Avon Mobile Home Park News

Ruth E. Robinson

Helen Andrews reports the New England weather dips to 30 degrees at night, and in a few days back up to 90 degrees, she is enjoying fall weather with leaves on the trees turning red.

Susie and Joe Bacon have enjoyed all their friends in the north and are leaving for Florida after Oct. 15, also enjoying the autumn colors.

A welcome letter from George and Merceda Bearrs tells us she is feeling better, and friend Ruby Goodman visited with them always interested in mutual friends. Ivy Murphy is better now. It will be nice to see our friends, again.

Beatrice Tingler writes that she expects to be home after October 1, after a nice visit with Rosa and Basil Krontz at their home in Butler, Ind. Bea is ready for fine Florida weather and we shall be glad to see her back in her little home.

Margaret Belcher is recovering from her illness a few weeks back that put her in the hospital for a few days, much improved and anticipating her return with Bill about November 1. Our love and concern is always with our friends away from here and prayers for their well being. It won't be long before we shall all be gathering for "coffee hour" again on Mondays!

Dorothy and Earl Baxter will soon be back with us, this week as planned, we hope. Betty and Barden Graves kept things "humming" around their home in Castalia, Ohio while farm work and enlarged back porch as well as building a garage, being their project this year. They report typical fall or Autumn weather with night degrees in the 40's.

From Connecticut we hear Mildred and Ralph have been enjoying the beauty of the East with turning leaves and many apple orchards and grape vineyards. They are tasting of the small truck farms produce, especially sweet corn. Next week they will return to Indiana.

The Lowry's and Martins news consists of all being well and wishing us well. Erwin and Edith Ringer have been enjoying lively fall weather but hoping for more rain. Tomatoes and two kinds of melons are still coming from his garden, so he has had a good crop. Edith reports the fall programs are starting in Church and Red Cross so will be actively engaged in them. Hello to all their friends from them!

November 1, is the anticipated arrival date for the Walter Stones, as he has recuperated very well from his stay in the hospital of one week. We wish him well.

Paul and Pauline Thomas have enjoyed being with and helping their grandchildren and children. They have had a very busy summer with Paul using his carpenter skills for his families comfort, and living just being with them. They have had a very hot summer but it is cooling off, however no frost, as yet. Hi! to you too - until your return.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Wetmore entertained with cake and ice cream Mrs. Grace Warner, Mrs. Rosa Walton, Mrs. Dorothy Gruber and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson on Sunday evening in honor of Ruth's birthday. A pleasant time was had by all, looking at photos of grandchildren taken while on vacation at their various get togethers. Persimmons from the Wetmore's tree are a special treat, and roses from friends are always appreciated. Thank you!

College Credit For Rehearsal Performance

South Florida Junior College will be offering a new course in the theatre department which will allow students to earn one hour of college credit for participating in rehearsal and performance of a three-act play. Students now registered for the current semester as well as new students who meet college entrance requirements are eligible for this course.

Tryouts for George Feydeau's French bedroom farce, "Hotel Paradiso" will be held in the new South Florida Community Aduitorium on October 24 and 26 at 7 p.m. Upon completion of the tryouts, those who have been given parts in the play or chosen to help in the technical or production end of the play will officially register for the Theatre Practicum course. The registration cost will be the regular ten dollars per credit hour.

Mr. MacNeill, instructor in the theatre department, urges all persons who are interested in theatre to turn out for the tryouts on Oct. 24. The play itself has a cast of twenty-one individuals so a good turn out is needed.

The Theatre Practicum course is new to the college credit curriculum and can be repeated twice; thus allowing a student to earn up to three hours of college credit over a period of three semesters. This course may also be taken on an audit basis.

The rehearsals for "Hotel Paradiso" will be held in the evenings beginning on Oct. 31, and running through Dec. 8, with the performance scheduled for Dec. 9. Rehearsals will not be every night, but the frequency will increase as the production date comes closer.

Further information will be published and anyone wanting more information should contact Lynn MacNeill at SFJC. The college phone number is 453-6661.

NEWS FROM NEW YORK.

Helen and Joe Gaut write that they are looking forward to their return to Avon Park. Helen says "The weather is telling us that it is getting near that time, probably the last week of October unless snow and winter set in sooner. We have enjoyed a better summer this year. We've kept busy with our antique business, garden, also a lot of cooking and Eating. Always enjoy reading the Avon Park Sun News. Hope to see you all soon."

VISITORS

Grace Romilly is busy this week and enjoying her daughter-in-law Gladys Romilly from Arlington, Texas. Next week her son Fred will join them and they will sightsee around this part of Florida. Allene Howard has her daughter Marylyn Finnemore from Jamestown, New York visiting her for two weeks. We will have a report on their visit later.

MY TRIP

Your reporter, Illeon Kull took off last week for Detroit, Michigan. I flew to Detroit to be with my sister Olive Kerwin who now lives in Winter Haven but had lived in Avon Park for many years. Her daughter Carolyn has been seriously ill in Mt. Carmel Hospital for several weeks but now is able to be hospitalized in the infirmary at St. Mary's Convent at Monroe, Michigan. Here she is improving slowly, but it may take a year to recover completely.

Not having been back to Detroit for many years the changes there were fantastic in the new face of the down town on the river front. The new Renaissance Center with its four huge office towers surrounding the beautiful Hotel Plaza is a sightseers dream, almost unbelievable to an old Detroiter.

The view from the Summit, a revolving Restaurant and Lounge on the roof top, at night was breath taking. One could see far across the Detroit River into Canada and north to the Belle Isle bridge and island. There are hundreds of shops and businesses on two levels, the location of which is designated by tower and floor level. They have plans now for more of these towers and improvements along the river front.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home Park News

By Margie Wells

Minnie and Maurey Jones arrived "home" this week after being gone for the summer. We are glad to report that Minnie's brother who has been in Walker Memorial Hospital is better and is expected to go home soon.

Also arriving this week were Evelyn and Lawernce Irvin. We understand they have sold their home and will be permanent residents. Welcome!!

Leonard Harsh of Fort Myers was a week-end visitor at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Margie and P.D. Wells. He also visited with his mother and father, Rev. and Mrs. C. Dennis Harsh of Avon Park, who celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary on Saturday.

Ella Drake and Lu Detrick were in Lake Wales last week where Lu went to an eye doctor. We hear that Ella is a very "apt" student of Thelma Miller and is learning to knit real good.

Chloe Mallinger is home after spending several days visiting with relatives and friends in Ohio. She tells us that the weather was beautiful but that there was a touch of fall in the air.

Evie Chockley, Ella Drake and Ellen Hunt had Sunday dinner at Davis Brothers restaurant in Bartow.

After 18 holes of golf on Sunday, Edith and Miles Morgan of Fairmount Mobile Estates were dinner guests of Margie and P.D. Wells.

Hope to see everyone at coffee hour on Wednesday at 9 a.m.

Gaster Of Avon Park Appointed Area Manager Of E.F. Hutton & Co.

George L. Ball, President of E.F. Hutton & Co., Inc., recently announced the appointment of Gordon Gaster and Bud Jordan as area managers for the company's operation in Martin and Palm Beach county. An effort is being made to fully utilize the concept of neighborhood satellites in conjunction with main area offices to completely serve the investing public.

E.F. Hutton & Co., innovators in offering the services of Wall Street to all investors, was established as the frontrunner in the brokerage field in the early 1900's when the San Francisco office was awarded Western Union's Transcontinental Circuit Number One. The firm carried that reputation and progress into our area in the 1920's when it opened its original Palm Beach office under the supervision of Edward F. Hutton. In this tradition, E.F. Hutton has continuously strived for ways in which to better serve the public, evidenced by the reopening of its Palm Beach office in 1973, and the establishment of an office in Stuart in that same year. To be of even greater service, E.F. Hutton & Co., Inc. has added four neighborhood satellites in the Palm Beach - Martin County area in Lake Worth, Belle Glade, North Palm Beach, and Tequesta, to provide a complete complement of financial investment services.

In addition to the responsibility of supervising the six area offices, Gaster and Jordan have worked together as partners in personal production for more than seven years. Their enthusiasm is evidenced as in 1977 when both ranked in the top twenty Account Executives nationally for individual production. This added degree of personal involvement in actual brokerage trading is undoubtedly an asset in solving the problems encountered as the office attempts to render the best possible service to the investing public.

Understandably, this satellite project is being carefully reviewed and monitored by the New York office, and if proven successful, may be implemented in other major metropolitan areas.

Press, Council Criticism Not Fair—Shabert

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Calling the workmanship on a paving project good, Glenn Shabert of the L.C. Crews Construction company angrily criticized Councilman David Barefield Monday night for Barefield's statements about the project and condemned a story in the Avon Park Sun regarding the project as "garbage."

Shabert said there had been no complaints about the project, which was on East Castle Street, and branded the Sun story, which was headlined 'Paving Project Stirs Complaints' as totally erroneous.

Shabert also charged that many of Barefield's comments were inaccurate but Barefield refuted several of Shaver's criticisms telling him complaints were made and that the "contour of the curbing is not anywhere near consistent."

