Mother's Day Tea Lovely Affair of Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. E. S. Thayer was a gracious hostess at a lovely Mother's Day tea on Sunday afternoon, when she entertained at her home, 143 north Lake avenue, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Fred Patterson, of Lakeland, and her husband's mother, Mrs. G. P. Thayer of this city. Invited guests called between the hours from four to six o'clock.

The tea table was overlaid with an exquisite linen and lace cloth, the handwork of the hostess's grandmother. At either end of the table were tall white tapers burning in single crystal holders, to cast a soft glow over an arrangement of yellow and pink gerberas combined with blue hardy asters. A crystal bowl filled with yellow roses and white baby breath graced the buffet, and was flanked by white papers in matching holders.

Small cakes frosted in pastel colors, and tarts were served with tea, and miniature crystal trays held mints and gelled nuts.

Mrs. L. E. Doss poured from four 11 five and Mrs. Alexander Gilmour, the second hour. Miss Barbara Betts, Mrs. Edward Toudston, Mrs. John Daley, Mrs. Demmie Mandie, Mrs. Walter S. Betts, and Mrs. Walter Mandie assisted in the dining room, at alternating hours.

In the living room, in delightful contrast, were colorful bouquets of red roses, gazaras, and arrangements of yellow wild flowers and blue salvias, placed at points of vantage. A large copper bowl filled with yellow wood's blossoms, intermingled with blue salvias, on the front screened porch, added additional charm.

BPW Club Has Supper Meeting

The final meeting for the summer of the Business and Professional Woman's Club featured a delightful fried chicken supper at the home of Mrs. Katherine Bristol on Monday evening, with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Clark, as co-hostess. It was originally planned to enjoy the picnic supper on tables on the lake shore, but due to the inclement weather, it was served at Mrs. Bristol's home.

Miss Millie Pearson, vice president, presided at the business meeting held during the evening. All members were requested to submit ideas for the leading project for the club for next year, when it reconvenes in the fall. The club will then select a special project for the ensuing year. Final disposal was made of several pieces of furniture, and other assets, that had been accumulated by the club when it had a special room in the city hall. Meetings are now held in the homes of members or at the Customer's Room.

Attention: All Veterans of Spanish American War, World War I And World War II

Senator Wm. C. Clegg announced today that he intends to pass special legislation to provide for the payment of a service officer in each of the counties he represents which include Hardee, Highlands, DeSoto and Glades.

In cooperation with the American Legion posts in each county who would be asked to name the Service Officer, he will arrange to pay this Service Officer for the great amount of time the job will require.

These Service Officers will be badly needed to aid veterans of the Spanish American, World War I and World War II to prepare for the veteran all sorts of applications such as for discharge pay, hospitalization and the other special services to which veterans are entitled.

Senator Clegg said that the counties should bear this expense of the employment of a full time man and that in discussing this with Legionnaires that he had learned that the services of such a full time Service Officer would bring back more than ten dollars to the county for each dollar so expended.

(Paid political adv. paid for by friends of Bill Clegg)

Graham Bachelor of Dale City, tax collector of Pasco county for the past 16 years, and who has just been re-elected for the office for another four year term, was the guest Sunday of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Bachelor. Mr. and Mrs. Bachelor are the proprietors of the Palms Restaurant.

ANNOUNCEMENT

This is to announce the purchase of the restaurant formerly operated as Baker's Cafe, at the corner of Main and Butler.

Elect the PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE LEX GREEN

GOVERNOR

In Lex Green, the people of Florida will have a friend as Governor and no passport will be needed to get into the Governor's office or the Governor's Mansion in Tallahassee. The doors will stand open to the poor and rich alike, and he will humbly and wisely serve all of Florida, impartially, without prejudice, without vengeance and without fear. He will go to Tallahassee with no yoke around his neck except the yoke of the people of Florida.

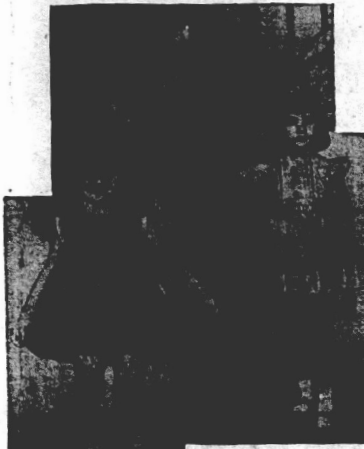

Lex Green was born on a farm in Bradford County, Florida, 52 years ago. He is a graduate of the University of Florida and has lived in Florida all his life. He was not reared in luxury, idleness, arrogance and aloofness. He has come up the hard way and can appreciate, from his actual personal experience, the problems of the man who labors for a living; the problems of the man who is struggling in his own business or profession; the problems of our youth who are ambitious for education and advancement; the problems of the meek and weak. Our returning Service men and women will have in Lex Green a sympathetic and helpful friend.

