Facts Withheld From Press On Arrest Of Commissioner's Son

No Coverup Intended, Police Say

BY BRUCE HENDERSON

No coverup of the arrest of Highlands County Commissioner Cecil Skipper's son on armed robbery, grand theft and burglary charges was intended, according to local police officials and Commissioner Skipper, even though information about the arrest was deliberately withheld from the press.

The case was handled as a routine juvenile arrest, Police Chief Robert Brooks told the Sun in explaining why he refused to acknowledge the arrest or provide any information when first called Wednesday by a Tampa Tribune reporter.

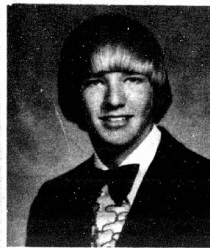

Both the Sun and the Tribune learned of the arrest of Craig Alan Skipper through separate anonymous typewritten notes received in the mail Wednesday.

"I was reluctant to release the information, as reported," Chief Brooks said Friday, "because first off, one of the subjects is still a juvenile, and second because the first offense (armed robbery) was committed when the other boy (Craig Skipper) was still a juvenile."

The incident leading to the grand theft charge against Skipper allegedly occurred after his 18th birthday, and he will be tried as an adult on that charge, according to Brooks.

Court records allege that on June 17, Skipper accompanied an Avon Park juvenile to a local electronics store knowing the other youth was planning to steal two radio scanners.

When Skipper returned to his car, the records allege, Skipper saw the scanners and later attempted to use one of them in his car after purchasing a frequency crystal for it at another store. He then hid the radio at a girlfriend's house in Watchula, according to the report.

He posted a $1,012 bond on the grand theft charge.

The armed robbery charge allegedly involved the robbery of the Shop & Go store on N. Lake Ave., with the same juvenile accomplice, while Skipper still was technically a juvenile.

That charge will be tried in juvenile court, and may be reduced to a conspiracy charge by the state attorney's office, according to one source.

"As far as withholding information because one of the parents was a public official, that has no bearing on how we handled the case," Brooks said, adding he had "a responsibility to protect juveniles and their parents."

"I'd do the same for the poorest family in town," commented the chief. He said he "will uphold my officers. They have done nothing against any of my orders or covered up or anything. They're just doing their jobs."

Sheriff Joe Sheppard, whose office assisted in the investigation and interrogation of Skipper, as well as in the arrest, told a Sun reporter the responsibility for making a news release on the case rested entirely with the city police department.

"The city is responsible for their own news releases. We're not responsible for making news releases for the City of Avon Park or Sebring," the sheriff said.

However, the Sheriff's Department did not merely assign "an investigator to assist them with their investigation," as Sheppard claimed, according to Brooks' version of the case.

"I asked them if they could keep it as low key as possible and they said they would do what they could."

—Cecil Skipper

Rather, Brooks said, the Sheriff's Department was cooperating in the case because they suspected Skipper of being involved in a series of flag thefts in the county.

Sheppard, however, maintains his department was only providing an expert investigator to assist the city and should bear no responsibility for withholding information about the arrest, even though Skipper was booked into the county jail.

"Let me assure you there was no effort by me or my department to cover up on anything," he added.

Commissioner Skipper, who was present during the interrogation of his son at the Sheriff's Department headquarters in Sebring on the evening of Sept. 14, said he "in no way tried to get the police to cover up this thing."

He acknowledged, however, that "I asked them if they could keep it as low key as possible, and they said they would do what they could."

Skipper said his request was not politically motivated, and that he did not try to use his position to pressure the police officers present.

"I did it as a father, not considering my position as a county commissioner," he said.

Paving Project Stirs Complaints

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Complaints are pouring into city hall about a paving project on East Castle Street which one resident called "the worst mess I've seen in my entire life."

Residents living on East Castle have objected to the sloppy workmanship of the job and the "dangerous" condition in which seven driveways were left.

The driveways, approaches which were also paved in the project, are about three to four inches higher than the residents' driveways.

"That's dangerous for people who are walking along the street," said one resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carr, who live on Castle Street, said the driveways also were a hazard to children who play in the area. A child could easily slip and fall on the concrete, they said.

Some of the paving was already cracking although it had only been in place for about two weeks.

"They used our tax money to make a mess like this," said Mrs. Carr.

Councilman David Barefield attempted to stop payment to the L.C. Crews Construction company, the firm which had done the paving, but was told by City Clerk Malcolm Crews that payment had already been sent to the company.

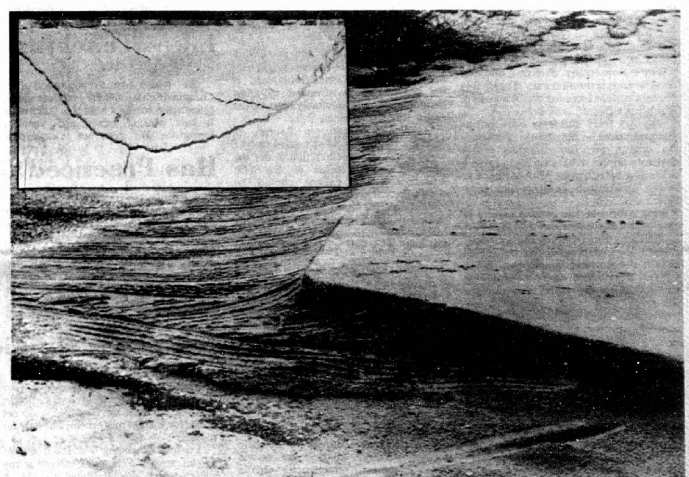

At the last council meeting, Barefield motioned that someone from the city inspect all future construction projects before payment is made. The motion passed unanimously.

"It's bad to have a project and have no one from the city to check it before we pay the people. . . I wanted a nice job down there, one we could be proud of. . . that's not what we've got," said Barefield.

The curbs are not lined up from the next street. When they got to the driveways, instead of having them raised up the way they did, they could have flattened them out which is normal procedure," he said. "The driveways are three to four inches above the existing pavement."

Barefield suggested, and other councilmen agreed, that the Crews Construction company not be allowed to bid on any other city project until the company rectified the paving defects.

"It is a bad job. I don't think it's acceptable to anyone who looks at it," he

THESE PICTURES SHOW why residents of East Castle Street are complaining about the paving along the street. Some of the paving is already cracking (inset) although the construction was done approximately two weeks ago. Residents also complain driveways were built up three to four inches above the pavement creating a hazard to residents, particularly children.

The total cost of the project was $10,700.

"They used our tax money to make a mess like this," Mrs. Carr complained.

Residents on Castle Street also complained because they said the construction company left sand and rocks along the street and in the yards of residents.

"It's sloppy, poor workmanship," said Barefield.

"I'll agree on that a hundred percent," replied Britt.

Tataris Signs Up For Council Race

The field of candidates for December's city council election expanded to two Monday as Thomas Tataris qualified for his second attempt to win a council seat.

Tataris, a "commercial specialist" for Florida Power Corporation, lost his bid for a seat in 1976, trailing Kelley Phillips by one vote to finish fourth.

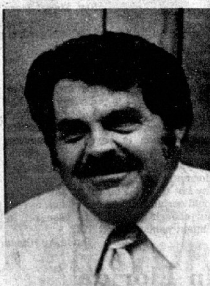

More harmony on the council was the theme struck by Tataris as he answered questions in the city clerk's office Monday afternoon.

"I feel there's been a lot of problems on the council, and I'm getting tired of picking up the newspapers every week and seeing a lot of misunderstandings," he said. "I feel the newspaper has an impression on everyone coming into the community for the first time, and I think there needs to be more harmony."

Tataris said he could bring that harmony to the council with his ideas and my knowledge of working with people. He said his job at Florida Power involves working with developers and builders to plan electric power facilities for their projects, and "it is partly a PR job."

Issues singled out by Tataris included taxes, recreation, planning and economic development.

There is no need for the city to raise taxes in the foreseeable future, he said. "It's a million dollars business, and what we need is qualified people to provide a budget without any increase in taxation. The city has enough revenue now."

He complimented the city's recreation program, but he added, "I'd like to see the people get more interested in recreation. We need to expand our facilities."

Tataris added he has just been appointed to serve on the city's recreation board. He also serves on the planning and zoning board and commented he has

Runoff Election Today

About 32 percent of Highlands County's 14,085 registered Democrats will go to the polls today, Thursday, to cast votes in three statewide and two local runoff races. Supervisor of Elections Jimmy Whitehouse predicted Monday.

"We're having a hard time predicting this one. I hate to guess this one," Whitehouse said, "but I'm going to say 32 percent."

He said voters are showing a lot of interest in the runoff for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination between Attorney General Robert Shriver and State Rep. Robert Graham, as well as in the local school board race between Mrs. Marguerite Skipper and Robert Fitzgerald.

Mrs. Skipper is a Democratic committeewoman, while Fitzgerald is a history and government instructor at South Florida Junior College and a former teacher at Lake Placid High

In the first primary Sept. 12, Fitzgerald narrowly missed a clearcut majority victory as he topped Mrs. Skipper by a margin of 3,641 to 3,873. The third candidate in the race, Selvin McGahee, received 847 votes.

The winner of today's runoff will face a Republican candidate Robert Hjord, of Lake Placid, in November's general election, for the District 3 seat being vacated by John Wirick, who did not run for reelection.

In a runoff contest which affects only part of Highlands County, Sebring resident Wayne Duncan is challenging Port Charlotte resident Darryl L. Brown for the District 75 State House of Representatives incumbent Fred Burrall, a Republican from Port Charlotte.

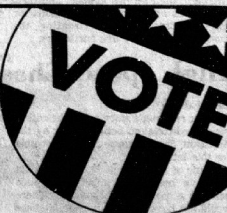

Duncan is director of the Tri-County Education Center, which serves Highlands, Hardee and Okeechobee counties, as well as a part-time political science teacher at South Florida Junior College.

In addition to the well-publicized gubernatorial runoff between Shriver and Shevin, there are two other statewide races which have received less notice.

Competing for the office of attorney general are Jim Smith and Alan Becker, while Beverly F. Dozier is battling George Firestone for the Secretary of State's position.

Polls will be open Thursday from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Polling locations are as follows: Precinct 1, Winter Guest Club, E. Main St., Avon Park; Precinct 2, County Building on S. Lake Avenue; Precinct 3, County Building in front of Motor Vehicle Inspection Station; Precinct 4, Shrine Club, S.R. 17, north of Sebring; Precinct 5, Sebring Hills Clubhouse; Precinct 6, Mobile unit at Triangle Restaurant; Precinct 7, Teen Center, corner of Kenilworth and Roseland Precincts, Sebring Tourist Club; Precinct 9, Teen Building N. Highlands Ave.; Precinct 10, American Legion Building; N. Pine St., Sebring; Precinct 11, Old City Hall Desoto City; Precinct 12, school house on U.S. 96, Lorida; Precinct 13, Creel Building, Lake Placid; Precinct 14, County Building, Venus; Precinct 15, Agri-Civic Center, U.S. 27 S.; Precinct 16, Avon Park Lakes Clubhouse; Precinct 17, Jaycee Building, S.R. 17, north of Sebring; Precinct 18, Kissimmee River Fishing Resort, S.R. 70 E.; Precinct 19, Sun's Lakes Country Club, U.S. 27, South of Lake Placid.

Teacher Talks Still Deadlocked

BY BRUCE HENDERSON

A 5½-hour session with federal mediator Margaret Rose last Friday failed to budge either side in the negotiations between the school board and the Highlands County Education Association.

