REBEKAH LODGE WILL SPONSOR 4 ACT COMEDY

Modern Version of "Taming of the Shrew" Here March 8

The Eleanor Seavers Rebekah lodge is sponsoring the presentation of a modernized version of Shakespeare's famous comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew," which will be given at the high school auditorium on the evening of Wednesday, March 8. Edward Waldmann, well known New York actor, will direct and play the principal role of "Petruchio" and the other parts will be taken by the most prominent local talent obtainable who will be specially drilled and rehearsed.

The play is a "take off" of the motion picture in which Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford were such an outstanding success and is an hilarious comedy in four acts. Mr. Waldmann takes the part of the "tamer" which was played by Fairbanks in the picture.

According to Mr. Waldmann, for the past 18 years he has appeared at the head of an entertainment company in many prominent cities in the north including Boston, Philadelphia and a special 12 weeks engagement of classic matinees at the Longacre theatre in New York City.

This version of "Taming of the Shrew" is a comedy throughout and introduces singing and dancing specialties, during and between the acts and includes a large well trained singing and dancing chorus of beautifully groomed young ladies and pretty children in the elaborate wedding scene. A large orchestra will furnish the music. Popular prices will prevail and a huge crowd is expected to attend this outstanding production.

Stage Historical Indian Pageant At Hammock Soon

A Historical Pageant, participated in by the Seminole Indians and a number of prominent people of Highlands County is planned for the middle of March according to Dr. W. A. Davison, president of Highlands Hammock, who announces that the Seminoles will glorify in the process of the pageant which will be held at the Hammock and construct an Indian village prior to staging the pageant.

W. Stanley Hanson, prominently known to all Seminoles of Fort Myers, will bring about 25 Indian men, women and children here and direct the construction of the village. Mr. Hanson has lived among Indians for the past 40 years and knows more about them than any other living American. Mr. Hanson has been engaged to direct the pageant which is expected to attract state-wide interest.

The event will mark the return of the Seminoles to their former camping ground in the Hammock and it is planned to so develop the pageant that it will draw larger crowds to Highlands County each year.

On Monday at the annual meeting of the trustees, Ray Green, Alvin Alkire, J. W. Hawkins, Col. F. N. K. Bailey and Mayor M. E. Covington were named a committee to take charge of the event.

To Make Drive On Cars With Old Tag and One Headlight

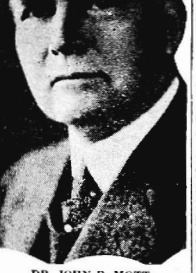

Drivers of one-eyed cars and those who have not yet obtained their 1933 license tags had better take note of the new law which will be in effect on the last day of the month.

Officers state they are going to enforce the law impartially and without fear or favor.

Registration tags have been registered regarding cars with only one headlight or no tail light turning off dark and as these laws are made in other jurisdictions the law covering this will be enforced and those whose cars need repairs or adjustments to the lights and tail lights are advised to have them repaired at once.

NOTED Y. M. C. A. MAN TO SPEAK

Dr. Mott to Talk at Vesper Services Next Sunday

Sebring, Feb. 23. (Special) — Dr. John R. Mott of New York City, chairman of the International Missionary Council and President of the World's Alliance of Y. M. C. A., will speak at Vespers at Highlands Hammock, Sunday, February 26th at 3:00 p. m., according to Dr. W. A. Davison, president of the 2000 acre Hammock Park association.

Dr. Mott will speak on "The Present World Situation" and is probably better qualified to develop this subject than any other Christian statesman.

From the time Dr. Mott graduated at Cornell he has devoted himself unceasingly to projects and movements of world-wide concern. He was for many years executive head of the American Christian student movement; for the first thirty years of its existence he was chairman of the Student Volunteer Movement under the influence of which more than 12,000 student missionaries went out to serve in the non-Christian world. He was founder of the World's Student Christian Federation and its leader for thirty years. It now embraces some thirty national movements with over 300,000 students and professors.

He was chief executive for the Foreign division of the Y. M. C. A. He was general secretary of the World Work Council during the World War. He has been decorated by many nations, offered ambassadorships by our presidents, and served on many commissions. In these responsibilities he has made four round-the-world journeys, fourteen trans-Pacific passages and more than ninety crossings of the Atlantic and has visited sixty different countries, most of them again and again.

Dr. Mott will speak at the 8th Vesper service of this season's program where hundreds gathered every Sunday during January, February and March in "The Cathedral in the Wilderness" to worship God.

His sojourn in Sebring, Dr. Mott will be guest at Hardesty.

The station is in charge of Clyde Collins, a veteran, and is located on South Commerce street, between the Church and a car wash.

COUNTY BOARD DONATES TOTIC CONTROL WORK

Commissioners Met Tuesday and Handled Many Items of Business

A donation of $250.00 toward the completion of the tick eradication work in Highlands county was voted by the Board of County Commissioners in their regular session held Tuesday.

Dr. E. L. Peck, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, in charge of the work in this county appeared before the board, telling in detail the work which has been accomplished and plans for the future. He stated that the work on the East half of the county had cost $70,000 of which the state had paid $10,000, the government furnishing the remainder.

The donation was asked in order that dipping vats might be constructed in various sections of the west half of the county which is to be dipped beginning in April. The money is to employ five men for 30 days, the doctor stated and is necessary due to the absence of any other state funds for this work, the construction of the new vats, he said the state would furnish the remainder.

Upon motion by Commissioner Henderson and seconded by Commissioner Spooner, the board granted his request.

