

Clever Detective Work by Lake Stearns Man Lands Thief in Jail

Futch wired the sheriffs of all counties through which he might pass, and then decided he would go himself. He secured Clifford Eiland with his car and took George Whitehouse along, and after a hurried night ride they reached Miami Wednesday, Aug. 24, a week after the homicide.

The next day on the street, calmly walking with a friend, the same man was seen by a police officer. He looked very prosperous in a suit of dark, well-tailored clothing, and he and his friend were much surprised to find themselves stopped by the officer and thoroughly searched. The man was stored and told a few pointed questions which he answered with a view to the thought that he would not get up on doing and receiving the proceeds of his robbery. He told the officer that last year and the disposal of the goods in Tampa. He still had in his possession a few articles which he had just stolen from a general store in Tampa. He said he had been deemed all of these articles, but some goods that had been sold were lost, and he had been told to go and recover them. The thief gave his name as George Cuthbert and seemed to be a well-known person in the neighborhood. The police took care of him and he was taken to the police station in his county and brought him in to securing the first of the week. The man was taken to the police station and recovered goods and seemed well satisfied with the results of the trip. Mr. Cuthbert's friends were very pleased that the young fellow was away from the streets and he was glad to live, however, that he had a decent living in his house and may be able to support his family.

Oh, Peanuts!

For the last few days it has been rumored on the streets that a certain business firm will be boycotted by the public because it is selling peanuts out of business. This is a serious matter, as such action might result in their being forced to retire from business. Some of our friends, who have been hearing this rumor, have tried to trace it to its source, but have been unable to do so. But they did find out that there had been no such friends as to the number of peanuts the firm is selling for a nickel. The firm has no objection to this matter at all and hopes there will be no more cause for complaint. We trust that upon the adoption of this change,

Fined $25 and Costs
In the case of the State vs. Mrs. H. H. Walk r of this city, the defendant plead guilty to the charge of assault, whereupon the court imposed a fine of $25 and costs, the total amounting to $30.61. Quite a crowd gathered to hear the case but was disappointed, the county judge hearing the case in chambers.

Story; Big Catch Hudson and Green

DIVERS REPORT 100
AUTOS UNDER WATER

Divers who have been working for a week removing automobiles from an abandoned stone quarry near Summit, a suburb of Chicago, said there are 100 machines in the pool.

The quarry contains 80 feet of water. Along the edge near the road cars are stacked up three and four deep, the divers reported. About thirty machines have been taken out and police and insurance investigators are probing the circumstances under which they disappeared.

BOULEVARD WILL BE OPEN

THURSDAY AFTERNOON
Thursday afternoon, Sept. 8, Lake Jackson boulevard will be opened to the public for that day only, that the people may get some adequate idea as to the beauty of this drive when completed. The asphalt surface is not yet laid, but work will be commenced on it at once and pushed to completion.

Fire Drill
A regular fire drill was held Wednesday night with all companies on duty. The weeds and grass were cut and the school yard was cleaned. A lot opposite the school was set on fire. The blaze and smoke attracted many of the boys and the work of the boys was interesting and most satisfactory.

Community Church
The Tucson Park Sunday School, Tucson, has as pastor, Rev. F. J. Tauchen. Mr. Tauchen will play a violin solo. Mr. Tauchen is a well known musician. Needless to say, his sermon will prove interesting.

There are thousands of quail in the woods now and if the game boys will only let them alone, they will be splendid sport for all who are interested in bird hunting.

"Salt It Down"

THIS IS A GOOD TIME TO PUT AWAY EARNINGS THAT CAN BE SPARED FROM YOUR REGULAR INCOME. MANY A PERSON HAS FOUND TO HIS SORROW, IN THE PAST YEAR, THAT HE FAILED TO "SALT DOWN" SOME OF HIS EARNINGS, WHEN HE SQUANDERED IT INSTEAD. "NEVER TOO LATE TO DO GOOD."

We pay 5 per cent on savings

Highlands Bank & Trust Co.

Sebring, Florida

R. N. MILLER

Market and Grocery

R. N. Miller wishes to announce to the people of Sebring and vicinity that he will carry the Ridgewood Market of L. L. Croft. He will carry a full line of

Western and Florida Meats
Staple and Fancy Groceries

He will carry a full line in all departments and cater to the trade in such a manner that all who extend to him their patronage will be entirely satisfied.

