road that she had.

The decisive event happened two months later when her husband agreed to go with her for her weekly counseling session. He was skeptical and almost changed his mind, but he went and it turned out not to be as rough on him as he expected. They went together to the clinic and started sitting in on a weekly group meeting with other couples who were struggling with the same kinds of problems.

There weren't any easy solutions because alcohol abuse creates complicated situations, especially where families are involved, but they seemed to be making some headway. The important thing was that he was drinking less and less and the times they spent together there was less arguing and more happiness than they had known in quite a while.

Finally, he was able to give it up completely. Originally he had been resentful about the idea, but now he acknowledged that it was really worth it because he was finding rewards in his relationships with his wife and children that made his "sacrifice" worthwhile.

The story isn't ended because nothing in life is absolutely certain and we can't predict a "lived happily ever after" future for this family. However, because two people were willing to make some changes and learned to reach out to each other in new ways, they no longer lives in the shadows of fear and futility.

Graham To Have New Trial

Battered wife Evelyn Graham will have another day in court, according to an order entered March 27 by Judge Clifton M. Kelly.

In the new trial, which may begin in about 60 days, she will be facing a manslaughter charge in connection with the fatal shooting of her husband, Bobby Graham.

Mrs. Graham has not denied that she shot her 29-year-old husband, but she did claim that repeated beatings had driven her to the point of temporary insanity.

A grand jury had indicted her for first degree murder. When brought to trial here (Feb. 54) a new state law governing insanity plea was placed in operation. Under that law the jury first had to return a verdict on the charge, then, in a separate procedure decide the question of legal sanity.

Less than two days after the Highlands jury had found Mrs.

Graham guilty of manslaughter and sane, the Florida Supreme Court struck down the law.

At the new trial hearing on Monday, Judge Kelly said he would order new psychiatric examinations for Mrs. Graham. The Avon Park woman has been free on bond pending rulings on the first trial.

Assistant State Attorney Tom Gallagher, who handled the prosecution of Mrs. Graham, pointed out that under Florida law the charge at the new trial cannot be more serious than the crime for which the defendant was convicted at the first trial — in this case, manslaughter.

The maximum sentence for manslaughter is 15 years in prison. Although Mrs. Graham had been indicted for first degree murder, Gallagher, at the first trial, did not seek the death penalty.

Sewing Tips For The Modern Homemaker

By Dorothy

One thing I notice on garments is the position of the dart at the bust area. Whether a garment is ready-made or made by a seamstress, the bust darts are often "out of place." Not only is the purpose for the dart defeated, but the garment does not fit correctly and therefore it doesn't look good. Just for the fun of it, start noticing darts that are real high (above the bust), too low, or too long so that the fullness is not where it should be. This is very easily corrected as you will see, as you read on.

Potato - Fried Spanish Mackerel

Illustrated is a typical pattern piece for the front bodice (dress, blouse, T shirt, jacket, etc.) Note: we will be working with the side or underarm dart. Dotted line is seam line. Dart as indicated on pattern is solid line on underarm seam.

Step 1: On a straight line, measure yourself from center shoulder to high point of bust. On pattern, measure from seam line down the same distance and mark with a dot.

Step 2: On a straight line, measure yourself from side to high point of bust. On pattern, measure from side seam in and adjust dot sideways so that the dot is the meeting point of both measurements. This is the high point as it should be on your garment.

Step 3: On pattern piece, use dot as center and draw a circle around the dot. Use a radius of 1 1/2 inches for size 8, 10 and 12. Use a radius of 2 to 2 1/2 inches for sizes 14, 16, and 18. The circle on the pattern illustrates the circle you will make.

A friend and I experimented and found that the pattern dart didn't fit either of us and we would use the same size pattern.

Weaver Tells Lions Of Alaska Pipe Line

By L. R. Nickoley
Forty-two members and guests were present at the March 21 meeting of the Avon Park Lions Club.

After a short business meeting, Past District Governor, Mark Brown, introduced A. G. (Glenn) Weaver of Miami, Florida, as the speaker of the evening. Weaver is with Chevron Oil Co. and serves as Director of the Company's programs in public relations, government relations and community affairs for the Florida area.

Weaver gave a very interesting talk and showed some beautiful slides taken during the construction of the Alaska Pipe Line.

It is almost impossible to believe all the difficulties that were encountered in the construction of this major project from the North Slope and Prudhoe Bay over the mountains and their swamps to the sea port of Valdez 800 miles to the south, where the oil is loaded on tankers and transported to refineries in the lower 48 States. Workers were exposed to 70 degrees below zero temperatures during the short winter days above the Arctic Circle and to the long summer days when the sun shone almost 24 hours a day and the temperatures rose to 60 and 70 degrees above zero. The warm days hatched out swarms of mosquitoes and other insects that tormented the workers.

The engineers had their problems in construction to build the line and allow for the expansion and contraction during the change in temperatures. Pumping stations and heating devices had to be placed in strategic locations to keep the flow of oil moving during the cold weather and over the high elevations. Every one enjoyed the pictures and lecture. Weaver did a wonderful job of answering questions and explained things in great detail. Coming and lectures were also discussed. On Saturday, April 18th, the Lions will serve another of their famous barbecues from 11 a.m. until 7 p.m. Again there will be a choice of chicken or barbecued ribs. All Lions members have tickets for sale, so be ready when one of them asks you to purchase a ticket.

There will be a District Meeting at the Sebring Lions Club House on April 5 at 7 p.m. All members are urged to attend.

Election of officers for the coming year, which begins in July, will be held at the regular meeting on April 4. All Lions are urged to attend this important meeting.

Reservations may be made by phoning Peg Crowder (385-0053), Helen Runion (655-9936) or any of the other dinner arrangements group: Blanche Barkdoll, Ada Mayberry, Pauline Burns or Roberta Polstra.

The author of a proposal to make respect for the law part of the public schools' curricula will be guest speaker for a good government meeting Thursday night (March 30).

Judge Clifton M. Kelly will elaborate on the proposals which captured world press attention when made part of the footnote he wrote to the death sentence passed on 18-year-old Frank Ross.

By Barbara Ehmeyer
A big crowd attended a great steak dinner at Holiday Ranch Saturday night, Mar. 18. It was prepared by Bob Savage and his helpers and no one cared that it was Salisbury instead of T-bone or Porterhouse. It was a good addition to the foods brought in the guests.

On Tuesday, evening Russell and Kathryn Bolt of Avon Park and Bremen, Ind., showed interesting films of their 1967 trip to Europe to a full house. The Bolts are friends of Harold and Dot Manges.

Al and Mariam Petreys left Tuesday for a leisurely trip to their home in Ballston Spa, N. Y. They plan on spending about three weeks in Myrtle Beach and other places along the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd O'Neil entertained Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Erickson at dinner St. Patrick's Day. They are winter residents of Lakewood in Kissimmee.

The last concert of the current season of the Highlands County Community Concert Association will take place in the Sebring Middle School auditorium Saturday at 8 p.m. This will be a concert by a group of singers known as "Five on Stage."

During this season the Concert Association has had a membership of over 500 persons, the largest in the history of the organization. Including programs in Lake Wales (which are free to Highlands County members) members will have attended concerts by a guitarist, an instrumentalist, a jazz trio, a wind instrument quintet, a concert pianist, two pianists, a vocal ensemble and The Glenn Miller Orchestra.

"Five on Stage" will present complete scenes, with props and costumes, from the light operas, "Martha"; Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado"; the grand opera "Rigoletto"; and the Broadway musical "Kiss Me Kate," by Cole Porter.

Performers for "Five on Stage" include Beverly Myers, soprano; Ann Goodson, mezzo-soprano; Michael Handy, tenor; Peter Schroeder, baritone; and Robert Wallace accompanist.

The county membership campaign for 1978-79 will be open Monday and last through April 15. For the first three days, April 3-5, season memberships may be obtained during banking hours at any of the three banks of Sebring. During the campaign Dr. Raymond Peters (385-5630) and Mrs. Marty Albritton (385-7008) will be in charge of memberships for former and new members in Sebring. Mrs. Evelyn Metcalf (453-3975) will be in charge of memberships for Avon Park. The special telephone number for the campaign will be 352-1825.

Since this is the last concert of the season, new members may attend the concert free of charge by purchasing season tickets for the 1978-79 series at the door. Season tickets will be $12 for adults, $6 for students and $25 for a family, including all children.

All workers for the coming membership campaign are requested to meet on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Palma Apartments, 342 Polinetta Ave.

SUMMER BRINGS US CLOSER TO GOD'S CREATION

The sun has reached the zenith in the sky. And casts no noonday shadow from up high; But warms with gentle breezes through the air A world of life that's teeming everywhere. The grass and trees attain their deepest green, While lazy streams reflect the summer scene: A season meant for living out of doors; And time to take a holiday from chores, But never from your faith; for on vacation, You'll learn first hand the beauty of Creation. So, in the Church to which your faith has bound you, Give thanks to God, who made this world around you.

A happy soul, that all the way
To heaven hath a summer's day.
—Richard Crashaw

Program Available To Vets

Although the new year past, the Veterans Administration (VA) is turning back the clock for veterans who failed to begin or complete their education under the GI Bill because of health problems.

According to St. Petersburg VA Regional Office Director, William R. Blackwell, a new re-enrollment program is available for veterans, spouses or sur-

Blackwell cautioned potential applicants they must provide medical evidence that mental illness or physical disability was responsible for their being unable to begin or complete schooling before the expiration of their GI Bill eligibility.

