Educator Is Guest Speaker at Rotary

W. H. Pillsbury, superintendent of schools of Schenectady, N. Y. who has recently purchased the Shephardson home in Highland Lakes, was the guest speaker at Wednesday's Rotary luncheon. Trout Lake Band Camp Opens Here For Two Weeks

The Trout Lake band camp will open next Tuesday at the Episcopal camp and will run through August 15. The camp, for the instruction of high school band pupils, is sponsored by the West-Panola Beach chamber of commerce. It will be operated by the camp committee of the Episcopal Diocese of South Florida, which has operated four other camps successfully this summer.

Rev. Arthur Bridges of Hollywood will be camp director. Rev. G. G. Rogers, Lake Wales, will be assistant director in charge of athletics and program. F. M. Struthers, West Palm Beach, is director in charge of music.

The camp will be run on the same plan as other camps, except instruction in music will be stressed instead of church and biblical instruction.

Avon Park band members may attend camp for instruction and other activities without putting in full time, and at reduced rates.

School Board Gives City $3000 in Bonds

The county board of public instruction surrendered $3,000 worth of six percent street improvement bonds to the city this week. Comptroller D. F. Canfield stated. The bonds came into the possession of the school board in a batch of collateral received from one of the defunct banks. Canfield has sought for some time to get the bonds turned over to the city, and in view of recent land gifts by the city, the school board felt this should be done. The deal saved the city $4,800, as $1,800 interest had accumulated on the bonds.

Walker Named By Wallace On Grower Committee

Secretary Wallace announced Wednesday the appointment of G. H. Walker of Avon Park as the member for district 6 of a committee of growers to administer the federal fruit marketing program in Florida during the 1939-1940 marketing season. W. W. Master of DeSoto City, was named alternate. They will serve for Sarasota, Hardees, Highlands, Okaloosa, Glades, DeSoto, Charlotte, Lee, Hendry, Collier, and Monroe counties. The secretary selections were from nominees chosen by the state's growers in June.

Intermediates Have Interesting Camp

The Methodist Adventure Camp for intermediates, which is comprised of boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 16, and which has been held at Highland Lakes hotel this week, closed after breakfast this morning. A record attendance of 160, including the staff consisting of eight members and eight alternates, will act in an advisory capacity to the growers committee.

Miss Margaret Turner of Lake Wales, director of Young People's Work, was in charge of the camp, assisted by a competent group of instructors for the various phases of the work. Bible study, handicraft, group singing, a study of committee work that can be carried on in local departments, study of the Bible, and recreation periods made the week for the young people both profitable and interesting. Some of the classes were held at the Highland Lakes Casino.

An additional feature was the presence of the Youth Crusade Brass band, composed of four young people, who have been in the state for the past several weeks, conducting a series of meetings. Members of the group are Miss Dorothy Buntz of Westfield, Va., Miss Eloise Echols of Birmingham, Ala., Eddie Steffner of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Earnest Seckinger of Atlanta, Ga.

Among those from the Intermediates of the First Methodist church, Avon Park, attending the camp were Gladys Mingleford and Bill Jones, and Charlotte Orr who attended the day sessions.

FOSTER STAMPS ORDERED

Miss Martha Marsh, who recently returned from a visit to Washington, D. C., was advised by Mrs. Foster, by Congresswoman Lex Green, that efforts for an issuance of a special postage stamp honoring the noted composer Stephen Collins Foster, had been successful. There is a movement on foot, in the state of Florida, for the erection of a memorial to Stephen Foster, which will take the form of an amphitheatre seating about two thousand, and housing the world's largest Carillon, which are now on exhibit in the Florida building at the World's Fair, and a life-size statue of Foster. This memorial will be built on the banks of the Suwannee River at White Springs, and will be used for music festivals.

Three Youths in Jail for Stealing From Avon Homes

Three Moore Haven youths were taken into custody last week and the Highland county officers for the theft of a quantity of goods stolen out of three Avon Park homes and a number of homes in other parts of the county. The boys, Paul Thompson, Leon Thompson, 20, and John Karl Seavey, 18, were arrested by Deputy Sheriff E. G. Long and Marshall Tom Bozeman of Lake Placid. They are in the Highlands county jail awaiting a hearing. Having signed confessions, they intend to plead guilty.

