

SEVEN-DAY ADVENTISTS TO HOLD MEETING HERE

The center of interest for the next few weeks in Avon Park will likely be at the khaki tent where the Walker-Watts Evangelistic Party will deliver a series of Bible lectures covering (it seems) every subject treated in the Scriptures.

EVANGELIST ALLEN WALKER

It will be recalled that Evangelists Walker and wife, assisted by Dr. B. O. Jones and wife, were here a year ago, at which time they conducted a successful evangelistic campaign. The first meeting will be conducted Sunday evening, April 23, at 7:30. The opening lecture will be on "What is the World Coming To?" In this illustrated lecture Mr. Walker promises to trace the fulfillment of the Bible prophecies relating to the second coming of Christ and point out the unfulfilled prophecies and the world events that stand between now and the end.

PROF. EARL WATTS

Associated with Mr. and Mrs. Walker in this campaign are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Watts. Mr. Watts and wife are said to sing charmingly together and from time to time Mr. Watts will sing solos on the lecture topics. There will be a lively song service each evening before the lecture and this will be one of the interesting features of the campaign. Evangelist Walker has the reputation of being a deep student of the Scriptures and especially of the prophecies. He seems to know the Bible by heart and has the proof at instant command for every position taken. He avoids entirely all attempts to "play up" the emotions of the audience to an excitable tension by "hand-shakings," "saw-dust trails," death-bed stories, etc. His aim seems to be to make every lecture educational and instructive.

The tent is new and water-proof and will comfortably seat between 250 and 300 people. When the evenings are warm the wall will be raised all around, thus insuring plenty of ventilation and comfort. The program for the first week is an interesting one and doubtless there will be no difficulty in securing a large audience each evening. The lecture topics will be as follows:

Sunday night—"What's the Old World Coming To?"
Monday night—"An Inspired Film of the Greatest Picture Ever Seen."
Tuesday night—"Satan's Thousand-year Vacation; the Millennium."
Wednesday night—"The Home of the Sweet Bye and Bye."
Thursday night—"What It Means to Be Born Again."
Friday night—"The Kind of Christianity the World Needs Today."
The seats are free and everybody welcome.

TEN YEARS OF FAITHFUL SERVICE BY REV. STOCK

Friday, April 15, ended the tenth year of the services rendered by Rev. Benjamin Stock as pastor of the Congregational church of this place, during which time he has served his congregation and the community well and established himself firmly in the hearts of those in the community. On account of his successful work, not only among the members of his church, but among others in the community, it is only fitting at this time that a brief outline be given of the progress that has been made by the congregational church during the past ten years.

Ten years ago there was only a parlor organ in the church. Later a piano was added and during the past few months a splendid pipe organ has been installed. Last year, through the kindness and efforts of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Williams the seats were revarnished and during the past few weeks the rostrum has been enlarged to give more room for the choir. Twice during the past ten years Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Butler have supplied the church with new hymnals. A new carpet to cover the rostrum was kindly given by Mrs. Frank Carpenter and laid by Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Williams. This addition gives the rostrum a much more attractive appearance.

During the past ten years the church has been twice painted. It has also been thoroughly renovated inside and running water and a sink for the church kitchen has been put in, through the kindness of Mrs. Davidson and daughter Alice. Electric lights have also been put into the building.

Attention is called to the fact that during the past ten years a splendid parsonage has been built, which adds much to the value of the church property.

Although the congregation is not large, but faithful to their trust, and there are many who are not members of the church but attend regularly, who are included among the friends of the pastor. The women of the church have toiled incessantly to buy the many things which have, from time to time been added to the building equipment.

About three weeks ago many friends and admirers of the pastor met in the church after prayer meeting to congratulate Rev. Stock upon his having reached another birthday and at the same time to thank him for the services he had rendered during the past ten years and wishing him every success in the coming years and assuring him that each and all of them would co-operate with him to make the next ten years a greater success than the past ten years.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The feature of the program at the Woman's Club this (Friday) afternoon will be a talk on child labor laws by S. J. Triplett of the Pilot force. Mr. Triplett has had wide experience in working for legislation of this class, having put child labor laws through three legislatures, and is a thoroughly competent as well as an interesting speaker. Every member of the club and every patron of the school should hear this address and all are invited to be present at the school auditorium at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The program last Friday afternoon, given by Miss Sadie Myers' pupils, was one of exceptional interest. The health songs and health playlet were of such merit that an early repetition of them before a larger audience is promised soon. The recitations and the playlet, "The Aint Family," brought out very clearly the necessity of learning and speaking good English. The children under Miss Myers are fortunate to have her guidance in these important subjects for the benefit they receive now will help them all through their lives.

