

Here and There About Avon Park

By W. M. Hetherington

NAIL THESE RUMORS

It seems that no public work can be carried on without public criticism. Too often those who strive the hardest to do their bit for the public good are the targets of this criticism—in almost every case based on misinformation or deliberate falsehood. Of late there has been too much loose talk about the streets about the administration of public funds for the relief of the unemployed. Most of this talk has emanated from the very fellows who are receiving the benefit of the money the government is spending.

The relief council has set the rate of pay at $1.00 per day for negroes and $1.25 per day for whites. Because somebody started the rumor that the pay was going to be $2.00 per day, the rumor has been spread that the members of the council are pocketing the difference between the rate they are now paying and the expected $2.00 per day. The relief council had the authority to set the rate of pay for Highlands county, and did so. In establishing $1.00 and $1.25 per day the council is stretching the money nearly twice as far as it would have gone had the rate been $2.00 per day. The present distressing emergency this was necessary in order to take care of the large number of applicants seeking relief. A day's small pay, but it is better than no pay.

No member of the council handles any money, whatsoever. The money is in the hands of the treasurer, and all labor is paid by drafts issued on the treasurer, so that there could be no opportunity of pocketing anything, no matter who wanted to do so.

Another rumor is the effect that the members of the relief organization are receiving pay for their services. As a matter of fact, not only do they receive no pay, but they are paying their own expenses that might be incurred in going about the county in the work.

Mr. Todd, chairman of the county relief council, does not know that this rumor is being in this paper. He has not asked for it. But he has been getting the brunt of the criticism by the uniformed and malicious minded, who should be thanking their stars that somebody like Todd, Dr. Davidson, Anguerra and others have enough public spirit to take on this work, for which they receive not one cent, but which costs them real money, time and effort that could well be expended in their own behalf.

It is time these nasty rumors were mailed, and that the people receiving the benefit of government money showed some appreciation of their way to get it for them.

CARLTON ANSWERS HOWEY REGARDING STATEMENTS MADE

Refutes Many Utterances Made During Campaign By Republican Nominee and Quotes State Auditor.

The following communication from Governor Doyle E. Carlton, replying to numerous statements made by W. J. Howe in his campaign for the governorship on the Republican platform, speaks for itself and needs no comment.

Tallahassee, Fla., Oct. 17, 1932.
Honorable W. J. Howe,
Orlando, Florida.

On my return to the Capitol today I have for attention your telegram inviting me to join you Saturday night in a discussion of certain matters which you consider vital to your candidacy. I am taking this, my first opportunity, to answer that the amount I received in aid of the common schools and retiring road bonds. These are not expenses of the State government.

The amount does not include the aid in the common schools and retiring road bonds. These are not expenses of the State government. The amount does not include the aid in the common schools and retiring road bonds. These are not expenses of the State government.

I have pledged to Mr. Shultz all the aid which an outgoing Governor can give to his successor, and if by any miracle or catastrophe, you should become Governor, I am sure you will be able to do so.

Since you question the merits of my administration, I submit the following summary which you may use as a campaign document. I request that you read it to each audience as an indictment of the present administration. I think, however, you could use it to better effect as a statement of your own policy and the State's policy.

During the past three and one-half years, while the Federal Government (under a Republican administration) has gone over three billion dollars in the hole, while other States have been unable to meet their obligations, some having deficits as high as twenty million dollars, Florida has had no other State with her four major disasters, has balanced her current budget; paid her current obligations; retired $2,000,000 road bonds; $6,000,000 in road contracts; inherited from past administrations a debt of a large part of the boom day debt created for running expenses of the State; is sending $100,000,000 to the common schools over $4,000,000 per year new money (the equivalent of a 10 mill levy) which will be cut to a three month term; for local tax relief in road bond obligations $6,000,000 per year (the equivalent of a 15 mill levy) which is saving most of the counties in distress from bankruptcy; has cut the state millage from 14 1/4 mills, to which it was forced by boom day expansion and the collapse which followed, down to 4 1/4 mills, the lowest in twenty-eight years. In the meantime, our assessments have dropped to approximately $300,000,000 as against a boom day valuation of $750,000,000. Through this period we have also conserved the Federal Forest Reserve and the Everglades, largely through Federal appropriation of $7,000,000, which money is now being spent. In fact, most of the work will be under contract by July first.

These things are accomplished neither by accident nor with a halcyon but by careful planning, economy and painstaking efficiency. In operating cost alone we are saving in the various branches of the State government over $5,000,000 per year.

Total Cost of State Government. You are quoted as saying that the present cost of the State government is $42,000,000 per year having been increased $6,000,000 by this administration. Neither statement approaches the truth. The people may be further deceived by such misrepresentations and know the reductions made, I have asked the State

Democratic Rally At Lake Placid Saturday Evening

Announcement was made yesterday that there will be a Democratic Rally at Lake Placid school auditorium on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock which all party nominees have been invited to address. T. A. McNicholas, secretary of the county Democratic committee will have charge of the meeting.

Similar rallies are being arranged for Venus, Sunnyland, DeSoto City, Sebring, and Avon Park before the election, November 8, and the places and times will be announced later.

J. Hardin Peterson of Lakeland, Democratic nominee for Congress from this district will be in Highlands county on Saturday, October 29 and will speak at Avon Park at 10 a. m. and at Sebring at 1 p. m.

Auditor to give the amount of State expenses for the past fiscal year.

Honorable Doyle E. Carlton, Tallahassee, Florida.

Answering your inquiry as to the cost of our State Government for fiscal year 1931-32, beg to advise that the amount is $13,252,218.77. This, of course does not include the amount returned to the county for local tax relief in aid of the common schools and retiring road bonds. These are not expenses of the State government.

People are sometimes confused by the totals in State reports when the same item often appears twice and where various funds are disclosed and swell the total accordingly.

I might add that expenses for current fiscal year will be much less because of recent economies. Very respectfully,
W. S. Morrow,
State Auditor.

In the foregoing you will find some of the administrative accomplishments which you consider disastrous to the State and a liability to a candidate. It is assumed that you read it to each audience as an indictment of the present administration. I think, however, you could use it to better effect as a statement of your own policy and the State's policy.

You promise to reduce salaries of Circuit Judges $500,000. We pay less than $300,000 now. You would reduce the number of the grand jury from 100 to 50. The grand jury costs only $200,000 now.

I recommended in my messages to the Legislature that we reduce the number of the Circuit Judges and use of the grand jury (by constitutional amendment) only when absolutely necessary. I never sought to mislead the people with such extravagant claims.

You propose to repeal what you say is the law providing a fee of one percent on bond issues for State attorneys and city attorneys. There is no such law. State attorneys draw only salaries and no fees. Compensation for city attorneys is fixed by ordinance.

I recall that four years ago in the Governor's campaign you stated that I had drawn $100,000 on bond issues over $100,000 as city attorney for Tampa, whereas I had not drawn one penny in fees but included this work in my regular salary.

You have also stated as if you were running against me, that I refused to abolish the Civil Court of Record, Hillsborough County, when the regular judge resigned and then took exception to the appointment I made. Why did you not say that the gentleman appointed was the regular nominee for the position. Not being familiar with the government of Florida, you did not know that a Court can be abolished only by legislative act, not by the Governor. But you could have found out that I was active in securing the later abolition of this Court as well as others.

I have gone in detail in the above statement because for many years our people have been misled by false political statements about our government—by the irreparable injury of the State. It is conceded by those who know, including many beyond our borders that no State has put over a more sane economical and constructive program or made more substantial progress in a program of readjustment.

It is no use the day for Florida when candidates for office cease to slander our State with misstatements made for selfish political gain.

DOYLE E. CARLTON,
Governor.

COULD TO ASK REDUCTION OF CONSUMER RATES

Offer to Trade City Property for Bonds—City Attorney To Proceed Against Outlets Property With Suits.

Reduction of light and water rates to consumers of Avon Park was taken up by the city council at its meeting Tuesday night, with the possibility that an effort will be made in the near future to secure reduced rates. Nothing definite was done in the matter, but a discussion by council members showed their attitude to be plainly in favor of making some effort in behalf of the consumers.

Donald J. Felton, representing the Florida Public Service commission, stated that it was the understanding of the company that city light and water rates were to be paid monthly after the recent adjustment of the account. He stated that the city had not paid its bill for local tax relief in aid of the common schools and retiring road bonds. These are not expenses of the State government.

A bill from L. C. Gunter for labor performed in spring on the Tyler-Spink grove was referred to the city attorney. Mr. Pardee advised the council that the city was not legally liable for the bill. It was brought out that Hayes Mackwell had contracted with Mr. Gunter to buy the grapefruit at $1 per box and that he had already given 110 boxes before it was brought to his attention that the city owned the property through foreclosure proceedings. By motion of Councilman Ford, seconded by Mr. Masters, Mr. Mackwell was authorized to pay Mr. Gunter $110 if he would sign a release to any further claim, and Mr. Mackwell was further authorized to pick the balance of the early crop before December 1, if he paid the city $1 per box as the fruit was picked.

The clerk was authorized to instruct the chief of police to collect on city loans.

A letter from W. R. Stone, Bristol, Tenn., stated he was interested in exchanging part due city bonds held by him for income bearing property owned by the city. The clerk was authorized to offer him the Gully grove property of six acres in exchange for bonds at a price of $4000 for the property. The property was recently acquired by the city through foreclosure of paying liens.

