ECONOMY TO BUILD ROADS

"One Greatly Concerned" writes the Pilot, pointing out what is claimed are glaring errors in the proposed bonding of the northern half of the Avon Park township for roads, and attacks the proposed routing, the tax burden and other factors.

Passing over all of them for the moment we take up the question of tax burden. There is no greater tax burden than the burden of transportation—and any movement to facilitate transportation is a relief, not a burden. Roads facilitate transportation. They make it cheaper to haul fruit to the packing houses. They save money every time one traverses an improved road instead of a dirt road—and in this particular case the proposed tax will be no tax at all for the roads will save their cost many times over.

"One Greatly Concerned" is the owner of a grove in which the road tax will be approximately $1.00 per acre per year. The correspondent is greatly alarmed over this cost. But the correspondent over looks any possible saving and immediately charges the entire levy of $1.00 to him. Regarding the fact that a road immediately increases the value of property because it is more accessible and therefore more desirable and figuring down to plain dollars and cents that you can see, we find that the owner of a 30-acre bearing grove will make money over and above the costs every year.

A bearing grove of, say ten years, produces close to 100 boxes of fruit per acre.

Most anyone will agree that you can contract a fruit haul over a hard surfaced road at one cent per box less than over a dirt road. That is ultra conservative. But cut that in half and figure that one can save only a half cent a box by having the hard road, we discover that the hard road that costs "One Greatly Concerned" $1 per acre per year will save $2.50 per acre per year. And it is a fact that it doesn't take much dirt road to eat up a half cent worth of gasoline.

Most of the other arguments fall in face of the established fact that the saving will be greater than the cost and arguments that any of the roads are not needed nor seem sighted. Aside from the fact that the grove owner will save money on his haul and the unimproved land owner will make money by increased values due to roads there remains this pertinent fact—stated the purpose of the "road system" to be to "tap practically every citrus grove in the north half of Avon Park township." As we follow the "road system" we find that all the groves are tapped by good roads except those in outlined road No. 4, which is the only necessary, important and plausible road in the whole system, yet it runs into Avon Park, which property is not taxed for this "road system." The county commissioners will build road No. 4, and more, just as soon as we leave it to them to whom the building of roads belongs.

The days when development precedes transportation are gone forever. In this day—with communities being with each other in offering attractions and owners are improving transportation to induce business and progress follows the road. Development follows improvements.

We can not understand when Lake Olivia attained such prominence that we must be taxed to build a hard road around it, then north to the county line, both east and west. We would then be building three miles on the county line and the other county (Polk) not helping. It has always been reasonable for the people to build roads where they would do the most people the most good and give them the best service, not county line roads where no one lives.

Road No. 6 is impossible as the section of country along the north shore of Lakes Danon and Pythias is under water or marshy. Road No. 7 is another county line road, running west through a marsh almost impossible. This proposed road is another injustice, a county line road.

Road No. 9 runs west from the Frostproof road between Lake Pythias and Pythias, continuing west on the north side of the Boyer grove, but it leads no where but against the Roberts Bros' fence. Again this road is unnecessary as all the groves bordering on this road are already tapped by hard roads. It is understood that in the last "plea" to the county commissioners for a "bond election," road No. 9 was extended north on the line of sections 10 and 11 to the present county asphalt road, one mile more of unnecessary road, as all the groves are already tapped by hard roads. Furthermore the last mile is not to run on the section line (the old road for the last 20 years) but on private property, which may again be closed at the owner's will, as the section line road has been heretofore.

These roads, as outlined in road No. 9, would make a fine boulevard for automobile runs, as there would be three parallel roads running north and south, with a distance of 100 feet separation of a quarter section and a half section. This same square of land would be bordered on the north and south with hard roads a mile long, with a separation of three-fourths section. Are the people of the northern half of our township ready to build boulevards?

This beautiful square of land, bordered by hard roads, and one running through it, was provided for in the "plea" to the county commissioners.

It is understood that the county commissioners have no jurisdiction over private driveways. When I pay taxes on $50,000 I would like (as all taxpayers) to have some one to have charge of the money who one could hold responsible for its proper expenditure. These roads, with two or three exceptions, must be cleared, as they run through groves. Who will have charge of the work and of our $50,000 while doing the work, since the roads are not public roads and the county officers have nothing to do with them?