"We really made very little progress," said Chet Brojek, chief negotiator for the teacher's union, although he added a dispute over working hours apparently was settled.

A more optimistic view of the mediation session, however, was expressed by Dr. James F. Smith, the assistant superintendent who serves as the school board's chief negotiator.

"I don't think it was counterproductive," Smith said. "I think it was productive. A lot of issues were clarified, and that's what a mediation session is for."

Smith said, however, the school board's offer of a 5½ percent increase, plus benefit increases, is final. The school board, he said, has no more money to offer.

"We can't go any higher. We've committed all the money we have," he said, adding the board "could stand to lose some of the money we've estimated we would receive from the state" due to a potential decrease in enrollment.

"Personally, I would like to see the Association put the matter before their membership, the rank and file," Smith commented.

The teacher's union is asking for a 10 percent pay increase over and above the automatic yearly increment raise, which is included in the school board's offer.

Brojek earlier estimated the real gap between the union demand and board offer in the neighborhood of seven percent. Smith said, however, that with

Casino Odds Are Stacked

An old army mess sergeant once said, "G.I.'s will eat a combat boot if the gravy is good enough." This was probably true, although the after effects could have been very disconcerting.

Proponents of legalized gambling are trying, with the latest Madison Avenue techniques coupled with the age-old technique of lying, to spread enough gourmet gravy so the average Floridian will swallow their proposal hook, line and sinker.

They hold out the hope of more money for school and law enforcement personnel as the main course, while the gravy they offer is more jobs and a better economy for the state.

There is an aura of romanticism about casino gambling. The word conjures up images of huge ornate casinos with the glitter of dice tables and roulette wheels, games where fortunes are won or lost at the turn of a card and thousands of patrons become completely immersed in the joy of chance.

However, gambling professionals will tell you chance is always stacked in favor of the house and beneath the romantic dream is a perverse and grim reality.

Why do casinos arrange gambling junkies and require each person to have, in cash, $1,500 and guarantee your return ticket after you go broke?

Why do pawn shops increase by the hundreds in areas of casino gambling?

Why does it suddenly become easy to find an office, conveniently located close to casinos that will buy your car, sight unseen, or your home, and give you cash on your insurance policy and, generally, make it simple for you to wipe out the accumulations of a lifetime with a few hours at a roulette table?

Why is New Jersey, even now, thinking of legislation lawmakers say is needed to prevent casinos from taking the homes of gambling debtors?

Why are there suddenly more pimps and prostitutes on the streets? Why does the crime rate jump as the newly destitute hit the streets trying to raise a new stake to try again. Why are there so many unexplained beatings and murders.

Why is Nevada, the present capital of casinos, rated number one among states "in murders, bankruptcies and suicides?" What the casino advocates would sell us is a slot machine, a kaleidoscope, full of joy and merriment where all problems are solved by the whirl of a roulette wheel.

What we would have, in reality, is a grotesque and perverse world of Disney for "Adults Only," feeding on the weaknesses of men and women.

The same Gold Coast financiers who would give Floridians casino gambling are those developers who systematically raped and plundered the state's coast line, putting up condominium after condominium, without regard for the environment.

Now that the beaches are eroding and a once scenic spot on the Gold Coast is no longer the tourist attraction it once was, the same financiers want to allow them to bet on the beach.

So they have created the "Big Lie" one minute commercials on the benefits of casino gambling.

Actually the revenues from casino gambling would not support the Dade County schools for one day.

Casinos backers are right in the sense the industry would attract new jobs. Jobs in police forces, hospitals, ambulance services and coroner's offices. Of course, there would also be a big increase in blackjack dealers, loansharks, bouncers, bar maids, bartenders and waitresses.

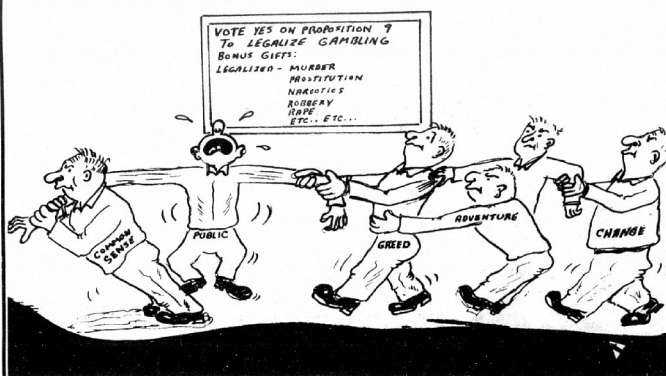

With the exception of the dealers, loansharks and bouncers, most of the new occupations directly connected with casino gambling will be paying the minimum wage. Hardly a sound industry for the state.

The second big lie in the pro-casino campaign is that the casinos would only be allowed on the Florida Gold Coast. If the constitution is amended to allow gambling, it would inevitably open up the entire state for casinos.

A potential operator in Tampa, or Orlando, would only need a good lawyer to get a court to proclaim that under the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment, the casinos should be allowed anywhere.

What will the state really receive if casino gambling is allowed? Citizens could be lured to workers in Africa who get paid a dollar a day for mining diamonds.

All the public has to do is be satisfied with a dollar a day as the financiers funnel millions to overseas operators, side organizations and the graft to strategic state officials who will conveniently look the other way while the state is being raped.

Likes Teaching And Discipline At Park Christian

Dear Editor:

We would like to commend Park Christian School on their excellent parent orientation sessions held this past week. It was well organized and very informative. We were put in a typical classroom situation and saw for ourselves how our two girls are being taught AND disciplined!! We see much academic progress plus good social adjustment. We feel confident about the leadership, curriculum and philosophy and do not regret one day of this, their 2nd year. Thanks Park Christian School!

Has Practiced God's Method For Many Years

Dear Editor:

I want to express my appreciation for your editorial on September 27th concerning Transcendental Meditation. When facts are revealed about what is behind cults such as this, intelligent people will think twice before getting involved with any such thing. The Bible method of meditation recognized by King David more than 4000 years ago is still the only method with positive value. Psalm 1 indicates that the method is deliberate study and thought about God's Word.

When meditation is based upon nonsensical sounds and is geared to put the mind in neutral as in T.M., it opens up the participant to Satanic influences. When on the other hand meditation is based on hiding God's word in our hearts

"that we might not sin against God," it cannot but have positive results such as those claimed by T.M. I know because I have been practicing God's method for many years.

Thanks again for your editorial.

Expresses Opinion On Own Use Of T M

Dear Editor:

This is written not in answer to your editorial, but rather to give you another opinion. First let me say that I do not speak for the TM movement, but only for myself.

I began practicing TM about a year ago because of a change I noticed in my sister, which she attributed to TM. A divorce and the accompanying financial problems and strain of raising three children without a wife had led to my having a year-long case of insomnia, which I was treating with alcohol.

The day I started TM I began to sleep through the night, and have ever since then. A month later I discarded my alcohol crutch, and stopped cigarettes within the year. My mental attitude and health improved immeasurably. I attribute these benefits to TM. Satisfaction with my work (construction supervisor) continues to grow.

I paid only one fee to TM to learn the technique and have been to many lectures and checkings (appointments with TM teachers to assure that my use of the technique continues to be correct) at no charge. My belief in my church (Catholic) has been strengthened by TM.

(My opinion is based on first-hand knowledge from trying the program. I feel your opinion was based on misinformation and lack of information. Why not try it? You might like it. You would certainly learn something, even if only enough on which to base an intelligent opinion about TM.

Gambling Of Every Kind Already In Florida

Dear Editor:

Why worry about Casino gambling in Florida? We already have gambling here of every kind. Most gambling is considered illegal. The difference between legal and illegal gambling seems to be whether or not the State or Federal Governments get a piece of the action.

Miami and Fort Lauderdale really want legalized Casinos simply because they are losing a large percentage of the tourist business to the islands.

The major beach hotels have very little to attract customers: their prices are high, their service is poor, and their employees are hiding behind unions for job security instead of treating the customers like they are customers.

High Speed Chase Not Necessary

Dear Editor:

Your reporter's story and your rather vicious editorial on action taken by the Assistant State Attorney is responsible for this letter.

Some of the charges dismissed would not have been charges had the police acted in a more prudent manner. There would not have been a high-speed chase in which three persons were injured, two vehicles damaged and eight cars forced off the highway.

Fact No. 1. A husband struck his wife (charge) assault.

Fact No. 2. She was no longer in danger from him because she was at the police station.

Fact No. 3. The public was not in any danger from her husband until he became a speeding bullet created by a police chase.

Fact No. 4. He was known: his vehicle was known and he could have been picked up later, without endangering the public.

There are occasions when hi-speed chases may be necessary. Particularly to stop a killer or a violent, vicious person who is a danger to society and who should be caught as soon as possible. This hot chase was not necessary, in my opinion.

I have respect and concern for our police and do not like to see them in unnecessary danger. Neither do I like to see vehicles traveling in excess of 100 miles an hour weaving down the highway, forcing cars off the road, dangerous to the driver running scared, dangerous to the police in hot pursuit and dangerous to anyone who happened to be traveling.

The police do have communications equipment that could be used to notify others and the wanted person could be apprehended at a stop light or when he was traveling at a reduced rate of speed.

Rocking The Boat
By George Duncan

The pro-casino gambling advocates tell us that the introduction of casinos in Florida would help the economy by providing more jobs for the citizens of the state.

However, they don't specify just what type of jobs would be available once casinos gambling is legalized. If the gambling referendum is passed this November, we might see newspaper ads for jobs like these: WEAPONS SPECIALIST WANTED: Man wanted who is an expert in handling guns, knives, plastic explosives, clubs and blackjacks. Prefer someone not presently known to FBI or local law enforcement agencies. However, will take men with only minor assault charges on their records. Must not feel faint at sight or blood of flinch when bones, or heads, are broken. Prefer someone with psychopathic tendencies.

Applicant must be willing to travel to run down deadbeats who skip off without paying the casino their full bill. Run down is not meant figuratively. Any applicant may contact Demetrio Conelli of Conelli Family, Sicilian branch, for interview.

ACCOUNTANT NEEDED: Must have great knowledge of handling of very large amounts of money, particularly knowledge of successful laundering operations. Must know all tricks of the Internal Revenue Service as well as other governmental agencies. Intricate knowledge of foreign banking systems such as Bimini, Mexico and Switzerland required. Absolute job security because no one is allowed to quit. Retirement hastened if too many questions are asked. Funeral expenses taken care of in retirement package. Pays well.

POLITICIANS WANTED: Offering up to $25,000 and more, if you can prove your worth. State or local office holders acceptable. Police and other law enforcement personnel also welcomed to take advantage of our offer. Job will be to reduce any interference when money is smuggled out of the country or drugs are smuggled in. Officials will be asked to look the other way if any individuals need to be roughed up or removed from the city entirely. If you're got the time, we've got the money. Great opportunity for advancement. The family has many people in Washington D.C. Play your cards right and we can put you there too.

GIRLS WANTED: Entertaining, glamorous jobs. Good pay. Some night work required. Must be good with hotel passkeys. Can meet businessman or politician of your choice. For those who like exercise, some walking required. Must have outgoing personality. Early retirement possible. In fact, early retirement is mandatory.

PUBLIC RELATIONS MAN NEEDED: Experienced, exceptional public relations man needed. Must be able to sell the public the great benefits of casino gambling. Price is no object. Must be skilled in newspaper and television advertising. Must be able to lie with a straight face. Will have unlimited budget for commercial and a media blitz.

