Neal Supported By Top Legislators

When three top Florida Legislators spoke out in favor of Rep. Pat Neal recently, they weren't just kidding about the conservative Democratic candidate for state Senate, District 24.

In fact, Sen. Tom Gallen, Commissioner of Agriculture Doyle Conner and Rep. Wayne Mixson were quite serious in their support of Neal, a fiscal conservative known for his strong stands helping agriculture.

"With a firecracker like Pat Neal, you've got somebody that is wide awake and on the ball, somebody who is going to help you in the legislature," said Mixson, the Democratic candidate for Lt. Governor and running mate of the Democratic nominee for governor, Sen. Bob Graham.

Mixson gave his encouragement to Neal at a Democratic fund raising dinner in Sebring on Friday, adding that Neal is knowledgable in government and ready to do a top notch job for this area.

Already known for his support locally, Neal was also endorsed by Gallen, the present District 24 senator, in a letter thanking the citizens who supported him during his years in office.

"Rep. Neal is one of the hardest working members of the Legislature who does his homework extremely well and is quick to grasp the problems and reach a solution," Gallen said, citing Neal's high ratings with the farming and business communities.

"I know that you will be very pleased with Rep. Pat Neal as your state Senator," Gallen said.

Conner added his support last Thursday in Sebring, when he met with Neal and other Democrats for a political rally. Neal and Conner have been working together on the problems of foreign importation of beef and vegetable products causing unfair competition for farmers and ranchers in the United States and especially in Florida.

Agreeing with the Commissioner of Agriculture, Neal said, "Foreign producers do not have to meet United States wage rates, labor restrictions, packaging restrictions, environmental restrictions and many other standards required by the state and federal government. Because this constitutes unfair competition, there should be strong statutory authority for the administration in Washington and the State Department of Agriculture to restrict foreign crops from our marketplace."

"Florida would be the principal beneficiary of those restrictions. Farmers and ranchers from our state would have much wider markets if these foreign producers were restricted," he said.

Neal, who earned a 96 percent Farm Bureau rating for his firm stands supporting agriculture, is now seeking federal support of this proposal.

REPRESENTATIVE PAT NEAL, in his bid for a senate seat received the endorsement of Rep. Wayne Mixson (left) while Mrs. Charlene Neal is elated.

Rep. Burnsed Honored With Service Award

Rep. Beverly B. Burnsed, Lakeland, has been honored by the Florida Association of Community Colleges (FACC) with a legislative Service Award.

The award will be presented to Rep. Burnsed at the 29th annual FACC convention to be held Nov. 1-4, at the Host International Hotel, Tampa.

FACC Executive Director James S. Kellerman praised Rep. Burnsed for her consistent support of community college programs and for her leadership on the House Appropriations Committee.

"Rep. Burnsed also cosponsored a bill limiting access of employee records, which was of prime importance to community college employees," Kellerman said.

FACC is a professional organization of more than 4,000 community college administrators, trustees, faculty and career service employees.

During the convention such issues were discussed as; Affirmative Action, Education, and Political Action. Our main issue was the goal. Let's add 300,000 more.

Penny Thief Steals Coins And Jewelry

A penny thief struck Avon Park last Thursday, according to a Highlands County Sheriff's Department complaint.

Pennies can add up, and this was no nickle and dime theft, the report showed. The thief, who burglarized the home of Arnold Gobourne, made off with $35 worth of Lincoln portraits.

Gobourne, 1433 S. Lake Blvd., reported to the sheriff's department, that someone removed the screen from the front bedroom window while he and his wife were gone and had stolen the pennies and possibly some jewelry.

The burglary occurred sometime between 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. on Oct. 26, the report indicates. Deputy Bobby Duncan investigated.

Schools To Collect Campbell Product Labels

Again this year Avon Park Middle School plans to participate in the label collection of certain Campbell products.

Campbell's Soups — all kinds and sizes; Campbell's Chunky Soups — all kinds and sizes; Campbell's Pork and Beans — all sizes; Campbell's Tomato Juice — all sizes; Franco-American Spaghetti — all sizes; Franco-American Gravy — all sizes; any other Franco-American products.

In the past two years, our middle school boys and girls and many local people have brought in about 30,000 labels for education. We used these labels for tape players, athletic equipment, and diction-aries by just paying the postage to send in these labels.

So, please continue to help us by collecting these labels. Drop them by the middle school, send them by students, or even mail them to us, if this is more convenient. Our mailing address is: Avon Park Middle School; 312 S. Verona Ave., Avon Park, Fla. 33825.

This campaign officially starts on December 4, and ends on February 23, 1979. But, please do not wait. Start now — the school has thanked you reading this. Plan to help help ourselves to more educational opportunities. Ms. Margaret Allen says that she will carefully count each label and insure that all labels go toward something needed for this school.

Working For Agriculture

"As a conservative Democrat working for agriculture, I know the great value farming holds for our state and I have pushed strongly for you on all issues as a member of the House Agriculture Committee. I have proven my dedication to work for you as your legislator:

PEST CONTROL
The first program for Black Fly extermination began during my term as a member of the House Appropriations and Agriculture Committees. I pushed hard for this and for more state money for the USDA eradication program for brucellosis.

GREEN BELT LAW
I have fought for your protection as owners of farm lands by defending the Green Belt Law against government attack. This law keeps your property taxes at an agricultural level, even when urban growth increases land values around you.

PRIVATE PROPERTY RIGHTS
Your freedom to own and control your own property was preserved by my co-sponsorship of a law limiting regulations of land, water and private property. I will continue to work to protect your right to own and control your own land and homes.

TRESPASS LAWS
Ranchers and grove owners can now seek criminal prosecution of unwanted intruders on farm lands due to my work rewriting the 1978 tough trespass law. I opposed the state's previous turn away from self-protection of land and worked hard to see your rights returned to you.

FOREIGN LIMITATIONS
As a legislator, I have shown an increasing emphasis on agriculture and requested the Federal Government take action to reduce the importation of foreign beef and field crops. I will continue to work to support our farms and ranches by limiting foreign competition.

I have taken a solid stand on the issues and not hesitated to tell you what these stands are. I am the only candidate for this office with a responsible, proven record who can get action for you as farmers and ranchers. I will continue to pledge my support to helping you. Please support me by voting for me to represent you as your state Senator."

Eckerd Speaks To Cheering Crowd

GOP gubernatorial candidate Jack Eckerd appeared at the Highlands County Agricultural Center below Sebring Monday night Oct. 23, before a cheering crowd of more than 400 people. The program was sponsored by the Highlands County Republican Executive Committee according to its chairman, C. Johnny Johnston, of Avon Park.

Also appearing on the program were H.R. "Bob Hjort of Lake Placid, candidate for School Board, District 3; L. Earl Duncan, Lake Placid, candidate for County Commission District 4; Mrs. Mary Ellen Hawkins, State Representative District 89; Fred Burrall, State Representative District 75 (both these candidates are seeking re-election); and Andrew Jackson for State Senate seat District 24.

Each candidate was given time to speak with Eckerd appearing last since he had been on the campaign trail all day flying from Ft. Lauderdale to Sebring where he was met by Steve Roberts and Jim McCollum and escorted to the center. As he entered the crowd rose greeting him enthusiastically to the tune of "Happy Days are Here Again."

H.R. "Bob" Hjort

In his speech, Hjort called for a return to basics in education and the elimination of "frills" stating that Federal funds always have strings attached. If elected he vows to investigate all federally-funded programs, retaining only beneficial ones. He also pledged to limit the budget, hold down expenses and any surplus realized would be turn back to taxpayer which drew applause from the audience. Hjort stressed more parent involvement in planning and discipline with teachers and parents cooperating to develop good manners, good grooming, ethics and citizenship and the removal of the drug influence from our schools.

Earl Duncan

Duncan, a 30 year Army career man, was distressed over the condition of roads especially in the southern end of the county stating that he and the other families in his area felt "discriminated against" in that their roads were not graded after the first time.

He felt the commission should observe the state mandate that requires road to be paved before acres are sold and expressed concern over mowing machines knocking down reflector lights and stating that some lights were being hidden from view by high weeds and grass.

Mary Ellen Hawkins

Mrs. Hawkins represents the southernmost portion of Highlands County and was disappointed to see that only three of her constituents were present. She has served two terms and stated that she has been active in matters of concern in all Highlands County citing her work on the light at Bair's Den and Southgate and her work on getting appropriation for the auditorium at South Florida Junior College. Water is her most important long range project. Her remarks drew applause from the crowd.

Fred Burrall

Burrall has visited our area so many times that when he was introduced, Johnston stated, "He's here so often if you re-elect him, we'll probably have to adopt him." Burrall stated he was proud to be a Conservative and that 70 percent of his bills have become law. He is against gun laws; for less government and the limiting of the number of state employees and for passing a bill protecting endangered land.

He fought against tax increases, better roads, lights at Bair's Den and Southgate and the transfer of the county to the Southwest Water Management District. He worked against Chavez coming to Florida. His remarks drew applause several times.

Andy Jackson

Asking the audience how many were happy with government and with the tax situation, not a single hand was raised. Jackson said he has noted a desire to get back to basics without expensive programs and fringes.

People are getting fed up with the "same old stuff" and will vote a good, conservative candidate. He added that he is in a tough fight and that full support of Highlands County is critical to his campaign.

Jack Eckerd

"The state is the biggest business in Florida," Eckerd told the crowd, pointing out that it is a six billion dollar annual business with 100,000 employees. He told the crowd that he had to borrow money to start his first stores and if asked if he minded having his assets revealed on financial disclosures, he said, "not at all, as long as my wife doesn't find out about it."

On education he favored a return to the 3 R's, an evaluation test for teachers, even as the student literacy test "gave us a handle that we are not doing a good job." He does not favor a ceiling on teacher salaries stating they should be competitive. He called for fiscal responsibility and announced himself a consumer advocate.

Other Republican leaders recognized were Dr. Dan Davis, Highlands County School Superintendent; Sheriff Joe Shepherd, Steve Roberts, School Board Member, Dick Nelson from the Washington office of Skip Bafalis; Helen Runion, Sebring, President of Federation of Republican Women and Sid Shenker, Lake Placid, President of Highlands Area Republican Club.

Andrew Jackson Conservative Speaks To Kiwanis Club

In his race for election to State Senator of District 24 Andrew Jackson told the Avon Park Kiwanis Club members of his position. Listed as a conservative businessman who is dedicated to returning the business of government to the people.

Jackson told the Kiwanians that he was strongly opposed to casino gambling, but would go along with the people if they voted in it.

On Proposition 13 there is a strong feeling among people for wanting tax relief, but he didn't agree with the meat ax approach of the proposition and felt there was a better way to accomplish the same end.

Andrew Jackson

Another point Jackson made was that government should stop the high spending, by finding out what programs the country could do without and eliminate them. By knowing this and following through taxes could be cut.

He felt that the trend on the high and increasing cost of government has to stop. There should be less big spending by big government to reduce the size of the government.

On the various amendments on the ballot, Jackson said he would vote no on all except amendment no. 3, or the reapportioning amendment. He was all in favor of reducing the way Highlands County is cut up into nine sections.

People Can Overcome Learning Disabilities

Members and guests attending last Wednesday's Avon Park Rotary Club meeting were treated to a talk by Mrs. Connie Tzovarras, staffing specialist for the exceptional child program in the Highlands County School System. Connie stated that this program works not with retarded persons but with those students who have severe learning disabilities. Such students are of at least average intelligence, however, in the past most were considered to be mentally retarded or as their intelligence was recognized, they were thought to be goof-offs. She said that most people have had some sort of a learning disability at one time or another with which we have learned to cope, but the persons in the Severe Learning Disability program need assistance to remedy their problem. These students have some sort of difficulty with the signal given to their brain by what they see or hear, or they may have difficulty with communication, that is expressing themselves. Some famous and successful people have had to overcome learning disabilities. Examples are Nelson Rockefeller, Woodrow Wilson, Albert Einstein and Leonardo da Vinci who all had the visual disability called dyslexia.

A Student with auditor or hearing learning problems can usually hear well enough, but there is a "short circuit" in the brain and what is heard cannot be understood. He would exhibit uncertainty, an inability to follow a series of instructions or an inability to concentrate. Distractions would have a big effect on this student and he should not be allowed to try to study while listening to the television or radio. This problem can also be one where certain sounds such as the short "e" in a word cannot be understood due to the hearing processing problem. Students with auditory learning disabilities cannot be taught phonics, however, techniques have been developed to help these students cope with and possibly largely overcome the handicap.

A student with a visual learning disability may be recognized by an inability to spell properly, perhaps he gets the right letters but in the wrong order, or maybe he consistently leaves out or changes certain letters. Visual disability may also be the problem of a child who consistantly misses the ball in baseball, tennis or another similar sport. In such a case the ball is not where the childs mind perceives it to be, which causes him to miss.

Delinquency rates are high among children with severe learning disabilities due to the frustration they feel at not being able to do things normally and the difficulty they have coping with day to day problems.

Highlands County has had the Severe Learning Disability Program for the past five years, and there are presently 238 children enrolled. The children spend one or two hours per day with the SLD teacher and the remainder of their time in the regular classrooms. As they progress, the time with the SLD teacher is decreased accordingly.

It is estimated that between 5 percent and 10 percent of all children have some sort of learning disability, however, most of them are not severe. Any child suspected of having a severe learning disability can be tested and if necessary enrolled in the program. The entire test program normally takes about one month. Formal evaluation testing takes about twelve classroom hours and the entire program includes interviews of the child by a learning disability teacher and the school psychologist in addition to interviews of the parents.

Ruth Eckerd Autographs Cook Book In Campaign

Using a different approach in appealing for votes Mrs. Ruth Eckerd campaigned for her husband Jack Eckerd with a cook book and a pen. Last Wednesday afternoon. At the Ridge Garden location she autographed "Some of Our Favorite Things" cook book for numerous people.

Ruth Eckerd said she obtained the idea from the Virginia governor's campaign, which had a cook book of family recipes. She thought this was more practical for much campaign reading material was discarded without being read.

She has been on the campaign trail since September, 1977 when Jack's decision to run surprised her, even though she knew of his concern with politicians who don't utilize the tax dollar wisely.

To people in the Jack Eckerd campaign his greatest strength was in the small town areas, stated Ruth Eckerd. The large city areas and newspapers were not very favorable to Jack, she added. She also told how Jack had been asked to preach in a black church in Tampa. He had already preached in Baptist, Methodist and other churches.

In autographing the cook books, Ruth Eckerd would ask the person with the cook book whose name they wished to have in the book. Most of the ladies and some men and teenagers gave the name of a relative or friend. Then there was a lady who was looking for a recipe that she could use with chicken that night. And nearby a group of men were talking about meat loaf sandwiches.

In the garden setting, with its, trees, lawn, shrubs, annual bulbs and raised lawn stage, Ruth Eckerd told how when campaigning in the central area of Florida they usually headed home at night. However, in the Panhandle they usually stayed overnight.

As for the family relatives in the North, Ruth Eckerd said they were excited about Jack's campaign, which they read about in the Washington Post. Of their own family, two children were living out of state, but the other five were all active in the campaign. Their daughter Nancy had visited Avon Park twice.

But, she said, the bulk of the work is done by local political people like Nell and Steve Roberts who had made the garden spot available for her to meet people who were interested in the campaign and appreciated the cook book.

Ministers Oppose Legalized Gambling

Avon Park Ministers are unanimous in their opposition to Proposition Nine, with most ministers echoing the feeling approval of the proposition would be a "tragic mistake," for the state.

Proposition nine is a referendum which would change the state constitution to allow casino gambling along the "Gold Coast" of Florida.

Opposition to the amendment by the ministers and their churches has been expressed in advertisement, in both newspapers and on radios, and in pamplets distributed throughout the area.

The subject has also been discussed in several sermons and Sunday school classes in local churches.

Rev. Aden Childress of the First Baptist Church states his viewpoint; the promise of casino gambling have not proven true in actual tests. Nevada has had gambling for years and that state pays higher taxes per person than does Florida. Nevada spends less per pupil in the public school than Florida does.

In Atlantic City, where casinos have been legalized, even the mayor seems to have had second thoughts about it, Rev. Childress said.

In casino gambling the only people who win are the operators. It takes from the faultless, weak and often needy. It not only hurts the individual but the family and community as well, Rev. Childress stated.

The Union Congregational Church of Christ as a part of the Florida Conference of the United Church of Christ and the United Church of Christ nationally and at the biennial meeting of the Florida Conference held Sept. 23, the pastors and delegates unanimous opposed the casino gambling referendum.

Pastor William Ziegenfus, as pastor of the Union Congregational Church, urges all citizens to vote "No" on Proposition Nine in the general election.

"Everybody loses where casino gambling is concerned," he added.

Other churches in the area also expressed their concerns over the issue.

In stating his opposition, The Florida Ave. Baptist Church pastor quoted Gov. Reubin Askew: I strongly believe that casino gambling would be a tragic mistake for our state. It is being peddled as a quick, easy and harmless cure-all to the problems of financing government. But the cost in terms of increased governmental regulations and growing social problems would far out-weigh any short-term benefit we might derive in the form of profits or revenue."

All unanimously agree that to allow casino gambling in the state would lead to further erosion of the moral climate, invite the criminal element and would open a lucrative door for underworld figures.

Ministers also stated many people in responsible positions in the Miami Beach area have gone on record against casino gambling. What right does the rest of Florida have to impose on this section of the state what they don't want simply to satisfy a few greedy hotel and motel owners and promoters. It is the responsibility of every eligible voter to cast a ballot. Not to vote is really a vote for casino gambling, according to ministers in the community.

WE NEED TO KEEP THE PUBLIC IN PUBLIC EDUCATION

Revision Number 8 will deal education a serious blow, the effect of which would be felt from kindergarten through the university and throughout the entire state.

1. There would no longer be an elected State Board of Education composed of statewide elected officials. Members of the State Board of Education would be appointed by the Governor, and would not be accountable directly to the people.

2. The State University System and the Board of Regents would gain constitutional supremacy on matters of education policy, placing it above all other elements of public education, above the Legislature and above the law.

3. There would no longer be an elected Commissioner of Education, thus taking from the people our only clear and direct voice in the development of the state policy which governs the education of our children and all the students of this state.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Husband arrived here last week as well as Ula Miller and Jean Barret, her daughter, from Birmingham, Michigan. Ula's new silver Impala is beautiful!

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stevens visited the Joe Bacons on Sunday and other friends as they passed by, extended greetings. Bonnie is flying to Ohio to help Thelma South drive back to Avon Park, when she is ready to come. A safe trip to both of them is our wish.

John and Pearl Evans arrived on Saturday after a strenuous drive down for Pearl, who was felling ill and tired necessitating frequent stops, when she rested. This beautiful Florida weather should soon have her back to her usual well being. We are happy to have all our friends arrive, day by day and wish them well, and happiness in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nelson called on Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bergstrom in Dolan City Mobile Home Park, on Sunday evening. Both couples are former residents of Holliday Ranch Travel Trailer Park.

Mrs. Meadie Warstler from Elkhart, Indiana is visiting with Mrs. Rozella Kielty for the coming month and we wish her a very pleasant vacation.

What a pleasant experience it is to walk through the park and see more and more homes all lit up as our dear friends return from the North country!

This past week brought back to us: Mrs. Crocker (Mabel), Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith, Mrs. Hubert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas, and Evelyn Masuch has been here for some time. Dorothy and Albert Keyes picked up Mr. and Mrs. Basil Krontz at the Orlando airport on Friday and Mr. and Mrs. John Evans are expected in about the same time. We are also expecting Mrs. Ula Miller with her daughter, Jean to arrive very soon from Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Foster McNeil arrived on Thursday, also.

Our prayers are with Mrs. Inez Swearingen for a rapid recovery now that she is back in her own home after a few days stay in the hospital.

Mrs. Howard Smith was taken suddenly ill and went to Walker Memorial Hospital for treatment on Friday a.m. Let us remember her, too, with good thoughts.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Derr were called back to Ohio, also we hope they do return soon before the "winter" sets in.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belcher write that Margaret has had a series of tests at the Mayo Clinic, which will be followed by surgery, however, they are still hoping to be here the week of November the 5th and we pray that all will be well, speedily, with Margaret's recovery. It will be good to have our neighbors back.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hood expect to be here about November 15, or 16. Walt said to not bring out the Band as he wants to surprise the Fish!

A hearty Welcome to all of you as you commence another year in Avon Park.

THE AVON PARK Correctional Institute announced recently that the following employees participated in the correctional Training Institute at Raiford: standing — Monte S. Goodwin and Glen S. Worley; seated — Quentin W. Atkins and Earl C. Giesey.

APCI Employees Complete Training

The Department of Corrections has announced that Avon Park Correctional Institution employees Quentin W. Atkins, Earl C. Giesey, Monte S. Goodwin and Glen S. Worley recently participated in the Correctional Training Institute at Raiford, Florida.

This is the thirty-fifth CTI group to enroll in the minimum standards curriculu, which is required by law. The Training Institute program is taught in conjunction with Lake City Community College, and the graduates earn nine semester credits for successfully completing the full time, 160 hours course.

The program includes instruction in Criminal Justice System, Legal Aspects of Corrections, Operational Procedures, Principles of Supervision, Human Relations and Technical Training Skills which include Firearms, First Aid and Fire Fighting Techniques.

The Correctional Training Institute was certified by the Florida Correctional Standard Council (CSC) in May, 1976, as a training center for correctional personnel. The Council was empowered by the Legislature in 1974 to establish minimum standards for the certification of correctional officers and training centers. The curriculum of training is designed to intensify the exposure of the officer and to develop him professionally. It is anticipated that the training program will help materialize the promise of a modern correctional system.

The participants will continue their training with an additional 160 hours taught by regional instructors, on an in-service basis, at the various correctional facilities located throughout Florida.

Regan Supports Ander Crenshaw

Former California Governor Ronald Reagan will be heard voicing his personal support for State Representative Ander Crenshaw, Republican nominee for Secretary of State.

Rep. Ander Crenshaw

Reagan will take to the air via a series of radio commercials he has recorded on behalf of the Jacksonville legislator. The spots will stress Crenshaw's qualifications for the state cabinet post.

These commercials are in addition to the fundraising letter Reagan has already sent to gather funds for Crenshaw's Secretary of State bid.

In the letter, Reagan noted Crenshaw's unbroken record of honesty and integrity, as well as his strong moral and spiritual commitment to public service. He stresses the fact that Florida needs a Ander Crenshaw on the state cabinet in order to bring strong, conservative leadership to that body.

"Governor Reagan is a proven leader of national stature who is an inspiration to people throughout our nation," Crenshaw said. "Having someone like Governor Reagan speak out on my behalf is a great boost to my candidacy for Secretary of State," he added.

Reagan is one of several national level Republican leaders to throw their personal support to Crenshaw. Former Secretary of the Treasury John Connally and U.S. Representative Phillip Crane have also endorsed the state legislator's candidacy.

Odd Fellows To Elect Officers

Highlands Lodge No. 74, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellowship will have important meetings during November and December and January. The Nomination of Officers and Election of Officers on November 29, with a visit of the District Deputy Grand Master at the November 29, meeting. All members and visitors please try and attend these most important meetings of Highlands Lodge No. 74 held at the Womens Club House across from the Post Office.

Also Bingo will start Saturday night November 4, at the Recreation Building across from the Tennis Courts starting at 7:30 p.m. and will be held each Saturday night until the first of April 1979. This is a public Bingo and all are cordially invited to come and play Bingo with the Odd Fellows during the winter months.

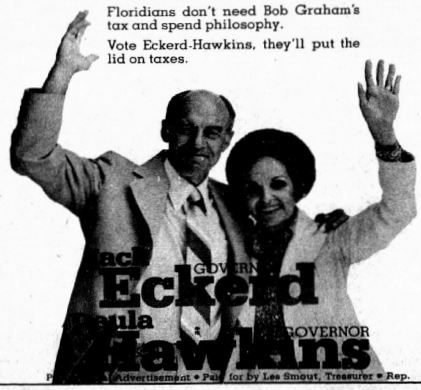

The Winning Team

Jack Eckerd and Paula Hawkins have pledged no new taxes for Florida.

That's important. Because Jack's opponent Bob Graham has voted for higher taxes time after time while he was in the State Legislature. Graham voted for more taxes on farm equipment, recreational vehicles, feed, seed and fertilizer. He voted for a hunting and fishing license tax, an increase in the sales tax, even a cemetary fee tax.

Floridians don't need Bob Graham's tax and spend philosophy.

Vote Eckerd-Hawkins, they'll put the lid on taxes.

Officials Attend League Of Cities Convention

Mayor Marshall Davis, City Councilmen David Barefield, Robert Britt and Henry Dennis and City Clerk Malcolm Crews attended the annual convention of the Florida League of Cities at the Diplomat Hotel in Hollywood, Florida last week. Virginia S. Young, Vice Mayor of Fort Lauderdale presided over the business sessions. Conferences were held on Friday for various subjects of interest.

The general session was held Saturday morning beginning with a welcoming speech by Davis Keating, Mayor of Hollywood and response by Corinne Freeman, Mayor of St. Petersburg. Mrs. Young gave the President's report for the past year and reported a very successful year.

The Keynote Address was given by the Honorable Hyatt Brown, Speaker-Designate of the Florida House of Representatives from Daytona Beach. Mr. Brown spoke on "Local Government and the Florida Legislature." He gave the pros and cons of several issues concerning local government which will be considered by the Legislature in 1979. He spoke strongly against casino gambling.

The main speech of the day made to a standing room only audience was by Governor Reubin O'D. Askew. Governor Askew confined his remarks entirely to the Proposition 9 on the November 7th ballot. He spoke eloquently of many reasons he is opposed to casino gambling.

The luncheon speaker was United States Senator Richard Stone who spoke on problems facing federal government and closer cooperation between government on all levels.

In the afternoon session both Democratic Candidate for Governor Bob Graham and Republican Candidate Jack Eckerd addressed the delegates. Both men were well received.

Reports were given on Environmental Quality, Intergovernmental Relations, Municipal Finance, Urban Administration and other topics by the chairman of the standing committees.

In the business session the delegates voted to support Revisions No. 3 and No. 7, to oppose No. 1, No. 5 and No. 9, and to take no stand on Numbers 2, 4, 6 and 8. The casino gambling proposal, No. 9, was hotly debated before final passage.

J.L. Plummer, Jr., Commissioner, Miami, was elected President for 1978-79 term. A banquet Saturday night closed the 52nd annual session.

A special ladies program featuring a boat cruise with lunch on the intercostal waterway was hosted by the host city of Hollywood.

Paper Presented At Seattle Meeting

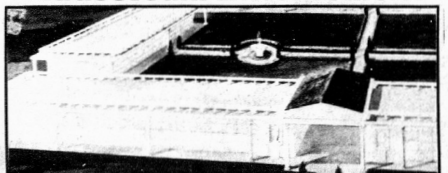

The Honorable Mark Richardson co-authored a paper presented at the 29th Annual Meeting of the Alcohol and Drug Problems Assn. (ADPA) held in Seattle, Wash., September 24-28.

Patricia Furnival, Program Supervisor of the Highlands - Hardee clinic of Tri-County Alcoholism Rehabilitative Services, Inc., and Lois Dutton, Executive Director of Tri-County, presented the paper, "Involuntary Treatment for Alcohol Abusers via the Criminal Justice System."

The purpose of the paper was to share with a national audience of alcoholism professionals the dramatic results of early detection and primary prevention of alcohol abuse through the cooperative efforts of the local criminal justice systems and Tri-County's rehabilitative program.

The Tri-County office is located at 2801 U.S. 27 South, Avon Park, where they serve people on a voluntary basis as well as those served through the criminal justice system.

Voting Not Over For City Residents

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

While the state and national elections have ended, a local election is just beginning as seven men have filed as candidates to fill three seats on the Avon Park city Council.

Two incumbents, one ex-councilman and two political newcomers are included in the field of contenders. The seats up for election are those of Councilmen David Barefield and Kelley Phillips and Council President Larry Albritton.

Barefield and Albritton are running for reelection while Phillips will retire from the council at the end of his term.

In addition to the two incumbents, ex-councilman Milton Howard will be in the race. Howard served on the council for 10 years before being defeated in 1977 by 20 votes. Even then, he polled 710 votes which according to Howard gave him "the highest number of votes of anyone who's gotton beat."

Another challenger who is not new to city politics is Tom Tataris. Ta taris has run for the city council on two pervious occasions. He lost in the 1976 race by just one vote to Councilman Kelley Phillips. In 1977, Tataris placed behind Howard and councilmen Henry Dennis and Robert Britt.

Other challengers include Paul Smith, who is making his second try for the council, and newcomers Aiex Whitbeck and Phil Wooten.

In 1976, when Barefield, Albritton and Phillips were elected, there were nine candidates running for council seats. In 1977, when two seats were up for election, five challengers were on the ballot.

Of all the candidates Howard, who has been a consistently high vote getter when he has run for the council, is considered by many to be one of the strongest contenders for the three seats.

Even when he lost an election in 1977 Howard pulled more votes, 710, than did the top vote getter in 1976. (Barefield with 672 votes.) Employed by the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad, Howard has lived in Avon Park for over three decades.

One issue in the election may be whether voters agree or disagree with Councilman David Barefield in his dissenting votes with other members of the council. Barefield has often been voted down in council meeting.

Barefield has disagreed with other members of the council on such matters as the department head ordinance which he said was aimed at Building Inspector C.W. Ellerbee and which Barefield claimed would not benefit the city.

The incumbent councilman also broke with other councilmen on the procedure of suspending Chief Robert Brooks and the payment of Chief Brooks' attorney fees. While other councilmen remained silent, Barefield criticized the way the suspension was handled. He also said the city should pay the attorney fees Brooks' incurred. He was also the first councilman to urge corrective measures be taken when the city put in a drain at Lake Isis. The drain was causing pollution in the lake but the council waited for a month after the first complaint was made before voting to remove it.

The man who made the first complaint, Phil Wooten, is also in the race for council. Wooten, who requested some corrections be made, was given a flat turn down by the council. Councilman Henry Dennis and Street Superintendant John Ziegler said they didn't think the drain was causing any pollution.

Wooten said the incident at the council meeting was of some significance in his entering the race but said it was not a major factor.

What was important, Wooten said, was ensuring every citizen would have a chance to voice any complaints to the

Wise Is Re-elected, Fitzgerald Voted In

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Voters in Highlands County came out to vote in the governor's race and against casino gambling in Tuesday's elections which produced a moderate-to-heavy turnout and few suprises.

Although there were several local races on the ballot, the voting was heaviest on the ballot for governor and the referendum on casino gambling. Sixty four percent to the registered voters cast ballots.

In local races Highlands County voters returned incumbent County Commissioner C.J. "Buddy" Wise to office and put Democrat Robert Fitzgerald on the school board.

Wise swept by his Republican Challenger L. Earl Duncan by an easy 1,700 - plus vote margin. Fitzgerald took an even wider victory margin over his opponent, Republican H.R. "Bob" Hjort of Lake Placid.

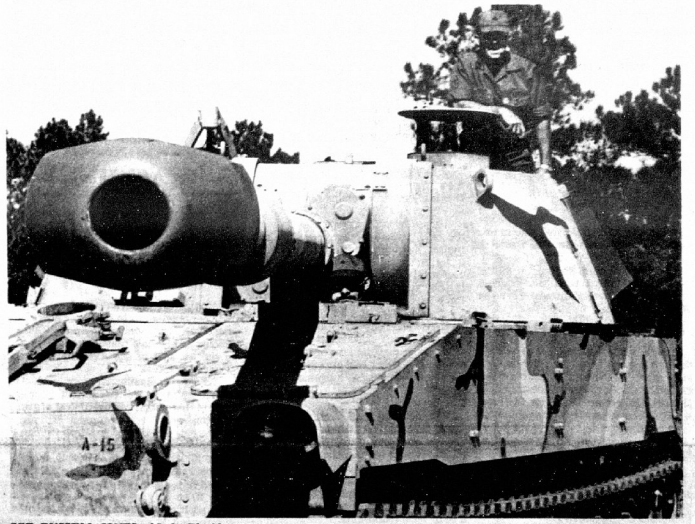

Fitzgerald, who won the Democratic primary over two challengers, took 7,256 votes to Hjort's 4,368. Wise won the support of 6,786 voters in his victory.

However even with the local races, the two levers most pushed by county residents were in the governor's race and the casino gambling question.

Of the 13,209 citizens voting, all but about a 100 voted in the gubernatorial race. The casino gambling question attracted votes from 12,000-plus voters. Most of the revision questions on the ballot only attracted about 10,000-plus votes.

County residents bucked the state wide trend in the governors race giving their support to Republican Jack Eckerd. Eckerd won the county with 7,349 votes to

Voters Deal Out Casinos

BY BRUCE HENDERSON

Highlands County voters gave casino gambling about the same odds the typical casino gives its slot machine patrons — 4 to 1 — as they defeated Revision 9 on Tuesday's ballot by a 7,300 vote margin.

The measure which would have legalized dice tables, one-arm bandits and blackjack along Florida's Gold Coast was dealt out by county voters 9,719 to 2,456, for a 79.8 percent margin of defeat. Statewide, the casino gambling revision was losing 69 to 31 percent late Tuesday night.

County voters also showed little inclination to change anything in the state's Constitution as they turned down eight ballot revisions recommended by the Constitutional Revision Commission, usually by margins of more than 70 percent.

The measure which would have put sex into the Constitution, Revision 2 — the so-called "Little ERA" — was rejected by nearly three-quarters of Highlands' voters, 8,515 to 2,937.

Revision 1, an omnibus measure which contained most of the changes proposed by the 37-member revision commission, was defeated in the county by whopping 88.5 percent margin, 9,478 to 1,235.

Revision 3, which provided for single-member districts and reapportionment and would have allowed trimming of the size of the state House and Senate, fell to defeat by a 73 percent margin, 7,757 to 2,869.

Election of cabinet officers would have been ended by Revision 4, but county voters vetoed that idea by a 9,590 to 1,272 margin — 88.3 percent.

County voters also did not want to give up their right to elect the Public Service Commission — which the legislature already has taken away — and voted down Revision 5 by a 76.5 percent margin, 8,021 to 2,466.

Similarly, they did not want to eliminate election contests for circuit and county judgeships, voting down

Freedom Lasts Two Hours As Dogs Track Escapees

Freedom lasted a little over two hours for two prisoners who escaped from the Avon Park Correctional Institution late Wednesday afternoon.

Leonard Wayne Gill, 22, and Larry Lee Spangler, 33, were tracked down by dogs and recaptured by APCI guards as they huddled under a tree to escape the rain no more than a mile from the prison, according to APCI Assistant Superintendent Paul Worthington.

The two men climbed over the perimeter fence of the prison about 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, Worthington reported. They were recaptured about 7:45 p.m., still on Avon Park Bombing Range grounds, he said.

Gill, who has a previous escape from another Florida prison on his record, was serving a five-year term for burglary and grand larceny stemming from a 1976 conviction in Highlands County.

Spangler was serving an eight-year term for robbery for a 1977 conviction in Polk County.

Both men have been transferred to the Polk County Jail, where they face

Camp Wingmann To Close Dec. 31

Avon Park's Camp Wingmann, operated by the Episcopal Church's Diocese of Central Florida as a summer camping facility and conference center, will close December 31.

Camp Wingmann's closing and possible sale will be one of the topics of discussion at the church diocese's annual convention in Orlando Friday and Saturday.

An operating deficit expected to reach from $30,000 to $40,000 by the end of the year is the reason for the decision by the church's Diocesan Board in September to shut down the camp and conference center, according to church officials.

The anticipated closing was announced and discussed during recent pre-convention meetings held throughout the Central Florida area. Although the convention is likely to accept the decision to close the camp, the ultimate future of the facility is uncertain.

Some opposition was expressed by delegates at some of the meetings, according to church officials, to a proposed sale of the property, and a use for the facility might be found in the future.

The camp's deficit is a result of a drastic drop in the number of summer campers using the facility, as well as a lack of use of the conference center by various church programs, officials said.

Although the camp used to attract almost 1,000 camper weeks, church officials reported, this year there were only about 400. Most of those who did use the facility for camping came from the coastal areas, they said.

In addition, several conferences and retreats scheduled for in 1977 and 1978 had to be cancelled because of under-registration.

Church leaders attribute the lack of interest in Camp Wingmann to the changing nature of the church's programs, for which the camp's facilities are no longer appropriate or convenient. Another problem cited is Avon Park's distance from major population centers of the diocese, Lakeland, Orlando and the east - central coast.

Veterans Set Parade For Saturday

The annual Veteran's Day Parade, to be held in Avon Park this year, will kick off promptly at 10:15, Saturday Nov. 11 stated Harvey Dixon Sr. of the American Legion Post No. 69.

Double Taxation Is A City Issue

One issue which might arise in the upcoming city council campaign has been handed to the candidates by the state Supreme Court, and has nothing to do with the city.

But it has everything to do with taxes.

In late October, the Florida Supreme Court ruled 7-0 that city governments may ask the state courts to order county commissions to reduce property taxes within city limits if counties are levying taxes to provide services used only outside the cities.

The order backs up an earlier ruling, made several years ago in a Brevard County case, that counties could not use city taxes to pay for the duplication of services. In short, the court ruled out double taxation.

The Avon Park City Council has already taken a commendable first step and asked an accounting from the county of tax monies, both for cities and from unincorporated areas. After a breakdown of where taxes come from and where they go, commissioners have promised a meeting with city officials to discuss any differences.

As an addendum to what the city has already done, the Sun still believes the city would have a justifiable case for removing city residents from the taxing district of Highlands General Hospital.

Highlands General imposes .91 mill of ad valorem tax on each city resident even though most residents are served by Walker Memorial.

This is not a duplication of services, this is a case of being taxed for no services at all. The amount of tax revenues HGH takes from county residents, about $550,000, is rather large for a local hospital, and as yet, there has yet to be a reason advanced as to why Avon Park residents should continue contributing to it.

Now, talking about reducing taxes is a subject which is easily lent to excess, as shown by all the proposals modeled after California's Proposition 13.

It is a subject which should be approached carefully but there is nothing wrong with a councilman, or a candidate, suggesting the matter of the hospital's .91 mill levy be investigated and, if possible, be lifted from city residents.

As for the county, the detailed accounting of tax monies, not only to Avon Park but also to Sebring and Lake

EDITORIALS

Placid, is a proper and legitimate move.

There will probably be legitimate areas of dispute too since, in the letter which city councilmen sent to the Highlands County Commissioners, City Clerk Malcolm Crews gave some detailed accounting of taxes being paid to the county without, councilmen felt, adequate services being provided back to the city.

When the county comes back with their figure, it may reflect a more favorably balance for the county.

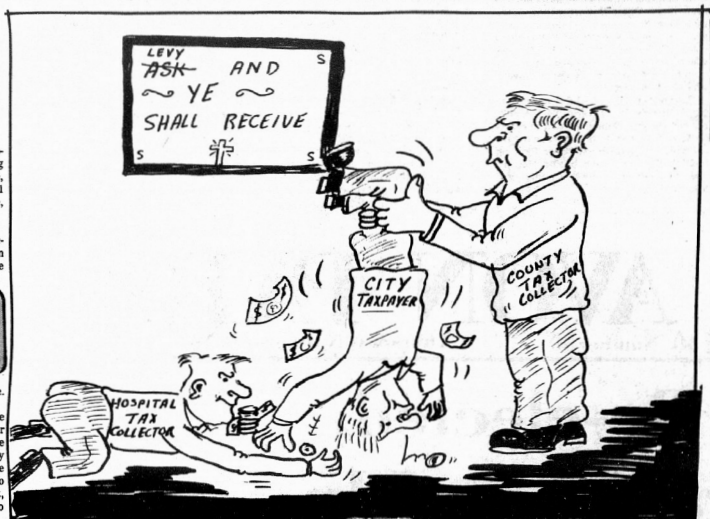

Revenues and expenditures are not the only item to be considered in this matter. A county department might have a legitimate budget but if most of the personnel's time is spent in another part of the county, then residents of Avon Park have a justified complaint.

It is just this type of complaint councilmen are thinking of when they decry what they beleive are excessive amounts of paving in the southern part of the county without any attention given to Avon Park.

We must wait until the final figures are in and analyzed before coming to a definite calculation.

However, this much is clear. Citizens should support the council's effort to have a clear accounting of tax dollars.

From the latest state supreme court ruling, it is clear the city's effort also has a firm legal foundation.

Rocking The Boat

By George Duncan

The games today designed for kids are becoming increasingly realistic. I found this out a week or so ago when I was browsing through a toy store doing some early Christmas shopping for my niece and nephew.

"Yes sir, may we help you," the salesman said.

"Well I was wondering if you have any games designed for kids in the ten through fourteen age bracket. Anything new on the market?"

"Absolutely. Here this is our latest. It's called Casino. The whole assortment of roulette wheels, blackjack cards and dice tables. Odds are in favor of the house."

"I'm not sure. . ."

"Each player gets $5,000 free after which he can mortgage off his house and car to the casino in exchange for cash. If that doesn't bring him even, the casino will loan him an additional $5,000 on strength of his signature."

"A bit realistic isn't it?"

"That's the trend today, sir. If the player can't pay back $5,000 the house sends out two thugs to break his legs. He thereby loses this game but is prepared to go to our next game in the series."

"What's that?"

"It's called Bankruptcy."

"Yeah. How do you win if you play Casino?"

"No one wins, sir."

"No one wins?"

"As it is often in life, sir. Games today tend to reflect society."

"Yes, well what other games do you have?"

"This one is rather popular. It's called Land Fraud. Players attempt to sell worthless land for high prices so they can get rich quick. They have to evade state and federal regulatory agencies and fast talk any prospective buyer."

"Who wins?"

"The first player who can accumulate $500,000 without being arrested or exposed by those nosey, obnoxious reporters. It prepares a child for a future in real estate."

"Listen, I don't believe in protecting kids from everything in the world but isn't that basing a game on sheer greed and deception?"

"As is the case often in the life, sir."

"Actually I was looking for something a little less realistic. How about that one. The Star Wars game. Thats more like it."

"I don't think so, sir. It comes with real laser guns."

"What else do you have?"

"Here's another game which is proving to be very popular and it's for the whole family. It's called Politics. The object is to get elected to higher office as the game goes on. To do so you make deals with special interests groups, give favors to political friends, extend patronage and put family members on the government's payroll."

"Just like the real thing."

"Right, Opponents try to counter your moves by being just as ruthless by making their own deals and trying to undercut you. You lose if you are defeated for office or are exposed by the press. Of course, there are counter moves you can make against your opponents."

"Such?"

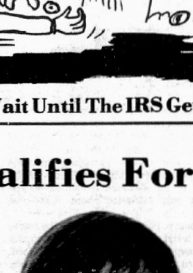

"Economic pressure, killing their bills, putting pressure on their supporters, directing police harassement, all types of things."

"It is realistic, isn't it?" I said. "Your designers really went all out on that one."

"Not ours, sir. The toy company hired a dozen congressman to create the game. We think they did quite well."

"Never mind," I said. "I think I'll buy them a book instead."

Wooten Qualifies For Council

Apathy in government from the national level down to the local government units, was cited by Philip J. "Phil" Wooten as his main reason in qualifying to run for seat on the Avon Park City Council last week.

Today this apathy is more evident than ever, said Wooten. And it is important that people regain control of the government. The government is only people who are elected to serve people, he added.

He believes the government overspends many times and it is up to the individual to let those in the government know when they have made a mistake.

Wooten also believes that no one in government is superior to anyone else and certainly is not more superior than anyone the day after election.

Born in Frostproof, the 44 year old Wooten was an honor graduate of the Frostproof High School Class of 1951. During the Korean War era he spent two years in Europe and was in the Armed Services Reserve for six and one half years. He started working at the Avon Park Post Office as a city mail carrier 16 years ago and is now on a rural carrier route.

He is married to the former Gloria Harris of Avon Park. They have two daughters, Pamela who is in Europe, where her Air Force husband is stationed. Tess is a student at South Florida Junior College.

Living on Lake Isis, he and his neighbors strongly objected to locating the sewer lift pump station down near the lake, because of the possible overflow of sewerage (and lake pollution) in the event of a pump or power failure.

Wooten believes that things are looking up and the city council should be complimented, since the city has changed storm drain on the north side of Lake Isis, diverting drainage water into a nearby citrus grove thus keeping the polluting runoff water out of the lake.

"When I see something wrong I'm going to object," Wooten stated. He sees the block voting by some of the councilmen as a pre-conceived idea of how they are going to vote. To Wooten the block voting does not mean a partial idea, where a person would welcome additional information on the subject.

This is Wooten's first try for a public office. As a postal worker, the Hatch Act specifies that government employees can only run for office in a non-political election.

In closing his remarks Wooten stated, "If I am elected, anyone can come to me and be listened to."

The Non-Voters And The Election

This year in the Florida Gubernatorial race, approximately $5 million will be spent to put one man in the governor's chair.

Republican Jack Eckerd has spent approximately $2.8 million while Democrat Bob Graham has spent about $2.1 million. This is more than has been spent on any other governor's race. Yet the voter turnout remains abysmally low.

In the primaries voter turnout hovered around the 30 percent level. In the general election, around 65 percent of the people voted, although when official figures are tabulated it may place the percentage slightly higher.

This in spite of the fact the casino gambling question boosted turnout for the election.

Still, even with casino gambling and all the television and newspaper advertising, a sizable minority of the state citizens declined to vote.

This is not merely a statewide problem. In 1976, when the campaign spending of Jimmy Carter and Gerald Ford made the gubernatorial costs seem like penny-ante poker, almost 70 million Americans refrained from going to the voting booth.

This is not because there is dissatisfaction with an individual candidate but because there is immense displeasure at candidates in general and the state of American politics today.

One of the reasons why 70 million Americans don't vote, whether in state or national elections, is they have perceived — whether accurately or inaccurately — that voting really doesn't make a difference.

The non-voters are basically any different than voters. According to a recent book by political writer Arthur Hadley and pollster Robert Teeter, The Empty Polling Booth, the 70 million non-voters have about the same background as the voters, with the exception they are slightly poorer, a little-less educated, a little more cynical and a little blacker.

But they have percieved, as have the well-educated, well-to-do non-voters, that American politicians have become professional candidates with the goal of winning elections. Any benefits to citizens, any reforms they might make in government are secondary to winning the election.

One thinks of the statement by Senator Thomas Eagleton of Missouri, made several years ago while he was running for that state's attorney general's post.

Eagleton told reporters he had been so busy campaigning for the office he didn't know what he would do once he'd had won the office. A professional candidate.

The same philosophy is apparent both nationally and statewide. A sizable minority of the congressional and senatorial races are already decided before the election, either because the incumbent has no opponent or because he is in a 'safe' district.

In Florida, a sizable minority, if not majority of state senate and state representatives races are already decided, to say nothing of the cabinet races and judgeships supposedly up for election.

Hadley and Teeter point out one more important, and frieghtening, historical statistic. "Three important times in our history the number of those voting has climbed over 45 percent — just before the election of Andrew Jackson, just before the election of Franklin D. Roosevelt, and now."

Their point is a major change in the American political system may be in the making. Jackson and Roosevelt were strong presidents and movers and shakers of the system.

The nation may not always be as lucky to come up with a Jackson or Roosevelt in a time of discontent. Hadley and Teeter show the two politicians the non-voters admire most are two from the opposite sides of the political spectrum — Edward Kennedy and George Wallace.

The tax cut fever in the wake of Proposition 13 is one manifestation of the voter's discontent.

If Hadley and Teeter are right, and there is growing evidence, they are, we had better start changing, in some reasonable fashion, our political system.

If we don't, and history repeats itself, the system will be changed by the 70 million voters who are intensely dissatisified with it.

council and have a chance to be heard. Wooten said he didn't beleive "a man elected to public office is superior to anyone else."

If there is a middle ground between Councilman David Barefield and some other members of the council, Council President Larry Albritton has been there a few times. Although usually siding with the council majority, Albritton has broken with the majority on several major votes.

He sided with Barefield on the department head ordinance and the vote on repayment of Chief Brooks' attorney fees. He also voted for a recreational ordinance which Mayor J. Marshall Davis vetoed. The veto was substained when Councilman Robert Britt and Kelley Phillips voted for it. The ordinance was later revised.

Albritton has been on the council for four years and this is his attempt for a third term.

Tataris, an employee of the Florida Power Corporation, is making his third try for a council seat. Tataris said the major issues facing the city are taxes, recreation, planning and economic development.

A member of the city's recreation and planning and zoning boards, he said the city needs to attract "good, clean insustry" and provide "better accomadations for tourists."

Tataris said he believes Avon Park has the land and environment which will attract the type of industry the city wants but a more aggressive approach was needed in attracting industry.

Challenger Paul Smith sounded similar themes in his campaign. Smith, a 15-year employee with the United Telephone Service, said jobs and city taxes were also important issues.

He said the council should try and encouraged new business to come to Avon Park which would create more jobs for citizens. Such a move would also broaden the tax base and reduce the chance of increasing taxes in the future. Another aide in reducing taxes would be eliminating any government waste.

Smith, who has served on the Avon Park Recreation Board, beleives the board should be expanded into a Parks and Recreation Board and be responsible for regulating all the city owned parks and recreational facilities.

A newcomer to city politics is Alex Whitbeck, the owner of Alex's Gulf Station on West Main Street.

In his first try for a council seat, Whitbeck said the promotioon of the downtown business area and attracting new businesses to Avon Park would be two of his major goals.

Whitbeck said the city needed to promote the downtown area more and attempt to get the area growing again. He also said greater effort should be made in the attempt to attract new businesses to the area.

Election

Democrat Bob Graham's 5,843 vote total. However, statewide, Graham, as expected, won the governor's race.

Local voters also backed Republican Ander Crenshaw in his race to become Secretary of State. Crenshaw pulled in over 6,700 votes to Democrat George Firestone's 5,018 votes. However, statewide Firestone claimed about 52 percent of the vote.

In the other two cabinet races county residents voted with the rest of the state giving heavy majorities to Incumbent State Treasurer Bill Gunter and Incumbent Education Commissioner Ralph Turlington over their respective opponents Jeffrey Latham and Herman Williams.

In the state senate race, Highlands residents backed the hometown candidate Andrew Jackson by a wide margin over his Democrat opponent Rep. Pat Neal of Bradenton.

Jackson won 8,215 votes to Neal's 3,590 votes in Highlands County. Still, the nearly 5,000 vote margin was not enough to overcome Neal's victories in other counties in the district and his margin in his home county of Manatee.

Neal will take over the state senate seat of retiring Senate Tom Gallen.

In the 75th Florida House district race, Highlands County voters joined with those in other counties to return Port Charlotte Republican Fred Burrall to a third term in Tallahassee.

Burrall defeated his Democratic opponent, Sebring educator Wayne Duncan, by a 5,076 to 3,386 margin in Highlands County by 18,833 to 9,720 total district-wide, in unofficial totals.

Highlands County residents in the 89th Florida House district joined with voters in other counties to return incumbent Republican Mary Ellen Hawkins to another term. The Highlands County vote was 412 votes for Hawkins to 258 for her Democratic opponent, Nelson A. Faerber Jr.

In district-wide voting, Hawkins defeated Faerber 17,631 to 6,354, according to unofficial totals.

In a reflection of the negative votes for all eight of the proposed constitutional revisions, Highlands County voters also voted against retention of all three of the judges of the District Court of Appeal; Judge Edward Boardman, Judge Paul Danahy and Judge Herboth S. Ryder.

All the votes were by approximately the same margin, about 700 more votes against retention than for.

prosecution on escape charges.

The escape followed on heels of Saturday's murder at APCI of Lawrence Williams, who was serving his third year of a 15-year sentence for manslaughter.

Williams, 60, allegedly was killed during an argument with fellow prisoner John Huff, 25, who hit Williams with a length of wood, according to other inmates who witnessed the incident, APCI Superintendent Sid Fortner reported.

Williams' body was taken to Lakeland for an autopsy after APCI staff Physician Dr. Lawrence Freeman pronounced him dead of head injuries.

The incident occurred in the Minimum security section of the prison, Fortner said.

Huff was serving a 20-year sentence for a Palm Beach County robbery. He now is in the Polk County jail facing a first degree murder charge.

Revision 7, another hodgepodge which would have provided tax breaks to some business as well as tying the homestead exemption to the Cost of Living Index, fell by a 79.1 percent 8,498 to 2,243 vote.

Finally, county voters rejected an appointed statewide school board, Revision 8, 8,067 to 2,599.

Although the percentages were less dramatic, all of the revisions also lost statewide.

Patrol Cars To Use New Radar Equipment Units

R-day will be at 8 a.m. Thursday morning, Nov. 9 when the Avon Park Police Department patrol cars will start using their new radar equipment, stated Police Chief Robert Brooks. The radar equipment is so sophisticated it is silent to fuzz-busters or radar detectors.

Police Chief Brooks is describing the new equipment said it consisted of two units, a hand held gun similar to older models and a unit which can check the speed of all moving vehicles in all directions, while the patrol car is moving.

The radar equipment has been certified by the state of Florida and is recognized by all of the courts in Florida. It is totally silent to all radar detectors.

As of Friday, Nov. 3 all Avon Park Police Officers have completed a course of certification and all are qualified to operate both types of radar, the Police Chief added.

So many complaints, have been received by the Police Department, of high speed and reckless driving on various city streets, said Chief brooks, that the new units were installed in the patrol cars.

The purpose of the speed control is in no way intended to be used as a speed trap, but only, Chief Brooks emphasized, to control excessive speed and reckless driving and make the city safe for everyone, especially in the school zones.

Mounted on the dash, the moving radar unit is plugged into the car's cigarette lighter socket. A readout unit shows the patrol car's speed and the speed of a violator's car in increments of one mile per hour. The system has an accuracy of plus or minus one half mile per hour.

The radar can pick up the front car of a pack of cars, avoiding cars behind or at the side. It's range is three quarter to one mile, but it has, on straight roads, picked up semi-trucks at two miles distant.

Another feature of the system is the electronic control module (ECM) unit that as acts as a slave unit. When plugged into the readout unit it also registers the speed of the violator, which can be locked in. When the ECM is detached the speed readout cannot be erased and the officer can carry the unit to the violator's car. The speed figure can only be erased when the ECM is plugged back into the main unit.

Sgt. Ron Smith said that it uses the doppler method of locking on the closest moving vehicle. It operates the same as the Navy radarscopes in figuring time and distance in calculating speed. It is so sensitive it can pick up a bicycle and calculate it's speed.

NEW RADAR EQUIPMENT will be placed into use at 8 a.m. Thursday Nov. 9 as the Avon Park Police Department seeks to curb excessive speed and reckless driving in all parts of the city. Sunphote by Lew Miller.

City To Receive Deed For Station Shortly

At the Avon Park Historical Society meeting held this week Rev. Herbert D. Graetz read a letter from John W. Thomas, operating Superintendent of the Seaboard Coastline Railroad, stating that shortly Avon Park would receive a deed for the railroad station structure and .41 acres of land on Michigan Avenue.

In his remarks Rev. Graetz, president of the Historical Society told the members at their annual meeting that the railroad station is a museum piece in itself and we want to make the Seaboard Coastline never regret having given it to the city.

At their annual meeting last year the group was enthusiastic about the station as a museum. But when time passed and nothing happened interest waned. Hearing Thomas's letter appeared to revive enthusiasm among the members present.

After last year's meeting a committee of Jane Barben, chairman, Fred Jahna and Ben Hill Griffin Jr. was appointed by the Avon Park City Council to work on the museum idea with their responsibility being to appoint other committees to be responsible for something, about the museum.

Why the railroad station as a museum when the building is in need of some repairs? When the idea came up of having a museum in Avon Park to house some of the history of the city, the Bandstand on the Mall was suggested. However it leaked after heavy rains and there was considerable dampness on the ground level floor.

A committee thought about leasing part of the railroad station for a museum. Then the society heard that the railroad was interested in getting rid of the station and there was the thought, of the possibilty, of getting the whole station for a museum.

In other business to come before the group Secretary Leoma Maxwell reported that 58 members had died during the past year. The oldest person at the meeting was Mrs. Charles Shephard [illegible] with Pete Boney at 85 years. Mamie Barnett Humphrey, who came to Avon Park in 1920, travelled the furtherest, coming 560 miles from Cedartown, Ga. Pete and Grace Boney have added to their goodness by being married the longest and Sadie Myers Brown has lived in Avon Park the longest, coming here with her parents in 1913.

In her report on the progress of the History of Avon Park Mrs. Maxwell told of having received 8 or 9 family photo albums and about 2000 pictures. Many of the pictures came from Cora Wray, who also completed the genealogy of numerous Avon Park families.

Mrs. Maxwell told the group that there were three histories of Avon Park. The first was written by Oliver M. Crosby, the founder of Avon Park. Samuel Lee's history was published in 1919. The third was written by Fenton, who obtained most of his material from Lee's history.

The book is expected to contain more pictures than written material, Mrs. Maxwell said. It is expected that part of it will be ready within the next six months, with as much work as possible being done locally.

The cost of printing and binding the book is expected to be about $10 at a minimum. High quality paper will be used for the pictorial history book.

To help finance the printing of the history it was suggested that people be asked to sponsor the book, with these gifts being tax deductible.

First Concert Of Season At SFJC

The Highlands County Community Concert Association will present the first concert of the 1978-79 Season on Thursday evening of this week, beginning at 8 p.m., in the new Community Auditorium at the South Florida Junior College, to an audience of over 800 music lovers.

Persons who have not yet purchased season tickets will be given the opportunity to do so before the concert on Thursday evening. The cost of season tickets is $12 for adults and $6 for students. Family memberships, including admission for any number of children are $25. Admission to all concerts will be by season tickets only.

The concerts scheduled for the Community Auditorium are "One Third Ninth" November 9; Ransom Wilson, Flutist, February 13; and "The New Christy Minstrels" on Sunday afternoon, March 18. Holders of season tickets will see listed three concerts in Lake Wales which they may attend free of charge, as follows: Albert McNeil Jubilee Singers, January 25; Eastern Brass Quintet, March 6; and Earl Rose, Pianist, March 23.

The first concert, this week, will be given by an instrumental trio — violin, piano and cello. Since their formation in 1970 the "One Third Ninth" has rapidly gained national and international recognition. All three members make their home in Calgary, Canada. Maintaining a schedule of over one hundred concerts a year, the Trio has performed throughout Canada and the United States.

Mosche Hammer, violinist, was raised and educated in Israel and he has studied, on scholarship, with Jascha Heifetz. In 1959 he played a special concert in honor of Elizabeth, Queen Mother of Belgium. He was formerly concertmaster of the Calgari Philharmonic.

Gloria Saarinen, pianist, was raised and educated in New Zealand, and received subsequent scholarships to study in London, Munich and Vienna. She has given recitals in Canada, Europe, the United States, Australia and New Zealand.

John Kadz, cellist, was raised in Los Angeles, but began his professional career in the Houston Symphony Orchestra. He was formerly principal cellist with the Calgary Philharmonic.

A music critic has said, "The incredible unity of One Third Ninth communicates instantly, and be it Bach or Stravinsky, they'll get the meaning of the music across. They are unpretentious, direct and forceful, able to make magnificently controlled music while being relaxed in presentation and manner."

John Kadz, Cellist; Gloria Saarinen, Pianist; Moshe Hammer, Violinist.

Jr. Women Extend Thanks For Help On Fashion Show

The Avon Park Jr. Woman's Club Fashion Show held at the new South Florida Junior College Auditorium Saturday, Nov. 4, is reported to have been a success. However, the club will not have the extra figures until all brochure ads have been paid. Pat Smith, Fashion Show chairman, stated that at this time the club has on record approximately $1000 with another $1500 in revenue expected.

The SFJC Auditorium is so lavious and spacious that one could get lost trying to find the stage from the many dressing rooms available.

The models were beautiful in their new fashions from stores in Avon Park, Sebring and Lake Placid. Children seemed to capture the hearts of the audience as they paraded in Winter fashions, just perfect for the holiday season ahead.

Pat Smith, mistresses of the Fashion Show kept things running smoothly throughout the affair. The young Highlanders under the direction of Evelyn Jones performance was outstanding.

Laurie Rehrer and Charles Carr gave a disco demostration, and was well received by the attendees.

Members form Fran's Lord and Lady Salon provided make-up services behind the scenes as well as the Hair Gallery in Sebring and Lake Placid, completed the professional look with a hair style to fit each personality.

There were many merchants involved in the Fashion Show and at the time of this writing, not all names were available, therefore the Jr. Woman's Club extends a sincere thank you to all those involved and helped make the Fashion Show a success.

Dog Bite Requires 18 Stitches To Close

A five - year - old Avon Park youngster needed 18 stitches to close up wounds made from a pitt bulldog last week.

Kevin Carpenter, of 1005 - A W. Morrill Street, was taken to Walker Memorial Hospital after being attacked by the dog. He was treated and released after doctors treated several severe lacerations and abrasions in his left leg.

According to the police report, Kevin was walking with Miss Charlotte Bohammon near the back door of the residence of Bobby and Mary Porter on Morrill Street.

Although the dog was on a chain it leaped at the boy and bit him in the left leg, the report said. Miss Bohammon kicked the dog and pulled the boy away from the pitt bull but not before the five-year-old had been badly bitten.

The Avon Park police took the dog into custody and it is presently under observation.

LESLIE DAVIS, a new hair stylist at Jackie's Beauty Salon.

Leslie Davis Joins Jackie's Beauty Salon

Leslie Davis is the new, pert, redhaired stylist at Jackie's Beauty Salon. Having moved to Avon Park from Bradenton, just a week ago, Leslie does a little of everything in the beauty salon, from cutting hair, shampoo and sets, styling, to manicures.

Leslie received her training at Manatee Vocational School and enjoys her profession very much. When asked why she came to the area, she stated that her new husband Brian had gotten a job as a supervisor at Wellcraft Marina. Leslie stated that she likes the town, and it seemed larger than what she expected. "The people have been very friendly," she said, "especially the elderly, whom I enjoy working with the most.

Leslie, as well as all the operators invite you to come in to the beauty salon for a complete new look, or if you perfer, just a shampoo and set. They are always there to help you with all your hair and beauty care needs.

ERA Developed Program

ERA, a nationwide home marketing service with more than 3,000 offices, has developed a unique four day management training program in which brokers develop skills in the selection and management of their sales associates.

Brokers at the ERA Management Seminar further develop their skills in offering the service provided by ERA through their sales associates. Through management techniques, the sales associates more effectively present the Home Buyers Protection Plan and Home Sellers Protection — two warranties designed to cover the breakdown of major components of the home.

Managers also learn how to direct their sales associates to a more successful career using ERA's National Relocation System which features the "Moving Machine," a photo-by-wire machine which enables prospective buyers to see six photos of homes anywhere in the country in just six minutes.

JOHN MORRIS, right, Broker at the John Morris Real Estate on U.S. Hwy. 27 N. Avon Park, Florida, is being congratulated by Jim Marshall, ERA's National Training Coordinator, for completing the management program held in Kansa City, Mo.

