WORLD'S FAIR OFFICIAL WARNS ON ADVERTISING

Says Be Wary of Solicitors Soliciting Space In Descripture Books

DeLand, May 25. — (Special) — The Florida public is warned to be wary of solicitors for advertising space in books descriptive of Florida and its resources, with the understanding that they will be distributed from the Florida building at the Century of Progress exposition in Chicago next year.

Earl W. Brown, manager of the Florida exhibit, has been asked by many who say they have been solicited to take space in books, booklets, pamphlets and other forms of advertising matter the promoters of which allege they have secured the right to distribute them free from the Florida building in the Court of States in next year's exposition in Chicago, just what distribution may be expected.

His answer, in every case, has been that there will no opportunity whatever for the distribution of any books, booklets or phamphlets, except those prepared under the direction of the Florida commission and those will be devoted absolutely exclusively to descriptions of the resources of the state.

"Positively no advertising matter of any kind of a private or even of a community nature, except as the latter may be included in the Florida commission's publication, will be distributed from the Florida building or from any other Florida exhibit on the exposition grounds," said Mr. Brown, and in this he is backed up by a telegram from Senator W. C. Hodges, chairman of the Florida Commission.

"We have been advised that solicitors already are in the field pretending that they have been given the right to distribute their proposed books, booklets or pamphlets from the Florida concessions on the exposition grounds. We have been told that some of those solicitors are asking as high as $300 a page for advertising space in their proposed publications. We hope that the people of Florida will be warned against spending their advertising money with the hope or belief that the advertising will be given free distribution from the Florida building or other Florida exhibits at Chicago. There will be no such distribution," Mr. Brown added.

If one traveled northward from Palm Beach and stopped on the latitude of Jacksonville, he would be in the Atlantic Ocean, about sixty miles east of the city.

PREDICTS HARDEE LEAD IN PRIMARY

Taxpayers Confused By All Candidates Preaching Economy

By D. D. WHITEHURST,
Former Political Writer, New York Evening Post.

Pensacola, May 25.—In the final analysis of any state wide political election too many writers and too many political observers become confused when they allow privileges made in the heat of a campaign to mix with the issues of the day.

The State of Florida is not unlike the individuals which go to make it a great commonwealth. As the masses think, so will the state go. It is unreasonable to think that a man who has just had his salary reduced, is immediately going to entertain thoughts of extravagance. Retrenchment is the first remedy suggested by the mentality of man in days of financial adversity.

Therefore, it is not amiss to think that the State of Florida is in a very receptive mood for a more conservative administration of state affairs. A man who is recovering from over-indulgence in strong drink becomes ill at the odor of liquor. Similarly, Florida today might be said to be reeling and staggering after the effect of financial intemperance induced by the Martin administration. Like a man suffering from a "hangover", the voters of the state are uneasy when anything that smells of extravagance is paraded before them.

It is unnecessary to assume that all the candidates in the gubernatorial field are smart men, cultured in the ways of politics and versed in the mental reactions of the voters. Not a man in the field is unaware of the grave dangers that lie in any plan which might incur the expenditure of vast sums of state money. With them all following the lead of Cary A. Hardee in preaching economy, there is little wonder that the average taxpayer is confused.

Assuming that every candidate is sincere and that there is but slight material difference in what they promise, or their ability to interest the public, there is but one way by which the voters can reach a sane and sensible conclusion. Such a comparison can only be reached by a course of elimination through comparison of records. Such a course simply causes [illegible] state as a whole to answer the [illegible] tates of the individual.

The records of history show [illegible] out a single exception that in time of financial distress, a state or a nation will turn instinctively to a conservative leader with a proven record.

Despite the fact that some candidates, weak in records and lacking in political sense, have attempted to inject unimportant cross currents into the campaign, there remains but two issues upon which the voters will pass solemn judgment — economy and experience.

Basing an unbiased conclusion upon pre-election reports, it is safe to assume that Cary A. Hardee will lead John W. Martin in the first primary and that these two former governors will be paired in the run-off. Surveyed from any possible angle there can be no challenge to the fact that Hardee is in a more favored position than Martin. He could not have entered the field at a more timely period when the voters are clamoring for taxation relief by the practice of economy. Hardee as a past governor established a record for just what the voters want today.

Accepting the belief held by a majority that Martin is an equal to Hardee in political manipulations, it must be likewise confirmed that if the present situation is favorable to Hardee because of financial distress that by using the same measure of reason such circumstances would likewise handicap Martin.

Martin established himself in the state as a spending executive. Fortunately he was in power at a time when he could spend and the voters were giving little attention to the aftermath of a squandering administration. Hardee was an economist, elected to high office by dint of his own political strategy at a time when the state wanted and got sound building for the future. If he were elected by the people of Florida now, he would fit splendidly into the scheme of present day events. If, by any chance Martin were elected, he would have to follow entirely different methods than he used before or else stand a chance of being a particularly unpopular governor.

The record of Hardee, unimpeachable as a master in economy, untouched by the finger of scorn, unmentioned by the whispering galleries of scandal, modestly challenges his opponents to find anything by which they can base an attack against him. His record as an individual stands shoulder to shoulder with his record as governor.

There is nothing by which a man can be judged more accurately than by his record. In that matter, Hardee has a record more pleasing to popular opinion than Martin or any of the lesser lights in the campaign.

Navaez built the first vessels ever constructed by white man on the American continent. This was in the late summer of 1528 at the head of Apalachicola Bay, and the vessels were chaulked with palmetto fibre. The sails were made from the shirts of the men of his expedition.

CLEARING HOUSE WILL DO MORE ADVERTISING

Plan Campaign For Next Season To Boost Grapefruit Prices

Winter Haven, May 25.—(Special)—Encouraged by the success of the recent grapefruit advertising campaign, which is estimated to have boosted by more than $1,000,000 the net return to Florida growers, shipper members of the Florida Citrus Growers' Clearing House Association have launched a move to inaugurate an industrial advertising campaign for next season's citrus crop, it has just been announced by Manager A. M. Pratt of the Clearing House. The action by the shippers was taken at the group's annual meeting held in Winter Haven early last week and attended by some 40 marketing [illegible] representatives.

[illegible] question of advertising [illegible] fruit was the principal business before the [illegible] table attention was [illegible] other industry and organizations. Take[illegible] problems. As provided [illegible] ue charter and by-laws of the Clearing House, nominations were made by the shippers for the members of the Clearing House Operating Committee which will serve next season. These nominations are to be passed upon by the new Board of Directors, which assumes office June 1.

This move to increase consumer demand for Florida citrus fruit through a nation-wide advertising campaign, as outlined by the Clearing House shippers, is predicated upon the financing of a program by the growers of the state, it was brought out. Called upon individually for their views, several of the shippers spoke enthusiastically of the plan, pointing out that it is the duty of each to help arouse the growers generally to the necessity for an industrial advertising effort. An effective advertising campaign is imperative, it was declared, not only to increase distribution of Florida citrus fruit but also to meet and offset rapidly-growing competition from Texas and the competition afforded by other fruits and fruit juices which "literally are being poured down the throat of America."

Although not regarded as a panacea for all marketing ills, advertising, it was brought out, showed its true worth this spring when an emergency grapefruit advertising campaign costing $40,000 resulted in raising the price of grapefruit fully 50c per box. In that [illegible] 2,000,000 or more boxes of grapefruit was moved from that time on, the increased net return of more than $1,000,000 is obvious proof, it was declared, that the expenditure had been a worthwhile investment.