LUMBER

ROUGH DRESSED

Delivered at a Price to Suit You

Windows, Doors, Roofing

Ready-Mixed Paints

PAINT THAT IS PAINT

Plate Glass Store Fronts
DIRECT FROM MANUFACTURER

See

Wm. H. Tompkins Company

Room 207

Brickell Building

Conway Realty Company

Members Sebring Real Estate Exchange

Telephone 60

Sebring, Fla.

You will never buy real estate at a lower figure than you can today.

You will never erect a building more cheaply than you can today.

Judge Gary and a number of other big business men are predicting that we are going to have the greatest wave of prosperity that the country has ever seen. A few men in every line of business will "ride" this wave of prosperity, while the vast majority will simply be engulfed with it and never really enjoy any of its benefits or opportunities.

LET'S RIDE!

PLACE YOUR ORDER NOW

FILL IN THIS SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

Highlands County Messenger,
Sebring, Florida.

Enclosed find check, money order, currency, for $_____ for which send me the Highlands County Messenger for the period the enclosure covers, at the rate of $2 a year or $1 for six months. (Stamps not wanted). Write your name and address plainly and mail to the Highlands County Messenger, Sebring, Florida.

Name _____

Postoffice _____

Street and Number, Postoffice Box or Rural Route _____

"THE MOST UNKINDEST CUT"

[Fort Myers Press]

The United States government, through the department of agriculture, has placed a sky-high, air-tight quarantine against Florida cattle and live stock in interstate commerce. It has gone further, and has forbidden shipment of thoroughbred stock from Florida to fairs and shows in other states, likewise forbidden shipment out of Florida of live stock sent from other states for exhibition. Every other state in the Union is co-operating with the federal government, and has quarantined against Florida cattle and other stock; even the District of Columbia, paternally misgoverned by congress, has put up the bars.

But "the most unkindest cut of all" is just reported. Press dispatches from Mexico City state the Mexican government has closed all ports to cattle or other live stock originating in tick-infested territory where dipping is not compulsory.

Now the cattle from this state can find a market only in Cuba. Even Mexico closes its doors to them and refuses to permit them to be shipped in. Hides of Florida's ticky range cows are barred from interstate commerce, even if leather manufacturers and tanners would buy them, which they will not. It is only a question of time, and no very long time, when Cuba will turn thumbs down on the undipped, ticky range cows of Florida. And then the cattle interests of the greatest cattle raising state in the Union will find themselves in the position of the people made a living by taking in each other's washing.

Of course, the cattlemen will denounce the federal government in unmeasured terms. In fact, they already are doing so. But the fact remains that the cattlemen of Florida have no one to blame for the present situation. They have brought it on themselves by refusal to co-operate in the government's tick eradication work. Every dipping station meant another market closed, every speech against a no-fence law meant a stronger federal regulation. But the cattlemen wouldn't see it. They believed they could influence, or cajole, or bulldoze the federal government into allowing them to have their own way, unmindful of the fate of the big western cattle barons, who bucked the government, to their own everlasting destruction. In the west, "open range" was the slogan. The slogan—open range meaning free use of government land for themselves, excluding homesteaders, sheep men and everyone but the mighty cattle king. In Florida, compulsory dipping means dipping under the supervision of government agents, and it means accurate counting of the cattle dipped. This, in turn, means that county tax assessors could readily learn the real number of cattle owned by the different cattlemen, and place them on the assessment books for taxation. But, in the final analysis, wouldn't it be better to pay taxes on all of the cattle than to follow a course that now has left only one market in all the world open to the range cattle of Florida?

Crop Plantings 5,000,000 Acres Below
Plantings of fourteen chief crops in 1921 cover 332,407,300 acres, according to preliminary estimates by the United States bureau of crop estimates. This area is 6,011,000 acres below that of 1920 and 2,093,000 acres below the average of that of the 1915-1919 period. Had the cotton acreage of 1921 been as usual, these declines would have been converted into gains. Compared with the average of 1910-1914, the area of the fourteen crops in 1921 is 19,538,000 acres larger, notwithstanding the fact that the cotton area is 8,610,000 acres less. The estimated acreage of the fourteen crops in 1921 are as follows: Winter wheat, 58,721,000; spring wheat, 18,025,000; corn, 108,961,000; oats, 44,828,000; barley, 7,719,000; rye, 4,544,000; potatoes, 5,972,000; sweet potatoes, 1,186,000; flaxseed, 1,242,000; rice, 864,000; tobacco, 1,258,000; hay, 73,842,000; cotton, 26,519,000; sugar beets, 774,500.

