Social and SocietyMISS CONOLEY APPEARS BEFORE AN APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE

Miss Myrtle Conoley appeared before a large and appreciative audience Tuesday evening at the school auditorium in a piano recital. All of the numbers on the evening were beautiful and artistic as well as being quite technical, giving the young musician excellent opportunity to show her skill. Each group of numbers were enthusiastically received and to the continued applause Miss Conoley gracefully responded.

Assisting with the program were Mrs. Neal Trent, voice, and Mrs. J.
B. Stringfellow, accompanist, both of whom were at their best and added much to the evening's entertainment.

Miss Conoley, who has been a pupil of Miss Furlow Anderson, music instructor of the Avon Park school, is the first one to receive a diploma in music from the A. P. H. S., and this, coupled with the fact that she is this year a member of the graduating class, makes her instructors and friends very proud of her. She plans to continue her music studies in the fall, either by entering the conservatory of music or some college whose music department is rated very high.

The esteem in which Miss Conoley is held in the community is best attested to by the beautiful flowers and gifts which she received on this occasion, among which were an overnight bag with ivory toilet articles bearing her monogram, presented by the Congregational church, where the young musician has often acted as soloist, the Woman's Club, a string of pearls; roses by Mrs. B. H. James, Mrs. R. W. Swearingen, Miss Mabel
Russell, Mrs. C. D. Noland, Miss
Elizabeth Ewing and Mrs. Laila Banks.
Miss Furlow Anderson, her instructor, gave her a book written by Amy Pay, telling of her travels and experiences in Europe, which will no doubt prove very helpful and an inspiration to Miss Conoley in her music work.

She will be accompanied home by her mother, Mrs. Lay.

Mrs. R. W. Swearingen and Miss Elizabeth Ewing returned Friday evening from a visit to Miami and other points on the East Coast.

Vond has been received from North Carolina that Mrs. W. S. Butler, who was taken ill on her way home and compelled to stop there, was very much better and would soon be able to continue her journey.

Mrs. Bessie Langdon of Muncie, Ind., arrived here last Friday for the summer visiting relatives and friends.

TEXAS OIL MAN BUYS
C. F. Martin of the mid-continent oil fields, has just closed a deal with the Indian Prairie Oil & Gas Co. for a large block of acreage and signed contracts to drill three wells for oil on the Indian Prairie lands. He has examined the formations and gone into the proposition thoroughly, and states that South Florida has as good a chance for an oil field as Oklahoma
or Texas had when they first began drilling for oil.

HOT WEATHER NOT HERE
YET DRY WEATHER HALTED

Hot weather hadn't shown its face up to May 1, according to figures from U. S. Weather Observer William King, whose report shows the highest for April to have been 93 degrees. The lowest was 53 and the rainfall 1.32 inches.

The mean of the daily maximums was 86, while the daily minimums averaged 63, his monthly summary showed.

May has ushered in showers that predicate an end already to the usual spring dry spell, which hasn't been pronounced enough so far to have even been noticeable.

HIGHLANDS COUNTY SHOWS
PREFERENCE FOR ETHEREDGE

asked where the other 94 per cent had gone. The road situation, he said, was the main issue, and he told of his efforts along this line. He spoke of the work done by Hon. John
A. Taylor of Highlands county to have State Road No. 8 included in the first year's project, along with roads Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, and of the assistance which he had given him.
He urged the readjustment of the road plan, which was in the hands of the district would obtain relief.

He opposed the Bryan primary law, denouncing it as confusing. He also expressed himself as opposed to the teaching of the Bible in the schools, differentiating it from the mere reading of the Bible, which later he favored.

He favored better collection laws,
and spoke strongly for local option as regards the no-licence law, though he promised to be governed by the representatives in the district. He promised a fair and square deal to the entire district.

Wallace Terwin of Bradenton was the last speaker, and he stated his platform briefly and concisely. Reapportionment was one of the vital issues, he said, and because of the fact that the State Road Department contained three North Florida men, he expressed himself as opposed to the $50,000,000 bond issue. He feared that the greater portion of it would be absorbed into a favored part of the state. He spoke of having seen the author of a bill exempting
Woman's Club houses from taxation.

He said emphatically that he was in favor of not only reading the Bible in the schools, but also of teaching it.
Not the teaching of sectarianism, as the previous speaker had feared, but the fundamental principals which the Bible taught and stood for. "This teaching," he argued, "could offend no one, and would have a strong uplifting effect on the future of the state."

He said that he was in favor of
a chance for an oil field as Oklahoma
or Texas had when they first began
drilling for oil.

HISTORICAL CLUB COMPLETES ITS ORGANIZATION

ADOPT CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS—MISS ETHER-
EDGE ESSAY WINNER

The Highlands County Historical Society had its regular May meeting Thursday at the Red Beach picnic grounds, near DeSoto City, the affair taking the form of a basket picnic. Col. F. N. K. Bailey had prepared as a surprise, a fish fry, which ended much to the pleasure of the occasion. The program was held before the serving of supper, and proved to be of unusual interest. In the absence of the president, Dr. J. L. Scott, C. F. Saunders occupied the chair, and opened the meeting, appointing Colonel Bailey as president. The colonel suggested that as Dr. Etheredge had been asked to spend and was compelled to leave early, all formalities of business be waived until later, and that the doctors

"Our pride in certain portions of our country has continued, might be said, because of a personal connection with a sectional standpoint, and by reason of the fact that the people of our section of the state may cherish a desire for clean names of honor. I am sure that Dr. Scott believes in the honor of having formed this state, and that he would not wish that others may one day read the history which we are today making."

Dr. Scott's history of Highlands county, in which he was largely instrumental, of the rapid development of the county in the last fifty years ago, he said, there was a white man in the boundaries, a history, its early days, like those

[illegible]

A paper of unusual interest was prepared by Miss Lillie M. on "Lake Josephine Homesteads and Homesteads of 1910 and 1911." Because of illness, she was unable to be present, and it was read by Mr. Conway. So realistically was the story told of those by-gone days, the aroma of cooking venison, the petting farm's acrid smoke of camp fires was almost discernible. The fellowship, however, was not a mingling of joys and sorrows alike, the true community spirit prevailed all around.

Miss Mahan's picture of the early days of the Josephine settlement was a picture of the life of everyone, especially of those who had a part in it. Thrilling with a personal touch, it was a picture of the life of the settlement.

In addition to the archery and the Highlands County Historical society.

The announcement of the winner in the contest among the high school students of the county was the history of the county followed. Miss Allie Belle Edge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edge, was the successful contestant, being presented with a gold pin and a gold watch. The gold pin was a gift from the Highlands County Historical society.

Ranahoff received honorable mention.

RASS - PORTER, STOLL - BOWMAN

AN interesting event of the week among the young people was a double wedding, which took place Saturday afternoon, when Miss Minnie Estelle Porter and Vernon C. Bass and Miss Ida Lee Bowman and Orville Stoll were united in the bonds of matrimony. G. L. Crews performed the ceremony in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couples left in Mr. Bass' car for a short wedding trip to Tampa, St. Petersburg and other points on the West Coast.

Miss Porter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Porter and has made her home here for a number of years. Mr. Bass is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bass, and is in business for himself in Tampa.

PROMPT DELIVERY

Are you satisfied with the present State Road Department?

John Martin is no more satisfied with the performance of this body than you are. John Martin's solemn pledge to the voters of South Florida is a road department that will build roads where they are needed.

Are you satisfied with paying three-fifths, or more, of the taxes and getting only two-fifths representation?

John Martin stands pledged to apportioning the state road department on a basis of taxation, so that those who pay the taxes have equal representation.

Are you satisfied with big road projects in North Florida and little ones in South Florida?

John Martin is pledged to name a chairman of the road department who will be satisfactory to South Florida.

Are you satisfied with one senator to 50,000 people while West Florida has one to 10,000?

John Martin tells the people of all Florida he will get a fair reapportionment if it is possible to get it, that he will make a two-fisted fight to reapportion the state. He is the only candidate who has been honest enough to tell his stand on this question, vigorously, to the people of West Florida as well as South Florida. He may lose the support of West Floridians, but he didn't want their votes had enough to fool them to get them.

John Martin isn't trying to fool anybody in this campaign.

He will tell anyone what his position is on any question. He has no promises "made on the quiet" to interfere with him being GOVERNOR if he is elected. He hasn't told South Florida one thing and West Florida another.

John Martin hasn't anything to say against his opponents.

South Florida's rising son has accomplished enough that he is proud of that he has no time to spend discussing his friends. He wants the voters to know JOHN MARTIN. He thinks he is man enough to stand on his own record without having to tear down the other fellow's. When his opponents spend all their time talking about John Martin it probably means that they haven't anything which they are proud to say about themselves.

Now, honest, has any other candidate promised the people of Florida anything? Is there a pledge you can hold them to?

John Martin has made definite pledges. If he hopes to hold your esteem he must live up to the them. He will. He has not dodged, he has not evaded. You can put your finger on him.

HERE'S A RECORD

Not quite two years ago The Non-Acid Fertilizer and Chemical Company built its large Lakeland plant. It was expected, at that time, to care for all demands for at least five years.

Now before one-third the expected time has passed, this plant is being operated on a double shift during a part of every fertilizing season.

Great demand for a superior product has already outgrown normal production. That's a record.

CITRUS PEOPLE ATTEND FIELD SCHOOLS, SHOWING THEY WILL "CARRY ON"

"Citrus growers are still tremendously interested in the report of officials and specialists of the Florida College of Agriculture and Experiment Station, who held a series of citrus schools in several of the citrus growing counties of the state."

The farmers turned out well in every community in which school was held. It was reported. An average of thirty actual growers of citrus attended the schools held in East Coast counties, that is, on the average. Many turned out who had attended the schools in previous years given last year when this practice was begun in a systematic manner, which showed that they realized the importance of learning more about the industry.

Those in charge of the schools reported that they were very much interested in the interest shown by the growers in spite of the unsatisfactory prices received for fruit last winter. The interest shown by the citrus people are determined to stick to their groves, to operate them by the best practice worked out by experience and scientific investigation and to "carry on."

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS BY ROLLINS

Rollins College has announced the establishment of ten honor scholarships to be awarded next month to honor students in the graduating classes of accredited Florida high schools. The total amount of each scholarship is $500, payable over a period of four years in installments of $125 annually.

Rollins scholars will be chosen on the following points: (1) Recommendation of the high school faculty, (2) moral character, (3) scholastic accomplishments, (4) leadership in student activities, (5) a record of superior achievement. Payment will be made subject to the maintenance of a high standing in college, according to the rules of the awards.

All accredited high schools in the state have received complete information in regard to the new Rollins scholarships. By granting these ten scholarships annually, Rollins expects to maintain the high quality an indicator of the student body and to do its part in maintaining the civic and moral standards of the state.

ROUNDED CONTAINER FOR CITRUS FRUIT IS URGED

A recommendation that rounded containers be used hereafter for packing citrus fruits instead of the square ones which have heretofore been used, came as a result of a conference at Orlando recently between citrus shippers and officials of the railroads serving this portion of the state.

The point brought out in favor of the rounded carriers was the fact that it could carry the fruit with much less chance of spoilage than could the square containers.

The meeting also discussed the use in the future of using longer nails in closing the fruit boxes in order that loss from broken boxes and loose tops might be decreased. No action was taken, however, when manufacturers' representatives declared that the institution of such a custom would bring about a large expense which could not well be borne by the packers at this time.

There were about 25 prominent shippers and railroad men at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reck and children visited friends and relatives in Winter Haven Saturday.

Old Folks' Ailments

"I began taking Black-Draught over fifty years ago and my experience with it stretches over a good long time," says Mr. Joe A. Blake, a Civil War veteran and former Virginian, who is now a prominent citizen of Floyd, Texas. "I have the best laxative I know of for old people. A good many years ago, in Virginia, I used to get bilious and I found that was the best and quickest relief I could get. Since I came to Texas I have these bilious attacks every now and then—a man will get bilious anywhere, you know—and I find that a little Black-Draught soon straightens me out. After a few doses, in little or no time I'm all right again."

Thedford's Black-Draught is a purely vegetable liver medicine, used in America for over eighty years. It acts on the stomach, liver and bowels in a gentle, natural way, assisting digestion and relieving constipation. Sold everywhere.

SOUTHERN PART OF HIGHLANDS COUNTY

On or about the 20th day of April, 1921, DeSoto county, by an act of the legislature, was divided into five parts, making four new counties, viz., Highlands, Hardee, Glades and Charlotte.

Highlands has perhaps made the greatest progress of either of the four new counties, and its future is indeed bright. Being one of the baby counties of the state, of course it has very little individual history, however there are many interesting stories to be told of what has transpired in its borders before it was made a county, and every Highlander looks upon its many and great natural resources with much pride.