A resolution passed by the shippers, pointed out the need for an advertising campaign and expressed the willingness of the Clearing House shippers to give it their support. The resolution reads as follows:

"WHEREAS, the Clearing House was organized to further the best interests of the Florida Citrus Industry, and

"WHEREAS, the need of advertising to widen the market for oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines has become increasingly evident, and

"WHEREAS, recent comprehensive surveys in the territory consuming 98 percent of Florida's citrus fruit show conclusively that "Florida" is but little known than any other name or brand of citrus fruits, and

"WHEREAS, these surveys and the experiences of Florida shippers indicate the rapid increase of competitive supplies of Texas grapefruit in many territories heretofore supplied by Florida, and

"WHEREAS, it has been reported on good authority that Texas shippers will compete with Florida in New York and other Atlantic Seaboard cities next season through low rate boat shipments, and

"WHEREAS, we recognize that competition with Texas and California is best to be met by widening the market for all grapefruit and oranges by causing more people to eat them, which will also re-act to the direct advantage of Florida citrus growers, and

"WHEREAS, advertising will help meet the competition of other fruits and juices, and

"WHEREAS, the shipper-members of the Clearing House, most of whom are large growers, recognize the part advertising can play in securing larger returns for all growers of Florida citrus fruit by increasing the consumer demand and are willing to pay a special advertising retain on the fruit they produce in order to secure statewide co-operation in this important undertaking, THEREFORE,

"BE IT RESOLVED, that the shipper-members of the Florida Citrus Growers' Clearing House Association do hereby agree to give their unanimous support to a program of advertising of Florida oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines under the "Florida" name, provided grower-members of the Clearing House and other growers will give their support to the program, and

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the shipper-members recommend a per box retain for the sole purpose of advertising and other market extension activities, and

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Florida Citrus Exchange and its grower-members and other shippers and growers of Florida citrus fruit be invited to join in this activity, which seeks to secure better returns for Florida citrus growers and an equitable income from their investment, and

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all who participate in this program agree to a standardization of grade and pack so that all fruit moved under the "Florida" name be of such uniformity as to prove acceptable to consumers, and

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be submitted to the Exchange, to other shippers, and to the press of the State of Florida so that all growers and all business interests of the state may be acquainted with this effort that [illegible] made to bring about a [illegible] prosperity to Florida [illegible] building up its greatest [illegible]

The postoffice building at St. Augustine was constructed in 1598 as a mansion for the Spanish governor of Florida. It had been standing nearly ten years when Jamestown, Virginia, was founded; it was sixteen years old when the Dutch built the first fort on Manhattan Island, and more than twenty years old when the Pilgrim Fathers set foot upon Plymouth Rock. Elizabeth then was Queen of England and Shakespeare was at the height of his career.

The St. Johns River has had four names. The Indians called it the Welaeca, meaning chain of lakes connected together, the French named it the River Mai when they discovered it, the Spaniards names it the Rio San Mateo, in honor of St. Matthew, and changed it to the name Rio San Juan in honor of St. John. It is the English translation of the final Spanish name that denotes this stream today.

PLACID GRADUATION EXERCISES LAST EVE

Dr. Enwall of Florida University Addresses Senior Class

Lake Placid, May 26—(Special)—The annual comencement for the Lake Placid schools was held in the auditorium on Wednesday evening, in charge of Professor J. S. Rice, supervising principal, and the graduating class. The stage was beautifully decorated with ferns, easter lillies and white roses and trimmed in the class colors of blue and white, with the numerals, 1932 and the inscription "Not Sunset but Dawn."

At the conclusion of the opening march, played by Mrs. C. H. Rhyne, Rev. G. H. York, pastor of the Methodist church offered the invocation. Professor Rice then introduced Miss Virginia Bowers, class Salutatorian who in a well chosen address welcomed those present and gave a short history of the class during the past four years. Miss Loyce Hancock expressed the appreciation of the class to the members of the faculty and local and county board of trustees for making it possible for them to reach this happy and pleasant period in life.

Next on the program was the presentation of several musical numbers by the school band under theh capable leadership of Prof. P. J. Gustat, director of school bands in Highlands county. The numbers presented were: "A Hunting Scene" which was a musical description of a hunt in progress in times of old and the encore was "Laughing Rondo" by Lewis.

Col. F. N. K. Bailey introduced Dr. E. O. Enwall of the University of Florida as the speaker of the evening who gave a forceful and helpful address on the subject of "Ideals" based on a story laid in Denmark and Jutland.

The story, said Dr. Enwall, represents life today, how Denmark and Jutland had been made beautiful by man's hands, turning the swamps and marshes into cultivated fields where beautiful homes and gardens appeared. The human mind is just like the soil said the doctor, it needs to be cleaned of the rubbish before advancement in civilization can be made. As the hero in the story represents and stands for courage, high ideals, aspirations and thoughts in life, so must the young people of today who are going out from our school possess these characteristics if they are to become leaders of a better and happier civilization. The roots of prejudice in the souls of men must be grubbed out, there must be a feeling of love towards all mankind before we can make a better and a happier civilization. The doctor stated the high school is only preparing the mind for sowing seeds of kindness and gentleness in the world. Three kinds of seeds that should be sown in one's life are, ideals of achievement, ideals of service to oneself and to his fellow man and country, and ideals of character. Dr. Enwall closed his address by speaking directly to members of the graduating class, requesting them to go forward in life prepared to give of their best to make this world a better place in which to live, and closing with a poem, "Be Strong".

B. F. Williams presented certificates of promotion to pupils who have finished the work in the sixth grade which entitles them to be promoted to Junior High school: Dorothy Sims, Edward Kelley, James Trammell, James Andrews, Addie Mae Sessions, Joe Kelley, Lucius Henderson, Eline Eide, Marion Eide, Edwin Kelley, Grace Parrish, Grady Parrish and Dave Whitmore.

Professor T. M. Johns presented the Bailey medals to Loyce Hancock and Emmett Bates.

Before the presentation of diplomas to the graduating class, Profesor Rice, who is retiring from the school with the close of this term spoke briefly, expressing his appreciation for the co-operation he has received from the faculty, school boards and pupils during his four years as head of the school. He presented Profesor Mitchell Ferguson, who will have charge of the school next year. Col. F. N. K. Bailey then presented the diplomas of graduation to Emmett Bates, Misses Hazel Sessions, Loyce Hancock and Virginia Bowers.

RURAL COMMON SENSE

By Spuds Johnson

LAWN IN FRONT YARD ADDS ATTRACTIVENESS TO HOME IN FLORIDA

A lawn is a mighty fine thing to have around the house, either in the country or in the city. Time was when the rural housewife did not think she had an attractive front yard unless the main part of it was kept bare of vegetation, except for a few shrubs and flower plants, and swept religiously once a week. However, the back breaking work of wielding the old "brush broom" is giving way to the task of mowing the lawn.

A green lawn adds a great deal to the attractiveness of a place, and it is possible to have a green lawn all year in Florida. St. Augustine and centipede are the best lawn grasses, the former being subject to attacks by cinch bugs and the latter being subject to occasional browning down by cold weather in the winter. Italian rye grass sowed right on top of the regular lawn grass will provide a green grass for the winter, and it will die down when hot weather comes on.

Spring is the time of year when the lawn needs a little special attention. If it contains Italian rye This prevents the lawn from having an unkempt appearance and the permanent grasses from being injured. The clippings should be left on the lawn.

Also now is a good time to fertilize the lawn, and topdress it with a little soil. Two or three pounds of a potash and four or five pounds of a phosphate fertilizer should be applied to each 1,000 square feet of lawn about once a year. Now is a good time to do that. Then the lawn should receive an application of two or three pounds of sulphate of ammonia or nitrate of soda about once a month. It should be watered regularly.

If these things are done and the lawn is kept watered, it should soon be growing and attractive.

The Experiment[illegible]ation at Gainesville has issued a bulletin (209) on lawns which tells how to start them as well as how to keep them going. It is good, and can be obtained free.