Shortage of Provisions
Reports from many sections of the world indicate a widespread shortage of provisions or of the power to secure them. It is said that the people of Central Europe are "starving nakedness" than at any time since the Napoleonic wars. Conditions as to both food and clothing in most parts of Russia are reported to be serious. Conditions in parts of China, while somewhat improved over the famine conditions of a few months ago, remain grave. While the business depression in the United States is serious, and many unemployed face a hard winter, it is not expected that any serious shortage of necessities will be felt this year.

Watermelon Shipments
Watermelon shipments to Aug. 1 total 31,198 cars compared with 26,830 last year to same date. Georgia's shipments total 13,335 cars.

THE RAILROADS VS. FLORIDA

Addressing a letter to the Tampa Tribune Hon. W. A. McRae, commissioner of agriculture for Florida, touches upon the vital subject of "The Railroads vs. Florida." The subject is one which is of intense interest to every citizen of the Peninsular State. Nothing affects the cost of living, the cost of manufactures, the cost of marketing and production so greatly as the question of transportation and excessive freight charges. Commissioner McRae closes his able article in this manner:

"It is a shame that modern transportation has so fallen down in efficiency that it is driving us back to primitive methods and progress has been before the juggernaut of exorbitant rates."

His letter is as follows: "No state in the Union has been more liberal in giving lands to railroads than has Florida.

"No state in the Union has donated, first and last, so large an area of lands to railroads as has Florida.

"A few years ago the railroads operating in the state issued a map showing their lands which they were offering to sell and it looked like the whole state literally belonged to them."

"What other kind of business has ever received such munificent bounties as have the railroads?"

"None."

"What gratitude have the railroads shown for all this liberality?"

"On the other hand no state in the Union is so discriminated against by the railroads as is Florida."

"No other important shipping point in the state is so discriminated against as is Tampa."

"When a set of transportation corporations deliberately set out to make commercial warfare against a state, a section, or a city, they should, under conviction, forfeit their charters and the officers responsible for it should be jailed."

"An attempt to circumvent the highway robberies of railroads by the use of waterways and truck transportation, commendable, but the shame is that there is no legal steel trap to prevent these legal pirates from robbing the state and the public from which they have drawn their life blood."

"It is a sad conduct as this that arouses public opinion to a pitch of rebellion and feeds the fires of unrest among the people."

"Drastring treatment awaits around the corner for any creature of legal enactment that so abuses its prerogatives and challenges public opinion to the point of civil war."

"Who was guaranteed specific profits by the federal government during the war?"

"The railroads."

"Who has a federal labor board to settle differences between them and their employees—and ward off strikes?"

"The railroads."

"Who collect millions of profits on watered stock?"

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

"The railroads."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

W. A. Hatchell of Avon Park spent last Friday in Sebring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Briggs of Lake Wales were in Sebring Saturday.

Roger B. Lyle of Bartow attended to business matters in Sebring Saturday.

Another business man in Sebring last Saturday was C. L. Knight of Tampa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Long and son, J. T. Long of Pensacola, were in Sebring on business from Aug. 22 to 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stevenson and son, Mark Lance, accompanied by Dr. J. L. Cloud of Avon Park, were Sebring visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Paschall of White Oak, Ga. were very favorably impressed with Sebring on their short visit here on Aug. 23 and 24.

Miss Hazel Donner, a little girl who lived in Sebring during her earliest days, has been spending the past week in Sebring, visiting Emma Whitehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Baldwin of Avon Park drove to Sebring Sunday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mitchell. Mrs. Baldwin is Mr. Mitchell's sister.

Judge and Mrs. George W. Whitehurst of Arcadia spent the week-end in Sebring as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hancock. Whitehurst is Mrs. Hancock's sister.

B. F. Whitehouse of Arcadia passed through Sebring Monday on his way to Homestead, where he will engage in winter trucking. He expects to put out a large acreage of tomatoes.

Three auto loads of people stopped at the Whitehouse hotel last Sunday night on their way to the sawgrass region beyond Palmdale. They came from Kansas and expect to locate permanently in Florida.

Glenn Skipper went through Sebring last Friday night on his way from Oklawaha City to his home at Bartow. Mr. Skipper spends much of his time in Oklawaha City, where he has valuable interests and where the Kissimmee River Cattle Company, of which he is the head, is located.

