Heston, Wise Returned To Commission By 55% Margin

School Board Race Goes To Runoff

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Incumbent County Commissioners Norman "Jug" Heston and C.J. "Buddy" Wise eased their way to an approximately 600-vote victory over their opponents in Tuesday's first primary.

South Florida Junior College teacher Robert Fitzgerald, however, will go into a runoff with Mrs. Marguerite Skipper in the District 3 school board race.

Fitzgerald led Mrs. Skipper by nearly 800 votes, but the third man in the race, Selvin McGahee, took 847 votes, robbing Fitzgerald of a majority.

Heston and Wise both took about 55 percent of the vote in their victories.

Although losing some precincts in both the north and south ends of the county, both incumbents depended upon a strong Sebring vote to re-elect them to the commission.

Wise collected a total of 2,836 votes to Driggers' 2,264 votes. Heston won the support of 2,713 county citizens while Laye was backed by 2,101 people.

Fitzgerald won 2,641 votes to Mrs. Skipper's 1,873 votes and McGahee's 847 votes.

Laye's strongest area was Avon Park, where he took five out of the only seven precincts he won countywide.

However, the Heston vote in Sebring was solid, sometimes swamping Laye with two-to-one and three-to-one margins. Heston also won the largest precinct in the county, located in Lake Placid, by a total of 365 votes to 283 votes. Driggers won eight precincts, but only two were in Avon Park. His support came from small voting areas, while

"Buddy" Wise

Wise took most of the larger precincts, including all of the Sebring precincts and the large Lake Placid precinct, which he won by a 13-vote edge.

Wise was almost equal with Driggers in votes in the north and south county areas but like Heston won big in the Sebring area. Both men are from Lake Placid.

Fitzgerald took 12 of the county's 19 precincts, with Mrs. Skipper taking six and McGahee one.

The SFJC teacher established a solid lead in Avon Park and Lake Placid, while losing ground in Sebring. In the county's largest precinct in Lake Placid, Fitzgerald took 662 votes, the largest number for any candidate in any race.

Mrs. Skipper trailed with 167 votes and McGahee received 70.

Fitzgerald led Mrs. Skipper by over 300 votes in Avon Park and also took smaller precincts in Florida and Venues.

About 36 percent of the county's registered voters turned out for the election, a number slightly under the predicted turnout.

In the gubernatorial race, on the Democratic side Highlands County citizens backed the ticket of Bob Graham and Wayne Mixson. Attorney General Robert Shelin came in second and Lt. Gov. Jim Williams placed third in the voting.

In the Republican race, Jack Eckerd took 1,474 votes to Lou Frey's 567.

SCHOOL BUSES are required by state law to stop at all railroad crossings, as Bus 46 was doing Friday afternoon when it was struck from behind by a Chevrolet Impala driven by a 17-year-old girl. The Highlands County school bus was headed west on Main Street and was stopped at the tracks in front of the Highlands County Bank with its warning flashers on, according to Avon Park Police Sgt. Paul Harrison. No school children were injured, although one reportedly was later taken to the hospital for examination. The driver and another girl riding in the car were treated and released at Walker Memorial Hospital. The driver was charged with careless driving. It was Highlands County's first school bus accident of the year.

City Hits Double Taxation

Citizens are usually upset about taxes but the City of Avon Park has made it clear it isn't too happy about them either. Avon Park City Councilmen are apparently dissatisfied with the disposition of taxes by the Highlands County Commission.

Councilmen have asked City Clerk Malcolm Crews to write a letter to the commissioners informing them of the city's attitude and requesting a meeting with county officials, if necessary, to discuss the matter.

Although councilmen have grumbled on several occasions over what they felt was a disproportionate amount of county taxes going to help Sebring instead of Avon Park, this is the first time they have taken any official action on the matter.

"It's a question of double taxation," See TAXATION, Page 3A

Policeman Injured In Chase

an argument in a divorce case Monday morning in a high police chase and serious injuries to a woman in the incident, his brother Avon Park Police Captain Frank Kenneth Dunn ran in to the Avon Park Police Department headquarters where she had been beaten up by her husband and outside a nearby attorney's office where they had met to discuss a divorce, according to Police and Robert Brooks.

Officers said the woman had been beaten about the head and her left arm and hand lacerated and cut.

The woman gave police a description of her husband and the van he was driving. Police went to the attorney's office, Brooks said, from where Dunn had left in the van with his brother heading east on Main Street.

Brooks said the van turned onto S.R. 17 and allegedly went through a four-way stop sign at "close to 70 m.p.h." headed back to U.S. 27.

The first officer to spot the speeding van was Highlands County Sheriff's Deputy William Wise, who saw the two men on S.R. 17 and gave chase with his blue lights and siren turned on, according to the police chief.

County Commissioner C.J. "Buddy" Wise was one of about eight cars completely run off the road by the van during the chase, when officer said the van reached speeds ranging from about 85 m.p.h. to over 100 m.p.h.

When the men reached the intersection of S.R. 17 and U.S. 27, police said, they ran a roadblock set up by Avon Park Patrolman Scott Smith, forcing him to move out of the way at the last minute.

Police, including Chief Brooks, were joined by Highlands and Polk County Sheriff's deputies and Highway Patrolmen in chasing the van north on U.S. 27 or attempting to head it off in Polk County.

Cratty was headed toward Tampa to deliver film being used in a bank fraud investigation and was at the overpass at Sun Ray on U.S. 27 when he heard a call for assistance on his radio, Brooks said.

He was going to attempt to head the van off, the chief said, but he didn't have enough time. He was just pulling into the right lane, at about 25 m.p.h., Brooks said, when the van came from behind and rammed him. "He just didn't have enough power to pull away," said the chief.

Brooks, who was following closely behind the van, said it made no attempt to stop or swerve out of the way. "His brake lights didn't go on or anything," he said.

The van hit Cratty's Dodge police cruiser on the right rear bumper at about 85 m.p.h. (see photo), Brooks said.

Cratty and the two men were taken to Walker Memorial Hospital. The driver of the van, identified as Kenneth Claude Dunn, a 28-year-old Frostproof resident, was put in the intensive care unit, in critical condition.

Police said Cratty and the passenger, identified as Stanley Dwayne Dunn, were in serious condition. Cratty reportedly is making a good recovery.

Among the charges to be filed against Dunn are assault and battery for the alleged attack on his wife, aggravated assault with a vehicle, which is a felony, and willful and wanton reckless driving.

Felony assault charges also may be See ASSAULT, Page 3A

VOTING WAS A democratic right ignored by more than 80 percent of the county's registered voters in Tuesday's primary election, but not by John Ruggie, who voted at Avon Park's Precinct 2 with his wife Ann. Ruggie, shown here about to pull the curtains shut on the voting machine before casting his ballot, was one of 7,482 Highlands County residents who exercised their right Tuesday and elected two county commissioners and set up a runoff contest in the three-way school board race. Photos by Bruce Henderson.

Council Recalls Ellerbee's New Car

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Some last minute alterations to the city budget produced a new employee for the Street Superintendent John Ziegler but cut out a new car for Building Official C.W. Ellerbee.

City Clerk Malcolm Crews was ready to proceed with the first reading of the budget with Councilman Robert Britt said he wanted to make some changes. The present city baseball complex was in deplorable shape and another employee was needed, he told other councilmen.

"It's saddening to know how much money we've put in it and see the way it's going. There's not enough help. I'd like to see another man put in that department to help," Britt said. Ed Toughton, president of the local athletic association, backed Britt's suggestion.

"(Presently) there is no way to maintain ballfields we've got. It's not John's fault, it's no one individual's fault. You need to set aside a couple of men for that ballpark," Toughton said.

Councilman David Barefield agreed the ballfields needed improvements but noted "we have one of our highest paid men out there now, we really don't need one of the highest paid officials at the ballpark with all the other equipment we have."

Toughton, though, argued, a great deal of city equipment was at the ball complex.

To pay for the new employee, Britt suggested taking federal revenue sharing funds from the building department's budget and shifting them to the general fund. The revenue sharing funds were slated to buy the building department a new car which would replace an old pickup truck now being used.

"I don't want a department head to think this is nit-picking. But if (C.W.) Ellerbee can get by this year, next year we can get him his car. We can put the $5,000 into this account (for the new employee)."

A new car for the building department has been in the city budget for the last three years. Each time it has been cut out.

Councilman Barefield said the council should wait to see if the city has any carryover funds which could be used to pay the new employee.

Ziegler said he needed the new employee and told the council to hold back on buying a new truck for his department and use the money for the new employee instead.

Toughton argued a new car for the building department was not really necessary and that a new employee and a pickup for the street department, was more important.

Sad Episode At Council Meeting

The Avon Park City Council has the uncanny knack of being able to snatch defeat from the jaws of victory.

The latest example of the council going out of its way to produce a wrong result is not a spectacular one. Indeed, it is almost minor in significance, but it is an almost classic case of how government really works in practice as opposed to theories in high school civics textbooks.

On the surface the council switched some $8,000 in their budget to pay for a new employee for the street department. The new employee will help take care of the city baseball complex.

Five thousand dollars was taken from the building department's share of federal revenue sharing funds. The funds had been designated to buy a new car for the building department. The rest of the money was from the city's street and sidewalk fund.

Further, Councilman Robert Britt claimed the extra man was needed at the baseball complex, a claim which no one really disputed.

On paper, everything looks fine and well. A rather typical, if not dull, news story.

However, there are a few other factors involved which did not come out at the council meeting.

First of all, at least three councilmembers have been at odds with Building Inspector G. W. Ellerbee for some time. While some councilmen have had a cozy relationship with contractors Ellerbee makes sure all builders obey the standard building codes.

Two, council members were jumping at any chance to deny Ellerbee a new car for the building department. At a previous budget meeting the first thing Councilman Kelley Phillips advocating cutting was funds from the building department. This in spite of the fact the building department has one of the lowest budgets in city hall and the lowest share of the federal revenue sharing funds.

Thirdly, city officials are still mad at Ellerbee for his questions and comments about the alteration of gasoline tickets. Ellerbee simply said the city's method, which was a violation of state law, was wrong and deserved to be changed. It was the only statement by any city official to acknowledge any mistakes in the whole affair.

The council, to this day, has never mentioned the matter of the alteration and falsification of the tickets.

So it is no surprise the council wanted a way to strike back at their building inspector. Councilmen saw the denial of the proposed new car as a petty way to attack Ellerbee. They never intended to use federal revenue sharing funds to aid the building department. They merely hoped they could find a good reason for denying them.

Ironically, at the same meeting the council denied the funds to the building department, they raised the pay grades for three employees in city hall. Three employees who work upstairs in city hall. One employee who was left out of the council's generosity even though she has as much or more responsibility as the three who received pay raises, worked downstairs in the city hall. As, surprise of surprises, secretary to Mr. Ellerbee in the building department. That is something akin to guilt by association.

That is not exactly government at its best but it is government. And the episode tells citizens a great deal about how city, and county, agencies can and do operate.

For that reason, such episodes, and there are plenty in most cities and counties, should be condensed in textbook form to show students what the real government is like rather than the one they study.

After a while, there is no longer any indignation or anger or even opposition to such episodes.

There is only sadness. Which may tell us why, when elections were held yesterday, there were so few people voting.

County Should Account For City Taxes

The Avon Park City Council's action of requesting some clarification from the Highlands County Commission on taxation matters is a step on the right financial path.

For some time now, councilmen have felt the county was slighting Avon Park in their disposition of tax funds, particularly those funds which go for paving the road work.

In paying for additional insult to injury, councilmen also question whether the city should be taxed as greatly as areas in the county, while apparently, getting much less for it.

The issue of double taxation and which city gets which taxes for what project is not new. This problem has been in Florida, and indeed the nation, for some time.

Two years ago a group of cities in Brevard County won a suit before the Florida Supreme Court in which they claimed they were being unfairly double-taxed by the county.

If the council is right and the county commission has been limiting its street and paving funds for the City of Avon Park, then certainly this situation should be corrected.

In all fairness to the county commission, Avon Park councilmen were not prepared with facts and figures when they discussed the matter so their opinions cannot be accepted as being absolute.

However if the council's allegations, and those of City Clerk Malcolm Crews are true, then it appears clear the county owes the city of Avon Park some long overdue paving and street work.

To be blunt, the Sun has not had an opportunity to investigate the council's allegations so cannot state whether Avon Park is being fairly treated or not by the county.

We, like the city councilmen, have our suspicions, but suspicions are a long way from being facts.