Under the law, veterans have ten years from the date of their discharge from active duty to complete GI

Bill training. Spouses or surviving spouses have ten years from the date of their initial eligibility to complete training under the bill.

Until passage of the new law, PL 95-202, those who had not used all their GI Bill education benefits by the end of that ten-year period lost it forever.

"The new Public Law 95-202," Blackwell said, "gives us a welcome opportunity to help veterans who had their education delayed or interrupted because of circumstances beyond their control."

Any extension approved will be for the length of time VA determines that the veteran or spouse was prevented from beginning or completing the education program.

Blackwell said VA doesn't know the number of potential eligibles, but he urged individuals who believe they qualify for the new program to avoid possible disappointment by making certain they have the necessary medical evidence in connection with their application.

Further information on the program may be obtained at any local VA office, or by calling the regional office. The toll free number from Avon Park to the St. Petersburg Regional Office is 1-800-282-8821.

County Has Busy Weekend

Easter is a season symbolized by colored eggs, but it seems unlikely the Easter bunny was the culprit in a case of vandalism at one area residence.

Eggs were thrown on the side of the house of Alex Nicholson of Lake Placid. He told Highlands County sheriff's deputies that three eggs were tossed against the side of his house. The incident remains under investigation.

While deputies report no serious incidents during the holiday weekend, they were kept busy investigating various domestic disputes, vandalism and altercations.

One man told deputies that his step-son, who resides with him, came to the house and without provocation hit him with a chair. Deputies talked with the step-son who told them his step-father had struck him first with a concrete block and said he hit his step-father with the chair in self defense.

One man was reportedly treated at Highlands County Hospital for a wound he received at Club 98 following a dispute over a pool game.

Deputies said the man was apparently hit with a car stick when a second man got tired of telling him when it was time to shoot.

Charles Dunning was charged with aggravated assault following an incident at the Beach Front Bar in Avon Park. Dunning allegedly pulled a gun on his former wife, Annette Dunning of Avon Park.

Deputies are also investigating an incident involving two men who had a dispute over an air compressor that one man apparently loaned to the second.

Deputies said the air compressor owner came to reclaim the machine, but the second man said he would return it only when the first repaid him some money. The compressor loan-maker returned with a pistol and an axe.

One shot was fired and the bullet struck about five feet from the compressor borrower's foot, deputies reported. A dump truck was struck with the axe.

Vandals using marbles damaged windows at a Shop 'n Go Store at Highlands Ave. and Commerce. Deputies are continuing their investigation of the incident.

One Lake Sebring resident told deputies that her neighbor's dog attacked and bit her dog. She said the neighbor's dog roams the neighborhood and she was afraid the dog might bite someone.

Deputies discussed the matter with the dog's owners and they said they would keep the dog in their own backyard.

Theft of a pump from a construction site on U.S. 27 south of Sebring is under investigation. Deputies said the pump, which was valued at $220, was taken from a wooden trailer. A lock was prised from a door on the trailer to gain entry.

A generator was taken from the rear of the Harold Carlisle residence on Route 5, Lake Placid. Value of the loss is estimated at $320.

Out-Patient Services Offered By Tri-County

There is a clinic in Avon Park where a person with a drinking problem, or someone who is close to a person with a drinking problem, can go to get help. This is the Tri-County Alcoholism Rehabilitative Services, Inc., at 1033 West Pine St., one block south of the traffic light on U.S. 27. The clinic offers out-patient services for a wide range of alcohol-related problems and anyone living in Highlands or Hardee Counties is eligible for their services.

In cases where excessive drinking has interfered with a person's health, family or job, or has resulted in law violations, the clinic's treatment goal is to assist the person in returning to a healthy and productive life. The person may choose to give up drinking entirely or to attempt to regain control and achieve moderate consumption.

The clinic doesn't take a position for or against drinking but does strive to help relieve alcohol abuse. Persons who have shown an alcoholic drinking pattern are advised to abstain from drinking.

The treatment methods most often used are personal counseling, marriage or family counseling, antiabuse therapy, group therapy and alcohol education classes. Referrals can be made to the Tri-County Primary Receiving Center in Bartow for in-patient detoxification, to the Florida Alcoholism Treatment Center in Avon for intensive residential therapy and to other appropriate agencies or treatment programs. The clinic cooperates with Alcoholics Anonymous, Al-Anon and Alateen and other encourages clients to attend local meetings of these organizations.

The clinical staff consists of Patricia Funnell, director and ACSW social worker, coun-sors Lois Robertson, B. S., Charles Dils, M.A., and Dennis Pella, B.S. and part-time nurses Alice Kinsey RN, Ruby Taylor LPN, Nancy Waters, RN. Clerical staff is Melanie Ramer and Belinda Ezzell.

The Tri-County program serves Polk as well as Highlands and Hardee Counties. Headquarters are in Winter. Head and the executive director is Lois Dutton, MPH. It is a non-profit agency that receives state and county funding to supplement fees charged for services.

About half of the cases at the clinic are referred through the local courts as a result of violations that were committed while the offender was under the influence of alcohol. In some instances, persons who are placed on probation or parole are required to participate in the treatment program in order to reduce the possibility of making the same mistake again. This program has proved successful in helping to cut down on the recidivism rate for alcohol-related offenses.

The Alcohol Education Course is the newest addition to the list of services provided by the clinic. It is oriented towards people who are in the early stages of alcohol abuse, many of whom are teenagers and the goal is to help them to understand alcohol as a drug as well as to develop alternatives to drinking in various life situations. The course is open to anyone who wants to learn more about the effects of alcohol and the "mystique" of drinking.

According to the counselors at the Clinic, most people delay taking action concerning alcohol abuse, whether their own or that of a family member, because of embarrassment and confusion. They stressed that, contrary to popular belief, it is not necessary to wait for the person with the drinking problem to agree to get help. There are a number of things that family members can do to relieve the strain on themselves and to encourage the problem drinker to accept treatment.

Members of the clinic staff are available to speak to civic groups and other organizations concerning any aspect of alcoholism or alcohol abuse.

Officer Crabtree Speaks To Rotarians Wednesday

The Rotary program for Wednesday, March 22 was presented by the Avon Park Police Department. Officer Jim Crabtree started the program called "Senior Power" by saying "That old age can either be a long awaited time of relaxation, a pursuing hobbies, visiting friends or travel. Or it can be a time of anxiety, money worries, and health problems."

One of the biggest threats that retired persons have is (Crime). It is a very disheartening to hear of a lady 80 years old, swindled out of her life's savings by the bank examiners fraud. Old people are not able to fight back, when they become victims of violent crime either.

The film entitled "Senior Power" was shown to the Rotary Club members. This entertaining and instructive film showed how older people can be more secure and what to do when they become victims of crime. The film is available for showing through the Avon Park Police Department.

Proceeds of the fashion show will go toward the ninth anniversary party of Pastor Elder T.J. Brown. Fashions will be provided by J. C. Penney's and the models are Wanda Wilson, Betty Wilson, Gloria Williams, Denise Blackman, Susie Ishmael, Gwendlyn Hicks, Sharon Hicks, Tisa Golden, Kathrina Conner, Anetta and Anita Hicks, Michael Smith, Derrick McRay and Eugene Cox.

Door prizes were donated by Metcalfe Hardware, Sue's Gift Shop and Turner Furniture and refreshments will be provided.

W.M.U. To Meet

Minister Of The Year

accomplished as a minister I first of all owe a deep debt of gratitude to God who called me into the ministry with a call that has given me assurance and purpose during the good times as well as the not-so-good times. I am also truly indebted to the members of First Baptist Church for the support, cooperation and love of a wonderful church family as well as to my own family, especially my wife, Ann, for her encouragement and help at all times.

Council At Odds

Members of the Avon Park City Council, meeting in regular session last Monday evening, became embroiled in extremely heated debate on at least two rather hotly contested issues.

The first "derailment" arose when two different proposed ordinances dealing with the continued employment of various department heads were presented for discussion.

The bulk of opposition to the proposed ordinance, as expressed by Vice President of the Council, David Barefield, stemmed from the wording in a number of sections, and particularly Section Two which stated that city department heads have no right to re-employment at the end of their two-year term.

Barefield said it was his opinion that as long as department heads were doing their job properly, each should automatically be rehired, unless sufficient cause could be shown for his or her dismissal.

He added that it was further his opinion that this particular proposed ordinance was actually repealing Section 10 of the City Charter and that it was destroying portions of Section 12. "And, as I understand it," Barefield said, "where there's a conflict between an ordinance and the charter, the charter rules."

"Not necessarily," replied City Attorney, Jack Hancock, adding, "Under home rule, the ordinance covers the same authority as the city charter."

Continuing their increasingly heated debate, Barefield noted that should this particular proposed ordinance be adopted, department heads should be placed under some type of signed contract. He added, "My main opposition to it, first of all, is why you even want such an ordinance."

1950-56 - Ninth Street Baptist, Erwin, Tenn., Pastor.
1956 - present First Baptist Church, Avon Park, Pastor.

Aden D. Childress has demonstrated his civic concerns as a Charter member and past president of the Avon Park Kiwanis Club, Member of the Avon Park B.I. Racial Committee from 1967 to present, Member of Walker Memorial Hospital Advisory Board and Leader in the Avon Park Ministerial Association.

