WV-LESS HUMOR
At The Flying School

BY GUM

Bees, bees? Our little darlings are flitting from flower to flower, extracting the sweetest nectar of each buzzing cadet as he flutters through the door on the wings of synthetic love. My! Ain't that a sight?
Our little darlings in their flitting and fro carry their stingers concealed but ready for instant use, and do they use them on each other?

A situation more rare than a peep at St. Pete in shorts unfolded the other A. M. One of the cute little honey has backed a willing but blind cadet into the proverbial corner.
He was just about to get the "stinger" put on him for one state supper at the Columbia in Tampa when another cute "bomber" eased on to "his point" and the cadet was gay-wildly deployed. In the resulting mass the flash of daring stingers went camouflage with dazzling-bomb-bomb-bomb.

More of this (most sweetly spoken) was so rapid that a thousand others thrown in the morning sun could not have been more trifling. Our handsome hero with his cow-lick tuft of hair, cold eyes in slanting, saw his chickens and by crawling under two chairs, managed to make his escape.

Later reports have it that he is now, considerably somewhat of an international hero, and that he can survive two Bitts at the same time, has to be good! He may run the Congress but more than that he will run for the nearest tree.
The dog!

Speaking of the new hour, it is rapidly approaching. Petal Orang blossoms will soon be gone, and all my slithering flaps to indicate a single easily hanging on to the back yard. The moon is full—the weather just right for smuggling in the buggy—a new kind of recruits are available—and the stars are out. They fly white as the silver moon. The moon is on the ground. An easy down summers "take-off" last Sunday morning at the barracks. The summers? Of course, the upper summers had to help a little on the down and to keep their tail pieces from dragging!

New Post Office Hours
Please note that D. G. Perry announces this morning that until further notice the Avon Park Post office will remain open every Saturday afternoon from 2:00 P. M. to 5:00 P. M. and will be closed and not open at noon as has been the custom heretofore.

UNITY

THE FLORIDA FERRIS WHEEL

By Horace K. Wells

The perplexing problem of what to use for money, so long puzzling all of us, will shortly begin to plague the state administration.
Known: a yearly payroll of approximately $774,000.00 must be paid from the general revenue fund, in addition to those salaries paid from inspection fees, state hotel commission, etc. As only one fourth of the current year has passed, the bulk of the payroll has yet to be met. As telephone, utility, agency and program taxes are in the only dependable revenue in sight is the one-half cent gasoline tax, and with the decrease in gasoline sales the term "dependable" doesn't quite fit. There is, of course, the provision that the surplus, if any, from funds of the state bonds, commission, beverage department, and numerous others, shall be placed in the general revenue, but this is not reliable, that an extra surplus doesn't fit either, on account of there never is any surplus! Unless the gasoline situation eases up, and the prospect is none too bright the question of meeting necessary expense promises to become a serious one.

Up Tillabout way we hear, not from carter conversation but from sources usually regarded as reliable, that an extra surplus now regarded as an impossibility, though what if anything the legislators could accomplish is a doubtful question. If not, then only thing left is a sales tax, and as we recall it Governor Holland is pledged to veto any sales tax measures passed during his term of office.

Another interesting situation is that confronting the third and twenty-third sessions of the legislature. Each is represented by a "hold-over" senator; the twenty-third by Tom Conley, now sitting on the armored service, the third by Ad-don Drummond, now serving with us, believe, the rank of Captain. If they cannot attend the 1942 session they will undoubtedly resign and their places be declared vacant; this will entail the election of a special election. If not, in foreign service perhaps they can be "excused" for sixty days. If they are in foreign service, maybe everybody will agree to call off the war for a couple of months. If this could be arranged, and our war production stopped, the length of time, we'd be in favor of putting all the "hold-over" and batteries, too, in the Army.

THE AVON PARK TIMES

[VOLUME XIV—NUMBER 6] AVON PARK, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1942

ARMY DAY WILL BE OBSERVED HERE MONDAY

OPEN HOUSE WILL BE HELD AT LODWICK ACADEMY AND AN ARMORY. PUBLICITY IS INVITED TO ATTEND

Army Day, Monday April 6, will be observed in Avon Park with "open house" at Lodwick Aviation Military Academy and at the bombing and gunnery range detachment at the Army. The American Legion and Auxiliary will also take part as well as the high school band.

Plans call for the band to give a short concert at the band stand at the hotel starting at 2:00 o'clock.
This will be followed by the Legion and Auxiliary as well as the general public. They will then march to the Army where there will be short talks by the officers and then the building will be open for inspection until 6 p. m. Refreshments will be served and everyone is invited to see something of army life. Those with relatives and friends in the service will be especially interested.