The territory composing Highlands has until the last few years been isolated, in that there were no means of transportation, and the first railroad entering its borders was built about 1911. But this railroad did not extend further south than Sebring until 1914, when it was built to Moore Haven.

It is said that the first white man to locate in what is known as Highlands county came here less than fifty years ago, and at that late day the Indians claimed it as their happy fishing and hunting grounds. Avon Park was the first settlement made in Highlands county.

nearest railroad depot was at Wauchoa, a distance of twenty miles, with nothing more than mere trails for roads.

The first improved highway constructed in Highlands county was built during the year 1919, and this was the real beginning of development in this county. Avon Park and Sebring were the only towns in the county and naturally it was in and around these towns that the first developments were made and the rest of the county was a wilderness awaiting man to come in and develop its rich store of resources. While the northern half of the county is in a higher state of development, still it is claimed that the southern half has even greater natural resources and with the proper attention will soon develop, and rich will be the harvest.

This county, as its name indicates, is a county of high rolling land and is a portion of what is known as the scenic Highlands of South Florida. However, we have some of the best trucking land to be found in the state located in the southern half of the county.

The many beautiful lakes in this county have proved to be one of our greatest assets. Istokopga lake is perhaps the most famous, in that it is known as being one of the greatest fishing lakes in the state. Here each year many fishermen of national reputation visit this wonderful lake, and make the record catches.

Joseph is another lake which is admired by all and it was around this body of water that the first settlers located in that section. Also where a battle was fought by the Seminole Indians and a large Indian mound marks the battle ground.

As early as 1897, W. H. Spivey and family located on the east side of this lake and lived there until his death, a few years ago, and it was he who gave the lake its present name in honor of his daughter, Josephine. Several families followed Mr. Spivey and located on this lake and was known as that time as Lake Kuhlman, a name given the lake by a government surveyor during the year 1906.

W. R. Vaca located on a homestead near Mr. Spivey and was the first man to establish a citrus nursery in Highlands county which was a successful undertaking. He also established the Kuhlman postoffice at his residence and the office was supplied with mail from Zolfo once a week.

The Kuhlman postoffice was discontinued about the time the postoffice at DeSoto City was established. Until about the year 1910 there were only a few families in this section, but there was quite a lot of government land adjoining Lake Josephine, and soon there were many homesteaders located at and around what was then known as the Kuhlman section.

These homesteaders soon established a school in a little log hut, with only a few children, but this soon grew larger and they also established a community church. It was then that this community commenced to develop, but very few of the original homesteaders are here today.

The life of a homesteader is not to be envied, however, it is fascinating to some degree. Soon after the settlement around Josephine commenced, another was made where the town of Lake Sebring is located. A. M. Towns, the father of Charles Towns, was the first to locate in that section and for many years his nearest neighbor lived eight miles away.

Once while hunting in this section Mr. Towns followed a dim trail which led to a little shack, where an ex-convict was hiding away. This was all government land at that time, and Mr. Towns filed on this certain tract of land as it was high and surrounded by three beautiful lakes. He commenced to develop it by planting a large grove, believing that some day a railroad would come his way. His dream came true, but not until a few years after his death.

Mr. Towns was a man of vision and a great writer. He wrote a letter to his home paper, telling of that wonderful section and what was in store for it. Though this letter was written 25 years ago, he prophesied with such exactness as to make the reader of today believe his letter was written only yesterday.

Another interesting settlement in the extreme southern part of Highlands county is Venus. Many homesteaders, who were the first settlers, were the Williams, Whiddens and weaves. They planted groves and had small farms; also fishing, hunting and trapping were some of the chief occupations. They had no roads, and travel was a slow progress, especially when only horse and wagon was the only way of transportation. However, though the many disadvantages, Venus has grown and today they have a good school, also church and are still continuing to grow. The railroad passes through Venus, making it convenient to ship their products and an easy way of transportation.

DeSoto City is perhaps the youngest settlement in Highlands county, being settled only a few years ago by a company composed of Dr. E. J. Eberdige, Fred Johnson, M. Langston and later David C. Barrow. At first there were no roads, just mere trails. Soon the railroad came through and later a highway, which helped the development of the town. Today there are homes scattered around Lake Red Beach, also there is a first class store and postoffice. Many homes and a hotel are being constructed at the present time and DeSoto City still continues to grow.

The first settlers of Highlands had many obstacles to overcome. Most of them made their living by fishing, hunting and trapping, believing that

TINY, UNKNOWN INSECT ANNOYS CITRUS PEOPLE; BEETLE COMES TO RESCUE

A little bug—they call it an aphid—has been playing havoc in the citrus groves of the state, particularly in the southernmost counties of the citrus belt. Prof. J. R. Watson, entomologist of the Florida Experiment Station, has been studying this pest and has written the following concerning it:

During the last two weeks it has appeared that the heavy infestation of aphids on citrus, which certain areas of Florida have been experiencing, is due, not to the old mealy aphid, as had been supposed, but to a new species. The mealy aphid attacks citrus more or less regularly in spring, sometimes badly curling up the young growth on a few small trees, but usually is soon controlled by its parasites.

Until recently, we supposed that the trouble in many parts of the state was due to this insect, but it now appears that it is not the mealy aphid. The new insect differs from the mealy aphid in being of a bright green color in the young stages and in the larger number of winged individuals. The latter has caused a rapid spread of the insect.

The new insect is present generally throughout the southern part of the citrus belt, but the most serious injury to citrus has taken place in Pinellas, Hillsborough and Polk counties. Since its appearance it has been attacked so severely that its development has been prevented, and much young fruit has dropped.

It is as easy as the numbers of the aphids are diminishing rapidly, we anticipate that the worst of the trouble is over for the present at least.

The lady beetles, aphids fly larvae and other enemies which usually hold the mealy aphid in check are working on this new pest and doing effective work. However, one of the most effective checks is a small wasp, the insect, which does not seem to attack the new aphid. However, numbers of the new aphid seem to have been killed by a fungous disease.

As to control measures, although the insect is comparatively easily killed by tobacco extracts, or by soap or oil emulsion, the discouraging factor is the fact that the aphid re-appears on the trees in a few days, flying from other trees and groves. It has caused some groves to feel that the spraying did little or no good. But in some carefully sprayed groves it is evident that the spraying saved much new growth and fruit.

How long this country would come to its own, and we of today are showing some of the fruits of their labor, and may each of us continue the pace set by those who came here first and indulge in the hope that the future pages of history of Highlands will prove to be as bright as the past.

So Appreciative

"You never seem to take any interest in anything I do," sobbed the bride.

"Don't be unreasonable, my dear," remonstrated her husband. "I remained awake all last night and thought of the cake you baked yesterday."

Mr. Martin says he considers the missing link in State Road No. 8 a state-wide necessity.

Catts is still telling the same story he told eight years ago, about that family of seventeen—all for Catts.

Nothing could be more eloquent, or more beautiful, than the plea for existence the leeward tree is offering the people day by day.

How about making a 100 per cent slate for Highlands county on Bryan, Lambright and Wimmer, for delegates to the national convention.

Going into the home stretch, John Martin's hands are still clean. He has hung no mud, and he's going into the governor's chair with those same clean hands.

Ain't it funny Catts never says anything about giving South Florida a just reorganization? Hardly, it might hurt his chances of carrying West Florida, where he says he is so strong.

Mr. Jennings in sending out some nefarious campaign literature, almost revolting in its character, sends it to Catts' supporters for distribution. Is he ashamed for Catts' men to pass such stuff out?

Morris Givens, county solicitor in Tampa, says he's for Catts because Catts made him a captain in the national guard. If one looks around he probably find lots of folks supporting Catts for similar reasons.

When we see some lovely rare garden in and around Avon Park, and then see the neighbors literally raiding them, we wonder why there aren't more of these rare gardens to help make our city more beautiful.

How they must be turning over in their graves—these British who believed the same chaser some 115 years ago—as they hear again all the late paragonous about the American navy being out-of-date, no good and about to fall to pieces.

The Ku Klux Klan in Polk county had a busy week. Whipped a man at Auburndale, split wide open on Bloom and Prime, candidates for senator and sheriff, and decided to line up solid for Wimmer. They take after their Tampa daddies in the latest plan.

WITH CLEAN HANDS

The race for governor is nearing an end. And still Mr. Martin is putting "clean hands" before the people of the state of Florida. He has slandered by one he has slandered no one. And he is not going to retire now.

Mr. Martin is asking for the endorsement of his own voters on his own record as a man, as a public official and as a candidate.

He pledges law enforcement. And by law enforcement he means for both black and white. He believes the legislature should obey the law, and says he will make them obey the law to reorganization of the state.

If anyone wants to know whether Mr. Martin can enforce the law, let them write Len C. Broughton, one of Florida's greatest preachers, in Jacksonville. Mr. Broughton will tell them whether Mr. Martin can enforce the law or not, for Mr. Martin was mayor of Mr. Broughton's city, Jacksonville, for three terms.

Mr. Martin carried every precinct in Jacksonville in his last race for mayor. He could not have done that if the church people of Jacksonville didn't believe in him, and appreciate his law enforcement program.

Mr. Martin promises us a state road department that will build roads. He promises us a state road department apportioned according to population. That means justice for South Florida.

Mr. Martin is the only man who has told voters in West Florida he would see that South Florida got justice. It has cost him votes. Both Jennings and Catts claim West Florida now when it was conceded Martin led there before he told them where he stood.

If they have swung over to Jennings and Catts in West Florida, there must be a reason. And we had better swing to Martin pretty solid. Let us see that for every vote he lost in West Florida, he gets two in South Florida.

DON'T LOSE YOUR VOTE!

Our friend Editor Benjamin of Ocala has gone off on the wrong track again. He is advising some good men to throw away their right to vote. He asks all John Martin men to single shot. We hope no one takes his advice. No one is more interested in electing John Martin governor of Florida than the Pilot. This paper was the first paper in South Florida to support Mr. Martin.

We want every Martin man to vote that second choice ballot for the man he wants as governor, if Mr. Martin isn't one of the two high men.

We want every Catts man and every Jennings man to do the same thing. We want every voter to use that second choice if you don't use it you disfranchise yourself in the "second primary," which is held just as surely as it was in the days before we began voting all the same day.

If you don't vote that second choice vote, and your first choice is eliminated by the first choice votes, you don't vote to name the officers who are your servants.

When you vote that second choice vote you can't possibly harm the man who is your first choice. The second choice vote is just the same as your vote in the old days when you voted in the second primary.

Any anyone who tells you that your second choice vote harms your first choice vote is either ignorant or purposely attempting to mislead you.

Some candidates are bad enough to deliberately mislead voters—or in other words lie to them. Any candidate who asks you to "single shot" in other words to hold the job he is seeking or is lying to you and not worthy of your vote.

Use the God-given right of free suffrage. Vote your second choice vote.

MAKE IT 100 PER CENT!

The Avon Park post of the American Legion—with more members than all the rest of the Seaside Highlands put together—lacks just one member of having its full population quota—just one member of 100 per cent.

We believe in making Avon Park a 100 per cent town. Why not a 100 per cent legion town.

This writer didn't tote a gun. In fact, the inspector put him in the scales and then looked around for the rest of him, and finally decided that perhaps the gun would tote him if he scribbled and a gun were hitched together.

But it doesn't matter whether we are legioners or not—the fact is, we are all Avon Park folks and when Avon Park gets that close to the top we don't see why we shouldn't make it 100 per cent.

Now let's go. If there is an eligible "jack" is keeping him out of the Avon Park post, and keeping Avon Park out of being the only 100 per cent city in the Florida department of the American Legion, just let him in.

The Highlands County Pilot will furnish the necessary Jack, and forget all about it.

Let's make it 100 per cent. That's the big thing now.

Florida Property Is Increasing in Value Every Day

Particularly is this true of property on the Seaside Highlands and in and adjacent to Avon Park. Our city is growing rapidly, new buildings being started nearly every day. Of course this adds to the value of all property, whether in the city or adjacent thereto.

"HILLCREST"

is close to the city limits of Avon Park. Its groves are increasing in value every day. The trees are growing nicely and show a healthy appearance, making an investment with the Seaside Highlands Development Company an attractive one. In fact, one has but to see the young groves, note the painstaking care being given the trees, consider the location and then ascertain what grove properties are selling for all around us, to become convinced that "HILLCREST" is a gift-eligible proposition.

MEETING OF WOMAN'S CLUB
At the first meeting of the Woman's Club for the new club year, held at the Masonic Temple last Friday, the newly elected officers took charge, occupying the chair and Mrs. P. L. Rumpson assuming her duties as secretary.

After the routine opening exercises, new business claimed the attention of the ladies.