The robberies were committed over a period of the last four weeks, Deputy Long said, and most of the goods had been recovered. Most of the loot was found stored in a houseboat in Lake Okaloosa. Some of the items were found in the possession of people to whom it had been sold for small sums. Some small finery had been given to girl friends.

In the recovered goods was found a mixer, watch, vibrator and small motor stolen from the home of C. E. Lanier; a mixer, a vacuum cleaner, a radio, a clock, dishes, silverware and linen from James Atchison's home, all in Avon Park. A typewriter, a radio, a clock, a vacuum cleaner, a radio, a clock, dishes, silverware and linen from James Atchison's home, all in Avon Park. A typewriter, a radio, a clock, a vacuum cleaner, a radio, a clock, dishes, silverware and linen from James Atchison's home, all in Avon Park.

It was the Barton robbery that proved the undoing of the youths. Paul Thompson was picked up on the road near Lake Placid by Marshall Bozeman last Thursday, and given a lift home. He was carrying the rifle wrapped in the bedspread, which he told Bozeman he had brought from his home in Winter Haven. But when Bozeman discovered his home had been entered, he reported to the sheriff's office and Bozeman was notified that the rifle had been stolen. Bozeman immediately went after Thompson, catching up with him a few miles out of town. Thompson finally confessed and implicated the others. All of them have served terms at Marianna, Paul Thompson and Seavey having been discharged about two months ago. Leon Thompson has been out about a year.

In admitting the robberies, the boys said they had been hired to do, carrying the stolen goods in bundles with them.

Attorney General Rules Special Law Applies to County

Attorney General George Cooper Gibbs, in response to a request for an opinion on the constitutionality of State R. A. Gray, last Tuesday gave a ruling that the population law, passed several years ago as a local law for another county, applies to Highlands county now and as a result members of the board of county commissioners and county school boards must be nominated county-wide.

County Attorney M. R. McDonnell had previously given the board of county commissioners a similar ruling.

The law applies only to counties with a population of not less than 10,000 and not more than 11,000 according to the last official census.

Directors Named For C. of C. in Election Tuesday

The board will meet next Tuesday to organize and elect officers.

State Motor Vehicle Commissioner D. W. Findlay announced this week there would be some delay in proving County Judges with drivers license application blanks. These will not be ready until August 15.

GOVERNOR?

FRED L. TOUCHTON, Avon Park Druggist

The State Press Says:

Fred Touchton Heads List—

ARCADIA ARCADIAN: According to the latest listing of gubernatorial prospects, which may or may not properly represent public opinion, Fred L. Touchton, former senator from Dade City and now an Avon Park druggist, stands at the top of the list with a 5 to 1 rating as candidate for governor in 1940. Senator Touchton is an avowed candidate for the nomination and his stock seems to have been rising ever since his name was first mentioned a few months ago. As a state senator he had an enviable reputation as an advocate of measures for the good of the state and its people, and his friends over the state seem to think he is first class material for the highest office in the state.

Active Candidate—

LAKELAND LEDGER: Fred Touchton, former senator from Pasco county, is an active candidate for governor, one infers from reports from Avon Park, where he is now residing. Mr. Touchton, a druggist, is a man of fine personality and enjoys much popularity where he is known. How far he will get in the race for governor will be determined by developments next winter and spring. This is the open season for all candidates now.

In that "Bunch of Fellers"—

FLORIDA TIMES UNION: Fred Touchton, our old druggist friend from Dade City, where he made a mighty fine State senator for his district, now located in Avon Park, is going to be in that bunch of "fellers" who will seek the gubernatorial nomination in 1940.

Fred is not saying much, but keeps on "sawing wood" for those political fences that he is building, and his stock is going up in the prognostication pool operated out of Jacksonville. He is a mighty likeable, intelligent fellow. He has one political asset that always makes friends; that is a smile and a friendly word, and you learn to like him as you get to know him.—Pahokee News.