The Crews Construction company, under a contract with the city, had put the curbing on East Castle Street. The company also put in seven driveway approaches but several residents of the area complained of what they said was poor workmanship.

"When I got a copy (of the newspaper) I went into Mr. (City Clerk Malcolm) Crews' office and asked how many complaints. They had non, none... The contract states Miami-type gutter, no paving, no cleanup, no survey, Miami-type gutter," said Shabert.

"Futher down in the article Mr. Barefield made a statement that the contract was changed. The contract was not changed. . . at my suggestion Mr. Crews and Mayor (Marshall) Davis gave me a verbal order to go in and put the driveways in so the cars would not tear the undercarriage out. A verbal order. . . Mr. Barefield is in error on that," he said.

" . . . there is no such thing, legally, as a verbal order on a contract such as this."

—Councilman Barefield

However, Barefield claimed such an order was not legal and that Shabert should have known that fact.

"First of all, a verbal order from Mr. Crews and the mayor, there is no such thing, legally, as a verbal order on a contract such as this. There is no verbal contract with the city when you do $1,000 worth of work without it being brought to the council," said Barefield.

The councilman claimed a verbal order was not legal then, turning to the city attorney asked, "Am I correct Mr. Hancock?"

"You are correct." replied City Attorney Jack Hancock.

HIGHLANDS LAKES firemen rush into action to douse flames which destroyed 24 golf carts at Rivergreens Golf Course north of Avon Park shortly before noon Saturday. Fire fighting units arrived on the scene within four minutes of receiving the first call and later were assisted by a truck from the Avon Park Fire Department. Owner Rodney Davis estimated damage to be about $75,000 to $80,000. Sunphoto by Bruce Henderson.

Rivergreens Loss Estimated Over $75,000

Blaze Chars Golf Carts

A fire of unknown origin swept quickly through a golf cart storage shed at Rivergreens Gold Course just before noon Saturday causing an estimated $75,000 to $80,000 damage.

Volunteers from the Highlands Lakes Fire Department were at the scene about four minutes after receiving the first call at 11:46 a.m., and with assistance from Avon Park firemen, they had the blaze under control within minutes and saved an adjoining structure from the flames.

Only eight of the course's 32 motor-driven carts were left after the intense heat of the fire transformed the 24 carts stored in the shed into heaps of twisted metal and charred plastic.

Rivergreens owner Rodney Davis said six carts were in use on the course at the time of the fire, while another two were rescued from the flames.

In addition to the carts, several sets of golf clubs, supplies and other equipment were lost in the fire, according to Davis.

Highlands Lakes Fire Chief Gene Brenner said the fire may have been caused by a battery exploding during charging, but he added that only is speculation. Eyewitnesses reported hearing an explosion before the shed was engulfed in flames.

Davis said the fire could have been caused by a battery explosion, or by a spark touching off gasoline stored in the shed. He said a couple of the carts were gasoline powered instead of battery powered, so there was gasoline as well as other flammables stored in the shed.

He added there were a number of explosions as the fire swept through the building, as batteries and gas tanks ignited.

Banner said there probably will not be a formal investigation of the cause of the fire.

"We usually don't investigate the cause of a fire unless there are suspicious circumstances or unless we are requested to do so," he said.

Horses Can Stay, Majority Respond

A majority of those who responded to a questionnaire printed in last week's Sun favor a ban on livestock animals within the city, provided horses are exempted along with dogs and cats.

Of the 84 responses received by Tuesday afternoon, 47, or 55.9 percent, favored an exemption for horses. Another 13 respondents, or 15.4 percent, favored the proposed ban as it was originally worded.

The Avon Park City Council tentatively has changed the wording of the proposal, contained withint the city's proposed new zoning ordinance, to exempt horses along with dogs and cats.

Originally, the proposal would have prohibited the "(e) Keeping of swine, cattle, horses, chickens, rabbits and other such animals, excluding cats and dogs. Exception: existing horses may be maintained until Jan. 1, 1988 upon registration with the City Clerk within 60 days of the effective date of this ordinance."

Some of those checking the box indicating they favor this original proposal added they think the time limit for keeping existing horses should be cut from 10 years to two. A couple of people said they would like an outright ban on all animals within the city limits, including dogs and cats.

Only six people, a mere 7.1 percent, said they are opposed to any restrictions on animals within the city.

The second largest bloc of responses favored the fourth choice on the questionnaire, setting lot size and-or setback requirements for those who want to keep animals other than housepets.

Many of those responding to the poll had separate comments, sometimes extensive.

One writer favoring the original ban noted that "last evening, Oct. 5, three riders drove their horses through and across my private property."

Another respondent favoring the original version indicated they also would favor banning dogs used for other than household pets, or kept several at a time in kennels.

Insurance Company Claims Young Torched Own Building

Who Set 1976 Coke Fire?

BY BRUCE HENDERSON

The June 1976 fire which destroyed the landmark Coca Cola bottling plant building at 207 Tulane Circle will take center stage in circuit court Monday as an insurance company tries to prove the building's owner, Avon Park Postmaster Robert D. Young, had the blaze set in order to collect on a $75,000 insurance policy.

Young is suing the insurer, Liberty Mutual Fire Insruance, Company to collect damages it has refused to pay. The civil jury trial will be presided over by Judge J.H. Wilson.

The building was being used to warehouse sporting goods equipment at the time of the fire, which began at about 5:10 a.m., on June 20, 1976. It was one of several locations used by Young's businesses, Young Enterprises Inc., Accent on Sports Inc., and Universal Pro Sports Inc., in Avon Park, Tampa and Miami, according to court records.

Arson was the cause of the fire, according to Don Steverson, chief investigator for the state Fire Marshall's office, but authorities never have apprehended the person responsible for setting the blaze.

According to records on file at the Highlands County Courthouse, however, the insurance company alleges Young set the fire or had it set because he needed the insurance money to pay debts.

In response to questions asked by Young's attorney's earlier this year, attorney's for the insurance company responded, "Defendant has rejected the proof of loss by letter of October 15, 1976, to plaintiff because defendant believes that the property was burned by the plaintiff and because defendant believes that the amount of the loss is exaggerated."

The allegation Young set the fire or conspired with others to do so is repeated several times throughout the bulky court file.

Court records filed by Liberty Mutual attorneys indicate the insurance company's star witness will be an investigator for a Chicago firm hired by the American Mutual Insurance Alliance to investigate the arson case, Michael Zyrkowski, of Property Loss Research Bureau. Pre-trial efforts by Young's attorney's to secure disclosure of the investigative report of that firm have failed.

The records also indicate the company will attempt to show Young and his firms were in financial difficulty at the

Fitzgerald, Duncan Take County In Runoff Battle

BY BRUCE HENDERSON

Robert Fitzgerald hopes the door-to-door campaign style which gave him better than a two-to-one margin of victory in last Thursday's runoff primary also will carry the day when he meets Republican H. Robert Hjort for the District 3 school board seat in November's general election.

Both men live in the Lake Placid area.

Fitzgerald, who for the past 10 years has taught history and government courses at South Florida Junior College, said Tuesday he will continue his highly personalized campaign right up to Nov. 7.

"I hope I can say by Nov. 7 that I've been in every neighborhood in Highlands County," the Democratic candidate said. "We've covered a lot of territory, but there's still a long way to go."

A novice to real life political campaigns, Fitzgerald topped both his opponents in the Sept. 12 first primary, then handily defeated his runoff opponent, Democratic committeewoman Mrs. Marguerite Skipper, by a margin of 3,128 to 1,491, according to the official tally sheet, which includes absentee ballots.

In the District 75 state House of Representatives race, affecting a little over half the county's electorate, county Democrats gave their nod to Tri-County Education Center Director Wayne Duncan, a Sebring resident. Duncan built up a substantial 1,665 to 1,005 lead over his Port Charlotte opponent, real estate magazine publisher Darryl Brown, and apparently has edged out Brown district-wide by a margin of about 250 votes, although returns are not yet official.

Early unofficial counts showed Duncan leading Brown 4,112 to 3,873, not including absentee votes.

In statewide races, Highlands County Democrats voted with their fellow party members statewide, choosing Bob Graham over Attorney General Robert Shevin to face Republican Jack Eckerd in the Nov. 7 governor's contest.

They also followed statewide voting patterns by choosing George Firestorne over Beverly F. Dozier in the secretary of state's race and Jim Smith over Alan Becker in the attorney general's race.

Graham topped Shevin 3,185 to 1,466, sweeping 18 of the county's 19 precincts. He lost only in Sebring's Precinct 9, at the Teen Building on N. Highlands Ave.,

The Press Is To Blame

Although there was a sneaking suspicion on our part it would happen, we were still amused when the charge was leveled that the Avon Park Sun was to blame for all the problems at the East Castle Street curbing project.

All parties, including city officials, Mr. Glenn Shabert of the Crews Construction Compnay, and residents on East Castle Street, agree there are cracks in the curbing, that the driveway approaches are from two to four inches above the existing driveways and rocks and sand were left in residents' yards creating an unsightly mess.

Mr. Shabert, at the last council meeting, said he was not criticizing the council for questioning the project as much as he was criticizing the press for reporting the story, inaccurately he claimed.

Well, when faced with such overwhelming evidence and hard logic we must confess. Yes, we are to blame.

