BUY A POPPY

Next Saturday, May 28th, is poppy day in Avon Park. Young girls will pass among you asking you to buy a poppy to help some disabled veteran. We know that you have many demands at this time. Hardly a day goes by without some call for help, and lots of us have had to learn to say No to some of them. But there are times when you can't turn down an appeal for help—and this is one of them. To get a better understanding of why poppies are sold and what becomes of the money, read this appealing account of a visit to the Lake City veterans hospital by Willie Snow Ethridge, from the Brooksville Sun:

"Poppies to you, perhaps, are just crumpled rosettes of crimson paper to wear once a year for memory's sake; but to the man whose thick, stiff, slow-moving fingers have fashioned them they are little bright red doors to the land of opportunity. Their scarlet petals are not mere slips of tissue at all, but gay flags to signal pennies into their pockets; their wee, small stamins are wands to transform dragging, bleak hours into hurrying, sunshiny minutes.

"Recently I wandered through its ether-smelling wards (Lake City) and heard stories and saw scenes that will make the glowing cup of the poppy brim and run over with meaning for me forever. And for you, too, I hope. For the same stories and scenes are being lived in the veterans hospitals and workshops all over the land.

"I saw men with their brows creased in concentration and lips pursed as their big awkward hands fumbled with the flimsy petals, the tiny clusters of blue-green stamins, the narrow streamers of grass green tissue. Twist and turn, twist and turn. And then, as the flower bloomed into completion, I saw their faces light up and they eyes shine. They twirled the saucy red things before their noses and their looks of pleased satisfaction seemed to say that their own clumsy hands had made those dainty, gay little buds and they were proud of them.

"There were the two frail young men, one with only three fingers on his right hand who sorted the stamins and crimson petals; the other with two good hands, but with his leg jutting out before him in a cast, who arranged the petals about the "cat whiskers," as he called the stamins, and attached the stems.

"I'm getting good now," the man with the shattered leg boasted, "and I'm sure glad of it, for I've got a wife and five kids. The government pays me $20 a month; but that doesn't go far. My wife came to see me Sunday and I gave her the $2 I made last week and she was sho' proud of it. My partner there, has got a wife and five kids, too. So we need poppy money."

"Then there was the docile, shell-shocked man whom I first saw when he came to the poppy chairman's office for stems. He shook his head in a slow, puzzled fashion and his big, solemn, coffee- brown eyes were as pleading as a dog's. His coat was split at the elbows, his pants baggy and frayed.

There was the little woman with head erect, flashing blue eyes and smiling mouth, who sat by the side of a man in a rolling chair on the lawn of the hospital, chatting about the Florida sunshine and the stream of tourists flowing past. While she talked she made poppies and put them gently in the lap of the man. Staring blankly at them, he fastened the Auxiliary labels to the stems.

"He is paralyzed," the poppy chairman whispered to me, "and he has lost hope; but she hasn't. She is determined to make him want to live. Poppies are helping her. Sometimes he gets tremendously interested and attaches the labels joyously."

"I was in the office of the chairman late one Monday afternoon when she paid the poppy makers for those they had completed the week before. I don't believe I will ever forget any of them; but I know I will never forget a rangy, white-faced man whose small black eyes shone like pieces of coal in a snow man's head. He was one of three partners in a corporation. They had made fourteen bunches—350 poppies.

"That means $1.18 for my boy to go to the fair," he confided in a burst of pride. "There's going to be a fair in our town this week and my boy has written me that he wants to go."

So poppies, you see, instead of just being little crushed buds of paper, are really shining beacons flashing the way to contentment, self-support and self respect to hundreds of disabled veterans and their families.

AVON WINS EXTRA INNING CONTEST FROM WAUCHULA

Dilley's Single and Stolen Base In Tenth Puts Over Winning Run

With the score tied four-all in the tenth inning, Batch Dilley hit a single to right field, stole second and continued on to third when the throw went wild, and scored the winning run when Hall sent a hot bounder through third. The game —at Cardinal field—ended Avon Park 5, Wauchula 4, in a thrilling extra-inning finish.

Bass started the game for Avon Park and pitched six innings. He hurt his finger and was relieved by Dilley who finished the game in the box and otherwise. The score was 3-2 when Bass left the game and the right-hander gets credit for the win—and deserves it.

Avon Park scored in the first inning on successive doubles by D. Martin and Pugh. The locals added another run in the second. Milton got on by forcing Hall at third and later counted on Armistead's single to right. Two more runs came in in the fifth. Armistead singled and scored on Durrh Martin's second double of the game. J. B. Martin followed with a single scoring Durrh.

Wauchula scored in the first, added two more in the third, and tied the score 4-4 in the ninth. In this frame Hines singled, went to third on Whidden's single and scored on a long fly to Hall at center. Hall made a beautiful catch and held Whidden on third, saving the game. Suds, last man up, went out on a slow roller to the pitcher's box to end the inning.

To Visit Highlands

CARY A. HARDEE

CARY A. HARDEE SPEAKS HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

Will Be at the Court House In the Afternoon and at Avon Park In Evening

Cary A. Hardee, leading candidate for governor, will speak in Highlands county next Wednesday afternoon and evening. At three o'clock in the afternoon he will be at the courtroom in the court house at Sebring and in the evening he will speak at eight o'clock on the Mall at Avon Park. He is expected to address large crowds at both meetings and will present some interesting facts and figures to his hearers.

The past six weeks has brought Mr. Hardee before the voters in 50 of Florida's 67 counties and he is scheduled this week to speak in eleven cities, covering a territory as far south as Miami west to Fort Myers and St. Petersburg and east to Vero Beach. Predictions are being made at the Hardee headquarters, Live Oak, that Mr. Hardee will be the leading one of two Democratic gubernatorial candidates when the returns are counted in the June 7th primaries.

Former Governor Hardee began his speaking tour at Perry, in Taylor county, the county of his birth, just as he did when he opened his successful campaign for the same office in 1926. Meeting many of his boyhood friends there, he relived for a time the happy memories of youth, recalled the days when he was a county school teacher and the time when he was first admitted to the Bar in Florida. For the past thirty years, Mr. Hardee has made his home in Live Oak, where he has engaged in a number of succesful businesses.