NUMEROUS ARRESTS MADE OVER WEEK-END

Majority For Violation of the Prohibition Laws; Calhoun Raided

Sebring, May 26.—(Special)—Lucius Hogan, colored, was arrested in the quarters here Friday and placed in the county jail charged with the possession of liquor. He was later released under bond. The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff W. R. England and Sebring police officers who state the defendant poured the liquor into a soapy dishpan in which dishes were being washed. They salvaged four bottles filled with the soapy mixture which will be analized to determine its contents.

W. H. Calhoun was arrested Monday morning by police officers and placed in jail charged with the possession of liquor. He was later released under $500 bond signed by J. W. Hawkins and C. H. Stevens. Armed with a search warrant the officers raided the Calhoun home on Lake Jackson and obtained a small quantity of liquor and state that more was poured out when they drove up to the house.

Nick Mitchell is also another resident of the county jail, being placed there by Chief of Police R. C. Stivender on a charge of possession of liquor and homebrew. He was arrested on May 16.

E. W. Burr was arrested at Venus Saturday by Deputy Sheriff W. C. Mathis and lodged in the county jail. Mathis charged he found about 500 bottles of home brew in Burr's possession.

Sebring police officers with a search warrant raided the home of Ben Robinson of Orange street Monday but failed to find any liquor although they state they found evidence some had been there. Robinson, who had failed to make bond on a charge of being drunk, was returned to the county jail on this former charge.

E. Von Haymann and C. Heman are in jail on breaking and entering charges. Sam Henderson is out on bond under similar charges. Heman and Henderson are charged with being accessories to the act. The specific charge concerns the theft of automobile tires from a garage at Avon Park last week. The trio were arrested at Sebring by Police Chief Stivender who alleges he found the stolen tires on Von Haymann's automobile.

DeSoto City Schools Closing Exercises

James Strong, a school superintendent, Herbert Peyer.

Miss Henerybury, a superannuated school ma'am, Delia Boney.

Miss Dickerson, an office girl, Gladys Turner.

Miss Doris Eldridge, a young teacher, Mildred Heron.

The play was in four scenes. In between the scenes the members of the other classes rendered a short program which consisted of songs and poems.

FIREMEN MAKE IT FOUR STRAIGHT WINS

Locals Give Game To Sebring Sunday, Following Costly Errors

Costly errors accounted for Sebring's 8-6 win over Avon Park at Cardinal field Sunday.

The Firemen took advantage of two errors in the first inning and counted for three tallies to take an early lead. Avon Park tied things up in the third and added two more in the sixth which looked good for the game, but errors in the seventh allowed five more runs to cross the platter, which was too much to overcome.

Highlands County Girl Winner With Essay On Washington

Highlands county is represented in the list of winners of the George Washington essay contest recently conducted by the Atlanta, Georgia "Sunday American". Mildred Ruth Hearon of the DeSoto City school has been awarded a diploma, according to the list of winners just released by the Atlanta publication. David Odom, 16 year old high school student of Newland, N. C. was the winner of the William Randoph Hearst gold trophy and a cash award of $100. His essay on "Washington's Farewell and the Lessons to be Learned From it" was the best of more than 100,000 written in seven Southern states.

The Sunday American and 16 other great Sunday newspapers were chosen by Mr. Hearst to conduct contests on Washington's Farewell Address, so every young person in the United States might be given an incentive for studying and writing his observations on the memorable last message of the first President. The competition conducted by The Sunday American and similar contests held in other parts of the United States by other Hearst newspapers were acclaimed as an outstanding feature of the nation-wide observance of the bi-centennial of the birth of George Washington.

For Pretty Mums, Rearrange Beds In May or Early June

Chrysanthemums should be divided and rearranged in the beds in May or early June, according to John V. Watkins, in charge of the flower garden at the Florida College of Agriculture.

He suggested that the bed or border for Chrysanthemums be well drained, as fertile as possible, and have access to the sun at least half the day. If the soil is very light and low in humus, it is essential that some material like peat moss, cow manure or rotted leaves be incorporated into the beds in good quantities.

The plants may be set anywhere from 12 by 12 to 12 by 24 inches apart, depending on the variety and desired effect. The closer planting is desirable in a narrow bed where weeding can be done by hand from either side, whereas the wider rows will facilitate cultivation.

Abundant water is necessary to growth and to high-colored bloom. When the plants are eight to 10 inches in height they should be carefully staked and tied. He recommended square stakes and the tying of the runners every four or five inches to prevent the wind from whipping and twisting them about.

Side-dressings of a complete fertilizer should be applied from time to time to keep the plants in a growing condition. Many growers use a muslin shade to shade the buds when they begin to show color. If leaf spot begins to defoliate the plants, a spray with bordeaux mixture or ammoniacal copper carbonate should check it. Spraying with tobacco extracts will check lice, or aphids.

Ilmanite, zircon, rutile and several other rare minerals, are found in the beach sands below Jacksonville Beach. Ilmanite and zircon are the only ones which so far have been recovered in commercial quantities.

To control stem-end rot in watermelons treat the stems with Bordeaux paste when the melons are being loaded, the Florida Experiment Station recommends.

LORA LEE GETS LAKELAND EDITOR TOLD

In a recent editorial expression, the Lakeland Evening Leader set forth the opinion that Mr. Lee should not have employed any members of his family in the last legislature. The Lakeland paper has had numerous references to this, and just this week, Miss Lora Lee, daughter of Col. J. M. Lee of this city, candidate for comptroller, had her snappy reply published by the Ledger. The reply is republished, not for the sake of argument, nor for any bearing it may have on the campaign, but for the interest that it may have to readers of the Times. Here it goes!

To the Editor:

I see by your esteemed editorial page that my father, J. M. Lee, should have taken me aside and firmly instructed me to stay away from Tallahassee and not try to get a job even if I were "man enough" to get it "on my own" by competitive examination.

Since I am free, white and 21, by what right am I to presume my father, or you or any other man can tell me what I shall do?

Listen, Big Boy, my "spanking" days are over!

What right have you or any other man to tell me, an ambitious American girl, desiring a college education, shall not seek honest work wherever it may be on her merit.

I needed $600.00 to pay my way through the state college this term, and I got it. Part during the legislature and part working elsewhere. If that's a crime go tell the cops.

Shall I be penalized because my father is patriotic enough to serve his state for $6 per day—which won't pay his hotel bill—while Mr. Ernest Amos is drawing $500 per month and other members of his family draw $325.00 to $450.00 per month additional by his own personal appointment. Why don't you say something about that? You say you want to be fair. Let's hear you be fair.

My dad tells you he won't hire his family. Mr. Amos hasn't promised that yet — or you haven't printed anything about it, and if he had you'd probably run headlines about it. Boy! but that sure would be news.

My dad never has hired his family to work for the state. And Mr. Amos put his whole family on the payroll.

Since you brought my name into this, you can print what I have to say on your editorial page—and give your readers some snappy literature from the younger generation.

And once and for all, before you men decide to tell American girls where they can make their living you'd better find out if that's your right—or our right.

Very truly yours,
LORA LEE

P. S. I'm keeping this under 300 words, so you can't refuse to print it. L. L.

Tallahassee.

We had two scouts attending who were Herbert Reck and Jean Chance and Mr. Reck and another visitor. The cubs attending were: Ryland Reck, Neal Trent, Marvin Reddick, Donald Todd, and Jim Heim.

WAUCHULA GAME PROTEST IS UPHELD BY LEAGUE PREXY

Sunday's Game Lost Here 10 to 4, But Ump's Decision Proves Faulty

President Freeman of the League ruled that Avon Park's protest of last Sunday's game with Wauchula and which went to the visiters by the one-sided score of 10 to 4, was sustained. The game was protested by the Metros when D. Martin was called out by Umpire Eades for batting out of turn. At the time he was called out only one ball had been thrown to him and before his time at bat was completed, Armistead had noticed the error and McFerrin stepped to the plate and took his rightful place.