The last meeting of the season will be the annual meeting on May 5. Election of officers for the ensuing year will be held and reports of officers will be given. All members of the club are urged to be present, as this is clearly the most important meeting of the year. All members in arrears are respectfully asked to pay their dues before May 5, in order that they may take part in the election.

Enjoyable Outing
Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Roberts gave an enjoyable picnic Friday of last week on the shores of Lake Lotela, near the W. A. Hatchell place. It was more in the line of a family reunion than anything else, a number of members of the Roberts family coming over from Zolfo for the occasion. A picnic supper was served, which included an ample supply of fresh fish caught in Lake Lotela. The guests were Mrs. M. A. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Roberts and children, Mrs. Mary A. Roberts and children and C. L. Bryant and family of Zolfo.

For County Judge
To the Voters of Highlands County: At the request of a number of representative citizens, I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of County Judge of Highlands County, subject to the decision of the voters at the democratic primary election of June 5, 1922. Should I be the choice of the voters at the polls, I will devote to the performance of the duties of that office the same care and energy that I should apply to the dispatch of my own business.

Will the next legislature enact laws granting women more privileges? If it does not, the next legislature will be composed of men with but little foresight and of narrow views. Woman has been granted the right of suffrage and in nearly all other respects the same rights and privileges the men enjoy. Why should a woman be required to take certain legal proceedings before she can handle her own property? Why should a woman's promissory note or her endorsement not be just as good as that of a man, provided her property interests meet the requirements? There is no valid reason in the world why women should not be granted all the rights and privileges enjoyed by men and we trust the state press will advocate measures granting them these privileges.

Gastine

THE GASOLINE ECONOMIZER AND POWER PRODUCER

Cut Your Fuel Bills 30 Per Cent

GASTINE is the greatest boon of the age to owners and operators of AUTOMOBILES, MOTOR TRUCKS, MOTOR BOATS, MOTORCYCLES, TRACTORS and all types of Farm and Stationary Gasoline and Kerosene Engines. It is a combination of highly volatile oils, compressed in tablet form, which when dissolved in the gasoline or kerosene in the fuel tank, acts as an INVIGORATOR—A MOTOR STIMULANT—and results in a tremendous increase in the POWER and GENERAL EFFICIENCY of the motor because it produces PERFECT COMBUSTION.

PUTS PEP IN YOUR MOTOR

There has been a constant lowering in the grade of gasoline as the demand continues to increase faster than the supply, and engines are now fed upon a sluggish, slow burning fuel that is heavy with impurities, such as tar, asphaltum, iron and sulphur. The chemical reaction of GASTINE transforms even this low grade of gas into a neutralized oxygen gas that forms a perfect burning mixture without carbon content. As a result your motor responds with all the pep and vigor of a racing car. She takes hills on high that you always dreaded and the gasoline consumption drops accordingly.

GUARANTEE

GASTINE is absolutely non-injurious to the finest motors; will not clog the feed pipe, and is sold with an absolute guarantee that your money will be cheerfully refunded if GASTINE does not meet every claim made for it.

Retailers Support Growers Who Ship Through the A. F. G.

In every market in the United States you can find retailers who have faith in fruits and vegetables bearing the A. F. G. trademark. Their faith in the trademark was built up by sound packing and advertising methods. Growers shipping through the A. F. G. and adding its emblem of dependable quality to their own house brand find sales steadier and more profitable.

Retailers plan special sales drives with the A. F. G. line of fruits and vegetables as the attraction. They support the American Fruit Growers advertising by giving publicity in their own advertisements to the fact that they carry the A. F. G. line.

Window displays, sampling, food show exhibits and other demonstrations of the A. F. G. products are staged by retailers in all parts of the country because they find their faith in the dependability of crops packed under the mark is reflected by customers who demand A. F. G. trademarked goods.

Advertising and personal work among retailers by sales crews keeps the trademark constantly before them.

There's just one condition imposed upon growers who wish to use the A. F. G. trademark—they shall keep faith with the retailer by putting up a dependable pack.

The Fountain of Youth

Ponce de Leon came to the new world seeking the fountain of youth.

