Among the names proposed for our park is that of "Nova," which was suggested by Mrs. J. D. Sherman. It will be noticed that "Nova" is Avon spelled backwards.

W. M. Reck departed Sunday for Washington, D. C., in the interests of the Scenic Highlands Development Company. He will return to Avon Park in a couple of weeks.

Albert Ellison, who has been home from Tampa a couple weeks looking after his property interests, returned to that city today (Friday). Mr. Ellison has a position there as manager of the Citrus Exchange barber shop.

Frank D. Brewster is here from Deland to be at the bedside of his mother, who is dangerously ill, with little hope of recovery, as she has passed the three score and ten mark, the age to which few are permitted by nature to attain.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McDonough and Fred Shafer left Tuesday for a ten-day tour of the East Coast and South Florida. Mr. McDonough has just recovered from two weeks' sickness, and takes this outing to fully regain his usual good health.

The Misses Abey and Louise Goodwin, who had been spending two weeks here, guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, left Thursday of last week for their home in Nashville, Tenn. Both ladies were delighted with Avon Park and the surrounding country.

Dr. C. R. Moulton of Brooklyn, N. Y., made Avon Park a couple of days' visit last week, arriving Wednesday and departing Friday. Dr. Moulton is a grove owner with the Scenic Highlands Development Company and is highly pleased with his investment. Like other grove owners who come to Avon Park, he believes we have a wonderful future before us. Mrs. Moulton spent last winter here. Dr. Moulton has been spending this winter in St. Petersburg.

FLORIDA'S NATIVE-BORN POPULATION

Figures from the last federal census show the percentage of native born in Florida's population to be 57.3 per cent.

In view of the rash statements made by many, for various effects and purposes in Florida, that "you cannot find a Florida native in a day's search," the government's figures will be a little surprising to many who, from time to time, make that statement.

It is also interesting to know that Florida attracts annually more from other states than it loses to them. For instance, there were 349,624 persons in Florida who were born in other states, while the native born Floridians living in other states numbered 92,249.

Further statistics at hand, from other than the federal sources, show also, that it is the native born Floridians who are responsible for the great birth increase figures. So, from the standpoint of birth, the state is likely to continue to have a majority of native born in it for many years at least.

It is interesting and consolatory to know this; for when some paper for the purpose of creating a political sentiment foreign to the state, begins to cry about the need of assistance for Florida's "great" foreign population," along lines that indicate a possible other political party; those who know the state, and believe in the principles and practices which it has to long maintained, feel assured that nothing rash will be done. The native Floridian takes his time, sometimes, and often he makes mistakes; but he is quick to recognize a mistake and to remedy it promptly and effectively.

This state is safe with its three to two proportion of native borns.—Tampa Tribune.

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO REGISTER

We earnestly desire to impress upon our readers that but a short time remains in which the registration books will be open in the various voting precincts, after which time it will be necessary for the voters to go to the county seat to register, if they would participate in the primary election to be held June 6.

It is important to Avon Park, and every other section of the county, for that matter, that a full registration be made and that every citizen be qualified to vote should do so. In addition to the election of county and certain state officers, there will be an election to decide where the permanent county seat shall be located and this is a matter of great importance to every one in Highlands county.

What constitutes a legal registration may not be fully understood by all voters, therefore we are quoting from an article written by the chairman of the county executive committee as follows:

"The registration books show that some of you are registered without giving your party designation. The governor of this state is authority for the statement that you are improperly registered; the provision for your stating your party affiliation in your registration being mandatory. This being true the inspectors of election would have no right to allow you to vote in any election if your party affiliation is not given in your registration.

"You may give your party as democrat, republican, socialist, independent or any other party, but you must designate some party in order to be legally registered.

"The statute concerning the primary election is very specific in designating the ballot that may be delivered to the elector. The elector shall be delivered to him any one other.

"There being no other party in Highlands county within the meaning of the statutes, except the democratic party, it follows that only the democratic party are considered as a democratic party will have no right to vote in the coming primary.

"The statute further provides that you may change your party affiliation on the registration books, and that may be done now or at any time before the registration period ends. And this applies to men and women alike.

"Attend to your registration at once."

