Sebring, Florida

Florida Property Is Increasing in Value Every Day

Particularly is this true of property on the Sebring Highlands and in and adjacent to Avon Park. Our city is growing rapidly, new buildings being started nearly every day. Of course this adds to the value of all property, whether in the city or adjacent thereto.

"HILLCREST"

is close to the city limits of Avon Park. Its groves are increasing in value every day. The trees are growing nicely and show a healthy appearance, making an investment with the Sebring Highlands Development Company an attractive one. In fact, one has but to see the young groves, note the painstaking care being given the trees, consider the location and then ascertain what grove properties are selling for all around us, to become convinced that "HILLCREST" is a gilt-edge proposition.

DINNER PARTY FOR F. C. WRAY

F. C. Wray was the honor guest at a dinner party given by his sister, Mrs. Norton Smith, Tuesday evening at her home on Lake Verona, in celebration of his birthday.

Covers were laid for the following: Mrs. Henry Timm, Mrs. Philip Leigh, Miss Annie Whitfield, Mrs. Ethel Jenks, Miss Foley of Cleveland, O., F. C. Wray and Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

HONOR NORTON SMITH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrett were hosts at a lovely dinner party given Sunday at the Hotel Avon. The honor guest on this occasion was Norton Smith, who was that day celebrating his birthday. A large cake with twelve candles formed the centerpiece of the table, which was further adorned with pretty spring flowers.

Those present on this happy occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Norton Smith, Mrs. Henry Timm, F. C. Wray and Mr. and Mrs. Barrett.

MOORE-WARE

Of much interest to her many friends here will be the news of the marriage of Miss Mary Beverly Ware, who was a popular member of the Avon Park school faculty last year. The following account of the marriage was taken from Sunday's Lakeland Star-Telegram:

"A marriage of much interest to a wide circle of friends in Florida and Georgia, is that of Miss Mary Beverly Ware of Lakeland and Mr. Julian Eugene Moore of Winter Haven. The wedding took place Saturday, Feb. 16, at high noon at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Ware.

"Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Moore left for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their friends in Winter Haven."

COMMUNITY HOUSE CARNIVAL

The Woman's Club will hold a carnival Feb. 28, at the brick hall, the proceeds to go to the community house fund. The committee in charge has arranged a number of special features which are guaranteed to give thrills. There will be a fish-pool stocked with all known and unknown varieties of fish as well as a good program and original stunts.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET AT LAKE BYRD LODGE

The most enjoyable social affair of the school year, the Junior-senior banquet, was held at Lake Byrd Lodge on Thursday evening of last week, surpassing all previous entertainments.

PROGRAM MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB

The urgent need of a community building with a permanent assembly hall, was again demonstrated at the program meeting of the Woman's Club at the Hotel Avon, Tuesday, Jan. 22. The chairs were occupied and extras had to be brought from the offices on the second floor. As usual, a short business session preceded the program. Recently the following names have been added to the roll: Academics Trent, Loomis, Cook, Loeffel, Bristol, Winton, Kumpas, Head, Francis, Hagood, Rowland, and Misses Wilcox and Stauch. At the close of Friday's meeting several more made application for membership.

The committee then offered the following list of program:

Piano Solo, "Dance Music" (Leschetizka), Miss Myrtle Conoley. Vocal Solo, "Lullaby," Mrs. Waller. Piano Solo, "Dance Music" (Chaminade), Mrs. Stringfellow. Address, "The Moral and Spiritual Welfare of the Child," Mrs. Hall.

Mrs. Hall's talk will long be remembered as a most privileged to hear it. Mrs. Hall is a sister of H. A. Winter of this place, a woman of wide culture and wide acquaintance with a charming personality, and greatest of all, a real mother. Her message, prompted by the lesson of experience, and direct from the heart, may appeal to the mother instinct of every woman within reach of her voice, and those with little ones still in their care can hardly fail to find better mothers after hearing Mrs. Hall.

