Founders' Day Is Observed by Parent-Teachers

Outstanding among the programs of the Parent-Teachers' Association for the year was the one held at the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, when Founder's Day was observed with an appropriate ceremony. Mrs. W. B. Archer, program chairman, announced the numbers.

A skit, "The Spirit of the PTA," was given with Mrs. John Bunting representing "The Spirit of the Past"; Mrs. T. J. Ward, "The Spirit of Today"; and Miss Mary Key, "The Spirit of the Future." Three tall white candles, in graduated heights and representing the past, present and future, suggesting the growth of the organization, were placed at intervals on an oblong table, and glistered amid an arrangement of blossoms and greenery.

Little Misses Winifred Archer and Betty Jo Wells stood behind a table on the opposite side of the stage and presented corsages to the honored guests. Both wore shiny ankle length dresses, fashionable and of net. Winifred was in blue and Betty Jo in blue.

Mrs. Bunting, representing the spirit of the past, said: "I am the Spirit of the Past—1897, in the city of Washington, C. Allice McLeellan Birney and Bebe Apperson Hearst started what is now known as the National Congress of Parents and Teachers in their day it was called the Mothers Congress."

Realizing the responsibilities of parent and the importance of a wholesome environment, Alice Birney started the Mothers' Congress to help the mothers toward a larger appreciation of their responsibilities as guardians of the child life of the nation.

Mothers everywhere became interested in the opportunities given them to read, learn and exchange ideas in homemaking and child-rearing.

Later fathers were interested in the organization, and then the importance of home and school cooperation brought about our present organization known as the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Those founders could not have dreamed of the vastness of the organization which they set into motion on that day in February, forty two years ago. They intended that it be national in scope, but never did they realize it would grow to be such a vital force in the nation, the states, and communities as it is today.

So, in memory of Alice McLeellan Birney who organized the first Congress of Mothers, and of Mrs. Bebe Apperson Hearst who gave her financial aid to the project—I light this candle—(lights small candle.)

Mrs. Ward, in her representation of the Spirit of Today, continued:

AUXILIARY TO MEET MONDAY

The meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, which was to have been held at the Legion home Monday night, will be held, instead, at the home of the president, Mrs. Earl Hartt. The change is made, as the chamber of commerce plans to use the Legion home for a special meeting. All Auxiliary members please take note. This is a business meeting, and the time is 8 o'clock.

Reeves Renamed Principal Avon Park Schools

The county board of public instruction, at their meeting Tuesday renamed Dr. Stanley N. Reeves as supervising principal of the Avon Park schools. The action was taken upon the recommendation of the local trustees.

The board also authorized the completion of the vocational building in Avon Park, which needs a wooden floor. W. J. Heim will supervise the work. The necessary fill between the building and the curb, as well as on the east side of the building, was also approved by the board.

Charlie Walker Talks on Citrus To Rotary Club

C. H. Walker, the largest grower of grapefruit in Florida, was the speaker at the weekly Rotary luncheon Wednesday, and discussed the "Citrus Industry, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." Mr. Walker does not think, he said, that cutting wages is the thing to do to help the present citrus situation, and he thought the grove and other workers should be paid a living wage. He stressed the point that the citrus industry affects the whole community, and that everyone should work together to remedy the situation.

He reminded his listeners that there have been bad years in the past, when fruit sold as low as 50 cents a box. At that time not so much fruit was grown, and there was not such a demand, as people had not learned to eat citrus fruit as they do now. After 1910, cold weather and shorter crops brought better prices, there was a greater demand for citrus fruit, and more groves were developed. The price rose from $1 to $4 a box. In February, 1929, the prices were again lower, but rose to $2 a box in March of that same year.

Mr. Walker expressed the view that the large volume of fruit grown had been given too much publicity, with too little stress laid upon the health qualities. He said that chain store drives had proven successful in the past, but are not today. Although the price has been set at 32 cents a box, there is a lack of confidence in the buyers and canners, as they are afraid the price will break lower by action of some chiselers.

Mr. Walker said he thought if the growers would destroy their third grade fruit, and ship only the first and second grades, that they would make more money. And, he continued, we must have organized selling to combat organized buying.

The speaker said he thought we needed only 50 dealers, where we now have 400 operating in the state. Most of the buyers compete against each other. California (Continued on page eight)

Highlands Fifth Among Counties At Tampa Fair

Highlands county won fifth place in the major county competition at the DeSoto Exposition in Tampa, when the awards were tabulated Wednesday. Highlands received a check for $655. Manatee county took first prize; Pasco was second; Palm Beach took third place, and Polk fourth. Highlands won a total of $1182 in cash prizes.

The score sheets revealed the close competition and the difficulty the judges had in naming the winners. In citrus the score was: Manatee, 960 out of a possible 1000; Highlands, 944; Polk 940; Lee, 931; Palm Beach and Pasco, 863; Hernando, 769; Pinellas, 767.

In vegetables: Manatee, 980; Palm Beach, 958.5; Lee, 947.6; Highlands, 939; Polk, 929.8; Pasco, 904; Hernando, 822.9.

In minor classifications awards were made in the order listed:

Tropical fruits: Highlands, Lee, Palm Beach, Manatee and Polk.

Chemically preserved fruits: Highlands and Manatee.

Sugar cane: Palm Beach, Highlands, Marion, Pasco, Alachua, Levy and Hernando.