News

Hallie Wetmore celebrated her birthday on October 31, with a dinner at the Black Forest near Lake Wales and an evening party at the home of Grace Warner attended by Lawrence and Ruth Robinson, Rosa Walton and Dorothy Gruber.

Aileen and Duke Christen joined a group from Sebring and Lake Placid for an evening of fun and good food at the Old Heidelberg in Sarasota last week.

Henrietta and Otto Kroeger celebrated their 55th. Wedding Anniversary while home this summer. They report a very busy summer with Otto Remodeling their home and Henrietta having had surgery on a foot.

Dorothy Gruber had her daughter and her family with her last week. John Williams reports "Last month after spending my first summer in Avon Park, my son and I drove up to my home in La Porte, Ind. My other son who handles the peach and apple orchards which I started setting in 1914 was nearly thru with the peach crop and had just started marketing the apples. I really enjoyed driving thru these orchards, some of which were set in before I came to Avon Park in 1949. This farm has been in our family for one hundred years. I surely miss being there especially at this time of year."

Ross and Ern Carlson spent 18 days of July in Spain and Portugual. One visits Spain reading its past in architecture and history like a Gypsy reads tea leaves to see the future. It is like one huge museum with its vast cathedrals and palaces; once a prosperous mixture of Christians, Jews, Moors and Romans. Portugual was like a picture post card. The weather like the people was sunny and delightful but so at unrest politically between the Communists and Conservatives. They swam in the Mediterranean and the Atlantic; walked the narrow twisting streets of cobblestone and survived the fierce black Spanish coffee and hard rolls. They loved the marripan and flan and learned to eat dinner between 8 and 10 p.m., and escaped Montezuma's Revenge or the Aztec Twostep.

Crafts

The first craft class of the season was well attended, 33 members being present. Hallie Wetmore told the class of the various crafts on the calendar for 1978-1979. The first are dancing dolls and ornamented yard stick covers. The dolls are pretty toys made from pipe cleaners and beads. They will dance on many Christmas trees this year. The yard stick covers are trimmed with fancy felt floral designs and will grace many sewing room walls. Many more projects are on the program. Dolls and covers will be made at the next 2 classes. Them a new project, sun hats, will be started. These are fashioned from gallon Clorox bottles and nylon. Members are asked to bring in these bottles whether they are making the hats or not as many are needed. A beautiful hat made from a plastic bottle sounds crazy but one must see one to believe it.

Hospital Report

As of November 2, we have Mrs. Howard Smith, Helen Floyd and Anna Manegold still in Walker Memorial Hospital.

Membership as of Nov. 2, 1978 is 195.

Members returning from their homes in the north: George and Lucy Mac Donald, Helen Smith, William and Louise Bell, Nora Werner, Clyde and Lucille Getchell, George Wilson, Robert and Rachel Kirby, Ernest and Evelyn Rouget, Francis and Ruth Stikes, Bertha Montgomery, Meredith and Edith Reany, Edith Kinsler, Clarence and Cecile Higgs, Minnie Swanson, Virginia Di Laura, Marie Lizotte, Amber Coates, Lahr and Bernice Wilder, Karl and Dorothy Hart and Louie Reisner. New members this week: Sam and Reva Lewis and Arthur and Elner Worcester from Ohio.

Thanks from your Summer Reporter.

I wish to thank all of you who sent news this summer. I enjoyed receiving news of your trips and summer in the north and was happy to pass it on to the other club members. Thresa Bayes will be reporting to the SUN so I hope you all will help her this winter. Illeon Kull.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home Park News

By Margie Wells

This past week a number of our residents arrived for the winter. These included Jessie Gulliver, Dorothy and Carl Hart, Jean and Mac McDougall, Grace and Lee McFrederick, Doris and Roy Mizer, Alice and Cecil Pixley, Anna and Sam Ruggeri, Della and Raymond Sproles, Margaret and Harry Young, and Mary and Paul Zwayer. We all say "Welcome Back". It's so nice seeing you again.

Our president, Howard Mallinger, is calling to our attention that the first meeting of the Federation of Mobile Home Owners, District No. 1, for the 1978 - 79 season will be held at the Florida Citrus Dome, State Road 540 and Highway 17 in Winter Haven, on Thursday, November 9th, at 10 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. Members and guests are invited to attend.

Howard has also announced that our Bonnie Brae meeting will be held in our Rec. Hall after coffee hour at approximately 10 a.m. on November 22nd. All Mobile Home Owners and non-members are invited to be present. The agenda will be a full report of the District Meeting and the election of officers for the 1978-79 season.

Helen Dyce and Ellen Reichenbaugh were hostesses at our coffee hour on Wednesday with 40 residents in attendance. The McFredericks (Grace and Lee) and the Sproles (Della and Raymond) were welcomed back. A vote of thanks was given to Dan Bohland and Howard Mallinger for the new work cabinet in our rec hall. Dan donated the lumber and Howard built the cabinet. Lorrained Robertson was thanked for her donation of a pound of coffee for our coffee hour. Emily Webster entertained the group with her dissertation on "Grandmothers." It looks as if we will be having a full house at our coffee hour soon and you're missing a lot of fun if you don't come out for this event.

Charles Aitken of Flemingsburg, Kentucky, was an overnight visitor of Margie and P.D. Wells on Thursday. Charles and P.D. are first cousins. They enjoyed a game of golf at River Greens during his visit.

Everyone would like to thank the citiy of Avon Park and its officials for the installation of a new street light in our new section. It is a big help on these dark nights.

Jayvees Top Sebring For Perfect Season

The undefeated Avon Park Red Devils junior varsity football team, coached by Hoppy Rewis and Joe Baker, defeated Sebring for the second time this season to post its seventh straight victory here at Memorial Field last Thursday night.

The Devil "Bees" used a devastating ground game to score three touchdowns and displayed a tenacious defense to hold the baby Blue Streaks to a long TD to rack up the 30-6 win.

Tonight (Thursday) the Avon Park junior varsity will travel to Okeechobee for its final game of the season against the Brahman jayvees. A win tonight would give the Devil "Bees," a perfect season.

Taking advantage of excellent offensive blocking , Devil backs Larry Jackson, Billy Bolden, Ronnie Barnes and Dwayne Council combined to rush for a total of 326 yards against the Blue Streaks. Jackson was the leading ground gainer for Avon Park as he picked up 154 yards with 19 carries and scored one TD. Ronnie Barnes rushed for 79 yards with only 5 carries and also scored one touchdown. Billy Bolden scored two touchdowns and gained 53 yards with 10 totes. Quarterback Dwayne Council also had a good night running the ball as he picked up 36 yards with three carries. Raymond Claitt added two yards and Jerry Jones contributed two yards to the Devil offensive effort.

The Avon Park offensive line, which has improved steadily each game, opened the holes all night for the backs to scoot through. The line is anchored in the middle by center Steve Godfrey with guard Ricky Oates, tackle Allen Liskey and end Ricky Derkman on the right side. The left end is Chris Collins and the left tackle is Kenny Cribb with Tommy Turnbull and Todd Bennett alternating each play at the left guard slot. Turnbull and Bennett carry in the offensive plays from the sideline.

Last Thursday night the Red Devil offense scored every time it had the ball except when time ran out in the first half and at the end of the game. The Devil "Bees" took the opening kick-off and drove fifty-nine yards on the ground for their first touchdown. It took eleven plays and about five minutes for them to get on the score board. Billy Bolden slashed through the line from one yard out for the opening T D but the run for the two point conversion by Larry Jackson was stopped short.

Sebring came right back and drove seventy-four yards to tie the score at 6-6. A forty-eight yard pass play from Eddie Freeland to Henry Lippett highlighted the lone scoring drive. Lippett took the ball in for the score from four yards out but a pass attempt for the extra points was no good.

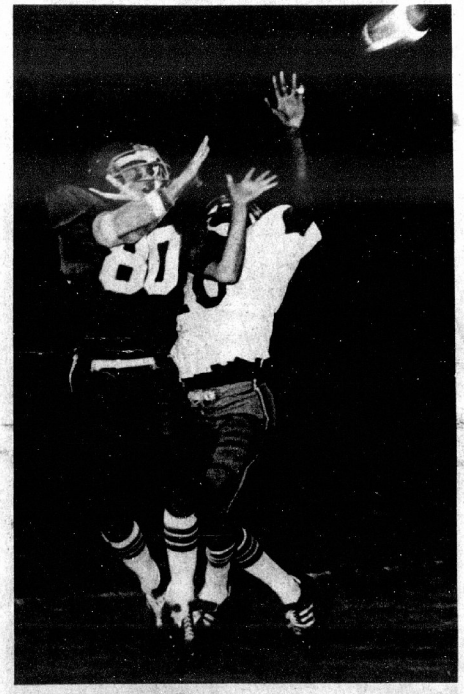

Avon Park started its next scoring drive on the Streak 33-yard line late in the first period. Moving relentlessly on the ground, the Devil offense marched the sixty-seven yards for the score with the aid of a five yard penalty against the Streaks. Again it was Bolden who blasted in for the touchdown from one yard out. However, Jackson and Barnes had combined with Bolden to move the ball to the goal line. Larry Jackson slipped through off right tackle for the two point conversion run given Avon Park a 14-6 lead.

It looked like the Blue Streaks would score again before the half ended but a long drive ended on the Avon Park 11-yard line when the Devil defense stiffened and held for four downs. A 22-yard run by quarterback Dwayne Council ended the half as time ran out. Sebring had rushed for a net 66 yards and passed for 48 yards but had only 6 points on the board.

As has been customary for the Devil "Bees", the defense really got tough in the second half. Sebring managed only 17 net yards rushing in the second half and completed one 20 yard pass. The Streaks deepest threat came in the final quarter when Darryl Love returned a kick-off to the Avon Park thirty yard marker only to have the Devils hold for four downs without giving up a first down.

Avon Park's third TD came midway in the third quarter. The score came on a 70-yard drive that was climaxed by a thrilling 29-yard run by tailback Larry

Wildcats Devour Red Devils In Fourth Quarter Runaway

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

In a football game sometimes one big play can make or break a team.

One such football game was the one last Friday night between Avon Park and Wauchula.

The big play was a 68-yard punt return by Wildcat Tight End Zeke Mowatt with 8:05 left in the game. The play made the game for the Wildcats and broke the Red Devils.

Mowatt, a six-foot two - inch 210 pound tight end for the Wildcats, took the Red Devil punt on the Wildcat 31 yard line, let three Red Devil defenders bounce off him, broke a fourth tackle and rumbled virtually untouched for nearly 50 yards for the second Wildcat touchdown of the night.

The score, when the extra point was added, put Wauchula ahead 14-7. It was the first time the Wildcats had led in the game but it was to be the last time Avon Park would be within a touchdown of the lead.

After the long punt, which happened while the Red Devils still ahead by a slim 7-6 margin, the Avon Park team seemed to fall apart.

All total Wauchula came back for two more touchdowns after the punt return for a 22-point fourth quarter and a 28-7 win over the Red Devils.

With 4:39 left in the game Wildcat Running Back Levi Rivers, who rushed for 102 yards in the game, slipped through red-shirted defenders for nine yards and the third Wauchula touchdown.

A few plays later Thurman Low intercepted a Red Devil pass and ran 10 yards for the Wildcats fourth and final touchdown. The win put the Wildcats as the undisputed leader in the Heartland Conference and spoiled the Red Devil three game winning straight. The Red Devils now have a 5-3 record.

Until the Wildcats broke the game open in the fourth quarter, it had been a defensive battle with each team scoring only once.

Avon Park seemed to be playing its best game of the season. Although fumbles had plagued the offense all season, the Red Devils played almost flawless football for three quarters. All fumbles and penalties seemed to be called on the Wildcats.

The Red Devil defense, at least for the first three quarters, kept the powerful Wildcats bottled up, giving them leeway only between the 30 yard lines.

The Red Devils defense opened the first big break of the game when they put on a heavy rush on the Wauchula punter early in the first quarter and partially blocked the punt. The Wildcats recovered but the Red Devils took control deep in Wildcat territory.

Avon Park drove down inside the Wauchula ten and, on a fourth and goal, Ricky Bivens raced five yards around left end to score the game's first touchdown.

The extra point was good and Avon Park led 7-0.

The Wildcats came back in the second quarter and, with a series of rushing and passing plays, put the ball inside the Red Devil 20.

The touchdown play came on a 15-yard pass from Quarterback Robert Collins to Calvin Johnson.

However, on the point after touchdown attempt, which was another Collins pass, a Avon Park defender charged into the backfield and slammed into Collins before he could get the ball in the air.

The play preserved an 7-6 Avon Park lead.

The one point lead held for the third quarter where both teams traded punts but neither could get within scoring positions. Both Avon Park and Wauchula found the going rough as the defenses of both teams dominated the play.

The Red Devil defense held Wauchula close to midfield for most of the quarter but the Wildcats defense also throttled the Avon Park offense and managed to push the Red Devils deeper into their own territory.

The ill-fated punt came with just over eight minutes to play in the game. Molwatt hauled the kick in with three Red Devil defenders on top of him. However, he evaded them, cut to his right, and took the sideline route to complete a 69-yard run to score Wauchula's second touchdown.

The run seemed to take the life out of the Red Devils. They could not put together a good offensive series and had to punt on their next possession.

The Wildcats took the ball and drove through the dispirited Red Devils to make it 21-7 with four-and-a-half minutes left to play.

On the next series of downs Quarterback Decaris Jones threw a weak pass which was grabbed by a Wauchula defender on the Red Devil 10 and ran in for a touchdown. The inteception cinched the game for the Wildcats 28-7.

The loss gives the Red Devils a 5-3 record overall and a 2-1 record in the conference.

This week, in the Homecoming matchup, Avon Park will play Okeechobee at Avon Park. Okeechobee, another conference team, has a 1-7 record this year.

Homecoming BBQ

Thinclads Place 2nd In Tough Rotary Meet Field

Clearwater Central Catholic won its third straight Rotary Invitational Cross Country title here last Thursday as they outdid a seven team field in the boys division.

Trinity Prep, of Orlando, annexed the girls title in the first time a girls' division has been run in the Rotary meet.

Avon Park Rotary representative Jim Brooks presented the trophies to Clearwater and runners-up Avon Park in the boys contest. Awards were also handed out to Trinity Prep and Clearwater in the girls race.

Trophies and ribbons were provided by the local service club for seventh year in a row. Over 150 youngsters displayed their running talents over the difficult Avon Park course.

Scott Sheffler, of Clewiston, shattered the local course record by 23 seconds. The old course standard of 14:54, set by Sheffler in September was lowered to 14:31. The effort ranks as the finest distance race ever run in Avon Park, according to Red Devil Coach Chet Brojek.

"I really can't believe that this record will be broken by any other area high school runner. Scott is the best I've seen in my 12 years of coaching," he said.

Second place went to Paul McNaulty of Trinity Prep who finished almost a minute behind Sheffler's winning time.

Alan Portis led his Devil teammates with his sixth place finish in 15:54. He was a mere three seconds of the local school record for the Avon Park course set by Alphonso Williams in 1976. The 15:54 was a personal best for the hard working Devil captain.

The next five Devil finishers also established personal bests in what Brojek described as an "outstanding team effort."

Mark Myers sped home in 16:07 to improve his personal best by 37 seconds. David Rhodes kicked to a 16:44 clocking. Jody Johnston and Jeff Henly, to sophmores, ran 17:25 and 17:35 respectively. Steve Brown ran a superb 17:52 for his first time ever under the 18 minute mark. Jerry McKenzie, the other Devil team captain, hobbled by a knee injury, struggled home 36th.

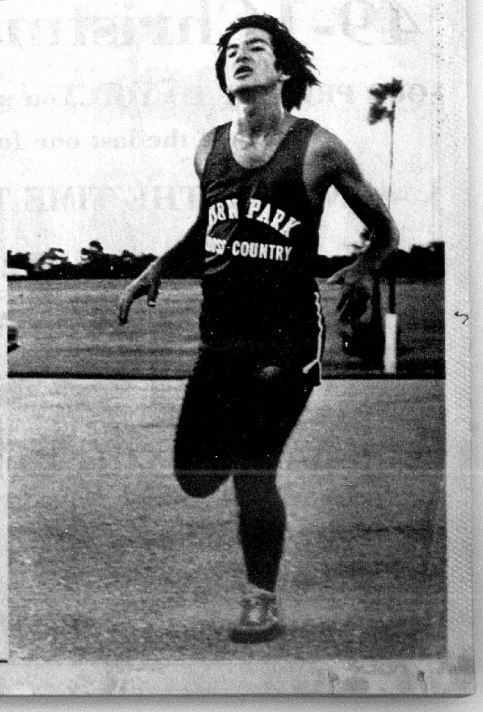

"I can't say enough about the super efforts the kids put forth today. The victory margin of Clearwater was misleading in that had McKenzie been well, we would have been within 10 to 15 points of them," Brojek said.

Team totals in the boys division of the Rotary contest were Clearwater 29, Avon Park 62, St. Cloud 88, Trinity Prep 106, Clewiston 110, Evangelical Christian 144, and Santa Fe 84.

In the girls race, Trinity Prep ran away with the championship, with Clearwater Catholic taking the runner-up trophy. The Avon Park team finished fourth with five performances from all members.

Nancy Turnbull was the top teammate with a 13:29 clock. The time established her as the school record holder because this was the first time the course had been run.

Patty Belcher, Laurie Welch, Brenda Brooker and Linda Rowe all showed fine efforts for their 4th place team finish.

Straining To Win

ALAN PORTIS lunges across the finish line to place sixth in the star-studded field at the Avon Park Rotary Invitational Cross Country meet held here last Thursday. Portis' 15:54 was Avon Park's best and was good enough to help the Red Devils to a second place finish behind top-ranked Clearwater Central Catholic. Sunphoto by Bruce Henderson.

5,000 Meter Striders Run Sunday

The Central Florida Striders Runners Club will host a 5,000 meter run here Sunday morning Nov. 12 at 9 a.m. The 3.1 mile race on the high school cross-country course will feature age division races for men 13 and under, 14-17, 18-29, 30-39 and 40 and up. Women will have their own division.

A one mile run will be held following the 5,000 meter contest. Awards include a trophy for first in each age division and ribbons for second, third and fourth.

Entry fee for the 5,000 meter race is $1. The fun run has no entry fee. Both races will begin and end in front of Avon Park High School.

Avon Park, Clearwater Favored In District

Avon Park High School's boys' cross country team will be one of the favorites in the District 5 Class AA championship which will be hosted by the Red Devils here this Saturday at 11 a.m.

Clearwater Central Catholic, St. Cloud, Santa Fe, Frostproof, Evangelical Christian and Indian River Academy will challenge the local thinclads for district honors.

The top three teams and top five individuals will advance to the state championships to be held next Saturday, Nov. 18, in Jacksonville.

Clearwater enters the meet as the odds on favorite based on its three victories over the Red Devils in earlier season contests. Central Catholic won last week's Avon Park Rotary Invitational, but the Red Devil harriers finished a strong second in a talented field.

Top efforts from Alan Portis, Mark Myers, David Rhodes, Jody Johnston, Jeff Henly, Steve Brown and Billy Barben are expected by Coach Chet Brojek.

Jerry McKenzie, one of the local team's top performers, has been bothered by a knee aliment for the past two weeks and is listed as doubtful for the district meet, Brojek said.

"We would love to have Jerry ready for the meet, but we will hold him out for the state race if he isn't better by Thursday," Brojek said. "Having your number two man out puts a lot of pressure on the others to go even harder to fill the gap. We will just keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best."

The race will begin and end in the student parking lot at APHS on Bombing Range Road. Awards will be presented following the race to the top two teams and the top 10 individual runners.

"I know it would help our kids' performance if lots of fans came out to cheer them on," Brojek said.

Jackson. Following the blocking of Bolden and Barnes, Jackson slipped tackle after tackle to race through the Streak secondary into the end zone for the score. Jackson also ran the extra points to account for 10 of Avon Park's points.

Early in the final quarter, the Avon Park offense slipped into gear once more and sped 88 yards for its final score. Jackson started it off with a thirty yard scamper. Then Bolden picked up eleven more and a fifteen yarder was tacked on the end of the run because of a face mask penalty. Jackson shot through for a fifteen yard gain that put the ball on the Streak 34-yard line. From that point, Ronnie Barnes took over and raced into the end zone after slipping several tackles to break loose from the Sebring defenders. A pass from Council to end Chris Collins was good for the final two points giving Avon Park the 30-6 victory.

Coach Rewis cleared his bench in the last half of the fourth quarter giving the Devil reserves a chance to move the ball some seventy yards to the Sebring ten before time ran out.

AVON PARK's defense brings down this Wauchula running back after he gains only a few yards. A Box Of Apples For The Teacher

"Cast the thy bread upon the waters and it will return after many days," appears to fit the experience of Benjamin Nelson seventh grade Language Arts teacher at the Avon Park Middle School. This is Nelson's third year at the middle school and he commutes from his Lake Placid home.

An eighth grade migrant student, Laura Weatherspoon, who was in one of Nelson's 6th and 7th grade classes, sent him a bushel box of fancy grade Starks red delicious apples from Sodus, N.Y.

Nelson described Laura as a congenial student and expects the family to return to Avon Park about Thanksgiving time, which is when they usually returned.

River Greens Notes

By Bob Elgin

Women seem to keep control of their temper much better than men, while playing golf. When I think back I can remember some pretty bad examples of lost tempers and they were all men. Have been thinking of starting a big contest. Probable contest name "The madest golfer". How about searching your memory and if you come up with a good violent incident short of murder, write it and drop it in the box at the clubhouse. Here is an example to start you off.

Way back, in a small town in Iowa, a local merchant who had more than a local reputation for a 10 second temper decided to take up golf. He joined the local club, bought a set of clubs and started to take some lessons. He did so well he decided to try playing the course. Since he wanted to play by himself, he went to the course early in the morning. We bogied the first two holes. Then came the third hole, 145 yards, about 125 yards over water. Carefully he teed up the ball and swung while thinking about his lessons. He half topped the ball, and it sailed into the water. Taking another ball, he sliced it into the water. He took a careful look around to be sure no one was watching, then slowly and deliberately hit the rest of his dozen balls into the water. Then he carried the bag and clubs down to the edge of the water and threw them as far as he could into the water, turned and walked to the clubhouse.

He never gave golf a second chance. Maybe it was better that way.

Ladies Day, October 31. 32 players. Blind Holes. First, tie. Norma Stoecker & Marian Rouiller. Second, tie. Mary Ellen Kline & Fran Hoogterp.

Pinecrest Golf Notes

The ladies began their first round matches in their Ladies handicap club championship tournament, which will last thru November 16.

Good news for green fee players. Last year Pinecrest raised the green fees on weekends, as most courses do. This year they will maintain their $6 green fee throughout the week.

Seeding the fairways and greens with rye grass has been completed. All that is needed now is a nice gentle rain and everything will be green for the winter season.

A very likeable, friendly couple have bought a home in Avon Park. They are Evelyn and Chet Moore from the town Green Bay Packers made famous. They say the Packers are almost a religion in Green Bay. They also say the winters are cold and long, which is one reason they are in Avon Park and golfing at Pinecrest.

Chet was production manager for a steel stamping firm. His sports were trap shooting, and bowling. Evelyn's sports were bowling and golf at which she won a good many "cups and saucers". So they compromised. They play golf. They both say they want to be outdoors walking in the sunshine.

Men's best ball handicap, two man teams. 19 teams playing. First - Joe Baker & Ab Wester, 24 under. Second - Scoop Backus and Arlie Clark, 23 under. Third - Charlton Melear & Glen Wise, 15 under. Fourth - Gussie Sullivan & Hank Maeder, 14 under. Fifth - Earl Griffith & Ron Wenrick, 13 under. Griffith and Wenrick won a 3 hole playoff with John Giddens and Smokey Padgett who tied them at 13 under.

Ladies Best Ball with handicap. 8 teams play. First - Mildred Ford & Lena Wright, 13 under. Second - Gert Clark & Ida Variano, 9 under.

Ladies Pro Am, October 31. Team winners +4. Nell Redd, Kay Giddens, Edith Godwin. Individual Winners - A tie, Nell Redd & Gladys Bassett +4. 'B' Kay Giddnt +2. 'C' tie, Lenna Conn & Inez Sullivan +1.

Ladies Day, November 2. Blind Bogey Inez Sullivan. Fewest Putts-Barbara Sachsenmaier, 25.

Antlerless Deer Hunts Approved In Game Areas

An emergency antlerless deer hunt was approved by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission for the 29,000-acre Rotenberger Wildlife Management Area in Palm Beach County.

"It appears an emergency situation has developed on the Rotenberger Area this year," said Col. Robert M. Brantly, Commission executive director. "Abnormally high water levels, coupled with high deer densities, are responsible for the problem. An antlerless deer hunt is necessary to salvage the deer that will otherwise die from acute parasitism caused by these conditions."

The Commission also amended a rule to permit the harvest of either sex deer (except spotted fawns) on approximately 5,000 acres in the western portion of Camp Blanding Wildlife Wildlife Management Area. Applications for the hunt will be available Dec. 1, from the Lake City Regional Office along with Duval and Clay Counties tax collectors' offices. Drawings will be held in late December.

These one-day hunts will have a quota of 100 hunters per day, said Brantly. "The hunt is being held because of impending strip mining operations which will severely limit both habitat and food supplies."

In another overpopulation case, the Commission approved the establishment of several additional antlerless deer hunting areas in four counties, Gadsden, Lake, Duval and St. Lucie. These hunts, to take place during specified periods of the 1978-79 season, are needed to reduce the overpopulations where herds have outgrown their habitat's carrying capacity, Brantly explained.

The antlerless deer hunts are to be conducted on the lands of the Havana Hunt Club in Gadsden County (40 permits), the Woodberry Hunt Club in Gadsden County (35 permits), Magnolia Farms in Gadsden County (35 permits), the E.K. Ranch in Lake County (50 permits), the McCormick Ranch in Duval County (25 permits), and the Peacock Ranch in St. Lucie County (30 permits). Each permit allows the harvesting of one antlerless deer by club members or their guests.

The Commissioners also approved: spring gobbler hunts scheduled for March 14-15, 21-22 and 28-29, 1979, on the Camp Blanding Wildlife Management Area. A quota of 40 hunters will be permitted for each hunt which will be limited to shotguns, bows and muzzleloader weapons.

— A change in the regulations for the J.W. Corbett Wildlife Management Area permitting the use of vehicles and dogs in a 2,000 - acre walk-in area. Camping would also be permitted there, adjacent to designated roads.

— The taking of one hog per vechile on the last day of the 1978-79 general hunting season in Conservation Area 3 of the Everglades Wildlife Management Area.

— The changing of the dates for fox, raccoon and bobcat hunting on the Blackwater Wildlife Management Area and permitting the use of dogs for deer hunting during Nov. 25 through Dec. 3 in that portion of the still hunt area south of State Road 4 and east of State Road 191.

Among the other items acted on was the approval in principle of a rule prohibiting fishing in portions of Lake George. This rule is proposed for final consideration at the December meeting and will provide for the continued existence of two relatively small (approximately one square mile) fish refuges in Lake George. These areas will be closed to fishing during February and March.

The next meeting of the Commission will be held in West Palm Beach on Dec. 1.

Society To Meet Nov. 13

Ridge Audubon Society will open its 1978-79 season with a real "live" program on Monday, November 13, with a luncheon meeting at the Black Forest Restaurant, on U.S. Highway 27, about 4½ miles south of Lake Wales. Lunches are $3.45 without dessert. Pay as you come in. Time 12 noon.

Doris Mager, U.P. of Raptor Research & Rehabilitation for Florida Audubon, will present the program, titled; "The life and future of the Southern Bald Eagle." Doris will have a real "live" eagle for the members to see! Don't miss it. Doris has been a member of Audubon for 16 years and is currently engaged in educational projects.

City Library Scene Of Art Classes

An art class organized under the direction of Sr. Woman's Club President, Margaret Bush is well underway. The class meets each Friday from 9 a.m. until 12 noon in the Avon Park City Library. Having begun on October 6, the class will continue until mid-December.

Charles Holder, a well known artist from St. Petersburg is the instructor for this class. Most of the participants in the art class have dabbled in the world of arts before, however Mildred Tissot is a newcomer to the field and is reported to be progressing quite well.

Margaret Bush and Ercel Bennett, heard about Mr. Holder's art classes from a Wauchula newspaper, attended classes there, and encouraged the Sr. Woman's Club to sponsor a program in Avon Park.

Carolyn Moore, librarian, graciously encouraged the ladies to use the library for this activity, which has worked out very well for all involved. Some of the budding painters try their artistic approach in oils while others used acrylics.

Having traveled from St. Petersburg, Mr. Holder conducts many classes over south central and parts of the west coast of Florida. Margaret stated that it was necessary to have at least 11 people in the class before the art instructor would teach the class. A fee of $50 per person is charged for a series of 10 lessons, with each lesson duration of three hours. Each artist provides their own materials and easels.

Having some very beautiful works of art in oils, Mr. Holder's best medium is acrylics, according to Ercel, who is in her second series of lessons with Holder. In her first series, she painted a portrait of her husband, Harry Bennett, Chaplain at Walker Memorial Hospital. She is working on a portrait of her granddaughter in this series.

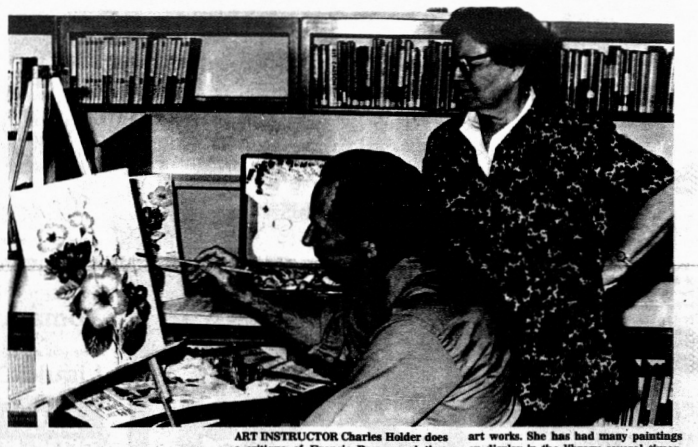

Margaret also stated that the Sr. Woman's Club hopes to have other art lessons under the direction of Charles Holder, beginning in early January, 1979. She continued by saying that the classes would probably take place in the Woman's Club Building, and at least 11 people would have to participate in the lessons before Mr. Holder could come to the area.

Anyone interested in taking the art classes may contact St. Woman's Club President, Margaret Bush, or call the City Librarian, Carolyn Moore at 453-4842.

ERCEL BENNETT is in her second series of art lessons under the direction of Charles Holder. She completed one session in Wauchula where she painted a portrait of her husband. In this series she is painting a portrait of her granddaughter.

MILDRED TISSOT, is a newcomer to the world of painting, but is progressing very well.

ART INSTRUCTOR Charles Holder does a critique of Francis Barnes painting. Francis is not new to the area with her art works. She has had many paintings on display in the library several times.

MILDRED MCMILLIAN, has just completed the above beautiful fall scene painting.

Ridge Rollaway Square And Round Dance Club Perform Locally

Only ten miles south of Avon Park on Highway 27 is our neighbor, the Town of Sebring, as you all know. But did you know that it is home base for a most active and friendly crowd known as The Ridge Rollaway Square and Round Dance Club. Altho you don't live in Sebring, the welcome mat is always out to everyone to come share our fun, whether you join the Club or only come as a guest dancer.

Square Dancing is the quickest way to make wonderful friendships whether you have lived here always or are a newcomer to the area. No matter whether you are a teenager or have grandchildren, if you like music, you will enjoy dancing to the Club's favorite caller, "Lefty" Tidd as he sings both old and new ballads and pop tunes as written for each dance. Plus — for no extra charge — you get super exercise thru the brisk and not-so-brisk pace of walking thru the figures of each dance.

Not only do the members of The Ridge Rollaway Square & Round Dance Club have fun for themselves; but they also take great pleasure in including others in that fun too. For instance, last spring two squares from the Club went to Palm Manor, a retirement home in Sebring, to put on a demonstration dance for the residents there. They did it again very recently when another two squares volunteered their time to dance for the people at Hillcrest Nursing Home in Avon Park.

For those who danced, it seemed such a small thing to contribute; however, the real pleasure derived by the audiences from both these homes was very much in evidence. Many said they had not had anything as exciting and entertaining happen for such a long time; and quite a few eagerly admitted to having been square dancers themselves years ago. One lovely elderly lady in a wheel chair, with a happy far away look in her eyes, spoke softly to one of the Club members of how she used to love to waltz all evening long years ago.

At Palm Manor, Caller "Lefty" Tidd invited any of the onlookers to walk thru a few of the simple figures with an experienced dancer for a partner. He then put the whole thing to music so that suddenly, and much to their delight, these young-at-heart folks discovered they were actually dancing. We hope the memories of these two merry evenings of music and dancing will remain a long time in the memory of those for whom we danced, and we shall be back.

Beside the regular Wednesday night 7:30 p.m. workshop and dance held at the new Sebring Civic Center located behind the Sebring Library off Lakeview Drive on Lake Jackson, the Club has been holding special easy fun-level mainstream dances at Thee Pier next to the Civic Center on two Saturday nights in the month with dates announce ahead. These latter evenings have been enthusiastically attended particularly by people who have not had a chance to dance during the summer months.

There is not in session, a class of beginning square dancers instructed by "Lefty" Tidd, and this class is also open to any dancers looking to brush up on their Basics or just wanting the practice of the evening's instruction.

The newest happy development has to do with Round Dancing which is an intrical part of a well rounded square dance evening. The Club has been fortunate enough to acquire the services of Lt. Col. Ret. "Jim" Runnels and his lovely wife, Jennie who come all the way from So. Lakeland to Sebring to teach Round Dancing to beginners, and cue and teach easy and classic Rounds to those who know their basics.

At present this group meets Sundays at 6 p.m., at Thee Pier in Sebring, the first half of the evening for beginners and the balance for dancers. Since this program is just starting, beginners may sign up for the course thru Sunday, Nov. 19, when of necessity registration for beginners only will close.

Round Dancers are cordially invited to attend whenever they can. For those who do not know what Round Dancing is, it is people dancing as couples around the perimeter of the floor, to a set pattern of music and set pattern of steps which include two steps, waltzes, polkas, cha cha, and many more of the familiar ballroom rhythms. It is a lovely sight to see as couples swing and sway in unison. All interested people may obtain full information at the regular class night Sundays, or the Wednesday night square dance.

The Club is always happy to welcome visitors who wish to come and watch the dancing and see the ladies lovely in their colorful and swirling dresses and their partners in matching or coordinating attire. You just might be tempted to become involved.

Florida Southern College To Construct Center

Florida Southern College has received a grant of $550,000 to construct a communications center for the College's growing journalism and student publications programs, according to Dr. Robert A. Davis, College president.

The grant, explains Davis, was made to the College by an anonymous foundation "interested in Florida Southern as an institution committed to the goals of Christian higher education. The foundation's trustees feel there is a real need for educating the future leaders of journalism and other academic areas in the moral values and commitments represented by Florida Southern as a church-related college," Davis says.

The new communications center, to be located on the site of the Lang Building on the College's west campus, will include classrooms and faculty offices, a newsroom for the student newspaper, offices for the College yearbook, darkroom facilities, and radio and television studios and production areas. Designed by Nils Schweizer of Schweizer Associates, Inc., Orlando, the center will include 10,223 square feet in three connected buildings. College officials hope to be able to construct all three buildings should construction bids not exceed the estimated cost of $550,000.

Peliminary plans for the center were presented to the College's Board of Trustees last year. Approval of the final plans and the authorization to advertise for construction bids is expected to come at the Trustees annual fall meeting this month. Although a construction timetable has not been approved at this time, College officials expect construction to begin in early 1979 with completion of at least one of the three buildings in time for the opening of classes next fall.

Heading Florida Southern's communications program is Hal Waters, who describes the center as "a dream come true. The new facilities open up so many exciting possibilities for us in every area of communications," he says. "We are grateful to the foundation trustees who recognize the importance of the Christian ethic in the professional preparation of those students who will someday be leaders in the increasingly important communications industry."

Waters also stressed the need for the new facility. The communications program has more than tripled in student enrollment in the last ten years. In 1968 27 students were majoring in communications and 56 students were taking elective classes in the program. This fall, 78 students were majoring and 560 students were taking electives classes in the program. "We have simply outgrown our current facilities," Waters points out. The program is currently housed in a converted two-story house, the Lang Building.

Florida Southern is a four-year, liberal arts college affiliated with the Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church. The College currently has a capacity enrollment of 1830 students. Founded in 1885, Florida Southern is the oldest private college in Florida.

J.C. Penney Awards Grants To Institutions

The J.C. Penney Company, Inc., has awarded a $1,400 corporate grant to the 11 institutions of the Florida Independent College Foundation, according to Dr. Robert A. Davis, president of Florida Southern College and the F.I.C.F. Foundation.

The grant, part of nearly $90,000 being distributed by J.C. Penney to educational foundations this year, will be divided among the F.I.C.F. colleges, including Barry College, Biscayne College, Eckerd College, Florida Institute of Technology, Jacksonville University, Palm Beach Atlantic College, Rollins College, Saint Leo College, Stetson University, the University of Tampa and Florida Southern.

The international retailing company, with 46 stores in Florida, has given corporate support annually to 567 independent schools since the mid-1960's as a supplement to local support from individual J.C. Penney stores to colleges in their communities.

Southside Community Park

By Calvin Gibbs

Hi Friends,

Welcome to Southside Park Community News. Southside Park generally refers to that area in Avon Park which is located South of Cornell Street. Southside Park is divided into two areas for convenience in locating addresses. The area west of Am track is to be referred to as Westside Park and the area east of Amtrak is to be referred to as Eastside Park. This general area was earlier called the colored Quarters. Although some of the area may take on the appearance of living quarters for slaves, the residents there of would prefer the area be called parks, which is more appealing to the ear if not to the eye.

News Update

Due to the lapse of time which transpired since my last account of some events and highlights in Southside Park, I consider it fitting to do so at this time.

Necrology:

In addition to the account of three recent death of Citizens and residents in Southside Park (Gene Johnson, Edna (Hunt) Harvey and Remaster (little man) Jones, there were some well known and long time residents of Southside Park who preceded them this year. For the benefit of our out-of-town readers mainly, I shall name them here: Mr. Percy Chandler, Mr. Fair, Mr. James (B) Walker, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mr. Willie Gaines, Mrs. Claudia Miles, and Mrs. Luvenia Austin. If there were others whom I omitted, please, bring this to my attention that I may mention them next week.

Self Help Housing Project:

A new self help housing project will be starting soon in Avon Park in which low income families can own their own home.

At a meeting at 7 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 8, at St. Marks Baptist Church on Green Street, Avon Park, learn how you can build your own home with a government loan.

The best way to fight inflation is to invest in a home. Look for future meetings. . .

Home boys Home:

Randy Burrough, Glenn Gray and Dennis Burley were among the homeboys home from the service since this Column last appeared. Welcome home, boys.

Randy Burrough

The Memory Lingers On:

Mrs. Myrtle Brown and Others

There was no one ever prouder than Mrs. Merk Brown when she was honored by the attendance of her seven children, twenty seven grandchildren, and one great grand at a family reunion. In addition to Elder Thomas Brown, among those attending were Harold, Enoch, Jimmy, Beatrice, Kelly, Ulysses, Susie and a host of in-laws, other relatives and friends.

Church News:

Mrs. Helen Britt

"This Thing Is From Me" 1st. King 12:24 was the Subject and Scripture from which Mrs. Helen Britt taught the lesson on Sunday Morning at Saint Mark Missionary Baptist Church. Sunday was Trustee Sunday and the presentation rendered by Mrs. Britt provided an inspirational uplift for all of those who attended,

Guess Who:

Mrs. Toni Ford and Bobby Britt

Toni and Bobby Britt are well known personalities in Southside Park. Here Mrs. Ford is shown as a pupil at Avon Park High (Now Avon Park Middle) and Bobby is pre school. (Tonie is a teacher at Avon Park Middle School and Bobby is an eighth - grader at the Middle School.)

Ruth E. Robinson

Theodore Nelson celebrated his 65th birthday Oct. 30, with his Aunt and Uncle Mr. and Mrs. Milton Nelson of Largo. The two couples had lunch and a birthday cake at the Kapock Tree Restaurant. Many Happy Returns of the day, Ted!

Welcome back to our neighbors and friends Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Damon, Mr. and Mrs. Styrl Mishey, Mr. and Mrs. Sponsler Limbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowery, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vande Polder, Mrs. Hazel Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bynners, Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder, Mrs. Helen Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Oden (Marie) Foote on Ct. No. 2 from the state of Maine.

New residents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph (Eva) Thompson with daughter, Elizabeth from Centerville, Pa. on Court No. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Girten arrived on Friday from a trip taken to see old friends in celebration of their 55th Anniversary, this year. Friends whom they hadn't seen for many years were surprised as they drove in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio after leaving North Carolina.

Miss Florence Beck has been back in the Walker Memorial Hospital for about 10 days and returned home on Saturday. She will be going for tests to Lakeland Clinic this coming week. We wish good news for her.

Mrs. Inez Swearingen is at home recuperating since her stay in the hospital. New Plans for her future is a move to a new apartment where she can relax more and we all wish her happiness and good health. Mrs. Richard Noland from Amherst, Mass. a daughter, will be visiting with Inez for a while, she arrived on Sunday.

The park schedule so far, is Coffee Hour on Monday at 9 a.m., Tuesday, Bingo; and as soon as a Park meeting is held, other activities with games, shuffling, entertainment and Bible study will commence. The first coffee hour was conducted by Mr. Paul Thomas and Mr. Robert McBeth.

Mrs. Ula Miller reports that her granddaughter, Susan Barret and friend Kevin Ryan had recently purchase a pair of mice for a Birthday gift for observation. One was named Kevin and one named Susan. Latest reports are that the pair presented Susan Barrett with eleven tiny baby mice!

Mr. and Mrs. John Evans enjoyed an extended trip to California with a stop in Omaha, Nebraska for a visit with Pearl's Aunt Alva Ferguson whom she hadn't seen for forty years. More on their trip later.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren (Ham) Byers have arrived as of 1 p.m., on Sunday, hale and hearty ful of their own precious vigor. We are glad to have them here and anxious to once again hear their precious testimony to Our Lord in song. The weather in Indiana was still beautiful. Welcome back, friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tripp arrived on Sunday evening from St. Louis, Michigan after a good trip.

Al and Dorothy Keyes spent Saturday with friends at Lake Bonnet Village on a shopping trip to Bradenton. They shopped several craft stores and did some sight-seeing. The Keyes also accompanied the Reeds from Lake Bonnet Village on Sunday to Lake Okeechobee for some fishing and a picnic. They aren't bragging about a large catch but had enough for lunch one day. Del and Marie Husband and Al and Dorothy spent Friday afternoon shopping in Winter Haven and of course, the usual visit to Duff's for shrimp.

The Women's Club will have their monthly meeting on Friday, Nov. 17th, at 1:30 p.m. This will be the planning session for our Thanksgiving Dinner, so be sure to attend. Monday evenings the Pinochle games will start and Thursday will be game night.

There is a Federation of Mobile Home Owners meeting at Winter Haven at the Florida Citrus Dome, southwest complex, State Rd. 540 and Hwy. 17, Cypress Garner Rd. Thursday, Nov. 9. at 10 a.m. Coffee and Donuts will be served from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. All Federation Members and their friends are welcome to attend. Lawrence and Ruth Robinson are going and would like to see all the Members of this park attend that are able to go.

Please write down your news on a piece of paper and get it to me as soon as possible and I will be most grateful. This would expedite getting it ready for the Newspaper Office.

Ellerbee's Salary Axed By Council

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

In a move which prompted bitter and personal remarks regarding city personnel, the Avon Park City Council voted 3-2 to cut $2,000 from the pay of Building Inspector C.W. Ellerbee.

Although the council has experienced disagreements before, this time remarks were not limited to political differences as Councilman Robert Britt said Recreation Direction Dennis Guenther was being overpaid and angrily snapped, "You only work 20 hours a week."

Paul Smith, a candidate for city council who was at the meeting, later said the council had acted for "personal reasons," a reason Ellerbee also gave for the pay cut.

At one point Councilman Kelley Phillips denied there were any personal considerations in the vote.

"As far as personally, I can take it out on the streets anytime you want to," Councilman Phillips told Ellerbee. "I don't have to come up here and take it out."

Smith, though, charged "It's a personal thing. I feel a man should be able to operate his department without interference unless it's proven he's done something wrong. This is the same thing they did to (Police Chief Robert) Brooks. . . It's arbitrary, with no rhyme or reason."

The motion was first brought up by Phillips who said there were only two department heads in the city with only one employee, the recreation director and the building director. Phillips said there was a $40 weekly difference in pay between the two men.

"I think that's too much difference in the spread between the two departments," he said.

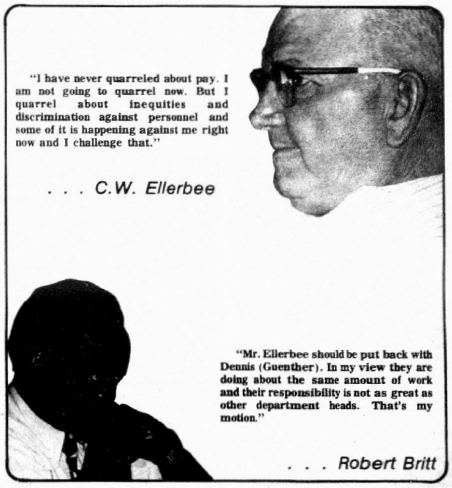

Britt agreed, saying, "He (Ellerbee) is being paid with (John) Ziegler and (Joe) Willis, while they have greater responsibility."

Britt said other department heads have more employees and were on call while Guenther and Ellerbee were not.

Councilman David Barefield, who later called the council action "ridiculous", objected to the comparison, saying it was faulty.

"The number of employees in a department has nothing to do with that department or the quality of work performed in that department or the

"I have never quarreled about pay. I am not going to quarrel now. But I quarrel about inequities and discrimination against personnel and some of it is happening against me right now and I challenge that."

"Mr. Ellerbee should be put back with Dennis (Guenther). In my view they are doing about the same amount of work and their responsibility is not as great as other department heads. That's my motion."

Is HGH Tax Unhealthy For City Residents?

An analysis of taxes collected from and spent for each city in the county by the Highlands County Commission did not satisfy one Avon Park resident as he asked the city council to set up a special taxing district exclusive of the county.

George Haynie said consideration of the request should be given by the council, particularly in regard to removing the city from the taxing district of Highlands General Hospital. Avon Park citizens are served by Walker Memorial Hospital, Haynie said.

"We have failed to get much consideration from the county and, for the last four years, no consideration at all," Haynie told County Commissioner Cecil Skipper, who was at the council meeting. "I'd like for us to go the route the Florida Supreme Court has said is available to us at this time (which is) to ask Avon Park be taken out of this tax district."

Haynie said citizens of Avon Park should not be taxed almost a mill a year to support Highlands General.

"People who use it should be the ones who pay for it. We pay for the one out here (Walker Memorial) ... we're paying for something we're receiving no benefits for," he said.

Another item which was of major importance was the paving — or rather non-paving — of Pleasant Street. Haynie claimed at one time it was on a priority list of the county. However, Skipper disputed the claim.

"It has never been on a priority list for paving by the county and the city of Avon Park," Skipper said.

Councilman Kelley Phillips, who served on the county commission for three years, said the matter had been discussed by the city and county.

Phillips said he thought the project was "more or less agreed to but where it went to I don't know."

Skipper said he could show any interested citizens county records showing Pleasant Street was never listed as a priority. He also said charges the money was used for the Sebring race track were "totally incorrect."

"I don't believe you can convince anybody in this room that the county has spent one dime in the city of Avon Park in the last two years, on roads and bridges."

Skipper deferred to City Clerk Malcolm Crews who said the county had completed two small projects.

Church Will Decide Camp Wingmann Fate In Spring

BY BRUCE HENDERSON

The fate of Avon Park's Camp Wingmann will not be decided until late next spring, but in the meantime, all programs at the Episcopal Church's camp and conference center have been terminated as of Dec. 31.

Delegates to the Episcopal Diocese of Central Florida's annual convention in Orlando last weekend voted to decide the camp issue at a special one-day convention in the late spring, before Pentecost, after a special committee has had time to study the camp's financial problems and the church's overall camp and conference program.

A great deal of opposition to the proposed closure and possible sale of the camp was voiced by delegates during a convention floor debate. A statement on behalf of the Camp Wingmann board also took exception to the closing, saying the camp "has served as a major asset in the spiritual life of the Diocese."

Another lay delegate implored, "Surely there must be a way this grand old place can be rejuvenated and used to the glory of God."

Originally, the camp's fate was to have been decided by the diocese's executive board after the committee had presented a report by March 1.

Termination of the camp's programs Dec. 31 was voted by the diocesan executive board after it was reported the camp would end up in the red by as much as $40,000 at the end of the year. Delegates to the convention upheld that decision after being told the camp had borrowed $24,000 to meet debts already and was $31,000 in the hole at the end of October.

Camp Wingmann's director, Mrs. Jody Cleveland, however, told the Sun this week the figures given to convention delegates were incorrect and made the camp's financial position look much worse than it really is.

Actually, she said, her books show the camp was about $10,000 in debt at the end of October and will lose about $15,000 by the end of the year, in addition to the church's $14,000 annual subsidy.

The $31,000 figure presented by the diocesan board treasurer, she said, incorrectly showed the subsidy as a loss and failed to include about $4,000 in income received in October. Another

Holiday 'Spirits' Dampened By City Refusal To Extend Liquor Hours

In a 4-0 vote with one abstention the Avon Park City Council turned down a request from Mrs. Lena Wright, owner of Wright's Package and Lounge, for an extension of hours on Christmas and New Year's Eve.

In the pasts, similar requests have been granted but this year the two days fall on a Sunday which unsettled councilmen. Seven years ago, though, when a similar request was made the council granted it.

City Attorney Jack Hancock told councilmen if they granted the request they would have to amend the present liquor ordinance since it prohibited all liquor sales on Sunday.

When asked by Councilman Robert Britt if such an amendment would be permanent, Hancock said no.

"You could amend the ordinance for one year or for such years as Christmas falls on Sundays or however you wanted to do it," he said.

However, Hancock said the council did not have the legal authority to permit a business not to obey a city ordinance.

The request drew opposition from Rev. Stephen Perry representing the Avon Park Ministerial Association who told councilmen the organization was opposed to the request.

Mrs. Wright pointed out that other businesses were open in the city and was supported in her request by Alex Whitbeck.

"The businesses are downtown and this is one of the times of their season," said Whitbeck. "I'm not a drinker myself. You have to look at the people's businesses."

"I realize that but you just can except one Sunday," said Councilman Kelley Phillips.

"All other liquor businesses outside the city limits so why make the business people inside the city suffer," said Whitbeck.

"The county commission regulates that," said Phillips.

However the Sunday sales made the subject very touchy for council members.

Mrs. Wright said she was asking for a chance to be competitive with other businesses but council members refused the request.

Councilmen Henry Dennis abstained, saying his place of employment Thriftway, might be effected and therefore a vote either way could be construed as a conflict of interest.

After the meeting Whitbeck said he was told by Tom Tataris, another candidate for the city council, that he (Whitbeck) should have remained silent and not spoked up.

Whitbeck said Tataris told him the statement "will hurt you in the election."

Tataris later said he had made the statements to Whitbeck. He said he supported the council's action in denying the request and said, if any changes were made, they should be put on a referendum for a vote of the citizens.

ANNA BELLE WORDEN, Stanley Wells and Mrytle Willis show a Color, Fun, and Learn book which will be given to boys and girls after the Dec. 4th Christmas parade by Santa Claus. Sunphoto by Lew Miller.

Santa Claus Here Dec. 4

The annual Avon Park Christmas Parade will start this year at 7 p.m., on Monday, Dec. 4th.

Approximately 50 entries have been registered and eight bands have been signed up for the parade, according to Mrs. Anna Belle Worden the executive manager of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce.

The number of entries and bands should make this year's parade the largest in the city's history. In addition, eight church and civic organizations will have food booths at several street intersections in the city.

The annual parade will of course, have its annual visitor Santa Claus who will pass out Color, Fun and Learn books to boys and girls after the parade.

The title of the book is "Santa's Greetings From the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce and the City of Avon Park."

The books contain puzzles, items for coloring and a place where kids can write a letter to Santa to tell him what else they want for Christmas.

Lynch Mob Atmosphere At City Hall

When men are at their worst, they are at their most interesting, wrote the journalist H.L. Mencken.

The Avon Park Council was at its worst Monday night, but unless one finds the moral sleaziness of petty politics worth noticing, the Councilmen were not too interesting at all.

The main topic which was the focus of the council's attention was the suggestion to reduce the salary of Building Inspector C.W. Ellerbee.

Disregarding for the moment the arguments for and against that suggestion, the behavior of council members before during and after the discussion was nothing less than a disgrace to the whole city.

A council chamber, in one sense, is like a courtroom. There should be some semblence of dignity and decorum evident in the chamber. Hopefully and, in fact due in part to the atmosphere of decorum, some good judgement and itelligence will result from the deliberations of both bodies.

If there was any dignity left in the city council chamber, it was shattered Monday night by the infantile and cheapjack adolescent behavior of councilmen.

A council chamber should be a forum for intelligent debate, with each individual using facts and logic to express his opinion.

Instead, the Monday night meeting of the council was full of specious rationalizations, petty accusations, unjust innuendos and numerous other types of verbal mouthings which belong more to a back alley than to a legitimate body of government.

What was expressed at the meeting was three councilmen's full range of vindictiveness toward two department heads; Building Inspector C.W. Ellerbee and Recreation Director Dennis Guenther.

Councilmen Robert Britt, Henry Dennis and Kelley Phillips have not been too happy with either department head, although both men have been, and are, doing a exemplary job in their respective departments.

Guenther, perhaps, got off the easiest. All he had to do was withstand the insults and slurs of Councilman Britt who said Guenther was being overpaid and was working only half the time he should.

Implicit in the coversation of both Britt and Phillips was the suggestion that Guenther wasn't really all that important to the city. So, they apparently reason, he doesn't have to be provided the courtesy and respect which any employee or department head deserves.

But Britt and Phillips let their anger rest on the building inspector as they voted to chop his salary by $2,000. To do so, they used their council seats — for which they are supposed to be serving the citizens of Avon Park — to advance their own personal antagonism toward Building Inspector Ellerbee.

Phillips claimed there was nothing personal in the matter. That one statement goes a long way toward explaining why citizens distrust politicians nowadays.

The action toward Ellerbee in reducing his pay was highly irregular. If one has lived in a city where actions are taken because of the whim of councilmen, and not because of any overriding public interest, perhaps such an action does not seem so unusual.

Yet it is.

For one thing, as Paul Smith pointed out, it took councilmen three years to make their discovery that the building official has less responsibility than other department heads. Even accounting for some politicians' mental slowness, this is a long time for such a fact to sink in.

Secondly, the act of cutting a man's pay is extremely unusual. Cities establish their budgets on October the first of every year. Any adjustments in salary, if made by such officials as a city manager if a council is not invovled, are up, as in the case of merit raises, not down.

Other cities and city councils, abiding by the law and by set policies, instead of personal prejudices and personal interests, would not vote for such a procedure.

Such an action shows the danger when a city allows itself to be run by a small clique. Three councilman, Mayor J. Marshall Davis and other supporters inside and outside the city believe they have the control to do anything they want.

So they may suspend a police chief and force him to run up a $700 legal expense fee without telling the public why or reimbursing the man for his unnecessary expense. Until proven differently, it has to be assumed all the police chief did was do his job to the best of his ability, a job which is to protect the citizens of Avon Park.

Such a clique can laugh at a man who brings a legitimate complaint before the council. A complaint which involves the pollution of a city lake.

And they can insult the recreation director and reduce the salary of the building director. A building official whose only real offense has been refusing to knuckle under to the council and has made all builders and contractors obey the law.

The building inspector's job also is, in one sense, the protection of the citizens of the city. He is sworn to uphold an oath to carry out the Southern Standard Building Code, a code written to ensure when a citizen buys a house, he does not have to worry about the roof falling in on him.

The final irony is the councilman who has shown the only real intelligence and reasoning ability David Barefield, is the one often accused of stirring up discontent and trouble.

Yet Monday night, it was Councilman Robert Britt and Kelley Phillips who vented their ire, anger and insults upon the recreation director and building official. Counciman Barefield did not lose his temper, nor hardly rise his voice during the entire exchange. He gave sound, logical reasons whenever he expressed his opinion.

What was one of the more sordid episodes in council history was began and coutermanged by Britt, Phillips and Dennis.

It was not started by Councilman Barefield. It was not started by Dennis Guenther. It was not started by C.W. Ellerbee. And it was not started by the press. Nor was it started by any other of the imaginary enemies our political clique in Avon Park would like to create.

The moral squalor which surrounds city hall was created, and is substained, by those who using public office to fuel their own bitter animosity.

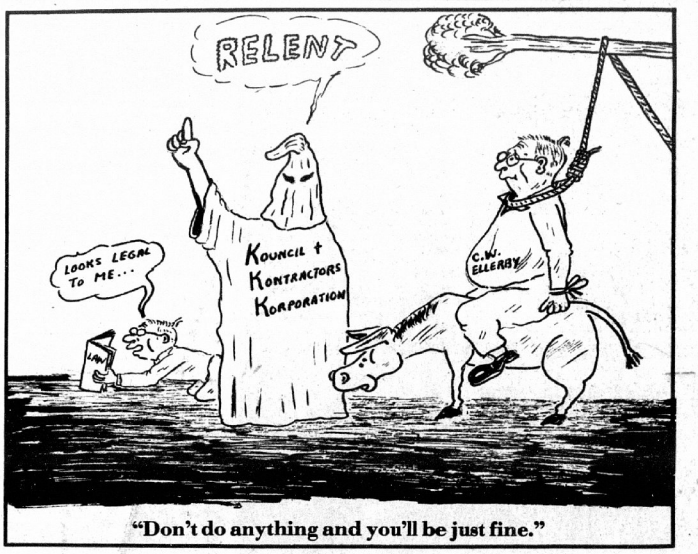

They have only themselves to blame.

Herman Says Barefield Against Growth Of City

Dear Sir:

The different types of news media claim to be the "voice of the people," as local representative of one of these media, I ask that you prove this claim and print my letter.

As a resident of Avon Park I am concerned with the coming election of city councilmen. We need representatives on the council that have the ability to set aside personal predjudices and truly consider the 'welfare of all the community,' not just "mouth," that phrase.

Avon Park is a lovely town. It has much potential for growth and development into an even better town. To accomplish this we need councilmen that will work with individual citizens, developers, etc. and not against them.

I have watched with interest the activities of the present council for the past year. The impression was given that one member was constantly creating friction instead of offering workable alternatives.

Your article in the Oct. 26, issue, "Third Man In City Race" concerned the one member I refer to. I quote two sentences from that article. Mr. Barefield said, "I have only done what I think is right to uphold the law and protect the best interest of the city. . . I will continue, if elected to try to do what is best, fair, and honest for all the citizens of Avon Park."

Those remarks sound good and possibly he believes them. I remember several instances, if Mr. Barefield had not been OUT VOTED, the results would have been costly to those citizens "for whom he's doing what's best"! Most of us do not see enough results from the taxes and other revenues we now pay to justify any additional costs.

If the voters take the time to check, they will find the cities that have prospered and grown, are those with City Councils who work within the flexibility of the law to provide services and assistances to homeowners, land developers, businesses, etc., not act as a stumbling block! All of these people offer potential revenue for cities. Why run them away by presenting the attitude' 'your welcome to our city if you pay this, do this and that, regardless of the fact that you are bringing additional taxes, utility revenues and monies to local businesses'? Why not use the approach, 'how can we assist you in accomplishing your goals'?

Most people do not expect a service for nothing. Nor do they expect to pay through the nose for them. Sebring is an example of a city government working with people for potential growth. They offer services, sewer, lights, etc. to homeowners, developers, etc. without constant hassle.

The actions of a city council may not effect everyone directly, but they do effect each of us indirectly. When a councilman stands as a block to potential growth and development of our community; he is depriving the community of more revenue. More revenues, if handled properly, will pay for any additional facilities caused by new hopes, businesses, etc., and it should help reduce what the rest of us pay.

Apparently Mr. Barefield is against growth. We have to grow (good, planned growth), otherwise, what happens to our children? Where will they get jobs, homes, a chance for a future? Not here, if we do not grow to provide these things.

I sincerely hope the voters will consider these things before voting. We have the power to direct our lives, by voting for councilmen that will work for us. I hope we use that power wisely.

Sincerely,
Robert W. (Bob) Herman.

Fine Young People Wash Band Director's Car

Dear Sir:

We hear so much about the "bad" things that happen and many times the "good,' things go unmentioned. I witnessed a "good" happening that I would like to share with everyone who doesn't know about it.

It happened while most of the people of our town were fast asleep, around three o'clock Sunday morning. Our beautiful High School Band had just returned from a very long and tiresome trip to Ft. Myers for the state contest. The buses unloaded and as Mr. Joe Keating, the band director, walked to his car he was confronted with a most disgusting nasty mess. His car had been bombed with eggs.

After a few minutes of deciding what to do, a large group of band members took his car to a location near water, found some Fantastic and went to work cleaning the mess off his car.

I wish you could have seen those students! My son was one of them and I don't think I was ever more proud of him. They received a Superior rating in the contest and in my book they rate more than that for their act of kindness toward their band director.

Our Community is fortunate to have these fine young people in its midst.

Sincerely,
Mrs. S. Davis

Growing Kids Want To Do Tricks

Editor:

In reply to the letter about Halloween, the writer isn't being fair. Why should we punish the little kids? After all we know it is the growing 'kids' that egg houses. They've already had their fun, treat or treating. They've had their treats now and they've grown up and now they want to do their tricks.

Rocking The Boat

By George Duncan

The elections proved the voters were in no mood to change any laws or amend the state constitution. In fact the citizens were in somewhat of a negative mood.

Naturally I can't help but wonder what would have happened if, instead of the revisions, the ballot would have had other laws instead.

Scene: newsroom, a phone rings and the editor picks it up.

"Yeah."

"Harry, this is Bill. I'm down at the supervisor of elections office and the returns are coming in."

"Of course there're coming in, it's election night, dummy. What are the results?"

"Looks like everything is going down to defeat. And by a landslide margin."

"Everything. Every one of the laws?"

"Yep. One, two three, four, five, all of them. . ."

"Five! The fifth one is.'Thou Shall not kill!, Who is objecting to that?"

"According to the results Harry, about 62 percent of the voters. Maybe they're planning to knock off a few politicians".

"How about "thou shall not steal.' one? Is that winning?"

"In a Democratic county? Are you kidding? It's losing by about 70 percent."