Touchton Tops List—

ZEPHYRUS NEWS: Former State Senator Fred L. Touchton of Pasco county, now residing at Avon Park, Florida, took a 5 to 1 choice, leading all other gubernatorial candidates this week. ONE HOT DISH IN EVERY MEAL

Helps Keep Digestions Happy In Warm Weather

Says Dorothy Greig

Chicken-Vegetable Soup followed by cold sliced meat and salad tempts

When hot weather blankets us we turn to cold food, chilled food, iced and frosted and frozen foods, delicious and cheering to willing spirits — understandable, of course, but we mustn't overdo it. A whole meal of cold food, for instance, is sheer assault and battery on our insides. It puts a big burden on digestion.

We all need a little hot food, no matter how high the temperature rises. In planning summertime meals, therefore, it is wise to include at least one hot dish in every meal — preferably at the beginning of the meal. The gentle stimulation of warm food starts the gastric juices flowing properly. Also, a balance of hot and cold food keeps the appetite up and makes each dish more enjoyable.

Soup is one of the easiest ways of getting a hot dish into a summer meal. Nothing could be simpler than opening a can of soup, adding an equal quantity of milk, water, and heating. Soup is stimulating, it is nourishing and it leaves no heavy aftertaste. For instance, a meal that starts with soup can then be followed by cold fish and the meat and fish more appetizing for the contrast. Or, on the other hand, when you begin with chilled tomato or fruit juice or jellyed soup, follow it up with a hot main dish. Here are two meal plans that show how it works out. In one, you will notice, we serve hot meat and the following day we serve it cold and use a delicious light hot soup as our hot dish in that meal.

Jellied Consommé
(condensed consommé jelly in the can in the refrigerator on a warm day.)
Braised Tongue with Vegetables
(the hot dish in this meal — see recipe below)
Beef with Lentils and French Dressing
Bread and Butter Pudding
Iced Tea

1½ beef tongue (3-4 pounds)
3½ cups carrots, sliced
2 cups potatoes, sliced
2 cups celery, sliced

Mrs. Raab Honored at Lovely Party

Mrs. Katherine Bristol and Mrs. E. C. Maxwell were hostesses last Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. Bristol, at a delightful party, given in honor of Mrs. John D. Raab on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. The affair came as a complete surprise to the honoree.

The party rooms were attractively decorated with bowls and vases of snap dragons, gladioli, and dahlias, in a variety of summer colors.

Shortly after the arrival of the guests, a telegram was delivered to Mrs. Raab, with appropriate greetings and instructions for a treasure hunt. As the following clues given and found the packages, they proved to be jokes on both herself and the other guests present, and created much amusement.

After the treasure hunt was ended, and Mrs. Raab returned to her chair, a table piled high with lovely and useful presents was presented to her. The many attractively wrapped gifts were opened and admired.

During the evening, pencils and paper were passed, and each guest wrote a few lines of poetry, which were given to the hostesses. Mrs. Bristol read a humorous poem entitled, "We Girls."

Mrs. Raab, in her usual pleasant and endearing manner, made a short "speech," weaving in the thought that she was so happy to have been remembered in this way, and that she was glad to see up of both her old and new friends.

Late in the evening, the guests were invited to the screened back porch, which overlooks the lake, and were seated at two tables. One table had for its centerpiece, a pottery bowl, filled with pink and red roses, and the other was centered with the beautiful white birthday cake, fashioned into a pretty picture on a high crystal cake stand. The cake was decorated with snowy white coconut and held 16 glowing birthday candles. All made a wish on the high crystal cake.