However one thing can be said. The action of the Avon Park City Council in putting the Highlands County Commission on notice about their concern was justified.

Certainly if asked to, county commissioners should justify their use of tax funds to the various cities in the county and particularly to the councilmen of those cities since the councilmen represent the residents of the area.

Also, the county should definitely keep a schedule of just what projects in the county are to be pursued this year and their location and costs. Such projects should also be listed for years past.

Using such a procedure it should not be hard to tell if either Avon Park, Lake Placid, Sebring, or any other part of the county has been slighted in receiving funds.

There are, of course, other factors involved in the spending of funds than just a equal breakdown of money spent in each area of the county.

If some highway or road is an particularly dangerous traffic hazard, then it must have the first priority when any road funds or tax monies become available.

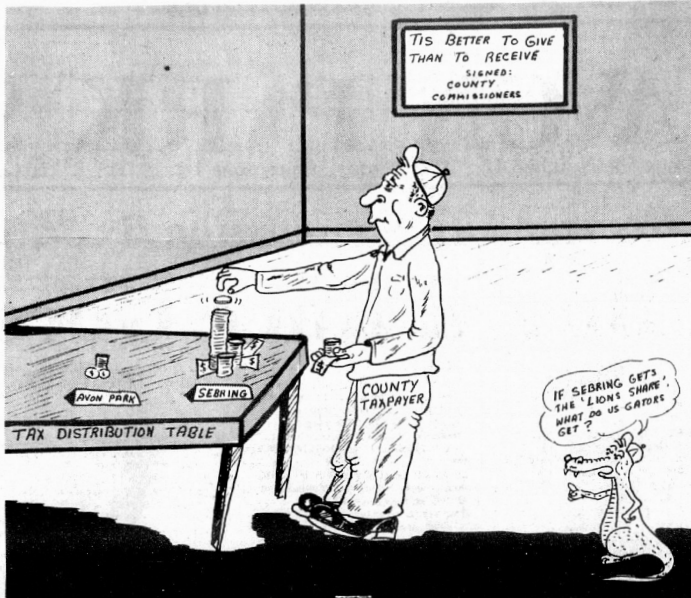

Other factors include traffic congestion, new developments which need roads, the appearance and safety of roads, etc.

The state Department of Transportation also has a major say in what roads can be paved or upgraded during the year for the simple reason if the DOT is involved, the project will receive state funds pumped in to help solve local transportation problems.

All such items need to be considered carefully when the county sets forth its priority list of roads to be improved or paved during the year.

The reasons why such projects have been chosen and others delayed or postponed for another year or two should be a matter commissioners can easily justify.

If not, they need to go over their list of street projects and change some locations.

It's like paying for a car for somebody else to use!

Seeks Information Of Senator Park Trammell

Dear Editor:

I am seeking information from you or your readers concerning the late Park Trammell, who served as United States Senator from Florida from 1917 to 1936. Senator Trammell, a resident of Lakeland, supposedly was involved in the sale of real estate in your community during the Florida Boom of 1925. I am interested in learning if this was indeed the case.

I am anxious to get in touch with any long-time resident of Avon Park who has personal knowledge of Senator Trammell having sold land or homes in Avon Park. As you know, another Florida resident, William Jennings Bryan, promoted real estate in South Florida during the Boom. If you or your readers could supply me with any information on this topic, I would be most appreciative.

Fed-up Average Businessman Has His Say

Dear Editor:

In reference to a letter on page 2A (Sept. 7) entitled "Avon Park not helped by County," I would like to make two points made known to the name withheld on request.

1. The West Pleasant street that is surfaced now is in the City Limits of Avon Park. This is the responsibility of the City Fathers of Avon Park. (Not the County.)

2. The equipment of the Avon Park School Teacher is under the direct budget of the County School Board. The funding of the School Board and the County is totally separated.

This person needs to avail himself of the proper facts before he starts criticizing in areas of which he seems totally ignorant.

Since the Sun only wants to print things to cause an uproar, I am sure that the letter will never see the light of day in the paper but I just had to have my say just one time.

Editor's Note: Normally letters that come to the Sun unsigned are regrettably consigned to file thirteen. However, the concerns two points that go beyond the boundaries of Avon Park.

Knowledgeable or not, the writer who asked to have his name withheld had the intestinal fortitude to sign his name to his letter. Perhaps the "fed up" — just average Avon Park businessman" who seems to know all about the county finances would care to explain which side of the fence he is on? The Avon Park side or the county side?

I have been noticing, without much interest, the pamphlets which are coming through the mail and stuffed in the newspaper promising fantastic insurance benefits for just a small monthly payment.

Personally I am somewhat skeptical of an insurance plan which comes through the mail. Knowing how insurance companies are rather parsimonious when it comes to paying I just can't put my faith, or my money, in mail order premiums.

If somebody did, and tried to collect, I think the conversation would run something like this:
"Hello, Mail-Away Insurance Corporation. When you send us your premiums you kiss your money goodbye."

"Yeah, listen my name is Jones and I have one of your policies."

"So do a million other suckers, sir."

"I was in the hospital for a short time and sent you the bill. The hospital just notified me your company refused to pay."

"Of course."

"What? What do you mean? You're supposed to pay."

"You must be kidding, Mr. Jones. Obviously you didn't read the fine print. We sell health insurance. If you were in the hospital you were obviously sick. If you want coverage for that you have to buy sick insurance."

"Wait a minute."

"You really don't expect us to sell health insurance to sick people do you? Good Lord, that could run into money."

"Wait a minute, the policy said you promised to pay $75 a day if I incurred an extended hospital stay."

"That was in the 72 point type. You didn't read the smaller print. In the 366 type we defined what we meant by 'extended stay'. You have to be in the hospital for a certain length of time before qualifying for 'extended stay' and before we begin paying."

"How long do you consider an extended stay?"

"A hundred and fifty-seven years."

"What? Are you crazy?"

"No, but our board of directors are rather rich."

"What are the chances of something staying in the hospital for 157 years and actually collecting your benefits?"

"Very slim. Why do you think our directors are rich?"

"That's not rare."

"It is to us. We define rare illness as any illness we help pay the bills for. And believe me, that's rare!"

"We do pay for medicine. We pay for aspirin. Anytime you use more than $500 worth of aspirin in a year let us know and we'll send a check."

"You mean you send out an insurance policy without having to pay for any illnesses?"

"Of course we pay for some. We have to get around the laws."

"Which ones?"

"If you are ever incapacitated because of being shot by a dart from the blowgun of an African pygmy we'll pick up the entire bill. Anything besides that, forget it."

Sept. 29 Set For Teacher County Talks

The refusal of school officials to grant teachers' union representatives paid leave led to the postponement of a meeting scheduled Tuesday morning between teacher's union and school board negotiators and a federal mediator.

September 29 has been set tentatively as a agreeable new date to the school board for the mediation session, according to Chet Brojek, negotiator for the Highlands County Education Association. Talks will begin at 4 p.m. He said the length of the delay was due in part to the busy schedule of the mediator, Margaret Rose.

Chief school board negotiator Dr. James Ferrell Smith said in a statement issued Monday the contract talks were temporarily suspended due to "philosophical and contractual differences of opinion."

More specifically, Dr. Smith said the teachers' representatives had requested paid leave and substitutes for their classes to allow them to attend the session.

"It is the expressed opinion of the Highlands County School Board that it is an improper use of tax money to provide salary and substitutes for teachers to enable them to leave their responsibilities in order to negotiate for higher salaries," Smith said.

Smith added he had offered to grant teachers personal leave to be deducted from their sick leave allotment, but the teachers were not agreeable to the proposal.

The school board negotiator said the present contract calls for paid leave and substitutes only when the negotiating session is "called at the convenience and for the benefit of the school board negotiators."

Both Brojek and Smith have said they hope the dispute over teacher pay raises will be settled in mediation.

How Tax Money Is Spent

According to the September Avon Park Chamber of Commerce membership communique the Federal Government "gave" grants in excess of $30 billion (not million-billion) for all kinds of different studies.

The sum of $4,000 went to study "Why People Fall in Love." Another grant went to study "Why Drunk Fish are more Aggressive than Sober Fish." More had earned tax dollars were spent on a study of "How Long it takes a Fry Bacon and Eggs."

A $24,000 grant went to study

"Why Tennis Players become Angry." The Navy got an award of $191,000 to airlift 1334 officers to Las Vegas for a reunion (this used 347,000 gallons of fuel).

Congress is planning to spend $1.3 billion for automatic elevators, but intends to retain operators to run them. The Labor Department spent $350,000 to count horses, dogs and cars in Ventura, Calif.

The communique went on to state, maybe Avon Park could get a grant to study "Why the Firefly has his Headlight on Behind."

City Hit By Double Taxation

said Councilman David Barefield, who brought up the subject at the last council meeting. "We're being taxed for General Hospital, the county zoning and planning, the road and bridge department and the sheriff's department and others. We're not getting our share of paying or of other services."

Councilman Barefield said the city should tell the county commissioners how they feel and hold a meeting with commissioners to discuss the matter. The councilman suggested the county could possibly "adjust" the tax levels between cities and areas outside of city limits.

"We really are being double-taxed," he said. Councilman Robert Britt agreed, saying the matter of double-taxation was a nationwide problem. He also urged the council to officially protest to the county commission.

Crews noted that in the last three years the only paying the county has done in Avon Park has been parts of two streets in the city.

"When they're paving, they're not doing us a favor," said Councilman Barefield. "We're paying for it."

Crews noted the Department of Transportation was spending $20,000 for a project in Lake Placid and $150,000 for lights at the Sebring Southgate Shopping Center. The cost for the shopping center lights would be split between the DOT, the Sebring City Council and the Highlands County Commission.

In a previous meeting, councilmen indicated they had no objection to the Southgate project but felt there were other paying projects which Sebring was getting preference over other areas of the county.

Crews said he would write the letter and let the council know when he had received a reply. Commissioners already knew of the dissatisfaction of Avon Park, Crews said.

"They know we're investigating it (the tax situation)," Crews said.

Ellerbee Loses Car

Councilmen agreed and deleted the car for the building department and also took $3,000 from the street and paving fund to help pay the new employee.

However, Barefield suggested that, instead of trading in two old police cars which the city had planned to do, the cars be given to the building department and the recreation department for use.

The trade-in value on the two vehicles would be very little, said Barefield, but the two city departments could put them to use.

The pickup truck presently used by Ellerbee needs repairs and Barefield said the repairs would cost at least as much as any trade-in value the two old police cars could bring.

In other business, the council tabled what apparently was a routine request when the request angered street superintendent John Ziegler.

Councilman David Barefield suggested that scheduling for the city ball fields be the responsibility of Recreation Director Dennis Guenther.

Presently, although Guenther is the recreation director the scheduling of games is under Ziegler, who takes care of the fields in his capacity as street superintendent.

Barefield said Ziegler did a good job of caring for the baseball complex but the scheduling should really come under the recreation department.

Councilmen seemed to agree until Ziegler became upset and complained, saying no one had told him he had been doing a bad job.

When Guenther said some people had asked him why he wasn't doing the scheduling, Ziegler turned to him and shouted, "Who? Name them!"

Councilman Kelley Phillips also asked Guenther the same thing and Guenther simply replied several people had posed the question to him.

Ziegler said he had angered a few people by refusing to let them use the ballfields when the city rules prohibited playing.

Barefield repeated no one was saying Ziegler had done a bad job, on the contrary he had done a good one. Barefield said he thought the scheduling should come under the recreation department.

However the council decided to table the issue until the next meeting.

A TOTAL WRECK is all that is left of Avon Park Police Captain Frank Cratty's Dodge patrol car. Cratty was struck from behind by a van being pursued by city police, sheriff's deputies and Highway Patrolmen Monday morning. Capt. Cratty's car was deliberately rammed by the van as he attempted to head it off, according to Police Chief Robert Brooks, who was following close behind. The driver, identified as Kenneth Claude Dunn, a 28-year-old Frostproof resident, fled police after allegedly assaulting his estranged wife outside a local attorney's office, police said. Several charges are pending against the man. Snapshots by Bruce Henderson.

General Budget Set At $1.1 Million

With only minor changes the Avon Park City Council approved the 1978-79 fiscal budget Monday night and certified the city millage at 4.5424 mills.

The general fund budget will be just over $1.1 million while the water and sewer funds total $533,300. In addition the city will receive $113,321 in federal revenue sharing funds.

The only area of some concern to councilmen and to Mayor J. Marshall Davis was the amount budgeted for the city contingency fund.