H. G. Casals of Venus appeared in connection with his job as inspector of marks and brands. Mr. Casals requested that the board secure some publicity in the matter of having buyers of hogs and beavers be sure they are purchasing inspected meats. He also requested a donation of $25.00 for the Venus Fair, telling of the fine work which the people of that community are doing in arranging for this exhibit, with the aid of the county agent.

Commissioner Spooner voiced the opinion the project was a worthy one in which all the commissioners agreed and the donation was made without delay.

F. P. Heifner, Sebring contractor stated that the rust mark on front of the courthouse building was in the stone and that two or three dollars would cover the cost of having this fixed providing the necessary lumber could be secured to reach the work. As the mark is unsightly and spoiling the appearance of the building and the cost of repair is nominal, the commissioners voted to have Mr. Heifner do the job.

Richard Stella of Venus, Justice of the Peace in District five appeared before the board requesting the books which are necessary in the discharge of his duties. The board was referred to the clerk and subsequently given the statutes and other books required.

A requested resolution, sent to the board by the Wauchula Legion in which the legislature is asked to make a general hunting season for the month of November and closed January 15, was tabled, there being no evidence that the resolution bore any endorsement by the Hardesty council or any other organizations. Chairman Hood expressed the opinion the resolution was superfluous inasmuch there are no laws in this state which prohibit the carrying of arms and similar resolutions drawn up and sent to the legislature, which body will eventually adopt, the recommendation of the game department and not those endorsed by any one else.

The board transferred $1,000 from the race track fund to the Fine and Forfeiture fund in order to complete the legislation of H. B. 10. There is a balance of approximately $3800.00 in the money derived from race track operations, which the board has the power to use as it sees fit.

Upon the recommendation of Commissioner Spooner, the board declared the resignation of H. B. Marshall of Sebring for the job of U. S. Marshall for the Southern District of Florida. Mr. Marshall was stated to be the position of President Wilson.

All New Legislation Must Be Advertised Advises Jack Sims

J. E. Sims, State Representative for Highlands county, wishes to advise the citizens of the county that he will be glad to co-operate with them in any local or special legislation they may deem necessary to put before the coming Legislature. He wishes to call attention to Section 1, Chapter 13791, Acts of 1929, Laws of Florida, which provides that notice of special or local legislation shall be obtained by publication in some newspaper published in the county where the matter or thing to be affected by such legislation shall be situated, at least 30 days before the introduction of the law in the Legislature. Said notice shall state the substance of the contemplated law as required by Section 1, Article 11 of the Constitution.

NO ACTION YET AS TO MANDATE

Council May Pass New Ordinance With Regard to Recall Election

The regular meeting of the city council Tuesday evening recessed to meet again at the call of the chairman, S. J. Pendleton, due to the fact that the mandate from the supreme court on the recall election was expected and City Attorney S. J. Farber stated, a new ordinance would have to be passed to set the election machinery in motion. The city attorney stated the city council had passed the charter and the ordinance regarding elections, and stated a new ordinance should be passed to remedy this.

Mr. Farber further stated that two elections may be necessary. Should the candidates in the first election receive a majority of the votes cast as required by the charter, then a second election would be necessary in the next ten days. The charter calls for the first election to be held within 15 days after the receipt of the mandate in the office of the clerk of the circuit court at Sebring. It was received Thursday morning and action towards the calling of the election is expected at any time.

At Tuesday's meeting City Clerk Francis Shockley reported 36 percent of the 1932 taxes had been collected to date and presented a lengthy list of delinquent personal taxes.

Capt. Mark Lance appeared before council relative to his recent action in refusing to pay the army light bill any longer as they claimed it was excessive. Captain Lance stated he had never seen the bills but would undertake they would be curtailed in the future. He enumerated the benefits received by the army through payrolls and purchases through having the army located here. The council, after consideration, decided to let their former action stand and agreed to take care of the army light bill providing it be considerably less than in the past.

Growers' Market Proposed To Be Erected Here Soon

According to Dr. W. A. Davison, chamber of commerce president, it is proposed to inaugurate a growers or farmers market on some suitable location in town, which truckers and growers can sell their vegetables and other produce. Dr. Davison is of the opinion that a market of this description would fill a long felt want of local growers and would also give housewives a central place where they could buy their fresh vegetables.

It is stated that local growers are peddling their produce around the city and this would be eliminated with the institution of the market as proposed. No definite action has been taken nor is it known what date is likely to be used for the market.

GLEE CLUB HERE LAST SATURDAY

University Boys Thank Avon Park for Reception

An enthusiastic and appreciative crowd filled the high school auditorium Saturday evening and listened to the excellent program given by the University of Florida Glee Club and Collegian Orchestra. The club, under the direction of Dr. W. DeBruyn, showed their excellent training and gave a well balanced program. The coming of the Glee Club to Avon Park was sponsored by the Congregational church Sunday school and the senior class of the high school, and was a marked success.

Following the concert some 100 persons of Avon Park and other communities enjoyed a dance at the Jaccaranda hotel, the music for which was furnished by the Collegians.

When the club and orchestra arrived in Avon Park in the afternoon a reception was held for them at the band stand on the Mall. County Attorney T. A. Nicholas was chairman for the occasion. Other speakers included Mayor M. E. Covington, E. E. Melton, W. M. Hetherington, Col. F. N. K. Bailey and Judge W. J. Barker. Director DeBruyn spoke shortly in response and the orchestra rendered several numbers which the large crowd greatly enjoyed.

On their return to Gainesville, the club and orchestra, Dr. DeBruyn wrote J. Paul Garber, who had charge of the arrangements here, and expressed their appreciation for the reception accorded them.