"How did the voting go on 'Thou Shall not commit adultery?"

"Voters didn't go for that. Eighty-five percent are voting against it."

"You're kidding."

"However, here's an interesting statistic Harry. Only 62 percent are voting against 'Thou Shall not covet they neighbor's wife' which would. . ."

"Never mind the analysis. Just give me the votes."

"OK, ok."

"I know I shouldn't ask but how is 'Thou shall have no other gods' making out?"

"Losing by about 83 percent. We did a breakdown on this Harry, checking with the people coming from the polling booths. You know, the usual type voting poll. People are rating money, power, status, ego and sex as personal favorites."

"You've got a breakdown on that?"

"No, Harry. Good grief. Isn't that kind of private?"

"Why the hell should they be for privacy? They're against everything else."

"Well, some things are sacred, Harry."

"OK, what's the returns on the 'Thou shalt not bear false witness."

"What number is that?"

"I don't know. Six or seven I think."

"Wait a minute, here it is. Going about 72 percent against. Heavy anti-vote by lawyers. Apparently they were afraid it would negate any lawsuits."

"What's left?"

"The 'Honor they Father and Mother' amendment.

"Thats passing isn't it?"

"No, losing by about 55 percent."

"What?"

"Voters are in an angry mood, Harry. They don't want to approve anything."

"OK, what about declaration of rights statement tacked on. It begins 'All men are created equal and so on."

"Losing by about 64 percent."

"Are you kidding! Thats from the Declaration of Independance!"

"The Republicans are killing that one, Harry. It sounds subversive to them."

Ellerbee

technical knowledge required to perform in that department.

"At one time we suggested hiring a city engineer. If he didn't have a secretary, would you have dropped him a pay grade? Thats ridiculous. Is it more responsibility to look after ten men than to look after ten builders?"

The discussion heated up when Phillips mentioned two complaints about Ellerbee's work and told Barefield, "If he's such a high caliber I don't think he's entitled to that much (the pay cut)."

"I don't understand your line of thinking," Barefield replied.

"Mr. Ellerbee should be put back with Dennis (Guenther)," said Britt. "In my view they are doing about the same amount of work and their responsibility is not as great as other department heads. Thats my motion."

Guenther, though, told councilmen they should not compare two different department heads because of "the amount of work we do and what our responsibilities are."

"Now what you're trying to say, you only work 20 hours a week," Britt said.

"You don't know how much I work," Guenther replied.

"I see you when you come to work and when you go," Britt said.

"And when you see I'm gone you think I'm not working. I've got a lot of things to do around town," said Guenther.

"What would you be doing? We can verify that fact. If you want to get salty, you're overpaid for what you're doing. I can tell when you come to work. I'm over there every day."

"Do you think when I'm not at the recreation center I'm not working asked Guenther. "I've got flag football going on behind the high school starting tomorrow. Three days a week in the afternoon."

"Ninety-five percent of the time you'll be home washing your car," Britt told Guenther.

"My hours are different from yours," Guenther replied. "I may come to work at one in the afternoon and leave at ten at night. If I wash my car it will be before one, I'll guarantee you."

Barefield asked both Britt and Phillips how they could justify the salary cut.

"How can you look at me and tell me, as far as technical knowledge, our building department does not have to equal our sewer or sanitation department."

Britt leaned over the council table and told Barefield, "I'm looking at you straight in the eye. The way you're thinking you feel the building department is the only department this town has. You're looking after one man, anyway you go. I don't like the way you think about this. I see it today, I see it tomorrow and the next day."

"I really feel sorry you would make a statement like that. I really think there's more involved in a city than a statement like that," replied Barefield.

"Look at the sheet from the building department!" demanded Britt. "Look how much work has been done! Look at it every month!"

"I feel sorry for the city if this. . . let's go ahead and vote on it. We're in worse Shape than I thought," Barefield said.

Ellerbee told councilmen he could do with more pay or with less pay, saying he had never been worried about his salary. However, he did point out that, with the proposed salary cut, he would be making less this year than he did last year.

"I think I'm entitled to some cost of living increase or something over last year. If that is fairness, if there isn't some personality clashes in there, I don't know what you call it. . . I have never quarreled about pay. I am not going to quarrel now. But I will quarrel about inequities and discrimination against personnel and some of it is happening against me right now and I challenge that."

Paul Smith asked how long it had been since the building inspector had been given a raise. When told it was in October, the same date as the rest of the city employees, he asked if the council made a mistake.

"It took you that long to find out he wasn't worth it? You gave him a raise in October. That was an oversight? Is that what you're saying?" asked Smith.

Britt replied Ellerbee was at the department head level and had been there for three years. Guenther is not — in the city's salary schedule — a department head.

"It took, you that long to find out he didn't have similar responsibilities to other department heads? asked Smith.

Smith's questions, although asked at lease once more, was never fully answered by the council.

Smith later criticized the council saying "They have already set zoning back 20 years because of the department head ordinance. Zoning should not be in a political light, neither should the police department. There should not be constant interference from city hall. This action was due to underlying personal reasons."

Another challenger for the city council Alex Whitbeck also criticized the council. Whitbeck, who was also present during the discussion, said "The man was in the pay scale for three years. I don't feel it was right to cut his pay. If they felt like he was doing a bad job, then replace him."

Demko Talks About Avocados At Founders Garden Club Meeting

The Founders Club met Thursday, Nov. 9, at the home of Eunice Perry on Lake Lotela, with Helen Baker serving as co-chairman.

The buffet table was attractively decorated in fall colors donating the Thanksgiving season. Delicious finger sandwiches and assorted cookies were served with orange punch.

Following the social hour, the meeting was called to order by Lou Grose, president. After the Pledge of Alligance to the Flat, Miriam Debo, chaplain read the 'Farmer's Thanksgiving Prayer.' Ruby Demko, ways and means chairman suggested that the club have a silent auction at each meeting as a means of raising money. This suggestion was enthusuastically received by the group.

Kathryn Callaway reported that she and Louise Gregg have been planning the table setting contest sponsored by McLean's Furniture Store in Sebring. There will be six settings, using blue and gold colors. The theme "Before the Game" will stress the football season. This event will be held from Monday, Nov. 13 until Saturday, Nov. 18. The public is invited.

The scheduled speaker, Jimmy Mills was unable to come due to illness. Ruby Demko did an excellent job of substituting for him on the spur of the moment. She presented an extremely interesting and informative talk on "avocados." This was a timely subject as this multi-course fruit is now in season and produced here in Florida. She emphasized the fact that this fruit is bursting with flavor and nutrition and very low in sodium. It is thought that the avocado was brought here by the Spaniards from Mexico sometime in the 1600's.

Our guest for this meeting was introduced by Lou Grose. She is Mrs. Ester McConihe, and was welcomed by the club memebers.

FOUNDER'S CLUB TAKES first place with their "Before The Game" place setting at McLeans in Sebring.

Laye Presents Program On Scotland To Hibiscus Circle

The November 9, meeting of the Hibiscus Garden Circle was held at the lovely ranch home of Sybil Laye.

Throughout the living room, dining room and kitchen area, the authumn theme was carried out with a profussion of wild flowers here and there in rustic containers. As the Circle members arrived, their eyes fell upon Sybil's newest collectible, a wine press all rubbed down to its original state and placed by the front entrance. It too was filled with fresh and dried wild flowers of yellow, gold, rust, brown, and just enough green to give a natural balance.

The meeting was called to order at 2:30 p.m., by President Laura Neubauer. The members and a guest, Mrs. Jan Cauls, were warmly greeted.

After a report from the District IX meeting held recently in Wauchula's new Civic Center, the meeting continued with timely reports from several standing committees. Sybil Laye, chairman of the annual Christmas Tea, gave a progress report.

Progress indeed is being made, but there is still much to be done before that magic day. More detailed announcements will be published in the Avon Park Sun as the time grows nearer.

All members were invited to go to Sebring and take a friend to the First Anniversary Celebration of McLean's Furniture Store. All garden circles and clubs in the county were asked to participate and were permitted to choose their own theme, seasonal, fanciful, formal, or informal. Each is to make an arrangement to be placed on a table with four place settings. The tables are to be judged by a panel of three local judges and ribbons will be awarded. The Founders Circle as well as the Federation plan to enter also. Sybil Laye will do the arrangement and setting for the Hibiscus Circle, with "Thanksgiving" as her chosen theme.

The entertainment feature of the afternoon was furnished by Sybil who showed slides and gave an interesting narration of her trip to Scotland early this fall. Emphasis was placed on their glorious flowers, shrubs, trees, landscaping, and natural scenenry. This made for an enjoyable meeting.

Co-hostesses for the refreshments were Imogene Kelsey, Kay Giddens, and Mildren Logan who prepared the most delightful refreshments of party sandwiches, danity cheese straws, filled cookies, sugared pecans, topped off with lime punch and-or-coffee.

"This is the busiest season of the year for Avon Park," said Laura Neubauer, President of the Circle, "as there are many coming events from now until the new year." Many circle members belong to other civic groups and work actively in them as well. There is indeed a spirit of "community participation."

The guest speaker was Mr. Charles Smith, Avon Park's Lions Club 2nd Vice President, Chairman of the Avon Park Lions Eye Bank. Smith serves as eye bank's co-chairman in its district wide donar card committee. Mark Brown, a 30 year member of Lions and the past District Governor of a district in Illinois assisted Smith in a film presentation of the purpose and goals of the Lions Club Eye Bank Program.

All donor eye tissue is wanted. Even defective eye tissue is used in research for prevention and treatment of eye diseases. Anyone and everyone is encouraged to fill out a lions Club eye bank donor card to will your eyes to this most wonderful program. Think about it for a few moments. The gift of your eyes can be used to give back the most important living sensation a person has, sight! Close your eyes a moment. Then open them, and take a look out the window or perhaps at the photograph of a loved one. Now you realize how much this God given gift is worth to you. Why not give this gift to someone who is in need after you have no further use for it here on earth. This year pledge a gift of sight.

'I Voted" Stickers nfluenced Voter Turnout

So far, 19 people have sponded to a drive to raise he remaining $25 of the rinting bill for the "I Voted" tickers distributed at the polls ast week.

While everyone seems to gree the stickers had a ositive effect on the county's percent turnout, no one sponded to The Sebring News ory noting the balance eeded.

When Jimmy Whitehouse, ections supervisor and udrey Vickers, interested tizen, launched both the roject and incurred the rinting bill for 10,000 of the ickers, it was agreed that the nds would not come from overnment coffers — if at all ossible.

Democratic party chairman m Pyle sent a $50 check and Republican senatorial hopeful Andrew Jackson came up with another $50. Now Vickers and Whitehouse are determined to see at least 50 people for 50 cents each, to spread the word of the effort.

To date, donors have included Jessie and Marie Elliott, Nell Prescott, M. E. Vickers, Jug Heston, Bob Wolfe, Ruth Grubb, Ruth Davis, "Mac" McDaniel, Elsa Kahn, Jimmy Hurley, Orbia Matthews and Emmet Andrews.

Also Bill Dutton, Bob Ingle, Jim Fulton, Ann and Ed Kinker and Fay Gordon contributed.

Those who want to help, leave donations at Whitehouse's office in the courthouse, or with Mrs. Vickers.

Camp Wingmann

$4,000 in income has come into the camp since then, she said.

One of the major problems facing the 54-acre camp and conference center, first established here by the Episcopal Church in 1928, is the refusal of the camp's board of governors to raise rates over the past three years, while the number of groups using the center has increased and prices and labor costs have skyrocketed due to inflation.

Mrs. Cleveland pointed to a cost analysis she did earlier this year which shows that from Jan. 1 to July 1 of this year prices paid by the camp for food rose an average of 26 percent, while items such as cleaning supplies increased an average of 14 percent.

The last increase for camping was from $55 to $70 per camper per week in 1975. This summer, she said, it cost $82.45 per camper per week, resulting in a net loss of $5,328.

Deficits have been kept down, she said, by cutting back drastically on expenditures. "We just kept cutting until we just cut ourselves to death on the budget."

Another problem is a substantial drop in the number of children using the summer camp facilities. Only 271 children went to Camp Wingmann last summer from the church's four Florida dioceses, 111 from Central Florida.

"When I first came here, it was not uncommon to have 1,200 kids here during a summer," she said.

Part of the decline, she commented, is part of a national trend away from traditional camping toward family camping, particularly in motor homes and camper. But another factor was the pullout of two of Florida's dioceses a few years ago from supporting the camp, she said, leaving the Diocese of Central Florida as the sole operator of the facility.

This cut the camp's subsidy from $27,500 to $15,000, as well.

While summer camping has declined, she added, use of the camp and conference center by other groups has doubled in the last five or six years. Many of the new users of the facility are non-Episcopalian--other churches and business groups.

"The thing about it is that I turn people away. I'm always turning people away, because we're full," she said.

Yet another problem developed this year, however, when 11 groups, seven of them Episcopalian, scheduled conferences then cancelled at the last minute, usually due to a lack of interest, leaving Mrs. Cleveland no time to reschedule. That resulted in a loss of $12,639.

There has been a drop in use of the camp and conference center by Episcopal Church groups, she said, because of the changing nature of many of the church's retreat programs, such as Cursillo and Marriage Encounter, which demand a different type of setup. She added, however, the camp could be altered to accommodate such programs, but at a substantial cost for renovation.

Deputies Check Out Complaints Of Criminal Mischief In County

In the Avon Park area Highlands County Sheriff's Deputies checked out several cases of criminal mischief. In a rural area deputies received a call about possible breaking and entering. On arrival deputies found that someone had thrown rotten eggs which had struck the screen on a patio.

A complaint was received that a vehicle had run over a mailbox alone side the road.

While patrolling, a deputy found where the lawn in front of a house was decorated with numerous rolls of toilet paper. Upon checking the house a sliding glass door was found open, but nothing appeared to be missing. Ignition keys were in the car and nothing appeared to be missing from the car. The deputy left a note inside the house and locked the door.

Officers investigated a complaint about a vehicle parked at the bowling alley. A bottle had been thrown at it cracking the windshield and breaking off the wiper.

A car driver told deputies that occupants of a car passing his had thrown an egg which struck his vehicle.

An unknown person or persons pushed in the bottom of a screen door near the outlaying area of Avon Park.

In all of these cases there was little or no evidence for the deputies to find who had committed the act of criminal mischief.

Freedom Has A High Price

A small turnout gathered along Main St. to pay homeage to those veterans who fought to help preserve the freedoms of this nation, as the annual Veterans Day Parade began at about 10:30 a.m. last Saturday.

The Avon Park Middle School Band under the direction of Charles Fugate marched with several veteran organizations from Avon Park, Lake Placid and Sebring. Gold Star mothers, city officials and Smokey the Bear were also in the parade.

After the parade, a ceremony was held in Donaldson Park with Harvey Dixon serving as master of ceremonies. The Middle School Band snapped to attention as trumpters Mark Elkhill and Blair Brooker played "Taps" in memory and honor of those servicemen who lost their lives in previous wars. The band also played "It's A Grand Old Flag" and The Star Spangled Banner.

The Rev. Keith Riley gave the invocation. Mr. Dixon then introduced the guest speaker, Ret. Col. H.G. (Jack) Dalton. Col. Dalton was born in Ashburn, Ga., finished high school in Adel, Ga. and entered Naval flight training as Aviation Cadet early in 1940. He received his wings and commission as 2nd Lt. United States Marine Corp in February 1941. Col. Dalton has served in Japan, Korea and Okinawa.

In 1964 he became Chief of Staff of the 3rd Marine Air Wing. When he retired from the Marine Corp in October 1967 he was serving as Executive Officer, M.C.A.S. El. Toro, Calif. Upon retirement he joined the staff of Chapman College as Assistant Professor.

Col. Dalton and family moved to Avon Park in August 1969 where he is presently employed in the educational department at Avon Park Correctional Institute.

Col. Dalton began his address by saying we are fortunate to be able to assemble as a free people and that many men have died fighting for these freedoms we so enjoy.

He recognized the Gold Star Mothers stating they they have given far more than we can ever know.

He comments centered on the fact that once again Veterans Day is being celebrated on November 11. "As one will recall ," he said, "this day was the original ending of World War I, on November 11 at the 11th hour, 60 years ago."

Freedom has a high price, he added, with Highlands County alone having over 300 men killed or wounded in war. And, the nation as a whole has suffered over 2 million casualities.

"Anytime people aren't willing to defend freedom, they will lose it," said the retired colonel. And he concluded his statement by saying that if the spirit of the nation is equal to the spirit shown in Avon Park today, these freedoms we so enjoy will be preserved without question whatsoever.

Rev. Riley ended with a benediction with final remarks from Harvey Dixon inviting everyone to a spaghetti dinner held at the Americal Legion Post Hall on West Bell St.

County States Cities Receiving More Than Paying For In Taxes

All cities in the county are receiving more in services than they are paying for in taxes, according to figures compiled by county officials.

County Commissioners Cecil Skipper and Administrative Assistant Charles Cullens presented the county's report to the Avon Park City Council Monday night; a report that showed 83 percent of the taxes collected in the county are from unincorporated areas.

The figures also showed all cities in the county receiving more services from the county than their individual portion of taxes would have bought.

However, the city council isn't buying those figures–at least not yet.

City Clerk Malcolm Crews said Tuesday afternoon that he had not had a chance to look over the report presented by the county. At first glance, the $230,000 in taxes the county received from Avon Park, looked low, said Crews.

With a 5.9 mills assessment on approximately $57 million worth of property he thought the figure should be higher. Crews said he would check the county figures with a day or so.

The report was prepared by county officials at the request of Avon Park officials who felt they were being double-taxed for some services.

The report, although detailing the revenues and expenditures of various county services, excluding revenues collected for the hospital district.

Avon Park, Lake Placid and Sebring, the county's three incorporated cities, include 16,523 of Highlands County's 41,113, approximately 40 percent, according to the report.

The figures show Avon Park citizens paid $230,048 in taxes, Sebring residents paying $299,534 and Lake Placid residents giving $39,328 to the county treasurer.

All total, $3.45 million in property taxes were collected by the county in 1977. According to the report, about 17 percent of the total came from the three cities.

Of the $3.35 general fund services provided by the county, $2.26 million went to the unincorporated areas; $538,000 went to Sebring, $439,500 to Avon Park and $63,214 to Lake Placid.

EMS Reports

Highlands County Emergency Medical Service reports there were 13 emergency runs, six in-county transfers and three out-of-county transfers in Sebring during the week of November 5-11.

During the same period there were 11 emergency runs in Avon Park and six emergency runs and one in-county transfer at Lake Placid.

Man Steals From Sleeping Friend

William Anderson of Rt. 2 Avon Park, told Deputy Sheriff Glenn Bass of befriending a man at his trailer. However, during the night the man made off with his 2-door 1967 Chevrolet, money, tools, pick sacks, water jugs, and a pair of boots.

Anderson, according to a Sheriff's Department report, had met the man in Frostproof on Saturday night. Because the man did not have a place to spend the night, Anderson brought the man to his trailer. On awakening about 1:30 a.m., Sunday, Nov. 5, Anderson found the man had left with his car and other items.

Value of the items taken was placed at $380, which included $100 in cash. No value was placed on the stolen automobile.

Car Stolen From Hospital Parking Lot

Albert Welch, Avon Park, reported to Highlands County Deputy Sheriff James Jones Jr. that when he returned to the Walker Memorial Hospital parking lot his car was missing.

Welch had been visiting in the hospital for about an hour and a half. On returning to the parking lot his blue 1962 two door Chevrolet was missing. It had less than a quarter tank of gasoline.

Value of the missing car was placed at $500.

Robert King, Realtor Has Open House At New Office

Robert R. King Jr., an Avon Park Realtor for over 20 years, held an open house last Friday at his new office located at the corner of South U.S. 27 and Pine Street.

King, who has been in Avon Park for 23 years and in the same real estate office for over 20, has been involved in a number of major real estate projects in the area during that time.

As his office was moving and expanding, King said he beleived the Avon Park area was also expanding and growing.

"Growth is certainly coming into the area. There's no question in my mind about it. I don't think anything can stop it," he said.

The Avon Park area constituted one of the "better markets" in real estate, and was being sought not only by northern residents but also by residents of both coastal regions.

"Another cold winter up north and we'll have even more residents moving in. They would rather move than stay in cold weather," King said.

There was also a definite movement across county boundaries to Highlands County, he said. People on both coasts of Florida, particularly in the lower east coast region, were leaving and moving to a less congested area.

"Even some young people with children who would be the most likely to stay there have decided they want a better environment," he noted.

Growth in Avon Park would not be dramatic, King said, but rather he thought it could continue at a steady pace.

"We don't have any real big developers and perhaps it's better that way," he said.

In his years in Avon Park King has been involved in such projects as the Oak Hill Subdivision, the Verona Villas Condominium Tulane Park, and the promotion and sales of River Ridge Ranches acreage.

He has several new projects tentatively scheduled, including development of some acreage near Lake Verona.

King's staff includes Mrs. Irene Ray, Robert King III, John O'Neal, Victor Sullivan and George Border.

Devils Romp Over Brahmans 25-0

An Avon Park 25-0 victory over the Okeechobee Brahmans topped off Homecoming weekend but the Red Devil triumph was marred slightly because of fourth-quarter fight which brought members of both benches onto the field.

The enmity between the two teams had been building since the end of the half, with both teams believing there was unnecessary roughness on the part of the other.

The Okeechobee team has a 1-8 record and the Brahman players were verbally expressing their frustration last Friday night during the game with the Red Devils particularly after Avon Park had advanced to a three touchdown lead.

Several observers said the game officials should have thrown more penalty flags, mostly for unnecessary roughness. Such an action would have diffused the anger of both teams.

Late in the fourth quarter Red Devil Back Keith Cobb tackled a Brahman end. The Brahman bench believed the tackle was a late hit and two Brahman players bumped Cobb, which started the melee.

However, even though members of both teams came running onto the field, the dispute was settled quickly and no one was injured in the brief fighting.

Although the score was 25-0, the Red Devils were not all that impressive in the game but, against Okeechobee, they did not have to be.

The Red Devil defense held the Brahmans to a net gain of only 89 yards; 43 yards rushing and 46 yards passing, in addition to recovering one fumble and taking five interceptions from the hapless Okeechobee team.

The Red Devils accomulated 307 total yards in the game, with 209 coming on the ground and 98 coming through the air. The Red Devils loss two fumbles.

Several Avon Park touchdowns were set up because of a bad snap from the Okeechobee center to the team's kicker. On one occasion, the punt was blocked because of the bad snap. On another, the Okeechobee kicker was only able to managed a net 15 yard gain on the punt.

The punting average from the Brahmans was only 28 yards on four punts.

Back Ricky Bivens accounted for both rushing and passing yardage for Avon Park as he scored two touchdowns and passed for another.

Bevins' first touchdown came with 10:43 to go in the second quarter and capped a 60-yard drive by the Red Devils. A big play of the drive was when Bevins took a pitchout and went 22-yards against Okeechobee defenders.

The Brahmans were unable to get their kicking game in order and a shanked punt, caused partially by a bad snap from the Okeechobee center, allowed Avon Park to receive good field position.

A few plays later Quarterback Decaris Jones unloaded a 29-yard pass to Bevins for the Red Devils second touchdown and a 13-0 lead over the Brahmans.

In the third quarter the Brahmans were still unable to move against the Red Devils, but the home team did not have any such problems.

Avon Park's third touchdown came with 6:45 left in the third quarter as Carl Wingate scored from five yards out to give the Red Devils a 19-point lead.

Later in the third quarter a penalty which nullified a touchdown helped ignite the anger of Okeechobee players.

Avon Park, back in their own territory, kicked to Okeechobee, whose receiver was on his own 15 yard line. The Brahman back skirted around and slipped through Red Devil defenders and ran 85 yards in what was the biggest Okeechobee offensive play of the night.

However a penalty was called against the Brahmans which nullified the the touchdown and placed Okeechobee deep in its territory. The Red Devil defense held and Okeechobee again watched a bad punt put Avon Park in good field position.

On the 15-yard line of the Brahmans, Bevins took a pitchout from Jones but, instead of running, threw a strike to End Keith Cobb who hauled in the pass free of any interference from Okeechobee defenders.

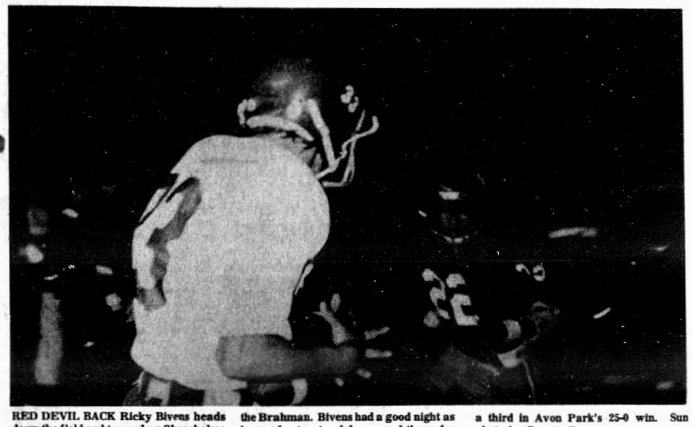

The touchdown made the score 25-0 in favor of the Red Devils.

The victory upped the Red Devil record to 6-3 while dropped the Brahmans to a 1-8 record.

This week Avon Park will host the Sebring Blue Streaks at their home field.

The Blue Streaks lost their first four games, but came back to win the next five and will have a five game winning streak coming into the game with the Red Devils.

Coach John Hunter said if the Red Devils won he expected a close game. The key would be how well the Red Devil defense could handle the explosive Sebring offense

Jayvees End 8-0 Season

A 34-0 victory over the Okeechobee Brahman Jayvees gave the Avon Park junior varsity players a perfect season as they chalked up their eighth win against no losses.

The impressive 8-0 record was posted by coaches Hoppy Rewis and Joe Baker of the jayvees. A strong defense allowed only 30 points to be scored against them this year. The raging offense was able to score 210 points against their opponents. The Devils shut out 5 teams this season, holding them scoreless.

The leading rushes for the Baby Devils was back Billy Bolden. Bolden accounted for 704 yards. He was used on 110 carries for a 6.4 yard per carry average. Bolden scored 13 touchdowns during the year and only played in 7 games this season.

Close behind Bolden was Freshman back Ronnie Barnes who carried the ball 74 times for 552 yards and a 7.5 yard per carry average. Barnes scored 7 touchdowns and extra points.

Coming on strong at the end of the season was back Larry Jackson. In 6 games he tallied 349 yards on 52 carries for a 6.7 average.

Raymond Claitt and quarterback Dwayne Council added yardage to the strong attack of the Devils.

During the season, several players gained yards in addition to the big leaders. Ricky Derkman, Kirk Evans and Chris Collins were on the receiving end of passes from scrambling quarterback Council. Ernest Crawford and Jerry Jones handled the pigskin as well.

The staunch defense of the Devils held their opponents to only 30 points in 8 games.

The game last Thursday opened with Avon Park receiving the ball first. Back Larry Jackson carried the ball three times before back Billy Bolden raced 49 yards for an Avon Park touchdown. Jackson drove over the right side for the 2 point conversion to make the score 8-0 in less than 2 minutes of play. On the following series of downs Okeechobee was unable to move the football against the tough Devil defense.

When Avon Park took possession of the ball, they mounted a drive of 68 yards. Again Jackson carried the ball down the field, plus freshman back Ronnie Barnes ran around left end for the 6 points. The point after failed as the Devils lead 14-0.

Avon Park kicker Ricky Oates backed the Okeechobee runner back to the 3 yard line before he could field the ball. The Baby Brahmans returned the ball to the 16 yard line. On their third down play, sophomore Chris Collins intercepted a pass and returned the ball to the Okeechobee 14 yard line. After a 5 yard penalty, Quarterback Dwayne Council ran a quarterback keeper to the left for 20 yards and the third Avon Park score of the period. Back Bolden ran in for the 2 points. The quarter ended with Avon Park well in charge and the score 22-0.

Once more Oates boomed the ball deep and Okeechobee returned the kick to their own 30 yard line. The fired-up defense of the Devils forced the Brahmans to punt once more. Again they were unable to get a first down.

On the punt Council returned the ball to midfield and the Devils began another drive. Bolden and Barnes moved the ball 8 yards on 3 carries. On the 4th and 2, Bolden bolted 43 yards through the Brahman defense for yet another touchdown. The point after failed and the score was 28-0.

On his best kick of the night, Oates booted the ball all the way into the end zone. Aided by a 15-yard penalty against Avon Park, the baby Brahmans moved the ball to their own 34-yard line before a Brahman fumble was recovered by Red Devil Jerry Jones on the Okechobee 46. As in the previous possessions Avon Park drove the ball down the field and scored. Barnes was the workhorse with four carries including a 15-yard run for the score. The two-point attempt again failed . The score was 34-0.

The half ended with Okeechobee again unable to move the ball.

After a devastating first half, the Red Devils played a conservative second half. The Red Devils controlled the ball game but never scored again. Okeechobee never posed a threat as their deepest penetration was the Avon Park 30-yard line in the fourth quarter. This series of downs was stopped by a defense forcing a fumble that was recovered by tackle Tony Thompson.

Raymond Claitt, Jerry Jones, Ernest Crawford, Larry Jackson, Ronnie Barnes and Billy Bolden all carried the ball for the Devils during this half.

As the half ended the Avon Park Jayvees were in a drive that had moved 55 yards. Most of the fourth quarter saw the starters on the sidelines and the reserves handling the baby Brahmans. All the Red Devils saw action as the season ended.

Statistics for the night showed Larry Jackson — 108 yards in 17 carries; Billy Bolden — 107 yards in six carries and two touchdowns; Ronnie Barnes — 72 yards on 13 carries and two touchdowns; Dwayne Council with 43 yards on five carries and one touchdown; Raymond Claitt with 34 yards on seven carries; Jerry Jones — 10 yards on two carries and Ernest Crawford — two yards on one carry.

Avon Park rolled up 376 yards while holding Okeechobee to only 56 total yards for the night. This was the last game of the season for the Jayvee team which had eight straight wins and shut out five teams.

Thinclads Head For State

Avon Park's chances for a state cross-country championship this Satruday in Jacksonville ride on a game knee and the indomitable spirit of the Red Devil Varsity.

The state AA championship run is slated for 8:30 a.m., with Clearwater Central Catholic favored to successfully defend its state titles of the past two years.

Our local thin-clads, however, hope to upset the Clearwater applecart with top performances from Alan Portis, Jerry McKenzie, Mark Myers, David Rhodes, Jody Johnston, Jeff Henly and Steve Brown.

Team co-captain McKenzie has been hobbled the past few weeks with a knee injury. Coach Chet Brojek and the members of the Red Devil varsity hope that Jerry will be ready Saturday to provide the spark necessary to ignite a Red Devil victory.

The other six varsity team members have posted season bests in the past two weeks to mark the Avon Park squad as one of the state's finest.

"We know the odds are all against us, but the kids will never give up on the battle to be number one. I really have to feel that we are due to have things go our way this week. The boys have been working extra hard and the spirit and drive they've shown me is great," Brojek said.

"Alan Portis' 15:51 record-tying course performance last Saturday in the District meet indicates he is reacy to run in the 15:30's on the Jacksonville course," Brojek predicted.

Myers has really improved this past month and will be the key to a top state position. Rhodes, Johnston, Henly and Brown all ran well in their first effort on the Jacksonville course last month. I'm sure they will be in top form this Saturday."

Runners Take Second Behind Clearwater Catholic In District

The Red Devil Cross-Country team had to be content with the runner-up trophy in the District 5 Class AA championship meet held here last Saturday as Clearwater Catholic zipped to a first place finish.

Team totals showed Catholic with 17, Avon Park next with 54, St. Cloud third with 67, Evangelical Christian at 115, Santa Fe with 130 and Melbonrne Central Catholic and Frostproof with no team score.

Both Clearwater and Avon Park won trophies for their efforts and both squads will advance to the state meet in Jacksonville this Saturday.

Clearwater dominated the meet with six of their runners in the top 10, while Avon Park minus team captain Jerry McKenzie could place only three in the elite group. The other spot in the top 10 went to a St. Cloud runner.

Avon Park's Alan Portis earned the fourth place ribbon as the top Devil finisher with his record tying 15:51 performance for the local course.

He tied the record set by former distance great Alphonso Williams in 1976.

Mark Myers was the next Devil finisher in seventh place in 16:31. David Rhodes' 16:45 performance earned him the tenth spot.

Young Jody Johnston's 17:32 for 13th and Jeff Henly's 18:15 for 20th gave the Devils a 54 point total. Steve Brown (18:34) and Bill Barben (18:51) rounded out the Devil scorers.

The Devils will leave early Friday going to the Jacksonville meet site to work out on the course. Coach Chet Brojek expects to take an eight man travel squad to the state contest. The AA boys race is set for 8:30 a.m., and should provide the Devils with the cool racing temperatures they favor.

Striders Go To State

Sunday's Central Florida Striders race at the high school had a small turnout as most local high school runners prepare for this week's state contest.

Local cross-country Coach Chet Brojek won the 5,000 meter contest in 17:45 to mark his return to racing after a three week layoff. Central Striders teammate Pep Hutchinson took second place in the 30-39 age bracket and second overall with his 20:09 time.

Two local high school runners won their respective age division races. Slade Ward won the 14-17 age division in 21:09 and Nancy Turnbull, the Red Devil girls team captain, won the women's division in 22:25. Turnbull defeated Stephanie Sutherland of Frostproof and Patty Belcher of the Avon Park girls varsity for her trophy. Sutherland and Belcher won ribbons for their fine efforts. Stephanie's dad Mark Sutherland was the third place finisher in the 30-39 age bracket.

Wayne Kenemuth (63) showed that youth must be served as he narrowly defeated Dick Leis (65) 24:36 to 24:44. Kenemuth told Brojek during the fun run that he'd have run several minutes slower had Dick not been back there pushing him.

In the one mile fun run Stephanie Sutherland won top honors and earned the blue ribbon. Kenemuth outkicked Brojek to relegate the coach to last place in the fun run.

The next Central Florida Striders race will be held on Saturday, December 2, and will cover 10,000 meters (6.2 miles). T-Shirts will go to all finishers. Entry fee for the last Strider race of 1978 will be $3 advance and $4 on race day.

Cattlewomen from all across the nation will participate in Farm-Week activities. Plans for the Highlands County CowBelles include a booth at the Art League Festival, Saturday, Nov. 18 starting at 10 a.m. where bar-b-que beef sandwiches will be sold and beef recipes and literature will be passed out.

According to Sarah Childs, Farm-City Week Chairman, the Highlands County CowBelles will join the national event with women of the American National CowBelles, the women's auxiliary of the National Cattlemen's Association.

The survey found, for example, that value conflicts among young people combine an adhorrence of 'money grubbing' on the one hand with a desire for good salaries on the other. It appears from this survey and other indicators that understanding of the economic system is fragmentary, at best."

According to Mrs. Childs, one of the economic concepts most misunderstood about the agricultural sector of our economy is that farming and ranching is not a margin-added business where margins are added to costs of materials, like conventional manufacturing and merchandising businesses.

"The prices we receive for our cattle," said Mrs. Childs, "are determined strictly by supply and demand at the time of sale. That's why live cattle prices have fluctuated so much over the past few years. We are currently nearing the end of a cyclical over-supply situation in which the numbers of basic producing cows have been too large for demand to hold prices at profitable levels. It has taken us several years to reverse the build up pattern in cow numbers. Because of the nature of our product and the large number of cattlemen, each making independent decisions, we are not able to stop production one day, place out product on the shelf and resume production when the price improves," added Mrs. Childs.

Sportsman Mistaken For Deer In Accident

One hunter mistakenly bagged a fellow sportsman just a few hours after the official hunting season for deer opened at the Avon Park Bombing Range.

Jerry K. Davis, 37, 606 S. Lotela Ave., was wounded in the ankle when a fellow hunter thought he was aiming at a nearby deer, according to the Highlands County Sheriff's Department.

Davis had stopped to rest by a tree when the other hunter saw a deer near Davis and fired his 12-gauge shotgun at it, according to sheriff's department investigators.

The other hunter missed, but a pellet from the shotgun blast struck Davis in the left ankle, the report said.

According to investigators, the hunter who shot Davis apparently got excited when he saw the deer and forgot to look around, thereby failing to notice Davis standing by the tree.

Davis was one of 1,895 hunters who availed themselves of the opportunity to hunt Saturday and Sunday at the bombing range, according to a tally made by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

According to the commission, hunters bagged 35 deer on the first two days of the season, in addition to 16 wild hogs, eight turkeys, 408 quail, 99 snipe and 19 doves.

Fall Hunting

Season Opened Nov. 11

The opening guns of the general fall hunting season sounded at one-half hour before sunrise on Saturday, Nov. 11.

The Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission reminds hunters to check their 1978-79 hunting regulations for changes which directly relate to pursuit of their favorite sport.

Snipe season will begin opening day and continue through Feb. 25. Shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset with a daily limit of eight and possession limit of 16.

The second phase of dove season is set for Nov. 11 through Nov. 26 with the last phase running from Dec. 16 to Jan. 7. Legal shooting hours are from noon to sunset.

Duck season is divided into two phases with the first opening at one-half hour before sunrise on Wednesday, Nov. 22, and continuing through Dec. 10.

The second phase will begin at one-half hour before sunrise on Thursday, Dec. 21 and end Jan. 20. Legal shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset every day.

Dennis And Edler Bags Two Deer

In early morning hunting along Arbuckle Creek Jamie Dennis and Randy Elder, each bagged a buck deer. However, their hunting companions, Mark Bachman and Johnny Fortner came away empty handed.

At about 7:30 a.m. Sunday morning the hunters spotted the two bucks at about 150-200 yards away. Dennis using a 30-30 rifle bagged a seven point buck weighing about 135 pounds field dressed.

Randy Elder, using a .410 shotgun with slugs, picked off the second buck. This buck, a three pointer, weighed about 80 pounds field dressed.

At present, Jamie Dennis plans to have his 7-pointer mounted.

Lively Living

By Betty Amburn

Shirley Buckler

First Female To Monitor Range Tower

"So far the hunters have been very nice and co-operative" said Shirley Buckler, the first female range tower operator, during the hunting season, on the Avon Park Bombing Range.

Her primary mission is to be a lookout in the range tower on Charlie Range, checking to make sure that all vehicles and hunters stay in the designated hunting areas, and away from posted unexploded ammunitions areas. "Most of the seasonal hunters are aware of their limitation," she said, "however, occasionally some do get lost."

Her primary mission is to secure all areas posted "Keep Out - Unexploded Ammunitions."

She recalled how one hunter upon driving up to the tower asked, "Sir. . . ma'm . . . can you tell me where Kissimmee river is?" And, in her boisterious manner said, "Right where it's always been." Laughingly she directed the misguided hunter back to his desired route and went back up the tower.

Most of the men are really very nice she stated again, I don't anticipate any trouble." "As a matter of fact, she continued, "I usually just sit all day without much to do, but occasionally I get a glimpse of a shiny object that I hadn't seen before and take the binoculars and get a closer look. Turns out its something that has been there all along, the sun was hitting it just right to produce a glare. Looking over the range, hunters can be seen as tiny specks in the vast land, and vehicles like a child's tiny top in the distance.

Does being a female pose any problems she was asked. Shirley responded with a hearty chuckle, "No!" "If I have,or foresee any problems,I can always reach the Fish and Game men roaming throughout the range and at the main gates, also the base's security police will respond to a call.

"Why Charlie Range Tower instead of the closer Bravo Range?"

Why Charlie Range Tower instead of the much closer to civilization, Bravo Range? "Because I am taking an accounting course at South Florida Junior College and need the peace and quiet to study." If I was any closer, people would be dropping in on me, to see how things were going." she said. The vast area has a serenity about it, I really enjoy being out here, she added.

On the weekends when hunters are allowed on the range, Shirley arrives early at the site, to gain her position and keep watch in the direction the hunters head. However, before climbing those tower stairs, she first must start generators and let them run for 15 minutes and then switch the power on.

Shirley took a 16 hour training on a M8-80 and a 2 week course on generators to qualify for this position.

For without this knowledge there would be no water or eletricity at the site. And, at times poses a problem if you want to flush the commode and someone has forgotten to fill the water tank or bring in the pumper.

To be eligible for the job. Shirley had to take a two week course on generators learning everything from how to operate it, to what to do in case of malfunction. She also received 16 hours of training on a M8-80, four wheel drive vehicle.

Shirley began working for the federal government back in 1957 when she was employed as a product controller with Naval Oceangraphic's in Maryland. She stated that she really enjoyed her work as each day she did something different; from being a pressman to bindery, working with zinc plates and etc. She was there until 1964, transferring to Naval Weapons Station in Yorktown, Va. From 1966-67 she was employed in the main branch of the Navy in Washington, D.C., later transferring to the bureau of Census, Department of Agriculture where she received a superior award as a statistical typist.

Shirley began federal employment in 1957 as product controller. Came to Avon Park in 1977.

In January 1970 she moved to MacDill Air Force Base, Tampa and was employed as clerk-typist for veterinarian services. In June of that same year she began working as a service call specialist for civil engineers. And, in 1977 she came to the Avon Park Bombing Range where she works as a production worker controller. Her duties are to take maintenance request, dispatch service trucks, record job orders, know whereabouts of all employees during duty hours and keep a tally of work hours complete which is turned into MacDill AFB for cost accounting on a daily basis..

SHIRLEY BUCKLER at the top of Charlie Range Tower. If you are as close to the tower as the photo above shows, you are out of the designated hunting area, including sightseers who enjoy the company of the hunters.

SHIRLEY SHOWS THE photographer the generator she must correctly operate in order to have power at the range site.

SHE CATCHES A glimpse of an object she had not seen before. Shirley is scanning the area over carefully with her binoculars and checks to make sure no one is in the posted areas. She stressed that the areas were posted for the hunters protection, because if they elect to move unexploded ammunition, the result could be disastrous.

Why has Shirley extended herself to enter fields previously held by a man? "I didn't want to be a clerk-typist all my life," said Shirley.

"I didn't want to be a clerk-typist all my life" she replied. "Actually I hated being a clerk-typist," she said laughingly. She went on to say that many women stay in jobs they really don't want because of stereotyping. Many fields are beginning to open to females and males that before were stereotyped to be for one sex or the other. And, you don't have to stay with that dead-end job if you don't want to she added. There are many programs available to help each person find the job for them or what they would like to do, only if they have the will power.

She also fills out form 171 for people seeking employment with the federal government.

Shirley also fills out federal form 171 for people seeking employment through the federal government. Each form must be filled out specifically and correctly using proper terminology which will enable the person to get a higher rating in order to secure employment. She is chairman of the Equal Opportunity Program on the Bombing Range and also the representative of Federal Womans Program. She holds meetings once a month, on the base, giving talks on a variety of subjects, such as, social security, who qualifies, and how to qualify; securing employment, schooling available, and how to file for food stamps.

And, holds monthly meeting on the Federal Womans Program.

"Anyone may attend these meetings" she said, "they do not have to be federal employees." The next program will be announced in the Avon Park Sun.

Shirley is the mother of three boys ranging from 19 years of age to 11, and a daughter 24. She has become to be a well known and liked person on the Bombing Range. Sometimes domineering, which she laughingly admits, and is well versed on the attributes for being a woman entering a stereotyped man's field and profession. Lots of self determination and will power has enable her to progress to her present level, and most of the men whom she works with respect her ambition.

So the next time you are hunting on the Bombing Range, traveling towards Kissimmee River, if you are very close to Charlie Tower, give Shirley a wave of your hand, she'll be looking at you. And, for those that get lost, she'll be there to help you get back on the right road to the designated hunting areas.

Social Security

Q. My youngest brother has offered me a part-time job at his service station when I retire in November. Can you tell me how much I will be able to earn before my social security retirement check is withheld?

A. Yes, I will be happy to. If you are age 65 or older, you can earn as much as $4,000 in 1978 without any loss of payments. If you are under 65, you will receive all your social security benefits if your 1978 annual earnings are $3,240 or less. If you earn more than these amounts, your benefits generally will be reduced by $1 for every $2 you earn over the limit.

Q. I am 60 years old and have a job as a real estate salesman. I really love my work and want to keep at it until I am 70 if I can. I understand that if I delay my retirement, my social security benefits will be increased. Is this true?

A. Yes it is. And since you will not reach age 62 before 1979, the new legislation increasing the delayed retirement credit for 1 percent to 3 percent applies to you. This means that after you are 65, you will get a 3 percent increase in benefits for each year you do not receive social security retirement benefits up to the month you reach age 70.

Q. My friend told me that I could apply for disability benefits for my dead husband who died 4 months after an automobile accident. I did not believe it. Is it true?

A. In your case, probably not, since your husband apparently was not disabled for the entire 5 month waiting period. But it is true that an application for disability benefits can be filed after the death of a disable worker. If the claim is approved, back payments may be made for some months preceding the death of the worker. The application must be filed within 90 days after the worker's death.

Q. I was thinking of opening a bank account for my 4 year old son. Does he need a social security number for this?

A. Many banks use the social security number as their own means of identification, and it also is used for tax purposes (such as reporting interest). You can apply for a number, on his behalf, at any social security office in person or by mail. His birth certificate will be needed as evidence of age and citizenship.

For answers to your Social Security questions, write P.O. Box 178 Lakeland, Florida 33802 or call the Social Security office listed in your telephone office listed in your telephone directory.

Eleanor and Cecil Damon rove the Robinsons to Winter aven for the Fed. Mobile ome District meeting on hursday, Lunch at Duffs and bit of shopping. We enjoyed very bit of the day! Following a report on the district eeting.

This is a report from Ruth obinson and Lawrence obinson on the District leeting No. 1 held on Thur- day 10 to 12 a.m. preceded by "coffee and doughnut" time or old friends to get equainted, once more.

District No. 1 now consists of olk and Highlands Counties. he District President is Mr. allace R. Bennett. There was very good turnout from many arks. Mr. Howard Mallinger f Bonnie Brae Mobile Home ourt was elected the Delegate rom Highlands County to ttend the Federation's State ssembly in Sarasota next month. Mr. Ralph Adams was another delegate from Polk County in addition to our District President. There is only one State Assembly a year.

The District Meetings are held three times a year and Mr. Bennett tries to have a pleasant place for us to get together at that informative meeting. Perhaps we can have more of our people from Avon Mobile Home Park attend, next time. Let us all work to enlist more of our residents in this worthwhile organization. Mr. Russell Bridge is our President and Mrs. Catherine Baker is the Secretary at present. When they return, we will set up a date for a Federation Meeting in our Recreation Hall, after a coffee hour. Please inquire about your Benefits for your yearly contribution which makes you a member.

Be sure to purchase your License Tags by the first of the year. They will be only a 2 inch tag to display in the window of your mobile home, this will take the place of the metal tag which we had in the past. (We may have to return the metal tag to the county). There will be sent to each member a F.M.H.O. Decal to place in the window of your Mobile Home. If you have a double wide, there will be 2 Decals; you will put one on each side of your mobile home, in the window.

Mr. Eric Petersen our Regional Director presented some facts pertaining to the desirability of being a member of the Federation including: Paying our share for the (1) Blood Bank (2) Helping to pay for Legislation which represents each one of us that lives in a Mobile Home Park, and carrying our load for good living in our special park. (3) The people for whom we vote to work for us in the Head office are the (pressure group) who introduces to the Law Makers in Tallahassee our ideas and wishes for the Mobile Home Dwellers in all of the State of Florida.

The only thing you, as a member must do is to write to the Lobbyist about your needs with a petition. The District President can furnish all of us with necessary information, or Ms. Betty Saylor, Secretary.

Southside Community Park

By Calvin Gibbs

Hi Friends,

Welcome to Southside Park Community News. Again we are approaching that time of year when we set aside a special day of thanks. Soon there afterwards, we'll commemorate the birth of Christ. and New Years. It seems that Veteran's Day was only yesterday and Halloween the day before. Here in Southside Park, everyone can feel the affect of inflation and unemployment, but the spirit of Celebration has already begun to penetrate the air. As we approach this special season of the year, may I extend my prayers and best wishes to all of you everywhere for your continuing health, happiness and a joyful holiday season.

Calvin Gibbs

To Preach Trial Sermon:

You are cordially invited to accompany the pastor and congregation for this service. If you find it impossible to attend, you may send a contribution by one of four contact people. Mrs. Gwendolyn Hill, Mrs. Shellie Adams, Decon Robert Britt and Decon Ernest Sims.

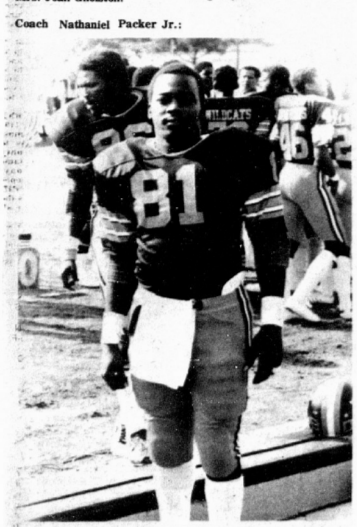

Guess Who:

Pernell Gibbs

The picture shown here was way back when. Pernell Gibbs is now a Senior at Avon Park High School. Pernell's ambition is to play Senior Varsity basketball well enough that he can catch the eye of someone who could award or be instrumental in awarding some type of scholarship whereby he may further his education after high school. Well, all I can say right now is that a lot of study and determination usually go a long way.

Coach Nathaniel Packer Jr.:

Nathaniel Packer Jr.

The former Bethune-Cookman College star tight-end, Nathaniel Packer hopes to become a sucessful coach in the future.

Packer is a native of Avon Park. Packer is working with the coaching staff of Father Lopez High School. Bonnie Brae Mobile Home Park News

As of this writing your reporter Margie Wells is on a cruise with her husband P.D. Wells. They left on Nov. 11 on the Cunard Princess from Port Everglades in Fort Lauderdale. They will visit Puetra Plata, Dominican Republic; San Juan, Puerta Rico; St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; and Nassau in the Bahamas. After the cruise they will spend some time at the Eden Rock Hotel in Miami. We all hope that their cruise will be enjoyable, so that they will want to make many more.

Some people no sooner arrive than they are off on another trip! Willard and Ruth Allen and Al and Helen Toper left Tuesday for a few days to the Keys. So glad that Ruth is feeling well enough for the trip.

The Coffee Hour on November 8, had 44 present. The hostesses were Ellen Richenbaugh and Ann Griffin. The Harts, Pixleys, Zwayers, Youngs and McDougalls were welcome back. It was announced that a covered-dish picnic would be held on Sunday, Nov. 19, at 1:30 p.m. at Highlands Hammock. Please sign up in the laundry room.

Howard Mallinger announced that he would attend the Federation of Mobile Home Owners on Thursday and that he would call a meeting in the park after the coffee hour on Nov. 22.

Bingo will start on Monday and Thursday at 7 p.m. Argus Sheridan read a comic poem and Steve Bohaychyk will show pictures on Friday Night. Card games will start on Saturday night. Doris Palmer has charge of the Thanksgiving Dinner and you are asked to sign up in the Recreation room. There is a limit of 70.

Those returning this week are John and Lena Sinatra, Robert (Sam) and Lucille Thrush, Sy and David Fabiny, and her sister and husband Marie and Mahlon Devine, Lucille and Art Smalley, Esther and Orin (Bud) Leonard, Joe and Varina Asher, Douglas and Lorene Campbell and Agnes and Charles Davies.. So good to have you back safely to enjoy another winter at Bonnie Brae.

Verda Miller had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Grossman of St. Petersburg. While here they spent over night at St. Augustine, visiting all the important places.

Bob and Rose Pierce of Lake Mohawk, Malvern, Ohio visited with Ray Jones and Sally and Steve Bohaychyk on Friday and Saturday. They are touring Florida after visiting Rose's father in Lehigh Acres.

Luella Pinney and her son Jack and wife of Huntington, Indiana arrived late Sunday afternoon. Luella has purchased the mobile home formerly owned by Roy and Doris Mizer.

Roy and Doris Mizer have rented an apartment in Sebring awaiting the arrival of their new mobile home.

Ellen Hunt entered Walker Memorial Hospital on Sunday for surgery to her foot. Best wishes for a speedy recovery, Ellen.

Ann Lockwood and Marie Lizotte, former park resident, had a four day trip to Key West.

The couch train trip was 1½ hours around the island. Coming back they took the coastal trip on AIA to West Palm. Here an entire Mall of Antiques' lend itself for good browsing.

Neal C. Wilson

Seventh-day Adventist Elect New President

Neal C. Wilson currently vice president of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, has been elected president of the world church. He succeeds President Robert H. Pierson, who announced his retirement for health reasons Monday (Oct. 16).

The 58-year old Wilson was named to the church's highest post Tuesday afternoon by the Annual Council, a gathering of top administrators in Washington. After his nomination by a select 66-member committee, he was chosen unanimously by the council.

Wilson has served as vice president of the church for North America since 1966, a post that brought him wide administrative experience. He is chairman of the board of Loma Linda University, a major medical - educational complex near San Bernardino, California.

Wilson has extensive overseas experience, having served as president of the Adventist church in Egypt and other Arab lands from 1950 to 1958. While there he negotiated the opening of the church's work in Libya, the Sudan and Aden. He was also advisor to governor of Cairo for religious liberty affairs.

In his acceptance speech to the delegates, Wilson said God had allowed him to have a "varied world experience" in preparation for his duties as head of the 3-million-member church. He said he had spent half his life outside the United States, as the son of missionaries and as one himself. "I am very conscious of deficiencies, very conscious of limitations." he told his listeners, and then asked for their prayers for his leadership.

The retirement date announced by President Pierson is January 3, 1979. Wilson is set to take office at that time.

Wilson was born in Lodi, California, on July 5, 1920. He and his wife, Elinor, have two children. Norman C. ("Ted) is director of the Adventist church's Metro Ministry in New Yrok City, and a daughter, Shirley J. Anderson, is a nurse in Birmingham, Alabama.

Christian Science Plan Thanksgiving Service

Members of Christian Science Society of Avon Park have scheduled their annual Thanksgiving service for Thursday, November 23 at 10 a.m. The service, open to the public, will be held in the church edifice at Avon Blvd. and Highlands Blvd. (Avon Park Lakes area).

The hour-long meeting includes Scriptural readings and hymns of Thanksgiving, as well as excerpts on the topic of gratitude from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.

The readings this year include passages from Psalms: "I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. . . He healeth, the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds."

And from Science and Health: "Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech."

Following the readings, time has been set aside for Christian Scientists to share their gratitude for God's goodness and love.

H. Stanley Hart and Rachel M. Hart, who are serving a term as the congration's Readers, will conduct the service which also includes President Carter's Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Episcopal Women Plan Christmas Luncheon

The Episcopal Church Women of Avon Park met on Wednesday, Nov. 8 for their regular monthly meeting in the Parish House of the Church of the Redeemer after Mid-week Communion.

After a short coffee, Mrs. Kluberg brought the meeting to order. Mrs. Elsie Hall led the devotions, and members repeated the Church Women's Prayer.

Minutes of last meeting and treasurers report were read and approved.

Mrs. Alice Smith chairman of the nominating committee presented the list of prospective chairmen. This was voted on and approved.

Mrs. Jane Betts, thanked all members who had helped at the Christmas Bonanza and were responsible for a very successful event. A large group was waiting for opening time, and food and gift articles began to disappear like magic. Members worked hard to make the event a success and it is gratifying when things go so well. The hard work proves worthwhile.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, Dec. 13, and will be a Christmas covered dish luncheon. Members will bring a dish to pass and their own tableware. Coffee and tea will be provided. Also, Communion for that day only will be at 10 a.m. instead of 9:30 a.m. So take note, and make every effort to attend this meeting.

THE COLOR GUARD of VFW Post 4300 Sebring stands at attention as the U.S. Flag donated by the unit to Hillcrest Nursing home is being raised. Avon Park Middle School burglars sounded Taps. Sunphoto by Lew Miller.

V.F.W. Present Flag To Hillcrest Nursing Home

Seventeen service veterans were honored last Saturday, when the VFW Post 4300 of Sebring presented a U.S. Flag to Hillcrest Nursing Home. The 11 a.m., ceremony found most of the veterans on the nursing home patio to witness the flag raising.

After marching in the Avon Park Veteran's Day parade, the VFW color guard of Elmer Keller, Ken Hinkle and Howard Hawkey stood at attention as the flag was raised by John Austin, Service Officer and Chaplain of Post 4300. Austin had previously donated the flagpole. During the flag raising, "Taps" was played by Blair Brooker, Mark Elkhill and Ben Johnston of the Avon Park Middle School Band.

Veterans now at the nursing home are: Bill Devlin, Jersey City and James Asel from Vineland, N.J. Bill Taylor, Niles and Otto Krieger, Petosky, Mich.; Valerie Keene, Ft. Myers, Clark Davis, Sarasota, Earl Harris, Lake Wales, Art Young and Lee Martin, Sebring and James Ray, Avon Park.

Bill Pulso and Walter Erickson of New York; Russell Fitch, Glouster, Mass.; Tom Gunn, Ala.; Hezkiah Zeber, Reading, Pa., and Cleveland Smith from Ramsgate, Kent County, England, who served in Britian's Royal Air Force in both World War I and World War II. He had entered the service when he was 19 years old.

With the 17 veterans already at the nursing home, it is planned to have approximately 30 veterans as patients sometimes within the next six months, stated Social Services Director Mary Rogers. This would give a diverse cross section of patients at the 90 bed home, which always has had a waiting list.

Social Director Rogers explained that small events such as the flag raising ceremony and other groups coming into the nursing home help keep the elderly people in touch with the community. In the process of getting a Master of Science Degree from Florida Southern, in gerontology, the study of the aging process, Rogers spoke of the gratitude of the patients on being remembered by the various organizations that bring a part of the community to the home. This being remembered is so vital to their well being, she added.

The speaker for this service will be Fr. William C. Harris, Rector, Church of the Redeemer, Episcopal. Music will be provided by the Church Choir of the First Baptist Church under the direction of Miss Syble Watson.

City Council Candidates Speak Out On Issues

ELECTION FIRING LINE

(This week the Sun begins running a series of questions asked of each candidate for the Avon Park City Council. The Sun will run six questions this week and six next week. Each candidate was interviewed individually, on tape, in an attempt to ensure each candidate's response would be his own without outside help.

The sun hopes the questions, and the answers given by the candidates, will aid the voters when they go to the polls in the December city election.)

1. What will be the major problems facing the city during the coming year?

Albrition: Naturally some of our sidewalks need to be improved; some of our streets need to be repaired; of course, our water system — we're working on that right now, to a certain extent. I know we have small lines in some areas. We have low water pressure in some areas, but eventually we're going to try to take care of this.

Barefield: I think problems connected with growth will be the greatest. Growth is definitely something that has to be planned for. If we're to effectively control it. This has to do with our water, sewer building patterns. All of these things have to be looked at individually in the future. I think this will be our major problem as a city. The telephone company projects that in 1998 the county will have between 135,000 and 140,000 residents so we're definitely growing in this area.

Howard: My opinion the number one problem will be money. I understand the budget was real tight this year. What we are going to have to do is watch the money very closely.

Smith: Several things. We need to do something about the job situation, we need to encourage business. Crime is a problem. Recreation, also. All of those are tied together. I think we need to work together for a better city.

All of these problems, and others, show a great need for long term planning in the city. For example the recently completed sewer system is already said to be at capacity when it should have had ample capacity for the next 10 or 15 years.

"The major problem facing the city of Avon Park right now is to regain some sort of confidence in their city government."
—Phil Wooten

Tataris: One of the major problems is the double taxation we're having now. Basically what's happening is people are paying for services we are not receiving. Until I see what the service is for what we're paying, it is going to be an issue. This is basically what I'm interested in, seeing the people get what they're paying for. The taxes taken for Highlands General Hospital should be put into another fund for the city.

Wooten: The major problem facing the city of Avon Park right now is to regain some sort of confidence in their city government. It's my firm opinion that, at the present, the confidence shown in the Avon Park City government is at a all time low.

There are numerous things which contribute to it, which everyone is well aware but I think it's vitally important that confident be restored. In order for a city, or anybody, to function, the citizens have to have confidence in the people leading them or making decisions which effect them.

Once that problem is taken care of I think everything else will fall in place.

Whitbeck: I think the main thing might be to get someone on the council who can work out the problems. I would like to see more businesses come into town. The downtown area is dying a slow death. I'd like to see the downtown area become a little bit busier than it is.

County Makes Error On Double Taxation

The $109,999 Mistake

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Mistakes do happen–and Highlands County officials made a slight miscalculation in the amount of $109,999.

That was the sum which Avon Park City officials challenged in the double taxation report prepared by representatives of the Highlands County Commission.

The error is apparently the result of a misunderstanding between County Commissioner Cecil Skipper, Administrative Assistant Charles Cullens and Tax Collector J.T. Landress.

Skipper and Cullens prepared the report but were aided with some figures provided by Landress.

Landress wrote Avon Park City Clerk Malcolm Crews that "because of a misunderstanding between Mr. Cullens' request and my interpretation of it, the computation was based on the city non-exempt tax instead of the county non-exempt tax."

In a letter to the county commission Crews had objected to the county tax figures, stating the figures shown were approximately $109,000 too low.

"The City of Avon Park is listed as having paid in taxed the sum of $230,048. The correct amount would be $340,047 less discounts taken for prompt payment. This is a difference of $109,999 or an eror of 47.8 percent in your figures," Crews wrote the county commission.

The commission study had shown all cities in the county were receiving more in services rendered than in taxes paid for the services.

The county only showed taxes collected by the county. The figures did not reflect taxes levied by either the school board or Highland General Hospital.

County Commissioners had the report prepared when Avon Park Councilmen complained of double-taxation.

In replying to the county Crews stated that, after an intensive review of your (the countys') figures we find many "inaccuracies and misrepresentations".

Of the close to $109,000 difference in the two figures of the amount paid in taxes to the county Crews said that "since this is a basic figure the entire report is in error and we cannot consider it until a correction in all figures is made."

Crews also told county commissioners since the Avon Park figure is wrong, then probably the figures for all cities in the county are incorrect.

"This of course makes the report far out of line," he wrote commissioners.

Landress said he regretted the misunderstanding and stressed there was no intention whatsoever to "misrepresent facts and figures distributed through this office."

Winter Guest Drowns While Fishing

An Indiana resident who had traveled to Avon Park to spend the winter drowned Tuesday after he had went out on a early morning fighing trip on Lake Istapoga.

Luke Parker, 68, of Ferdinand, Indiana was found at approximately 11:30 a.m. by Sheriff Joe Sheppard and Lt. Mike Mercer.

According to the police report, Parker had left the Trail End Fish Camp around 7 a.m. in a rented boat to fish in the lake. Around 10:30 the boat was found without any occupant, the sheriff's department was notified.

The body was removed to Highlands General Hospital and will be transported to Lakeland General Hospital where an autopsy will be performed to determine the exact cause of death.