The cracks in the curbing, the driveways approaches and the sand and rocks are, of course, the direct fault of the Avon Park Sun.

While at it, we should make a full and complete confession of all the sins we have attempted to perpetrate upon the body politic.

It is the direct responsibility of the press that City Clerk Malcolm Crews and Mayor J. Marshall Davis gave Mr. Shabert a "verbal contract" to put in the driveway approaches on East Castle, even though they should have known that such a verbal agreement was not legal, as City Attorney Jack Hancock admitted.

Of course, the fact that Mr. Shabert accepted this verbal agreement without asking for a second written contract even though he should have known better is also the fault of the press.

How anyone could think otherwise is totally beyond comprehension.

The Sun is, of course, also to blame for the city ignoring the possible pollution problem at Lake Isis.

There is no other organization but the press which should take the responsibility for the attempted coverup of the arrest of Craig Skipper, son of County Commissioner Cecil Skipper. This blatant attempt came after law enforcement agencies tried their best to literally thrust the information under the nose of the press but the media refused to acknowledge it.

Of course the continued deadlock in negotiations between the county school board and the Highlands County Education Association can be traced back to the media.

If anyone were shrewd enough he would certainly discover the press is the cause that Highlands County is rated in the top third of the state in regard to its ad valorem tax rate.

Looking back the last few months, the Sun is fully to blame for the long-standing city policy of altering the falsifying gasoline tickets of city employees.

The most blatant example of the media's inexcusable behavior was the attempt to suppress information regarding the suspension of Police Chief Robert Brooks by Mayor Marshall Davis on a number of very serious allegations, none of which were ever proven.

Although city officials tried to deal with the matter in forthright, open and candid manner, the press actually tried to keep citizens from knowing what was going on.

EDITORIALS

Worldwide, the media must bear the blame for such problems as inflation, citrus blackfly and static on radios.

It is also obvious to even the casual onlooker that the outbreak of beri-beri in Tasmania and the reduced amount of rainfall in Australia are due to media involvement.

In fact, when astronomers discovered the orbit of Mercury was not as smoothly eliptical as first thought, it was obvious on which organization to place the blame--the press.

If this seems farfetched and, in fact, downright ludicrous, being completely removed from the world of reality, it is.

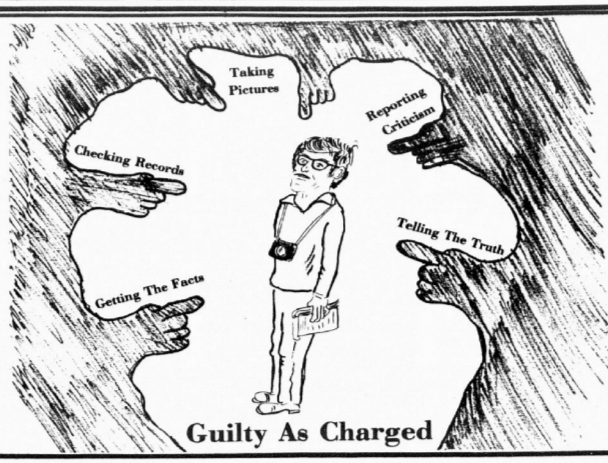
However it is also the logical extension of the reasoning which Mr. Shabert gave before the city council last Monday evening. He was upset at councilmen's criticism of the curbing project, being particularly angry with Councilman David Barefield, but he seemed to be even more angry with the Sun for publishing the remarks of councilmen and the remarks of the residents of Castle Street.

Actually, residents anywhere in the city, or county for that matter, have as much right to complain to a newspaper as they do to their public officials. The only difference is sometimes a newspaper will listen when some public officials won't.

The whole matter can be summed up rather briefly. The day after the Sun story on the paving controversy hit the streets, Mr. Shabert went out to the project with Councilman Robert Britt and Street Superintendant John Ziegler. All three men apparently agreed some improvements needed to be made in the area and, this past Monday, city crews worked on some improvements.

Yet it had already been two to three weeks since the curbing project had been completed and the complaints had begun.

If the story with the residents' complaints, complete with photographs, had not been published, the Sun cannot help wondering how long it would have been before Castle Street residents received some needed relief from the city.



Our Readers Opinions

The Press Can Help Recognize Alcoholism Problem

Dear Editor:

Alcoholism is a major scourge in modern society — we all know that. But what is the press doing to put the whole story of alcoholism together?

Warren Breed and James R. DeFoe of the scientific Analysis Corporation of San Francisco conducted a study of American newspapers to find out. They sampled 153 issues from 31 newspapers during May, 1977, representing large, medium, and small markets.

Breed and DeFoe found that the papers are covering alcoholism in the abstract very well. Local and national experts are quoted about the hazards, waste, and loss due to alcoholism, and other features are timely.

What they fail to do, according to the study, is to report the frequent involvement of alcohol in serious auto accidents and crimes — an involvement that produces a waste of thousands of lives and billions of dollars a year.

Concerned citizens call on you, as members of the press, to report this shocking relation. This story has not been told forcefully enough. As the authors of the study conclude, "We cannot deal with a problem until we recognize it — and the press can help us to see this one."

Very truly yours,
Juvernia E. Oft

Clean Up Animals Causing Nuisance

Dear Editor and City Officials:

This letter is in reference to the proposed prohibition on all animals in the city limits except dogs and cats. First let me state that I love all animals! But I don't think the prohibition should stipulate the kind of animals allowed but the kind of nuisance the animal is not allowed to be to the people who live near, the owner of any animal.

My children have two banty hens which they keep in a cage in our yard. They are very good pets. The boys take them out to pet them and it is their responsibility to keep their cage clean. The hens are quiet and certainly not a nuisance to anyone.

My children also have a rabbit but the gang of dogs in our neighborhood woke us many mornings, trying to get to the rabbit through the cage, so we got ride of the rabbit. It had hardly seems fair that people in our community should have dogs that run loose and bother other people in their own homes.

On several occasions I have found it necessary to close my bedroom windows (without air conditioning) in order to be able to sleep because someone down the street has a dog that barks constantly when they aren't home. There are always huge piles of obnoxious dog waste all over my yard. Why should I have to buy a fence to prevent this. The dog is the owner's responsibility, not mine!

On several occasions I have been awakened by cat fights. A very unpleasant experience at the most. I really can't believe such an ordinance will do any good at all.

On two occasions in the last year there were two large dogs which came to my yard and dug a hole beside my dining room window to lie in. They were both sick. One regurgitated large masses of hair. I called the police department to have them picked up but no one came.

My children were forced to stay inside both days because when they were outside the dirty sick dogs followed them around wanting the children to pet them. I could have chased them off but I was hopeful that the animal control would come at any time to pick them up. They didn't and the dogs left during the night. Isn't there a leash law in this city? If so then why isn't it enforced? This should be the question at the city council meeting.

During the summer my eight year old son was viciously attacked by a large dog and spent five days in the hospital and underwent the first series of rabies shots. Why? The owner of this dog had the dog chained on a long chain that reached to within three feet of their front door. It also was long enough for the dog to go into the carport and to the outside of the carport and hide. There was no sign such as bad dog or beward of dog! Nothing!

Why was my child in their yard? Because their daughter was in my Sunday School room at church and asked me to take her to a Child Evangelism Good News Club. Her parents do not attend our church and they do not have a telephone. We live within two blocks of the little girl so my son wanted to take note to the mother asking permission.

We, of course, didn't know that the people had a dog. I wrote the note and he left to deliver it to the mother. He walked to the door and knocked. The dog didn't even bark but came running at my son and attacked him.

When my son saw the dog coming he was terribly frightened and turned to run. When he did, he tripped and fell right into the dog's reach.

There were five separate bites to his face, ear, and arms. He was in surgery for an hour with two doctors working on him. There were thirty-eight stitches in all and some scratches on his face besides the bites. He may still have to have plastic surgery.

The dog was impounded for ten days and then returned to the owner after having rabies shots, which it had never had in the past.

According to reliable sources nothing can be done with the dog unless it attacks two people within a six month period. This I feel is grossly unfair. If the child had been any smaller the dog would probably have killed him.

A witness said the dog was still trying to get to my son after he had gotten out of his reach. Does this need to happen to your child before something is done about our dog problem in our city. With the dogs running loose in the streets this could happen to your child in the street!

City councilmen don't pass an ordinance that my family can't have a pet chicken or anything else that is not bothering anyone else. Sure no one needs chickens that have a rooster who wakes you up at five a.m. on Sunday morning, or a pig that stinks so bad that you can't walk into your back yard for the smell, neither should the people in our city who control their dogs and cats have to give them up but the people who abuse the priviledge of any animal should not be allowed to keep such an animal!

Some of you other people in this city have views similar to or even the same as mine, it is time to speak to your councilmen and lets clean up our city of the animals which are causing a nuisance!

Please withhold my name.

Thank you.
A very concerned citizen

People Have Too Many Bans

Dear Sir,

In regards to the new ban on animals that was in the paper last week, why not let the majority rule on this. For example if you live on Block A with three other families and two of them don't mind you having a swine, cow or horse or etc. then it should be permissible. I don't think some one that lives across town should have any say so about it. Just the ones living next to you.