Willis C. Kreider of Dark county, Tenn., arrived in Sebring Tuesday last week. This is Mr. Kreider's first visit to Sebring and he has expressed himself as being most favorably impressed with our little city and may become a permanent resident.

Word has been received from Mrs. Louise Snyder that she will return to Sebring with the last of this month or the first of next, and will occupy her home on Pomegranate street. Mrs. Snyder has been away from Sebring for more than a year, spending most of her time with her children in Quincy, Mass.

Elder Moore returned to Sebring last week from Spartanburg, S. C., where he had been attending the conference of the Church of the Brethren. He reports a most interesting time at the conference and a restful change during the cool weather there.

J. H. Garst was also at the conference, but went on to Roanoke, Va., and will return to Sebring from there by way of Chattanooga.

D. W. Hoke of Hicoria was in Sebring Monday on business. Mr. Hoke is extensively engaged in the raising of citrus fruits and also has charge of a large acreage of citrus groves by other persons. He states that the citrus fruit schedules of the Atlantic Coast Line are very inconvenient to the people of his section in their trade with the live wires of Sebring, and he hopes the live wires of Sebring will succeed in getting some changed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lopp of Winter Haven spent the week-end in Sebring, guests of the family of Mr. Lopp's brother, J. H. Lopp. On their return home they were accompanied by their niece, Miss Virginia Lopp, who will spend a week with them and then return home in time for the opening of the new school.

The railroad owners and their union employees seem bent on an autocracy of transportation which has resulted in a "public-be-damned" policy.

"Who pays the bill for both?"

"The public."

"Who is the public?"

"Everybody—including the railroad owners and employees constitute a mere fraction of the public, so that their policies are based on the assumption that they are getting their rewards from the outside public."

"The question naturally arises, why do the railroads want to discriminate against a city that gives them a large business or against a state, like Florida, that furnishes them so much freight and express?"

"It is simply a question of 'squeezing' a town or state when you have the chance. Freight rates are seldom made on distance, but on competitive rates—rail competition, river and canal competition and ocean competition."

"The railroads announced that they would wipe all water competitive rates to and from Tampa and put her on the inland straight mileage basis."

"To add insult to injury they also announced that they would collect an amount of 1 per cent on all shipments through business centers to water transportation."

"Under this ruling Jacksonville could ship material to South Florida cheaper than could Tampa, as Jacksonville is still to be a leading point for competitive rates."

"Other words, the railroads feel that they have Tampa by the throat and they will force her to 'stand and deliver'."

"Tampa has no immediate recourse but to resort to water and truck transportation, and prove to the world that she is commercially an inland city."

"Railroads can always prove that their rates are justifiable until water competition comes and proves them wrong. Strange, passing strange, it is, that railroads, that have water competition, keep tight on doing business at the same old stand and same as the railroads that have no water competition and go in for all the traf-

"Tallahassee, Aug. 15."

"Tallahassee, Aug. 15."

"Tallahassee, Aug. 15."

"Tallahassee, Aug. 15."

"Tallahassee, Aug. 15."

"Tallahassee, Aug. 15."

H. F. CLAWSON

WATCHMAKER
JEWELER
and
ENGRAVER

Thirty-five Years Experience

Location

Johnson Insurance and Realty Office

Box 84

Sebring, Fla.

City

Grain and Feed
Company

JUST RECEIVED

A full line of
DR. LE GEAR'S
POULTRY
PRESCRIPTIONS
and
REMEDIES

Also Some Fresh Charcoal
for Your Hens

Varena's Barber Shop

ON THE CIRCLE

Sanitary and First-Class in Every Respect

Your Patronage Respectfully
Solicited

ALFRED VARENA, Prop.

Sebring, Fla.

The Palms Tea House

West Side of Lake Jackson, on Lake Shore Drive

CHICKEN AND FISH
DINNERS

BARBECUES

LIQUID REFRESHMENTS

BOAT LIVERY

FISHING TACKLE

GEO. P. BUTLER,
Proprietor

Sebring, Florida

Billiard Parlor

SOFT DRINKS, CIGARS
AND TOBACCO

A Clean Place of Amusement
Good Barber Shop in Connection

KENNETH S. JOHNSON

J. Lee Johnson Real Estate and Insurance

FIRE

LIFE

ACCIDENT

All kinds of
CASUALTY INSURANCE

and
BONDING

Phone 87 Sebring, Fla.