An invitation to be guests of the Woman's Club of Sebring at their annual picnic at DeSoto City, May 29, was accepted with anticipations of a very pleasant social time with the members of the sister city's active club.

An invitation to join the Peace River Tri-County Federation, comprising Charlotte, DeSoto and Hardee counties, was presented. This federation holds quarterly meetings at the home town of the different clubs that belong to the federation. Action on this was deferred until the next meeting.

There were no responses to the question regarding members planning to attend the biennial at Los Angeles in June. Mrs. Blackman, state president, desires a large attendance from Florida. Anyone a club member, will be welcome to make the trip as a visitor.

It was unanimously decided that the club should issue a year book this year. As is customary, this will be in the hands of the program committee.

Mrs. Cloud, chairman of the committee appointed to meet representatives of the American Legion (sponsoring the movement), the town council, and board of trade, to arrange a county-wide celebration of July 4 at Avon Park, was reported progress to date. The club voted to assist in its power to make this Independence Day celebration a success.

The committee is continued to confer further with the general committee. It has been customary to discuss meetings during the summer months, but owing to work the club is planning it was decided to hold one meeting a month during June, July and August, these meetings to be held at the homes instead of at the library.

The executive board has not completed its appointments of committees for the year, but announced the following:

Chairmen of standing committees: Reception, Mrs. R. W. Swearingin; hospitality, Mrs. J. D. Raab; legislation, Mrs. F. W. Stevens; relief work, Mrs. Ethel M. From the Democratic Senator From Kentucky

Formerly Democratic Governor

It has been alleged that I am a "black leg" Republican from Kentucky. I do not ask you to take my word for my standing in the old Blue Grass State, read what the leader of the Democratic party there says—a letter from Senator A. O. Stanley, formerly governor:

"Mr. Luther T. Farmer,

"DeSoto City, Fla.

"My Dear Luther:

"We were all delighted to get your good letter of March 31. Miss Minnie and I have always thought that sooner or later you would render conspicuous service to your country, because you are so eminently blessed with the qualifications for efficient service and we are all delighted to know that service can be rendered in the cause of truth as well as country, and that we find you in the right church and in the right pew.

"As Governor of Kentucky, I had an opportunity to know something of your loyalty and your efficiency and trustworthiness. I felicitate the Democracy of Florida in its opportunity to secure the services of so good a man.

(Signed) "A. O. STANLEY."

An Adequate Sales System and Selling Organization Offered to Growers by the Florida Citrus Exchange

Assured of control of a substantial majority of the State's citrus production, for the first time in its history, the Florida Citrus Exchange will next season operate under a sales system and with a selling organization changed, enlarged and expanded to meet new conditions.

Under the new selling plan, which will be directed by a sales committee of five experienced fruit men from the board of directors, acting in conjunction with the business manager, the sales manager, the advertising manager, the Sub-Exchange managers and the chief inspector, fruit will be sold as follows:

On a cash basis, f.o.b. Florida, whenever advantageous offers can be secured.

On definite orders from northern markets, f.o.b. packing house, to the largest possible extent.

In auction markets, when advisable, these to be supported with fruit of the quality best adapted to their requirement, enabling them to maintain price levels which will stimulate higher prices in private sale markets.

The sales department of the Exchange will be composed of

A general sales manager.

A sales manager acting as his chief aid.

The sales department will maintain an efficient inspection service. Selling policies are to be aggressive in the development of markets not now handling a preponderance of Florida fruits and in holding established markets. Consumer demand created on any particular quality of fruit is to be maintained by continuous supply of like quality as far as possible. Customers for specified packing house brands will be protected by regular shipments of such brands.

The growers who form the Florida Citrus Exchange invite to their ranks other growers with full confidence that they will find co-operative marketing feasible and profitable. The sales system of the organization has been expanded in recognition of the increased volume of fruit now signed up for next shipping season. The directors and officers of the Exchange will not hesitate to make further changes in operating plants or personnel, consistent with reasonable selling costs, as it is found these are required to return the high dollar for the fruit grown by members.

For further information consult the managers or officers of the local association nearest you, see the manager of the Sub-Exchange in your territory or write to the

WATER ESTIMATES READY

W. J. Amy of the city council of Sebring is in receipt of a telegram from Engineer W. F. Norcross of Atlanta, Ga., saying that the estimate recently made by him on the extension of water mains for the city to provide an adequate supply of water for domestic purposes, fire protection and industrial uses, also the estimate for a complete sewerage system, will be ready to be presented to the council at its meeting called for Friday night.

SPRINKLER FOR PACKING HOUSE

The automatic sprinkler system has been installed in the new packing house of the Sebring Citrus Growers Association, and the erection of the 500-000-gallon tank is nearing completion. This tank is over a hundred feet high, and stands on one of the highest elevations in the city. The shipping of oranges will be finished this week, and the grapefruit shipments will take another ten days.

"OLD MAIDS" CONVENTION

The Woman's Club of Sebring will put on a modern version of the "Old Maids' Convention" June 10, at Tusculum Park auditorium. An electric Transform Her will replace the sausage grinder of ludicrous memory, and a constant ripple of laughs is promised. The proceeds will go to defray the May festival expenses. A large cast is now being chosen and local hits being interpolated in the lines.

GETS 'GATOR

Frank Hendricks caught a seven-foot alligator on the south side of Lake Jackson this week, with only a pitchfork for a weapon. He roped him securely with the tow rope from his car, and brought the "lifer" alive to Sebring. After being photographed in various ways, the animal was skinned, and Mr. Hendricks will have the hide tanned for a trophy. The age of the saurian was estimated at one hundred years.

HIGH GRADES HAVE EXAMS

A large number of students were exempt from examination by reason of their high averages. A list follows: General science, Bob Collier; Ab Graham; Opal Young; home economics, Faith Catagni, Hattie Catagni, Katherine Eastwood, Louise Ingold, Leila Sebring and Vera True; English II, Miranda Anderson and Katherine Eastwood; American history, Leila Sebring, Hattie Catagni, Opal Young, Helen Right, Eph Siders, Engle I, Claire Newbern; history I, Bob Collier; Caesar, Miranda Anderson, Clyde Anderson and Charlotte Bassage; modern Europe history, Miranda Anderson, Miss Baker, Ruth Swank, June Eldinger, Thelma Dingus and Aliceetta Russell; American literature, Jessie Laird, Louise Ingold, June Eldinger, Hattie Catagni, Leila Sebring, Vera True, Charlotte Bassage; algebra, Bob Collier; Greek, Grace Griggs; Ab Graham; geometry, Claire Newbern; geometry, Miranda Anderson, Miss Baker, Charlotte Bassage, Aracelia Brian, Hattie Catagni, Marion Coker, Leila Sebring, Eph Siders, Vera True, Opal Young, Nancy Ferguson, biology, Anna Bogie, Miss Baker and Marion Coker; Spanish, Charlotte Bassage, Aracelia Brian, Vera True and Jessie Laird.

RUSH WORK ON BUILDING AS COMPLETION NEARS

Building activities are proceeding unabated in Sebring, with no prospect of a let up. The roof has been completed on the new Dingus building, and the placing of the first floor is now being finished. This is one of the handsome new buildings which replaced one of Sebring's early landmarks, and has been constructed almost entirely of local materials. The first floor will contain two stores, and the second floor, which will not be completed until next fall, will in all probability be made into the three-room apartments for which there is such a demand during the tourist season. Mr. and Mrs. Dingus and Miss Thelma Dingus will leave in two weeks for Morristown, Tenn., their summer home, and will return in the early fall.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET PRESENTS COMMENCEMENT

Seniors of the Sebring high school were guests of the juniors Friday night at the annual junior-senior banquet, signifying the approach of commencement season. The large dining room of the Nat-co-tee was artistically decorated with the two class colors, purple and gold, for the seniors and crimson and white for the juniors. One of the charming features was the special lighting effects, in which the figures "24" and "25," in the same colors, were flashed during the two class toasts. Are you satisfied with the present State Road Department?

John Martin is no more satisfied with the performance of this body than you are. John Martin's solemn pledge to the voters of South Florida is a road department that will build roads where they are needed.

Are you satisfied with paying three-fifths, or more, of the taxes and getting only two-fifths representation?

John Martin stands pledged to apportioning the state road department on a basis of taxation, so that those who pay the taxes have equal representation.

Are you satisfied with big road projects in North Florida and little ones in South Florida?

John Martin is pledged to name a chairman of the road department who will be satisfactory to South Florida.

Are you satisfied with one senator to 50,000 people while West Florida has one to 10,000?

John Martin tells the people of all Florida he will get a fair reapportionment if it is possible to get it; that he will make a twofold effort to reapportion the state. He is the only candidate who has been honest enough to tell his stand on this question, vigorously, to the people of West Florida as well as South Florida. He has lost the support of West Floridians, but he didn't want their votes had enough to fool them to get them.

John Martin isn't trying to fool anybody in this campaign.

He will tell anyone what his position is on any question. He has no pretense "made on the quiet" to interfere with him by GOVERNOR if he is elected. He hasn't told South Florida one thing and West Florida another.

John Martin hasn't anything to say against his opponents.

South Florida's rising son has accomplished enough that he is proud of it; he has no time to spend discussing his friends. He wants the voters to know JOHN MARTIN. He thinks he is man enough to stand on his own feet without having to tear down the other fellow's. When his opponents spend all their time talking about John Martin it probably means that they haven't anything which they are proud to say about themselves.

Now, honest, has any other candidate promised the people of Florida anything? Is there a pledge you can hold them to?

John Martin has made definite pledges. If he hopes to hold your seat he must live up to them. He will. He has dodged, he has not evaded. You can put your finger on him.

JOHN MARTIN IS SFE, SANE AND HONEST

VOTE FOR Cyril Baldwin for County Tax Assessor

TO THE VOTERS OF HIGHLANDS COUNTY:

On June 3 you will elect your Tax Assessor and other officers.

My work as County Tax Assessor for the past three years, together with my several years' experience and study of land matters and taxation and having been over practically every section of land that is not under water in this county, gives me a good general knowledge of the county. This with the clerical work in preparing the three tax rolls each year (one for the State Comptroller, one for the Tax Collector and one for the Clerk of the Court), I believe I am in position to render good service.

I am making the race and running on my own merits. If re-elected I will do all in my power to make you a good official, as I have tried to do in the past, with the same attention and faith to all.

Thanking you for your support, I am,

Yours for service,

CYRIL BALDWIN.

IS IT WATERPROOF? is the all-important question in buying a raincoat. It may look good, it may feel good, the price may be just right—but all that is secondary. The important thing is its ability to protect you from drenching showers and drizzling rains.

Quality plays a more important part in the purchase of a raincoat than in any other article. And the utmost in quality is what we offer you in these coats.

SMUGGLED SERBIANS

CAUGHT IN SEBRING BY SHERIFF HANCOCK

W. W. Eyster, immigration inspector from Tampa, left Sebring Wednesday with five Serbians, who were arrested by Sheriff R. H. Hancock Sunday night. They are said to have been smuggled in from Cuba by way of the Miami canal and landed near Sebring in a motor launch.

It is alleged they were traveling in care of Ole Roberts and that he had paid their fares to this city and had arranged transportation to Jacksonville. He is in the Highlands county jail in Sebring, awaiting action of the federal authorities.

The five Serbians are all young men, dressed in American clothes, but unable to speak a word of English. Though they shook their heads in denial when accosted with the name of "bohsheviks," through an interpreter it was stated that the original party consisted of fourteen, this lot being the last consignment. Two others had passed through undetected, each in care of a smuggler, four having been kept at the train at Palmetto Thursday and five at Chiles Friday.

DANN, AS PRESIDENT OF THE DEVELOPMENT BOARD, IS SATISFACTORY CHOICE

Much satisfaction with the choice of Herman A. Dann, as president of the Florida Development Board, has been expressed in letters received at the general offices here since the Sanford meeting of the directors recently.

Mr. Dann is a leading St. Petersburg business man, formerly president of the Chamber of Commerce and past president of the Rotary Club of that city. The new president will devote considerable time to the work of the Florida Development board, concentrating his energies on making the organization better known to the people of the state.

At the Sanford meeting, preliminary steps also were taken to engage an organization service manager on a full time basis. Karl Lehmann, secretary of the Orange County Chamber of Commerce, who has been handling this position part time basis for the Florida Development Board, announced that he would be unable to do so much longer, owing to the growing demands of his local duties.

The resignation of Jules M. Burguiere, West Palm Beach, as president, was received with many expressions of regret and similar ones were voiced by reason of Mr. Lehmann's inability to continue as organization service manager. Mr. Burguiere was forced to give up the position by the increasing demands of his personal business, which keeps him out of Florida a large portion of the time, but he will continue to serve as a director.