Ott Store Stages First Style Show

Dame fashion ruled supreme and displayed the season's most beautiful and fitting models at the store of Ott and Son on Friday afternoon and a large crowd is anticipated on Saturday evening from eight to ten to view the living models who will descend a white carpeted staircase from the mezzanine to the lower floor, and amid stately palms and quantities of lovely white lilies in a pretty arrangement will display garments of youthfulness and charm.

Appearing in an array of cunningly designed frocks, some embroidered, others tailored, pantie dresses with hats to match, styles with sashes and belts, and those enchanting little bathing suits and beach pajamas are Nellie Schweigart, Barbara Ann Radcliffe, Marjorie Wells, Betty Joe Wells, Frances Browne and Betty Sue Holland.

The little boys wearing dress suits with socks and shoes of the proper shade and style, sailor suits with long pants, play suits, just arrived, and most practical for morning wear and adorable bathing suits that kiddies must have for summer comfort and pleasure are Russell Tinney, Jr., and Jimmie Hetherington.

The young ladies will wear practical morning dresses, frocks for afternoon with matching accessories and new evening gowns fashioned along modish lines. The stunning sport wear, the latest out with hat and bag to match, is very effective. Beach things displayed will cause one to immediately want to outfit themselves in some of the clever new ideas with big floppy hats to protect the skin from the sun's hottest rays.

Among those modeling these outfits will be Miss Oleta Bigbie, Mrs. Wendell Roberts, Miss Christine Reeves, Mrs. W. M. Carter, Miss Inez Dawson and Miss Louise Browne.

EXTEND TIME LIMIT TO JUNE 15TH FOR PAYMENT OF TAXES

June 15th Set As Final Limit For Payment Without Interest and Fees

The final date for payment of 1931 taxes, without interest or attorney fees was extended to June 15 by the city council at Tuesday night's meeting. After that date a delinquent roll will be made up and certified to the city attorney for collection.

A permit was granted to C. N. Ott for making alterations on the post office building to conform to government requirements of the post office department's new lease.

The council, by resolution, ordered the tax assessor to levy assessment on acreage basis on block 24, Glenada Hills. The request was granted on petition of Theo. Mix, owner of the property.

The bond of W. A. Roberts as chief of police was ordered released upon request of C. R. Head.

Attorney Pardee reported an error made in the paving assessment on Central avenue on lots 3 and 4, block 14, section 15. The old assessment was for 798.5 feet. By the correction which was ordered by the council, 471.5 feet were added to this, making a total frontage of 1270 feet, which added $1216.47 to the paving roll.

The council voted to send Fire Chief McCarthy to the fire college at Daytona Beach in June if funds permit.

CARSON WILL MAKE RACE IN NOVEMBER

Announces He Will Be Independent - Democratic Candidate For Clerk

Following the receipt of the news that he had been disqualified in the coming Democratic primary as a candidate for the office of clerk of the circuit court, due to his failure to file his first expense account in time, W. Z. Carson issued a statement announcing he would be an independent Democratic candidate at the general election in November. Mr. Carson's statement reads:

"To the Voters of Highlands County:

"To avoid any possibility of misunderstanding I wish to now announce that I will be a candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court at the general election in November.

"I paid my filing fee and campaigned the entire County but neglected to file the first statement of expenses by May 13th. My only expenses consisted of filing fee of $200.00, formal announcements in newspapers and gas and oil in covering the County. My statement, under oath, was filed on the 14th—14 hours late.

"This automatically left Mr. L. T. Farmer as the technical candidate of the Democratic party, without the Democratic voters of the County being given any voice in the matter. No name for Clerk will appear on the primary ballot. Under these circumstances I will be an Independent-Democratic candidate for the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court in the general election in November."

Saturday Last Day To Pay Poll Tax

Saturday is the last day to pay poll taxes in order to vote in the primary election on June 7th. Tax Collector D. F. Canfield will be at Jordon & Son's jewelry store Saturday night for the purpose of receiving poll tax money. This will be the last opportunity for those who have not already done so to qualify under the law.

Miss Chandler Tops Avon High Typing Speed Record

Miss Virginia Chandler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. I. W. Chandler, broke all Avon Park high school typewriting speed records, when she attained a net speed of 62 words a minute the last month of this school year. This is the greatest record ever made by any Avon Park student in the first-year typewriting class in the history of the school.

Outstanding records have also been made by others in this year's class. Carrol Belin attained a net speed of 58 words per minute. Charlotte Shepherd, 53 net words: Agnes Vilkaitis,52 net words; and Oleta Bigbie, 51 net words.

It will be recalled that this class received honors in the state typing contest held in April as follows: Charlotte Shepherd, second place in speed; Virginia Chandler, third place in speed; and Oleta Bigbie, second place in accuracy.

NEXT SATURDAY IS POPPY DAY IN AVON

American Legion Auxiliary Will Conduct Annual Poppy Sale

Next Saturday, May 28, is Poppy Day in Avon Park and a group of young girls will help the American Legion Auxiliary dispose of 500 poppies to the public. These poppies were bought by the local auxiliary unit from the veteran's hospital at Lake City and were made by disabled veterans.

When you buy a poppy just before Memorial Day, think what the poppy means to the thousands of disabled men who make it in the veterans' hospitals.

The poppies which the American Legion Auxiliary sells on Poppy Day are made by disabled veterans who pluck at these fragments of paper and strips of wire as drowning men at floating timber. In forty- three Government hospitals and veterans' workshops, hundreds of soldiers, too badly shattered for heavier work, manufacture these memorial blossoms as their only means of self-support.

Last year they made over 12,000,000 for the forty-eight States and Alaska, Hawaii and Panama actually sold 11,272,189 netting $214,814.55 profit, all of which aids the rehabilitation and child welfare programs of the American Legion Auxiliary. The veterans received a penny for each poppy they made—a meager sum to be sure, but a fortune to those who have families dependent upon them, to those who are ragged for clothes; to those who need pennies for cigarettes, writing paper, shaving "gear", stamps and shoes.

Only those veterans make poppies who receive no compensation or a very small one, from the Government. They begin manufacturing them in the winter, when the orders for Poppy Day start trickling in and they continue, as the orders arrive, until the latter part of May.

Names To Be Left Off Primary Ballot

Several names of candidates were ordered withheld from the ballot by the county commissioners at their meeting Monday. Failure to comply with the law was given as the reason for the action and the following names were ordered not printed:

W. Z. Carson, candidate for clerk of the circuit court, whose expense account was not filed within the time as set by law.