Both Mayor Davis and Councilman Kelley Phillips said the $13,321 was low and urged other funds be added in case of emergencies.

Councilman David Barefield agreed the amount was low but pointed out the city had only used $2,500 of the contingency fund this year. The total fund was approximately $39,000.

City Clerk Malcolm Crews told councilmen the city was 1.3 percent below budget through July 31st. If that percentage was held, the city could carry over approximately $12,000 which could be used as additionally funds.

Crews said the city had spent $841,000 out of a total budget of $1,023,000.

However councilmen indicated they still might go over the federal revenue sharing funds to see if an additional amount could be diverted the city's contingency fund.

Designers Wins At Fall Florist Show

Ridge Florist designers Bill McDaniel and Janice Walker were the winners of the awards for most practical table and most original table at the Florida West Coast Florist Association's Fall and Christmas design show, held in Tampa on August 26 and 27, at the Curtis Hixon Auditorium.

Janice and Bill competed with numerous designers from all across the state of Florida, and were extremely honored to win two of the shows major awards. They also displayed an elegant table which fared well in the competition. The practical table display was done with a blue burlap table covering and a light blue table skirt. A multicolored flower pattern china was used with matching napkins and candle holders. An arrangement of coordinated fresh, paper and silk flowers were fashioned in a white clay pot to set the mood. The setting was accented with four high-back, cane bottom chairs to complete the scene.

Their original table which stood only 20 inches off the ground seemed to be the hit of the show. A childrens birthday party was the theme they used. The table was skirted in pink material and topped with a paper tablecloth which was applique with hippo and balloon cutouts.

The four place settings were set with matching paper plates, napkins and cups, topped with a fresh cupcake. The table arrangement was a two tiered wicker basket of mixed pastel flowers topped with helium balloons. Small childrens chairs with balloons attached were placed at each setting.

Bill and Janice will be competing for Ridge Florist at the Southern Retail Florist Association's convention in Charlotte, N.C. on September 19 and 20. They will also be appearing for Ridge Florist on the design school panel at the Florida Teleflorist convention on November 3, in Orlando.

Party for children, using a table which stood only 20 inches off the ground, and it seemed to be the hit of the show.

Scouts Organizing, Volunteers Needed

Girls wishing to participate in scouting, and adult volunteers wanting to help in any way with Girl Scouting, should call E. Hall, organizer at 453-6295 as soon as possible.

There are many ways that adults can help-as Area Chairperson, secretary, treasurer, chairperson for special events, public relations chairperson, camping, teaching crafts, and troop leaders and assistant leaders (the most fun part of helping).

Adults of any age are welcome both women and men. Training is available and there is always someone to answer any questions.

Maybe you can think of other ways you can help. And what a good feeling it is to know that you are helping girls to become good citizens.

The organizer will be waiting to hear from girls and adults.

Andrew Jackson, State Senator Candidate and Singer Anita Bryant.

Anita Bryant Supports Jackson

Highlands County resident Andrew Jackson, who is running for the state senate on the Republican ticket, has won the support of nationally-known singer Anita Bryant. Mrs. Bryant, who gained national prominence while leading a crusade against a "gay rights" ordinance in Miami, has sent a letter to Jackson stating "you have aligned yourself with a set of principles which I believe are vital to the best interests of Florida... and to the survival of America."

Jackson, a local cattleman and attorney, is campaigning for the senate seat of Senator Tom Gallen, who announced his retirement earlier this summer.

Democrat Pat Neal from Bradenton is also running for the senate seat. Neal has served in the Florida House of Representatives for four years. Mrs. Bryant wrote to Jackson that "We all owe it to our children to support candidates like you who are dedicated to those moral values which will strengthen our families, our society, our state and our nation."

Jackson, who calls himself a conservative candidate for a conservative district, has expressed his opposition to the Equal Rights Amendment, one of Mrs. Bryant's long time dislikes also.

Jackson was also commended by Mrs. Bryant for "voicing your opposition to a state income tax, casino gambling, legalization of marijuana, prostitution, homosexual acts and other unnatural and ungodly activities."

"You staunch support of law enforcement is crucial to the well-being of our communities. Also your voice of sanity in calling for tax reductions in these inflationary times is worthy of note by every alert voter." Jackson is a former Highlands County Commissioner, a former county prosecutor and a former assistant state attorney. He has lost one previous race for the state senate.

In conclusion Mrs. Bryant wrote to Jackson that "I am happy to lend my voice to a host of others that are being raised in your support."

The subject of a revised city map has been under discussion by the Avon Park chamber of commerce for a long time. Chamber members Art Turner and Hal Schuler were responsible for getting the first draft of the map ready for the printers.

This first draft has been a matter of checking, rechecking, adding and deleting and other routine changes. Not only was it brainwork but also leg work, plus reviewing by the chamber's board of directors and the staff with Malcolm Crews, city clerk and others. Overall it was a much greater task than originally anticipated several of the chamber directors. The maps should be ready for distribution in a matter of weeks.

Sgt. Roy Hickman Receives Award From Chief Brooks

Officer Receives Recognition

It was a completely surprised Sgt. Roy Hickman who heard a letter of commendation and received a certificate of appreciation during the Kiwanis Club meeting last Tuesday.

It was Sgt. Hickman's day off Tuesday when he was called to report in full uniform to the Avon Park Police Station. But he was not told why at the time.

At the Kiwanis noon meeting Sgt. Hickman heard the following letter of commendation to Mayor Marshall Davis read by Chief Robert Brooks: This is a letter of commendation for Officer Roy Hickman for the expertise and common sense used in apprehending the burglar at Eckerd's Drug store.

Officer Hickman also apprehended four juveniles who had escaped from detention in Winter Haven. The juveniles had broken into a residence, and taken four hand guns, a knife, along with furnishings from a house in the area and set up a camp with them.

This officer was always on the job when needed. He was present and worked diligently in the arrest of the armed robberies of the convenience stores in the Avon Park area.

This officer has shown courage and professionalism towards the position he is holding as a sergeant and a professional Police officer.

Our city, county and country need more men of this caliber. It is with great pleasure to have this man, Roy Hickman, working with our force.

The certificate of appreciation was presented to Sgt. Hickman in connection with the Kiwanis program of "help stop crime" which is both a national and local program. Every two months a law enforcement officer is chosen for the award, with the awards going alternately to a city police officer and a member of the county sheriff's department.

The City Of Avon Park Receives 1977 AAA Club Pedestrian Safety Citation

Avon Park has earned the 1977 Pedestrian Safety Citation from the Peninsula Motor Club (AAA) for its achievement in the prevention of pedestrian fatalities and injuries.

According to Hampton Dunn, Vice President of the motorists' organization, the Pedestrian Safety Citation is one of 330 top citations to be presented by AAA clubs across the country in the federation's 39th annual Pedestrian Safety Inventory, a unique program in the nation. More than 2,600 cities and 29 states participated in the AAA survey which evaluates and recognizes outstanding pedestrian safety achievements of participating communities for the previous calendar year.

Dunn and Travis Aplin, Manager of the Polk County Division of the Club, presented a handsome plaque to Police Chief Robert Brooks and Mayor Marshall Davis at ceremonies last Wednesday.

The AAA pedestrian program focuses attention nationwide on pedestrian safety needs and attempts to stimulate local interest in pedestrian-related programs. Recognition is given to cities and states that have determined superior achievements in their pedestrian death and injury records and have conducted effective pedestrian safety programs.

Yet, Dunn noted, pedestrians still account for nearly one-fifth of all traffic fatalities, a fact often ignored in traffic safety planning.

Communities in the AAA program are judged with others of comparable size and characteristics. Program areas evaluated include maintenance of records, safety legislation, quality of school traffic safety programs and active public information and education programs.

Especially needed are players on flute, clarinet, horn and trombone although players on other wind and percussion instruments will be welcome. The group will be preparing programs of the traditional band favorites and will be available for concerts throughout the county.

Pathfinders Join Medical Team On Roitan Island

Some people take a vacation for the fun and pleasure of the trip, while others enjoy the blending of work with sight-seeing. Several young people and adults of Highlands County are apart of the second group. This past summer, Mike Palagrove, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Palagrove; Jim Marcum son of Mr. and Mrs. James Marcum; Nancy Foster, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A.H. Foster of Sebring, Dr. Tom Seifert, D.D.S.; Myra Myers a special education teacher at Vanguard School of Lake Wales; Lori Selby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Selby; Janet Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Miller and Judy and Jim Crabtree, went with others from the state of Florida and South Carolina to a small island of Roitan about 40 miles off the coast of Honduras in the Caribbean to administer medical and dental care to its people for two weeks.

The students are members of a group called Pathfinders and the group was carefully and expertly organized under the leadership of Bucky Weeks of Orlando.

The local group began their trip with a bus trip to Orlando, flew to Miami and from there took a flight to Bilis onto the mainland of Honduras ending up on a DC-3 before arriving on the small island.

Upon their arrival they spent two days preparing a 60 foot boat for the two weeks medical launch ahead of them. Allen Hyde an industrialist on the island of Roitan and the owner of the boat, prior to the teams arrival had dental and medical supplies shipped to the island. There were 30 young students and 30 adults involved in the medical launch project, with a dentist and two physicians from Spartanburg, S.C. as well as a physician from Jacksonville and a family practitioner and dentist from Avon Park. Judy and Jim Crabtree were among the adult volunteers, Judy helping with the dentistry and Jim was in charge of the details surrounding the project, including notification to the different ports when the boat would arrive, getting the natives lined up and registered for medical attention, and taking care of the students and their assignments.

Being on the trip such as this was not new to Judy as she had made the journey to Roitan last year with a group of Pathfinders on a similar task. However, it was much harder then, as they traveled by jeep caravan carrying the physicians, dentists, assistants and equipment at the same time. When the dentist made an extraction, last year, the patient was seated in a chair which had been propped against a window and in order to get rid of the blood and etc., that goes along with such extractions, the patient had to spit out the window. This year the group was better prepared with modern equipment and supplies, however, the facilities were overcrowded.

MIKE PALAGROVE, JIM MARCUM, Nancy Foster, Dr. Tom Seifert, Myra Myers, Lori Selby, Judy Crabtree, Janet

Miller and Jim Crabtree were among the 60 Seventh Day Adventist's and Pathfinder's that traveled to the small island of Roitan to administer medical aid for a ten day launch.

JUDY CRABTREE and one of the young Pathfinders assist a dentist preparing to make a tooth extraction from a native of the Roitan Island.

Most of the health problems encountered on the island were due to poor diet stated Jim Crabtree. Others were high blood pressure, iron deficiency and parasites, or worms.

Health problems on island due to poor diet, stated Crabtree.

Most of the problems could be controlled with a proper diet, as most of their food consumption consist of soft drinks, sugar, fats, greasy foods and meat with very little vegetables and no iron. However, he stated those are some of the same problems we are having here, only not quite as bad.

Cisterns are used to hold drinking water.

Jim reported that most of the drinkable water on the island was gathered in cisterns, however there were a few wells where the water was good.

ONE OF THE physicians in the Medical launch, and a native Roitanian.

The open sea was used to ease the problem of sanitation. Out-houses were built on the ends of wharfs from the main structure. This took getting use too, stated Jim, as all garbage was eliminated through the sea. Jim talked of how they would carry bags of garbage for days trying to find an appropriate way to dispose of it, and when a native volunteered to get rid of it, they would soon see it floating in the sea.

Students volunteered help for medical needs, building of bookcases, playground equipment, and etc.

The young students that accompanied the adults on the trip volunteered their services, not only in the medical profession, but also with the task of building bookcases for a school library, painting churches, making playground equipment, and some even back-packed into the countryside with a nurse to set up a clinic for those unable to go to the boat.

Some of the students tutored children for school, put on programs stressing proper diet and ways to lower blood pressure and etc. They even had a field day for the children, building kites and holding hula hoop and track races.

The trip also gave the students the opportunity to get first hand knowledge of the different aspects of the medical career and other professions. "We lived, slept, and ate on the boat, therefore we had to be real careful with our hygiene" said Jim. Each night the boat and all utensils were scrubbed and prepared for the next days labors.

"We lived, ate, and slept on the boat" said Jim.

According to Jim the group began their activities about 9 in the morning until 5 p.m. with training sessions planned for the evening hours. However, it was not all work as they were able to get in a little swimming and diving while on the island.

Waters off the coast of Roitan were some of the best skin diving territory around, Crabtree stated.