The lecture opened with the story of "The King's Carpet," which she aptly applied. There are things vitally needed on the journey through life and a mother's duty is to prepare the child, one instructed to her care so that journey may be as safe as possible.

Mrs. Hall divided the child life into three periods: One to three years, 3 to 12, and 12 to 21. The period up to three years, she said, is a child does not reason, he is a little despot, he wants what he wants when he wants it. During this period he must be taught obedience, must be ruled with a firm hand, the most kindly way, but firmly ruled.

During the next period, three to twelve years, the conscience must be developed, the will trained. Truth, a most important quality, instilled; the knowledge of property rights, the meum and tuum, made plain, but the child must be taught to share what is his, or a very selfish, self-centered individual will result; purity, most important of all, must be taught, the mother explaining the story of life to ments from a standpoint of class pep and school spirit, as well as brilliance. The banquet table was prettily decorated with red roses and fern, and hand-painted place cards in unique valentine design marked the guests' places. The program was most interesting and the evening was most enjoyable. The favor at each place was a red rose cup filled with chocolate covered almonds. Covers were laid for thirty.

Professor Ellenberger, as toastmaster presided. Miss Mary Lee Burrand gave the welcoming address to the seniors and in response each senior gave a short toast. The table was beautiful in all its appointments, and a delicious dinner was served.

Following the dinner dancing, cards, singing and games were enjoyed and mirth reigned supreme throughout the evening.

The honor guests, the seniors present were: Misses Nona Mae Crews, Alice Marsh, Nordica Langdon, Mamie Barnett, Lois Wood, Alta Rhea Able, Myrtle Conoley, Messrs. C. R. Ginn, Jr., Ellis Wray and Eldred Starkey; the faculty, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mannum, Mrs. Ethel Jenks, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rowland and Prof. and Mrs. L. C. M. Ellenberger; the Wood, Myrtle Hart, Messrs. Bernard Clay, Clarence, Forrest Parks, Forrest White and Fred Montadoca.

FRIENDS HELP CELEBRATE NORTON SMITH'S BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Norton Smith entertained a few of Mr. Smith's friends at dinner Saturday evening in celebrating his birthday anniversary. Following the dinner an evening of cards was enjoyed.

Those present were: E. P. Loomis, W. A. Marshall, Finley Hunter, George Merrill, T. H. Lander, C. H. Moffett, F. C. Wray and Mr. Smith.

BRIDGE WITH MRS. LANDER

The Bridge Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. H. Lander. The games were very interesting and held the company absorbed until the refreshment hour, when the hostess served an appetizing salad course.

Those present were: Mesdames C. H. Elwell, J. B. Stringfellow, Caroline Graves, F. L. Rumpas, H. E. Godwin, E. P. Loomis, E. F. E. Beck, Stella Stubbs, W. C. Touchton and Miss Mabel Russell.

MRS. RUMPSA AND MRS. LANDER JOINT HOSTESSES AT A PARTY

Mrs. P. L. Rumsa and Mrs. T. Henry Lander were hostesses at the quarterly party of the Bridge Club at the home of Mrs. Lander last Friday evening. Besides the club members and their husbands there were two extra tables of players present on this enjoyable occasion.

Entertaining the rooms and making a most attractive scene were hearts, cupid and darts and marking the guests' places were cunning tally cards in cupid design.

The games were spirited from the start and after a number of interesting progressions of auction the guests cut for the prize, which was won by Miss Nan Straubel. Upon opening the dainty package a heart thermometer was disclosed, which caused no small amount of merriment.

Mrs. Susie Stubbs assisted Mrs. Lander and Mrs. Rumsa in entertaining and in serving the refreshments, which consisted of fruit salad in white cups tied with red ribbon, heart-shaped sandwiches, white brick cream with red heart center, and cake. The favors were miniature decks of cards, two of which were marked for the awarding of prizes. Mrs. Norton Smith held the lucky deck for the ladies and received a box of chocolates, while C. E. Lanier won the men's prize, a large deck of cards. The guest list included: Mr. and Mrs. Neal Trent, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Touchton, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reck, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lanier, Mrs. A. A. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Norton Smith, Mrs. Kershner, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moffett, Mrs. E. P. Loomis, Miss Van Straubel, Judge D. V. House, P. L. Rumsa and T. H. Lander.