SEBRING TELEPHONE CO.
I am ready to serve you
J. E. PARKER
Sebring, Florida

BOOZE RUNNERS GET DOUBLED

DOSE*FOR ATTEMPTED BLU

Bluff gained nothing for the young booze runners, Dishong Bates, when Deputy Sheriff Han made the spectacular and clever rest Saturday night, Aug. 26. The show of guns brought them not only a high bid for the territory on the grounds of former friend and promise that they would rest the stuff and never again engage the business, brought from Han the statement that he was worried about the hands of the law in Highlands county, they should and they knew enough of the law to keep that they were caught with the guns and had no possible chance to escape justice. But they were not willing Bluff campaign was tried. Bates, who was to be sworn in on Monday and thought he would bluff the prosecuting attorney, was not acquainted with Lawrence or perhaps he wouldn't have tried to bluff. Bates admitted he was not as clean and tall as he looked. Bates was not so sure of having the lawyers that had been employed in the case and boasted that they were not as good as he was. Bates had no experience in the law field, knew many cases where justice was thwarted by some unlooked for technician and, although prepared to fight to the finish, said that if they were so sure of winning, they should have taken all the luxuries they wanted in the line. One of the luxuries was a telephone, ready brought him to the scene, ready to rearsert if it was

Thursday, Aug. 25, came as day set for the trial. But by time the booze runners had lost bluff. They knew that the war held by the sheriff was drawn; that the prosecuting attorney not only knew his business intended to prove that he knew. The judge was ready to do his. So they plead guilty and each

But they still had to pay the of their bluff. The revenue was here and as soon as they given their fine and forfeiture.

he arrested them and took them to the evidence to Tampa to await their prosecution of the law. Then were sorry they had given impression of wanting to fight. They had learned another lesson. And lesson they learned will go out warning to all others in the Highlands county. That the officers of Highlands county are incorrupt and will carry out the very letter of the law.

the law. If a man is guilty, it is better for him to plead guilty; gain what mercy there might be let him know that there is one he cannot pull without being in Highlands county, and that is much speculation in the minds of the people. The same people who administered the affairs of the railroad then are administering them now. When the railroads ask the government for money they are asking for the people's money, for our government has not one cent except from the people.

LET HENRY DO IT

The administration of the rail during the war and since has called forth many comments by the press.

A short time ago Henry bought 500 miles of railroad. records showed that for every $1.17 for operating expenses, during a long period of time. Mr. discharged all the operative employed a competent man to intend the system, reduced rates 20 per cent, established a minimum wage of $6 a day for employees and now the road shows an earning capacity of $1 for every 56 cents operating expense. He is asking a bonus from the government or other agencies.

service, has reduced the charges 20 cents on every dollar increased the wages of common laborers, cut off needless expense here and will be able to declare dividends on the stock of a road that is in the hands of a receiver, and the source of annoyance and loss to everyone connected with it before.

Why not let Henry Ford run the railroads of Florida?
Would a 20 per cent cut in freight rates help us any?

When inclined to criticize do not stop to think there is both good and bad in every person, even in ourselves and our friends? Do not want our friends to look for and comment publicly upon the bad things in us, or do we prefer that good? Does it pay us or the people concerned to enlarge upon the good and fail to think of and mention the ill? Is ill will, pessimism, criticism and abuse a greater asset to our community or nation than will optimism, confidence and hope?

praise? What is of more value, to the possessor and all those to whom he or she comes in contact than a sunny disposition, full of smiles and unselfishness, with a sure and a determination to seek and find the good and avoid and fight the evil?

Make the Faira Successful

Agriculture in all phases is the one great fundamental industry of the country, that feeds and clothes not only the people of our own nation but of a large part of the world. Our various fairs, large and small, should have for their principal object the exhibition of agriculture and related products, live stock, poultry, grains, vegetables and fruits. All fairs are to a greater or less degree, educational but the educational features should be emphasized. Of course it is not that there should be no fun and amusements provided, but these must be of a clean, wholesome character and made subordinate, always, to the educational side of the fair. Attractions and amusements are absolutely essential to the success of any fair, for ex-

Land Safest Investment

There is no safer investment than land, if bought with the least display of good judgment. There is plenty of good vacant land in Florida. One thing absolutely certain is that the original investment ought not to slip away from the owner. Increase in value may be, fast or slow, as the years may be, but the original investment is safe.