The Rev. Childress and his wife, Ann, are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. Carol Ann Wilkinson and Mrs. Sharon Sue Strickler (Stetson, 71 B.A., cum laude). Carol Ann, who serves as church organist for the First Baptist Church of Bradenton, and her deacon husband, Daniel have a daughter, Jenny, 1 1/2 years old. Sharon Sue, who serves on the secretarial staff of the First Baptist Church of Avon Park, and her deacon husband, Joe, have a son, Craig, 2 1/2 years old.

Aden D. Childress has proven himself a dedicated minister as evidenced by the love and high esteem afforded him by the First Baptist Church, the citizens of Avon Park, and his fellow ministers.

A colleague wrote of him as a man with "a persuasive ministry, expecting the best of his people, rather than a demanding leadership—above average health, having never missed a pulpit appointment for illness during his ministry in Avon Park and having completed 22 years of perfect Sunday School Attendance in October 1977." His day by day example of Christian love has been above reproach and most exemplary.

A request from Highlands County Shrine Club to clear a drainage ditch between club property and the county fish hatchery site was turned down.

Skipper said he couldn't figure out why anyone would want to worry about a ditch in the middle of a swamp. The board voted 4 to 1 against clearing the ditch. Commissioner Carl Arant voted in favor of the request.

On another reason for some of his opposition, Barefield added, "This particular ordinance, I feel, is getting into our charter. And I hate for us to start tearing our charter completely apart."

"Essentially, what the council is trying to do is to put more politics into our local government," Barefield said, adding, "The other members of the council are in effect saying that the jobs of every department head in the city is in jeopardy every two years unless those department heads play up to the council."

Barefield continued, "I can't imagine anyone wanting to fire anyone without charges. I've told the council several times and others have pointed it out too, that if someone is doing something wrong, we have all the laws we need to get rid of the people. We're saying covered, and we can fire them if we have a charge against them for something they've done wrong, something that can be substantiated."

Barefield concluded, "And, this is what I don't want. I don't feel those people can do their jobs effectively if they have to work under those conditions."

As it now stands, a number of minor word changes were made in the proposed ordinance and Attorney Hancock stated he would have the entire ordinance rewritten so as to reflect those minor changes.

The battle however, for passage and ultimate adoption of the proposed ordinance dealing with the continued employment or dismissal of various department heads in the City of Avon Park appears to "have only just begun."

Razor-wielding Student Suspended

Problems children have at home often erupt into disturbances in school agreed Margaret Turnbull and Steve Roberts.

Highland and County School Board members; Dr. Ferrell Smith, Highlands County School Board Administrator and William Boseman, Avon Park Middle School assistant principal, as they discussed the suspension of 10 students before the Easter school break.

Thursday March 14, six students were suspended for causing trouble. Five for disturbances during a student girls and faculty women's basketball game and one for making trouble after school was dismissed. The last student was taken to the police station, finally taken to his home.

Two of the five students were suspended for three days, two for five days and one for ten days. The chap who was taken to the police station also received a ten day suspension. All six have had previous suspensions from school, added Boseman.

On Friday, March 15, a razor wielding student was suspended for ten days and the student starting the fight was given a three day suspension. Of the two other students who were involved, one was suspended one day and the other, three days.

In discussing the suspensions, Boseman reported that the school can only suspend students while the county school board was empowered to expel students from school if necessary.

To school officials isolating the trouble makers during a disturbance is of the first importance. The suspension of students takes the people causing the trouble out of the situation, at the same time it gives the other students time to understand that the trouble makers are not something they should have to worry about day after day.

Suspension of trouble makers is not always the answer the four agreed, because many times there is no one at home and the suspended student has to shift for himself, often coming back to the school during the day.

The problems at the school were described as the incident type which are handled immediately with a written report sent to the county school board office.

In the inflammatory situation, Boseman said the county superintendent's office would be called along with the other city schools to keep the problem from bleeding over to these schools and prevent their students from coming to the middle school.

Smith stated that in this type situation there are other resources that can be called upon, as a backup system, to help cool the situation, such as the police or exterminers the National Guard, as he emphasized that it was important to isolate the troublemakers.

The problem is not one of space they stated, but one of people to supervise 150 to 200 students at one time on the playground. While there is no recess period each student has a 45 minute physical education class and a half hour elective outdoor class each day.

We would like to have 20 acres for a school site, Smith added, while the state has specified 40 acres as minimum for a high school site.

The group agreed that school is the place where all of the problems come together, that many students are selling drugs, they bring problems of home to the school—The late watching of TV being one, they arrive at school tired and some come grumpy as they had the responsibility of sometimes, they bring their family's feuds to school.

In discussing the problems of large city schools Roberts said, he could foresee the day there would probably be armed guards in the Avon Park schools if society and parents continued their permissiveness in allowing children to take advantage of the situation.

The court system was also cited as adding to the problems as being too lenient in disciplinary matters. Too much watching of TV and not enough reading by children was also added.

Turnbull stated that too often a negative approach was taken to the problems of children. While all agreed that the middle school age students have special problems of their own in making the sometimes difficult change from childhood to adulthood.

Smith pointed out that the code of rights adopted by the county school board also stressed the responsibilities of the student and each student received a copy of it. This code gives the due process by legal mandates to protect the rights and civil rights of the student.

To Boseman the pre-Easter disturbances had a bright spot. Disturbances or problems at the school always brought a larger attendance of parents at the Lay Advisory meetings and he was looking for a large attendance at the next meeting, at 7 p.m. Monday, April 10 at the Avon Park High School.

Death Ruled Natural

Cause of death of a long-time resident of Avon Park has been ruled as natural.

46-year-old Janie Ruth Carroll of 1310 So. Glenwood reportedly passed away Feb. 24, with interment following on Feb. 27 in the Bougainville Cemetery.

According to the autopsy report which was completed by Dr. Luther A. Youngs, III, of the District Ten Medical Examiner's Office in Lakeland, the Carroll woman's death has been determined conclusively to have been the result of natural causes.

In part, the autopsy report stated, "Examination of the blood for alcohol was negative. Examination of the urine for drugs revealed multiple drugs and drug metabolites, including Valium and Codeine. The patient had been under treatment with numerous medications including Valium and Empirin No. 3 (Empirin with Codeine), which would account for the drugs present in the urine. The drugs did not appear to be present in high enough concentrations to account for death."

In conclusion, the Autopsy added, "The presence of Cardiosclerosis with coronary atherosclerosis and the presence of generalized visceral congestion suggests that this patient died as a result of cardiac failure. The manner of death was natural."

Whether normal or otherwise, an autopsy is considered routine in case of death. In the Carroll woman's death however, results of an autopsy were of primary concern since the reason for her demise had been listed on the death certificate by the attending physician as "Unknown."

Cancer Second In Deaths

Next to accidents cancer is the biggest cause of deaths among children under 16. Though the prevalence of cancer among children is very small compared with adults it remains a serious medical problem for families that are affected.

Considerable progress has been made in the treatment of childhood cancer. The death rate from acute leukemia, kidney, bone, brain and lymph cancers, as well as Hodgkins among children has declined steadily in the last 20 years.

Perhaps the most dramatic example of what can be accomplished by cancer research is in the attack against acute leukemia among children. This is the most widespread type of cancer affecting youngsters. Some 15 years ago the average survival time for children with leukemia was about three months. Today, 50 percent of all children treated with modern combination chemotherapy are alive and well five years after such treatment.

Law Men Pay Respects To Officer's Family

The flower bedecked Church of Christ in Avon Park was jammed to the overflowing last Friday afternoon as representatives from law enforcement agencies all across the central part of the state came to pay final homage to the three members of the Donnie Singletary family who lost their lives in a tragic accident March 21.

Highway Patrol officers, Policemen and Deputy Sheriffs from as far away as Dade County to the south and Lakeland and Winter Haven to the north gathered in solemn respect at the funeral services conducted for Mrs. Nancy K. Singletary, 24; Matthew Donald Singletary, 2 years of age; and young Jennifer Singletary, age 3 months.

According to Avon Park Police Chief, Robert Brooks, law enforcement personnel attending the services included his entire department, in addition of officers from Sebring, Lake Placid, Wauchula, Bartow, Arcadia, Highlands Patrol, and auxiliary members of many of the agencies already mentioned.

Attendance at the solemn services was variously estimated to be between 500 and 750. It was believed that another 150 to 200 mourners had to be turned away from the tiny church because of insufficient seating space. Those turned away were said to have proceeded to the cemetery where they waited for the funeral procession to arrive.

Graveside services were brief at the Lakeview Memorial Gardens cemetery where interment followed under direction of the Stephenson - Nelson - Smith Funeral Home.

A number of police officers from Sebring led by their Chief, Craig Graybill arrived in Avon Park well ahead of the scheduled 2 p.m., funeral services and in extremely close cooperation with numerous individual officers of the Highway Patrol and Highlands County Sheriff's Office, assumed complete charge of all police activities in the city, ensuring that every member of this city's Department could be in attendance at the service.

Commenting on the exemplary performances by surrounding community law enforcement agencies, Chief Brooks stated, "The magnificent cooperation that has been extended this department by individual members of all the other nearby communities has been unexcelled." "When you consider that every single one of them volunteered their time and services," Brooks added, "You just can't help being at a loss for words in trying to describe your emotional feelings."

Frank White
Mae Phillips admits that she had another birthday. Along with husband Carl, several friends and neighbors they decided to go all the way to Lakeland to celebrate it.