The American people have too many bans already. Lets not put any more on them. This is suppose to be a free country.

I don't think it would be fair to let someone who owns 3 or 4 blocks to be able to keep animals and deny the ones that own 2 or 3 lots the privilege. Treat rich and poor alike.

Thanks
Edward J. Jackson

Rocking The Boat

Rocking the Boat

Very soon students at the county's elementary, middle and high schools will be taking the functional literacy tests or the student assessment tests or whatever it is they're being called this year.

The reason for the test was to determine which of the students had actually achieved an education instead of being functionally illiterate.

I think it would benefit parents and the public in general to have a little more detailed breakdown on results of the test. Something like this:

Three percent of the students were unable to answer the first question. This was particularly disturbing to educators since the first question on the test is 'What is your name?'

Two percent of the students answered the first question but answered it wrong.

Five percent of the students were unable to decipher the traffic signals on the test. Remedial study in Driver Education is recommended so these students won't get lost on the highway.

Two percent of the students apparently got lost were going to the test because they were unable to find their way to the auditorium where the test was being given.

One percent of the students obtained a copy of the test and sold copies of it to fellow students. (A career in politics or high finance is recommended for these students.)

Five percent of the students bought the xeroxed copies of the tests and still flunked it. (A career in politics is also recommended for these students.)

One student, whose I.Q. is above genius level, answered all of the questions correctly then draw graphic illustrations from the Kama Sutra to indicate his attitude toward the test. (He will either be turned over to the police or sent to the nearest university. Preferably to major in art.)

Another student, whose I.Q. is also on the genius level, answered all the questions on the test but indicated his displeasure by answering the questions in ancient Persian.

One-half of one percent of the students answered the test questions in impeccable English. This proved almost a great a shock to teachers as the ancient Persian since both languages are rarely used correctly in a school. Or anywhere else for that matter.

Several students wrote fake numbers in the social security number box code on the test, thus screwing up the computer which grades the tests. (It is recommended these anti-social types go into journalism.)

Several girls, in the square marked sex, wrote their address and phone numbers.

Although 70 percent of the students were unable to name the two senators from the state of Florida, five percent of the students, when asked to name a high government official, wrote in the name of Dr. Peter Bourne.

When asked who was the President of the United States, 98 percent of the students did respond Jimmy Carter.

When asked who was their favorite comic strip figure, 23 percent of the students also wrote down Jimmy Carter.

Will Welfare Programs Reduce Or Eliminate Rights?

Dear Editor:

How V.F.W. Members and it's Auxiliary help. We are presently going through a Revolution. It is an Economic and Social revolution. During the past four years, there has been enacted more medical and social welfare programs than in our entire previous history. Comprehensive and long range programs, such as medical care for the aged, diagnostic and treatment entered for crippling diseases, Federal assistance inconstruction of Civilian Hospitals, those are just a few. We of the V.F.W. bodies certainly DO NOT object to help being given wherever helps is needed, but the question is, — will new Welfare Programs serve to reduce or eliminate many of our precious rights and benefits? Time and experience will tell.

This is where every V.F.W. Member and Auxiliary Member become so very important. The Congress has passed the laws which established, and have taken away, Veterans Rights and benefits. ONLY CONGRESS can repeal these.

Union Dues To Sponsor Gambling Ads

Dear Sir:

"Scarface" Al Capone once stated he belived in free enterprise: "I give my customers an honest game and the best in booze and broads. The only difference is I eliminate my competition." On that premise — and the mentality of a beast — he built an empire, which now seeks to extend its tentacles to include casino gambling in Florida.

While the money tables would belong to the mob, the other facilities are the dominion of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union and in Nevada — also a Right-to-Work state — it is common knowledge you join the union to keep (1) your job, (2) your health. The action of the Florida AFL-CIO throwing " — full support of its 600,000 members behind casino gambling" was expected and while hundreds of thousands of members may be opposed to it, their dues money will be used to sponsor TV spots, newspaper ads, "get out the vote drives," to bring this blight to Florida.

For a group priding itself on community enrichment and growth, this is a hideous example.

Apparently acting in complete concert, organized crime and organized labor believe they have a winning hand, but the people of Florida still hold the trump cards.

Sincerely Yours,
John Waldum, Jr.

Criticism Not Fair

Shabert said any problems which existed with the project was not the fault of the company.

"Everything listed (in the story) is work by others, not L and C builders," he said.

Shabert noted the driveway approaches were higher than the existing driveways but said "grading is to be done by the city not by us."

To a complaint in the story by one resident of the possible hazard create by the driveway Shabert replied, "They were walking along the street before we put the curb in. . . they are walking on what (Street Superintendent) John Ziegler put in today.

The project was not paid for by tax monies Shabert said but was paid out of "revenue sharing funds."

Shabert also criticized Barefield for saying there was no inspection of the project. "Throughout the job Mr. Crews drove by, Mr. Ziegler drove by and Mr. (Robert) Britt drove by. I won't say they inspected it with a fine tooth comb but they were out there, in and out, for as long as the job was going on."

However Barefield replied there was no official inspection made. Councilman Britt, although agreeing he had been by the project several times, also agreed no official city inspection was made of the curbing.

Shabert said he doubted whether not putting in any driveways was a city policy, as Barefield claimed.

He did admit there were cracks in the curbing but said the cracks had been made by trucks and were not the fault of the Crews Construction Company.

In regard the some resident's complaints about sand and rocks being left in yards in the area, Shabert said his company had nothing to do with the mess.

"City crews brought in limerock, they brought in sand, they brought in a tractor. They did scatter, trying to do their jobs. If I was John Ziegler I'd be mighty frustrated with the people, the residents, for not letting them finish the job. This is no city right-of-way, it does not belong to those people." he said.

Shabert attacked the Sun saying for the newspaper to "write such garbage as this is a damn shame. It makes this city look bad, it makes us look bad. . . This is not as much criticism to the council as it is to this (the paper). I don't like it," he said.

Barefield, though, told Shaber both the and Councilman Britt had received complaints about the job. Barefield maintained there was poor workmanship on the job and was particularly angered because the work was altered by a verbal contract. Neither the city clerk or the mayor had any authority to make such a contract.

"This is the one thing which upset me as much as anything was the work being done and being paid for without the council having any knowledge of it," he said.

When Crews said individual councilmen did have knowledge of the project Barefield replied no individual councilman had the right or the authority to alter the contract either.

"You should have known, as a contractor, that, possibly, you wouldn't get paid for this job by doing something that had not been granted by the council. That was bad to start with," Barefield said.

"Dave, I think this was a real comedy of errors," Shabert replied. "First, there was not the proper engineering done. (Second) the council does not have a set policy on how things are to be done," Shaver replied.

Barefield also claimed the driveways were a hazard. "They are at least two inches above the existng payment. I don't think any councilman would deny it's a safety hazard."

Although Shabert insisted grading was not in his contract with the city and, hence not the company's responsibility, he said he had looked at the project with Councilman Britt and "we agreed what should be done, would be done. John Ziegler and his crew went out today and worked all day long. They graded, they put asphalt on it, they worked like crazy."

After looking into that, we found out that much of the work was not your fault," said Britt.

Shabert, who repeated any mistakes in the project were not a fault of the company, demanded a retraction of the Sun story.

"They (the Sun) got Jack Hancock a few weeks back, they got the mayor, they got the fire chief, they got the police chief. Which of you fellows is next? Isn't it a damn shame the newspaper in this town will print garbage like this?" he said.

Runoff Election

where Shevin edged him out 45 to 40.

Firestone defeated Dozier by a lesser margin, 2,511 to 1,657. Smith, however, was the county's top vote getter, blitzing Becker by an overwhelming 3,292 to 967 margin.

In the school contest, Fitzgerald won in 16 of 19 precincts, losing only in Precinct 9 by a 46 to 36 gap, and tying Mrs. Skipper in Precincts 6 and 18.

Fitzgerald, who was teaching a class entitled "Voting and Elections" while the ballots were being tabulated Thursday night, said "I've learned a great deal" during the campaign.

"There's a great deal in political campaign that cannot be captured in a general course survey," he said. Among those things are "the organization that's required and the amount of man hours you have to put in."

He said door-to-door approach has been very successful but difficult because of the county's size and population. In a larger county, he added, he probably would have had to rely much more heavily on media exposure.

"Here I think it's still possible to think in terms of a door-to-door campaign. In the future, I don't know."

Supervisor of Elections Jimmy Whitehouse was right again with his pre-election voter turnout prediction, although when the turnout struggled to climb the 20 percent hurdle throughout most of the day, it appeared as if the veteran election watcher might have been way off with his 22 percent forecast.

A last-minute surge of voting, however, pushed the percentage up to 33.6, keeping Whitehouse within the two-percent margin of error he never has strayed from.

Animal Ordinance

in a very small kennel," the attached note said. "There are eight to 10 dogs, all of them large. This has taken place very recently. The odor is so bad at times it is necessary to close the bedroom windows, and because of the barking off and on night and day it is better to sleep with the radio on at night rather than be awakened several times during the night from the noise."

"House pets only,' the writer concluded.

Another point of view was expressed by a respondent favoring some sort of lot size or setback restrictions.