The letter of appreciation signed by Mr. DeBruyn, director, Hugh Barker, county attorney and Bob Porton, orchestra director, says: "The undersigned members of the Glee Club and of the accompanying orchestra are very much appreciate it if you would see that some public acknowledgment is made of their heartfelt appreciation of the reception and entertainment given by the organizations referred to by the citizens of Avon Park on Saturday, February 18, so that some record can be made for future historians of your city."

"The atmosphere of your community is that of cordiality and hospitality and we all appreciate of earnest efforts made by performers. That Avon Park is unusually outstanding in this respect is immediately sensed by us as the minute we arrived in your city. The first impression was immediately strengthened when certain noted and bold stand spoke words of welcome and of encouragement for our Alma Mater. This is to state that our impression of Avon Park is likely to linger years in our memory."

"Your location and climate is such that, together with your appreciation of the best things, you should draw to your city in the future many people of wealth and culture as well as refinement. All that we need to do is to let the country at large know about Avon Park."

N. B. from Prof. DeBruyn: I must not forget to mention that many of our Glee Club men have especially asked me to state that they thought Avon Park had an unusually fine record. From the representatives of the better section.

ORPHANS HOME MAKES REPORT

Children's Home Society Recently Completed 30th Year of Service

Recently the Children's Home Society of Florida, generally regarded as "Florida's Greatest Charity," completed its thirtieth year of service to the homeless, orphan and needy children of Florida, and at its annual meeting in Jacksonville, (the State Headquarters for its work), the reports of the society rendered and the money raised were presented.

These reports indicated that the Society was founded in November, 1902, by Rev. D. W. Comstock, who became the Society's first State Superintendent in Jacksonville in 1903. He succeeded at his death, in 1906, by Mrs. Cera Hawley Seaton, who served until her marriage to Pat Johnson of Kissimmee in 1910. Marcus C. Fagg became State Superintendent in September, 1910, and is still on the job.

During the first year, 21 homeless children were placed in good family homes in Florida, and about $300.00 was raised to do the work. Last year 2021 children were aided by the Society, and $108,212.18 was raised on the job.

During the 30 years, exactly 21,240 children received the aid and attention of the Society, and a total of $2,752,242 was raised to conduct the work, purchase property, buildings and equipment. The Society has been permitted to secure through direct letters of appeal, this having proved to be the most economical method.

Only 41 of the 2,143 children died under the care of the Society, during the 30 years, this very low mortality rate being the lowest of any children's agency in America. The normal death rate among children in Florida is 65 per cent, which would have meant about 1,365 children dying, if normal deaths had occurred.

Now, the Society started with nothing, now has three branches, in addition to the headquarters offices and receiving homes in Jacksonville, the branches being located at Miami, Pensacola and Lakeland. These properties and equipment are valued at over two hundred thousand dollars.

Supt. Fagg in his report gives credit to the many friends of the Society, to the newspapers of the entire state, who have given the Society free publicity, to the many friends who have given the Society free publicity, to the many friends who have given the Society free publicity.

Much gratitude is expressed also, to the thousands of men, women and children all over the state, who contribute to the Society's work by giving of their time and money, and to the many friends who have aided the Society in its work.

Appreciation is expressed to all co-operating State Agencies, and out of the state, to city, county and state officials, courts, probation officers, educational and other institutions who have assisted in the work.

Special gratitude is expressed to all the physicians, dentists, dentists, hospital, nurses and others who have given their invaluable services to the children under the care of the Society in countless ways.

Photographers, bankers, merchants, mail and meat dealers, who have aided in the work of his own kind, in closing his report to Florida's children, "Daddy" Fagg, as everybody in Florida knows him, pleads for the continued support and interest of everybody in Florida, to the end that the Society may accomplish its purpose of good for Florida's greatest asset, its children, during the years to come. Money, food, clothing, shoes, and other necessities.

The State Headquarters are located at 424 St. James Bldg., Jacksonville, Fla.

The newly elected officers for the state work for 1933, are as follows: Francis M. Holt, president; George W. Spratt, first vice-president; James W. Spratt, second vice-president; Frank D. Bishpe, third vice-president; Frank D. Johnson, secretary; Franklin G. Russell, Jr., assistant secretary; R. V. Covington, treasurer; Charles H. March-

Vegetable Plants Best Transplanted By "Blocking Off"

Gainesville, Feb. 22.—When transplanting vegetable plants, the best method is to "block off" the system of the outdoors. This difficulty is practically overcome, Mr. Ensign explained. Where the plants are growing in the open, they are broken from the main roots as the plant is pulled from the soil. This fact causes the loss of a large number of plants and the starting of many shrubs.

By the system of "blocking off" this difficulty is practically overcome, Mr. Ensign explained. Where the plants are growing in the open, they are broken from the main roots as the plant is pulled from the soil. This fact causes the loss of a large number of plants and the starting of many shrubs.

The root pruning, part one day and part later, is not severe on the plant, but causes it to send out numerous small feeder roots into the soil that will be moved with the plants. The plants should be watered well after each cutting in the middle is made and when the actual transplanting is done.

Mr. Ensign has observed that growers over the state who practice this system lose very few plants in transplanting, growth is scarcely checked and the plants are obtained. The system has been used in transplanting plants, particularly cabbage, at the Experiment Station, and quite a difference was noticed in the "blocked off" plants and those planted in the usual way by the old method of pulling.

AZALEAS HELP IN BEAUTIFYING

Flowers Are Easily Grown Here and Supply Variety of Needed Color

Gainesville, Feb. 22.—The azaleas will have a large part in the rebuilding of a more beautiful Florida. H. Harold Hume, widely known writer and assistant director of research at the Florida Experiment Station, believes Azaleas are easily grown and furnish a great variety of much needed winter and spring color, he said.