The waters there are super clear and some of the best diving territory around stated Crabtree. He also related an experience of going diving and viewing sharks swimming around as the divers came topside. It was a scary site as one of the sharks turned head on into one of the divers, narrowly missing him, luckily it was only a nurse shark. Jim commented that last year just before the Pathfinders came to the island, Jacques Cousteau was diving and filming in the waters off the coast of Roitan.

"Trip wasn't just for fun but gave us the opportunity to help others", he stated.

In summing up their experiences they meet on the trip, Jim stated that it was a great opportunity to see another part of the world, see how the people lived, yet it was not a waste of time as they were able to help people. Adding, "I think the best

IT WAS NOT all work as the group was able to get in some swimming and skin diving in the clear waters, between ports, off the coast of Roitan.

part of the trip was that it wasn't just for pleasure, doing something for other people and an opportunity to see the most beautiful island in the Caribbean".

The doctors and dentist gave their own time and money for this medical launch and the young Pathfinders, with the aid of their organization through car washes and other fund raising activities, financed their own way also.

Jim stated that the whole group were very tired upon arriving back, and it sure was great to be home. But, it was an experience that all will carry with them and look back upon for the rest of their lives.

As the island has no dentistry facilities, the ones that were on the trip are forming an organization so that they may better help the people of the island of Roitan by giving more and better coverage, stated Jim. Not only doing extractions but fillings as well, along with teaching the people the proper foods to eat and dental hygiene.

Jim also reported that Allen Hyde is also planning to build a health facility on the main French harbor for better medical care for the Roitanians.

Red Devils Drop Opener 12-0

Mistakes Aid Highlander Victory

RED DEVIL Anthony Carter scrambles for yardage in last Friday night's game against Lake Wales. Alert Highlander defensemen hauled Carter down before he picked up much yardage. A good defense kept the Red Devils bottled up most of the night.

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Bad mistakes rather than good play were the reasons the Lake Wales Highlanders won their first game of the season 12-0 at the expense of the Avon Park Red Devils.

The Red Devils were limited to only five first downs, all in the second half of the game, and gained only a net 75 yards during the entire night.

Both teams suffered from errors with the Red Devils losing two fumbles and throwing two interceptions and the Highlanders losing the ball three times on fumbles and once on an interception.

Penalties were also a factor as both teams were penalized close to 100 yards, but the lost yardage seemed to take more of a toll on the Red Devils than on the Highlanders.

The only sustained drive Avon Park could manage came late in the fourth quarter and ended at the Highlander one yard line.

Both teams traded punts in the first quarter with neither side being able to gain an advantage. The Highlanders did drive to the Red Devil 38-yard line but fumbled the ball away. The Lake Wales defense, though, stalled the Red Devils as it continued to do throughout the entire game.

In the second quarter, the Highlanders received a punt on their own 44 and began their first march to the Red Devil end zone.

Aided by a 15-yard penalty and a 25-yard pass completion, one of the three completions the Highlanders threw, Lake Wales drove the ball to the Red Devil 18. Then, in what was one of the longest runs of the night, Highlander back Eric McGriff zigzagged his way through Avon Park defenders and scored the Highlanders' first touchdown.

The Red Devils came right back and blocked the kick for the point after touchdown and the Highlanders led 6-0.

However, the Red Devils could not move the ball and the two teams traded punts again. The only other scoring threat in the first half came from Lake Wales after a bad Avon Park punt.

Backed inside their 25-yard line on fourth down, the Red Devil kicker shanked a punt which gave the Highlanders possession on the Red Devil 26.

However, Lake Wales could not advance and another fumble ended the scoring threat.

The third quarter was much of the same with each team exchanging punts and an occasional fumble or interception. All total, the Highlanders punted five times, and the Red Devils kicked four times.

A bad pass set up the next Highlander score.

The Red Devils had possession on their own 32 but were faced with a third and eight situation. Quarterback David Sisemore tossed a pass which was tipped by an Avon Park player but grabbed by a Lake Wales defender and run back to the 21.

The Highlanders picked up six yards on the next play, then McGriff raced 15 yards for his second score of the night. The extra point was again stopped by Avon Park and the score was 12-0 in favor of the Highlanders. Only after the Highlander final score did the Red Devils pose their first scoring threat, moving the ball from midfield to inside the Highlander 10-yard line. However, in four tries, the Red Devils could not cross the goal line, and Lake Wales took over on their one-yard line. The Highlanders had to punt, and the resulting kick put the Red Devils in good

... a frustrating night field position, but a final interception killed any scoring threat.

Turning to the totals, the black-clad Highlanders had allowed only 65 yards on the ground and 75 yards overall. The Red Devils completed only two of nine passes attempted.

Hunter To Shift Lineup

There will be some personnel changes in the Red Devil football lineup as the team regroups to face the Lake Wales Green Dragons this Friday.

Coming off a 12-0 loss to Lake Wales, Head Coach John Hunter said there would be some changes in the Red Devil lineup.

"The defense played a fine ball game. The offense was not quite ready and made too many mistakes. We'll probably make some personnel changes. We had a lot of young players on offense," Hunter said.

The Lake Wales team looked good last Friday night and had an advantage in that "they didn't have to play as many players as we did both offensive and defensively.

In a couple of positions they had a better football player than we did." Hunter said many Red Devil players had to double up and play both on the offensive and defensive teams.

"We gave up two touchdowns, one in the second quarter and one in the fourth quarter. We were on defense all night," he said.

The Highlanders had enough players to have both offensive and defensive squads with little overlapping.

Hunter noted the Red Devil passing attack was hindered because "We had to take our best receiver, Jeff Adams, and put him in the backfield."

In regard to Friday's game against Lake Wales, Hunter said he didn't think the Green Dragons were a real strong team but they were better than they were last year.

"We are going to try to execute better on offense and get some points on the board. There's one game experience for the kids coming off the junior varsity team. They learned a lot Friday night, most of it the hard way.

"We are going to get better offensively and, if the defense stays as good as it is, we're going to win some ball games," he said.

The One That Didn't Get Away

Tammy McDaniels Lands Big Bass

Her first big catch is enough to make a veteran angler a mite jealous. Tammy McDaniels, daughter of Woodson and Louise McDaniels of Ruth St., Avon Park, caught this "almost 6 lb." bass on shiners in Lake Jackson after a 20 minute battle early last Thursday morning.

"It felt like a real big cat fish at first," said Tammy's uncle, Edgar McDaniels, "but we soon knew it couldn't be because a catfish couldn't run that fast."

This was the first time Tammy had wet a hook and tried her luck in the fresh water lakes of Highlands County, however she has done a lot of salt water fishing with her father in Naples.

Tammy's catch is nearly three-quarters of a pound heavier than her uncle's big catch of the week before. His bass, also caught on shiners, was caught in Lake Lettis and featured in last week's edition of the Sun.

The McDaniels moved to the Avon Park area in June, after Tammy had graduated from Naples High School. She is presently employed at MacDonalds of Sebring, and besides fishing, her hobbies are swimming and other outdoor sports.

Tammy is reported to have been fishing since she was big enough to hold a pole. Her father stated that at age 4 she caught a 6 lb. channel catfish in Chattanooga, Tenn. Tammy recalled that when she tried to land it she hollered for help and her dad said "No." "If you going to fish you are going to have to learn to land it," so she got mad and threw the pole over her head. Tammy also informed the Sun that she has to bait her own hook, also learning that feat at a early age.

Gurganus Catches Whopper

On the bluish-green lake water before daylight, Roger Gurganus and Earnest Gore started their fishing by daybreak last Saturday morning. About three quarters of an hour later the first solid strike of the morning came as Roger was working and reeling in his purple worm. It took several minutes to bring in the largest bass that Roger had ever caught. Although they fished a while longer, neither Roger or Earnest caught any more fish. When weighed Roger's only fish tipped the scales at 8 pounds, 10 ounces.

Conner Sets Fast Pace To Win 5000 Meter Race

The fast pace of Wauchula's Mike Conner was too much to be overcome by the over 30 runners in the Central Florida Striders Runners Club race in Avon Park last Saturday. Conners covered the 5,000 meter distance in 16:43, to take top honors in the 18-29 age group.

He was closely followed by Avon Park High's Alan Portis and Sebring High's Larry Bowers. Portis stepped the distance in 16:53 and Bowers 17:00 effort took the top two spots in the 14-17 age division. The three young men are the top men on their respective high school teams this season and will compete against one another in the Heartland Conference meet set for Sebring on October 26.

Avon Park High's cross country coach Chet Brojek took the fourth overall position and won the 30-39 age bracket with his 17:08 clocking. Brojek edged Jon Sheldon, of Winter Haven, and Bob Hopton, of Sebring, with his effort. Karen Summers of Wauchula won the women's division 23:14 to defeat runners-up Patty Belcher and Laurie Welch of Avon Park.

Young Robby Garcia, of Wauchula, won the boys 13 and under race in 24:32. Young at heart Wayne Kenemutt, age 63, won the 40 and over age classification.

Kenemutt, of Frostproof, runs daily and has won several over age 60 races.

The next scheduled race for the Striders Runners Club will be this Sunday at 9 a.m. in Lakeland in a four mile run. The next home race sponsored by the club will be held in Avon Park on Saturday October 7. The 2.5 mile race will begin at the Avon Park High School at 9 a.m.

Devil Runners To Meet Ft. Meade

The 1978 edition of the Avon Park High School Cross-Country teams hits the streets in running fashion this week with two meets. The Red Devils travel to Ft. Meade today (Thursday) at 5 p.m., to do battle with the Miners boys' team.

Next Tuesday, September 19, the Devils will be home for a 5 p.m., contest vs. Clewiston and Hardee. Tuesdays contest will feature a girls, junior varsity and varsity races. The females will run two miles, while the boys distance will be three miles.

The Avon Park boys' varsity should be stronger this year than in recent history. The Devils are led by team captains Alan Portis and Jerry McKenzie. McKenzie is just coming off a mild stomach pull injury, while Portis has displayed fine early season form in several Central Florida Striders races within recent months.

Rounding out the Red Devil varsity based on a recent shirt run are: Mark Myers, David Rhodes, Jody Johnston, Jeff Henly and Sam Finch. Rhodes, a transfer from Manatee High will not be eligible until the Tuesday contest because of a delay in his transcript from the Bradenton school. Coach Chet Brojek will promote one jayvee runner to the varsity for the Ft. Meade contest.

The Tuesday home contest should show the Devils squads both at full strength. Brojek will choose from among some 24 boys for his two mens squads and will have eight to ten young ladies running in the first contest. Top Red Devil lady runners are: Patty Belcher, Laurie

Welch, Brenda Brooker, Sherri Johnson, Nancy Turnball, Tammy Ostling, Jackie Jackson, Patti Felber, Luella Waters and Teresa Henry.

"We hope to get off to a good start with both programs this week," stated Brojek. "The long hard work sessions should provide some fine early season performances. We were rated sixth in the state in the Sentinel Star poll this week and I think the kids are going to work hard to prove that they rated us about five spots too low!"

Cross Country Team In Marathon

The members of the Avon Park High School Cross-Country teams will be hard at work Saturday as they run their third annual 100 mile marathon relay on the mall to raise funds for team projects. Under the direction of Coaches Chet Brojek and Pep Hutchinson the baton will start up and down the Avon Park Mall at 5 a.m. and continue until 100 miles has been run. The team members are seeking pledges based on the total miles run—100 miles, from towns people and businessmen.

Unlike other sports that can charge admission the fall sport of Cross-Country must raise money through projects to pay for uniforms, bus use, meals and motel expenses, and team entry fees for Invitational contests.

If you have not been contacted and you would like to aid this worthwhile project call Avon Park High at 453-6604 and make a pledge. After school hours you may contact Coach Brojek at 385-4736. The Devils plan to take teams to the State Championships in Jacksonville on November 18.

Todd Bennett and Tommy Turnball. Third row: Coach Lewis, Joe May, Raymond Clait, Billy Bolden, Kenny Cribb, Phil Cribb, Ernest Crawford, Larry Jackson, Alan Hawkins and Coach

Baker. Back row: Dwayne Council, Tommy Hips, Ricky Derkman, Chris Collins, John Hood, Phillip Willis, Allan Lisky and Darren Kopka. Sunphoto by Bruce Henderson.

Golf Notes

By Bob Elgin

"Hi, My name is Bob Elgin. Les Burch was pressured by an extra school work that prevented him from gathering the golf news. Having no work, and less brains I agreed to take over with the understanding he would come back if I got into too deep water, and his bread and butter work permitted his return. So we'll see if a somewhat lazy, part time advertiser man can make the grade as a news gatherer many years later.