In the individual entries, Demos Mandis, Avon Park, was first with Japanese cane; Bryant Farms, Avon Park, first celery; Whitehouse and Thompson, Sebring, first in turnips; Dr. Clements, Lake Placid, won first, second and third with bananas; Jack Taylor, Lake Placid, first with Lula Avocados; W. F. Ward, Avon Park, first and second with Taylor Avocados; Ward also won first for Linda Avocados and first for Nabal Avocados.

For Abacca Pineapples, E. E. Schaefer, Avon Park, won second and D. S. Radebaugh, third; for Spanish pineapples, W. S. Padgett, Fort Bassenger, won first.

L. H. Park, Avon Park was awarded first and second for his paintings.

Mrs. Rob Mason, DeSoto City, won first and second for jellies, jams and preserves. Mrs. Louis Alsmeyer won first for panayas.

In the cattle entries in the stock exhibits, N. E. Jackson and R. J. Hargrove of Venns won two firsts, four seconds, and two thirds for their exhibit of Devon cattle.

Highlands county, as in other years, featured chemically preserved fruit, 121 varieties in crystal clear containers. County Agent Louis Alsmeyer is in charge of the exhibit, and said that this part of the display would be used in the Florida exhibit at the New York World's Fair.

The exhibit has a central display of a scene in Highlands Hammock with a log cabin built of citrus. An exhibit of sugar cane fills one end and a mountain of vegetables rises to a painted truck field as a background.

Ministers Attend Institute Here of Episcopal Church

The Very Rev. Raimundo de Oviés, Dean of St. Phillips Cathedral, Atlanta, conducted an institute on Marriage and Family Relations at the Church of the Redeemer Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Dean de Oviés, who was formerly chaplain of the University of the South at Suwanee has had wide experience in the field of practical psychology.

The following ministers were present: The Rev. Chas. R. Palmer, Daytona Beach; Martin J. Brann, Sanford; Thomas H. Young, John B. Walther, and Sidney Hopson of Tampa; Wm. A. Lillycrop, Sarasota; Gladstone G. Rogers, Lake Wales; Richard I. Brown, Avon Park.

The conference was held under the auspices of the board of Christian Social Service of the Diocese of South Florida.

City Will Use Touchton Palms For Beautification

The city council Wednesday night accepted the offer of Dr. W. C. Touchton to donate coco palms for street beautification, and referred the matter of placing the palms to the park commission. Dr. Touchton and other members of the park commission have expressed preference for the palms over other ornamentals for beautification work, and the offer of Dr. Touchton to furnish young palms followed. The park commission will offer these palms to property owners in a cooperative planting program.

Dr. A. Steiner appeared before the council and asked the council's sanction of the method of handling the tourist center recreational facilities. Under the present setup the equipment is owned by the Winter Guest Club, and an annual membership fee of $1.00 is charged by the club for players who use the equipment. Due to the fact that there has been some criticism by local residents of the club's equipment, Dr. Steiner asked the council to rule on the matter, and settle the question of whether or not the club has the authority to make such a charge and enforce the rule. He left a copy of the club's by-laws, and copies have been made for study by the councilmen, who deferred action until a later meeting.

Secretary B. H. Overpeck of the chamber of commerce, asked the city's cooperation in getting the baseball field in condition for the coming training of the Toronto Maple Leafs, who come here in March, and the council agreed to place the field in shape.

The resignation of Raymond Osteen as night patrolman was formally accepted, and the appointment of Robert Massey as night policeman was affirmed. Osteen's appointment to the fire department was also affirmed.

Dedication and Air Show Sunday At Avon Airport

Avon Park's municipal airport was formally dedicated Sunday, the ceremony being marked with the first annual air show, a colorful affair, attended by an estimated crowd of 3000 persons. During the meet, some forty to fifty planes were in and out of the airport, and stunting, trick flying, parachute jumping and contests kept the crowd entertained.

John S. Francis, local civic leader, made the dedicatory address, welcoming the visitors, and giving a brief resumé of the history of aviation in Avon Park, which led to the building of the airport, and the new hangar, through the assistance of government funds.

In the photo hunt contest, Walter Haldeman of Lakeland, brother of George Haldeman, trans-Atlantic flyer, was first. He took an airview of the power plant, flew over the spot, identified it, and returned to the field within 3 1/2 minutes. Leonard Witt, Detroit, was second, his time being 37 minutes.

Firman Church, former Avon Park flyer, now manager of the Sarasota airport, won the paper straddling contest, making two circuits with his plane through a roll of paper in 15 seconds, claimed to be a world's record by field officials.

Quill J. Hazellief, Fort Pierce, won the spot landing contest, setting down his ship within 16 feet of the marker. Leonard Witt was second at 37 feet.

J. L. Wells, airport manager and Cessna dealer, gave a demonstration of the Cessna plane.

George Williams made an "umbrella jump" from a plane flown by Wayne Maynard. He let go of his umbrella at about 2000 feet and landed safely via the parachute route.

Firman Church thrilled the crowd with acrobatics, flying a small Argo biplane, which he put through its paces in inverted flying, slow rolls, snap rolls, loops and tail spins.

Wayne Maynard, assistant manager and instructor of the local airport, gave a flying exhibition, showing how to fly. He did loops with the wheels of his plane touching the ground with each loop. He took off and landed on one wheel. He ran his plane under the ground with one wing cutting the grass, and did everything imaginable that a flyer should not do, but landed right side up and got a big hand. He used a 40 horse power Cub for his stunts.