A request from the Woman's club asking for exemption of real estate taxes on club property was deferred until after members of the council could inspect the property.

City Attorney S. C. Pardee read a request from attorneys for the Avon Florida Citrus Corporation asking him to delay tax foreclosure suits on outlying property until after a decision can be secured from the supreme court on the city limits case now before the court.

Mr. Pardee stated that he believed he should go ahead and file suit, and in this matter he received the sanction of the council.

The city attorney read correspondence with the Municipal Securities association indicating that they would not be satisfied with the latest division of bond moneys. He stated that he was going to propose a rearrangement of the fourth section of the budget which would increase the amount allocated to interest coupons to about $9000.

A. F. Knotts, republican candidate for controller, and E. E. Calloway, of Lakeland, spoke in the mall Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Calloway spoke first and covered national politics from the republican viewpoint, and Knotts spoke in the interest of his candidacy.

Calloway defended the republican administration and dwelt at length on the benefits of the tariff to Florida farmers and producers. He asked Florida voters to forget party and vote for their best interests, claiming the Republican party to be the real friend of Florida.

Mr. Knotts denounced "machine" government, set forth his qualifications and gave an outline of what he would advocate if elected.

Negro Takes Purse From Ott Store Containing $150

Shortly after seven o'clock this morning a negro man entered Ott & Son's store, and lifted a bill from the cash register containing about $150 in bills. Mr. Ott had just opened the store and had placed the bill fold on the counter beneath the open drawer of the register, preparatory to putting the money into the drawer. A negro man entered and asked to see some buttons in a case near the cash register. While he was looking over the buttons, Mr. Ott says he went across the store to light a hot water heater. As he walked back the negro asked to see some shirts across the store room, which he looked at, but went out without buying. Mr. Ott then went back to the cash register and discovered the bill fold to be missing. The negro quickly disappeared after leaving the store and no trace has been found of him.

The negro was described as weighing about 140 pounds, short and thick-set, and was wearing blue overalls and a blue jumper and a gray cap.

The commissioners also heard from the attorney, Spencer Jones, regarding cattle running at large in the vicinity of the Highlands Hammock road and destroying palms and other beautiful trees. Mr. Jones pointed out that Harder Hall had fenced their property and cattle gaps had been installed to keep out wandering cattle and requested the county take some action regarding the nuisance. ASK QUARANTINE ON CALIFORNIA CITRUS

Committee of Fifty Again Asks Plant Board To Guard Against Brown Rot

Winter Haven, Oct. 19.—The Florida State Plant Board has again been called upon by the Committee of Fifty of the Clearing House to replace quarantine against California citrus. The announcement of the Committee's action was made here this week in a statement issued by the Committee through its secretary, Fred T. Henderson. The quarantine which is under fire was established more than fifteen years ago to safeguard Florida citrus from a disease called brown rot, which is known to flourish in California.

The statement declared that precautions thrown up by the Florida State Plant Board, providing for sterilization of the fruit before leaving California, have proven ineffective. The statement further charged that California fruit infected with brown rot has been discovered in Florida in retail distribution.

"A Florida embargo," says the statement, "was placed against all California citrus on Oct. 9, 1915, because there existed in California a fungus disease of citrus fruits commonly known as brown rot. This quarantine was lifted in February of 1921, permitting the shipment of California lemons into Florida throughout the year and California oranges during the period from May 1 to October 1. The reasons for lifting the quarantine which had existed since 1915 until February of 1921 are summarized in a letter written by Dr. Newell on Feb. 25, 1922, in which Dr. Newell stated:

"Since 1915 substantial additions have been made to the knowledge concerning this disease (brown rot). For example, the citrus fruit may be freed of all spores of the disease which may occur on the surface of the fruit by immersion in a hot water bath of 110 degrees Fahrenheit. Much progress has also been made in the citrus packing houses in California in the improvement in sanitary methods of handling and packing the fruit. It is believed that the precautions under which California lemons and oranges will be shipped into Florida under the present arrangements will be sufficient to reduce practically to the vanishing point any danger of their carrying brown rot infection."

"This statement," Dr. Newell's clearly indicates that brown rot is still a menace to Florida and the only reason given for lifting the quarantine on California fruit are the effectiveness of sterilization and the improved sanitary conditions under which California fruit is packed. So, if it can be shown that sterilization has not been effective, then the reason for lifting the quarantine falls and requests for its replacement are reasonable and necessary.

"On July 16 the Plant Board inspector at Miami, in the course of inspecting a carload of California lemons, took from the car material which he suspected of being brown rot. This material upon laboratory examination and culture was found to be the brown rot of lemons and oranges, and the absence of either carelessness on the part of California shippers or the ineffectiveness of the sterilization program, but most conclusively proving that it was possible for brown rot from California to enter the state of Florida."

"Following this finding of brown rot in Miami, the State Plant Board at its meeting in Jacksonville on the 15th of August took action looking towards the prevention of any repetition of such developments. This action in substance requires that in the future no car of California lemons or oranges will be permitted delivery in Florida until it has been inspected and passed by inspectors of the Florida State Plant Board."

"This again is further admission that even under the sterilization employed and in the absence of the sanitary conditions of California packing houses, which were the only reasons for lifting the quarantine, it is still possible for brown rot to get through and reach Florida. Hence the menace of Florida still exists in order that the Florida citrus crops may have protection from the invasion or further spread of this disease, it is the judgment of the Committee of Fifty that the quarantine against California citrus fruits from any section that may have brown rot should immediately be replaced and rigidly enforced."

Dairymen Grow Roughage. Dairymen in Marion county are trying more and more to grow all of the roughage their cows will consume, reports County Agent Clyde H. Norton. Depending on corn, cowpeas, velvet beans, alfalfa, and pasture, many of the dairymen have cut their feed bill so that cottonseed meal is the main item in it. Wherever possible they are allowing the cows to harvest the crop in the field.

Sears, Democratic nominee for congressman-at-large, a veteran of many legislative battles in the interest of the people, again offered the state of Florida the opportunity to utilize the services of an experienced, able and dependable representative in the lower house of the National Congress.

Joe Sears, as he is known to tens of thousands of Floridians, is not an unknown quantity. For 14 years—as a member of congress from this state—he served the people with honor and distinction.

Notable Achievements. His most notable achievement includes his successful fight against three cent postage on "drop letters" which saved many thousands of dollars to business men.

Since the enactment of recent legislation increasing the postal rates business men appreciate the value of having a representative in congress who will fight unjust taxation.

Joe Sears, as a former member of congress, assisted in perfecting and largely was instrumental in the passage of the Vocational Bill, which has made it possible for the youth of America to receive vocational education.

Joe Sears was chairman of the committee which introduced and passed the first Rehabilitation Bill for the relief of disabled ex-service men.

Reiterating his primary campaign declarations, Joe Sears is opposed to governmental extravagance and if returned to congress which he will be by an overwhelming majority—he will take up the fight where he left off to reduce expenses of government and thereby cut the tax load under which the people are staggering.

Jacksonville, Oct. 19.—W. J. Sears, Democratic nominee for congressman-at-large, a veteran of many legislative battles in the interest of the people, again offered the state of Florida the opportunity to utilize the services of an experienced, able and dependable representative in the lower house of the National Congress.

Joe Sears, as he is known to tens of thousands of Floridians, is not an unknown quantity. For 14 years—as a member of congress from this state—he served the people with honor and distinction.

Notable Achievements. His most notable achievement includes his successful fight against three cent postage on "drop letters" which saved many thousands of dollars to business men.

Since the enactment of recent legislation increasing the postal rates business men appreciate the value of having a representative in congress who will fight unjust taxation.

Joe Sears, as a former member of congress, assisted in perfecting and largely was instrumental in the passage of the Vocational Bill, which has made it possible for the youth of America to receive vocational education.

Joe Sears was chairman of the committee which introduced and passed the first Rehabilitation Bill for the relief of disabled ex-service men.

Reiterating his primary campaign declarations, Joe Sears is opposed to governmental extravagance and if returned to congress which he will be by an overwhelming majority—he will take up the fight where he left off to reduce expenses of government and thereby cut the tax load under which the people are staggering.

Sears Hard Worker. During the 14 years Joe Sears served in congress, he had

"Brahma" Watters and Perry Lee "Scrub" Etheredge. The patrol is going to entertain the Sebring citizens on Monday night with a Halloween program. The patrol also wishes to express their appreciation for the help that has been given them.

Haa Party Support. He has the support of the en-reputation of being one of the ablest members of that body.

His constituents bear witness to that statement.

He was everlastingly on the job. He was never too busy or too tired to give the personal attention to every request or demand made of him.

Joe Sears—when he goes back to congress—will be the same painstaking, conscientious and dependable public servant he was during his previous service in the lower house.

Citrus Growers Lose Big Sum By Careless Picking

Florida citrus growers annually lose from two to three million dollars by allowing careless handling of fruit from the tree to the car.

E. F. DeBusk, citrusiculturist with the Florida Agricultural Extension Service, said in a recent radio address.

That is the toll which blue and green mold rots take on Florida's orange and grapefruit crops, and the fungus causing these rots are unable to penetrate the rind of sound, uninjured fruits, he explained. It is, therefore, up to the grower to prevent clipper cuts, long stem punctures, bruises, and scratches.