The game will be played here on Tuesday June 14.

Old Jupiter Pluvius spoiled all games in the Orange Belt League this week by sending a downpour on the three diamonds where play was scheduled.

As a result, Avon Park has another ball game to play with the Wauchula nine sometime in the future, which will probably give the fans a "break" in the form of a double header or "bargain day."

When it was seen that yesterday's game would be rained out, a group of local players made the trip to Bowling Green to see the Lake Placid game. The contest had gotten underway and went one full inning before "falling weather" caused its cancellation. In the first inning Lake Placid scored two runs while the Growers got to Lefty Mackey for one score in their half of the same frame.

Largest Political Picnic of Campaign Held Here Thursday

The largest crowd of voters to attend any of the campaign picnics gathered on Lake Letta Thursday afternoon for the immense fish fry and speaking. There was plenty of fish, bread, pickles and coffee to feed the crowd of about 1500, and some to spare. The speaking was interrupted shortly after it got under way with intermittent showers and was finally drowned out entirely by a downpour.

Manley Construction Head Here Next Week

J. D. Manley, president of the Manley Construction company of Ocala, will arrive here about the middle of next week and begin to get material and machinery on the ground for starting work on rebuilding the Avon Park-Sebring portion of road 8. In a phone conversation yesterday with County Commissioner John Hood, he stated that he would lose no time in getting under way with the work and confirmed his former promise to use all local labor on the job.

Looking the Entries Over

(By W. M. Hetherington)

While the candidates were hurrying hither and yon during the past week, engaged in the great national pastime conducted about this time every four years of "Thimble, Thimble, Who's got the Thimble," the writer of these lines was taking it easy, without end, a four day dose of flu put me on my back, and after the worst was over, and all of the wall decorations had been placed first in squares and then in diamonds and back into squares again, and counted straight up and down and then back and forth until the possibilities of the game were completely exhausted, then did it occur to me to turn over in my mind this and that about the candidates and just what chance each had of crossing the finish line next Tuesday.

Quite naturally, these opinions are my personal ones---The Avon Park Times, the Schaefer-Broking Printing Company (which is the one you sue in this case), my favorite barber, the Sons of David, nor the House of Lords had any part in arriving at these conclusions. If you do not like my pickings, go and bet your money where your heart is. But for heaven's sake don't go calling on me to cut your name off the list just because you don't like my form sheet. This thing is only a good hoss race, anyhow.

For the senate, we have a couple of two-year-olds---more than likely fifty-two-year-olds--Henry Murphy and Doc Etheredge. Henry from Zolfo Springs in Hardee county and Doc from DeSoto City in the home bailiwick. Murphy says he's no politician, and Etheredge says he's not if this is still on paper y'understand. The real thing will be a RACE, unless all signs fail.

The best-dressed county judge in the United States will continue to preside over the destinies of our county court. Not only well-dressed but well-informed and level headed with a record that pleases the people of the county. It is their will. He has no opposition, which speaks volumes.

We gotta good sheriff now---but we can't keep him. Oscar Wolf won't repeat, so it behooves us to go out and get another. Oscar says that regardless of the drop in the bacon and bean market, he intends to cut his budget down to the point where it won't mean a mortgage on the family jewels every time he wants to get a week's supply of victuals. Compatriots willing to take a chance are Ed DeLaney, Doyle Schumacher, W. B. Crawford and Bill England. Looking at the race from this side of the fence, that is about how they will stand on the night of June 7. DeLaney has been conceded first place from the start. Schumacher gained ground until two weeks ago, when Crawford began his active campaign and has steadily been cutting down Schumacher's support. Bill England----as good a man as ever handled the inside workings of a sheriff's office, has made little headway with his campaign based on a business administration. Some peculiar shenanigans have taken place in this race. The withdrawal of Hancock, then Helms, changed the complexion of things from all angles. But with everything about settled down, it looks like DeLaney and Schumacher will make the first primary. However, with his recent show of strength, Crawford may be in there with one of the other two. Now you make a guess.

Luther Farmer for clerk is the official nominee of the Democratic party have automatically assumed that role when his opponent failed to file his expense account. The opponent, W. Z. Carson has announced that he will be an independent-Democratic candidate against Farmer in the general election. More anon.

Ruth Bass Hylton, D. F. Canfield and J. Lee Johnson are battling for the collector's office. And again they are named just like I think they will cross the line. Ruth Hylton, the first woman to offer for office in the county is away out in front, according to all opinions of the best-informed observers over the county. Canfield is considered behind, and J. Lee Johnson is still farther in the rear. There are a number of interesting stories connected with this race, but all three of the candidates are saving them up for their scrap books. It looks like Ruth and "D" will run it off in which case this Hylton gal will be the first woman tax collector the county has ever had.

There is a current expression, especially among our modern writers of slangy fiction that to extract money is merely "to put the bee on them." We have a gentleman from Sebring offering for the office of tax assessor who would not sting anybody, but how he would like to relieve the present assessor of all his troubles! Mr. Bee has made an intensive and thorough campaign of the county, but from what we can learn he has failed to impress the voters of the necessity of putting Cyril Baldwin out and putting himself in.

Mr. Bee is undoubtedly a capable businessman. He is a charming gentleman and bears a splendid reputation. But---and here is the crux of this tax assessment business---Mr. Baldwin knows his business from stem to stern and takes care of it in such a manner that there can be no honest criticism concerning it. Besides, he has more personal friends than there are catfish in Istokpoga. Our guess is that Baldwin will carry the county by around two to one, which in matters of this kind is considered a comfortable margin.

Col. Bailey, presenting a record that is the envy of every small county in the state, is asking for re-election. Not only small counties but many of the larger counties cannot equal the fact that this county has kept its schools open without tuition. Col. Bailey does not claim all the credit, but he helped. When the taxpayers furnished the money, he spread it out to the best advantage. When they didn't, he managed. And there is a lot of meaning in that word "managed." Prof. Ellenberger, a polished gentleman of the old school, and a school man of experience is opposing him. There seems just this to be said, insofar as the local situation is concerned. The present county administration, headed by Col. Bailey and the local school system headed by Prof. Fairey are working in utmost harmony. I consider Mr. Fairey a most competent and satisfactory school principal. I believe that the people of Avon Park generally feel the same way about it. Hence the question: Can any good come of a change that might upset the harmony of our local school situation that has worked out so satisfactorily the past several years and gives promise of continuing on this harmonious basis?.

John Hood is asking for re-election as county commissioner from district 1, is opposed by M. H. Grice formerly employed by Hood on county work. Undoubtedly a deserving young man with an ambition to get somewhere. Grice is unfortunate in making a bid against the incumbent at this time. John Hood has served one term on the board, and has made such a notable job of it that he should have no opposition for a second term. I cannot help but feel that Grice has been misled by a group of self-seeking politicians desperately attempting to get a foothold in county politics, and except for this "encouragement" would not be in the race. Certainly there is no other source of "demand". It is regrettable that Mr. Grice should have been lead into it. So far as this race is concerned, we would say John to be "hors concours." In good French that means: Outside the contest; outclassing all competitors; unbeatable; and in Highlands county lingo, the next county commissioner.

So, as far as we care to go along the list, there you have it. We would like to see all of them elected. It costs a lot of money to lose, and besides it takes the starch out of a fellow. What we have written are our pre-election predictions. Take 'em or leave 'em, or write your own ticket. Your guess is as good as ours—we'll keep mum. We make a habit of it every four years.