Reports made to the Sanford meeting indicate satisfactory progress in raising the funds for the $400,000 national advertising campaign that the Florida Development Board proposes to put on during the fall and winter.

The accomplishments of the state beautification committee and of the committee on homesteaders' rates to Florida, since the last meeting, were reported as of a most constructive character. Many other matters, including a recent conference between railroad executives and hotel owners looking to a longer winter season, and steps for the production of a historic map of the state by the American Automobile Association, were brought before the meeting.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING SOLEMNIZED AT COCOA

A very quiet but lovely marriage was solemnized Monday afternoon, June 2, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Lockett, Sunset Grove, Merritt Island, when their daughter Bertha became the bride of Mr. Milford Dilley of Avon Park.

The bride's pastor, Rev. O. L. Riggs, performed the ceremony. The entire lower floor was profusely decorated with asparagus fern, cape jasmine and antigonon vine. A special feature of the decorations was a beautiful white and green arch, under which the bride and groom stood during the ceremony.

Prior to the entrance of the bride, party into the living room, Mrs. W. H. Poole sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. O. L. Riggs at the piano. Then to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March came little Misses Inez Lanier and Audrey Lockett, as ribbon girls, making an aisle for the bridal party. Then followed Mr. Dilley with Mr. Norwood Lockett, after which came Miss Alpha Daniels, lovely in orchid tulle. Then came little Miss Miriam English, niece of the bride, scattering rose petals. The bride then entered on the arm of her father. She wore a beautiful in a gown of grey canton crepe and silver lace and wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried gardenias and asparagus fern. During the impressive ring ceremony, "Solemnity" by Drexel was played softly.

Relative and a few intimate friends of the young couple were present. After the congratulations a delicious ice course was served by Mrs. Lockett and Mrs. English. The bride then cut the beautiful white cake and served the guests.

Mr. Dilley is attractive and beautiful and has a large number of friends here who wish her every happiness. Mrs. Dilley is the sister of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dilley of Avon Park, where he is well known and has a large circle of friends.

The young couple motored to Avon Park, where they will make their home. Mrs. Harry Dilley and Mrs. Curtis English motored to Cocoa to be present at the wedding.

MASTER JOE LACEY, JR.
CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
Master Joe Lacey, Jr., interesting little son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lacey, entertained a number of his friends at a happy birthday party Friday afternoon, celebrating his fourth birthday anniversary.

Garden flowers were used in decorating and during the afternoon various games were enjoyed. The donkey contest created much merriment. Little Peggy Lacey winning the prize, a spark plug candy jar.

Late in the afternoon refreshments were served, and the pretty birthday cake, with its four tiny candles, was cut. Mrs. John Hood assisted Mrs. Lacey in entertaining the little folks. The young host received many lovely toys and good wishes from his little friends.

Among the little tots present were: Sarah Lucy and Buddy Trent, Jane Hart, Frances Cloud, Glenn Masters, Mary Lydia Shabbins, Edna Booth Roberts, Peggy Lacey, Charles Sherman, George and Harry Elwyn Virginia and Cyril Henry Baldwin and Joe Lacey.

Pee Gee CHINA ENAMEL

The Hallmark of Good Taste in Interior Decoration

THE bell rings, the visitor enters, and the first point that claims the eye is the staircase. And that first impression lingers long. If China Enamel, with its soft, alluring, eye-winning beauty, has included the staircase in its decorative service, there's pride in the eyes of the housewife.

And so with mouldings, window casings, doors, pillars, wainscoting—wherever used it is the hallmark of good taste in interior decoration.

It is made in Pure White, Ivory, Putty color, Dove Gray and Washington Blue—in eggshell or glass finish.

On account of advertisement in our paper being discontinued, our balance by 9 cents is hereby acknowledged.

If you don't believe, hand your money anywhere, just try it.

Now Cats is howling. Frank, Most people get the world by themselves.

We remember when the Tribune laughed at us for saying Cats was a mule.

Some cats and some are the savory masked of a new paper issued at Cleveland.

Build these roads up to specifications, as if it takes more money to finish them, bond for it.

If West Florida is no blame fond of Cats why not let it secede and erect him a statue in the state capital.

They say Cats is going to run on a fraud ticket. Didn't know there were any more frauds running to make up a ticket.

Highlands county is going to be proud of her new school superintendent. He'll make us proud of our school system, too.

Approval of Avon Park's application for a Rotary Club is getting us lots of favorable mention in the press of the state.

In all the reports of the election we read there is one glaring omission in the list of the defeated. Yes, the Poison Squad was snuffed out by us. WE ARE PROUD OF OUR CHOICE

We have chosen wisely in nominating a new governor for the state of Florida.

John W. Martin's first post-campaign expression stamps him indelibly as a man's man, his own man, and a follower of the true God.

Not since the days of Broward has Florida been able to look forward with such confidence to an administration based on business principles guided by righteousness and supported by a belief in frank utterances.

Florida is indeed fortunate.

The message Mr. Martin sends to all Florida is a message in which we can find much to cheer us. It approximates a masterpiece of words as closely as any public document uttered within our state.

It rings true. It is true.

All is well in Florida.

LET JUSTICE STEP ON THE GAS

It is to be hoped swift and certain justice will be meted out to the two youths whose confession of the murder of the boy, Frank, of Chicago, has shocked the nation. The eyes of the public will not move from this revolting case until it is decided by jury.

If the millions of the parents of these young degenerates are to be the means of setting the liberty lines of this type, then there is no depth of dishonor in which great fortunes may not be put.

Of course, we will be doomed to read the usual nauseous account of how the insanity streak has been discovered in the family. We will be bored and fascinated in turn by newspaper accounts punctuated with psychology, psychiatry, complex, reflexes and other headline creating balderdash. We suppose we must even pass through the thousand and one clap-trap legal motions that seem designed and always ready to keep scoundrels from their deserts.

The jury, of course, must pass on the merits of this case, but so far as the public is concerned no matter whether the crime be pronounced that of cold-blooded murder or the act of abnormal monstrosity, the country will be best served by ridding itself once and for all time—once and for all—of such blot upon the human race.

SELF-CONFESSION GOOD FOR THE SOUL

All hope is not lost when in reply to openly hostile criticism of the action of congress we hear one of the legislators himself denounce the body of which he is a member.

"Why not be frank about it," says Representative Harry R. Haves of Missouri. "The so-called Wisconsin group holds the balance of power in the house and in the senate, and by throwing this block of votes first in one direction and then in another they control legislation."

Movements are under way in Washington to control our speech, our food, our clothes, our money, our marriage, our divorce, our church, our brains, and our bodies.

"In too many cases congress is voting for votes rather than voting for principles."

This is language the people understand, even if it reflect a condition they have yet failed to realize. Every one knows that congress votes for votes and always has voted for votes, but it shocks us to have the matter put so badly by one of the members of that august assembly.

The trouble, however, is not with congress. It lies with the people. So long as the people remain apathetic and bend the knee at the foot of power for personal advantage regardless of the public weel, just so long will we have representatives that operate on like lines. The government is what the people make it—nothing more, nothing less. Again, let us recall Thomas Carlyle: "We are all sheep and we live on mutton chops."

Be Honest Now

Son: "Good-bye, Dad. I'll write you every day."

Dad: "Heavens—if you think you're going to need money that often better not go."

Oh, Splish!

Bill: "Come on over to the club. I'll take you into the new pool room."

Horde Boss: "Oh, I'd love to, but I didn't bring my bathing suit."

AS WE PROGRESS

What the future holds can best be judged by what the past has brought. Two years of progress usually begets two more years of progress, given the same incentive and the same opportunity for service.

It is with this in view that as we pass our second anniversary with the Pilot here, we look back for mile-stones of progress during our first year.

Indeed, there is much in which to find reason for gratification. Avon Park has shown the world that she intends to remain the metropolis of the ridge. Through the assumption by the Pilot of the position of the dominant paper in the county Avon Park is assuming its proper place as the trading center of all this section.

It is a fact that people trade in the town from which they get their paper—take Tampa, since the Tribune supplanted the Times-Union as the dominant paper in South Florida.

But looking back we find much of which we can personally be proud.

When we came to Avon Park our advertisers had no cut service. Staid type effects were used exclusively for advertisements, thus reducing the appeal to the reader.

One of the first things we did was to purchase a cut service to give our advertisers cuts for their messages to the people, making a more live paper in appearance, and in fact, doubling the value of the advertising. Such a service costs approximately $500 per year but the result has justified it.

When we took charge of the Pilot, we had a scant dozen subscribers south of Avon Park. Our merchants had no way of placing their message into the homes of that vast reservoir of prospective trade to the south of us without paying two prices. Therefore, Sebring was the trading center of the county south of Avon Park.

Today we sell 200 papers every week in Sebring alone and Sebring people are coming to Avon Park to trade—because they read the ads of the Avon Park merchants every week.

In addition we completely cover every community in this county. We have as many paid subscribers in DeSoto City as the Pilot of old had in all the territory south of Avon Park combined. We also have more in Venus and more in Lake Stearns.

And what is more, by our kindly attitude towards the people of those struggling communities, by our activities in their behalf—such activities as our efforts of a year ago to secure school transportation for the youngsters south of Lake Stearns—we have created a high regard in their minds for Avon Park, built up a spirit of good will towards us, that is worth thousands of dollars to this city. A continuance of our efforts to boost all the county—just as the Tribune's efforts to boost all South Florida makes Tampa grow greater—will make Avon Park grow greater, and a more rapid growth than any selfish concentration at home of our meager efforts could foster.

Today—largely through the policy of the Pilot towards our neighboring communities—Avon Park stands as the dominant point in all Highlands county. Our aim for next year is to increase this sphere of domination for Avon Park to the northward to Frostproof, and to that end we dedicate next year's efforts. It will mean carrying Frostproof news. That costs us money. But we want our merchants to sell those people and the only way to get them interested is to give them the news of their section. A metropolis is built upon the trade of nearby cities, and the good will of nearby communities. Tampa is great because of the trade that is drawn there from nearby towns like Avon Park, Bartow and others, because the Tribune carries news from these places.

Looking back only a few days we see the dawn of reality of two of the first dreams we had when we came here. After twenty-four months of effort, dating from before we actually took charge of the Pilot, when we started the wheels turning through a close friendship with postal officials and the Republican national committee for Florida, we have two rural free delivery routes out of Avon Park authorized for next month. This is distinctly a Pilot achievement. Because of the fact that one of these routes worked southward into what Sebring might have termed its territory, all we had to do was had to be done in quiet work. It was none the less effective though, and within thirty days we will be delivering to Sebring's front door mail from the Avon Park post-office.

The practical assurance of a Rotary Club for Avon Park, the smallest city in the world to be promised a club by this great organization of service, is another accomplishment of the Pilot. Twice failing, we kept on and only a few weeks ago received the first encouragement and tonight we will see accomplished all but the final step in an eighteen months' fight.

When we came to Avon Park our predecessor warned us against suggesting a bond issue for good roads. But he was wrong. We found the people begging for roads. We did our mite. We worked our hardest and a highway system is budding now from the seed we helped coax along.

Likewise we did our part in stretching the city paving bond issue to three times its original size. By taking up the same methods used elsewhere Avon Park will be the best paved city of its size in the state and our people will not have to wade around in sand. Our home was in the original issue and so were the streets by its office; we might have sat back and fought the extension. Instead we fought for the extension and hundreds of Avon Park people will have paved streets that would not have had them, otherwise. And Avon Park will be a much better city to live in, and property values increased accordingly, through the benefits of the extension.

We urged that the new railroad be brought through town—and through town in such a way that it would not damage valuable residential sections. The present route—parallel to the A. C. L. all the way through town—was one of our first suggestions.

Tonight you see four "strings of pearls" from the depot to Lake avenue, where there were but two when the Pilot first urged a greater white way. The Pilot and business men up and down Main street are paying for this in order that all the community may benefit.

Truly has Avon Park progressed. We are glad to have an opportunity to share in the labors involved in this progress. We have enjoyed participating in the works of such a progressive people as we found here, people who had labored under handicaps through thick and thin.

It is people like those who have built up Avon Park that are responsible for building nations.

The people of Avon Park have been good to us. They have helped abundantly to make the Pilot what it is today. Without the constant thought of our friends, the scores of helpful suggestions, the hundreds of kindnesses extended us, the way would have been hard indeed.

We shall never forget the loyalty of our friends during the spring and summer of 1923. If ever an institution owed a community anything the Pilot owes everything to the people of Avon Park. If we have progressed, it has been with and through the steadfast support of Avon Park.

We asked, and ye have given.

You have only to ask, and if it is within our power, the Pilot will return the favor. We are merely custodians for your paper.

GARDEN VEGETABLES BEST TONIC; NATURE'S OWN WAY

"Grow and eat vegetables and throw away your medicine," reads a headline. And that headline is full of truth, according to the testimony of the health specialists and the health of those who practice the suggestion of the headline.