Positive factors must be stressed. Public acceptance vital. If you feel you can do the job contact the Let's Squeeze Florida Like An Orange Committee. Bonus includes houses in California or Oregon since, if this passes, you'll certainly want to live in this state.

I don't care who you are Mr. Frost...one more drop of paint on my orange trees and I'm gonna crown you!!!

Make This The Year Of The Veteran

Dear Editor:

Through the ages, there have been barriers and headlines proclaiming the year of - horse, make, cat, etc. Since this is an election year, we, the Ladies Auxiliary to V.F.W. J.M. Tillman Post No. 2420 of Lake Wales, wish to implant into each voters mind, that this is, THE YEAR OF THE VETERAN.

It was brought to the attention of our Post and Auxiliary at a District Meeting held on July 30th, 1978 in the Lake Wales

Post Home, that Veterans Preferences are being cut drastically. Florida is a haven for retired people, of which 75 percent or more are Veterans of World War I and II. The State includes many Korean and Viet Nam Vets also. We are a Great State in the Greatest Nation in the World and ALL because of our Vets.

The Primaries are over and we are aware of the men and women running for Governor positions in our State. Let us think deeply and search diligently, as we view the respective platforms. Let us vote for the person who will do the job for us, both here and in Washington, not because we are, or have been good party members. Vote for the person who will retain our issues and possessions, and above all, vote for the person who will NOT DISCARD OUR VETS.

Respectfully Submitted,

Target Of Editorial Gives His Side

Dear Editor:

I am writing in response to an editorial entitled "Blind Justice" which appeared in last week's edition of your paper. Since I was the target of that editorial, I hope that you will see fit to publish this letter.

In my opinion the editorial lacked journalistic professionalism. I realize a paper has a right of "fair comment" regarding public officials but your article appeared to go beyond this and became a personal attack. Enough said regarding the tone and quality of the article.

At this time let me say that I consider myself, my colleague, Jim Sessy, and our entire staff to be professional, competent, responsible and dedicated public servants.

Looking now at the editorial in terms of factual accuracy, let me make the following observations. The case referred to involves a man accused of aggravated battery upon Captain Cratty of the Avon Park Police Department, aggravated battery upon his wife and two counts of aggravated assault upon a sheriff's deputy.

On September 20, 1978, counsel for the accused argued a motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction on the aggravated battery count involving Cratty. The motion was granted by the Honorable Judge Mark Richardson. The judge's ruling was absolutely correct as the incident with Captain Cratty occurred in Polk County not Highlands. After the hearing I had my secretary phone Chief Brooks and inform him that the case would have to be filed in Polk County if the Avon Park Police Department wanted to pursue the matter.

The charge of aggravated battery upon the accused's wife was reduced by me after an examination of the affidavit and police reports in the case to a lesser charge of battery. The reason for reducing the charge was that the injuries sustained by the victim were not of the serious nature contemplated by the aggravated battery statute, that is, no permanent disfigurement, no dismemberment, no deadly weapon used in the commission of the offense.

The two counts of aggravated assault based on the affidavit and reports were not proper charges as the conduct of the accused was part of the reckless driving and fleeing charges.

At no time did the State Attorney's Office circulate two stories as to why the charge of aggravated battery involving Captain Cratty was dismissed. A check of the court file would reveal to anyone so interested the reason for the dismissal. The message being sent out by the State Attorney's Office is that in filing what we believe to be honest, fair and just charges; this office will not be pressured from any source. Our first obligation to the people of this county is to see to it that we deal honestly, fairly, and justly with every individual. We take this responsibility seriously. We realize that our decisions are not always popular with everyone but we always attempt to do what is right and provide the people of this county with substantial justice free of all outside pressure and influence. Toward this goal we try cases in the courtroom not in the press.

Do You Favor Keeping Animals In The City?

The City of Avon Park is considering a ban on all animals within the city limits other than dogs or cats. The prohibition, which is included in the city's proposed new zoning ordinance, applies to all residential zoning districts. It reads as follows in the original draft, under "Prohibited uses":

(c) Keeping of swine, cattle, horses, chickens, rabbits and other such animals, excluding cats and dogs. Exception: existing horses may be maintained until Jan. 1, 1983 upon registration with the City Clerk within 60 days of the effective date of this ordinance.

What do you think? City officials want the opinions of as many Avon Park residents as possible to help them make a final decision on this proposal. Please register your opinion on the following questionnaire and return it to the Avon

Park Sun, P.O. Box 1117, Avon Park FL 33825 by 9 a.m., Tuesday, Oct. 10. We will forward the results to the City Council and publish them in next week's Sun.

— I'm in favor of the proposed ban.

— I'm opposed to the proposed ban.

— I would be in favor of the ban if it exempted horses as well as dogs and cats.

— I'm opposed to an outright ban on animals, but I would favor requiring owners of horses or livestock animals to meet some minimum lot size and or setback standards in order to protect neighboring property owners.

Ballet, Most Popular Dance Style

The poise, grace and style of ballroom dancing still lingers on in this modern age of hard rock and disco as is evident by the many students enrolled at Studio One in Avon Park.

Ballet seems to be the most popular dance style with tap a close second. Acrobatics are also taught for students who wish to learn cartwheels, hand springs, tumbling, and splits, which enables the student to learn good muscle control and co-ordination.

Laurie Rehner is the instructor for all the dancing classes and acrobatics. She is a 1974 graduate of Avon Park High School and a recent graduate of Newberry College, S.C. with a major in accounting.

Why does Laurie prefer to teach dancing instead of pursuing a career in her chosen field? Her answer was "I enjoy it, and when the opportunity came along, I wanted it."

Laurie began taking dancing lessons about 15 years ago and has proven to be an excellent student. She opened Studio One in the old Brickie Building in September of 1974. Lisa Tillman of Winter Haven was the instructor while Laurie was away at college. Laurie has completed her studies and her dancing classes are in full swing.

Beginning ballet students are taught the basic moves, such as, Plie, Tendu, and Bourree. The age range for ballet students is from 4 years to adult. So it's never too late to learn this graceful way of expressing yourself and improve your poise and figure too. Ballet is the basic dance for students to learn co-ordination, poise and grace started Laurie.

Tap dancing also helps the students to learn good co-ordination as well as rhythm. The different steps taught are soft shoe, ball change and etc.

Boys are encouraged to take these dancing lessons, however if they don't want to become involved in dancing, Laurie has a class especially for them, Boys Tumbling.

The dancers are working hard to learn the dance steps and routines correctly. At the end of the school year, they will perform for their parents and friends a recital, all of which will be choreographed by Laurie.

So a part of the lifestyle of the past is not forgotten and still lives today as we view these young students in their attempt to learn the graceful dance of ballet and rhythm of tap. Perhaps one day, one of them may become a professional.

Local Couple United In Candlelight Ceremony

The nuptial vows of Laurie Elizabeth Peterson and Stephen Jarvis Hart were solemnized August 11, at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Avon Park. Rev. Aden Childress, pastor of the church officiated the double ring ceremony. Mr. Van Skipper organist and Carl P. Arant Jr. pianist provided a background of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father the lovely bride wore a formal silk organza and Venise lace gown. The lace bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline, long bishop sleeves that were widely lace cuffed at the wrist. Her A-line skirt was trimmed at the bottom with lace which fell gracefully into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was trimmed in Venise lace, and she carried a bouquet of cascade white roses, white miniature carnations and stephanotis.

The couple was joined in marriage at the base of a Grecian column which was adorned with flowing greenery and garlands. This setting was enhanced by an abundance of palm trees. Two clusters of candelabras gave a shimmering glow to the glorious wedding atmosphere. Highlighting the scene were two arrangements of traditional white flowers and foliage.

Attendants Mrs. Austie Heacock of Sebring, sister of the bride, attended as a matron of honor. Mrs. Rege Anderson of Bowling Green, Miss Kara Elder and Miss Cindy Williams, both of Avon Park, and Miss Cindy Stokes of Orlando attended as bridesmaids. The attendants wore identical dresses of sea breeze green polyester knit with chiffon cape which flowed softly to the elbow on the left side, while caught up with a bow on the bare right shoulder. Their headpieces were made of matching fabric flowers and stephanotis, and they carried elegant cascades of miniature carnations in shades of sea breeze green with white stephanotis.

The mother of the bride chose for this occasion a formal gown of lilac chiffon with beaded bodice and silver accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses and stephanotis. The mother of the groom chose a pink beige jacket dress of chiffon with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses with stephanotis.

Heather Higgins, cousin of bride, of Ft. Myers attended as flower girl. Her gown of sea breeze green was similar to that of the bridesmaids. Flowers adorned her head and she carried a matching lace basket with cluster of flowers and petals.

Gregg Hart of Fayetteville, N.C., brother of the groom, attended as best man. Steve, Ralph and Fred Hart, brothers of the groom and Bruce Peterson, brother of the bride all of Avon Park attended as groomsmen.

Scott Whidden, cousin of the bride, of Ft. Myers, served as ring bearer. Immediately following the wedding ceremony a receiving line was formed at the entrance of the church.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford P. Hart, parents of the groom. Greeting the guest were Mrs. John Morris, Mrs. Roland Drott and Mrs. Ken Case.

The Hart home was decorated with several arrangements of white daisies and mixed greenery. The focal point of the decorations was an arrangement of couples, candles and flowers which were floating in the Hart's pool. Joey Martin and his accompaniment entertained the guest with the music at pool side.

Presiding over the guest book was Desi Ross of Loridin.

The brides table was graced with a single five branched candelabrum and three tiered cake was embellished with soft apricot daisies. The beautiful cake was placed above a sparkling fountain. The fountain of green water was surrounded by filigree and cherubs with daisies and rested among six thirteen inch columns which held the tiers aloft. The bottom two tiers of the wedding cake was separated from the top tier by Grecian columns which contained bells and daisies. The top tier was crowned by the traditional bridal couple surrounded by iridescent rings.

In another room in the Hart's home was a table which held the grooms German chocolate cake with an arrangement of daisies, stephanotis, and greenery.

Those assisting in receiving and serving were Mrs. James Bennett, Mrs. Lester Watson, Miss Lynne Rogers, Miss Gloria Bennett all of Avon Park, Mrs.

Skipper Arrest Coverup?

"Certainly my concern was strictly for my family and not from a political standpoint, because my family comes before everything else," the commissioner said.

When asked if there was anything said about the arrest affecting his political career, Skipper answered, "I can't honestly say whether there was or not. There could have been, but it was the furthest thing from my mind."

However, he said he "may have" told a Tribune reporter last Thursday, as quoted in one story, that if the newspaper "runs the story of my son's arrest, they will have crucified my political career."

According to the two Avon Park police officers present during the Sept. 14 interrogation and arrest of the Skipper youth, Patrolman Rod Souter and Sgt. Ron Smith, they were asked by Skipper to treat the case as a juvenile arrest and keep his son's name out of the newspaper.

"We finished up the paperwork, and at that time we were asked if we could keep it quiet as far as the names go, and we said we would do our best," Souter said. He added the report was stamped "Juvenile-Not for Publication" at the top when it was filed at city police headquarters.

Souter and Smith said the city police department was called by Sgt. Robert Hopton of the Sheriff's Department to help question the Skipper youth. Commissioner Skipper already had been called by the Sheriff's Department, they said, and he and his son were already talking with deputies when the two city policemen arrived.

Chief Brooks was not called, they said, nor was he informed of Skipper's arrest until the following day.

"It's common courtesy for each department to work closely together with the other, and the only time the chief is called is on a major crime," Sgt. Smith said.