It's going to be harder but safer to get into River Greens.

Stop signs have been put on both sides of the Seaboard Coast Line's tracks that will protect the law abiding driver. Too make safety doubly sure an electric arm type signal has been installed and will soon be in operation.

The Walker Memorial and River Greens Roads is a dangerous intersection. Now golf widows will have less reason to worry about their husbands.

There is sorrow also in River Greens. A fine citizen, "Bud" Dowling passed away and was buried Saturday morning. Everyone who knew Bud respected and liked him. Mrs. Dowling has the love and sympathy of all of River Greens.

River Greens welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Smith. The Smiths are refugees from Miami, having lived there for 50 years. They are finally settled in their new home adjoining No. 2 Fairway, and starting to play golf. Rocky worked for years in the maintenance of high rise office buildings. Asked how they liked River Greens Rocky replied with feeling, "We love it."

People ask "Where can we get a golf lesson?" The answer is easy at River Greens. Pro Wallace Lowery is always available by appointment. He has had many years experience in teaching young players or eliminating faults of older players. He has been on the Harder Hall Golf School teaching staff for several years. Either call the River Green clubhouse for an appointment or call Wallace at his home in Frostproof. Ph. 813-635-4479.

Many Thanks to Miles Morgan for furnishing the above statistics of River Green activities. Miles used to live in Pella, Iowa, (where they have their Tulip Festival every Spring). That's about 80 miles from Centerville where I used to live. We Iowans have to stick together.

Pinecrest is beautiful! Driving thru the course to the clubhouse one cannot help but admire the well kept greens and fairways. Ross Kendrick is surely one of the best at maintaining a golf course. The clubhouse is both adequate and attractive and the rehabilitating the old clubhouse was 90 percent done by the members. Undoubtedly some real good carpenters and painters were uncovered, although I haven't heard of any of them training professional.

HERE ARE THE ANSWERS TO TWO QUESTIONS IMPORTANT TO GOLFERS

(1) Where can I obtain competent GOLF INSTRUCTION? Pinecrest has a good answer to that question and the answer is Alex Ogilvie. He is the son of a scottish Pro, was raised on a golf course and has been on one every since.

Alex suffered a long, severe illness that almost ended his life, but as soon as he could stand he was back teaching. His rates are very low - $6 for a half hour lesson and less for a series of lessons. So, if your game has gone to pot, or you want to learn that good grooved swing, call Alex at 453-6884.

(2) Where can I hit some practice balls? Again Pinecrest has a good answer - Right across from the clubhouse is a range with the distances marked up to 250 yards, (if you hit them further you don't need to practice).

Bill Reck is the manager and you buy the balls from him at the clubhouse. You can't accuse Bill of adding to inflation, the price is $1 a bucket, about the same as it's been since golf was invented.

A 15-YARD Run by a Highlander back produced the first score of the night in the game against Avon Park. After connecting on a long pass, Eric McGriff ran the final 15 yards to make the score 6-0, the only touchdown the Highlanders would need to win the game.

Haysley Takes HCTA Singles Tournament

Harder Hall tennis pro Ken Haysley weathered a rainstorm Sunday to maintain his lead and take the Men's A Division title in the Highlands County Tennis Association's season opening singles tournament.

The second seeded Darcy Ray defeated top seeded South Florida Junior College tennis coach Al Marrow 6-2, 6-3, in a hard played match.

All finals matches were delayed by the rainstorm Sunday afternoon, about 15 minutes into play. At the time play was halted, Haysley led Marrow 3-2, 40-love.

Taking the Women's A Division title was top seeded Vi Marrow, who defeated third seeded Cindy McAuley 6-2, 6-0. McAuley had won a mid upset over second seeded Mary Margaret Lloyd, a Sebring High School freshman, to get into the finals.

A few surprises were in store in the Women's B Division tournament.

Third seeded Darcy Ray defeated unseeded Cheryl Hawkey to take the title 6-0, 6-4, after Hawkey upset second seeded Avon Park teacher Cherri Lee to make it into the finals.

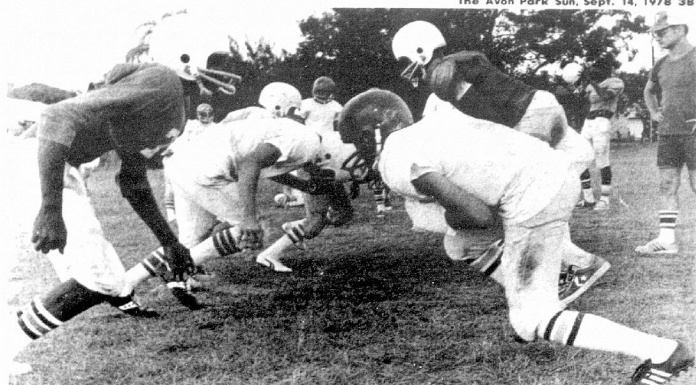

In the Men's B Division, Geoff Ropfftruff beat Bob Senkark 6-2, 6-2.

Consolation matches were held, with one of the county's bright new stars, Scott Albright fighting off a hard serving Phil Wickstrom to win the A Division consolation match 6-4, 7-5, 6-4.

The Men's B Division consolation match was won by John Beshara, who took it away from Dennis Bunting 6-2, 7-5.

In the Women's A, Sarah Ramer defeated Mary Hill 7-5, 6-4, to take the consolation match.

Avon Park High School teacher Jeanie Fox won the Women's B consolation match by default against another Avon Park resident, Pam Anderson.

THESE EIGHTH graders are hard at work under the direction of Coach Cecil Walley learning the basics of blocking, tackling, running and passing as they prepare for Tuesday's season opener in Lake Placid. The action begins at 7 p.m. on the Lake Placid High School field. About 45 boys have turned out this year for the middle school team, according to Coach Walley, and they may be a little bigger than last year's squad. Avon Park defeated Lake Placid twice last year, but "they gave us a hard time," Walley said. After traveling to Lake Placid, the middle school team will return home Tuesday, Sept. 26, for a contest with Sebring beginning at 7 p.m. at Memorial Field.

FREE CAMPING GEORGIA MOUNTAINS

We have almost 300 deluxe campsites at Imperial Bald Mountain Park. Each is completely equipped with electrical and water hookups. There are also bathhouses, a general store, a dining room, and telephone service.

We'd like to reserve one for you between now and the end of September - a time when Fall is just beginning in the mountains of North Georgia. There's a nip in the evening air, and the skies are bluer than you remember them to be. And the price is right too.

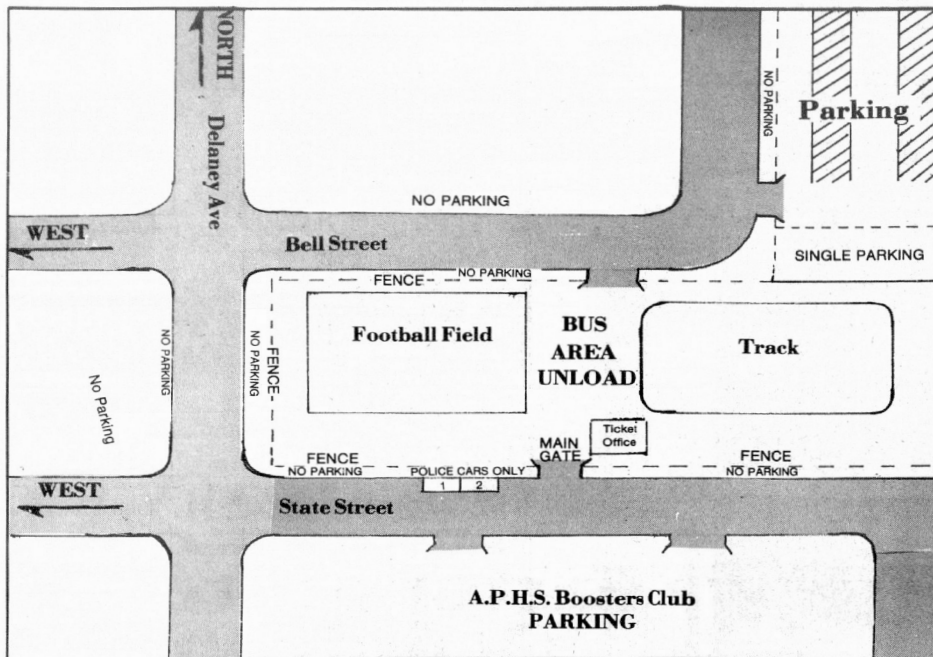

Be our guest for the first day and night. Your use of the campsite is free. And so is the call to reserve the space.

We also invite you to be our guest for dinner in the dining room. Buy one dinner at the regular price, get the second one free.

What's the catch? None really. It's our way of inviting people to come and see the gorgeous mountain property we have for sale. Lot prices begin as low as $4,000, and there will be no high-pressure salesmanship while you're here.

How long has it been since you've experienced autumn? Escape from endless summer at a place surrounded on three sides by the Chattahoochee National Forest.

Call us in Hiwassee, Georgia, collect. Reserve your free campsite. Order steak or trout for dinner. (The number is (404) 896-2274. Ask for Mr. or Mrs. Oliver.)

Football fans will find few parking places available at the home Red Devil games as all nearby streets will have no parking signs placed.

Everglades Water Level To Be Controlled For Three Years

Returning a portion of the Everglades to a more natural state is the goal of a proposed three year program of the South Florida Water Management District.

The program entails the drawing down of water levels in Conservation Area Two-A, a part of the water storage system operated by the Water Management District. The area is located in western Palm Beach and Broward counties, and covers 173 square miles.

Since 1962 the area has been enclosed by levees, providing water storage for the Lower East Coast counties and allowing water to percolate through the ground to recharge the underlying aquifer. As a result of this enclosure, much of the land of the Conservation Area which was subject to periodic drying, has now been permanently flooded.

Because of these wetter conditions, the vegetation of the area has been changing, eliminating many of the natural wet prairie and providing more deep water slough habitats. Along with this change has come an increase in organic debris collecting on the floor of the Conservation Area. This matter does not consolidate, but is suspended in the water. There is a foot or more of this pudding-like material which robs the water of life giving oxygen and makes spawning of fish or germination of plant seeds impossible.

To improve these conditions, the Water Management District is proposing to bring water levels down well below current levels for a three year period. This drawdown is scheduled to begin Oct. 31, 1978, with water being dropped from 14.5 ft. mean sea level (msl), to 9.5 ft. msl.

on June 1, 1979.

Beginning June 1, the Conservation Area would be allowed to rise during the rainy season of 1979 to a maximum of 12.5 ft. msl to be reached by the end of October. This program of holding water levels below the current levels would be continued through 1980 and 1981.

This three year drying period should allow the bottom sediments to consolidate, so that a new, more flexible water schedule could then be begun to preserve the natural Everglades ecology.

A shortened version of this study was performed by the Water Management District in 1973. That drawdown began in February and lasted until June of 1973, with only a few weeks of that time actually having water in the Conservation Area at extremely low levels. Consequently, the results were only partially successful.

"What the 1973 drawdown did," explained District Executive Director John Maloy, "was to show us that the idea of a drawdown would work; that the bottom sediments would consolidate when exposed to air and sun, but that we just hadn't given it enough time. This time we are anticipating substantial reestablishment of some trees, more sawgrass and other vegetation typical of the wet prairie Everglades."

The District will hold public hearings on the three year project on Tuesday, Sept. 26, at 9 a.m., and 7 p.m., at the District's Water Resource Center, 1301 West Copans Road, Pompano Beach. For more information, contact the District's Public Information Office, P.O. Box V, West Palm Beach, FL 33402 or call (305) 666-8800.

Seniors Should Consider Academies

High School seniors, if you are interested in a college education, have you considered one of the nation's military academies?" asked Congressman Skip Bafalis.

Senior who are interested should let him know as soon as possible as it takes time to accumulate the material needed to be considered for an appointment to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., the U.S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., the U.S. Naval Academy at Kings Point, N.Y.

Thus the sooner you decide to apply for a nomination, the sooner you can begin to accumulate the material. However, the first step for you is to write saying you're interested in competing, following which you will receive the necessary forms giving a detailed breakdown of what's needed and some information regarding the individual academies.

You will need to send Rep. Bafalis a transcript of your high school grades, a letter of your accomplishments which spells out why you are considering an appointment, three letters of recommendation, a recent photograph and your scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test. All of this material must be in Rep. Bafalis' Washington office by December 1.