Mrs. Della Parker, the widow of the deceased, said the body will be sent to Indiana for burial.

Sgt. Robert Hopton and Sgt. Fred Mitchell have been assigned to the investigation.

Teacher Pay Dispute May Be Heard Next Week

A dispute over teacher pay raises may go to non-binding arbitration as early as next week, chief teacher's union negotiator Chet Brojek said Tuesday night.

The School board and Highlands County Education Association received a list of three names from the Public Employes Relations Commission (PERC), from which a "special master," or arbitrator, will be chosen by a process of elimination.

Miami lawyer Leonard Davidson appeared to be the most likely choice, Brojek said following a meeting with Assistant Superintendent J. Ferrel Smith, the school board's chief negotiator.

Sarasota attorney Alfred Brent and N.A. Beadles, an economics instructor at the University of Georgia, Athens, are the other two candidates, he said.

The arbitrator will hear the dispute at a public hearing.

NAACP Banquet Honors Mitchell

William Milner

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

Although saying the battle against racism is far from over Tampa Civil Rights Leader William Milner told a black and white audience he would like to "flash this picture to other parts of the world, parts where mankind is trying to destroy mankind."

Milner, speaking at the second annual banquet of the Avon Park Branch of the NAACP, said even though the struggle for freedom for black men and women had been difficult, blacks had always been true to their God and their native land.

"There have been no black Benedict Arnolds," he said.

Throughout the years black soliders have fought with white soldiers and were always true to American ideals.

"For what effects one of us, effects all of us...No one can be free without being willing to fight for that freedom. Our struggle is just, our cause is right," Mitchell said.

An executive committeeman with the Deomcratic Party in Hillsborough County and a member of both the Hillsborough Planning Commission and the Mayor's advisory board, Mitchell told of an episode, several years ago, when he had tried to speak in Avon Park.

There was a threat on his life and, when he had arrived at his destination, the Hopewell School; he was told he could not make a speech.

"People came and advised me we could not have a meeting in the school. I told them one day Avon Park would be a decent place where decent men could meet and talk. I see that has happened tonight."

If a picture was sent to other parts of the world, the picture would show "black people and white folks breaking bread together."

God made us all equal, made us from dust. But it must have been black dust because I haven't seen any white dust," Mitchell told the audience."

The dinner wad dedicated to O. L. "Ora" Mitchell, the president of the local branch of the NAACP. Mitchell received an award for his long dedication and service to the organization.

Mitchell said he "didn't think I've done that much" but praised the NAACP as an organization. It was the NAACP which helped passed the 1964 Civil Rights Law, he said.

"Now if I apply for a job, they have to consider my qualifications. I go to hotels and restaurants and they have to admit me. We go places without worrying about being insulted. It wasn't always that free.

"...Freedom is not free. You have to pay for it. Martin Luther King paid his life for it. John Kennedy paid his life for freedom," Mitchell told the audience.

In summing up, Mitchell noted that "you can't lead where you don't go. You can't teach what you don't know."

Although both men said blacks would still have to battle against racism, the mood of the night was light, with both speakers joking with the spectators.

Noticing reporters from the Avon Park Sun Mitchell kidded that, "I know we have come a long way. Last year the Sun sent only one photographer, no writer. And he took pictures for 30 minutes but didn't have any film in his camera.

"So I hope you have lead in your pencil and have film in your camera."

Citizens Can Head Off Burglary Epidemic

A rash of burglaries in recent months has prompted Highlands County Sheriff Joe Sheppard to request the aid of citizens.

Observant residents who report any suspicious activity in their neighborhoods to the sheriff's department or local police authorities are the best deterrant against would-be burglars, according to Sheppard.

County residents have been the victims of a large number of burglaries, Sheppard said, in which television sets, stereos, large appliances, jewelry, household linens and electric blankets have been stolen.

Placid Lakes, Leisure Lakes and the Lake Josephine area have been prime targets for large burglaries, he said, the residents in Sebring Hills, Lake Haven Estates and Sun & Lake Estates also have been victimized.

Anyone in the Avon Park area observing suspicious activity or a strange person or car in their neighborhood can report it to the sheriff's department toll free by calling 452-2225. If you do not wish to use your name, your anonymity will be honored, the sheriff said.

Middle Schoolers To Get Measles Vaccine

Because of a measle outbreak the Highlands County Health Department is offering free measles immunizations to Middle School students of Highlands County on November 29 and 30.

Children who have been immunized from measles or had their shots prior to 1968 should be immunized.

Information on measle immunization and mumps vaccine, together with consent forms which must be signed by the parent or guardian will be distributed to students at school on November 27.

This information should be thoroughly read and the consent slip signed and returned to school on November 28.

No immunization will be given unless the signed consent is returned. Measles is a serious disease with serious complications - including encephalities, possible deafness and mental retardation.

Girls will be immunized with measles, while boys will receive a combination measle-mump-rubella immunization. Rebella vaccine is not recommended for girls past the age of puberty because of possible pregancy and the possible effects of Rubella on the fetus.

Reporting All The News

There is a story, somewhat aprocryphal, about the late Palm Beach millionaire John D. MacArthur which illustrates the virtues and drawbacks of throughness in reporting.

An author had written an unauthorized, and very unflattering, biography of MacArthur, detailing the financier's various questionable business ethics and corporate deals.

When one associate asked the South Florida businessman why he didn't sue the writer, MacArthur snorted, "Hell, he didn't tell half of it."

We were reminded of that tale by two letters which came to the Avon Park Sun this week, one by Mrs. Sue Baillie and one by Mr. Rockwell Carrier.

In all fairness, there have been several other complaints voiced to the Sun that last week's account of the city council meeting did not tell all that happened. Complaints which are quite similar to those placed by Mr. Carrier in his letter. The complaints which have been voiced indicate that, in the deletion of some material from the council meeting, this somehow slanted the story.

In some cases what is deleted or written in a news story will definitely determine what the general atmosphere of the story is. However in this case, what was left out had no or, at the very least, very little bearing on the story.

Mr. Carrier's first complaint is about a mobile home owner, who happened to be Mr. Baillie, who complained to the council about being refused permission by the building inspector to put on an addition to his mobile home.

Now several things were omitted by Mr. Carrier in his letter. First, the man was turned down by the city's Zoning Board of Adjustments. The building inspector, in his refusal to allow the improvements, was simply enforcing the rules from a city board.

If the council feels the zoning in this matter should be changed to permit such improvements, then it is up to the council to change the law. No city official, including the building inspector, can make an on-the-spot change in the law.

After about 30 minutes of discussion, the matter was resolved when C. W. Ellerbee, the building inspector, said he would meet with Mr. Baillie the next day to check on other types of improvements which might fall within the city laws and zoning policy.

The council itself took no official action on the matter. Much of the discussion was superfluous and uncecessary.

In reporting on the council meeting, the Sun decided such topics as the double taxation question, the specific question of the taxation of city residents by Highlands General Hospital and the rather unusual method and manner of axing Mr. Ellerbee's pay was of considerably great significance than a matter on which the council took no action.

Mr. Carrier's second complaint is that, in the long discussion regarding the pay of C. W. Ellerbee, his exchange with the building inspector was not included.

No, it wasn't. For two reasons. First, there was no indication by the council that Mr. Carrier's statements affected their decision one bit. No councilman commented on Mr. Carrier's statements.

Two of them had already stated their reasons, or lack of them, for their subsequent action in reducing Mr. Ellerbee's pay.

EDITORIALS

Secondly, Mr. Carrier's request was also denied by the zoning board of adjustments. If his request had been approved, he could have obtained a permit to remodel.

The debate on Mr. Ellerbee's pay, and the questioning of Mr. Guenther's performance of his duties, went on for 25 to 30 minutes. Because of the press of space and time some elements of that discussion had to be left out.

The Sun hopes it included in the story all the relevant points of the discussion. It certainly did its best to include all the most important points of the debate.

In the interest of fairness one more detail must be commented upon. In her letter, Mrs. Baillie states that Councilman David Barefield said trailer people are "low class" at that same council meeting.

We did not report that for one simple reason.

It never happened.

During the discussion Councilman Henry Dennis said Councilman Barefield had made such a statement. Barefield said he had not, that he had pointed out that, in zoning classification, mobile home parks were the lowest residential classification. The statement was meant as a comment on zoning, not on people.

Whether Councilman Barefield has made a similar remark some time ago is a matter between him, Mrs. Baillie and the citizens. But a newspaper cannot take the statement of one councilman and attribute it to another councilman.

One case is the exercise of news judgement on what is relevant to a story and what is not. That exercise of judgement is, and should be, open to question and criticism.

The second, though, would be an outright distortion of what was actually said at the council meeting.

A Kind Word For Landress

Before another controversy begins snowballing, let us say a kind word for Tax Collector J.T. Landress.

In the disagreement between the city of Avon Park and the Highlands County Commission about double taxation — an issue which should be discussed and debated — Mr. Landress has the unfortunate position of being caught in the middle.

Worse yet, when he was asked for county taxation figures from county Administrative Assistant Charles Cullens, the request was either misunderstood or misconstrued, which left the tax collector handing figures to the county which were incorrect.

Now taxation and financing are rather complex subjects and the request by the county could easily have been misinterpreted by the tax collectors' office.

We don't believe for a moment Mr. Landress tried to foist any inaccurate figures to the city of Avon Park, and we don't think the city believes it either.

The Sun stated even before the county gave their figures to the city that there would probably be legitimate differences of opinion, even when all the correct figures were in.

When the figures were presented to the county, County Commissioner Norman Heston said he hoped that would settle the controversy and the cities would stop complaining.

No way.

The question of double taxation is much too important of matter to be ignored by city or county officials. Several candidates for the city council have pointed this out and significantly, all are in favor of removing Avon Park from the taxing district of Highlands General.

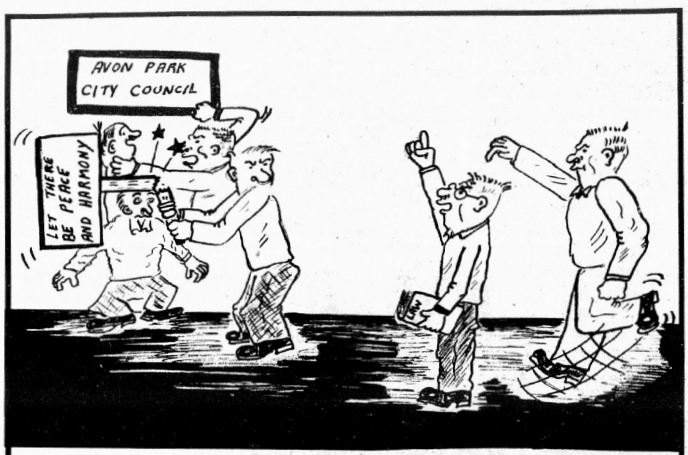

The city is merely asking for a accounting of the taxes which its citizens pays to the county, a request which is basic and fair.

Even so, it is perhaps inevitable the county commissioners and city councilmen may disagree on what type of services the city is receiving and how much the city is paying for them.

But let's leave J.T. Landress out of the firing line.

Our Readers Opinions

Discrepancies in Government

Editor:

As a business woman, property owner, tax payer and voter, I would like to know why the Avon Park Sun, would change the image of three councilmen, who are trying to uphold their duties and help improve the town, instead of letting it run down. In last weeks editorial, the Nov. 13th council meeting made Robert Britt, Henry Dennis and Kelley Phillips look like the villians, I find this to be untrue.

During the last 18 months I have attended many council meetings, and find these men to be qualified for their elected positions. They have tried not to be bias with business, residents or city officials. It is true we have many discrepancies in our city government, but thank God these three men had guts enough to stand up to paid city officials, and behind the scene politicians, and try to work with the citizens to make Avon Park a city to be proud of.

Please don't feel that my attack on David Barefield, is a personal one. I am one of the many who owns a trailer park, I have wealthy as well as families with modest means living in the park. I disagree with him when he sits on the council seat and makes the remark "that trailer people are low class," they are the lowest class people in our city. If it wasn't for the trailer parks and the people in them, the city might be in worse shape then it is right now. He should visit trailer parks in Ft. Lauderdale and surrounding cities, where millionaires have chosen to live this kind of life. I am afraid he would be very poorly received, would these people want this kind of man on their council?

His brother-in-law Larry Albritton, president of our council, and business man is very much concerned over these statements, as it could hurt his business.

It would be very beneficial to all voters and tax payers to make a special trip to city hall and sit down and read all the minutes of the council meetings for the past two years, see if you want to vote in a councilman who doens't want any business to come in, wants to get rid of all trailer parks, no improvement on buildings because they are in the fire zone, that would be all the more reason to improve all the run down old buildings on Main St. some of those buildings are an eye sore.

What is the future of Avon Park with David Barefield as councilman? I see hatred, deception, firing of city officials, cutting salaries and moving big business outside the city limits. These councilmen are at the discretion of all citizens of Avon Park, without peace and harmony do you really think our city will survive?

Sincerely,
Sue Baillie

Sun Doesn't Print All The News

Editor:

I decry the fact that Avon Park has one weekly newspaper, and that newspaper has an apparent policy of not printing "all the news that's fit to print", but selecting the news to publish as it suits their purposes.

I decry the attempted purification of the building inspector and one of the councilmen by this newspaper not only in their editorial page (which is their prerogative), but also failure to report two incidents which occurred during the last council meeting. A mobile home park operator appeared before the council to complain about his frustration in attempting to improve and make safer his property, only to be continuously turned down by the building inspector. He further related that when he inquired what would be acceptable to the inspector he could get no information.

During the course of the discussion on the salary reduction, the inspector piously admitted that he made mistakes but he always corrected these mistakes. This writer erupted at that statement and showed the council how he has been denied approval to add on a sun room exactly like other rooms which were built in his area both before and after such denial. To remodel, if even a permit could be obtained after this, would cost another $1,000. Based on current estimates. In addition, certain critical remarks of Councilman Phillips were not reported because they were in a similar vein. Is this paper the voice of the people or the voice of Duncan?

Prejudice Reflected?

Dear Editor:

The fact that the Homecoming Queen's picture and or her court was not featured on the front page of the Sun is totally ridiculous. This is the main event of Homecoming to find out who the queen and her court are.

Unfortunately, the Sun obviously doesn't think the queen deserves such an honor. But why not? They've been doing it for at least ten years, why the sudden change? A picture of a majorette on the front page for Homecoming is not too impressive. Could it be prejudice on the Sun's part just because the Homecoming Queen was Black? Think about it, staff. If the news media isn't fare and just to the public, then who is?

Ain't That Always The Way!!!

Rocking The Boat

By George Duncan

This past weekend a great many of the football bowl bids went to various college teams. Now the number of post-season football bowl bids have proliferated over the past few years.

There seems to be no sound reasoning for all the different bowl bids and, since the whole matter is getting carried to the extreme, we probably see bowls like these in the next few years.

The Turkey Bowl - Instead of honoring the better teams in the country, this bowl will honor the worst. No team will be allowed to qualify if they have won more than two games during the previous two seasons.

(At the rate the Gators are going, the University of Florida may soon be able to qualify for this bowl bid. They can't qualify for anything else.)

The resultant fumbles, errors and generally bumbling play in this game should result in great amusement for all.

(Regardless of the name, this bowl has nothing to do with any type of politicians.)

The Liqour Bowl - This bowl has no function whatsoever except to allow husbands to sit down, watch television, drink and tell their wives to bug off.

Since this bowl makes no pretense at being anything but an excuse for drinking no one will care who plays in it.

All the teams in the nation will be dropped into a hat and two picked out. Viewers can pick one team to root for or can simply drink for both teams.

The Striptease Bowl - Since more and more teams have cheerleaders who are wearing less and less, the bowl game is designed to center the television camera's focus on what everybody else is looking at anyway.

Cheerleaders for both sides will come out wearing scanty-costumes and gradually disrobe as the game progresses. The first one to take the most off without being arrested for indecent exposure wins a trophy.

Since the teams are unecessary to this bowl, it is suggested they not bother to show up.

The Mafia Bowl - Instead of covering up their activities, this bowl would enhance the exposure and help the public relations campaign of syndicate families.

One example of a game could be between the Trafficante families of Tampa and the Bonano Families of New Jersey. Both sides would pay the highest price for different players to play for their team with each trying to outbid the others. Bribing officials would also be allowed.

The Oil and Dictators Bowl - Possibly the most exciting of all the post-season bowl game. Howard Cosell will do the play by play of the game.

Dictators from South American countries as well as oil-sheiks will be on the field. The oil-sheiks will attempt to obtain a monopoly on footballs and keep hiking the amount of yardage needed for a first down when the other team has the ball.

Offensive linemen will try to keep a hoard of angry dissenters from sacking the Shah of Iran at his quarterback position.

Idi Amin of Uganda will play only if all the members of the opposing team play with their hands and feet tied together.

Candidates

How do you rate the performance of the council during the past years?

Albritton: Well, I'd say we've had more problems in the past year than in the previous three years I've been on the council. Some of these problems, I think, could have been solved in a different manner.

Barefield: Poor. For one thing, I think we've looked at things on a piecemeal basis rather than on the basis of a long range program.

Howard: All I know is what I've read in the papers, I haven't seen down there. They seem not to be able to agree. One side can't come together with another on different problems. They seem to be at one another throats. That is no way in the world to solve a problem. The only way to solve a problem is to cooperate together a 100 percent.

Smith: I would rate them as very poor. They do not seem to act as the unit that they should and work together and look at everything in a total prospective, everything objectively and see what is best for the city.

Some, not all, look at things in a personal matter, looking at personal things, instead of objectively and whether its best for the city as a whole.

Tataris: I really can't give you a direct answer on this because I haven't kept up with everything. At this standpoint I think some of the issues they're arguing about is minor. For example, at the last city council meeting, there seemed to be a squabble between the city attorney and a resident of the area.

I feel the city attorney's responsibility was to give the person an answer and not to invite the person out for a fight.

The reason I'm running is I feel there is no harmony. I feel there is a big split there. Everytime someone in the north picks up a newspaper, the reflection comes back to Avon Park. If I were a tourist who just retired and was looking for a place to go, I definately would look to a place where there was a little control and harmony in their government.

The average individual, or tourist, who comes to Avon Park has a pocketful of money to spend in our grocery stories, the telephone company and department stores. So the council should be a little bit more respectful in what they do and what they say because it is a reflection to the people moving down.

Wooten: There may be certain individuals on the council which I rate their particular performance as good, whereas the overall council performance, and the image the city council has projected to the community over the past years, I would rate it, on a scale of one to ten, a possible four with ten being the highest.

This is not saying they haven't decided some issues with good results but a there are certain things a gread deal of time spent on which should have been solved long ago.

Whitbeck: In the last year and a half or so since I bought the station I haven't really paid that much attention to what the city council does.

Some of the things they do are good. As far as the council doing the job they're supposed to, I don't see how they can when they sit around arguing back and forth and bickering.

They have to work these things out instead of pulling each other apart and pulling department heads apart. The department heads are as important as the council. If the council interferes with them, they can't do their job.

I think they need to upgrade their ways of meetings a little bit.

3. The present city attorney is from Sebring. Would be in favor of hiring a local attorney for the city, if possible?

Albritton: Well, at the time the attorney was hired from Sebring, it was due to the fact that we didn't have anyone really interested in being the attorney who was from Avon Park. However, at this time I'm sure there probably is people that would be interested in serving as the attorney from Avon Park. However, I've always liked Jack

Alex Whitbeck

(Hancock). He's a personal friend. However, I think the general opinion of some of the people in town would prefer an attorney from Avon Park. But, there again, I'm not saying that Jack hasn't done a good job or that someone in Avon Park could do a better job. Maybe having someone from Avon Park which could be contacted a lot easier, or easier to get a hold of. . . maybe that would be better.

Barefield: Yes, I would. I think we could work a lot closer with an attorney from Avon Park. There's been several times I would have liked to have talked with an attorney but it would have taken a couple of hours to run down and see him and get back to work. If we had one in Avon Park, he would be just a few minutes away. Some things you would rather discuss personally than over the telephone.

Howard: If we can find one and get him at a reasonable price, I'm in favor of it.

Smith: I am very much in favor of an attorney from Avon Park.

Tataris: I'm not in favor of hiring an attorney from out-of-town or Avon Park. My position is, let's hire a qualified attorney. Let's hire an attorney that's strictly in favor of and works on behalf of the people and not make the difference where he's from. I think we need an attorney with the ability to work solutions out and not an attorney with the ability to stand up and invite somebody to go out and fight.

Wooten: Absolutely. I'll answer that in one word.

Whitbeck: Yes, I would. Because I feel like a local attorney would have the city's interest at heart more than an attorney from out of town. I've heard of several things that the council has done that I feel like the city attorney should have said, 'Hey, you can't do that.'

Like the paving contract on Castle Street. You can't make a verbal agreement.

Milton Howard

4. Do you think Avon Park should be removed from the taxing district of Highlands General Hospital since most residents are served by Walker Memorial Hospital?

Albritton: Yes. I was against Highlands General Hospital in the beginning, since Avon Park has their own hospital, and I don't know very many people who are sent to Highlands General. Therefore I would favor being removed from the taxing district.

Barefield: Yes. As soon as possible.

Howard: Yes, I do. Otherwise the citizens of Avon Park would be paying something which they receive no benefits from.

Smith: I feel we shouldn't pay taxes for services we should not get. We do not use that service so I don't think we should pay taxes for it. I also feel there is another area where we don't get a service, that being the sheriff's department. We have our own police department and we don't get too much use from the sheriff's department. But the biggest problem in this sense is the hospital.

Tataris: Yes, I definitely do believe this, unless they can show us any reason beyond a shadow of a doubt that we should remain in it.

Wooten: There's an example of double taxation. This country was founded on a revolution in 1776 and one of the big issues of the taxation without representation.

Now I'm not abreast of all the facts. I'm not sure if a great deal of money has been spent by the county in Avon Park. I don't know. But I do say if, it was not returned to the community in some form or the other, then yes, it should be removed. You should get your money's worth for anything.

At this particular time people are taxed just about to their limit. In more cases than not, they're not getting their dollar's worth.

Whitbeck: Yes, I do.

5. There has been some controversy over the building inspector in Avon Park. Do you think the building department is handling its responsibilities and, if elected, would you vote to fire the building inspector?

Albritton: No comment.

Tom Tataris

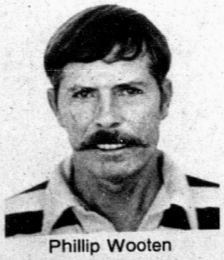

Barefield: Definitely not. I feel the building official has attempted to do a good job. I think he has done an excellent job. Everyone makes mistakes, of course, and somethings can be overlooked having only one official to cover the entire city.

Basically, I feel the building inspector is doing an excellent job. I don't think any councilmen, including myself who works with the building department, truly understands the complexity of the job, and I think the building official performs that job very well.

Howard: Well, I'm the type fellow who doesn't enjoy firing anyone. I think the best way to solve that problem is to get the building inspector to meet with the city council and solve the differences. I think the council and the department would get along together 100 percent. You can never accomplish anything with one man pulling one way and another pulling another way.

I don't know what's been going on. I hate to say either way about firing. I'm not in favor of firing nobody if he's performing his duties in the right way. When I was on the council before, the building inspector and I got along alright.

Smith: Being on the Board of Adjustment I work with the building department and do so on a regular basis. I feel the building department is doing their job. As far as firing any department head I would not do so unless it was proven to me the man was either incompentent or incapable of doing his job, or just not doing his job. This would be for any department head.

Phillip Wooten

Tataris: You're asking a real hard question. First of all, you're asking me to tell you what the responsibilities should be, and for me to judge a person when I have no knowledge of responsibilities. . .

I am not going into City Hall with the intention of firing anybody or removing anybody from their present department head. Let's get into City Hall, find out what the problems are, let's find out what his responsibilities are, then let's make a decision. I can't make a decision by sitting here and telling you he's not doing his job when he's doing his job, 'cause I really don't know what his responsibilities are. I haven't seen a format, anything the city council has put out saying his responsibilities are this, this and this, and this is what he needs to do.

Wooten: There again, I'm not abreast of the facts. I think you have to deal in factual information and not hearsay. But I would say if facts support that the job is not being done, yes. But if there is no factual information, then I would not be in favor of firing the building inspector.

As long as a person does the job they were hired for then they should not be fired for any other reason than the failure to do the job properly.

Whitbeck: I'm not up on the building inspector and how he does his job. From the little bit of experience I've had with him, he's been alright.

Larry Albritton

6. How would you rate the other city department?

Albritton: I think they're doing a good job. I know we have a lot of hard-working men in the various departments. Of course, I'm more aware of the water department since that is my department.

I think there are some departments which are doing a very good job for the city, but I think there are others which could be improved.

Howard: My opinion is we have a good water superintendant, a good street superintendant, a good fire chief. I think we have some mighty good men for the amount of money we pay. The more money you pay a fellow, naturally, the higher caliber man you can get.

Smith: Not working with them, I'm nor really qualified to pass judgement on them. I would have to say they are on an equal basis. I work with the building department, and I think the recreation department is doing good. But the other departments I do not work with and am really not qualified to make a judgement.

In the city of Avon Park right now, I would rate the departments as being very good. Dennis Guenther in the Recreation Department has a college degree, he spends the time — he has the capacity and he has the knowledge to run the recreation properly. From what I've seen today and from what I've seen in the past, I think Dennis Guenther is doing real good. I also feel the same way about the fire department; I think the fire department is doing an excellent job. I top of every situation in the new building he's going to, and I feel that is a good he's going to, and I feel that is a good department. The water department — think the water department is doing real good. And generally I think that everything is real fine, and I really don't have a grudge or a bone to pick on this.

Wooten: Offhand, there again I'm pretty much at a lost. I'm not aware of money spent to get a certain job done. I will say, just by casual observation, the mall under what every department that is, the mall is a great improvement over what it was in the past. I can remember it when it left a lot to be desired.

Whitbeck: After talking to people I think that most of the departments are doing a good job. If I were elected and found out a department head was not doing his job, I'd go before the council and try to get it corrected or get a new department head.

Paul Smith

Correction

In one paragraph of last weeks editorial it was stated that "Councilmen Robert Britt and Kelley Phillips (who) vented their ire, anger and insults upon the recreation director and building director."

This was an all-inclusive statement which, when read with the rest of the editorial, meant that both department heads were subjected to such remarks at times during the council meeting.

Councilman Kelley Phillips would like a clarification made that he did not make any statements toward the recreation director directly.

Debo PresentsProgram To Avon Park Grange

A Thanksgiving program, presented by the Lecturer Keith Debo, at the meeting of Avon Park Grange brought to mind memories of early days. He said that at the Pilgrim's Feast in 1621 there were 51 present. This was half of those who started the trip across the ocean to the new land. It was 1863 when the First Thanksgiving was proclaimed by Abraham Lincoln to be observed on the last Thursday of November. Thoughts about Thanksgiving were read by Miriam Debo and Florence Mason. A reading — Little Blessings was given by Nettie Petersen.

Several members related their thoughts on early customs in their area. Few ever had turkey, which has become traditional. Mr. Debo recited the poem of James Whitcomb Riley — When the Frost is on the Pumpkin, and gave as thought for the day: He enjoys much who is thankful for little; a greatful mind is a happy mind.

The plant sale, held the previous Saturday, was reported as a real success. Fifteen members had attended the meeting of Lake Placid Grange on Monday evening when officers of that Grange and the Pomona Grange were installed. Part of the Pomona officers were Avon Park members.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening November 28, with a pot luck supper at 6:30. Officers will be installed by General Deputy Walter Wood and suite of Venice.

There will be a baking contest also. Members entering are to have their yeast citrus coffee cake at the Woman's Club hall by 5 o'clock to be judged. A winner will be selected to enter the State Grange contest in January.

J.C. Penney Company Announces Program On Defective Grinders

The J.C. Penney Company, Inc. in cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission and McGraw-Edison Company, has announced a voluntary repair program of about 2700 J.C. Penney 6" bench grinders that may pose an electric shock hazard. The model 4030 grinders were sold by J.C. Penney between June 1973 and approximately June 1975.

A protective sleeve that insulates a lead wire may wear through if in contact with the motor shaft. Severe shock could result if the bench grinder is not properly grounded, and the user is grounded or touching a grounded metal object, such as a water pipe.

The repair program applies only to model 4030 grinders purchased after June 1973 which are not imprinted with a 3-digit date code (such as 57 C) on the name plate. The bench grinder should not be used until it has been inspected and reworked. Owners of the bench grinders should contact their local J.C. Penney store to make repair arrangements.

A repair program that included the J.C. Penney grinders was first announced by the McGraw-Edison Company and the CPSC on August 29, 1978

To vertify the model number, call CPSC's toll-free hot line at 800 — 638-2666. In Maryland only, call 800 — 492-2937. Deaf persons who have special teletypewriters can also call the hot line.

Second Graders Learn Culture

Friday, Nov. 17, second graders of Mrs. Lucy Loveless class at Avon Elementary School spent the day working, playing and eating as American Indians did hundreds of years ago.

In preparation for this day the class members had spent several weeks in studying Indians. This included basic reading and writing skills, special reports, preparing Indian booklets and the learning of actual Indian songs and dances.

The day began with the children and teacher arriving at the school dressed as Indians. Then Mrs. Jamie Edge, media specialist, came into the room and shared Seminole Indian clothes, arrowheads, and other Indian artifacts with the children.

After this presentation the class went to the playgroud where they spent a day that included planting seeds, pottery making, sand painting, using a bow and arrow, making necklaces, and dancing. A delicious Indian lunch was prepared and served by class mothers.

Those assisting in the days activities were: Mrs. Lucy Robinson, Mrs. Linda Daubach, Mrs. Paul Devlin, Mrs. Wayne McConnell, Mrs. Wilma Conner and Mr. David Clark.

Burgler Takes Perfume

A thief with a penchant for perfume struck the home of Mrs. Mary Tate, 1444 South Carolina Ave., last Thursday.

The burglar entered Mrs. Tate's home sometime between 8:55 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. by removing three bolts on the back kitchen door, according to Highlands County Sheriff's Deputy Glenn Bass.

In addition to a bottle of Ciara perfume valued at $22.95, Mrs. Tate reported the thief took $20.34 out of an insurance folder hidden in the bedroom.

The case still is under investigation.

Garden Clubs Display Holiday Arrangements

Avon Park Federated Garden Clubs met at the Florida Power Lounge on November 16 at 9:30 a.m. Coffee and goodies were served from an attractive decorated table which displayed autumn fruits and flowers. Hostesses for this meeting were officers of the Hibiscus Circle.

The program for the day was an interesting and informative lesson in the use of locally grown materials in holiday arrangements. Several members of the club displayed and explained their methods and materials. Those participating were, Syble Laye, Mildred Rulison, Jane Barben, Katie Davis, and Marianna King.

Each one was made a different and unusual approach to the holiday theme. Their expertise made one proud to be fellow-members of the Garden Club.

The Christmas Tea, scheduled for December 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Padgett on Lake Lotella from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. was discussed. The theme for this years event will emphasize an "Old Fashioned Christmas."

Those in charge of committees made their reports and stated that the annual Christmas Tea promises to be bigger and better than ever.

For a festive affair and to gather hints for your Christmas decorating don't miss the fabulous Garden Club Christmas Tea. A small donation fee of $1 per person is asked to defray the cost of expense for the special occasion.

Marianna King displays the door wreath she made from shells at the Garden Club meeting last week.

Young Recieves Award

Avon Park's postal carriers are spending 7.1 percent less time, on the average, for each delivery they make, a fact which has won the local post office an award as the "most improved" city delivery office in the Florida District's Group III for fiscal year 1978.

The award was presented Nov. 1, by District Manager A.B. Cleveland to Postmaster Robert D. Young.

"We wish to congratulate you, your supervisors and carriers for their exemplary performance in providing good delivery service to your customers and providing it in a proficient manner," Cleveland wrote.

From fiscal year 1977 to the past year, delivery time decreased from .718 to .667 minutes per delivery per family.

Park Christian School Holds Fall Barbeque

Park Christian School held its first Fall Barbeque and Craft Sale Saturday, Nov. 4, and was proclaimed by all involved to be a success. A total of 451 people enjoyed a meal of chicken, baked beans, cole slaw, and various drinks.

An army of fathers began early Saturday morning to cook the chicken over an open oak fire. Mothers were also involved in the serving line and preparation of food. Scores of elementary and high school students could be seen around the campus busily taking care of odd jobs to make the barbeque run more smoothly.

The Elementary Royal Choir performed four selections in the open air for the enjoyment of the diners. The school's facilities and classrooms were open and available for interested visitors to view. There was an abundance of Christmas crafts ranging from tiny candy canes to lovely fabric wreaths. Although everyone involved was tired at the end of a full day, it was agreed that the barbeque was worth the effort.

The school is now looking forward to its annual Christmas program scheduled for Dec. 19. The public is cordially invited to attend the Christmas program.

Holiday Ranch News

By Barbara Ebmeyer

Here we are again for another season among the orange groves and palm trees. We are happy to see the friendly faces of past years, and note a few new ones here and there. It was hard to leave the beautiful weather back in Lansing, Mich. though, when we left on the 9th.

Regulars already at the Ranch are the Bob Savages, Clair Renoes, Ray Robertson, Harry Reeds, also from Mi., the Bill Seals from Mass., Harold and Dot Manges from Ill., Les and Madeline Clute, Al and Mariam Petteys, the Howard Jones and Max Crossetts, all of N.Y., Woody and Marge Warner, the Earl Bowmans, and Clarence Baxters of Ind. The Ted Lews of Ohio and Willsi Lehmans. Others who had been here for short periods before are the K.C. Mechanicks of N.Y. and Al Hadleys of Ill.

Clair Reno presided over the Monday morning coffee and plans were made for the season's activities. The coffee hour will continue weekly. Men's shuffleboard will be at 1:30 p.m. under supervision of Les Clute. Women's shuffleboard will be started soon with Mariam Petteys in charge.

Women's Crafts will also be Wednesday at 1:30, cards Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. and bingo on Friday evening at 7:30 called by Howard Jones. The Saturday night suppers will continue.

Al Petteys was appointed secretary and treasurer, and Bob Savage will be chairman next week following our custom of passing the work and responsibility around. There were 29 at the coffee.

Les Clute reported 8 men played shuffleboard at the first meet.

The women's group had 19 attending and plans were made for the Thanksgiving dinner Thursday at 2 p.m. Ila Reno will supervise the plans. Steve and Ann Pardee, ranch owners, will furnish the turkey and the other goodies will be brought by the residents.

Dropping in on the crafts group were longtime former ranchers.

Dick and Doris Somers, who had their new home at Fairmount Estates waiting for them when they came down this fall. Irene Bergstrom who has bought a home at Dolan's Park also dropped in. It was good to see them all again. Other old time ranchers, Charles and Mabel Travis, who now live at Fiarmont dropped in at the Monday coffee.

George and Hazel Bowers from Iowa, who formerly stayed at the ranch visited the Al Petteys November 5, and Russell and Vivian Timblin of Ohio and Ft. Meade were their guest on November 11.

Have you noticed the clever new sign on the highway directing us to the ranch? We were all amused by the smiling little face welcoming us back. Look for it when driving north of the hospital on U.S. Highway 27.

Ready Announces One Stop Permitting Bill

In a move to coordinate environmental permitting procedures for developers, State Representative Gene Ready (D-Lakeland) has introduced the "One-Stop Permitting Bill."

The bill would set up a procedure by which a large developer, at his option and with local government approval, may apply for one central permit issued by the Governor and Cabinet approval, may apply for one central permit issued by the Governor and Cabinet upon the recommendations of a hearing officer. Presently, several agency permits are necessary before development may begin. This would cut the time lapse maximum from approximately 36 months down to thirteen months.

Ready, in explaining process, stated, "This is a streamlining procedure aimed at making Florida a more inviting state for industry. This will increase employment, broaden our tax base, and strengthen the economy.

Ready stressed that any ordinance, rule, regulation, or decision-making power of any local government entity would not be pre-empted. "Local government concerns and environmental concerns have been taken care of within the language of the bill. The high environmental standards will remain intact and these groups should have no problems with the bill.

"We've lost several major industrial developments recently to South Georgia and Alabama due in part to the unreasonable length of time it takes to process these applications." Ready said.

A PAT FOR ROSIE

Manatee Awareness Month

Everybody enjoys an occasional back rub and "Rosie," a 1200 lb. Manatee (Sea Cow) is no exception. Seems she's often the object of such special treatment from the divers who claim that her roughly 1 inch thick hide is not deterrant to enjoyment of the pat. Rosie probably doesn't know she's on the Endangered Species list or that Manatees have been protected by the State of Florida since 1893 because she's been a resident of Marineland of Florida for the past 12 years. Manatees are vegetarian, air-breathing aquatic mammals that are completely harmless. Recently, Governor Askew proclaimed November as Manatee Awareness Month with the hope of focusing attention on the plight of these diminishing creatures. In their natural environment of Florida's warm springs and rivers, they are more often than not the victim of boaters who carelessly injure the creatures with motor propellers. According to Harry Harper of Florida's Department of Natural Resources, the Manatee's only real enemy is man.

University Approves Proposals

The Graduate Advisory Committee (GAC) of the College of Education at University of Florida has approved the Department's proposals for Ph.D and Ed.D programs with specialization in Vocational, Technical and Adult Education. The proposals must now be approved by the Program Policy Committee and the Dean.

The new Dean for the College will take office after the summer quarter '78 and it is anticipated that his approval and the credentialling of qualified faculty members will take place during the fall quarter '78.

If this schedule is met, the two programs should commence in early '79.

The College presently requires a minimum of 1000 on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) and a Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 3.0 (B average) for the final two years of undergraduate studies. Other factors to be considered are the individual's GPA during the Master's Program, writing ability, occupational position, recommendations, etc...

No additional resources will be provided for the doctoral programs. Accordingly, the candidates in each program will be limited initially to approximately ten students.

The Ph.D. program, as presently planned, consists of a total of 96 quarter hours beyond the Master's. Courses from the following areas are planned:

Foundations, 16 Q. H.; Measurement & Research, 16 Q. H.; Language or Computer Science, No Credit; Specialization, 24 Q. H.; Cognate Area; 16 Q. H.; Dissertation, 24 Q. H.; Total (PH.D.) 96 Q. H..

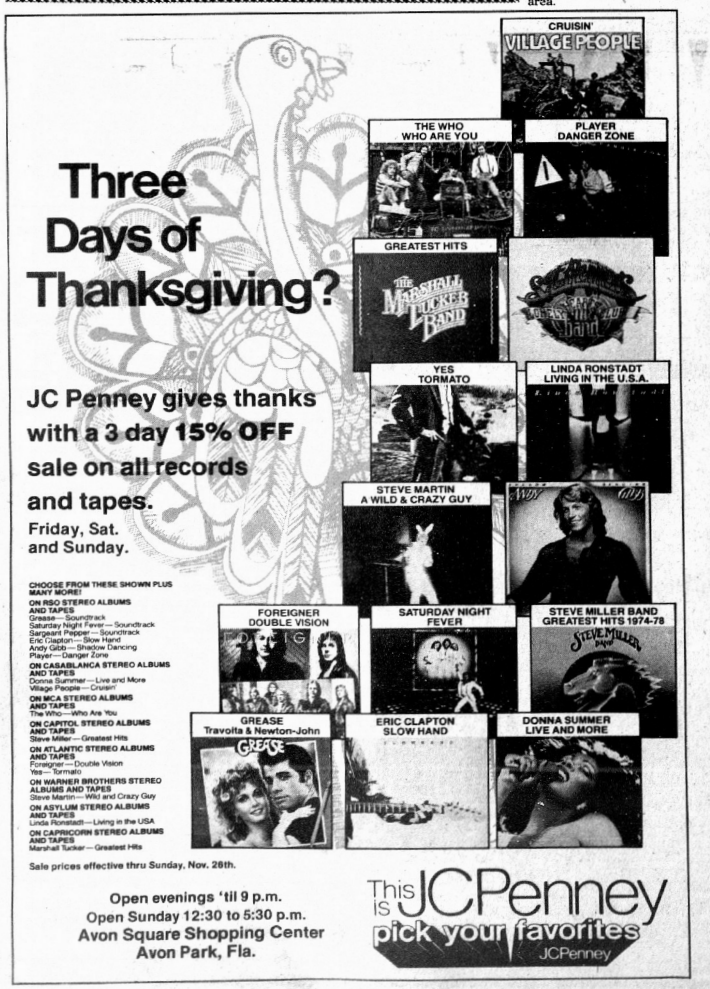

The Cognate Area is related to and designed to strengthen one's specialization. For example, studies in Psychology, Sociology, Gerontology, Guidance, Educational Administration, etc...

The Ed.D. program is presently planned as follows: Foundations, 24 Q. H.; Measurement & Research 16 Q. Y.; Specialization 28 Q. H.; Dissertation 24 Q. H.; Total (Ed.D.) 92 Q. H.

To meet residency requirements, each doctoral candidate must register for a minimum of 8 Q. H. for three consecutive quarters. Three Measurement and Research courses have been identified which will be required. These are: EDF 7407 (EDQ 705); EDF 7408 (EDQ 707); and EDF 7409 (EDQ 708).

One of these courses will be scheduled sequentially each fall, winter, and spring quarters. However, due to the limited number of doctoral students planned, extreme caution should be used in taking any courses prior to final acceptance as a doctoral candidate.

Additional information will be provided when available.

Thanksgiving Day

"Roast turkey — the favorite Thanksgiving entree — is a perishable food" reminds nutritionist Evelyn Spindler of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. "Practice these four important points so you can enjoy your Thanksgiving dinner safely."

— Always thaw frozen turkey in the refrigerator. Or — if you must thaw it more quickly — put it in a waterproof plastic bag, seal it tightly and defrost it in cold water. Never thaw commercially frozen stuffed poultry before baking. Put it directly into the oven.

— Cook turkey thoroughly to an internal temperature of 180-190 degree F. Never partially cook it for final cooking later. Bacteria can survive in partially cooked poultry.

— Cook stuffing completely. It's safest to cook it separately from the turkey because stuffing inside a warm turkey is a breeding place for bacteria. If you're preparing stuffing for a large group, cook it separately and insert a meat thermometer into the stuffing until the temperature reaches at least 165 degree F. Never stuff a turkey the night before cooking it.

— Refrigerate leftover turkey immediately. Remove the meat from the bones to make it easier to store. If you cut it into small pieces, even cubes, the turkey will freeze fast and defrost fast for future use.

"In addition to Thanksgiving Day's turkey and stuffing, people should always guard against food poisoning," said Spindler.

"You can avoid foodborne illness by keeping perishable foods such as cream pies, cooked meats, seafoods and dishes made with eggs, fish, meat and poultry below 40 degree F. Don't let foods stand at room temperature.

"Bacteria grow best in lukewarm foods. Don't give them a chance. Make sure seafood, poultry and cooked meats are kept hot, above 140 degree F," she said.

Food borne illness can cause diarrhea, vomiting, stomach cramps, and other unpleasant symptoms which can last for several hours or even days. Food that is improperly handled, prepared or served is usually the cause.

"Don't let food problems mar your holiday. Keep food safe to eat by preparing and serving meals safely," said Spindler.

Vet Pensioners Must Complete Income Survey

Among some 115,000 Florida Veterans Administration pension beneficiaries who will receive VA annual income questionnaires this year will be some 50,000 elderly veterans and children of deceased wartime veterans who have never before been asked to fill out the forms.

The questionnaires must be completed and returned to VA to prevent loss of pension in 1979.

St. Petersburg VA Regional Office Director, William R. Blackwell, said pending legislation makes it necessary for the VA to gather income information on children receiving pension benefits and pensioners age 72 and older who have previously been exempt from completing the income questionnaire after being on the VA rolls for two successive years.

Pensions are paid to wartime veterans with nonservice - connected disabilities who meet income limitations, and to their eligible widows and children.

Currently, the annual income cutoff point for single veterans is $3,770. Veterans with dependents cannot earn more than $5,070 and still be eligible for a VA pension. The annual income limitation for dependent children is $3,080.

Annual income limitations also apply to parents of veterans who died of service-connected causes.

"The annual income questionnaires being sent this year to previously exempt elderly beneficiaries and to eligible children will enable us to be certain that these individuals receive the maximum possible pension in 1979," Blackwell said.

The income questionnaire was mailed with VA's November 1 pension checks and must be returned to the agency by January 1, 1979.

Blackwell urged all beneficiaries over 72 and dependent children of deceased veterans who receive the annual income questionnaire for the first time to contact a Veterans Benefits Counselor at the VA Regional Office if they have questions. The toll free number from Avon Park to the St. Petersburg Regional Office is 1-800-282-8821.

Square Dancing Big Success

That first square dancing campout held the second weekend in November was certainly voted a great success by the dozen couples who caravaaned to nearby Safari Campground in Lake Placid. This group which has been organized by Sebring's Ridge Rollaway Square and Round Dance Club is open to any square dancers who have some kind of camping rig regardless of where they live, and have taken the name of "Vagabond Rollaways" and will be a chapter of the National Square Dance Campers' Association.

Events for the weekend included mini-workshops both afternoons and regular square dancing evenings Friday and Saturday. Ten non-camping guests arrived for the Saturday dance and quite a number of the Park's regular campers visited to watch the fun. As usual the before-dance Pot Luck supper brought out the best in the cooks.

After-dance campfires for fellowship, marshellows and popcorn, ended each evening with a lot of laughs. "Lefty" Tidd proved to be not only an excellent caller, but also a top notch teller of tongue twisting stories.

Wagonmasters announced the next campout for the Vagabond Rollaways is scheduled in January at Cocoa's Biblia Campground. More on this later. Meantime, membership is open to all square dancers with camping rigs.

Current activities for Sebring's Ridge Rollaways are as follows: "Lefty" Tidd's beginner class Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. at Thee Pier and open to those dancers wishing to brush up on basics. Wednesdays, regular workshop and dance at the Civic Center at 7:30 p.m., and open to all for Mainstream +1 +2 level dancing with "Lefty" calling. Sundays at Thee Pier, from 6 to 7:30 p.m., beginners Round Dance Class; and then 7:30 to 9 p.m., Round Dancers' workshop with easy and classic level cued by Jim Runnels.

Saturday, Nov. 25, also at Thee Pier, another of the popular fun evenings of mainstream dancing with "Lefty" Tidd calling will be open to all square dancers from wherever. Come and enjoy that nice old wooden floor which is so kind to your feet.

Last Wednesday, The Ridge Rollaways welcomed guests from Okeechobee, Lake Placid, Lake Wales, Avon Park, Babson Park, Malvern, Ohio and Ontario, Canada. This super active Club extends the hand of welcome and friendship to all square dancers whenever they may be in the area, so do join us any time at Sebring.

Don't forget to check on reservations for The Ridge Rollaways' gala New Year's Eve square dance party which will be complete with midnight buffet. See Dottie Minnick at either dance, or phone Lake Placid 465-3863.

First Audubon Film Is January 19

The eighteenth season of the Audubon Wildlife films will get under way for Ridge Audubon Society with the first film to be shown on January 19. There will be five films in the series as usual, with the last showing on the evening of March 16.

Tickets will be on sale at Lake Wales Public Library, the Audubon Center in Babson Park, (638-1355,) or from various members. Regular tickets will be $8.00 and Patron tickets $10.00, the latter helping to defray the expense of showing matinees to school children.

The films will be shown this year at Polk Avenue School Auditorium, across from Southgate Shopping Center, 110 East Polk Avenue, a convenient location for practically everyone. This year's Committee Chairman is Fred Bizet. These tickets make enjoyable and suitable Christmas gifts, and checks may be made payable to Ridge Audubon Society. Schedule of the films is as follows:

On January 19 at 8 p.m. Richard and Judy Kern will present "Hidden Worlds of the Big Cypress Swamp." The Kerns combine their biological interests to bring you an in-depth study of a cypress swamp. It is a dramatic illustration of the dependence larger animals of Florida's wetlands have on the hidden, minute creatures of the swamps and marshes.

February 2 Charles T. Hotchkiss will show "Return To The Tetons," a film which is truly outstanding, and aside from its beauty illustrates the impact which civilization and overuse of our parks have on wildlife and wilderness areas. Both his ability as a photographer and his past years as Ranger-Naturalist in several of our national parks fit him to vividly document this problem.

February 16 Greg and Linda McMillan will present "Into Australia's Red Center." The McMillans are not newcomers to film lecturing, and since Greg McMillan joined the Audubon team of film lecturers he has become a popular speaker with films of consistently good quality. Since this film was made during the wettest year of the century Down Under - the very wettest year since weather records had been kept in Australia - the film is in large part a visual experience in viewing wildlife in a dry land gone wet. Very few have had this privilege.

March 2, Dennis Holt will present "Okefenokee, Land of Trembling Earth." Dennis Holt became interested in photography in college and now works for Alabama's largest morning daily newspaper, the Birmingham Post Herald. The Okefenokee was given its name "land of the trembling earth" by the Choctaw Indians, and this film is a study of many unusual forms of plant and animal life in this vast peat bog.

Our last film of the season will be presented by Karl Maslowski on the evening of March 16, and Mr. Maslowski's vast experience as a nature lecturer-photographer will make it a truly enjoyable experience. He has produced and lectured since the very inception of the Audubon nature series. His accomplishments and awards are many, and his latest showing is of Africa, entitled "Capetown to Kalahari." This land is so vast and so varied that one can't categorize it, so comments cannot do justice to it.

All the films will begin at 8 p.m. and all will be shown on Friday evenings.

FDA Needs Information For Food Labels

Physicians of the Florida Medical Association urge Floridians to let the Food and Drug Administration know what information should be printed on food labels.

The FDA is seeking public input on the subject of food labeling and physicians advise this is an opportunity for consumers to air their views.

For example: Should raw, as well as processed foods carry nutrition labels? Would you prefer to know when the product was packaged rather than the last recommended date of sale? What information do you consider most important?

All of these points are important to your health.

To get your opinion heard, write: Hearing Clerk, HFC - 18 FDA, Room 4-62, 560 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20857.

Blue Lightning Zaps Red Devils

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

The first 30 seconds of the game belonged to Avon Park but the rest of the night belonged to Sebring as the Blue Streaks won their seventh straight game over the Red Devils 29-14.

The Blue Streaks' speed, plus a balanced running passing attack, proved to be too much for the Red Devils defense, which had racked up three shutouts during the season.

The Avon Park offense was hurt in the first quarter when Running Back Ricky Bevins had to leave the game with a painful hip injury.

Bevins, who is one of the leading rushers and scorers in the conference, was unable to return to the game.

Perhaps because of the Bevins' injury, the Blue Streaks were able to bottle up the Red Devils offense for most of the night, holding Avon Park to only 150 total yards gained.

On the opening kickoff Red Devil Decaris Jones received the kickoff on the 20-yard line and sped 80 yards without any serious Blue Streak interference to put Avon Park on the scoreboard.

The attempt for a point after touchdown was missed and the Red Devils led 6-0.

But with the exception of a safety in the second quarter and a touchdown in the final quarter — when it was apparent Sebring had already won the game — the Red Devils were bottled up for the rest of the night.

Avon Park only managed to gain eight first downs, with only three first downs coming in the second half. The team managed only 39 yards passing and 111 yards on the ground.

Sebring, rushers "Tank" Reed, and Craig Stringer gained 179 yards on the ground.

Another factor which hurt Avon Park was the loss of two fumbles and one interception to the Blue Streaks.

After the Avon Park touchdown, the Blue Streaks came right back, bringing the kickoff back to the 40 yard line and marching the other 60 yards to the Avon Park end zone.

Danny Elliott

The drive was aided by a 17-yard run by Greg Stringer and a 16-yard line bad luck struck the Red Devils as a fumble was lost on the Sebring four.

However, several plays later Devil defenders Keith Porter, Robbie Dennis and Craig Williams swarmed over the Sebring quarterback in his own end zone to give the Red Devils a safety and an 8-7 lead.

However, it would be the last time Avon Park would lead in the game.

Blue Streak Quarterback Adrian Tony then proceeded to penetrate the Red Devil secondary with passes and his speedy receivers did the rest.

Sebring's second score of the night came on a 31-yard pass from Tony Stringer, who took the ball and ran a lateral pass through all Red Devil defenders and into the end zone. The score put the Blue Streaks on top 14-8.

Avon Park was unable to move the ball and, after they kicked to Sebring, Tony marched his team up the field and capped the scoring drive with a 27-yard strike to Ronnie Lippett.

At halftime, the score was 20-8 in favor of Sebring.

In the third quarter, although Avon Park's defense stopped all of the Blue Streaks' offensive drive, the Blue Streaks' defense did the same to the Red Devils.

The quarter ended with the Red Devils gaining only minimal yardage against the Blue Streak defense which seemed to get better as the game progressed.

It was the Blue Streak defense which provided the next score for Sebring.

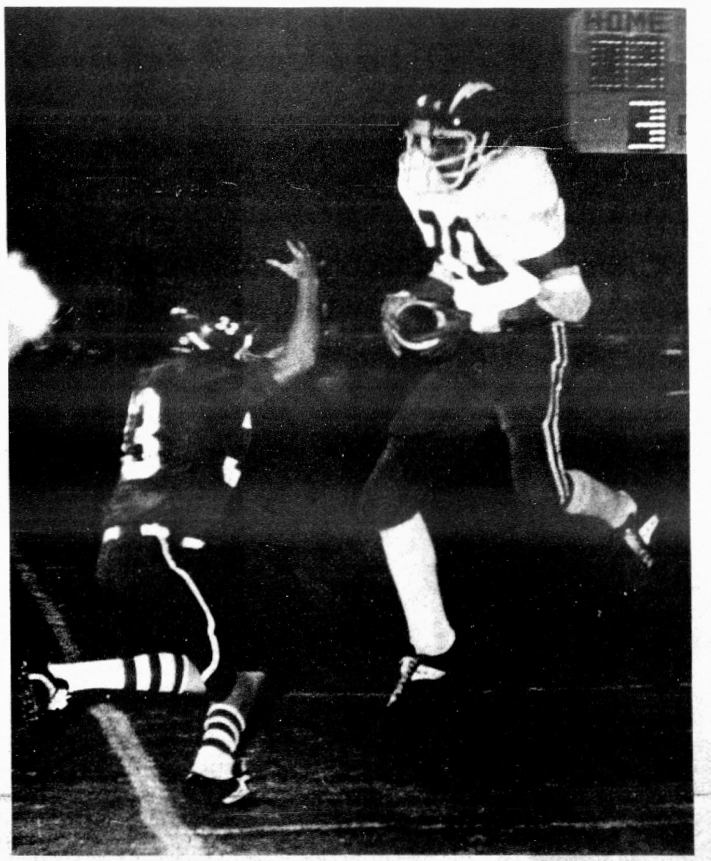

Halfway through the fourth quarter, when Avon Park was backed up inside its own five yard line, Blue Streak defenders penetrated the protection of Quarterback David Sizemore and tackled him in the end zone. The safety gave the Blue Streaks a 22-8 lead.

Then the Blue Streaks managed to come up with a long return of their own. After the free kick by the Red Devils, Sebring's Ronnie Lippett hauled in the punt and ran 62 yards for the final Blue Streak touchdown.

With a little over two minutes left, the Red Devils made the final score of the night.

After a 50-yard pass from Jones to End Keith Cobb to set up the score, Back Jeff Adams made the final yardage with a nine-yard run into the end zone. The final score was 29-14 in favor of the Blue Streaks.

The loss drops the Red Devil record to 6-4, while the win ups the Sebring record to 6-4 and gave the Blue Streaks their sixth stright victory.

Blue Streaks Complete Pass

A SECOND quarter drive by the Sebring Blue Streaks was helped along as Sebring receiver Dennis Hansen caught a pass from quarterback Adrian Tony. Red Devil defender Ricky Bivens is about to make the stop.

Mulberry Edges Out Avon Park To Represent District

Coming on the heels of a loss to Sebring, the Avon Park Red Devils suffered a second big disappointment Sunday as they were edged out by Mulberry in a vote to decide which team would represent the district.

The final vote, which was 3-2 favoring Mulberry over Avon Park, was something of a suprise as Avon Park had been expected to be chosen.

Because the district championship ended in a tie, the principals from the five schools, Avon Park, Mulberry, Frostproof, Ft. Meade and Lake Placid, voted to pick the district representative.

The balloting was secret but the vote was 2-2-1 on the first vote, with both Mulberry and Avon Park taking two votes and Ft. Meade one. Then Ft. Meade swung to Mulberry.

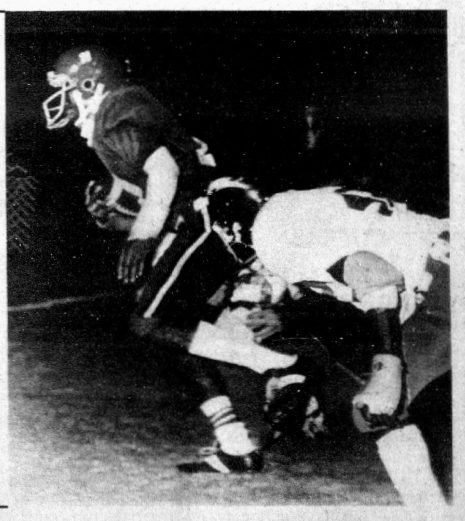

It was thought that Frostproof would vote for Avon Park and, in fact, the Frostproof's coaches recommended the schools' vote be cast for the Red Devils.

However, Frostproof Principal Martin Williamson voted for Mulberry. Traditionally, principals will adhere to the recommendation of the coaching staff.

Ft. Meade had represented the district for the previous three years. This year the Miners had tied for the district leadership with Mulberry and Avon Park.

Track Team Places Third In State Class AA Tourney

The Red Devil boys' cross country team last Saturday finished third in an 18 team field in the state meet at Jacksonville.

Devil thinclads fell only two points short of the coveted Runners-Up trophy.

Clearwater Central Catholic, winners of the District 5 AA contest over the Devils, breezed to the state title, while Belen Jesuit, of Miami, edged the Devils by a 130 to 132 tally for second place.

Mark Myers was the top Avon Park finisher with his 16:26 effort. The hard-working thinclad showed an impressive 34 second improvement over his time in the Jacksonville Invitational in early October.

Alan Portis, David Rhodes, Jerry McKenzie, Jody Johnston, Jeff Henly and Steve Brown were the other Red Devil finishers. Only David Rhodes improved his earlier season performance on the difficult Sandelwood High course.

McKenzie, who was hobbled the last three weeks of the season, ran a courageous race to finish 29th in 17:02.

The Red Devils finished 9th in last years' contest and will have five of their top seven back next season. The third place finish in the state meet this year wrapped up one of the best cross country seasons in recent Avon Park history.

Flag Football League Has Five-Team Field, 75 Boys

The APRD's Flag football league, for kids 9-12 years old, started this past week with two games being played. Because there were 75 boys that tried out for the league, one more team was formed; pushing it to a 5-team league. Each team has 15 boys. All participants are required to play at least one full game (or a total of 24 minutes) before the season's end. There seemed to be better discipline and an overall more experienced type of play this year.

The teams and their respective coaches are as follows: Blue-Bombers- Chuck Wallander, Red Raiders- Roger Wilson, Green Machine- Arnold Davis, Gold Getters- Sam Dasher, and the Orange Crush- Greg Correll.

To start the league play, the first game matched up the Gold Getters against the Red Raiders. The Raiders looked as if they were going to romp to an easy 12-0 win, but the Golf Getters defense came back in the second half to pick off a pass and put six points in for their team. The extra point was missed and the score stood at 12-6. The Raiders failed to score, but registered several first downs in their dives. Late in the last hald, the Gold offense scored and againg the extra point was missed tying the score at 12-12. The Gold had a last chance with about 30 seconds left, but their time outs were not used so the time ran out. The Red team won the game, mounting 4 first downs to the Gold's three.

On Thursday, Davis's Green Machine proved too much for the Blue Bombers to destroy. The machine rolled up an impressive 24-0 win. The green, time after time, marched the ball down the field to score. Green's defense was also instrumental in their win. Gene Taylor played an outstanding game, both on defense and offense for the green. He picked off several Blue passes and returned them to good field position, to kill their dives, while contributing heavily to Green's offensive power.

Next week's games will have the Orange Crush against the Red Raiders on Monday and then on Tuesday the Red will play again against the Green Machine. No games will be played on Thanksgiving.

The public is welcome to come out to these games each Monday, Tuesday and Thursday at the field behind the High School. The games will be played at 4:15 each afternoon.

Racquetball 'B' Ladder Leaders Shift Positions In Tournament

In the Racquetball ladder Tournament there have been lots of matches played over the last several weeks but few changes in positions. All the top spots in the three divisions seem to have the best players already in those positions and holding on until the end, Dec. 15. The only division that has had some changes has been the Men's "B" ladder.

The "B" ladder started off the tournament with Chris Dennison holding that top position, but then on Nov. 9, Dave Brooker played several outstanding games to beat Dennison in the Match, 21-17, 13-12 and 21-13. Dennison dropped to the second spot after that loss. Brooker held on to the first place honors for 10 days then Dennison had a rematch and regained his top spot, on Nov. 19. Third place in that division is held by Joe Baker. Baker has worked his way up from six position.

In the Men's "A" ladder Tom Ray is still on top, after defeating Dennis Guenther and Woody Wood in their challenges for his position. Second place belongs to Woody Wood and Dennis Guenther is in third place.

The Women's ladder has also been very active. Darcey Ray has had to defend her top spot only twice in the last couple of weeks. She gained her position at the top of that ladder on Oct. 22, so she pretty well has that first place trophy already sewed up. The second place is now held by Peggy Sisemore. In her latest match, she successfully defended that spot by defeating Pat Wood, 21-9 and 21-12. Third position belongs to Pat Wood.

Students Collect Canned Goods

Last Tuesday, the Student Council of Avon Park High School presented a movie Jason and the Argonauts. The purpose for the film was to collect canned goods for the Salvation Army, and each student had to donate one can in order to be admitted to the movie.

According to Mr. Harry Williams, the Student Council Sponsor, "We collected over 550 canned goods which is good for the number of students in the school." He also stated that the behavior of the students was exceptionally fine and that another movie will be shown before the end of the school year.

The Salvation Army will be distributing these canned goods to the needy sometime before Thanksgiving.

Seniors Can Re-Take State Assessment Test

On December 12, Seniors will have a chance to make up any skills they missed on the Statewide Assessment test taken in October of 1977.

This re-test applies only to the basic skills portion of the test and not the functional literacy portion which has already been retested. There will not be any major reviews in the classes for the basic skills test; however, students may review individually with their teachers.

If any Senior does not have a math class but wishes to review for a skill he may have missed, he should contact Mr. Ralph Hill of the math department and set up a time to review that specific skill.

Coach Hill is free to work with students on this anytime during the day other than seventh period.

Center Receives Federal Grants

The Florida Alcoholism Treatment Center (FATC), a fully accredited hospital, has recently been awarded two grants from the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism.