"We handled his (Skipper) just like we would handle any other person," he continued. "The fact his father was a county commissioner had no bearing on it at all."

The two city police officers added that when they went down to Sebring to help question the Skipper youth, they did not know an arrest would be made. The arrest, came they said, as a result of what the youth said and after consultation with Assistant State Attorney Jim Seay.

pleased with the new zoning ordinance which was presented to the city council Sept. 25.

However, he said he is not in favor of comprehensive planning being required in all communities by the state.

"I think for big cities, this is wonderful," he commented. "I think in the small community, you work with people and you talk with people and it's really not that big a problem."

The Florida Power employee said the city needs some "good clean industry" to provide more jobs and "more accommodations for tourists."

"Avon Park has really got the facilities for everything," he added. "It's just a matter of putting them all together and doing it right. We need to promote what we have."

benefits included, the board offer is nearly seven percent.

The union negotiator, who is a teacher and cross country coach at Avon Park High School, said while he was disappointed with the outcome of the session, it was fruitful in some areas.

"I think it was 5 1/2 hours well spent, but there was little movement on either side," he commented.

Brojek said the teachers believe the board has more money in its budget than it says it has and "we're going to try to motivate the board and Dr. Davis to come up with a little more money."

According to Brojek, the school board negotiating team asked for another mediation session, and that "showed me that the board is at least willing to take a second look at their position."

Smith, however, reiterated the board does not intend to budge from its offer of 5 1/2 percent. "You can't give them something you don't have. It's a case of the Association wanting more money than the taxpayer is willing to give."

Smith, however, acknowledged the board earlier had "offered them 8 1/2 percent, and they turned that down. When they turned that down, we went back to the original offer."

Both negotiators said they are hopeful a settlement will be reached at next Wednesday's mediation session, but Smith said he feels there is a "distinct possibility" the matter will go to non-binding arbitration.

New Code Has Animal Ban

A proposed new zoning ordinance will be heard on first reading Monday night by the Avon Park City Council.

The 34-page document, the result of several years of effort by the city's planning and zoning board, was unveiled at the last council meeting and received tentative approval. A copy of the ordinance and new zoning map have been sent to the state planning agency for their approval, according to City Clerk Malcolm Crews.

Only a section prohibiting horses and livestock animals in residential areas has received any criticism so far, according to city officials.

That section would prohibit the "keeping of swine, cattle, horses, chickens, rabbits and other such animals, excluding cats and dogs," in its original form. It would give the present owners of horses until 1988 to take their animals out of the city.

At its Sept. 25 meeting, however, the council tentatively changed the proposed ban to exempt horses as well after hearing objections from two horse owners who said they kept their horses as pets and owned enough property to prevent the animals from becoming a nuisance to neighbors.

Councilmen, however, are reconsidering their decision and may change the ordinance back to its original form or amend it to include lot size or setback requirements for horse owners, and they are seeking public opinion on the issue through the questionnaire reproduced here.

Council President Larry Albritton commented Monday that horses are not now a great problem in the city but could become a nuisance as the city grows and houses get closer together in the areas which now are relatively undeveloped.

"I really think our dog situation is a whole lot worse than the horses," he said. Planning and zoning board member Donald Ford said the prohibition was simply one of many things included in the new ordinance to protect property owners.

"You're trying to do all of these things to protect the majority of the people," he said.

Another section of the proposed ordinance which some officials expect to receive even more attention that the ban on horses is a proposed ban on overnight parking in residential zones—either on the street or on private property—by commercial vehicles with greater than 1 1/2 ton capacity.

4-H WEEK

Nearly 5.5 million young people are observing National 4-H week this week (October 1-7). Members of the organization will center their activities around the theme, "4-H—Freedom to Be."

President Jimmy Carter called the theme appropriate for a program which is reaching out to all young Americans—rural and urban—from every cultural, economic, and social background.

National 4-H week is set aside annually by the Cooperative Extension Service to focus attention on the values of 4-H as an informal education program for boys and girls 9 to 19 years old.

Most 4-H members are enrolled in locally organized clubs on a year-round basis. Others take part in 4-H through special interest groups, nutrition education programs, instructional television, international programs, short-term activities and camping.

A learn-by-doing philosophy encourages 4-H members to acquire "real life" skills and develop citizenship and leadership abilities. One learn-by-doing program is the 36-year-old Petroleum Power Program sponsored by the Amoco Foundation, Inc. The program encourages 4-H youths to learn all they can about tractor and small engine maintenance as a specific way to conserve energy. The basic purpose of the program is to teach 4-H members that properly maintained engines provide savings through fuel conservation and increased performance.

JUNIOR DEPUTIES OF Highlands County posts No. 181, 182 and 183 of Avon Park, Lake Placid and Sebring held a workshop campout at Horse Hammock recently. This outstanding group of young men and women are dedicating their future to careers in law enforcement.

Junior Deputies Hold Workshop

What makes a campout successful? A fractured arm? An armadillo in the camp-house? No!!! They just added to the excitement that had already been generated by the fifty Highlands County Junior Deputies who were ready for just about anything on their campout.

Saturday, Sept. 16, marked the beginning of a memorable weekend. Junior deputies met at the respective areas in Avon Park, Lake Placid and Sebring to start their journey to Horse Hammock, an Arbuckle creek, which Major Eugene Flint graciously led the group use. As the groups arrived they looked more like a band of rhysses than the Junior deputies that were expected. Tents, bed rolls, cameras, lanterns and occasionally an ice cake balanced on the top of someone's head were all unloaded into the once quiet hammock. Already the barbecue pit was being readied by Lt. Ron Hartsfield to prepare the four hogs, which would be that night's supper.

After the tents were set up, a football game began down by the creek, thus bringing the first casualty of the day. Don Crawford of Sebring received a fractured wrist. Workshops followed lunch.

Sheriff Joe Sheppard, who welcomed the Junior deputies told them how proud he was of them and how he hoped that this organization would be helpful to them in their future career in law enforcement.

The program was then turned over to Trooper Jim Benton of the Florida Highway Patrol. He lead a workshop on the proper procedure in directing traffic, also explaining the history of the FHP and their duties.

Highlands County Deputies Skip Waggoner and John King showed the group, arrest techniques, which included frisking and handcuffing.

Supper was fantastic. Those who had smoked and bar-b-que'd all day under the tender loving care of Major Snelgrove, Lt. Hartsfield, Sgt. Lamar and Deputy Haywood. Night activities consisted of a workshop presented by Investigators Godwin and Sizemore on techniques in stopping traffic violators. Sgt. Monica Sauls showed a film entitled "The Pulse of Life," about Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation, stressing the importance of first aid certification, which the entire group will begin working on in November.

After a lot of fun and fellowship, camp was broken around 10:30 a.m.

After all the fun it must be remembered that a lot of wonderful people gave their time to help make the campout a success: Cracker North helped with the menu and purchased the groceries, the cooks, workshop leaders and parents who supplied transportation.

Advisors Welsh and Waggoner put in many many hours. Last but not least, Sheriff Joe Sheppard, who believed enough in young people to give them a club where they can grow and pursue their chosen field of law enforcement.

1979 Models Now At Wells Motor Co.

Five new models including New Yorker, Newport, Horizon, and two small versatile imports are among the Chrysler products highlights for 1979, according to E. Ray Wells, of Wells Motor Company, Avon Park.

Chrysler New Yorker and Newport, long associated with excellence and elegance, are completely redesigned to provide a combination of roominess, improved fuel economy, comfort, fine riding qualities, and luxury in a new-generation transportation package." Wells said.

New Yorker and Newport are redesigned on a 118.5 inch wheelbase, shorter and lighter than previous models but built with big car roominess and comfort.

The New Yorker model, for instance, offers more front and rear headroom and rear hip room than the 124 inch wheelbase 1976 version but is about nine inches shorter and up to 800 pounds lighter.

New Yorker is 221.5 inches long and Newport, 220.3 inches. Both models are 54.5 inches high and 77.1 inches wide.

Cordoba, Chrysler's specialty two-door, has a new look for 1979. There is a distinctive new grille, and buyers have greater flexibility in personalizing the elegant car to their individual tastes, including selection of new optional two tone color combinations and a Special Appearance Package. There are seven new body colors.

LeBaron receives fresh styling touches, a list of engineering innovations, additional options and a new medium-priced model. The LeBaron has a unique new grille texture to complement the distinctive front end, new tail lights, three new colors, new two-door landau roof treatment, and options including distinctive wire wheel covers reminiscent of classic roadster design.

They have made arrangements for the dinner, which is one of 40 such kickoff dinners held throughout the south and east opening the annual Erskine campaign.

Town clergymen for the campaign include Mrs. Jeffrey Tanner, Route 2, Avon Park; Tommy D. Kerns, 906 Hill Drive, Haines City; the Rev. and Mrs. Bobby E. DeWitt of Lake Placid; and Mrs. W. F. Boyte of Lake Wales, for Lake Wales, Frostproof, and Fort Meade.

The Living Endowment is an annual fund for current operation income that has earned Erskine eight national awards in alumni-giving. The Living Endowment provides almost $250,000 per year for Erskine. It is supported by almost half Erskine's alumni—more than double the national average for alumni participation.

Jr. Woman's Club Attend Fall Board

The Lakeland Hilton was the setting for this year's annual Florida Federation of Junior Woman's Clubs Fall Board. (This is the time when locally elected officers and chairmen met with their state officers and chairmen, to learn how to go about their elected positions.) This year, with the District 9 meeting being held in Lakeland the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club was in charge of all pages. Cindy Turner acted as personal page for the State's 1st president and membership chairman; Sue Moseley was personal page for the state leadership development chairman; Judy Mundt was the personal page of the chairman for the state child abuse chairman; and Stephanie Godwin acted as personal page to the state art chairman. Cindy Aspenwall was able to attend the public affairs workshop, while Ellen Jordan, club president was page chairman. The theme for this year meeting was "Country Time In District 9" and a barbecue was held instead of the elegant banquet.

The entertainment for the evening was "Way Out Games." Each of the 114 clubs in the state were asked to send one member to participate as a contestant or cheerleader. There were four teams, with Ellen Jordan, Avon Park Junior Woman's Club president winning a trophy for first place as a member of one of the winning teams. Screams and laughter could be heard for miles, according to those who attended.

At the workshops and Junior Woman's Business session the following day many of the ladies were hoarse. It was reported that very much was learned by all that attended.

Title One Parent Advisory Councils To Meet October 10

Dr. Dan A. Davis, Superintendent of Highlands County Schools, wishes to announce that the organizational meeting for Title I Parent Advisory Councils (PAC) for the 1978-79 School year in the Avon Park Area will be held on Tuesday, October 10, in the cafeteria of the Avon Elementary School, beginning at 7:30 p.m. After a short general meeting, those in attendance will divide into elementary and middle-high school groups and organize individual school PAC's for the 1978-79 school year. Each PAC will decide on the dates, time, frequency, and topics of future meetings. The purpose of the Advisory Councils is to encourage parental involvement at the local level as an important means of increasing the effectiveness of programs under Title I. Title I Programs are made possible through federal funds (since 1965) and provide extra help for eligible children in the areas of Reading (grades K-12) and Math (grades 2-3). PAC's will have access to appropriate information and will be given responsibility for advising the school board in the planning, implementation, and evaluation of the Title I Programs.

All of the parents of children eligible to attend a public school serving a project area, including parents of children living in such area and enrolled in private schools, shall be eligible to participate in the selection of members of the district-wide and school PAC's.