Now the same question is: Shall the northern half of our township build roads out of the limit of taxable property like the Polk county line road of six miles, where the hard road is not necessary and benefits no one? Again, shall we build roads like Nos. 2, 3, 5, 6, 8 and 9, where the groves are already tapped by hard roads and where the Polk county line road of six miles, where the hard road is not necessary and benefits no one? The road No. 6 has been truthfully called the "jungle trail," as it is impossible to build it. It would require one-half of the $50,000 to build road No. 6, and it benefits no one, as the state road and Avon Park-Frostproof roads are easily reached. Again, shall we build private roads like road No. 9, where the people in the north half of the township are not in a position financially to build boulevards solely for the purpose of riding upon for pleasure, like the roads described in the symposium with but two or three exceptions. And again, shall we taxpayers shoulder more of a burden than we will be able to carry for the next year and get little benefit from the burden? Be careful, taxpayer, how you vote on this "bond issue," for the burden will have to be carried for ten long years.

The men who try the loudest in favor of this proposed "bond issue" are the men who own 10 or 15 acres of land and the men who are conducting the affair of a land company, who will not have the heavy taxes to pay; but the man who owns from 30 to 40 acres will have the bulk of the burden to carry and he knows what axes mean.

Would it not be better to build hard roads where they are the most needed and under the supervision of the county commissioners who would do the work in a legal way? We are all in favor of good roads for they are the thing that makes Florida, but let us have them in a substantial way. Our county commissioners will do the best possible for us, let us have confidence in them.

HER BEST FRIEND

EVERY woman knows her best friend is running water. Yes, that's it—running water in the home.

Running water is her best friend because it is her constant, ever-helping servant.

Running water lightens her burden, saves her steps, preserves her health, and helps her to keep that school-girl complexion.

Take any home—any community—that doesn't have running water, hot and cold, and doesn't have a bathroom, nor a kitchen sink, nor laundry tubs, and you find? You find women who are tired, run down, old before their time.

Every woman owes it to herself and to her family to look as young as she can as good as she can as long as she can. She can't look best nor feel her best without running water—hot and cold—where she needs it and when she needs it.

Running water—on tap—regularly used—is a preserver of youth and health, and youth and health add to happiness.

37TH ANNIVERSARY Birthday Jubilee

Begins Saturday, November 17th.

Our birthday comes in November. We're 37 years old this month. We have seen Tampa grow from a city of a few hundred to a thriving metropolis, and we have kept pace with its growth. The founders of this business, still active at its head, have built on a foundation of principles that are as firm as bedrock itself. These principles of fairness and justice with absolute dependability have brought about a state-wide feeling of confidence such as very few stores are privileged to have bestowed upon them.

We want you to help us celebrate, so we've planned a big Birthday Jubilee.

For over six months we have been selecting merchandise for this big event. It means the most complete stock of merchandise that has ever been assembled in South Florida, and the prices are unusually low.

The roads to Tampa are good--drive to Maas Brothers during this Jubilee and you'll find it well worth while.

Take the Blindfold Off Your Eyes!

Why let "custom" keep you in darkness and rob you of extra profits you could easily make? Why not investigate The Fruit Auction Company's method of selling vegetables, and find out for yourself how much more satisfactory it is than your present method?

You'll be surprised to learn how much higher prices average by auction. Yet it will be easily understood when you consider that, by our method of selling, scores of eager buyers are concentrated in one place, each outbidding the other in order to get goods he must have to carry on his business. When the bidding begins, the excitement starts. Up—up—up creeps the price bid on your

The auction prices are recorded and printed in an independent daily publication—the New York Daily Fruit Reporter.

The proceeds of sale is mailed to you within 24 hours. Only our small selling commission is deducted. Simply because you have never sold at auction, is no reason why you should deprive yourself of the better price and other advantages offered. It is never too late to begin.

HEALTH VILLA OPENS IN PARK, MOVING CITY NEARER ITS GOAL

Opening of Dr. Mary's Health Villa on Lake Isle, just north of town, has brought Avon Park a step nearer its goal for the institute gives the community all the advantages of a general hospital with operating room, equipment, etc., with especially good facilities for handling emergency cases.

While Dr. Mary Coffin's general plan is more for a treatment center, featuring physio-therapy, in converting Red Top—the former country home of Norton Smith—into a health center, she has not overlooked the needs of the general community in emergencies.