MRS. LOOMIS COMPLIMENTS HOUSE GUESTS THURSDAY

Complimenting her house guests, Mrs. K. C. Tarvin of Maryville, Tenn., and Mrs. L. B. Price of Chattanooga, Mrs. E. P. Loomis entertained with a lovely card party at her pretty bungalow on Pleasant street Thursday afternoon.

Beautiful red carnations and roses filled the reception rooms with their sweet fragrance, while red hearts lent a timely brightness to the scene, it being Valentine day.

There were three tables of bridge and two of five hundred. The games proved very interesting and at the close of the play the scores were totaled and by a process of subtracting the high score from the low and dividing the whole by the number nearest to the remainder the prizes were awarded. Mrs. R. W. Swearingen won the bridge prize, a hand-painted score pad, and to Miss Nan Straubel went the five hundred prize, a hand-painted perfume bottle. Mrs. Tarvin and Mrs. Price were presented with pretty hand-made handkerchiefs. Following the games Mrs. Loomis, assisted by Miss Mabel Russell, served a dainty salad course. The favors were large red carnations.

Those playing cards were: Messrs. K. C. Tarvin, L. B. Price, T. H. Lander, P. L. Rumsa, C. E. Lanier, Herbert Reck, Gilbert Stebbins, Chas. Moffett, C. P. Anderson, W. W. Marshall, Norton Smith, Demos Mandis, Arthur Middleton, Ellis Middleton, R. W. Swearingen, Neal Trent, Caroline Graves, Carlos Skipper, A. H. Able. Those coming in for the tea hour were: Mrs. C. P. Turner, Mrs. Jim Gaines and Miss Elizabeth Ewing.

WEEK-END CAMP AT ARBUCKLE
A week-end camping and fishing trip was enjoyed at Arbuckle creek by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Masters, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Buterbaugh, Misses Virginia Buterbaugh, Annie Ginn, Maude McGinnis, Messrs. Mark Lance, Howard Buterbaugh, Clyde Nanny, Bill Hilton and Al Jamour.

MISS LUCILLE CAMERON CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Miss Lucille Cameron celebrated her birthday last Thursday evening with a party given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cameron. Games, dancing and cards were the pastimes of the evening and the young people had a pleasant time. Late in the evening hot chocolate and cake was served by the young honoree, assisted by her mother.

Those present were: Misses Lucille Cameron, Lois Hartt, Lucille Able, Messrs. Holland Stebbins, Hartwell Ginn and Joe Crosby.

HOLLYWOOD

By-the-Sea

HOLLYWOOD-BY-THE-SEA in all its advertising has never urged people to buy—but it HAS urged people to VISIT HOLLYWOOD-BY-THE-SEA and see for themselves the wonderful developments that were taking place—and as a result of these visits more than 5,000 people now own property in the new city and resort to the value of six million dollars.

HOLLYWOOD-BY-THE-SEA is admitted to be the biggest development project in Florida and one of the most successful.

It is the first time in the history of the state or country where an entire city was planned entirely in advance and is being constructed and developed strictly according to the original plans.

It stands alone—unique—distinctive—progressive—metropolitan—beautiful. A city and resort that is being built for the people instead of waiting for the people to build it.

Every visitor to Florida and every resident of the state should see and study HOLLYWOOD-BY-THE-SEA. Those who accept our invitation to enjoy our FREE sightseeing trips, made twice a week in our large comfortable de luxe buses from Avon Park, will receive a vast amount of interesting and valuable information about Florida and its resources.

Full information will be mailed you promptly on receipt of signed coupon.

NOTICE
Lake Wales, Fla., Feb. 16, 1924.