LEGAL NOTICE
To All to Whom It May Concern:

You are hereby notified that the undersigned Master in Chancery heretofore appointed by decree of foreclosure, in that certain cause wherein M. Jessamine Lewis and J. C. Lewis are complainants and Fred Collier and Fannie H. Collier and W. A. Hatchell and Gussie Hatchell are defendants, will in compliance with said decree offer for sale at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, between the legal hours of sale at the court house door at Sebring, Florida, on the 3rd day of October, A. D. 1921, the following described land to-wit:

Farm lot 38, section 28, township 34, range 29 east, Lakeview Park, Sebring and being in Highlands County.

You are further notified that said land will be sold for the purpose of satisfying said decree of foreclosure as aforesaid, which is in the sum of $2,983.50.

Witness my hand on this the 24th day of August, A. D. 1921.

A. E. LAWRENCE,
Special Master

Aug 27 - Sept 3 - 10 - 17 - 24

Love & K

Phone 22

WHEN YOU HAVE OR REPAIR

We can please you
Agents for the Universal Storage Battery. New and Service Batteries carried in stock. We do all kinds of repairing. For Magnetos recharged as good as new.

To the First

WHO PURCHASE A 2½-
WE WILL GIVE

Each
Votan

contains a coupon good for Votan Products Are or Men

WE LEAD IN West &
EXCLUSIVE AGENTS

First Store East of Postoff

We Save
On Your
EVERYTHING

Staple and GROC

SOLD

LOWEST PRICE
FOR

ENGLISH CAR

First Door West of Postoffice

Two Cuban ports—Pastellillo ar Puroto Tarafaa—are stocked to the capacity with sugar awaiting shipment. There were 1,371,627 bags of sugar exported from these ports during the six months ended June 30, 1921. The net weight was 445,338,722 pounds, and the value was $267,716,779. During the corresponding period of 1920 the shipments to the United States totaled 1,635,395 bags valued at $55,657,201 and having a net weight of 537,947,209 pounds.

Make the home more beautiful and charming with one of our
TABLE LAMPS

Mitchell Electric Company
Phone 105 Commerce 8

R. J. McMURRAY, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
Highland Bank Bldg. Spring, E

AND AUTO TROUBLE
ING, SEE US
and save you money

Agents for the Michelin, Good-year, Vacuum Cup and Yale Casings and Tubes.
A FULL LINE OF ACCESSORIES AND REPAIR PARTS

CAN OF VOTAN COFFEE
GIVES THEM A 1-16 CAN

15c canister of VOTAN TEA
Guaranteed to Please
Refunded

Avon Park, Fla.

Mid Fancy SERIES

HAPPENINGS OF A WEEK TOLD IN A FEW WORDS

Buy at Bee's and save money on your groceries.—Advertisement.

Joe Rawthorne was on the sick list last week, but is better now after a little rest.

Mrs. F. T. Haskins went to Avon Park last Friday to visit the H. F. R. Rock family.

Buy your eggs at Bee's Cash Grocery and save on your grocery bill.—Advertisement.

A 12-pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Pollard Wednesday, Aug. 31.

C. F. Saunders and Col. A. E. Lawrence were in Arcadia Tuesday on county and personal business.

G. A. DeVane and T. N. Jackson of Lake Stearns made a trip to Tampa in their new Buick Six last week.

Capt. Malcolm Smith of Carlstrom Field spent Saturday and Sunday visiting the A. G. Smith family at Cherokee Lodge.

Plenty of that good sugar at 8 cents a pound. Special prices on 100-pound sacks. Bee's Cash Grocery.—Advertisement.

Dr. W. C. Touchton of Avon Park had business in Sebring Wednesday morning and brought his wife and boys down for a visit with friends here.

The prisoners in the town jail effected their escape Saturday night through a hole in the ceiling. At the present writing none of them have been apprehended.

D. W. Brown and Clark Brown of Arcadia were in Sebring on business last Saturday. Both of these men are owners of large groves near Arcadia and also have large nurseries there.

After the return of the Amys to the Arrowhead, Mrs. Michener and Mrs. Sutton, who have been taking charge there, returned on the airplane over the drug store, where Mrs. Michener will continue to have charge of the rooms.

Mrs. M. G. Norman, who is in St. Vincent's hospital in Jacksonville, is recovering from the fever, from which she has been suffering for the last three weeks. Mr. Norman spent Sunday in Jacksonville with her, returning to Sebring Monday noon.

