ANNUAL MEETING SOUTH FLORIDA ASSOCIATION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES

Wednesday and Thursday of last week were spent most profitably by the people of the Congregational church, and friends from other churches, who had the pleasure of hearing some very noted speakers at the annual meeting of the South Florida Association of Congregational Churches. Perhaps in the history of Avon Park, no more important or learned body of ministers and laymen have ever assembled here before. A large delegation from all parts of the Congregational field throughout Florida was here, and many were the favorable expressions of appreciation for the hospitality extended by our people and the highest expressions were made concerning the beauties of our locality. The program:

Wednesday, Night
The Association Session, Rev. Paul C. Barkus, of South Florida.
The Lord's Supper, Rev. Abi L. Nutter, Crystal Springs, Rev. Warren C. Coffin, West Tampa.
Offering for ministerial relief.

Thursday, Morning
9:30. Prayer. Roll call. Election of president. Report of business committee. Election of nominating committee.

9:30. Brief reports from churches by roll call.

9:30. "The Latest in Florida Congregationalism," Supt. George B. Waldron.

10:10. Discussion.

10:20. Devotional.

10:40. Address: "Our Churches and the Community Idea," Rev. Chas. B. Drake, New Port Richey.

11:10. "For a Still Better Year," Rev. Fred P. Ensminger, superintendent of the Carolina.

Recess and dinner.

Thursday, Morning
9:30. Prayer. Business.

9:30. Synodical "Organ Union," "Ministry," "Annuity Fund," presented by Rev. D. B. Spier, Mount Dora, and "Evangelical and Church Going Program."

10:20. Devotional.

10:40. Women's boards meeting, in charge of Mrs. Ellen H. Dorsett, St. Petersburg.

Recess and supper.

Thursday, Night
7:30. Prayer. Business.

Address, Rev. Carl H. Corwin, late of Porto Rico, recently called to Cuban work, West Tampa.

Address, Rev. Kerison Juniper, St. Petersburg.

Agreement.

Among the most enthusiastic speakers, concerning the broad field of work for the Christian churches all over the land and extending his own people for more such services and preparation for hard work in the future, was the Rev. Juniper of St. Petersburg, a soldier of the Boer War and the World War. Rev. Juniper took a moment from his sermon to ask the Avon Park people: "What on earth is the matter with your road between here and the other side?" Perhaps that could be applied in two ways, having come from a minister's lips, and for many of us an important thought, but in this case of the St. Petersburg minister's visit to Avon Park he referred to the road between here and Frostproof, and he said with emphasis: "Can't something be done?" He continued by asking: "How does any one ever get into this part of the country with such an obstacle between here and real roads?"

Among the many who came in cars from all parts was the eminent pastor of the Congregational church of Winter Park, but most widely known in Boston and Washington, who spoke with so much power, for Dr. Vincent is a wonderful man of nation-wide reputation. He expressed a pleasure of having in his congregation many of the Rollins College students. And by the way, Avon Park has quite a few promising young people in attendance at Rollins College, among whom Dr. Vincent had chosen from his Young Peoples' Christian Endeavor Society to represent them here.

Miss Rebecca Caldwell, who motored over with the other Winter Park delegates.

Many things could be written about the good things said and done, but the following resolutions fittingly express the real feeling of the association meeting as presented by Mrs. H. C. Sackett of St. Petersburg:

Resolutions
The South Florida Association of Churches here assembled in annual session in Avon Park, would give expression to their deep sense of gratitude to the Heavenly Father, for the privileges of fellowship and inspiration received:

1. We would express our sincere and hearty thanks to the pastor and congregation of the Avon Park church for the beautiful and delightful hospitality enjoyed by us in their homes and in the gracious and satisfying entertainment provided by the ladies of the church; for the flowers and the music and the heart love back of it all; also to our presiding officer for the efficient, benign and cheerful conduct of our affairs. We have rejoiced in our fellowship with one another and shall carry away lasting impressions of the inspiration received.

2. We congratulate the Avon Park church on the accession of a new pipe organ and hope some time to hear its harmonies.

3. We sympathize deeply with the loss sustained by the New Port Richey church in the recent storm, but rejoice in the courage and sacrifice of its members which will mean soon an even more attractive house of worship.

4. We are glad to welcome to our fellowship such of the country with Drake, Coffin and Corwin and bid them God-speed in their fields of service.

5. To the West Tampa work, both American and Cuban, we extend our greetings anew, with a prayer and a promise of an enlarged helpfulness in which we are assured everyone is so vitally interested.