Martha and Ray Long, Hannah and Marvin Tebo, Grace and Horton Rowsome, Harriet and Reavoe Wandover with Mildred Handsley and Golda Dain all made the trip, to eat at the Sea Wolf Restaurant, of course. Mildred and Golda are now beyond the territorial waters of the U. S. A. on that Caribbean cruise mentioned earlier.

Men's shuffling on Mar. 17 again produced a team of three game winners. Bill Mott and Paul Stone won three games.

Women's shuffling for the first time in three weeks did not get rained out. It was a very nice day, they had a very good turnout and was enjoyed by all. Claire Hoss and Clara Davis were the team that won three games. The chairman (Mrs. Davis) is pleased that women's shuffling seems to have recovered. The above was held March 23. Bingo holds up pretty well. On March 24 there were 20 present, and Leo Briester won the coverall.

George and Clara Davis had some afternoon guests from Maine on Sunday, Mar. 19, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shuman of Wilton, Me. and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Green of Kennebunk, Me. Scott Morrison, grandson of Ben and Frank White, is a student at Bowling Green University in Ohio. During spring recess, along with two friends from Ohio State University, he drove to Siesta Key, Sarasota. The three are staying there with the parents of his friends, mostly just getting burned on the beach. However, he was able to break way from one day and drove to Avon Park for a one-day visit with his grandparents. During the same week, his sister and parents were in Cancun, which is an island off the coast of Yucatan, Mexico. They went there to get burned on the beach and visit Mayan ruins.

This may be the last column by this reporter, as the neighbors in Pennsylvania have never volunteered to cut the front yard grass. There are also, of course, a few other reasons why I may return home pretty soon.

Marvin and Hannah Tebo took out the Winnebago Tuesday, Mar. 21, to attend a rally or jamboree for motor home owners. (Not home yet, Sunday) I believe this one was held in Eustis.

Jackson's Devils Win Eight Straight

LETTING A BALL go by is Red Devil batter Don Wildish during the game between Avon Park and Lake Wales played here at Head Field last Monday night. Don singled later and scored in the sixth inning when the Devils came from behind to take an 8-4 victory from the Highlanders. Sunphoto by Lew Miller.

Coach Ronnie Jackson's Red Devil baseball varsity made it eight straight victories to remain undefeated by slipping by Bartow 4-3 in an eight inning game on Tuesday, March 21, stunning Palmetto by a 12-2 score last Friday night and then coming from behind to take an 8-4 win from Lake Wales here last Monday night.

The amazing Devil nine was scheduled to travel to Fort Meade last Tuesday night for a conference and district title with the Minor squad. Tomorrow (Friday), the Avon Park varsity will take on the Bradmans down in Okeechobee at 7:30 p.m. on their newly lighted field.

Next Tuesday night, April 4, Coach Jackson's team will return home for a return game with the Palmetto Tigers here at Head Field starting at 7:30 p.m.

Avon Park - 5, Lake Wales - 4
Last Monday night the Avon Park Red Devil baseball varsity gave Lake Wales a four run lead before coming to life in the bottom of the sixth inning to score seven runs and go on to take an 8-4 win.

Trailing 4-2 with two outs and the bases loaded in the last of the sixth inning, sophomore first baseman David Sisemore came to the plate and slashed the ball sending Sisemore home free. A third run scored because of Sisemore's double to left field.

Before the final out was made in the sixth, Victor Roberts drew a walk and pitcher Larry Jackson drove home with a booming triple to center field. Jeff Williams came on to pinch run for Jackson and scored when Charles Oliver singled for the second time in the same inning.

Except for the disastrous sixth inning, Lake Wales pitcher Billy Ball hurled a great game against the Red Devils. Ball struck out 13 Devil batters during six innings of hurling. He held the Avon Park team to only one hit, a single in the fifth by David Sisemore that took a bad hop over the head of the shortstop, during the first five innings of play. However, the junior right hander did walk eight batters.

Larry Jackson used his fastball very effectively to limit the Highlanders to four hits. However, two of the hits were costly as Mike Morrow drilled a triple to deep center field and scored in the first, Robert Jones doubled in the third, Anton Williams lined a homerun over the second field wall to drive in himself and two other runs in the fifth, and Tony Futch singled in the sixth.

Jackson struck out 10 Lake Wales batters and issued only three walks as he went the distance on the mound picking up his third win of the season. The senior right hander was just wild enough to keep the Highlander batters off balance. Avon Park ended up with six hits off Ball. David Sisemore had a double and a single, Charles Oliver had two singles, Larry Jackson had a triple, and Don Wildish singled to right field in the sixth frame.

Avon Park - 4, Bartow - 3
In an eight inning thriller last Tuesday night a week ago, the Avon Park Red Devil baseball team eased past Bartow 4-3 to remain undefeated in six games. A single up the middle by right fielder Charles Oliver drove in pinch runner Jeff Williams with the game winning run in the bottom of the eighth inning.

The game was another tight defensive battle for Avon Park. Starting hurler Jimmy Massey held the Yellowjackets scoreless and hitless the first two innings but allowed two runs on a double and a single in third frame. Massey then hurled two more innings of perfect ball retiring six batters in a row. But in the top of the sixth, Bartow tied the game up at 3-3 on a single, a sacrifice, and the only Avon Park error of the game.

Don Wildish came on in relief with one on in the seventh and put the next six batters down in order to give Avon Park its chance to win the game in the bottom of the eighth.

The Red Devils scored first in the game putting one run across in the first inning without a hit. Charlie Pough led off with a walk, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and scored on Victor Roberts' long sacrifice fly to the outfield.

In the bottom of the third, Don Wildish singled and scored later on a sacrifice fly by designated hitter Bubba Stirling. In the fifth inning Avon Park went ahead 3-2 when Stirling singled and later scored on a passed ball.

The winning run was set up when first sacker Larry Jackson led off the eighth inning with a walk. Jeff Williams came in as a pinch runner. Then Tim Cribb drew a walk. Senior right fielder Charles Oliver finished the game with his liner up the middle to drive Williams across the plate with the game winning run for Avon Park.

Avon Park got only five hits off losing pitcher Will Renfro. Larry Jackson had a slashing double down the first base line in the fourth inning. Don Wildish singled in the third and Charlie Pough followed right behind him with a single to right field. Stirling singled in the fifth and Charles Oliver's game winning single in the eighth closed out the hitting for Avon Park.

Avon Park - 12, Palmetto - 2
Against last Friday night in Palmetto it was a tight defense and good hitting that led the Avon Park High School Red Devil varsity baseball team to a 12-2 victory over the tough Palmetto nine.

Junior right hander Don Wildish held the Tigers to four singles and a double in the seven inning game as he went the distance for Avon Park on the mound. After a shaky start, Wildish settled down and held the home team scoreless after the first inning. Using a walk and three singles, Palmetto scored two runs in the first frame but that was all the Tigers could manage.

Everything went right for the Red Devils who were coached by Assistant Coach John Hunter in the absence of Coach Ronnie Jackson. The fired up Devils scored four runs in the top of the first inning on a double by second baseman Bubba Stirling and a double by right fielder Charles Oliver.

In the second inning the Avon Park batters pushed over three more runs as left fielder David Sisemore singled and the Devils took advantage of two walks and a Palmetto error.

In the third inning shortstop Charlie Pough singled but the Devils couldn't score. Larry Jackson and Charles Oliver both batted off singles in the fourth, but again Avon Park couldn't push a run across. Edward Irvin and Charlie Pough both slashed out a single in the fifth but once more the Devils were held scoreless.

In the sixth frame, however, Sisemore led off with a single and catcher Victor Roberts batted a homerun out of the park to drive in two more runs. The final three Avon Park runs came in the top of the seventh. Third sacker Tim Cribb led off with a single, Bubba Stirling and Sisemore drew walks, and Victor Roberts sent them all home with a single.

In all the Avon Park batters picked up 13 hits off two different Palmetto pitchers and stole nine bases as the Devils ran around the diamond with abandon all evening.

Wildish struck out eight Palmetto batters as he posted his third mound win of the season. The junior right hander walked only three batters during his seven innings of hurling.

Avon Park Jayvees Split With Santa Fe Hawks

The Red Devil junior varsity baseball team split a double-header with Santa Fe of Lakeland and at Head Field last Wednesday afternoon winning the first game 21-2 in four and a half innings and then dropping the second game by a score of 11-5 in seven innings. The split gave the Devil "Bees" a 4-2 record going into last Tuesday afternoon's game with Sebring here at Head Field.

Tonight (Thursday) the Avon Park Jayvees will travel to Lake Wales for a return game with the junior Highlanders at 7:30 p.m. The Devils took an 8-3 win from Lake Wales in an earlier game played here. Next Monday, April 3, the Avon Park junior varsity will play in Lake Placid at 4 p.m., and next Tuesday afternoon they will go to Frostproof for a return game with the junior Bulldogs.

Avon Park - 21, Santa Fe - 2
In the first game of the Wednesday afternoon double - the first last week, Coach Hoppy Rewis' Red Devil junior varsity nine jumped off to an early lead and then added 19 big runs in the bottom of the fourth inning to rack up a 21-2 victory.

The Devils rapped out 14 hits off two Crismon Hawk pitchers but they were all singles except Ricky Johnson's triple to the right-center field wall in the fourth, and Dwayne Council's double to center in the third.