The DeSoto City Groves Company has a few ideal groves which it is at liberty to sell. These groves are in fine condition, well located, on high elevation and some have commenced bearing. Prices attractive. See or communicate with us. DeSoto City Groves Company, Sebring, Fla.—Advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Amy and daughter returned Monday from a three-months' tour through the west. They were in California six weeks, leaving there Aug. 8 and were just three weeks out of making the return trip. Amy reports a pleasant time, but thinks the climate of California does not compare with this and says they were very glad to get back to Sebring.

A nice line of fresh vegetables at Bee's for Saturday.—Advertisement.

F. T. Haskins spent Friday and Saturday in Arcadia on Highlands county business.

C. S. Reese of Wauchula drove over to Sebring Thursday of last week to see the Avon Park Sunday afternoon.

We have the best flour in town. When you want flour, give us a call. Every sack guaranteed at Bee's.—Advertisement.

Miss Vera True returned Monday evening from Palmdale, where she had spent a few days visiting Miss Miranda Anderson.

The Rev. F. J. Tauschen of DeSoto City, pastor of the Community church of Sebring, was in Sebring Tuesday and made many calls.

At a dinner party Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Sam Degeering entertained Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Etheredge and children, Annie Laurie, James and Allie Bell.

Mrs. Arthur Young, who has been ill with appendicitis in Scranton, Pa., has recovered and she and Mr. Young and their two children will leave there for Sebring Sept. 5.

Mrs. J. P. Hyman of Bartow has been in Sebring since the first of the week visiting her sister, Mrs. A. P. Butts. Mrs. Hyman's two little sons, Pat and Tom, who always enjoy a trip to Sebring, accompanied her.

Ira Ridgion, F. T. Haskins and H. O. Sebring went to Moore Haven Thursday morning of last week. Mr. Ridgion and Mr. Haskins returned in the evening, but Mr. Sebring went on to Ritta, where he stayed until the week.

Sam Degeering and Paul Ripberger went to the Kissimmee river early Thursday morning. They said they were going to get some grass from a large place in the soft St. Lucie variety, but most of their tools were rods, reels, minnows, etc.

Henry Selmer of the Sanitary Market was taken ill last Friday with severe attack of appendicitis. Dr. Bogle took him to Tampa Friday night and placed him in the Bayview Hospital, under the care of Dr. Heim. Owing to his condition it was thought best not to operate immediately, so they waited until Wednesday, when the operation was performed. Mrs. Selmer went to Tampa Wednesday. No word has been heard from her at this writing (Thursday).

Dr. W. E. Wheatley of Lorain, O., accompanied Mrs. Wheatley and two of the doctor's sisters, was in Sebring during the week. Dr. Wheatley came to Sebring Friday to look over his twenty-acre grove in Sebring and to get his car, which he left in St. Petersburg last winter. On account of the interference in the mood work of their children, the Wheatleys have decided not to spend the winter in Florida as the family party was the home of G. F. Bobb on Center street.

We will have a barrel of those fine Grapes Golden apples Wednesday. Bee's.—Advertisement.

Mrs. H. D. Keen of Kissimmee Island, Fla., who has been in town a number of months past, is much better.

D. A. Hazen and daughter Mildred and mother, Mrs. Mary E. Newson, drove to Avon Park Sunday afternoon.

G. A. Sexton of Jacksonville was in Sebring Friday business. He represents the Flint Kote Company of Boston.

Anyone wanting nice apartments for the coming winter season will do well to address F. S. Bee.—Advertisement.

C. H. Green of Arcadia was in Avon Park tuning pianos last week and drove over to Sebring to visit friends and patrons here.

D. E. Warren has been in Sebring the past week, but will return soon to Bradenton, where he has been working for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee of Haines City, who have been in Sebring, are a brother of Haskins.

C. G. Warriner, now in Allenhurst, N. J., writes that he and Mrs. Warriner will be in Sebring during the week of Sept. 15. Their friends will extend a hearty welcome.

The Sebring Garage and Machine Company was completely filled with transient cars on the night of Wednesday, Aug. 24. It looked like the busy winter time.

The hot water well may continue to flow or it may not, but we will continue to serve you all the time with the very best groceries at reasonable prices at Bee's.—Advertisement.