"I feel that as long as the property owners pays his taxes on city property he should be allowed to use it as he wants to as long as it is kept clean and his dogs, cats, cows, horses, chickens, etc. do not disturb the neighbors," the writer said.

"Just because some people have no interest in animals, they should not be allowed to dictate to the others what they can or cannot do. Give us our own freedom of choice. We pay the bill."

Another writer expressed the same theme. "Taking animals away is taking one more freedom away. As long as a person pays his taxes and keeps his animal pens clean, he has a right to keep on his property what he wants to."

The Sun will continue to accept completed questionnaires until Tuesday Oct. 17, and will publish further results next week if the response warrants it.

Do You Favor Keeping Animals In The City?

The City of Avon Park is considering a ban on all animals within the city limits other than dogs or cats. The prohibition, which is included in the city's proposed new zoning ordinance, applies to all residential zoning districts. It reads as follows in the original draft, under "Prohibited uses":

(e) Keeping of swine, cattle, horses, chickens, rabbits and other such animals, excluding cats and dogs. Exception: existing horses may be maintained until Jan. 1, 1988 upon registration with the City Clerk within 60 days of the effective date of this ordinance.

What do you think? City officials want the opinions of as many Avon Park residents as possible to help them make a final decision on this proposal. Please register your opinion on the following questionnaire and return it to the Avon Park Sun, P.O. Box 1117, Avon Park FL 33825 by 9 a.m., Tuesday, Oct. 10. We will forward the results to the City Council and publish them in next week's Sun.

—— I'm in favor of the proposed ban.

—— I'm opposed to the proposed ban.

—— I would be in favor of the ban if it exempted horses as well as dogs and cats.

—— I'm opposed to an outright ban on animals, but I would favor requiring owners of horses or livestock animals to meet some minimum lot size and or setback standards in order to protect neighboring property owners.

Bombing Range Holds Fire Safety Program For Jr. Fire Marshalls

Saturday, Oct. 7, the Avon Park Bombing Range Fire Department kicked off "Fire Prevention Week" with approximately 50 kids and 15 parents attending a Jr. Fire Marshall program at the headquarters parking lot and building.

Participants in the program were given T-shirts and a firemans hat. Three groups were formed, according to age and were given tours of the bases two fire trucks and a fire prevention course do's and dont's by William Scandinaro.

The program began with Lt. Col. Scott Stovin, base commander, welcoming everyone to the demonstration and hoped that the program would help prevent fires in family housing.

While Scandinaro had a group in the headquarters building discussing fire prevention, Benjamin McNeil explained all about the 530-B, structal pumper, fire truck and Leon Dean demonstrated the T-9 resupplier, also used as a crash firefighting truck with a capacity of 2500 gallons of water plus AFFF agent.

As the children viewed the trucks and each item used was described to them, the siren in the 530-B seemed to be the one thing that attracted their attention the most.

Learn Fire Escape Route

Inside the building, Scandinaro talked with the youths about the danger of playing with matches and the need for learning a fire escape route within their homes. Many of the youngsters readily agreed they knew how to evacuate from a school building, however few knew the best route to leave their homes in case of fire.

Scandinaro stressed the following points as he talked with each age group separately and on different levels; fire prevention and fire escape.

In the area of fire prevention, children should be taught a respect for matches, he stated. For the small children he emphasized his point by telling them to never touch a match, if found they should be given immediately to an adult. Older children should be taught the proper use of matches by their parents he stated. Also, children should learn to recognize common home fire hazards, he said, and call them to their parents attention. "Some common fire hazards are frayed electrical wires, dirty air condition and heating filters and wires running underneath rugs," he said.

Scandinaro also pointed out to the older children that they were responsible for their electrical toys and gadgets, such as electric trains hair dryers and etc. if not, they can become a safety hazard. The younge..ser should always enlist the help of their parents or an older brother or sister to plug in an electric toy and also unplug it. Children should always be supervised when an electric outlet is involved he states.

How To Escape From A Home Fire

How to escape from a homefire, especially at night, was another topic of discussion. First item brought to the attention of the children was to learn how to get out safely. "Parents don't assume you will be able to rescue a child," he said. Its quite possible you want be able to reach them, or they may awaken first. Even a five year old can learn how to protect himself from fire, he stated.

Its very important for each household, especially those with small children and without a smoke alarm detector, to have home fire drills at regular intervals. Small children who have been properly trained can and in many cases have gotten themselves and even families out of fires.

How To Report A Fire

Next he talked with them on how and when to report a fire. Most important was to leave the house immediately. Go to the nearest neighbors house to summon help. In the city they have fire alarm boxes which may be used. However, he stressed the dangers of and importance of never turning a false alarm.

Scandinaro also demonstrated with the help of some of the children how to put out a persons clothing that had caught on fire. He said that 100,000 out of 300,000 injured by fire each year are victims of clothing fires. With young children the fire often starts when they climb the stove to reach the desired candy, soda and etc., stored in the cabinet overhead.

What To Do In Case A Clothing Fire

"When your clothing catches on fire," he said, "the first instinctive reaction is to run." But, running only adds fuel to the fire and is the worst thing a person could do. The correct response is to stop, drop to the floor or ground and roll. Roll with arms outstretched, roll back and forth, to smother the flames and put the fire out. Children were also instructed on the correct way to stop a running fire victim and put out the fire with a blanket or whatever was available to them.

Scandinaro asked all parents, for their childs own good, and their peace of mind, be sure their school age youngster is prepared to face a fire emergency.

Each child was given a brochure and questionnaire on fire prevention and safety to be complete and returned to the fire department. These would be checked over by the fire fighting personnel and children getting the best answers to the questions would receive a plaque.

He concluded the program with "the best protection is prevention".

McGuire Speaks To Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary unit No. 69 ladies and several husbands enjoyed a delightful meeting at Jodi's Restaurant in Lake Placid, Thursday Oct. 5, at 7 p.m.

The meeting was opened with a cheerful greeting from the hostess, Pauline Dionne of Lake Placid. The theme for District VIII for the year is "The Golden Chain of Service." There followed the pledge of allegiance to the flag, a verse of the National Anthem, the Auxiliary Pledge and concluding with a prayer by chaplain Netti Petterson of Avon Park.

Warm fellowship was enjoyed throughout the meal where the choices were numerous, servings generous and the quality excellent.

Then came the surprise of the evening when Addie McGuire State President of the Auxiliary was introduced by Minnie Eisenmenger, Avon Park President.

Addie spoke of the Auxiliary's continued support of the cancer support given to helping alleviate child abuse. She added a new dimension, the need for follow-up of the children who have been placed in foster homes. Addie spoke against reduced Veternan's Assistance which has been threatened. She encouraged new fellow members to develop greater leadership within local units, begin small and grow.

Then the subject shifted and Addie McGuire told how, when, and why she became so interested in working for the veterans. It seems she was once a Ziegfield Follies Girl, in the chorus line, met and married her husband, also a showman. They were joined by another couple forming an act with dancer-comedienne, straight man, pianist — comedien, and singer-comedian. Off they went to Londn, worked up several acts, played at the Palladium and were requested by the British govrnment World War II to go on entertainment tours for their troops during the second invasion of France. Their experiences were varied and rewarding, occasionally frightening but altogether a lot of fun. Addie's personal charm and vitality are still with her. Wit, sympathy, tenderness, attractiveness, she has managed to retain it all.

The foursome was in uniform, actually considered members of the British military forces. They entertained troops from France to India. In concluding her remniniscences, Addie quoted this four-line verse, "Behind every Legionnaire there stands a lady rare. The American Legion Auxiliary will always be there."

For the record, the following should be noted. There were two couples present, the husbands were World War I veternans, in good physical and mental health. Pauline Dionne and Ruth Allen can well be proud of their husbands, Edward and Lowell.

Watch the Avon Park Sun for the next local Auxiliary meeting. A good program is expected.

Wives Club To Hold Flea Market Nov. 4

Bombing Range Wives Club will hold their annual bazaar and flea market sale, Saturday, Nov. 4, next to the N.C.O. Club from 9 a.m., until 4 p.m.

Garden Clubs To Decorate Christmas Trees With Eggs

Evelyn Delk, president of Federated Garden Clubs of Avon Park, held a board meeting at her home on October 2. Evelyn appointed Mrs. Guy Decker as delegate to the District 9 meeting to be held in Wauchula on October 26. Laura Neubauer will serve as the alternate delegate.

Each district has been asked to decorate a Christmas tree for the State Flower Show which is to be held in Orlando on December 1, 2, and 3. Each member will decorate two eggs with natural seeds or spieces. Friday, Oct. 20, members will meet at 9:30 a.m. in the Union Congregational Church to learn the art of egg decorating.

There was discussion concerning the Yard of the Month project. It was suggested to enlarge the area for choosing this project from the city limits of Avon Park to possible a five mile area surrounding the city. Dorothy Lanier, chairman for the yard of the month committee will take the suggestion under advisement and present her recommendation at the November Federation meeting.

The president suggested that the club consider sponsoring a tree and plant sale next October. This long-range plan will be discussed at future meetings.