Firman Church and George Starr, Lansing, Mich., put on a dog fight, showing military maneuvers, and Starr did sky writing.

Charles Zmuda, bat wing jumper, of Lansing, Mich., ended the show with a 10,000 foot delayed parachute jump from Starr's ship. He leaped from the plane and saved with his bat wings to the 2000 foot level when he pulled the cords of his chute and landed safely on the field.

The show was preceded by a big aviation ball at Highland Lakes Casino Saturday night, attended by visiting airmen and local people.

Charles Abel, Daytona Beach, world's record glider pilot announced the numbers over the loud speaker, explaining each act to the enjoyment of the spectators.

The show was staged by the aviation committee of the chamber of commerce.

Watch for the date of the O. E. S. Colonial Silver Tea.

Well, it won't be long now before the old folks who placed their trust and faith in a flock of political promises find out just where they stand for this week the congressional "ways and means" committee will give consideration to the Townsend plan.

Most of the politicians who galloped around during the last election all broke out with "Townsend" buttons and swearing allegiance in all the languages including the Scandinavian, are now more or less "cooled off" and my personal guess is that the trustin' oldsters will awake to find that all is not gold that glitters.

Florida, however, is destined to play an important part in the coming hearing as "Little Joe" Hendricks, true to his pledge, is doing everything in his power to push the Townsend program thru the house and is scheduled to appear before the committee to plead its cause.

During his recent campaign, Claude Pepper climbed out on the Townsend limb so far that he hasn't any more chance than a rabbit of crawlin' back without fallin' and breakin' a leg, to say nothing of his promise—if he fails to appear before the committee wavin' the Townsend banner and eulogizin' like a circuit ridin' preacher.

Pat Cannon, Townsend-ed into the House, can be depended upon to stand hitched and Senator Andrews with the matter of re-election staring him in the face will probably concur that adequate provision for the "old folks", is in order.

"Old Age Security" under the present set-up is far from pleasing to anyone and my guess is that something more sane and intelligent will replace it. Neither employer nor employer feels the least bit secure under the present arrangement and while neither the politician nor the public have any intelligent conception of just what the Townsend proposal really is, the chances are that out of it will come an entirely new set-up to provide for the nation's aged.

New Deal efforts to solve the problem have not endeared the party in the hearts of their countrymen and while the matter may not be settled in the present congress, it will certainly prove to be an annoying "monkey wrench" that will probably stay in the hair of politicians throughout the entire session.

Last week Dr. Francis E. Townsend appealed to Burton H. Schoepf of Tampa for help and invited him to Washington to sit in on conferences prior to the congressional hearing which starts this week.

For two years Schoepf has been studying the Townsend plan and is probably better posted on its provisions than any other Floridian. At the request of Dr. Townsend, Schoepf has consented to appear before the Congressional committee, as a business man favoring the plan, and will plead its cause on that basis.

All indications are there'll be plenty of fun and excitement in Washington during the next few weeks as the hearing progresses, and while I doubt seriously whether anything will come of it or that the matter will be settled in the present session, it is evident that plenty of honest (or maybe I should say dis-honest) sweat will be shed before the conference is over.

Lincoln Day Dinner Speakers

Personally, I have never dis-counted Doctor Townsend nor his following and from close contact with political activities throughout the state I know that the Townsend advocates are sincere and mean business. They have placed their faith and confidence in the promise of men who have been elected to office and they are going to hold those men to strict account. Oldsters have been kidded and pushed around by politicians to the point where they are just about fed up; and for my part I am content that I have asked them no favors, solicited no office.

Four years ago I wrote the first press release favorable to Dr. Townsend and the Townsend plan, after hearing the Doctor speak at Clearwater. At that time I told you the Doctor and his followers were sincere and warned you that you'd hear a lot more on the subject.

Keep your eyes and ears on Washington as the present hearing progresses, for a lot of things, or anything, can happen. And the Townsend folks will tell you that "it ain't funny, Magee."

BOY SCOUTS

Meeting was called to order Monday night at the Scout House at 7:30 with fifteen Scouts and five visitors present, the small attendance was caused by the absence of all the band members who at the time of meeting were to our best knowledge in Tampa enjoying themselves. The meeting was called unofficial for this reason, so as not to jeopardize the scouts who are working for the attendance badge. Mr. Foster gave the boys a demonstration in boxing. The assistant scoutmaster worked with the boys on signaling, while Mr. Pilcher, the scoutmaster, worked with the boys who intend to become scouts, which by the way, reminds me that there is to be a tenderfoot ceremony for these boys Tuesday night at the Legion home. All scouts in uniform please be there. A special mystery night is to be given to all scouts who appear before the next court of honor for advancement. So boys, it's up to you. Remember only those who advance will be invited.

A camping trip is planned for the week end of the 17th. Let's hope for good weather this time. The assistant scoutmaster spent a night last week with several boys working on their cooking tests, and as he had to sample all of their meat and potatoes it is doubtful if he will be up and around for at least another week. It looks like we will all be in uniform in a few weeks, by the way Mr. Cossine is finally working for the boys to earn part of their uniform money. We surely hope all the boys do their part. Time to sign off now, seeing as I am only pinch-hitting for Scout Reporter Jimmie Hetherington who also took the day off to play around in Tampa, and not wanting to get in trouble with him, I had better quit while quitting is good.