Your name will be submitted to the 10th Congressional District Academy Screening Committee of educators, military academy graduates, retired officers and other community leaders, who will schedule you for a face-to-face interview shortly after the first of the year.

The purpose of the interviews is to insure that those graduating seniors selected to compete for appointment to the academies are the best possible candidates, those young men and women with the background, desire and determination necessary to make good under the strict regime of the academies.

It's not a question of grades, said Rep. Bafalis. The committee takes into consideration extra-curricular activities, athletic ability, work experience and anything else which goes into making a high school senior the man or woman he or she is.

After meeting all the applicants, the committee narrows the field to 10 applicants for each vacancy. The 10 names are sent to the academies and they make the final decision.

While this may sound overly complicated and a somewhat roundabout way of handling academy appointments, it insures that the appointments go to those best qualified.

We are talking about more than just an excellent education at no cost to the students. We are talking about the future defense of our country, stated Rep. Bafalis. That means only the top students should be rewarded.

The District will hold public hearings on the three year project on Tuesday, Sept. 26, at 9 a.m., and 7 p.m., at the District's Water Resource Center, 1301 West Copans Road, Pompano Beach. For more information, contact the District's Public Information Office, P.O. Box V, West Palm Beach, FL 33402 or call (305) 666-8800.

Each year the academies go through the long list of applicants who just narrowly miss being selected and choose several to become "qualified alternate" appointees.

Because the 10th District turns out such fine applicants, one or two more are selected each year for such appointments.

So, high school senior if you think you would like to give your country at least five years in return for a superior education, please consider competing for an academy appointment. But remember the time is drawing short, so write to Rep. Bafalis now.

Satterwhite - Hubbell

To Wed September 19

Dr. and Mrs. Jim Satterwhite are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carol, to John H. Hubbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hubbell, 1422 Crescent Drive, Sebring.

Wedding vows will be exchanged at First Christian Church, 4:30 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 19.

Miss Satterwhite was born in Japan and her early education was in that country. After graduating from High School in Kobe, Japan, she came to the United States and began her college studies at University of South Florida. She has taken other studies at Friends World College and University of Florida. She formerly was on the staff of the Ridge Area Association for Retarded Citizens' work center.

Mr. Hubbell is a graduate of Sebring High School and has completed a tour of duty with United States Navy. He is employed by a subsidiary of Radio Corporation of America (RCA), working as a deep sea diver.

Following their marriage the bridal couple will live on Adros Island in the Bahamas.

Dr. and Mrs. Satterwhite said no invitations to the wedding are being mailed; all friends of the families are invited to attend the service.

Lynn Chaney Honored With Baby Shower

Lynn Houpe Chaney was honored with a baby shower Wednesday night, September 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Godwin. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Patti Godwin and Mrs. Bonnie Tomek.

Garden Club To Hold First Meeting

The Avon Park Federated Garden Club, member of the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc., will hold their first meeting of the 1978-79 season on Thursday, Sept. 21, at 1 p.m., in the Florida Power Lounge.

There will be a light luncheon served by the Founders Circle. Mrs. Evelyn Delk, president of the Federation, asks that members note especially the time of this meeting, as past meetings have been held in the mornings.

Mrs. Kenton Haymans, District 9 Director of the Florida Federation will be present at the luncheon. Members of the club will be able to enjoy meeting and talking to her socially at this time. Mrs. Haymans will speak to the club members after the luncheon, concerning state activities in the Federation and the work of the district director. It should be very interesting for all members to get the chance to learn what transpires in the Garden Club federation at a state level.

The local Federations president, Evelyn Delk feels that the club is extremely fortunate to be able to have Mrs. Haymans as their speaker at this meeting. It is hoped that most of the members are back from vacations and will plan to attend this very interesting and informative meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Martin

Couple Weds In Pamplin Grove

Amid the towering Redwood trees of the Pamplin Grove in northern California Lily Buhler and Ron Martin solemnized their marriage vows in the presence of two hundred relatives and close friends with the Rev. Eugene Anderson officiating the garden ceremony. Parents of the bride couple are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Buhler of Eureka, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Martin of Avon Park.

Nuptial music for the afternoon ceremony was provided by pianist Mae Twan, violinist Alisa Petetty, and guitarist Jeff Jorgenson. Everyone's thoughts were turned to the magnificence of the majestic trees as Elder Charles Edwards sang a love song to the traditional tune of Joyce Kilmer's poem, "Trees", and Selma Neubrander, sister of the bride-groom of Tampa sang the modern "Wedding Song" to a guitar accompaniment.

Ushered in on the arm of her father, the bride wore a gown of sheer chiffon bordered and accented with daisy lace. The fingertip veil emanated from a crown of daisies on her head, and she carried a bouquet of daisies and baby's breath.

Attendants
Heather Buhler of Eureka, sister of the bride attended as maid of honor and bridesmaids were, Lucia Longway of Colledale, Tenn., Debbie Simon of Eureka, and Sandie Woodring of Colledale, Tenn. The maid of honor and bridesmaids were attired in long dresses of pastel colors in shades of green, yellow, blue, and pink and carried bouquets of silk daisies and baby's breath. Lori DeVost and Carolyn Wright both of Eureka attended as flower girls.

Doug Martin, brother of the groom, served as best man, and ushers and groomsmen were Ken Neubrander of Lakeland, Rex Buhler brother of the bride of Kneeland and Rick Neubrander also of Lakeland. Bobby DeVost of Eureka served as ring boy.

Ruth Martin, sister of the groom presided over the guest book.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, the newweds were honored at a reception held in Pamplin Grove. The beautiful four tiered cake was cut and served to guests along with nuts and mints and a delicious green punch.

The bride, a 1975 graduate of Monterey Bay Academy, attended Southern Missionary College majoring in home economics and elementary education. She is currently employed by Wright RV Sales in Eureka as a secretary.

The bridegroom is also a 1975 graduate of Monterey Bay Academy and attended Southern Missionary College majoring in computer science and physics. He is self-employed.

After a two week honeymoon trip to Canada the bridal couple will make their home in Eureka, Calif., and continue with their college studies at College of the Redwoods.

Out-of-town guest attending the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Martin, the groom's parents, Mr. Douglas Martin, brother of the bridegroom and wife Gay, Ruth Martin, sister of the groom, all of Avon Park, and Rick and Ken Neubrander, of Lakeland, formerly of Avon Park, and Selma Neubrander, sister of the groom, of Tampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McCoy

Bok Tower Scene Of Vows

Miss Marian Heiring became the bride of Dennis McCoy of Lake Wales, Friday, Aug. 4, at 5 p.m. at the beautiful Reflection Pool at Bok Singing Tower in Mountain Lake Sanctuary.

Parents of the bride couple are Mr. and Mrs. John R. Heiring of Avon Park and Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. McCoy of Lake Wales.

Mr. Fred Nelson, of Melbourne, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white polyester chiffon gown made in an empire silhouette. The rounded neckline was edged with delicate Venice applique lace accented by layered capelet sleeves. The full skirt of matching polyester chiffon with Venice lace of daisy and floral design accented the bodice. An attached chapel train highlighted the elegant but feminine design of the gown. The bride wore a large pictorial hat featuring a design of daisies and baby's breath to complement her bridal bouquet of white majestic daisies and yellow roses interspersed with baby's breath and greenery, which was carried in a formal cascade design within a wicker basket.

Miss Joni Fangman niece of the bride of Dyersville, Iowa attended as maid of honor. She wore a gown of yellow polyester chiffon, also featuring an empire silhouette, styled with layered capelet sleeves and a full skirt. Adorning her head was a yellow pictorial hat featuring a design of daisies and baby's breath and she carried a wicker basket holding a cascade arrangement of white and yellow daisies interspersed with baby's breath and greenery.

Richard Johnson of Winter Haven attended as best man.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the Lake Wales Women's Club.

The brides table, as was the punch and luncheon tables, were covered with floor length sheer white lace cloths over white, which were caught up and draped with yellow netting and daisy clusters. The table, centering the reception hall, was placed before a background railing entwined with fern, daisies, and wedding bells.

Cascades of yellow roses and white daisies adorned the three-tiered wedding cake and an ornament of three yellow satin wedding bells graced the top layer. Placed on the table was a wedding candle with the wedding announcement embedded within it, encircled with fern and daisies, a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson. The bride's and maid of honor's bouquets also graced this table.

Yellow punch was served from a crystal punch bowl, encircled with fern and yellow daisies. On a separate table a buffet was set up with trays of assorted vegetables and finger sandwiches with dips. Gracing the table were two crystal candle holders, a gift from the bride's mother, which held two yellow candles encircled with fern.

The guest book table was covered with a white lace cloth and a bouquet of spring flowers graced the edge of the table.

Laura and Chris Heiring, nieces of the bride presided over the guest book.

Those assisting in receiving and serving were: Mrs. Ann Nelson, Shirley Nelson, both of Melbourne, Mrs. Hilda Johnson of Winter Haven, and family members of both the bride and bridegroom.

After a honeymoon trip to the Smokey Mountains the bridal couple will make their residence in Lake Wales.

The bride, is a graduate of Avon Park High School. She attended South Florida Junior College and is currently employed in the trust department of Atlantic Bank and Trust of Lake Wales.

The bridegroom was born in Lake Wales and is a graduate of Lake Wales High School. He served two years with the Army, stationed in Germany for 18 months, and is currently employed as a service man at Citrus World with Food Machinery Corporation.

MINUS ITS REAR axle and wheels, George and Linda Talley's pickup camper was turned upright after being hit by a car coming off a side road north of Clermont last Friday evening.

Talley's In Holiday Accident

The Labor Day holiday camping trip of the George Larry and Linda Talley family was cut short last Friday afternoon. A speeding car plunged out of a side road north of Clermont hitting their camper pickup, knocking off the rear axle, wheels and differential.

George's two children, Kimberley and Eddie were riding with John's children. North of Clermont, George saw a speeding car on a side road coming around a small lake and hurried to get past the intersection. However, the car hit the passenger side of the Talley pickup rolling it into the ditch, tearing off the rear axle and leaving a boat and trailer in pieces.

Memorial Hospital for possible serious back injuries and was held overnight. George, with his right ear partially torn off had to have a number of stitches to hold it in place. The Talley family has returned to their home in Avon Park. At the time of the accident, George's mother, Mrs. W. M. Talley was helping the local CB Club serve coffee to motorists at the National Guard Armory on U.S. south of Avon Park.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home Park News

By Marge Wells
Verda Miller and Norma Gerbig have returned from a three weeks' trip visiting with family, friends and visiting scenic spots in Louisiana, Arkansas, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan and North Carolina. They found all of these states nice to visit but said Florida is best to come home to—especially for swimming!

Recently, an Avon Park Picnic was held at Mayville, N.Y. Bernice and Argus Sheridan, Lena and John Sinatra, and Margaret and Harry Young were among those who attended. There were others from our park who were there but we do not have their names at this time. There were 79 people present—quite a delegation from Avon Park!

It is nice to have the Mitchells back on the "Strip" in their travel trailer. They have been regular winter visitors the past couple of years.

Rozzie and Lester Parkhurst are back home after an extended visit in Indiana. It's certainly nice to have you back home again, neighbors.

In a recent letter from Dorothy Carroll, she reports that she is having therapy and making slow progress since her fall. She hopes to be back in Bonnie Brae sometime the latter part of October or first of November.

With several of our Bonnie Brae family returning within the next couple of weeks, we hope to have more news to report soon.

Pinochle Notice
Starting Sept. 8, Fred Hughes will conduct the pinochle games so all you pinochle players come and join in the game.

Welcome home to Grace Warner
Grace Warner returned this week from a very interesting trip. First visited family and friends in Clyde, Ohio. She attended the wedding of a grand daughter, a christening of a great grandchild and a sad note of her trip was a funeral of an aunt.

With her son Paul and his family they took off for an extended trip going first to Sioux Narrows, Ontario where a visit was made to her cousin Bernice Benson. From here they visited Andy and Alice Clarke, whom all the club members will remember. They send their regards to the club.

On the way back thru Wisconsin a stop was made at the famous Wisconsin Dells and an Indian PowWow. When back in Florida she visited a brother in Melbourne. On the way to and from Ohio she used the Auto-bus which she said made her trip most enjoyable.

This week all at the club were happy to have Herbert Wooliscroft back in tournaments again after having put in a very sad summer. His daughter - in-law Doris died July 9 and his son Gordon died July 13.

We are happy to announce that Mabel Cabezas is now doing nicely after two cataract operations.