Founders Garden Circle To Meet

Founders Garden Circle Club will meet at the home of Daisy Wollangk, 151 Woodlawn, at 2 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 12. Lou Grose will be the co-hostess.

Following a short social hour, E.A. Delaney will speak on "Bromiliads." Mr. Delaney is an authority on this subject as he has traveled to South and Central America to study and collect bromiliad specimens.

City Urges Residents To Connect Sewers

City officials are urging all city residents whose houses or businesses are within 200 feet of sewer facilities to connect to the facility within 90 days.

According to law, and the requirements of the farmers Home Administration, the city must require residents to hook on to the sewers. The Farmers Home Administration is the federal agency which lent the city the money with which the construct the sewers.

All residents who are legally required to hook-on to the present system will be notified by the city. Citizens do not have to actually hook-on the sewer within 90 days but arrangements to do so must have been made within that time period.

If a resident does not connect voluntarily, the city has the legal authority to make the hook-up and take a lien on the land.

Officials ask that all residents make arrangements to connect without delay. If any residents has received a notice from the city, but has already hook-on to the sewer, contact the city building department.

B Battery Rates As Superior Unit

"B Battery was rated one of the most superior units by the First Army Command," stated Florida National Guard Adjudant General K.C. Bullard, last Sunday morning. This means he continued that five days after notication by the President of the United States and the Governor of Florida they would be combat ready and ready to hit the front lines.

At the National Guard Armory on U.S. 27S on a routine visit Major General Bullard told how B Battery, 2nd Battalion of the 116th Field Artillery was the only battery to pass ARTEP (Army Training and Evaluation Program) during summer camp at Ft. Stewart, Ga.

Gen. Bullard from Florida National Guard Headquarters, St. Augustine, Fla., before his appointment as Adjudant General, was the tax collector of Hillsbough County. He had also served as the bridgade commander for five years and as a group commander. He recalled that his National Guard experience began 39 years ago in June 1939, when 17 days of summer camp netted him $17.00.

With 83 National Guard units in Florida, Gen. Bullard said he visits units somewhere every month. Besides visiting B Battery Sunday morning he had four other units to visit this past weekend with Col. James C. Godwin, Battalion Commander and Sgt. Major Jessie Martin both of Lakeland.

Accompanied by Capt. Tom Simmons, Battery Commander and several staff members, Gen. Bullard made an easy informal approach to the men from the mess section, gun crews, maintenance, fire control, etc. Shaking hands, he exchanged pleasantries and bits of technical information with men he had met at summer camps or other training exercises. He also had time for a few words of encouragement for Roy J. Conner Jr. of Wauchula who had just joined the Guard.

Most noticeable during the visit was the enthusian of the guardsmen. It was the enthusiasm of men who were good and knew they were good because they had passed the tests during summer camp. But could they improve? The answer to this question was their continued training in aiming and sighting drills, fire control problems, the routine of meal preparation, the paperwork demands of supply and clerical work.

In approximately a month B Battery will head for Camp Blanding, Fla., where they will be involved in field training and small arms exercises with the brigade. About 2000 men from elements of 20 units are expected to take part in the training.

Gen. Bullard Points Out Need For More Men In Guard Units

Gen. Bullard pointed out that on a state wide basis 618 new men will be needed in the Florida National Guard. B Battery because of reorganization will have openings for 27 more guardsmen. But the National Guard wants top quality men — they have found that top level men do the job better and faster. It is a place where a qualified man can advance through education and training, he stated.

On leaving the Armory, Gen. Bullard summarized his feelings by stating, "It (B Battery) is one of the finest Artillery units I've seen. If it is supported with equipment and funds, people won't have to worry about the effort the guardsmen put forth."

"The communities (Avon Park, Lake Placid, Sebring, Wauchula, Zolfo Springs, Ft. Meade, Frostproof, etc.) can be proud of the Battery as it is an outstanding unit," he added.

time of the fire. Twenty- three separate lawsuits against Young are referred to, and among the items subpoenaed for trial by Liberty Mutual are financial records from the Barnett Bank of Sebring relating to Young's companies.

Young's attorneys have denied all the insurance company allegations, according to the court documents.

City Shelves Lake Isis Complaints

Avon Park Councilman took no official action on a complaint about the possible pollution of Lake Isis when several councilmen said they felt no preventive Step needed to be taken at this time.

At a previous council meeting, Phillip Wooten told council man a spillway built by the city entering Lake Isis was polluting the lake. Wooten said the asphalt drain allowed water to run directly into the lake thus creating a pollution hazard.

The water, Wooten said, in addition to carrying bits of asphalt into the water, was digging out the soil where it entered the lake.

Councilman David Barefield, who lives in the vacinity of Lake Isis, agreed the spillway was a pollution problem and said some action should be taken to correct it.

"We should wait until we have more verbal complaints," said Councilman Henry Dennis. "One person was happy and one person was dissatisfied. I think we should leave it the way it is."

Councilman Kelley Phillips agreed saying, "For the time being, let it stay the way it is."

However Mrs. Jean Jordan also protested the drain the city put in.

"I don't think that water should go in there at all. I won't let my children go in there," she said.

Where was the water going before the drain was put in, asked Henry Dennis.

"Well, so has the swimming pool," replied Dennis.

"I know it has but are you going to go down and chlorine Lake Isis?"

"If it comes to that, looks like we're going to have too," he said.

"All I'm saying is the lake should be protected," said Mrs. Jordan.

Street Superintedent John Ziegler said he did not feel the drain was polluting the lake.

"Well, that doesn't make it safe and clean for the rest of the years we'll live here. I don't think any of the lakes should be destroyed because we have little enough of them left now," she replied.

Mrs. Jordan told councilmen that the lake had been tested several times by state agencies for possible pollution.

"Has it failed?" asked Dennis.

"It's gotten bad a couple of times," said Mrs. Jordan.

Functional Literacy Test Here Again

Highlands County eleventh graders, as well as some high school seniors, will be taking the state's second version of the Functional Literacy test this week, school officials said.

Some students began taking the test Tuesday, according to Dr. Dan Davis, county superintendent of schools, while Avon Park High School juniors and some seniors will take the test Thursday.

The Functional Literacy Test is being administered simultaneously with the statewide assessment exams, which are given to students in the third, fifth and eighth grades, according to Davis.

Both Davis and Avon Park High School Principal Lester Watson said they expect students here to do substantially better than the test results recorded last year, when Avon Park students scored only 55 percent on the math portion and 87 percent on the communications part of the test.

Watson said last year's experience with the test has given teachers a better idea of how to prepare students.

Davis agreed, and he commented, "We, as administrators and teachers learn from these tests as well as the students."

He said county teachers have been concentrating on math to try to upgrade scores on that portion of the test which only 65 percent of the students passed countywide.

Watson said the test has been changed substantially from last year's but added he doesn't know how, since no one, including school administrators, can look at the sealed test documents.

Both administrators said test results should be made available by the state just before the Christmas holidays.

Countywide, 576 high school juniors will be taking the test, along with 210 seniors, most of whom failed the test last year and need a passing score to receive an academic diploma.

Bill Gentis Speaks To Rotarians On Cycling

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Avon Park Rotary Club, Bill Gentis, owner of a local bicycle shop, described for Rotarians the desirability of cycling for physical fitness.

Gentis described three types of bicycles and their suitabilities: One speed coaster brake type, an early design suitable for short distance pleasure riding; three speed type, good for commuting short distances on paved streets in terrain with only minor hills; and ten speed type, best all around and good for short or long trips on paved roads in all types of terrain.

He said that whatever type bicycle is used, a person should gradually increase their body's capability to process oxygen which is a measure of fitness. Not only is cycling good exercise but is also good to do as warmup or cool off for other sports. He also suggested cycling to and from the tennis courts, etc., for instance. He said he got started in cycling with trips around his neighborhood, then progressed to travelling 25 miles each day, and finally making trips of about 100 miles each weekend with a group of friends. For a period of time he travelled about 6000 miles per month by bicycle.

Gentis closed by reminding everyone that persons riding bicycles are governed by the same traffic laws as if they were driving an automobile. They must ride on the right hand side of the road, they must obey all traffic control signs and devices, and must signal their intentions for turns, etc.

During the business portion of the meeting, President Phil Webber made the following announcements: Fall Ladies Night will be held on November 14th at the Sebring Elks Club; tickets will be $8 per person and a sign up list will be passed around next meeting; The Young Lawyers Section of the Florida Bar Association has offered the club a program presenting details of the proposed Florida Constitional amendment which will be on the ballot in next months election, and we will try to schedule it for our November 1st meeting:

Red Devils Sweep Past Bradenton Defenders

RED DEVIL CARL Wingate sweeps around the right end for a short gain against Bayshore. Wingate scored three times for the Red Devils in Avon Park's 41-14 win against the Bruins.

Icing On The Cake

THE LAST TOUCHDOWN by the Red Devils was scored with only 15 seconds to go in the game. The score put the game way out of reach for Bayshore who dropped their third game of the season in a 41-14 loss to Avon Park. (Sunphoto by Bruce Henderson)

Red Tide Engulfs Bayshore 41-14

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Lineman Keith Porter grabbed one interception and one Bayshore fumble and Back Jimmy Brown ran an interception 20 yards for a touchdown to lead the Avon Park Red Devils to a crushing 41-14 defeat of the Bayshore Bruins.