The Florida Ice and Power Company hereby announces that it has sold its entire holdings to the Florida Public Service Company, which company will continue to operate all of the ice and power plants owned by us. We thank you for your loyal co-operation and commend our successful record to your most favorable consideration.

FLORIDA ICE AND POWER COMPANY.

P. S. In this connection it may be proper to explain that while the transfer was on Feb. 15, the settlement was as of Jan. 31, making it necessary to read meters ten days later than usual, thereby including a month and one-third instead of one month, thus resulting in a small amount of current during the holidays made the bills unusually large. It is our desire to have the bill read about the 25th, as heretofore, the February bills will be correspondingly smaller.

FLORIDA ICE AND POWER COMPANY.

Lake Wales, Fla., Feb. 16, 1924.

To our friends, the Florida Ice and Power Company:

In retiring from serving you we do so with feelings of regret. In establishing public utilities on the Ridge we did so not for the purpose of exacting a profit, but to make money, but we wanted some part in developing the finest section of the country in the world. We have invested hundreds of thousands of dollars in the enterprise without taking a penny out as remuneration, but we have had the pleasure of being helpful in locating among us the best population with people of vision and ambition will make the greatest service we could do it in putting these utilities in the hands of Mr. Barstow. This almost certainly means that other large capitalists, his friends and associates, will follow and become interested in our various enterprises.

In conclusion we commend our successors to your most kindly consideration and co-operation and we beg that you do not expect too much of them. The enterprise gets on a paying basis.

We will still be amongst you and of our interests and friends. Our largest interests are on the Ridge and our best efforts will be put forth to make the Ridge the most advanced of this magnificent section of country.

We wish to thank you every one for your interest and co-operation in our efforts to advance our common interests. Very truly yours,

E. D. BLISS.

ARCHDEACON TO PREACH AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH SUNDAY
Archdeacon Griffith of North Carolina will preach at the Episcopal church here Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. The next morning a good attendance and everyone present had a jolly good time.

The next meeting and banquet will be held at the temple on March 17, at 6:30 p.m.

"HITCHED TO A STAR"
T. Henry Lander has hitched himself to a star. "Hitch" Lander, notable Shriner, cornet player and well known throughout South Florida, did the hitching process via his brother, Mr. Lander. Joe is county distributor for Star automobiles.

MRS. STUBBS ENTERTAINS
The Dorcas Circle of the Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Susie Stubbs at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. H. Lander.

Having finished the stewardship and missions book, a business meeting was held. Following the business session a social hour was enjoyed, at which time the hostess served a delicious refreshment course, consisting of chicken salad, sliced tomatoes, artichokes, cake, punch and coffee.

Those present were: Mesdames W. A. Hatchell, S. M. Thompson, Neaves, Stubble, L. D. Roberts, J. F. Bullion, S. H. Lawhon, H. C. Lewis, J. B. Coen and L. M. Langford.

SIKES HEADS WOODMEN OF THE WORLD THIS YEAR

J. A. Sykes was inspired as consul commander at the meeting of Avon Park camp No. 310, W. O. W., here Monday night when District Manager S. V. Collins addressed the camp on the fraternal obligations of the order.

Other officers installed were: W. J. Eggersson, banker; J. T. Rozeaman, adviser; and J. H. McClelland, clerk. Those present were: Mesdames W. A. Hatchell, S. M. Thompson, Neaves, Stubble, L. D. Roberts, J. F. Bullion, S. H. Lawhon, H. C. Lewis, J. B. Coen and L. M. Langford.

Plans for making the local camp one of the strongest in the state were discussed.

KABN SALE TO CONTINUE THROUGH PRESENT WEEK

Philip Abrams, manager of the Kahn store here, is so pleased with the success of his "Get Acquainted Sale" that he announces it will continue the remainder of the present week.

"I want to meet all the people in this territory," Mr. Abrams said, "and I want them all to see the class of merchandise we are stocking."