Youth! The magic word! Youth means wealth and energy, health, cleanliness and everlasting strength.

Ponce de Leon did not find the fountain. But it is here in this world, for all that. James Watt, who discovered steam and developed the steam engine, was the first to find this fountain.

Following him into the new world of science have come innumerable others, studying, working, developing, until the very fountain of youth is here at hand in the electric light and power industry.

Through the application of electric light, heat and energy in manufacturing establishments, commercial houses and in the home, unsanitary conditions have been almost abolished. Dust and dirt need not exist; excessive heat or cold can be tempered; tension and strain on employers and employees and on housewives are taken away by a hundred different uses of electric power.

Innumerable ills are avoided. Above all, energy is saved—and energy is youth!

Back of this new force are the huge dams and water turbines, where water power is used, or the stupendous steam boilers, turbines, engines and generators, wires of high-tension transmission lines and the infinite web of innumerable smaller wires stretching out over the country.

Here is a fountain of eternal youth, indeed!

But, it must be fed. It has been fed to the amount of billions of dollars by thrifty American citizens who have put their savings in the securities of the electric light and power industry.

There are still millions of people to be added to the home patrons alone of electric light and power companies. Vast capital must be invested to supply their requirements, and it can be attracted only if present invested capital is treated fairly.

Florida Property Is Increasing in Value Every Day

Particularly is this true of property on the Scenic Highlands and in and adjacent to Avon Park. Our city is growing rapidly, new buildings being started nearly every day. Of course this adds to the value of all property, whether in the city or adjacent thereto.

"HILLCREST"

is close to the city limits of Avon Park. Its groves are increasing in value every day. The trees are growing nicely and show a healthy appearance, making an investment with the Scenic Highlands Development Company an attractive one. In fact, one has but to see the young groves, note the painstaking care being given the trees, consider the location and then ascertain what grove properties are selling for all-around us, to become convinced that "HILLCREST" is a gilt-edge proposition.

The Dependable Merchant

never abuses the confidence of the people, never displays in large type the fact that he can save you much money by buying his goods, never claims his goods are all wool when they are part cotton, and never charges more than a legitimate profit. The dependable merchant always tells the truth about his goods, though it may cost him a sale; he does not claim to sell below cost nor does he claim to carry the only good stock in town; he buys as close as possible and sells at a conservative profit, and the people believe him and patronize him. We claim to operate a dependable dry goods and shoe store, and from the liberal patronage accorded us we believe the people of Avon Park and vicinity are of the same opinion.

"KNIGHTHOOD" WAS SUBJECT OF BRILLIANT SERMON REV. MURRISH

but to the powers that be in the earth. The apostle realized that this was a part of duty and that human authority was of God for man's welfare. "Fear God and honor the king." Let every soul be subject unto the higher power, for there is no power but of God. The powers that be are ordained of God.

The body politic of society is of no arbitrary human government of men, but the apostle saw in human government of any and every kind a divine ordinance for maintaining order, and for the security of both person and property and for promoting the public good. To them all power and authority came from God and so the power of civil government has God back of it, be that government an absolute monarchy or a democracy. We need this so of the earthly power—not only renewed loyalty to God, but renewed loyalty to good government and to good citizenship, for in America good citizenship takes the place of kings, for here the people are sovereign.

"As the knight of feudal days swore fealty to his lord or baron, his civil ruler, so we as Knights Templar should pledge allegiance to God and true good government. This means that we pledge ourselves as citizens to exterminate the organized evils of society, things which militate against the common good. In other words, to seek in general the reign and honor of whatever things are true, just, pure and lovely and of good report in all affairs. Here, surely, is a field for true knightly duty as large and as availing as any in feudal times. Yes, for more so, for we have a form of government in which it is possible to give to the individual the greatest liberty consistent with the whole body of society. As Knight Templar let us Fear God and Honor the King."