The Living Word

By Rev. Arnold Smith
My ex-husband has taken our child, keeping me from seeing her or knowing where she is. We have spent a lot of money and time searching, but to no avail. Needless to say, my heart is broken. R.C., Okeechobee, Fla.

Unfortunately, what you are experiencing is a fairly common occurrence — getting mired in the time. Estranged spouses often take out their anger, using the children as tools. The hurt is enormous, to all concerned.

Day Apart

Meeting Sept. 20

United Methodist Women of the Lakeland District will hold their annual "Day Apart" on Wednesday, Sept. 20 at the First United Methodist Church, Lakeland. The theme for the event is "Becoming Whole Persons Through Jesus Christ."

The Reverend Charlene P. Kammerer from Belmont Park United Methodist Church, Clearwater, will be the speaker. Registration is from 9 a.m. Program from 9:45 a.m., until 1 p.m. with sack lunch. A nursery will be provided.

Basically, there are two ways to approach your problem — naturally, or supernaturally; man's way, or God's. God's way is, by far, the best.

In the natural, the desire to find your child and see your ex-husband punished for putting you through so much hurt, would be your primary motivation. Your search could literally consume you, leaving you without hope, peace, comfort, or any semblance of a life outside that all-pervading desire to achieve your goal. The longer the search continues, with that kind of zeal, the greater will grow your bitterness and desire for revenge, shutting out any ability for you to enjoy life at all.

In the supernatural, although you still desire to be with your child, you learn to leave the problem — and your own attitudes — in the hands of God. 1 Peter 5:7, says to cast all our cares on God, so that He can deal with them. Exodus 14:14, says God will fight for us, and we should be at peace. Isaiah 26:3, says God will give us peace in times of pain, sorrow, or difficulty, if we'll keep our minds on Him, instead of our problems, and if we'll trust Him for the results.

One man, in a situation similar to yours, prayed to see his daughter soon, thanked God for it and went on about his business. Later that same day, the daughter called, from nearby, and his prayer was answered. God still performs miracles today. He can do it for you.

If you will turn the care of your daughter over to God, trusting Him to take good care of her and allow Him to give you His peace, you will again be able to live your life to the fullest — with or without your daughter. God will then be free to work in the situation, bringing to pass His perfect Will, which is always for the best (Romans 8:28).

For answers to your questions, or to express your opinions of these articles, please write to Rev. Arnold Smith, c/o this newspaper. God Bless You.

All members are urged to attend.

his famous Biblical command owes some of its fame to an ever-expanding necessity, in ways far beyond the imagination of the Scriptural authors. Our modern technology has produced a variety of noise-making devices which bring great pleasure to their owners, while causing untold suffering to any neighbors close enough to be a captive audience. However, by tuning in your own ears to the lessons in love and consideration at the Church of your choice, you and your family will learn to enjoy your motorcycles, stereo equipment, noisy toys and other things while at the same time taking care that no one else is being disturbed by them. "Thou shalt not covet anything that is thy neighbor's" must surely include his right to a little peace and quiet in his own home.

QUIET WAYS ARE NEEDED TO LOVE THY NEIGHBOR

"And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation... and in quiet resting places."
—Isaiah 32:18

QUESTION: With the holidays only a few months away, I'd like to start saving some money but I'm having a difficult time determining a budget. Do you have any suggestions for family budgeting?

ANSWER: It's a good idea to actually write down where your money goes. First, make a list of your fixed expenses — rent or mortgage, utilities, loan payments and any other regular payments you make. This will show you how much you have left that's flexible income, where cuts can be made. You'll be amazed at how much you can save even with small shifts in your habits — like taking your lunch part of the time, bringing snacks from home, and taking a bus instead of driving. Also look critically at your shopping habits.

After you've figured out where some of this "flexible" money goes, you might just come to the conclusion that if you have it, you've got a tendency to spend it. Have savings deducted from your check before you get it. You'll be amazed at the discipline it forces upon you — and you'll learn you really can get by on less.

Plan your large expenses so they are spaced at intervals your budget can handle. If your son gets a suit this year, your daughter may wait until next year for a winter coat. New Curtains may have to take turns with baby needs, weekend trips, or a TV set.

If your income is quite low, you'll need to plan carefully to take care of your immediate needs and pay your current bills. You can get help with your budget plans from your extension home economist. In many cities and counties, community service organizations also offer this service.

QUESTION: Can you give me any tips regarding consumer safety and credit cards? I have just begun a credit card and would appreciate any assistance in this matter.

ANSWER: As one of the numerous credit card holders in our country, it is very important for you to know a few consumer safety tips.

First, it is wise to maintain a list of all your credit cards and their numbers and keep it in a safe place. You should also have a list of all the toll-free numbers to contact if your card is lost. If you do not know the number, and it is not shown on your statement, call 800-555-1212 and ask for it.

Analyze your credit card billings to determine interest costs. (The charges may vary from state to state.) If you don't understand them, call the company on the toll-free line and ask for an explanation.

If you should receive a credit card that you have not requested, you should cut it up into small pieces, notify the sender that you have destroyed it, and report the sender to the Federal Trade Commission in Washington, D.C. Under a federal regulation, it is illegal to send credit cards to anyone who has not requested them.

Donated—CATHY WARNER WAS presented a check, for use by the Girl Scouts by Rotarian Jim Brooks at the club meeting last Wednesday.

Scouts Receives Rotary Donation

At the regular weekly meeting of the Avon Park Rotary Club, a program on the local Girl Scouts was presented by Mrs. Kathy Warner. She assured the Rotarians that the Girl Scouts were alive and well in Avon Park.

According to Mrs. Warner, there are now forty-five Brownies (grades 1-3), fifty-three Junior Scouts (ages 9-12) and twelve leaders. Also, a Cadet Troop (ages 12-16) will be sponsored this year.

The Club donated $50. to the Girl Scouts and the program was concluded with a slide presentation of scouting activities and field trips.

Eno Kerckhoff has returned for a five-week vacation in Canada, where he attended a Rotary meeting each week.

Dr. C.J. Larson was named an Honorary Member and David Langford was inducted into the Rotary Club.

Choosing Your Nursery School

By: Beki Brock, Extension Home Economics Agent

Because there are many more young children of nursery school age than there are available spaces in nursery schools, it is necessary to register your child early to place him or her. Another reason to start early is so that you may select a nursery school that best suits your child's needs.

The child's needs are of foremost concern when selecting a nursery school. First of all, the personnel.

The child's needs are of foremost concern when selecting a nursery school. First of all, the personnel of a nursery school, that is, the teacher and her aids, should be people who relate well with children and who understand the needs of children.

The staff should know how to set realistic limits and how to enforce these consistently. At the same time, however, teachers and aids must be flexible. There are times when it is impossible to adhere to rules. People who work with children should be able to recognize such times and make adjustments accordingly.

The physical plant of a nursery school should be designed for young children. It should be safe, cheerful and stimulating. The building should be well-ventilated, heated and cooled to accommodate the children. It should be furnished with child-sized furniture, and there should be adequate and proper equipment (toys) to promote growth and development of children.

Outdoor play space should have both shaded and sunny areas. There should be sandy areas, grassy plots and hard surfaced areas for wheeled toys. Swings and other outdoor equipment should be spaced and anchored for safety.

The program of the nursery school should be planned for the child's total development, rather than just to help the child acquire "school-skills." Emphasis should be placed on such developmental tasks as eye-hand coordination, eye-foot coordination and other sensory-perceptual-motor coordination.

Social skills seem to be a significant component of success in adulthood, yet this facet of the child's development may be neglected so that four-year-old children learn the alphabet and other such "school-skills" related tasks.

Parents who are choosing a nursery school should plan to spend several hours observing different schools. Check first to see if the nursery school is licensed. Look for teachers who are kind and calm with the children. Look for a physical plant that is child-centered. Check to see if the children are being helped to get along with each other. See what kinds of activities the children are involved in.

If you feel that you are in a traditional classroom, the program is too structured for four-year-old children. If, on the other hand, chaos prevails, the program is ill-planned.

Ask parents of other children in the nursery school if they like it. Ask the director of the school about parent involvement with the school.

The answer to such inquiries as these can help you know that you have chosen a nursery school that can fulfill your child's needs.

Questions On Social Security

Q. If a married man draws Social Security, can his wife draw when she's sixty-five, even if she's never worked.

A. A wife is entitled to draw on her husband's record for every month he draws a Social Security check as long as she is at least age sixty-two and not entitled to draw more on her own record.

Q. My Medicare claim for doctor fees was returned unpaid because "utilization limits exceeded." I've been treated since last December for a foot ulcer and now Watson Clinic has found a treatment that is working; how do I get my Medicare reinstated to pay these costs.

A. First, your Medicare is not cancelled and is in full force; the only problem appears to be a review needed of the claims submitted. That is being done now. Also, all the medical bills occurred since your notice received need be submitted for payment. Your Medicare coverage cannot be terminated unless you are notified in writing and you have the opportunity to appeal its termination.

Q. My mother's sixty-two and suffered a stroke a few weeks ago. She's worked steady for twenty years but now I'm afraid she'll never go back to the job that meant so much to her.

A. To know is... If she should apply for Social Security retirement benefits or disability payments; which would give her more money.

A. Since your mother is sixty-two, she'd get retirement benefits at a reduced rate because this is considered early retirement. However, if she's eligible for disability benefits, she'd get the full amount. So, it would be to her advantage to apply for both benefits at once. If she can, she should contact a Social Security office as soon as possible. If not, you can do it for her. Someone there will be glad to help with the application.

Q. My brother recently died and left a twenty-eight year old son who is blind and unable to fully support himself. Is there any way Social Security can help.

A. A son or daughter who became blind or disabled before age twenty-two may be eligible for benefits when a parent insured under Social Security dies, or when a parent starts getting monthly Social Security checks. Your brother's son should contact any Social Security office to see if he can qualify.

For answers to your Social Security questions, write P. O. Box 178, Lakeland, Florida 33802, or call the Social Security office listed in your local directory.

Food For Thought

Welcome to the table, oh edible nightshade, a gastronomic turn-of-mind. Despite thy dark appearance, the bard might continue, thou art a bright star in the culinary firmament, and a jewel in the kitchens alike of Florida crackers and distant Arabs. Botanical cousin to the potato and tomato, belladonna and tobacco, you are, in a word, eggplant, and how a dreary meal would be without thy subtlety.

New Jersey ships specimens now, delectable hors d'oeuvre to a Florida season that will start soon with cuttings in Alachua County. As fall advances, harvest will move south to Broward and Palm Beach Counties, seat of the nation's eggplant production, continuing in force, weather permitting, to spring, when the central growing areas of the state resume picking. The worst thing a gourmet can say about summer in Florida is that there is, alas, no local eggplant.

Why are we the country's principal growers? Gene Joyner, Palm Beach County Agricultural agent, pointed to our warm climate, which the vegetable demands, plus experience on the part of farmers, built up over the past several decades, in cultivating what he called a "specialized crop." Eggplant is as sensitive to nematode infection as tomatoes, Joyner explained. The upright plants, about three feet tall in commercial plots, with prickly, lobed leaves, bear fruits which, according to the variety, may be thin and narrow and long or fat and ovoid, black and shiny as patent leather or a rich purple. The white and striped specimens seen in the Mideast are not grown here, Joyner said.

Firmness is desirable; as the vegetable overmatures, it softens, he explained. And bitterness, he added, once so common in eggplant, is disappearing. Fruit grown in properly fertilized soil is seldom acrid, he said.

The delicacy, originating in Asia millennia ago, was abundantly incorporated into cuisines where it became, in quote Claudia Roden, author of a fine book on Mideast food, "the cabbage of the East." In Turkish cookery, a famous stuffed-eggplant dish is called "the priest faints" (mama baskidi), presumably because the holy man was overcome by the heavenly perfume of the preparation.

In the United States, except in Italian, Greek and Oriental neighborhoods, eggplant is understandably commonest where it grows, here in the South. Mashed eggplant mixed with seasonings appears in a "pye" in a Colonial recipe collection of a Charleston housewife. A true pie with a pastry crust and mashed-eggplant filling — a quiche, perhaps? — shows up in a recent collection of Apalachicola recipes.

In a delightful compendium of regional specialties done in Key West in 1949, there are three eggplant formulas. One suggests layering eggplant with a fresh-tomato sauce and cheese and sprinkling the top, would you believe it, with grated bitter chocolate. The latter may be an influence from Mexico, where bitter chocolate is used with chicken in mole.

First course, meat accompaniment, main dish — one of the finest of our Florida foods may put in a delightful appearance at many points in a meal. These recipes suggest eggplant's versatility.