A. F. Helms, candidate for sheriff whose qualification fees was alleged to have been unpaid.

Philip Correl and J. W. Leaphart of DeSoto City, both candidates for constable for combined districts two and three, also failed to file expense accounts, it was stated.

C. H. Shackelford of Hicoria asked the board regarding the registration of some Hicoria voters saying they are on the general election books and not on the primary books. It was brought out that nothing could be done about this now as the law specifically requires that voters register in both books and names cannot be transferred from the general election books to the primary books.

Red Mahogany Tree To Be Planted at Congregational

Installing a giant red mahogany of South Africa on the grounds of Union Congregational church will be a unique and significant ceremony on Wednesday evening, May 25, at 7 o'clock. The tree to be planted is a young specimen of the greatest of forest giants of Rhodesia, and is grown from seed from the Mount Salinda mission of this church, whose manual training teacher, Mr. Arthur Orner visited Avon Park a few years ago, telling of his work in Africa. A brief appropriate program will be part of the planting ceremony, and two palms from Mauritius will at the same time be planted beside the church entrance. They are admirable trees of the kind at the entrance to Kenilworth Lodge.

A family covered-dish supper for all the church community will be held in the church parlors at 6 o'clock, preceding the planting, and a social hour will follow.

MRS. BUTLER PASSES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Funeral Services Held At the Congregational Church Wednesday

In the passing of Mrs. W. S. Butler Tuesday afternoon May 17, Avon Park lost and mourns one of its long-time residents and most public spirited citizens, and a most valiant and alert personality, with keen interest in every item of the human scene around her to the very end, within a dozen years of attaining the century mark.

Mrs. Butler's amazing vitality and recuperative powers have been so amazing for years past, and she had followed her usual program of receiving friends, daily drive around the community, unflagging interest in and attendance at her church services, and long afternoons on her porch reading or with handiwork, until within ten days of the end, that the announcement of her quiet passing after two days of unconsciousness, without suffering or distress, came as a surprise and shock to all. With her usual careful prearrangement, she had all preparations made to start for her summer home in Oak Park, Ill., on the day and almost the hour she took her departure from the scenes of life.

The memorial service was held Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the Union Congregational church, with which she had been connected since first coming to Avon Park, and which she and her husband had supported loyally and generously, with personal effort and financially for more than 30 years. The service was conducted by the pastor, Dr. A. P. Vaughn. Mrs. Paul Garber of the choir sang Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar", Mrs. W. T. Hall sang "My Redeemer", and Miss Martha Marsh, organist, supplied the musical background of old hymns that Mrs. Butler so much loved, and as an accomplished musician played and sang for herself in her home until the last. The pallbearers were chosen from her long-time friends: Messrs W. H. Woodruff, Harry Dilley, Jesse Bennett, L. C. Hunt, W. T. Hall and Col. Charles Head.

The body was accompanied on the afternoon train to Green Bay, Wisc., for interment.

Laura Sanborn was born July 31, 1844 and died May 17, 1932. Her early years were spent in Milton, Wisconsin, where having finished her education and preparation she moved to Green Bay and took up her work as a teacher. There she was married in 1869 to W. Seymour Butler, a merchant, and there they made their home until his retirement from business at the end of the last century, when they established a new home in Oak Park, a suburb of Chicago, at the same time spending the winters in Avon Park, where friends from Green Bay were located. Soon thereafter they purchased property here and for more than 30 years have been interested and active factors in the community's development. Mr. Butler passed away ten years ago, and Mrs. Butler is survived only by the children of her sister, Mrs. H. J. Ferris, three nephews and two nieces, and their children.

The support and comfort of religion and the stay of friendship were very real possessions in the life of Mrs. Butler. She was active in her interest in and generosity toward all human need around her until the end, and "given to hospi-

AUDUBON SOCIETY TO USE MORE WARDENS

To Wage Relentless War On Plume Hunters In South Florida

New York, N. Y., May 18.—Following reports that plume hunters are plotting to wage vigorous warfare on the beautiful bird population of south Florida, in the expectation of defeating the law by running plumes to the West Indies and points in South America, the National Association of Audubon Societies, long the bitter foe of traffickers in egret feathers, has decided to make the pursuit of plumes both unhealthy and unprofitable by increasing its staff of wardens in that State. Dr. T. Gilbert Pearson, president of the Audubon Association, announces that two additional wardens will be placed on duty immediately to protect the colonies of egrets and other birds of rare plumage during the present nesting-season, when they will be in greatest danger from the gun fire of the greedy plume hunter. Other special Audubon wardens, already functioning in the territory under the direct supervision of U. S. Game Protector, J. V. Kelsey, will confine their activities chiefly to protection of the plume birds which this season will bunch in large colonies along the salt and brackish waters of the Everglade region where, if they are not guarded, they will be wiped out. "This large colonization along the coast," Dr. Pearson states, "is due to the unprecedented drought over most of the State of Florida, making it impossible for large numbers of these birds to nest through the interior of the State, as they usually do."

Dr. Pearson expresses the belief, based upon reports filtering into Audubon headquarters, that our plume birds face the greatest danger of their history due to economic conditions and widespread unemployment which, in Florida, means that plumes as a source of profit "are more tempting to the habitual and potential law-violator than ever before."

"At present," Dr. Pearson states, "as a result of active warden-service in which two men were killed by agents of the feather trade and two only escaped with their lives by outstanding their would-be assassins, there are more plume birds in Florida than there ever have been since protective work was started. Although the depression has meant financial loss to the Audubon Association as well as to other organizations, we are at a considerable sacrifice increasing our warden-service in Florida to protect the most beautiful birds of the North American Continent from slaughter and extinction at the hands of the commercial feather outlaw."

Among the birds protected in this region by Audubon wardens are the snowy egret, white and wood ibises, roseate spoonbill, Louisiana and little blue herons, anhinga and other species. In addition to the menace of the plume hunters, there have been so many attempts at killing ibises and spoonbills for food, at their roosting places last year, that the Audubon Association retained two wardens to keep guard indefinitely in the Shark River region.

Crotalaria Gets Credit For Fine Crop of Citrus

Crotalaria is getting the credit for the fine condition of W. L. Craft's 12-acre citrus grove near Stuart, reports County Agent C. P. Heuck. Three years ago $58 worth of nitrate of soda was put on the grove and no fertilizer has been applied since. This season approximately 850 field boxes of fruit were picked, and it topped the 127 cars sold on the Philadelphia market the day it was sold. No spraying for insects and disease has been practiced for the last several years.