At the Lodwick Academy, Capt.
Bennick says the public will be admitted to the airport to see some of the activities there with the strictest areas which will include the hangars and the maintenance department, but planes will be on display and there will be personally conducted tours. Those entering the airport will be required to pass through the gate, Capt.
Bennick said.

At Lodwick Inn, used as bar-acks by the cadets, there will be open house and the public will be free to inspect the premises and see something of the life of a flying cadet.

Fattening Feed For Livestock To Be Discussed

Production of home grown carbohydrates for fattening feed for livestock will be discussed at the meeting of the Highlands County Cattleman's Association Tuesday night April 7th at 8 o'clock at the Court House.

Mr. A. R. Howard, Agricultural Agent for the A. C. L. Railroad, located at Jacksonville will be the main speaker and will present information as to the production and drying of the new high starch corn sweet potatoes. The production of these potatoes has recently been started in many parts of the South, and the results have been most satisfactory. They are especially important this time because of the Agricultural Program for Freedom.

County Agent H. H. Alamyne will also make a report on the results secured from growing daisies and feeding same to cattle and hogs.

Howard Maddox Is New Commander Of Highlands Post

Howard Maddox was elected commander of Highlands Post 100, American Legion, at the annual election Wednesday night. He succeeds W. J. Prevatt, present commander, and will be installed with other officers in May.

Other officers elected for the en-ting year are: Will Connor, first vice commander; L. P. Childers, second vice commander; C. H.
Levinson, sergeant at arms; A.
McIntosh, financial secretary; John Hood, financial officer; H. R.
Currie, chaplain; and D. G. Perry, historian.

Short Florida Trip Proving Popular

Boston, April 2 (FNS)—New England travel bureau reports that there is a growing demand for shorter Florida tours and to meet it has arranged special 9-day trips which are accepted as being more convenient. Both the east and west coasts are included in all-expense trips that include visits to St. Augustine, Orlando, Daytona Beach, West Palm Beach and Miami on one itinerary, or Silver Springs, Orlando, Bok Tower, Cypress Gardens, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Barabara and St. Myers on another.

Summer school teachers' tour now being planned and are being organized. Travel agents look for a brisk business al- though these special trips travel via the Silver Motor and Coach plan and by motor bus between Florida points.

Special MacArthur Story In This Issue

In this week's paper is a comprehensive story of General MacArthur's Australian Campaign, told in clear and understandable language.

The article is clear, concise and interpretative, free of the conglomerated mass of hearsay and opinions. If you have been bewildered by the comments on the radio and in daily papers, you have but to read the syndicated article which speaks in understandable terms and phrases.

is even more amazing than fic-

McNutt Lashes 'Disciples of Despair,' Calls for All-Out Attack on Tokyo; Pan-American Solidarity Increases; R.A.F. Reverses Tide in Malta Battle

LABOR:

Picture Complicated

The labor situation, in the other big battle which had centered in Washington, the fight over whether the 40-hour week should be retained or not, had complicated the New Deal picture tremendously.

On the one hand Secretary of Labor Perkins and the White House itself had been found apparently unwilling to scrap the 40-hour week, while Thurman Arnold, of the attorney general's staff, had issued the most bitter statement against labor unions as obstructing the war effort that had come out of Washington since the New Deal started.

New, the unions were wholeheartedly against the move to end the 40-hour week, claiming that the only benefit their workers had from it was the extra half-time pay for the usual eight hours of overtime weekly, while business already was being accused of getting huge profits for its share of the war-time boom in industrial activity.

Congressional leaders were found urging, against business, that all profits over 8 per cent be recaptured for the government, and at the same time highly divided over the 40-hour week.

Tremendous mail was being received on the subject, convincing many congressmen that a definite nationwide campaign to have the 40-hour week thrown out was in progress.

One official high in the War Production board stated that the 40-hour week through overtime payments was adding 8 per cent to the cost of all war contracts.

'ATTACK TOKYO': Pleads McNutt

Lashing out at "disciples of despair," Paul V. McNutt, social security administrator, had urged an "attack on Tokyo" as the "real defense of America."

He said: "America's defense does not begin at wading depth on Coney Island, nor on the sun-drenched sands of San Diego."

"America's defense begins with the attack on Tokyo. It is when flames roar through Yokohama

LATIN-AMERICA:

Grouse More Solid

Historians, pointing to the fact that 21 Latin-American nations either have declared war or have broken relations with the Axis, as compared with 13 in the last year, had expressed the belief that Chile would be the next one in, and that Pan-American solidarity was on the increase, boding well for hemispheric unity in the post-war period.