Yours,

To Hold Clinic In Wauchula For Crippled Children

Saturday, March 4, will be a red letter day for the crippled children of this section of the state when a Crippled Children's Clinic will be held in Wauchula under the supervision of the Florida Crippled Children's Commission. At a joint meeting on Monday night of the Herger Williams American Legion Post No. 2 and its Auxiliary unit, the two organizations agreed to jointly sponsor this clinic on the above date.

A staff, headed by Dr. Le Breton of the Legion's Crippled Children's Hospital at St. Petersburg, will be in charge of the actual examinations. Every physician in Wauchula has cordially agreed to cooperate one hundred percent with the visiting staff. The clinic will be held at the new home of the Wauchula infirmary at the corner of Main street and the Dixie Highway and will begin at nine o'clock.

Children from the counties of Polk, Hardee, Highlands, DeSoto, Sarasota, and Manatee will be brought to Wauchula under the care of the county nurses from these counties. More than one hundred children are expected to be examined during the day.

Lunch will be served the children and nurses together with the staff at noon. Commander Miller has appointed C. Hanna of the Legion as chairman of the lunch committee while Mrs. Dan Cowart, president of the Auxiliary, has selected

Mrs. R. A. Taylor as her luncheon chairman. These two are already making plans to arrange a nourishing noon day meal. All members of the two organizations are subject to the call of this joint committee.

The children will also be entertained while not on call of the clinic. Manager Reuben Moore of the Royal theatre has generously offered a free show to the visitors and they will be admitted on tickets furnished by the entertainment committee. Nurses will be in charge of the little visitors at the free show.

Mrs. W. C. Lindsay, R. N., was present Monday night and urged that the clinic be sponsored, at the same time giving a very interesting report of the work now being done at the Legion hospital in St. Petersburg. She stated that this is the only hospital of its kind in the world, sponsored by the American Legion.

There will be a large expense incident to holding the clinic, and for this reason, every crippled child in the counties comprising the third district should be brought here as preparations will be made for them whether they take advantage of this service or not. There will be no expense of any nature to the children and a full attendance is urged by the sponsors.

IT'S A HIT! The NEW Firestone CHAMPION TIRE

Because IT'S THE ONLY TIRE MADE WITH THE NEW SAFETY-LOCK CORD BODY and GEAR-GRIP TREAD

CAR OWNERS everywhere are acclaiming the extra blowout protection and non-skid safety of the new Firestone Champion Tire. And automobile manufacturers, knowing its outstanding performance, have adopted it for their new 1939 models. On every hand you hear, "It's the most effective tire we have ever had on wet pavement and in mud and snow!" It's the hit of 1939!

The Firestone Champion Tire is a completely new achievement in safety engineering and the result of a new and revolutionary means of locking greater safety into the cord body of a tire. This is accomplished first, by the use of a new type of tire cord called "Safety-Lock," in which the cotton fibers are more compactly interwoven to give greater strength. And then the fibers in each individual cord, the cords in each ply and the plies themselves are all securely locked together by a new and advanced Firestone process of Gum-Dipping, which provides amazingly greater strength — and greater strength means greater safety.

The new Safety-Lock cord construction gives the added strength that makes possible the use of the new thicker, tougher, deeper Firestone Gear-Grip Tread, which provides remarkably longer non-skid mileage. This sensational new tread is called "Gear-Grip" because of its unique design which has more than three thousand sharp-edged angles that grip the road with a sure-footed hold to protect against skidding and to assure a safe stop.

Come in today and equip your car with a set of new Firestone Champion Tires, the only tires made that are safety-proved on the speedway for your protection on the highway.

AB JENKINS

World's Safest Driver

Ab Jenkins, holder of 87 world records for safety, speed and endurance, who has driven more than a million and a half miles on Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires without an accident, says: "On the speedway or on the highway, I insist upon the extra safety of Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires on my cars."

dream in the mind of one woman, to a living, nation-wide reality, and today, 42 years after its birth, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, with over two million members is a recognized major force in constructive social progress. Yes, recognized nationally, and internationally.

"And the program of service of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers still stands upon the basic principles advanced by those founders 42 years ago.

"Here in our own Avon Park, school we have had a Parent-Teacher Association for 12 years. It has always been recognized as one of the strongest associations in the city. Strong because of the leadership it has had down through the years. We honor them today."

At this time, the president of the organization, Mrs. J. Paul Gault, and all past presidents who were present were called to the stage and each presented a shoulder or corsage by the flower girls. In order named they are Mrs. W. C. Touchton, Mrs. T. C. Hobbs, Mrs. W. W. McFarland, Mrs. Otto Skipper, Mrs. Fred Patterson, Mrs. C. E. Lanier and Mrs. Garber.

And now a "poise" for Dr. Reeves, our principal who is always a member of the executive board and who gives much time and energy in helping us here in Avon Park.

But in this moment of meditation let us turn our eyes to the future. The great army of Parent-Teacher workers is assembled but where are we going? That is the question written on the horizon of a new day. Whatever the answer will be it must consider this changed world which we have helped to create, and of which we are a part. We must recognize the child as the center of civilization. The babe, down through the centuries, has been the foundation of our economics, social and spiritual developments—where men have realized this, education, religion, and industry has progressed, where they have not, civilizations have crumbled and tottered at their very foundations.