EGGPLANT OPEN SANDWICH

Thick slices of eggplant substitute for bread in an open sardine "sandwich" served hot with a topping of beaten egg. This recipe is for two, providing a quick supper after a long day at work, but it may be doubled or tripled, if desired.

2 thick (2-inch) slices eggplant, peeled
Salt and pepper
Oil
2 thin slices tomato
2 thin slices red onion
1 can (36-ounce) Norwegian sardines
Pinch oregano
1 egg, separated
1½ teaspoons flour
¼ teaspoon prepared mustard
3 tablespoons grated Monterey Jack cheese

1. Arrange eggplant on small foil-covered baking sheet.

Sprinkle with salt and pepper; brush with oil; bake in a preheated 425-degree oven about 10 minutes, or till almost tender.

2. Arrange a slice each tomato and onion on each eggplant slice; top each with the sardines; sprinkle with oregano.

3. Beat egg white till stiff. Beat yolk with flour and mustard. Fold yolk into white; fold in cheese; spoon on sardines.

4. Return to oven and bake 8 to 10 minutes. Serve immediately.

Yield: 2 portions.

EGGPLANT PARMIGIANA

Is this most famous of the eggplant recipes? Neapolitan restaurants have popularized it throughout the country. It makes a delicious main dish. 1 medium eggplant, about 1½ pounds

Salt
3 eggs
3 tablespoons flour
¼ cup peanut oil
4 cups tomato sauce, see note
Oregano
1 cup grated Italian-style hard cheese.

1. Slice eggplant crosswise in ¼-inch pieces; peel. Sprinkle with salt; stack in a colander; cover and let stand about an hour to drain. Dry with paper towels.

2. Beat eggs lightly with a fork, add flour, beat till smooth.

3. Heat 2 tablespoons of the oil in a large fry pan till hot but not smoking. Dip sliced eggplant in the egg batter. Cook in the hot oil, turning to brown both sides. Add more oil as necessary. Drain eggplant on paper.

4. In a shallow rectangular baking dish, about 11x8½ inches, layer eggplant. Heat tomato sauce; cover eggplant with a layer of it; sprinkle with oregano and cheese. Continue to layer, ending with cheese.

5. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven about 30 minutes. Yield: 6 servings.

Sebring, Arcadia Lead Field

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Competition for the Heartland Conference championship could be an instant replay of last year's season when Sebring, Wauchula and Arcadia tied for the top spot.

Of those three teams, both Sebring, and Arcadia are rated strongly this year and are the odds on favorite to take the title. Wauchula, hurt by the loss of graduating seniors, has to be rated a little lower than either the Blue Streaks or the Bulldogs.

Avon Park, Ft. Meade and Okeechobee round out the conference. Avon Park will be seeking to improve its 4-6 record of last season. Ft. Meade, like the Wildcats, has been hurt by graduating lettermen and will probably be a weaker team than last year.

Okeechobee, something of a hard luck team last year, may have trouble getting any better luck this year.

Arcadia

Coach Richard Bowers, "simple" methods of coaching overwhelmed most other teams last year and brought Arcadia a 9-2 record and a share of the Heartland Conference Championship.

To protect the 9-2 record, Bowers' team this year is very similar to the one he had last year. The big question mark is seven inexperienced players who will be vying for starting spots, beginning the first game of the season.

If there are no surprises, the game between Sebring and Arcadia may decide who will win the conference this year. Bowers rates Sebring as the toughest opponent on his schedule and Coach Gary Spruce of Sebring has similar respect for the Arcadia squad.

The Bulldogs have a good, solid football team with good overall team speed and particular strength at defense. Chances are opposing teams won't see to much of the end zone when facing the Bulldogs.

Sebring

Of all the teams in the Spring Jamboree, Sebring looked the best. They executed plays as if they were in mid-season, according to one coach.

Last year, Sebring ended the season with a 7-3 record, including a 12-7 win over Avon Park.

Offensively, the Blue Streaks look good with solid positions at quarterback and at running back slots. The Blue Streaks can also count on dependable players at both the tight end and split end positions.

The offensive line is not as experienced as the backs and ends. It is something of a question mark, but if the team performs as well as it did in the Jamboree, the only problems will be for the Blue Streaks' opponents.

Sebring won both quarters from opponents in the Jamboree, beating Ft. Meade 7-0 and Okeechobee 17-0. Although 29 lettermen graduated last year, the Blue Streaks performed smoothly throughout the game. The first game against Arcadia, another powerhouse in the conference, should tell a lot about the coming season.

Wauchula

Of the three co-champions in the conference last year, Wauchula may have the most difficult time duplicating that feat. Although the Wildcats beat Avon Park 20-12, they only had an overall 5-5 record.

Wauchula has a good sized team, a good

A LAKE WALES Highlander scrambled a few yards into Red Devil territory before being nailed by an Avon Park defender last Friday night. The defense played well, but the offense could not put any points on the board as the Red Devils lost their first game 12-0.

offensive line and their defense is rated as their strongest point. However, last year's starting quarterback was among the graduating seniors and his departure leaves a big question mark in the Wildcats backfield.

While the passing game is clouded, the running game is in good shape. The Wildcats have good depth in their running backs and could, if necessary, go three-deep in each position.

The offensive line, good last year, will be about the same this year, the only difference being that the squad has a little more experience. However, another worry for the Wildcat coaches is that with the exception of the running backs, ends and offensive line, there are many new players on the team and their performance is questionable.

Fort Meade

The Miners are just not as good as team as they were last year. Last year, the Miners overwhelmed the Red Devils by a 35-0 score, but the chances they can repeat that performance are slim.

The miners did pull out a 6-0 victory over Okeechobee in the Spring Jamboree but, considering the Brahman are about the weakest team in the conference, the Miners' triumph was not all that impressive.

Like some other teams, the Miners are suffering from the fact many letterman have graduated and will not be returning this year.

They do have a good defense and overall team quickness, but their defense will have to match the powerful offenses of teams such as Arcadia and Sebring. Those matchups may be too much for the Miners.

The major weaknesses for the Miners includes inexperience on their offensive squad, the type of inexperience which could cost the team mistakes.

Okeechobee

With a little luck last year, Okeechobee could have turned a losing and unimpressive season into at least a respectable one.

A good example of what went wrong with the Brahman squad occurred at their first game. Playing Wauchula, who would be the conference co-champion, the Brahman matched the Wildcats in the first half with neither team being able to score.

However, in the second half, the Wildcats pushed over two touchdowns and finished the game 12-0. Although the Brahman came close several times they were never able to pick up a score.

When playing the Red Devils, a blocked punt was turned into a score for Avon Park, which won 13-10.

This year, though, the Brahman are facing obstacles tougher than mere bad luck. They have an inexperienced offensive line, a new quarterback, a small defensive team and, generally, a small-sized ball team. It appears the Brahman are in for another rough, and losing, year.

Avon Park

The Red Devils are going to try to improve on a 4-6 record last year. The Red Devils will be smaller in size, numbers and school classification than six of their opponents. The team does have 13 returning lettermen and 13 seniors on the 29-man roster.

Although the overall size of the team is not too large, the Red Devils do have two 230-pound tackles, who should provide strength in the middle line.

Strengths for the Red Devils should include good team speed, a good passing game and a quick defense.

'77 Season Review

This season's schedule for the Avon Park Red Devils lines up the same opponents, with one exception, as last year's. The way the Heartland conference is shaping up, the teams to beat this year are also the same teams which gave the Red Devils the most trouble during the '77 season.

Wauchula, Arcadia and Sebring, the tri-champions of the conference, are the three teams which appear to be the roughest in the Red Devil schedule.

Lake Wales is the first opponent of the Red Devils. In the '77 season the Highlanders were also the first opponent of Avon Park and gave the Red Devil squad their first win by a 25-16 margin.

Rufus Wilson, the senior Red Devil fullback, ran for 166 yards and for three touchdowns. Lake Wales hurt their own cause by losing two fumbles, the first near their 25-yard line which was later turned into a Red Devil score.

The Red Devils hit paydirt for the second time after a 90-yard drive put them in the end zone and in the lead by 13-0. It was 19-0 before the Highlanders could get on the scoreboard. Lake Wales finally scored in the third quarter, but by that time it was too late to catch the Red Devils.

Avon Park pushed their record to two wins and no losses in their second game of the '77 season with an easy 39-0 triumph over the Lake Placid Green Dragons.

The Green Dragons would go on to lose all ten games they played last year.

Some bad breaks for the Red Devils crippled a good performance against the Arcadia Bulldogs in the next game as Avon Park lost 8-7 to one of the conference leaders.

The Red Devil defense held Arcadia to a net 60 yards gained, with only 14 of those yards in the air. However the Bulldogs points were scored because of Red Devil mistakes.

A bad punt snap caused a turnover as Bulldog defensemen swarmed over the Red Devil kicker inside the Avon Park five. Arcadia managed to push over the goal line, but the Red Devils stopped the extra point try.

Trailing 6-0, the Red Devils came back and scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point to take a 7-6 lead over the favored Bulldogs.

However again, a bad punt snap destroyed the Red Devils chances of victory. With the Red Devil kicker close to his own goal line a low snap forced a fumble. He recovered the ball inside the end zone but was quickly tackled by Bulldog linemen. The result was a safety for Arcadia and a 8-7 narrow victory for the Bulldogs.

Bad luck continued to plague the Red Devils the next game as they lost to Mulberry 21-7. A bad call apparently cost the team a touchdown and, before they could recover, the Panthers had taken the lead and never relinquished it.

The Panther quarterback threw for three touchdown passes but all the Red Devils could muster was seven points to drop their second game of the season.

In the next game the Red Devils moved above the .500 mark with a 26-6 win over Frostproof.

Frostproof scored first when running back Jonas Henderson went 70 yards through the Red Devil line for a score and a temporary lead for Frostproof.

'77 Review

The lead soon evaporated as in the next series of downs Avon Park marched 75 yards to tie up the game at 6-6. Frostproof's mistakes proved costly as they fumbled four times within their own 25-yard line.

The first fumble, which occurred on the Frostproof 17, was hauled in by the Red Devils, who then went on to score their second touchdown and lead 13-6. After that, the game was definitely in the hands of the Red Devils.

It was a different matter the next week in Clewiston as the Tigers handed the Red Devils their third loss 30-12. The Tigers' Danny Miller kicked three field goals and three extra points to lead Clewiston to victory.

The victory seemed in doubt at the half as Avon Park led 12-10. However the first time the Tigers got the ball in the second half they marched 69 yards for a score and dominated the rest of the playing time.

The Red Devils took it squarely on the chin in their next game as the Ft. Meade Miners won an easy 35-0 victory. The Red Devils were held to a net 72 yards gained, the lowest for the entire season.

Jerry Baker, the Miner 290-pound fullback, rushed for 190 yards and scored three touchdowns against the Red Devils.

Although Avon Park will play Ft. Meade again this year, they appear to be a weaker team. Fortunately for the Red Devils, and rest of the Miner's opponents, Baker has graduated and will no longer be playing in a Miner uniform.

The next week Wauchula handed the Red Devils their third loss in a row as they pushed across 22 points in the second quarter to finish the game with a 28-12 victory.

Neither team showed any offensive muscle in the first quarter, but the Wildcats capped a 49-yard scoring drive with a 34-yard pass to open the scoring.

Another long pass play provided the impetus for the Wildcats second score and helped them on their way to a 22-0 first half lead.

The Red Devil defense preserved the fourth victory for the team as they stopped the Okeechobee Brahms on the two-foot line with only a minute left to play. On a cold night, it was even colder for the Brahms who suffered a 13-10 loss because of the staunch defense of the Red Devils.

The Red Devils scored first and held a 7-0 lead before Okeechobee got on the scoreboard with a field goal. The Brahms later marched 84 yards to take the lead 10-7, but the Red Devils regained the lead in the second half.

Late in the second quarter the Brahms had the ball inside the Red Devil ten but were repeatedly stopped by the Red Devil defense. The Brahms last play was stopped two feet short of a touchdown.

The Red Devils ended the 1977 season on something of a disappointing note when they lost to Sebring 12-7.

The Blue Streaks, fighting for a share of the conference championship, drove 99 yards for their score. The Blue Streaks were able to push across one more score for a 12-0 lead and then held on to win the game.

Todd Packer

Packer, another transfer student, is rated as the fastest player on the Red Devil squad. He will be playing at halfback and defensive halfback. Because of his speed, Packer will also be used to run back kickoffs and punts.