However, a majority of the membership of each PAC must be parents of children who are currently participating in the program.

All parents in the Avon Park Area are invited to attend this important meeting.

Rhonda Brookins, bride-elect of Ken Filippula was the honoree of a bridal shower given by her maid-of-honor, Holly Brunney and Regina Peppers at Sebring Shores, September 20.

Among the 24 guests were Rhonda's sisters, Mrs. Donna Smith and Mrs. Pamela Holman of Lakeland. Mrs. Stanley Rice, grandmother of Rhonda's fiancé, presented her with a pink crystal candy dish which the Rices received for their wedding 50 years ago.

A table with a beautiful decorated cake, punchbowl, and flowers highlighted the Brunney home. Rhonda was also honored with a bridal shower, Monday, Sept. 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rice, grandparents of the bridegroom, Ken Filippula. Twenty friends attended the miscellaneous bridal shower.

Hostesses were sisters of the groom, Janet Filippula, and Mrs. Julia Gallimore, who presented the bride-elect with a set of glassware and a serving set. The hostesses also presented her with a corsage of burned orange carnations.

Satterwhite-Hubbell Nuptial Rites

The newlyweds are residing in the Bahamas, where the bridegroom is employed as a deep sea diver.

In an afternoon service Sept. 19 Carol Satterwhite became the bride of John H. Hubbell. Bouquets of fresh flowers in autumn colors decorated the sanctuary of First Christian Church for the ceremony.

Attendees for the bridal couple were their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Jim P. Satterwhite of Avon Park, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hubbell of Sebring.

Cy Nicholson and William Ashberger were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. Ruby Nicholson, Joanne Ashberger, Lucy Morris, Audrey McDaniel, Ruth Mann assisted in the serving. Ruth Hampton was in charge of the gift table and Rose Lowder, the guest book.

35-21 Loss To Mulberry

Victory Slips Away With Devil Fumbles

Fumbles and interceptions plagued the Avon Park Red Devils last Friday night as a series of costly turnovers led to a 35-21 defeat by the Mulberry Panthers.

The Panthers gained only a net two yards rushing and only 104 total yards compared to total of 52 yards rushing and 234 yards passing for the Red Devils. However the Red Devils lost 11 turnovers, three leading directly to Panther touchdowns and two others setting up Panther scores.

The Red Devils looked liked two different teams in the first and second half of the game. In the first half, the Red Devils held their own and actually dominated the first quarter of play. Only a fumble which produced a Panther touchdown created the 14-7 halftime deficit.

However, in the second half mistakes and errors proved disastrous for the Red Devils as they fumbled twice to set up Panther touchdowns. Other fumbles and interceptions stopped Red Devil drives almost before they were started.

Before the Red Devils could score again, Mulberry had taken a 34-7 lead and threatened to rout the home team.

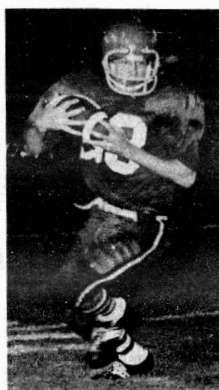

In the first quarter, Avon Park looked as if they were ready for the undefeated Panthers, taking the kickoff and marching to the Mulberry 20 before having to give the ball on downs.

The Red Devil defense then bottled up the Mulberry rushing and passing attack, forcing the Panthers to punt.

The first Mulberry score came as a result of a Red Devil error. The Panthers had recovered an Avon Park fumble but could not move the ball. A bad punt, which traveled only eight yards, gave the Red Devils good field position on their 42. However, two plays later they fumbled again and the Panthers recovered on the Red Devil 49.

For the first time of the night, Mulberry, was able to move the ball. Passes had been slipping through the hands of the Panther receivers but now the quarterback hit for four completions on the Panthers' first march to the Red Devil goal line. The Panthers scored with 4:50 left to go in the first half.

However, within a minute the Panthers would score again, again taking advantage of a Red Devil mistake.

With the ball on their 20, the Red Devils tried a reverse, with the back throwing a pass behind the line of scrimmage. The pass was complete but the Avon Park receiver was hit immediately and the ball popped right into the hands of a Panther defender who raced all the way to the end zone. The Panthers led 14-7.

After being shaken by Mulberry's quick score, the Red Devils came back and moved the ball up the field. Runs by Carl Wingate and Rick Bevins, plus a pass completion to Wingate put the ball on the Panther 45.

Under pressure from three Panther backs, Quarterback Chariton Weathers unloaded a 45-yard bomb which end Keith Cobb hauled in while standing in the Panther end zone. The touchdown put the Red Devils within seven points of the Panthers.

It was the last time the Red Devil would be that close as, in the second half, the team was demolished by its own mistakes.

On the second half kickoff, the Red Devils fumbled on their own 24, and the Panthers recovered. Avon Park got the ball back when Bevins intercepted a Panther pass and ran it back to the 35.

However, it was a short-lived triumph, as on the next play the Red Devils dropped the ball again behind the line of scrimmage and a Panther defender scooped it up and ran 30 yards for the score.

The Red Devils did not seem to recover from the quick score. On the following kickoff, the Red Devils fumbled again and Mulberry recovered.

An 11-yard pass made it 26-7 for the Panthers. On the extra point try, the Panther back fumbled, but the ball was recovered by another Mulberry back to give the team two-points conversion.

The last Mulberry touchdown came after an interception which was run back to the Avon Park 15. Panther back Carlos Baker ran through Red Devil defenders as he scored the last Mulberry touchdown and put the Panthers into a 34-7 lead.

The Red Devils came back on a pass to Bevins from Quarterback Weathers to make it 34-15, then scored again near the end of the fourth quarter, but it was too little and too late.

This Saturday the Avon Park Red Devils will travel to Bradenton to play Rayshore at the Manatee High School Hawkins Stadium. The stadium is located on 9th Avenue and 32nd Street West in Bradenton. The game will be on Saturday, not Friday, and will begin at 8 p.m.

Jayvees Edge Out Streaks

After playing a sluggish first half, the Avon Park Red Devil junior varsity football team came to life and defeated the Sebring Blue Streaks 16-12 at Fireman's Field last Thursday night.

It was the third straight win for the junior Devils against no losses. Sebring's record dropped to 0-3.

This week the baby Devils are idle before traveling to FL Meade next week. Five games remain on the schedule.

The game against Sebring opened with Avon Park being unable to move the ball and kicking to Sebring. On the Blue Streaks' first offensive play Dwayne Council recovered a fumble for Avon Park. Again the offense stalled and had to punt to Sebring. On the next play Sebring handed off the Darryle Love and he scrambled around left end for 41 yards into the end zone. The kick was no good and Sebring led 6-0.

A stunned Red Devil squad tried to regroup and move the ball. In the second period Avon Park controlled the ball most of the time. An interception by Chris Collins and a blocked punt by middle linebacker Billy Bolden highlighted the defensive play of the period.

A 31-yard run by halfback Ronnie Barnes moved the ball down to the Sebring 25 but again the offense could not score. The half ended with Sebring leading by six points.

The third period was dominated by the Red Devils. Sebring received the kick but was unable to move the ball. Halfback Ronnie Barnes returned the punt into Sebring territory. From the Sebring 47, the Red Devil offensive line rose to the occasion and enabled Barnes and back Billy Bolden to combine carries and move the ball 41 yards to the Sebring five yard line.

However a fumble was recovered by Sebring, which stopped the Red Devil drive. Two plays later end Ricky Derkmann tackled the Sebring back in the end zone to put two points on the scoreboard for Avon Park. Sebring led 5-6.

On the following kick to Avon Park, sophomore Larry Jackson scampered 23 yards and well into Sebring territory. Using the wedge, Avon Park drove the ball to the Sebring 16 and the period ended. Again Billy Bolden was the workhorse on the drive.

Four plays into the 4th quarter, Bolden wedged over for the score to put Avon Park ahead 8-6. The point after was no good.

The Avon Park kick was returned to the Avon Park 45-yard line. A superb defensive effort by the Devils' drove Sebring back and forced a punting situation. A high snap from center sailed over the Sebring punter's head. He recovered the ball but was tackled in the end zone giving Avon Park a 10-6 lead.

On one more, Larry Jackson returned a Sebring kick. He ran 42 yards to set Avon Park up at the Sebring 21-yard line.

On third down, four yards to go, quarterback Dwayne Council ran around left end for 20 yards for the final Avon Park score. 28

Harriers Host Blue Streaks, Try For Another Conference Victory

The hard-running 5-0 Red Devil varsity cross-country team will host the Sebring Blue Streaks harriers today, Thursday, at 4 p.m., on their difficult 3.0 mile course.

Next Tuesday, the Red Devils will travel to Wauchula to take on the Hardee Wildcats thin-clad team in Pioneer Park. Last Thursday the Devil boys varsity raced to victory over two Heartland Conference foes as they posted 21 points to 52 for Arcadia and 62 for Sebring on the Blue Streaks' grass-and-dirt covered course, (low score wins in cross-country).

Alan Portis and Jerry McKenzie, the Devil co-captains, tied for first place in 16:37. Mark Myers (17:23), David Rhodes (18:09) and Jody Johnston (18:07) captured the fifth, through seventh spots respectively to wrap up the Devil victory.

Sam Finch, ninth in 18:38, and Jeff Henly, tenth in 18:54, were the last two Avon Park varsity finishers.

The Red Devil girls varsity cross country team lost a close contest the same day, as Sebring had 28 points to the 29 posted by Avon Park.

Freshman Nancy Turnbull sped to top individual honors as she covered the Sebring two-mile circuit in 12:34. Laurie Welch, Patti Belcher, Brenda Brooker and Sherri Johnson were the other girls finishers.

Welch outdistanced Patti Vickers of Sebring by a second for the third spot overall in 13:13. The Devillette lost set their season record at 52.

"I was very happy with the performances of Portis, McKenzie, Turnbull and Welch in the Sebring meet," Brojek said. "The girls had a good second performance and I'm looking for continued improvement." Our boys will need to become much more consistent in their performances if we are going to defeat Clearwater later in the season."

Brojek Tops Field In 10,000 Meter Lake Run

Some 60 other runners followed the fleet beels of Avon Park High School cross-country Coach Chet Brojek last Saturday in Lakeland as Brojek sped to a 34:45 first place finish.

The 34:45 effort broke Brojek's year old personal best at the 10,000 meter distance set in last year's Lake of Lake Run in Lakeland.

Brojek's top age group finish was his fourth in a row as he begins his final preparations for the Skyline International Marathon in Canada Oct. 12. His last marathon was in April's Boston Marathon where he established his best ever time with a 2:45:35 clocking.

"I'm looking forward to the Skyline Marathon, but in all truthfulness I'd have loved to have run in the New York City Marathon."

The problem with New York was that I was not among the first 10,000 seeking entry into the world's largest marathon!" "I'll plan a little better next year and get my first chance to run in the Big Apple."

"The Skyline International Marathon is international in that it starts in Buffalo, New York and finishes at the Skyline Tower in Niagara Falls, Canada. The race directors say they expect a field of 3,000 to 4,000.

Brojek's Central Florida Striders teammate Pep Hutchinson will also be among that number.

"Pep has really been putting in the mileage, and I fully expect that he will break three hours this time. I would like to break 2:50, and if I could better my Boston time I'd be quite happy," Brojek said.

Twirl To The Music

MAJORETTE CHERYL JORDAN performs during the halftime ceremony. The Avon Park High School Marching Grenadier Band sparkling musical performance gave the Red Devils fans something to cheer about as matters were not going too well for the football team. Fans gave the band a strong ovation as they left the field.