JOHN A. TAYLOR,

Chairman of Executive Committee.

There seems to be a hesitancy on the part of some of the women to register. This should not be. Every woman who is entitled to vote should register and exercise her right of franchise. They owe it to themselves and their communities, for they are as much interested in placing men of integrity and ability in office as are the men. In this connection we desire to state that the primary election is a white primary, therefore the women need have no fear of being thrown in contact with negroes when they go to the polls to exercise their right of franchise.

Don't put off registering a day longer. Do it now.

Then when important questions come up you will be in a position to help decide them.

The registration books of this precinct will be found at the Florida Pharmacy. Make it a point to register and see that you are legally registered, in order that no question may arise when you go to cast your ballot.

DESERVING OF YOUR SUPPORT

We are informed that an attempt has been made by a faction in Arcadia to bring out candidates in opposition to Judge George W. Whitehurst and S. Watt Lawler, circuit judge and state's attorney respectively for the twelfth judicial circuit. In this connection an attempt was made, we are informed, to secure opposition from Lee county, which attempt was unsuccessful and resulted in the passing of resolutions by members of the bar of that county endorsing Judge Whitehurst and Attorney Lawler.

Nearly every newspaper in this circuit has published editorials favorable to these two gentlemen and we desire to add our endorsement thereto, for in our opinion it would be difficult indeed, to secure two men more fitted for the positions who would attend to the duties of the offices in a more efficient or impartial manner.

While we are not personally acquainted with State's Attorney Lawler, we have known Judge Whitehurst for a number of years and we unhesitatingly state that he is not only well qualified to fill the important position he holds, but that he is a man of sterling qualities, unquestioned integrity and unbiased judgment. The Pilot does not purpose to take a hand in local politics, but in the case of Judge George W. Whitehurst and the Hon. S. Watt Lawler we desire to state that we shall do everything honorable in our power to bring about their election, believing that so doing we are working for the best interests of the entire circuit, which is composed of Lee, Charlotte, DeSoto, Hardee, Highlands and Glades counties.

As an evidence of the standing of these two gentlemen in Highlands county, we submit the following resolutions, passed by the members of the bar of this county:

"To Whom It May Concern:—
"It having been brought to our attention that the Honorable George W. Whitehurst of Arcadia, judge of the twelfth judicial circuit of Florida, and the Honorable S. Watt Lawler of Fort Myers, state's attorney for the twelfth judicial circuit of Florida, are desirous of reappointment to their respective positions, and to this will submit their candidacies to the voters at the coming democratic primary;

"Now, therefore, we the undersigned, being all of the active members of the bar and practitioners at the bar of Highlands county, Florida, within said twelfth judicial circuit, wish at this time to express our appreciation of the zeal and ability with which the above named officials have uniformly performed their official duties, to thank them for their untiring courtesy and consideration, and we hereby heartily endorse the Honorable George W. Whitehurst and the Honorable S. Watt Lawler for reappointment to the offices now so creditably filled by them, and we desire to say further that this action on our part is taken without the knowledge of either of the officials concerned.

"Sebring, Fla., March 6, 1922.
"GUY A. ANDREWS.
"A. E. LAWRENCE.
"F. T. HASKINS.
"M. A. WHITEHURST.
"D. V. ROUSE.

The press of Florida without exception and thousands of friends extend to W. L. Thorndyke, editor of the Kissimmee Valley Gazette, their deepest sympathy in the death of his daughter.

Wedding Sunday Morning
Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock J. Corbett Webb and Miss Emance Kinard, both of this city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, near the cattle mills. George L. Crews, notary public, performed the ceremony.

For Sheriff
I take this method of announcing myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Highlands county, subject to the decision of the voters in the primary election, to be held June 6, 1922. If elected I pledge myself to perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability and without fear or favor. Your support will be appreciated.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Program for the Week, Beginning Monday, March 27

Monday—"The Old Nest," by Rupert Hughes. "The Old Nest" is one of the world's greatest pictures. It has been advertised all over the film world in The Saturday Evening Post, The Woman's Home Companion and other national magazines. It is the biggest picture ever brought to Avon Park. Mrs. R. P. Barclift of Waukegan will furnish the music for this picture. The music will be worth the price of admission. Admission 25 and 50 cents. Two shows—the first starts promptly at 6:15.