By the committee on resolutions, REV. C. DW. BROWER, MRS. H. R. SACKETT, REV. F. P. ENSMINGER.

Hunters are already beginning to "hunt" for the Goldenrod.

The hunting season opens Sunday,
but don't hunt on the morning day.

Buying well-bred Florida real estate
is the safest investment in the world.

The best hunters should get together and buy a present for Votedad their best friend.

A fish law which prohibits selling for home consumption or for ponds doesn't protect the fish much.

Remember the school entertainment Wednesday night, Nov. 21. The proceeds go toward paying for a school piano.

It's a safe bet that not as many flocks of quail will be seen going the highway after next Sunday as have been seen all summer.

Beavers who have been in stock will be allowed to sell the fur for medicinal purposes. Wonder if the Florida beavers had any left.

Hoodlums should be discouraged in every Florida town. I will do my best to keep good people from beating or investing in a town than anything else.

The people of the south end of Highlands county must have a good road to the north. It's up to the government of this north end to help them get it.

The war is over and the number those who are out of employment recognize that fact and come down to peace-time conditions. The quicker there will be employment for all who care to work.

If Highlands county wants good roads, and we presume she does, why not bond in a sufficient sum to help the state build state road No. 8 and the many other roads? It would be the height of folly to bond for the building of one and not the others.

Highlands county could easily be made a fisherman's paradise. Stock our lakes with fish and then prohibit any kind of fishing, except with hook and line, and it would not be many years until fishers would be coming here from all parts of the United States.

Students of the prohibition question predict that medicinal beer is only a forerunner of the return of light wines and beer as beverages and a Michigan representative in congress has taken time by the forelock and introduced a bill imposing a tax of 1 per cent on beer and light wines. He proceeds to be used in paying soldiers' bonuses.
If a 1 per cent tax is imposed, will the public be justified in calling it
"4 per cent beer"?

Times-Union: "Plenty of fertile lands in Florida to feed all the home-suckers who care to come and give them a bank account besides." The statement in the main is correct, but should be qualified by the statement that those who come must not expect the land to do it all. Common sense, energy and a sufficient bank account when they come to take them over until they can raise and dispose of their crops are necessary adjuncts, even in fertile Florida.

Whenever you hear someone knocking something or someone else, be sure "there's a reason" and it's usually not hard to find. In Florida, where people who respect their neighbors, trust them fairly, work hard and pay their bills, have no time or occasion to knock. Nine times in ten the knocker is a knocker and a knocker.
Make a list of the chronic knockers.
You know, then make a list of the knockers and their reasons. Check one against the other and see if it isn't so. Punta Gorda Herald.

WELL PLEASED WITH GRAVE INVESTMENTS
C. H. J. Osborn of Pittsburgh, Pa., was a recent visitor to Avon Park, and came as a special investigator of a group of grave owners in the various developments of the Pittsburgh-Florida Fruit Growers Association. Mr. Osborn was much pleased with Florida in general and Avon Park in particular. To show his absolute satisfaction with the results the Pittsburgh-Florida Company has obtained we quote from his letter to the company:

"With reference to the graves, I can only say that I find them second to none I have seen in the state and am more than satisfied with my investment."

In addition to the fine testimony regarding the good management of these in charge of the Pittsburgh-Florida developments, Frank Shaeffer of Pittsburgh and D. P. Wallmaster of Washington have also visited the graves and are well pleased with their investments and were delighted with the location and the splendid upkeep of the graves.

It must be a great source of satisfaction to all who have invested in these propositions to know that their investments under such aggressive and honorable management will rapidly increase in value.

LARGE CROWD GATHERED IN AVON PARK TO CELEBRATE CHRISTIE DAY

Harry Ward and the "Cub's" Awakening from His Last Dream" an original poem recited by Christine Reeves, brought forth rounds of applause.

"Fanny, Tranny, Tanny" was sung, the children carrying flags and marching in time to the music. The second, third and fourth grades were represented by forty boys carrying flags and executing a splendid drill, and then the boys wearing dresses and caps of red, white and blue, gazed through the evolution of a difficult drill and sweetly singing a patriotic song. This was followed by six boys and girls carrying flags, wearing caps of the national colors, led by Uncle Sam, represented by Patton Ryals and the Goddess of Liberty, which character was creditably represented by Dorothy Duran.

Ten boys, dressed in white sailor suits, gave a creditable exhibition of calliothes and sang a sailor song, which was followed by the "Cub's" girls in their handsome uniforms and the high school boys and girls, who sang "It's a Long, Long Trail" at the conclusion of which the high school yell was given.