One grant will be used to develop an innovative approach to providing services to individuals who have successfully completed the inpatient phase of treatment for alcoholism. The other funds will be used for staff education to ensure that treatment modalities keep current with recent developments in the field of alcoholism treatment.

The Center maintains a unique role in the State's system of treatment services for persons suffering from the disease of alcoholism. The local facility provides inpatient treatment for residents of every community in the State, from Key West to Pensacola.

In Florida's $20 million alcoholism treatment program, 50,000 to 60,000 patients are treated in their own communities statewide. The local treatment center with its better staff and experience can only serve 800 patients yearly in its 28 day treatment program in backing up the local community treatment.

The new Aftercard Project will improve the process of admission to the Center while assuring the continued treatment and recovery for individuals by providing aftercare services and appropriate referral to respective community-based services. Often, recovering alcoholics require a broad range of social and vocational services after treatment.

The 28 day treatment program is in sharp contrast to the 10-20 years of habits formed by the patient. The local hospital makes a significant change in turning the patient around in a new direction. The aftercars project continues this change of direction and the linkage between the hospital and the local community increases the patients chances of recovery.

S. George Clarke, Administrator for the State of Florida's Alcoholism Rehabilitation Program, Tallahassee, joined Benjamin A. Brooks, Administrator of the Center, in a ribbon cutting ceremony marking the official opening of the new service on Thursday, Nov. 8. The grant was developed locally with technical assistance from Clark's Tallahassee Office.

Two local persons have been employed with project funds. Jeffrey J.Kegley, MSW, will serve as the Aftercare Project Director. Kegley, formerly of St. Louis, Mo., has been a Highlands County resident for the past four years. Ms. Mary Sherertz, Avon Park, will be the project secretary. Also working in the new service will be Mrs. Barbara Ward, Admissions Specialist, and Mrs. Patricia Jackson, Clinical Social Worker.

Newspaper Reflects Another Era

Most of us buy newspapers to keep up to date on the latest events in the world. Old issues soon end up as bird cage liner, fish wrappers or filler in the garbage can.

Not so with George Hurst, a retired plumber who lives in Avon Park Lakes. One of his prized possessions is a Lansing, Mich., State Journal dated Sept. 17, 1918, just two months before the Armistice was signed to end World War I.

"Allies Preparing Mighty Blow At Enemy," declares the lead headline on the front page. Smaller headlines above the story elaborate: "Stern Answer To Fake Peace - High Tension Points To Great Move Hun Tired Out-Americans, Now on German Soil, May Carry War To Interior."

The Great War, which by then had dragged on four long years, took up most of the news columns of that Tuesday's issue. Readers were told of dead and wounded, of a request by the War Department for an additional $7.3 billion, a plan to have the nation's highway system shoulder the war transport burden, of efforts to conserve fuel and of war courses offered women at Olivet College.

Another story told of secret documents which revealed the new Soviet government in Russia had been working for the Germans.

Not all stories, however, concerned the war. An attempt to extort $20,000 from financier J.P. Morgan was front page news. In this bizarre plot, Morgan was told through anonymous letters his family had been contaminated with polio virus and he could obtain an anti-toxin by paying $20,000.

Readers also were informed of 812 executions in Petrograd, Russia, and "5 Negroes Hanged For Houston Riot." On the lighter side, Abraham Lincoln's son, Robert Todd, celebrated his 75th birthday.

If anything, the news of the day reveals that while names and places have changed, the world's problems are pretty much the same now as they were then. One thing that has changed, however, is prices.

This particular day was Dollar Day, and in 1918 a dollar bill still could buy something worthwhile. For example: five pounds of Chase and Sanborn's Diamond brand coffee, a Hygeno Carpet Sweeper (regular $3.50 value), regular $1.25 purses, regular $2 gabardine skirts, dress shirts of the "finest $2 quality," ladies' Palm Beach jackets (values up to $7.50) or boys' regular $1.50 knickers.

Food prices were high because of the wartime conditions. For example, one article said, "Prices paid by the army during the month of August for principal food supplies included: Beef, 23-¾ cents per pound; ham, 34 cents; bacon, 42 cents; lard, 27 cents; and lard substitute, 27 cents."

If you wanted real butter, it was 44½ cents. Potatoes were 2.9 cents a pound.

And for two bits you could go to a matinee at the Empress Theater and watch Ted Dalley and Stella Wimmer in "Cheating Cheaters," the latest sensation in silent films.

Don't Let That Holiday Bird Cause Illness

By Beki Brock
Extension Home Economics
Agent

A delectable roast turkey is traditional fare during the holiday season. But a seasonal increase in food borne illness is also a little known tradition — a tradition that can be broken by proper handling of the bird.

Statistics at the National Center for Disease Control (CDC) show that turkey has been associated with 11 percent of the total outbreaks of foodborne illness during the past few years. Yet, specialists in the area of sanitation say that most of these outbreaks could have been prevented by proper handling of the turkey by the consumer.

Bacteria, which causes food poisoning, will multiply to dangerous proportions when a product is not kept at either hot or cold temperatures. This misunderstanding usually occurs in the kitchen.

To help you take care of that holiday bird, note the following tips:

— Roast turkey is a perishable food. It is best to thaw a frozen turkey in the refrigerator. If you must thaw it more quickly, put it in a waterproof plastic bag, seal tightly and defrost in cold water. Thawing frozen poultry at room temperature gives bacteria a chance to grow.

— Wash all the utensils used with the raw bird before using again. For example, don't place the cooked turkey on the same tray on which it was thawed without washing the tray. Also, wash your hands after handling raw poultry.

— Cook turkey thoroughly to an internal temperature of 185 degree F. Never partially cook it and finish cooking later. Bacteria can survive in partially cooked poultry.

— Cook turkey stuffing completely. It's safest to cook it separately from the turkey. If you must cook stuffing inside the turkey, cook until the meat thermometer inserted into the stuffing reaches at least 165 degrees F. Never stuff turkey the night before cooking. And do not thaw commercially frozen stuffed poultry before baking. Put it directly in the oven.

— Refrigerate turkey leftovers immediately. Remove all stuffing and store separately. Bacteria grow best in lukewarm foods, so never let meat stand at room temperature more than two hours.

— Use leftovers within one or two days. If this is not possible, put them in the freezer rather than the refrigerator.

Scalloped oysters, another holiday favorite in some households, are also highly perishable. They should be kept refrigerated or frozen until just before cooking. Keep them hot when serving, then refrigerate leftovers immediately.

"Hope, hosts Annual Thanksgiving Party for Shut-In Elderly"

Project Hope Host Annual Thanksgiving Party For Elderly

Hope of Highlands County, sponsored by Services Over Sixty, Inc. held their third annual Thanksgiving Party for the county's shut-in elderly Nov. 16 at the Avon Park Armory.

Joyce Olivieri, Hope County Service Coordinator, acted as general chairman and greeted approximately three hundred guests including Hope clients, elderly from the counties boarding and nursing homes, and volunteers who transported the guests, many in wheelchairs.

The armory was festively decorated for the happy occasion. Colorful favors made by Brownies, Girl Scouts, and members of the Avon Park First Baptist Church decorated the tables.

Lloyd Jones served as master of ceremonies and introduced the entertainment. The audience was delighted by the routines of the Avon Park High Pom Pom girls, the dances of the Sebring High Keyettes, songs by Evelyn Gordon Mills, Rev. Loyd Wickstrom, and Ring Davis. M.C. Jones led the audience in group singing accompanied by Bertha Adgate and Mrs. Chester Seeger at the piano.

Guests were welcomed by Joe Olivieri, S.O.S. President and greetings were extended by S.O.S. board members Mayor Marshall Davis, Avon Park, Mayor J.D. Watson, Lake Placid, and Mayor Smith Rudasill, Sebring.

Following the blessing by Rev. Ragsdale of the First United Methodist Church of Avon Park and a moving rendition of "How Great Thou Art" by Rev. Wickstrom, a traditional turkey dinner was served. Volunteers accompanied guests in wheelchairs and others who were handicapped to the buffet tables. The delicious meal was prepared and served by volunteers and Hope staff members.

Rosemary Deck, Hope project director, said salads and desserts were contributed by volunteers and local restaurants, while the turkey and trimmings will be paid for by donations. Although Hope is a federal funded program with matching funds from the state and Highlands County Commissioner, this party is a total volunteer effort. This is an opportunity for those of us who enjoy the blessings of good health to share with our shut-in friends the spirit of Thanksgiving.

Anyone wishing to make a contribution to help defray expenses for the Thanksgiving Party may send it to the Hope office at 1067 Hawthorne Drive, Sebring, 33870. Checks should be made payable to "Hope Thanksgiving Party."

CLAYTON'S APPLIANCE

VA To Retitle Medical Facilities

An order to re-title most of the Veterans Administration's medical facilities "to more clearly reflect their scope of services" has been sent to all VA field stations.

All VA hospitals, hospital-clinic combinations and hospital-domiciliary combinations will be known as "Veterans Administration Medical Centers" the order said.

All VA centers that include a regional office as well as a medical facility will be designated "Veterans Administration Medical and Regional Office Centers" in lieu of their current title "VA Center."

The order from BA Central Office in Washington stipulated that subclassifications for medical facilities, such as "General Medical and Surgical" and Psychiatric" would no longer be used. These subtitles, the order said, "serve no useful management purpose."

To keep costs of the change to a minimum, it was specified that all existing stocks of stationery, forms and other printed matter would be used and that "massive changes in signs at the local level would not be initiated." Changes will be planned in future years and accomplished as funds become available, it was explained.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home Park News

We are glad to have back this week; Phyllis and Lorne Johnson and Ethel and Max Putman. Why wait so late to return? We know that Max had to get clearence from the doctor because of an accident. Glad to hear, Max, that it wasn't more serious!

Sorry to learn that Fred Geiger is back in Walker Memorial Hospital. Best wishes, Fred.

The hostesses this past week for the coffee hour were, Doris Palmer and Ann Griffin. Ruth and Joe Dornall, Peggy and Bob McGraw, Ethel and Tom Colwell and Lorne and Phyllis Johnson were welcomed back. Reported that Sy Fabiny had called her sister Catherine Curry to ask about George, who had just had surgery. He is doing fine and they hope to be back here after the holidays. Ellen Hunt is back from having surgery on her foot and is doing fine.

There were 12 persons present who were at coffee hour for the first time. There will be a meeting on Monday for the Thanksgiving Day committee. Doris Palmer is chairwoman.

Cecil Pixley entered Walker Memorial Hospital on Sunday and will have surgery on Monday. Best wishes for a very speedy recovery, Cecil!

We hope everyone will notice the landscaping that has taken place on Lot 53. Ann Lockwood has had her lot all beautified. Looks so nice.

Ella Drake, Jane Rabideau and Thelma Miller helped with the dinner given by HOPE at the Armory on Thursday. There was a lovely entertainment given prior to the dinner. The tables were decorated with pine cone turkeys and little jars of candies which were made or given by the Sunday School groups. A most delicious dinner was served.

We welcome Anne and Sam Ruggeri from California, who have purchased a new double wide in the new section of the park.

Ann Lockwood will spend Thanksgiving in Lakeland visiting Gertrude Rand and Dorothy DeLay. Ann has known Dorothy since 1926 when they both were employed by AT&T in New York City.

Joan Duffee from Columbus, Ohio is visiting her parents Mary and Paul Zwayer.

A card was received from Margie and P.D. Wells who are on a Caribbean Cruise. Her card had the following message; "Here we are sailing! We're having lots of fun and enjoying it all. Had to fly to St. Croix to get our ship because of some technical difficulties, on ship. Have been to St. Croix Tortola, St. Thomas and are now heading for San Juan. Have had grand weather and calm seas. And oh that food!!!"

This week has seen many over-nighters on the strip heading South.

There were 43 who attended the picnic held Sunday at Highlands Hammock State Park. Our last picnic in October only had 14. Seems they had such a good time that it induced others to attend this one. It was Verda Miller and Helen Dyce's birthday on the 19th. However Happy Birthday was sung to all who had birthdays in November. Our December picnic will be announced later, after we have had Thanksgiving.

Sy Fabiny left on Friday for Madison Wisconsin to attend the funeral of the husband of her very closest friend. She will be returning after the middle of the week.

Lively Living

David Batty

Teaches Environmental Conservation

Preservation of our natural resources and environment is a concern of many citizens of Highlands County as well as our nation. One of these is David Batty, a Middle School Science Teacher.

Batty teaches his students the environment is a fragile, beautiful and life giving gift for all to enjoy. All things have their place in keeping and continuing a healthy environment in which we live stated Batty.

Changing attitudes, breaking down superstitutions and creating an interest and caring for the environment we live in is a responsibility that the science teacher takes very seriously. This is especially true when he uses reptiles or any other wildlife to demonstrate science lessons to students on environment. "The students have an amazing openness toward new ideas," said Batty.

An active and enthusiastic environmentalist both in school an in his private life, Batty is always on the lookout for gentile and harmless snakes or wild creatures which add a unbelieveable interest to his teachings in science.

"I make it plain with the students right from the beginning that handling snakes is a serious business and will not tolerate any play which could bring harm to both the student and the specimen," said Batty. He continued by saying that many students have a fear of many animals and reptiles because of early missunderstandings or messages to them about the dangerous nature of these animals. The students when first entering the science class cannot discriminate between those reptiles that are dangerous to them and those that are necessary to our environment.

He is especially interested in making his students aware of snakes like the Eastern Indigo or Gopher snake (pictured with the students from one of Batty's fifth grade science class in the photo) that lives in Florida and is gradually becoming one of the endangered species. "This snake," said Batty, "is a gentile and harmless reptile that feeds on rats, rattlesnakes, and cottonmouth moccasins." Students learn that a healthy environment depends upon many, many living things which in turn depend upon each other for their lives. . . "We are just one of those living things," Batty said.

In his classroom atomosphere Batty stresses the importance of learning the identification of harmless snakes and dangerous ones to his students. He also teaches them how to avoid a snakebite and how a snakebite is treated.

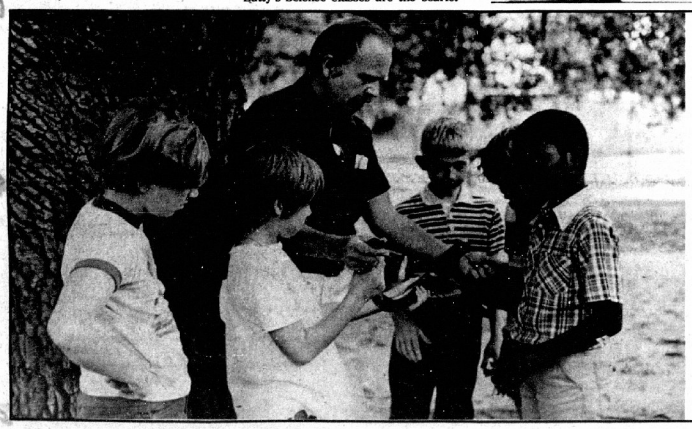

As the class participates in the touching of the snakes, Mr. Batty urged them if they were afraid they could stand back and understood their fear without ridicule.

Batty stated that he has had several hundred snakes brought to him by enthusiastic students over the years without a mishap. "First rule of the classroom is to bring the reptile in a proper container," he said. He stressed to the students never attempt to try and catch dangerous snakes or bring them into the classroom. Students are encouraged to ask parents to assist them in their environmental studies at home, he added.

Some of the snakes brought into Batty's Science classes are the scarlet king, Indigo, hognose, rough green snake, mud snake and the red rat snake.

CHERYL BOOKER, Linda Sherman, Kelly Prevatt, and Jewelene Perry gently touch the Indigo snake that Mr. Batty holds securely in his grasp. He encourages the class to participate in learning the different aspects of the environment. However he stressed the importance of learning the non-poisonious snakes from poisonious ones and if in doubt, leave it alone.

DAVID BATTY, Science teacher at Avon Park Middle School urges students to learn the different habitats of the environment and how each thing has its place. Pictured above are Brian Benton, Ricky Angelo, Ricky Winegard, Thomas Dailey, Colis Fogle and Mr. Batty as he shows an Indigo snake to the students, and encourages class participation.

Students have also brought in other animals to share with their science classes. These include most recently a bull frog and horseshoe crab. The crab was taken from its natural habitat and more than likely will parish stated Batty. "Healthy concepts about snakes bring understanding into the classroom about each childs part and importance in the world," said Batty.

Though the years of teaching at the Middle School, science pupil's of Battys have gone to the hospital to watch him give blood, to the electric car factory to study energy saving; studied lakes and lake water for pollution; and has had many experts come to the class to give information and guidance on a variety of environmental related subjects.

David Batty is a Vice-President of the Highlands County Environmental Council, a member of Isaah Walton League of America; Florida Audubon Society; National Wildlife Association; and he is presently working towards his masters degree in environmental science at Bemidgi State College, Minn. He is also an advocate of clean water coalition.

He works with in cooperation with the mayor and city council on litter problems, interested in Boy Scouts and the planning and zoning board of Highlands County. He also works very closely with Don Applequist at the South Florida Junior College, an expert on reptiles.

Many of his students seem to be enthused with their new found knowledge of nature and the environment and are eager to look around their homes for items that are of an interest to other classmates. Students seem to be more interested in this subject as Batty teaches about the environment with fevor, as if lives depend upon it. And the fact that he is allowed to incorporate outdoor field activities with classroom studies has enable Batty to stress more fully the need for environmental protection to his students and they seem to be able to grasp the ideas readily.

Old Men And Rivers

Ray Washington's

Cracker Florida

Cracker a native or resident of Georgia or Florida — Webster's Dictionary

This is a story of old men and rivers.

The old men are Theron Gaulding and Bob Bach. Theron Gaulding is 68; Bob Bach is 65. The rivers in the story — the Withlacoochee and the Suwannee — are much older.

Theron Gaulding has spent the last seven years in the Suwannee River town of White Springs working at odd jobs and constructing the motor cruiser he calls "Refuge." Gaulding is a misanthropic loner who says his goal is to drift along the Suwannee, away from everything human, until he dies.

"Captain" Bob Bach is his eighth year of work on the 36-foot cutter he calls "Aumakua" — a Polynesian word that Captain Bob translates to mean "Higher Self." You might call Captain Bob everyone's friend. He wants to take his boat from its dock on the Citrus County side of the Withlacoochee River to any port where there are new people to meet.

The Suwannee River is old and slow and known around the world. Its brown waters flow from the Okeefenokee Swamp in South Georgia toward the Gulf of Mexico.

The Withlacoochee is old and slow and obscure enough that another river, over a hundred miles away, carries the same name. The Withlacoochee of this story, though, is the river that flows from the heart of Central Florida, splitting and eddying through marsh and lowland until it pours into the Gulf at a lush, nearly subtropical coast.

Theron Gaulding is philosophical about the Suwannee River. Between his solitary carpentry jobs around White Springs, he'll talk about the Suwannee. He'll become poetic. It always begins with the river and ends with escape.

"The Suwannee is one of the world's beautiful small rivers," says Gaulding. "It's unpolluted, unsullied by humanity. I don't like civilization much anymore. Civilization has become uncivilized. I want to get away and commune with the hoot owls and raccoons."

You will usually find Gaulding alone, always puttering around at small handyman jobs for slight wages, or working on his Refuge. His dream does not include people or money. He wants to complete a series of a dozen oil paintings of the Suwannee River while he drifts along its sad 250-mile flow.

Then, he will reach the mouth of the river. And, if he times it just right, that's where he'll die.

"The paintings will be my contribution," he says. "I don't need people, but the paintings will be my gift to the people."

Gaulding probably will not tell you what has soured him on humanity. But, then again, if it is a cool, sunny afternoon and you join him with a hammer and some tenpenny nails, he may give you some clues.

The story has something to do with a hard childhood and a harder early manhood of a sensitive boy on a farm, working from sunup to sundown. It has something to do with more than three years in China with the Army Air Corps during World War II. It has something to do with two unsuccessful and childless marriages. It has something to do with many things.

But Gaulding will tell you that it is not new. He'll say that he has been meaning to drift away since he first came to White Springs from Jacksonville 26 years ago.

"I'd have gotten away sooner," he may say, "but I couldn't. Circumstances caught me again. A lot of circumstances. Matrimony. I'm just getting back to it again. Circumstances get more circumstantial at times."

Circumstances have come Bob Bach's way too, but they haven't turned him to philosophy. To Captain Bob, the Withlacoochee is less a place to dream about than it is a place to live on.

"It's just a river," says Captain Bob. "It's a pretty river. I can live on my boat on a nice river and still be close to things."

Some of those things are in the towns of Inglis and Crystal River. If Captain Bob isn't working or sleeping on his boat on the Withlacoochee, then he's working at a construction site in Crystal River or quaffing a couple of beers at Our Pub or at the Crossroads Bar in Inglis.

In the clean, friendly atmosphere of Our Pub, Captain Bob may tell you a little bit about his plans for his green age. The plans are of people and of places.

"I want to sail around and live," he says. "I'll live on my boat and maybe get a one year contract for construction in Fort Myers and then I'll sail on somewhere else and start it all over again. I'll move on. Sailboats are built for moving on."

Eight years ago, when he began to feel like moving on, Captain Bob started constructing his boat from a set of old plans. He worked in his spare time, changing the boat's design from a two-masted ketch to a cutter; he used concrete instead of wood for the boat's structure. Things were going well. Captain Bob was ready to move on. Captain Bob's wife wasn't interested in that. The children were all grown. Captain Bob was gone.

"When you get to be 60 years old you should be allowed to do whatever you want to do," says Captain Bob. "I wanted a boat and I wanted to travel."

Captain Bob had a new life and planned to have had his Aumakua completed this time last year. He is just now getting ready to put the mast in place. The delay came when a young balierina who had planned to travel with Captain Bob died in an automobile accident.

"She died about a year and a half ago," says Captain Bob. "I lost interest then. It takes time. It just takes time."

Time and the river are not things to rush old men. Captain Bob says he expects to have his mast up and work on the boat completed by Christmas, when he'll move on. Theron Gaulding says that by the time the river rises, he'll be ready to drift away. But neither man feels pressed. Moving on and drifting away aren't confined to one season or to one age.

Bob Bach, bearded, hard-muscled, moving quickly with a long-armed simian-gait, bounds off the deck of the Aumakua, glares at the sun, and says this: "There's a lot of work to be done yet. I can make plans, but I won't get done until I am done."

Theron Gaulding, soft, bespectacled, dressed in baggy overalls and puffing on a cigaret, puts down his paintbrush, and framed a long way from his Refuge against the blue, blue sky, says this: "It wouldn't do me any good to be in a hurry. Where I'm going, soon or later, I'll get there. All rivers lead to the sea."

"It is best for me to remain obscure. There is sublimity in obscurity. Familiarity breeds contempt. When you are alive, don't become familiar. When you are dead, you will have the sublimity of time and death, and familiarity is no longer an issue."

— Theron Gaulding

Knights Of Columbus Hold Memorial Mass

The first Holy Sacrafice of the Mass ever sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, 5441, Sebring was celebrated in their Pope John Council Hall, Tuesday evening, Nov. 14. From the opening prayer to the closing "Battle Hymn of the Republic" the ceremony was a beautiful, inspirational and a Catholic expression of loving remembrance.

It was a Memorial Mass for the late great Popes; Pope Paul VI and John Paul I also, as well, for the dearly departed members of the Knights of Columbus and Columbiettes "Family."

Offering the Mass on a pure white Altar, before a surprising attendance of 162 participants, the Celebrant, Rev. Father Joseph E. O'Brien spoke warmly and affectionately of the two recently deceased Popes. In the Homily of the Mass he told of their compassion for the poor, the sick, and the helpless; of their lives of dedicated service to Holy Mother Church.

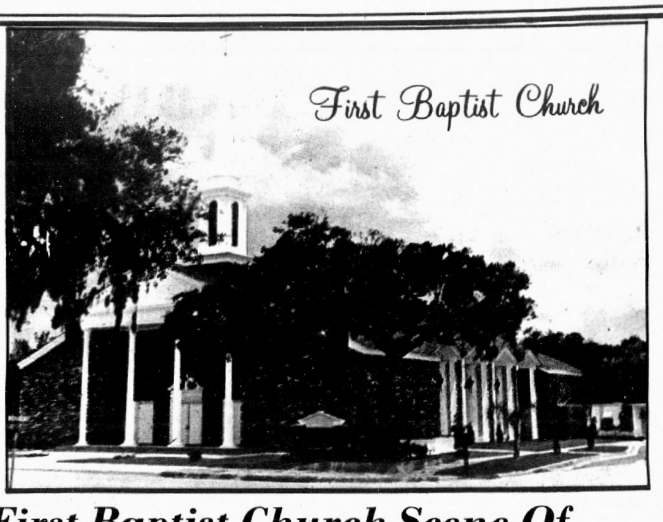

Father O'Brien presented Council 5441 with the Supreme Council's Father McGivney Award for 1977-78. Past Grand Knight Fred Weinbrandt was cited for his outstanding leadership as Grand Knight of the Council during this period of time; and for his original concept of the Memorial Mass.

Grand Knight Charles Deegan was program director and master of ceremonies for the Mass. Lector was Edward Tomek; Eucharistic Minister, Raymond Branconnier alter servers, John Conway and John Short. The organist was Bobbi Dorman, gift bearers were Robert and Mary Moynihan, representing K. of C. and Columbiettes.

Those serving as ushers were Louis Sochaki, Jesse McCalla, Emil Pulick, and Ted Papulski. The program consultant was Muriel Dorman, administrator of church properties, Jerry Winterhalt, Loretta Arace, President, Peggy Weinbrant, past president of Columbiettes were active in planning and details of the preceding.

Coustodian of the Traveling Statue of Our Lady of Good Council was Trudi Bianchi. Donald Branch was in charge of public relations and Deputy Grand Knight Benjamin Danksoki, photography. Altar lines were courtesy of Germaine Landsdorf, and the altar was a gift to the Council from SunRay Association of Frostproof. The organ was courtesy of Pastor Mann and John Johnson was in charge of parking.

The knights of Columbus expresses appreciation to all who cooperated and assisted to help make this first Memorial Mass so outstanding.

Receives Rotary Service Award

The Annual Rotary Fall Ladies Night was held at the Sebring Elks Club on Tuesday evening. The social event was opened with a cocktail hour during which over 80 old and new members with their Rotary Anns were heard discussing everything from yesterdays weather to the nutron bomb. (After all, that's what Rotary is, diversification.)

After the general socializing, a dinner of steak, baked potato, green beans, and a super high caloric piece of cake was devoured by all. (Rotarians are, because of their hard daily work, also hearty eaters.) The Elk's Chef and the very efficient dining room staff are to be congratulated for a fine, tasty and quickly served meal.

The program for the evening, other than the food, was presenting this year's Rotary Community Service Award to Mrs. Avon Park, Annabelle Worden. The gift of a glass dome clock with the engraved words "Community Service Award was presented to Annabelle Worden on Nov. 14, 1978, from the Avon Park Rotary Club. (Keep up the fine work gal and next year, rumor has it, we'll give you the key!) All kidding aside she deserved this award and much more for her untiring efforts in community service and as an outstanding citizen of Avon Park.

Mrs. Doris McClellan won a beautiful flower arrangement.

Avon Park Mobile Home Park News

Ruth E. Robinson

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Lulu Maddrell has been in Walker Memorial Hospital this week and we all wish her a speedy recovery.

Forty-two people attended the first Saturday night "Sing" of the season with everyone joining in the singing as Warren (Ham) Byers led them. Bernice Wilder gave a reading "The New Era", which was enjoyed by all. Juanita and Ham sang two special songs, very inspirational numbers: "Upper Room" and "Remind me, Dear Lord", with Eleanor Damon as the accompanist on piano. We always enjoy their combined musical talents.

New residents in our park, Marie and Odin Foote were introduced to all present. With the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Feehan from Bowling Green, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Weldy from Wakarusa, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neal from Steubinville, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hood from Findlay, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. William Belcher from Rochester, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lofland from Shelbyville, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Barden Graves from Castalia, Ohio, we are getting very close to having all our Park Family together again.

Preparations for the Thanksgiving Dinner, etc. will be decided at the Woman's Club meeting. News will probably be announced on the Public Address system, so keep your ears tuned in!

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Zimowski of Sarasota were recent visitors to Cecil and Eleanor Damon's home. Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Button and daughter Virginia Jones, spent Wednesday at Deland and Orange City, Florida visiting with Friends that they had not seen for a couple of years.

Lawrence and Ruth Robinson by the invitation of their daughter, Mrs. Elaine Sarkan, and Mr. Walter F. Dankhoff, Director of Reliability and Quality Assurance from N.A.S.A. in Cleveland, Ohio, experienced their first launch of an "Atlas Centaur Vehicle-HEAO-B" on Dec. 13, at 12:24 a.m. from Cape Canaveral. It was a very smooth ascension and lift-off into space with a beautiful brilliant white lighted sphere and tail. We wondered if it was going to come upon us for a few moments before going into it's course, higher and higher until we no longer could see it. The vibrations remained with us for a while, but the memory forever.

A Press Conference was held later where we were privileged to hear questions and answers by scientists to the pressmen. Following the Conference, we were introduced by Elaine to the new Director of Lewis Research Center, N.A.S.A., Cleveland, Ohio, Dr. John F. McCarthy and Deputy Director Bernard Lubarsky. Everyone was pleased with the smooth and successful launch.

The next thing we did after a night's rest, was to attend the John F. Kennedy Space Center and take the Bus Tour through various complexes which filled all our expectations.

The Smithsonian Space Museum in Washington, D.C. will be on our agenda the next time we visit Washington and another daughter. Having dinner at Pelican Point in Cocoa Beach was another beautiful experience on the Banana River while the sun set; and being with Elaine and Walt.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Krontz with Dorothy and Albert Keyes relished a delicious dinner at Disneyworld in "Snow White's Castle" last week and other attractions, which made a full pleasant day.

The Ladies Club of our Park was attended by 36 members and guests, new resident, Mrs. Marie Foote and Betty Spinney and guest Jinney Jones from Delaware. The Thanksgiving hostesses will be Susan Bacon, Elizabeth Stromberg and Thelma South. We pledged our Allegiance to the United States Flag and sang "America the Beautiful." Mr. Margaret Belcher officiated, assisted by Ula Miller, Hazel Weldy and Verna Fero.

Following the business meeting there was a delightful program with a reading by Alnora McNeil, game of identifying various kinds of seeds, which was won by Susie Bacon. Joe will have a dish of strawberry jello, soon! Another reading by Martha McBeth entitled "Grandma's Receet for Washing Clothes."

Refreshments followed the program and friendships were renewed and new acquaintances welcomed to our community. Let us have a good turnout at the Thanksgiving Dinner next Thursday, (tomorrow).

Southland Court News

By Frank White

Have been back here a week now but have little to report. Organized activities have not started this week, probably will start next week. A general meeting for election of new officers and activities chairman will be held Tuesday, Nov. 14 so next week we will be able to say who has charge of what.

Meanwhile only about 70 percent of our residents have returned to date. Mildred Hindsley had another aterial operation and is still in Ohio. Rosie Hall is in Walker Memorial. George and Clara Davis want to sell their mobile home, as they have bought a house at 605 South Florida Avenue.

All park residents were sorry to hear that Ann Condit and Mr. Jeremy passed away during the summer.

Bea and Frank White have new neighbors across the street, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith who previously lived in Florida for a few years but that was long ago. The couple who will occupy the mobile formerly owned by Pooleys are named MacAteer, from Ontario but are not at the park yet.

Everett and Bessie Paxton, Southland's oldest couple, gave up mobile living last March and moved to an apartment downtown. That didn't last long and we were all sorry to hear that both found it necessary to give it up and that both have entered a nursing home in Crawfordsville, Indiana. If I had the address I would give it to you so you could send them some cards.

Al Carson reports that Louise is in Philadelphia for some more medical attention.

I don't want to list the names of all our regulars who have already returned, just want to say "Welcome Back, all of you."

Potluck Supper

There were 57 members at Saturday Nov. 11, potluck supper with Grace and Lavern Staley and Mildred and George Tissot as hosts and hostesses. There were two new members present, Lillian and Ben Sipiorski from Arkansas. Grace Staley gave two amusing readings followed by group singing of patriotic songs to commemorate Armistice Day, ending with "God Bless America."

Mrs. Helen Parker was recognized as a new member since she has not joined since about 1970. No potluck on November 25.

Membership

Membership at Winter Guest Club totals 303, with new members recently joining: Rodney M. Smith from New York; Lillian and Bernard Siporski from Arkansas; Angus Mitchell from Ontario, Canada; W.A. and Virginia Larsen from Massachusetts; Helen Parker from New York; Willie and Ellen Clapper from New York; Mina and Nora Bonjokian from Mass.; and Fred Castton and Kenneth Kibbard both from Ontario, Canada.

Dances

Square dances every Monday and Friday evening. A little bird told me there were three sets on last Friday night. Lots of Good Luck!!

Crafts

With well over seventy members present, the Winter Guest Club was a hive of activity. Members were working on five or six projects, chiefly Christmas decorations. Dancing dolls are still being produced and other dolls made from other types of beads. Lovely snow flakes made from bumpy chenille occupies other members.

Used Christmas cards were being converted and will be used but many members this coming holiday. Beautiful beadlepoint pictures occupied other members. The bleach bottle hats were keeping a good number busy, and some really beautiful hats will be displayed on the streets and shuffleboard courts this winter.

At the next class, which will be Tuesday, Nov. 21, a new project will be announced, "Little Dog Puppet Pajama Cases" These will not be started until November 30, but the list of materials required will be on hand Tuesday. This will enable members over a week to get ready. A Happy Thanksgiving to all!

News

In a letter to Bernice and Howard Long, Florence Downing sent greetings to club members from her and Raymond. Raymond has been in Cleveland Clinic for serious surgery. Florence had had surgery earlier in the season and was recoperating. They hope to return to Avon Park later in the fall.

Word has also been received of Cecil and Agatha Wilson's sons death in Ontario, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hart are members of the American Gourd Society. During the summer they displayed a large Laganaria gourd which was completely covered artistically with bugle beads. They won a trophy on this arrangement at the International Gourd Show held at Mount Gilead, Ohio. The gourds were grown in Indiana.

Has anyone noticed the kitchen has been cleaned? We'll all find it more pleasant to work there.

Annie Janke, a former member and a shut-in celebrated her birthday on November 20. Happy Birthday!

Pauline Schenkel and Nora Werner, Frank and Irene Fread and others from Avon Park enjoyed the dinner theater at Orlando, where they saw the play "Gypsy."

Sally Christy, her daughter Kathy and grandson recently visited their aunt Esther Bovard. The guests were from Tarentum, Penn.

Eva Fenner sends her regards to all club members and hopes to see us later.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gunning visited Mrs. Gunning's sister Neva Bidelhimer in Lake Wales on Thursday, Nov. 16.

Alvin and Bertha Geib have returned to their home in St. Petersburg after visiting George and Bernice Wilkinson.

Please note-No potluck on Saturday, Nov. 25.

Happy Thanksgiving!!

Turkey Tricks from Publix

Add a pinch of originality to your turkey leftovers and they won't seem like leftovers at all.

- Include seedless green grapes and walnuts in your turkey salad. Add a touch of curry powder to the mayonnaise or salad dressing.
- Creamed turkey is a treat for the kids when you serve it over waffles or toast.
- Combine leftover mashed potatoes with grated onion. Form into patties and fry like hamburgers. Top with leftover turkey in gravy.

Hi Friends,

Happy Thanksgiving and may God continue to bestow His blessings upon you. Admidst all of our trials and tribulations, there is much to be grateful for, and regardless to how bad things may seem from time to time, let us remember that they could be worse. So at this special time of year, when many parts of the world are infamined and wartorn, let us here in our United States of America be ever grateful as we count our endless blessings.

The Winner:
Annette Metheny

In a recent poem writing exercise in the 6th grade at Avon Park Middle School, the pupils voted the following poem; written by Annette Metheny as the winner.

Thanksgiving Turkey

The potatoes are in the pot.
The pumpkin pie is hot.
Company is on the way
For this is Thanksgiving Day.
But where is the turkey?
Yes, where is the turkey?

We went to the grocery store,
They said they had no more.
Company is at the door,
and we're expecting more.
But where is the turkey?
Yes, where is the turkey?

Quick tell me what to do!
We have no meat to chew,
Now Grand pa and Aunt Mable, are sitting at the table.
But where is the turkey?
Yes, where is the turkey?

Church News:

Mrs. Wendelene Adams McDougal

Mrs. Wendelene McDougal gave an inspirational message on the Thanksgiving program at Saint Mark last Sunday. Mrs. McDougal challenged the youths and adults on "How you would live if you knew you had but one day to live." Then she stated that we don't know of but one day, because tomorrow isn't promised. Mrs. McDougal challenged everyone to live like you want to go to Heaven every day which is that one day. Other participants on the program were: Yolando Ashe, Padrika Boone, Wanda Bethel, Stephanie Gammage, Patricia Holland, Mrs. Patricia Britt, James Simpkins, and Edwin Boone.

Thanks:

Thanks to Mrs. Mary Lyons for an account of people who are hospitalized at Walker Memorial each week at press time. This week: Mrs. Estell Welch and Rev. Davis.

Necrology:

Funeral Services for the late Mr. Zebedee Montgomery were held on Saturday evening, November 18, at Saint Mark Missionary Baptist Church.

Announcements:

Funeral services for the late Mr. Eddie Dawson were being arranged at press time.

Money Ideas

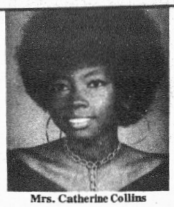

In addition to regular savings accounts and certificates of deposit, there is a third type of account offered by some commercial banks. In return for high interest — perhaps a half-percent above the regular savings rate — the bank restricts withdrawals to a brief period at the end of each quarter, and may also require advance written notice of any withdrawal.

Mr. Zebedee Montgomery

Mr. Zebedee Montgomery was one of nine children born to Deacon and Sister Josh Montgomery. He was born in Bowling Green, September 15, 1913. He attended school and grew up in Mullinsville and Avon Park.

He was converted and joined the Baptist Church in Mullinsville as a young man.

Mr. Montgomery married Miss Thelma Hinson in 1944. She preceeded him in death. He passed Tuesday morning November 14, 1978. Leaving to mourn his passing five children: Patricia Ann, Dora Lee, Tommie Lee, Willie James and Antonio; three brothers, Willie Montgomery, John Montgomery, Style Montgomery; four sisters: Mrs. Elouise Hayes, Mrs. Ebenezer Darden, Mrs. Mary Rogers, Mrs. Rosa Williams; three sisters-in-laws; Mrs. Rachel Montgomery, Mrs. Margie Montgomery, Mrs. Annie Montgomery; two brothers-in-laws; Mr. Amnon Hayes and Mr. Rudolph Darden; one-daughter-in-law; one son-in-law; fifteen Nieces and Nephews and a host of other relatives and sorrowing friends.

Mrs. Catherine Collins

Mrs. Catherine Collins and her sister Mrs. Nancy Asberry have just returned from a grand tour of Los Angeles and Hollywood California. They returned Via Delta airlines on Wednesday of the past week some of the highlights of this tour was their appearance as guests at The Price is Right which will be telecast on December 20 on CBS. Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Asberry can be seen in the audience center section, first row. Other highlights of their tour was the picturesque views of the homes of Lucille Ball, Billy D. Williams, Sammy Davis Jr., and other stars. There was sheer ectasy in the splendor of Farmer's Market with its exotic foods and literally a flight into fantasy at Universal Studio. All the superlatives adjectives and imagination the mind can perceive do not adequately describe the pleasure derived from this trip by the two sisters to whom it now seems almost make beleive and dream come true.

Santa's Coming Dec. 4!

Avon Park will pull out all the stops Monday to welcome a very special winter guest with the largest Christmas parade in the city's history.

Florida's warm November sunshine will bring Santa Claus all the way from the chilly North Pole for a special visit to officially open the city's Christmas Season.

The merry old gentleman, escorted by the Avon Park High School Grenadier Marching Band, will arrive at the end of the annual parade along the length of the city's mile-long mall. He will hold court following the parade at the Bandstand.

Led off by the McDill Air Force Base color guard, this year's parade will feature more than 70 entries, including eight marching bands, more than 50 floats, motorcycle drill beauty queens, clowns and an entourage of antique cars, according to Mrs. Anna Belle Worden, executive manager of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce.

Marching bands from as far away as LaBelle and Arcadia will participate, along with floats from as far away as Bradenton. A float has been entered by the City of Avon Park for the first time in the parade's history, Mrs. Worden said.

The local Chamber, which sponsors the annual event, has been working on this year's parade since September. The parade theme this year is "The Blessings of Christmas."

Starting time for this year's parade is 7 p.m. For those who come early, Park Christian School students will be performing Christmas music from 5-6 p.m. Both performances will be in the Bandstand area.

Refreshments will be available to spectators at various street intersections along the parade route where food booths will be operated by several civic organizations. In addition, there will be a parade information booth at the corner of Main Street, and Anoka Avenue.

The main body of the parade will line up along Anoka Ave. north of Main St. Floats should enter from U.S. 27 at Thomas St. (Rolly's Restaurant), proceed one block to Anoka, then turn south, according to parade chairman Stanley Wells.

Antique car owners should line up on Main St. in front of the Pantry Pride-Neisner's shopping center, he said, while marching bands should form in the shopping center parking lot. The parade will begin lining up at 6:30 p.m., he added.

Wells suggested that parents bringing marching band members to the parade turn at Pine St. to enter the parking lot.

The parade will travel east along Main, disbanding at Badcock's on East Main.

Following the parade, Santa Claus will meet with children at the Bandstand and will pass out Christmas Color, Fun and Learn books.

Whispering Christmas Secrets

Voters Fill 3 Council Posts Next Tuesday

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

If past history is any indication, over 50 percent of the registered voters in the city will cast their ballots next Tuesday to elect three city councilmen.

According to figures from the county supervisor of elections, there are 3,444 registered voters in the city, an increase of 146 since the first of the year.

In the 1977 election almost 1,700 city residents went to the polls.

The polling places will be open from 7 a.m. Tuesday to 7 p.m. The Winter Guest Club, which is across the street from city hall, and the county building on South Lake Avenue serve as polling places.

Citizens will have seven candidates to choose from.

The two incumbents running are Council President Larry Albritton and Councilman David Barefield. Albritton is a four-year veteran of the council while Barefield is in his first term.

Among the five remaining candidates are ex-councilman Milton Howard. Howard was on the city council for ten years before being defeated last year in a bid for re-election.

Two other challengers, Thomas Tataris and Paul Smith, have also run before for council seats. Tataris, who is on the city planning and zoning board and the city recreation board, came within one vote of being elected in 1976 and lost a second bid for a council seat in 1977.

Smith, who is on the city board of adjustments, lost in a previous try at a council seat in 1976.

Two newcomers to politics among the challengers are Phil Wooten and Alex Whitbeck.

Wooten, a employee of the postal service, is a long time city resident. He was the man who prompted the council to take out a drain which was polluting Lake Isia.

Whitbeck, who has been in the city for about five years, is the owner of Alex's Gulf Station on East Main Street.

Three candidates, Albritton, Howard and Tataris, were endorsed by a now defunct political committee called H.A.T. All three candidates said they had not asked for the committee's support but it was an independant effort on the part of committee members.

The committee was formed by Contractor Bob Herman and includes several of his business associates. Herman has been a long time critic of both Councilman David Barefield and Building Inspector C.W. Ellerbee.

Other candidates, including Smith, Wooten and Whitbeck, criticized the committee, saying, in effect, members were not choosing candidates who would be independant.

H.A.T. Trips On State Election Law Violation

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

This H. A. T. political committee, which backed three candidates for the city council elections, will disband without ever officially being formed because the committee violated state elections laws.

The H.A.T. group, which was formed by businessman Bob Herman who also acted as chariman of it, violated the Florida law which deals with political contributions and political committees.

Elections laws state that any political group or committee must file with the secretary or state or with local officials, stating the purpose of the group, the area of activity and list contributions and expenditures.

Supervisor of Elections Jimmy Whitehouse said the organization had filed only after accepting contributions and running an ad supporting the three candidates. H.A.T. supporters urged citizens to vote for challengers Milton Howard, Tom Tataris and Incumbent Larry Albritton.

According to the treasurer's report, filed after contributions were taken, the contributors to H.A.T. include: Pia Luigi's Restaurant (Wade S. Burby) $20; J. R. Duggan Jr. $1, Ozzie's Originals (John Osbourn) $10; Kids' Factory (Al Smith) $1; Money's Grocery (Lamon Money) $10; L & S Grocery (Lamon Money) $10; Money's Family Shoes (Lamon Money) $10; Avon Investment Company) $20; Southernaire Motel $20; Vernon Lanier $1; Rev. Robert Godek, $5; B & B Aluminum (Bob Ash) $2 and Avon Remodeling and Building Supplies $10.

Are City Residents Playing Santa Claus To County?

The holiday season is the time for giving but Avon Park City Councilmen are still concerned that city residents are giving the county too much in the form of taxes.

Councilmen had drafted a letter to Highlands County Commissioners questioning alleged "double-taxation" from the county on Avon Park residents.

For their reply, the commissioners sent the city a detailed study of taxation in the county, a study which revealed Avon Park and all cities in the county were receiving more county services than they were paying for.

However, City Clerk Malcolm Crews discovered a inaccuracy in the county's calculations, an error which showed the city paying approximately $110,000 less in taxes to the county than it actually is.

The city is not nit-picking, Crews told councilmen. State law plainly says a county cannot charge a city for services which are not being provided for that city.

The latest court test of the double taxation issue was a Manatee County case ruled on last month by the Florida Supreme Court. The court ruling backed cities in Manatee County which had been protesting double taxation by the county.

Crews said he felt the county was approaching the issue the wrong way.

"I think they should take the county millage, the 5.88 millage and deduct for any serviced not given to the citizens of Avon Park. Deduct those costs from the millage and remove it from the citizens of the city," Crews said.

Crews said he thought there were several departments in the county such

Candidates And Issues, Round Two

ELECTION FIRING LINE

(This week the Sun continues its series of questions and answers with the seven city council candidates. Each candidate was interviewed individually, on tape, in an attempt to ensure each candidate response would be his own without outside help. The Sun hopes the questions and answers will aid the voters when they go to the polls in the December city elections.)

What qualities do you have which would make you a better councilman than your opponents?

Albritton: Well, I'm certainly not any smarter than anybody else, but I think that I'm in a location where I can be in contact with more of the people that do have problems. I'm easy to reach, as I have been in the last three years, and I'm contact a lot at my business. And since I've had three years of experience, I think that qualifies me.

Barefield: I feel that I'm experienced. It takes at least one term to get into the inner workings of the government. I think I'm better qualified now than I was two years ago. I think I do understand it, and understand the codes and laws of the city, and have tried to apply them fairly.

Howard: I'm the type fellow who enjoys doing things for everybody. Thats the only reason in the world I'm running for city council. As far as the money part, it doesn't mean anything to me. I have a good job on the railroad. I just enjoy doing things for the people and help the city a little bit.

Smith: Because I think we need to look to the future and I believe in looking toward the future. I believe in long range planning on most any project. I want to see the city development and encourage business and jobs. I want the city to grow in the future and, now, I think we're at a stalemate.

Tataris: First of all, I'm presently employed with Florida Power in the capacity of public relations. My field is working with contractors, working with builders and being able to get along with them in workable and unworkable situations. I feel as a city councilmen I could represent the people and the council and bring a little bit more harmony. I feel right now, this city's council is not working together, and when you have a city council that's not working together your effectiveness is lost. I feel that as a city councilmember, I can bring this harmony to the people. I also feel I can bring this harmony within the council. The people will feel free to call me at any time, discuss any problems they have with me — I will work with them 100 percent. I will be the voice of the people.

"I'm just like a lot of other taxpaying people.

I've gotten fed up with some of the things that have gone on in the town . . . "

—Alex Whitbeck

Wooten: I'd have to say none. I don't know what qualities they have. To me, the only quality which should be considered is serving the needs of the public. Being concerned about the needs of the public and serving them. Thats the only quality that should be considered.

Whitbeck: I don't know about being better than any of them. Some of them have more experience in government. I'd say I have the interest of Avon Park at heart and I've gotton involved with the city and the citizens.

I'm just like a lot of other taxpaying people. I've gotten fed up with how some of the things that have gone on in the town and I think I can help change them.

A Shrill Harmony

There are two distinctive factors which set this particular campaign for the Avon Park City Council apart from others which have gone before; one which may have lasting effect on the city.

The first, and more temporary of the two, is the insistent and almost shrill cry for harmony on the council.

The second, and perhaps more lasting, is the apparent creation of two opposing political factions in the city. This is not new but it has come into focus more clearly in this election than in others.

One indication of this is the advertisement placed in this paper by H.A.T., a group of citizens who are backing three candidates for office. The three being Milton Howard, Larry Albritton and Thomas Tataris.

Disregarding, or a moment that H.A.T. claims those three men will work with the other two members of the council, Robert Britt and Henry Dennis—which are questionable qualifications at the very best—such an advertisement clearly sets the stage for a bloc vote. Setting one particular group of candidates against another.

Now there is nothing wrong with this, if done properly with city issues being the deciding factor. Every two years Republicans and Democrats battle with one another over who can do the country the most good.

In fact, more organizations and citizens should get involved with their city government.

In fairness, it also must be noted that the three candidates have said they did not ask for the support of the H.A.T. committee.

H.A.T. and its various political supporters have stressed the harmony theme in this election, as if being in tune with the incumbent Councilmen Britt and Dennis were needed virtues for future councilmen.

In truth, the harmony issue is a red herring. If the citizens of Avon Park really desire harmony on the council they can always elect a musician.

What is needed in Avon Park, as in every city government, are men with some degree of intelligence and integrity; two virtues not usually mentioned by H.A.T. supporters.

What is the key point in the city election was pointed out by challenger Phil Wooten; which was the need for citizens to regain some type of confidence in their city government.

As an example of the emptiness of harmony which does not arise out of intelligence and integrity, citizens only have to recall the council meeting of Nov. 13. A meeting which, unfortunately, was not an exception but rather typifies the type of atmosphere which has surrounded the council this year.

At that city council meeting, three members, including Councilmen Britt and Dennis, voted to cut the pay of Building Inspector C.W. Ellerbee.

The three men acted in a vengeful manner and there was no real reason for their action besides a personal grievance against the building inspector.

Not content to degrade their office, and the city, with such behavior, Councilman Britt insulted Recreation Director Dennis Guenther.

What was the recreation director supposed to do? Reply in kind to a man who was, technically, his boss. It was a no win situation for Guenther, who handled it the best way he could. He merely replied Councilman Britt was mistaken and he resisted the temptation to reply in Britt's own ill-mannered terms.

The atmosphere surrounding the discussion about Ellerbee and Guenther was bitter and ugly. Only Councilman David Barefield raised any objections and based his reasoning on sound logic, not vindictiveness.

Would the city have been better off if Councilman Barefield had said nothing that night.

No, it wouldn't.

Would the meeting have been a bit more harmonious without a dissenting voice. Perhaps, in one sense. In the sense that harmony means not objecting when one man uses his office to unjustifiably insult a city employee.

But if harmony would say to remain quiet and not dissent, intelligence and integrity would obligate a man to speak out and protest the injustice being done.

Harmony will take a back seat to intelligence and fair play. Men can disagree in harmony. They cannot be fair and use their public office to satisfy personal vendettas.

EDITORIALS

What the city needs is not men who will agree to agree, but men who will dare to disagree if they feel power and positions are being misused.

A city which allows such sordid behavior to continue in a council chamber is a city which will eventually decay and crumble. The marks of such a meeting are not as tangible as a bulldozer crushing an old building, but the effects are just as destructive.

Cities on the east coast are presently paying for such attitudes. They are swamped with traffic congestion, with condominums eroding their beaches, with a dwindling water supply and higher and higher taxes.

And the full price for the laxity of their attitudes have not been paid yet. It will not be until the first hurricane since the early sixties sweeps onto the coast. Such an event is only a matter of time and urban planners know many condominums have not been built to withstand the high winds and waves of a hurricane.

Then the full toll of laxity in government will be known in money and lives. Sooner or later history always atones for errors in judgement.

The wheels of justice grind slowly, said a French philosopher, but they grind exceedingly fine.

In history, as in justice, no action is overlooked. Which is why the cities on the east coast are now, and in the future, will be paying for their action.

As Avon Park will pay for any mistakes in its history.

To tip the scales of justice, and history, in the city's favor citizens should consider intelligence and integrity in a candidate.

If candidates have those two qualities, there will automatically be harmony.

If the candidates elected do not have those two qualities the council could vote 5-0 on every matter, and there still will not be harmony in the city.

Mail Christmas Packages Early

Editor:

With Thanksgiving now behind us and the Christmas season now officially open, we wish to emphasize that many overseas mailing dates, including the U.S. Armed forces, fall due before the beginning of next month.

These dates, as in past years, vary according to different parts of the world. Specific information can be obtained by calling the Avon Park Post Office. The important thing to remember is to do your shopping early and mail your cards and parcels early.

In addition to planning early shopping, you should take the necessary time to properly prepare your cards and gifts for mailing. Use ZIP codes. Legibly write your own ZIP - coded address and the full ZIP-code address of the recipient.

This helps in processing your mail more rapidly and assists in making delivery in case portions of the address become illegible. The Post Office recommends proper wrapping of gifts to be mailed, including use of strong packaging materials. Information on proper packing and wrapping of parcels can be obtained at the Post Office.

Remember, the key to successful mailing of cards and parcels is to allow adequate time. Shop early, allow enough time to properly prepare cards and parcels for mailing, and mail early. By cooperating with the Post Office in this matter, you will help us help you have a better Christmas.

Why Not Give Instead Of Receiving?

Editor:

It is that time of year again when we think of others rather than ourselves. For most of us receiving presents at Christmas is more or less expected. That is why those of us concerned with foster children work with you, the members of the community, to help assure our 53 foster children a Merry Christmas.

Funds and services are available to meet the daily needs of our foster children. We are totally dependent upon the generosity of individuals, businesses, and organizations, to provide Christmas gifts for our foster children.

Our foster children will compose a "Letter to Santa" and we will provide you with the first name, age and size of a specific child. If you prefer to make a monetary donation, we will be happy to make the purchases for the child.

For more information concerning this program, please call Children and Youth Services, (382-2141), or write to Post Office Box 2065, Sebring, Florida 33870.

H.A.T. Runs Afoul Of Law

The statement also lists an in-kind contribution of posters and handbills by Cassie Herman valued at $33.

The statement shows all monetary contributions were made on the same day, Nov. 16.

"It's not uncommon for people to make a mistake like this," Whitehouse said. "They jumped the gun a little bit when it came to collecting contributions...there is no legal way to do what they have done."

Whitehouse said he explained to Herman the laws which regulate elections and political contributions. He said he felt the group was doing everything they could to rectify any mistakes. He said the H.A.T. group would now disband.

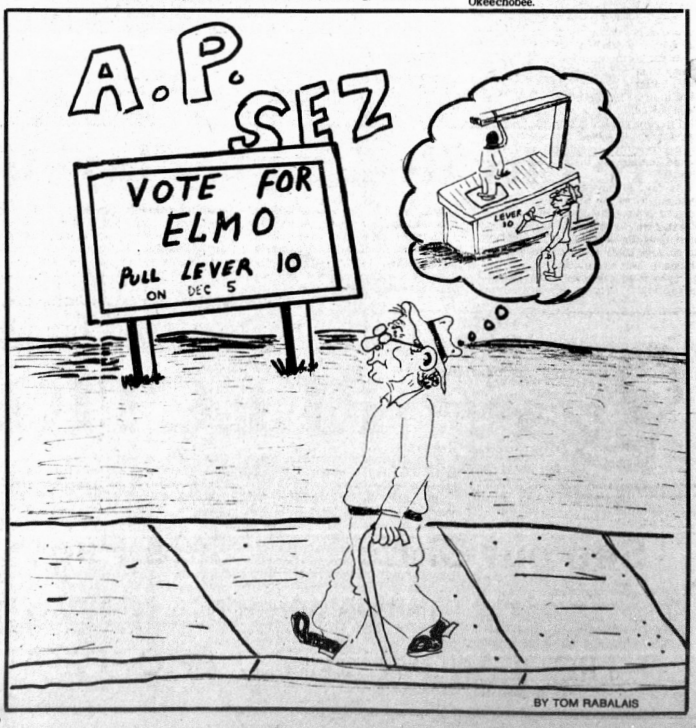

Avon Park City Clerk Malcolm Crews also said he had been notified the group would disband.

"You never had a legal H.A.T. committee," said Whitehouse. "For that you needed some pre-filed forms which are never going to be filed. You had a group of people who got together and made a mistake."

Whitehouse said it probably would have been better if all the contributors of the H.A.T. committee would have donated to the campaign of each of the three candidates.

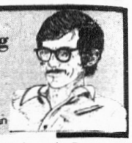

"They (the candidates) could have listed them and that would have been the enf of it," said Whitehouse.

However, the fact that the committee had agreed to disband and take no more contributions should resolve all problems, Whitehouse said.

Rocking The Boat

By George Duncan

With the Food and Drug Administration issuing so many warnings against cancer, it seems like nothing is safe nowaday from being linked to the disease.

One day we may see a news story like this:

Today, the Federal Food and Drug Administration said Thanksgiving causes cancer.

In a survey conducted by the agency, 97 percent of the people who had contracted cancer this year had celebrated Thanksgiving the previous year.

"The evidence is overwhelming," said one FDA official. "Almost all our cancer patients had celebrated Thanksgiving. It was one of the most direct links between the patients."

FDA officials are said to be studying a possible ban on Thanksgiving or, at the very least, requiring a warning notice be stamped on all turkeys and the prohibition of cranberry sauce.

Officials are undecided on weather to confiscate all bags of turkey dressing.

"We may have to raid some grocery stores," said one official.

Government officials denied reports by some scientists who claim the governments' tests were not carried out with strict scientific accuracy.

"Nonsense!" an FDA spokesman snapped. "We've been studying the effect of turkeys on the public for years."

The FDA spokesman said the agency will issue strict guidelines on the eating of turkeys in the very near future.

When informed of the government's decision, one turkey farmer said FDA people could "go suck eggs."

An FDA spokesman replied that also was against the agency's guidelines.

One high official in the FDA, who asked to remain unamed, said, because of the study on Thanksgiving, the government is also looking seriously at Christmas and New Year's Day, fearing these might also be linked to cancer.

FDA officials vehemently denied a rumor that they had suppressed a report which documented that government employees cause cancer.

The report allegedly states that cancer increases in the population in a direct correlation to the number of new government employees which move into an area.

FDA officials said the rumor was totally false and, in any event, they would not ban government employees.

However, several governors claim there is such a study and are calling for a release of it. Observers say the governors want to use the report to prove government employees are a health hazard so they can be banned from the governor's states.

"We will still go anyplace in the civilized world," said an FDA spokesman, announcing the agency even plans an expedition to the remote town of Okeechobee.

Did the city act properly in its actions regarding the Lake Isis drain?

Albritton: I think now that we have had the problem with the Lake Isis drain that it is corrected now, and I think this is probably the best solution. I'd hate to see any lake polluted, as far as that goes, not only Lake Isis.

Barefield: I was very happy to see something was done over in the Lake Isis area. I think, since the problem came to our attention, we have solved the problem and I think, from now on, it will be taken care of properly.

Howard: If I had been on the city council at that time and Mr. Wooten had brought that up I would have told him I was sorry it happened and if there was anyway in the world the city can remedy that I would be willing to go along with it.

Smith: (a) I feel, the first thing, the man was not treated fairly. You should listen to all people when they come out to complain, not set there and laugh at them, which was done to the man.

I also agree it was polluting the lake. Anything going directly into the lake is pollution and that is one of the best lakes in the area. Anything which will stop it from being polluted I am very much for.

I feel the man was totally right in his cause and the council was totally wrong in the way they treated him.

Tataris: I don't know what the situation was out there. I understand there was some pollution going into the lake. I understand Mr. Ziegler was sent out, and I also understand Mr. Ziegler felt he did a good job. This might not have been satisfactory to the people. This might not have been satisfactory to the rest of us. But let's put it this way. If there's a problem out there and you don't correct it the first time, if it's not working properly, it can be corrected the second time. This time, from what I understand and from some of the comments I've gotten from some of the residents out there, they feel that the second shot that the council took out there to correct the problems has corrected it some. Now the major problem is going to the state and telling the state that they're polluting the water, polluting the lake through drainage. I understant this will take other channels, and I feel the council has done as much as it can and the rest will be up to the state.

Phillip Wooten

Wooten: The final result as it is today is satisfactory as far as I'm concerned and, I think, if Mr. Garganus' problem has been solved. If it hasn't, no. Because his problem is important the same as my problem or anybody's else's.

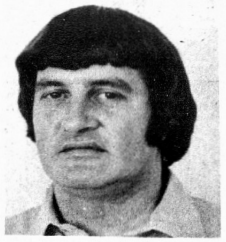

As far as the removal of the drain, way to solve both problems, that has been initiated and its only a matter of time until we find out if the problem has been solved.

I'm sure you are aware the problem was not initially solved. I got a small dose of a certain treatment, or certain attitude. Initially, no, the problem was not solved.

As far as I'm concerned it was a problem worth my time and worth the time of other individuals, any problem like that which comes before the council, then its worthy of the time of the council to sit and listen to that problem and decide in their own minds how they are going to solve it or if they are going to solve.

But to get any other treatment; laughed at, scoffed at, ridiculed or any other treatment is wrong, by anybody.

Whitbeck: I really can't comment on that. I don't know all the facts.

Paul Smith

At a council meeting the council voted to cut the salary of Building Inspector C.W., Ellerbee by approximately $2,000. Do you agree with that action?

Albritton: Well, no. I voted no on that. Of course, that goes back a long ways. I'd just rather not say. . . my vote makes it pretty clear how I felt about it.

Barefield: I felt it was a last chance effort by some councilmen to harass the building official. As I said, I don't think any councilmen truly understands the complexity of the building department. I feel it was very unjust and without merit.

Howard: I really can't make any comment because I don't know the facts. It doesn't pay to say something if you don't know what your talking about. If I don't understand the facts of it, I'd rather make no comment.

Smith: I disagree with that very much, and voiced my opinion to that affect. I think this is another indication of council interference with a department head.

This has been a constant thing every year at election time, which is wrong. Last year I felt they set Avon Park back 20 years in zoning by the changing of the Southern Standard Building Code, making the law so they can get rid of him (the buildings inspector) by the vote of the council. This is another thing I feel is totally wrong because they are interfering with a department and putting it in a political light which makes it very hard for this man to do his job.

Tataris: I can't make a comment on that. I was not there at that time. I don't know what went on; I don't know the circumstances; and yet to this day I have not learned what charges, what led to the drop in salary. This something that would have to be reviewed.

Wooten: No, I don't. For the plain and simple reason I think these salaries come about the first of October. I think the matter should be taken care of at that time. I don't think it was something that someone all at once discovered.