Not only in northern Florida, but all over the state the azalea has found a place. The varieties adapted to Florida conditions fall into three groups—native, Indian, and Kurume. The native ones are commonly called wild honeysuckles, though they are not honeysuckles. The most widely distributed is a white flowered one which grows in swamps and blooms from June to August. The other two, a pink-flowered one and a yellow or orange one. These all drop their leaves in autumn. They make good garden shrubs.

The azaleas of the Indian group are evergreens, large flowered, and make elegant shrubs. They are the ones that have made so many gardens beautiful. The named varieties are many, but Mr. Hume makes special mention of twelve. They are: the brightly colored Forsythia and Phlox; Florida's white, and India; also the salmon tinted Lawson, and the Indian; the rose pink, the Brilliant, the George, the Kurume, and the white.

The Kurume azaleas are small, dainty, and very numerous. The plants are very hardy and thus do well in the colder sections. The finest varieties seem to be Daybreak, deep rose shading to white; Cherryblossom, pink; Carmine Queen, carmine; Pink, deep pink; and the white, pure white; and the Kurume, white.

All of these except Daybreak and Snowflake have two perfect corollas, one inside the other, and are called double-flowered.

Azaleas are best transplanted in winter. They may be transplanted even in fall, though there is no better time than now, Mr. Hume explains. The plant should be moved with a ball of earth about its roots, and it should be set the depth at which it formerly grew. The soil should be quite loose. It can be accomplished by using good manure, mulching, or applying sub-salts of aluminum. The soil must be well drained, yet there should be plenty of water to feed the many hair-like roots near the surface.

Outgrown mulch and mixed fertilizers, used in reaction, are giving good results among the plants, Mr. Hume states.

RURAL COMMON SENSE

VEGETABLES FROM OWN GARDENS. FRUITS FROM OWN ORCHARDS ARE GOAL

Garden products and fruits produced at home are coming to the rescue of the pocketbooks of farm families throughout the United States. Families whose incomes have been reduced are turning to home gardens and orchards for greater and greater portions of their food supplies. These have aided farmers in the past, but a much more valuable service has been rendered in enabling the families to maintain the health of their members. A well balanced and varied diet has been possible, in many instances, with the home produce when it would not have been possible otherwise.

In Florida, the land of fruits, vegetables, flowers and sunshine, this program has become a reality in recent years. County agents and home demonstration agents have helped families with their vegetable and fruit problems, and have encouraged them to grow much of their food supplies. Despite the fact that no little progress has been made along this line, there is still room for much improvement.

A fairly recent survey by the agricultural economics department of the College of Agriculture indicates that the value of the average home garden in 1933 is $34 a year, the total value of home gardens in the State being two million dollars. It is quite probable that the average home garden is $34 a year, the total value of home gardens in the State being two million dollars. It is quite probable that the average home garden is $34 a year, the total value of home gardens in the State being two million dollars.

The home demonstration agents urge what they call calendar gardening and orchards of those from which vegetables and fruits can be gathered every week in the year. In times of surplus, canned goods can be made, but even canning and jars cost money which fresh vegetables and fruits do not require.

A good goal, not impossible of achievement, is this: Florida, the land of sunshine, where every rural family can have from 100 to 200 square feet of garden and orchard.

Mothers of large families may feel the depression, but they are not complaining about unemployment.

Florida kids haven't the same chance to become famous truth-tellers as G. Washington did. There are no cherry trees down this way.

Let us hope that everybody whose stomach hurts these times will not try the Zangara remedy of shooting at somebody. Too many stomachs aching from emptiness to make that procedure general.

Judging from the number of 1932 tags still in evidence there will have to be some tall hustling financially before March 1st, or a very much smaller number of cars on the roads after that date.

A health sharp is giving a lecture in South Florida on the subject "How to Live to be 100 Years Old." If he comes around again after he has done it, we'll attend his lecture.

We wonder if Florida's representatives in Congress misjudged the sentiment of the people of the state. They voted unanimously for the repeal resolution. The election for convention delegates ought to decide the question.

The principal interest a tremendous proportion of the people has in the liquor question is a desire that it be settled in some fashion and gotten out of the way. The rabid elements on both sides won't let the people think of anything else.

Eighty years would be entirely too mild a penalty for the miscreant who would venture the suggestion that the United States treasury now has a Woodin head. And yet this will be done—possibly before we can get this paragraph in print.

We do not as a rule think of professional fighters as gentlemen, yet that gallant fighter, Jim Corbett, was more deserving of being called a gentleman than many a man of a gentler craft. "Honor and shame from no condition rise..."

If we all worked our brain a bit more perhaps we would not be worried so much about the problem of the machine. Authorities tell us that we use only a very small proportion of our brain capacity—five per cent or less.

Don't condemn all foreigners, or all the people of any nation, because of the act of a crank or fanatic, who it appears acted wholly on his own abnormal impulses. Cermak, too, is foreign born, and he behaved pretty well in the late lamentable incident.

Mrs. Cross, the lady whose timely thrust at Zangara's arm deflected the bullet supposedly intended for the President-elect, may get a Congressional medal. We have a hunch that a post office would suit her better.

After having 80 years to think it over Zangara probably will conclude that shooting Presidents is not a profitable pastime. There is little probability of his term being shortened. This is one case where the Florida pardon board will go slow in granting clemency.

Beans weighing 18 pounds to the pod, with two beans from a pod making a good meal for an average family, are reported as being grown in the Everglades. We have no doubt that they have big beans down there, but we are sure that they also have some Grade A beans.

One thing the testimony of the three Long brothers in that investigation over at New Orleans has established if nothing else, and that is that there is at least one liar in the Long family. His brothers say Huey is a liar and he says they are liars—and the brothers ought to know one another.