Mark Steedley, Dennis Barefield, Tim Salter, and Johnny Barnes all had two singles each in the four innings at bat for Avon Park. Also Ricky Derkman, Chris Collins, Alvin Conner, and David Hardy connected for a single apiece.

Gerald Jones pitched four innings for Avon Park before being relieved by Tim Salter in the fifth. Jones gave up two singles in the third but a double by Conner to Council to Salter erased that threat. The Hawks got a double off Salter that drove in two runs put on base by Jones in the fifth frame. Again it was a double play that retired the side and gave the Devils the game that was shortened by the ten-run lead rule after five innings. This time Ricky Johnson, second sacker, fielded the ball, stepped on second, and fired to Jones at first for the double play.

Santa Fe - 11, Avon Park - 5
Things were a little different in the second game as the Hawks went with their starters who had watched the first game and surprised the Red Devils with a hitting spree that resulted in an 11-5 Santa Fe victory.

The Santa Fe batters slashed out 11 hits off three different Avon Park pitchers. Johnny Barnes started and lasted one and a third innings giving up four hits and seven runs. Then David Hardy came on and held things in check until the bottom of the sixth inning when the Hawks broke loose again and batted out six hits to score four more runs and put the game out of reach. Alvin Conner relieved Hardy in the sixth for the final out.

The Avon Park offense sputtered. The Devils scored two runs in the second on a double by Barnes and a single by Dwayne Council. Then they pushed over two more runs in the third when Dennis Barefield doubled, Tim Salter walked, and Alvin Conner lined one past the shortstop. The Devils' fifth run came in the fourth. Mark Steedley singled, Ricky Derkman was hit by a pitched ball, and Dennis Barefield singled to right field to drive in Steedley.

The Red Devil batters got eight hits including two doubles by Barefield and one by Barnes. Barefield also had a single as did Steedley and Dwayne Council. Alvin Conner connected for two singles. Barefield went five for seven at the plate in the two games with two doubles to his credit.

Lake Placid Netters Hand Devils 2nd Loss

The Green Dragons of Lake Placid High School did it again here Monday, beating the Avon Park High School boy's tennis team for the second time this year, 5-2. The loss dropped the Red Devil netters to a seven win, two loss record.

Lake Placid is undefeated to date, sporting a current 6-0 record and are favorites to take the Heartland Title in the conference meet slated for April 7 and 8 at Harder Hall in Sebring. Mike Behal and Eddy Garner scored the two points for Avon Park winning their singles matches. Behal beat Lake Placid's Ronnie Wilson 4-6, 6-3, 5-3, while Garner won over the Dragon's Rick Thierault in straight sets 6-3, 6-2.

Played Well Says Coach
"Our Boys played well and most of the matches were close," Avon Park coach Bruce Wynn said after the loss, "but Lake Placid is plenty tough. I'm hoping we will show enough improvement to really give them a battle for the loop title next month."

In other singles matches, Joel Wright, the Devil's No. 1 player lost to Jimmy Mielke, 7-6, 6-2. David Epstein bowed to Lake Placid's Charles Carr 6-3, 6-4 and Tom Fleming dropped his match to the Dragon's Steve Carr 6-3, 7-6.

Mielke and Wilson (LP) teamed up to beat Wright and Garner (AP) 7-6, 7-5, in the No. 1 doubles match, while R. Pollock and Steve Carr (LP) took the second doubles match 6-7, 6-4 from Epstein and Behal (AP).

Today (Thursday) the Avon Park team plays Arcadia's DeSoto High school here and tomorrow they tangle with the Sebring Blue Streaks on the Harder Hall courts. The Red Devils beat both Arcadia and Sebring in earlier matches.

SLIDING BACK SAFE at third base, this Lake Wales base runner just missed the tag by Devil third sacker Tim Cribb during a game played here at Head Field

Girl Netters Take Placid

The Avon Park High School girls tennis team notched their fourth win of the season Monday, beating the Lake Placid High School girls netters 5-2 on the Placid Lakes courts.

"We almost got lost in the dark, however," Coach Jeanette Cox said after the matches. "The lights on the country club courts there operated on coin meters and somebody forgot to bring enough quarters."

Deloris Cox, Maureen Murphy and Debra Cox picked up points for the Devillette team winning their singles matches. Avon Park also collected points in both the doubles matches with Deloris Cox and Maureen Murphy winning the No. 1 doubles while Debra Cox and Rhonda Landress teamed up to win the second doubles match.

Play DeSoto Today
The local girl netters will be out for revenge in their next two matches. They play a return match with DeSoto High School of Arcadia here today (Thursday) and tomorrow, they meet the Sebring High team at Harder Hall in Sebring. The Arcadia team beat Avon Park 6-1 early in March while the Blue Streak girls defeated the local high netters 7-0 in the season's opener in February.

Avon Park record is currently at four wins, five losses, with four matches remaining on the regular schedule.

Complete results of Monday's matches show Deloris Cox (AP) defeating Rita Cameron (LP) 8-1, Maureen Murphy (AP) besting Karen Seligson (LP) 8-4 and Debra Cox (AP) topping Cindy Loter (LP) 8-3. Rhonda Landress (AP) lost to Connie Fentress (LP) 6-8 and Tammy Ostling (AP) bowed to Leslie Stecher (LP) 6-4.

In doubles matches Deloris Cox and Murphy (AP) defeated Seligson and Loter (LP) 8-4, while Debra Cox and Landress (AP) beat Sylvia Proctor and Andrea Murtha (LP) 6-2.

Rufus Wilson Gets B-CC Full Football Scholarship

By Les Burch
Rufus Wilson, star fullback on the Avon Park High School 1977 football team, has signed a full four-year football scholarship at Bethune Cookman College in Daytona Beach.

The 190 pound, 5'10" fullback signed officially with Andy Hinson, head football coach at B-CC on March 15 and will enroll at the private east coast school next fall. "I'm really looking forward to playing for Coach Hinson," Wilson said, "and besides, I'll have a lot of help from former Avon Park players now at Daytona." Hickey Clait and Alcus Snell, excited Devil stars, will both be back playing football for the Wildcats next fall. Nathaniel Packer, another former Avon Park High star, graduates this spring.

"I had offers from other schools," Wilson added, "but I wanted to stay in Florida and Bethune Cookman looks good to me."

Namath's Prep Athlete All American

Last Fall, the senior fullback led the Avon Park team scoring 13 touchdowns for a total of 78 points. He gained a total of 1837 yards, with over 1300 of those yards being on the ground. Wilson has been clocked at 4.6 seconds for 40 yards in football logs, but says he wants to get that down to 4.5.

Commenting on Wilson's scholarship, Avon Park High School coach John Hunter said, "Rufus is one of the hardest working players I have ever coached, and if desire will do it, he should do okay in college. Bethune Cookman plays in the rugged Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, so Rufus will have plenty of competition."

In addition to playing football, Wilson is currently on Coach Brojek's Red Devil track team, throwing the shot put and running on the 440 yard relay team.

Bethune Cookman was started as a Normal and Industrial Training school for Negro girls in 1904. However, now it is a coeducational four-year arts college with a student body of almost 1700.

River Greens Golf Notes

The first round of play to determine the 1978 Men's and Women's Champions at River Greens Golf Club gets underway Saturday, April 1. The final round of the 36 hole tournament, open to all men and women who are members of the club, will be held on Sunday, April 2.

Golfers entering the annual event will be placed in flights dependent on established handicaps with prizes being awarded in all flights. The low gross score in both the men's and women's sections, regardless of flights, determines the 1978 Champions, however.

Karl Swanson is the defending champion in the men's division, while Bernice Sheppard will be trying to repeat her last year's win in the women's group.

An awards dinner for players and their guests will be held on Sunday following the completion of the tournament.

Ross Hendrick and Ken Ourant combined for a net total score of 128 to win the Blind Partner's tourney held at River Greens last Saturday. Mac Hostutler and M. Divine finished in second place with a total of 133.

Monday, March 20, was Pro-Am day for the Ladies at River Greens with the foursome of Winnie Yarbrough, Louise England, Eleanor Sharpe, and Marion Rouillier shooting a plus 12½ points total to win first place.

Two ladies teams tied for second. Bea Hansel, Betty Vedder, Kathrine Bolt and Naomi Davis came in with a plus 10½ score to tie Connie Clifford, Marge Hostutler, Isabel Wells and Alda Willette.

Chip Acker, Olen Roahrig, Ernie Hansel and Hal Dufar fired a combined score of 7½ plus points on Wednesday, March 23, to cop the men's weekly Pro-Am tournament at River Greens.

In individual play, Ross Hendrick had a plus two to take the A group prize while Al Yarbrough shot a plus 8 to win top honors among the B players. Miles Morgan and Ernie Hansel tied for the C section prize with 4½ points, while William Hackey with a plus 3, was low man in the D group.

Dot Manges came in first with a 27½ at River Greens on Tuesday, March 21, on Ladies Day when the play of the day was "best 9 of 18 with ½ handicap". Berta Holley was second with a 26, Connie Clifford was third with a 28½, and Berta Roahrig was fourth with a 29½.

Two-Man Best Ball Tourney At River Greens

A brand new electric golf cart plus $1500.00 in merchandise prizes goes up for grabs at River Greens Golf Club on Sunday, April 9, when Rod Davis, owner-manager of the club, stages his annual Two-Man Best Ball tournament.

It is expected that many of the top amateur and professional golfers from throughout central Florida will be competing in the one day scratch play event.