Tomorrow Is Last Day To Sign Up For SFJC Tennis

The entry deadline for the South Florida Junior College Tennis Classic will be 12 noon, Friday, October 5. All interested players are encouraged to send in their entry blanks immediately or call 433-6661 to indicate their entry preference.

This year's tournament will include ten different brackets of singles, doubles, and mixed doubles for the beginners and advanced players. All matches will be played at the participants' mutual convenience on any neutral court in the South Florida Junior College district. Scores may be phoned in following each match, and the winners will then go on to the next round of play. The finals for the tournament will be held on the SFJC courts on Saturday, Oct. 28.

The cost for participants in the Classic will be a $5 donation per event for each person. All participants will be required to provide a new can of tennis balls for the first match. The winner of the match will then inherit the unused can of balls and move on to the next round.

All donations from the tournament will be used to provide tennis scholarships and equipment for the SFJC tennis team. Trophies will be awarded to all first and second place winners.

Hunting Permits Still Available

Most sportsmen who plan on hunting on a wildlife management during the first nine days of the season have already obtained their quota hunt permit.

But some have not and, with the September 23 deadline past for submitting written applications, may be wondering how they can obtain the necessary permit.

Beginning Monday, Oct. 2, the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission will be accepting telephone calls from persons wishing to obtain quota permits.

"Some area have not yet reached their quota for the first nine days," said Fred Stanberry, director of the Division of Wildlife. "We will be issuing the remaining permits by phone as well as continuing to accept written application."

Sportsmen will need to furnish the Commission with their name, address, management area stamp or Senior Citizens Certificate number and the area they wish to hunt. Those who have already received one permit for the first nine days may apply during this time for a second area permit.

"We also have a few special hunt permits available which will be issued on a first - come first - served basis until they are gone," Stanberry added.

The telephone number to make note of is 904-488-8373. The number is equipped with a recording device to allow sportsmen to call after 5 p.m. and on weekends and leave the information needed to issue a permit. If, during regular working hours, that number is busy, sportsmen may call 904-488-3831.

What quota permits remain will be issued in this manner until November 1, Stanberry said. Beginning November 6, the regional offices will issue any remaining permits.

point after failed and made the score 16-6.

Sebring was able to score as the clock was running out. A 37-yard pass got the ball down to the Avon Park 16-yard line. Another pass in the end zone made the score 16-12 as the point after failed.

The game ended with Avon Park moving the ball and on the Sebring 23 yard line.

The Avon Park Red Devils relied on the ball carrying of backs Billy Bolden and Ronnie Barnes. Bolden carried 23 times for 93 yards, a 4.0 average. Barnes carried 13 times for 80 yards, a 6.8 average. Ricky Derkman carried once for five yards, Larry Jackson carried once for two yards.

Golf Notes

By Bob Elgin

Well, well, what do ya know, it's October. Who arrived with October - Red and Aletha Smith. They made the 1500 miles from the home of Jimmy Dean Sausage one more time. Jimmy Dean makes his sausage in Osceola, Iowa. Red thinks Jimmy should give more credit to the Iowa corn and the Iowa hogs. Before they left for Osceola last May they were having a little family trouble. Red claimed Aletha's handicap was too high and she was beating him at golf. After a summer of Iowa golf, we would assume the argument was settled. If not it will be after another winter of golf at River Greens. Good to have you back.

New Allibs for old golfers - "How those guys got that high handicap, I'll never know."

The new 1979 golf clubs have arrived. Anything new and different? There is according to the advertisements, but they look pretty much the same to an old 'bogey' shooter like me. The shafts are lighter weight. The heads have a lower gravity center. Some makers are featuring a 'low profile iron.' It may be ok but it looks like a runner up iron. Try it before you buy. Old 'dubbers' like me will probably find the chief appeal of the new clubs their bright and shining newness. If you crave new clubs, buy them. You might as well enjoy new clubs as your heirs.

Sign in a Texas pro shop - "Beware of rattlesnakes and three foot putts."

I never pass the dry pond between the 15th and 16th without wondering - why. Especially after looking at the nearby lake. Five years ago both it and the canal beside it were full. So I asked Rodney and here is his explanation "There hasn't been enough rainfall to keep the underground water level up to normal, while the lakes look full they are really many feet below normal, so rainwater runs out and will continue to do so until the water table rises enuf to support the rain water." The year 2000 may be?

Second apology of the page - Sorry, Golfettes, somehow I missed the account of your trip to Pinecraft to play in the September tournament of the Highland's County Womens Golf Association on September 15th. Fourteen Golfettes have joined the association. Eight played in the tournament and did right well. Louis Pfeffer won 3rd low net in A flight. In B flight Marion Rowler won 3rd low gross, and Petie Wolven 2nd low net. In C flight, Alda Willett won 1st low net, Eileen McCormack won 3rd low net. The next tournament will be at Sebring Municipal on October 12th. Hope it's lucky for the Golfettes.

After the awards were passed out, things happened that would make a person believe there might have been more than salad served. After all one team five putting from two feet is kinda hard to believe, and having almost 15 on the hole is still harder. Everyone really had fun.

You'll never guess what Womens Golf President Helen Griffith has come up with. Believe it or not a Grandmother's golf tournament. - to be held October 7th. When asked if the Grandmothers were to wear Granny dresses or short shorts she said either would be ok, so long as the gal brot along two bucks. She said both the Grandmother's children and grandchildren would be welcome as spectators. The referee has not been selected as yet. Be there at 10 o'clock and you'll have some fun.

Ever hear of PABA? It's one of the B vitamins and a lot of big names in the medical field have endorsed it as sunscreen against skin cancer. Even the Food & Drug Administration, who usually claim everything causes cancer endorsed it. Mixed with a cream it comes in different strengths. Skin cancers that turn malignant are not to be fooled with, take it from one who had one. No prescription, any drug store.

True golf stories - Along the eight hole of the Ft. Myers Country Club runs a ditch, across it is the bank of a good sized pond. Almost every afternoon a ten or twelve foot gator took a nap there. He kept one eye on the golfers and they kept two eyes on the gator. Like the 500 pound gorilla, he slept anywhere he pleased. One day the gator was not taking his nap. Six or eight ten to twelve year old boys were 'skinny dipping' in the pond. The golfers watched, expecting to see a boy pulled under by the gator. Finally one of the golfers yelled to the boys "aren't you afraid of that big gator?" "Naw, he's afraid of us, we rock him" one boy replied, maybe the gator just wasn't hungry.

Like most folds near retirement, Ida and George Variano sat in their Westchester, New York home on the cold winter nites planning their retirement. As a General Motors executive George knew how much income they would receive as retirement pay. It did not take them long to agree on what they wanted and didn't want. They agreed that - We want a small town with peace and quiet, it must have a really good golf course, for that is to be our main relaxation. No cities, no heavy traffic, no starting times. On vacations they looked over the West Coast. Plenty of cities, plenty of starting times. So they spent a week at Harder Hall, investigated Spring Lake, and except for the golf course found their dream. Pinecraft completed the dream. "We think Pinecraft is the finest natural course we saw in Florida, even so it has improved greatly since Ross Hendrick came, he is fabulous." "If Spring Lake does get it's course, it will be very hard to leave Pinecraft". Two nice people who have found happiness.

Elks Tourney Starts, Oct. 14

Harder Hall, Sebring and Avon Park's only golf course on the national scene has started an extensive remodeling of the clubhouse. Victor Jacobson, who manages the big resort complex of resort hotel, golf course, and tennis courts said "We are enlarging both the mens and the ladies rooms, also the golf bag room. We will redecorate the entire clubhouse, put in new carpeting, and top it off with new furniture. We expect the remodeling to be completed about October 20th. About Oct. 22, the course will close for the final preparation for the winter season."

The monthly Sebring Elks Tournament will be played on Oct. 14. This is a very popular event and draws Elks from all of Central Florida. Some good golf is played, and some not so good, but fun, not score is the main object. Course manager "J.J." Jones is going to be very busy finding a place for the Elks to eat among all the remodeling. Might have to serve it on No. 1 tee. Register 9 a.m. Tee Time 10 a.m. Saturday.

ROTARY CLUB

Jim Richo, Placement Counselor

Gives Advantages Of Work Release

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Avon Park Rotary Club, Jim Richo, Vocational Placement Counselor at the Avon Park Correctional Institution, told the Rotarians of the Department of Corrections' Community Work Release program.

According to Richo, an inmate may be placed on work release during the last eighteen months of his sentence, unless recommended earlier by the Parole Commission. While on work release, the inmate is required to provide some support for his family, and pay $3, to $8.50 a day, depending on his earnings, for subsistence and transportation. He may also be required to make restitution. Richo said it costs about $9.50 a day to keep an inmate on work release, as opposed to about $15, per day to maintain him in the institution.

There are thirteen APCI inmates currently participating in work release locally and, according to Richo, most work releasees make good employees. There are 1978 inmates involved in the program throughout Florida, and the Department of Corrections has twenty-four work release centers scattered throughout the state.

Potential employers were advised to contact Mr. Richo at Avon Park Correctional Institution.

President Phil Weber announced the Rotary Club would sponsor Girl Scout Troop No. 49.

Social Security Question-Answer

Q. My wife died a couple of months ago. Can our children get Social Security survivors benefits. All three of them are under age eighteen.

A. Both you and your children may be eligible for monthly survivors checks. Survivors benefits may be payable even if the worker only had one and one-half years of work in the three years before he or she died. If you are working, your monthly benefit may be affected by your earnings. You can get more information and apply for benefits at any Social Security office.

Q. I'm legally blind and work part time, earning $500 a month. Will my wages keep me from qualifying for Social Security.

A. A blind person can earn an average of up to $334 a month in 1978 and still get Social Security checks. Ask at any Social Security office for more information.

Q. I have some Social Security business to take care of but I can't get time off from work to go to the local office. I remember hearing that Social Security offices have some kind of special phone service people can use; how does it work.

A. Teleservice is simply a special telephone service that you can use for almost any type of Social Security business — from applying for benefits to reporting a lost or stolen check. To find your Social Security Teleservice phone number, look in your telephone directory under Social Administration. Teleservice operates Monday through Friday.

Q. I've been receiving Social Security disability checks for several years and now I'd like to take a part time job to see if I can handle it. Should I notify Social Security and will my benefits stop.

A. Yes, you should notify Social Security. If the job you take shows that you are no longer disabled, your benefits will stop after a three month adjustment period. Otherwise, you can continue to receive your disability payment for up to twelve months.

For answers to your Social Security questions, write P.O. Box 178, Lakeland, Florida 33802, or call the Social Security office listed in your local directory.

Eighth Graders Lose Opener To Lake Placid

Avon Park Middle School's eighth grade football team lost its opener against Lake Placid Sept. 19 by a 6-0 margin, then traveled to Sebring last Tuesday only to lose 6-0.

"We had three good opportunities to score," Coach Cecil Walley said of the first game, "but we just couldn't get in to score."

Lake Placid's touchdown came on a 20-yard run in the second quarter.

In the Sebring game, Walley said, "We did a lot better playing, but we've got a lot of work to do."

He said Sebring used a lot of sweeps in their offense. "They just outran us."

Sebring's touchdown came in the first quarter. The Avon Park defense held throughout the rest of the game.

Avon Park recovered who Sebring fumbles, while not experiencing any turnovers.

Walley said his squad had a potential touchdown drive going at the end of the first half but didn't have enough time to get across a score.