Fewer fruits are injured during picking when the nipper type of clipper instead of the scissors type is used. The nipper type makes clipper cuts almost impossible and does not leave long, sharp stems to puncture other fruit.

A fruit on which the rind has been broken is potentially a rotten fruit, he stated. It may also allow the rot to develop and ruin a half dozen nearby fruits.

The Florida orange is juicy and heavy, and only a short drop will bruise it and make it susceptible to decay. The bruised fruit also liberates a brownish green oil which spots the fruit and others with which it comes in contact.

This type of injury is usually more prevalent when fruit is picked soon after a rain or heavy dew.

Needless to say, field boxes should not be filled above the level and they should always be carefully emptied even though they require the picker to bend his knees and back.

Perhaps from the standpoint of strict duty as a citizen the minister who is said to have assisted two convicts to escape from the camp where the Maillefort horror occurred did wrong. Vercacious parties in various South Florida communities are contending as to which can tell the tallest tale about the size of the avocados their trees produce. We would like to see conviction and a stiff sentence for the chap who smeared crankcase oil upon the picture of President Hoover while it hung on the porch of Collector Miller's home at Jacksonville. The act was not so much an offense against Hoover as it was an insult to the President of the United States, the personification of our government. As such it deserves the severest punishment.

NAVY DAY

WE LAND LUBBERS HAVEN'T MUCH FIRST HAND KNOWLEDGE OF OUR FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE BUT SHE ALWAYS LOOKS GREAT IN THE NEWS REELS

Governor Carlton is to make speeches in behalf of the Democratic National ticket in Kentucky, Maryland and West Virginia, and perhaps in other States. Whether you like the Governor or not, you must admit that he has the ability to tell 'em. When Florida sends her present Governor out on a speaking tour she does not have to send any apology for her representative.

The outcome of the trial of Convict Boss Courson for the death of Prisoner Maillefort, sweat box victim, is satisfactory to the people as far as it has gone. There are still the recourse of a new trial, an appeal, and other devious devices, to delay or interfere with the penalty the verdict of manslaughter carries; but the verdict shows, at least, that Florida justice is not indifferent to inhuman practices in the operation of her prison system. Let us hope the publicity given this unfortunate affair has created a sentiment against such outrages that will not die out speedily, but that will demand such vigilance on the part of those responsible that Florida will not be again disgraced by a similar occurrence.

Doubtless an important contributing factor in the success attained by Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, which has enabled him to render such valuable service to Florida and the nation, may be found in his deeply religious convictions. Illustrating these sentiments he is quoted as having recently made this statement: "I am one of those who believe miracles occur today and messages of God come to us, just as in Bible times. The days of miracles and of angels have not passed away. When a new soul is born into the world a miracle has been performed. That happens every day all over the world. It's very frequency and universality cause us to consider it commonplace and minimize it. You plant a bulb and you have a beautiful lily. You cannot tell how it is done. It is a miracle. The laws of Nature, established by God, are constantly and everlastingly working miracles."

THE DRANE-PETERSON RECOUNT.

Of unusual interest was the Drane-Peterson recount of ballots which was held here last Monday before Circuit Judge Fred L. Stringer. Of more than passing interest because of the dirty work performed by some one in an endeavor to "muddy the water" by stuffing the ballot boxes and otherwise throwing the whole affair into a tangle and bringing further unfavorable publicity to Hernando county.

It is not known who were the guilty parties that performed the deed, but it is known that another disgrace has been placed upon the shoulders of hernando county citizens.

The Journal would not for a moment discredit either Congressman Drane or Peterson. We believe neither of them knew anything about the affair or had anything to do with it. Their past conduct has been so reproached and it is now too late in the game for them to stoop to such acts of misdeeds. However, there is a guilty one somewhere and that guilty one should be brought to justice and severely punished.

The grand jury is busily engaged in investigating the matter. It is up to every citizen of this county to lend their every effort to catch the guilty in order that the honor of our people may be upheld.—Brooksville Journal.

CITIZENSHIP AND PARTIZANSHIP.

Governor Roosevelt, in a speech at Milwaukee last week, advanced quite a different idea of the proper attitude of a voter toward his party than that which is often heard these days. The Governor remarked that voting independently was somewhat of a habit in Wisconsin, and he commended the people for their "refreshing freedom from party lock-step."

Choice of public officials and adoption of government policies, he said, "involve a principle deeper than party."

Which is only another way of saying what has been said in this paper a number of times, that citizenship should come ahead of partizanship.

Party leaders do not fear the blind partizan in the mass, who can be depended on to vote the straight party ticket regardless of who may be running for public office on it, but leaders do fear the discerning independent voter who considers both the man and the party and endeavors to choose for the best material that is offered on any ticket.

Parties are necessary, and a certain amount of party loyalty is commendable, but we still insist that most of the corruption that exists in official circles today is due to the habit of many voters to accept the party label as a guarantee of quality without looking any further.

The only thing that will ever correct the governmental evils that afflict us is a militant public opinion, and a militant public opinion does not vote straight party tickets regardless.

Governor Roosevelt is quite right in his statement that principles should be deeper than party. He was talking to a group of people who had just helped in nominating new candidates for the most important offices in the state, thus asserting their independence.

The boss politicians have learned to have a wholesome regard for the independent voters, where they are sufficiently numerous to wield the balance of power.

"My party, may she always be right; but right or wrong, my party," is not sound doctrine. It is better to cut the sentence off at the semi-colon.—Arcadia Arcadian.

YOUTH ADRIFT.

I am writing to the parents of young boys and girls this time—of young people between twelve and twenty. Do you parents know that there is an army of boys and girls—like your own, Bill and John and Harry or Mary, Louise and Gladys—who are hitch-hiking, stealing rides on freight cars, daily seeking work, nightly seeking shelter, being rebuffed, jailed, pitied, fed when possible, and sent on and back, and on again? This tramp army is between two and three hundred thousand youths who are hitch-hiking, stealing rides on freight cars, begging lifts from passing autos, always kept on the move by police and railroad men and welfare workers. One of the things we deplore about others during the Russian Revolution was the army of children unhoused, ragged, dirty, whose parents were killed or starved to death in those horrible years. They were the greatest menace to the country that existed in that unhappy time. And now we are having the same thing in O.K. country—the land of the free and the home of the brave! Most of these boys and girls have had some schooling, but haven't been able to finish high school. They have left home to find work, unwilling to be a burden on their families if they have any. They travel singly or in groups, make jungle camps along the railroads, under bridges, or make shanties of pieces of boards, old tin, canvas or anything they can find. Girls, dressed in boys' clothes, are frequently found sharing the rough life of the men and boys, sticking to their "pal" until an accident separates them or a better one is found. It doesn't take much imagination to understand what this means in terms of filth, vice and disease. The number of these young people who are lost to society, who are killed on railroads, who are beat up and jailed as vagrants, then set adrift, is appalling. One young fellow who started for California from Florida recently and was turned back just west of the Mississippi told of numerous fatal accidents on the railroad. One young victim in particular that he knew about was buried where he was killed because his parents had no money to pay for bringing his body home. One report says that last year in one western city, 35 young men and boys were removed from box cars, seriously ill, some in an advanced stage of pneumonia. Railroad men in Kansas City told investigators that last May no fewer than 1500 men and boys rode freight trains only to die of starvation and exposure. And this condition of things is by no means past. Only yesterday one of our citizens told me that lots of men and boys pass his place every day asking for work at fifty cents a day, and begging for food and shelter. It is impossible to help everybody who asks, or even to help anybody when your own pantry is empty, so what can you do except to sympathize with them and refuse their plea? It is a hard thing to do when one has a heart for all suffering—whether humans or animals.

But these boys and girls will be voters in a few years, or if they become out-casts and are not allowed to vote—as many citizens are being disfranchised right now for the November election—what will be the outcome?

Many towns have no welfare agencies to care for homeless wanderers, nor any shelter except the calaboose or jail. We realize how pitifully inadequate our welfare service is in times like these. The only place where a homeless person can be placed is a hospital, and he can't go there until he is too sick to be left on the street! What an indictment of our boasted civilization!

What can we do about it? Echo answers. What can we do to prevent it? Oh, there is hope to be found in the answer to that question. We can begin right now to change the system that makes all of this poverty, this unemployment, these hard times. It is not easy. It means taking an opposite stand from some of your friends and neighbors and relatives. It means getting a new viewpoint of the management of our government. It means sticking together and fighting together, the exploited against the exploiters, the working man and women against the hard-boiled bosses. But it will pay. It means victory in the end. It means food and homes and steady work against present starvation.

It means writing in the names of our candidates, Thomas and Maurer on the ballot and putting a cross in front of each name. Do it neighbor, you will never be sorry.

TAX-EXEMPTION OF HOMES A POSSIBILITY.

Various political candidates and many other persons in Florida during the last few years have advocated the exemption of homes from taxation; but few of them have proposed any specific thing to make up for such exemption. Bearing in mind, the large portion of taxes that are now paid by homes in cities, towns and counties, many persons have said, "It can't be done."