Entries are still being accepted, and any golfers interested in playing can get further details by calling the River Greens Club.

The new golf cart will go to the golfer who hits his tee shot closest to the pin on the par 3 number 17 hole. The winning duo, the team shooting the lowest best ball score, will divide $400.00 in merchandise. Second prize is $250.00 worth of "goodies" while the third place pay-off is $155.00 worth of golf merchandise.

Twenty-five other prizes are being offered for players entering the 18 hole tourney. The first foursome will tee off at 9 a.m.

9th Youth Tourney Set For June

The best of Florida's young golfing set will concentrate in Avon Park on June 16, 17, 18, for the ninth annual Bagwell Lumber Company Youth tournament at River Greens Golf Club.

A practice round for all contestants is slated for June 15, with tournament dinner scheduled for Saturday evening, June 17.

The tourney, sponsored jointly by the Bagwell Lumber Company and River Greens, will be a 34 hole event limited to boys and girls in the 12 to 18 age bracket. This will be the first year since the inaugural meet in 1970 that a special division is being set up for girls.

Current plans call for six flights for boys and two flights for girls with the players being grouped according to their scores after the first 27 holes of play. Trophies will be awarded winners in each flight.

The tournament champion, however, will be the golfer who comes in with the lowest gross score for the 34 holes, regardless of the flight he or she might play in.

Pete DuPriest, Avon Park High golf star won the 1977 tourney, beating out Kevin Janiga of Lake Placid by one stroke. Both of these area golfers plan on playing again this year. There were 106 young golfers entered last year.

Any boy or girl in the 12-18 age group who is interested in playing can contact either the Bagwell Lumber Co., or River Greens. Entry blanks are also currently being mailed out to golf clubs throughout the state.

High School Golfers Drop Two At Beach City - Play In Tri-Meet Today

Daytona Beach at Easter break was great for sun, surf, and sand, and for about 150,000 college and high school students on vacation.

It wasn't too great for golf, however, and the Avon Park High School Golf team, making it's annual trek to the "beach city" dropped two matches to Daytona golfers.

On Monday, March 20, despite a one under par 34 turned in by Pete DuPriest, the Red Devil golfers lost to Daytona's Father Lopez High School 181 to 182 at Ormond Beach's OceanSide Golf Club.

Besides DuPriest, the Avon Park team included Mark Palmer who shot a 39, John Barben with a 42, and Steve Coe who came in with 44. Darwin Ford and Mike Smithson, two other Red Devil team members each shot a 46. Keith Kuizer was the low scorer for Father Lopez with an even par 35.

On Tuesday, March 21, playing without DuPriest, the Avon Park team

Three In Relays

Three Avon Park High School runners, competing against the best in the state, turned in fine performances in the Florida Relays in Gainesville last Friday.

David Jahna, the Devil track captain, sped to a fourth place finish with a 10.4 in the 100 yard dash. Jim Ervin stepped the high hurdles in an excellent 15.4 in the pre-lims but could manage only a 15.8 in the finals to earn the fifth place ribbon. Devil distance ace Alan Portis posted a personal best in the two-mile with his 10:26 clocking.

"We couldn't run our mile relay in Gainesville as Abe McMillian and David Williams were unable to make the trip," stated Coach Brojek. "However, David, Jim and Alan did an excellent job representing our school and community."

Great Time Had By All In Easter Egg Hunt Friday

The Avon Park Recreation Department's annual Easter Egg Hunt went very well. Although the number of kids participating was slightly lower this year than in years past, everyone found plenty of eggs and had lots of fun.

The eggs hidden, were ones that had been dyed in the dyeing contest held at the Center. The three kids in each age group received a ribbon for the best decorated eggs. The winners were (ages 5-7) first, Jeffrey Selph; Second, James Bond; and third, Janie Leaningham and Richard Selph. In the 8-10 age group, Randy Speery received first place, second was Allison Albritton and third was Tamara Daniel.

At the egg hunt on Friday, there was a mad scramble for the hidden eggs and then the kids were gathered were gathered back together to find the ones that had found, the most eggs in the younger age group (4-6). He gathered in 15. Randy Speery was the one who found the most in the 7-9 year olds, he found 17. They both received a basket with a variety of goodies in it for their efforts. The Silver eggs were found by Lavatrice Kenney of the 4-6 age group and Clyde Pough in the 7-9 age group. A chocolate bunny was their prize.

There were one dozen Special eggs hidden for each group, finders of these eggs received something extra. Everyone that did not find any eggs also received a goodie so nobody walked away with out anything. All that attended had a great time. Let's make it bigger next year.

SFJC Panthers Sport 14-7 Win Loss Season Record

South Florida Junior College upped its records to 14 wins against 7 losses with 2 victories over Housatonic Community College from Bridgeport, Conn. last Friday and Saturday.

The Panthers will be at Seminole Community College in Sanford tomorrow (Friday) at 3:30 p.m. They return home for a Division III double-header against Brevard Community College at 1 p.m. next Tuesday, April 4. On Wednesday, April 5, Indian River Community College visits Panther Park for a single game beginning at 3 p.m.

SFJC-12, Housatonic-1
Friday SFJC's Dave Shepherd threw a 5 hitter for 8 innings as the Panthers clobbered Housatonic 12-1. Tod Carter pitched the ninth inning and like Shepherd was in complete control of the Housatonic batters. Shepherd received credit for the win and is now 3 and 2 on the year.

SFJC scored 2 in the first inning as Randy Schlosser singled and stole second and stopped at third base when Charlie Faulconer reached first base on an error. Faulconer stole second base and scored behind Schlosser as Rick Kyzer singled sharply to left field.

The Panthers put the game out of reach with 3 runs in the fifth and 4 runs in the sixth inning. SFJC added another run in the seventh and 2 more in the eighth to end the game 12-1.

The Panthers batted out 19 hits for the afternoon and collected 6 stolen bases. Rick Kyzer had 4 singles and 4 runs batted in while Mark Lacy had 3 hits including a double. Robbie Freeland came through with 3 RBIs on a single and double. Mort Jackson had 2 hits and 2 RBIs while Bobby Pierce, Randy Schlosser and Al Jensen each had 2 hits.

SFJC-4, Housatonic-0
Saturday SFJC defeated Housatonic Community College 4-0. Panther left-hander Bobby Pierce tossed a no-hitter for 5 2/3 innings until Housatonic's Pete Narg's ground ball single to left field.

Pierce immediately picked Narg off first base to end the inning. Kirk Scheerhorn pitched the last 3 innings giving up only 1 hit. In raising his record to 2-0 Bobby Pierce faced the minimum batters, 18, in his 5 innings of work. After a walk in the first as well as the second inning, the Panthers pulled off two double plays as the Housatonic batters failed to get a runner past first base off Pierce and Scheerhorn.

The Panthers collected 10 hits and swiped 7 bases as they scored a single run in the fourth and added their final 3 in the fifth inning.

Robbie Freeland had 3 hits for the day to raise his average to .319. Mark Lacy continued his .344 team leading average with a pair of singles while Dan Pototsky added 2 more singles to continue his .300 hitting.

SFJC-2, HCS

Wednesday South Florida Junior College lost to the No. 1 state ranked Hillsborough Hawks 9-2 in Tampa's Al Lopez Stadium.

The Panthers' pitching staff walked the first man in four of the eight innings Hillsborough batted, and all four times the Hawks took advantage of the free passes and scored.

Kirk Scheerhorn started on the mound and absorbed the loss while Ron Bolin, Gary Parker, Tod Carter and John Sedlock followed in relief.

The Panthers failed to produce the "big" inning on successive bases loaded situations in the third and fourth innings and came away with only 2 runs. Randy Schlosser had two hits for the afternoon as did Dan Pototsky.

SFJC dropped to 4-4 in Division III play and were scheduled to play an important Division doubleheader in Clearwater Wednesday against the 6-2 St. Petersburg Trojans.

The Panthers weekly baseball wrap-up can be heard every Thursday at 4:30 p.m. over WJCM.

Hunting Season Improved

Florida Sportsmen have reason to be optimistic, according to a report presented by the Division of Wildlife at the meeting of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, in Tampa.

The preliminary results of the 1977-78 hunting season indicated a general increase from last year in the sportsman's harvest on Commission wildlife management areas. The most notable increase was in the number of deer taken.

Also discussed was proposed legislation authorizing the Commission to regulate vehicle use on wildlife management areas.

"This legislation is aimed at preventing damage to these public use lands by indiscriminate or reckless use of motor vehicles," said Col. Robert M. Brantly, executive director of the Commission. Civil liability is also provided for with the funds collected to be used to replace damaged property.

The Division of Wildlife reported the results of the bobcat and other pelt tagging systems adopted last month. This harvest monitoring system is required of states by the federal Endangered Species Scientific Authority to determine the effect of exportation of skins on the survival of furbearing species.

The Commission's Office of Environmental Services reported on the progress of the Kissimmee Valley Restoration Project. A management plan for the restoration of the fish and wildlife resources of the Kissimmee Valley is being implemented as a result of action by the 1977 legislature. This plan, based on a multiple use concept, is designed to serve a wide range of outdoor interests and activities.

Pre-Natal Class Offered

South Florida Junior College will offer a seven week series of pre-natal classes in Lake Placid at the new Lake Placid High School. Classes will meet each Wednesday from 7 to 10 p.m. beginning April 5 and ending May 17. These classes are designed for women who are in their last trimester of pregnancy. Husbands or coaches for the expectant mothers are encouraged to attend. There will be a fee of $3 per person.