It's hard for me to conceive that people suddenly because aware the man was making more money than they thought he should. It appears to be that, if that is the case, that he is making too much money for the job, then they should have been aware of that prior to October. To vote a person a salary and then turn right around a month later and vote to take it away only shows me one of two things.

They either were doing their job halfway to begin with, not being abreast of the situation or there is some other reason to lower his salary, reason of a personal nature.

Whitbeck: No. If I hire a man at a certain rate of pay, I don't suddenly cut his pay. That's not fair. If he's not doing the job he's supposed to then I fire him. But you don't cut a man's pay after you already made a deal with him over what to pay him.

.. Do you think the city acted properly in the suspension of Police Chief Robert Brooks?

Albritton: I was pretty well involved in the suspension of the chief, in trying to iron out the problem. However, I wasn't satisfied with the outcome of it, on the pay of the chief.

Barefield: I feel if there were valid charges against the chief they never should have been dropped. If there wern't valid charges which could have been sustantiated they never should have been brought up. Since they were brought up and dropped, and the chief had to pay his attorney's fees while the city did not prove the charges as valid, I think the city has an obligation to pay the attorney's fee.

Howard: No. No, they didn't. If I had been mayor and I had had a bunch of complaints about the chief I would have called him in my office and we would have tried to solve those problems. If we couldn't have solved them, I would have brought it up before the next city council meeting and explained to them and asked them what to do about it.

Alex Whitbeck

Smith: I feel this was totally wrong for the fact they brought charges and suspended him and never proved anything one way or the other. They caused the man a financial hardship, which I feel was totally wrong. I feel they should have paid his legal fees.

I think this is another case of the council interfering in departments where they shouldn't be unless its proven the man is totally wrong. In this case, as with Mr. Ellerbee, if they prove the man is wrong, then get him out of there, otherwise leave the department alone. Let him operate his department without interference from the council.

Tataris: Well, I think no man, whether he's chief of police or whether he's building inspector or whether he's the road department, or any department should be suspended without proper justification. Every person deserves the right to work for someone unless he's not doing the job right and charges are brought and charges are upheld. At this time I think that any man who works for the city who has proper charges brought against him should be removed from his position if the charges are serious enough for dismissal. If there were no charges brought (against Chief Brooks) and the city couldn't prove the allegations, I think Chief Brooks should have been given some of his expenses back if not all.

Wooten: No I don't. It's my firm opinion a person should only be relieved of their duty because of a failure to do that duty, a failure to do their job. If you have factual proof that they are not doing their job, yes dismiss them. If you don't, forget about them.

Whitbeck: Well, all I can say about that is anytime you fire or suspend a department head, I think you should give the man a full explanation of the reasons.

Do you think the council acted properly in the matter of the East Castle Street paving project?

Albritton: I really didn't get involved that much in the East Castle paving project. I didn't go down and see the project, which I should have.

Barefield: I feel we received shoddy workmanship for money paid. To this day I am not satisfied with the project.

Howard: The city should have gone down there and looked at it and it should have been approved before it was paid for to be sure it was a proper job.

Smith: On East Castle Street all I know is what I have heard, I don't feel I am qualified to state on this other than, from what I've read, it was a very poor project. Also there should not have been any agreements made on this, by the mayor or anybody else, because they do not have that right. Thats basically all I have to say about it.

Tataris: I feel there was a lot of misunderstanding there in the project. I feel it was never a defined contract or a defined solution to do the job. I feel the man that did the job felt in his own mind that he did an adequate job and a good job in the sense that he did what was on the contract and more. This was done — what was on the contract and no more. I think the city has a lot of problems, and I think one of the problems is probably making sure that everything is spelled out correctly. After it is spelled out correctly, then they can ask the contractor to do a certain job, and then, then, if the contract is not completed properly, they'll have a leg to stand on. But this time I feel the contract was executed properly, and that the contractor, Mr. Crews, did exactly what was on the contract.

Wooten: I've seen that project and I can answer that — now I don't know what agreement was entered into, I don't know what the specs called for, I don't whether or not the job was done according to the specs — but if I had hired the job, if the job was being done for me, it would have been unsatisfactory.

Because I don't think the job is that good. I don't think it's up to what it should be. I'm not an engineer, I'm not a building contractor, I'm not a road builder. But anytime you can look down at something without a plum line and detect, by the naked eye, the uneveness of it, the job does not come up to the standards it should.

Whitbeck: Well I've seen the project and it would not be satisfactory to me. Furthermore I don't think a verbal contract should have been given whether it was the mayor or Malcolm Crews who did it. Thats no way to run a city.

Thomas Tataris

11. If elected, would you act independantly as a councilman, even to the extent of opposing other members of the council if you felt you were right?

Albritton: If I'm elected, surely I'm running on my own. I'm not running with anyone or on a ticket. I try to handle all the problems on my own. I don't rely on someone else to try to give me the facts or sway my mind.

Barefield: I think my record defintely speaks for itself. Its very trying when you do stand up against a group. This is not my wishes at all, my wish is that we all have harmony. But unfortunately we don't see issues the same way.

Howard: I will be independant. I will vote for what I think is right.

Smith: Yes, as a member of the zoning board of adjustments I do make my own decisions. I try to listen to both sides, take into consideration everyone concerned and take into consideration what is best for the city. I will make my own decisions.

This is one of the reasons I am running because I feel we do not have this now. We have people who are not acting in the best interests of the city.

Tataris: My voice and my opinion will represent the people. If the people are against an issue and they express their respects for me to vote against an issue, I will definitely vote against the issue. I will vote for the people no matter what they want.

Wooten: Yes.

Whitbeck: Yes. I think I proved that at the last council meeting. Whenever I see a taxpayer like Mrs. Wright being stepped on, I'm going to speak out. She has a business here and is paying her taxes, and I don't think the city should have denied her request. They approved it seven years ago.

I was told after the meeting, by another candidate, that I shouldn't have spoken out, that it would hurt me in the election. Well, people are going to know where I stand before the election and thats the way it should be. I'm not going to be anybody's man or let any group have my vote. When I see a taxpayer being hurt, I'll speak out.

In talking with some people I've heard the remark, "Well who really runs the city, the city council or Malcolm Crews? I think people know that, if I'm elected, I'm independant enough so the council will run the city.

In a man-on-the-street survey taken by radio station WAPR on the city and the candidates, several people responded that the Baptist church runs the city. Do you think the Baptist Church has a heavy influence in city government?

Albritton: Well, I wouldn't single out the Baptist Church. I'd say that all Christian people have a lot of influence in the City Hall. I'm not just saying that the Baptist Church. . . I know that's a frequent question , or answer , but I wouldn't say that they run the council, no.

Barefield: I feel the Baptist do have a great deal of influence in the city because there's more Baptist, naturally. I think they're the biggest denomination in our area. I appreciate the Baptists being very active in politics which they are. And this is the only way I feel the Baptists control anything as far as city government is concerned is because of their activism in city government.

Howard: No, I wouldn't say that. Just because you belong to the Baptist Church, is no sign all them Baptist are going to vote for you. I wouldn't say the Baptist can influence and elect all the council. I think they go by the man, not by the denomination. I'm a Baptist myself but I think there's plenty of Baptist who probably won't vote for me.

Milton Howard

Smith: I feel the number of people we have in our city government who are either members of the church or are employed there do exert a certain amount of influence on our community and in our city council.

It is also the largest church in the city which is another reason it will exert influence. So I do feel it does exert influence but I also feel people there have a mind their own and can make their own decisions. It's bound to exert a certain amount of influence.

Tataris: I think the people control the vote. I think the people control the city council. I don't think really there's any special interest group right now behind it. Each councilman seems to vote on an individual basis.

Wooten: The only way I could say yes is I think the membership of the Baptist Church is greater than the membership of any other church in the community. They have more members, thereby they probably have more votes.

But the people at the Baptist church, to the best of my knowledge, do not block vote. They vote as an individual. It's hard for me to concerive that anyone, Baptist, Methodist, Catholic, Jewish or anything else would vote other than his particular conscience told him to vote. I think the majority of the people in this community do just that.

I might say one or two other things on that. If the people in this community, as well as the people in this counrty, would get out and vote and not leave the voting to someone else — because that is their privilege — if they will get out and vote, then their vote will count.

A small number of people could, conceivably, control an election because they vote and a majority of people might not.

Whitbeck: Well, there's some. Last Sunday a woman called up on WAPR on the interview show and said she wanted all council members to be church men. She thought that was a good idea. I'm not sure you should mix religion and politics that closely. I don't believe one group — even a religious group — should enforce their beliefs on the whole city, Thats wrong.

You know, people have told me 'You're crazy. You're crazy someone and it will effect your business. Somebody will get upset and won't trade with you anymore.

Well, I care enough about the city to get up and try to do something to help it instead of doing nothing. So people are going to know where I stand and what I believe — whether it costs me business or whether it costs me votes — because I care enough to tell people what I believe and not allow anyone to be stepped on by the city. Or anybody else. And thats the way I feel.

(Last week the names of two candidates were inadvertently left out when the answer to this question was run. The question , asked after a specific question about the building department, was how each candidate would rate the other city departments.)

Albritton: I think they're doing a good job. I know we have a lot of hard-working men in the various departments. Of course, I'm more aware of the water department since that is my department.

Barefield: I think there are some departments which are doing a very good job for the city, but I think there are others which could be improved.

Howard: My opinion is we have a good water superintendant, a good street superintendant, a good fire chief. I think we have some mighty good men for the amount of money we pay. The more money you pay a fellow, naturally, the higher caliber man you can get.

Smith: Not working with them, I'm nor really qualified to pass judgement on them. I would have to say they are on an equal basis. I work with the building department, and I think the recreation department is doing good. But the other departments I do not work with and am really not qualified to make a judgement.

Tataris: In the City of Avon Park right now, I would rate the departments as being very good. Dennis Guenther in the Recreation Department has a college degree, he spends the time — he has the capacity and he has the knowledge to run the recreation properly. From what I've seen today and from what I've seen in the past, I think Dennis Guenther is doing real good. I also feel the same way about the fire department; I think the fire department is doing an excellent job. I feel that Mack is on the ball. I feel he's on top of every situation in the new building he's going to, and I feel that is a good department. The water department — I think the water department is doing real good. And generally I think that everything is real fine, and I really don't have a grudge or a bone to pick on this.

David Barefield

Wooten: Offhand, there again I'm pretty much at a lost. I'm not aware of money spent to get a certain job done. I will say, just by casual observation, the mall under what every department that is, the mall is a great improvement over what it was in the past. I can remember it when it left a lot to be desired.

Whitbeck: After talking to people I think that most of the departments are doing a good job. If I were elected and found out a department head was not doing his job, I'd go before the council and try to get it corrected or get a new department head.

Taxation

Crews replied yes, but said the county's error made such a meeting impractical until the corrections were made in the taxation study.

"Until we get the correct figures, we can make some general statements but can't really be too specific," Crews said.

But Crews said he thought it was clear that "city residents are basically paying more to the county for county services than they pay to the city for city services and the city provides much more in the form of services."

as the road and bridge department which the city did not receive benefits from.

"It's wrong to use population figures to figure a percentage of taxes. . . it's wrong to use a percentage of city taxes to pay for a department which gives no service to the cities whatsoever," said Crews.

Crews also said he had questions about county charges to the city for such items as courts and personnel.

Councilman Robert Britt asked if councilmen were supposed to meet with county commissioners.

Band Is Selling Christmas Trees

As Santa Claus was escorted through Avon Park atop a fire truck Friday morning, band students and parents were busy unloading Christmas trees from the Northwoods of Canada and Nova Scotia.

Scotch pines and blue spruce in a variety of sizes are on sale in the lot behind the Highlands County Bank. Potted poinsettias also are being offered in a variety of colors, including red, white and hot pink.

This is the third annual Christmas tree sale sponsored by the Band Parents Association for the Avon Park High School and Middle School bands.

Associaiton spokesmen said it would be wise to select a tree early this year due to a shortage of trees this year. The life of the tree will be extended if you take it home now and take care of it properly, they added.

Groups of band students will add to the Christmas spirit as residents stroll through the lot by playing seasonal tunes at various times throughout the sale.

Trees are on sale from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Saturday and from 1-10 p.m. Sunday.

Pickups Are Stolen

Three county pickup trucks apparently were the victims of joyriders who stole them from the county barn in Avon Park Sunday night.

All three trucks were later recovered by Highlands County Sheriff's deputies, but two of them were scratched with some glass broken, according to the sheriff's department report.

Entry to the barn was gained by prying open the lock on the gate and the trucks were driven out, according to deputies.

One of the trucks was located near Hopewell School. The other two were spotted from the air about 9 a.m. Monday by Pilot Larry Harris and Deputy William Wise in a grove area off S.R. 17 south of Avon Park.

Fingerprints were taken from the trucks and the investigation is continuing.

Fur Catches Must Have Special Tag

Bobcats, otters and mink taken by Florida hunters and trappers during the upcoming commercial fur season (December 1-March 1) now must be tagged with a special locking seal.

Under the new regulations, each fur must be tagged by the Commission before being sold, said Colonel Robert M. Brantly, executive director of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

No more than two untanned bobcat hides may be possessed between April 1 and November 30. No untanned hides may be possessed between April 1 and November 30. No untanned hides of otters or mink may be possessed except during December 1, through March 31.

The new regulations result from a nationwide review of the overall status of bobcats and river otters by the Endangered Species Scientific Authority (ESSA), a federal agency affiliated with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Brantly said. ESSA banned export of bobcat and otter hides in 1977-78 unless the hides had been tagged by the wildlife agency of the state of origin.

"Last year, persons taking bobcats or otters for the fur trade were not required to have them tagged by the Commission, but tags were available to those that wanted them," Brantly said. "Furs that had been tagged commanded a better wholesale price than untagged ones since the tagged pelts were eligible for foreign export under ESSA's regulations," he said.

In 1978-79, however, these tags are now compulsory for Florida's bobcats, otters and mink. Brantly said this action is in part due to the ESSA requirements but also an effort to secure the vital information for proper management of the state's wildlife resources.

"Although there is ample indication of healthy bobcat and otter populations throughout Florida, history has shown that overharvests are possible when species are taken for commercial reasons," Brantly said.

"By collecting data on the animals and comparing it over the years, the Commission will ensure these wild animals always will remain abundant in Florida," he added.

Information on the tagging program can be obtained by calling the nearest regional office of the Commission at the following toll-free numbers: Panama City, 1 — 800-342-1676; Lake City, 1 — 800-342-8105; Ocala, 1 — 800-342-9620; Lakeland, 1 — 800-282-8002; and West Palm Beach, 1 — 800-432-2046.

GardenClubPlans Christmas Tea

LAURA NEUBAUER, SYBIL Laye, Imogene Kelsey are getting materials ready to decorate the R.L. Padgett home on Lake Lotella Drive, for the Federated Garden Clubs annual Christmas Tea.

The Avon Park Federated Garden Club members are very busy making plans for their annual Christmas Tea which is to be held on Thursday, Dec. 14 from 2:30 til 5:30 p.m. The home selected for this year's festivities is the Robert L. Padgett residence located on E. Lake Lotella Drive, and the theme is "An Old Fashioned Christmas."

Mildred Rulison, chairman of the decorating committee has assigned members of the club who will plan and decorate every room in the Padgett home, using their own ideas, but keeping in mind the theme, "An Old Fashioned Christmas." Willa Padgett will decorated the outside and front entrance while Evelyn Delk is in charge of decorations in the foyer.

In the living room, Ruth Geldhardt and Ona Brace will trim the Christmas tree, assisted by Mrs. Padgett. Dorothy Lanier and Mariana King will use their creativity in arrangements for this room also. The dining and breakfast rooms are to be enhanced with Christmas flowers and colors by Vivian Hartt, Jane Barben and Hattie Touchton.

Carrie McGiboney will carry out her ideas in Christmas arrangements in the hallway. The powder room will be decorated by Emma Bussard and Erie Caffee while the bedrooms will be in the capable artistic hands of Louise Gregg and Kay Giddens.

In the breezeway will be a truly old-fashioned Christmas tree. Sybil Laye, Daisy Wollangk, and Lou Grose are planning to use ropes of popcorn and cranberries as part of the trimmings.

Tea and refreshments will be served. There will be a Plant Mart and Boutique in which one can browse and purchase gifts for the holiday season.

Donations for this Christmas event will be $1. There will be ample parking space with attendants to assist all visitors.

Cheri Kitchings

Engagement Announced

Plans have been completed for the marriage of Cheri Kitchings of Sebring and Lee Tolar of Avon Park. The wedding will be Dec. 9, 8 p.m. at Southside Baptist Church in Sebring.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend the wedding and reception, which follows in the church fellowship hall.

Church Of Nazarene Scene Of Nupital Vows

Rhonda Dale Brookins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.J. Brookins of Sebring, became the bride of Kent Stanley Filppula October 6, in a double-ring ceremony at the Church of the Nazarene in Avon Park.

Kent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Filppula of Avon Park.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a gown of white chantilly lace over bridal satin designed with long lace sleeves. Chantilly lace and seed pearls trimmed the bodice. Matching lace accented the A-line skirt, sweeping into a cathedral train.

Wanda B. Holley of Stuart, sister of the bride attended as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Janet M. Filppula, Holly E. Burnby and Tracy J. Holman of Lakeland, niece of the bride.

Richard Birt of Avon Park served as best man and the groomsmen were Allen Spurlock, Sgt. James Gallemore of Avon Park, brother-in-law of the groom, and Dean Filppula also of Avon Park and brother of the groom.

A reception followed at the Florida Power Lounge with Ms. Reginal L. Peppers presiding over the guest book.

The bride is a 1978 graduate of Sebring High School and is presently employed at Dr. C.S. Nahm's office in Sebring.

The groom is a graduate of Avon Park High School, South Florida Junior College and the University of South Florida in Tampa with a BA degree in social studies. He is presently employed at the Lake Placid Middle School.

Garden Club Tours Tiger Creek Preserve

The Highlands Garden Club's November 2, meeting was a guided field trip to Tiger Creek nature preserve near Lake Wales.

Eighteen members and two guest enjoyed the beauty of the sparkling clear water of the creek and the natural state of the surrounding trees, birds, and growth of the preserve.

A member of the Babson Park Audubon Society guided the group along paths left just as nature and the years made them, with stops at the most scenic spots on the creek.

Everyone will always remember how beautiful trees, streams and birds can be if left in their natural state.

The Club's next meeting will be held on December 7 at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Evelyn Jones and Virginia Comeford of Dinner Lake.

A christmas program is to be given by Edna Mrag of Sebring.

Gift-O-Rama Opens On Square

A complete Hallmark store, the Gift-O-Rama, has recently opened at the Avon Square Shopping Center with a guarantee that "If we can get people into the store, we'll get them back."

Quenten Atkinson, the regional manager of four such stores, says that, "Few people come into the store only once."

The high repeate volume of customers is due to the quality of the complete Hallmark goods which the store has, says Atkinson. The Gift-O-Rama features all types of gift merchandise, Hallmark cards, candy, personalised items, jewlery, figurines and botique items.

There is a full line of low, moderate and high-priced items, Atkinson said.

This is the fourth store Atkinson will have a hand in managing. Other stores include one in Branden, Zephyrhills and Brooksville.

"We wanted to expand further and this location was presented to us by the Hallmark Company. We felt the J.C. Penny store in the plaza was a very good draw to the center and that it was very well located."

Atkinson said demographic surveys showed the Avon Park location was in driving distance of other cities in the area.

"I think the store definitely fills a need," said Atkinson. "I talked to people who are glad to see Hallmark goods."

The store will also feature personalized Hallmark items, such as napkins or cards for such occasions as weddings, anniversary or the birth of a child.

"We are loaded with ideas and suggestions and have people who can help all customers," Atkinson said.

Atkinson's father owns a Gift-O-Rama in Tampa which is a retail establishment. This gives the stores a wide choice of items and a tremendous selection of merchandise, he said.

"We have gifts for all occasions and to fill all needs," Atkinson said.

Grand Jury Sessions Set

Two murder cases head the agenda for the grand jury session which will commence Dec. 4. Assistant State Attorney Tom Gallagher indicated he would present evidence in the double slaying at a Hicoria home and the fatal shooting of James Albert Dease of Avon Park.

In the former case Emory Elton Jones and Henry Hardy Pope Jr., both of Hicoria, were the victims. Gallagher has refused to list suspects in any of the cases. However, it is believed he will be seeking indictments for Charles R. Welsch Jr. and Ruth Dease.

Welsch, who is a resident of Greensboro Bend, Vt., was jailed in Arcadia June 22. He was arrested following a four-day hunt in the back country of DeSoto County. He was charged with a burglary, aggravated assault and robbery in DeSoto County, and Gallagher said he would not file any charges here until that case had been disposed of.

However, 12th Circuit Judge Vincent Hall has granted a delay in the trial. Public Defender Richard Seymour asked for the delay because of extensive pretrial publicity and, he also said, additional time was needed to prepare a defense.

Mrs. Dease was jailed Halloween weekend following the death of her husband at their home in Avon Park. Judge Mark Richardson Jr. refused to set bond and she has remained in the county jail.

A.P.C.I. Inmate Hospitalized

One inmate at the Avon Park Correctional Institution has been hospitalized after fight with a second inmate.

W.E. Morris is in Hardee Memorial Hospital in Wauchula in satisfactory condition after he was injured in a fight with a second inmate, Mike McCabe.

McCabe claims that he was threatened by Morris who then attempted to assault him. Morris was injured when he was cut by razor wellded by McCabe.

Assistant Superintendant Paul Worthington said an investigation of the incident was being conducted.

Social Security Questions

Q. I'll be 65 next March, but I intend to continue working. Can I get Medicare even though I won't be retired.

A. Yes, you can get Medicare at age 65, even if you keep working and don't start getting Social Security retirement benefits. But, make sure you contact any Social Security office about 3 months before you reach 65 so your Medicare protection can start the month you're eligible.

Q. I'll be applying for monthly Social Security retirement payments soon. I've had 4 years of active military service and I understand I can get Social Security earnings credit for that time. When I apply for retirement payments should I bring my army discharge papers along with me.

A. Yes, on both counts. You get Social Security earnings credit for the time you were in active military service and it would be helpful to have your army discharge papers with you when you apply for your retirement payments. You'll also need your Social Security card, birth certificate, and latest Form W-2. . . and you can apply at any Social Security office.

Q. I've been working and paying Social Security contributions since I was 16; I'm now 51. Is there a point where I'm completely paid up and don't have to have Social Security deductions taken out of my pay.

A. No, as long as you work on a job covered by Social Security, you must pay the Social Security contributions on your earnings, even though you're fully insured.

Q. I'm 79 and I've been getting monthly Social Security checks for the past 14 years. I have no living relatives and most of my friends are also gone. So, I've decided that, when I die, I want my body donated to our local medical school for experimental purposes. Also, even though it's not a very large amount, I'd like the Social Security lump-sum death payment to go to the medical school. Can this be done.

A. Yes, if the medical school applies for the lump-sum death payment after the disposal of your remains, payment could be made to them.

For answers to your Social Security questions, write P.O. Box 178, Lakeland, Florida 33802, or call the Social Security office listed in your telephone directory.

Tips For The Homemaker

By Beki Brock

In the past, you may have thought too much about managing your money in a systematic way. Now, faced with inflation and a need to make every cent count, you may be asking serious questions about how to improve your financial situation.

You may feel that all you need is more money. Undoubtedly, this would help, but you may be able to make better use of what you already have and avoid "running short" or "running out" before the next payday.

A sound plan for spending and saving is an important step toward successful money management. It can't guarantee you more money, but it can increase your chances of having more of the things you need and want.

A money management plan must be set up in terms of your family's needs. Do not try to adopt a budget drawn up for an "average" person or a "typical,' family whose income and situation seem to be similar to yours.

Each person and each family is different, having its own values and its own ideas about what is important. To serve you best, your plan has to fit your life style, your ambitions, your income, your assets and debts, as well as the ages, sex and number of persons in your family.

Goals, needs and interests change the demands on your income. As your family goes through the life cycle from marriage through the time children are growing up and then leaving home, your financial requirements vary.

Wherever you are in the life cycle, now is the time to set up a plan for using your income. A plan will not only help you fight inflation, but will help you and your family get what you most want from your available dollars.

Start your financial plan by listing the things that are important to you and your family. What would you like your money to buy now? In five years? in 10 to 20 years? At retirement? Be optimistic, but realistic, too, in terms of your abilities, education and experience, present and future expected income and responsibilities.

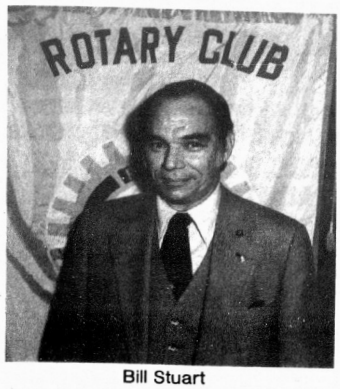

The whole family should participate in discussing wants and needs. Then, as a unit, set priorities and goals. Decide whether you're doing the things that really seem worthwhile to you or whether you want to change things.

Short-range goals are the things you want soon — within the next year. They may include a new washer or dryer, a bicycle, a vacation, or perhaps the repayment of debts. Long-range goals include things that may take a year of planning and saving to accomplish such as home ownership, a college education, or retirement security.

Cost of and savings for long-range goals may shift as prices and economic conditions change. If present income is low and or debts are high, you may have to plan only to take care of current needs and debt repayment. With advance planning, however, future wants can be more nearly met.

You may not be able to have everything you want when you want it, but it will be easier to attain goals if you set priorities and then exercise your choice-making powers to spend and save for those things.

There are said to be two million comets in the solar system!

Bill Stuart

Bill Stuart Speaks To Rotarians

Forty-One Rotary members and their guests attended the regular luncheon meeting which convened at the Ranch Buffet Restaurant in Avon Park. Guests introduced were: Bill Fisher (who was said to be in ice cream) from Elwood, Ind., Dick Brown, CPA from Sebring; and Ernie Breed Attorney also from Sebring.

Clay Gooch was indoctronate as the newest Rotary member. Clay's married with four daughters. His Rotary A n's name is Terry. Clay graduated with a B.S. from Florida State University and received his M.S. from Applicacian State University at Boone, N.C., and is currently the South Florida Junior College Baseball Coach.

The Days program was presented by Mr. W.H. (Bill) Stuart, Jr. from Bartow. Bill is a past district governor and is a 4th generation Bartow Floridian. (Which as most of us transplants know is a rare breed indeed.) Bill currently raises brahman cattle north of Bartow. He graduated from Washington State University with graduate work performed at Wharton School of Finance (Division of The University of Penn).

Bill's program was the Rotary Foundation. This foundation makes graduate and undergraduate grants plus awards to young business and professional men and women for study abroad.

This foundation is solely supported by Rotary Member-Club contributions. There have been over 31,700 Fellowship Grants, and 650 technical training awards presented to deserving young men and women since the program began in 1917. During the 1976-77 Rotary Year, more than 6 million dollars of grants were awarded by this program. Rotarians support this program with their donations. The need is great but the results are greater, stated Bill.

Bill closed his talk saying "If we work upon marble it will perish; if we work on brass, time will efface it; if we build temples, they will crumble into dust; but, if we work upon immortal minds, we imbue them with the full meaning of the spirit of Rotary, the just fear of God and love for our fellowman. We also are engraving on those tables something that will brighten and eternity."

Those in Rotary hope and pray that you and yours all had a very Happy Thanksgiving and remembered to give "Thanks."

APCI Holds Talent Show

Avon Park Correctional Institute was the scene for a "Battle of the Bands" talent show last Thursday evening sponsored by the A.P.C.I. Jaycees. The program began at approximately 4:30 p.m. with Arnold Lee Smith director and emcee of the show welcoming all visitors.

For several hours inmates were entertained by musical groups such as the Rythum Ramblers, County Jem, Southern Dust, A.J.B. Bande, Offenders and Black Roots. The comedy team of Red and Ed Keep the attendees in laughter in-between sets.

According to the director, Arnie Smith this is the first talent show at A.P.C.I. to become a success in over four years. The purpose of the program was to give the inmates some entertainment, and if successful perhaps more would be allowed in the future and with visitors.

Jean R. Shawver produced the production, in cooperation with the A.P.C.I. administrator Sid Fortner.

Awards were presented to the top three bands with certificates to runner-ups. Jim Ennis, Billy Harris, John Berry and Tom Caraccio members of The Southern Dust band took first place with their performance of country rock.

The Black Roots, consisting of Fred Brown, Butch Brown, Charles Kelly, Willie Bonner, Ronnie Cornell, David Wilson and Arnold Lee took second with their soul music. The third place award went to Kevin Hogan, Tom Caraccio, Bill Bailey and Billy Harris, members of the Offenders. This band perferred easy-listening type music.

There were six bands entered in the competition and one comedy team. Smith, Coach Lenoard and Coach Shawver began the preparations for the talent program about three months ago, and, one could tell that a lot of work went into it to make it a success. The musical abilities of the groups were astonishing and the judges had a tough job selecting the winners. A job well done should go to all those involved to help put on the program and to Mr. Fortner for his cooperation with the talent show.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Manuel Gilbeau

Luke-Guilbeau Weds In Garden Ceremony

Miss Lucinda Faye Luke of Albany, Ga., became the bride of Kenneth Manuel Guilbeau of Leesburg, Ga. September 2, at 7 p.m. in the home of the bride's parents, with Rev. William Ziengenfus officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robinson of Avon Park, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John Seenor of Fitzgerald, Ga.

Given in marriage by her step-father the bride wore a gown of dacron polyster organza with a ruffle around yoke of bodice and high mandarin neckline. The bodice covered with floral Venise applicades had a sheer organza inset at the neck. The empire waist had a full flowing skirt accented by a full flounce hemline and the attached chapel train was accented with venise lace. Her veil of imported English illusion was trimmed with floral Venise lace matching that of the gown, and she carried a bouquet of baby orchids and tea roses interspersed with baby's breath.

The scene for the nuptial vows was the Robinson's garden lavishly decorated for a traditional Hawaiian style marital setting, including totem poles, tiki torches and foral arrangements.

Patricia Jones, cousin of the bride, of Leesburg, attended as matron of honor. She wore a blue, polyster knit, gown and an orchid lei.

Helen Chmieleuski, of Albany, Ga., Tammy Robinson, sister of the bride of Langley Field, Va., and Debbie Barnes of Avon Park attended as bridemaids. They wore identical gowns to that of the matron of honor in pink polyster knit and an orchid lei.

Larry Guilbeau, brother of the groom of Leesburg, Ga., served as best man.

Those attending as groomsmen were Daniel Luke, Jeffrey Robinson and Christopher Luke, all brothers of the bride.

Stephanie Young, niece of the bride, of Sebring attended as flower girl. She wore a gown made from the material as the grooms shirts in the traditional Hawaiian floral design and dropped orchid and rose petals in the bridal path.

For this occasion the brides mother chose a beautiful floor length, sea blue, polyster, magic knit gown fashioned by Slyvia Ann of St. Louis, with matching accessories. For her flowers she wore a lovely floral headpiece of minature orchids.

The groom's mother chose for her son's wedding a floor length, ginger brown, polyster knit gown with coordinating multi-colored chiffon cape, and matching accessories. Adorning her left shoulder was a beautiful corsage of miniature orchids.

A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents. The Hawaiian atomsphere was carried throughout the surroundings including baskets of fresh fruit and floral arrangements. A lovely white Irish linen tablecloth covered the brides table. Her three tiered cake was adorned with her chosen colors of pink and blue. Each tier was separated by Colonial pillars with flowers intertwined from one tier to the next. An adorable kissing couple adorned the top layer.

Mary Lyons was placed in charge of the guest book.

Those assisting in receiving and serving were Mrs. Barbara Young, Mrs. Donna Robinson, Mrs. Brenda Retherford, and Barbara Monk. Co-ordinator for the special event was Mrs. Gloria Mellert.

For their honeymoon trip the bride chose a three piece, tailored, medium blue, suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage lifted from the bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds will reside in Leesburg, Ga.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Avon Park High School, was employed with Polk County Purchasing Department until January 1978. She entered the Marine Corp in February 1978 and is presently stationed at Albany, Ga.

The bridegroom is a 1965 graduate of Lee County High School, served four years with the Navy and is now employed by Sumter Tire and Battery of Americus, Ga.

Out of town guest were Mr. and Mrs. James Roth of Langley Field, Va.; Shirley Jones, Athens, Ga.; Nancy Guilbeau of Leesburg, Ga.; Lynn Dunn of Orlando, Mr. and Mrs. R. Chmieleuski and family of St. Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mikell of Tampa; Deanna DeBoard of Tampa; Mrs. William DeBoard of Tampa; J.D. Jones of Bradenton Sgt. and Mrs. Gray L. Nutley Mr. and Mrs. Pierce J. Guard Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Luke, Sr., William Collins and Patricia Wells, all of Lakeland; Mr. and Mrs. Wessel Durrance of Lake Placid; and Mrs. Roy Wilkerson of Lake Wales.

Annniversary Recital At Bok Singing Tower

The first special program to mark the forthcoming 50th Anniversary Year at the Mountain Lake Sanctuary and Singing Tower will be the commemoration of "The First Public Recital of the Sanctuary Bells" on Saturday, December 2, and Sunday, December 3, at 3 p.m.

Milford Myhre, successor to the Sanctuary's first carillonneur, Anton Brees, will play several selections from the original recital, including "Lead Kindly Light," "America the Beautiful," two songs by Stephen Foster, plus English and Russian folk songs. Also featured will be "God's Hand" and "Our United States" for which Edward W. Bok wrote the texts.

In addition to selections from the 1928 recital, three recent contemporary carillon works will be played: "Prelude on Chartres" by Roy Hamlin Johnson "Paraphrase on Come Down, O Love Divine" by Mr. Myhre and "Prelude and Toccata Giubilante" by Johan Franco. Johnson's work was commissioned by The American Foundation for the Tower and is dedicated to Mr. Myhre. The "Paraphrase" is dedicated to the memory of Anton Brees and was commissioned by Christ Church Cranbrook Michigan for its 50th anniversary last June.

Man Arrested On Grand Theft

A weakness for shoes and money landed James Keefer in jail Friday on a charge of grand theft.

Keefer, a resident of the Stephens and Restina Trailer Park, was arrested by Sheriff's Deputy Glenn Bass after allegedly confessing to stealing $12.35 and 11 pairs of shoes from Money's Shoes where he was employed.

Deputy Bass was called to the shoe store after owner Lamon Money registered a complaint with the Sheriff's department saying Keefer had confessed to the thefts.

Bass reported Keefer admitted he took the shoes, $7 in coins from a cigar box in the store and $5.35 from the cash register over a week-and-a-half period.

Keefer allegedly had kept four pairs of shoes for himself and had given six pairs to his parents and one pair to his sister. All the shoes were returned to the store.

Total value of the stolen items was placed at $293.79.

The search for the 1979 Florida Mother of the Year has begun, according to Mrs. Tom Mitchell, President of the Florida Mothers Association. Any civic or social organization, church or church group in Florida can sponsor a Mother of the Year candidate.

The candidate must be a woman of achievement who has children with outstanding accomplishments. Students Celebrate Thanksgiving

Children at the Avon Park elementary schools relived a part of America's past last Wednesday in celebration of the first Thanksgiving held in 1621.

Dressed in the traditional piligrim hats or Indian headdress the children completed their studies of the first Thanksgiving with a feast of which some had held prepare themselves.

In Gail Penfield's kindergarten class the youngsters prepared cornbread for the stuffing, cleaned and filled carrot strips with a special mixture with raisins, and watched the 10 lb. turkey finish roasting in a micro-wave oven one of the parents had brought to the classroom.

The students ate in their Thanksgiving lunch in their classroom with parents assisting in serving.

Judy Rewis's kindergarten class prepared and made homemade soup for the occasion. Each child brought something to school Wednesday to put into the soup, from celery, carrots, potatoes to canned vegetables. The meat was provided by the school cafeteria. Within the classroom the children cleaned and prepared the vegetables for cooking and seemed to enjoy every bite, with some asking for seconds.

Shelly Farrara's class made an early colony village. With a mixture of flour, salt and water mixed together, rolled into the shape of logs, the cabins were built and then baked and shellac to preserve them. For tepees they used small sticks found on the school grounds and colored paper for the outer covering, and with the help of her aide, Pat Caswell they laid tiny stones for the pathway and landscape. Altogether it took the class about four days to make, and at the same time learned of how things were for the early settlers.

In Sue Goodwin's first grade class the children made turkey baskets in which they filled with canned goods to share with those less fortunate during the Thanksgiving holidays. The students were very proud of the contribution they were making to the community and in doing so learned of the need to help and share with others, as the Indians and Piligrims did long ago.

Lucy Loveless' class spent one day recently reliving the history of the American Indians. They set up a tepee, ground corn, made clay bowls and pots, sand painted and shot an arrow with a bow. They also ate an Indian style lunch on the school grounds.

Other classes throughout the schools participated in some activity in observance of Thanksgiving and what it meant to the early Plymouth colonist and the American Indians. It was a lesson that many of them want forget for a long time. Not only were weeks spent talking and discussing the events that brought about the Thanksgiving holiday, but the day set aside for their special activity in which they could become personally involved was very special to each one of them.

DEDE GUENTHER, Chiquita Battles, Nikki Ludden, Cruiser Crews, Francine Curl and Marshall Watson members of Shelley Ferrara's class view their village of early Piligrims and Indians they made in observance of the Thanksgiving season.

SKIP VALENTIK, Johathan Riley, Carl Hawkins and William Amburn in Sue Goodwins first grade class proudly add canned foods they brought to place in the turkey they made to give to needy families in the community for the Thanksgiving holidays.

CHILDREN IN GAIL Penfield's kindergarten class enjoy the bountiful Thanksgiving meal they help prepare last Wednesday.

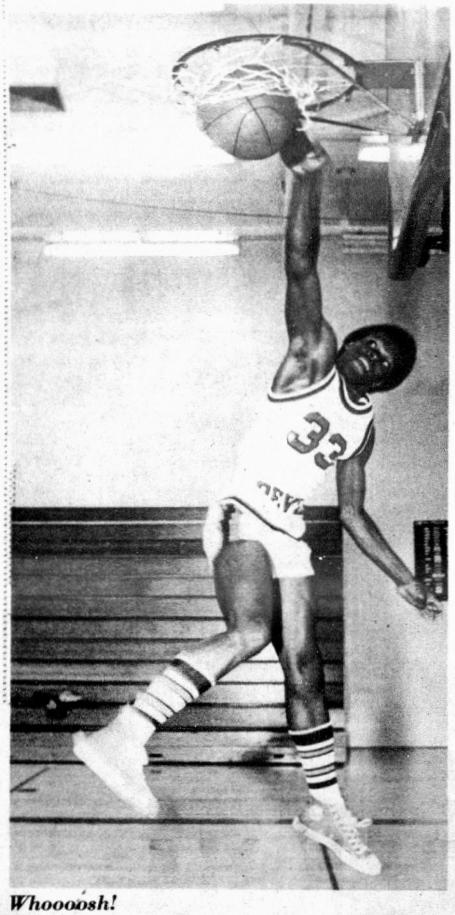

AVON ELEMENTARY STUDENTS dressed with Piligrim hats and Indian headdress enjoy their Thanksgiving meal in their classroom surrounded by Thanksgiving decorations of which they made themselves.

Let's give thanks for all the joys of the past year. And for the bountiful gifts of food, housing and clothing. Give thanks for the warmth and love of family and friends, for the freedoms and opportunities available to all of us. In the spirit of the early pilgrims, let's gather up the family for a turkey feast and give thanks... it's been an American tradition since 1621.

CHILDREN IN JUDY Rewis,s kindergarten class eat their Thanksgiving lunch in the classroom. Homemade soup was the course for the day as the children prepared the vegetables and help make the soup themselves.

Inexperienced But Talented Hoopers Face Tough Season

BY BRUCE HENDERSON

A question mark might best describe the 1978-79 basketball season for Avon Park's varsity Red Devils.

With a new coach and only two members of last year's team returning for another season, this year's Red Devil squad will have to work hard to repeat or better the 18-10 season which ended last year with the Red Devils winning the Class 2A state runner-up trophy.

Promising is a word which also could describe this year's team, however. The new coach is Don Sizemore, who with most of the players on this year's team, put together last year's impressive 19-1 junior varsity season. The JV squad last year lost only to Arcadia in the second game of the season.

Sisemore said this week he expects his team is to be a top contender in conference and district play once again this year, but he added the Red Devils will face stiff competition.

"Just about all of the conference teams are going to be strong," he commented. "I think Hardee would have to be our biggest competition . . . Hardee, Okeechobee, then Sebring."

The Red Devils will steel themselves for a tough season by opening against one of the state's top 10 Class 4A schools in a contest at Lakeland High School Tuesday, Dec. 5. The action begins at the Lakeland High gym at 6:15 p.m. with a junior varsity game.

Conference play starts next Friday, Dec. 8, with the rival Sebring Blue Streaks traveling to the home courts for what promises to be a closely-matched contest. Junior varsity play, under the coaching direction of Hoppy Rewis, starts at 6:30 p.m.

One of the highlights of the season will be the Ft. Myers Invitational Christmas Tournament, to be played in Ft. Myers on Dec. 20-22 and 26-28. District tournament play is scheduled to begin Feb. 22-24.

Sisemore rates his team better in ball handling than last year's varsity squad, but he added, "The team last year was a lot stronger physically, a lot better in rebounding, than this year's team will be."

Coach Sisemore, who relies primarily on a 2-1-2 offense and a 1-2-2-defense, said he is pleased with the size of his players, adding he will have a taller team than last year's squad. It will be about evenly matched with other teams in the conference, he said.

Leading off the Red Devil attack will be 6'4" center Pernell Gibbs, one of the two players returning from last year's varsity squad, although he did not have a starting position last year.

At starting forward positions will be 6'4" senior J.D. Taylor and 6'1" sophomore Alvin Conner. Starting guard positions will be filled by sophomore Charlton Weathers, at 5'10", and either David Sisemore, at 5'10", or Jeff Adams, at 5'8", both juniors.

The Red Devil squad will be rounded off by Gerald Jones, Stanly Smith, Chris Collins, Dwain Simpson and James Wilburn.

Sisemore said season tickets to the 10 home games are on sale, priced at $15 for adults and $8 for students.

Green Machine Only Undefeated Team Left

The Green Machine is the only undefeated team in the Flag-Football League for kids, after beating a good Red Team. They played last Tuesday Afternoon in a tight game that handed the Red Raiders their first loss. Red's record is now 2-1; good enough for second place in the standings.

In the first half of the game, both teams showed excellent defensive plays to thwart the others offensive threats. It was a back and forth struggle, with the first half coming to a close with a scoreless tie. It looked as if the second half would be more of the same, until the Green Machine cranked up and stepped in with a big defensive score, intercepting a pass and going all the way. Troy Knight was the outstanding defensive player for green with that play and one to match it late in the game. The only offensive score for the green came as Geno Taylor gathered in a punt and ran it all the way in for the six points. The final score was Green over the Red 20-0.

In Monday's Game, the Red Raiders romped over the Orange Crush, 35-0. Again the majority of the scoring was from intercepted passes and good runbacks. The Red played a very tight game and showed that they will be a tough team to beat.

This week's games had the Bombers against the Gold Getters on Monday, the Green Machine against the Orange Crush on Tuesday and on Thursday, the yearly rivalry between the Gold and the Green. The results will be reported in next week's paper.

Next week's games will be the following matchups on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday respectfully: Orange-Gold, Red -Blue, and Green - Blue.

Ruth E. Robinson

There were 84 residents, friends and relatives at our delicious Thanksgiving Dinner on a beautiful day. The bakers of the Turkeys were: Marie Husband, Dorothy Baxter, and Dorothy Keyes. The very capable hostesses were Thelma South, Susie Bacon and Elizabeth Stromberg. Table settings and decorations were appropriately done by Pauline Thomas and Blanche Vandepolder, with Elizabeth Stromberg making the Menu assisted by Irene Limbaugh.

The purchasers of the turkeys were Dorothy Keyes and Verna Fero and Mr. and Mrs. David Boyers very graciously furnished them for Thanksgiving, again, for which we are all grateful. We just wish they could join us again, sometime.

The master of ceremonies was Sponsler Limbaugh who passed out little "turkeys" for the tables procession in turn, around the well laden dinner tables. Mr. Virgil Weldy asked the Lord's Blessing on this Thanksgiving repast. Our program included singing "Happy Birthday" to everyone having a birthday on this date, as well as "Happy Anniversary" to Mr. and Mrs. Claron Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Styrl Mishey and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McBeth for their 57th anniversaries.

Eleanor Damon played beautifully at the piano following the meaningful recitation of "Bless this House, Oh Lord, we pray". Possibly everyone was thinking of their dear ones, back home during this meditation. The next special was the H.E.N. trio singing "The Way to Find Happiness" by Hazel Weldy, Nita Byrer and Eleanor Damon at the piano, which was most thought provoking and inspiring. We are certainly fortunate to have these talented folks with us.

Mrs. Vera Bridge read a meaningful prayer for "Thanksgiving." We really should count our blessings! There was a pinch of humour added by Dorothy Keyes, with a tale about a "manhole cover", and Paul Thomas told a story about a bear.

Mr. and Mrs. David Boyers presented the Thanksgiving Turkeys to us for the dinner, for which we are all appreciative! We just wish they could share it with us, again. There was an evening luncheon at 6:00 with 57 folks attending, and good fellowship.

Mrs. Howard Smith thanks the thoughtful friends, who sent her so many thoughtful cards and wishes, as well as the flowers while in the hospital. Former residents of our park, Mr. and Mrs. George Bears send their greetings to their friends here and we send ours for Mercedes to have favorable reports and healing during her stay in the hospital next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tripp spent the week-end before Thanksgiving on Anna Maria Island with their son and daughter-in-law, who operate the "Goden Mermaid" Gift Boutique on Brandenton Beach, and also spent Thanksgiving Day with them.

Saturday evening "Singspiration" was held at 7 p.m. with 50 in attendance. Songs were led by Mr. William Belcher, with a flair for humor and Eleanor Damon at the piano. Special readings by Mary Mishey "What if God went on a strike?" and "One little, two little drivers". Interesting and thought provoking. Our new ladies trio entitled "H.E.N."-(Hazel, Eleanor, Nita) sang inspirational songs entitled "Trusting Jesus" and "Amazing Grace" with Eleanor playing the piano.

Mrs. Hazel Thompson has been in the Walker Memorial Hospital since last week-end, so let us pray for her well being and improved health, very soon. Mrs. Lulu Maddrell is also in Walker and improving so she may be back here soon. Our former neighbor Mrs. Hilda Davis is also at Walker Memorial, let us pray for her, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Stoffer from Zanesville, Ohio and Sebring, called on Mrs. Ula Miller Sunday afternoon. The three were classmates in Bourbon, Ind. High School, many years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Couter have cousins, Valerie and Bill Polaski visiting them from Delaware.

Paul and Beaulah Neel arrived here last Wednesday, we welcome them back.

Geneva and Walter Hood have returned to Court 70 on Nov. 15th. Before coming here, they vacationed in San Francisco, and Hawaii for two weeks. While in the islands, they visited many interesting places, including a trip down into the crater of an active, although dormant volcano.

Margaret Belcher says "Thank you," to each and everyone of her friends that sent her cards and flowers, as well as remembering her in their prayers. They are happy to be back here in Florida, and everyone is very happy to have them back, too! Pearl and John Evans have their son, Bob from Dallas, Texas with them for Thanksgiving week.

Coffee Hour was enjoyed by 71 residents on Monday with Robert McBeth and Paul Thomas officiating at the Coffee and doughnut bar. A guest speaker, Mr. Howard Mallinger from Bonnie Brae, spoke about the benefits of the Federation of Mobile Home Association, and urged each of our park residents to join, if they haven't before this. Mr. Russell Bridge is the President of our Park, and Catherine Baker, the Secretary. Please contact either one.

Touring around by: Ted and Nora Nelson went to Lakeland to have Thanksgiving dinner with Ted Jr., and his family, then stopped on the way home to visit Julius and Lola Forbes at Lake Alfred. The Forbes and the Nelsons were camping neighbors at Lakeside Ranch near Haines city three years ago, before we all had the pleasure of knowing them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson attended a birthday party on Sunday in honor of Mrs. Grace Warner.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home Park News

By Margie Wells

This reporter would like to thank Thelma Miller and Emily Webster for the wonderful newspaper job which they did while we were on vacation. We really appreciate the super way they reported the news of Bonnie Brae. P.D. and I enjoyed our cruise and stayed at Miami Beach but we were really glad to get back home again with our friends and neighbors.

It was almost a full house at coffee hour last Wednesday. Doris Palmer and Ellen Reichenbaugh were the hostesses. It was reported that Evelyn Irving, Cecil Pixley and Fred Geiger were in the hospital. New residents who are on "the strip" for the winter were introduced as follows: Cora and Harry Rose from Erie, Michigan; Pearl and Reigh Walker from Detroit, Michigan; and Frances and Charles Ashley from Elbridge, New York.

A federation meeting was held after coffee hour with several interesting issues announced and discussed. An election of officers was held and the entire slate of officers were re-elected. Our president, Howard Mallinger, gave a report on the District Meeting in Lake Wales. We hope every member will plan to attend our next meeting.

Our mobile home residents and "the strippers" gathered in the rec hall on Thanksgiving at 1 p.m. for a delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings and a lot of extras! The co-hostesses were Doris Palmer and Ellen Reichenbaugh. Assisting them were Evie Chockley, Ella Drake, Anne Griffin, Thelma Miller and Della Sproles. The hall had been beautifully decorated by Ella Drake and Thelma Miller. The prayer was given by Joe Asher. All of the new people were introduced and "Happy Birthday" was sung for John Sinatra. There was so much food left over that everyone got together again in the evening for turkey sandwiches, etc.

Cecil Pixley is still in Walker Memorial Hospital. Chloe Mallinger is in the hospital in Winter Haven for some tests. We hope both of these people will be back home again soon and feelong good. We are happy to report that Evelyn Irving and Richard Brown have come home from the hospital. We understand that Ron Boyer has had another operation and is in the hospital in Middletown, Ohio. His address is on the bulletin board in the rec hall.

Guests at the home of Doris and Charles Palmer this week were their son, his wife, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Palmer and Mike, and Mr. and Mrs. Todd Patterson, all from Tampon Lake in Ohio.

Ella Drake and Thelma Miller went with Howard Mallinger on Friday night to visit his wife, Chloe, who is a patient in the hospital at Winter Have. They had dinner at Duff's Smorgasboard before returning.

We would all like to express our thanks and appreciation to Charles Paris and Raymond Sproles for giving us a loud speaker system. Charles donated the speaker and Raymond donated the entire wiring.

Those returning this week were Ruth Smith and Louis and Louise Loth. Almost all of our residents have returned and activities are "going strong" here in the park.

Mrs. Pearl Castine and Mrs. Dee Keyes of Avon Park Lakes were visitors at the home of Thelma Miller on Sunday.

South Florida Junior College will present a comedy play, "Hotel Paradisco", in their new auditorium on Saturday, December 9, at 8 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend and the admission is free.

There will be many interesting and enjoyable programs and other events during this month here in Avon Park to which the public is invited. So check your AVON PARK SUN so you can take advantage of these events.

Ridge Rollaway's In Full Swing

It sure looks as though Sebring's Ridge Rollaway Square and Round Dance Club has its winter program well in swing with a full floor of dancers at the Wednesday night workshop-dance where Caller "Lefty" Tidd is continuing his schedule of covering the quarterly figures. In addition, he is working on figures as requested by dancers for special review.

The well attended mainstream fun level bi-monthly Saturday night dances at Thee Pier have become particularly pleasurable for those who dance infrequently but still enjoy the sociability a square dance evening affords.

The Round Dance classes sponsored by this Sebring Club and instructed by Jim and Jennie Runnels of So. Lakeland have a good sized, enthusiastic beginners group; and although registration is now closed to beginners, the class is always open to dancers who wish to review any or all of the basics.

The Club should have a nice showing of round dancers in time for the December 9 dance scheduled at the Highlands Ag Center in Sebring when Johnny Walter and "Lefty" Tidd will call squares and Carma will cue rounds.

The Ridge Rollaways extend a welcoming invitation to all dancers in the area to join in with our activities which currently include: Wednesday, regular workshop and dance at the Sebring Civic Center at 7:30 p.m., mainstream +1 +2, with "Lefty" Tidd calling. Sundays at Thee Pier in Sebring, Round Dance Classes with beginners at 6 to 7:30 p.m., then Round Dancers' workshop with easy and classics 7:30 to 9 p.m. as cued by Jim Runnels. Tuesdays, "Lefty" Tidd's beginners' Square Dance Class at Thee Pier at 7:30 p.m., and open as a refresher for those wanting brush-up instruction.

The Club's calendar for December is starting to fill up, and most importantly dancers should be reminded to check on reservations-which are a "must"- for The Ridge Rollaways' gala New Year's Eve square dance party with midnight buffet to be held at the Sebring Civic Center. See Dottie Minnick at any dance, or phone Lake Placid 465-3863.

Scarborough, Neal's Assistant

Mrs. Hazel Scarborough told Highlands County Commissioners Tuesday morning that she is serving as Rep. Pat Neal's assistant for Highlands County.

She held a similar post under Rep. Tom Gallen. Mrs. Scarborough said persons may contact her at 465-2904 or by writing P. O. Box 1250, Lake Placid.

Akiba Adams

Hi Friends,

Welcome to Southside Park Community News. Now that the songs of Thanksgiving Day 1978 have ended, I trust that the melody and a pleasant memory linger on. Now as, we deck the halls, let us resolve to make this Christmas season better than ever in spirit and in truth. Afterall, that is what Christmas is really all about. Let us remember our fellowman and the One whose birth we commemorate. As we approach another Christmas, it is time for thanksgiving as well for if it were not for the Savior's birth, this could very well be or not be the happiest time of the year, so

Lord God of Host,
Be with us yet,
Lest we forget,
Lest we forget.

Vosburgh Speaks To NARF

By GEORGE O. S. DARBY

Lt. Col. Stephen Vosburgh talked about alcoholism at the Nov. 20 meeting of Highlands County Chapter of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees. Following the covered dish luncheon, the speaker was introduced as the retired former business manager of the Florida Alcoholism Treatment Center near Avon Park.

Vosburgh came to the Avon Park center as a hospital administrator with experience as finance officer of the Fifth Army at Fort Sheridan, Ill.

He spoke about the nature of alcoholism and how the problem has been treated historically, then summarized the changing role of the Avon Park center.

Vosburgh defined an alcoholic as a person who uses alcohol to the extent that he disturbs his living and working areas, has difficulty in his social life and does not realize it, is withdrawn and changing in personality.

Time was when the town drunk was put in jail to sober up. Now there is psychiatric care and treatment to get at the roots of the problem. He mentioned Alcoholics Anonymous and religious support as two valuable aids in helping the alcoholic cope with his problem.

In 1952, the Florida Legislature provided for the establishment of a center to treat alcoholics and educate the public, with financing from a barrel tax on liquor. The first building was established in 1956 with an operating budget of $68,000. The Avon Park center had a library on alcoholism and engaged in publication of the subject. In 1970, the National Alcoholism Organization designated the Avon Park center the outstanding center of its kind in the United States. The operation was financed by a trust fund derived from the whiskey tax amounting to $800,000 in 1969.

The role of the Alcoholism Treatment Center has changed since then, because the liquor tax has been diverted to general revenue, and because the center became a part of the Division of Health and Rehabilitative Services. The library was closed. Publication ceased. Employees were cut from 115 to 83.

Since 1973, community mental health centers have established local priorities for treatment, including alcoholism. The Alcoholism Treatment Center is now getting patients who have not improved in the community centers.

Another factor since 1929 has been the increasing drug problem. It is rare that drugs and alcohol are not linked among the youth. Older people have more alcoholism problems. Nevertheless, the average age of alcoholics has now dropped from 45 to 33.

The business meeting followed under the presidency of Florence Schroeder. Wilfred. Munson reported the results of the nominating committee, resulting in the election of the following officers for 1979: Russell V. Troutman, president; Jack Gumph, vice president; Florence Schroeder, secretary; Virginia Smith, treasurer and Wilfred Munson, sergeant-at-arms.

President Schroeder appointed an auditing committee composed of Roy Marmon, chairman, Jack Gumph, and Virginia Smith.

Entertainment for the December meeting will be worked out by Mrs. Tanner and Mr. Croson. Members will continue the custom of exchanging small gifts.

Charles Clayton Employed 45 Years With Railroad

Wildwood is a railroad town.

The thing about Charles Clayton was he did not seem to give a damn about the railroad.

He had come to Wildwood back in 1927 as a trainman, and pretty soon he was a conductor, and before long he had worked on every train that ran south of Jacksonville. Then, after 45 years and six months on the railroad, he walked out of the Wildwood station and never looked back.

"I ain't been out there in nine years," Clayton said. "When you get old you retire, and that's what I did. I could have worked two more years still, but I just walked off and let them take it. If I didn't own it by then, I figured there weren't no use to it."

He said the less he was reminded of the railroad, the better.

My uncle Jim Granger was a conductor on many of the same runs that Charles Clayton worked, and he worked then for as many years as Clayton. But when he had to leave the railroad he missed it, and he missed it every day, and he told you about how he missed it every time the train rolled past his home without stopping to pick him up as it had stopped for so many years.

After uncle Jim left the railroad he was still a railroad man, and he was a railroad man until the day he died, and then he was a dead railroad man.

"I ain't no railroad man," Charles Clayton said. "I ain't been a railroad man for nine years. I can live in Wildwood without being a railroad man. I ain't no railroad man."

Uncle Jim climbed down from his engine for the last time about 15 years before Clayton climbed down, and maybe things were different then. If Clayton had left the rails a decade earlier, maybe he would be a railroad man today.

"I don't know about any of this 'would be' business," Clayton said. "All I know is the railroad ain't no good now in my estimation. I don't want to say anything else about it. I'm finished with it."

Today there are about 250 men who work out of the Wildwood depot, and they are not finished with it. However it may have changed, the railroad business is going on daily in Wildwood.

But the Wildwood trainyard Clayton found in 1928 was not the train yard that he left in 1968. It used to be the center of activity for all of the small farm communities in central Florida, where steam engines pulled dozens of short trains out every day loaded with fruits and vegetables. Wildwood was a main gathering point for perishable goods.

Now, Wildwood is just a temporary stopping point for freight trains, where cars are checked and classified. And to most of the men who work on the railroad, it is just a job.

"There's not any feeling that railroad work is anything special," Ernest Richardson said. "Most all the people you get working on the railroad are native Floridians, and most of them had either a father, uncle or brother who worked for the railroad. It's a job they stay with, but they leave it behind when they go home."

Richardson lives in Wildwood, and began working for the railroad as a teenage telegraph operator in Lady Lake nearly 30 years ago. Life on the railroad has been good to him, he said. Now he is train master, responsible for most of the freight activity from Starke to Lakeland.

"You make your living whatever way you can," he said. "Maybe a lot of people miss the days when Wildwood was an icing station and we'd ice down the produce and the farmers would be there and maybe we were the center of attention. It's all the same to me."

If you spend a couple of long nights along the ten tracks that run through the neon-black Wildwood yard, maybe you will understand what it means to work on the railroad today.

About 20 trains each day come through the Wildwood depot, and though in the early hours of the morning you will see about 50 cars and trucks parked all along the tracks, around the trains and around the depot itself the activity is slow and somnambulant. The deisel engines hum steadily click. Small groups go about their business, or lean against the walls of the depot, waiting until they can do their business. Always there is the waiting. And the men who ride the trains and check the trains and clean the trains and keep track of the trains — the men who work on the railroad — say they are working in an industry that people have forgotten.

"Time has passed us by," said a Wildwood yardmaster who did not want his name linked with his words. "When we had the mail contract and full passenger service, and when the rails was the biggest transportation, we was in the spotlight. The new boys never did see any of that, and there ain't a steam engine to remind them. But them that was there during the steam know what the railroad used to be. That was yesteryears, and he remembered the way it was. He had come out of the Air Force after World War II with 65 missions as an aerial gunner over France and Belgium, and he wanted a job with the airlines. He went to Miami to look, but the airlines said no. He had just married a Wildwood girl, so he came to Wildwood and went to work on the railroad.

"Then it was the railroads that was big and the airlines that was small," he said. "Things change. But still, the railroad is an exciting job. There's new problems every day.

"For me it has been a good life," the yardmaster said.

"I hope to retire when I'm 60."

Bertha L. Waters

Bertha L. Waters, 74, of Bereah, died Nov. 14 in Winter Haven. She was a lifetime resident of Central Florida and a Baptist.

She is survived by her husband Blucher, two daughters, Mrs. Eloise Skipper and Mrs. Kathryn Burnett of Avon Park; four grandchildren, including Donna Whittington of Avon Park and Brenda Nelson of Sebring; four brothers, George and Alex Lightsey, Bill Lightsey of Lake Placid; Jack Lightsey; two sisters, Mrs. Stella Ellis and Mrs. Hazel Townsend of Avon Park; eight great-grandchildren.

Services were conducted Nov. 16 at Athens Baptist Church. Burial was in the Corinth Cemetery with Stephenson — Nelson — Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Joseph A. Stevens

Mr. Joseph A. Stevens, 62, of Thunder Bay, Ontario died Friday morning November 24. A native of Thunder Bay, Ontario. He was the manager for the Dept. of Communication for the Federal Government.

Mr. Stevens was sent to the Sargent & Son Ltd., Funeral Home, Thunder Bay, Ontario for services and interment in Thunder Bay, Ontario.

Say it with Style

Your telephone can say as much about you as any other fine accessory in your home. That's why United Telephone offers decorator phones in a variety of styles and colors.

Do you belong to the "nostalgia" set? You may want to select one of the popular "Candlestick" instruments that evokes poignant memories of the carefree twenties.

Or, if furnishings with the European touch are your thing, you'll certainly want to consider the exciting Mediterranean or antique white Cradlephones. Their tasteful combination of fine wood with a rich touch of gold will say a lot about you to your friends.

Taste in decorating more conventional? The Chestphone may be the perfect accent for you. In either carved walnut or masculine black leather, the Chestphone offers you an elegant new way to express the real you.

Because your telephone speaks for you, be sure it says nice things. Call your United Telephone Business Office for more information on decorator phones today — or see these distinctive instruments on display at your phone company.

Power Plant Operating At Full Capacity

Florida Power's nuclear plant at Crystal River returned to service late in September after a seven month outage. The effects of its low cost of operation will have a decided downward effect on the fuel adjustment portion of customers' bills for the month of December.
On Monday, November 20, the Public Service Commission approved a company petition to have its fuel adjustment set at a credit of $4.89 for each 1000 kilowatthours of electricity used. In November, the adjustment was a charge of $4.37 for that amount of power use making the one month difference a total of $9.26.
The amount of electricity used by the average customer — 1000 kwh per month — will cost $41.76 in December (before taxes) as opposed to $51.02 in November.
At present, the nuclear plant is operating at full capacity and is providing approximately 40 percent of all power used by Florida Power customers.