CHURCHES

UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Dr. Alfred C. Elliott, Pastor Sunday, July 30: Sunday School, with classes to suit all ages, at 9:45 a. m., in charge of Superintendent J. Paul Garber. The lesson for the day is "Jehoshaphat: A Life of Obedience." Jehoshaphat was one of the good kings of Judah. He had a godly father, from whose influence and example he learned the value of obedience. Obedience to God's laws brought true happiness and genuine prosperity to Judah during Jehoshaphat's reign. Disobedience to God's laws brings its punishment to individuals and nations. The world is suffering today because so many of its people in many lands have thrown off their allegiance to God, forsaken His ways, and broken His laws. The only way to regain prosperity and improve the deplorable conditions from which the world is now suffering, is for the people everywhere to return to God, rebuild the altars of our Christian faith, and to obey the divine law. Loving obedience and faithfulness to God are the surest safeguards of a nation's highest welfare. Every man who honors God and faithfully obeys the divine will, adds to the strength of the nation and helps to preserve it. Every man who ignores God and disobeys Him, is a disintegrating force in the nation's life and helps to pull it down. Let each one of us ask ourselves where we stand, and whether we are an asset or a liability to America. Come, and let us discuss this subject together in Sunday School on Sunday morning. You will profit by the experience and be glad you came.

Morning services of worship at 11:00 o'clock, when Dr. Elliott will speak on "Perilous Years." This is a message you ought to hear. Come and bring the family along with you. It is high time America remembered God and turned to Him. The Young People's Pilgrim fellowship will meet at 7:00 p. m. at the First Presbyterian church. The topic, "Understanding the Jew and his Problems." Young people are specially invited to attend and enjoy this hour of fellowship and frank discussion.

Riggs' Victory Brightens U. S. Tennis Outlook

By ROBERT McSHANE

NOT so sure of themselves today as the many calamity howlers who bade farewell to the United States Davis Cup chances when J. Donald Budge, latter-day scourge of the tennis courts, turned pro.

It was a sad, unhappy time for his millions of followers when Budge succumbed to the lure of a $75,000 a year guarantee. Amateur tennis in the United States, they croaked dismayfully, was all washed up. Budge was the only star worthy of the name, the only man who could give this country a fighting chance for the greatest of all tennis honors.

The recent Wimbledon tournament gave the prophets of disaster a terrific setback. Bobby Riggs, America's No. 1 dilettante, defeated Ellwood Cooke, another Yankee, in the all-American finals of England's great court event. The match was nip and tuck for five sets and then Riggs won out.

Riggs inherited the No. 1 position from J. Donald Budge. Tennis experts who saw the Wimbledon matches declare that he is a much improved player. The hand-drawn finale in which Cooke is pretty close to being the No. 1 racketeer, ranking a

The 30 first stringers on Northwestern's 1938 football squad compiled a B average in classroom work, all of which made Coach Lynn Waldorf happy.

According to Luke Sewell, veteran American league catcher, Charley Gehringer of Detroit and Luke Appling of the White Sox are the hardest A. L. players to pitch to. . . . Lefty Grove's son expects to enter Duke university this fall. . . . Boston baseball scries say the Red Sox aren't on top because other clubs in the league use second-string pitchers against the Yanks, first-stringers against Boston. . . . Gordon Drillon, outstanding Toronto hockey forward, is also a fine softball player. . . . Rowing is the oldest intercollegiate sport in the United States.

Coaches' Choice

WHEN coaches of the National Football league announced their selection of an ideal all-star football team, they drew both bricks and bouquets.

These widely separated offerings were the result of the coaches' choice for quarterback—Sid Luckman of Columbia. The name Davey O'Brien did not appear.

O'Brien of Texas Christian was named "football player of the year" in 1938. He was given a place on every all-star team, and received more publicity than any other two players combined. However, coaches thought he wasn't the man to quarterback their dream team.

The Texas Christian star has already signed a professional contract with the Philadelphia Eagles, and officials of that club are not at all reluctant in announcing he will set the league on fire. Contemporaries are not agreed on that score. They feel O'Brien is too small for the pro game, and prefer Sid Luckman.

O'Brien's record was magnificent. But it must be taken into consideration that his passing was done behind the greatest line of last year. Luckman operated behind one of the weakest. Luckman is the more versatile passer of the two. Davey throws a fast pass, and Luckman is more on the Friedman order, changing pace and distance to suit the occasion. Sid, bigger and sturdier, is physically more suited to the rigors of professional football.

Fistic Svengali

JIMMY GRIPPO, manager of lightweight Melito Bettina, has added a new wrinkle to the honored profession of pugilism. Jimmy is the proud possessor of an "evil eye."