A main argument against this theory of the headline is that during the summer months it is difficult to grow many popular vegetables, and that nature's own tonic is not always sufficient.

But this argument is put to rest by Prof. W. L. Floyd, horticulturist of the Florida College of Agriculture, who names a number of vegetables that can be grown successfully in this state in summer.

He says that New Zealand spinach stands summer heat well and that tender tips and leaves of it may be gathered every few days as new ones put out quickly. It makes very satisfactory food.

Cowpeas, especially the California black-eye and the yellow sugar crowder, are very nutritious and grow well.

Mustard may be planted at frequent intervals, grows quickly and is good when young and tender, though it soon becomes tough.

Kale, if cultivated and has its pods cut, or three times a week will continue to bear throughout the summer and will produce large quantities of fruit.

Epiglants, peppers and collards, if started in spring and given proper cultivation and fertilization, will continue to bear throughout the summer.

HIGHLANDS COMMENT

Something to Start With—
Tampa Times: Highlands county is starting from the beginning to keep up with its history, and that is a splendid idea.

Little But Loud—
Moore Haven Democrat: Avon Park is the smallest town in Florida to have a Rotary Club. It is a real distinction of which that community should be proud.

Getting There—
Democrat: News comes from Avon Park that real estate is very active. It has been our observation that many people took summer time in which to do their real estate buying. Then they expect to find conditions at their worst, and if they are satisfactory then they are ready to buy.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Children's day was observed Sunday at the Congregational church and a very delightful and interesting program, which was well executed, was enjoyed by a large and enthusiastic congregation.

The little tots, as usual, took the lead, the numbers on the program including an exercise by the cradle roll, song by Dorothy Weisbeyer, piano solo by Della Beck, recitations by Eunice Ratliff, Bobby England, Byron Ellison, Nelson Smith, Charlotte and Shirley Page Shepherd, Jane Hibner, Marcia Weisbeyer, William Bennett, Mildred Wray, Harry Stagg, Frederick and Mary Wild, and Rudolph Conoley, with special music by the choir and a piano solo by Miss Conoley.

It is a custom of the church to present a Bible on Children's day to each child who has attained its seventh birthday during the year. Rev. Stock, the pastor, addressed the children, and announced that Bibles would be given to Ella Maude Lander, Della Beck, Helen Maude Tuten and William Bennett.

WHERE STORK STOPS

There's a homing eight-pound prospective citizen of the Ridge metropolis located at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Abrams, the newborn making his arrival Tuesday evening. He is going to be known as Solomon Abrams and both he and his young mother are doing nicely under the care of Dr. I. W. Chandler, while "Pa" Abrams is beaming his proud smile on all whom he encounters.

JOHN BRUYERE, AVON PARK
PIONEER CITIZEN, PASSES ON TO REWARD AT HOME HERE

John Bruyere, for thirty years a resident of Avon Park, passed away quietly at his home on Verona and Walnut street Tuesday afternoon. A sister, Miss Kate Bruyere, survives him.

Mr. Bruyere, a prominent architect in his home in Canada, came here in the earliest days of Avon Park's history, and for a few years practiced his profession, later retiring from the active sphere and devoting his time to grove and other interests.

Funeral services, in charge of Rev. Benjamin Stock, were held at the residence Wednesday afternoon and a brief service was held at the cemetery. The pall bearers were: Roswell Cutler, G. S. Donaldson, G. E. Lanier, W. R. England, G. F. Kellogg and H. Seaverns.

Martin Pledges His Best as He Thanks
People of Florida

Pledging law enforcement "so far as the grace of God gives the knowledge and the law gives me power," John W. Martin's message of thanks to the people for the trust they have reposed in him in electing him to be governor, rings with that true spirit that has characterized this man throughout his political life—with that true courage to recognize the trust and go about its accomplishment.

"This message of thanks follows:

"To the People of Florida:

"I am profoundly grateful to the chosen me to serve them as the next governor of Florida. The honor is so great that the burden of responsibility it imposes on me is almost heavy enough to outweigh the gratification that fills my heart, and it shall be my highest ambition to justify the confidence that has been expressed and implied in the vote given me.

"Our government is founded on the principle that a majority shall rule within the law and between these two exists the imperative duty of any executive authority in a republic to distinguish it from despotism on the one hand and anarchy on the other. We never forget this fixed rule laid down by our forefathers. I have been given the right and pleasure to state plainly and emphatically the principles and the purposes that shall animate me in the discharge of the duties your votes have placed on my shoulders and not one of these principles and pledges shall be forgotten or evaded in serving as best I may the highest interests of the state and its people.

"Let us remember this in the days to come when decisions are to be made involving points on which differences of opinion may arise: since Democrats are in the majority here they represent for purposes of government all the people of the state and it is the people as a whole that will commission me and it is the people as a whole that I must serve if I succeed in discharging the duties imposed on me. The prosperity of this state as a member of the national body, the integrity of its business dealing, the development of agriculture and the proper enforcement of the laws enacted by the legislative department shall not be neglected so far as the grace of God gives me knowledge and the law gives me power to serve them.

"I hope the people of all the states will accept the assurance of my gratitude and believe in my determination to discharge as best I may the obligation laid on my heart as a man and my honor as an official to serve their interests without regard to any selfish or personal interest or ambition. If my future shall not copy fair my past, let no man spare me, as I shall never seek to excuse my shortcomings save such as may be fairly credited to an error of my head rather than of my intention and my hopes.

"Words fail me in expressing my feelings towards many who have given me their support so generously and at serious sacrifices. It is by like deeds only that due thanks for such kindness may be expressed and the deed shall not be wanting while my heart beats and the breath of life is in my body.

"And it is by service to be rendered also that I can speak of my gratitude to the people of Florida—all of them.

"JOHN W. MARTIN."

Thrifty Tips
FOR THE HOME

The "Thrifty Tip" is a series of short, practical hints on how to save money and make the most of your resources. It is a good read for every household.

Painted Walls—To remove marks on painted walls caused by striking matches on them, rub with the cut surface of a lemon—then clean with a cloth dipped in whiting. Wash the surface with warm water and soap and then wipe quickly with a clean cloth, wrung out of clear water.

Leather Seats—To clean leather seats of chairs, rub lightly with a soft rag that has been dipped in warm milk. Then polish with a soft, dry cloth.

Ham—To make ham juicy and tender when boiled, leave it in the water in which it has been boiled until it is cold.

controls extensive citrus holdings in Hillborough, Pasco and Manatee

The suggestion that Mr. Edwards

OTT DOUBLES FLOOR SPACE IN HIS FINE NEW APPAREL STORE

ONE YEAR'S GROWTH HAS MADE MOVE NECESSARY
—"BEST ON RIDGE"

One year's growth has been so great for Ott & Son that when this aggressive firm opens Saturday in its new home in the Brickell building, double the floor space that was required in the opening a year ago, following the purchase of the business, will hardly suffice for the business.
From a stock of a scant $10,000 the business has grown until today a stock of $18,000 is carried and in the new store the Ott will carry a stock of between $30,000 and $40,000 of dry goods, women's ready-to-wear, shoes,
men's clothing and haberdashery.

A formal opening is to be held Saturday, when handsome souvenirs will be given men and women—leather pouches having been secured for the men and dainty compacts for the fair sex.

The fixtures for the new store, exclusive of more than $1,000 worth of practically new fixtures which are being moved, represent an investment of approximately $3,000 and include the most modern display and storage cabinets that are to be found.

There are two large show windows and two entrances opening into aisles.
Along the left wall will be the men's haberdashery and clothing. The suits will be stocked in a combining wall case with sliding clothes rack, fitting room and alcove mirror.

On the right will be dry goods, notions and ready-to-wear, while the rear are a series of alcoves for shoes.
Along the fashion of the "breakfast nooks" that are making modern homes famous. There are five of these "shoe nooks" with display cases on the front of each.

Display cases and sales counters run down the center of the store.

All the fixtures are finished in green-tinted oak and with the lighting effects make one of the finest stores on the Ridge.

A feature that is going to be appreciated will be the pattern department, which is the first on the Ridge.
A full line of McCall patterns will be carried all the time, the monthly releases being rushed here by express.
"We are going to carry the finest line of goods for people to wear to be found on the Ridge and adjacent communities," said C. N. Ott. "We plan to have a store worthy of the metropolis of the Ridge."

For the opening day there will be some especially attractive specials for the woman and man who loves a real value in shopping.

The doors will be opened at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and all Highlands county is invited to "be our guests," is the way Mr. Ott put
it. "We want folks to get in the habit of making this store their headquarters when down town."

room, the bar and such, it had no right to exist. The only argument "our leader offered was three letters," he said. One was written to each of three big church mission boards and each letter offered the churches two free lots and $1,000 cash if they would establish churches in a new town being built. "Those letters were written by the man who said the church was on a competitive basis," said Mr.
Lehmann. "But he didn't believe the church had to survive on that basis.
He knew the church had to be subsidized and he thought enough of what they mean to a community to subsidize three in the town he was building. Yet he didn't offer free lots and $1,000 busses to pool rooms, bars and such."

Closing, Mr. Lehmann said there's only one thing that can keep Avon Park back. "That's a bunch of bald citizens and knucklers."

"Let 'em pull for Avon Park, or pull out," he concluded.

For V. Chapman submitted the report for the old board of governors, showing only a slight deficit and pointing to examples in Atlanta and other cities, said that co-operation might not build another Atlanta here, but it would build a greater Avon Park.

In every instance where condemnation proceedings to secure right of way for the new Florida Western Northern went to juries in circuit court, the property owners were awarded less than the railroad committees of citizens had offered. AND MRS. STEBBINS WERE HOSTS AT CARDS

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Stebbins were hosts to a number of their friends Sunday evening of last week. Five tables were the main diversion of the evening and in the reception room, where the card tables were arranged, a myriad of lovely garden flowers brightened the scene.

Four tables were in play during the evening and when the scores were called it was found that Mrs. Stebbins held high score among the ladies and she was awarded a box of beautiful stationery. The men's prize, a cigarette holder, was won by Neal Trent.

Punch was enjoyed all during the evening and late in the evening the guests served dainty refreshments of chicken salad, waffles, ice tea, sherbet, cake and stuffed dates. Gracious plate was a beautiful rose.

Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins' gracious hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Neal Trent, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lacey, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moffett, Mr. and Mrs. McKee Elwell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Fender, Miss Myrtle Jack, Miss Mabel Russell and Louise Martin.

"Sweet are the uses of adversity"

So sang Shakespeare in his immortal works. But that was long years ago—back in the 15th Century. Times have changed greatly since the Bard of Avon wrote and directed his plays for the edification of virgin Queen Elizabeth and her gallants.

Adversity and hardships are certainly not "sweet" to anticipate nowadays. It is only the man who has had the wisdom and forethought to save part of his wages that finds adversity anything but a sad experience.

Don't wait for adversity to teach you the necessity of saving. Come in and start an account today.

FLORIDA CITRUS EXCHANGE

Ready to go, That Florida Citrus Growers May Receive the High Dollar for Fruit!

The Florida Citrus Exchange has been completely reorganized and will enter the next shipping season equipped to sell the fruit of its members in a thoroughly efficient way.

Changes in the organic law of the organization have placed representation in its board of directors on exactly the same form of "box basis" that applies to the California Fruit Growers Exchange.

In addition, the charter and by-laws of the Florida Citrus Exchange have been so altered as to provide workable maximum and minimum quantities of fruit for Sub-Exchanges, in effect limiting the volume of each one.

A sales plan of broad scope and far-reaching importance has been devised by a committee composed of expert citrus fruit men and adopted by the Florida Citrus Exchange, every Sub-Exchange and practically all local associations.

An outstanding figure in the citrus industry of Florida, previously marketing his heavy output through independent channels, has been elected as the active president of the organization and one of the state's best known bankers chosen as chairman of the board of directors.

The new sales plan will be put into effect under the direction of a sales committee comprising five experienced fruit marketing men. A selling organization adequate to the situation and covering the entire country will be completed by this committee, well in advance of the opening of the shipping season.

The Florida Citrus Exchange will be prepared to handle at least three-fourths of the grapefruit, oranges and other citrus raised in Florida. It needs and must have 75 per cent of the total volume in order to properly control distribution and to secure the high dollar for growers. Not less than three million boxes additional of fruit must be had to give the organization three-fourths of the next crop.