But the "liquidation tax" plan as proposed by The News a few weeks ago would relieve homes of all such taxes, except the very nominal one of the constitutional one-mill tax for school purposes. Would such relief be a stimulant to home-owning and home-building? "We'll say it would."

By adopting a system of taxation that would place the tax burdens on those able to pay and in just the proportion of their ability to pay, and by taking tax burdens off from homes and non-productive real estate so long as it remained non-productive, the State, of Florida would at once take a step ahead of any other State in scientific taxation and one perhaps the most potent stimulus to home-owning and real-estate purchase that the State has ever had. Would this help to bring business and prosperity to Florida? "We'll say it would."

The dream of tax-exempt homes can be made a reality.—Zephyrville News.

Mr. Howey, Republican candidate for Governor, says that if elected, he will preserve the traditions of the South in making appointments. He needn't bother about that. Florida will preserve the traditions of the South and defeat the Republican candidate, Mr. Howey, so he needn't be exercised about making appointments.—Jacksonville Herald.

Hallow'en Party Tuesday.

Miss Millie Pearson, president of the Business and Professional Woman's Club was hostess to the members at a beautifully arranged bridge party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McKilip, 402 North Lake avenue on Thursday evening.

In keeping with the approaching Hallow'en season, the party was decorated in colorful autumn woods of the flowers, and the tallies, score pads, prize wrappings and table covers and napkins used with the refreshment course were in orange and black. A lighted pumpkin at the door greeted the guests as they arrived and this was later given to Mrs. Fred Peden as a consolation for holding poor cards during the evening's progressions.

A double deck of cards was presented to Miss Kate Thompson for holding high score and second high score prize was won by Mrs. McKilip and was two hand made handkerchiefs.

The delicious refreshment course served following the distribution of prizes consisted of Pumpkin pie topped with pecans and whipped cream and served with hot coffee. Hard candies were enjoyed during the game.

Guests were: Miss Mattie Thompson, Miss Kate Thompson, Miss Eleanor Bryant, Mrs. C. E. Clark, Mrs. Kathryn Bristol, Mrs. Olive E. Anderson, Mrs. L. H. Hagood, Mrs. Fred Peden, Mrs. H. W. McKilip, Mrs. Phil Abrams and Mrs. Helen Mann.

Shower for Recent Bride

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Bennett of Berea, was the scene of a lovely miscellaneous shower, honoring Mrs. H. F. Guerdin, formerly Miss Hazel Overstreet, Saturday afternoon.

The guests were met at the door by the hostesses, Misses Bernice Bryant of Lakeland and Miss Lela Pollard. As each guest arrived they were asked to write in the bride's book.

Fall flowers consisting of daisies and goldenrod decorated the party rooms into a bower of color. The Hallow'en color motif was carried out in the decorations.

Girl Scout News

All the news we Scouts have this week is about the party. Nearly all of the troop was there, and there surely were some fierce looking pirates. There were just a few Englishmen (in fact only six) to be captured by that large band of pirates, numbering about 20.

First we were attacked and after a long struggle, were finally overcom. Some of the more fierce of our foes had large "horse" cut-throats, long double bladed swords and keen edged daggers. No wonder we were overpowered.

In capturing us, they boarded our ship, the Jolly Rover, and took us to their ship, the Black Pirate.

Three of our boys were chosen to be three of the pirates' bottle-washers and rum makers. The other was chosen as a stove cleaner.

Those pirates were a strange people. They tied us and then gave us an entertainment, consisting of tap dancing, poems and short, short plays.

Later the Englishmen managed to escape and steal a treasure hunt. After about 45 minutes the treasure was found and we were delighted to find that it was a box of food.

The pirates found us again and seemed to have a change of heart, for instead of taking the food away from us, they shared it with us. The treasure was enjoyed very much and everyone had a good time.

During the evening Miss Ruth Kempton told us three stories, a pirate story a ghost story and a scout story. They were all interesting. The party was held at Mr. and Mrs. Kempton's new home.

Betty Brooks, Scribe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Powell spent Saturday in Tampa, returning by way of Winter Haven where they spent the guests of relatives on Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. D. G. Perry went to Atlanta on Monday, and attended a convention of Rexall dealers. They drove through in their car and stopped by Dade City where they were joined by Dr. and Mrs. Fred Touchton who accompanied them. They returned home Friday.

Viva Kathleen Tillis of Bartow is the attractive young house guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Booth this week. Mr. and Mrs. Booth and daughter, Carmen spent Sunday in Frostproof with Mr. and Mrs. John Macey and Viva Kathleen came over with her father, Fred Tillis from Bartow and joined them there. Mr. Tillis returning to Bartow that evening.

RURAL COMMON SENSE

By Spuds Johnson

HOME DEMONSTRATION, COUNTY AGENT WORK, MORE NECESSARY NOW

County and home demonstration agent work is needed now as never before, according to George H. Baldwin, prominent Jacksonville business man, as quoted in the press recently. Seems to me there is pretty much truth in the statement.

In recent years the trend of population in the United States has been from city to country. It was just the opposite for many, many years until recently. And now, as people are moving from cities to the country as a result of the economic situation, they will need the help of county and home demonstration agents very much.

And, as Mr. Baldwin suggested, they will need help not only to get started or re-started in the game of farming and rural home-making but also in the game of citizenship. Months or years without a job will try the spirit of the best of us, and place us in need of encouragement as well as help.

Those of us who are familiar with the work of county and home demonstration agents know the tremendous value of this service. We have received aid in our production and marketing problems which has meant real money to us. Our homes are better and our communities are more desirable as a result of this work.

However, it is true that more of us should know about this work, and should know that the services of the county agent and home demonstration agent are free to us. The people over at the Experiment Station tell us that occasionally they receive letters from farmers who are planning to sell him liquor, the judge fined her one cent and scored the officer.

When Mrs. Lella Elam of Humboldt, Tenn., told the judge that a prohibition agent had coerced her to sell him liquor, the judge fined her one cent and scored the officer.

The Printer You Should Depend On

A PRINTER who brings you estimates is not half so helpful as a printer who brings brains, mechanical genius, constructive opinions, artistic ability, definite knowledge, abstract viewpoint and successful experience.

Find the printer who "uses his head" and stay with him. His price may be a little higher this time, a little lower next time, but he understands what you are trying to do and he knows how to help you get it done. He may serve your purpose more effectively than you serve it yourself... because he brings to you an outside viewpoint.

Sunday School Lesson

FOR OCTOBER 23, 1923.

SUBJECT: Problems of the Modern Home

GOLDEN TEXT: "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15.

LESSON TEXT: Joshua 24:14-15; Eph. 6:1-4.

Introduction: Joshua selected Moses as leader of the Jews. In Joshua 1:2, the Lord said to Joshua, "Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give thee, even to the children of Israel." The Israelites, under his leadership, took possession of the land of Canaan and divided it among the tribes of Israel.

All the tribes of Israel, by their elders, heads, judges and officers, were assembled before Joshua to hear his last address. After reciting to them the growth of the tribes into a nation under God's care, Joshua said to them, "Now therefore fear the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve the Lord. And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye shall serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

After reciting all that God had done for the Hebrew people, Joshua said to them, "Now therefore, because of all that God has done for you, because of your rescue from Egyptian slavery, your rescue at the Red Sea, your preservation from death by thirst and by starvation, because of your God given victories over your enemies and your capture of the lands of Canaan and their allotment among the tribes, Now therefore, fear the Lord, and serve ye the Lord." Then Joshua said to them "If when God has done all these things for you, it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, (then) choose you this day whether you will serve the gods which your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates river before Abraham was called out of his native land, or whether you will serve the Gods of the Amorites. In whose land ye dwell."

They could choose to serve Jehovah, the only true God; or to serve one or more of the false gods which Abraham and his ancestors served in their land from which Abram (Abraham) was called, or that were served by the Amorites and other native tribes of Canaan.

Then Joshua further said, "But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." And the people said unto Joshua, "Nay, but we will serve the Lord."

Joshua answered the people, "Now therefore put away these strange gods that are among you."

Suppose we stop here and make a list of idols, or strange gods, now in our lives, and drive them out and turn their places over to Jehovah the true God.

The second part of the lesson is taken from Paul's letter to the Ephesians, giving advice to children and parents, servants (slaves) and Masters: "Children obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; That it may be well with them, and thou mayest live long on the earth. And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

The words "in the Lord" do not apply to "parents," thereby limiting the obedience to only parents who are Christians, but the obedience is to be according to the Lord's will.

"That it may be well with thee," appears to promise a reward for "obedience," and there is no wrong in seeking the rewards promised in the scripture, but children should obey parents for the sake of doing right and of giving happiness to parents, who should always be objects of love and respect.

But that often depends largely on the parents' compliance with the other portion of Paul's command. "And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

Our lesson suggests many questions, including, "If Christ were present in your home, what changes or additions would He suggest?"