A genuine hypnotist, Grippo demonstrated his novel training technique recently in Bettina's camp at Beacon, N. Y. Before every fight he hypnotizes his man, thereby giving him the courage of a lion, the speed of an eagle and the punch of a mile-deliver. All in all, Melito is a very dangerous citizen when transfixed with his manager's evil eye. Even his manager will admit that.

Grippe isn't fooling about the beneficial effects he says hypnosis has on Bettina. He points out that Melito has suffered only one defeat since he began giving him the "evil eye."

When this cantankerous Svengali goes to work on his leather-tongued Tiffney he first puts him to sleep with the old home-boys. Then he gives him instructions on how to gently massage his next opponent.

The black magic worked wonders on the last night when Melito dropped a decision to Billy Conn for the championship of the 115 pound division. A second match is scheduled for this fall.

Only one handicap exists. Bill Brown, New York boxing commissioner, declared that Grippe must do his boxing act before the fighters enter the ring. That eliminates that might be, from the spectator's standpoint, an enjoyable double feature.

The boxing commission also told Grippe that there could be no more pictures of him hypnotizing boxers. "They want to keep boxing serious. They don't want it to be like a magic show," said Grippe.

Quick Baking—Fruit and berry pies with lattice-style tops require less baking time than the regular two-crust pies.

Keep Oils Cool—Store oils, such as olive or vegetable, in the refrigerator. They are likely to become rancid when opened unless they are kept chilled.

Use for Leftovers—Leftover rice or macaroni mixed with cooked meat makes a good filling for green peppers or tomatoes. The latter need to be cooked only 20 minutes in a moderate oven.

To Inform You—Read the labels on canned foods. Many tell the number of slices contained in the can. Others give additional useful information about the contents.

Stains on Ash Trays—To remove cigarette stains from brass ash trays, rub the trays with a paste of salt and vinegar. Then wash them well in hot water and soap suds.

Washing Knitted Goods—When laundering sweaters or knitted suits be careful not to stretch them while wet or they will be too large when dried. Before washing, lay the garment on some light-colored paper and trace about it with a pencil. When it has been rinsed fit the garment into the tracing and lay paper and garment on it with a pencil. Well, the political crystal gazers are at it again and gubernatorial dope sheets are beginning to circulate in ever increasing number. Simple souls, inclined to place confidence in such prognostications will find the following formula helpful in forming an intelligent opinion.

Take the names of all candidates listed on the various sheets, add a dozen or so of your own, mix thoroughly as you slowly stir in several tablespoons of banana oil and a large gob of salt. Permit the mess to simmer in your mind for awhile then season with thinly sliced boloney and applause, garnish with the patter of the gum-shoe boys and bar flies, add a dash of street corner blarney and barber-shop blarney. Then you take a deep breath, hold your nose and make three guesses—wait a minute or two and if it comes wrong, hang up, you've probably got the wrong number.

But as folks seem to like guessing games and I don't know any more about it than the next guy and probably not as much, I assume it would be right and proper for me to drag out a turban, don a robe and add my own contribution to your mental delinquency.

Among them we find galloping about the state taking census of well located stumps and looking at platform planks are old "Romeo-dated Bill" Hodges, "Dangerous" Dan Chappell, "Burrhead" Ben Schoepf, "Feller" Ferdinand Warren, "Jovial" Jerry Carter, "Walter" "Booster" Fraser, "Red" Longhorn Touchton, G. Pierce "Good" (if he could) and a flock of others.

Again warning you that I don't know anything about it and your guess is as good as mine, I simply point the fact that Tallahassee's Hodges knows his way about and most of the answers but he's not as young as he used to be and campaigning calls for a stout heart and lusty lungs. He lost by a hair last time and his hair is thinner now than it was then.

Miami's Dan Chappell has it on the ball but last time it turned out to be an eight ball with him behind it. Don't discount him—he'll run a good race in spite of his previous defeat.

Jacksonville's Fuller Warren has youth, vim, vigor and a gift of gab that would make a tobacco auctioneer look like a deaf mite. He'll draw bigger crowds and entertain 'em better than any other candidate, but so did Jerry Carter and while they all called him "Amigo" they voted for someone else.