Every reasonable objection has been met in the reorganization of the Florida Citrus Exchange and no grower now has a valid excuse for remaining out. Don't wait to be seen and solicited, but show your willingness to co-operate with your fellow growers by taking up the matter of membership with the local association most convenient to you or with the Sub-Exchange in your territory. Any further information will be gladly supplied by the general offices. Address,

Florida Citrus Exchange
Tampa, Florida

THE NEW SALES PLAN IN BRIEF

Under a sales committee of five from the board of directors, acting with the business manager, the sales manager, the advertising manager, the Sub-Exchange managers and the chief inspector, fruit will be sold as follows:

On a cash basis, f. o. b. Florida, whenever advantageous offers can be secured. On definite orders from northern markets, f. o. b. packing house, to the largest possible extent. In auction markets, when advisable, these to be supported with fruit of the quality best adapted to their requirements, enabling them to maintain price levels which will stimulate higher prices in private sale markets.

The sales department of the Exchange will be composed of:

A general sales manager.

An assistant general sales manager.

Five or more assistant sales managers, each in charge of specified portions of the country.

Division salesmen at central points to maintain proper supervision of district salesmen.

District salesmen located in the principal markets, each covering intensively a limited territory.

Branch sales office managers in appropriate cities of Florida to handle transactions with local carlot buyers.

Consumer demand will be created by proper and sufficient educational work including:

Massive advertising.

Street and other "reminder" advertising.

Booklets of citrus recipes for distribution to housewives.

Demonstrations, in stores and food shows; special sales in grocery and department stores.

Store display material, for use in connection with demonstration, special sales, etc.

An advertising sales service, to show retail dealers how best to merchandise citrus fruits.

GOOD BOARD FOR BIG WORK

We doubt, if even the most pessimistic can find any fault with the board of governors of the Avon Park, which was organized on June 1, 1923. It is certainly representative of all Avon Park. And from what we know of those who have been chosen we don't believe there can be found nine more active men in Avon Park—nine men who will give more of their time to community development and the building of a city.

It is well for 1924 is going to be a year for busy workers. We are on the threshold of city greatness. We will need every bit of vigor that we can command and it is going to take the entire co-operation of all Avon Park to enable even this strong board of governors to secure the maximum possibilities from the present situation.

We must all be awake to the possibilities of the times.

There is much business we must be about.

Some sort of advertising campaign should be gotten under way for the fall and winter. We should endeavor to secure a big tourist hotel, and do it now. There must be an eighteen-hole golf links.

There should be an extension of the mall all the way to Lake Verona.

Building and loan, or some similar means to encourage and facilitate building of more homes. An active industrial committee should be put to work looking up the possibilities for new industries here.

Building of a baseball field and athletic park.

With the opening of roads linking east and west, we should prepare to go after more and more conventions.

Protection of home industry should be a major consideration and the extension of Avon Park's trading territory should receive immediate attention, for only as our business prosper can the city go forward. To this end we must build up the good will in nearby towns and maintain the friendships already established during years of fair dealing and helpful co-operation.

ness to the railroad now crossing this section, and the assurance of a spur siding when needed, answers the transportation completely.

With Lake Istokpoga, Lake Annie, Lake Stearns and Lake Childs lying to the north and west, and the rolling nature of the land in the same direction, this spot will be as nearly immune to frosts as any portion of the state, meaning a continuous growing season throughout the year.

FREE WHEELS FOR FORDS

A complete set of small diameter wheels will be given away with a set of five Goodyear balloon cords and tubes, Gilbert Stebbins, of Roberts & Stebbins, announces. The offer also includes free tubes with a set of five casings for any car using its present rims. These offers are in addition to any allowance made on old tires.

THE PILOT SERVES

Coming into the beginning of another year's activity in behalf of Avon Park and the Ridge country, as we view the outlook as another Board of Governors meets in the foreground, considering publicity, it recalls some of the things that have been done and in particular one of the things in which The Pilot can take particular pride.

Why? Because The Pilot has through steady service and intensive activity and in co-operation with such dailies as the Tampa Times, the Tampa Tribune, and the Jacksonville Times-Union, kept Avon Park before the people of Florida, kept Floridians advised of the progress of the city building campaign that is raising a new metropolis here in the heart of the Highlands.

Money could not buy the publicity which has so far secured Avon Park through the burning of the midnight oil by the Pilot staff, the co-operation of the Times, Tribune and Times-Union, and consistent every day effort of the Pilot.

The Tampa Tribune alone has printed not less than 500 columns of Avon Park news—pure advertising news and pure reading matter—keeping Avon Park before not only all Florida, but through two long years, but ever reminding the thousands of Florida tourists that there is an Avon Park in Florida.

The Times-Union has printed close to 200 columns and the Times has frequently carried news stories from here, not to mention a number of items the Associated Press has sent out with Avon Park date lines.

Before the present editor of The Pilot came here there was hardly a column a year of Avon Park news printed in all the Florida dailies.

Soon after he came here the Florida dailies began printing as many as five and six articles in the same issue, and the Times-Union and Times-Union have in one issue of the Tampa Tribune. That is the kind of service that The Pilot has given the people of Avon Park in the past two years.

It is a fact that about all the average Floridian knew about Avon Park two years ago was that it was a little town near Sebring, and blame few of them know that much. Today they have learned—through the efforts of The Pilot and the co-operation of the dailies—that Avon Park manufactures one-fourth of the citrus fruit crates in Florida; that Avon Park is the metropolis of the Ridge; that Avon Park has a "good" enough for a Rotary Club, that State Road No. 8, linking Atlantic and Gulf, runs through Avon Park; that Avon Park will be the only city through which the new Seaboard railroad will run between Sebring and Okeechobee, all the others being skirted around; that we have "four strings of pearls"; that we have a mall that is becoming a beauty spot; that Avon Park is the center of the largest citrus acreage in the world; that the largest planted grove in the world is here; that an Avon Park canning factory was the first to turn the canned grapefruit peel on a commercial scale; that the payroll here makes a city worth living in; and a score of other fine things about Avon Park.

Many of them could have been told to the world three years ago, but they weren't. No one on The Pilot in those days was strong enough to interpose the stories. Anyone with the desire could have done just what the editor of The Pilot has done, had it been desired.

These things are just a part of the policy of the present management of The Pilot to serve Avon Park and Highlands county. We believe that

Little, But Loud—

Tampa Tribune: Avon Park is the gem of the town in the world with a Rotary club, but Avon Park makes up in enterprise and enthusiasm what it lacks in size.

Building a City—

Times-Union: The Avon Park Pilot tells of considerable activity in construction in that city, half a dozen new residences and some business structures being among the projects of the early summer. Among the buildings under way is a new high school, which will cost $30,000. The residences will cost from $2,000 to $15,000 each.

More Baboon Park—

Florida Grower: Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Stafford of Baboon Park have bought forty acres of Mrs. F. E. Wells on the north arm of Lake Verona, and will develop it as a high class subdivision. The tract is located about five miles from Lake Wales on the Sebring Highway and at the highest point overlooking the lake. It is a beautiful view. Ten acres are north of the highway, the ten-acre grove being developed by Hugh Ward of Bartow, and thirty acres south of the road running to the lake shore.

Trading at Home—

Times-Union: Haines City Herald notes with evident gratification that the Grocers Commercial Bank of that city was awarded the entire issue of city bonds, for street paving improvements, to the amount of $129,000, the local bank's bid being the highest among a number received. This purchase by a home financial institution indicates confidence in the future of Haines City, and very properly becomes a matter for general pride.

In Good Company—

Lakeland Bulletin: With Avon Park a lively and active prospect, that town having been accepted for membership, and with Bartow's Wednesday Luncheon Club aspiring to Rotary membership and dignity, Lakeland will have two very welcome and important additions to the family of Rotary in this immediate territory. The mix-outs can then be rounded up and caused to make good any lapses of attendance. But best of all will be the social good fellowships prevailing between these three communities.

PLAN TO AID ON BONUS

Glen Spink and Murray Whitehurst have returned from Sanford, where they represented the Highlands Post, at a meeting of the executive committee of the Florida Post on the plans of the government for enlisting the assistance of the American Legion in handling the adjusted compensation. An expert from Washington talked to the executive of the Florida Post on instructions for issuance of applications and other details of the work being entrusted to the legion.

1,500 MELONS PER ACRE

Sixteen hundred melons from one acre was the mark achieved by I. V. English, who has a small truck and garden patch in the Red Hills Florida section, just west of Avon Park. And he is selling them, too. The fruit is about the sweetest watermelon that has been sold here this season. He had only one acre planted to melons this spring, but is already planning to go to six acres on them next year.

In addition, circles the sale of Capt. F. C. Rea's home on Verona street, retired hotel owners of New York state, is the most prominent. The Barrett, who wintered here, gave a site 50x150 and a large home place with lovely grounds. The transaction involved $7,000.

J. L. Masters added a $3,000 deal to the total, buying 100 feet on Lake avenue at the year of the First National Bank, from William Dart for $3,000. Work was immediately started—Wednesday—on a 50x100 concrete tile garage to cost $7,000. The garage, which has already been leased to the Lotels Auto Company, is to be built for a two-story structure, but only the first story will be erected at this time.

The Lotels Auto Company has brought a Chevrolet mechanic here and is ready to render Chevrolet service at temporary quarters on Cornell street, the way to Sebring. They will be located there until the new building is ready.

We are prepared to take care of all service requirements of our Chevrolet owners and will be glad to have them come by and see us," said Mr. Holbrook.

Charles H. panist. An invitation was extended by the Lakeland Rotarians to the baby organization, to visit the Lakeland club at luncheon at an early date.

WORTHINGTON LAKES FLAGS ALONG THE MAIN STREET

"Avon Park certainly looks mighty good with those flags," said Jack Worthington, editor of the Lake Wales Highlander, who was here Friday, when Main streets, both north and south, were lined with a row of flags in front of each business house. When told that the flags had been bought by the American Legion and resold to every business house in town, Mr. Worthington said he was certainly going to endeavor to put Lake Wales in line with the Ridge metropolis.

POOR RICHARD

"If you don't think money is worth something, try to borrow some"

—Poor Richard

In a subtle way Benjamin Franklin, through the lips of "Poor Richard," shows you the importance of thrift—and in establishing credit.

Your borrowing power is governed by you and you alone.
The thrifty man has little trouble in financing his ideas.

No matter what the past may have been, resolve today to start building upon a foundation of thrift. Then credit will take care of itself and borrowing money to carry on worthy enterprise will be easy.

OBITUARY
Andrew A. Robertson was born near Greenville, Ala., Sept. 6, 1847, died at his farm home, seven miles west of Avon Park, June 11, 1924, from a paralytic stroke. Mr. Robertson went from his southern home to Illinois at the close of the Civil War, and spent the most of his active life in that state. He came to Florida in the fall of 1919. He leaves to mourn his loss his widow and two children, Mrs. Clara Pfeiffer and Claude H. Robertson, both of Chicago; two brothers and one sister, all living in Illinois, and other relatives and many friends.
The funeral was held Friday morning, with interment in Avon Park cemetery, Rev. T. O. Baldwin officiating.

KAHN SALE UNDER WAY
Kahn's midsummer sale is announced this week, the bargain carnival to begin Saturday morning in the Kahn store in the new First Trust block here. Philip Abrams, the manager of the establishment, states that his friends and customers will find plenty of values to interest them.

CONTRACTORS SAY ROAD NO. 8 WILL BE OPEN AHEAD OF TIME
A BUILT PENALTY WILL BE $100

In an interview at Okeechobee, M. P. Meyer, of the Meyer Construction Company, announced that his equipment would be ready this week to commence work on the 11-mile portion of the cross state road immediately west of the Kissimmee river. Mickled & McLeod, who were awarded the contract for the missing link between Lake Annie and the bays, and Weeks & Jackson, who are undertaking the stretch between Josephine creek and Lake Seams, also report the rushing of materials and machinery to their respective portions and predictions are freely made that the highway between the East and West Coasts, via Okeechobee, will be ready for traffic before Dec. 1, which is the time limit allowed by the State Road Department. A penalty of $100 per day is set for delays after Dec. 1.

Although a start on the actual construction of the Kissimmee river bridge will not be made until the following opening of the famous Conners highway, R. Y. Patterson, representative of J. J. Conners, who was awarded the contract, stated that the camp site will be located this week and materials are now being assembled so that no time will be lost.

DINGUS REMAINS TO PUSH COMPLETION OF BUILDING

E. B. Dingsus, who with his family had planned to leave for his summer home in Morris, Tenn., early this month, has decided to remain for a longer time, to oversee the completion of the story of his handiwork, some new business block on the Circle. The second story in the building is being finished this week, the finishers having put the last touches on the woodwork. This is one of the lightest and most convenient stores in the city, and is ready for occupancy. It has been the owner's intention to complete the inside finishing of the second story in the fall on his part, and the demand for small furnished apartments is so great that he is rushing them to completion. There will be four of these each equipped with Murphy beds-in-a-dor and with the steel, white enameled Murphy kitchen furnishings. The living room furniture will be tasteful and in keeping with the style of the building. There will also be two suites of offices, both of which will be modern in arrangement and equipment.