Wednesday—A special Reelart picture, with a Reelart star; also Pathe News.

Thursday—"The Man of the Forest," by Zane Grey. This picture was seen by the writer and for that reason all children under the age of twelve who are accompanied by their parents will be admitted absolutely free. It is not altogether a small child's picture, however, the animals will cause the children to thank you for taking them for months to come. A man, a maid, a bear, a dog and a mountain lion—all the animals are taught to protect their master. The picture is wonderful.

Friday—"The Rider of King Lee." If you are looking for action with a capital C, then don't fail to see this picture. Taken in mid-winter among the snow-capped mountains of Canada, where the nearest civilization for hundreds of miles is occasionally a Hudson Bay post. Also the second chapter of "Hurricane Huth."

Saturday—"Anson of the Royal Mounted." This is a picture that will wind up the biggest week of first run productions ever shown at this theatre. The picture is clock full of action. Also an educational comedy, "The Spice of the Program."

Monday, April 3—"Dangerous Curve Ahead," the second Rupert Hughes picture.

Coming soon—Carpenter—Demsey fight.

The "Microbe of Love" has received high praise wherever it has been staged.

Back to The Farm

It was easy enough to urge others to go back to the farm, but until electricity began to supply its energy and convenience in the rural districts few persons were willing themselves to go back.

Now on many farms throughout the country part of the work in the field is done by electric power, while the house is lighted and household conveniences are made possible. On such farms, life is different from what it used to be. A large part of the hardest work has been lifted from the shoulders of agriculture, and the back-to-the-farm movement has been accelerated.

There are 6,500,000 families living on "farms" in this country. The arduous lives of 2,000,000 of these families have been made more endurable by the introduction of electrical appliances, and their labor problems have been partly solved by the "burden-bearer," electricity.

Extension of such service to the farms not now enjoying it means that vast new capital must be invested. The electric light and power industry is regulated by the states, and the wages paid to the capital which must be employed in the industry likewise are fixed. As such wages are fixed fairly, more capital will be forthcoming to permit the extension of service to the farms, and city homes, and industries still calling for it.

Irrigation of millions of acres of land by electric pumping shows the importance of electricity to the development of agriculture. Utilization of electric power for many farm chores and tasks has helped solve the farm labor question and has reduced the cost of production of food stuffs, thus aiding in the battle against the High Cost of Living.

Extension of service to individual farms and farming communities requires large plant and distribution system investments, money for which can be "hired" only when companies are enabled to earn a return sufficient to attract additional money in competition with other industries also seeking new capital.

Florida Property Is Increasing in Value Every Day

Particularly is this true of property on the Scenic Highlands and in and adjacent to Avon Park. Our city is growing rapidly, new buildings being started nearly every day. Of course this adds to the value of all property, whether in the city or adjacent thereto.

"HILLCREST"

is close to the city limits of Avon Park. Its groves are increasing in value every day. The trees are growing nicely and show a healthy appearance, making an investment with the Scenic Highlands Development Company an attractive one. In fact, one has but to see the young groves, note the painstaking care being given the trees, consider the location and then ascertain what grove properties are selling for all around us, to become convinced that "HILLCREST" is a gilt-edge proposition.

DON'T BE HASTY IN CONTRACTING YOUR CITRUS CROP COMING YEAR

Every Indication Points to a Greater Demand for Florida Fruit Than Has Existed for Many Years and Extra High Prices Will Prevail

In traveling several hundred miles through the citrus belt of the state last week and week before we were astonished at the amount of bloom showing. In nearly every section we visited the orange trees are laden with bloom and if favorable weather conditions prevail there will be a heavy crop of oranges next year. Notwithstanding this fact, however, the prices should be far beyond the average for the January freeze in California was the most serious one in the history of the citrus industry in that state. In fact, it was so serious that it will effect the California citrus crop for the next two or three years. In many sections of the state the young trees were seriously injured, while in other sections the bearing wood of the older groves was frozen back. Naturally this will result in a greatly reduced output of California fruit, both in navel and Valencia, and it is but natural to suppose that speculators will take advantage of this fact in planning their summer campaign.