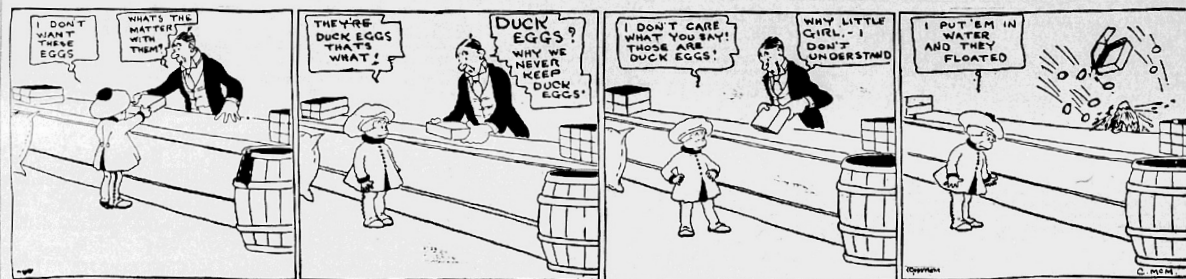

One book lays down ten "don'ts" for the use of parents, like these, "Don't lie to your children nor permit anyone else to do so." "Don't use fear as a whip; don't stress a weakness of your child."

Both parents and children owe each other a pleasant home to live in. Do you try to make the other members of your family happy? Each of us must choose between idleness and the true worship of the Lord.

METHODIST CHURCH CONFERENCE SUNDAY

Lake Placid - DeSoto City Charge Met Sunday Evening; Officers Named

The fourth quarterly conference for the Lake Placid-DeSoto City Charge of the Methodist Church, Bartow District, was held at the DeSoto City Church Sunday evening with a good attendance. The business session was called to order by the Presiding Elder E. W. Smith immediately following the evening service, and L. T. Farmer was re-elected as secretary for the fourth time. Reports were then received from the pastor on the general state of the church and showed that in the last quarter a Young Ladies' Missionary Society had been organized and functioning, that a prayer service for the Methodist people had been organized with good attendance each Wednesday evening. Reports from the Sunday school superintendents, George Kelsey of Lake Placid and Perry Etheredge of DeSoto City, were read and indicated the schools at each church have held up in attendance and interest during the summer months, more so than last year. The financial reports showed that the church at Lake Placid was far along in this respect as they were last year this time. Reports coming from the Missionary Societies and Epworth Leagues showed that good work is being done in each of these branches of the church.

Concluding the business session the following church officials were elected for the conference year 1932-33, and will take office on December 20th, when the new year begins: trustees of church and parsonage property, B. F. Williams, E. W. Kelsey, J. M. Andrews, from Lake Placid; and L. T. Farmer, Perry Etheredge, George Kelsey, as trustees of the DeSoto City church; members of the board of stewards elected were: J. M. Andrews, W. M. Roberts, P. T. Richards, J. T. Taylor, George Kelsey and A. R. Trammell, from Lake Placid, and L. T. Farmer, Perry Etheredge, Mrs. J. H. Twitty and H. E. Galloway, for DeSoto City; junior board: Rudolph Leaphart, Narcis Leaphart, Perry Etheredge, Judson Twitty, and Miss Mary Katherine Smith for the DeSoto City church.

L. T. Farmer from the DeSoto City church was re-elected to the office of recording steward and charge lay leader for the term and was also re-elected as district steward for this charge. P. T. Richards was elected church lay leader for Lake Placid and Perry Etheredge for DeSoto City. George Kelsey and Perry Etheredge were re-elected as Sunday school superintendents. Mrs. Annie B. Townsend was elected Golden Cross director for Lake Placid and Miss Allie Mae Etheredge for DeSoto City. George Kelsey was elected chairman of the Board of Christian Education for the Lake Placid church and Miss Allie Mae Etheredge for DeSoto City.

Members of the missionary committees elected for each church were as follows: Lake Placid: Mrs. J. M. Andrews, chairman, Mrs. B. F. Williams, and Mrs. E. W. Kelsey. DeSoto City: L. T. Farmer, chairman, Mrs. H. E. Galloway, and Mrs. Perry Etheredge. As chairman of the stewardship committee for Lake Placid and H. E. Galloway for the DeSoto City church.

The first session of quarterly conference for the new year will be held at the Lake Placid church at a time to be set by the presiding elder in charge. November the sixth having been designated and set apart as Harvest Day by the Bishops of the church, as a time in which to bring up all finances in full for the year, the Elder urged that every member possible be done to see that this day was observed in each church and a strong effort made by the membership of the church to bring in as much of the finances as possible on this special day. Further announcement in regard to this day will be made later on.

Woman's Club Notice

The Lake Placid Woman's Club will hold their regular monthly session at the Country Club on Friday afternoon, Oct. 21st, 3:30 p. m. All members are requested to be present as this is a very important meeting being the second for this year. Visitors are welcome.

Mr. Taylor of Winter Haven, circulation manager for the new, weekly Times-Union for this district, was in town in a short while Tuesday.

Football Form

Harry, Richard, Hub, and Paul are trying to learn to play football. But when it comes to playing by rule, they'd do much better plowing a mule. And poor old Richard trying to pass, would do much better hoeing grass. And poor old Paul when trying to punt, reminds you of a circus stunt. Ole Harry is always trying to buck. But never seems to have much luck. And poor Hub is trying to tackle. You want to lie right down and cackle.

The second prayer service recently organized by members of the Methodist Church, met at the church on Wednesday evening of the past week with a good many present. Following the service the Board of Stewards met with the pastor to talk over the work of the church.

In the reorganization taking place at the Roebeling Estate, Estey Kelley has been appointed as night watchman taking the place of E. A. Whitaker, who has been placed on the day job. Winston Kelsey who has been working on the day job under T. T. Jackson has been put on the night force.

The Merry Matron Sewing Club was in town Tuesday afternoon at the DeSoto City Methodist church Sunday evening to a good congregation. This service was preceded by the devotional services of the Hi-League and a splendid program of music furnished by the junior choir.

The Lake Placid Junior football team won their first battle Saturday afternoon at Firemen's Field, Sebring, when they decisively defeated the Sebring crew to a tune of 20 to nothing. The eleven showed up well for the first game and some beautiful plays were made, and with a little more practice they will be able to give a good account of themselves against any junior team in the county.

The Hon. Dave Sholtz, Democratic nominee for governor, was a visitor in town a short while Thursday afternoon and spoke briefly at the Arcade Hotel.

He outlined the measures he proposes to introduce if elected governor. In his address he advocated a reduction in the automobile license tax, reduction of the gas tax and better advantages for education.

The governor-elect had a good crowd to hear him.

All members of the Methodist Church for the DeSoto City Lake Placid Charge, are asked to remember that Sunday, Oct. 30 will be observed as Orphanage Day in each church. This will be the last fifth Sunday of the conference year and in order to close the year's work out of debt, every Methodist is asked to do his or her share for this important day, when you give what you have saved to take care of 130 orphan children.

The Hi-League Sale which was conducted at the Arcade Hotel Saturday was very successful, netting the young people between eight and nine dollars. The sale was carried on under the direction of Mrs. A. E. Trammell. Pies, cakes and candies were donated by friends, and the Leaguers, with a thank every one who had a part in making this sale a success it was. Funds received will go to buy new books for the use of the Leaguers in holding their Sunday evening devotional services.

Under the government relief measure the city is giving employment to a good number of people who are out of work. The work at present comprises grading the double drive on West DeSoto avenue, which has been going on for several weeks under the direction of Chief of Police Tom Rozenman as foreman of the crew.

Citrus Mulets. Citrus growers in Highlands county are finding the weeds and grass cleaned up from city streets to provide work for unemployed laborers for mulling their groves, reports County Agent Louis H. Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning 'Rarin' to Go

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a third, bad taste and your breath is foul. It often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel drowsy and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes time good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these troubles out of you. Flowing freely and make you feel "rarin' to go." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, causing what is common to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of substitutes. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

Who Boted Their Party?

I have been accused of bolting the Democratic Party.

I have been a Democrat all my life.

If any one can prove that I have ever been anything else I will withdraw from the race.

I did not become a Democrat when I came to Florida, nine years ago, in order to run for office.

Mr. Farmer came to Florida in 1919 as a Republican.

He ran for Sheriff of Highlands County as a good Democrat.

Mr. Farmer will tell you that he was a Republican in Kentucky because all the nice people were Republicans.

I think there are just as nice Republicans in Florida as there are in Kentucky.

The records will show that the Democratic Party has been in power, far more often, in Kentucky than the Republican party.

I believe if there was any other party stronger than the Democratic Party, in Highlands County, Mr. Farmer would belong to that Party.

If I am elected Clerk of the Circuit Court of Highlands County I pledge myself to carry out the following plan.

I will treat every one with the same Courtesy and Consideration.

I will reduce the recording fees in Highlands County to correspond with adjoining Counties.

It now costs $1.85 to record a simple warranty deed in Highlands County. To record the same deed the cost is $1.35 in Hardee County.

I will not employ any member of my family to assist me in the clerk's office.

Mr. Farmer employed his wife and daughter until his daughter was married. His wife remained on the payroll in the clerk's office, drawing a larger salary than any one else in the office except Mr. Farmer, until I announced my candidacy for the office.

Hon. Dave Sholtz, in all of his speeches, when he was campaigning for the Democratic nomination for Governor, called attention to the fact that a few illies were getting all of the revenue from most of the State offices. He said that it was time the people of Florida rebelled against such practice.

I agree with Mr. Sholtz. It also time the people of Highlands County rebelled against the same practice.

Our Little Cottage on the Mountain Side

A little cottage on the mountain side; low hanging vines, close-clinging vines; one little door to open wide; just room for two to pass inside.