Applications for admission to the spring term are now being accepted at South Florida Junior College. Prospective first - time (full - time and part - time) students are urged to submit their applications now in order to save time when they come to register. Returning students should check at the Admissions Office before December 15 to see if their files are in order.
Applications and fall semester schedules are available from the Admissions Office or by calling 453-6661, extension 135, in Avon Park.

Supreme Court Rules Out Malpractice Suit

Florida Supreme Court has refused to overturn a lower court ruling absolving Walker Memorial Hospital of blame in a malpractice suit against the hospital and a former staff member.
Circuit court action in the suit concluded with the ruling that the hospital cannot be held responsible for each action of physicians practicing within the institution.
Joe Prescott Jr. of Avon Park brought the suit against the hospital and Dr. J. T. Kim, an orthopedic surgeon.
A jury trial in the case ended with a mis-trial. Judge Tim Strickland ruled a statement from one witness had hopelessly prejudiced the jury.
The physician and his insurance company negotiated a settlement with Prescott but the hospital continued its defense against the malpractice charge. In a non-jury presentation of the case, Judge John H. Dewell ruled in favor of the hospital.
Prescott appealed but Second District Court of Appeal sustained Judge Dewell's finding. Florida Supreme Court in refusing to review the case upholds the Dewell decision. The state's highest court ruled it is without jurisdiction in this case, and, in an order signed by Chief Justice Arthur J. England Jr. and four other justices, said it will not entertain any motions for re-hearing.
Since the commencement of the case Dr. Kim has moved away from this area and is no longer practicing here, John McClellan, administrator for Walker said.

Oysters: Substance Of Celebrations

By Jane Nickerson

Hurrah for oysters, never more welcome than during the late-autumn and winter holidays, when that most delectable of shellfish comes to the table so temptingly on its half-shell, shows up in a turkey stuffing, graces a late-night buffet in a savory stew.

As the weather cools, oysters taste improves and texture firms; was there ever a better companion for beer or ale or white wine? Oysters are the substance of celebrations, party fare as surely as prime rib and chocolate souffle and fine lobster.

Happily, Florida oysters are not so costly as the rib, so complicated in their preparation as the souffle nor so scarce as the lobster. We have at our back door, or rather in our Panhandle, one of the nation's richest production centers. Apalachicola Bay, accounting for more than 90 percent of the state's oyster output, is still the ideal breeding ground it has been over the centuries. It remains among the purest coastal bodies of water in the United States.

Offshore barrier islands protect the 200-square-mile bay from the Gulf. Nutrients carried by the Apalachicola River emptying into it feed it. So far at least that river has been undamned, undiked and relatively unpolluted.

Proposals by the Army Corps of Engineers to improve navigation along it, which would please economically depressed river towns in southern Georgia and Alabama, have come to nothing as the result of embattled fishing interests and state and national environmental groups. Damning the river would reduce the flow of nutrients; channeling it would flush them out. The corps has suggested both; either would damage oysters and the other marine life in which the bay abounds.

The Florida oyster harvest, at about 2.5 million pounds of edible meats, is now four times what it was 25 years ago. The increase partly derives from 800 acres of reefs, largely composed of oyster shells, put down in Apalachicola Bay since 1949 by the Department of Natural Resources. They provide the hard clean surface necessary for the development of the infant mollusks called spat.

But even though output is quadruple that of a generation ago, it is smaller than in the late 1960's nobody is quite sure why. A biologist will tell you the decrease relates to the seven-year production cycle characteristic of oysters. A marketing specialist will say it has to do with demand. When prices rise perhaps because the Chesapeake Bay harvest is sparse, Apalachicola responds by gathering more oysters.

All agree on one thing, however: The bay has only been skimmed; it is an untapped mine of shell and fin fish. And were the conservative Apalachicola Community to support mechanical oyster dredging, which so far it has not, the output would immediately swell. Local tradition endorses slow, laborious, old-fashioned hand-toging.

Florida is spotted by oyster bars, some in stylish restaurants, some wayside stops for truckers. All attest to the consensus — that the oyster is at its best when fresh and raw. 'Twas a brave man that ate the first oyster, Jonathan Swift said; 'twas a strong, skillful man that opened it.

Benny Brackin, an Alabaman who has been running a modest oyster bar in Lakeland for seven years, selling about 80 bushels weekly in the winter, showed me the opening process which I have yet to perfect.

Grasp the mollusk firmly in your palm, with its flat shell uppermost and the narrow end near the base of your hand. Insert an oyster knife in the slight indentation in the seam that marks the closure of the two shells. Twist the blade to separate the shells, then run it along the flat shell to loosen the muscle that fastens the flesh to it. Finally, run the blade under the oyster, resting on the "bottom,' bowl-shaped shell, to free the second muscle.

Some say that adding anything to a raw oyster except a squirt of lemon juice and freshly ground pepper is gilding the lily. Others vote for mixtures of chili sauce, horseradish, catsup and hot-pepper sauce in varying proportions. Some like salty crackers with them, others tin-sliced pumpernickel bread' spread with sweet butter. Depending on palate and purse, the right beverage is draught beer or ale or the two mixed together, champagne with stout (black velvet) or a fine greengold Chablis.

Standard oysters, Brackin told me, are three inches, selects are larger. A bushel in shell weighs about 32 pounds, yielding 14 to 16 dozen. Oysters must, of course, be alive when opened. In the shell they stay that way well packed in ice, at a temperature of 36 degrees, for up to a week, according to Brackin.

He admitted his fried oysters are excellent, explaining they are good because they are cooked briefly. Dip them in white self-rising corn meal, he directed, then drop them in peanut oil heated to 400 degrees, removing them as soon as they brown.

Here are some other seasonal suggestions for the prince of bivalves:

OYSTER SOUP

1½ cup minced celery
1½ cups green onions, minced
2 cloves garlic, minced
6 tablespoons unsalted butter
3 tablespoons flour
16 ounces fresh oysters
3 cans (13½-ounce) chicken broth
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon cayenne
½ cup coarsely chopped parsley, flat leaf, if possible

1. Cook celery, onions and garlic in butter in a large kettle until onions are soft; do not let butter brown. Stir in flour cook for 2 minutes; remove kettle from heat.

2. Drain oysters, reserving liquid. Add liquid, broth, salt and cayenne to kettle, stirring until smooth. Bring to a boil; lower heat simmer 30 minutes.

3. Just before serving, stir in the oysters; heat soup for 3 minutes just until piping hot; sprinkle with parsley.

Yield: 8 cups.

OYSTER ROAST

A favorite way to entertain a large group outdoors. Add to the menu barbecued chicken, salad and fresh fruit.

1 bushel oysters, about 170 oysters, depending on size
5 pounds butter or margarine

Scrub oyster shells thoroughly. Place on grills about 4 inches from hot coals. Roast 10 to 15 minutes until shells start to open. Serve in shells with melted butter as a dip.

Yield: 25 servings.

ESCALLOPED OYSTERS

16 ounces oysters
2 cups cracker crumbs
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ cup butter, melted
¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 cup half and half

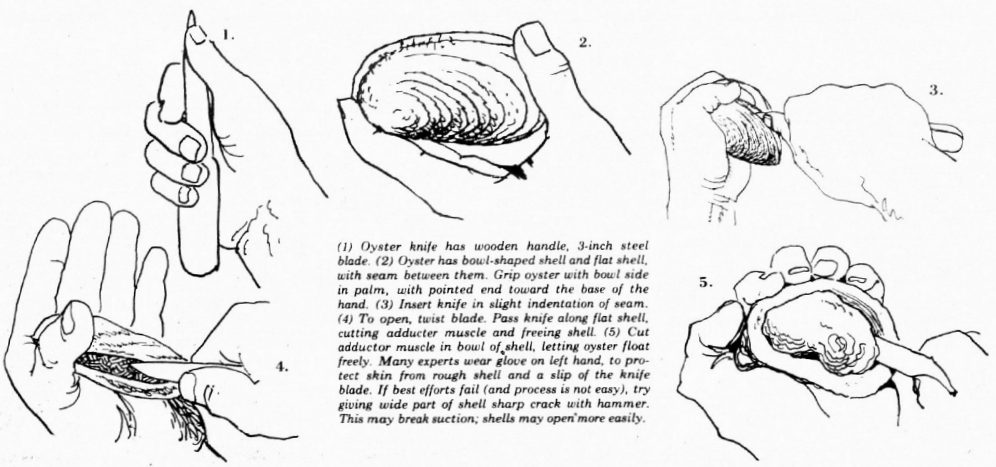

1. Drain oysters, reserving juice

2. Blend crumbs, salt, pepper and butter; sprinkle a third of this mixture into a shallow casserole. Add half the oysters, a third of the crumbs and the remaining oysters.

3. Combine Worcestershire and half and half; pour over oysters. Top with remaining crumbs.

4. Bake in preheated 350-degree oven about 30 minutes or until brown.

Yield; 6 servings.

(1) Oyster knife has wooden handle, 3-inch steel blade. (2) Oyster has bowl-shaped shell and flat shell, with seam between them. Grip oyster with bowl side in palm, with pointed end toward the base of the hand. (3) Insert knife in slight indentation of seam. (4) To open, twist blade. Pass knife along flat shell, cutting adducter muscle and freeing shell. (5) Cut adductor muscle in bowl of shell, letting oyster float freely. Many experts wear glove on left hand, to protect skin from rough shell and a slip of the knife blade. If best efforts fail (and process is not easy), try giving wide part of shell sharp crack with hammer. This may break suction; shells may open more easily.

Super Soups Are Great Satisfiers

Thick, rich homemade soups are great satisfiers . . . our grandmothers knew that. Somehow, along the way though, most of us lost the time and the inclination to make homemade soup. Here's a solution for all you soup lovers yearning for flavor and substance in quick-time.

SPAGHETTI VEGETABLE SOUP

1/4 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped celery
1/4 cup sliced carrots
1/4 cup chopped fresh or drained canned tomatoes
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup water
1 can (7 1/2 oz.) Chef Boy-ar-dee® Spaghetti & Meat Balls

In 2 quart sauce pan sauté onion, celery, carrots and tomatoes in butter. Add salt and water. Cover, simmer for 10 minutes. Add Spaghetti & Meat Balls, cover and simmer for 10 more minutes. One serving for two, or two servings for one. To serve four, double all ingredients and use a 15 oz. can Chef Boy-ar-dee® Spaghetti & Meat Balls.

For variations, try the following:

SPAGHETTI MINNESTRONE SOUP

Prepare Spaghetti Vegetable Soup; add the following ingredients with the Spaghetti & Meat Balls, cover and simmer the 10 more minutes.

1/2 cup shredded cabbage
1/2 cup great northern or garbanzo beans

Serve sprinkled with grated Parmesan cheese.

GUMBO MACARONI SOUP

Prepare Spaghetti Vegetable Soup; add the following ingredients with the Spaghetti & Meat Balls, cover and simmer the 10 more minutes.

1/2 cup chopped left-over chicken
1/4 cup defrosted frozen okra or drained canned okra
2 tablespoons parsley
Dash hot pepper sauce

Holiday Recipes

Christmas is the most universally celebrated holiday. It is a festival that is shared by people all over the world, both from a religious and a social point of view.

Christmas cookies are popular holiday treats in many countries. Pfeffernusse, Norwegian Kringle and Swedish Spritz are classic European favorites which have been adopted by Americans.

Here is a cookie recipe which you will want to add to your holiday favorites. Peanut Pfeffernusse is a new version of the old German recipe using the all-American peanut. Finely chopped Planters Cocktail Peanuts add a crunchy texture and nutty flavor to these spicy cookies.

PEANUT PFEFFERNUSSE

1-2/3 cups unsifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
1/2 teaspoon ground mace
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 eggs
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup very finely chopped Planters Cocktail Peanuts
1/2 cup very finely chopped candied citron
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
Confectioners' sugar

Thoroughly blend flour, baking powder, cinnamon, cloves, mace and pepper. Set aside.

Beat eggs until light. Gradually beat in sugar. Continue beating until very light and thick. Stir in dry ingredients, then mix in cocktail peanuts, citron and lemon peel. Shape mixture into 1-inch balls. Place on greased baking sheets. Cover with wax paper and let stand overnight.

Bake at 350° F. for 20 minutes. Roll in confectioners' sugar. Place on wire racks to cool. Store in a tightly covered container 1 week before serving. Makes about 4 dozen.

Note: Cookies will be less hard if stored in container with a fresh whole apple.

Lebkuchen, the spicy sweet German cookie, is the perfect treat to have on hand for holiday guests. Our version is easily made with Domino® Liquid Brown Sugar, a new ingredient on your grocer's shelf. This new product measures easily and blends quickly with other ingredients. More important, Liquid Brown Sugar is completely natural; no additives, preservatives or artificial colors.

And, you'll find the rich brown sugar flavor enhances the delicate candied fruits, nuts and spices to create a cookie that is sure to please one and all.

LEBKUCHEN
(Makes about 3 dozen bars)

2½ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground cloves
¼ teaspoon ground ginger
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup coarsely broken walnuts or pecans
2 jars (4 ounces, each) diced mixed candied fruit
3 eggs
1 egg yolk
¾ cup Domino® Liquid Brown Sugar
½ cup strong black coffee or sherry
Snowy Glaze (recipe below)

Sift flour, baking powder, cinnamon, cloves, ginger and salt; stir in nuts and candied fruit. Set aside. In bowl, beat eggs and egg yolk at high speed of electric mixer until thick and lemon colored. Gradually beat in Liquid Brown Sugar. Stir in coffee and flour mixture. Spoon into greased 15½ x 10½ x 1-inch jelly roll pan. Bake at 375° F. for 25 minutes or until cake tester inserted at several points comes out clean. Cool in pan on wire rack. When cool, frost with glaze and while glaze is still wet, mark into bars. Cut bars when frosting is dry. Store bars in tight container with apple to keep bars moist.

Snowy Glaze: Blend 1 cup sifted Domino Confectioners' Sugar with 2 to 3 tablespoons Liquid Brown Sugar and ¼ teaspoon lemon extract.

COFFEE-ICE CREAM FINALE

1/4 cup Irish style instant coffee beverage
2 cups boiling water
Vanilla or chocolate chip ice cream

Place instant coffee beverage in coffeepot or carafe. Add boiling water and stir well. Pour over scoops of ice cream in coffee or demitasse cups and serve at once. Makes 2 cups or 3 regular servings or 6 demitasse servings.

CELEBRATE THE HOLIDAYS with a colorful bowl of velvety-smooth Bacon Tomato Bisque, accompanied by rich Bacon Caraway Wafers.

FESTIVE HOLIDAY FAVORITES

Liven up a holiday party — an informal get-together or a special family dinner — with delectable bacon tomato bisque and rich bacon caraway wafers.

The velvety-smooth and thick bacon tomato bisque, with its beautiful salmon color, makes a scrumptious setting on your holiday buffet table. Or, serve it as an eye opener for the first course of a formal dinner. Bacon caraway wafers are great with a soup or after the soup to perk up the salad.

Bisque and wafers are just as tasty as leftovers and handy to store for surprise holiday company. And, they are quick and easy to prepare — especially when using real bacon, already pre-cooked and crumbled in a can, instead of the mess of cooking and crumbling it yourself.

BACON TOMATO BISQUE

1 (16-oz.) can whole, peeled tomatoes
1 teaspoon onion powder
1-inch piece bay leaf
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups half-and-half
1 cup (two 2 1/2-oz. cans) Wilson's Bits O' Bacon
1/2 teaspoon grated orange peel
Sour cream (optional)

Combine tomatoes, onion powder, bay leaf and flour in 2-quart saucepan. Break up tomatoes. Cook over medium heat, stirring until thickened. Remove bay leaf. Process in blender or food processor until smooth. Pour through a sieve or strainer to remove seeds. Return to saucepan; stir in the half-and-half, Bits O' Bacon, and orange peel. Cook over low heat only until heated through. Garnish with dollop of sour cream, if desired. Serves 8.

BACON CARAWAY WAFERS

3/4 cup butter, softened
1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
2 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 teaspoons caraway seed
1/2 cup (2 1/2-oz. can) Wilson's Bits O' Bacon

Blend together butter and cheese; add flour and mix thoroughly. Stir in caraway seed and Bits O' Bacon. Form into 1 1/2-inch rolls. Chill thoroughly. Cut into 1/4-inch slices; place on lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake in 350-degree Fahrenheit oven until light brown, about 8-10 minutes. Makes about 4 1/2 dozen.

Fr. Bruce Medaris To Share Healing Ministry

"... and He sent them out to preach the kingdom of God and to heal." (Luke 9:2)

One modern disciple carrying forth the healing power of Christ's ministry into the world is Father Bruce Medaris, a former Army major general who became an Episcopal priest after being healed himself from terminal bone cancer.

Fr. Medaris will share his own experience with and understanding of the healing ministry within the modern Church during a three-day Advent Mission this weekend at St. Francis of Assisi Episcopal Church in Lake Placid.

Evening services will be held Friday, Dec. 1, and Saturday, Dec. 2, beginning at 7:30 p.m. An informal discussion will take place Saturday morning, beginning at 10 a.m., and Fr. Medaris also will preach during a Sunday morning Eucharist, beginning at 9 a.m.

All Highlands County residents and winter visitors are welcome to attend the services regardless of church affiliation. St. Francis is located north of Lake Placid on Lake June Road (just south of the Highway Patrol station).

Born more than 75 years ago in Ohio, Fr. Medaris spent most of his adult life in the U.S. Army, serving with General Omar Bradley during the planning for the Normandy invasion in World War II.

When the war had ended, Medaris, by now a general himself, was placed in charge of the fledgling U.S. guided missile and space program, then headquartered at Hunstville, Ala.

It was during his experience in the Army that Medaris says he began to feel the Lord was leading him and helping him to make decisions, particularly when he headed America's space effort during the 1950s.

Medaris tells of how when Dr. Werner von Braun and the other scientists would reach an impasse over some highly technical problem, with figures and scientific formulae drawn all over the blackboard, they would come to him for a decision.

He says, although he didn't have the slightest idea of the scientific principles involved, he would walk over to the window, gaze out, and that "still small voice within" would give him the answer.

"We never made a mistake," he says. "No one can tell me anybody could be that smart."

After Medaris and his wife retired to Maitland, Fla., in 1960, doctors discovered he was suffering from incurable bone cancer. They gave him six months to live.

He tells of how one night soon afterwards he visited a friend's home where evangelist Virginia Livley also was visiting. She was asked to pray for him. She did, and Fr. Medaris says he knew something had happened to him.

At his next hospital check-up, his doctors were encouraged. No, he wasn't cured, but for some strang reason, the cancer's progress had been slowed.

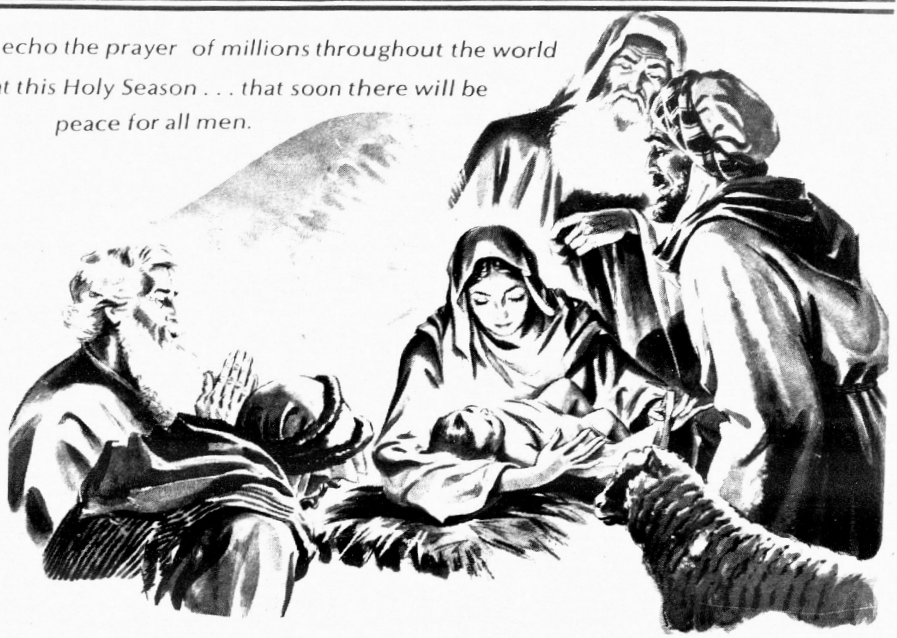

More prayer followed, and before the year was out, there was no trace of cancer. Nor has there been any since, Fr. Medaris says, and he adds he has no doubt that it was the healing power of Jesus Christ that cured him.

Fr. Medaris was ordained and Episcopal priest in 1970 and serves as an assistant priest at the Church of the Good Shepherd, in Maitland. Much of his time is spent practicing the healing ministry and spreading the Gospel in hospitals and among people referred to him, as well as in healing missions similar to the one to be held in Lake Placid.

Nationally known for his work in the healing ministry, Fr. Medaris has appeared on national TV and the PTL and 700 Club programs.

Inner healing of the mind and soul is expected to be one of the topics discussed by Fr. Medaris in addition to physical healing. He says that not only are psychological problems one of the most prevalent forms of illness in modern society, but sicknesses of the soul, such as resentment and fear, often block the process of physical healing.

Another topic of his mission in Lake Placid will be the spiritual renewal of the church.

Celebration Of Advent To Begin Sunday

The celebration of Advent will begin Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church. It will continue through the Christmas Eve Communion Service.

An Advent letter was mailed Monday to the members of the congregation and friends. The letter centered around the coming of the Lord and stated: "Advent means "coming" and refers to Christ's first coming at Bethlehem. Advent also refers to Christ's Second Coming "to judge men living and dead." . . . The Season of Advent can be just a ritualistic observance of a historical event, or a mind puzzling future event. Advent comes alive when it becomes a perception of, and a preparation for the coming of Christ. . . A booklet Christmas Is and" Advent 1978" are enclosed. The booklet sets Christmas in a Biblical context. It clears away the materialistic cover we have drape d over Christmas. . Our culture tends to blur Christ into being a cosmic Santa Claus. An Advent Season Focusing on the Christ of Scripture can be a time for the fuller coming of Christ into our hearts."

During the four Sundays of Advent and at the Christmas Eve Communion Service, the congregation will sing, "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel!" A candle will be lighted on the Advent wreath on each of the four Sundays of the Season. The fifth candle, the Christ Child candle will be lighted at the Christmas Eve Communion Service. There will be a dialogue between the congregation and a child as to why the Advent candle is being lighted.

Food and money for the Needy will be received in the Foyer of the church beginning next Sunday.

All men are invited to the Men's Breakfast on Thursday, December 7, at 7 a.m. The Reverend Bob Ingrahm, Minister of Education at the First Presbyterian Church of Lake Wales, will be the speaker. Dismissal is at 7:50 a.m. All women are invited to the meeting of the Woman's Society at the home of Mrs. David McDaniel, 413 Oak Street, on Thursday, Dec. 7 at 8 p.m.

On Sunday afternoon, December 10, all children and parents are invited to come and trim the Christmas Tree in the sanctuary. The children will practice the Christmas program.

Everyone is invited to annual traditional Christmas Tree to be held on Wednesday, December 13 at 7 p.m. The boys and girls will present "Christmas Bells and Candles."

The Church Choir will present the Christmas Cantata "Glory to God" on Friday, December 22 at 7:30 p.m. The Cantata consists of music arranged from the compositions of Charles F. Gounod. Gounod's music is known by music lovers throughout the world. His famous opera "Faust" is presented world wide. His sacred music is performed in Christian churches everywhere. Included among the selections will be "Send us Deliverance" from Gallia, "Lovely Appear," from The Redemption, "The Magnificat" from Ave Maria, and "Glory to God" from St. Cecilia's Mass. Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend. A missionary offering for Adult Literacy in Pakistan will be received.

An announcement in the Advent folder contained in the Advent letter states: "Here We Go a Caroling." "Classes, choir, organizations that desire to go caroling will please arrange with their own group."

Members and friends are invited to come to the Christmas Eve Communion Service at 7 p.m. The Benevolent offering received at this service will go for retired Christian workers who have spent their lives in the service of Christ; often on a very meager income.

Evangelism Program Set

Child's Evangelism Fellowship, a non-demonination religious group will host a Christmas Coffee, Saturday, Dec. 2, at the Francis Estates No. 2 Club House in Sebring from 9:30 a.m. until 11 a.m.

The director, Rev. Dewight Ritenour invites all to use this opportunity to see how Child Evangelism fellowship functions and how they work with children.

Everyone is invited to come and bring a friend.

Santa Claus Is Coming To Town

Santa Claus will make a special trip from the North Pole to Avon Park Monday, Dec. 4, to officially open the local Christmas season.

Mr. Claus will leave Rudolph and the other reindeer at home to climb aboard a city fire truck as the honored guest in Avon Park's annual Christmas Parade.

This year's parade, which will be the largest in the city's history, will begin at 7 p.m., with a concert in the Mall by the Highlands County Band providing Christmas entertainment from 6-7 p.m.

More than 50 float entries and eight bands have registered for the parade. In addition, church and civic organizations will sponsor booths to provide refreshments for onlookers at several street intersections.

Santa's arrival will climax the parade, which will travel the length of the Mall. After the parade, he will pass our Color, Fun and Learn books to boys and girls.

As the Christmas season begins, Avon Park's streets are beginning to come alive with Christmas decorations and lights. The city will be putting up its annual street decorations, and local merchants have begun adorning their stores and shops windows with Christmas displays.

Avon Park's merchants also have stocked up for the season with home decorations, wrapping materials, Christmas cards, special gift ideas and toys for the kids, and they will be offering many seasonal discounts. They invite local residents to shop at home for quality merchandise, as well as savings.

HAT Candidates Win 3 City Seats

BY GEORGE DUNCAN

In a surprisingly light 44.6 percent turnout, voters chose incumbent Larry Albritton, Milton Howard and Tom Tataris as their new councilmen for the next two years.

All three polled more than 800 votes, well ahead of the fourth man in the race, incumbent David Barefield, who ended up with 658 votes.

A majority of each man's votes came from precinct 2A. All three trailed Barefield in 1A precinct.

Howard, a councilman for 10 years before being defeated last year, was the top vote getter with 847 votes. Albritton received 821 and Thomas Tataris won 805 votes.

Precinct 2A gave Howard 464 of his votes, gave 426 to Albritton and 470 to Tataris.

Phil Wooten came in fifth in the election with 444 votes, Paul Smith won 376 votes and Alex Whitbeck gained 318 votes.

Ironically, the top three finishers were backed by a political committee called H.A.T., formed by contractor Bob Herman, and placed in the same order as the committee's initials, with Howard the top vote getter, Albritton second and Tatris third.

David Barefield . . . ousted in HAT sweep

Two years ago, Albritton, Tataris and Barefield also had run and the margin of difference in this election came in the second precinct.

Albritton received only 24 votes in Precinct 2A two years ago while gaining 426 this year. Tataris, placing stronger, won 160 votes two years ago compared to the 470 votes he received Tuesday.

Barefield also gained but not nearly as much as his two opponents. He received 241 votes this year compared to the 165 votes he won two years ago.

While the voting was heavier in precinct 2A this year, the voting was lighter in precinct one that it was in the 1976 city election. In that election Albritton took 634 votes to this year's total of 335 votes.

Overall, only 1543 voters pulled an election lever, more than 5 percent fewer than the 50 percent fiqure predicted.

While Howard was on the council for two years and Albritton is completing his second term, Tataris was making his third try for a council seat and won his first victory in a city election.

Councilman Dennis Allegedly Bought Stolen Radios

Franklin Arrested For Burglaries

BY BRUCE HENDERSON

Benjamin C. Franklin Jr., grandson of Franklin Funeral Home owner Jerry Franklin Sr., faces felony charges of burglary, grand theft, possession of stolen property and dealing in stolen property following his second arrest since September.

Part of the case involves the alleged sale of approximately $500 worth of stolen CB radio equipment to Avon Park City Councilman Henry Dennis. Dennis allegedly paid $80 for the radio gear, according to information in the court record.

The 20-year-old Franklin was arrested Nov. 28 after being charged by the Avon Park Police Department with two counts each of grand theft and burglary and one count of dealing in stolen property.

Franklin also faces one count each of possession of stolen property and dealing in stolen property from his previous arrest.

The most recent arrest stems from a complaint lodged with the police department by Emmanuel Stewart, of Stewart's Garage on S. Highlands Ave.

Police allege Franklin and a juvenile accomplice, Walter Kerney, who apparently has implicated Franklin in taped statements to police, broke into a Ford truck and a Ford automobile belonging to Stewart with the intention of stealing them.

The two youths also stole firearms and CB equipment belonging to Stewart, authorities allege.

One of the stolen items, a citizens band base station valued at about $400, was later sold to Dennis for $50, according to information in the court record. Another CB radio, valued at more than $100, was purchased by Dennis from Franklin for $30, the records allege.

Both thefts occurred on Sept. 19 or 20, according to police.

The other case involves the theft of two shotguns from Latham Smith, of Smith's Upholstery, on Sept. 27.

One of the guns, a 12-guage Riverside shotgun belonging to Latham, was discovered by police Lt. G.P. Hartsfield and other officers when they searched the Franklin home Sept. 29.

No details concerning this dealing in stolen property charge are included in the court file. However, Dennis has been called to give a deposition in that case as well.

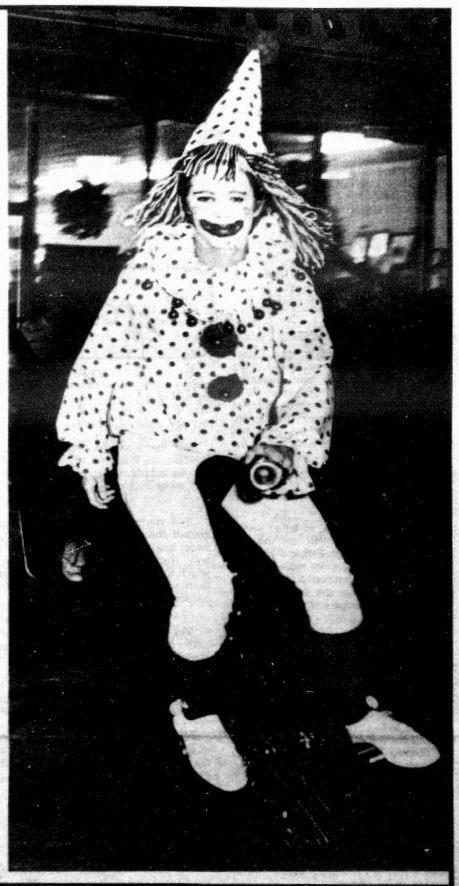

Dennis refused to comment on the case when called Tuesday. "I don't feel that at this time it would appropriate for me to make any statement of any kind," the councilman said.

Police Chief Robert Brooks, however, said Dennis "made a voluntary statement" admitting he had purchased the radios from Franklin.

The entire case still is under investigation, the chief said, and he refused to make any comment on the specific circumstances of Dennis' involvement.

However, no criminal charges have been filed against the councilman.

PARADE

A UNICYCLING CLOWN and a Snoopy character sponsored by Highlands Building Supply were among the more than 70 entries in Monday's annual Christmas parade. The spectacular entourage of floats, marching bands, Disney characters, acrobats, motorcyclists, beauty queens, antique automobiles and other entries was the biggest parade ever for Avon Park and was viewed by more than 10,000 onlookers along the city's mile-long mall. Among the beauty queens participating in the event were the Avon Park High School Homecoming Queen, Florida's Citrus Queen, Miss Highlands County, Avon Park's Rodeo Queen, Miss Florida Agriculture and the Hardee High School Homecoming Queen. Eight marching bands participated, including the Avon Park Middle School Band and high school bands from as far away as Arcadia and LaBelle. The Avon Park High School Grenadier Band escorted Santa Claus as he arrived at the end of the parade, which lasted over an hour and a half. Sunphoto by Bruce Henderson.

Singletary Gets $318,700

Avon Park Police Capt. Donald Singeltary was awarded $318,700 in damages by a Highlands County circuit court judge Friday for the March 21 deaths of his wife and two children.

A six-member jury fcund the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad, the National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak) and train engineer Frank C. Strickland were guilty of negligence in the collision of a Miami-bound Amtrak train with the car driven by Mrs. Singletary.

The accident, which occured as the Singletary car was eastbound across the SCL crossing on Lake Isis Drive, killed Capt. Singletary's wife, Nancy, his son, Matthew Donald, and his daughter, Jenifer Lynn.

Singletary had asked for over $1 million in damages, but the jury returned a verdict of $402,498.84. This later was reduced by Judge Thomas Langston due to the fact the jury had also found Mrs. Singletary guilty of contributory negligence in the accident.

The jury was asked to assess responsibility for the mishap in percentages. It found the railroad companies and engineer responsible for 65 percent and Mrs. Singletary responsible for 35 percent through carelessness.

Jurors deliberated for more than three-and-a-half hours on Thursday and Friday. The case went to the jury late Thursday afternoon, but after about an hour of deliberation, jurors asked for a

Skipper Plea: 'No Contest'

Eighteen-year-old Craig Alan Skipper pleaded "no contest" in Highlands County circuit court last week to a grand theft charge stemming from the theft of two CB radios from the Radio Shack store in Avon Square Plaza.

Another grand larceny charge against him was dropped.

Judge Thomas M. Langston withheld adjudication of guilt in the case and ordered a pre-sentence investigation. A date for sentencing Skipper, the son of Highlands County Commissioner Cecil Skipper, was not set.

Court records allege that on June 17, Skipper accompanied Steve Brown, a juvenile, to the Radio Shack store knowing the other youth was planning to steal two CB scanners.

The state attorney's office alleged that when Skipper returned to the car, he saw the radios and later attempted to use one of them in his car. Still later, he hid the radio at the home of a girlfriend in Wauchula, according to authorities.

While the "no contest," or nolo contendre, plea does not admit guilt, it is treated by the courts virtually the same as a guilty plea.

Skipper is free on $1,012 bond.

APHS Shows Greatest Gain On State Test

Ninety-six percent of the 533 Highlands County 11th grade students passed the communication section of the state assessment test while 69 percent passed the math section, an increase of four percent in each category over last year.

The results, which were released this week by the Highlands County School Board, showed increases in all areas except one. Students at the Sebring High School dipped from a 74 percent passing average in the math section of the test to a 71 percent passing average this year.

The reports also showed that, of the 56 students which failed the communication portion of the test this year, 42 of those have now passed the test.

Of the 171 students which failed the math portion of the test last year, 86 have passed the test this year.

"Generally, we're very pleased with the test results," said Superintendant of Schools Dan Davis. "We feel real good about the results this year and, now, can zero in on the ones who haven't passed the assessment test as yet."

In comparison with last year, the greatest gains were made by students in the Avon Park High School.

This year 97 percent of the students passed the communications sections of the test while only 86 percent passed that section of the test last year. Sixty-eight percent of the students passed the math section, an increase of 14 percent over last year when only 54 percent were able pass the math portion. All total, 167 students took the tests at the school.

At the Sebring High School, 96, percent of the 232 Juniors passed the communications part of the test while 71 percent of the students passed the math portion. Last year, 74 percent of the Sebring Students passed the math test while the same percentage, 96 percent, passed the communications test.

Gains were also made by students in the Lake Placid High School.

Of the 134 juniors taking the test, 93 percent passed the communications portion while only 88 percent had passed the test the previous year. Sixty-six percent of the students passed the math test, compared to only 61 percent of the students last year.

On the average, of the 533 students who took the communication section 96 percent passed while 69 percent passed the math portion of the test.

The state assessment test, formerly called the functional literacy test, was mandated by the Florida Legislature. Juniors must pass the test before being awarded a high school diploma.

The New Council

The voters, with their sometimes disquieting voice, have spoken or pulled election levers as the case may be.

Whether their choices were wise ones, or even good ones, remains to be seen. The three men they did pick were certainly not unknown to the Avon Park citizenry.

Milton Howard, the top vote-getter, has lived in the city for decades. It is difficult to think of anything derogatory to say about Howard the man. Or of anybody who would say it.

Howard is a very friendly, sociable person. And the voters have reflected that friendliness by electing him to five pervious times on the council and, now, giving him a sixth.

Likebility is certainly a trait a candidate must have and to be elected for six times without losing that essential friendliness is a credit to the man. To be elected six times also has to be taken as some semblance of respect for the man.

In his decisions over the next two years, we hope Howard may retain the friendship and respect — two words not synonmous; — which he evidently enjoys now.

Larry Albritton is also a known entity . He has served on the city council for four years. Perhaps his most essential quality is, while voting both in the majority and minority, he did not seem to upset or anger many citizens whether they agreed or disagreed with him.

As Howard carries with him a spirit of sociability, Albritton seems to carry with him a spirit of compromise. And, on most of the major issues before the council, although not often strongly voicing his opinion, he has voted for the benefits of all the citizens of Avon Park.

Thomas Tataris, since he has run in two previous campaigns, is not unknown either.

Tataris is more articulate than any present member of the council and can use sound logic and reasoning to back any opinion he voices. Tataris is also an intelligent man, a quality which will be needed on the council.

The task of these three men is like the task of any three newly-elected city officials, to use the common qualities of sociability, compromise, and intelligence to make wise decisions which will benefit city residents, instead of making bad decisions which will harm them.

Although three good men were elected, there is a trace of regret in the election. And this is said with no reflection on the three men elected.

One very good man lost.

For the past two years Councilman David Barefield devoted a great deal of time and energy to help the city. He knew the city codes and ordinances better than any other councilman.

EDITORIALS

He did his homework. Which transforms a job which can take three hours on a Monday night to a job which can take 40 to 50 hours spread out over every day and night of the week.

But there is one characteristic of Councilman Barefield which goes over and beyond his abilities and qualities as a city councilman.

Two years ago, he walked into the council chamber with his integrity and honor intact. And he will leave the same way. There are few men in public office which the same can be said of. In fact, there are few men who can deserve such an accolade.

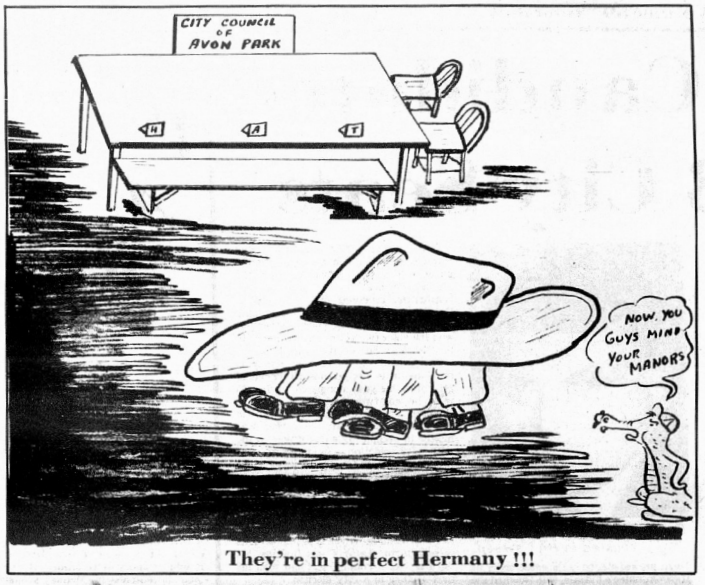

The Sun has praised the city council little during the past year because, frankly, there has been very little to praise.

In his two years as councilman, Barefield did not add any to his integrity. He did not have to. The city could not have added any of that intangible quality. But he did add some dignity to the council chamber, which the city greatly needed.

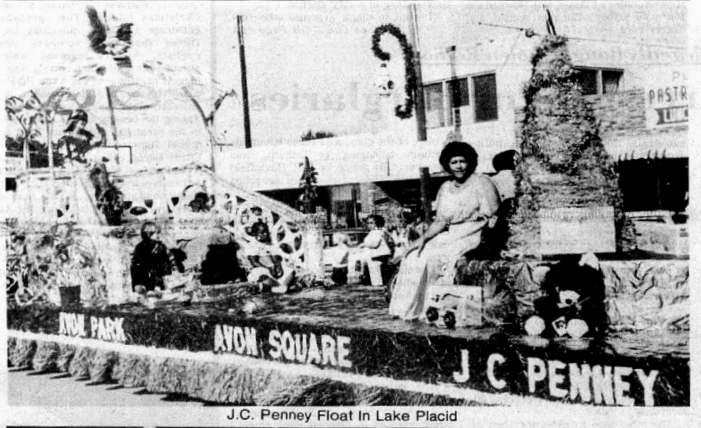

In doing so, he will leave the city a little better place than when he took office.

We hope the three newly-elected candidates, when they leave office or when their two-year term is up, will have also made the city a little better.

We wish them well, in their efforts to do so.

They're in perfect Hermany !!!

J.C. Penney Float In Lake Placid

Misplaced Priorities

For the past week or so the sport pages of daily newspapers have reflected headline, after headline, page after page strictly devoted to the firing of University of Florida Football Coach Doug Dickey and the general plight of the university football program.

Now the Sun would like to express its opinion on the matter which has state sports writer in a frenzy.

Succintly put; who cares?

Now we are not insensitive to the feelings of Coach Dickey who, by all accounts, is a man of impeccable honesty and we take no joy in the firing of such a man.

However our real perspective on the University of Florida's football program, and Coach Dickey, seems to have been lost. Not only by university officials but by journalists as well.

As an example, one report by an Orlando Sentinel sports writer claims to quote an "infallible" source. Since the pope only claims infallibility in the areas of faith and morals which, contrary to popular opinion, does not include football, we can only assume the Orlando reporter received a divine revelation.

All that has been written about Coach Dickey reveals, with frightening insight, that somewhere our society has misplaced some values and priorities.

Bluntly put, the state will survive even if the University of Florida never wins a SEC title. Difficult as it may seem, we feel confident the citizens can muddle through life without feeling the need for suicide if the SEC crown is not captured by Florida.

Football, taken as a whole, has some admirable qualities. However, a group of men playing football has much less importance for mankind than a group of men trying to find a cure for cancer or a group of priests ministering to the sick, both physically and spiritually.

Even if football coaches do receive $44,000 and more for coaching.

The reports about the situation usually included the phase "influential alumni" who were pressuring Dr. Robert Marston, the president of the university, to get rid of Dickey.

When was the last time you read a story saying that "influential alumni" were trying to improve the humanities program at the university. Or the biology department.

However one can be thankful that if influential alumni only meddle in the football program, it will keep them away from meddling in any important aspect of the university.

It is the alumni which will help provide the $250,000 to $300,000 which is needed to buy up the remaining three years of Dickey's contract; paying not only Dickey's $44,000 a year salary, but the salaries of his assistant coaches and other financial obligations.

There is something almost obscene in a statement like that, but we are a society which caters to fads and cultural trinkets, whether the trinkets be in the area of politics, religion or sports.

To think a football contract is anything more than a six-figure trinket is to trivilize the other, vastly more important areas of the university.

Rocking The Boat

By George Duncan

Santa's Gifts To The City

Since this is the holiday season I put in my annual phone call to Santa Claus hoping for an interview. I would have traveled to the north pole but, being a native Floridian, I can't stand cold weather.

The call came back a couple of nights, ago.

"Hello."

"George, this is Santa Claus."

"Sure you are. And I'm the jolly green giant. Bug off."

"I'm Santa Claus, dummy!" he shouted indignantly. "Remember, you called me, not the other way around."

"Oh, right. Sorry. You caught me watching Lou Grant, dreaming of investigative assignments, big salaries and large expense accounts," I said. "Did you have a call back so late?"

"This happens to be my busy season."

"Oh, right. How are things?"

"Pretty good since we're non-unionized. I hear the Times had some trouble in that area."

"Yeah, but its settled now," I said.

"Well, what can I do for you, besides bringing you a year supply of cola."

"I was hoping for something a little different. Say a suitcase."

"A suitcase?"

"Stuffed with $100 bills."

"Listen, who do you think you are? A congressman?"

"Ok. How about something about five feet five, blond hair, blue-gray eyes. . ."

"You know I don't deal in that type of merchandise."

"Why don't you expand. Just think of the profits."

"This is a non-profit organization! I deal in joy and happiness and giving."

"Then its obvious you have non-union labor. Has this been looked into?" I asked.

"The first time one of you nosy reporters comes up here he gets nothing for Christmas. Remember that."

"OK, ok. So what type of gifts are you handing out this year."

"I have one for the Avon Park City Council. The book of Robert's Rules of Order. Its very apparent they need it."

"I think thats a lost cause, but go on."

"For the county I have a pocket calculator. After that momentous goof on figuring up the taxes I thought they could use it."

"Good thinking.,' I said. "What else do you have?"

"A pair of binoculars for Councilman Robert Britt, so he can watch Recreation Director Dennis Guenther more closely. He wouldn't want to strain his eyes."

"Thats good. What else?"

New Billing Procedure For Florida Power

A new billing service, which could reduce the chance of having electricity cut-off due to a customer's oversight or misunderstanding of a company issued late payment notice, has been instituted by Florida Power Corporation for its residential customers. Fla. Power serves Highlands County.

Called Third Party Notification, customers will be allowed to designate a third person to receive copies of any late payment disconnect notices that are sent to the customer for non-payment or past due electric bills.

"The service is especially designed to assist the elderly or infirm or those who have language or reading problems," said J.S. Crosthwaite, Jr., director of Florida Power's consumer services department. "Likewise, the service can be beneficial for customers who will be away from home for extended periods of time."

The idea of the new service is to make doubly sure that the customer is made aware that his bill has not been paid and that power could be disconnected. The third party would provide that extra measure of security through their reminder.

"The third party may be anyone designated by the customer including a relative, friend, clergyman, social worker, bank trustee, or whomever agrees to help the customer. The third party will be under no obligation to pay the customer's overdue electric bill," said Crosthwaite, "but, will advise the customer that the bill is past due and that power could be disconnected unless the bill is paid."

Florida Power's residential customers are being advised of Third Party Notification with their December electric bills. A request form for the service will also be provided.

"Because electricity is essential in nature," Crosthwaite stated, "we want to avoid the possibility of having to disconnect a customer for nonpayment, only to discover later that the customer had mislaid, forgotten, or didn't understand the disconnect notice for a delinquent bill. It is hoped that Third Party Notification will be beneficial in this regard."

HaveAnimalsVaccinatedFor Rabies

In the past month four reported individuals have been bitten by racoons in Highlands County This has necessitated their private physicians to administer a series of sometimes morbidity related shots of rabies vaccine.

All of this could be prevented by the following precautions:

1. Never handle racoons or hand feed them as wild animals.

2. Never establish racoons as house pets, this includes; Fox, Bats, Bob Cats, and Skunks, also highly suspect of rabies.

Bites by these wild animals require anti-rabies treatment unless identified and sacrificed for immediate laboratory analysis of the animals' head. Racoons have been known to harbor the rabies virus for months and act as carriers of the disease without showing signs of illness. They cannot be successfully immunized against rabies as are dogs and domestic pets.

Have your dogs and domestic pets immunized for rabies by your local veterianarian. They not infrequently encounter the wild racoon, fox or bat in the area and can develope rabies, exposing the family and neighbors, incidently this is a requirement by State Regulation and County Ordinance.

The motto "In God We Trust" first appeared on a two-cent piece in 1864.

The Messiah was performed twice; on Sunday, December 3, at 3 p.m. and on Monday evening, December 4, at 7:30 p.m. Both performances were in the Gates Hall Auditorium on the campus of Brewton-Parker College.

KAY GIDDENS, Mariana King, Carrie McGiboney, Dorothy Lanier and Mildred Rulison, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Padgett on E. Lake Lotela Dr., to finalize the plans for the Federated Garden Club's annual Christmas Tea to be held on December 14 at the Padgett home.

Garden Club's Christmas Tea Set For December 14

One of the most exciting social events of the holiday season is the annual Christmas Tea sponsored by the Avon Park Federated Garden Club. Sybil Laye, chairman and Lou Grose, co-chairman, expect this to be an even bigger and better presentation than in previous years. Mildred Rulison, decoration chairman, and members of her committee are planning many unusual and eye catching decorations for all rooms of the Robert L. Padgett home. The theme of "An Old Fashioned Christmas" will be carried out in the Williamsburg manner, emphasizing the elegance of the 19th century.

The entry to the Padgett home is by way of a winding walk over spacious green lawns through tall pines and palms. The statue of a boy depicting the leisurely charm of the past sits cross-legged in a garden of red azaleas, red petunias and white poinsettias. This leads to the red brick house with its broad white gables, octangular windows and white wrought iron of ante-bellum days.

Featured in the spacious foyer is a music box which was used by Mr. Padgett to let his mother know that he was home from college for the holidays. As you enter into the living room the light of the sky and lake through a large bay window shines on the old fashioned Christmas tree. This tree will be decorated by Ruth Geldart and Ona Brace assisted by Willa Padgett. The traditional decorations used by the Padgett family every Christmas will be used. These include charming Williamsburg rag dolls and toys, some from the Thorton Burgess character group.

Miss Carol Padgett will assist Mildred Rulison in decorating her bedroom. Carol's collection of dolls will be featured. Mildred will duplicate an unusual nineteenth century English floral bouquet called "Tussie Musie." This nosegay, a bouquet of mixed flowers and herbs, will sit on the nighttable beside the bed. The "Tussie Musie" was carried by fashionable young ladies of the times to social affairs. When supplied by an admirer it became a vehicle of the "floral language of love." If the girl returned a red tulip to the sender it designated her love for him was returned. A dogwood blossom told him that her regard for him was "so-so" while a varigated pink flower definitely represented rejection.

A plant sale, under the direction of Daisy Wollangk, assisted by Miriam Debo and Francis Bates, will be held in the garage and patio area. Each member brings an especially grown and groomed plant for this sale. There will also be two dozen bromiliads furnished by the Avon Park Correctional Institute. Every plant enthusiast surely will find something to please and beautify her home.

Laura Neubauer and her helpers, Margaret Stewart and Helen Ginn will display beautiful Christmas novelities and decorations in the Boutique. There will be mouth watering baked goodies and home canned goods from which to choose. All of these articles are sure to be especially appearling for Christmas giving and entertaining.

Refreshments will be served throughout the afternoon, along with tea and punch. The kitchen committee consisting of Eunice Haynie, Katie Davis, and Miriam Heiring will be very busy arranging cookies and sandwich trays the entire afternoon.

The Christmas Tea is an open door to an attractive and original home. Imagination, experience and knowledge have created a lovely exterior and interior. Southern hospitaity promises an enjoyable occasion.

Do not forget this important date, Thursday, Dec. 14 from 2:30 til 5:30 p.m. There will be directional arrows along the road pointing out the location on E. Lake Lotella Drive. Ample parking space will be available.

There will be a donation of $1 per person to help defray expenses.

AUBREY BONE surveys items stolen from Perry Smith and him at the Queen Bee Farm.

Equipment Recovered By Sheriff Department

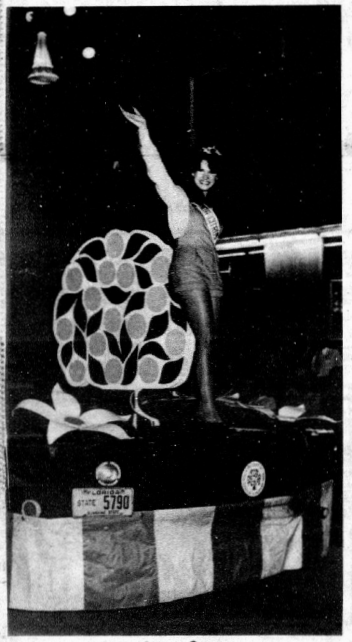

Several hundred dollars worth of tools and equipment were recovered and the burglary of the Queen Bee Farm, on S.R. 70 east of Lake Placid, was solved with the arrest last week of two Okeechobee residents, according to the Highlands County Sheriff's Department.

James O. Sutterfield, 21 and Robert E. Spooner, 19, were both arrested by sheriff's deputies and charged with burglary and grand theft.

Sutterfield, a resident of the Whispering Pines Mobile Home Park, had recently moved to the area from Baytown, Texas. Spooner also was charged with violation of probation stemming from a St. Lucie County conviction.

The stolen items, including a set of socket wrenches, a welder, an air compressor, radio equipment and and adding machine, was found in the utility room of a residence on an Okeechobee dairy.

Aubrey Bone and Perry Smith, of the Queen Bee Farm, reclaimed the stolen goods Monday afternoon.

Apartment Complex Sold For $1 Million

The Lotela apartment complex has been bought by a San Diego real estate development company for $1 million.

Addaind Enterprises, which owns property across the nation, recently completed purchase of the multi-apartment complex. The company, which owns condominiums, apartments houses and mobile home parks, is based in San Diego.

Rollin Sutton, Connie Sutton and Joseph Weller, are the officers of the corporation. Miss Sutton was in Avon Park to look over the apartments and close the deal, said the corporation had no plans for developments at this time.

"In the future we might look into starting a mobile home park but at this time we have no plans for any definite type of development," she said.

Mrs. Sutton had praise for the business and political leaders of Avon Park.

"I've talked to all councilmen and to been very helpful. Everyone we talked to has been quite friendly," she said.

been very helpful. Everyone talked to has been quite friendly."

Mrs. Sutton said any business the company would do would be through local agencies.

"We've kept, and will keep, all business locally. We plan to make all purchases from local businesses. Of course, we've kept the local management," she said.

No Big Spenders

In Race For City Council

There were no big spenders in the city council race, just one or two bigger spenders than the rest of the field.

Tom Tataris led in the number of people contributing, whether in cash or in-kind contributions, to his campaign while David Barefield led in the amount of contributions.

Barefield picked up a $200 contribution from Larry Coker Farms (Larry Coker) of Wauchula. Stanley Wells also contributed $50 to the Barefield campaign.

Barefield himself added $170 to his campaign fund for a total of $420. He spent all but about $80 of that amount.

Like all candidates, expenditures were used mostly for newspaper and radio advertising and printing.

Tataris listed $290 in donations, which includes both cash and in-kind gifts. Contributors include Steve Roberts $90 (in-kind contribution), Don Hill $25 (in-kind contribution) Grady Porter $15, Robert Palmer $20 and Tataris himsels donated $130.

Tataris' expenses were for advertising and for printing.

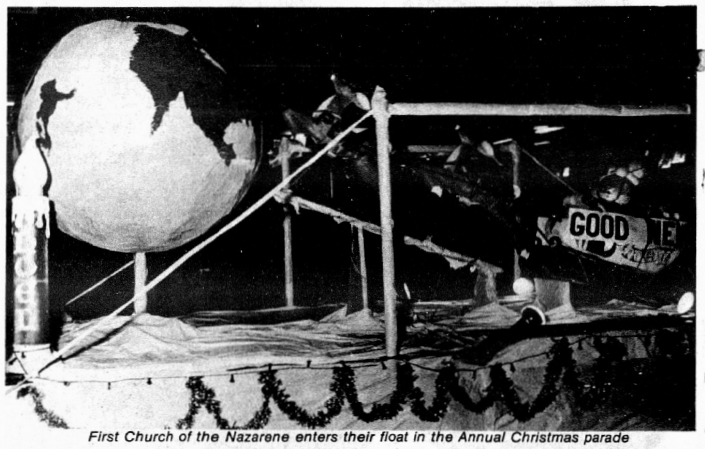

Phil Wooten spent $205 in the race, all of his own money. Wooten's expenses were similar to the other candidates, with the contributions going for advertising and printing.

Another newcomer to the political arena, Alex Whitbeck, spent $130 in his campaign, with all of the money coming from his own funds. Expenditures were also listed as advertising and printing.

Milton Howard, a veteran of city campaigning, spent only $100. Howard, who was a city councilman for 10 years, spent the biggest part of his $100 for an advertisement and the second chunk, $25, for the city qualifying fee. The cost for entering the race was $25 for each candidate.

Larry Albritton, who did not have his latest financial disclosure form in by the Monday deadline, listed only $50 collected and $25 spent in his previous disclosure form.

Challenger Paul Smith showed he had collected $130, all from his own funds and had expended approximately the same amount.

Election

ported me," said Tataris. "And I want them to know I will work for the people at all times. I want everyone to know how much I appreciate their help."

Albritton said he wanted to "thank all the people who had confidence in me and I hope I can work to satisfy the people who voted for me. I want to thank everyone for their show of support."

Howard, a perennial high vote-getter in the city, said "I want to thank the people of Avon Park for their confidence in me and for making me the high vote-getter. I will do my best to make Avon Park a good councilman".

Barefield, the outspoken and sometimes controversial councilman, was ousted as he made his attempt for a second term. Barefield had opposed the majority of the council on a number of major issues, the latest being the $2,000 salary cut of Building Inspector C. W. Ellerbee.

Barefield had commented during the election that he would be content whether he won or lost and said the same thing Tuesday night when the results were in.

"Either way, it's something of a relief," Barefield said.

In the first precinct Barefield led all candidates with 415 votes. Albritton received 395, Howard, 383, Tataris 335, Smith 205, Wooten 271 and Whitbeck 154.

In the second precinct though, Tataris was the high vote getter with 470, Howard took 464, Albritton 426, Barefield 241, Smith 169, Wooten 173, Whitbeck 164.

Singletary

recess which was granted by Judge Langston.

Another two-and-a-half hours of deliberation was necessary on Friday morning before the jury returned and foreman C.W. Post Jr. published the verdict.

Singletary's attorney's Ken Conner and Robin Gibson of Lake Wales, attempted to show SCL, Amtrak and Strickland had been negligent on a number of counts.

Among the allegations were that the train was traveling "at a grossly excessive speed," that the train crew failed "to give adequate warning," failed "to keep a proper lookout" and did not "take adequate steps to stop or slow the train when it became apparent to the train crew that a collision with the decedent was imminent," according to court records.

The police captain's attorneys also attempted to show the railroad had not provided adequate signalling devices at the crossing, and had failed to properly maintain those it did have in place.

In addition, the court records show Singletary's attorneys claimed the railroad had allowed an unsafe condition to exist at the crossing in the form of an obscured view of approaching trains.

They also claimed the railroad had ignored notifications from the City of Avon Park its trains were exceeding posted speed limits for trains at the crossing.

Second Local Artist Sidewalk Show

The second Highlands County local Artist Sidewalk Show was held Saturday, Dec. 2, at the J.C. Penney, Inc., in Avon Square Shopping Center, Avon Park. Artist throughout the county displayed their talents, ranging from sculpture, oil painting to wood work.

Roberta Peck art instructor at the Sebring Middle School was the judge for this event.

There were no specific categories however entries were limited to original paintings, drawings, and graphics in all media; sculpture (wood, stone, metal or clay); photography and original creative crafts were limited to woodcarving and hand built or wheel thrown pottery.

Sponsored by the J.C. Penney, Inc., a total of $125 was won in prizes at the sidewalk art festival. First place ribbon and a check for $40 went to Dorothy Page of Sebring for a ceramic sculptured rhino. Second place went to Mary Richardson, also of Sebring for her painting of Highlands Hammock. She also received a check for $25. Norma Riley of Avon Park took third place honors for a painting of a dog. She received a check for $20.

Merit winners and receipts of $10 checks were Ruth Hill of Avon Park for a painting of a sand scene; Henry Heleig for a copper sculpture; Mildred Wetmore, painting of mountain scene, and Mae Janovicak of Sebring for a Hawaii river scene painting.

Dorothy, the first place winner stated that she has been working with ceramic sculpture for approximately 35 years and entering 10 shows a year. She does most of her artistic work about animals, and especially enjoys doing wild animals. Dorothy is also the pottery instructor at Highlands Art League in Sebring.

The second place winner, Mary Richards has been painting for 30 years and winning is not new to her. She enjoys painting and Highlands Hammock fascinated her. "I have been wanting to capture the atomosphere of the Hammock for quite some time and I finally got around to it." As a matter of fact she continued, this painting is the first one I did of Highlands Hammock. A great job she has done too in capturing the reflections of the quite serenity of the walkway.

Henry is not new to Avon Park residents and his sculpture is a marvel. He especially enjoys capturing the sea gulls, however, his copper flowers are most popular with the buying public at this time.

There was a variety of art talents on display and each is commended for their beautiful display of works. Gene Brenner, art instructor at Avon Park Middle School had a display of pottery that he is very experience in. He also enters many shows throughout the state.

Hunter Resigns Top Football Spot

John Hunter, Avon Park High football coach since 1976, announced yesterday he was resigning as head mentor of the Red Devil Grid team. Hunter said that after 15 years, he figured coaching is a young man's field and he had decided to "hang it up."

Hunter emphasized that he wasn't resigning from Avon Park high — only the football coaching job — and said he hopes to continue at the school with a change in duty assignments.

Les Watson, APHS principal said today he had received Hunter's resignation with regret, but that as yet, no action had been taken toward hiring a successor. Three of Hunter's Assistants over the past years, Donald Sisemore, Ronnie Jackson, and "Hoppy" Rewis may be possible candidates for the post, although to date none have made application according to Watson.

Hunter came to Avon Park from Lake Weir in the fall of 1976 and his first edition of the Big Red Football team compiled a six win, four loss record, a complete turnaround from the two previous losing seasons. The high school gridders had a record of nine losses, against no wins and one tie in 1974 and in 1975 lost eight games while winning two.

The 1977 Red Devil team lost six and won four, but came back in 1978 to win six and lose four, winding up the season in a tie with Mulberry and Fort Meade for the District 13, 2-A football title.

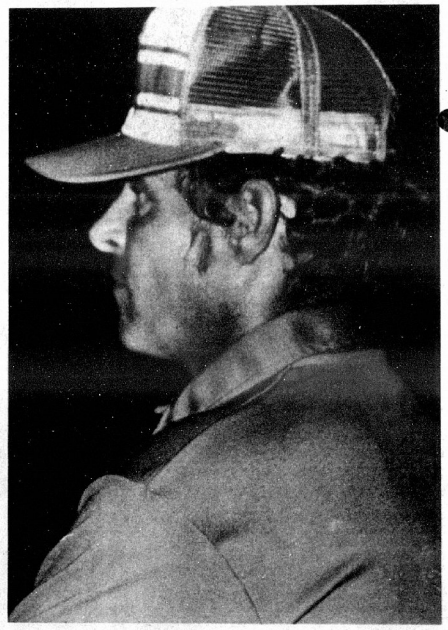

Mulberry was selected to represent the district in the play-offs by a vote of the district high principals and has won two play-off games to date. Tomorrow night they take on Dunellon in the State 2-A Championship semi-finals.

Coach Hunter graduated from Newberry college in Newberry S.C. in 1962 and has been working with football players ever since. He started coaching Junior High football in Jacksonville, Fl. and then moved on to high school coaching at Englewood high in the same city two years later. He also coached in Ocala. prior to going to Lake Weir.

In stepping down from his head coaching chores, Hunter said he had really enjoyed working with the Avon Park players, and wants to especially say "thanks," to the school administration, the Men's Athletic Association, his assistant coaches, and to the great many Red Devil fans for their great support of the football team.