However, as President-elect Juan Rios had reached the threshold of his office following the election, Adolf Hitler had called him expressing the hope that "German relations with Chile might become even closer."

Chile and Argentina, at this point had remained the only two still maintaining relations with the Axis.

"I take this opportunity to express the desire that the relations of sincere friendship between Germany and the Republic of Chile will be even closer."

Chilean observers took little at heart that relations were on the point of being broken.

Yet by contrast, most Latin-American observers took little at heart that relations were on the point of being broken.

JAPS:

Warn Aussies

The Japanese, apparently trying to undermine Australian confidence and trying to build up a lack of unity within the continent, were putting out "warnings to Australians" before they tried a landing.

The grim determination of the Australians to defend their country, plus the appointment of Gen. Douglas MacArthur to the supreme command, was ample assurance that Japanese propaganda would fall on barren ground.

As the invaders of New Guinea were moving across the difficult and almost impassable terrain between Salamaua and Lae and Port Moresby on the southern coast, with prospect of a bitter battle at the end, Japan issued the following warning:

"Australia stands at the crossroads. She must choose between freedom and the fate of the Dutch East Indies."

"Japan has no territorial aspirations, and wants Australia to become a partner in the eastern Asiatic prosperity realm."

"Australia, with a population of only 7,000,000 cannot defend her long eastern coastline."

"The countries, Japan and Australia, economically supplement each other. One way leads to the end of Australia's existence and the other to wealth and peace," said the Japanese.

At the same time the Japs showed evidence of being jittery over possible attacks by American planes from Alaska via the Aleutians. Adm. Kiyono Nakamura having told the Japanese people in a broadcast:

"Fears that the United States in the spring will embark on surprise attacks on Japan by submarines and aircraft are unnecessary."

"The Americans have no adequate base."

European centers had placed little importance on the signing in Moscow of a renewal of the pact between Japan and Russia on the subject of fishing rights off the Siberian coast.

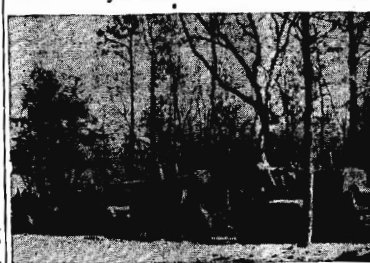

Revel of Russia to have signed would have been viewed as a practical declaration of war. But few European observers took the signing of the pact, in existence for many years, as any special sign of friendliness.

Buddies Hit the Coal Pile in Ireland

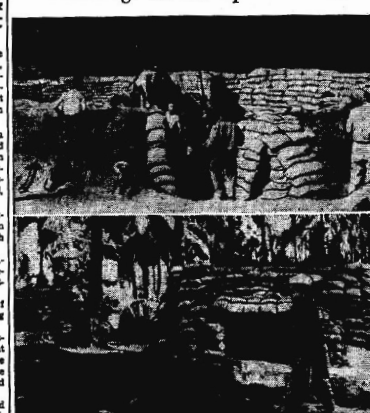

The night in Ireland are a little dampish and chilly at this season of the year, and Uncle Sam's doughboys'll be wanting a bit of a fire to take the chill off the place. This photograph, taken somewhere in Northern Ireland, shows U. S. soldiers at the coal pile awaiting their turn to fill up their buckets.

U. S. Army's Most Modern Field Piece

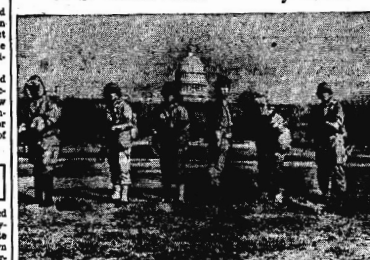

This soundphoto shows tractor dragging a string of 155-mm. field rifles through a pine woods on the way to target practice, at Fort Bragg, N. C. The gun and tractor weigh 30 tons together. The 155's mobility and its range make it the biggest field gun in the U. S. Army's locker.

Watchdogs on the Spanish Main

These two pictures are typical scenes along the coast and in the interior of Puerto Rico, where the United States has established a base to guard the approaches to the Caribbean sea and the Panama canal. At the top a coast defense gun points the steel over a maneuvered emplacement. Below a sentry paces his post in the interior.