"We ran the ball pretty well, and we passed pretty well. We just didn't get the ball in the end zone," he said.

Roberts Selected As Merit Finalist

Avon Park High School is proud to announce that Walter Crawford Roberts has been selected as a semifinalist by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT-NMSQT). The number of Semifinalists named in each state is proportional to that state's percentage of the nation's total graduating senior class. Semifinalists, most of whom will complete high school and enter college in 1979, represent the top half of one percent of their state's graduating seniors.

To be considered for Merit Scholarships, Semifinalists must advance to Finalist standing by meeting further requirements. These requirements include being fully endorsed and recommended for scholarships by their secondary school principals, presenting school records that confirm high academic standing, and substantiating their high qualifying test scores with equivalent scores on a second examination. Over 90 percent of the Semifinalists are expected to qualify as Finalists and to receive Certificates of Merit next February. All winners of Merit Scholarships will be chosen from the highly able group of Finalists. All Semifinalists who attain Finalist status will compete on a state-by-state basis for at least 1,000 National Merit $1,000 Scholarships. These unrestricted awards are allocated on a state representative basis (the procedure used to name Semifinalists). The National Merit $1000 Scholarships are one-time, nonrenewable awards supported by grants to NMSC from business and industrial organizations. A Selection Committee of professionals in college admissions and counseling is convened annually to select the 1,000 winners.

Corps Of Engineers Increase Business Firms

The Army Corps of Engineers in Mobile has announced an effort to increase the number of minority business firms represented on its list of prospective bidders for construction, services and supplies. This effort is an integral part of the District's affirmative action program.

A minority business enterprise as defined by the Federal Government is "a business, at least fifty percent of which is owned by minority group members or, in case of publicly-owned business, at least fifty-one percent of the stock of which is owned by minority group members."

Minority group members for this purpose generally include: Black Americans, Hispanic Americans, American Indians, American Indians, Eskimos and Aleuts.

The Mobile District contracts for about $150 million of construction and supplies each year.

Colonel Charlie L. Blalock, Mobile district engineer, stated that "minority firms wishing to be added to the bidders' list are invited to contact the District's Procurement and Supply Division at P.O. Box 2226, Mobile, Alabama 36628 or call (205) 690-2535."

Local Grange Plans November Plant Sale

Avon Park Grange No. 203 met Tuesday, Sept. 26 in the Women's Club house at 2 p.m.

The charter was dropped for Harold Smithers who passed away in August while up north.

The secretary, Miriam Debo read three proposals for membership.

Cecil Higgs read a letter from Lorena Wyant who wrote concerning C.W.A. state projects for the year which include handicraft, baking, and woodwork.

Mr. Debo, chairman of conservation and community projects, reports he is still collecting aluminum and is getting plants ready for the November plant sale. He also has planted petunias at Hillcrest Nursing Home and had stopped at the "Welcome to Avon Park" sign on Highway 27 and cut down the weeds that were obscuring the "Grange" sign.

The letter, Debo read, was a program around "Apples." Gertrude Slocum sang "In the shade of the Old Apple Tree," and the members of the Grange joined in the second stanza. Mr. Debo recited "September" written by Helen Hunt Jackson.

Mr. Haviland read "Some Apple Facts" for example, an apple is nature's 60th fruit; the "Delicious" is the most popular variety; there are some 100 varieties of apples; and some trees that are 100 years old are still bearing.

Then each member was asked to tell his or her favorite kind, varieties mentioned were: Greenings, Red and Yellow Delicious, Duchess, 20 ounce Pippin, Macintosh, Northern Spy, Snow Apple, Russet, Stevie Apple (which is yellow and transparent), Courtland, Red Blush, Baldwin, and Sheep Head.

Edith Martinson read "Learn to Smile" and Miriam Debo read "Current Trends." Mr. Debo closed the program smiling from "The Lazy Farmer."

Thoughts for the day: Perhaps the best way to live happily ever after is not to go after "too much."

Ralph Palmer, Pro Tem Worthy Master, said that the Reformed School has a need for discarded hearing aids and would appreciate if anyone has a hearing aid they wish to donate or know of someone who might, please call him at 453-5039.

There were 12 sisters and 7 brothers in attendance, with one visitor. Refreshments of strawberry dessert, and iced tea were served by Mr. and Mrs. Slocum and Elizabeth Mizelle.

The next Grange meeting will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 16, and Ralph Sanborn, and Mr. and Mrs. Debo are in charge of refreshments.

Avon Park Bands To Perform October 21

Donaldson Park on Lake Verona, will be the site of a fall Band Concert and Chicken Bar-B-Q, Saturday, October 21, with students of the Avon Park Middle School and Avon Park High School Grenadier Bands performing for the public, beginning at 3:30 p.m. Special numbers will feature the Honor Guard, the Flag Corp, and the High School Majorettes in various drills and routines.

The Middle School Band is under the direction of Chuck Fugate, while the High School Grenadiers are directed by Joe Keating, Francis LaFlam, Sharon Dahm and Sabrina Crowe are in charge of the auxiliary units. There is no charge for the concert. Everyone is encouraged to bring a lawn chair and enjoy "Music in the Park" featuring our local young people.

Chicken Bar-B-Q dinners will be served from 4:30 - 6 p.m., and may be eaten at the park or carried home. They will be distributed in front of the Avon Park Recreation Center, across the street from the concert area. Bar-B-Q dinner tickets may be purchased from any band student or their parents for $2.50 each, which includes a Chicken, coleslaw, baked beans, roll and iced tea.

The Avon Park Band Parents Association are sponsors for the Bar-B-Q. Funds from this and other projects such as the Christmas tree sales, the Spring Band Day Auction and food concessions at home football games and other local area events, provide the Middle and High School Bands with music, instruments, transportation and special instruction. Community support of such projects in the past have helped make possible the fine band programs now available to all interested students in the Avon Park Schools.

The uniforms used by the High School Concert Band have been worn by hundreds of students since 1967 and need to be replaced. With the Band Parents Association already committed to funding for the previously mentioned items, individual parents and others in the community are now making contributions to a "Uniform Fund Drive" to raise the $3000 required to purchase the new Concert Band Blazers. A project thermometer will soon be placed near the Bandstand on the Mall showing the progress towards the goal, as contributions continue to be received. Anyone wanting to contribute to this special fund may do so by contacting Mrs. Margaret Turnbull at 453-3834. Contributions of any amount are greatly appreciated. Donors will be recognized in the Winter Concert Program Booklet published for the Concert Season.

Mr. and Mrs. Randle Dale Jordan

Thompson-Jordan Weds In Candlelight Ceremony

Christina Thompson, daughter of Ret. Col. and Mrs. Earl A. Thompson of Avon Park became the bride of Randle Dale Jordan on August 12 at the Church of Christ, Avon Park. The Rev. Robert Baker officiated the double ring ceremony.

Nuptial music was beautifully sung by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Welch with selections being "Entreat Me," "There is Love" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The chancel of the church was aglow with candlelight from the candleburn with a background of greenery and white chrysanthemums. Pews were designated with greenery and white ribbons.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a traditionally white gown with an empire waistline, and bodice adorned with Venice lace and seed pearls. Long slim sleeves were accented with lace and the A line skirt was trimmed with lace and flowed gracefully into a chapel train. A Juliet cap of matching lace had a finger tip veil of French silk illusion outlined with matching lace, and she carried a nosegay of yellow roses and white daisies with baby's breath.

Miss Suzanne Williams, cousin of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a full length blue halter dress with chiffon cape. Her bouquet, similar to the bride consisted of a nosegay of yellow roses, white and yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Miss Wendy Jordan sister of the groom, and Miss Pam Rhymes attended as bridesmaids. They attired in gowns identical to that of the maid of honor and carried similar nosegays.

The bridegroom's mother wore a deep rose quiana knit gown with round neckline featuring a soft fabric belt and long full sleeves. An inset waist gathered the fullness of the floor length skirt, and she wore a white orchid corsage.

James Cole of Knoxville, Tenn., served as best man. Kim Shaw and Jim Marguith both of Avon Park served as groomsmen.

A reception followed at the home of the brides parents. The brides table was covered with white cloth overlaid with gathered organza skirt. The three tiered brides cake featured a flowing fountain and was topped with yellow and white pompons. Five branch candlebras had nosegays with flowers identical to those on the cake.

Those assisting in receiving and serving were Miss Deborah Thompson, sister of the bride, Mrs. V.E. Van Ostran, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs.

Larry Pittman and Mrs. David Owen. Miss Linda Haworth was placed in charge of the guest book and Miss Dana Haworth passed the tags of rice.

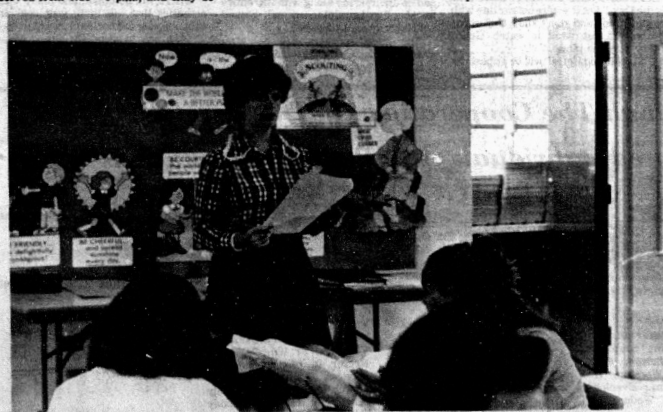

For her travel attire the bride chose a navy blue pantsuit and a yellow rosebud corsage.

After a honeymoon trip to North Carolina the newlyweds will reside in Orlando.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of Avon Park High School and attended Palm Beach Junior College.

The groom is a 1972 graduate of Avon Park High School and Tampa Tech.

Out of town guest attending the wedding ceremony were: Mrs. John Bowyer of Taylor, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Steve Brown of Tampa, Mr. and Mrs. James Cole of Knoxville, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Jordan Bartow, Col. Delamarter. The sessions are open to the public and everyone is invited to attend. The conference begins Friday night at 7 p.m., in the Social Hall with a covered dish supper followed by an enjoyable and entertaining time of sharing.

On Saturday morning Mothers and Daughters will meet for coffee and donuts with a discussion led by Mrs. Delamarter. All women (either mothers or daughters) are invited to join us at 9 a.m., in the social hall. Sunday, the Delamarters will share with various age groups throughout the day and Dr. Delamarter will preach in both morning and evening worship services. Dr. Walter R. Nazarene Church To Host The Mansion Heirs Group

The Avon Park Church of the Nazarene will be hosting "The Mansion Heirs", a gospel music group from New England.

This group is five years old now but its members are all related in some way to the Perry family who have been singing together and with other gospel groups for many years more. They are spontaneous and professional.

Everything they do, in fact, is filled with the refreshing enthusiasm of people who really enjoy their work. The sound is mostly country infused with the gospel spirit although they occasionally throw in a folk-style number such as Kim DeFree's "I Just Want to Thank You." Among the group's best known songs are Kris Kristofferson's "Why Me," Gary Paxton's "He Was There All The Time," Dallas Holm's "He Knew Me Then," and LaVerne Tripp's "King's Kid."

The audience is urged to participate in the singing of such gospel favorites as "Let's Just Praise The Lord" and "This Is The Day." But if you're unfamiliar with gospel music and don't know the words you might just want to watch Grace Perry play the piano.