Of course, we are pleased with the speedy justice meted out in the Zangara case, but Florida should not preen herself too proudly while flagrant murders, some of which were committed so long ago that the months are running into years, are yet unpunished.

Al Smith to his friends; Alfred E. Smith to millions who have some way gotten the idea that he is not a monster, but a man of rather remarkable talents and reasonably good character; but Alfred Emanuel Smith to Bishop Cannon. And oh, the Christian charity and brotherly love that the good bishop puts into the calling of the name! The "Emanuel" part seems particularly offensive, and is evidently regarded as synonymous with Satan.

If our common schools would really and thoroughly teach arithmetic, penmanship, grammar, (including spelling, capitalization and punctuation) with some history and geography in the higher grades, and dispense with the other educational frills and furbelows—there would be more graduates who could write a page of simple manuscript without glaring errors. And school costs would not threaten to bankrupt the people.

State Press Comment

HOW CAN CITIES PAY THEIR DEBTS?

In a world which has lost its sense of obligation it would not seem strange for Cities of Florida burdened with boom time debts to repudiate their bonds when great Nations are doing it but what is done by France, Belgium, Russia and others can not be done by Cities in Florida since mandamus writs in the Federal Courts will compel the Cities to levy sufficient taxes to meet their obligations.

To provide some sort of bankruptcy or receivership proceedings is impossible because it is unconstitutional and also because it would wreck the security of the bonds of the good as well as the poor cities. The giving to the present Board of Administration all the proceeds of a three per cent three per cent general gross retail sales tax apportioned back to counties and to cities within them according to population with a provision for the purchase by the Board from any funds in the hands of bonds issued by cities or counties of Florida at not exceeding twenty-five per cent of their par value and to be held by the Board to be finally redeemed by the funds apportioned to that particular county or city would be legal, constitutional and valid means of reducing and relieving the debt and would give strength and stability to securities and thereby banks, insurance companies and business generally.

Any person can be cured of disease by killing the patient but the wise course is to relieve that the patient will not be able to pay the bills. A policy of debt if you wreck the remaining banks of Florida.—Jacksonville Herald.

MARKED DECK, BOYS!

Fifty two of the nation's "leaders" were invited to appear before the Finance Committee of the Senate to offer their views, on means for breaking the spell of depression.

After reading the names we decided that deck of "cards" was marked. You could spot them easily, either by the name of the captain of the ship, "K. I." and "J. D." were about the only ones not invited.

It is commonly admitted "Big Business" could have ended the depression within a few weeks at any time, but the really big fellows at the top never have made up their mind to be unselfish long enough to do it.

These fifty two "cards" would mess up the slickest sleight-of-hand, deck-boxing crooked gamblers in the world; not enough hearts; all of them constantly using spades to dig out the gold diamonds; when necessary they use clubs for a redoubled gain and slim. Some of them would carve the words "In God We Trust" off all their coins and make more out of the metal dust if they could. About thirteen in one hand were "big" bankers, two other hands thirteen each were "big" corporations, and the other hand had a scattering from universities and "controlled" big newspapers.

No, folks, that bunch would be just about as useful in trying to break the spell of the depression as would the Senate itself. If we had to pick a winning hand of thirteen "cards" we would prefer three small-town professional men, three small-town business men, three practical farmers, Dave Sholtz, Jim Lee, Will Rogers and Eddie Cantor. You could declare a recess of ten or twelve years for Congress, say to that deck of fifty two gentlemen, "Are You Telling Us?" and tune up the old brass band for a chorus of "She's Conkin' Round the Corner, Here She Comes."—Live Oak Democrat.

WHERE TO BUY

"Buy American" but go farther than that. Buy at home. It is just as important to each community that its citizens buy from their merchants and industries as it is to each nation that its people buy their own goods.

Less unemployment is the watchword today. Nothing must be left undone that will send one's own countrymen and neighbors back to work. One of the things all can do is to buy where it will do the most good in this direction.

There would be no object in such provincialism if America and Great Britain would buy from each other and if Chicago and Rural Center would engage in mutual patronage. But Great Britain preaches "Buy British" and Chicago believes just as strongly in buying at home as Rural Center should.

If city and mail order shopping was ever justified by a disparity in prices placing merchants in the smaller communities at a disadvantage that justification no longer exists. Prices have been seeking their own level down the depressed country.

Every dollar should be spent where it will give the spender not only the goods he wants at a fair price but business or employment in return. No gap should be left in the circle of community spending.—Citrus County Chronicle.

Wreck Last Night Puts Two Men in Sebring Hospital

Two men are in a hospital and others suffered cuts and bruises when the fruit truck on which they were riding hit a boat on a trailer behind a Ford roadster and they were thrown off into the ditch last night south of town. According to L. H. Ford he and Frank Richardson were returning from a fishing trip and noticed two cars, one parked alongside the road and the other right across the road. Richardson was driving the Ford in which they were riding and stepped suddenly when the car leaped up across the road. A truck following them, driven by Charles Bowman, plowed into the boat on the trailer and threw it into the ditch and then hit their car. The men riding on the truck were thrown off into the ditch, sustaining injuries.

Cemetery Board Met Wednesday

The annual meeting of the Avon Park Cemetery association was held Wednesday afternoon in the offices of the Avon Insurance Agency and Col. C. E. Head was elected to the presidency. Other officers named were Harry Dilley, vice-president and C. Victor Smith secretary and treasurer. These three together with A. C. West, M. E. Covington, J. S. Francis and B. F. Martin will form the board of directors.

A replat of the southwest section of the cemetery was approved and the directors agreed that the association would fix up and care for the grave of O. M. Crosby, the original donor of the land for the cemetery.