Mrs. Arthur Young, who has been spending the summer in Scranton, Pa., has been at Sebring for a number of days attending to the business of appendicitis. This has delayed the return of the family to their home in Sebring.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hendricks left Sebring Friday morning for Norfolk, Va., where they will look for a location for home and business. They were disappointed in not being able to find what they were looking for in Sebring.

Mrs. John Eiland returned Sunday night from Hade City, where she has been for the past few weeks visiting relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Eiland are now living on South Lake Avenue in the cottage built by Howard Johnson, now owned by Captain Hinalen.

The end of last week H. D. Keen of Kissimmee Island left and ran a sharp pine splinter through his left foot, which was three inches in his foot for twenty-two hours.

The DeSoto City Groves Company has a few ideal groves which it is at liberty to sell. These groves are in fine condition, well located, on high elevation and some have commenced bearing. Prices attractive. See or communicate with us. DeSoto City Groves Company, Sebring, Fla.—Advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. Harbaugh and their daughters, Kathryn and Elizabeth, will leave Sunday morning for Jacksonville, S. C. Mr. Harbaugh will return in a few weeks after some business has been attended to, but the rest of the family will probably stay for the winter. Elizabeth will enter the high school there and Kathryn will take a business course.

Miss Margaret Kelly, manager in charge of the Thrift Club of Jacksonville, was in Sebring last Friday. Miss Kelly is making a personal tour of the state for first-hand information on the condition of roads and routes. She was accompanied by Mr. Van Vleet, who is manager of the Abstract and Title Company office in Jacksonville. W. Z. Dalgety showed them all points of interest in and around Sebring. Mr. Van Westerholt visited the hotel and grounds. He was most interested, saying that the water equals that of Hot Springs, Ark.

B. L. Outlaw with his son Herbert and his daughters, Kate and Betty Outlaw, came over from Tampa last Sunday for a few days visit in Sebring. The girls were guests of Mrs. Brandon Jones. Mr. Outlaw has offered for sale his property in Tampa and that in Sebring and if the Tampa property sells, the family will move back to Sebring to make this their future home.

The Outlaw yard on Lake View drive was badly grown up with weeds and this received prompt attention and is now in keeping with the neighboring yards.

Last Saturday Mose Lanier took Mr. Moyer, Walter Moyer and Jim Killen to his place on the Kissimmee river so that they might have a good place to fish. The fish did not bite very well, but a fair catch was made. They discovered an alligator nest and Mrs. Killen brought home fourteen baby alligators. Walter had not intended to swim in the river, but he was so interested in the alligators that he was standing on the bow of the boat, about to make an extra fine catch when some one suddenly gave the oars a jerk and over the fisherman went. He came out none the worse for the dip and claims that he got a duck instead of a fish that time.

Mrs. Josephine Harmon returned Sunday night from a two-months' vacation in the north, for the most part in Hartford, Conn. The visit there was a very pleasant one. Mrs. Harmon came from New York to Jacksonville by boat and although the trip was a rough one, she did not suffer for any ill effects. Four Oaks.

Mrs. Harmon's little home here is one of the prettiest in town and her love of the beautiful is well reflected in the lawn, flowers and shrubs to be seen there. The little home next to her home on Pompano street will be completed next and furnished ready to rent for the winter season. Mrs. Harmon is chairman of the finance department of the Woman's Club and finds work waiting for her in getting ready for the 12th annual carnival and winter bazaar.

Piano Recital.—An informal music recital was given at the Ohio theater Thursday morning by the summer class of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Wright. Those who took part were Margaret Selner, Margaret Michener, Emma Whitehouse, Miss Laura Ellis, Belle Etheredge, Esther Maude Saunders, Vera True and Mary Estes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brimicom and son James of Orlando spent last Wednesday in Sebring, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lore. Mrs. Brimicom is Mr. Lore's sister. This was their first visit to Sebring and they were very favorably impressed with the beauty and prosperity of the town.

Our Stock of Gold.—The stock of gold in the United States, which reached its high mark last day of $3,121,287,445 on May 1, 1917, was $3,223,351,644 on July 1, 1921, or about $100,000,000 higher than the pre-war record amount. The lowest point reached was on May 1, 1921, when we had $2,612,000,000. During the first half of 1921 and the inflow shows no sign of abatement.

The Death of a Town.—A town that never has anything to do in a public way is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave. A man that dig the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to do anything for his town is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise is digging the hearse. The man who will do nothing for his town is bound to dig the grave.