Although failing behind 14-6 at the half, Avon Park surged back for five touchdowns in the second half while the vaulted Red Devil defense completely shut down the Bayshore offensive game.

The Red Devils came out charging on their first possession in the second half. They moved from their own 15-yard line to inside the Bayshore 10, aided by a 35-yard run by Ricky Bevins and a 15-yard penalty against the Bruins.

However the Bruins defense stood off the Red Devil rushing attack and Avon Park was forced to give up the ball on downs after failing to convert on a fourth down and five situation.

Earlier in the game, the Red Devils had been within the Bruins 2 — yard line twice and had been unable to reach the goal line, giving up the ball on downs both times.

This time, though, the long drive was not for naught. On the second play of the series, the Bayshore quarterback went back to pass. The pass was partially blocked at the line of scrimmage and Porter hauled it in. He was tackled at the Bayshore two.

One play later David Sisemore carried for the touchdown. The extra point was no good and Bayshore was still in the lead by two points, 14-12.

That was to be rectified on the next series of downs. With the ball on the Bruin 35, a Bayshore runner was hit behind the line of scrimmage. The ball popped out and Porter recovered the fumble on the Bayshore 26.

The Red Devils marched it down to the five where Carl Wingate took it over right tackle for the score. Wingate also scored the point after touchdown on almost the exact same play. Avon Park led 20-14.

Bayshore and Avon Park exchanged punts as the game went into the fourth quarter. Bayshore, still looking for their first offensive drive in the second half, tried to go into the air.

It was a mistake as a bad pass from the Bayshore quarterback was scooped up by Red Devil Charlton Weathers just before it hit the ground. The interception left Avon Park only about 20 yards from the Bayshore goal.

On a third and one play from the eleven, Wingate broke two tackles and scored again for Avon Park making it 26-14. The Red Devils run it in for the extra points and the score was 28-14 with just over 10 minutes left in the game.

The Avon Park defense was not though. On the next Bayshore drive it was Ricky Bevins who intercepted a Bruin pass. The Bruins, tough, stopped the Avon Park offense and the ball went back over the Bayshore.

When Bayshore again tried to gain yardage against Avon Park through the air, back Jimmy Brown, stepped in front of a Bayshore receiver at the Bruin 31, grabbed off the pass and ran into the Bayshore end zone with almost no interference. The extra point was no good and the score stood at 34-14.

The Bayshore offensive was again stymied. On a fourth down situation near midfield, the Red Devils stopped the Bruins and the ball went over to Avon Park.

In a series of rushing plays, the Red Devils took the ball down the field and Todd Packer scored with 12 seconds left to play and put Avon Park on top by a score of 41-14.

The Red Devils had scored first. Late in the first quarter, Bayshore tried to convert in a fourth down situation near their 30yard line. The Avon Park line held and took the ball over on down.

The offense moved the ball down to the Bayshore three where Carl Wingate went around right end virtually untouched and into the end zone.

Bayshore came back in what was to be their only good offensive series of the night. They took the kick on their 33 and drove to the Red Devil 25 where they faced a third and one situation. An Bayshore back went right through the middle of the Red Devil line to score and put the Bruins in a 7-6 lead.

The next Bruin score was on an interception. The Red Devils attempted a sideline pass at their 31-yard line. A Bayshore back intercepted and went the 31 yards to put Bayshore into a 14-6 lead at the half.

The Red Devils had two chances to score in the first half but were stopped by the Bruin line.

The Red Devil record now stands at 3-2. They travel to Frostproof this Friday to play the Frostproof Bulldogs.

Jayvees Take On Miners Thursday At Ft. Meade

The Avon Park Red Devil junior varsity will take on the Miner jayvees in Fort Meade tonight, Thursday seeking their fourth consecutive win of the season. The Devil jayvees have defeated Frostproof, Lake Placid and Sebring, and are coming off an open date last Thursday night.

The probable starting offensive lineup for the young Avon Park team will have Steve Godfrey at center, Ricky Oates and Tommy Turnbull or Todd Bennett at guards, Allan Liskey and Kenny Cribb at tackles, and Ricky Derkman and Chris Collins or Kirk Evans at ends.

Dwayne Council will be at quarterback, with Ronnie Barnes at halfback, Billy Bolden at fullback or tailback and Raymond Claitt or Larry Jackson at the other back position.

The starting defense will have Liskey and Cribb at tackles and Derkman and Oates at ends on the four-man line. The four linebackers will be Collins, Bolden, Claitt, Evans or Turnbull. Defensive halfbacks will be Barnes and Jackson with Dwayne Council at safety.

Kickoff time is slated for 7:30 p.m. at the Fort Meade football field.

Tryouts For Flag Football Will Be Held On Oct. 26

The Avon Park Recreation Department will be having tryouts for this year's Flag - Football League, Thursday, Oct. 26, at 4 p.m. at the Avon Park High School. The league is designed for kids 9-12 years old that are not already involved in a football program.

Registration forms must be completed and signed by the parent or guardian and then brought to the "tryout." Only those with these forms completed will be eligible to participate.

Teams will be chosen on that day, so be sure to pick up those forms and bring them to the high school. Registration forms may be obtained from the school office or the Recreation Center.

There is also a need for coaches of this league. We need someone that would not mind volunteering a little time each week to teach these kids the basic skills needed to play organized football. The games will be played each Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 4 p.m. The league will start Nov. 14 and continue for about five weeks.

The league has, in the past, started the first of December and run thru the Christmas holidays. This year the league will be starting earlier, as not to interfere with the Christmas vacation.

There will be four teams competing for the top honors and trophies. Each teams will have 12 members, seven being on the field at any one time.

If you have a child that is between the ages of 9-12 years old and they would like to play in this league, be sure to pick up a registration form from the school office and have it completed so that they may bring it to the tryouts and be chosen for one of the teams.

If you are interested in being a coach, please call the Recreation Department at 453-6881 for more information.

Regatta Is This Weekend

Who's Got The Ball?

THE BALL POPS out of the hands of a Bayshore runner in one of the costly Bruins turnovers of the night. Avon Park capitilized on two interceptions and a fumble to help them to their fourth win of the season.

Cross Country Team To Compete Today

Avon Park's Red Devil boys and girls cross country teams will compete in the Clewiston Invitational today, Thursday, at 4 p.m., in Clewiston.

The A and AA contest will pit many of the top small schools in the state against one another in the quest for the team title. Clewiston's Scott Sheffler is the favorite to capture the individual title.

Saturday, the Devil boys varsity squad will again hit the road, this time competing the Jacksonville Lee Invitational, which begins in Jacksonville at 10 a.m.

Jacksonville's 3.0 mile contest will feature defending state AA Champion Clearwater Central Catholic, a team which Avon Park's harriers will have to face in district competition as well as in the state contest this year.

Last Thursday, the Red Devil boys swept seven of the first eight spots to trample Sebring by a 19-45 score (low score wins).

Jerry McKenzie posted a personal best on the Avon Park course with an excellent 16:05 performance, while his co-captain, Alan Portis, breezed home in 16:15 and Mark Myers zipped in at 16:55 for their best performances of the season at home.

The Devil girls lost a close contest to Sebring 27-30. Nancy Turnbull, Patty Belcher and Laurie Welch captured first, third and fifth, respectively, for Avon Park.

Turnbull's 12:14 time was a school record for the new 2.0 mile girls course.

Girl's Softball Team To Play Today

The 1978 Avon Park Middle School girl's softball team hopes to extend last years six-game winning streak this season as they take up defense of the Bi-County Championship they won last season.

The girl's traveled to Wauchula last Monday to open their season against the Hardee Junior High Wildcats. This Thursday, Oct. 12, they will open their home game season, at Little League Field, against Lake Placid.

The following week they will host Sebring on Monday and Wauchula on Thursday in a re-match to end their home game season.

The games are free and open to the public and the girls would like to have the support of the local home town fans. Game time for all games will be 4 p.m.

This years team is made up of the following players: Willette English, Denise Pearson, Maggie Stukes, Pam Manning, Barbara Thomas, Jessica, Lewis, Eunice Williams, Chiquita Johnson, Terry Sims, Martha Matthews, Michelle McDonnold, Taffny Gordon, Sharon Crapp.

Trainers and managers are Sherry Sims, Anita Thomas, Cheryl McDonald, Brenda Woody. Coaches are John Russ and Norma Hawk.

PUNT, PASS and Kick Contest first place winners will compete Saturday in Lakeland in a zone playoff contest. Winners were, from left to right in front: Stacy Landress, 2nd place, 10-year-olds; Anthony Williams, 1st place, 10-year-olds; Roger Bateman, 3rd place, nine-year-olds; William Revels, 2nd place, nine-year-olds; Anthony Gordon, 1st place, nine-year-olds; Jim Loveless, 3rd place, eight-year-olds, and Corey Jones, 2nd place, eight-year-olds. Fireman's Regatta This Weekend

About 100 boats are expected to be entered in the 13th annual running of the Firemen's Regatta on Lake Tulane, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 14 and 15, according to Norman Langston of the Peace River Outboard Racing Association.