U. S. Battle Dress—in Any Climate

Ready to fight anywhere in the wide world, these U. S. soldiers are dressed in the uniforms adapted by the army for action under various conditions. The uniforms are, left to right: more showy troop dress; summer or tropical field; winter field; armored force; all troops; paratrooper and summer musketeer.

'Highboy'

Three were railroaded and gas was hard to get, but Gilbert Ramey, shown above, is sitting pretty. He goes to his job at an aircraft plant in Santa Monica, Calif., on his "highboy." When Gilbert was 18 he was one of three partners in a bicycle store, and built the strange vehicle out of spare parts when he had time on his hands.

Vows to Smash Japs

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, now supreme United Nations commander in the Australian offensive, and who reached that continent with his family after a harrowing seven-day trip by sea and air.

While Men Fight

These "quotation girls" in the employ of the New York curb exchange are thought to hold one stronger than Hitler—the Lord of Life Himself. He has broken the bonds of sin by His sacrifice on Calvary; and since it was sin (the violation of the law) which brought death in the first place (Gen. 2:17-18), there was now a complete victory over both sin and death.

CHRIST AND LIFE AFTER DEATH (EASTER)

LESSON TEXT—Mark 16:9-7; 1 Cor. 15:20-28.
GOLDEN TEXT—But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.—1 Corinthians 15:57.

V for Victory! By that sign have many peoples indicated their confidence in a victory to come. It is well to have a victorious outlook, but it is even better to be able to look back to victory already attained. That is just what we are able to do as we consider man's great and final enemy—death. That victory has been won on behalf of all who believe, by the risen Christ of whom we think in a special way on Easter day.

He is the Lord of the living, not of the dead; those who, even though they have left this world, have only laid aside the corruptible body for the incorruptible. They are victorious, even as we are, over death.

L. Living, Not Dead (Mark 16:6-7).

The Sadducees, a rationalistic sect of Christ's day, denied the resurrection. They were much distressed by His plain teaching of that truth. They therefore devised an intricate hypothetical case (see Mark 12:18-27) and sought to set a trap for Him. But they only caught themselves. For He pointed out to them and to the people that what was wrong with them was that they did not understand the Scriptures nor the power of God.

That is precisely what is wrong with the modernists of our day—they misinterpret God's Word, and they deny His power.

Then Jesus turned to them and in place of their fantastic "supposing" story He spoke of three real characters from the books of Moses which they taught. He said that God still calls Himself the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, because though they had long been in their graves, they were still alive. God's relationship with His people is not merely for the brief life span of this earth, but for eternity. That fact, though, carried with it the truth of the resurrection.

II. Incorruptible, Not Corruptible (I Cor. 15:50-54).

Man knows that his earthly body is marked for decay and death. That fact is written in his very members.

He also knows that such a body would be entirely inappropriate for heaven—for eternity. Is he, then, barred from God's eternal kingdom? No, indeed, for there is to be a glorious change—the corruptible shall put on incorruptibility.

Whether we shall carry until Jesus comes and be transformed without dying, or whether we shall await His coming for a time among those who sleep, there will come that trumpet sound, and in the twinkling of an eye we shall be clothed upon with incorruptible bodies like unto His glorious resurrection body (Phil. 3:21). There already we have an assurance of victory already won on our behalf, which can and does strengthen our souls against the trials and sorrows of life.

III. Victorious, Not Defeated (I Cor. 15:55-58).

When Satan after a long struggle finally had Christ's body laid waste in the tomb, he thought he had the victory, but just then came his great hour of defeat.

"Up from the grave He arose, With a mighty triumph o'er His foes."

"Death could not hold its prey, For it sought to hold one stronger than itself—the Lord of Life Himself. He has broken the bonds of sin by His sacrifice on Calvary; and since it was sin (the violation of the law) which brought death in the first place (Gen. 2:17-18), there was now a complete victory over both sin and death."

The one who knows Christ need no longer fear death. For him it is not a leap into the dark, or going as a trembling wayfarer into an unknown land. President John Quincy Adams was right when, aged and frail, he replied to a question as to his welfare: "Quite well, thank you. The house in which I live is cheerful and comfortable, and I may soon have to move out, but I am quite well." He was ready for the departure into a better land and a better body.

Such a hope has a splendid practical application, which Paul stresses in verse 58. With victorious assurance the believer stands steadfast and unmoved at the center of life, while always abounding in the joys and duties which come at its circumference. Like the wheel which can be used only as its center is established and steady, so man can serve the Lord and enjoy a satisfactory life only as he has the steadfastness of which Paul here speaks.

We trust that it is your possession by faith in Christ. If not, make it so on this resurrection Sunday!