Avon Park Drug Uses Sterilizer

In order to give its patrons the latest in equipment and protection, the Avon Park Drug Company has installed sterilizer for all glasses used at its soda fountain. A chlorine solution is used in the process and is very effective.

This sterilizer is not required by the city ordinance, but is an extra precaution for the protection of patrons. Dr. Perry states.

Poinciana Lodge Passes Resolution On Harry A. Winter

Poinciana Lodge No. 227, F. & A. M. of Avon Park at their meeting on January 20, adopted a resolution deploring the passing of Brother Harry A. Winter, who died on Thursday, January 12, 1933. Mr. Winter had been a Mason for over 33 years, having taken his Entered Apprentice Degree in Juniata lodge, Juniata, Nebraska, on November 24, 1879. He transferred to Poinciana lodge some years ago and had been a faithful worker during his entire membership.

The resolution which was spread upon the minutes and a copy sent to the bereaved family, read as follows:

Resolution adopted Friday, Jan. 20, 1933 by Poinciana Lodge No. 227, F. & A. M. of Avon Park, Fla.: WHEREAS, the Grand Master of the universe, having called to that bourne from whence no man returns our steadfast friend and brother, Harry A. Winter, it is fitting that we record our last tribute to his memory:

To have known him was but to love him. His very creed of life was to hold that Christian Grace abounds where charity is seen; that when we climb to Heaven 'tis on the rounds of the love of men.

His fidelity to his friends, his confidence in the goodness and greatness of God was as constant as the waves upon the sea. His indomitable spirit was that neither luxury's gifts nor adversity's sorrows could change the sturdy ways of his life, nor dim the genial smile that so fittingly graced his countenance. Without pomp and without guile, he was to all men the same, an honest man, the noblest work of God.

Let this resolution be spread upon the minutes and a copy hereof be sent to the family.

PLAN TO BUILD ARBORETUM IN THE HAMMOCK

Meeting Called for Saturday To Discuss Important Addition

Possibility that an Arboretum may be established near or within the confines of Highlands Hammock was foreseen this week following the disclosure made by Ray Greene at the meeting of the board of governors of the Hammock Park Monday.

According to Mr. Greene, there has been much correspondence on the subject between those interested in the Hammock and Miss Anna McViney, sister of Mrs. John A. Roebing and greatly favoring the project, relative to a meeting in the Hammock at which representatives of garden clubs and State Forester Harry Lee Baker will be present.

By way of explanation, it might be stated an arboretum is a park or garden in which plants, shrubs and trees are grown and displayed for scientific purposes.

The meeting is to be held in the tropical park next Saturday, Feb. 25th. Those on the board who were named a committee to meet with the visiting representatives are: Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Coashman, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Blair, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Greene.

Beginning with a box luncheon at noon, prominent speakers from over the state are expected to be present including Mrs. Arthur C. Canner of Jacksonville, Dr. Harold H. Hume, head of the Agricultural Extension Division, Gainesville, Dr. Lord and Mrs. Thomas of Gainesville. Possibility that Dr. John K. Small of the Brooklyn Gardens and Dr. David Fairchild of the Bureau of Agriculture of Washington may attend was also announced by Mr. Greene.

The establishment of an Arboretum or near the Hammock proper would bring hundreds here annually in quest of information of scientific nature. Rare tropical plants, would be grown and displayed, it having been found that many already exist in the Hammock at present, these having been classified by C. S. Donaldson, who is well versed in such matters.

Subject for morning: "What shall we do without Jesus?"

It is not enough to have Jesus in the world; it is to have Jesus in the heart. Jesus is the only one who can comfort in death—no death without Jesus is the eternal life. The judgment of Jesus will be the great judge; go there without Jesus is to go already condemned. Without Jesus as a Savior, in which to set hope, earthly life is incomplete. The question is now asked: "What shall you do unto Jesus?" After this vale of tears the question will then be: "What shall Jesus do unto you?"

Sole the body of clay there is a jewel more valuable than all the precious stones to be found in this world's treasure. That jewel, which is the soul, can be lost and it can be saved. Life on earth might be a great success, but to lose the soul means that all success becomes failure. To save the soul is to enjoy the riches of divine glory with God and our Master.

Sunday School Lesson

FOR FEBRUARY 26, 1933.

SUBJECT: Jesus Shows His Power.
GOLDEN TEXT: "For I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." 2 Tim. 1:12b.
LESSON TEXT: Mark 4:35-41; Mark 5:1-8.

PRACTICAL TRUTH: Christ's Power over nature and over demons is a proof of his deity.

TIME AND PLACE OF LESSON: A. D. 28; Sea of Galilee and Eastern shore thereof.

"And the same day, when the even was come, he said unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side."

"The same day," means the day when Jesus had preached from the boat on the western shore of Lake Galilee, as set out in the two preceding lessons.

"Unto the other side,"—to the Eastern side of the Lake.

"And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship, and there were also with him other little ships." In Matt. 8:19-22 (as they were starting across the lake) "And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead."

"And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full. And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow; and they awake him, and say unto him, Carest thou not that we perish? And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?"

A writer describes such storms as follows: The surface of the sea of Galilee is 682.5 feet below the level of the Mediterranean. Moreover, it is surrounded by steep cliffs, and by hills from three hundred to more than a thousand feet high. Therefore the sea is very hot at the surface, and great masses of air rise from it. To take their place cold air rushes in from the Mediterranean on the west, from the mountainous region off the east, and from snow-clad Mt. Hermon to the north. It is focused by the gorges in the hills of the sea, and descends upon its surface with great force and very suddenly, sometimes when the sky is perfectly clear. Usually these storms come and disappear suddenly, but sometimes they last two or three days.