The trees are from 10 to 16 years old. The soil is largely of the black sandy flatwoods type with some hammock land. Four years ago five pounds of Crotalaria striata seed were scattered in a few of the middles. Seed have been harvested and broadcast on other parts of the grove. Each year it has reseeded itself, and a heavy crop has been disked each spring until now there is a four to six-inch well-rotted mulch over the entire grove.

Shortly after the 1928 storm, most of the trees were topped back, and then the fertilizer was applied. By 1930-31 the trees had begun bearing again, and that year bore 250 boxes. After the fine yield just obtained the trees are in splendid condition, says Mr. Heuck, and apparently thriving well on Crotalaria humus. The trees are setting a heavy crop of fruit.

During the drought last summer and fall Mr. Craft states that his trees suffered very little and there always seemed to be plenty of moisture in the soil combined with the humus.

Potatoes Yield More.

Where Irish potatoes followed Crotalaria in DeSoto county this spring the yield averaged from 60 to 100 bushels per acre more than where no cover crop preceded them, according to County Agent J. J. Heard.

During the past seven years I have had only one purpose in view —to conscientiously administer the affairs of this office to the advantage of the people of our county.

My long experience as an educator, as an executive, and as a business man has enabled me to place and keep the schools of Highlands county among the very best schools in the state. The co-operation I have had from the people all over the county has been a source of satisfaction and greatly aided me in the work.

If re-elected I shall continue to put forth every possible effort for the schools, to maintain a high degree of efficiency, to keep them in operation full time, and to continue to reduce taxation.

The numerous duties of my office will prevent me from making a house to house canvass, but I wish you to know I shall greatly appreciate your continued support.

F. N. K. BAILEY.

FOR SHERIFF

To the Voters of Highlands County:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Highlands County, subject to the action of the voters in the Democratic Primary in June, 1932.

If nominated and elected I will give the voters my best effort to conduct said office along the highest business standards thereby giving the voters the service they should expect with economy and courtesy.

Very respectfully,

W. R. (Bill) ENGLAND.

FOR SHERIFF

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of sheriff of Highlands county, subject to the Democratic primary, June 7, 1932.

If elected I will endeavor to conduct the affairs of the office on a basis of fairness to all, giving the office my personally attention.

I take this method of soliciting the vote and support of my friends, and will appreciate any courtesies shown me.

E. A. (Ed) DeLANEY.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

At the solicitation of my many friends, I hereby announce myself a candidate for state senator from the twenty-seventh senatorial district, comprising Hardee, Highlands, DeSoto and Glades counties, greatly appreciated.

Your vote and support will be

HENRY G. MURPHY.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER, DISTRICT NO. 1

I announce myself for renomination as county commissioner from District No. 1, subject to the Democratic primaries in June. I hope my service during the past two years has been such as to merit a continuance of your confidence in my ability in this office. I am appreciative of the support given me by the voters of this district and assure all I will continue my efforts in behalf of a business-like administration of the county's affairs.

JOHN H. HOOD.

FOR TAX COLLECTOR

This is to announce that I am a candidate for the office of Tax Collector for Highlands County subject to the wish of the voters at the June Primary.

I can only pledge a continuance of my experience and the personal attention as given in the past which has resulted in tax collections surpassing any of our adjoining counties, in keeping our schools in operation and assisting in the reduction of real estate taxes.

These duties prevent me making a house to house canvas but I assure you of my appreciation of your votes and any other assistance towards my nomination.

D. F. CANFIELD.

FOR TAX COLLECTOR.

I herewith announce my candidacy for the office of tax collector of Highlands county, subject to the Democratic primary, June 7, 1932.

My long residence in the county, my wide acquaintance with the people and knowledge of real estate properties throughout the county will enable me to handle the affairs of the office to the benefit and satisfaction of the taxpayers.

If I am elected I will not work relatives in the office with me. I believe that in times like these public jobs should be given to deserving heads of families, and that one member of a family is enough in any public office.

If elected, I promise courteous and efficient service.

RUTH BASS HYLTON.

FOR CLERK OF CIRCUIT COURT

I wish to announce to the Democratic voters of Highlands county that I am a candidate for the nomination for the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court subject to the Democratic primary to be held on June 7th. If elected I will devote all of my time and energy to the office and will not employ any relatives or members of my family to assist me in the office. I will appreciate the support of those who wish to see busines principles applied to public office.

W. Z. (Tubby) CARSON.

FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

Feeling that my record of 40 years' services in the public schools, serving in all capacities from teacher to city superintendent with 85 teachers and 3,500 students, equips me to be of service to Highlands county, I hereby announce my candidacy for superintendent of public instruction, subject to the Democratic primaries in June. I served in this post the first nine months of Highlands county's history and organized the first term of our school system following creation of the county in 1921. I resigned to continue as principal at Avon Park. Since then I have served as principal at Avon Park and Venus.

I pledge myself to greater economies in the administrative affairs of the county system, and to maintain the high standard of schools through efficient, economical and personal supervision.

I. C. M. ELLENBERGER

COUNTY TAX ASSESSOR.

To the Citizens of Highlands County:

I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the office of Tax Assessor for Highlands County.

I have been a citizen and tax payer of this county for the past eighteen years and feel that my knowledge of the county and real estate values renders me competent to fill the office.

If elected, it will be my purpose to assess all properties with absolute fairness and impartiality devoting my entire time and attention to this work. No relatives will assist me in the office.

Your vote and support will be sincerely appreciated.

For County Tax Assessor

The county is a big corporation; each taxpayer is a stockholder. You are hiring a man to manage an important department, and I am applying for the job. For eleven years I have held this position and feel that I am partly responsible for the good condition of the county to-day. Let my record be my reference.

I thank you for past favors, which I have tried to merit by an accurate, honest, unbiased performance in my service to the taxpayers.

Your support again will be greatly appreciated.

Come, hear a frank discussion of Florida's tax problems and common sense plans for relief.

HE MADE GOOD THEN
(1921-1924)

He Will Make Good Again
(1933-1936)

IT is with pleasure I call the attention of the people of Highlands County to the following facts:

FIRST—During my administration of more than seven years the schools of our county have been wonderfully improved and developed until they now rank among the best and most efficient schools in the state.