So to the youth of today, the citizens of tomorrow, we present rays of our candle of today. May it be a light along the trail of the future.

Miss Mary Key, in her part as the Spirit of the Future, said: "In the light of these material and spiritual achievements, we, the youth of today, the citizens of tomorrow, declare our faith in the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. We believe in it, we honor its founders, we endorse its principles, and we pledge our support."

"In order to carry this extension work to isolated territories of our own state, and other states of the union, girls will be at the doors with plates for the free-will offering, which goes to national headquarters.

"And so with high hopes, new zeal, fresh enthusiasm, the highways of the future lead outward, onward, and upward!"

Mrs. M. M. Ferguson of Sebring, talented vocalist sang several selections, her accompanist being Mrs. R. B. Twitty, also of Sebring. Her numbers were "Do You Know My Garden," (Haydn Wood); "Home" (Alexander Macfadden); "The Lilac Tree" (G. Gardiner); and "The American Lullaby" (Gladys Rich).

In a short business meeting which preceded the program room attendance prizes were awarded to Miss Elizabeth Green's room for the grammar grades, and to Miss Mary Key's seventh grade for the high school. H. C. Winnett, minister of the Church of Christ conducted the devotional.

Following the meeting a social hour was held, and dainty individual cake squares were served with punch. The punch bowl was surrounded by marigolds and ferns. Floor baskets of pastel shaded roses were used in other decorations of the auditorium.

Waffles for Gay Parties

Courtesy Schraff's Restaurant, New York

THE delectable crisp, golden waffle, aristocratic cousin of the democratic pancake, has taken on airs of late and now appears at many gay and fashionable parties or impromptu suppers.

There are chocolate waffles and bacon waffles, those containing fresh fruits, nuts, raisins and so on—all made by simply adding any one or more of these tasty treats to the original batter.

Here's a basic batter that lends itself to all kinds of variations.

Waffles:

2 cups sifted pastry flour	1/2 cup cream
1 cup milk	4 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup baking powder	1/2 cup white sugar
1/2 cup salt	1/2 cup white sugar
1/2 cup oil, well beaten	1/2 cup white sugar
1/2 cup sugar, if desired	1/2 cup white sugar

Sift pastry flour and measure. Add baking powder, sugar, salt and sift again. Combine egg yolks, milk and cream, add this to the flour, and beat to a smooth consistency. Stir in the melted butter and then fold in the beaten egg whites. Bake in a hot waffle iron. This makes 8 waffles.

Then there are all the decorative and delicious sauces and other accompaniments to dress up and vary the gay dish. Of course, there's the favorite butter and hot maple syrup combination, or butter and honey, marmalade or nuts. Then don't forget ice cream and butterscotch or chocolate sauce; or use them as the foundation for chicken hashed in cream or some other pot dish.

And here's a recipe Schraff's recommend for

Chicken Hashed in Cream:

1/2 cup butter	2 cups milk
1/2 cup cream	1/2 cup white sugar
1/2 cup white sugar	1/2 cup white sugar
1/2 cup white sugar	1/2 cup white sugar
1/2 cup white sugar	1/2 cup white sugar

Saute onion in butter for a few minutes. Do not brown. Blend the flour with the butter and onion. Add milk and cream. Cook until thoroughly done. Season and strain. Add chicken. Mix well. This serves 8 generously.

Citrus Outsell Other Fruits in Nation's Markets

Lakeland, Feb. 10 (FNS) — More millions of people are eating more millions of oranges, grapefruit and tangerines the past few weeks than in any other corresponding period, according to daily shipment statistics released here by the Federal State Marketing Bureau. At the present time, with total volume of weekly shipments from all producing areas averaging 5,000 cars, citrus is outselling all other fruits in the nation's retail markets.

With the close of the second of three National Citrus Sales drives, the credit for this real assistance for growers will go to the cooperative effort begun two years ago by the 37,000 members of the National Association of Food chains. This aid has been continued and augmented during this and last season by all types of distributors for fresh fruits.

C. C. Commander, Florida Citrus Exchange, commenting on this season's Marketing Problem,

In an exclusive article in the February Florida Grower said: "Remembering the success of the chain store producer-consumer campaign, which helped move the bumper grapefruit crop of 1936-37 when it was called the nation's number one surplus problem, growers knew that cooperation with distributors would bring practical results."

"The distributors once again offered their assistance and by the end of October, this season, word had gone out to all member stores announcing three nationwide promotion periods on citrus fruits, December 1-10, January 26 to February 4, and March 2-12. Co-operating with the food chain stores are chain drug and variety stores, and voluntary food chains. Store advertising in newspapers and on the radio has focused a consumer attention on citrus fruit values and employees have been instructed to carry on an oral campaign to increase consumption."

"Growers have welcomed this assistance from distributors," added Commander. "Both chain stores and independent stores have stimulated citrus consumption and are trying to maintain prices paid growers. The balance of their competing efforts has tended both to stabilize market prices and increase distribution of fruits."