The big county races out of the way, we predict that Franklin D. Roosevelt will be Florida's choice--the convention's choice and the nation's choice for President.

Ruth Bryan Owen will mop up with her East coast opponent.

Congressman Drane will still be Congressman Drane, while Dr. Lowry returns to his insurance business and Hardin Peterson returns to the study of "How to Become a Congressman." Four more years of intensive reading on the subject may bring forth an M. C. behind Old Pete's name.

And as for the easiest of pickings, look at Cary A. Hardee for example as your next governor. Was anything ever so simple. This state stuff is a cinch.

Our own J. M. Lee will go into the second primary with Ernest Amos, and if he can continue to arouse the enthusiastic response that he has received in the past sixty days, he will give Amos the go-by on the second count.

Congressman Lex Green and Senator Fletcher have no opposition, so to make everything all even, we move the nominations close.

Two Residents of Palmdale Found Dead Monday and Tuesday

Charles Chevenall, about 65, was found dead in a chicken house adjoining his home at Palmdale about 6 p.m. Monday and circumstances appeared to point to suicide it was stated.

A. J. Sanford, also about 65, was found dead Tuesday morning at his home in Palmdale and a coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes, probably heart failure. It is said he had suffered from acute indigestion and this is thought to have been the immediate cause of death.

These men had married sisters and when Mr. Chevenall was found Mrs. Sanford stayed the night with her sister, the widow. Mr. Sanford returned to his home saying he would make arrangements for the funeral and see them in the morning. When he failed to appear, search was made and he was found lying on the floor of his home.

Both bodies were brought to the parlors of Stephenson and Blythe here on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Chevenall was buried at Ortona on Wednesday afternoon and the remains of Mr. Sanford were shipped to Palatine, Ill. for interment.

Each of the deceased is survived by a widow and several children.

Road Department To Help Prevent Forest Fires

H. H. Wells, chairman of the State Road Department, has pledged his support in the prevention and suppression of forest fires.

In a letter which Mr. Wells recently circulated among the employees of the State Road Department, he requested their support in the prevention of fires by:

"Never setting fires in grass, brush, swamp or woods, on or near a state highway, except for useful purposes, and in all such cases take precautions against the spread of the fires to adjoining projerty.

"Controlling all fires that may occur on a state right-of-way, regardless of who may be responsible.

"Reporting fires to the Rangers, District Forester, and other members of the Florida Forest Service.

"Lending your moral support in the prevention of woods fires and in enforcement of the fire law.

Mr. Wells stated further in his letter that "Disciplinary action will be taken in any case where an employe of this department sets fire on a state highway and allows it to spread to adjoining property or in any case where fires set for clearing purposes are not secured before the responsible party leaves."

Harry Lee Baker, state forester, says that the maintenance crews of the State Road Department will be excellent example by confining their grass and brush fires to a small area on the right-of-way instead of permitting them to burn into adjoining woods. Many people are careless in their brush burning. The recently unprecedented dry season has demonstrated the necessity for extreme caution in handling brush fires lest they develop into a conflagration.

Legion Auxiliary Is Hostess to Mrs. Hart, Gold Star Mother

Mrs. S. Y. Hartt, Gold Star mother of Avon Park was honor guest of the American Legion Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Demos Mandis, Monday afternoon, following the Memorial services at the cemetery. She was presented with a lovely bouquet of flowers from the unit.

The auxiliary, in a short business session, voted to hold a series of bridge parties. Mrs. Mandis, chairman of poppy sales, reported the poppy day sales amounted to $52.

Sandwiches, individual cakes and coffee were served.

Hicoria School Closed Friday Eve With Fine Program

Friday night the Hicoria school closed with an excellent program rendered by the children, consisting of songs, readings and three short plays. At the conclusion of the program, Col. F. N. K. Bailey presented certificates of promotion to Mildred Houston and Genevieve Battles, promoting them to Junior high school. Col. Bailey also presented Ethel Ray Peters the prize for the best esay on Highlands Hammock. Attendance certificates were then presented by Prof. E. J. Peters to Lloyd Peoples, Janet Peoples, James Brannen, Eloise Eures, L. W. Eures and Ethel Ray Peters, these having been present every day during the school term.

Col. Bailey made a short address touching on the school system of the county, stating that Highlands county stood among the very best in several ways. Mrs. Peters then thanked the trustees and patrons for their co-operation during the two years he has been principal of the school. He stated that though the enrollment for the past term had been less than that of last year, the average had been considerably higher. This completed Mr. Peters' second term here. He has been elected principal of the Venus school for next year. Miss Nita Sapp has been elected to succeed Mr. Peters at this place.

Present "Womanless Wedding" Thursday

An original version of the "Womanless Wedding" will be presented Thursday June 9, at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium under the auspices of the First Methodist Sunday school, it has been announced.

This strange kind of a marital affair is guaranteed to make the audience "laugh 'till they cry" with its originality in costume and procedure.

The embarassment of any bride who finds herself at the altar, being interrupted by a rejected suitor who buses his claim to interruption on very personal reasons, can be imagined.

Just what Emily Post would recommend for brides and grooms when they are faced with the problem of having the baby cry during the ceremony, is unknown, but that is only one of the many laughable incidents which are promised during the show.

All of Avon Park's "high hat" society, in resplendent dress for the solemn occasion will be present, say the sponsors, who will announce the cast of characters of the play in the near future.

S. P. Durrance Will Open Summer School

S. P. Durrance, Jr. of Fort Bassenger returned home Friday afternoon to spend the summer in Avon Park with his parents. For the past eight months he has been a teacher in and principal of the Fort Bassenger school in this county.

Upon the request of several friends, Mr. Durrance has decided to open a summer school in Avon Park, provided there are enough pupils interested. Work done in the summer school, Mr. Durrance states, will not be recognized by the public schools, but examinations may be taken at the beginning of the next school term and credit given at that time.

The tuition for the summer school instruction will be very reasonable, decreasing according to the number of pupils enrolled, he states. The date of opening will be announced later, but it is probable that classes will begin Monday June 13, and continue for six or eight weeks.

Anyone interested in making up work in which they have failed or in taking up new work, is requested to see Mr. Durrance at once at his home on Verona Hill.

FITTING MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM BY LEGION - AUXILIARY

L. Grady Burton, State's Attorney, Makes Stirring Patriotic Address

L. Grady Burton, of Wauchula, states attorney for this district, opened a formal memorial day observance program here Monday afternoon with a brief but stirring patriotic address from the band stand on the Mall. The observance was sponsored jointly by the American Legion and the Auxiliary, and was joined in by other organizations of the city.

Following the speaking, a parade, starting from Lake avenue, marched west on the Mall to Forest avenue, turning east and down the other side of the Mall to Lake Verona, where a brief service to the naval dead was conducted. Rev. W. K. McClure offered prayer. Girl scouts scattered flowers on the waters of the lake and a squad from the armory fired a salute Taps and benediction concluded the service.

A similar service was conducted at the cemetery in memory of the soldier dead buried there. Wreaths were placed on the soldier graves, a firing squad fired a volley, and taps were sounded. Rev. A. P. Vaughn opened and closed the cemetery service with prayer.

Joining the Legionnaires in the parade were the Rotary club, Spanish War Vets, the Auxiliary, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and school children. All carried miniature flags.

E. E. Melton, chairman of the Legion committee and Mrs. Demos Mandis, chairman of the Auxiliary committee had charge of the program.

4-H Club Camp To Be Held On Lake Sebring

Highlands county's 4-H club camp will open June 21st, it was stated today by County Agent Louis H. Alsmeyer, the camp site to be the shores of Lake Sebring at the Casino. Use of the Casino has been secured from Eugene Pauth and it is expected over 40 from Highlands County, about 25 from Okeechobee county and a number from Lee county will be in attendance.