Two strange hearts to work together to make that house a haven; a smiling face to greet you at night; to change your heart from heavy to light.

There are two chairs by the fireplace, where after supper you can sit and rest. We sit by the fire and watch its flickering lights, and listen to the call of the wild somewhere in the night. But though the night is dark, and the weather is rough, this little house is a haven to us.

Of all places in this world so wide, I choose our little cottage out on the mountain side.

—By a Freshman Boy.

The Critic's Column

This week I got a reply from a jokes editor to the effect that he did not write a certain joke about herself, (that it was written by someone else.) No matter, she is the jokes editor and the joke was printed under her column; therefore, she is responsible for its appearing in print, a thing which a jokes editor should never let pass.

Where is this "widely famed" ability of the Avon Park youngster set to promote successful parties? When has there ever been a successful one? No suggestions yet?

Tell me, where are these new band uniforms that they have been "driving" for funds for this past summer?

Our "wander gab" class reporters are still going weak; we want interesting accounts of events and NOT routing.

I see depression clothes (overalls) in school. The times are bad even in school.

Editorial

Don't exist—live! If you can't say something pleasant, keep quiet. If you can't smile, don't frown. If you can't boast, don't knock. Life's not worth living if you continually look at the dark side. There is usually a dark side of you hunt for it. But there is always a silver lining.

Your life is usually what you make it. Don't let it be mere existence. Live and love life. Have an object in life; something to work for. Each day, make some progress in that direction. Be able to say at the end of the day, "I have advanced today." But don't live only for the future; it may never come. Live also from day to day. Don't put too much off into the distant and indefinite future.

Work with a will. Live life for love of life. Lend a helping hand to others. And then when you face the man in the mirror you can say, "I am living."

Pep Majestic

Did you ever see a school house with its face washed? Come around in a few days and look at Avon High. Mr. Fairly has a number of men scrubbing around with soap, water, brushes, etc., giving the place a cleaning. Honestly you can see through every door transom on the place without getting near sighted. What we believe in around here is sanitation, that subject which Mrs. Skipper and Miss Bryant teach to the seventh grade. And sanitation isn't connected with the railroad either.

Say, I've got a brand new scheme—keep your mouth shut and you won't catch any flies. I'm not batty either. Try it yourself and see what happens. May run up your account of good news, anyway. People who know too much are not nearly as safe as the person who doesn't know anything. Where did I get all this nonsense? Well, I was reading one of Morgan Robertson's short stories the other day and that thought penetrated my consciousness.

Did you hear about the Turner Sisters going before the microphone? Well, you haven't either, because they don't know a microphone from a picture on the wall, though some amateur night you might hear them from Clearwater. Wouldn't that surprise you though? It would them, too, I imagine.

The thermometer of class spirit is as high around the Senior and Junior class rooms now. They're having a magazine sales contest now and they are at it like cats and dogs, too. I'm betting on the Seniors and their captain, Ellen Perry. Virginia Baldwin seems to be the Junior's star hope. May the best man win.

Well, I'm quitting—for this week. I guess if I were depending upon the quality of what I write in this paper for a living, I'd probably starve to death right soon. What do you think?

—RE-PEP.

Sophomores

Well, you know, Tuesday comes around too often for an old lady like me—but I guess I'll just have to sit down and pick up my pen and get busy, before I get fired, so here goes.

Two weeks ago I was letting her public know that each Sophomore was going to be after he finished high school. I got as far as the second row and quit but I think that it is about time I finished the process.

I would just like for you to sit down and picture J. Robbins as a great school teacher in some college.

Patsy Loomis as a modern mother singing "Years and Mine."

Then here comes little Martha "Henna" Weaver. Just think of her as a beauty parlor operator giving everybody's hair a red or yellow.

Allie Lee Bell, our little brunt as being a model in New York. She will be modeling long flowing evening gowns for beauties like Clara Bow.

Imogene Helms, working in a coffee shop and giving all the boys the air.

Then comes Martha Walden, if you're speaking of wonders, a brand new red head.

Sara Smith as we see her now will in the future be a great mother.

I guess that brings the second row to an end. Don't worry, tired row, your time's coming next week.

Now that the day's work is over, I will lay my feeble old pen down until next week.

The Old News Maker

Oh yes! Mary Cern gave a splendid piano solo at P. T. A. the other afternoon. No one but a Sophomore could do as well, I am sure.

7-B News

This time we are going to tell you about our school work. We are now studying in history about the battle between the Bon Homme Richard and the Serapis. Then comes sanitation. Sanitation is pretty easy, for every one seems to know it. We cannot tell you about all of our lessons today.

We will give you a few jokes now.

Hazel Beasley: "Daddy, God sure was improving in his work."

Mr. Beasley: "Why, darling?"

Hazel: "Because he made me better looking than you."

Mr. Smith: "I thought I heard some one calling me."

Peggy Lacey: "You must have been thinking out loud."

Helen Delaney.

Juniors

"Could I possibly interest you in a subscription to either of these magazines?" The idea is then to present our best arguments on the subject. We're at it again. In cooperation with the Curtis Publishing company the Juniors and Seniors are staging a contest.

Who will sell the most subscriptions before next Tuesday morning? Back the winner, folks, and give your subscription to a Junior. We'll certainly be grateful for your support with a subscription to either the Ladies' Home Journal, The Saturday Evening Post, or The Country Gentleman.

How can teachers be so cruel as to keep emphatically reminding us of the fact that this is the last week of the month? We'll hear, see, dream of and participate in tests for the next few days. Our reports again. How time flies!

A Junior sees: A picture of the depression—namely, overall. Good for you boys. I like them.

Senior News

Haven't you seen people who were so busy being Baptists or Catholics something, that they forgot all about being Christians? The students in this school are so busy being Freshmen, Juniors, big 1's, and little 1's, they have completely lost sight of the fact that they are high school students.

Class loyalty and spirit is fine but let's have a little united school spirit along with it. Our cheer leaders don't seem to be getting the kind of support they need—we elected them, didn't we? They weren't pushed off on us! Leading yells isn't all it's cracked up to be anyway, and especially when your own electors fail to back you up. Here's a chance to show your loyalty and spirit. Our boys need the support as much or more than Mary and Robert do, so let's forget our personal feelings and work for the school.

What we want to know is who the "Sam Hill" writes the Critic's Column? Why does Grace blash every time anyone says "Edgar"? Why is K. T. so interested in fish, lately?

Jimmy Roberts, traveling by air, went to Gainesville Saturday. He visited with all our boys—"Boob" McLelland, Carroll Bailey, Gordon Lee, Raymond Vickery, and Paul Baldwin.

The Seniors are looking forward to the party the Juniors are talking about giving for us. We're so excited that disappointment might prove fatal. For Heaven's sake, don't let us down.

Sports

Our team is getting better and better each week. We have not won a game yet, but each time we play we have less points scored against us. In the first game Luke Wales scored 32 points against us, in the second, Fort Meade scored 19 against us, and in the third, Arcadia scored only 12 points against us.

It keeps on working that way, we are bound to beat Haines City when we play them here Friday.

In the Arcadia game, if it keeps on working that way, we are bound to beat Haines City when we play them here Friday.

Just the same we call it a good game since Arcadia was supposed to be the best team on our schedule for this year.

PLYMOUTH ANNOUNCES NEW 6-CYLINDER CAR

Dutton's Say New Cars Will Be On Display Here In Near Future

Persistent rumors that a new Plymouth car shortly to be announced would be a six cylinder automobile of lower price than that of current Plymouth models, was confirmed today by J. L. Wells, of the Wells Motor Company.

Although no definite announcement date was named, Mr. Wells stated that the new cars would make their appearance here within a few weeks.

"The new Plymouth Six," said Mr. Wells, "is the product of a new era of automobile manufacture. The recent economic stress, has stimulated the progress of automotive design far ahead of the amount of advance usually achieved in any three year period. Machine tool manufacturers have volunteered more new designs recently than usual. Machine tool design has kept pace with the demand for finer but more economical manufacturing methods. Intricate machines that operate to almost unbelievable dimensions are now available. Amplifying gauges that literally split hairs not once but many times, are a part of the general production scheme.

"Thus the engineering laboratory model may be reproduced in the commercial product with absolute accuracy. The Plymouth Six is a product of these new conditions. Only these recent developments permit the production of a car of so low a price and the quality of past Plymouths with many new features. The mammoth Plymouth plant in Detroit has been completely re-tooled. Millions of dollars have been spent for new machinery."

At the request of factory officials, the local dealer is not yet announcing the specific features of this new Plymouth. However, he stated, the new Plymouth Six is "The new Plymouth Six," said Mr. Wells, "is, moreover, a beautiful car, skillfully designed to combine the most popular beauty and style elements found ordinarily only in cars of a much higher price range."

"We have not been informed as yet of the exact price of this new motor car," he said, "but we know that it will bear the lowest price ever placed on a Chrysler Motors product."

purposes of all varieties and hybrid strains tested at the Florida Experiment Station, according to W. E. Stokes, agronomist.

Growers will be banking planting material soon, and next spring at planting time farmers may be unable to get material for planting unless they have arranged for someone to back it for them. Cayana, Mr. Stokes said, has proven resistant to nematode and mosaic, the two troubles which are now making it almost out of the question to grow the old cane varieties.