"I know I'll miss football coaching" he said, "but I guess there comes a time." He does plan on assisting Ronnie Jackson in coaching the Red Devil baseball team this coming spring.

Hunter is married and plans on continuing to live in Avon Park. He has one daughter working in Highlands County, and son "Buddy" who played on the 1976 Avon Park High eleven is currently attending South Florida Junior College.

Girls Win Season Opener 34-20

Devilettes Blitz Lake Placid

The 1978-79 Avon Park High School girls basketball team opened its season last Monday night on a winning note, defeating Lake Placid 34-20, at Lake Placid. The Devilettes, who compiled a 14-8 record and were District 13, 2A champions last year, started and ended strong against the Dragonettes, scoring 10 points in the first quarter and 16 counters in the final period.

Coach Cherri Lee, starting her third year as head coach of the local girls team, said that turnover and missed layups, especially in the second quarter, kept Lake Placid in the game. "This was not unexpected," she added, "as it was the first game of the season for both teams."

The starting five consisted of sophomore center Kathy Wiggins, Freshman forward Linda Johnson, senior forward Ellen Macklin, and sophomore guards Annette Blake and Laurie Welch.

The game started off slow with Blake hitting the first twopoints after three minutes of play - a 15 foot jump shot. Before the quarter ended, Wiggins added two more points, Welch scored four points, Blake hit for two more and reserve guard Tracy Brown added two to give Avon Park a 10-2 lead.

In the second quarter, the Devilettes committed several turnovers and missed a lot of lay-ups to allow Lake Placid to outscore them 8-2. The half ended with the Devilettes nursing a slim 12-10 lead.

The Avon Park girl cagers took charge of the game in the third quarter mainly because of reserve center Doris Stukes. Stukes hit two 15 foot set shots to give Avon Park an eight point lead. However, Sue Mikel, Lake Placid's leading scorer of the night with nine points, converted a three point play to close out the third quarter with the score 22-17 in favor of Avon Park.

With just two minutes and 56 seconds remaining in the game, and the outcome still in doubt, Ellen Macklin sparked a spurt which put the game out of reach for the Dragonettes. Macklin scored four quick points herself and had assists on two other scoring plays with absolutely perfect passes to Laurie Welch and Kathy Wiggins. The Devilettes outscored Lake Placid 16-8 in the decisive fourth period.

The Devilettes were led in scoring by Welch with 10 points, followed by Wiggins and Blake with six points each, Macklin and Stukes with four each, and Brown and Lisa Pough with two points each. The remainder of this year's squad consists of Linda Johnson, Tammy Ostling, Brenda Brooker, Patty Barben, and Pattie Belcher. Not suited up for this game were Sally Braithwaite and Bernice Taylor. Both entered school late this year and will be ineligible for the first few games.

Coach Lee and the Devilettes took their 1-0 record into Okeechobee last Tuesday night and they will play in Wauchula tonight (Thursday) against the Hardee Wildcat girls.

The Avon Park girl cagers have a 17 regular game schedule and in addition will be playing in the Heartland Conference tournament in January, and the District play-offs in Feb.

Yanai Wins Golf Tournament

It would be hard to convince the golfettes at River Greens Golf Club that Doris Yanai isn't completely recovered from recent surgery.

All she did over the past week-end was pair up with Eileen McCormick to fire a 20 under par score of 120 and walk off with first prize in the annual women's team event. The Yanai - McCormick duo shot a 61 best ball score on Saturday and came back on Sunday with a 59 for top honors.

Evalee Reed and Mary Ellen Kline teamed up to shoot a 63 and a 59 for a total of 122 to take second place in the 36 hole event.

Third spot went to the team of Ruth Durden and Marian Rouiller who came in with a total of 125. Winnie Yarbrough and Alva Timberlake wound up in fourth place with a 127.

Two teams tied for fifth at 128, with the team of Louise Peffer and Barbara Johnson matching scores with Connie Cliffor and Adaline Promey.

Festive Foods: Don't Poison The Guest

Is the centerpiece on your favorite holiday table a pumpkin, poinsettia, candelabra or New Year's nosegay? Whatever the answer, you'll want to offer your guests the very best in tasty and attractive food.

But don't forget that nothing dispels the cheer of a holiday like a sudden upset stomach brought on by contaminated food.

According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), this type of food poisoning can be easily prevented by a few sensible food preparation guidelines.

USDA's Food Safety and Quality Service has a motto that states the case very simply: "Keep food hot, cold and clean."

This means meat and poultry dishes should always be kept either above 140 degree F or below 40 degree F until serving time.

And speaking of poultry, more and more homemakers are taking the wise course of preparing turkey stuffing separate from the bird. The warm, moist inside of the turkey is an ideal breeding ground for germs. But if you do decide to stuff the bird, prepare the mixture in advance and store it separately in the refrigerator. Then stuff the turkey just before cooking and use a meat thermometer to make certain the interior of the stuffing has reached 165 degree F.

Other popular holiday dishes needing special attention to keep them germ free are cold meat, cuts, salads made with mayonnaise, cream pies and eggnog. Since these foods all contain meat, poultry or eggs and are handled more than other foods during preparation, they are special targets for germs.

Always maks a habit, then, of washing your hands and kitchen utensils in hot soapy water before and after preparing each food. And don't use the same cutting board and utensils for cooked meat that were used when the meat was raw. This will deposit the germs right back on your cooked food.

With all the extra chores around this time of year, anything you can do ahead of time is a plus. But remember these points if you shop in advance: Make certain to use fresh meat, poultry, and liquid dairy products within three to five days of purchase and keep them well-refrigerated. Freeze meat and poultry as soon as you bring them home if you plan to keep them longer.

When preparing a hot dish ahead of time, place it in the refrigerator within thirty minutes after cooking. Then rehaeat it thoroughly just before serving. And never leave cold dishes at room temperature — refrigerate them right after they are prepared.

Finally, another favorite time-saver any time of the year is the buffet where foods are especially vulnerable to contamination. So when planning one, remember to keep servings small and replenish them often directly from the oven or refrigerator. And never leave food out at room temperatures for more than two hours.

The USDA cautions that it's just not always possible to tell if food is germ-free by its taste, looks or odor. That's why the dinner host or hostess always has a special resonsibility to serve a safe, healthy meal during the holidays and year-round.

Light Up Your Life

How much do you know about home lighting? Save money, energy and create a more pleasant home environment by following these tips from Glenda Pifer, U.S. Department of Agriculture housing specialist.

— Your home should be restful. Don't get used to using a light level higher than you need. Use three-way bulbs or dimmer switches that allow a high intensity for reading a lower intensity for conversation and group gatherings.

— Buy light bulbs with the higher lumen (light output measurement) level. Lumen information is printed on the blub jacket. Of two brands of 75-watt bulbs, for example, the best buy is the one with the higher lumen level because it will give more light for the electricity used.

— Use fluorescent lighting where possible. It's three times as efficient in terms of cost and energy as incandescent. It provides more light and lasts longer.

TRY CHOWDER FOR CHILLY DAYS—

Looking for a warm, nutritious meal to take the chill out of the air? Then, try a rich, hearty chowder to warm your body against the wintery December days. And, one of the best chowders is made with beans.

According to U.S. Department of Agriculture marketing specialists, dry beans are in plentiful supply throughout December. Dry beans are tasty, substantial and nutritious — the very qualities needed for a hearty chowder.

Dry beans supply protein, food energy, iron and the B vitamins, especially thiamine. So well endowed, a bean chowder needs but few additions to enhance its food value. Add a little meat, some cheese or an egg. The result is a fine, warming meal.

Try this bean chowder recipe:

BEAN CHOWDER

¾ cup dry beans
3 cups water
1½ teaspoon salt
⅔ cup diced potato
1 small onion, chopped
¾ cup canned tomatoes
1½ teaspoon flour
1-3 cup shredded green pepper
1 to 2 tablespoons butter, margarine or drippings
1½ cups milk

Wash beans. Add water, boil two minutes, then remove from heat. Let soak one hour. Or, add water and let soak overnight in a cool place. Add salt and cook until almost done.

Add potato and onion, then cook 30 minutes. With the longer-cooking beans, you may need to add more water.

Mix flour with a little of the tomatoes and add to beans. Add rest of the tomatoes, green peppers and fat. Cook 10 minutes, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking. Stir in milk and reheat quickly. Serves four.

Two A.P.C.I. Employees Completes Training

The Department of Corrections has announced that Avon Park Correctional Institution employees Richard E. Davies and James Johnson recently participated in the Correctional Training Institute at Raiford, Florida.

This is the thirty-seventh CTI group to enroll in the minimum standards curriculu, which is required by law. The Training Institute program is taught in conjunction with Lake City Community College, and the graduates earn nine semester credits for successfully completing the full time, 160 hour course.

The program includes instruction in the Criminal Justice System, Legal Aspects of Corrections, Operational Procedures, Principles of Supervision, Human Relations and Technical Training Skills which include Firearms, First Aid and Fire Fighting Techniques.

The Correctional Training Institute was certified by the Florida Correctional Standard Council (CSC) in May, 1976, as a training center for correctional personnel. The Council was empowered by the Legislature in 1974 to establish minimum standards for the certification of correctional officers and training centers. The curriculum of training is designed to intesify the exposure of the officer and to develop him professionally. It is anticipated that the training program will help materialize the promise of a modern correctional system.

The participants will continue their training with an additional 160 hours taught by regional instructors, on an in-service basis, at the various correctional facilities located throughout Florida.

New Mail Standards Next Year

Implementation of new minimum - size mail standards will take place next March or April, according to the U.S. Postal Service.

The same effective date will be used to implement a surcharge for oversized mail — a matter now pending before the Postal Rate Commission.

The Postal Service's Board of Governors established the timetable for the common implementation date at its regular monthly meeting today in Washington. The Postal Service had previously stated that the minimum-size standard would become effective "not before Nov. 30, 1978."

The Board decided, at the recommendation of the Postmaster General William F. Bolger, to defer the minimum-size standards to avoid any unnecessary complication during the Christmas mailing season and to allow major mailers a final opportunity to prepare for the change.

Rather than have separate implementation dates occurring around the same time for the minimum-size standards and the oversize surcharge, the Board decided to consolidate the actions.

Currently, the independent Postal Rate Commission is considering the Postal Service's proposal for a 13-cent surcharge for oversized mail and has until February 25, to act on it. Assuming PRC action around that date, the Board of Governors would consider setting the specific implementation date at its March meeting.

The Commission approved the minimum-size criteria and the principle of a surcharge for oversized or nonstandard mail pieces in April, 1976. The Postal Service announced its intention to put them into effect in 1978 in order to permit customers to use up existing supplies and prepare new inventories.

The minimum-size standards, which apply to all classes of mail, establish that envelopes and cards measuring less than 3½ inches high or 5 inches long and certain other items that can jam machinery and damage other mail will not be accepted. Also, the new requirements call for a thickness of at least .007 of an inch. Postal cards have a thickness of .009 of an inch.

The new standards for oversized or nonstandard mail allow that mail to be accepted, but to be subject to the surcharge under consideration by the Postal Rate Commission.

In discussing the decision to put the implementation date off until early 1979, Bolger noted there have been a number of appeals for extensions of the minimum-size standards from utility companies in order for them to have more time to change their billing systems to a format which produces bills of a mailable size. He said deferral of the effective date would provide "one final warning."

Fifty-Four Rotarians Attend Weekly Meet

Fifty-four Rotarians attended their weekly meeting this past Wednesday November 29 held at the Ranch Haus Buffet. A highlight of the meeting was the introduction of a new member by Jim Heim. Jim has the enviable position of initiating new members into the organization.

The new member introduced was Phil Phrog who hails from the land of the rising sun. Mr. Phrog, being duly sworn in and equipped with the club emblem, must now be chaperoned at each meeting by the newest member of the group. This custodial duty was assumed immediately by Clay Gooch, who was inducted into the Avon Park Rotary Club on November 22. Clay must care for Phrog at each meeting and in return for this duty all other Rotarians must acknowledge Mr. Gooch by his first name as they pass. Failure of a member to acknowledge Clay's esteemed position will bring the wrath of Phil's Phrog on the culprit. The custodial duty is passed onto the succeeding newest member of Avon Park's Rotary Club.

The entertainment program included vocal renditions of Hank Williams style songs by Mark Garner. Mark finished his presentation by singing his own written song, "Oh, What A Boy That Will Be." Mark was accompanied by Kenny Kopta on the piano. Both Mark and Kenny showed fine musical talent in their program. They are the sons of members Leon Garner and Duane Kopta respectively. The luncheon meeting closed and a good time was had by all.

JIM HEIM (R) introduces Phil Phrog (L) as a new member in the Rotary Club at last weeks meeting held in the Ranch Haus Buffet.

MARK GARNER accompanied by Kenny Kopta on the piano performed for Rotarians last week.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home Park

By Margie Wells

It was more than a full house at the coffee hour last Wednesday. If our crowd continues to grow, we may have to schedule this get-together at two different hours. Hostesses last Wednesday were Rozzie Parkhurst and Jane Robideau. Tom D. Tataris, candidate for City Council, spoke to the group and answered questions.

On Wednesday afternoon, a large group of our ladies met in the rec hall to organize a ladies club for the park. At the suggestion of Evie Chockley, it was decided to name the organization, the "Bonnie Brae Belles." Ellen Hunt acted as Chairman Pro-Tem until officers were elected. The Chairperson elected was Jean Paris and the Co-Chairperson was Jean McDougall. It was voted that the officers would hold office from December 1st. of one year through November 30th of the following year. It also was decided that a monthly meeting would be held on the first Wednesday of every month at 1:30 p.m. in the rec hall. Plans for the Christmas Dinner and Christmas Eve party were discussed and different ladies volunteered to help with these two events. The Christmas dinner is to be on Tuesday, December 19, at 1 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church. We hope all of the ladies in the park will plan to join the "Belles" at their meeting every month. The next meeting is scheduled for December 6.

At this writing, Betty Sullivan is in the hospital. We hope she will be home again soon. Cecil Pixley got home from the hospital this week and is doing very well. Pauline Colborne also arrived home this past week after being in the hospital in Miami.

Several more of our residents arrived this week. These include the Carrolls, the Kirschkes, the Schwagers, the Wagenshutes, and the Wetmores. Welcome back to all of you!

Last Tuesday night, Mary and Cedric Weirman entertained Ethel and Max Putman, Helen Dyce, Ann Lockwood and Thelma Miller for an evening of playing pinochle.

There were several from the park who drove to Wauchula on Sunday for dinner. We understand they had a lot of good food and lots of fun.

On Friday night, Sally and Steve Bohaychyk showed slides of some of our National Parks and Ellen Hunt showed some slides of a recent trip to Silver Springs and Stephen Forster's home. We hope more people will attend these slides programs.

Helen Dyce entertained Thelma Miller and Max and Ethel Putman at cards on Saturday night. Speaking of cards, don't forget our cards and games which is held every Saturday night in the rec hall.

We had two different groups of carolers in the park on Saturday and Sunday night. It made all of us realize that Christmas isn't too far away and several of the women were busy on Sunday afternoon dressing Christmas cards.

Don't forget to sign up for our Christmas dinner on Tuesday, December 19.

Thief Takes Railroad Rail

Often robbers take the most unlikely objects but one thief in Avon Park must also be a railroad buff.

According to reports from the Avon Park Police Department, a person or persons unknown removed a 30 foot piece of rail from a stretch of railroad tracks in the city.

The incident happened over the weekend and occurred on the tracks near 6th street in the city.

The suspects used a wrecking bar to remove the 30 foot section of rail from the track bed. Police are still investigating the incident.

Editor's Note: The following are representative questions answered daily by VA counselors. Full information available at any VA office.

Q — I know I have a VA overpayment from prior training. Is it possible to have a portion of my monthly entitlement withheld to apply to repayment and continue my education with the remainder?

A — This may be possible. If immediate full repayment would cause undue hardship, you may request this monthly repayment method. Upon VA approval, a withholding will be established to liquidate the overpayment within a defined enrollment period.

Q — I am a veteran attending school under the GI Bill and am applying for a VA pension. Do I report my VA educational assistance as income on my pension application?

A — Yes. VA educational assistance is considered income for pension benefits. You may deduct tuition, fees and related educational expenses from the amount of educational assistance received.

Q — How is my educational entitlement computed while I am enrolled in a correspondence course?

A — Payment is based on 90 per cent of the total charges for the course. One month of entitlement is deducted for each $311 paid.

Q — Can a veteran use his loan guaranty benefit to purchase a home outside the United States?

A — Loan guaranty benefits are available only in the United States, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam and American Samoa.

Q — I am a widow receiving Dependency and Indemnity Compensation. Recently I became entitled to social security benefits. Will my social security payments reduce my DIC?

A — No. The amount of DIC is based on the deceased veteran's military rank. Income is not a factor.

Q — I am a widow receiving nonservice-connected pension benefits. If I remarry, will these benefits be discontinued?

A — Yes. However, if you have children, they can continue to receive benefits. Contact your nearest VA office for applications for each child.

Q — is there any time limit on when a veteran's widow can apply for his burial allowance?

A — Application for burial allowance must be made within two years after the veteran's burial or cremation.

Q — I served in World War II. Is it true that I may be entitled to a VA pension in addition to my Social Security now that I am 65 years of age?

A — You may be entitled to a VA pension, but only if you have limited income and assets. You should contact your nearest VA regional office for information and assistance in making application.

Q — I received an honorable discharge after completing a two-year enlistment. Am I eligible for a headstone or grave-marker even though I haf no wartime service?

A — A headstone or gravemarker is available for any deceased veteran of wartime or peacetime service (other than for training) who was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable. Reservists who die while on duty may also be eligible.

Q — Does the Veterans Administration require a downpayment on a VA home loan?

A — Not necessarily. There is no VA requirement for a downpayment if the purchase price or cost does not exceed the reasonable value of the property. However, the lender may require a downpayment to adequately secure the loan.

Q — I am currently entitled to CHAMPVA benefits, but I will reach age 65 next month. How will this affect my CHAMPVA benefits?

A — Persons eligble to receive Social Security Medicare benefits at age 65 will lose their entitlement to CHAMPVA benefits.

Q — May I use my GI Bill educational entitlement to attend medical school in Mexico?

A — If the foreign school and your training program are approved by VA, you may attend school outside the United States. To obtain the list of approved schools and additional information call or visit your nearest VA regional office.

Q — I am a Vietnam era veteran and wish to use my GI educational benefits. However, I am confused as to a specific direction and need assistance in planning a program. Will VA help me?

A — VA provides comprehensive educational and vocational counseling to veterans who need this type of help. Visit your nearest VA regional office.

Q — What is considered reportable income which affects veterans' pension payments, and when is it reported?

A — All sources of income received in the course of a year should be reported prior to each January 1, or at the time a change in income occurs. An annual questionnaire is mailed to most pension recipients on Nov. 1, of each year. The law allows certain income to be excluded and VA will make this determination.

Pilot Program Starts December 12 Here

Blue Shield of Florida and Social Security Administration Offices of Highlands County and 11 other South Florida counties will begin a pilot program on December 12, 1978, for Medicare beneficiaries that is aimed at reducing Social Security's involvement in Medicare Part B.

In addition to Highlands County, other counties included in the project are DeSoto, Okeechobee, Glades, Hendry, Palm Beach, Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River, Collier, Lee and Charlotte.

Medicare Part B is the medical doctor bill portion of the Medicare program. The pilot project gives Blue Shield of Florida, the Part B intermediary or claim processor for the 12 counties affected, the responsibility for answering all questions concerning Medicare Part B with the exception of eligibility and entitlement questions.

To accomplish this task, Blue Shield of Florida has installed a toll-free telephone number for beneficiaries in the area to use when they have questions concerning Medicare Part B, the toll-free number is 1-800-342-7586.

Use of this number will eliminate the need for beneficiaries to visit or call their local Social Security Office when they have a problem or claim question concerning Medicare.

All beneficiaries in Highlands County or the other 11 counties involved in the project should either call the toll-free number or address their written inquiries to Medicare, P.O. Box 2360, Jacksonville, Florida 32231.

The pilot program already has been successfully tested in Broward and Volusia Counties and is now being expanded to include the new area.

Over the next few months, the project is expected to be phased into other areas of the state where Blue Shield of Florida has Medicare Part B claims processing responsibility. It will eventually result in the Social Security Administration relinquishing most of its Medicare related functions.

Their pirmary Medicare responsibility will be to determine who is and is not entitled to Medicare benefits.

For all other questions, Mecicare beneficiaries are asked to please use the new toll-free number — 1-800-342-7586.

U.S. Taxpayers Taken For A Ride On Gravy Train

U.S. taxpayers are being taken for a ride on a federal gravy train that is providing massive funds to Cesar Chavez' United Farm Workers (UFW), according to the president of Florida's largest farm organization.

Florida Farm Bureau Federation President Walter J. Kautz cited a new $600,000 grant awarded UFW by the Federally - funded Community Services Agency (CSA) to help finance the union's ultra-high frequency radio system which is designed to link 20 UFW field installations in California with UFW headquarters.

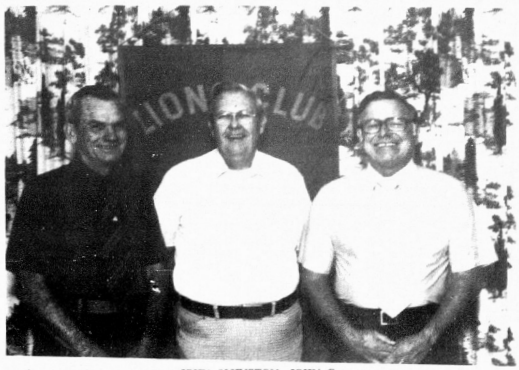

He noted that the New CSA grant comes only weeks after UFW got grants of $305,000 from the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) program — a part of which would be used to train UFW micro-wave technicians.

Kautz said it is easy to conceive the total cost of UFW's radio system as "in the many millions," and he said he wondered where — and at what federal agency — the gravy train would make its next stop.

"In an election year, when the Carter Administration is luring voters with tax cuts and economies in government, the UFW grants are an insult to every taxpayer," Kautz said.

He added that, counting an earlier CSA grant for $349,000 to buttress UFW's credit union, 1978 federal grants to the union from CSA and CETA totaled $1,754,000.

"Mr. Chavez is the first union leader we have heard of," said Kautz, "who had to have federal funds to build his union." And, he added, "There is evidence that even as his facility for recruiting federal dollars grows easier in Washington, his facility for recruiting farm workers grows more difficult in the field.

Revenue Act To Take Effect January

Although most provisions of the Revenue Act of 1978 take effect in January, homeowners who are 55 and older can benefit immediately from the new rule affetting capital gains on the sale of a home. Retroactive to sales made July 26, 1978 and thereafter, an individual at least 55 can exclude from capital gains taxation up to $100,000 of profit on the sale of a personal residence. However, this exclusion can be taken only once in a lifetime, and applies only to homes that the taxpayer owned and occupied for three of the five years prior to the sale.

Blue Cross Payment Program Produces

The Florida Blue Cross Prospective Charge Payment Program, now nearing the end of its second year of operation, continues to produce encouraging results in restraining charge increases in Florida hospitals.

During the first half of 1978, rate increases were approved under the Program affecting 126 Blue Cross Contracting hospitals. Thirty-eight of these increases were considered directly applicable to the increased minimum wage. The average increase for those hospitals receiving approval was 6.19 percent. This compares favorably to the 6.53 percent accomplished last year for the same period.

The national Consumer Price Index hospital service charge component rose 9.4 percent from June, 1977, to June, 1978. Using the CPI formula on a random sample of ten percent of Florida Blue Cross Contracting Hospitals, the increase in charges in Florida rose by 8.3 percent during the same period, or 13.25 percent less than the national average. This again shows greater improvement over the full year 1977 operation when the increases in Florida were 12.5 percent less than the national average, based on the rise in the Consumer Price Index.

The second year of the program will be completed on Dec. 31, 1978, at which time all 220 Contracting Hospitals will have undergone rate review for the current calendar year. Final statistics on the complete 1978 calendar year results will then be issued at that time.

As an active participant of "The Florida Committee on the Cost of Medical Care", Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida are highly encouraged that the voluntary effort to contain rising health care costs will successfully meet its objectives. Other organizations dedicated to the voluntary effort approach to controlled health care costs are the Florida Hospital Association, The Florida Medical Association, the Florida League of Hospitals and commercial insurance companies.

Homeowners Have Time On Tax Returns

There is still time for homeowners to take advantage of the new insulation tax credit and claim the credit on 1978 federal income tax returns. Homeowners who add insulation, including storm windows, may be able to qualify for a credit of 15 percent of the cost, to a maximum of $300. This rule applies retroactively to insulation installed April 20, 1977 or later. (If you installed your insulation between April 20 and December 31, 1977, the credit may be claimed on your 1978 return.) Save all relevant receipts and cancelled checks in case you are called upon to substantiate your claim for the credit.

Columbus White, Alachua Alligator Hunter-Trapper

Columbus White is a tearsome man with a sethook, harpoon or noose.

You may have seen him in the early dusk on Lochloosa Lake, crouching low in a battered johnboat, gliding easily through the brittle sawgrass.

You may have watched him raise his cupped hands to his mouth, waiting for a lull in the wind, and, satisfied at the stillness of the evening, let loose a pathetic grunt that sounds like this: mmfffff-fgggbbb.

Or you may have seen the smile that flickers across his face when his latern reflects red against two globes gliding toward him along the surfact of the lake, moving toward the grunt. Mmfffffffgggbbb.

And, if you timed it right, you may have seen Columbus White's strong right arm setting his hook deep into a tenfoot alligator.

Columbus White is Alachua County's official gator hunter, and since May when he took the job he has done well enough to bring in the hides of 68 rampaging alligators.

State Wildlife officials say that White is among the top trapper-agents in the program that five months ago employed about 50 men around Florida to hunt down specific alligators judged to be a menace to human life or property.

The program was designed to reward the state's trapper agents for their work by giving them most of the money derived from a state sponsored auction of the hides.

Columbus White was as tickled as a crocadile in a goldfish pond when the wildlife folks asked him to participate in a pilot gator hunting program last year. He had hunted gator around Lake Lochloosa since he was a poor ooy in the Depression, and had been sick at heart for the dozen or so years since the solons who make the laws decided that the alligator was an endangered species and therefore could not be hunted.

"I was happy to be back at it," Columbus White said. "My daddy was a big gator hunter and my daddy-in-law had been hunting gators since before World War I. Those old gators paid for many a meal on our table."

During last year's pilot program six alligator "trapper agents" (White was one of them) were used in a study to check the feasibility of having private contractors eliminate nuisance alligators. In the 14 years since alligators were declared endangered, the species had so expanded in numbers that increasingly frequent reports of alligator attacks on humans were coming in to Florida Game Officers.

Midway through the program Game officials told me that it would be years, if ever, before a trapper agent program would be instituted statewide. The six hunters working in 1977 were only part of a study, officials said.

Columbus White never believed that for a second.

"I knew the trapper program would be statewide this year," he said. "You should have asked me. I would have told you that.

"There were just too many bad alligators, too many of any kind of alligators, and not enough Game Commission men to hunt them. I wouldn't have believed someone saying they weren't going to keep the agents."

But then, Columbus White has never believed that alligators were endangered to begin with.

"Last year they went out to Orange Lake and counted 1,400 alligators and figured they hadn't even spotted a third of them," he said. "And they tried to tell us that there weren't even 5,000 alligators in the state. I don't know where they came across that endangered business. They've been alligators on Newnan's Lake, Orange Lake, Lake Lochloosa and all the others all my life. There always have been gators and there always will be. And I aim to get my share of gators that take to bothering folks."

In last year's pilot program, Columbus White's share was 72 alligators, for about 600 feet of hide. The hide sold at the first auction for $18.50 a foot and at a later auction in Gainesville for $9.53 a foot.

Last year Coumbus White was happy, and had some money on top of what he made catching catfish in the north Florida lakes around his home. He'd sit at home in the afternoons stringing the hooklines on his boxes for the next day and he felt fine. When the Amtrack trains came rumbling down the track shaking his frams house and carrying New York tourists to Miami Beach it didn't even bother him.

But this year is different. Across the state, many of the first-year trapper agents are quitting the program or are threatening to quit.

Columbus White says he won't quit, but he is mad. He is a gentle man, despite his profession, but he is mad.

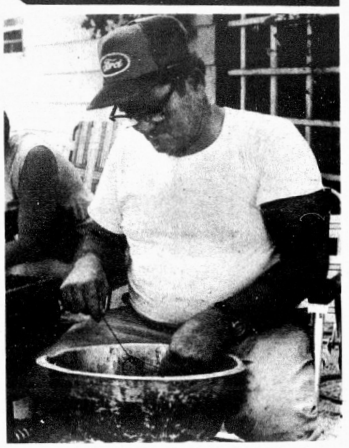

At the first auction of the statewide program, no trappers got a penny. Many, like Columbus White, who had invested money, time, gasoline and equipment in tracking down bad gators, had counted heavily on the money.

Tommy Hines, who was in charge of the September auction in Gainesville, explained it this way: "There were no bids. We put the hides up for sales, but there were no bids. There just wasn't a market."

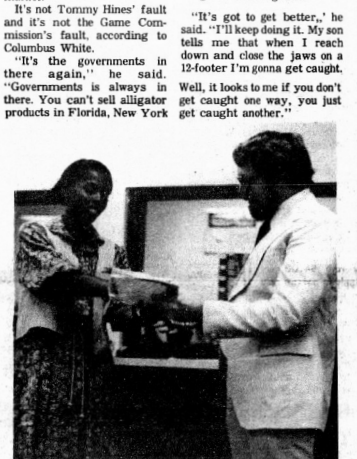

It's not Tommy Hines' fault and it's not the Game Commission's fault, according to Columbus White.

"It's the governments in there again," he said. "Governments is always in there. You can't sell alligator products in Florida, New York or California, and that's where all the buyers are. And they got international treaties so we can't sell hides to the foreign countries that want the hides."

Still, Columbus White will do his job again, out intm the sawgrass with a grunt.

"It's got to get better," he said. "I'll keep doing it. My son tells me that when I reach down and close the jaws on a 12-footer I'm gonna get caught.

Well, it looks to me if you don't get caught one way, you just get caught another."

Student Council Holds Teacher's Tea Presents Plaque to Principal:

By Eugene Cox

Last Tuesday, November 28, the Avon Park High Student Council held a Teacher's Tea at 3 p.m. in the school's library in which a plaque of appreciation was given to Lester Watson, principal of Avon Park High, from the Student Council.

The high school principal stated that he was surprised and flattered when he received the plaque. "It makes you feel good when someone recognizes you for your work, and I am very pleased."

According to Harry Williams, the Student Council sponsor, "The Teacher's Tea was held to honor the teachers and to present the plaque to Mr. Watson."

"We thought he really deserved it, "stated Student Council President Katrina Conner. "He's done a lot for the school and the Student Council. Without his help, the function and improvement of the school and the Student Council would be terrible. I feel that Mr. Watson is truly an understandable person, and he deserves all the credit he receives."

On December 12, seniors will have a chance to make up any skills they missed on the Statewide Assessment Test taken last October.

This re-test applies only to the Basic Skill portion of the test and not the Functional Literacy portion which has already been retested. There will not be any major review in the classes for the Basic Skills Test; however, students may review individually with their teachers.

If any Senior does not have a math class but wishes to review for a skill he may have missed, he should contact Ralph Hill of the math department and set up a time to review that specific skill. Coach Hill is free to work with students on this anytime during the day other than seventh period.

The annual faculty vs student basketball game was held Wednesday at the high school gym.

The first and second quarters were played with the ladies from the faculty taking on our high school girls team. A little more practices on the faculties part and our girls would have really had to work to win the game. The game was, however, very interesting and pleasing, and a lot of sportsmanship was shown. The women's faculty team consisted of the following: Lucy Derkman, Peggy Sisemore, Miss Eldredge, Nan Dressel, Mrs. Garner, Miss Lee, Miss Cox, Mrs. Klang, and Mrs. Lund.

The second half of the entertainment was between the men's faculty and the boys' varsity basketball team. The male faculty while over coming uniform problems put up a whale of a game, but, in the end, age told, and the varsity went on to win the lopsided contest. The out of shape faculty team consisted of the following: Mr. Bruce Wyse, Mr. Bozeman, Coach Rewis, Coach Hunter, Coach Jackson, Mr. Gentry, Coach Brojek, Mr. Lemler, Mr. Howard, and Coach Sisemore.

A total of $200 was taken in from the events which will be used toward the purchase of new clocks for our gym.

This year's four semi-finalists for the Washington Intern Program were announced on Thursday, November 30, at Avon Park High School. These semi-finalists are Diane "Gigi" Swearingen, Sherri Wells, LaDawn Long, and Vesta Hall.

The four semi-fanalist were chosen from their answers to two brief questions. Their answers were read and voted on by the Junior Class. The total number of applications submitted to Mrs. Burch, the school's sponsor for the program, was seven. These semi-finalists now will be interviewed by the county commissioner. After their interviews a winner will be chosen.

The Washington Intern Program is sponsored by Representative Skip Bafalis. He started the program to give high school students in his district a chance to see how their government is run. They will meet and talk with various people involved in the U.S. Government. They will meet with members of prominent committees both in the House and the Senate.

The winner of the program will meet with the winners of the other schools in this district and travel to Washington. They will spend seven days there and have a chance to see the federal government in action.

The Washington Intern Program is sponsored by individuals and organizations who give money and time to keep the program going.

First Presbyterian Church Holds Advent Services

The prophecies of Isaiah were the scripture readings as the traditional first candle of Advent, the Prophecy Candle, was lighted during Morning Worship last Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church.

Robbie Doty lighted the candle after the congregation had sung the first stanza of "O Come, O Come Emmanuel."

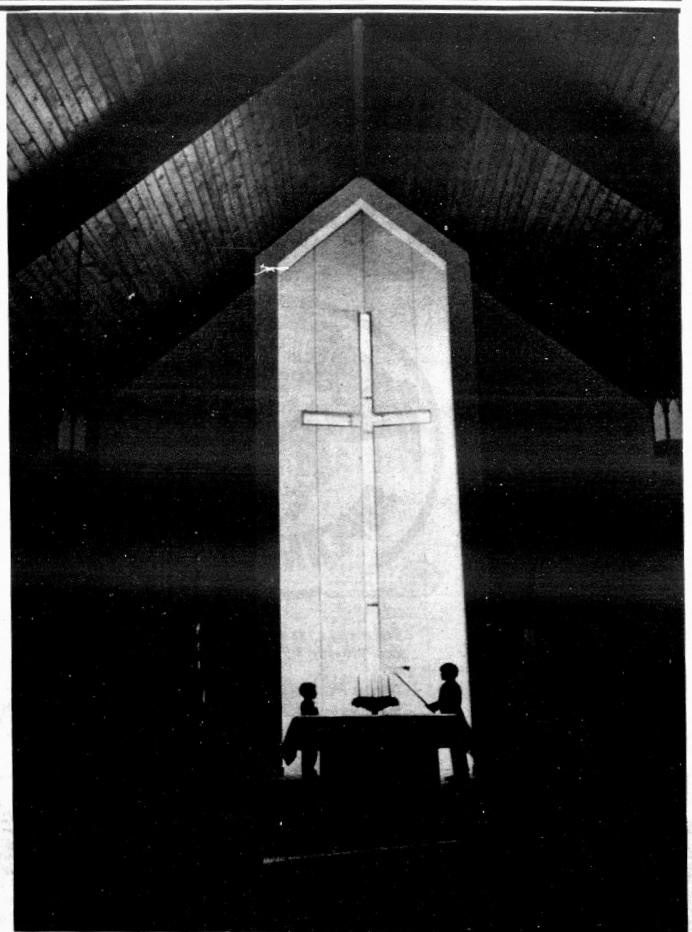

"Jesus said, 'I am the light of the world. He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life, the congregation recited.

Cruiser Crews then asked, "Why do we light one candle?"

"This candle reminds us of the light of hope that the prophets had in their expectation of a Messiah who would bring peace and love into the world," the congregation responded.

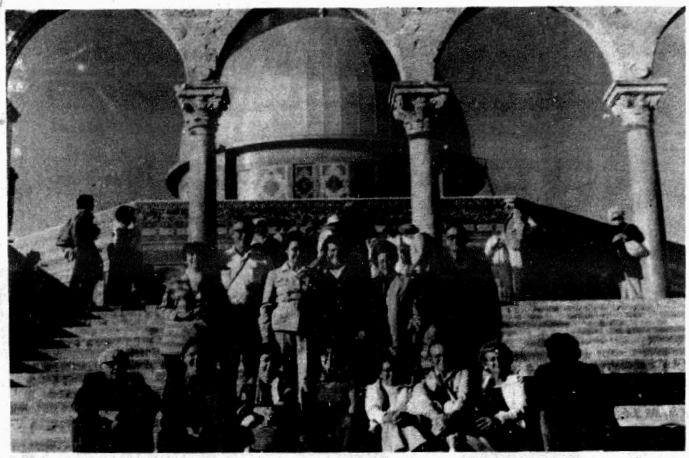

Isaiah 2:1-5 and 64:1-4 were then read by Gail Andreae as the Advent scripture lessons.

The lighting of candles during the Advent season will be climaxed by the lighting of the Christ Child Candle during the Christmas Eve Communion Service.

PROPHECIES OF THE coming of the Lord are symbolized in the lighting of the first Advent candle. The ceremony of lighting this Prophecy Candle was performed by Cruiser Crews (left) and Robbie Doty during Morning Worship last Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church. Sunphoto

Local Group Tours Biblical Land

A group of local people returned Friday, Dec. 1, from a four country Bibleland jet cruise.

Accompanying Dot and Joe Bing of Lake Placid, tour host and hostess were Katie Lou Baughan, John Lapish, Kay Heffner, Jane Rapp, Dottye and Frank Lefrang; Mr. and Mrs. Stan Kazwell and daughter, Janice; and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lawrence.

From Amsterdam, the tour flew to Cyprus and embarked on the ship "Illiria" which was their 'hotel' for the Mediterreanan Cruise. They toured Egypt, seeing the Suez Canal, Cairo where over 4,000 articles from King Tuts Tomb were in the museum, then onto the prymids of Giza.

In the Holy Land over 3,000 years of living Bible history was experienced. The rich texture of the past and the reality of the dynamic present day miracle was witnessed. A trip on the Sea of Galilee was just one of the many impressive experiences the group had.

In Athens, they visited Mars Hill, where Paul preached, the acropolis, the parthenon and other interesting parts of the city.

Dot Bing stated that the cruise was an adventure that many had had taken several times. She added that no one can realize what experiences they will encounter until they have witnessed and seen the areas themselves. It was such a wonderful journey being able to view the place where Abraham offered his son Isaac to be scarificied, and many other Biblical sites.

Avon Park Mobile Home Park News

Ruth E. Robinson

The Avon Mobile Home Park Women's Club will be meeting this next Friday at 1:30 p.m. Plans for the Christmas Party, etc. will be made then, so be sure to attend! Bring your ideas with you and join the fun.

Ted and Nora Nelson welcomed their friends from Shelby, Mich. (Nelson's home town), Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker who are in an apartment on Highlands Avenue. The Bakers arrived on Sunday evening and left a lot of snow in Michigan.

Mary Moran, and Virgil and Hazel Weldy were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Martin, who arrived back here recently. Betty and Barben Graves are Great-grandparents to a baby girl, Elizabeth Marie Weyer from Castalia, Ohio. Congratulations!

Styrl and Mary Mishey, friends and good neighbors to us all here in the park moved last week to 202 South Anoka. They will be missed, but Mary and Stryl have invited us to visit them in their new home as they too, will miss us and want to see their friends often, with a "Please come see us."

Mrs. Lulu Maddrell was in her home with Bea Tingler last week for a few hours. We encourage her to come and take a walk often, so she will gain in strength and see her friends. Her son will be here for Christmas to see her progress and bring love and greetings from the family!

More recent arrivals to park include: Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Martin (Bertha), Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Ringer (Edith), Mr. and Mrs. Roy St. Louis (Margaret), Mr. and Mrs. A.F. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sinclair (Leone), Mr. and Mrs. Everett Blethin (Ruth) and we are very pleased to renew acquaintances, again, wishing you a pleasant winter season.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Girten were in Orlando last week for a delicious lunch at Gary's Dick Inn - which is an old establishsd restaurant. Following lunch they went to Orange City and visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lockwood who are former Cincinnatians, where Mr. Lockwood was with W.L.W. Radio station.

Mrs. Martha McBeth is now in Walker Memorial Hospital with a broken arm, caused by a fall while she was taking a walk. It has been set in quite a heavy cast and now she is able to move her fingers. We all wish her a speedy recovery, so her return home will be soon.

Recent guests to Ula Miller were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neff from Brentwood Mobile Home Park on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ora Myers visited the Robinsons on Friday for a short time, and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Converse from Fedhaven also spent a couple of hours with them on Thursday. All are well and happy.

The Singspiration on Saturday evenings was led by Marie Monroe. After enjoying the Choruses, Virgil Weldy led in devotions. His subject was "Discouragement, Doubt, and Fear; tools of the devil." Ula Miller favoredus with readings on "Christian Living." There were fifty eight present to enjoy the evening. Be sure to be in attendance next Saturday night at 7 p.m., for Talent Night!

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Dawson (Sally) of Lakeland, visited with Ham and Nita Byrers on Sunday afternoon for a short time, and will be back again.

Mrs. Verna Fero, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baxter and the Robinsons decided to have Sunday dinner at the restaurant in Babson Park which was excellent and filling. We all had an enjoyable and pleasant ride on Alt. 27.

Mrs. Lucille Shoemaker entertained friends, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, from Rolling Prairie, Indiana on Tuesday and Wednesday, last week. They were on their way to the "Valley" in texas.

Nationwide Census Survey On Employment

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment in this area during the work week of December 11-15, Thomas W. McWhirter, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Atlanta, announced today.

The survey is conducted for the U.S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of approximately 70,000 households throughout the United States. Employment and unemployment statistics based on results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation.

For example, in October the survey indicated that of the 101.1 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 95.2 million were employed. The Nation's unemployment rate was 5.8 percent, down slightly from 6.0 percent in September and 5.9 percent in August.

Information supplied by people participating in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Interviewers who will visit households in this area include: Mr. Hubert Horwitz, Mrs. Elizabeth Swenson.

Wednesday nights are practice sessions at Avon Lakes at 7:30 p.m. Anyone interested in learning to square dance please come to the Avon Lakes Club House.

Crafts

With nearly 70 members present Hallie Wetmore's craft class was once more the most productive activity of the club. Snowflakes, stars, dancing dolls are still being reproduced to add glamour to many Christmas trees.

Beadlework pictures are charming and one group was working to get their pictures ready for Christmas hanging or gifts. Reconverted Christmas cards are really beautiful when finished.

The largest group was working on the new project, "Fluffy Dogs'. These darling little pets are being made from fantasy fur in various shades; white, off white, apricot and brown. All are fantastically real and one can imagine the wee ones loving and cuddling these wonderful little toys. There is a lot of work in the production, but it is well worth every minute spent on it.

Central Florida Wine Taster

By Jane Nickerson

Bronson Mela, a leading apostle of the vine in central Florida, a Plant City strawberry boy (his words) turned wine, man, slanted a Basque beret over one brow the other evening and introduced about 60 tasters in his Lakeland shop to the tintos and rosados and blancos of the Rioja.

Mela zeroed in on red, pink, and white wines of Rioja.

Put plainly, Mela zeroed in on the red and pink and white wines of that area in northern Spain called the Rioja, which produces that country's best table wines, 10 to 13 percent in alcohol. He left for another occasion Spain's more celebrated sherries, from Jerez de la Frontera, the aperitif and dessert wines fortified to 16 to 18 percent in alcohol.

Mela's thrust was economic as well as epicurean. Americans enjoying more table wines than ever before have yet to catch on generally to those of Spain , and until demand strengthens, he emphasized, they remain moderate in price. The eight he poured for sampling were in the $3 to $5 range, cheaper, as Mela agreed, than most California vintages of comparable quality, and cheaper, too, than many of the Bordeaux that the red Riojas resemble.

Though the Riojas have yet to enjoy a wide audience in this country, Mela said, imports have doubled since 1975, reaching 300,000 cases and putting this country in third place as a foreign market, with Switzerland and Canada preceding it. Those several thousand cases, however, impress only the uninitiated in the wine trade, Mela said. They are a drop in the national bucket. More than a million cases of Blue Nun Liebfraumilch, for example, slid down American throats last year.

The Marques de Riscal is a label many Floridians recognize, probably without realizing that it is among the Rioja district's proudest bodegas; the red wine is commonly offered in our Spanish restaurants. Those who have sniffed and sipped a good Marques de Riscal may

What else does one look for on a Rioja label? Mela replied that vintage years (Cosecha in Spanish) are not so meaningful as in France because vintners compensate for deficiencies within a vineyard by blending the products of many. In this practice, it almost goes without saying, they differ from Bordeaux where a wine must derive from the vineyard named.

Bear in mind too,Mela counseled, that the Riojans like to keep good wines in wood so long that they overage them.

Bear in mind, too, Mela counseled, that the Riojans like to keep some wines in wood so long that they overage them. Or they may age them with skill in oak but sell them too soon after bottling them, giving them no time to mature in glass. At Mela's shop, tasters remarked a 1948 red Rioja (a good year) on a shelf. But unlike a Bordeaux of that vintage, you couldn't really predict what it would be like, which may explain its relatively low price of $7.95. How long had it been in oak? In glass?

The import of Mela words became apparent: Vintage information on Riojan wines frequently must be taken with a grain of salt. In his 'Encyclopedia of Wines and Spirits,' Alexis Lichine listed the greatest years in the region, starting half a century ago, as 1928,1934, 1935, 1942, recall that color, bouquet, taste and finish (aftertaste) equal, as Mela insisted at his gathering, any of the red Bordeaux except the finest.

The resemblance to Bordeaux is no accident he explained.

The resemblance to Bordeaux, he explained, is no accident. Only 200 miles south of that French district, the Rioja area was invaded at the turn of the century by vintners who came down from France after the phylloxera had blighted their vines. They introduced Bordeaux methods in vatting and fermentation, and wines not sold within a year they matured in oak casks of a size common in the French district.

The French still seem to be arriving. A Bordeaux-er founded the Marques de Carceres only a decade or so ago; its first wines are just now reaching American markets.

More than 30 companies, Mela said, have the legal right to produce Rioja. That means they can blazon the place-name on their labels as well as affix and inconspicuous mill - edged stamp, about a half-inch square, attesting to the authenticity of the origin. The modest stamp is something to check in selecting a Rioja wine even if it means putting on glasses to find it. That it needs redesigning by a Madison Avenue expert becomes obvious as you hunt for it.

1948, 1953, 1954, 1957, 1962, 1964 and 1970. In this decade, 1971, 1975, and 1976 may qualify, too.

What other terms on a Riojan win label need definition? Reds, Mela answered, may be called rosado, clarete, ojo de gallo and tinto, ranging from pale pink to deep red. Clarete and tinto are the commonest. The first is a light red wine produced by short contact with grape skins; the second is simply the Spanish term for red wine. It is never called rojo, although the literal word blanco is usual for white.

But much more important, Mela emphasized, are the districts within Rioja. Look for Rioja Alta on a label, he advised, because that indicates the finest locale, the one like Bordeaux. And don't neglect the offerings of Rioja Alavesa which, heavier than those of Rioja Alta, are more suggestive of Rhone wines, some think.

And what about the Rioja's whites? Lichine dismisses them with, "The whites cannot compete with the reds, and are too often maderized (that is, browned in color and flat in taste because of oxidation)." But, as Mela reminded tasters, generalizations break down in sampling individual wines. Tasters endorsed a Rioja blanco labeled 1975 from Marqued de Caceres, calling it pleasantly dry and well balanced. I thought it would be delightful with oysters.

Spain, I was surprised to learn from Mela, has the largest vineyard acreage in Europe, though not the largest yield. The Phoenicians planted vines in Andalusia a thousand years before Christ, and by the 14th century Spanish wines were familiar in England.

In the early 1900's, the Spanish wine trade was flourishing, but 30 years later it languished when the French enacted laws against the entry of foreign wines. During the Civil War, vines were neglected and some destroyed. Conditions worsened during World War II, and it was not until the 1950's that wine production began to improve. Lichine writes:

"Spain is following the trend toward greater control of the complete winemaking process, from planting to bottling and labeling, although, in most districts, there is still a long way to go. Jerez and Rioja are shining exceptions.

BRONSON MELA, WHO calls himself "a Plant City strawberry boy turned wine man," shows the large-bowled, long-stemmed glass he prefers for tasting. Mela operates shops in Lakeland, St. Petersburg, Tampa, Largo and Winter Park.

Easy And Elegant Holiday Recipes

Fancy, festive, easy and make-ahead. It's not often you come across recipes that combine all these features, but here are two that do. Chocomint Holiday Roll is light and luscious sponge cake, filled with chocolate whipped cream and sprinkled with crushed peppermint candy. Peppermint Eggnog is a refreshing sipper sparked with peppermint flavoring. Turn to these two treats and you'll have time to enjoy the hustle and bustle of the holidays.

Chocomint Holiday Roll

Makes one 10-inch cake roll of 8-10 servings

Cake Roll:
- 6 eggs, separated
- ½ teaspoon cream of tartar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ¼ cup all-purpose flour
- Powdered sugar

Lightly grease a 15½ x 10½ x 1-inch jelly roll pan. Line bottom with waxed paper; grease again. In small bowl of mixer beat egg whites with cream of tartar and salt until stiff but not dry or just until whites no longer slip when bowl is tilted. In large bowl of mixer beat egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored, about 5 minutes. Gradually add powdered sugar and vanilla, beating until blended. Sprinkle flour over yolk mixture; add beaten whites. Gently fold until thoroughly blended. Turn into pan, spreading batter evenly. Bake in preheated 400°F. oven 10 to 12 minutes or until top of cake springs back when lightly touched with finger. If necessary, loosen cake from sides of pan with spatula. Invert cake onto clean tea towel which has been covered with a sheet of waxed paper and sifted powdered sugar. Carefully pull waxed paper off bottom of cake. Trim off all edges. Roll up cake starting from short edge, rolling waxed paper in with cake. Wrap cake roll in towel and place seam-side down on wire rack until cool, about 30 minutes.

NOTE: If prepared in advance, cake may be frozen without filling. Wrap well with aluminum foil or plastic wrap. To thaw: Let wrapped cake stand at room temperature 1 hour.

Filling:
- 1 cup whipping cream
- ¼ cup powdered sugar
- 3 tablespoons cocoa
- ½ teaspoon vanilla
- ¼ cup crushed peppermint candy
- Powdered sugar
- Chocolate curls or candy canes, optional

Combine whipping cream, powdered sugar and cocoa. Beat until stiff; fold in vanilla.

To prepare cake roll: Carefully unroll cake; spread with chocolate whipped cream. Sprinkle with candy; reroll. Place on serving plate; chill. Just before serving dust with powdered sugar and top with chocolate curls, if desired.

Peppermint Eggnog

Makes 14 1/2-cup servings

- 6 eggs, slightly beaten
- 4 cups milk
- ¼ cup sugar
- ½ teaspoon peppermint extract
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup whipping cream, whipped
- Candy canes

Mix eggs, milk, sugar, peppermint extract and salt together until well blended; fold in whipping cream. Pour into bowl or pitcher; cover and refrigerate several hours.

To serve: Ladle into punch cups; serve with candy cane swizzle sticks.

Holiday Hors D'Oeuvers With A Swedish Accent

Christmas in Sweden lasts an entire month — from St. Lucia's Day (December 13) to Knut's Day (January 13). The highlight, however, is the Christmas Eve appearance of Jultomten, or Father Christmas, bearing gifts. His visit is celebrated in Swedish households by a beautiful holiday smorgasbord or buffet that's sure to include delicious open-faced sandwiches called Varsmorgasar.

This recipe for Varsmorgasar takes only minutes to prepare. A lightly seasoned mixture of ready to spread deviled ham and chopped hardcooked egg tops thin slices of white bread. They're easily cut into bite size hors d'oeuvres for a holiday gathering. You can do them well in advance as they keep wrapped in the refrigerator for three days or for several weeks in the freezer.

Varsmorgasar

- 7 slices thin white bread
- 1 can deviled ham (4-1/2 ounces)
- 2 tablespoons softened butter or margarine
- 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
- 2 hard-cooked eggs
- 1½ teaspoons chopped chives
- Dash freshly ground pepper

Trim crusts from bread. In a bowl, mix together deviled ham, butter, mustard, egg, dill, parsley chives and pepper. Spread mixture generously on bread. (Sandwiches may be wrapped well and refrigerated up to 3 days, or even frozen.) Just before serving, cut sandwiches into fourths. Garnish, if desired, with a sprig of parsley or fresh dill. Makes 28 hors d'oeuvres.

Christmas Sugar Cookies

Christmas Sugar Cookies make super gifts and fun decorations. Frost bells, stars, wreaths and other yuletide designs, then adorn your tree with these works of art.

Later, when you remove the tinsel and ornaments, set the tree outside. Let the birds and little creatures of the earth have their own feast after your holiday is over.

Be sure to bake enough cookies for family and friends, too. When you bake these or any Christmas goody, be sure to use enriched flour — then it's a gift of good nutrition as well.

Christmas Sugar Cookies

5 to 6 dozen cookies

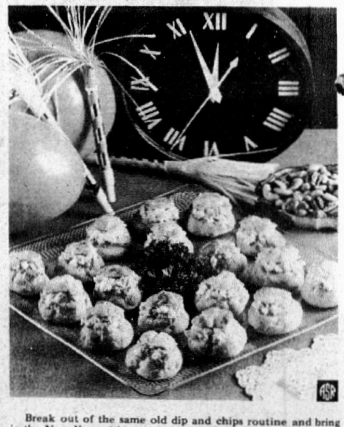

- 3½ cups enriched flour*
- 1 cup butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs, well beaten
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 tablespoons scotch, optional
- Colored sugar

Measure flour into bowl, set aside. Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs and flavorings, beat well. Stir in flour. Refrigerate dough overnight or for several hours. Use cookie press to make cookies or roll on lightly floured surface to 1/8 to 1/4-inch thick. Sprinkle with colored sugar. Bake cookies on ungreased baking sheets in preheated 350° oven 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown.

Note: To make chocolate cookies add two squares of melted unsweetened chocolate with eggs and flavorings.

* Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

New Year Treats

Break out of the same old dip and chips routine and bring in the New Year with a savory treat. When the clock strikes 12 bring out Crab Egg Puffs — delicious cream puff shells filled with hard-cooked eggs, crabmeat and celery. Prepare Crab Egg Puffs ahead of time and when midnight arrives, toot your horn and join in the merry-making.

Crab Egg Puffs

Makes approximately 2 1/2 dozen

Cream Puffs:
- 1 cup water
- ½ cup butter
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 4 eggs
- ¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

Crab Egg Filling:
- 6 hard-cooked eggs, finely chopped
- 1 can (7½ oz.) crabmeat, drained and finely chopped
- 1 cup finely chopped celery
- ½ cup mayonnaise
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- ½ teaspoon salt

For cream puffs: Bring water and butter to a rolling boil in a saucepan, stirring until butter melts. Add flour and salt, stirring vigorously over low heat until mixture forms a ball. Remove from heat. Beat in eggs all at once. Continue beating until smooth. Beat in cheese. Drop dough by tablespoonfuls onto lightly greased baking sheets. Bake in preheated 400°F. oven 18 to 20 minutes or until light golden brown. Pierce with sharp tip of a knife and return to oven 5 minutes to dry out insides of puffs. Cool on wire rack. Cut off tops.

For filling: Combine all ingredients. Fill puffs using approximately 2 tablespoons filling per puff. Replace tops. Chill before serving.

Southside Community Park

Hi Friends,

Welcome to Southside Park Community News. However, before I present the hard news from this particular area, I would like to share a point of view in light of the recent holocaust which took place in Guyana. In the land of the free and the home of the brave, we have the right of free speech and choice of religion, or for that matter choice of no religion, all provided for us in the first amendment to that all important document called the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. It was upon the basis of some of these principles that this nation was founded and upon some of its same fundamental principles that it remains preserved. However, it is most pathetic to think about the abuse in the exercise thereof. Whether done deliberately or tatally innocently the result is just as harmful and therefore warrants that some thought be given to drawing some lines somewhere.

One's freedom ends where anothers welfare begins, and to me that means that no-one's freedom is absolute. One has a right to his own beliefs, be they religious, political or otherwise but there is a moral issue involved when these beliefs are imposed upon others who are easy prey due to sickness and ignorance, because this certainly does not insure domestic tranquility; it does not promote the gereral welfare, nor does it secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves, nor our posterity.

Public Invited To Attend District-wide E.S.A.A. Advisory Committee Meeting:

Dr. Dan A. Davis, Superintendent of Highlands County Schools, has announced that the regular monthly meeting of the Districtwide Emergency School Aid Act (E.S.A.A.) Advisory Committee shall be open to the public in accordance with federal regulations.

The next meeting will include a visit to the E.S.A.A. funded Time Out Rooms at the Lake Placid Middle and Lake Placid High Schools. The meetings at each of the schools will begin at 1:30 p.m., on Monday, December 11, 1978 and will be held in the Time Out Rooms or in some other room designated by the Principal.

After visiting the programs at the two schools, the committees and other persons present will have a short meeting beginning at 2:15 p.m. in the conference room at Lake Placid High School.

Interested persons are encouraged to attend.

High School Students Named to ESAA Student Advisory Committee:

Dr. Dan A. Davis, Superintendent of Highlands County Schools has announced the selection of the following Avon Park High School students who will serve on the Emergency School Aid Act (ESAA) student advisory committee for the remainder of the 1978-79 school year: Katrina Conner, Cathy Barbaree, Eugene Cox, Vesta Hall, Charlton Weathers and Harry Maness.

The committee can be viewed as having a twofold purpose:

1. to serve as an advisor to school district officials on the implementation of the ESAA project; and (2) to develop activities in the school that will enable the committee to fulfill their advisory responsibilities effectively.

Federal funds from the ESAA Project make the following programs or activities possible during the 1978-79 school year: Time Out Rooms in Middle and High Schools; Home Visitation Program in all schools; Training Program for teachers, aides and secondary students.

Two of the members above will also serve on the District-wide ESSA Advisory Committee and meet with the committee each month during the 1978-79 school year.

Hospitalized at Press Time:

Best Wishes to Liz Green.

CARE Sets Goal For Food Crusade At $6.5 Million

"As CARE launches its twenty-fifth annual Food Crusade this holiday season, our goal is $6,500,000 to help provide nourishing food during the year to 25 million impoverished people, mostly children, throughout the developing world," announced Frank L. Goffio, Executive Director of the international aid and development agency.

"For more than 30 years, CARE has put the needs of children in the forefront of its programming. We are particularly pleased, then, that the United Nations has designated 1979 the International Year of the Child when worldwide efforts will be directed toward improving the quality of life for children and their families everywhere, particularly those in dire need. By helping to free children from a disease-prone, marginal existence, CARE feeding programs — and related development projects — provide a lifeline for millions today and give them a chance for a better life tomorrow," Mr. Goffio said.

During the International Year of the Child and thereafter CARE expects to help more children than ever before through feeding and other programs designed to build self support for poor families in more than 35 developing nations in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East.

"As nutritious food improves people's health," Mr. Goffio explained, "we also teach them how to expand their agricultural production, develop income-generating projects and improve their communities. MEDICO, the medical arm of CARE, trains nationals in a number of the developing countries where the need for better health care is urgent."

He pointed out that CARE provided at least $9.93 in aid and supporting services for each dollar donated last year. Combining U.S. Food-for-Peace commodities, host government contributions and donations of labor, land and available materials from the people being helped made this possible.

CARE food is distributed to millions of children, pregnant women and nursing mothers at mother-child health centers, schools, orphanages, day care centers, hospitals and nutrition centers. Parents, teachers and home economists receive nutrition education and they, in turn, teach others. CARE also provides food for families of workers who help construct irrigation systems, wells, tree nurseries, schools, nutrition centers, sanitary facilities and roads.

Besides the regular feeding programs in 20 countries, as needs arise and resources permit, CARE supplies food to any of the developing countries where the agency operates. This includes emergency food to disaster victims. CARE has regularly scheduled food programs in Bangladesh, Bolivia, Chad, Chile, Columbia Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Egypt, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, India, Jordan's East Bank, Panama, Philippines, Sri Lanka, Tunisia, and in Gaza and Jordan's West Bank where the program is administered by CARE-Israel.

Contributions may be sent to CARE Food Crusade, 145 Maderia Avenue, Room 310, Coral Gables, Florida 33134.

A few of the 40 Walker Memorial Seventh-Day Adventist Pathfinders and food they collected for a Treat rather than a Trick" to make up 19 Thanksgiving baskets and more Christmas baskets yet to be delivered.

The young people added fresh baked goods and fruits and vegetables to the baskets. Mr. David Reams, director, reports that the club is very enthusiastic about helping to be thankful and happy.

Decision To Promote Citrus In Europe Delayed

A decision on the status of the Three Party Program conducted by the Florida Department of Citrus for the promotion of Florida citrus in western Europe will be delayed until at least next May.

At the suggestion of Chairman W.R. Hancock, the Florida Citrus Commission voted Tuesday (November 21) to postpone any decision regarding continuation or modification of the program until reports could be heard from a committee to be appointed in January. The special committee will consider information to be developed by the Department of Citrus staff and report to the Commission in May.

In medieval times, a European count pledged his beard to a banker as a guarantee of repayment of a loan.

A public hearing on the status of the Three Party Program was conducted by the Commission on November 9, at which time testimony was heard from citrus industry representatives on the effectiveness of the promotional program. At the conclusion of the hearing, Commissioners voted to delay further discussion and action on the matter until the regular November meeting of the body.

The Three Party Program involves the Department of Citrus, the Foreign Agricultural Service of the United States Department of Agriculture and European distributors in funding programs to promote Florida citrus.

A Christmas Keepsake

The Little Gallery by Hallmark continues a tradition with its second Limited Edition Commemorative Pewter Plate for Christmas, 1978. Inspired by the lovely legend of the Little Drummer Boy, this fine pewter plate portrays in exquisite detail the ragged boy who played his drum for the Christ Child on that first Christmas Day. A treasured keepsake this Christmas, and for many Christmases to come.

THE DIAMOND:
NOT JUST ANYBODY CAN CUT IT.

The cut of a diamond is enormously important. Every stone is unique — no two alike. So each must be cut by a diamond cutter who knows how to make the most of the characteristics of each stone. To make the highlights shine. To make the shape itself pleasing. In short, to satisfy our very exacting requirements.

For when we show you a diamond, we are showing you our entire history, our reputation for expertise, our good name as a Jeweler of standing.

Come see our magnificent diamonds, diamond solitaires, and other diamond jewelry. Something Beautiful for Everyone.®