Ed L. Hainz will erect a building of similar style on the corner adjoining the Dingsus building, where the old frame building was recently razed. Building activity is going on unabated in Sebring, work having been started last week on a group of twenty houses of Spanish style in the newly acquired Lakeview Place subdivision.

GET 25 BASS

Gathering the army tribe is the popular sport these days, Murray Whitehurst leading a party of anglers who spent a night and day on the Kissimmee river, this autumn-haired young lawyer pulling in no less than twenty-five bass during the outing. Ray Marsh, Lee Crews and F. H. McConnell got their share of the sport, too, but could not keep up with Whitehurst's string.

LOCAL CONTRACTORS GRAB OFF BIG PAVING JOBS AT TAVARES AND FROSTPROOF

The big paving job in Frostproof, the first unit running to $75,000, and a big curb, gutter and sewer job in Tavares, have both been awarded to local contractors. The Kennedy Construction Company, which is just finishing one of the finest road jobs in the state between Avon Park and Frostproof, getting the Frostproof job, while the N. C. Cash Construction Company, Sebring and Avon Park, has been awarded the Tavares job. The Cash concern is just winding up the curb and gutter contract for the city of Avon Park, having done one of the best jobs in this section, in what is close to record time.

The Frostproof job will be handled out of the Avon Park office of the Kennedy company, but Mr. Cash will own offices in Tavares to handle that job, the distance being too great to be handled from here.

There are 30,000 yards of asphalt paving at Frostproof and the local concern was $3,000 under the next lowest bidder on the job. He was likewise way low on the Hillcrest Heights paving at Babson Park, but another type of paving will be used, so all bids were rejected.

The Tavares job, landed by the Cash concern, will run close to $40,000.

CANDIDATES PATCH UP GOOD FEELING WHILE RUSTING WATERMELONS AS OF YORE

Carried back to boyhood days when the stum was the principal weapon of assault on a watermelon, candidates—both lucky and unlucky—watched up all good feelings and made merry as guests of Col. F. N. C. Bailey at his home near DeSoto City Thursday afternoon.

The colonel, who is a host among hosts, did his best for the day and that turned the trick.

There was chicken, fried, pilau and otherwise. There were pickles, coffee and all the fixings—and some of those luscious watermelons from the colonel's own patch.

There was plenty of everything—except speeches. Gab was taboo. "It was an eating fest, not a talk-fest," said the colonel. And whether you believe it or not, the colonel is authority for the statement that for two hours and thirty minutes there was more than a score of candidates together and not a speech.

FRANK BRISTOLE ASHTON DEAD
Frank Bristole Ashton died at his home in Long Hill last week, at the age of 66 years. Mr. Ashton was born in Middletown, March 7, 1858, the son of Peter H. and Sarah J. Stowe Ashton. He was a member of the First Congregational church, and for 25 years was superintendent of the Sunday school at Long Hill chapel. Until he resigned in January he had been county vice-president of the Connecticut State Vegetable Growers Association. He was a member of Apollo Lodge, No. 33, K. of P. On May 24, 1888, Mr. Ashton married Martha A. Pease of Glastonbury. He was survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Frank T. Bradley, and a sister, Mrs. Martha Peck, of St. Louis.

He owned a grove west of Avon Park.

Sebring Facing The Loss of Railway, Is "Digging Til Hurts"

Faced with the immediate necessity of raising the $30,000, which it obligated itself last January to pay for the right-of-way through its territory for the new Florida Northern & Western railroad, or lose the railway, Sebring is making a valiant effort to make good its promise. Lulled into inactivity by the various schemes offered for financing the deal in the way of taxes, county donations, and other plans equally impossible of execution, the five months have drifted by without concerted action. However, Friday the 13th, Sebring residents got a jolt that shook the city to its foundations, when it found that the railroad did not wait on convenience, and that it was a case of put up or go without.

As a result of the almost superhuman efforts of the railroad committee, consisting of H. O. Sebring, J. Lee Johnson and T. V. Conway, and the many other public spirited citizens who rose to the occasion, every property owner in the city and as many of those in the north as could be reached by mail or telegraph were apprised of the seriousness of the situation, and many are giving all it hurts. To date, fully a half has been secured, and more is on the way in the form of checks and negotiable papers. Sebring is facing what is undoubtedly the greatest crisis of its history, the committee in charge is confident that it will go over the top in time to save the through trunk line railway.

RAILROAD MEN LOCATE

Mrs. D. S. Thomas and Mrs. S. T. Grimshaw have arrived here to join Mr. Thomas and Mr. Grimshaw, resident chiefs of the construction department of the new Florida Northern & Western railway, and the two families have located here for the remainder of the year.

Robinson Crusoe Didn't Quit !!

One of the most persistent advertisers in the history of success was Robinson Crusoe. He knew what he wanted—a ship—and he put up an ad for one. He flung a shirt on a pole at the top of his island; that, in the language of the sea, was plain to every sea-faring man.

The circulation was small—there was no other medium, but Crusoe kept at it, despite the fact that he got no inquiries for a long time. He changed his copy—as one garment after another was frayed out—and in the end got what he wanted.

Suppose Crusoe had taken down that signal after a time and declared "Advertising doesn't pay." Where would he and his story be now?

Put up your signal and keep it there. Crusoe advertised under very discouraging circumstances. You've got a sure thing—it is only necessary to have the patience, persistence, and pluck of Robinson Crusoe—and the good ship "Better Business" will

Have you a good memory? Here's a chance to test it. A prize could be offered to the boy or girl who remembers the most objects placed on a table. Cover a small table with a variety of articles. There should be about twenty-five different things on the table. Put some papers or a cloth over these objects, and then after all of the boys and girls have gathered around the table lift the cloth just long enough for them to get a good look at everything and then put the cover back on. Then give them five minutes in which to sit down and write a list of as many things as they can remember. Be sure to have pencils and paper all ready. Someone will have to check the list and see who has the most correct. A nice big fat doughnut could be given for the prize!

Flump Doughnuts

Don't they hit the spot? I'll bet dollars to doughnuts there's nothing kiddies like better than doughnuts, especially when they're made like this:

- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup melted milk
- 2 cups self-rising flour (about)
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Beat egg, add sugar and milk then the self-rising flour. (Baking Powder and salt are mixed with the flour), nutmeg and vanilla. The dough will be very soft and sufficient flour must be sprinkled on the board to keep it from sticking, work in just enough extra flour so that dough can be handled. Roll gently and cut with doughnut cutter. Fry in deep hot fat. Be sure to have fat hot enough to brown a crumb of bread when dropped in kettle.

SEBRING COUNCIL PLANS TO MAKE CEMETERY BEAUTIFUL

In accordance with the action taken by the city council, Pine Crest, Sebring's cemetery, has been thoroughly cleared and cleaned, the work being done under the direction of J. Ross Blythe, local mortician.

This plot of ground is beautifully situated on a high knoll north of the city and consists of ten acres of wooded land. Numerous tall pines and large oaks add to the attractiveness of the place. Though some of the lots have been cleared and beautified, the greater portion of the grounds had been badly neglected, and the council has authorized extensive improvements. Besides the cleaning, a circular driveway of crushed rock has been built, making the entrance and egress a matter of ease and convenience. There is sufficient room for sixty cars on this drive. The Woman's Club has made it plans to set the circular plot within the drive to shrubs and flowering plants, and a general campaign of beautifying has been inaugurated by public spirited citizens.

MARY PICKFORD IS A BOY IN HER NEXT PICTURE

The thing that will probably interest the public most about Mary Pickford's "Little Lord Fauntleroy," coming to the Avon theatre Tuesday as the feature attraction, is not so much the fact that she plays a dual role in this picture as that she takes the part of a boy.

Little Mary has played a dual role before in "Stella Maris"—but this will be the first time she has ever appeared as a boy throughout an entire photoplay. While it is true that she has worn masculine garb in some of her previous productions, she did so as a girl masquerading as a boy for the moment only. But in her film version of Frances Hodgson Burnett's great story, Miss Pickford is constantly on the screen as Little Lord Fauntleroy or as his mother; in fact, much of the time she is there both as the mother and the little lord, with the aid of cleverly devised double exposure work of the cameraman, Charles Rosher.

HOME

All these happy couples, beginning now to face the battle of life together will find much to spur them on, much to encourage while they live in the comforting surroundings of a HOME.

HOME means everything to success.

Let Hart Make That House A HOME

EXTRAVAGANCE does not make a HOME. It is the master touch of a woman, aided by dainty, lovely and substantial home-furnishings that change the bare walls of a house into the inspiring seat of all success—HOME.

You Find Home Making Economical

if you let the Hart Furniture Company assist you. There are short cuts to delightful surroundings that the average man and woman never dreamed of, but which HART SERVICE has learned through experience and places at the beck and call of the newlyweds of Highland county.

We will find much to rejoice in through the common association. Our greatest delight is in watching the conversion of four walls into HOME. It takes us back to those days when we first made a home.

From the first start—perhaps it is only a dining suite you want now, or perhaps only a kitchen outfit—we are at your service. It is in your future demands that we find compensation for the SERVICE we offer. We want you to come back.

ALL ROUND PROGRAM FOR GENERAL FARMER AT STATE UNIVERSITY FARMERS' WEEK

The farm crops and livestock program of the Farmers' and Fruit Growers' Week at the University of Florida August 12-16, will be full of advice, suggestions, and information of special interest to the general farmer and stockman.

Results obtained through experiment on the Florida Experiment Station and practical farm operations will be thoroughly discussed. Farming is the backbone of our country, and it is important that we keep up to date in the latest methods of planting, cultivating, fertilizing, etc., under Florida conditions. Spreading of the farm crops and livestock program for the coming Farmers' Week, Prof. J. M. Scott, in forwarding the information to the farmers, said: "Our program will include lectures, and in some cases demonstrations, on pasture grasses, animal breeding, the common diseases of livestock and their treatment, feeding of the dairy cow and feed crops for farm livestock, farm lighting plants, the many other things just as well adapted to the practical interests of any person, firm or corporation, to Florida conditions. Our program is based on what we think the farmer needs and need, and has special appeal to the average dirt farmer."

Farmers are urged to bring their whole families to Gainesville for this week of farm and home study and instruction, as there will be something of interest for all. The program will include entertainment as well as study, Board and lodging for the week, and the cost of the program is a dollar and twenty-five cents a day, or just off the campus or up town at reasonable rates.

"And yet," the senator writes, "I am of the opinion that those directly concerned should have the benefit of the forecast made by the secretary and the commission in reference to the probable overproduction of citrus fruits in Florida."

"Hon. Duncan U. Fletcher, United States Senate, "Dear Senator:

"I have your letter of June 10, regarding the situation in Florida affecting the citrus industry here. I have discussed this letter with Mr. Tenning, acting chief of the Bureau with him several times, and he tells me that you spent some little time with him several days ago discussing the work of that Bureau in Florida. I feel sure that you are confident that the Department, is thoroughly awake to the need for additional research work in your State and I am glad to say that many of the things that you point out in your letter are needed are already under way."

"I do want to emphasize one point that Mr. Tenney made—that if the people of Florida continue to plant citrus trees as they have been planted for the past few years, the problem of distribution is going to be one that apparently has no solution. I am therefore particularly interested in the work that the Bureau of Agricultural Economics is doing in Florida in connection with the study of land problems and production costs. I do not know that there is much that we can do or perhaps that anyone can do to discourage further planting of citrus on the part of men who are interested primarily in developing properties and selling them to northern purchasers. This, after all, is the real crux of the situation in Florida, and unless some method can be worked out to restrict planting in the future, the problem is going to be an increasingly difficult one to handle."

"I wish to assure you again of the Department's interest in the citrus industry of Florida and in your problems there."

"Sincerely yours, "HENRY C. WALLACE, "Secretary."

In the report of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the application of the Florida Western & Northern Railroad Company to construct lines in Sumter, Lake, Polk, Highlands, Okeechobee, Palm Beach, Hillsborough and Nassau counties, Florida, it is stated:

"Shipments of citrus fruits from Florida increased from 4,634,587 boxes in 1918-1919 to 16,886,703 boxes in 1922-1923. The estimated shipments for 1923-1924 was twenty million boxes. Shipments of all perishables have increased from 47,476 car loads in 1914-1915 to 77,279 car loads in 1922-1923."

"No evidence was submitted to show the capacity of the markets to absorb the anticipated increased production of citrus fruits and vegetables. In considering this application we have not, however, overlooked indications of a prospective over-production of fruit and vegetables in Florida. There is reason to apprehend that unless arrangements are made for a wider and better regulated distribution of these products, the prosperity of producers may be injuriously affected by the production of more than markets will absorb."