The camp will open on a Tuesday and close on Friday. This is the fifth year the camps have been held, the last year's being held at Brighton.

Chinaberry Is Host To Citrus Whitefly

While the cinaberry tree is a beautiful ornamental, it is a host to citrus whiteflies and should not be planted near citrus groves unless it is sprayed for whiteflies just as citrus trees are, according to J. R. Watson, entomologist with the Florida Experiment Station.

"The chinaberry breeds whiteflies by the millions during summer and fall," he said. "The last brood which emerges in August or September will move to the citrus. Thus, chinaberry trees should not be allowed to grow in a citrus community. If spraying is resorted to, two applications should be given, one in the late spring and one about the middle of June."

FIREMEN LOSE 2 TO 1 TO BOWLING GREEN

Candidate for Re-election as Representative of the First Florida District

A Faithful, Diligent, Efficient Representative, In Position, By Long Service, To Continue His Good Work For State and District.

To The Democratic Voters of Highlands County

I announce myself a candidate for nomination in the Democratic Primary for the office of Representative from Highlands County in the State Legislature.

If nominated and elected I pledge myself to a program of strictest economy for the State in all its departments and to work for a reduction of taxes, and when I speak of a reduction of taxes I do not mean reducing it on one item and raising it twice as much on another.

I will vote and work for a reduction of taxes on homes and farms.

I will vote and work for a reduction of auto tag costs and the elimination of the fee collecting tag agencies, placing the distribution and sale of tags in the tax collector's office without fees.

I will vote against and work against any new tax of whatever nature.

I am not the candidate of any group or faction. I am an independent business man and grove owner, and am not employed directly or indirectly by any corporation or individual.

Your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated.

The county is a big corporation; each taxpayer is a stockholder. You are hiring a man to manage an important department, and I am applying for the job. For eleven years I have held this position and feel that I am partly responsible for the good condition of the county to-day. Let my record be my reference.

HE MADE GOOD THEN

He Will Make Good Again
(1933-1936)

IT is with pleasure I call the attention of the people of Highlands County to the following facts:

FIRST—During my administration of more than seven years the schools of our county have been wonderfully improved and developed until they now rank among the best and most efficient schools in the state.

SECOND—In spite of boom times, bank failures, and the financial depression we have kept our schools open, and the running expenses of the school system paid.

THIRD—By the strictest economy and the pursuance of the very best business methods in every department of the schools and in the purchasing of school supplies we have been able during my administration not only to accomplish the above facts, but also to pay off the bonded indebetedness inherited from old DeSoto County. The Board will close the present school year out of debt, and with a small balance in the treasury.

FOURTH—Last year the school taxes were greatly reduced, and I have already recommended to the Board that we will be in position when we make out our budget in June to make another considerable reduction in school millage for next year.

During my entire administration I have had only one purpose in view — to conscientiously administer the affairs of this office to the advantage of the people of Highlands County.

I greatly appreciate the splendid help and co-operation that you have given me all over the county in making my administration a success, and I assure you that your further support and co-operation will be greatly appreciated.

To the People of Highlands County:

As already announced I am a candidate for re-nomination for the office of Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the Democratic Primary in June.

TO THE VOTERS:

Subject to your will in the June Primaries, I am seeking the Democratic nomination for Sheriff, of Highlands County, Florida.

Knowing that you realize that a recommendation written by one's self is of no value, I am inviting you to make an unbiased investigation of my qualifications and integrity. After being convinced of my capability, I then solicit your wholehearted support.

If nominated and subsequently elected, I pledge the consistent performance of my duty.

Doyle Schumacher

The giving of my personal attention to the issuance of over two thousand poll tax receipts, and the collection of $35,000 taxes, has prevented my making a house to house canvass, and I hope you will appreciate my attention to official duties instead of personal interests.

Four years ago I expected never to ask for the position of Tax Collector again, my life's savings were invested in local companies all of which were lost in the crash which accounts for my asking your sufferage again.

I have not had my wife on the pay roll for the past six months and will not in the future.

The fees of this office have been cut over 50% during the past two years and as all help, and other expenses, even postage, are paid from these fees I much prefer working on a salary basis.

My percentage of tax collections for the past two years, which are twice those of one adjoining county, with the cooperation of our School Board have kept our schools in full operation and by economy on the part of the County Commissioners has resulted in over 50% cut in certain district taxes.

In view of the above facts I solicit your support in the June Democratic Primary and promise a continuation of personal attention, honesty and efficiency which has assisted in making Highlands one of the outstanding counties of our state.

D. F. CANFIELD.

The following editorial appeared in the local paper sponsoring one of my opponents. Please supply Tax Collector in place of the omitted word:

A world that pays a crooner $4,000 a week deserves depression.

Candidate Martin says he "took Florida out of the mud." Mebbe. But he came near sinking it in the mire of extravagance and debt.

Cary Hardee came out on a platform of retrenchment and economy, and all the other candidates for Governor jumped on the band wagon and declared they were there first. But they had only promises to offer, while Hardee can point to performance.

It's out at last—the secret of what's the matter with the world. A writer in the Tampa Tribune's Vox Pop department finds that churches are built wrong—there are steps to ascend to the altar, which is "not according to God's plan." Just in case you didn't know.

Girls, the boys tell us that the severest test of love comes when a fellow for the first time sees his sweetie on the street in pajamas. And he is not much happier the second time, or any other time. The street seems to be a sorry setting for pajamas.

Well, it won't be long now. Pity that the agony in part must be prolonged until a second primary. At that, the present system is a vast improvement over the old double primary, in which lots of people never learned either how to vote or how to count the votes.

That was a masterly analysis and comparison of the characteristics of Cary Hardee and John Martin which appeared in the editorial columns of last Sunday's issue of the Tampa Tribune. It would be a fine thing if every voter could read it before casting his ballot in the gubernatorial race.

It's getting hard now to find a candidate for Congress who does not favor a referendum. After all, if we are to continue the pleasant fiction that in our Democracy the people rule, they should at least be accorded the right to express themselves on any great controversial question.

Perhaps Jimmie Walker is more or less of a rapscallion, as they are trying to prove him, but he is a very likeable one. There is every evidence that he is greatly loved by the masses of the people of New York, and to be loved by the folks in the home town is worth many a knock.

If you can write a few lines for the platform of either of the two parties that will dispose of the prohibition question in a way that will satisfy both wets and drys you will have a piece of literature for which you can name your own price. Solomon and Shakespeare collaborating couldn't accomplish that.

Politics should be taken seriously—but not too seriously this warm weather. Let's not get too het up in these closing days of the campaign to remember that a hundred years from now it won't make much difference who is elected in any of the contests next Tuesday. In other words, let us not say things that we may be sorry for when we have cooled off.

Mr. Hoover ought to have gotten some mighty good ideas about balancing the budget from that gathering of 39 newspaper men whom he called into conference. If they were real newspaper men, of the sort who have faced a $15 Saturday pay-roll with visible assets of $13.75 and a desire to hold back a quarter for a shave, they know something about balancing budgets.

We would like to get acquainted with that 10-year-old son of Paul Block, the publisher. If he was so sorry for a $25,000 a year Mayor, how much sorrier he might be for a poor country editor. We wouldn't want him to work on his daddy's sympathies for us to the extent that he would put us in the way of getting $246,000 without work or investment. A tenth of that amount would be highly acceptable.

A pair of Hardee county bull frogs are scheduled to take a trip be an African point nearly 12,000 miles distant. It seems that the booming bellow of Hardee's frogs has been heard around the world, and a request for a pair of the songsters has been received from that far country. How they shall safely make the trip for a distance which it requires five weeks for a letter to travel is puzzling those who plan to make the shipment. Here is an occasion where air transportation might solve the problem. The frogs ought to help the aviator to make the hop.