Anciently Knightly Devotion

"I am not this evening giving any rules as to how we should treat the weak and the helpless. So far as woman is concerned, we may differ in our views as to her rights, political and otherwise. From the beginning of history we find woman the symbol of weakness, innocence and the passive virtues so naturally the adornment of the weaker sex. The qualities honored in men, such as courage, wisdom and strength, are considered manly qualities, while the womanly traits of meekness, gentleness, lowliness and purity were less esteemed. In the olden knights we find, then, a marked blending of warlike strength and courage, as in the crusader, with the more passive qualities of meekness, gentleness and forgiveness. A very strange union was that in feudal days, of manly courage in war, with a tenderness toward woman which bordered on worship. It is not necessary for me to depict at length woman's position in the world, outside of the civilizations, which are based upon the Old and New Testaments. But let us remember this: Just to the extent that she is honored and protected, especially in the home, the safeguard of society, will a nation be strong. And while the change in woman's position in lands under the shadow of that cross has been great, as compared with women of other countries, there is yet need of gallant knightly duty to free her from disabilities which still accrue to her and to defend her from dangers which will always beset her sex."

"The modern knight should be a staunch defender of the home. God has given man the family instinct and modern chivalry should aim to ennoble and to purify the home life of the nation. The true Knights Templar will seek to advance the world toward freedom and light by following even more nobly the banner of feudal days, upon which was inscribed 'God and the Ladies.'"

Courtesies
"The last injunction of the text is 'Be Courteous.' The age of chivalry was so conducive of courtesies of manner that we can scarcely conceive it in this America of ours, for we have gone to the other extreme and there is antipathy toward everything that seems to savour of hereditary aristocracy or royalty."

"There are few words that have lost their true meaning to Americans as much as the word 'gentleman.' The popular meaning has resolved itself into a question of ancestry, wealth and position; and in America, all too often, that may be deemed a gentleman who, through a fortune suddenly accumulated, is able with a few lessons from a dancing master to enter with a galvanized etiquette some aristocratic circle."

"Evidently, there is but one way to reach the knightly of gentlemen. It is not through cultivation of externals alone. The true process is from the heart outward. * * * All definitions of a gentleman pertain to moral elements first—not to family and wealth, but to qualities of heart, a high sense of honor within, and then the outward life corresponding; great delicacy of feeling, and then great delicacy of action."

"No doubt there are many men among us that are splendid of heart, though they have a rough exterior. When you see them and for the first time come in contact with them, there seems to be but little to incite you to form an acquaintance. But the more you know them the better you like them, until finally you see them as they are. You find in them a grand substance of character without the outward form. But you are aware that few look through the shell to find the kernel. Now it is far better to have the substance without the shell (the outward courtesies of manner) than to have the outer form without the inner substance. But even when there is solid worth of heart there is great loss of power if it does not have the pleasing form. The diamond is a diamond, no matter where you may find it, and to the man who finds it, even in the rough, it is of great value, but it is a great deal more precious when it is polished and set. * * * The true gentlemen are those whose natures have been fashioned after the highest models. * * * A Christian is God Almighty's gentleman and, fraters, there is not a word in the English language that should be more of a synonym of Christianity than Knights Templarism."

Dr. Murrish in his discourse outlined the meaning of knights Templar in such a clear and comprehensive manner that every person in the congregation left with a feeling of pride over the fact that Avon Park has such an organization, composed of citizens who can in fact claim to be gentlemen.

Bungalow Ventilating Porch Shades

MAKE YOUR PORCH THE COOLEST AND MOST DELIGHTFUL ROOM IN SUMMER

HOW TO GET MORE COMFORT FROM YOUR PORCH

In summer the hot sun turns every room in the house into an oven. Then is the time to get real enjoyment from your porch.

Meals tempt, lazy appetites—callers are welcome—a good book becomes more interesting—sowing or knitting is a pleasure—heat-strained nerves are soothed—refreshing sleep comes quickly—when you live on your porch.

Give it all the comfort and privacy of a room—the coolest room in the house—by putting up the right kind of porch shades.

Thousands are now enjoying healthful, cool porch-life with the aid of Bungalow Ventilating Porch Shades.

THE MOST ECONOMICAL SHADES

Bungalow Porch Shades are so reasonable you need no longer resort to makeshifts—Canvas curtains that shut off light, air and view, or bamboo that soon becomes useless, give little privacy and let in the scorching midday sun.

Bungalow Porch Shades have uniform, evenly spaced splints that exclude the sunlight and trying glare, but allow the gentle breezes to cool your porch. You can see without being seen. Adjustable Guy Cords hold the shades securely in place and prevent the wind from whipping them to pieces. No strength nor effort required to raise or lower. They are durable enough for several seasons of all weather use.

SOME EXCLUSIVE ADVANTAGES

Non-Warping Lindenwood Splints. Treated to withstand weather and sun.

Uniform Weave means absolutely uniform ventilation from top to bottom.