All modern electrical equipment, new from the factories, has been installed and scores of people from Avon Park and surrounding country enjoyed "personally conducted tours" through the establishment at the formal opening.

The haven opens twenty acres adjoining and on Lake Isle on which it is planned to build bungalows for rental to non-resident patients who desire the comforts of their own home while receiving treatments. These bungalows will be modern in every respect and set among the pines and other natural beauties of the section.

Dr. Coffin and her associates have been with similar institutions in Pittsburgh, Kansas and Middlefield, O., and this institute is associated with one of the biggest institutions of its kind, located at Cleveland, O.

At the opening great interest was shown in the different methods of treatment as explained.

Postpone Monday's Election Because No Place for Polls

No election was held Monday, as advertised and called, for the bonding of the northwest, the north, and the southeast portions of the Avon Park township for $20,000 to build eighteen miles of lateral highways, linking up groves, lakes and proposed developments. Mark Smith, who has been fighting the bond issue, and on whose property the county commissioners had ordered the polling place opened, appeared early Monday morning and refused to allow the polls to be opened. He had given no notice to the commissioners nor to many who have been urging the election, and at the last minute no other arrangements could be made to transfer the polling place, so Chairman Williams Blue announced a new election would be called at a later date.

Whether a new advertisement will have to be run and another 30 days elapse before the election, or whether due notice can be given on a change in the date and place, and the election be held earlier, has been referred to E. D. Treadwell, attorney for the proposed district.

COIN READY, TO START WORK ON ANNIE ROAD NOW

ASK BIDS SOON—MAY BE ABLE TO CLAY CLOSE TO O'BERRY'S

That plans are underway for the immediate asking of bids for surfacing of the east end of the Lake Annie road by the State Road Department under the plan of co-operation adopted by county commissioners and the department Monday, is indicated by telegraphic request for profiles received from District Engineer Kinney by County Engineer J. A. Hood. Mr. Hood sent the profiles as far as completed and will get the remainder off soon.

With money available for work on the Lake Annie-Kissimmee river road and the Josephine creek stretch of the main highway through the county, District Engineer A. W. Kinney, of the State Road Department, told the county commissioners at their meeting Monday that work would be started within the near future and secured from the commissioners an appropriation of $20,000 bond funds to supplement work on the Lake Annie road, which is to be surfaced with six or eight inches of macadam.

The commissioners agreed to allow the state to spend $20,000, which it has remaining from the $100,000 of bonds voted for this stretch.

Bids for three miles of clay surfacing on the road towards O'Berry's, from the Lake Jackson boulevard, were also asked to be opened Dec. 5.

It was not thought that the funds available for this road would permit claying the surface, but Commissioner G. G. Albright stated that it appears the grade, enough to clay three miles.

In discussing the situation with the commissioner, Engineer Kinney stated that he understood the State Road Department had the funds for the

DON'T KILL THE MOUSE. IF OXEN DID IT, RELIGIOUS POWER LASTS. ARMY HAPPY—KING SAFE.

Mr. Zangwill telling Americans that their "pep" is lost motion, that they are undignified, unjust, lack shame, etc., will be useful to the wise and annoying only to the foolish.

It doesn't matter what Mr. Zangwill says—is there any truth in what he says?

If a humble mouse crawled from a sewer, looked at you with his long quivering nose and said, "You are a shameless creature and don't know anything," you should not try to kill that mouse.

You should ask yourself, "Is there truth in what the mouse says? If so, how can I correct my fault?"

The bad feature of Mr. Zangwill's talk is the harm it may do to his co-religionists among those already prejudiced. It can not hurt him, for he will soon be back, safe in England, where they will approve quite generally his views on America.

But his inaccurate belittling of the Ku Klux Klan may cause trouble to "better Jews than Zangwill." And his belittling of Christian Science does not come with good grace from one belonging to a race that has so long complained (and justly) of religious prejudice.

However, at his worst, Mr. Zangwill is to be thanked. The United States and its people have a thousand defects, many that Mr. Zangwill could not see or understand. To make us think about them is to render a service.

Correspondents report that Indiana is controlled politically by the Ku Klux Klan, with that control already strong in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, now spreading into Ohio and other states.

Everything depends on how control is acquired. If, through the ballot box, no one may complain. Vox populi, suprema lex esto holds good whether you like the vox for the moment or not.