Tampa's Burton Schoepf, with plenty of business experience but no political sense, has Dr. Townsend's "Blasting" which Andrews, Cannon, Hendricks and several others can testify is a nice hand to draw in any man's game. Opponents will out-talk and out-box him, but he'll stay on his feet for he's no pushover.

Jerry Carter, although talked of as a gubernatorial candidate, will probably run for congress. If folks had wanted Jerry for governor they could have elected him the last time.

St. Augustine's Fraser, nourished from the "Fountain of Youth" has plenty of young ideas and has a good record. He'll appeal to the city folks but will have to be sold in the backwoods.

G. Pierce Wood is a doubtful starter, his pleasing personality, ability, and experience are offset with a Dupont label and the last legislature mess him up to where he would have more success leaping as a guy with "Ball" and chain.

Lex Greene, frequently mentioned, would be a sap to rely on for anything but reelection to Congress. A great campaigner, he'd carry his own district and hold his own in the state.

Then there's Jess Pariah, Harry Cole, Special Agent, Mark Wilson, John Martin, B. F. Pate, Francis Whitehair, Raleigh Pettaway, V. F. Miller and a number of others who should not be dis-

Florida Ox Climbs "Road of Tomorrow"

HERB Oscar the Ox, the toast of New York, pictured as he starred up the Ford Exposition's famous elevated "Road of Tomorrow" at the New York World's Fair. Oscar had just completed a 1,400-mile trek from Silver Springs, Fla., to the Florida State Exhibit at the Fair. Holding the reins is Bob Cobb, Oscar's companion and pilot. Seated beside him is Walter, in Miss Oyster Dean, the Florida State exhibit's director of public relations. Clustered about him are noted New York newspaper men who helped welcome Oscar. Seated on the shafts is Miss Gladys LaVance, trick rider and chief of the Ford Exposition's information service, who guided Oscar up the Road. An hour earlier Oscar had been officially received by Fair President George Whelan. Oscar left Silver Springs on March 18, and averaged better than twenty miles a day. Notwithstanding the fact that he wore out thirteen quarters of shoes, he arrived at the fair in good shape.

Oscar lived off the fat of the land, and gained 400 pounds during the trip. Bob Cobb, on the other hand, had to stay up nights to keep the curious public from disturbing Oscar's beauty sleep. Cobb lost 37 pounds. "I'm looking for a friendly truck driver," Cobb said at the World's Fair. "If I find him, maybe Oscar and I can bludge-kick some of the way back to Florida."

The Army Air Corps announced this week that they expect to have planes and men stationed at the new Southeastern air base at Tampa by April of next year.

Governor Fred P. Cone directed the State Welfare Board to take up immediately the task of investigating and certifying relief needs of thousands of Floridians dropped from WPA rolls under the 18-month rule. Recertification is necessary and their need established before they can be re-entered on the rolls.

Development of Istokpoga Section Showing Progress

Savannah, Ga., July 27.—The development of the Istokpoga farming section in Highlands county, is progressing rapidly, J. N. McBride, general agricultural agent said today.

"With the aid of a bulldozer and a treedoor, clearing is progressing rapidly," Mr. McBride said. "This machine consisting of two independent parts, a pusher bar carried ahead of the tractor's nose and a cutting edge below, can clear out one and a half acres of land in seven hours. The bar knocks down the trees, pushing them forward and exposing the roots. The cutting edge strikes at the roots and gnaws them out. It is a simple job. Sebring is experimenting with a blowtorch to burn out roots of the larger trees so as to make the work of the treedoor a simple matter."

The Istokpoga region has fine muck soil rich in mineral content. Situated as it is 28 feet above Lake Okechobee, 21 miles east towards the ocean, splendid natural drainage is afforded the section. The area is also in the arctic soil belt and flowing wells may be secured at depths ranging from 150 to 400 feet. Geographically, Istokpoga is located in the center of the peninsula.