The pre-natal classes will stress Lamaze breathing and relaxation techniques, as well as, anatomy and physiology of pregnancy and birth, management of breast feeding, nutrition and newborn care.

For registration information and other details, see Mrs. Holly Adair at South Florida Junior College or call 453-6661, extension 115, in Avon Park.

SFJC To Offer Defensive Driving

South Florida Junior College, in cooperation with the Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto County School Boards, will offer a special Defensive Driving Class as part of the Community Instructional Services Program.

The class will be held in the Council Room at the Sebring City Hall, 368 South Commerce Avenue, beginning April 4. This class is not open to anyone under court order or Division of Driver's License order to attend Defensive Driving School but is open to all other individuals.

The class will meet on April 4 and April 6 from 10 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 3 p.m. The only fee is $2 for the textbook which must be paid at registration. All other costs are paid for Community

Instructional Services grant funds. Persons intending to enroll must register during the first hour of class on April 4. There will be no pre-registration. Robert Carr, assisted by Mrs. Holly Adair, will teach the course.

Eight hours of attendance and successful completion of the class entitles a person to receive the National Safety Council Driver Improvement Program Certificate. Some insurance companies offer a discount on automobile insurance to senior citizens who have successfully completed the Defensive Driving Program.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Holly Adair at South Florida Junior College or by calling 453-6661, extension 115, in Avon Park.

Delia Oberst Collects Indian Artifacts

It's a small, small world, seems to be the theme as one enters the home of Mrs. Delia P. Oberst of Viola St., Avon Park. She collects dolls of all sizes and age and from Bisque to Indians. Last year the "Sun" covered a few of these, today, we are going to stress her Indian collection and how she became interested in the natives of North America.

As a young girl, Delia lived with her family in Apache, Oklahoma where her mother was a school teacher in the public school. Although there were no Indians in Delia's classroom, a few of them did attend the school, but only up to the fifth grade as it was their custom to quit at this grade level, however today things have changed, stated Mrs. Oberst. She went on to say that the Indian's father would bring the children to school in an open spring wagon, with two horses harnessed to it. At this same time, Delia's 12 year old brother worked in a bakery, as she would watch the Indian's as they came to town each Saturday to buy goods. She stated that she watched with fascination as she saw the Comanche's, which both sexes seemed to be large and chewed tobacco, spit! In contrast, the Navajo seemed to be slim and beautiful and the women wore black spanish type shawls which she thought were very beautiful. The characteristics of these two tribes and her experiences with them was the beginning.

The Nucleus of Delia's whole collection centers around her Indian doll cradle, which her mother bought in 1917 at a trading post in Oklahoma. A cradle this small is very rare as the majority of the Indian cradles were made baby size. It is speculated that the doll cradle was stolen from an Indian grave, and sold to the trading post where her mother bought it, stated Delia. It was an Indian custom to make such articles to place on their graves when one passed away.

Princess Angelina, another old Indian doll and a copy from the original, has a very interesting history behind it's being. It seems that in 1867, Chief Seattle, of which the town Seattle was named after him, and the princess's father liked the white people very much and upon learning of an intended Indian massacre, she warned the white people, and saved their lives. The townspeople were so grateful they built her a cottage on the edge of town, and she pitched her tepee in the backyard and lived there the rest of her life. "As her story was so interesting, dolls were made to honor her," she said.

Delia has hand woven baskets made by the Hopi and Papago's Indians, both of Arizona. She noted the patience that they have, as it takes plenty, to make the many beautiful handicrafts that they produce.

She has within her possession an old Indian blanket that she got through a trade or swap, as some may call it, in Maryland. The blanket was made by the Navajo Indians, as she pointed out the particular markings that are familiar to this tribe. The trade involved hand carved circus wooden animals, and not knowing at the time that these too were quiet valuable. The blanket is made from all natural fibre and dyed with the juice from a cactus, a brilliant red design. She stated that at sometime in the future she plans to donate it to an Indian museum in Angola, Ind.

Delia is also an accomplished writer as she writes articles bi-monthly for National Doll World titled "Dolls in My Heart". And, at one time she wrote for the Hartford Democrat in Albee, Ind., she stated that this started her writing career.

Delia and Fred were married in 1928 and have two children, Germinia Meisser of Santa Ynez, Calif., and a son Frederick of Avon Park. She stated that they went through the depression, and lived in 16 places in the first 23 years of marriage. They finally settled in Maryland for 23 years where Fred retired as a research scientist. The Oberst's moved to Avon Park 8 years ago, and Fred works as a lay chaplain with the prison system in Highlands County. Week days he is at the Avon Park Correctional Institute, and on week-ends he travels to other prisons.

Delia's hobbies, other than her dolls, and Indian artifacts, are her flower garden and church work.

She also wanted to point out that Fred does carpentry work, as he has made all the cabinets in their home that holds her many dolls.

DELIA PROUDLY DISPLAYS her Indian doll collection.

BASKETS AND MATS were handmade by the Papago and Hopi Indians. Delia commented that the lids of the baskets were the most difficult to make.

A FEW of the Indian handicrafts that she has collected. Notice the buckskin carving in the upper right hand corner; also, the plate, hand painted with Arizona clay, and the background is her old Indian blanket.

THE INDIAN DOLL cradle that her mother bought in 1917 at a trading post in the sixth grade in Apache, Oklahoma.

On The Consumers Side

Ms. Kathy Leffew, Consumer Services Coordinator, Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Division of Consumer Services, Mayo Building, Tallahassee, Florida 32304.

QUESTION: Last year I ordered some merchandise through a company who lists only a post office box number for an address. I've had problems with the merchandise and repeated letters addressed to the company at the post office box have brought no answer. I'm planning to be in the same city this summer, is there anyway I can find out the street address of the company so I can make a personal visit concerning my problem?

ANSWER: Yes, you can find out the name and address of the post office box holder providing the box is used for commercial purposes. According to postal regulations, "the business name and address of a holder, will be furnished to any person without charge. The postmaster may furnish this information when he is satisfied from the entries appearing on Form 100, Application for Post Office Box, or from evidence furnished by the requester, such as an advertising circular, that a box is being used for such business purposes."

To find out the name and address of the box holder ask your local postmaster for help.

QUESTION: I was in Europe last summer on a school-sponsored tour. While I was there I bought a reasonably expensive Swiss watch which had a year's guarantee. Last month it stopped working and I can't find anybody who will attempt to repair it. None of the local jewelry stores will touch it nor can they refer me to an authorized dealer. What can I do?

ANSWER: One of the dangers of buying merchandise away from home (even from a store in a nearby town) is the very real possibility of needing service and not being able to get it. That is one of the reasons the Division of Consumer Services encourages Floridians to shop in local stores.

You are lucky, though, because you do have somewhere to go for help. You should contact the Watchmakers of Switzerland Information Center, Inc. (WOSIC). There are two centers in the United States. Send a letter stating your problem to either of the centers below.

Watchmakers of Switzerland Information Center, Inc.
606 Fifth Avenue

QUESTION: I've heard about a special booklet for senior citizens that will help in filing income tax returns. Can you tell me more?

ANSWER: If you are a senior citizen, before you mail anything to the Internal Revenue Service this year, you should send for a free booklet, "Protecting Older Americans Against Overpayments of Income Taxes."

The eight-page booklet will tell you what you as a senior citizen are legally entitled to deduct from income taxes to prevent overpayments.

It tells the percentage of money you may deduct when filing such things as medical and dental expenses, insurance premiums, and drugs and medicines.

Also included is an explanation of other tax relief measures just for senior citizens.

The booklet is free and is available by writing Florida's United States Senator Lawton Chiles, Russell Senate Office Building, Washington D.C. 20510 or the Division of Consumer Services, Mayo Building, Tallahassee, Florida 32304.

Attention Solar Household

Floridians using solar energy units are urged to contact the Florida Solar Energy Center to report how units are performing and to share good and bad experiences owners have had with solar energy.

The information will be part of a study conducted by the center for the United States Department of Energy and will result in the development of nationwide consumer protection standards for solar energy owners.

Floridians with solar systems should contact the center at its toll-free telephone number, (800) 432-6573 Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Social Security

Q. My husband and I were divorced after twelve years of marriage. He has since remarried, but I have remained single. If he dies or retires, and I don't remarry, will I be able to get benefits on his earnings record?

A. Yes, you may because the law has been changed. As of January, 1979, a divorced woman need only have been married ten years instead of the previous twenty to be eligible for benefits if the former husband dies, retires, or becomes disabled after working long enough under social security. Of course, you will still have to meet the other eligibility requirements.

Q. I work part time in a hardware store. I also get Social Security retirement benefits. How much money can I earn in 1978 without having my benefits reduced?

A. Under the new legislation you can earn as much as $4,000 in 1978, without any reduction in benefits, if you're sixty-five or older.

1-1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 1-pound can red tart
pitted cherries
Red food coloring
3/4 cup chocolate cookie or gingersnap crumbs
(12 cookies)

Combine 1/2 cup sugar and cornstarch in a saucepan. Stir in cherries and juice. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and thickens. Add red coloring and cool. Line 12 muffin cups with paper bake cups; spoon about 1 tablespoon cookie crumbs into each bake cup. Beat together cream cheese, 1/3 cup sugar, egg, lemon juice and vanilla until smooth. Pour over crumbs. Bake in a 375° oven for 15 minutes or until set. Cool. Top each cheese cake with 3 tablespoons cherry sauce. Makes 12 cheese cakes.