Candidates should pause now and then to breathe a fervent prayer to be delivered from the fulsome flattery of their fool friends. One candidate whom we believe to be a really good fellow is given the following qualifications for the Governorship by an admiring editor: The editor likes the way the candidate combs his hair; the candidate wears a blue shirt with a white collar; the candidate wears fairly good sized shoes, heavily built; the candidate ate for supper a medium sized steak, well done, a side dish of scrambled eggs and French fried potatoes, a piece of cocoanut pie, and two cups of tea. We ask you, ladies and gentlemen, what more could you possibly wish for in your Governor?

There are so many candidates for Governor, their promises are so profuse, and their platforms are so similar, that the average voter who has not had the time or the interest to study the situation may find himself in a quandary to choose from among them. There is one man, however, whose record is so clean and clear-cut that the only charges that can be brought against him are utterly puerile and obviously labored; who is not long on promises but is strong on performance; who has shown his fitness and ability to fill the position he seeks by having filled it as acceptably as any Governor Florida has ever had; who is modest but courageous; substantial, rather than frothy; sincere instead of bombastic. That man is Cary A. Hardee; and if we do not mistake the good judgment of the people that man will lead the field next Tuesday by a vote of magnificent proportions.

This district has in the person of Herbert J. Drane a Congressman who has been most faithful and efficient. He is a credit to the district and to the State. He stands well with his colleagues; he has the respect, and in many instances the friendship, of the big men of Congress and those of the various branches of the government. This enables him to render service to his constituients that would be impossible for any man who has not built up these contacts. The ex-service men never had a truer friend, nor one more interested in their welfare, as hundreds of them in South Florida who have been helped by him can testify. He has given effective personal attention to every appeal from those who have needed a friend in Washington, and the humblest and the poorest have received the same consideration from him as those of large affairs. He has been a real representative of the people, and he has gotten results for them. By reason of his experience and cumulative knowledge of the correct procedure he is now better able than ever to get results. He deserves and should receive the nomination in the first primary, and reports from all over the district encourage his friends to believe that he will be an easy winner.

Presbyterians in general assembly at Montreat, N. C., blame lawlessness and crime on "parents and the older generations, rather than the splendid and courageous youth of today." We hope they are right, but statistics and criminologists do not agree with them. Our prisons are filled to overflowing, and a vast majority of the inmates are "splendid and courageous youths" in their teens or twenties. We accept the conclusion of the Assembly that much responsibility for this condition rests with the parents, but differ with it in some of its assumptions. Parents are to blame mostly because they allow their children to grow up without control or discipline. But there is some justification of this because of the present-day attitude towards parental discipline. The busy-bodies have shouted "self-expression" so blatantly that when a child wishes to express itself by burning a barn or breaking the neighbor's windows, the parents hesitate to raise an objection. A generation or so ago children were corrected for their faults, and they grew up God-fearing and law-abiding men and women. Nowadays, if a parent speaks to a child without apologizing for doing so, he is liable to be put in prison for brutality. And the children grow up with no respect for authority in the home, and naturally as night follows the day, as men and women they have no respect for the constituted authorities of society.

Break Ground For World's Fair Building With Plow and Oxen

DeLand, June 1 (Special):—When ground was broken for the agricultural building at Chicago last week, according to advices from the Century of Progress offices in Chicago, a wooden plow, used by the late Philip D. Armour, the packing house king, when he started his farm nearly 80 years ago, was the implement used. The plow was drawn by a yoke of oxen, brought from Connecticut for the purpose. The handles of the plow were held for the turning of the first furrow, by Dr. A. W. Bitting, in charge of the agricultural exhibits at the exposition.

That represented the agriculture of a century ago. The second stage in the development of American farming was represented by a wooden beamed steel plow drawn by a pair of mules.

The third stage in development was shown by a three-horse team attached to a sulky plow, while the fourth or present day stage was depicted by Harvey J. Sconce, doing his bit toward advancing the agricultural building by driving an uptodate tractor drawing a three-bottomed plow.

The building will be 628 feet long by 108 feet wide. The Florida commission has secured ground immediately in front of the agricultural building for its proposed citrus grove and for its Everglades garden.

Answer—

to Mr. Bee's Eleventh Hour Statement.

Half the Figures Are Half the Truth—Usually This Is More Misleading Than a Wilful Untruth.

The misleading impression is THAT THIS COUNTY INCREASED ITS LEVY OF STATE TAXES 68% in 1931 compared with 1921. Listen to the FACTS; verify them on the public records if you desire.

1921—Taxes levied for state (page 215 of Tax Roll) $18,387.73
1931—Taxes levied for state (page 751 of Tax Roll) 13,994.38

DECREASE ..... $ 4,393.35
or more than 23% actual cash.

Yet you are mislead to believe that this county has INCREASED its state tax 68%.

In answer to this eleventh-hour attack which compares the assessments of Highlands County with those of some neighboring counties, I will say that the figures given do not tell the story that some of those counties have allowed their bonds to be defaulted and their credit to be destroyed. Highlands County has paid all principal and interest as the bonds are due to date, and her credit is maintained; her schools have run full terms. Should Highlands County be put in a class with such counties?

In this connection, I wish to call your attention to the fact that since 1929, the total millage has been reduced in this county in the various districts, in amounts from 31½ to 54½ mills without increasing the total assessed valuation—a record that few other counties in the state have made. I claim only a share in this record. My work has been keeping the assessments in the county fairly and equitably made.

The figures have been quoted you that the aggregate real estate valuation for Highlands County in 1921 was $1,709,950, and in 1931 $2,875,540. Anyone familiar with this county knows that IN THE PAST TEN YEARS HIGHLANDS COUNTY HAS HAD ITS REAL DEVELOPMENT — Orange groves have come into bearing; residences and business blocks have been built; streets have been paved; public improvements made. I doubt if 68% really does express an over-estimated true increase.

But, in spite of this, we levied $4,393.35 less state taxes in 1931 than in 1921!!! Why confuse you with more figures? The records are available for any interested in the details.

IF RE-ELECTED, IT SHALL BE MY PURPOSE AND ENDEAVOR, AS IT HAS BEEN IN THE PAST, TO WORK IN SEASON AND OUT OF SEASON FOR ECONOMY AND FOR THE WELFARE OF THE WHOLE COUNTY.

UPON THIS RECORD I ASK FOR YOUR SUPPORT NEXT TUESDAY, JUNE 7th.

Respectfully yours,

CYRIL BALDWIN

HINTS TO HOUSEWIVES

Weekly from Home Demonstration Specialists, Tallahassee

FOR ECONOMY DIETS

The body needs fuel to keep it warm and give it power to work. Dark grains are important in low-cost diets because they contain valuable parts usually taken away in milling. All grain foods are cheap body fuels; combined with milk they are also good for body building. One-fifth of the food dollar should be spent for cereals such as oatmeal, wheat cereals, corn meal, flour, rice and macaroni, and breads. Some whole-wheat bread, as well as white bread, should be used every day. Buy foods loose instead of in boxes whenever possible because they are cheaper.

Waffles

To make about six waffles, use 1½ cupfuls flour, ½ teaspoonful salt, 2 teaspoonfuls baking powder, 1 cupful milk, 4 tablespoonfuls fat, and 2 eggs. Mix and sift the dry ingredients two or three times. Combine with melted fat, milk and egg yolks, and fold in stiffly beaten whites last. Bake as soon as combined. Heat the waffle iron until it snaps when a drop of cold water hits it. Grease only if it is made of iron. Allow four or five minutes per waffle. Serve while crisp and hot with maple syrup or honey and butter.