"The Mansion Heirs" will be appearing nightly at the Nazarene Church 707 W. Main Street from Nov. 1-5, at 7 p.m. on Saturday afternoon from 3-4 p.m., they will be singing at the handstand on the Mall. The public is invited to attend any or all of these performances.

Baptist To Hold Fellowship

A new group especially designed for single adults (widowed, divorced and never-married) has been organized at First Baptist Church, Avon Park. The group is a Bible Study fellowship and is an extension of the Sunday School ministry of the church.

First Baptist Church has a fully age-graded Bible study program for all ages including adults and seeks to welcome all who do not have a regular place of Bible study. In order to encourage some who may not feel comfortable in other groups we are making this new group available.

The Single Adult group, led by Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, meets each Sunday at 9:45 a.m. Plan to be with us next Sunday. For more information call 453-6681.

Church To Observe Women's Day

The Women's Day observance at Mt. Olive A.M.E. Church of Delaney Avenue will be Sunday Oct. 8, and promise to be a great success. The general chairperson and co-chairperson along with the entire membership have planned and worked untiringly toward this goal.

The guest speakers will be Mrs. Estelle Dixon, a versatile and dynamic personality for the morning service, at 11 a.m., and Mrs. Spry, an interesting and persuasive speaker, will bring the message for the Women's Department, at 3 p.m.

There will be music and many other activities that will thrill your soul and enhance your memories of christian love. Plan now to spend the day at Mount Olive A.M.E. Church.

The Rev. Willie Johnson is pastor.

J&O Tailors Celebrate 7th Anniversary On The Mall

By Bruce Henderson
James Hulen is a softspoken man — not the type who protests or loudly proclaims civil rights or other causes.

Yet Hulen's quiet determination proved instrumental in integrating Avon Park High School in 1966, then later in cracking the unspoken "whites only" barrier dividing Avon Park's business community.

With almost no money backing them, Hulen and his wife, Ozia, opened J&O Tailors in the fall of 1971. It looked like all the odds were against what was the first, and only, black owned and operated business ever to hang out a shingle on Main Street.

This month, however the Hulens are celebrating the seventh anniversary of what is now a thriving and expanding business.

Being the first black business to open in the city's main business district didn't mean that much to him at the time, Hulen recalled in an interview last week.

"They didn't know whether I was black, white or polka dot when we first opened this business, because we did it quietly without making a big splash," the retired Air Force career man said.

"I hadn't realized the magnitude of it until later, until people came to me and told me how Avon Park used to be," he added.

He's never had any real trouble with the community, he said, adding that "98 percent of our business is white."

The business actually is operated by Ozia Hulen. Her husband is now an accountant, operating his own accounting business.

Mrs. Hulen does both custom tailoring and alterations of men's and women's clothing. She can make a custom tailored suit right at the shop or order one to exact measurements, to save the customer money depending on how quickly it is needed.

Custom tailored suits, Hulen said, range in price from about $160 to over $400, depending on the quality of fabric used. Two suits can look almost exactly alike, he said, yet vary widely in price due to differences in fabric quality.

The difference lies in the number of threads per inch used to make the basic cloth, he said. While two pieces of fabric may appear the same new, the higher quality cloth will wear better and longer, and it will look new for a longer period of time.

Ready-made clothes on the rack are a recent addition to the store, Hulen said. The clothes are the same items sold by large department stores, men's shops and ladies' dress shops, he said.

Originally from Harlem in New York City, Hulen spent 22 years in the Air Force. His first encounter with Avon Park came when he was stationed at the bombing range, beginning in 1966, where he was a sergeant in command of the communications detachment which installed most of the base's present radio and telephone communications facilities.

It was during his first year in Avon Park, he said, that he became involved in the integration of Avon Park High School.

Although integration had begun in the county's schools he recalled, high school students still were bused to a black high school in Sebring. He said his two high school age boys would have had to ride a bus from the base to Avon Park, then transfer to another bus to Sebring every day.

Something should be done, he said he decided, and he contacted the late George Douglass, who was then county superintendent of schools. As with his business, Hulen said, it was done quietly, but his two sons became the first black students at the local high school. In 1969, his youngest son graduated as the school's valedictorian.

They experienced minor instances of harassment at first, he said, but there was little more than that. Avon Park High School was integrated peacefully.

Hulen, who spends quite a bit of his time as a minister of Clewiston's Church of God in Christ, attributes the success of his business to prayer and faith in Jesus Christ, as well as to their philosophy that a successful business is built on satisfied customers. Just as they were moving back to Avon Park after he retired from the Air Force in 1971, the Hulens were involved in a car wreck which put all three of their cars out of commission and ate up all their savings.

Without the Lord, he said, he and his wife never would have made it through the early days of the business.

Hulen said he made a promise to God to become a minister after being saved while still in the Air Force, and one reason he and his wife decided to open their own business was to give him time to follow his ministry.

"This way, if a call comes from one of my church members, I can go," he said.

James Hulen

SAFETY FIRST

Your nose knows

When it comes to discovering a natural gas leak, your nose is still the most reliable detector. No matter where you are — out for a walk, shopping, dining or at home — your nose can be on the lookout for natural gas.

If you notice a strong gas odor, call your local gas company, fire or police department and report it. If you are in a public building, ask the manager to make the call or do it yourself.

Natural gas still has the best safety record of any energy. Your nose can help keep it that way.

SERVICE... AT LOW, LOW PRICES!

Local Teams Prepare For Natural Disasters

The Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, under the Department of Health & Rehabilitative Services, has been given the responsibility to provide information to the State Disaster Preparedness Program regarding individuals who are non-ambulatory and who would be unable to move themselves to safety in the event of a natural disaster. This information will be used to develop a directory which will be available to disaster units in evacuating such persons during the time of need.

A non-ambulatory person is considered to be any individual who is physically or mentally unable to provide for his own mobility to safety in the event of a natural disaster. Persons who meet this definition and who wish to have their names included in this directory are advised to call the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services offices in Sebring at 382-2141 or in Wauchula at 773-2155. Individuals who are residing at Nursing Homes or retirement Homes need not apply since these locations will be automatically included in this directory.

Thomas Parnell Promoted In US Army

Thomas W. Parnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parnell Sr., Avon Park, recently was promoted to Army specialist four while serving as a heavy-vehicle operator with the 4th Transportation Brigade in Rueselsheim, Germany. Parnell entered the Army in November 1976. He attended South Florida Junior College.

Mobile FieldService Comes To Local Disabled Veterans

Free assistance for veterans and their families will be available locally when a field Service Unit of the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) visits Sebring on Wednesday Oct. 11, 1978. This will be the fifth consecutive year that one of these 26 foot mobile offices has visited the state, providing free counseling and claims service to veterans and their families.

The DAV Field Service Unit will be located at the Southgate Shopping Center at Publix Super Market, Highway 27 South from 10 a.m., until 6 p.m.

The travelling veterans' service facility will be manned by DAV National Service Officers who are fully qualified and trained to assist veterans and their families in filing claims for Federal and State benefits to which they are entitled by law. These include disability compensation, pension, employment and job training rights, educational benefits, hospitalization and medical care, Social Security, death claims and more.

During the first four years of the DAV's nationwide tour with its fleet of nine Field Service units, 165,000 veterans and dependants contacted the mobile offices for assistance. As a result of these visits, DAV National Service Officers filed 10,400 new claims and reopened another 57,000 claims for veteran's disability compensation and pension benefits. Thousands of claims for other government benefits were also filed.

A veteran need not be a member of the DAV to take advantage of this free service. The project is an extension of the DAV's 50-year-old National Service program that provides a variety of assistance at no cost to veterans and their families. Under this program, the DAV employs 280 full-time National Service Officers — more than 80 percent of whom are disabled veterans of the Vietnam War period — at Veterans Administration (VA) facilities across the country.

From July 1976 to June 1977, the most recent full year, which statistics are available, there National Service Officers successfully handled 257,000 individual cases representing Federal benefits totaling $6 million for veterans and their families.

The DAV pointed out that t Field Service Unit program need to complement t DAV's National Service Program because "Many veterans, dependents a widows live some distant from VA facilities where D National Service Offices a located. The Field Service U program carries DAV servic right to the doorsteps of the people. It's surprising ho many people don't even kno what benefits they're entitl to until they step into one t mobile offices."

DAV officials urge vetera of all wars, particular disabled veterans, to ta advantage of this free serv by visiting the DAV mobile service unit to discuss a problems they may ha concerning benefits. Spec emphasis is placed on Vietn Era veterans because man these young men and wom are not taking advantage of t benefits they've earned.

DAV Ridge Chapter 49 Sebring and DAV Auxilia members are cooperating w the National Headquarters the 56,000 member DAV bringing the Field Service U program to this area. F further information conta Commander Chuck Stahlbe 385-3453 or Adjutant Clarer Cooper 385-8646.

Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch Celebrates It's 21st Anniversary

The Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch will celebrate its 21st anniversary with a full weekend of activities, October 6, 7, and 8, to which the public is invited.

The main events will be a barbecue luncheon by the Suwannee River and an open house of Ranch buildings, on Saturday, with an invitational horse show running almost continuously all day Saturday and Sunday.

Based upon last year's attendance, Ranch officials expect approximately 400 horses and riders to participate in the horse show and a total attendance near 2,000. A camping area will be designated near the Riding Arena, and campers (mostly horsemen and their families) are expected to begin arriving as early as noon on Friday.

Huge pots of chicken pilau will be simmering over open fires near the Arena for everyone to enjoy between the hours of 5:30 and 11 p.m. A warm-up event in the Arena is set for 8 p.m. Friday night. A grand Entry to open Saturday's horse show will commence at 8:30 a.m. A full day of exciting riding competition will follow this colorful ceremony.

The barbecue luncheon, which is open to all, will be served from noon until 1 p.m. and immediately followed by the open house of Ranch buildings, including the boys' cottages, until 4 p.m. Back at the Arena, at 2 p.m., the horse show will pause briefly for the presentation of the Carleton F. Tweed Memorial Horsemanship Trophy to a deserving Rancher.

This annual award was established and presented for the first time in 1972 by Mrs. Tweed in memory of her husband who died in 1970. The Tweeds, longtime friends and benefactors of the Boys Ranch, provided most of the funds for the beautiful Ranch Gymnasium, dedicated in 1969, which bears their name. This will be the first year since 1972 that Mrs. Tweed will be hand to present the trophy personally.

No outdoor worship servi will be held in the Riding Arena at 8:30 a.m., Sunday morning. One of the interesting thin about this service is that it may be attended on horseback.

Sunday's Grand Entry scheduled to begin at 9:15 a.m. and following which action the Arena will contin interrupted until scheduled events have been completed.

The Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch is a home for dependent, neglected, or homeless (b not delinquent) boys. It is located on County Road 7, approximately nine mile north of Live Oak. Live Oak roughly halfway between Tallahassee and Jacksonville with access from Interstate 10.

The Boys Ranch was founded by the Florida Sheriff Association, in 1957, and it helped nearly 600 youngsters since that time.

It is one of three su facilities operated by t Florida Sheriffs Youth Fun Inc. The others are the Florida Sheriffs Girl Vill near Bart and the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranch near Clearwater.

The facilities and program of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Fund are supported almost entirely by voluntary gifts.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Steve Day

It's been a year now Son since you went away. Seems like an eternity because we miss you so — Yet seems only yesterday because the hurt is the same — God needed you in Heaven so He took you there to wait for us.

Until we meet you Son our hearts will forever ache. Even time cannot ease the pain and sorrow we feel — Our lives and hearts are so empty without you — We love you and miss you — some golden days back — we will awaken and be together again forever.