Undoubtedly there will be a larger number of buyers in Florida than usually visit this state during the summer, who will undoubtedly endeavor to tie up the crop at prices which may seem attractive to the growers. The latter should take into consideration the shortage of the California crop and not be too hasty in contracting their fruit. It must also be taken into consideration that the country is recovering from a serious financial stringency and that in all probability another season will find all sections of the country more prosperous and in a position to consume larger quantities of our products at better prices than have prevailed during the last two years.

Don't be too hasty in contracting your citrus crop, for every indication points to a greater demand for Florida fruit than has existed in many years.

Entertained Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Miller and Joseph W. Collins entertained at supper last Friday night at the Hotel Avon Park. F. L. Middleton, Mrs. Arthur Middleton and son Pierre, Mrs. James A. MacElwee and Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Reck. After the supper the guests enjoyed a box party at the Capital Theatre.

ing and about the rooms were Madame Gero, Mrs. W. M. Reck, Mrs. Henry Timm, Mrs. J. D. Raab, Mrs. Samuel Miller, Mrs. Norton T. Smith and Mrs. Ethel Clark. Misses Elizabeth Clark and Norma Mae Greese presided at the punch bowl.

A delightful affair was the "at home" given by Mrs. William Meringue, Mrs. Herbert Fitz-Bandolph Reck and Mrs. Edward Gersuch Todd at Forest Lawn, the attractive home of the Todds, Tuesday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with gorgeous bouquets of lily of the valley and white pine branches banking the mantel and fireplace in the spacious living room, where Mrs. W. M. Reck and her two charming daughters most graciously received their guests.

The dining room was prettily arranged in all its appointments. A large basket of white lilies and a centerpiece of white lilies and carnations were served. Mrs. E. O. Williams was in charge of the dining room and Mrs. T. H. Lander presided at the coffee service, while Miss Chinn, Miss Jack and Miss Andrews assisted at the punch bowl.

No place could be more appropriate for such an occasion as Forest Lawn on the lake, with all its lovely surroundings and a perfect day for its accompaniment. The ladies who assisted in receiving were Mrs. Chesley A. Skipper, Mrs. J. D. Menden, Mrs. F. L. Middleton, Mrs. Henry Timm, Mrs. Samuel Miller, Mrs. J. A. MacElwee, Mrs. J. D. Raab, Mrs. Carlos E. Skipper, Reck and Mrs. Edward Gersuch Todd Middleton.

Union Religious Services

Beginning with next Sunday the Episcopal, Congregational, Baptist and Methodist churches have arranged a series of monthly union meetings to be held in the public school auditorium. These meetings are to be presided over by the several ministers in turn, Rev. Stock having charge of the meeting next Sunday. All are cordially invited to join in these services.

The band concert next week will be held Thursday night instead of Tuesday night, owing to the "Microbe of Love" being staged Tuesday and Wednesday nights, the Woman's Club proportion of which will go for the benefit of the school.

Change in Bank

This week J. W. White, president of the B. F. West Banking Company, and M. T. Waddell, cashier, disposed of their interests in that banking institution to A. V. Anderson and C. H. Moffett. Mr. White disposes of his interests in order to devote more time to his mercantile business and air. Waddell in order to take a vacation and enjoy a well-earned rest. Mr. Moffett will occupy the position of cashier of the bank. He will be remembered by our citizens as having been cashier for the First Trust and Savings Company, when that financial institution was first organized. Moffett returned to Avon Park early in the week and will be glad to receive his former friends and new ones on Lake Wales. B. F. West Banking Company's banking house.

Splendid Bank Statement

On another page in this issue will be found the statement of the First National Bank. While the deposits are not quite as large as a year ago, the red-inked balance has lowered from $20,000 and the deposits have increased fully 10 per cent over the same months ago. This not only speaks well for the officers of the bank, but is a splendid sign that local business is again better than it was months ago. Within the next few days the residents of the First National will have been reduced another $15,000 or $20,000.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

J. E. Bigham of Tampa has been spending several days at the Hotel Avon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Raab spent Monday in Tampa, combining business with pleasure.