To make sour cream waffles, substitute 1 cupful of sour cream for the sweet milk and fat. To make honey cream waffles add one tablespoonful of honey to the liquid ingredients.

Oatmeal

Add one cupful of oatmeal to 2½ cupfuls of scalded milk and 1 teaspoonful of salt. Cook in double boiler, stirring occasionally, for 40 minutes to one hour. Serve with raisins or chopped prunes, or with sugar and cream or milk.

Girl Scouts Broadcasting By New Scout Scribe

This is station S-C-O-U-T-S broadcasting. First I want to tell you that a new, scribe has been elected, which is myself, Betty Brooks.

To date the following girls have passed their Tenderfoot test: Dorothy McNicholas, Betty Brooks, Mildred Wray, Mary McCarthy, Hazel Reddick, Corine Pate, Letta Reck, Johnnie Saggus and Jane Hartt. They will be registered as Tenderfoot scouts in the near future. We also have a new member whose name is Frances Dorminey.

We applaud Corrine Pate for having correctly answered five out of six nature quests that have been given, which entitles her to a merit badge. We also applaud Mary McNicholas, Dorothy McNicholas and Mildred Wray for winning second place, which entitles them to an honorable mention.

In case everyone doesn't know what nature quests are, I'll tell you. They are questions given us on scout meeting nights. We are supposed to find the answer during the week and hand it in the next meeting. For example, we had for one week, "How many legs has a fly?" Another one was, "How many stars are there in the great dipper?" Can you answer them?

The Girl Scouts, led by Scout Mistress Ruth Hempton, had an active part in the Memorial Day services last Monday. After having listened to a short concert by the High School band, and to an interesting and instructive speech from Honorable L. Grady Burton from Wauchula, we formed in parade on Lake Avenue, led by the Firing Squad, then representatives of the American Legion, the band, and the Boy Scouts. From there we marched to Lake Verona where tribute was paid to the dead saidors by a prayer from Rev. W. K. McClure of the Baptist church, a scattering of flowers on the water by the Girl Scouts, salute by the firing squad of the fifty-sixth F. A., "taps" by Band Director Prof. Gustat, and a benediction by Rev. McClure. We then proceeded to Bougainvillea Cemetery by automobile where the Memorial services were conducted in honor of the soldiers, with Rev. Dr. Vaughn officiating.

Salute was again given by the firing squad, taps were sounded by Carrol Bailey which ended a very beautiful and impressive Memorial Day Seavice.

AVON PARK IN THE SUMMER TIME.

It is true that the Summer months in Avon Park and vicinity do not provide the volume of business that the Winter months provide; but we are so situated as to attract many visitors during the Summer months, and many of our merchants are alert to this fact.

Our efforts determine largely our progress. The conference groups, sight-seeing parties, fishing parties, we are sure would avail themselves of special shopping inducements if, and when, those inducements were made.

Rumors? Answers

Rumors have been spread abroad that I have not employed home teachers, but have filled up the schools with teachers from places other than Highlands County. There is absolutely NO FOUNDATION for such reports, as they are UTTERLY UNTRUE.

FIRST—Neither the County School Superintendent nor the County Board select the teachers. They are selected by the LOCAL BOARD of TRUSTEES in each school district. I have a statement signed by the Avon Park, Sebring and Lake Placid Trustees, and other district trustees, stating I have always requested them, so far as possible, to SELECT HOME TEACHERS in preference to any others, provided they could meet the state's requirements; and further that I have never dictated to them whom they should employ.

In order to draw state funds we have to abide by the state's requirements as to qualifications of teachers. There are not ONE-THIRD enough qualified high school teachers in Highlands County to fill the positions in our high schools, consequently the local trustees have to secure some teachers from other places.

SECOND—WHEN I WENT INTO OFFICE THERE WERE MORE THAN THREE TIMES AS MANY TEACHERS WHO WERE NOT HOME TEACHERS IN THE COUNTY AS THERE ARE TODAY.

THIRD—Every qualified teacher in Highlands County who applied last year was offered a position in the county with the exception of three.

FOURTH—The Board of Public Instruction has always appointed the teachers recommended by the Local Boards with two exceptions. In these two cases over three-fourths of the patrons of these schools signed petitions requesting the County Board to overrule the Local Trustees, and permit them to retain the same teachers. The Board, believing that a majority of the patrons should rule, complied with their request.

I have given you the facts with reference to the way the present administration is handling the matter of appointment of teachers.

Sunday School Lesson

FOR JUNE 5, 1932.

SUBJECT: Joseph the Worker.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Seest thou a man diligent in his business? He shall stand before kings." Prov. 22: 29.

LESSON TEXT: Genesis, 39-31. TIME: B. C. 1715; PLACE, Egypt.

INTRODUCTION: "The accounts of the two young men, Joseph and Daniel, both captives in a strange land, will ever be favorites, where moral courage and fidelity are valued. In our study of the life of Joseph we must constantly keep in mind the great fact of God's overruling providence. We see Joseph, the dearly loved son of a fond and indulgent father, torn from his early surroundings and subjected to Egyptian slavery, with all the hardships incident to that condition. We see him exposed to the most persistent and strongest kind of temptation in the house of his master and steadfastly resisting, and then falsely accused and unjustly imprisoned in an oriental prison, suffering untold discomfort. His patience, courage, and faith held him steady during his years of servitude and unjust accusation and imprisonment."

Jacob lived at Hebron and sent his older sons with his flocks to the grazing lands around Shechem, 40 miles north. Jacob said to Joseph (17 years old) "Go, I pray thee, see, whether it is well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again." The flocks had been moved 13 miles further north at Dothan. When Joseph found his brethren, they said, "Behold this dreamer cometh, * * let us slay him * * and we will say, some evil beast hath devoured him." But one brother, Reuben, persuaded them not to kill Joseph, but to "cast him into a pit," * * which was a jug-shaped cistern dug in the limestone of that country.

A band of Ishmaelites came by, bearing spices from Gilead to Egypt, and they "sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver (about $13.00, now worth about $130.00) and they brought him to Egypt. "And Potiphar, an officer of (king) Pharaoh, captain of the guard * * bought him * * and the Lord was with Joseph * * And his master saw that the Lord was with him * * and he made him overseer of his house, * * the Lord blessed the Egyptian's house."

The Egyptian's wife falsely accused Joseph of doing wrong, and had him thrown into prison. "But the Lord was with Joseph, * * and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison."

"After these things the butler of the King of Egypt and his baker had offended * * the King * * and he put them into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound, * * and they dreamed * * each man his dream in one night * * the butler and the baker." In Genesis, Ch. 40, you can read what these dreams were. Joseph told them their dreams meant that within three days the baker would be hanged until dead, but the butler would be restored to his position with the King, and so it came to pass.

Joseph said to the butler, "When it shall be well with thee * * I pray thee * * make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house * * Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgat him."

Two years later the King of Egypt had a dream which greatly troubled him, "And he called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh."

Then chief butler told Pharaoh how Joseph had interpreted his dream.

Joseph was brought before the King who told his dreams * * that 7 fat cattle came up out of the river Nile and then 7 thin, starved cattle which devoured the fat cattle; also 7 good ears of corn; and 7 bad, blighted ears which destroyed the good ears. Joseph told the King, "The seven good kind are seven years; and the seven good ears are seevn years; the dream is one. And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine."

Then Joseph advised the King to appoint a man to collect a part of all grain produced during the 7 good years and to save it for the people during the bad years.

Pharaoh appointed Joseph to do this work and made him second in the kingdom. Joseph did the work and God prospered him. The drouth and the famine came, and the people of Egypt and surrounding countries came to Egypt to buy food, and the king sent them to Joseph as his agent.

(We have no space to discuss the many good things said of this lesson. Please read Genesis, Chapters 37, 40 and 41, for the history).