Farmers who are unable to make plans for planting material now should get in touch with their county agent or write the Agricultural Extension Service, Gainesville, Fla.

About 50 cane varieties are being tested at the Experiment Station now and close to a hundred will be in the tests next year at Gainesville and at the West Florida Experiment Station, Quincy, Mr. Stokes said.

THE BALLOT

A reproduction of the ballot to be used in the general election, November 8, appears on page four of this issue. It is presented to readers of the Times so that voters may familiarize themselves with the candidates and to assist them in voting.

First on the ballot is the list of fourteen presidential electors. The first seven are Democratic nominees, and a new deal—mark the first seven. The last seven are Republican. If you are voting for Hoover—and two cars and more chicken—mark the last seven.

Duncan U. Fletcher is unopposed as the Democratic nominee for the United States Senate. Republicans were unable to find a candidate to offer as a sacrifice in this case.

For congressman at large W. J. Sears, Democratic nominee is opposed by Glenn B. Skipper, Republican. Skipper has the endorsement of the drays, while Sears is for respect—mention just one of the many differences between the two men.

J. Haden Peterson, who defeated H. J. Drane in the primary, is the Democratic candidate for congress from the first district. He is opposed (mildly speaking) by Arthur R. Thompson, Republican.

For governor, voters may take their pick between Howey, the Republican, and Sholtz, the Democrat.

R. A. Gray has no opposition as Democratic nominee for secretary of state. Cary D. Landis is unopposed for attorney general. J. M. Lee, Democrat, is opposed by A. F. Knott for treasurer. W. S. Knott for treasurer. W. S. Knott for superintendent of public instruction, and Nathan Mayo for commissioner of agriculture, all good Democrats, have no opposition.

Three judges of the supreme court are to be elected. Rivers Buford, Fred H. Davis and William H. Ellis appear on the ballot for reelection, while J. H. Davis, W. B. Douglas, Democrat, for railroad commissioner completes the state ticket.

The entire county ticket appears unopposed insofar as the ballot is concerned, though several county nominees have opposition, whose names must be written in. W. Z. Carson, who failed to get into the Democratic primary, is running against L. T. Farmer, Democratic nominee, and is waging an active campaign.

Other independents whose names do not appear on the ballot are Mrs. Williams, running against J. H. Twitty, Democrat, for county commissioner in Precinct 5, and Uncle Jimmie Carlton, who opposes Ron C. Hope, Democrat, for county commissioner in Precinct 5.

Two constitutional amendments appear on the ballot. One to lengthen the terms of county commissioners to four years, and the other to provide for a seventh judge for the supreme court.

Highlands County Has 3,200 Voters; List Published Today

According to figures released Tuesday by Supervisor of Registration W. L. Long, there are 3,912 voters registered in the county and approximately 3,200 of these are qualified to vote in the general election on Tuesday, November 8. A complete list of the registered and qualified voters in issue of the Times.

The number of registered voters in each precinct are as follows, according to Mr. Long's figures: Avon Park, precinct 1—764; Avon Park, precinct 1-A—917; Sebring, precinct 1—405; Sebring, precinct 2-A—902; DeSoto City, precinct 3—178; Lake Placid, precinct 4—247; Venus, precinct 1—146; Hickoria, precinct 6—117; Bassenger, precinct 7—58; Brighton, precinct 8—58; Sunland, precinct 9—73.

Express Rates On Citrus Are Cut

A sharp slash in express rates on citrus fruit and pineapples goes into effect on November 8, according to J. H. Cave, local express agent. The reductions, which will average from 50 to 40 percent, will cover shipments to all states east of the Rocky Mountains, including all points in Colorado.

A reduction in express rates on tires, tubes and tire accessories has also been announced by the express company. The new rates are said to be similar to those charged by the truck lines in the state at the present time.

CARSON EXPLAINS CAMPAIGN TO VOTERS

Tell Why His Name Was Left Off Ticket in Speech Saturday

W. Z. Carson, candidate for clerk of the circuit court, opposing Luther T. Farmer, Democratic nominee, explained in a speech here Saturday why he was running as an independent and why it would be necessary for those who voted for him to write his name on the ballot.

"As most of you know, on May 4 I paid $200 Democratic Party assessment and filing fee, but failed to place my first expense account on May 13. My expense consisted of my Democratic party assessment of $200, formal announcements in the papers and gas and oil used in campaigning the county. I filed my first expense account under oath, on May 14th—14 hours late.

"This automatically left Mr. Farmer the technical Democratic candidate without the voters of Highlands county having any vote in the matter. Under these circumstances I immediately announced myself as a candidate for clerk of the court at the general election to be held November 8.

"I have never accused anyone of illegally disqualifying me, as is being reported. When Mr. Farmer objected to having my name on the ballot, the county commissioners had no choice but to rule me out. My contention is that we are living in a country that advocates equal rights to all and special favors to none, (including politicians and political machines). I claim that I should have been given the same privilege and the same consideration as the other candidates.

Carson claimed that other candidates were given blank forms for filling out expense accounts and that they were told that if their expense accounts were not filed by a certain date, their name would not appear on the ballot. He then read an affidavit from Mr. E. McDonald stating that he called the clerk's office on May 13 and asked if all candidates had qualified, and was told that all had except a Mr. FROM in precinct 5. Carson also stated that Secretary of State Gray had notified all state candidates by wire of the deadline for filing their first expense accounts.

"It has been said by a self-styled politician of Avon Park that Dave Sholtz, candidate for clerk of Highlands county, if they elected anyone except a party nominee they need not look to him for a job. Carson said he read a letter from Sholtz denying that he had made the statement and pledging cooperation with all duly elected officials.

Carson then compared his Democratic record with that of his opponent. "I was born in Eastern North Carolina. I have been a Democrat all my life. If anyone can prove that I have done anything else I will withdraw from this race here and now. I did not change my party affiliation when I came to Florida nine years ago, in order to run for office. It seemed that my opponent did." He read a letter from the Secretary of State in Kentucky which stated that Mr. Farmer had served in that office as a Republican.

Eddie Flowers In Auto Wreck

Eddie Flowers, 16 year old son of Charlie Flowers of Avon Park, sustained a fractured shoulder and other injuries when his car overturned on the Sebring road Thursday night near Lakemont. Flowers is returning from Sebring failed to see the barricade placed across the road to detain traffic until he was picked up by St. C. Pardee and brought to Avon Park. He was up and around after the wreck and apparently was not seriously injured.

Absentee Ballots Ready For Voters In Judge's Office

Ballots for absentee voting are on hand at the office of county judge M. C. Whitehurst for the benefit of qualified voters who expect to be out of the county on election day. These may cast their ballots until three days before election, which will be up to five o'clock Friday, November 4.

Absentees from the county may vote election day in any other precinct in the state by presenting registration certificates and poll tax receipts. Their ballots will be sent to Judge Whitehurst, who will see that they are properly recorded.

The ballot for the general election is long and bears the names of candidates for national, state and county offices, from President to constable.

Seven presidential electors represent the two national parties in the presidential voting. There are seven Democratic electors and seven Republican electors, the first seven being Democratic. In order to vote for Roosevelt, the voter should place his cross mark before the names of the seven Democratic electors. To vote for Hoover, mark the last seven electors. No other parties are represented on the ballot, but seven blank lines appear on the ballot so that electors representing other parties can be written in.

Operation of the Avon Park plant of the Florida Public Service Company has been resumed after a shutdown for the summer months. This brings to Avon Park W. H. McCall and family and C. R. Parker from Benson Springs and Paul Jett from Orlando, all of whom have been transferred to the Avon Park plant.

OKEECHOBEE WINS CLOSE GAME 6 TO 0

Red Devils Stiffen Defense After Visitors Score In First Half

The Red Devils of Avon Park high school lost a tough game to the Okeechobee team this afternoon, 6 to 0. A driving line attack netted the visitors the only score of the game which they counted in the first half, the Red Devils holding them in check from that time on and coming back in the final period to carry an attack which placed the ball well into Okeechobee territory.

Thrice in the second half of the game the Devils held for downs in the shadow of their own goal line. A blocked kick placed the visitors in scoring position soon after the second half opened and they seemed sure of a second score but with the aid of a five yard off-side penalty they were held for downs and Avon Park kicked out of danger. The double pass which tactically knocked almost exclusively in knifing off tackle or thru guard again brought the ball to the shadow of the Avon goal and again they seemed sure of a second score but with the aid of a five yard off-side penalty they were held for downs and Avon Park kicked out of danger.

It wasn't long before the Okeechobee team was again intercepted at the gates, Maddox intercepting a pass to give Avon Park the ball. Jimmie Roberts at end and Maddox at halfback kept the game for Avon Park during the game.

Mrs. Brown Speaks For Republicans

Mrs. Sidney C. Brown, of Tampa, republican national committee woman from Florida, spoke here Tuesday afternoon on behalf of the state and national republican ticket. The high point of her address was her expressed belief that if the country were led by a man to lead the country out of the depression Hoover would get the job. Hoping to other important jobs Hoover had been called on to fill, she cited the fact that President Wilson had selected him as food administrator during the war; that Harding had called upon him for important organizations; and that the Congress had also called upon him. If Hoover were not already President, she would be the logical man the country would look to in the present emergency to organize forces of the country to lead the people out of the depression, she said.