4. Chevrolet transportation averages less cost per mile than that of any other car at any price. This cost includes the list price of car, insurance, depreciation, interest on your investment.

5. Chevrolet has the most powerful motor of any low priced car. Its supremacy for hill climbing and hard going is well known. Where there are more hills there are more Chevrolets. Why drive a slow car and hold up the line when it costs less to be a leader?

6. Chevrolet yields solid comfort in driving. The due to its long wheel base, correct body suspension on extra strong and resilient vanadium steel springs, well-sprung and padded upholstery, deep seats with ample leg room, and correctly inclined backs. The double ventilated windshield and cool motor make driving a pleasure instead of a discomfort.

8. Chevrolet is a quality car. You are proud to tell of your ownership of a Chevrolet. Your Chevrolet tells the world that you appreciate modern quality and are a good judge of values.

9. Chevrolet is built for safety. It steers firmly and easily and the steering gear will not lock itself. It holds to the road even at high speed on gravel. Its braking power is ample. It is easy to handle and accelerates so quickly it enables you to get out of a bad position promptly. It is one of the few cars granted Class A rating by the insurance underwriting.

10. Chevrolet is easy to buy and easy to trade. In buying a home, you always consider what you could get for it if you ever wanted to move. Be sure the car you buy has a good trade-in value, so that when the time arrives to get a new one, you can make a good deal. Chevrolet's trade-in value is high because of the big demand for the well-built, long-lived automobile.

Probable Over-Production Of Citrus Fruits Forecast

SECRETARY WALLACE AND REPORT OF INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMISSION IN COMMUNICATIONS TO SENATOR FLETCHER POINT OUT POSSIBILITY

2. Chevrolet is modern in construction. It has a standard sliding gear transmission, Remo electrical equipment, modern cooling system, suction fuel feed with tanks at rear, demountable rims, safe steering mechanism—in fact all essential engineering improvements found in the highest priced cars.

3. Chevrolet is fully equipped as sold. We quote prices on complete cars only. Chevrolet is all there, ready for use as soon as you put on your license plates. Compare the fully equipped Chevrolet with other cars, plus their missing equipment, and satisfy yourself with costs least.

4. Chevrolet transportation averages less cost per mile than that of any other car at any price. This cost includes the list price of car, insurance, depreciation, interest on your investment.

5. Chevrolet has the most powerful motor of any low priced car. Its supremacy for hill climbing and hard going is well known. Where there are more hills there are more Chevrolets. Why drive a slow car and hold up the line when it costs less to be a leader?

6. Chevrolet yields solid comfort in driving. The due to its long wheel base, correct body suspension on extra strong and resilient vanadium steel springs, well-sprung and padded upholstery, deep seats with ample leg room, and correctly inclined backs. The double ventilated windshield and cool motor make driving a pleasure instead of a discomfort.

7. Chevrolet's costs are low because so few hours per year are needed in service stations. Chevrolets are built to stay together, and do not require you to be always near a service station. When adjustments or repairs are needed the Chevrolet Flat Rate System keeps the cost down to the minimum.

8. Chevrolet is a quality car. You are proud to tell of your ownership of a Chevrolet. Your Chevrolet tells the world that you appreciate modern quality and are a good judge of values.

9. Chevrolet is built for safety. It steers firmly and easily and the steering gear will not lock itself. It holds to the road even at high speed on gravel. Its braking power is ample. It is easy to handle and accelerates so quickly it enables you to get out of a bad position promptly. It is one of the few cars granted Class A rating by the insurance underwriting.

10. Chevrolet is easy to buy and easy to trade. In buying a home, you always consider what you could get for it if you ever wanted to move. Be sure the car you buy has a good trade-in value, so that when the time arrives to get a new one, you can make a good deal. Chevrolet's trade-in value is high because of the big demand for the well-built, long-lived automobile.

Probable Over-Production Of Citrus Fruits Forecast

SECRETARY WALLACE AND REPORT OF INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMISSION IN COMMUNICATIONS TO SENATOR FLETCHER POINT OUT POSSIBILITY

Overproduction of citrus fruits is a possibility indicated recently in information obtained by Senator Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida, from the secretary of agriculture, Henry C. Wallace, and from a report of the Interstate Commerce Commission during the consideration of the application of the Florida Western & Northern Railroad Company to construct certain lines in the state.

In forwarding the information to the farmers, said: "Our program will include lectures, and in some cases demonstrations, on pasture grasses, animal breeding, the common diseases of livestock and their treatment, feeding of the dairy cow and feed crops for farm livestock, farm lighting plants, the many other things just as well adapted to the practical interests of any person, firm or corporation, to Florida conditions. Our program is based on what we think the farmer needs and need, and has special appeal to the average dirt farmer."

Farmers are urged to bring their whole families to Gainesville for this week of farm and home study and instruction, as there will be something of interest for all. The program will include entertainment as well as study, Board and lodging for the week, and the cost of the program is a dollar and twenty-five cents a day, or just off the campus or up town at reasonable rates.

"And yet," the senator writes, "I am of the opinion that those directly concerned should have the benefit of the forecast made by the secretary and the commission in reference to the probable overproduction of citrus fruits in Florida."

"Hon. Duncan U. Fletcher, United States Senate, "Dear Senator:

"I have your letter of June 10, regarding the situation in Florida affecting the citrus industry here. I have discussed this letter with Mr. Tenning, acting chief of the Bureau with him several times, and he tells me that you spent some little time with him several days ago discussing the work of that Bureau in Florida. I feel sure that you are confident that the Department, is thoroughly awake to the need for additional research work in your State and I am glad to say that many of the things that you point out in your letter are needed are already under way."

"I do want to emphasize one point that Mr. Tenney made—that if the people of Florida continue to plant citrus trees as they have been planted for the past few years, the problem of distribution is going to be one that apparently has no solution. I am therefore particularly interested in the work that the Bureau of Agricultural Economics is doing in Florida in connection with the study of land problems and production costs. I do not know that there is much that we can do or perhaps that anyone can do to discourage further planting of citrus on the part of men who are interested primarily in developing properties and selling them to northern purchasers. This, after all, is the real crux of the situation in Florida, and unless some method can be worked out to restrict planting in the future, the problem is going to be an increasingly difficult one to handle."

"I wish to assure you again of the Department's interest in the citrus industry of Florida and in your problems there."

"Sincerely yours, "HENRY C. WALLACE, "Secretary."

In the report of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the application of the Florida Western & Northern Railroad Company to construct lines in Sumter, Lake, Polk, Highlands, Okeechobee, Palm Beach, Hillsborough and Nassau counties, Florida, it is stated:

"Shipments of citrus fruits from Florida increased from 4,634,587 boxes in 1918

SPRINKLER SAVES SEBRING CITRUS GROWERS ASSOCIATION ON INSURANCE

Following the completion of the sprinkler system which has been installed at the Sebring Citrus Growers association's new packing house, the Sebring water works yesterday turned 50,000 gallons of water into the new tank which is a part of the system.

The packing house is now shut down for the summer, though in July the repair of the crates and minor adjustments and cleaning of the machinery will start. The office force is still in operation, figuring out returns, and issuing checks to the growers. In speaking of the report in a recent issue of the state papers as to a short crop, Manager J. E. Parker said that the crops in the Sebring vicinity would be of fair size. With the newly maturing groves, believed that they would have more fruit than ever this year.

Thrifty Tips FOR THE HOME
by J. C. H. H.

Potatoes: To bake potatoes quickly try boiling them in salt water for ten minutes before placing in the oven to bake.

Parsley can be preserved by drying thoroughly in a cool place and then placing in air tight boxes or cans.

Chicken: Try adding a thin slice of lemon when stewing chicken. This will improve the flavor and make the chicken more tender.

Vegetable Stains: To remove vegetable stains from the fingers dip them in very strong tea for a few minutes and then wash in clear warm water.

Food Chopper: Run fine and soap through the food chopper to sharpen the blades.

Wash Boiler: If the inside of the wash boiler is rubbed with soap while it is still warm, it will not rust, and it will help make suds when filled on next washing day.

Fish: Add a spoonful of vinegar to the water in which fish is boiled. This will make it firm and tender.

Brass: Paraffin is excellent for keeping brass door knockers and handles bright. After cleaning, rub with paraffin and then polish with a soft cloth.

Cucumbers: When planting cucumber seeds, place one or two nasturtium seeds in each hill. This will keep the bugs away.

Ink: Ink stains can be removed from mahogany furniture by mixing six drops of spirits of nitre with a teaspoonful of water. Touch the stain with a thin stick dipped into the mixture—then rub with a soft cloth and cold water to prevent a white spot.

Patent Leather: To make patent leather look like new rub well with a soft rag soaked in olive oil and milk. Then polish with a soft, dry cloth.

RADICAL CHANGES IN OPERATING METHODS OF CITRUS EXCHANGE

AMONG INNOVATIONS WILL BE A SALARIED ADVERTISING MANAGER AND GOVERNMENT INSPECTOR. ADVERTISING ASSESSMENT FOUR CENTS A BOX

Several radical changes in the operating methods of the Florida Citrus Exchange have been adopted by the board of directors, most of them upon recommendation of the advertising and sales committee. Among the innovations in the practice of the organization will be a salaried advertising manager and the utilization of government inspection. The matter of adequate inspection service pledged to the growers by

Robinson Crusoe Didn't Quit !!

One of the most persistent advertisers in the history of success was Robinson Crusoe. He knew what he wanted—a ship—and he put up an ad for one. He flung a shirt on a pole at the top of his island; that, in the language of the sea, was plain to every sea-faring man.

The circulation was small—there was no other medium, but Crusoe kept at it, despite the fact that he got no inquiries for a long time. He changed his copy—as one garment after another was flung out—and in the end got what he wanted.

Suppose Crusoe had taken down that signal after a time and declared "Advertising doesn't pay." Where would he and his story be now?

Put up your signal and keep it there. Crusoe advertised under very discouraging circumstances. You've got a sure thing—it is only necessary to have the patience, persistence, and pluck of Robinson Crusoe, and the good ship "Better Business" will the new selling plan has had very thorough consideration by the sales committee in conference with the sub-exchange managers and heads of the various departments of the organization. Recent developments in the inspection service supplied by the United States department of agriculture have caused it to be much more favorably regarded and the action of the board in adopting it was unanimous, the only condition being the ability of a special committee that will be appointed to make satisfactory arrangements with the government officials for a comprehensive and complete service, available by the beginning of the next shipping season. A practical packing house man will be retained by the exchange in the position of chief inspector, his duties to be somewhat general and his work to cover the entire citrus territory of Florida.

Bulk Fruit Shipments
The advertising assessment for the coming season was fixed at four cents per box on all grades of fruit, as compared with three cents on oranges and five cents on grapefruit last year. Several directors wanted higher figures this season but motions to increase the same were unsuccessful. It was decided to drop the trade name of Florex, used experimentally last season. Increasing attention will be paid to the movement of fruit "in bulk" and this grade will be advertised in a local way to increase the distribution. "Bulk fruit," chiefly sold in cars on track and through peddlers, has proven so popular that many of the best informed fruit men connected with the exchange believe the trade in it can be built up to such proportions as to soon absorb all fruit falling below the "choice," thus eliminating the necessity for a second trade name like Florex.

Sub-Exchange at Large
An action of more than passing interest taken by the board was the passage of a resolution making possible the organization of "special sub-exchanges" or "sub-exchanges at large." The resolution providing for the creation of such sub-exchanges provided that they might be created for individual shippers or organizations, where such individuals or organizations ship 500,000 boxes of fruit, through three or more packing houses owned or operated by themselves. The resolution first provided that such special sub-exchanges should ship "their own fruit exclusively." It was changed to provide that they should ship exchange fruit exclusively. Provision was made to protect existing associations from any possible encroachments by such special sub-exchanges. At present this resolution will benefit only the Standard Growers' Exchange, which is operating five of its own packing houses. The Standard Growers' Exchange now has representation on the board of directors and the board provided that in future such representation must be arranged by special agreement with their body.

BIG FOURTH FOR SEBRING FOLK

Nothing disturbed Sebring's solemn but calm on the Fourth, even the old "fish" man having bled him to a more exciting place to spend the national holiday. Every place of business even down to the soda drink stands were closed, and there was nothing to distinguish it from Sunday but the lack of the colored comic supplement on the various front porches. A score or more of Sebring's went to Okechobee City, while the remainder with a few exceptions went to Avon Park to participate in the most enjoyable celebration ever given in Highlands county. The baseball team went to Alturas in the morning and won the game with a score of 5-2. The Alturas team had most kindly consented to play the game in the morning so that the Sebring team and fans could attend the Avon Park festivities. At noon the ladies of that hospitable town served the Sebring team with a most delicious picnic dinner.