In 1936, the Seaboard Railway built a ten mile spur into Sunvale from Florida so as to provide shipping facilities for the pioneer farming community. Climatic conditions are especially favorable to winter vegetable production," Mr. McBride said. Lake Istokpoga is approximately 15 miles long and 10 miles wide. This relatively large body of water has considerable tempering effect during cold waves and affords a decided tempering effect along the eastern side of the lake where the most desirable agricultural lands are located. Except for the drainage which is provided by the topography of the land between Istokpoga and Okechobee.

Sebring is clearing 1,000 acres for W. H. Melvin of Chicago, who is actively interested in this section. The Seaboard maintains an information bureau for farmers giving them the benefit of an experienced agricultural agent, R. A. Carlton of West Palm Beach. Last year the shipping of vegetables out of Istokpoga was most successful. The influx of new blood, new capital by the Melvin Associates should greatly aid in the development of Istokpoga which has become one of the great agriculture areas in Florida.

The lake is located about 15 miles from Sebring on the main line of the Seaboard. Perishables can be loaded for rail shipment out of the area as late as 9 P. M., being secured movement the same day on schedules providing third morning market in principle cities in the north, east and middle west. All vegetables from this region, last year one farmer picked 489 bushels of beans from one crop on one acre. Because of the rich quality of the soil, a great variety of crops can be grown.

One of the worst fires in the town's history occurred last May last week when six buildings were destroyed at an estimated loss of close to $100,000, following an explosion of unknown origin in a local grocery store.

Preliminary plans for the organization of the new Florida Road Patrol provided by the last legislature are being worked out by State Road Department officials. The new patrol will begin operations October 1st.

Southern Women Eager to Tell!

"One is bound to be gratified by the enthusiasm of Southern women for CARDUI!" says one of the Touting Reports now circulating a Query in Southern cities.

"Of the 1297 CARDUI users we have seen so far," she said, "1200 are 88 out of every 100—ad is definitely beneficial!"

CARDUI's remarkable success in helping weak, rundown women who suffer from headaches, depression, nervousness, and other symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, is explained by the way it promotes appetite and digestion, and so builds physical resistance. Try CARDUI!

Turtle's Nest Sent To World's Fair

A huge loggerhead turtle's nest containing 200 eggs has been sent from the Marine Studies at St. Augustine, Florida, to the Florida Exhibit at the World's Fair. The nest, encased in 390 pounds of Florida sand, will be buried on the shore of Fountain Lake in front of Florida's building. According to J. E. Wallace, naturalist of the Florida Exhibit, the eggs which were laid in June will probably hatch the last of August and will be the first ever hatched in the north.

Loggerhead turtles often live 800 years so these turtles hatched at the World's Fair may be flourishing in the World of Tomorrow in 2700. They weigh 500 pounds or more and on rare occasions when they are seen lumbering along a Florida beach they look like prehistoric monsters. They live in the ocean depths but in May and early June when the moon is full the females crawl up to the beach beyond the high tide mark and select a hole in the sand with their hind flippers to an average depth of 18 inches. A turtle lays 50 to 1000 eggs in a nest, then shovels the sand back over her eggs and crawls back to the sea. Once a female has started digging nothing can interrupt the completion of the task. After she has laid her eggs she pays no more attention to them and the young immediately find their way to the sea.

The eggs are soft and as round as a billiard ball. They are used to being jarred by the waves on the beach but on the fairground it is a problem to protect them from the jar of the night fireworks. The original nest was sent by Ralph Poole, director of the Marine Studies, exactly as found by driving a box down around the nest, shoveling the sand from the sides and inserting a bottom under it.

An elaborate entertainment program is being arranged in New York for the large delegation of Floridians expected to visit the World's Fair during "Florida Week," August 27 to September 2. A special tour at the low rate of $22.50 has been arranged by the Florida State Press Association, anyone desiring to go on the party can make application through their local newspaper.

The Florida Motor Lines report annually heavy tourist travel throughout the state for summer, with visitors turning to bus travel because of its comfort, convenience and safety.

Fire last week destroyed approximately 1,000 feet of docking on the east end of the two mile long Shands Bridge over the St. Johns River near Green Cove Springs, the damage is estimated at from $50,000 to $60,000 by Road Department engineers.