SECOND—In spite of boom times, bank failures, and the financial depression we have kept our schools open, and the running expenses of the school system paid.

THIRD—By the strictest economy and the pursuance of the very best business methods in every department of the schools and in the purchasing of school supplies we have been able during my administration not only to accomplish the above facts, but also to pay off the bonded indebetedness inherited from old DeSoto County. The Board will close the present school year out of debt, and with a small balance in the treasury.

FOURTH—Last year the school taxes were greatly reduced, and I have already recommended to the Board that we will be in position when we make out our budget in June to make another considerable reduction in school millage for next year.

During my entire administration I have had only one purpose in view — to conscientiously administer the affairs of this office to the advantage of the people of Highlands County.

I greatly appreciate the splendid help and co-operation that you have given me all over the county in making my administration a success, and I assure you that your further support and co-operation will be greatly appreciated.

Subject to your will in the June Primaries, I am seeking the Democratic nomination for Sheriff, of Highlands County, Florida.

Knowing that you realize that a recommendation written by one's self is of no value, I am inviting you to make an unbiased investigation of my qualifications and integrity. After being convinced of my capability, I then solicit your wholehearted support.

If nominated and subsequently elected, I pledge the consistent performance of my duty.

To the Voters of Highlands County

For the past eleven years that I have held the position as Tax Assessor I have endeavored to give full measure of service, and I feel that our County has made a good record for economy and reduction in taxes.

Because of my eleven years in tax work in Highlands County, I feel that if again favored with this important office I will be in position to accomplish even more than in the past.

I am a candidate of no ring or faction. I regard it as the essence of our primary system that each aspirant to a position of public trust should base his claim on his merit; that his appeal should be made to each and every voter individually, freed from any influence save the merit of the aspirant, and upon this plea I come to you, assuring that you, as a voter and tax payer have more to do with me being a candidate than all the other forces in Highlands County.

I shall appreciate very much your support on June 7th.

For four or five years Ernest Amos has been denying he is responsible for bank failures.

Now along comes his private mouth-piece, the Tallahassee Democrat and informs us that Mr. Amos is responsible for saving a Tallahassee bank.

Now who is right?

If Mr. Amos is entitled to credit for saving one lone little bank in Tallahassee by merging it with other banks, why isn't he responsible for failure of the 207 others that closed?

If he could save one bank—if "through the agency of the comptroller this bank was taken over by three sound institutions * * * resulting in the depositors being paid off without lost of a single dollar" then through whose agency were the 207 other banks allowed to close with the loss of 90 million dollars?

Mr. Amos must not blow hot and cold.

If he's responsible for saving banks—he's responsible for not saving them. Bank directors, under the Florida laws, have to do what Mr. Amos tells them. If Mr. Amos was instrumental in having affairs of one weak bank in good enough shape to permit other banks saving the day for the depositors, why weren't all the banks in equally good condition.

The Democrat pleads for "consistency."

Sure, let us have consistency.

The same record shows he failed to save 207 banks with 90 million dollars in deposits.

The garden club, or somebody, ought to teach the oleander to bloom while the tourists are still down here.

Budgeting our income reminds us somehow of splitting the atom—not into just two parts, either, but several.

We would like to see Florida go wet. Now, please don't "stop the paper." We only mean wet to the extent of a few good rains.

Voting that ticket on June 7th, and getting out of the booth in a reasonable time, will provide a pretty severe intelligence test.

This economy thing is much like Mark Twain said of the weather—everybody is talking about it but nobody does anything about it.

Man just back from Texas says he found the people cheerful. He was told, "We are catching jack rabbits and salting 'em down—we call them panic pigs. If the panic pigs hold out we'll get by."

The Bible continues to be the best seller. The trouble is lots of people think they have done their full religious duty when they have bought a Bible. It seemingly does not occur to them that they should also read it.

Anton Brees has become a citizen of the United States. Viewing such men as he and Edward Bok convinces us that only the uninformed or the misinformed can entertain prejudice against our foreign-born citizens.

Just exactly of what use is an atom after it is split? As an encouragement to an infant industry, we might buy a pound or two of the "splits," but we'd like to know whether to put 'em in the soup or sprinkle 'em about as flea powder.

The good old days of the cheap railroad excursion seem to have returned. Railroads are making very low rates to boost a waning passenger business. The 'scursion used to be one of our most popular institutions, and particularly "the colored troops fought nobly" on all such occasions.

One nice little bit of buncomb being handed out by certain gubernatorial candidates is that if either of the two leading candidates—Hardee or Martin—is nominated, Howey will be elected in November. Plain rot. No matter which of the eight or ten Democratic candidates is chosen, Howey hasn't the ghost of a chance.

We sit attentive and wide-mouted, swallowing the promises of tax reduction made by candidates for Governor, who of themselves can do little along this line. And we pay little or no attention to the selection of members of the legislature who can do everything or nothing in this respect, according to how we choose them.

When we see a man spending considerable money and much effort in an endeavor to secure a rather insignificant office, we wonder why. But we suppose public office has a lure, and that holding it gives one a feeling of importance even though the emoluments are less than he would accept as an employe of a private concern.

Southern Baptists in convention at St. Petersburg attribute the world's present woes to "spiritual depression." They may be right—there are so many theories that one man's guess is as good as another's. Yet we sincerely believe that there was never before so much of kindness and charity in the world as there is today. And if that isn't spirituality, it is a reasonably good substitute.

Candidates Durrance and Martin are saying bad things about one another. Durrance at his meetings passes around pictures of an old lady whom he claims Martin put out of her home, and Martin comes back with thunderous advertisements in denial and denouncing Durrance. Meanwhile Hardee marches serenely on to the Florida White House, which will be his home for four years beginning next January.

We don't agree with Al Smith that a chock has been put under the Roosevelt bandwagon. We believe the old vehicle is careening merrily on its way to the Democratic presidential nomination, and that it will run over any chock Smith or anybody else tries to put under it. With most real Democrats we were strong for Smith in 1928, but we frankly dislike his present dog-in-the-manger attitude. And it will get him nowhere.

Those "investigators" from New York and elsewhere who insist upon butting in on the situation in the mining district of Kentucky look to us like first-class meddlers. We know nothing about the controversy between the mine owners and the workers, but we believe that the people of Kentucky are competent to handle their own affairs, and nowhere can an individual or a group be better assured of a fair deal. We have always found the Colonels for the under dog, if the under dog was at all deserving.