W. E. Lander and T. H. Lander returned Saturday night from a three-days' visit to Moore Haven and other Lake Okechobee points.

Miss Elizabeth Spence, director of the musical comedy "Microbe of Love," is stopping at Twin Glades with Mrs. L. H. Park and partaking of Mrs. A. Ellison's attractive menu.

W. A. Barker of Philadelphia, Pa., returned to Avon Park last Sunday and expects to remain with us for a week or ten days. He is a guest of the Avon.

The pillow cases used at the minstrel show are at the W. R. England Hardware store, awaiting their owners. By mistake a new pillow case belonging to Mrs. Middleton, marked with a large initial in red, and also marked inside, has been taken from the store. Please return to the store.

H. W. Jenks and A. W. Wurdeman of Washington D. C., and R. A. Stapp of New York City were guests of the Hotel Avon this week. These gentlemen are prominent business men and visited Avon Park for the purpose of ascertaining if the glowing reports they had heard of this city and section were true. They were enthusiastic in their praise of the Seenic Highlands and of Avon Park in particular, being unanimously agreed that this city is one of the most progressive they have ever visited and predicting for it a wonderful future.

PAID SCENIC HIGHLANDS A HIGH COMPLIMENT

One of the highest compliments we have heard paid the Seenic Highlands came Monday night from Leonidas P. Jewell of Knightstown, Ind., who is deputy grand master of the grand encampment of the Knights Templar of the United States. Mr. Jewell is a globe trotter. He has visited every continent in the world, with the exceptions of Australia. Monday he came to Avon Park with other high officials of the Knights Templar to attend the convocation of Holyrood Commandery and in the course of conversation Mr. Jewell said: "For scenic beauty and grandeur I have never found anything to equal the drive from Lake Wales to Seenic Highlands, except one drive out of Palmyra, Italy."

Methodist Church

The church was filled to capacity last Sunday night on the occasion of the visit of Dr. Elijah I. Brown. His talk was full of intense interest, and was greatly appreciated by all. It really amounted to a relation of his life experience, especially dealing with his being "born again" after having given the devil forty-four years of his life. The monthly meeting of the board of stewards will be held next Monday night in the church. All stewards are asked to be present. Important business is to be transacted. The evening service next Sunday will be withdrawn. All are cordially invited to join in the union service to be held in the public school auditorium Sunday night at 8 o'clock. Revival services will begin Sunday, April 2. Rev. W. B. Tresca, a minister of the Florida conference, will conduct the meeting. The Ladies Aid Society sent a well-filled box to the orphanage at Enterprise last Wednesday. The pastor reports that the fund in support of the orphans is one that makes the strongest appeal and receives the most generous response from the people.

Won "Happiness" Prize

For some time the members of Mrs. R. I. Harris' Sunday school class in the Methodist Sunday school have been busy as bees, striving to win a prize offered by their teacher for the best "Happiness" book submitted. The little ones were to make up scrap books containing pictures representing happiness and compose a short verse appropriate to the picture. There were some very creditable books submitted and Miss Wilma Adams was awarded the prize—a handsome story book.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The club welfare department of the Woman's Club will meet this (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church. The topic for discussion is "The Girl," by Mrs. Floyd Houghboom, Mrs. A. Boruff and Mrs. H. F. R. Reck. There will be no meeting March 31. The program for April 1 will be a musical under the direction of Miss Louise Anderson, details of which will be given later.

D. P. Wolhaupter of Washington, D. C., a director of the Pittsburgh-Frontier Fruit Growers Association, representing the Washington grove owners and stockholders, has returned home after a week's stay, going over the various units of the company. Mr. Wolhaupter expressed his delight with the condition of each development and is optimistic with regard to the affairs of the company and the future of the citrus business.

"Microbe of Love" at the Capital Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

An Erroneous Report. The report has been circulated in Avon Park that Dr. L. C. Brewer, who conducted the free tuberculosis clinic here, had charged me $100 for services rendered my daughter. I desire to state that this report is erroneous and that no charge whatever was made; that Dr. Brewer diagnosed the case, made many helpful suggestions and rendered an encouraging report, for which he neither received or asked compensation.