The exercises closed with the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner" and the announcement that during the evening there would be a cake walk, back and wing dancing and later street dancing by those who cared to indulge in that amusement.

Main street, from Lake avenue to Forest avenue had been roped off and the street, cleaned and in the early hours of the evening, after the cake walk and other day by the crowd who had been present from the quarters were concluded, many awaited the music of the orchestra to dance to the strains of music furnished by the Avon Park orchestra. The most amusing of these (to the spectators) was an old-fashioned Virginia reel, in which some of the children showed that they had not forgotten their younger days, while some of the younger ones displayed lack of knowledge of the old-time amusement becoming beautifully mixed up in every change.

It was a day of untold pleasure and one which the people of Avon Park will remember for some time to come as being one of the most pleasant public entertainments ever staged here.

Notes

The Avon Park band made its first appearance in public and if the music furnished is a sample of what we may expect in the future, when the boys have had a little training and practice, Avon Park people may count on having as good a band as is to be found anywhere in this section of Florida. Real talent was displayed and every assistance and encouragement should be given this organization.

J. V. Chapman proved himself to be some slide trombone artist, we'll say he did.

The cake walk was pulled off, despite the rumors that it would not be permitted by a certain "element."

There was not a disturbance of any kind to mar the pleasure of the day. If the school children receive as good training at home as they showed they are getting at the school, they will make ideal citizens.

Every available inch of parking space was occupied. The crowd gathered in town was variously estimated at from 2,500 to 3,500 people.

Harry Cutler's "hot dog" stand was a popular place during the evening. There were many Scenicists here, who thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment.

A traveling man who had visited several of the surrounding towns during the day, stated that Avon Park had them all beaten with its decorations.

Such affairs as this will place Avon Park on the map in still larger letters.

The ladies who planned the entertainment and brought it to such a successful conclusion are entitled to a world of praise.

Let's plan to celebrate the opening of the park when it is completed.

Florida Property Is Increasing in Value Every Day

Especially is this true of property on the Scenic Highlands and land adjacent to Avon Park. Our city is growing rapidly, new buildings being started nearly every day. Of course this adds to the value of all property, whether in the city or adjacent thereto.

"HILLCREST"

Close to the city limits of Avon Park. Its groves are increasing in value every day. The trees are growing nicely and show a healthy appearance, making an investment with the Scenic Highlands Development Company an attractive one. In fact, one has to see the young groves, note the painstaking care being given to the trees, consider the location and then ascertain what grove properties are selling for all around us, to become convinced that "HILLCREST" is a gilt-edge proposition.

FLORIDA EVENTUALLY WILL BE A BEAUTIFUL WINTER GARDEN

Attractive Lakes

Florida is noted for her many beautiful lakes, attractive to the fishermen and to the bathers. Lakes can be seen in every county and most of them are teeming with fish, and are the paradise of the angler. For a number of years the real sportsmen have been trying to stop the seining of the lakes and have succeeded in a number of counties and the result is all of the lakes are becoming "good fishing" water. It is no uncommon thing to

Community Sing

Mrs. Mae Walden, president of the Woman's Club, informs us that there will be a community sing Thursday evening, Nov. 21, at the band stand in the new park. It is hoped that the services of the band may be secured for this occasion and that everybody in Avon Park will be there.

The committee stated that if elected he would not serve, therefore his name was stricken from the ticket.
An objection was made by Mrs. Fred Stevens to the name of Curtis Langford, who was nominated as a candidate for the office of town marshal, but under the rules and the law the chairman, after consulting Attorney Whitehurst, stated that the name of Langford was to be balloted unless Mr. Langford withdrew.
There was no opposition to R. C. Petersen as assessor and treasurer. Mr. Petersen has held this position for the last five years.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. E. O. Williams tendered a delightful reception to the members of the Woman's Club, at the home of Mrs. E. O. Refreshments were made the event all the more charming by the artistic decorations and the delicious luncheon, consisting of a variety of meats, soups, and vegetables. The program consisted of a few fashionable songs were an enjoyable part of the afternoon's entertainment and Mrs. Walden received the congratulations of her friends and fellow members. The board of trade is taking great pains with this course and with the co-operation of the public will have the success hoped for.

Ever since the hunting season closed last year Norton T. Smith has been contemplating a good hunt this season and had been preparing for the season by the casual way of buying in a supply of shotgun shells. A supply of various sizes, appropriate for killing quail, turkey, bear, deer or any other kind of game he might run afoul of in the woods. But man is not always the arbiter of his own destiny, and when Monday morning came and Norton was ready to hie forth and create havoc among the denizens of