Vote for those whom you would charge with the conduct of the public business in accord with the same policy you would use in your own business. If you had a man in your employ who had proven himself faithful, capable and conscientious, you would not want to discharge him to break in a new man simply because the new man came along wanting a job. Apply the same principle to the important public job of Congressman. When you have a man in that position who is able, true and tried, why even consider the risky expedient of making a change?

Any number of things may be named as reasons for the present depression. There are undoubtedly many contributing causes. But until the banks function as something more than mere depositories, business can not be restored to normal activity. It does look like with all the financial wizards there are in the country, some plan could be worked out whereby confidence in our banking institutions might be thoroughly established and the banks at the same time be enable to extend reasonable credit to worthy risks. There lies the crux of the situation.

A practical man once established a business which made money. He ran it simply and directly, and without unnecessary detail. He was told that he was not doing things right, and he hired an efficiency expert who put in cost systems, elaborate bookkeeping methods, and many other frills. And in a little while the business went broke; it cost more to keep track of worthless details as to what the business was doing than the business could produce. Our governmental systems—Federal, State, county and community—are like that. All are cluttered up with needless offices, departments, bureaus, branches, assistants, and assistants to assistants. It is surprising how many of these useless and expensive adjuncts could be eliminated and their loss never felt. But the system that has been long and steadily growing up, and those who profit by it, have a pretty firm grip. It is hard to make the changes that are necessary to a return to old-fashioned simplicity and economy in government. But that is the only way which can lead to any material reduction in taxation.

Sebring Future Farmers Build Brooder House

Due to the fact that a large number of the students of vocational agriculture class of the Sebring high school live in town, it was impossible for the pupils to have suitable poultry projects. Although there were no funds available, the Future Farmer Chapter decided to build the house, financing the proposition themselves. The boys did all of the work in constructing the house, with the exception of building the flue. As soon as the brooder house was completed, 800 R. I. Red and White Wyandotte baby chicks were purchased. These were sold as started chicks, at ages varying up to six weeks. Funds for the construction of the building were raised by the Future Farmers putting on one of Rex Beach's plays called "Going Some," a Popularity Contest among the high school girls and from the profits made by selling the started chicks. Each night one or two boys stayed in a small room at the end.

Hammock Is Given Pair of Beavers

A pair of beavers, shipped from the state of Pennsylvania, were brought to Sebring yesterday by Deputy Game Warden Mel Bass. The fur bearing animals are expected to thrive in the waters of Highlands Hammock, where they will be released within the next few days.

Dr. I. N. Kennedy and C. C. Woodward of the State Game and Fresh Water Fish department, are responsible for the gift, promised some time ago.

Beavers are unknown in the southern part of the state, although there are numbers of the tribe in northern parts of Florida, where they make their homes on the banks of the streams of that section.

The pair given to the Hammock were brought to Sebring from Eustis. They will be released as soon as a suitable place in the Hammock for their wood-cutting activities is found.

Hogs Get More Attention.

Commissioners Name New List Primary Officials

At a special adjourned meeting of the county commissioners Wednesday afternoon, the previous action taken in naming and appointing election officials for the different precincts for the primary election endings was rescinded. Several had declined to serve, it was stated and others had failed to qualify, therefore a new list was prepared and ordered published and will be found elsewhere in this issue. Both political parties are represented on all boards wherever possible.

The commissioners also authorized the printing of the ballots for the primary and some of these will be in the hands of County Judge M. C. Whitehurst on Monday for the use of absentee voters. Ballots for both Democratic and Republicans will be prepared, the former on white paper and the the latter on yellow.

PLAN TO CO-ORDINATE FLORIDA INDUSTRIES

State Chamber of Commerce Sends Questionnaire To Local Bodies

Jacksonville, May 18.—Co-ordination of industries of the State, utilization of by-products; assistance to industries already established whether large or small; and the co-operation of the committee with investors who are planning to assist in the financing of existing or new industries within the State: These are the immediate objectives of the Industrial Committee of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce, according to an announcement made by the office of the State Chamber.

A questionnaire is being sent to every Chamber of Commerce in Florida, asking for preliminary information which is designed to reveal fundamental information on Florida's present day industrial status.

"While Florida is not known as an industrial state, yet our manufacturing business amounts to more than a quarter of a million dollars annually," stated William L. Wilson chairman of the committee, "A review of our industrial progress over the past 10 years indicates a steady forward movement. This review indicated that our industrial life is only in its infancy; that with proper encouragement our present day industrial possibilities can be expanded materially. This does not mean an industrial boom. It does not mean speculation. It simply means that Florida's industrial advantages, originating in climate, transportation and raw material are very real and apparent. It is to take full advantage of these industrial factors that the committee of the State Chamber is making an intensive study at this time," continued Chairman Wilson. He goes on to point that from Florida's soil eminences great quantities of raw materials for canning plants and other types of agricultural industry; our aquatic resources are another industrial factor that can be profitably developed. The paper industry, the mining industry, combined with industries predicated on the raw materials from Central and South American countries give suggestions for Florida's industrial future.

Birds at Contest Lay 64 Percent and Boost Seven Month Average

Chipley, May 18.—With seven months of the sixth Florida National Egg Laying Contest passed, the 840 birds have layed an average of 117 eggs, accordin to E. F. Stanton, supervisor. Production during April was 64.2 percent.

The leading pen has 1,611 points for 1,540 eggs and is owned by W. E. Pyles, Mayesville, Ky. M. Wieschelek's Poultry Farm, Jacksonville, is second, and Bailey Farm, Miami, third. All three of these pens have records better than the leading pen at this time last year.

A Rhode Island Red hen, owned by E. H. Rucker, Ottumwa, Iowa, is the leading individual with 185.1 points for 178 eggs. Second goes to one of the Pyles birds and third is to a Welschelek entry.

The first five pens in the 4-H club contest turned in a production during April slightly better than the regular contest, and for the seven months the club birds average five eggs less. An entry by Frieda Nowak, Cantonement, is leading, with second and third going to Edward Zellman and Billy Hargis, Umatilla.