Cow With Human Skin Is Novel Attraction at Florida Exposition

Tampa, Feb. 10 (FNS)—One of the most amusing sights to be seen at the Pan-American DeSoto Exposition here, and one which was unheralded and unsung, is the cow with the human skin. This animal, alive and on exhibit in its owner's display truck near the cattle show, has neither hide nor hair; its skin is as smooth as a baby's and so transparent that the veins can be seen plainly. No description can possibly do it justice; it really must be seen and felt to be appreciated. The owner, Mr. Smith, a former New York state trooper, charges no admission to his unique exhibit, but relies on donations from the visiting public.

Babson to Hold Business Session At Babson Park

Announcement is made that the twelfth annual Florida Business Conference sponsored by Roger W. Babson and Webster College at Babson Park will be held February 21, 22 and 23. The sessions will begin Tuesday afternoon, February 21, with a talk by John H. Boushall on the pan-American situation. Mr. Boushall, who is trust officer for the First National bank of Tampa, and vice consul for the Netherlands, has made many trips to South America and along the Caribbean and is well acquainted with this subject, a particularly timely one. His talk will be followed by one from Dr. Francis E. Townsend of Los Angeles, founder of the famous Townsend plan. Roger W. Babson will preside at this meeting.

Wednesday morning will feature local speakers on the general subject of diversification in Florida. E. B. Miller, Harold Struthers, P. E. Williams, O. F. Gardner and C. A. Reneger will be heard during this program. Wednesday afternoon's session will have as its first speaker Dr. D. Brewer Eddy, well-known missionary, lecturer and author, who will discuss the outlook for China and Japan. The second speaker for the afternoon will be Earl L. Smith, former Secretary of the United States chamber of commerce. Mr. Skinner will give his views on the outlook for business and government in the United States. Dr. Irving T. Fisher, economist and author, is scheduled to deliver a lecture Wednesday evening on "The Money Illusion," a part of the regular weekly Forum lectures which will be incorporated into the conference.

The sessions close Thursday morning with a speech by Prof. Earl L. Smith of Webster College on business and investments. His talk will be accompanied by an Open Question Period conducted by Roger W. Babson in which Mr. Babson will attempt to answer questions from the audience regarding specific commodities and securities. Mr. Babson has only been persuaded to do this twice a year, at Babson Park, Florida, and at Babson Park, Mass., at the time of their fall conference.

These business conferences are always open to the public free of charge and no reservations of any sort are needed to attend.

Charlie Walker Talks on Citrus maintains the price of its fruit and gets it, and their fruit is handled with confidence by northern dealers. The cut prices have hurt Florida in the north, and buyers are afraid they will be undersold by others.

In closing, Mr. Walker urged that growers pay attention to the vital things of the industry and do it themselves, not leave it to other people.

On suggestion of E. G. Todd, the club voted to help get memberships in the citrus growers organization. Committees will be appointed later.

D. G. Perry expressed his appreciation to the club for their assistance at the air meet Sunday.

AVON PARK, FLORIDA, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1939

SINGLE COPY: FIVE CENTS

Members Hear Progress Made at C. of C. Smoker

The chamber of commerce held a membership smoker at the American Legion home Monday night, in which an accounting of the activities of the organization and a discussion of plans for the future were given. Report of Secretary B. H. Overpeck showed a remarkable amount of activity, and in general terms was the answer to the oft-heard question, "what is the chamber of commerce doing." Unfortunately, for one reason or another, some of those who have asked the question were not on hand to hear the answer, but the secretary gave a comprehensive outline of the organization's activities.

As one of the major activities, Overpeck reported on the state hospital proposition, stating that the legislative committee which will recommend the site to the next legislature, will visit Avon Park next Tuesday, at which time they will be shown over the site which Avon Park has offered and will be given entertainment and information about the property and the town in general. Members of the committee are: Rep. E. P. Martin, Hillsborough, chairman; Rep. John Fahn, Leesburg; Dr. A. T. Eide, Highlands; Sen. Kanner and Sen. Tillman.

Overpeck listed the establishment of the Episcopal camp as one of the worth while accomplishments of the past year, in which the chamber of commerce played an important part. He stated that he has inquiries from responsible heads of schools asking about leasing the camp during the winter months.

He announced the annual carnival would be held in late February or early March, and Lester Armstrong was appointed chairman of the carnival committee. Other members appointed are Earl Hartt, C. E. Lanier, Walter Betts, A. McKee Elwell, C. E. Crabtree.

Crabtree, as chairman of the baseball committee asked that more help be put on the baseball field to get it in shape for the Toronto team which will be here in March. Earl Hartt reported that the city has money on hand for the job.

Three speakers made brief talks. They were L. R. Nichols, Wickford, R. I., president of the Winter Guest club, who expressed appreciation for the work of the chamber of commerce in providing recreational facilities for visitors. He suggested some improvements, such as roofing the courts in the Mall, and building a roque court. Nichols said tourists had a good feeling toward Avon Park, and he believed if more houses and apartments were built, tourists would be found to fill them up.

Charles H. Spencer, editor of the Newark, Ohio, Advocate, said he had been coming to Florida for 40 years, but had never thought of Avon Park until some friend suggested he pay a visit here. He came and liked it, with the net result that there are 14 Spencers here, some of whom will stay the winter. Spencer spoke of the lakes and the mall as chief attractions, and made a number of helpful suggestions for improving opportunities here.