Many of the racing outboard and hydro drivers will be coming from the Florida State Championship races held at Tarpon Springs the weekend of Sept. 30. Drivers will make the runs for cash prizes and national points. Some out of state drivers are also expected for this year end race.

Drivers and their boats will be arriving late Friday afternoon with parking for self-contained campers on a flat portion of the Lake Tulane beach. Testing of motors and test runs will be starting about 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning.

On Saturday the race starting flag will go up about 11:00 a.m. with race starting time on Sunday being after 12 noon.

The 12 classes of racing outboards and hydros are co-sponsored by the Avon Park Volunteer Firemens Association and the Peace River Association. The Firemens Ladies Auxiliary will again operate a lunch concession stand for the benefit of drivers, race fans and spectators during the two day event.

As at past Lake Tulane races there will be no admission charged for the races. Spectators can find parking on three sides of the lake. Spectators will also be able to enter the pit area to talk with the drivers and pit crews.

Prizes Awarded By

RADIO SHACK

This Week's WINNER Is

T.J. Kinyon

There were lots of hits and bumps stated T.J. Kinyon, as he explained why he had only one real hit and caught only one fish when he was using a live shiner for bait, last Wednesday evening.

T.J. and his fishing partner Rick Nash had been fishing from a boat on a local lake. The water was about 6 to 8 feet deep and a light easterly wind was blowing following a rain storm.

Casting toward the shore T.J. was using a heavy line to avoid breaking it if the hook caught on a snag. Just about dusk the big one hit the shiner leaving no doubt about it being real. With his heavy line T.J. had no trouble landing the 9 lb. 4 oz. big bass which was 25¼ inches long.

The reason he didn't catch any other fish that were hitting his bait was because T.J. was using a 12 inch long shiner — much too big for the small fish to swallow.

Target Tennis Contest Held Last Saturday

The Mr. Peanut Target Tennis Contest was held last Saturday at the City Tennis Courts. Kids in the 12 and under age group competed to see who would score the most points and win the first place Gold Certificate.

Clint Collins won the first place honors, scoring a total of 51 points. Second place went to Michele Traverse. Third place was captured by Carol Padgett. The second and third place winners were awarded ribbons from the Recreation Department and all participants were given participation certificates.

The kids were presented 10 balls for each of the basic tennis shots (forehand, backhand, forehand volley, backhand volley, overhead and the serve), of these ten, they were scored on five of each. They were trying to hit all the shots into targets placed on the opposits courts. The better the placement of the shot the higher the score.

River Greens

Good morning or good evening, whichever it maybe as you start to read this. However I hope you do not feel as bad as George Zabarris thought he did when he answered a friends query as to how he felt with - "Every morning when I wake up I have to check to see if I'm still alive." That's really bad.

Have you noticed the River Greens billboard on the right of 27 just before you get to the hospital? Several people remarked that the golfer in center looked like Rodney Davis. It is possible that Rodney posed for the painting, but .. he denies it. If you did, Rodney your head seems to be coming up just a little fast.

Pleasantly surprised to go into the clubhouse Monday noon and see Naomi Davis back on the job. Asked her when she got back from Ohio. She replied that she arrived home Sunday morning and went to work Sunday afternoon. Asked why she went to work so soon? Her answer was that she must be so slow that work caught up with her, or so fast she caught up with work, either way she was always working. Take it easy Naomi.

Last week I reported that a gals team five putted number 15 hole, from 2 feet. Having 3 putted for years and considered myself an expert, and this seemed too much. Each year I have easily won the clubs Three Putting Championship, and never did that bad. Rocky Smith claims he is the U. S. Champion with a 3 putt from 7 inches. An opponent said "He can't miss that. Give it to him." His partner said "No, make him putt it." Rocky hit it hard and the ball hit the cup and went on it's way. Rocky missed coming back and had to try again. It seems like the first man doesn't have a chance.

Strange things are happening at River Greens! Charley Ginn and I were playing a nice, peaceful game of golf, or it was so until we got to the fourteenth hole. Charley must have teed the ball a little high, for he hit what they call a 'high infield pop,' neither of us saw it. We looked for it for at least 10 minutes before we gave up. Next day we were on number 1 tee, when up drove a couple and handed the ball to Charley. He always puts his name on the balls. The honest lady had had a lot of trouble with her eyesight, but she found the ball we couldn't. Again we started and again no trouble until we got to fourteen. Once more Charley teed the found ball. Once more he hit the 'high pop'. Once more we looked for at least ten minutes before we gave up. Charley has a message for the one who finds it this time, "Please keep it, it's hexed."

This joke may win 'Cutest of the Year' award. My wife and I stopped at The Cathouse (not what you think, but where Sebrings elite, meet to eat) for breakfast. Next to us was a table with five men. Soon another man came in and sat down. The waitress promptly brought him a cup of coffee, and left. She returned a moment later with a very serious expression on her face, and placed a large plate in front of him. On the plate was a very large donut, holding a tiny lighted candle. As we left I asked the man what the occasion was. He said he thought his sun had conspired with the waitress to remind him of his birthday.

Ladies Day. October 3rd. Low Putts. 23 players. 9 holes. Luncheon. Tie for First - Edith Morgan, Louise Peffer 14 putts. Third, Marge Hostutler 15 putts.

Ladies Pro Am. October 5th. 18 players. First Team +3½ Bertha Bieber, Georgia Brown, Elinor Tharp, Ruth Durden. First A, Bertha Bieber +4½. First B, Connie Clifford, even First C, Elinor Tharp, even. First D, Marge Hostutler +4.

Men's Pro Am. October 4th. First Team +13½. Joe Stoecker, Wallace Cross, Harold Kline, L. Daniel. First A player - Karl Swanson +½. First B Red Smith +3½. First C Harold Kline +9. First D L. Daniel +7½.

Club Scramble October 8th. First - Red and Aletha Smith, Mark Bell, Noami Davis at 65. Second - Tie - Mark and Marge Hostutler, Frank Hollman, Leo and Adeline Promey, Bill and Dot Weaver.

Men's Day Oct. 7th. Started but nobody finished. All the men quit to help fight the fire in the cart sheds. That was more exciting than playing golf, especially if your cart was in the shed. Another story on the fire elsewhere in this issue.

Pinecrest

Here is something that astounded me. It belongs in the Guiness Book of Records and Ripley's Believe it or not. Can you believe that four men would drive 38 miles, once or twice a week, thru good weather and bad, too play golf at Pinecrest? Maybe you could, but could you believe they did for 15 years? Four men from Frostproof did, and Bill Reck will verify it. The men are, Gus Sullivan, who is in citrus; Glen Wise, seeds; Jim Fann, insurance, and Jim Redd, an executive with Ben Hill Griffin. Playing as a foursome for 15 years, I can't get over it. What loyalty, they just don't make members like that anymore. Pinecrest should award them gold medals, but where would you get the gold? Pinecrest could get a picture of 'faithful Frostproof Four' and put it in their Hall of Fame.

A local golfers reports "My putting has improved since I've listened to E. F. Hutton."

Did you have a prescription filled at Eckerd's last summer? If so did you notice the pharmacist with the quick smile and the nervous manner? His nameplate said 'Herb Smith' which probably meant nothing to you. So much for fame. In the Fifties, Herb Smith was one of two top amatuer golfers in Florida. He won the state amatuer championship two or three times. While still an amatuer, he and a gal amatuer, Billy Hartwig of Miami, teamed up to defeat Patty Berg and Johnny Revolta, and win the Continental Two Ball in Orlando. Herb turned pro and went on the pro tour for awhile. At that time the leading money winners barely made a living. Herb decided that Pharmacy was an easier way to make a living. He lives in Orlando. He pinched hits for Eckerd filling in for illness, and vacations, so he may be back here. He still plays in the National Seniors Tournament, so it might not be a good idea to invite him out for a Nassau game.

Ross hendrick was in the clubhouse. Ginny Fisher came up and asked him if they would let her play in the Grandmother's tournament. She explained that she had three sons and the two married ones hadn't provided any grandchildren and the youngest was only 17, so she couldn't expect any from him. Ross replied, "Don't worry, Ma'am they's let me play if I had 2 bucks".

Ladies Pro Am, October 3rd, Team winner +6 were, Helen Griffith, Lana Wright, Doris McCalley. Individual Winners were Helen Griffith +3½; Katy Utz +3½; and Inez Sullivan +2½.

Grandmother's and non Grandmothers Tournament October 7. A secret meeting was held and they decided not to release scores. Winners - Low gross, Helen Griffith. Low net, Betty Jane Fulton.

Non Grandmothers - Low Gross, Ginny Fisher. Low Net Betty Ford. Blind Bogey - Edith Godwin.

Highlands County Needs HJORT

COUNTY-WIDE CONCERNS:
Promote policies which will thoroughly instruct students in the basic subjects. Broaden the vocational classes in each high school to train students to be prepared to earn a living as skilled laborers and craftsmen, people on whom we all depend. Stress the understanding, respect for and obedience of laws as the basis of freedoms. Further remove the drug influence from the school campus and insist that violators be punished and outsiders learn that Highlands County is "off limits" to pushers. Placement of a limit on spending by the board, thus controlling taxes and inflation.