Girl Scout News

The Girl Scouts were honored Friday night by a new member in the person of Eugenie Vandewater. She is a second class scout which makes three in our troop.

Our usual signaling class was held. We had review of the letters and learned the remainder of the alphabet in the Morse code.

As there are no scouts in the troop who haven't taken the tenderfoot test, Miss Lee Kempton gave them some tenderfoot work.

We had some games and singing and then our "Good Night Circle." Betty Brooks, Scriber.

The beaver were brought into Lake Placid and the smaller one taken to Lake Wales where beaver steaks were distributed to friends.

The party was composed of D. C. Darty, Dr. W. E. Williams, Amos "Fats" Little, James H. Hays, John McLean, Burch and L. E. McVay Jr., all of Lake Wales; and Bert Williams, Jimmie Williams, Will McClelland and G. A. DeVane of Lake Placid and Frank Tauchen and Chester McAdams of DeSoto City.

SHOLTZ BATTLE CRY IS "TAX REDUCTION"

To Lower Cost of Government and Not Find New Sources of Revenue

Jacksonville, Oct. 26.—The battle cry of Dave Sholtz, Democratic nominee for governor, is "tax reduction."

He takes the position that real estate, the basis of wealth, must be relieved of its confiscatory tax burden. He believes this is essential if prosperity is to return to Florida.

Instead of looking for new and additional sources of revenue, Dave Sholtz will devote his energies to the reduction of the cost of government as distinguished from the effort to find new sources of revenue to pay the present cost of governmental activity.

Dave Sholtz feels that the mandate of the people of Florida requires him in his official capacity to do everything that can be properly and safely done to lower the cost of government. He has no purpose or plan that will prostrate or seriously cripple the fundamental and necessary functions of the state government, but he is determined to use the pruning knife on governmental expense.

Sholtz will devote his energies to the reduction of the cost of government as distinguished from the effort to find new sources of revenue to pay the present cost of governmental activity.

Sholtz's Policy Sought. The efficacy of Dave Sholtz's position, the soundness of his governmental policies were admirably summed up by the Tampa Tribune, August 21, 1932, when it editorially commented upon the nominee's Marianna speech in which Sholtz reiterated his determination to slash the cost of government.

Wise Counsels Then and Now. "Taking as its text," "Wise Counsel," Sholtz, the Tribune said in part:

Commendably sensible was the statement of David Sholtz, Florida's next governor, in his speech at Marianna, last week: "It is my belief that the Democratic party will be doing the greatest good to the greatest number by devoting its energies to the reduction of the cost of government as distinguished from the effort to find new sources of revenue with which to pay the present cost—whether you call it the cost of unnecessary government or the cost of unnecessary government is probably immaterial. It is the result alone that I have in mind."

In this statement Mr. Sholtz was directly in line with the declaration of his campaign policy, which were so impressively endorsed by the great majority he received in the second primary.

And now we go back many years, Macaulay wrote, 100 years ago: "Our rulers will best promote the improvement of the nation by strictly confining themselves to their own legislative duties."

By leaving capital to find its most lucrative course, commodities their price, and industry and intelligence their natural reward, idleness and folly their natural punishment.

By maintaining peace, by defending property, and by observing the laws of the every department of state.

Large Number of Visitors Attracted To Ford Sales Show

Large numbers of interested spectators attended the showing of Ford models held at the Park Motor Sales, Inc., Thursday afternoon and evening. The lower floor of the local Ford agency was arranged as a display room, and the new Ford V-8 in various models was presented to visitors. The showing was held under supervision of Ford factory representatives in cooperation with the local agency.

A standard Ford V-8 chassis, showing all working parts in operation, was the center of attraction. The housings, encasements, and plates were cut away, exposing to view all moving parts of the motor, transmission and rear end of the latest Ford model.

Seats were arranged for the comfort of patrons in the rear of the room where talking pictures were thrown on a screen, presenting the vast Ford enterprises throughout the world and the intricate processes of manufacture in the Ford plants.

REPUBLICANS MADE HUGE TAX REFUNDS

Contributors To Campaign Fund Received Refunds From U. S. Treasury

Jacksonville, Oct. 26.—Speaking recently before the Democratic meeting in Miami, Judge W. H. Burwell, of that city, said in view of the fact that tax refunds made by the U. S. Treasury Department to wealthy individuals, many of whom are large contributors to the Republican war chest—it is easy to understand why the Republicans never experience any lack in financing their political campaigns.

Basing his remarks upon a speech made in Congress July 16, 1932 by Representative John J. O'Connor of New York, Judge Burwell declared that the record shows that twenty-four men who contributed $17,000 to the 1928 campaign fund of Hoover and Curtis had received in refunds from the treasury the staggering sum of $114,655.279.

Quoting from O'Connor's speech, Judge Burwell called attention to the fact that this enormous amount refunded to these "favored wards of the Republican Party," 83 percent of the $114,655.279 was paid into the treasury by them during Woodrow Wilson's administration from 1917 to 1921.

"In other words," the Democratic administrator pointed out, "these taxpayers to pay this money to the government and subsequent Republican administrations kindly returned it to them."

Commenting upon the fact that John D. Rockefeller, one of the contributors to the Republican campaign fund of Hoover and Curtis had received in refunds from the treasury the staggering sum of $8,545,209, Judge Burwell declared that it "seems queer that the men who are killed caused by the Rockefeller would permit their clients to pay into the treasury of the government $8,545,209 more than they actually owed."

He ventured the opinion that the "habit of overpaying taxes is one of the frailties of this country of tax payers."

Again quoting from O'Connor's speech, Judge Burwell pointed out that "most of these large sums of money were returned after Republican congress, with the approval of Secretary Mellon, charged the law so as to permit refunds of taxes voluntarily paid. Prior to 1924 refunds could be allowed only on such taxes as were paid under protest."

"Mr. Mellon, and the Republican congress of that year changed the law so as to allow a claim to be filed on any tax payment, regardless of whether or not it was paid under protest. This opened the treasury to the extent of the last 10 years nearly $4,000,000,000 of the public money has been given back to wealthy individuals, trust corporations, and a very great deal of it has been paid to men who have been the most lavish contributors to President Coolidge and President Hoover."

"In addition to the 24 men who contributed $477,000 to the Republican war chest and who received $114,655,279 in refunds, as set out in a statement 46 Senators of Washington, more than a year ago, Speaker Garner, then minority leader, showed that of a total of 17 individuals making $10,000 contributions to the Republican fund, all of them has received a refund."

CITY DEFENDANT IN CONTEMPT ACTION

Officials Notified To Appear Before Judge Barker In Wichita Bank Case

The city council, the mayor, city clerk and tax assessor were served with notice today by attorneys for the Guarantee Title and Trust Co. of Wichita, Kansas, to appear before Judge W. J. Barker in Circuit Court on Tuesday, November 1st, to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court.

The action is brought because of alleged failure or refusal of the city to comply with an alternate writ of mandamus directing the city council to levy a five mill tax to retire $25,000 worth of notes due the Wichita bank. The writ was signed by Judge Barker on October 9, 1929 and required C. E. Lanier, Ed. DeLaney, J. H. Hood, C. N. Ott and A. E. Gregory, councilmen at that time, to make the levy.

The petition alleges that the city council failed and refused to levy the tax, and that Ordinance 166, authorizing the levy, was passed "solely for the purpose of enabling the persons therein to make a return to the writ but that they have wholly failed and refused to enter said tax on the rolls of the city of Avon Park, 1932 or for any subsequent year, and have failed and refused to collect the money as directed by the Court."

The notice was directed to The City of Avon Park, Mayor M. E. Covington, City Councilmen C. R. Head, J. L. Masters, J. S. Pendleton, E. A. Delaney and H. H. Ford, City Clerk Francis Shackley and City Tax Assessor B. F. Willson. City Attorney S. C. Pardee stated this morning that he had not received official notification of the action, and would have to go into the case before he could say what answer would be filed.

Boy Scout News

The weekly Boy Scout meeting was called at 7:30 at the Armory Friday night. Thirty boys answered the roll call. The troop now has a full membership of 32 so we cannot any more new members until Dec. 1, when a new troop will be organized. All members of our troop must be present at the meeting. The troop has just purchased a new basketball for its basketball team.

Our coach has already scheduled several out of town games for us. Mr. Chas. Morrison, a member of the Sebring Rotary Club and also manager of the New Circle Theater, attended our meeting some weeks ago and invited our scout troop down to Sebring Armistice for the basketball game. Three "Cheers" for Mr. Morrison. Max Brunk also outlined several other big scout activities to come off in the next few weeks. After the business meeting the scouts were inspected by Senior Patrol Leader Richard Bennett. Patrol number 100 was given the inspection with 100 percent in uniform. Mr. E. G. Todd and Asst. Scout master gathered us around several blocks of candy and how to parade. We're getting a little better.

We closed the meeting with a game of basketball. Saturday morning 16 of us met at the Sun building and fixed up an office where we can have small meetings and pass out books. We also have started a library of scout books and fiction. We will be glad to have any books you do not need for our library. Saturday afternoon we passed over thirty tests in cooking, tracking, fire building, etc. Our scout office will be open all day next Friday and Saturday. Visitors are welcome.