John L. Templeton, department of commerce aviation inspector, spoke on the opportunities Avon Park has for developing the finest airport on the highlands. The local airport needs more hangar space and improved runways and lights to make it the best field in this section of Florida, he said. Avon (Continued on page eight)

PARK NOTES

(By C. S. DONALDSON)

THE FRAGRANT MYRTLE FAMILY

While serving as mayor of Avon Park I was visited by a well-to-do and kindly Jew who desired to know where he could buy a Myrtle which he wished to send to his brother in Richmond, Va. Now, the name Myrtle is commonly applied incorrectly to many different plants not related—Grape Myrtle, for example. I therefore asked him to go with me to the west end of Park 12 to see the golden leaved variety of the so-called "Roman" Myrtle (Myrtus Communis Variegata). As he looked at this very small bush his eyes lit up with pleasure, and he commented, "Yes, that is it, only it should be green." He was given the name of the nursery where he could buy the green foliaged Myrtus Communis. He added reverentially "You know that is the Holy tree of the Hebrews." I knew that this Myrtle was mentioned in the Old Testament (notably Isaiah 65, 13) but had not known that it was regarded as Holy. And yet I knew that the chemists distill the aromatic leaves of this plant into a French toilet water called Eau d'ange, or in plain English, "Water of the Angels," and that this had been done in Mediterranean countries for thousands of years, so that generally back through the ages the Myrtle in the eyes and minds of civilized mankind had been regarded as Heavenly. Among the ancient Greeks the Myrtle was sacred to Venus as the symbol of youth and beauty and was much used in festivals. Today one cannot buy a loving cup from the jeweler that does not bear Myrtle leaf decorations. Hence love and adoration still persist in association with the true Myrtle. Myrtle flowers are quite fragrant and the aromatic berries are used in medicine in India and Myrtle wine is made in Italy. Two little plain green Myrtus Communis plants from the government were set out last week at the east end of Park 18.

It is a pleasing floral sight when those Capejot trees frequently bloom through the year alongside the Methodist parsonage, as does also the large one in the center of Park 17. Its botanical name is Mollecula Eucalyptus, and it belongs to the fragrant Myrtle family. Out in its native home of Australia they crush the leaves and ship great quantities of their oil of Capejot, much of which come to the United States where it is used for chronic rheumatism and some stomach troubles, while in Malaysia it is the great remedy for cholera.

Punctuating the skyline in the Mall in front of the A. C. L. station are some Lemon Eucalyptus, another of the Myrtle family. The leaves of the Eucalyptus are also distilled in Australia and nearly half a million pounds of this oil are shipped to the United States. This is used in nasal sprays and in medical compounds.

In front of the post office are two bushes of the Feijoa or so-called Pineapple Guava (Feijoa Sellowiana). They make plenty of fruit, but this does not mature well in Florida. The main object of this planting is the great mass of showy roselike flowers every spring. As another member of the Myrtle family the Feijoa leaves are also fragrant.

A somewhat similar bush is its cousin, the Downy Myrtle (Rhodomyrtus Tomentosa) which makes a display of roselike blossoms. One of these is near the middle of Park 15. It is fruit is much like the big New Jersey huckleberry, and in addition is aromatic. Shipment of these berries is made from some parts of Florida.

Many Familiar Faces Among Toronto Players

When the Toronto Baseball club assembled at Avon Park on March 15th, citizens will recognize the faces of many of the players from former spring training sessions, as no fewer than seventeen members of last year's team are returning.

Jack Burns, the smooth-fielding first baseman who was formerly with the Detroit Tigers and St. Louis Browns, has succeeded Dan Dowley as field manager. The popular Dan is now General Manager of the club and his principal chore these days is to dig up new ballplayers for Jack Burns to lick into shape. Between them they have the nucleus of a winning ball club for 1939.

Lack of power at the plate is what prevented the team from clinching a play-off spot in the International League last year, and additions to the club since last September have been made with a view to supplying this deficiency. Two of the newcomers, Bill Schuster and Emil DeJonghe (pronounced DeYonghe), are almost sure to hit .300 or better which means that the club will win a lot of the close ones they lost last season for want of a base hit at the proper time.

Schuster is a shortstop and he is looking forward to a great season with the Leafs. Last year he batted .320 with the Montreal Royals, an impressive figure considering that he wasn't any too happy in Montreal, where he was playing out of his natural position at third base. DeJonghe, who succeeds popular Joe Gantenbein at third base, hit .310 in the Texas League last year. School Boy Rowe told Dan Howley that DeJonghe was remarkably conversant with the strike area and was one of the hardest guys in the league to pitch to. Little Gantenbein of course gets his big chance with the A's this spring.

The rookie Al Smith has a swell chance to win the second year job away from Flee Clifton. Manager Jack Burns likes Smith's fighting spirit, his rough and ready ways and his potentialities as a hitter.

So far the only new faces among the outfielders is that of young Tony Sabol who did his first year in the Canadian-American League last year. Clyde Engle, who scouted Sabol, considers that he has great natural ability and recommended his purchase to the Leafs over half a dozen other youngsters who showed better in the averages.

Ted Petosky is the only sure starter among the veteran outfielders. His great showing in the last month of the 1938 season, when he hit safely in 23 consecutive games and picked up 100 odd batting points, sweetened him with fans and management alike. Both Bobby Porter and Mayo Smith will have to hit consistently in the training session at Avon Park to retain their jobs. There is even possibility that Dick Henry, a first baseman by trade, will be tried in the outfield because of his ability to power the ball. The ball is still on the hunt for clubbing outfielders, and chances are that at least one of the proven ability will be added to the club roster before the regular playing season opens.