Even the experienced fishermen were alarmed, and appealed to Jesus for assistance. He "rebuked the wind" and it ceased to blow; he said to the Sea, "Peace, be still," and it became calm. "The rise and fall, or swell of the sea," at once ceased. Even after a storm at sea ceases, the rise and fall in great waves, the "swell of the sea," will continue for hours. This rise and fall is caused by the force of gravity. * * * the most universal and powerful law of nature. It required a violation of that law to quiet the Sea at once. That is regarded as one of Christ's greatest miracles.

After their experience with the storm they landed on the Eastern Shore of the lake, or Sea, of Galilee.

"And when he was come out of the ship, there met him a man with an unclean spirit, who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him. * * * he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken, neither could any man tame him. And when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him, and cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not. For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit."

Verses 9:17 tell of the demons going out of the demoniac and into the herd of swine, and of the request from the people that Jesus leave their country.

"He that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him. Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but said unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee."

Whoever is blest by Jesus, especially those who receive salvation, should speak to others who have not found the Lord as a Savior.

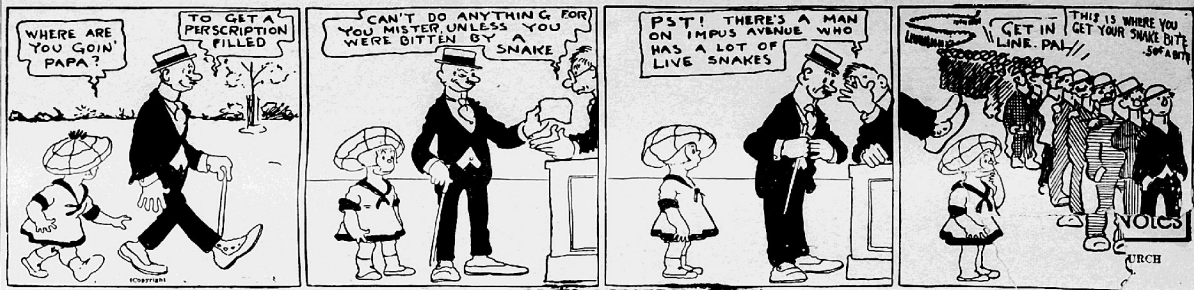

When God sends the springtime and the birds and the flowers, He also sends new hope and courage to his noblest craftsmen, the men of the soil.—Selected.

Even if you don't get anywhere it's a satisfaction to know you did your best.

Woman's Club Elects Officers

The Lake Placid Woman's Club was entertained by Mrs. Emily Dewey at Little's at their monthly meeting last Friday afternoon.

Dr. John R. Mott, world wide Y. M. C. A. worker, extensive world traveler, an outstanding authority on world conditions and on missionary work, delivered an inspiring and encouraging address to the audience. His address was a review of the several benefits that the present economic depression brought. He said that the world was something like a spider in your paper, which has nothing to do with luck, spider was merely looking over the publication to see which which was not advertising so it could go to that state we have across, that we never would understand otherwise. The speaker gave special attention to church activities, showing that new ways have been devised for doing the former things. He admonished that we learn to count our vicissitudes, misfortunes and economic inadequacies as opportunities rather than as tribulations, counting "them all joy," for they bring to us a chance to see what kind of persons we can be under difficulty. Thus we gain experience. Experience brings patience. Patience brings wisdom. He said that the answer to the question, "How long will this depression last?" is, "Until we learn our lesson."

The address was followed by the business session which was opened by Mrs. Blair, the president. Mrs. Mildred Williams, chairman of the committee on entertainment, reported that the Bridge Benefit party held recently in the American Legion Hall netted the club $16.00, and that another would be given next Thursday, Feb. 23rd, at the same place, for which tickets are being sold.

The club voted to sponsor a musical comedy, "Cool Knights," which will be featured March 7th at the High School auditorium. Half of the net proceeds will be for the benefit of the club.

The club voted to make its final payment of $50 on its piano. The next item of business was the election of officers for the new club year. The following were elected: President, Mrs. Muriel Laffay; first vice-president, Mrs. Irene Wallace; second vice-president, Mrs. Sophie Hoffman; secretary, Mrs. Marjorie Cass; treasurer, Mrs. Fern Austin.

The members and the several guests were then invited to the lawn by the hostess, who served beautiful refreshments.

Those attending were: Mrs. Sophie Hoffman, Mrs. Ethel Seaverns, Mrs. Lillian Crews, Mrs. Annie Lou Rhyme, Mrs. Margaret Stewart, Mrs. Muriel Laffay, Mrs. Marjorie Cass, Mrs. Isabelle Richards, Mrs. Amy Palmer, Mrs. Helen Taggart, Mrs. W. Services To Be Held at Methodist Church

The pastor of the Methodist Church announces that next Sunday he will continue the series of sermons on the general topic, "The Business of Being Christian." Next Sunday's theme will be: "Holiness and Perfection." This will be followed the next Sunday by, "How To Keep On Being Christian."

It is expected that the Junior choir will feature a special for the evening hour at Lake Placid. On Sunday morning at DeSoto City there will be a special service taken for the Kingdom Extension Work. A similar special offering will be taken at Lake Placid during the Sunday school hour. Both these offerings are in addition to the regular ones.

Last week the seventh grade in the local public school played its third game of the series of basketball games with the eighth grade and won. The score was 14 to 8. This gives the seventh grade the championship. Norman Booker pitched for the seventh grade while Tilford Smith and Boyd Howes were the pitchers for the eighth grade.