Recreational use of the National Forests in 1931 increased as compared with 1930, reports just compiled by the Forest Service show. The estimated total of visitors for 1931 reached the record figure of 32,228,613, a gain of 324,098 over the preceding year.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blows up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Insist; substitutes. Sfe at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

Sunday School Lesson

FOR MAY 22, 1932

SUBJECT: Jacob and Esau Reconciled.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." Eph. 4:32.

LESSON TEXT: Gen. Ch. 32,33. (Printed part Gen. 33:1-11).

CENTRAL TRUTH: Prayer to God is good preparation for any Crisis.

BETWEEN THE LESSONS: After Jacob lodged at Bethel (in last Sunday's lesson) he made a vow, saying "So that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the Lord be my God: And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee."

Giving of Tithes existed as far back as Melchizedek, King of Salem, to whom Abraham gave Tithes. (Gen. 14:20; Hebrew 7:4).

"Then Jacob went on his journey * * and behold a well * * and the flocks gathered * * and Jacob said * * Whence be ye? and they said, of Haran * * and he said, know ye Laban the son of Nahor? * * And they said, We know him * * Behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep. * * When Jacob saw Rachel * * and the sheep of Laban * * Jacob * * rolled the stone from the well's mouth and watered the flock * * * and Jacob kissed Rachel * * and told Rachel that he was * * Rebekah's son, and she ran and told her father."

Then Laban came and took Jacob to his home and, after a month, proposed hiring Jacob to work for him. "And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter." Laban accepted the offer. "And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her." At the end of that time Laban tricked Jacob into accepting Leah. Rachel's older sister, and Jacob became very angry, whereupon Laban gave him Rachel also for a wife, and Jacob served him seven more years as a dowry for Rachel.

At the end of fourteen years, Jacob contracted to serve Laban six more years for an interest in his flocks.

Jacob prospered so that Laban and his sons became envious of him. "And the Lord said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee." Then Jacob gathered his wives and children and flocks and cattle and servants and departed from Laban, who in three days learned of his going and persued Jacob and overtook him in seven days. After a long conference Laban and Jacob made a friendly covenant, "And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him."

Jacob had cheated Esau out of his birthright and the family blessing. He was now returning to his old home and feared Esau.

"And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom." The messengers carried a long message to Esau and gifts of cattle, camels, sheep, etc. All that night Jacob "wrestled with the Lord in prayer." The Lord blessed him and changed his name from Jacob to "Israel."

Then today's lesson begins, "And Jacob, lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids. And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost." Jacob feared the old anger and threats of Esau and arranged his family, so as to protect them * * placing Rachel and her son at the most protected place in the caravan. Then Jacob went forward, bowing himself seven times as he advanced. Esau had thrown aside his anger and "Ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept." Seeing the women and children, Esau asked, "Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant."

Then the whole caravan advanced and "bowed low" to Esau, as a mark of his superiority. Esau inquired as to the messengers and gifts which Jacob had sent, "What meanest thou by all this drove which I met? And he said These are to find grace in the sight of my Lord. And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; keep that thou hast unto thyself."

The brothers both had prospered in worldly matters, but Jacob came as a suppliant to ask forgiveness for old injuries, and prevailed on Esau to accept his gifts. In some ways Esau excelled Jacob, but Esau seems to have had little regard for God, whereas Jacob, with all his faults, truly believed in and worshipped the Lord.

Fine Films Feature New Circle Showings

In announcing a change in the starting hour of the first night shows being held at the New Circle, "Sebring's Friendly Theatre," Manager Charlie Morrison also calls attention to some exceptionally fine films booked for immediate showing at his playhouse. "Murders in the Rue Morgue," based on the story by Edgar Allen Poe, is the current attraction, being shown through Saturday, with matinee on that day, at 3:30. Sunday and Monday, with matinee Sunday at 3:30, the first night shows starting Sunday at 7:30 instead of 7 o'clock, as here to fore, "The Trial of Vivian Ware" with Joan Bennett, Donald Cook, Skeets Gallagher, Zasu Pitts and other capable performers, will be the feature attraction. Next Tuesday and Wednesday, a picture that should be seen by every boy and girl, man and woman in Highlands county, "When a Feller Needs a Friend," starring Jackie Cooper with Chic Sale and a fine supporting cast, will be shown. This picture is said to be entirely different from any other Jackie Cooper picture and presents this capable juvenile star in a role that will add many to his already large list of admirers. Next week will be brought to a happy conclusion with the showing, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, matinee Saturday, as usual, of "Night Court," tremendous dramatic smash hit featuring Walter Huston, Anita Page, Phillips Holmes and Lewis Stone. If direction means anything to local audiences, this picture was directed by W. S. Van Dyke who gave to the screen "Trader Horn," "Tarzan" and other epic pictures. Varied short reels will add much to each feature presentation. Don't forget that, effective Sunday night, the first show will start just a half hour later than the present starting hour.

TACTICS USED BY DURRANCE AND HIS WORKERS AND BY HARDEE SUPPORTERS ARE SHOWN UP

Durrance has been exhibiting and passing through his audiences the photograph of an aged Pensacola lady, claiming that John W. Martin put her out of her home.

The old lady, past 80 years of age, has been living in Pensacola for more than 40 years. Two of Durrance's workers went to her home and told her they wanted to take her picture for a newspaper article because she was an old citizen and she consented. For one of the photographs they had furniture placed on her porch and induced her to sit down by the furniture to have her photograph made.

Durrance has been exhibiting these pictures and circulating the report that John W. Martin put her out of her home.

Below is an affidavit signed by the old lady which proves that what Mr. Durrance says is untrue and that John W. Martin has never taken advantage of her in any way. Also printed is a copy of the letter addressed by the lady to Mr. Durrance asking him to return her photograph to her and to discontinue the use of her name in his speeches.

Florida Democrats are shown what tactics Durrance and his followers are using in an attempt to gain notoriety and prejudice the minds of the people against John W. Martin.

Read the following letter which Miss Charbonier sent to Durrance and decide whether such a political trickster is deserving of consideration by Florida Democrats:

335 E. Intendencia St.,
Pensacola, Florida, May 13, 1932.

Charles M. Durrance, Esquire, State Attorney,
Jacksonville, Florida.
Dear Sir:

It has just been brought to my attention that you are exhibiting to people all over the State of Florida, a photograph taken of me while on my front porch and that in connection with this photograph you are making statements which convey the impression that I have been dispossessed or put out of my home, and that I have been injured or mistreated by former Governor John W. Martin.