The pitching staff is in good shape despite the departure of its star, Joe Sullivan, for Boston. The Bee's have already sent southpaw Bill Wain to the Leafs in return for Sully and another hurler, as yet unnamed, is still to come. Jack (Continued on page eight)

Glee Club Sings For Rotary Club

The following program was given: "We Rock Away on the Billows Gay," "Sylvia," "The Galway Piper," "Where'er You Walk," "Duck on the Prairie," "The Prayer Perfect."

Negro Killed By Prison Farm Guard

George Johnson, inmate of the Highlands county prison farm was reported shot and killed Monday by Willis Ayers, prison farm guard. The shooting took place on the Arbuckle road, where the prisoners were working. The negro was said to have been in the line of fire between Ayers and two negroes who were fighting, and was said to have been shot accidentally by the guard when he approached the fighters. A coroner's jury returned a verdict that Johnson was shot by Willis Ayers with a pistol.

The shooting is under investigation by State's Attorney L. Grady Burton.

Ferd deAnguera is Tops as Fisherman

A 54-pound kingfish was entered in the fourth annual Metropolitan Miami Fishing Tournament by F. deAnguera, former Avonian, now residing in Miami, taking top position in the kingfish division, according to a report in the Miami Herald. DeAnguera made his catch from the cruiser Sea Foam, Capt. Henry Bond. It weighed two and one-half pounds more than the winner in the same classification last year, although it is several pounds less than the 62½ pound tournament record kingfish, the Herald says.

Tenderfoot Test Tuesday Evening

The tenderfoot ceremony of the Court of Honor for Boy Scouts was held at the American Legion home Tuesday night. Eight boys were admitted to the troop, in an impressive ceremony. They were Billy Archer, James Perdue, Doyle Perry, Henry Clark, Gene Clark, Jack Foster, Harold Porter, Arthur Carratt.

Following the ceremony, the boys enjoyed a weiner roast, under the direction of the Rotary troop committee. E. R. Brown, chairman.

Plans were announced for an overnight camp at Scrub lake. The boys were instructed to meet at the scout house at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. They will return home Saturday afternoon.

Orthopedic Clinic To Be Held March 4

The orthopedic children of Avon Park met at the elementary school on Wednesday afternoon. Wendell Gast, of the American Legion, Sebring, Mrs. Josephine Lindsay, field nurse for the crippled children's commission and Miss Alice Bleseth, county nurse met with them to decide which children will need to go to the Six County Orthopedic clinic to be held in Waukegan, Saturday, March 4.

Tin Can Tourists Invited to Come Here Next Fall

The Tin Can Tourists of the World, international organization of trailerites, were invited by the chamber of commerce this week to gather in Avon Park next fall, during their tour of the state, and Frank Van Epps, royal chief of the organization, here Tuesday to inspect camp facilities, said he felt sure the executive board would place Avon Park on its itinerary for a gathering of the clan here late next November. The invitation will be brought before the board at its meeting in Dade City the last of this month.

Van Epps, who met with chamber of commerce and city officials, said Avon Park had an ideal lay out for a trailer camp in Donaldson park, which he estimated would accommodate upward of 100 trailers, and he expressed the belief that at least that number would make the stop here next fall, if a few additional facilities were added. Lights, water, more toilets and showers are needed for such a gathering, he said. He looked over the armory, which he described as ideal for dances, which he said the Tin Canners go for in a big way, and said the club house and recreational facilities were all that could be desired.

Tin Canners pay their way, and ask little of the towns they visit, except proper camp facilities, he said. They provide their own entertainment. According to official government figures, trailerites spend an average of $2.10 per day per person while on the road, and each trailer averages 2½ persons, he said. The Tampa chamber of commerce estimated that the Tin Can Tourists' convention would hold there, left over $300,000 in Tampa. He said 114 new trailers were bought during the convention which was attended by upward of 5000 trailerites.

A visit to Avon Park would provide a stop over between the Dade City gathering which ends around Thanksgiving and the Arcadia meeting, which takes place at Christmas. In between the two, he proposes to establish a camp at Avon Park, when an official week will be designated for the meeting. But many trailerites come a week ahead of time, and many stay a week late, making a three-weeks stay for many campers. Some of these would like the place well enough to stay for the winter. "That would be up to Avon Park," he said.

These camps grow from small beginnings. Dade City, starting in a small way now has 250 trailers stopping there, he said. If Avon Park proves a suitable camp, more will come the following year. He said he felt safe in saying that 100 trailers would come for the first meeting, probably 500. The Avon Park camp would be advertised in the summer convention in Travis City, Mich., and at other gatherings.

Van Epps agreed to preside at the formal dedication of the Avon Park camp upon the opening of the camp next November, if the camp is approved by the executive board.

MEMBERS ATTEND MEETING

Included among the members of St. Margaret's Guild who attended the Woman's Auxiliary of the South Florida Diocese held at Christ Church in Bradenton Friday, were Mrs. E. O. Knicht, Miss Olive Knight, Mrs. Elizabeth McClelland, Miss Nellie McClelland, Mrs. George Voorsee, Mrs. Harriet Otley, Mrs. E. G. Todd, Mrs. Dmos Mandis, Mrs. J. M. Billman, and Fr. R. I. Brown.