Cobweb Party at Richard's Home

Tuesday afternoon a group of 18 people were entertained at a cobweb party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Richards. A general social time was followed by several games. The concluding game was the cobweb game. Each player had a very long string that wound in and out among the trees, flowers, and shrubbery and other articles of the lawn that she followed to its end. The cross-crossing of strings, the returning and reverting of the several cords, produced numerous comical positions and furnished much fun. At the end of the string was a capsule in which was a short message reading, "Are you a member of the Missionary Society? If not, won't you join us?" It has been said that this is the first cobweb party in Lake Placid.

After the games were finished Mrs. J. M. Andrews delivered a splendid talk, presenting the vision, nature, and work of the Woman's Missionary Society, and then invited them to join that organization. New members obtained are Mrs. J. L. Townsend, Mrs. E. P. Dunty, Mrs. R. L. Gay, Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. J. D. Rogers, and Mrs. Talmadge Gay.

Refreshments of Waldorf salad, hot tea, and wafers were served by Mrs. C. T. Jackson, Mrs. O. S. Palmer, Mrs. P. T. Richards, Mrs. J. L. Townsend, and Mrs. E. P. Dunty. The women of the Methodist Missionary Society were hostesses of the occasion. Those present were: Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. J. D. Rogers, Mrs. S. Spak, Mrs. P. T. Richards, Mrs. O. Sewell Palmer, Mrs. R. P. Dunty, Mrs. C. T. Jackson, Mrs. Talmadge Gay, Mrs. W. M. Roberts, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. E. W. Kelley, Mrs. J. D. Rogers, Mrs. P. D. Moore, Miss Virginia Holman, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. A. G. Rogers, Mrs. Elide, Mrs. Trammell, and Mrs. T. U. Jackson.

Mrs. Roberts Is Club Hostess

Mrs. Allison Roberts entertained the members of the Wednesday afternoon Bridge Club and a few guests at a lovely Valentine's party at the Country Club. The club room, where tables were arranged for the party, was decorated in the Valentine motif and beautiful cut flowers. The tables also carried out the motif.

After scores were tallied Mrs. W. R. Carwell received top score. Mrs. Claude Cass consolation, and a lucky cut went to Mrs. O. C. Parrish. A salad course and iced tea followed by a sweet course was served. Club members present were: Mesdames Roberts, hostess, G. C. Hoffman, B. E. Alsbrook, O. C. Parrish, Fred Koetz, J. W. Payne, Jack Williams of Schriber, and E. L. Peck of DeSoto City. The club guests were Mesdames Ray Gladwin, Lloyd Zorn, W. R. Carwell, Elizabeth Colburn, E. L. Tappan, W. F. Dr. John R. Mott, who is stopping at the Lake Placid Club, will be the speaker at Highlands Hammock next Sunday afternoon. Dr. Mott is an interesting, forceful speaker and always "knows whereof he speaks."

The following is the speaking itinerary of the famous Southern World War hero, Alvin York. This is the only man who has won the medal of honor and placed his name in the history books. He was born Feb. 23, 3:40 p. m., Ft. Myers; 8:00 p. m. First Methodist Church, Arcadia.

Remember the Junior Class play scheduled for Feb. 24th. Those in the play are: Thomas Gould, Hubert Roberts, and Mrs. M. A. Jones. Evelyn McClure, Emma Lora Payne and Carl Rhine. "Two Days To Go" is the name of this production.

Evangeline Booth, of Salvation Army fame, spoke at the Kenilworth Lodge in Schriber last Wednesday, after which she came to Lake Placid where she was entertained at tea by Mrs. Keast at the Hotel Arcade. She went from here to Palm Beach.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Huey motored to Tampa last week and visited with J. B. Bunch of Hicoria who is 8 p. m. Mr. Bunch is an elder in the Presbyterian church. While in Bartow they visited other friends also and went to the large track farm owned by Mr. Lyle. Sunday afternoon they visited the DeSoto City Methodist Missionary Society featured a well planned and generous supper at the Hotel DeSoto. Dinner at 8 p. m.

The city election is to be held February 28th for the purpose of electing a city commissioner. Mr. Sims, the present incumbent, and J. T. Taylor are candidates. If the road to the city is not paved by 1931 and 1932 to which he may have been subject paid by February 18th he is ineligible to vote.

Last Sunday morning the Hicoria Sunday school of the Presbyterian church had 40 present. This year's second annual Bazaar, also, was held at the school. The Presbyterian school here had 40 present last Sunday. The pastor, Rev. R. E. Huey, concluded his series of sermons based upon the book of Joshua last Sunday morning, at which time he pictured the life in Canaan as the type of the life of a Christian. This series of sermons seems to have been greatly enjoyed and very beneficial. Next Sunday's theme will be announced then.

Commencing last Wednesday evening the Presbyterians began studying "Personal Evangelism" in their Church Night hour. This relates specifically to methods of applying the gospel to the needs of the individual. The kindergarten celebrated the birthday of one of its members, little Joyce Cass, Monday afternoon. Joyce is now four years of age. The room was beautifully decorated with flowers and candles. The group greeted Joyce by singing "Happy Birthday To You." Refreshments of ice cream, cake, and candy were served by Mrs. Claude Cass and Mrs. E. E. Huey.

Rev. O. O. Roberts of Bowling Green, pastor of the local Baptist Church, filled his regular schedule at Lake Placid last Sunday morning and evening. His morning theme was, "Once In Grace Always In Grace," during which it was said that we should have a fear of God and realize that he is due our worship and service; that when once a person has been saved there is no power that can lose him for God is "able to keep that which" we have committed unto against that day" and will be true to his power; that we may become very wicked for a time but that we will return to God before death—provided we have been saved once.

The citrus outlook committee of the United States Department of Agriculture forecast the production for 1932-33 at 45,785,999 boxes of grapefruit and 13,221,000 boxes of grapefruit.