As far as I know, Ex-Governor Martin is a very fine gentleman and has never done me an injury or injustice of any kind. I voted for him when he ran for Governor before and intend to do so in the coming election if I am able to get to the polls.

Therefore, I earnestly request that you discontinue displaying my photograph and that you return same to me immediately and cease using my name in any way in connection with your political campaign or otherwise.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) Miss Mary Dolores Charbonier.

Racing Commissioner Objects.

John W. Martin was severely criticized for donating money to a church in the last issue of the Quincy Times, owned and edited by R. L. Sweger, Carlton appointed race track commissioner and an old personal friend and supporter of Candidate Cary A. Hardee.

This criticism, originated in a Winter Garden newspaper and has been sent broadcast to newspapers all over the state.

Because Mr. Martin gave $10.00 to a Baptist church at Sneads several years ago to help them put a roof on their parsonage, these newspapers have claimed that he was trying "to buy votes with shingles." And they have called the good Christian women who were raising the church fund, "simple" and "misguided souls."

Mr. Martin is a Baptist of long standing and will make as many donations to churches as he pleases, even though the desperate politicians, who are attacking him, object and slander him and the members of the Church.

This act of generosity had been forgotten by Mr. Martin. He wired for confirmation and received the following letter from Mrs. Beulah Pender of Sneads. Read what she has to say about a donation made several years ago:

PENDER & KING
Sneads, Fla., May 12, 1932.

Mr. John Martin.
Tallahassee, Florida.
Dear Sir:

I'm very sorry you didn't understand my letter and had to go to the expense to wire. I just referred to your helping us several years ago and we certainly did appreciate it. Some of the other governors didn't help us as you did. At different times we have called on our governors for a little help but some turned us down and they must have had the same salary as you did. I remembered you helped us some years ago and as we are trying to get enough money to build a Baptist Parsonage I was sure you would help this year.

We certainly will thank you to remember our work at this time if you possibly can.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) Mrs. Beulah Pender.

Democratic voters of Florida will not relish such tactics on the part of those who are seeking the office of governor.

Sleeps Like a Baby

Mrs. Johnnie Simpson says: "At times I am very nervous, and unable to sleep at night. I find that I can take Dr. Miles' Nervine and sleep like a baby. Your money back if this time-tested medicine fails to do as much for you. At your drug store, $1.00

DR. MILES' NERVINE

To The Democratic Voters of Highlands County

I announce myself a candidate for nomination in the Democratic Primary for the office of Representative from Highlands County in the State Legislature.

If nominated and elected I pledge myself to a program of strictest economy for the State in all its departments and to work for a reduction of taxes, and when I speak of a reduction of taxes I do not mean reducing it on one item and raising it twice as much on another.

I will vote and work for a reduction of taxes on homes and farms.

I will vote and work for a reduction of auto tag costs and the elimination of the fee collecting tag agencies, placing the distribution and sale of tags in the tax collector's office without fees.

I will vote against and work against any new tax of whatever nature.

I am not the candidate of any group or faction. I am an independent business man and grove owner, and am not employed directly or indirectly by any corporation or individual.

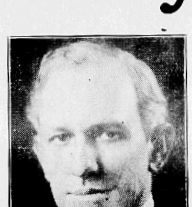

Your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated.

MAY ALLOW SEINING IN LAKE ISTOKPOGA

Small Delegation Asks Permit Be Granted; Kissimmee River Request Tabled

A small delegation consisting of F. R. Henderson, William Ewing and Mrs. C. B. McDonald who claimed they represented the families living around Lake Istokpoga appeared before the county commissioners Monday morning and requested that seining for predatory fish be permitted in that lake. They claimed that commercial fishermen are not interested in bass and none of these game fish would be taken. They also stated if seining were permitted it would mean the helping of the 75 families as they could sell their catches to the commercial men.

Commissioner Charles Beresford suggested a petition be signed by these families mentioned. State Fish and Game Commissioner C. G. Woodward had previously refused a permit for this seining on account of the spawning season but as this is about over Commissioner Perry Etheredge moved the recommendation that a permit be granted to J. V. Carnes, subject to the Fish and Game Commissioner's approval. Commissioner Beresford seconded and the motion carried. Mrs. McDonald promised to secure a petition signed by all the residents around the lake.

A written request from J. J. Hendry of Okeechobee to seine the dead rivers and bayous of the Kissimmee River on the Highlands county side was received, read and tabled. Mr. Hendry claimed on account of the low water many fish are dying and by seining they could be salvaged and use made of them for commercial purposes.

Fishhook Cactus Another Rare Plant For Cactus Park

Mr. Tom Culler has presented to the city parks a large round Fishhook cactus (Echinocactus Wislizenii) weighing about ten pounds and at least 25 years old. This slow growing species is native to the region about El Paso, Texas, and westward into Arizona. Being of the desert type it wants little moisture and in planting out in the improved Cactus Park in the Mall it must not come in contact with manure or strong fertilizer and must have plenty of rocks underneath for quick drainage. The soil must also contain some lime, hence the city park folks will place under it some Ocala rock. As the cactus gets older the fishhooks on it get larger and of great strength, often six inches long. It blossoms in July, August and September, yellow and orange bloom, followed by large yellow seed pods that stay on for months, lending a pretty effect all winter. It will be kept in a pot for awhile.

Very similar in appearance is another ball cactus the Sea-Urchin or Hedgehog of which the City Park department has in pots for setting out a little later several specimens, its botanic name Echinopsis Turbinata being partly from the Greek which means Hedgehog-like. While looking much like the Fishhook cactus this species comes out of the bogs of Porto Rico and will need all the rich food and water that it can get. The Hedgehog cactus, small in size, will have long white trumpet-shaped flowers, often larger than the cactus itself, which a century hence may be one foot high.

In the city slat-house are a few more small ball cacti from the bogs of Porto Rico called Cactus Intortus which have few spines and which are interesting from their bloom and from their row of marble size babies growing around the mother plant.

tality." Trained strictly in childhood in the older codes of duty and morals, she found great pleasure and support and comfort during later years and sleepless hours of night in rehearsing the Psalms, memorized more than four score years ago, and in the old hymns of the faith. In all these she both kept faith and "kept the Faith."

'Tis but as when one layeth
His outworn robes away,

These will I wear today.