Lex Green is qualified through actual experience, character and knowledge to serve all Florida as Governor during the war and post-war period. Lex Green stands high in the councils of the Democratic Party and his character and achievements have been praised by our nation's leaders. Chic Cottons for Youngsters Are Gay With Pretty Handwork

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

WELL, well, look who's here! Most little daughters of the household posing right in the very foreground of the illustration. She wants to make sure that you take note of the charming black pinafore she is wearing, for it's the "latest style" and she has come to tell you so.

It has been the fashion among our Latin-American neighbors to dress their youngsters in black cotton. We have borrowed the idea this year and now it's quite the fashion-correct thing for little American girls to be wearing black pinafores. However, there is something sadder about these modish black aprons for they are gaily bedecked with bright embroidery, and, smartest of all, the new hand-painted decors.

There's an idea for you! Hand-painted designs on black material! The story-book motifs that decorate the pinafores pictured are hand-painted, which together with the pastel piping that finishes the edges all around makes a most lovely color effect. Not only is hand-painting enhancing cottons for the little folk, in the adult fashion world it's blouses that feature flower motifs done by hand with brush and color that are the big news. It is likewise on party frocks and the "last word" is the hand-painted bathing suit.

Cute as a button is the little lady centered above in the group. She is wearing a trim striped cotton frock decorated with ready-cut cotton cherry appliques. These appliques come in their own packages with complete sewing instructions. It's good to have a collection on hand.

For this form of ornamentation adds color and individuality to simple dresses. It's a question as to which is the prettiest, the new hand-painted techniques or these appliques, which offer endless possibilities in design arrangement.

This year, styles for children have come definitely under the Mexican spell. Take note of the dainty dress of cotton muslin shown to the right. It has a band of Mexican-inspired embroidery around the skirt, which brings into the picture vivid color drama.

There's just as to the clever styling going on to cottons nowadays. It does not matter how simple a frock or a pinafore, it is sure to take on a clever trimming accent of some sort. A white cotton jersey frock that has a drawing neckline and waistline tied with yellow ribbon takes on a wide border effect about the skirt hemline worked with an applique of yellow cotton flowers.

Mother-and-daughter fashions are important on the fashion program. They are showing in the shops much clever twinness as the new black suspender dresses embroidered in hearts and flowers in red, white and green with long-sleeved dainty blouses. Necklines and wrists have lace-edged ruffles and drawing cloings.

Little tots look too cunning for words in the smart blouse-and-skirt dresses. One type has a skirt of red and white checked gingham with a deep border effect worked in red cross-stitch done on the white checks. The blouse is of white sheer, smocked about neckline and sleeves using red thread. Lots of gay rick-rack is also being used to trim in clever ways.

If you want to make the most of your looks, the stunning white jewelry, which is the "last word" for summer, will do just that for you. Wear white jewelry to accent your colorful prints. Frost your black dresses and suits with white plastic costume jewelry. An all-white vogue is on the way for summer and sleeveless necklaces, earrings and bracelets with your white costume makes an ideal ensemble. In the collection of white jewelry, you'll find plastic necklaces of lacy flowers that are too dainty for words. These are often matched with our bobs and bracelets. The criss for summer white is also reflected in corsage sprays with complementary earrings done in the new gardenia white, grape clusters being a favorite motif. While beads, white coral and plastic combinations are everywhere in evidence in the season's important displays of glamorous white jewelry.

Tremendous Demand For White Jewelry

Speaking in terms of the little hat that still maintains its style prestige although it must now share honors with the enormous brims that are coming into favor, milliners declare that the tiny sailor, tilted jauntily on the way for summer and sleeveless necklaces, earrings and bracelets with your white costume makes an ideal ensemble. Elect A Senator With Experience

The 27th Senatorial District will make its choice on May 23rd that will send a State Senator to Tallahassee to represent its constituency.

That man should have a working knowledge of legislative matters. He should be familiar with the needs of the district. He should have the interest of the people at heart. He should have a wide acquaintance among other legislators and state officials. He should be "in the know" when things begin to break at Tallahassee, so that his district gets its fair share of state appropriations and benefits.