Behind the Badge by John Burris

"BEHIND THE BADGE"

Patience, open-mindedness, law abiding, integrity, cooperative, ever ready to handle all emergencies, manly, attitude, never-ending responsibilities!!

If you'll take this first letter of each of those qualities and attributes, you'll see that they spell P-O-L-I-C-E-M-A-N!

Whether you want to accept the fact or not, there's people from every conceivable walk of life in practically every major metropolitan area of the world living up to those qualities and attributes each and every day of their lives.

The Avon Park Sun proudly presents another in the weekly series, "POLICEMAN", the objective of which (hopefully) is to better acquaint the communities of Highlands County with the individual members of their respective law enforcement agencies.

Scott G. Smith

"Once I had made up my mind to be a police officer, I was determined that nothing was going to stand in the way of reaching that goal."

Essentially, that statement just about sums up the feelings of the majority of career law enforcement officers throughout America.

As the youngest active member of the Avon Park Police Department, Scott G. Smith, 19, added to the above statement, "I love being a police officer and I have every intention of making it my career."

As a transplanted New Yorker (he was born in Buffalo), the young officer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman G. Smith who now reside in Avon Park. Officer Smith attended Avon Park High School, graduating in 1976.

His fondness for law enforcement, Smith said, resulted from an acquaintance with several other police officers during his formative years and in his words, "it seemed like the older I got, the more determined I became to eventually be an officer myself."

Sometime after graduation from high school, Smith said he had the opportunity to become a member of the Avon Park Police Reserves. As a reserve, he gained valuable insight into and a basic understanding of the unlimited responsibilities of being a police servant.

Smith added, "Among other things, I learned that police work is not an 8 to 5 situation. It's a job that requires careful attention around the clock, 24-hour-a-day, seven days a week."

While still a member of the Police Reserves, Smith said he took advantage of numerous benefits among them the opportunity to advance his knowledge of law enforcement. Having completed 60 hours of instruction at the Police Auxiliary School, Officer Smith then added another 300 hours of increased knowledge by participating in and successfully completing the Police Minimum Standards Course. And, as if that wasn't enough, the young officer is currently enrolled in college-level courses that will ultimately lead to a degree in criminal justice. Commented Smith, "Police work is almost literally the only thing I know. I have no desire whatever to do anything else!"

Though not presently married, Officer Smith did admit such a step is in the future. When asked how his parents felt about him being behind the badge, the young officer stated, "Well, they're behind me all the way. Sure, they're probably concerned about my safety and what would possibly happen. But, they also know that I'm out there doing my job and doing it the best way I know how."

"And, if you do the job right," Smith added, "you're going to stay alive!"

Although he's been an active member of the police department only since last November, Officer Smith offered these words of advice to anyone who may be thinking about eventually entering law enforcement as a career.

"Being a young police officer, it's my belief that if some young fellow wants to go into police work and the determination is strong enough, he won't let anything stand in his way."

He added, "Schooling is a very important factor because anyone desiring to go into law enforcement can never have too much knowledge. And, above all you need to keep your nose clean and stay out of trouble!"

"I'll be the first to admit," Smith concluded, "that may not be the easiest thing in the world to do, but when someone wants something bad enough, there's bound to be certain sacrifices that have to be made!"

To Officer Smith, the staff and management of the Avon Park Sun extend our very best wishes for continued success in his every endeavor.

On March 16 there were 58 members for crafts. The very successful Hobby Show was in the past but member's were busy with continuing projects started before the show. These will surely be ready to take back to the friends north, even if only to let friends know that sitting in the sun and getting a tan was not all they accomplished. Several new projects were being worked on this week, and beautiful shell work is being produced by some while others are busy cutting lace to cover ornament boxes. Hosiery projects are still favorites for some.

Another new project is Christmas Place Mats. These are made from Christmas cards cut, shaped and arranged in patterns to add color to the Christmas table. Next week Crafts Class will be held on Tuesday, Mar. 21 due to the District Shuffleboard Tournament. The last class of the season will be held on Tuesday, Mar. 30.

Tuesday, Mar. 21 Crafts class met with 50 members in attendance. Various projects kept everyone very busy, one group was fashioning lovely flowers from plastic spoons, forks etc. To do this they fold the spoon over medium heat and then shape and assemble into beautiful bouquets. Cigar boxes ornamented with lace which is spread in patterns and glued to the box which is then painted then dried. These are nice and useful for storing many things.

Next Thursday will be the last class for the season and it is hoped that a good attendance will be here. Also everyone is looking forward to November and the start of the season. An added attraction for the last class will be lessons in repairing jewelry. Anyone having jewelry in need of repair, please bring it on Thursday. Hallie has all that is practically needed for this repair project.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home Park News

By Margie Wells

It seemed everyone in the park turned out for the coffee hour last Wednesday, as even standing room was at a minimum. Hostesses were Margaret Brown and Loretta Wetmore. Anna Grossl from Ashland, Kent., who was visiting Margie and P. D. Wells, was introduced as a guest. "Happy Birthday" was sung for Jany Rabideau and Lucille Snidley. Fred and Florence Grasslin were given congratulations for the celebration of their 54 wedding anniversary on March 19. Five of our Wisconsin couples took them to dinner on that day. Doris Palmer thanked everyone for their cards, visits and prayers while Charles was in the hospital. Incidentally, Charles came out of the hospital one year older! It was regretfully announced that Helen Wurster had fallen and was back in the hospital with a cracked pelvic bone and that Mrs. Sprioles had been placed in intensive care. We are glad at this writing that both are doing well and we hope they will be home soon.

The park unit of the Federation of Mobile Home Owners held a meeting after coffee hour on Wednesday. The meeting was called to order by the president, Howard Mallingner and invocation was given by Rev. Ron Doyler. After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Ellen Hunt, a report of the district meeting in Lakeland on March 18 was given. A delegation of eight members of Bonnie Brae attended this meeting. A question and answer period followed and an announcement was made that Dan Bohland, our owner and manager, would furnish the material for building a cabinet for the rec hall. Ellen Reichenbaugh was appointed as a committee of one to head a membership drive. It is hoped that 100 percent membership can be obtained for our park.

On Thursday at noon, approximately 75 of our residents enjoyed a picnic at Highlands Hammock State Park. Some of the group arrived early to build fires and assemble tables. A bountiful meal was spread out and, as usual, everyone oversat. The afternoon was spent with some taking a ride on the train, taking a walk through the cypress swamp, hiking and just visiting. About 4 p.m., everyone agreed that it had been a very good day. We want to thank those who prepared the grills for cooking and furnished the coffee pots for coffee and tea.

On Sunday, 21 from our park gathered in the rec hall for an Easter dinner. Joe Asher gave the blessing and then everyone enjoyed the covered-dishes which had been brought. The rec hall had been beautifully decorated and there was a large Easter egg tree which had been made by one of our guests, who are staying in a travel trailer. Loretta and Doug Campbell have had several visitors lately. Their friends, Katharine and Al from Dearborn, Mich. were here for a visit. Their daughter and her husband and family, Loretta and Ray Brennan, from East Lansing, Mich., were here for a week. This past week, Douglas's sister, Mary Cameron, and son, Edward, from Nova Scotia, Canada, were here for a short visit.

Bob and Trudy Clevenger were Easter Sunday visitors of Dorothy and Karl Hart. They became acquainted when they all made a trip to Japan some years ago.

Bernice and Argus Sheridan visited Paul and Pauline Forsell in Lake Helen recently. They are former "northern" neighbors of theirs who got smart and moved to Florida. They also visited four cousins of Bernice who live in Allendale. They had a wonderful time but they said they ate too much.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spittler of Cedarville, Ohio, were Tuesday guests of Chio and Howard Mallingner. On Tuesday evening, Harold and Howard enjoyed a dinner meeting of the Lions Club. Mr. Spittler is a past District Governor of the Ohio Lions Club.

Recent visitors of Alice and Cecil Pixley were Cecil's brother and his wife, Harvey and Florence Pixley from Cocoa, and Alice's brother and his wife, Amil and Ethel Piller from Blufffield, Mich.

Lee and Grace Mc-Frederick's son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Snoddy, and their son, Ryan, from Damascus, Ohio, spent their vacation here last week and really enjoyed the warm weather. It's so nice to have our wandering neighbor, Thelma Miller, back home again. She won the grandmothers' second award for having the most great grandchildren and one of the highlights was her participation in a hypnotism program. We understand she responded very well.

Dorothy Carroll's sister, Dr. Florence Meehan from Festus, Mo., is spending two weeks with Dorothy and is enjoying the nice weather we have been having. Alice Bielby of Pickering, Ontario, flew down to spend the March break and Easter holiday with her parents, Cyril and Florence Bielby. She will return by air from Tampa to resume her studies at Markham High School where she is a senior. Anna Grossl from Ashland, Kent., left on Thursday to resume her studies at the University of Kentucky where she is a senior. She had spent her vacation with Margie and

P. D. Wells. Roy Podewils talked with his daughter-in-law in Janesville, Wis., on Easter Sunday and he's not sure he wants to leave this next week. She reported it was very cold with snow and ice. We wish all of our neighbors and friends who are leaving within the near future a safe journey.
